DALLAS (Sp) — The newly-elected president of American Gas Association, Ed Parkes of Shreveport, La., will make his first speech in that capacity at the annual meeting of the Independent Petroleum Association of America here Oct. 27-29.

The AGA president is president and director of United Gas Corporation and its subsidiaries, United Gas Pipe Line Co., and Union Producing Co. He will speak at the meeting of oil and gas producers from some 40 states on Tuesday, Oct. 29.

Parkes rounds out a list of nationally prominent guest speakers on the IPAA program. Others include Texas Governor John Connally, Leslie B. Worthington, president of United States Steel Corp., and Arthur H. (Red) Motley, publisher of Parade magazine and past president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce.

More than 1,000 oil and gas producers will attend the three-day session, with some 200 participating in technical, economic and policy committee meetings beginning Oct. 24 when the IPAA Supply and Demand committee starts work on its 1964 supply and demand forecast.

Policy committees on natural gas, oil imports, tax policy, and public lands meet Sunday, Oct. 27.

Parkes and Harold Decker, who is rounding out two years as president of IPAA, will be speakers in the closing session of the IPAA program on Oct. 29.

Connally, who visited with Interior Secretary Udall in connection with the oil import program two weeks ago, and who was asked by West Central Texas producers Monday to investigate recent crude oil price reductions, will keynote the IPAA meeting in an opening address Oct. 29.

"Hot" Shivers

Shivering is nature's way of generating heat. A tiny section at the rear of the brain stimulates shivering when the body is cold and it simultaneously constricts surface blood vessels to hold body heat.

Panhandle Gets $150,000 Senior Center Building

PANHANDLE (Sp) — Construction of the $150,000 Garretson Senior Citizen Center in Panhandle is expected to be completed by the end of this year, according to H. M. Nichols, president of the board of trustees.

Construction of the center began Aug. 30. According to Nichols, the center is expected to be in operation early in 1964 and will be located on a 10-acre tract on the extreme west boundary of Panhandle. The land was donated by the late J. N. Garretson and Mrs. Garretson, Carson County pioneers.

The center, which was first suggested by Mrs. J. B. Howe of Panhandle and Mrs. Ray W. Callihan of Conway, will be built entirely by private funds.

Each donor will be an owner of the center and will be a voting member. According to Nichols, the center is not intended to be a nursing home, but a custodial home where retired senior citizens of Carson County can live in "a pleasant home-like atmosphere."

The center will have 30 rooms with allowance for future expansion. It will provide private baths, dining area, living room, kitchen, storage rooms, sun terrace and storm-proof basement.

The Garretson Senior Citizens Center board of trustees includes Nichols, president; H. H. Smith, vice-president; Mrs. Callihan, secretary; Marvin Sparks, treasurer; Mrs. Howe, Mrs. Garretson, Truitt G. Fields; Laverne Edwards, Frank Robinson, W. T. Price and J. C. Jackson.

Two-In-One Physically, Berlin is one city, but it leads a strange double life with two police forces, two fire departments, two postal and telephone systems, two kinds of currency and two types of automobile license plates. East and West Berlin schools, courts, press and radio are dissimilar, but part of the water supply is held in common and the two sections of the city use the same elevated railroad system.

New Suit Filed On Extraction of Helium From Gas

WICHITA, Kan. (UPI) — Another suit to determine royalty rights to the helium extracted from natural gas was on file yesterday in U. S. District Court.

Eighteen land owners filed the suit Thursday on behalf of a total of 15,000 gas and oil royalty owners.

Like six other suits filed in Kansas and four in Oklahoma in recent months, the petition seeks payment for helium in addition to gas and oil.

The prime source of helium, now important in the missile age, is the gas from the huge Hugoton field, which extends from the southwest corner of Kansas into the Oklahoma and Texas Panhandles.

Second Election Set at Canadian

CANADIAN (Sp) — A second election on a $200,000 bond issue proposal for remodeling the Hemphill County Courthouse will be submitted to a vote on Tuesday, November 9. The issue was defeated by a 16-vote margin in light voting a month ago.

At the regular session of the Commissioners Court Monday, a petition was presented, bearing the signatures of 150 county taxpayers, asking that another election be called for this purpose.

Unique Traffic Sentence Meted Out to Student

SAN MARCOS, Tex. (UPI) — William Hobson, a Southwest Texas State College senior, had his college career intact today thanks to a unique sentence on a misdemeanor traffic charge.

Hobson was fined $1 by city court Judge Kenneth Sutton and ordered to write 10,000 times:

"One moment of carelessness almost cost me my college career."

The sentence was recommended by 12 other college students who acted as an "advisory jury" for Sutton. Hobson was charged after failure to obey a traffic officer and striking officer W. T. Mcardle with his car following a recent football game. Mcardle was not seriously injured and has returned to duty.

Sutton said the case was a "very important one" since it was the first in which he used the student advisory jury. If it is successful, he plans to use it in the future.

Hobson has the remainder of the school year in which to finish the 10,000 handwritten sentences which must be notarized.

DENIES INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Justice Department denied Thursday that it was investigating Victor Lasky, author of a best-selling book critical of President Kennedy.

The denial was made in response to a request by Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, R-N.Y., asking whether the Immigration Service, an arm of the department, was investigating Lasky, who wrote "J.F.K.: The Man and the Myth." Keating said he made the inquiry at Lasky's request.

Mme. Nhu's 'Pop' Hopes She Will 'Cut the Comedy'

LINCOLN, Neb. (UPI)—Dr. Tran Van Chuong, father of South Viet Nam's Mme. Ngo Dinh Nhu, said Saturday he does not intend to meet with her "until she is sincere and stops playing comedy."

Chuong, here to address an Asian Affairs Conference at the University of Nebraska, said his chief concern is "the affairs of my country" and not the utterances or activities of his daughter, who is touring the United States.

Chong, who resigned his ambassadorship from South Viet Nam to the U.S. last August, said the present South Viet Nam government has "alienated the people."

"Victory is impossible under the present regime," he said. Asked if American reporters were accurately reflecting conditions in his country, Chuong said:

"I pay tribute to your reporters. They are doing a wonderful job under trying conditions... it is completely untrue that these are frustrated newsmen. They are doing a good job."

One of New U.S. Astronauts Is Wheeler Native

WHEELER (Sp) — Navy Lt. Alan L. Bean, 31, of Jacksonville, Fla., who was born in Wheeler, was one of the 14 new astronauts introduced Friday in Houston. For Lt. Bean, this is not the first time he has been the center of attention.

He was born March 15, 1932. Dr. H. E. Nicholson of Wheeler, who delivered the space man, remembers Baby Bean well.

"He was born with two teeth, and everyone in Wheeler wanted to see the baby with two teeth," the physician said.

Bean's stay in Wheeler was a short one. The family moved to Georgetown about a month after he was born.

Bean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold H. Bean now live in Fort Worth where the astronaut's father is employed by the Soil Conservation Service.

Lt. Bean called his parents Friday to tell of his appointment to the NASA program.

"We're very, very proud," the older Bean said. "It is a wonderful accomplishment."

Astronaut Bean attended high school in Fort Worth and is a graduate of the University of Texas. He went into the Navy immediately after graduation in 1955.

He, his wife and two children are living at Jacksonville, Fla.

Home Is Expected To Announce His British Cabinet

By CHARLES W. RIDLEY
United Press International
LONDON (UPI)—Lord Home accepted Queen Elizabeth's mandate Saturday to become prime minister. He immediately said he would renounce his 348-year old Scottish peerage and told the nation he would give it a stunt-free, "straight talking" government.

Informed sources said he had reached a truce with his Conservative party opponents but that no announcement of his cabinet could be expected before today. They said the former foreign secretary wants to announce the cabinet lineup in a "tidy package."

There were reports he would seek a postponement of the Oct. 29 reconvening of Parliament so he could seek election in the House of Commons. Labor leader Harold Wilson said Saturday night that Home's belief he would be elected was an "impertinence."

It was clear that Home's career as prime minister would not be easy sailing. Many Conservative party leaders were disgruntled because Harold Macmillan "dictated" the choice of successor. Labor was confident of a victory over what the pro-Labor Daily Mirror called "brand X" leadership.

MACMILLAN'S CHOICE — British Foreign Secretary Lord Home has been asked by Queen Elizabeth II to form a new government to replace that of resigned Prime Minister Harold Macmillan. Macmillan recommended Home to the Queen when she visited him in the hospital. (NEA TELEPHOTO)

Attorney Wants Rest of His Fee In Divorce Action

HOUSTON (UPI)—A millionaire that attorney J. Edwin Smith helped get the largest divorce settlement on record owes him $225,000 in lawyers' fees, Smith has told a civil district court jury.

Smith wants Mrs. Cecil (Titi) Blaffer Hudson to finish paying him the $300,000 he asked for getting her a $6 million settlement from her oilman husband last February.

He said she paid him only $45,000. Smith said another lawyer, Percy Foreman, got his full fee for the work he performed in the settlement.

No Relief Seen In Drought Areas

By United Press International
Woodlands in six drought-stricken Eastern states were closed to the public today.

Water supplies across the Midlands dwindled to the danger point and forest fires in New York state were at the "explosive" stage.

No relief was in sight. Light showers fell across parts of the Midwest Thursday but did little to break the weeks-long drought which has turned forests and fields into tinder boxes.

College Researchers Ask Attention to Work Problem

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (UPI)—Three college researchers said today attention must be given to the problems of displaced workers to avoid building up of an anti-change attitude in the American work force.

The University of Michigan faculty members said job displacement because of technological change is becoming one of the "most significant and troublesome issues in the labor-management area."

Their work, "The Impact of Technological Change: The American Experience," was published today by the W. E. Upjohn Institute for Employment Research here. The researchers are Dean William Haber, Louis A. Ferman and James R. Hudson.

They noted automation and similar technologies are extending rapidly beyond manufacturing activities. The American society, they said, was not built for stability and its growth and strength depends on change.

Haber, dean of the college of literature, science and arts, said the problem of job displacement is not new. Automation is only the latest and most modern manifestation of technological change. He said displacement because of change has been under study for the past 30 years and the study is an attempt to distill what has been learned in past research.

Renewed Racial Strife Is Feared

By United Press International
The public endorsement of Martin Luther King Jr. as leader of Birmingham's Negro integrationist element appeared today to increase the threat of renewed racial demonstrations in the Alabama city.

A letter saying the Negro community was "proud to endorse and support the leadership" of King and the Rev. Fred Shuttlesworth was signed by more than 100 Negro leaders Thursday and sent to Birmingham Mayor Albert Boutwell, who had dismissed the two as "outside agitators."

During 1962, 1,761 daily newspapers in the United States enjoyed a combined circulation of 60 million copies daily.

THREE MEN ON A SPACE WORKHORSE—Three men are at work somewhere in this picture. Can you find them? When you do, you'll have a good idea of the size of the giant S-I booster stage of the Saturn I space vehicle being built by Chrysler at the new Michoud facility in New Orleans. The three technicians are checking the maze of tubing involved in the fuel supply and control of the eight rocket engines. When completed the S-I will have 7,500 feet of tubing in 1,200 parts, 50 miles of wire in 24,000 parts, 245 valves, nine tanks and eight engines. Where are the three men? One is poking his head out of the center opening, one is standing on a strut just to the left and the third is entangled in some tubing just above and to the right of the first two.

Homecoming Set Next Week End On WTSU Campus

CANYON (Spl) — A two-day schedule of events for West Texas State University students and former students has been completed for the annual Homecoming celebration here Oct. 25-26, according to Dr. Jack Walker, speech professor and chairman of WTSU's Homecoming Committee.

West Texas State students will observe Western Day Friday, preceding the "day of the old grad," with the annual Homecoming assembly at 11 a.m. highlighting activities of the day. A western dance starting at 7 p.m. in the Student Union Building will be climaxed by a bonfire and pep rally at 11 p.m. Friday.

The assembly, which serves as both a pep rally and a medium to invite exes back to the campus, will be video taped by KGNC-TV in Amarillo and rebroadcast at 1:30 p.m.

A dance Friday at 8:30 p.m. at the Holiday Inn West in Amarillo will be open to all WTSU former students, with special invitations going to members of the Classes of 1952-56. Admission will be $5 a couple, and music will be furnished by Jan Garber and his orchestra.

Members of the Phoenix Club, a new organization of exes giving financial support to the Ex-Students Association, will meet for a dinner Friday at 7 p.m. in the new east dining hall on the WTSU campus. They will hear an address by Gen. Hans Christofferson, Danish military advisor to NATO.

Saturday's events open with registration of exes and visitors starting at 8:30 a.m. in the Student Union Building and continuing through 5 p.m.

The silver anniversary reunion of the Class of 1938 is slated to start at 8:30 a.m. in the formal lounge of the Fine Arts Building, and the class will visit there until 12:30 p.m., when members will have luncheon in the Blue Room of the west dining hall.

Club and organization reunions, smokers and teas are scheduled from 1 until 3 p.m., and a business meeting of the Ex-Students Association will be held at 2 p.m. in the Fine Arts Building auditorium. A new slate of officers will be elected.

A customary attraction of Homecoming, the parade featuring bands, riding clubs, and floats, is scheduled to march around the square of downtown Canyon and along Fourth Avenue back to the campus, starting at 3:30 p.m. A barbecue will be served immediately following the parade.

Following the football game between the Buffaloes and the University of Arizona Wildcats, two dances will be held in the Student Union Building.

Cattle on Feed In Texas Show 50 Pct. Increase

AUSTIN (UPI)—The number of cattle on feed in Texas jumped 50 per cent in the last three months, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service said today.

The service said the increase is largely seasonal and will continue an upward trend until the first of the year. Another factor, the service said, is that Texas stockmen have been rapidly expanding fall and winter feeding operations the past few years.

There were 402,000 head of cattle and calves on feed for slaughter on Oct. 1 compared with 268,000 on July 1 and 325,000 on Oct. 1 last year.

A vast majority of the cattle on feed were in feedlots of more than 1,000 capacity. Only 40,000 head were on feed in smaller lots.

Steers accounted for 47 per cent of the cattle on feed and heifers 52 per cent. Seventy-six per cent of the cattle had been on feed less than 90 days.

Cattle of weights less than 500 pounds accounted for 35 per cent of the total; 36 per cent weighed 500-695 pounds and 20 per cent weighed 700-899.

Feedlot operators reported intentions to market 200,000 head between Oct. 1 and Dec. 1, 14 per cent more than were marketed during the same quarter last year.

Santa Fe Puts In New Gates

CANADIAN (Spl) — Crossing gates and warning lights now guard two in-town crossings of the Santa Fe's multi-track rail yards and the third crossing, on North Kingman, has been closed to traffic.

The automatic safety system was put into operation last Tuesday at the grade crossings on Purcell street, near the City power plant, on Elliott Street and the third crossing inside the city was temporarily barricaded at the same time. The Kingman street crossing will be permanently closed.

Peace Officers Attend Barbecue

CANADIAN (Spl) — Canadian peace officers, including city police, sheriff's department and Game Commission officers, were hosts to officers and their families from neighboring counties at an antelope barbecue Thursday afternoon at City Park.

The antelope was provided by Game Warden P. D. Moseley, and Bestway Market joined the local officers as hosts in the affair, providing part of the food served.

Officers and their wives from Pampa, Perryton, Lipscomb county, Roberts County and Wheeler County were guests.

Four Pampa Life Insurance Men Make Round Table

It has been announced in Austin that four life underwriters of the Pampa area have qualified for the Texas Leaders Round Table, an honor group of leading life insurance agents of Texas sponsored by the Texas Association of Life Underwriters.

Out of over 40,000 licensed underwriters in Texas only 480 were able to fulfil the rigid requirements for membership in 1963.

The names of the local agents who qualified for the Texas Leaders Round Table are: Joe D. Cree, Vernon L. Hall, Joslin H. Hopkins and Weldon W. Lewis.

This honor organization completed its first quarter of a century in 1961. Prestige has become almost synonymous with Texas Leaders Round Table as the "cream of the crop" of Texas life insurance underwriters has been increasing in size and importance with each year, according to Johnny Wright of Tyler, president of the TLRT.

DECORATOR'S DILEMMA

The wealth of colors available in ceramic tile made in the United States sometimes bewilders. When you're torn between one or more generally appealing color combinations in which ceramic tile is involved, get some advice from a professional. A telephone check with "tile contractors — ceramic" in your vicinity, for example, will disclose which colors their current stocks include, which are available from distributors and which may require ordering from the factory.

Twentieth Century Allegro Hears Program on 'Building of America'

Mrs. John W. Cundith and Mrs. R. A. Johnson were hostesses for a recent meeting of Twentieth Century Allegro.

Following a social hour, the business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Will Graham, president. The club litany was said and roll call read.

Mrs. LeRoy Ogden presented the program, "Building of America" in line with the theme for the year, "American Heritage." She stated that the first study of the year, in her opinion should deal with the basic beliefs and fundamental structures of our country.

She gave a brief history of pre-revolutionary America and some of the problems and pitfalls of attempted communal living. "The keystone of success in building our country has approved to be God and God's pattern for mankind," she stated.

"From this has come forth the greater constitution ever written by man with its main points of freedom of worship, free press, free speech, the right to assemble, to petition for grievance, privacy of home, habeas corpus, trial by jury, the right to travel freely and right of franchise.

Upon this foundation of political rights is built our economic heritage with the rights to own property, bargain collectively, work where we choose, to go into business, risking capital in an enterprise of production, or service as we feel fit," she continued.

Mrs. Ogden pointed out that economies have proved fallible where the individual is refused the right to exhibit his own ability.

During the business meeting, the minutes and treasury report were read and an informal coffee, to be held Oct. 23 in the home of Mrs. Curt Beck, was planned. The club project of helping worthy students was approved for another year. Plans for a brunch during the holiday season were made.

Members present were: Mmes. Curt Beck, R. H. Cory, J. W. Cundith, Will Graham, John H. Horn II, R. A. Johnson, Jack Miller, LeRoy Ogden, J. R. Reeve and Charles Walsh Jr.

Scouting Scoops

By NANCY HOLT
Senior Troop 5

Hi, Scouts! How was your summer? If it was like mine it was too short! Well a new way school has started again and it is time to get back into the so-called groove.

Girl Scout troops have started holding their first meetings of the year and planning their year's activities. To get things started a Field Day was held last Saturday, at Camp Mel Davis. It had been planned last spring by the Senior Planning Board, and was sponsored by the Senior troops on the Planning Board. It was for all troops who had girls from the sixth grade up.

The Field Day began at 10 a.m. when troops began to arrive. Upon arriving, each troop was registered by Senior Troop 38. Here each girl signed up for the individual and group competitions she wished to enter. There were four contests which a girl could enter — knot-tying, and trail signs, which individual contests, and flag folding, and fire building which were entered in groups of four.

After registration, all the girls were divided into groups of nine and ten with an adult over each group.

This was for the first contest in which all girls participated. Senior Troop 151 from Borger and Phillips took charge of this contest. Each group was given thirty minutes before lunch to get organized and to decide who would do what.

In this contest each group had to set up a tent, build a fire and boil water, and lash hand washing facilities within forty-five minutes. The groups were judged on correctness, neatness, and co-operation. Then they were given fifteen minutes to tear it all down and put the camp site back as they found it.

After this contest there, was a thirty minute coke break where everyone visited and sang songs. Short skits prepared by several of the troops were also given at this time.

Following the coke break, the knot-tying, trail sign, fire building, and flag folding contests were held of which Senior Troop 5 had charge.

In the knot-tying contest each girl was required to tie five knots correctly, and in the trail sign contest each girl had to draw five trail signs correctly.

For the flag folding and fire building the girls competed in groups of four. In flag folding the girls were required to stand and fold a flag correctly within a reasonable amount of time. In fire building the girls had to clear a six feet circle, build a basic "A" fire, make a wood pile, and set up a tool rack within thirty minutes. Again the girls were graded on correctness, neatness, and co-operation.

At the end of the day, after the contests were over, everyone assembled at the camp lodge and awards were presented by Senior Troop 38 to the winners in each contest.

Each of the nine girls who won the unit contest received a flashlight.

The next prize was given to Donna Mariner who won the

The "Cool Cats" decor was carried throughout the party including the Pinata, designed, made and decorated by Mrs. Ted Everhart.

Teen Ager refreshments were served to: Mmes. Eugene D. Bentley, John C. Bird, Lynn Bybee, Carl B. Caldwell, Ted Everhart, Buster Higdon, E. W. Hogan, Jack L. Hunter, Lonnie R. Johnson, Ralph F. Ludwig, James H. Lewis, James G. Malcolm, R. S. Marlar Jr., Boyde Maule, J. M. Messinger, W. R. Pairsh, Bruce L. Parker, Kenneth Royse, Jake C. Webb, Albert F. Weber, and Buck Worley.

'Woman's World' Theme Expressed

Twelve members of Twentieth Century Cotillion attended a recent meeting of the club at the home of Mrs. W. D. Price Jr., 1806 Fir.

Mrs. Frank M. Carter was in charge of the program, using the topic, "Heaven in My Hands" which dealt with woman's role in the family relationship; and marked the beginning of the study theme for the year, "Woman's World".

"A happy family relationship, between husband and wife; parents and children, and brothers and sisters, is a heavenly, lovely thing. And we, as wives and mothers, hold this relationship in our hands", Mrs. Carter said.

Mrs. Carter emphasized that a woman's main responsibility and privilege is giving gifts of the heart, the mind, and the spirit. She reinforced her remarks with selections from Gibra's, "The Prophet", and "He's Nothing But A Little Boy."

Mrs. Carter concluded with her definition of a successful woman. "She gives her family a devoted wife and mother, her community a good woman, and her country a loyal citizen."

Fifty Year Spree of Furniture Buying Ends On Public Sale Block

By GREGORY JENSEN
United Press International
LONDON (UPI)—Like most of us, the late Rene Fribourg set out as a young man to furnish his house.

Like some of us, he chose furnishings from a single historical period.

Like a few of us, he had the money to buy anything his impeccable taste demanded.

But like practically no one else Fribourg collected house furnishings worth millions of dollars. Just how many millions we will know soon.

For the furniture, pictures and bric-a-brac which Fribourg crammed into his house on New York's East 84th Street are on public sale here. So far they have brought nearly two million dollars. And the best is yet to come.

The last four sections of Fribourg's massive collection will be sold over a five-day span later this month — four sales which should hit the fine-art world like the blows of a trip hammer. By the time they finish, Fribourg's house furnishings should rank as the most valuable private collection ever sold.

The first three segments of Fribourg's furnishings, auctioned earlier this year, sold for $1,423,752. That figure would be more than doubled by the time the final hammer falls on the 817th Fribourg item Oct. 18.

Further Sales
Even the "Magnificent Seven" series of sales won't complete the whole of the Fribourg collection. A spokesman for Sotheby's, the art auction house where the collection is being dispersed, said more than 100 other Fribourg items will "spill over" into several further sales.

These extra items—jade, porcelain, old master drawings and others—will be scattered throughout Sotheby's miscellaneous sales until Nov. 15.

"Sale of the most important Fribourg items will finish with some furniture to be sold Oct. 25," the spokesman said.

The items sold so far were largely the less valuable parts of this staggering collection.

A sale of porcelain June brought a world record total of $506,660. Experts said the remaining porcelain, to be sold Oct. 15, is of higher quality.

The first half of Fribourg's furniture brought $906,628 on June 28. The second half, going on the block Oct. 18, has twice as many items, including things like Napoleon's wedding bed.

Paintings which lined the walls of Fribourg's mansion brought $408,464 on June 26. His drawings will be sold Oct. 16, probably for less money—but the balance will more than be made up by the first of the four remaining sales Oct. 14, one devoted almost entirely to gold snuff boxes.

One remarkable fact about this astonishing series of sales is that there is not a single "big" item in them. Fribourg owned no $2 million Rembrandts, no million-dollar impressionists. The highest single price of the collection so far has been a comparatively modest $78,400 for a small secretaire.

The explanation for this paradox lies in the period Fribourg chose to collect and the taste and skill with which he collected it.

Fribourg, born in Antwerp, Belgium, to a family whose grain business (The Continental Grain Company of New York) became one of the world's three largest, was captivated by 18th century France.

"I love Louis XV and Louis XVI things," he once said. "I was born with that love in my soul."

This was the "Age of Elegance," a period which produced some of the most beautiful furniture and objects d'art the world has ever known. Fribourg brought to them a connoisseur's skeptical eye for ceramics, furniture, paintings and his beloved snuff boxes. He backed his judgment with his fortune. He stalked the best things in the world through the gentle jungles of the art world. When they came up for sale, he bought them.

Crammed Mansion
He bought them steadily for half a century. Everything he bought he crammed into a turn-of-the-century New York mansion. He was still buying at his death last January at the age of 83.

Fribourg never wanted his collection preserved — it was too personal for that. His will specified that it should be sold at auction. And one of Rene Fribourg's final regrets was that he wouldn't be around to watch the sale-room fun.

"This," he said shortly before he died, "will be a notable sale—the biggest of the century." It may well be.

CHECK YOUR BUILDER

When taking a tour through a model home, don't accept everything you see. Check your builder on the possibility of certain changes, of upgrading materials used. For instance, if kitchen surfaces are not done with ceramic tile, inquire about the cost of a tiled kitchen. It will make "all the difference." Most builders today permit and even welcome customer-requested changes.

Lamar PTA Will Sponsor Annual 'Fun Nite' Activities and Play

Plans for the annual "Fun Nite" were made during a recent meeting of the Lamar PTA.

"Fun Nite" activities include a play, "Teacher's Pet" which will be cast by parents of Lamar students. Room visitation will be held before the first performance at 7 p.m. on Oct. 24. The second performance will be held at 8 p.m. A menu of coffee, pie and milk will be offered in the cafeteria. Admission will be 35 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. N. L. Nicholl. The pledge to the Flag was led by Brownie Troop No. 37 and the leader, Mrs. Delbert Daniels. Rev. John Dyer, pastor of the Hobart Street Baptist Church led the invocation and gave the devotional.

Reports of standing committees were read and approved.

Delegates named to attend the workshop in Wellington were Mrs. Joe Page, Ted Lewis, Casey Brown, and Lawrence Paronto.

Mrs. Paronto introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Samuel Moot, representative of the Pampa Garden Club.

Her program theme, "Beauty in Our Homes" was carried out by four floral arrangements.

Room Count was won by the second grade class of Mrs. G. M. Walls. Mrs. Roy Franke was presented with a floral arrangement, designed by Mrs. Moot, as door prize winner.

The next meeting will be held Nov. 14 at the school.

Paramount Terrace Garden Club Will Hold Annual Show

Theme for the show is "Arts and Flowers." Five artistic design classes open to members of Paramount Terrace Garden Club are entitled Drama, Literature, Music, Art and Sculpture. Invitations have been extended to other Amarillo Garden Clubs to interpret the theme of the show. Horticulture featuring chrysanths will be featured in picture boxes.

Tea Honors Past Presidents

Past presidents of the American Business Women's Association were honored Sunday by a tea held at Lovett Memorial Library.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Clyde Melton, Clemen Herd, Glenn Ritter and James Quarry, past presidents, and Miss Maxine Nabors, current president.

Others were the "Woman of the Year, 1963, Mrs. Bill Wright; Mrs. Clemen Herd, 1961; Mrs. Ed Wylie, 1962.

Special guests of the club were Lou Trojan and Hugh Peeples, "Boss of the Year" winners in 1961 and 1962. Wallace Bruce, "Boss of the Year" in 1963, was unable to attend.

Mrs. Francis Bradley, chairman of the arrangement committee, Mrs. Kenneth Butler, Mrs. Ed Wylie and Mrs. Tony Smith were in charge of invitations and arrangements for the tea.

Mrs. O. G. Smith and Mrs. Neal Britnell registered the guests. Presiding at the silver tea service was Mrs. Lillie Walton and Mrs. G. W. Vance.

The serving table was covered with white lace over pink and centered with a floral arrangement of pink camellias.

The Pampa Charter Chapter of the American Business Women's Association was organized in May, 1960 with Mrs. Clyde Melton, now of Lubbock, serving as the group's first president. She served ten months before being transferred. Her term was completed by Mrs. Clemen Herd who was elected as president in 1961. Other charter members recognized were Mrs. James Quarry, Ed Wylie, Kenneth Butler and Miss Maxine Nabors.

Honorable recognition was given to Mrs. Butler for a perfect record of attendance, and her work in introducing new members to ABWA. She has sponsored 11 new members, and has been admitted to the "inner circle" where each person is awarded a diamond guard to attach to the ABWA pin. She has sponsored more new members than any other member of Pampa Charter Chapter of ABWA.

The program was presented by pupils of Tracy D. Carey, Miss Susan Patrick, Miss Cynthia Rasco, and Miss Perri Armstrong.

Miss Armstrong entertained with vocal selections, accompanied by Carey. The program was completed by a piano duet by Misses Patrick and Rasco, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Patrick Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Rasco. Miss Armstrong is the granddaughter of Mrs. Wylie.

A congratulatory telegram from H. A. Bufton Jr., founder of ABWA was read. Unable to attend the tea, he stated his extreme pleasure of the progress of the Pampa chapter.

Mrs. Francis Bradley acted as mistress of ceremonies. Refreshments of hot spiced tea, coffee, tea cakes, mixed nuts, and mints were served to the members and guests.

Attending, other than already mentioned, were Mrs. Tommy Johnson, Pete Shaw, Earl W. Sutton, K. E. Rasco, Lou Troja, Luke Fennell, Hugh Peeples, Ruby Dorrell, Dora Thomasson and Helen Graham.

SAVING STEPS

Think thrice before locating laundry appliances in the basement. If you put them elsewhere you may save many a burdensome climb-hauling the family clothing and linen up and down a flight of steps. If space can be found in the kitchen, laundry can be done without sacrificing time for supervising children and for doing marketing and cleaning chores. Kitchens also are ideal locations for laundry areas, because their floors often are surfaced with ceramic tile, a waterproof material that will survive even the brutal abuse a laundry area gets.

Dear Kathy

By KATHY PETERSON

Dear Kathy: I am 16 and date a few different boys. All of them are crazy about the movies, especially crime plots, westerns and war stories. This means I can be asked to see the same one three or four times. Often, I just go ahead and make believe I haven't seen it.

How can I beg off these movie dates without hurting the boy? I've tried a simple "no," but then I lose the date. —Beary-Eyed

Dear Beary-Eyed: Boys have always loved adventure stories and dodged romances but they're really slipping if they make a girl play second fiddle to a movie.

A date should mean he wants to enjoy your company for the evening. Where you go should be secondary.

Dear Abby... Is It Love Or A Dead-End Road?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a Catholic girl who has been going with a Jewish boy for over two years. We met on the street one day when I asked him for directions. I am 24 and he is 29. He says he loves me, but he'd never marry me as long as his mother is living. I have never met his mother, but he says she is a very intelligent woman, but extremely religious. In fact, her brother is a rabbi. My problem is that his mother is in very good health and she is not old, either. I really love this fellow, Abby, and I'd give anything to marry him, except give up my religion. Do you see any future for us?

place, a "careful" girl wouldn't go out with a man about whom she knew so little. But if she finds herself in that situation, she should come right out and ask if he is married. Tact has nothing to do with it.

Calvary Baptist Elects Officers

The Winnie White Training Circle of the Calvary Baptist Church W.M.U. met with Mrs. C. M. McGahen, 605 Bradley Dr. for an organizational and fellowship meeting recently. Mrs. Albert Phillips opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. C. W. McGahen gave a short devotion. Mrs. Myrel Looper led in the missionaries' call to prayer. A short business meeting was held with the following officers elected: Mrs. treasurer; Mrs. Myrel Looper; program chairman; Mrs. James Jennings, community missions chairman; and Mrs. Ray Lake, prayer chairman. Mrs. Jack Robertson closed the meeting with prayer, after which, a short period of fellowship was held by the seven attending members.

ENGAGED: It's your wedding, not your sister's. Use the stereo and don't let your sister needle you about it.

DEAR ABBY: When a man asks you for a date, is there any tactful way to ask him if he is married or not?

CAREFUL: In the first

HOPING: I would hate to ask you what you are "hoping" for. Don't invest any more time in this man. You may "love" each other. But not enough.

DEAR ABBY: I am going to be married soon. The organ at our church is very old - and I don't have a very good tone. I would like to have a stereo record player set up in the church and go down the aisle to that. My sister says it is a stupid idea. I want my wedding to be something beautiful to remember, and not marred by poor organ music. Is my idea too out of the ordinary? Or do you think it would work?

Garden

(Continued From Page 18) anthems will be exhibited in a Parisian sidewalk cafe setting. Educational exhibits have been arranged by the Panhandle Audubon Society and the Bluebirds of the Campfire Girls. Another added attraction will be an art exhibit by Mr. Clarence Maynard, an Amarillo artist. Featured in his collection will be his interpretative paintings in realistic art. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Proceeds from ticket sales go into fund for civic beautification and extra projects the organization adopts for community service. Current project is development of flower gardens in north end of Fleetwood Park at 34th and Fleetwood Streets.

Program on Guatemala Presented During Civic Culture Club Meet

Mrs. Louise Sewell was hostess for a recent meeting of the Civic Culture Club.

Mrs. K. A. Sorenson, president, was in charge of the meeting, and reported on the board meeting and workshop held in Canyon recently. Plans were made to entertain the Senior Citizens Oct.-17.

Mrs. J. B. Townsend was in charge of the program which followed the theme of "Hold High the Light of Literacy," entitled, "Why Care - Guatemala".

She highlighted the dire needs of Guatemala in the fields of economics and education.

She stated that Guatemala has one of the highest illiteracy rates in Latin America, (70 - 75 per cent). They frankly acknowledge this and are striving to remedy the situation. There are only 11 radios per thousand people, and six daily newspapers with circulation over 83,000 for a total population of 3,652,000.

Seventy-five per cent of the population earns its way by the land and yet, wheat, vegetables and meat has to be imported. They cannot produce their most important diet item, corn, in sufficient amounts to support the consumers because their archaic methods of cultivation do not uphold the potential of the soil.

CARE, in cooperation with GFWC has, through experts, and mission chiefs, done a great deal to aid the country's dilemmas by directly aiding the areas of the country that are most in need.

There are 2,250 new schools being built in 425 communities with the individuals contributing much of the raw material and labor, aided by outstanding assistance from GRWC and CARE. Adult programs are also being held.

Members attending were Mrs. H. S. Alexander, Carl Axelson, Irvin Cole, R. E. Dauer, F. R. Grantham, A. D. Hills, W. J. Morris, George Neef, Emmett Osborne, C. F. Pennington, K. A. Sorenson, Louise Sewell, J. B. Townsend and Katie Vincent.

Miss Inez Nora Flannery, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Flannery of Pierre, S.D. announce the engagement of their daughter, Inez Nora, to Jerome J. Weinheimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Weinheimer of Groom. Miss Flannery is a 1959 graduate of Pierre High School and has attended the Universities of South Dakota and North Dakota. Her fiancé is a graduate of Pampa High School and is presently engaged in farming and ranching near Onida, S.D. No wedding date has been set.

Baby in Joey Bishop's Show Is TV Wife's Child

By Dick West
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The youngest actor in a continuing series on television is four-month-old Matthew Smith, who plays the part of a baby on the Joey Bishop show.

"If you have ever seen this program you have probably said to yourself 'that kid is one fine actor. Real Emmy Award stuff.'"

The truth is, however, that he is only half acting.

When he is playing the part of Joey Bishop's son he is acting. But when he is playing the part of Joey Bishop's wife's son he is not acting.

This is because the part of Joey Bishop's wife is played by Abby Dalton, who is the baby's real mother.

Miss Dalton, or Mrs. Smith, was here on a promotion tour this week and I asked her if using her own baby on the show came under the heading of "type casting."

Miss Dalton replied that she recommended her baby for the part because it was a good way to handle the home movie problem.

She has made arrangements for the studio to let her have a print of all of the film in which the baby appears, including the footage not actually used on the show.

This gives her better home movies than she would be able to make herself.

A lot of parents might not relish the idea of having Joey Bishop lurking in the background of their baby's baby pictures, but Miss Dalton said she didn't mind.

Another advantage of using her own baby is that his aunts and uncles in other parts of the country can watch his development merely by tuning in the program.

On the days that the script calls for a shot of the baby, he is taken to the Department of Education in Los Angeles for a physical examination.

If found in good health, he receives a work permit that is valid for two hours. However, he may not be photographed for more than 20 seconds at a time. A welfare worker holds a stopwatch to make certain he doesn't work overtime.

The baby is not a member of the actors' union, but he does have a Social Security card.

I asked Miss Dalton if he took direction well and she said that thus far he has been able to utilize his talents to the fullest.

"In the first scene he was sleeping, which he does very well," she said. "In the next scene he was crying, which he does second best."

New Books on Shelves At Public Library

New books on the shelves of Lovett Memorial Library this week are:

Whittaker's Wife — by Harry Bloom; combines superb storytelling with a first hand knowledge of the African scene; the descriptions give a fresh authenticity to this novel.

Cortez And Marina — by Edson Marshall; a sweeping biographical novel of the live and loves of Hernando Cortez and the conquest of Mexico.

Does It Make Into A Bed? — by Lorna Novak; a hilarious novel about a small town deep in the heart of Texas suddenly invaded by a one-woman culture crusade.

Upon This Rock — by Frank G. Slaughter; the author recreates the life of Simon Peter, the simple, yet complex, fisherman who became Prince of the Apostles.

Dr. Scott, Surgeon On Call — by Elizabeth Seifert; behind the walls of a great hospital, a drama is played out between the young resident in neuro-surgery and a beautiful nurse.

The Player On The Other Side — by Ellery Queen; the first novel in five years starring Ellery Queen himself; the masterful detective tracks down a criminal who systematically murders a family.

One Hour To Kill — by George Harmon Cox; Dave Wallace had come to Trinidad to forget the past and his estranged wife. But when she follows him to the island and dies of strangulation, Dave becomes the primary suspect.

TR — by Noel F. Busch; a heart warming biography of the man who changed the pattern of our political and social thinking in this century is an absorbing account of the turbulent times through which T. R. lived.

The Harmonious World Of Johann Kepler — by Sidney Rosen; a biography of the man who was the most brilliant astronomer-mathematician of his time, the sixteenth and early seventeenth centuries.

Stranger To The Ground — by Richard Bach; takes the reader into the cockpit of an F-84F Thunderstreak parked on a cold, windswept runway in England; then, with remarkable clarity, through all the complex steps of take-off into a dark, storm-tossed sky.

My Brother Bill — by John Faulkner; John Faulkner's memories of his Nobel Prize-winning brother, William, as a boy, growing up in the environment of their family, friends and town of Oxford, Miss., which influenced him as a man and writer.

Fifty Years On The Trail — by Harrington O'Reilly; describes the adventures of John Young Nelson, a mountain man whose nine lives enabled him to survive prairie fires, Indian massacres, Mormon avenging angels, and at least nine Sioux wives.

The Common Market Today And Tomorrow — by Michael Shanks and John Lambert; an introduction to both the structure of the Common Market and its implications for the future.

Astronaut Forced To Abandon His Air Force Career

HOUSTON (UPI) — Maj. Donald K. (Deke) Slayton, 39, whose "grossly irregular" heartbeat made him the only original U.S. Mercury astronaut never to make a space flight, has given up his Air Force career.

He will continue with the national space agency as a civilian.

"Maj. Slayton feels that in a civilian capacity, he can better carry out his supervisory activities," a spokesman for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) said.

Slayton said in his letter of resignation from the Air Force that he felt that as a civilian, he can participate in selection of flight crews without the possibility of appearance of partiality towards any one branch of the service.

He asked that the resignation be made effective Nov. 20, giving proper time for processing of his records. Slayton will then be appointed a civilian astronaut and coordinator of astronaut affairs through civil service.

He will be the third civilian astronaut among America's first 16 chosen for space. The others are former civilian test pilots Neil Armstrong Jr. and Elliot S.

"Being a civilian gives Slayton a sense of permanency," the NASA spokesman said. "It means that he will not just be assigned here as an Air Force officer, but will be here with us permanently."

SECOND GENERATION—Robert Walker, left, son of Jennifer Jones and the late Robert Walker, is caught in a scene with Larry Hagman, son of Mary Martin, in a new film, "Ensign Pulver." Walker and Hagman are typical of a wave of stars' offspring invading Hollywood.

TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

The Pampa News is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessing. Only when man is free to control himself and all he produces, can he develop to his utmost capabilities.

We believe that freedom is a gift from God and not a political grant from government. Freedom is neither license nor anarchy. It is control and sovereignty of oneself, no more, no less. It is thus consistent with the Human Relations Commandments, the Golden Rule and the Declaration of Independence.

Voters' Lack of Interest

We see where President Kennedy soon (Nov. 30) will receive a report on why there is no great interest in voting in the United States. According to United Press International, the President's Commission on Registration and Voting Participation is now drafting its report.

It seems that President Kennedy and his predecessor, Dwight Eisenhower, were concerned that only 65 per cent of the electorate voted in 1960 and 43 per cent voted in 1962. This is in contrast with the 99.95 per cent turnout in the totalitarian one-party Soviet Union last year, 90 per cent in Italy and 80 per cent averages reported in Britain, Austria and West Germany.

It seems the commission has discovered that the greatest percentage of non-voters is in the 21 to 30 age bracket.

Among other things, the tax-financed commission is speculating that maybe the best day to hold an election would be on a Sunday or a holiday, when more folks are likely to be off work.

Well, we doubt if the political commission has come up with anything worthwhile in its tax-financed study. We could point out that the young folk in their 20s are usually in the process of starting their families and they probably think what they are doing is more important than deciding whether one set of politicians or another is going to have the authority to rob them.

And as for a Sunday or a holiday as a voting day, we'll venture a guess that the pleasure-seeking public would "head for the hills" on the holiday and the politicians would find a real abundance of the polls.

Some of the stay-at-homes no doubt are among those who have become convinced that there is virtually no choice between candidates of the two major political parties. Some of these are attempting to breathe life into new parties. Others are trying to change their own parties. But others have adopted a "so what?" attitude toward the whole balloting process.

And we suspect the political "wise men" have not even considered that there is a growing feeling among a segment of the population that political action will not solve human problems. There are even those who contend that the very act of voting gives the politicians some sort of sanction. Remember the slogan, "No matter how you vote, be sure to vote." It's the height of stupidity, as a growing number of persons are beginning to realize.

The fact that the politics are upset by the fact that voters are staying away from the polls in great numbers seems to indicate that those who refuse to vote at all may have something on their side.

Wonder what would happen if nobody voted? It's an interesting thought.

Success
 Success isn't built on luck. But if a person has the strong qualities of life: ambition, attention to detail, perseverance, loyalty, integrity, thrift, and patience, you can count on it that others will tell you just how lucky he is.

Oil and Governments

The world, to date, has consumed 140 billion barrels of petroleum. And by far the greater part of this unimaginable flood of oil was discovered, produced, processed and brought to market by private, nonpolitical, international and highly competitive oil companies.

This was said by the head of a great American oil company which operates throughout the Free World — and to the enormous benefit of the whole oil-hungry Free World. And he made another point of the utmost importance — that the interests of governments and the interests of a basic industry such as oil are generally in harmony rather than being opposed. In his words, "Peace, security and higher living standards for the people are important to both. The legitimate needs of governments, whether producing or consuming — for revenue, foreign exchange, assurance of supplies, technical training of citizens, development of the oil industry for the national economy — all these needs have proved time and again to be better attainable by cooperation with the international oil industry than by efforts to dominate or displace it."

Going on, he said that oil has no cause to fear competition from the new energy sources that are developing — that the world's total energy sources are so great that these new sources will unquestionably supplement petroleum, not displace it. The applications of petroleum are enormous and growing every day, in such fields as synthetic rubber, synthetic textiles, fertilizers, chemicals, and so on. This is so throughout the world, and it is vital that American leadership in this area be maintained.

Pull Up A Chair

Scientists are a zany lot, much given to laughing at themselves and others, when they are not figuring what goes on in outer space. That's the conclusion we drew from reading a new book, "A Stress Analysis of a Strapless Gown and Other Essays for a Scientific Age," published by Prentice-Hall. It's hilarious and was compiled by a group of eminent scientists, who have worked on every thing from the atom bomb to medical research. Offbeat, but don't miss it.

Memory Lane: Remember Walter Winchell's Sunday night radio programs when Broadway's Boswell skipped from one scoop to another in radio's fastest 14 minutes. His staccato, machine-gun-like delivery, left him and his audience breathless. Today's newscasters, in the Murrow style, sound like bank clerks. Winchell was a phenomenon, who could make the opening of an orange drink stand sound like a four-alarm fire.

Breath Of Revolt

Allen-Scott Report
 President Considering Armed Intervention in Venezuela If Military Stages Coup—to Prevent Chain Reaction

WASHINGTON — A military coup in oil-rich, Communist-threatened Venezuela will be immediately countered by armed U.S. intervention.

Unlike Honduras and the Dominican Republic, where U.S. reaction against the recent coups consisted of withdrawing its ambassadors and cutting off economic and military aid, armed forces would be rushed to Venezuela to restore constitutional government.

President Kennedy has definitely decided on that, as so informed the State and Defense Departments and leaders of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

President Romulo Betancourt also has been told of this momentous decision. He is ready to formally request U.S. intervention in the event of the overthrow of his long-embattled regime.

In preparation for possible recourse to U.S. troops, the administration already has set the wheels in motion to get Senate backing for such explosive action.

For this purpose a bipartisan anti-junta resolution has been sponsored by Senator Wayne Morse, D-Ore., head of the Foreign Relations subcommittee on Latin America, and Senator Jacob Javits, R-N.Y. The proposal calls for three measures to counter military coups:

(1) "Denial of diplomatic recognition," (2) "cancellation of U.S. assistance programs to regimes established by military juntas," (3) "authorize the President to cooperate with and assist any nation or group of nations in the protection of its territorial integrity and political independence from aggression or subversion by any nation or from any source controlled by international Communism."

The last provision is the most significant and far-reaching. It opens the way for armed intervention by the U.S.

That is the view of Senate Democratic Whip Hubert Humphrey, Minn., who favors such forceful action in Venezuela in behalf of President Betancourt. Governor Munoz-Marín of Puerto Rico also strongly advocates it.

WHAT'S BEHIND IT — President Kennedy made his decision to intervene militarily in Venezuela because of three compelling factors:

Urgent intelligence and diplomatic warnings that Venezuelan military leaders are prepared to seize control and depose Betancourt because of growing fears of a Communist uprising led by Castro agents. Betancourt's term expires at the end of this year following a national election in December. Under vigorous military prodding he has finally cracked down on Castro terrorists. The military are demanding still more drastic measures and Betancourt, who has a leftist background, is on the spot.

A military coup in Venezuela would almost certainly lead to similar governmental overthrows in Brazil, Colombia and El Salvador. In each of these countries, powerful military elements are increasingly restive over the growing infiltration and strength of Communists in the existing governments. All these governments are definitely threatened by military takeovers. A coup in Venezuela could touch off a chain reaction.

A barrage of caustic criticism by Democratic senators charging the administration with lacking a cohesive and sound policy in Latin America, and assailing the bungling Alliance for Progress. Senators Morse and Ernest Gruening, D-Alaska, in repeated blasts asserted that more coups would mean the total disintegration of the Alliance — on which some $2 billion already has been spent.

Another factor is the President's personal high regard for Betancourt. At a meeting this week of the National Security Council, top policy-making agency of the government, the President declared his firm determination to do everything possible to enable Betancourt to last out his term and to hold a free election for a successor.

"I consider the Betancourt government the best in Latin America," said the President. "He has held out against tremendous odds and provocations, and we cannot stand idly by and permit him to be destroyed just as he is winding up. He deserves a better fate than that, and I propose to see to it that he gets it. Whatever it takes, I'm ready to do."

Governor Munoz-Marín has been vigorously encouraging the President in that stand. The veteran Puerto Rican leader, who has given refuge to deposed Dominican President Juan Bosch, has had a number of telephone conferences with the President on the explosive Latin American situation.

Munoz-Marín is strongly advocating armed U.S. intervention against military coups.

That is also being urged by Costa Rica's Foreign Minister Daniel Oduber, close friend of Betancourt. Attending the meeting of the UN General Assembly, Oduber is quoted as saying, "A constitutional president has the right to ask for outside military help when anything threatens hemispheric peace. That is clearly stated in the Treaty of Rio de Janeiro. Free governments must stop coups by either the military or the Communists."

In one of Senator Morse's critical speeches, he portrayed the Alliance for Progress as follows:

"The Alliance for Progress program is irreconcilable with dictatorship. The Alliance for Progress program is irreconcilable with military juntas. The Alliance for Progress program is irreconcilable with aiding at any time dictatorial regimes that have destroyed democratic

BERRY'S WORLD

"Here's that letter about the slowness of Congress, Senator. Senator? . . . Senator!"

fact

Before the Revolutionary War, New York City was regarded as the focal point of rebellion against the British crown. The Stamp Act congress was convened there, and the resistance of the newly formed Sons of Liberty and the merchants forced the repeal of the act. And New York had its own "tea party" — dumping 16 cases of British tea into the harbor there in April 1774.
