Revolt Again Hits Dominican Republic

By JOSE ESTELLA

SANTO DOMINGO, Dominican Republic (UPI) - The armed forces deposed and arrested President Juan Bosch today in a military coup proclaimed as a blow against the rise of Communism in the Dominican Republic. The revolt leaders dissolved parliament, set up a provisional government, outlawed the new constitution which Bosch rammed through the concress last Tule

The coup leaders included generals Antonio Imbert and Luis Amiama, only survivors of the group of rebels who assassinated ex-dictator Rafael L. Trujillo to start the Dominican Republic on its march to democracy after more than three decades of dictatorship.

Following up the manifesto's outlawing of the Communist party, police immediately threw a cordon around the headquarters" of the pro-Castro 14th of June

The coup was pulled off at 3 a.m. First reports indicated it was carried out without gunfire or bloodshed.

Radio Santo Domingo, the government transmitter, told people of the coup in a pre-daw announcement, saying "the corrupt and pro-Communist government of Juan Bosch has been deposed by a coup d'etat."

The city remained calm on the surface, however.

Shortly before the coup, a high government official had reported that unidentified persons had fired several bursts of machinegun fire on-the Dominican border town-of Dajabon from the Haitian

Pravda, the Soviet Communist party newspaper, said China's leadership was "striving to turn its country, cost what it may, into a nuclear power."

The editorial repeated charges made Saturday in a 15,000-word Soviet attack on Peking. They included accusations that Chinese party chief Mao Tze-tung was willing to write off one-third or one-half of the world's population in a nuclear war because "the other half would still remain but imperialism would be destroyed entirely."

Such aims, Pravda said, cannot be supported by "the military power of the socialist camp." This was seen as another reminder to the Chinese that Mos-

Takes 81/2 Years

Some persons are born alcoholics, meaning they are doomed from the time they take their first drink. They never stop drinking. But such people are in the small minority, and the alcoholic Rehabilitation Center says it takes an average of eight and onehalf years for a drinker to step up his consumption to the point where he can be medically classified as an alcoholic

The National Council on Alcoholism says there are 13 steps down the ladder to trouble: the social drink, and here is where most people stop and remain for the rest of their lives. The black out: you can't remember what drink more than your friends do and the liquor means more to you.

You continue to drink more than you mean to: the intended two drinks after work turns into six. You begin inventing excuses for drinking (a cold, fatigue etc). # Notes From

NEW YORK (UPI) - The two things that bother investment adviser James Dines about the current state of the market are the old age of the boom and the failure of the public to return to the market after the new high was made.

Wall Street

Dines wonders who the professionals will sell to if the public does not return. Nevertheless, he feels the public will return near the top, "and that will be one of our prime sell signals." Dines predicts no 1962-type of decline for the rest of the year.

Spear & Staff, Inc. remains "moderately bullish" on the intermediate course of the market. However, it notes that the recent churning action may be signaling a minor reaction - not a bad one but enough to make investors more cautions until the trend once against is firmly established.

Reynolds & Co. says the major factors now affecting the stock market are a strong economy; continued inflation; the possibility of a tax cut, and an easing of international tensions. "Combined with a strong technical situation, they provide a healthy background for the present bull market," Reynolds says.

The Florida-based Stock Profit Trends says "the general tone of the market remains strong and we expect a higher and broader market over the next thirty

'Burn Center' Saves Lives of The Hopeless

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (UPI) — Horribly burned people from all over the world come to the Surgical Research Unit at Brooke Army Medical Center looking for a miracle. Sometimes they find one.

The miracle is that the Surgical Research Unit — better known as the Burn Center — saves the lives of people who, according to statistics, have no chance.

Twenty years ago, a burn over, one-third of the body's surface was considered fatal. But patients burned over 70 per cent of their bodies have walked out of the Central walke

Recoveries such as these are rare, but they give the Burn Centers doctors, nurses and technicians hope that they can one day save a significant percentage of the patients they treat for critically severe burns.

Lt. Col. John A. Moncrief iscommanding officer of the Surgical Research unit. Lt. Col. Water E. Switzer is chief of the clinical division.

Burn victims are treated in a ward of Brooke Army Medical Center reserved for the unit.

Any member of the armed forces burned badly enough is eligible for treatment. Dependents of military personnel, retired soldiers, sailors and marines and civilian employes of the Department of Delense, burned on the job, also are eligible. Occasionally, the Center treats a civilian with no military connection.

About the time of the Korean War, the Center's researchers reached three conclusions:

—The deaths of most severely burned patients come within the first 72 hours.

—The ratio of percentage of total body surface burned to age can lead to a fair prediction of survival chances.

-Patients can be transported safely right after they are burned if treatment is adequate and continuous.

Despite the occasional miracle, so far the percentage of mortality of the severely burned has, not been really lowered, according to Burn Center researchers. Critically burned patients live longer, but the same percentage dies.

The unit pioneered the exposure method of treating burns and still uses it. Doctors do not necessarily wait for burned tissue to slough off naturally, or to be helped by enzymes and chemicals.

They sometimes removed the tissue surgically, within three or four days of the burn, to eliminate a breeding ground for bacteria.

Then they cover a patient's burn with skin grafts; his skin where possible and the skin of another person where not. The patient will not permanently accept the skin of another person, unless it is an identical twin, but the skin of another person will help keep down infection.

Eventually, the patient's burned area has to be covered with his own skin.

Col. Switzer defines a first degree burn as one that makes the skin red, like a mild sunburn. A second degree burn is a blister type burn. It could be superficial or nearly all the way through the skin. A third degree burn goes through the skin and may involve deep tissue and even bone.

Switzer notices an increase in burns by gasoline fires and by the gas in aerosol cans, even when the cans do not contain an inflammable substance.

"Everybody has a can of gasoline in his garage now," Switzer said. "It sits there like a loaded gun. People in general have no respect for gasoline.

"Aerosol cans also are a potential danger. When they contain lacquer and that sort of stuff it is worse, but even if they do not contain inflammable contents, they are still dangerous.

"Put them in an incinerator and they will blow up like a bomb."

The southern constellation Centaurus (invisible in northern lands) is rich in bright stars and clusters. The two brightest stars, Albha and Beta, are known as the Southern pointers, since they point to the Southern Cross. Alpha Centauri, third brightest star in the sky, is our nearest neighbor—but still 4.3 light years away.

Japanese Don't Follow Line Of Lease Resistance

United Press International

TOKYO (UPI) - The Japanese have borrowed a North American idea that will let them keep up with the Suzukis without actually buying anyhing.

The Suzukis (the Joneses) suddenly sprout, say, a lush new car, furniture, power boat, swimming pool and a merry-go-round for the

The Satos (the Smiths) now can bounce right back with the same -and more if they wish.

They can rent it-from Japan's first leasing firm that suddenly has emerged with a familiar slogan: "Lease it-don't buy it."

The Japan Lease International is the brainchild of Kiyoshi Ichimura, president of Ricoh Com-He has the Suzukis and Satos in mind-but his main targets are chauffeur, light a morning cigar

Far-fetched? Not in Ichimura's scheme of things.

An idea of the scope of his plans can be had by a look at these items for rent:

Living room furniture, stoves, refrigerators, room coolers, cash registers, electronic computers, cars, trucks, a helicopter, concrete mixers, cultivators, dredge boats, typewriters, bulldozers, elvators and escalators, yachts, water skis, boats, trolleys for children and jet coasters, and the complete facilities for manufacturing plants, supermarkets and bowling alleys.

He already has equipped the International Youth Center here with a bowling alley, a swimming pool, a movie theatre, a planetarium and billeting facilities for overseas travelers it will care for.

What got Ichimura into the leasing business?

A few years ago his Ricoh firm changed its administrative set-up, which meant employes had to be moved to new locations.

"We had to spend a lot of money to move their furniture," Ichimura

In his book, it would have been much simpler for an employe to move out of one rented house and its rented furniture and into another rented house and its rented

He financed his new leasing business with help from 41 Japanese business firms-auto makers, electrical and tool machine manufacturers, insurance companies - and a large leasing company in the United States.

EVER STRIVING FOR THE TOP O' TEXAS TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.
