MRS. SETH B. BOLLMAN in Herford Brand—When this issue, The Brand embarks upon its 34th year of service in Herford. The paper first saw the light of day on Feb. 23, 1901. It was then the Herford Reporter and was operated by F. L. Vanderburg. The name was changed to The Brand in 1903.

JIMMIE GILLETTE in Wellington Leader—It has always been an outstanding fact that just when a man reaches his prime, he slows down. If old persons, who are undoubtedly the smartest and most intelligent persons—despite the fact that many of their grandchildren think them old-fashioned—could only live 20 years past their present dying period, there is absolutely no end to the possibilities of the things that could be accomplished in the world.

D. A. DAVIS in McLean News—I want to know how I can pay 33 1-3 per cent increased house rent, 26 per cent increase on groceries and dry goods, on a salary which was decreased 33 1-3 per cent two years ago and is still decreased. And how can my company increase my salary while its earnings have decreased 40 per cent as a result of the cotton pie-up program? (Then he quotes this column on rents.)

T. A. LANDERS in McLean News—Voters will get good returns from their investment in a poll tax this year, and it is either pay during this month and have a part in the elections, or be left on the outside to gripe and not be able to do anything about it.

APPOINTMENT APPROVED BY RIVAL CHOICE

GOVERNMENT CONTROL OVER LIGHT PLANTS STILL RETAINED

HAVANA, Jan. 15. (AP)—Carlos Hevia, secretary of agriculture, was named president of Cuba today. His appointment was made by the revolutionary Junta—the leaders of the revolutionary government which placed Ramon Grau San Martin in power some time ago. Grau San Martin tendered his resignation last night. Carlos Mendietta, nationalist leader, was regarded as another possible choice for president and the Junta remained deadlocked nearly 24 hours over the selection of the new chief executive of the nation. Mendietta approved Hevia's appointment. A well-informed government official said Mendietta, former congressman and soldier, had the advantage, because he was supported by "Batista and his Bayonets." Col. Fulgencio Batista is commander of the army. Menwhile, picked machine-guns remained on guard about the American-owned Cuban Electric company plants as the government retained its control over the concern after a violent strike by employees. Under a hastily prepared decree signed by President Grau, the government took charge of the $100,000,000 property early Sunday when all power and gas facilities for a large part of the island were cut off. Shortly before the announcement was made that Cuba had a new president, the troops at Camp Columbia suddenly were assembled and four 3-inch field pieces were mounted at strategic places. An expectant but undemonstrative crowd of several hundred persons gathered at the presidential palace and throngs of curious also gathered at the naval headquarters where sandbag barricades had been erected.

Borger Cagers Will Play Here Tomorrow Eve

Borger's Bulldog basketball team made a better showing against the Athens tourists but did the Harvesters by scoring 36 points against the champs, whereas the Pampa boys chalked up only 19 points. This would seem to indicate that the Harvesters will have trouble when the Bulldogs tomorrow night when the Borgans, both boys and girls, come here for games. The tilt will not be just a mere practice game, because it is a regular class A conference game. Pampa has played only one game in the conference and lost it—to Amarillo. The Sandies who gave Borger a sound whipping recently, will play here Friday night. The Harvesters almost "got to them" last week and they are planning a nice, sweet revenge on the local court. Captain Marbaugh will be back in the lineup at center tomorrow night. The girls' game will start at 7:30 o'clock, and the boys' game will follow.

Childress Taxi Driver Robbed

CHILDRESS, Jan. 15. (AP)—Police today sought three unidentified men who robbed Johnny Spears, Childress taxi driver, of his cab last night and later were reported to have robbed a woman man, kidnaping him and a friend but releasing them near Frederick, Okla., early today. Upon answering a call to a filling station, Spears was ordered to take the men to a camp where suitcases were loaded into the car. Twenty dollars the men found while searching Spears for a weapon was untouched, the man saying they had "plenty of money." South of Childress the men drove away, keeping Spears covered with either a shotgun or submachine gun.

Last Fugitive

The "last roundup" for the 11 persons indicted for the Kansas City union station massacre is centered on Richard T. Galatas, above, Hot Springs, Ark., gangster, only one of the group not arrested or slain. Galatas has a record of arrests as a confidence man and a desperado extending back to 1923. He is charged with a determined search for months.

PERHAPS MOODY MAY TRY TO BE NEXT GOVERNOR

Maybe He'll Run And On Prohibition Ticket!

AUSTIN, Jan. 15. (AP)—Who will be the next governor of Texas? Former Governor Dan Moody is asking. The young Taylor man who climbed the ladder to fame so readily after he became attorney general really seems to be interested in Texas politics again. He had dropped out somewhat in recent months—busy with practice of the law. Former Governor Moody always did like to hob-nob with the newspaper men. When he was chief executive for four years he made frequent trips to the press room in a spirit of comradeship. He always expressed himself frankly before the reporters and they replied in kind. They never did quote him and he never violated any of their free and easy confidences. The same thing is true now. He has not been around much of late but he is showing signs of renewed life. Moody came in and had plenty to say to the reporters. It was good stuff and would have made excellent copy. But, when he pulled himself out of the chair and bowed a match to relight his cigar he cautioned the writers to not "quote me." "The Associated Press wouldn't carry that," he said, when certain comment he made was brought to his attention as "good copy." "Governor, we'll bet you a hat if you will let us put that story on the wire it not only will be used by Associated Press newspapers, but that it will earn first page position," he was told. "Nope, can't let that go out," he replied as he plugged his hat over one eye and strode out of the press room. It was a good story and would have made interesting reading. Who will Dan Moody be for? The reporters have not been able to get his choice. Maybe he will run himself—on the prohibition ticket!

Wheat Gains 4 Cents a Bushel

CHICAGO, Jan. 15. (AP)—Both before and after President Roosevelt's monetary message to congress today, gain values showed a buoyant upward trend, with dealings on a large scale. Wheat scored a maximum gain of more than 4 cents a bushel, and corn more than one cent. September wheat outdid the season's high price record. Aside from the president's message, a new advance in gold prices set by the United States treasury had an independent stimulating effect on grains. A reduction of 3,217,000 bushels in the United States wheat visible supply brought the total down to the lowest point since June. Mrs. F. C. Knight of Groom visited here Saturday.

Neff Suspends 3 Baylor Girls

WACO, Jan. 15. (AP)—President Pat Neff announced at chapel today that three co-eds had been indefinitely suspended for conduct unbecoming a student at Baylor university. Neff said the dismissals raised to 50 the number of students asked to leave Baylor in the last two months. However, all but 11 went home for failing to make their grades. The three girls named were sent home Friday, another was suspended some days ago and seven boys were reprimanded and ordered out of chapel and were suspended two months ago. Felix Urbanczyk of White Deer transacted business in Pampa Saturday.

APPEAL FROM RECENT ORDER WILL BE MADE

FALLEN OPERATOR TO STAY IN CUSTODY NEAR TORONTO

TORONTO, Jan. 15. (AP)—Martin J. Insull, former Chicago utilities operator, was jailed today when Justice Charles Garrow in weekly chambers court, denied a motion to free him from custody. Previously he had been at liberty on $10,000 bail. Insull now stands under order of extradition to Cook county, Illinois, to face trial on charges of larceny and embezzlement involving losses growing out of the collapse of mid-west utilities. It was indicated that Insull would make a further fight against a return to Chicago, appealing next from the extradition order issued last fall by Justice A. C. Kingston. Insull has been living at Orilla, Ont., 80 miles north of Toronto for the last eighteen months. He is free on bail of $10,000.

Houston Pastors Condemn 'La Vie Paree' Road Show

HOUSTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—Twenty-five Methodist ministers of the Houston district today voted unanimously to join Catholic pastors in an effort to stop presentation of the Marcus show, "La Vie Paree," Wednesday night here. Dr. Glenn Flinn, presiding elder of the Houston district, was named chairman of a committee to act on the matter.

Alice Wynkoop Goes To Court In Wheel Chair

CRIMINAL COURTS BUILDING, Chicago, Jan. 15. (AP)—Assistant state's Attorney Charles S. Dougherty today gave a dramatic recital of the circumstances surrounding the operating table death of Rheta Wynkoop and asked a jury to send her 62-year-old mother-in-law, Dr. Alice L. Wynkoop, to the electric chair. She should be permitted to enter the courtroom on a wheel chair, during the absence of the jury, and then be transferred to a chair at the counsel's table. It was further agreed that her daughter, Dr. Catherine, be permitted to sit at her side and attend her during the duration of the trial.

SELF-DEFENSE PLEA INDICATED BY SLAYER HERE, WHO IS UNDER $1,500 BOND FOLLOWING SHOOTING

Murph Smith Partly Paralyzed But Good Shot

W. M. (Murph) Smith was charged with the fatal shooting of J. M. Holloway, 38, and released on $1,500 bail bond Sunday after he had pleaded not guilty through his attorney, John Sturgeon, and waived preliminary hearing. Smith, who is partially paralyzed, was said to have been sitting or reclining on his bed at his home on South Hobart street when he shot Holloway near Saturday midnight. He is well known to local peace officers by reason of their investigations of liquor violations. A self-defense plea is expected to be made in behalf of Smith, who claims that Holloway had said he was "going to clean out this joint," before he left Smith's home. When Holloway shortly returned, he was met at the doorway by a shotgun charge which struck him in the chest, killing him instantly. A son accompanied him to the Smith home at that time of the shooting.

Gold Price Raised 30 Cents

Individuals in the United States but not including federal reserve banks. In setting a gold price at $34.45 for newly mined domestic metal, the treasury did not indicate whether this would be paid by the treasury itself or the R. F. C., since the corporation was not mentioned in the order, it was assumed to be the treasury price. A formal announcement of the new move was promised for later in the day. The deduction of one quarter of 1 per cent would make the metal worth to the miner approximately $34.36, or 30 cents above the price of $34.06 which the RFC has maintained for 21 business days. Earlier it had become known that RFC gold purchases abroad approximate $97,000,000, of which some $40,000,000 has been bought since January 1. The effect of the new treasury gold price is further to cheapen the dollar's value and was assumed preliminary to devaluation by the president after congress has extended the authority sought in a special message today.

PITHY POINTS IN F. D. R.'S MESSAGE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—Important phrases from President Roosevelt's message to congress on money: "The time has come for a more certain determination of gold value of the American dollar. The president is authorized by present legislation to fix the lower limit of permissible reevaluation at 50 per cent. I recommend to the congress that it fix the upper limit of permissible reevaluation at 60 per cent." "It is a prudent step to vest in the government of a nation the title to and possession of all monetary gold within its boundaries and to keep that gold in the form of bullion rather than coin." "By making clear that we are establishing permanent metallic reserves in the possession and ownership of the federal government, we can organize a currency system which will be both sound and adequate." "The issuance and control of the medium of exchange which we call 'money' is a high prerogative of government." "We hope that despite present world confusion events are leading to some future form of general agreement. The recent London agreement in regard to silver was a step, though only a step, in this direction." "The free circulation of gold coins is unnecessary, leads to hoarding and tends to a possible weakening of national financial structures in times of emergency. The transfer of gold in bulk is essential only for the payment of international trade balances."

Two Vernon Men Kidnaped, Robbed Near Frederick

FREDERICK, Okla., Jan. 15. (AP)—After being robbed and taken for a wild ride of 50 miles by four highwaymen, M. D. McCurley, a Vernon, Tex., cafe proprietor, and a customer, M. S. Williams, also of Vernon, were released unharmed ten miles east of Frederick last night. The victims were forced to enter two automobiles, one of which the robbers told them was stolen in Childress, Tex. The robbers escaped and officers had found no trace of them this morning. The two cars passed through Oklahoma, Tex.; Davidson and Frederick, Okla. At Deep Red Creek, the highwaymen stopped to change license plates. The victim said the pair had a large assortment of auto tags from various states. McCurley and Williams were released when the tag was replaced. They telephoned to Frederick officers and the sheriff sent deputies to bring the Texans to the city. Descriptions of the robbers were meagre.

Doye Arnold's Jury Dismissed

HASKELL, Jan. 15. (AP)—Failure of jurors to agree resulted today in a mistrial of the case of Doye Arnold, 30, ex-convict accused of murder for the slaying of his former wife, Zelma. After having the case under consideration for some 36 hours, the jurors reported to the court that they were deadlocked, 11 of them favoring assessment of the death penalty and one wishing to sentence Arnold to 99 years imprisonment. This was Arnold's second trial on the charge. He was given a death sentence at his first trial but the sentence was reversed by an appellate court and the case was remanded for trial. Testimony showed that the woman was stabbed and then beaten with a stone when she encountered her former husband on a Breckinridge street in September, 1932, and told him she had obtained a divorce while he was serving a prison term for automobile theft. Arnold's defense was a plea of insanity. The state claimed he was of sound mind.

PLANS TO CUT GOLD CONTENT 40 PER CENT

ASKS MONETARY GOLD BE RETURNED TO GOVERNMENT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15. (AP)—President Roosevelt asked congress today to nationalize the country's gold supply and give him authority to regulate a flexible dollar with a maximum cut in its gold content of 60 per cent. Withholding temporarily the fixing of a permanent price of the dollar, now at about 63 cents on the basis of the price of gold today, the president indicated the ultimate range of the dollar would be between 50 and 40 cents of the present statutory gold value. In a special message, he asked that the power to carry through his managed currency program be explicitly authorized. His message made clear the intention to proceed with "commodity dollar" plans, envisioning a flexible dollar ranging—as compared with the present statutory gold content—at between 50 and 60 cents. Democratic leaders in congress quickly predicted he would get the legislation sought, despite opposition both from the republican ranks and within his own party. The president's words were in part: "Because of world uncertainties, I do not believe it desirable in the public interest that an exact value be now fixed. The president is authorized by present legislation to fix the lower limit of permissible reevaluation at 50 per cent. Careful study leads me to believe that any reevaluation at more than 60 per cent of the present statutory value would not be in the public interest. I, therefore, recommend to the congress that it fix the upper limit of permissible reevaluation at 60 per cent." Many questions asked to many questions, the meaning not being considered clear by many. In a special press conference, the president gave his explanation of the wider powers sought. Devaluation of the dollar by 50 per cent would mean a profit to the government of approximately $3,600,000,000 in the dollar price of the gold to be taken over by the treasury from the federal reserve system under the proposed program. The president recommended that from this profit a two billion dollar fund be set up in the treasury for the purchase and sale of gold in the foreign exchange and the purchase of government securities. In other words, he would create a stabilization fund. The presidential message also recognized silver as a basic medium of exchange and urged a greatly

PROTEST UNBECOMING TO WALL STREET

There are a whole lot of what the boys call angles to this business of heavy spending by the federal government. One of them was touched upon the other day by a certain congressman, who went to New York to dine with some friends who are prominent in Wall Street.

At the dinner the Wall Street men expressed their fear of overlarge government bond issue for public works; in fact, they said flatly that if any more money were appropriated for public works, Wall Street simply would refuse to buy the bonds.

The congressman, according to a Washington correspondent, answered them like this: "Well, just remember this. Over the period of the boom years you floated millions upon millions of bonds of foreign nations. You probably never heard of those countries before you sold their bonds, and I'll bet you couldn't find them on the map now."

"You sold those bonds to little investors and banks all over the country. Maybe $25,000,000,000 worth of them. The money was for public works in those countries—in South America, in Europe, in Asia, in Lord knows what other unheard-of places."

"That money came, in some instances, from banks in American towns that needed, but couldn't buy, public works of their own. They've lost a lot of money now. Lost it paying for public works everywhere else on the globe."

"So far as I'm concerned, we're going to have as much as $25,000,000,000 worth of public works here, if we need it—public works right here at home, paid for with our own money. And we can pay for it, too, whether you guys ever buy another government bond or not."

Allowing for rhetorical exaggeration in the congressman's figure of 25 billion, it is obvious that he has touched on an angle worth thinking of. A few years ago any kind of bond was a good one—Insull bonds, Kreuger bonds, Straus bonds, South American bonds, and heaven knows what else.

For the bankers who floated those insecure securities in an unending flood to protest now that we could not assimilate an issue of our own government's bonds, but out to buy substantial and enduring improvements for the American people—well, as the congressman felt, it's just a little bit too much.

F. D. R. Issues 3 Money Orders

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—President Roosevelt today issued three executive orders revising the government's regulation over foreign exchange transactions and extending the license policy to individuals as well as to banks.

A brief explanatory statement of the lengthy orders given out at the White House said: "Taken together, the orders established substantially the same regulation of foreign exchange as was established in the executive order of March 10, 1933, but instead of applying only to banks which were licensed under the executive order of March 10, they apply to all persons dealing in foreign exchange."

JEALOUSY CAUSES KILLING PARIS, Tex., Jan. 15. (AP)—Jealousy over Miss Estelle Isom's refusal to keep company with him was blamed today for the shooting in which Calorene Proffitt killed the 18-year-old farm girl and then committed suicide. Miss Isom was one of a party of about ten young persons attending a party at the home of W. R. Bills Saturday night in Reno community, five miles east of Paris. Proffitt, 38-year-old farmer, invaded the home and started shooting at Miss Isom.

WISE SPENDING IS TAUGHT IN THRIFT WEEK

STARTS FEBRUARY 17, BIRTHDAY OF FRANKLIN

BY MRS. J. M. CRAIN, Claude, State Publicity Director Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers.

NATIONAL thrift week, opening on January 17, the anniversary of the birth of Benjamin Franklin, emphasizes this year that sound management of personal finances which Franklin practiced and which he advocated in his writings.

"The objective of thrift education is to teach the child true values of wise saving, careful spending and generous sharing," avers Mrs. Sidney Gilmore, Sonora, state chairman of thrift for Texas congress of parents and teachers.

Wise spending is quite in line with the purpose of the NRA in promoting the "Buy Now" campaign. For the individual to buy what he needs or can enjoy at a fair price is wise spending.

Saving Aids Spending. Experience shows that the persons who can best maintain spending at all times are those who save something systematically. The savers of today constitute that majority of spenders of tomorrow. Saving is safer today than ever before because the new laws regarding the insurance of bank deposits, the safeguarding of investments, and the regulation of financial corporations, make it easier for the average man to select a proper custodian for his savings and afford better protection for savings when invested or deposited.

Generous sharing is a principle particularly pertinent now. Since unemployment has been so prevalent for the last two years, not only is it an opportunity to help in the relief of the unfortunate, and also in the maintenance of the educational, social work, and philanthropic agencies which minister to the needs of the people, but this opportunity has become a duty devolving upon all who have something to share.

Budget Method Best. A wise method of personal money management is based upon a planned budget, maintaining the proper relationship in regard to spending, saving, and sharing. "Make such a budget and then stick to it," is the counsel of the national thrift committee to every person who wishes to make progress pertaining to comfort and happiness. The national congress of parents and teachers, together with 39 other national organizations, is stressing this counsel.

McLEAN P-T. A. WILL SPONSOR SCOUT TROOPS

Week - End Parties Are Enjoyed By Groups

McLEAN, Jan. 15.—Under the supervision of the primary teachers, Mrs. Mary Silar, Mrs. John Harris, Miss Frances Noel, Miss Isabel Bailey, and Miss Pearl Simmons, the music teacher, Mrs. Willie Boyett, and Prof. Robert C. Davidson, primary children of the grade school gave a very interesting program at the Parent-Teacher association on Thursday evening in the high school auditorium.

Mrs. J. W. Butler, president, presided over a very important business meeting after the program. Mrs. Mary Silar resigned as publicity chairman and T. A. Landers was elected to that position. The organization voted to sponsor the Boy Scout movement in the grade school since the Lions had taken charge of the Scouts in high school. The Girl Scout movement was approved by the body and Mrs. A. A. Tampe approved as captain of the Girl Scouts. The association voted to buy warm-up suits for the high school basketball girls' team.

Miss Frances Noel's room was awarded the cash prize for having most parents present. The next meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be in the high school auditorium Friday evening, January 26, at which time the intermediate department of the grade school will have charge of the program.

Boys Lose, Girls Tie LeFors. Friday evening at LeFors the McLean Tigers lost a hard fought basketball game to the LeFors Pirates. The girls' game was the more thrilling for it was a tie, with a score of 26 to 26.

Panhandle girls and boys will come to McLean Tuesday evening for a double header in the local gymnasium, and LeFors will be here for her return game Friday evening of this week.

Mrs. John Cooper is in Worley hospital, Pampa, where she is recovering nicely following a major operation, which was performed on Thursday.

Mrs. King Honors Daughter. Honoring her little daughter, and is again co-operating in the observance of national thrift week. Suggested daily watch words, beginning January 17 and continuing through January 23, are diligence, prudence, foresight, comfort, sympathy, responsibility, and duty.

JOHN GILBERT AND 4TH WIFE ARE SEPARATED

Actor Appeared With Greta Garbo In 'Christina'

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 15. (AP)—The fourth marriage of John Gilbert apparently is headed the way of the other three.

Titan-haired Virginia Bruce, whom he married August 10, 1932, was making her home with her parents today. She said she and the actor had been unable to agree and so had separated.

Divorce is not in their thoughts for the present, said the wife of the screen lover, herself an actress until she married Gilbert and foresook her career. Divorce severed Gilbert's union with his other actress wives—Olivia Burwell, Leatrice Joy, and Ina Claire.

Gilbert had nothing to say, explaining that his wife would do the talking.

Miss Bruce described him as a fine man from whom she was parting without hard feelings. She said when they found themselves in disagreement they decided it would be best for her to live with her parents for awhile, thinking things over.

"There may be a divorce and there may be a reconciliation," she said.

The couple's five-months-old daughter, Susan Ann, is with her mother.

Gilbert married Miss Bruce shortly after his divorce from Ina Claire became final. Miss Claire had said Gilbert told her she was too intellectual for him. When he married Miss Bruce he gave his age as 35 and she said she was 21.

Doctors Give Creosote for Chest Colds For many years our best doctors have prescribed creosote in some form for coughs, colds, and bronchitis, knowing how dangerous it is to let them hang on.

Creosolium with creosote and six other highly important medicinal elements, quickly and effectively stops coughs and colds that otherwise might lead to serious trouble.

Creosolium is powerful in the treatment of colds and coughs, yet it is absolutely harmless and is pleasant and easy to take.

Your own druggist guarantees Creosolium by refunding your money if you are not relieved after taking Creosolium as directed. Beware the cough or cold that hangs on. Always keep Creosolium on hand for instant use. (Adv.-A)

It means something

..that Chesterfield has a modern up-to-date Tobacco Factory in far-off historic Smyrna

So important is the handling of Turkish tobacco in making Chesterfield cigarettes that Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., maintains this specially equipped plant right in the heart of the famous Smyrna tobacco section. It is the largest and most modern tobacco factory in the Near East.

Turkish tobacco, you know, is the best "seasoning" there is for cigarettes. At all times Chesterfield has in storage—at this plant and in America—about 350,000 bales of the right kinds of Turkish tobacco.

U. S. MARINES LAND IN REBEL CHINESE CITY

TO PROTECT AMERICAN PROPERTY AND LIVES

FOOCHOW, China, Jan. 15 (AP)—United States marines landed here today to protect American lives and property in disorders accompanying the evacuation of this fallen rebel capital by the retreating 19th route army.

At the request of Gordon Burke, vice consul in charge of the United States consular district, a naval party came ashore from the American gunboat Tulsa and immediately went on guard in the quarter.

The Tulsa has been standing by since nationalistic troops began their drive southward down the Min river valley north of Foochow to put down the secessionist movement in Fukien province.

Early today, two nationalist machine guns were fired by a leaderless rebel band. Further disorders developed since opposing Chinese factions.

Shortly after the Americans were ordered ashore, however, the nationalist marines were withdrawn to their vessel in an apparent attempt by Admiral Chen Hsiao-Kwan to relieve the grave situation.

With the arrival of the 10,000-ton British cruiser Berwick, a dash from Hong Kong was believed to have lessened considerably the danger to Foochow's foreign population.

Already on hand offering protection to their nationals when the United States sailors came ashore were 30 British sailors and 40 Japanese marines and sailors.

The United States naval landing party at Foochow consisted of 30 marines—the same number as was sent ashore by the British. Burke said he considered the force aboard the Tulsa adequate to safeguard Americans and that he did not intend to ask for further naval aid.

After the withdrawal of the nationalist marines, General Tsai Ting-Kai, commander of the 19th route army, and Admiral Chen planned a conference immediately attempting to prevent further violence.

PAMPA MOTOR COMPANY SHOWS 1934 PONTIAC—A BIGGER AND MUCH REFINED AUTOMOBILE

The new Pontiac straight eight for 1934 larger, heavier, faster, and more powerful than before, went on display yesterday at the Pampa Motor company, local dealers. It presents important motor refinements which improve fuel economy by 10 per cent. In addition, it offers radical improvements in riding comfort and ease of control.

The new motor, developing 84 brake horsepower—an increase of 7 horsepower over the previous Pontiac—accelerates with silent, split-second pickup and attains an effortless road speed well above 80 miles per hour.

Pontiac's startling improvement in riding comfort, especially for rear seat passengers, is attributable largely to the independent "knee" suspension of the front wheels. Increase in wheelbase to 117 1/2 inches, increase in car weight to 3,480 pounds for the 4-door sedan, increase to 6 inches in the diameter of the rib-tread tires, and use of longer, roomier, Fisher bodies, rubber-mounted on a new type, 270-pound, "K-X" box girder of tremendous strength and rigidity, are other factors contributing toward Pontiac's new riding comfort.

Ends Road Shock.

The new type of front end springing permits marked security of steering control and abolishes "telegraphed" road shock. With the new Pontiac principle, each front wheel is attached to one end of a heavy crankshaft or "knee." The other end of the "knee" pivots into a massive sealed housing where its movements are controlled by extremely powerful dual coil springs and by two-way hydraulic shock absorbers. In steering, the entire assembly of wheel, "knee" and spring housing swivels as a unit about a king pin by which the assembly is attached to a short, heavy "dead axle" securely bolted to the frame.

This rigid mounting holds the front wheels in unvarying relation to the chassis. With the wheel-"knee" spring assembly rigidly attached to the frame, it became possible to employ "softer" front springs. As a result, with front and rear springs of approximately equal resiliency, the conventional "pitching" tendency caused by unequal front and rear spring reaction has disappeared and the car maintains a horizontal plane as it rises and descends over road irregularities.

Weight is Shifted.

Elimination of the conventional front axle results also in a 60 per cent reduction in ultimate weight. Pontiac's unsprung weight now is reduced to 100 pounds per front wheel.

Completely sealed in the steel housings, the dual springs and the two-way shock absorbers operate in permanent bath of shock absorber oil which automatically lubricates all internal working parts and maintains indefinitely their car functioning. Infrequent inspection of the oil level in the housings is the only attention required.

A new feature is this new device that the Pontiac, even in deep gravel and on rough roads, gives the driver a sensation of steering on rails. Ease of steering is immeasurably increased, due to the fact that road shock is 100 per cent absorbed before it can reach the steering wheel and all steering movement is on roller bearings.

Brakes Are Improved.

Big Bendix brakes, translating light pedal effort into powerful equalized braking force, add further to Pontiac's driving safety. The design is extremely simple and rugged. Two brake shoes in each of the four dirt and weather proof drums are actuated through a heavy cross shaft by four braided steel cables any one of which is capable of sustaining a load of 2000 lbs. The cables slide in lubricated flexible metal conduits. The emergency brake lever operates all four of the service brakes. Pontiac meets the rigorous brake test required by French traffic authorities. In this test the car is driven at 20 miles per hour with a hack saw to simulate complete brake failure of this important unit. It then is required that the car still retain sufficient braking power to stop within a reasonable distance. After being subjected to this test, the Pontiac still has four brakes still respond to the foot brake pedal and the right front and rear to the emergency hand lever.

So completely smooth is the new straight eight motor, assert the engineers, that the road speed of 80 miles per hour is attained in one mile speed without developing the slightest trace of vibration. In early tests of the 1934 car, this smoothness proved so deceptive that drivers found themselves inadvertently going into the turn at speeds from 10 to 15 miles higher than usual.

EXPANSION HAS JUST STARTED, SAYS SPEAKER

BIRTH CONTROL CITED AS ONLY CURE FOR OVER-POPULATION

WASHINGTON, Jan. 14 (AP)—A prediction that Japan, because of a growing population, will seize new territory in the far east was made today by Warren S. Thompson of the Scripps foundation for research in population problems before a gathering of birth control advocates here.

In an address prepared for delivery before the American conference on birth control and national recovery, Thompson named parts of the Philippines and British Dutch colonies in the western Pacific as likely Jap goals.

Thompson, who is on the faculty of Miami university, likewise named Italy and Germany as possible trouble spots due to a need for territorial expansion.

"Even though war may result in an easing of population pressure in some lands for a while," he said, "its benefits can be only temporary as measured by the life of nations. The ultimate solution of overpopulation must be found in man's control of his numbers, not in seizing larger resources."

Japan's "seizure of Manchuria was well timed," he asserted, but added that "it seems highly probable that the expansion of the Japanese empire has only begun."

JULIUS MEETS A LADY

CHICAGO—Always a bashful soul when it comes to speaking to strange women in street cars, Julius Siegal, partner in a woman's apparel shop, nevertheless spoke to one and this is what he said:

"Lady, where did you get that coat?"

The woman glared and Julius' face got red, but he managed to explain that the coat looked like one of 300 men from his shop during a burglary.

But she was kind enough to explain where she bought it and a detective squad raided the place, removed the stock to the detective bureau, where Julius busied himself picking out the articles he charged were stolen.

TOO SINFUL IN 1906, DANCE IS NOW TOO TAME

Music Critics Bored By Dance of Seven Veils

By DALE HARRISON

NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (AP)—There was some artistic potter around town today over Mme. Goeta Ljungberg's dance of the seven veils.

When the Metropolitan Opera house did "Salome" during the reign of the first Roosevelt in 1906 the dance shocked some of the censorious right out from under their diamond tiaras. The opera was promptly retired from circulation and the Metropolitan boards once more rattled to the orthodox dancing of "Martha's" merry villagers, and sigh.

Much music has passed over the violin bridge in the intervening years, however, and some of the bolder spirits of art felt this year that a revival of the Richard Strauss Opus might be essayed without undue reverberations.

Olive Fremstad was the "Salome" when that bloodthirsty lady made her brief Metropolitan appearance in 1926. Mme. Fremstad sang the role, but she did not do the dance. A veil-throwing routine was undertaken by a lady versed in such business, Madame Fremstad in turn conserving her breath for certain high notes—especially an A-sharp—which had to be undertaken subsequently.

In the current production, which was given its first performance Saturday night and which is to be repeated Friday, (everything else being equal), Mme. Ljungberg does the dance as well as the vocal. This enterprise on her part has given rise to talk among some critics that the diva might well have excused herself from the terpsichorean undertaking and concentrated on the vocal contest with the orchestra which in any Strauss entertainment is a challenge to human fortissimo.

Mme. Ljungberg stood by her veils today, however, and intimated that the 35 curtain calls she took Saturday night were not given her because the customers' hands were cold.

"They tell me," she said, "that in the 1906 production the dance was fiery, languorous and full of caprice. I discussed the dance with Strauss, and I do it according to his own interpretation."

"Strauss told me he did not want the dance to be happy and jumpy. It was a thought dance; to him, the actual movements of the dance were secondary, symbolical. That is what he intended."

"I am not a dancer, but I am willing to do the dance so that I may sing the Salome music."

The crux of the dance controversy, as the Prima Donna sees it, is that the public expected an Oscar Wilde dance and got instead a Richard Strauss dance.

As a sort of a fashion note Mme. Ljungberg added that the veils, one to seven inclusive, are of chiffon, and that number seven is green.

English Editor Favors Fascism In British Isles

LONDON, Jan. 15 (AP)—The London Daily Mail came out strongly today for adoption of fascism in Great Britain.

A three-column editorial by Lord Rothermere lauded the method of Mussolini and Hitler, "hurrah for the blackshirts," glared a three-column headline.

The editorial lashed at the "half-hearted sentimental policy" of the old parties and made an appeal to the youth of England to support Sir Oswald Mosley and his blackshirts.

Lord Rothermere's creek of fascism had hitherto been regarded as more or less of a joke by the general public, despite the support given the movement by devoted blackshirt followers.

"The blackshirts, proclaim the fact, which the old politicians will never face," the editorial read, "that the new age requires new methods and new men."

The daily mail, which is an avowed opponent of the present government, said it was certain that Sir Oswald could "do more in a conference at Berlin to straighten out the kinks in Anglo-German relations than any half a dozen elderly politicians whom the cabinet persists in sending on fruitless missions to Geneva."

It called Italy and Germany "the best governed nations in Europe today."

138 McLEAN CHICKENS TAKE 34 FIRSTS, AND 66 RIBBONS IN SHOW

Drilling Code Of Wide Interest Meeting Tomorrow

McLEAN, Jan. 15.—McLean exhibited 138 birds in the Pampa Poultry show last week, winning 66 ribbons, including four champions and about $32.00 in merchandise prizes. They won 34 firsts, 12 seconds, 8 thirds, and four fourths.

The champion hen of the show was a B. Rock shown by Arthur Lee Howard. Charlie Hunt won the champion club pullet with his Brown Leghorn. Verle Jones had the champion club R. I. Red cockerel and Millard Windom's young White Rock pen was club champion. Most of the McLean entries were by P. F. A. students.

Last Saturday, the McLean P. F. A. poultry judging team successfully defended the Clarendon trophy it had in its keeping since last year. The boys won the contest the second time Saturday by a wide margin.

The McLean score was 1146. Claude scored 974. Arthur Ray Ledbetter was again high scorer with 417 points out of 450. Chas. Finley Lynch (alternating) scored 397. Finley and Lynch also made perfect score (150 points) on the examination given on the American Standard of Perfection. This makes the third contest McLean won in the Panhandle this year without any defeats. A. R. Ledbetter also was the highest scorer in every contest.

A. A. Tampe assisted in judging the Clarendon Poultry show last Friday, which was the third show he officiated in this season.

HE COURTED THE JOB

METHLEHEM, Pa. (AP)—No charges were pending against him and he did not seem particularly interested in the proceedings, but John Gomas spent most of his time in police court. Officers were puzzled for days.

Then a patrolman with an official paper called Gomas' name. "That's me; that's me. Now I got a job," he cried.

Homesick, Gomas had given his address as "police court" on his application for a CWA job.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Travis Chambers at Pampa hospital Saturday evening, a daughter.

SCIENTIST SAYS 'AMY,' 'BOB' ARE PINK ELEPHANTS

Possible For Brutes To Exist But Not Probable

BY HOMER MCCOY

NEW YORK, Jan. 15 (AP)—Don't anybody try to interest the American Museum of Natural History in the purchase of sea serpents, dead or alive.

Particularly, museum officials want nothing to do with Amy or Bob, those alleged monsters which are disappearing themselves as effectively as any tourist trade association could wish—off the coast of British Columbia and in Luchness, Scotland, respectively.

Dr. Roy Chapman Andrews, eminent scientist and director of the museum, is frankly skeptical.

Amy and Bob, he declared today, are just pink elephants on the ceiling to the world of science.

"As a scientist," said Dr. Andrews, who has spent eight years probing the ocean depths, "I don't regard such a thing as the existence of Amy and Bob as utterly impossible.

"But it's a very remote possibility, based on the fond hope of man that somewhere in the world a parcel of prehistoric earth, with its complement of animal life, has continued through the ages. That couldn't have happened."

Stop Fan Dance In New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 15 (AP)—George Reyer, superintendent of police, says New Orleans "is no city for fan dance."

and because he stopped the show at the last minute counsel for the Marcus reeve seeks to enjoin police from barring it.

Promptly at midnight last night when the revue—featuring a nude fan dancer—was scheduled to go on in city auditorium, the police halted the performance, informed customers there would be "no show tonight" and dismissed a throng of curious outside.

Reyer said the "best citizens" had complained to him that the extravaganzas was "immoral, obscene and entirely beyond bounds in its suggestiveness."

A. B. Marcus, in charge of the show, termed it "of high moral character."

Elderly Resident Dies on Saturday—Burial Held Today

A funeral service for Mrs. Martha Jane Harmon, who died Saturday night at the family residence, 202 East Browning, was held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the Church of Christ, with the minister, the Rev. E. C. McKenzie, in charge.

Mrs. Harmon was born December 23, 1853, at Carlton, Miss. She had been in Pampa slightly more than a year.

Survivors include a son and daughter, M. Harmon and Mrs. W. O. Sandy, of Pampa; three sisters, Mrs. Anna McQueen of Ardmore, Okla., Mrs. Belle Smart of Apache, Okla., and Mrs. Ella Baubin, of Carlton, Miss.; and three brothers, John and Seve Grantham of Mississippi and David Grantham of California.

The Malone Funeral home will be in charge of burial.

Funerals were announced as follows: Elmer Fife, Tex. Evon Jim Collins, Floyd Hoffman, Don Donovan and J. O. Gillham.

Mrs. P. C. Kirby of LeFors shopped here Saturday.

has been described as the conventional sea elephant of old salts' tales. Amy is distinctly unlovely, having a camel-face.

Bell gerant Bob of the Scotland lake is suspected in some quarters of heinous deeds, including the slaughter of livestock and the deaths of two persons.

"Both of the creatures are the result of faulty observation," Dr. Andrews declared, "perhaps on the parts of sincere persons who saw just what they had hoped to see."

"As for Amy, the ocean's depths have been pretty thoroughly explored—at least as far down as any large form of animal life could exist. Nothing like her has ever been found."

The case of Bob was especially interesting to Dr. Andrews. Bob has been depicted as an amphibian creature, aquatic by preference but capable of getting out on highways and seriously inconveniencing motorists.

Luckies

Reach you fully packed

THE TOBACCO DOES NOT SPILL OUT

Good tobaccos... real good tobaccos... that's the reason for Lucky Strike's fine, smooth quality. We use only the center leaves of the finest Turkish and domestic tobacco plants. Not the top leaves—because those are under-developed. Not the bottom leaves—because those are inferior in quality. We use only the center leaves—because these are the mildest leaves—fully ripe for perfect smoking. Only these choice tobaccos are used to make Luckies—so round, so firm, so fully packed—and no loose ends to spill out. That's why Luckies are always mild and smooth. That's why always "Luckies please". And don't forget—"It's toasted"—for throat protection—for finer taste.
