Twinkles
Among the first signs of returning normalcy we find a good crop of gold-brick schemes, and suppose there will be a flock of shysters born for each one at the same time.

Kang-Teh, new emperor of Manchukuo, who was puppet of Japan, has a true claim to the throne of China. With Japan's help maybe he can take over that vast country at the rate of a few miles per year—unless Japan gets impatient.

Well, as soon as Uncle Sam found out we could not pay him an income tax this year, he decided to sue Mr. Mellon. If he had sued Uncle Andy in the first place, we might have had more money to pay our taxes with this year.

Nobody has shot at Mayor La Guardia of New York lately so he must not be quite the success we had hoped.

One of the drawbacks to living in this western plains country is that there is no weather bureau close enough to confirm the suspicion that we never had a winter like this before.

The Rockefeller foundation will spend big sums to find out why people worry. If they'll give us some of the money, we will quit worrying so quickly it won't be necessary to continue the research.

Brevitorials
Musings of the moment: There is no uncertainty about uncertainty, which is the great American product right now. Maybe we're getting old-fashioned greens don't taste like they did when we were a kid. But spinach was the same at any age. The world is changing back from extremes of behavior. Our "friends" have given up coffee, some smoking. Nobody is urging them to do so, which is fortunate; a little compulsion would ruin the movement. Other words for assembly: Congress, parliament, floor, pool, trust, guild, academy, sodality, fraternity, camarade, clique.

MAYBE it was Shakespeare who said we should beware of thin men "because they think too much." One of the most interesting persons met recently was Ernst Ueberall, young student from Vienna, Austria, now touring this country and talking to International Relations clubs for the promotion of world peace, under the auspices of the Carnegie foundation. It was declared by Ueberall that a large majority of the students in Austria in college and university are undernourished and often hungry. That they are thinking perhaps too much, along political and economic lines is indicated by the fact that a new political party is born every time a political leader of ability attracts a following. Political chaos is the result and it is often that shrewd politicians play upon the patriotic emotions and pride of the people in an attempt to achieve a workable unity of thought.

YOUNG UBERALL, a fervent little sheik of a fellow with a voluble flow of good English, stands in right contrast with the average college man. Although in his early twenties, he speaks many languages, is a student of a political and economic theory and is able to hold his own in a serious discussion with any American. His manner suggests that he would be a good spellbinder in a political conference and, indeed, his political zeal in Vienna became very irksome to the authorities. Proud of Austria—whose culture is older than Germany—he is anti-Hitler and he believes that Austria's troubles today have largely grown out of unwise provisions of the treaty of Versailles.

THREE GUESSES

U. S. GUNBOAT IS DESTROYED; CREW RESCUED

VESSEL BURNS IN BAY NEAR HONGKONG; 2 SHIPS AID

HONGKONG, March 15 (Thursday)—(AP)—Two rescue vessels reported early today they had saved 187 men from the United States gunboat Fulton which burned in Bias Bay, 50 miles northeast of here. It was believed the 187 composed the complete ship's personnel. The British destroyer, H. M. S. Wishart, reported she would arrive in port at 2 a. m. with 139 men from the Fulton including Captain McCHenry and his officers. The Chinese S. S. Tsinan reported she had 48 members of the crew aboard. They started for Hongkong from Bias Bay with the Fulton still burning fiercely.

Another British warship, H. M. S. Whitshed stood by the burning ship after a 2-hour journey from Hongkong under forced draft to the rescue of the Americans.

The U. S. S. Fulton and H. M. S. Wishart had both been on patrol duty against pirates in Bias Bay. The cause of the Fulton's destruction was not immediately reported.

Student Seeks Place as State Representative

To the Voters of the 122 Legislative District
In announcing my candidacy for the office of state representative from this district I pledge, first, my undivided interest to matters which pertain to the welfare of this district. Regardless of what other sections of the state do or attempt to do, my primary interest shall be devoted to the four counties which I represent, Donley, Gray, Collingsworth, and Wheeler.

As a member of the legislature, it shall be my purpose to advocate the enactment of such laws as will protect and preserve the oil and gas reserves of the Panhandle from wasteful and unlawful exploitation. If our schools suffer from lack of maintenance or finances, my efforts shall be to obtain the same facilities and modern facilities that exist in other sections of the state whose representatives have been more alert for the welfare of their constituents. Better lateral roads should be established for farmers to more economically and more rapidly carry their products to market should be secured. In short, any and all the aids which it is in the power of a representative to work for and obtain should be given to his constituents. This, I wholeheartedly promise to do.

We are in the midst of radical changes in government. Had we contented ourselves with the development of our own resources rather than those abroad, the current depression would not be with us. People have lost faith in the old order of things and are turning to the new with vigor and confidence. Plain common sense plus the fundamental principles of government and economics dominate the new order.

Half of my 25 years have been spent in this district, hence I feel familiar with the needs and desires of the people who reside here. At present, I am studying law at the University of Texas. I was employed during the Party-Second Legislature as clerk on constitutional amendments, judicial districts, and other committees; during that time I took advantage of the opportunity to learn at first hand the methods and mechanics of law making. I therefore feel well qualified to represent my district and protect its interests on the floor of the House.

My platform has few definite planks, pledging simply that I am for the most economical, yet efficient system of government possible; I am opposed to any sales tax placed upon the necessities of life; I am opposed to the issuance of any more state bonds except "bread bonds"; I am as strongly opposed to carelessness and unwise legislation as I am for wise and prudent legislation; I am opposed to any increase in our ad valorem taxes; I am for, first and last, those things which will, in my opinion, benefit the people of this district.

CABBAGE PRICE WAR IN VALLEY FLARES AGAIN

Watchman Kidnaped—Packing Shed Burned
M ALLEN, March 14 (AP)—Violence flared in the Rio Grande valley cabbage price war last night when six carloads of men, purportedly farmers, kidnaped a night watchman and burned a packing shed.

A Mercedes farmer was held in jail by Sheriff Tom Gill today while deputies searched for several others alleged to have participated in the shed burning and kidnaping. The crowd of men, increased at three reduction of the cabbage price from $6 to $4, kidnaped an Alamo night watchman, showed the Carl Besset packing shed with kerosene and then ignited it. Fire departments of McAllen, Donna, and Alamo battled the flames but the structure burned to the ground. Considerable damage was done to two refrigerator cars on a nearby railroad track.

The men appeared at San Juan later and soaked the W. T. Hodges packing plant with kerosene but were frightened away before setting fire to it.

Max Lutz, McAllen buyer, employed special bodyguards to ride in his automobile after he had received numerous threats. He left the city last night.

Hog-Corn Control Allotment Group Will Be Formed

Chairmen of precinct hog-corn control committees will meet with the county agent of County Agent Ralph Thomas tomorrow morning to form an allotment committee and draw up necessary regulations for the plan.

On Friday morning, all committees will meet with the county agent in a "school" where regulations for presentation at community gatherings will be held. The committees follow:

Precedent 1—Clyde Carruth, chairman; O. H. Ingram, Ben Lockhart, Precedent 2—Dick Walker, chairman; Frank Meers, E. A. Shackleton, Precedent 3—Willard McAdams, chairman; Jim McCracken, L. D. Gill, Precedent 4—N. S. Johnson, W. H. Floyd, Homer Wilson.

The required 25 per cent reduction in production of corn and hogs will be easy for Gray county farmers, most of whom have already made the reductions because they could not profitably raise hogs at current prices, and without federal aid.

SHERIFF HOLDS YOUNG MAN IN OWN CUSTODY

BODIES OF TWO BOYS FOUND 300 YARDS FROM HOUSE

BORGER, March 14 (AP)—The county attorney prepared to file charges today against Perry White, a repair shop owner, after the bodies of Carol "Burch" McDonald, 17, and Earl Brakebill Jr., 16, were found at the edge of a canyon northeast of Borger.

McDonald was shot twice and Brakebill once with a .22-caliber rifle. White, in custody of the sheriff, said, according to officers, that he fired three shots at two persons whom he did not know late last night as they attempted to break into an outhouse at his home. A neighbor woman discovered the bodies and White reported the affair at Phillips camp.

A high school boy who said he had talked to McDonald and Brakebill said the boys had been at White's home earlier and planned to return.

Boasting Whites Are Expelled by Navajo Indians

GALLUP, N. M., March 14 (AP)—Scores of celebrities, including former Mayor James J. Walker, of New York, were expelled from the Navajo Indian tribe today by its executive council of 12.

The big chiefs indicated they were fed up on white men who get adopted into the tribe and then go around boasting that they are Indians.

A number of Hollywood actors and actresses suffered the same fate as Walker. "Every time a movie star steps in Gallup and is adopted by the tribe, then he claims as a Hollywood he is a Navajo," said Tom Dodge, member of the council.

A former mayor of New York stopped at Albuquerque, went to New York and claimed to be a member of the tribe.

The colorful adoption ceremony has been staged in many parts of the country and frequently at Gallup.

Administration Is Defeated on Vet Compromise

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—After overthrowing administration forces, a tense house this afternoon considered the controversial independent offices bill with a view to separate votes on senate amendments restoring the cut federal pay and certain veterans benefits.

A move by democratic leaders to send the bill, carrying $354,000,000 in senate amendments, to conference was defeated by 247 to 169 in revolt against the administration. In the face of reports that the president intends to veto the bill if the senate amendments are allowed, the "might as well" accept the amendments, send the bill to the White House, get the president's veto and start all over on this bill, shouted Blanton (D., Texas), amid the tumultuous scene.

Republicans and democratic insurgents were halting their victory by slapping each other on the back and cheering.

ST. LAWRENCE WATERWAY TREATY IS DEFEATED BY SENATE ON A 46-42 VETO

Aviation Survey Is Ordered

Roosevelt Directs Probe in Order To Give Unified Air Policy to U. S.

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—President Roosevelt has ordered a detailed and comprehensive survey of every aspect of American aviation designed to give the United States a unified air policy.

Every governmental division in any way interested in aeronautical questions is to be called on to make a study and report so the entire question can be studied by an individual, or commission, for creation of an up-to-date coordinated plan.

The special committee named by Secretary of War Derr, and headed by Major General H. A. Druin, assistant chief of staff, has already started a survey of the army air corps with particular reference, at the present time, to the carrying of air mail by the army.

Other surveys, to be worked in to the United unified and coordinated plan are to be made by the navy, marine corps, department of commerce, customs, and bureau of internal revenue.

Orville Wright, inventor of the airplane, today informed Secretary Derr that, because of illness, he would be unable to serve on the special committee.

Col. Clarence Chamberlin, transatlantic flier, telegraphed his acceptance to the war department and let it be known he will come to Washington whenever the committee meets.

No answer has as yet been received from Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, the third civilian member of the special committee.

The president, it is understood, will make no definite move to reorganize any of the present governmental air units, including the army air service, until he has the comprehensive report on every phase of aeronautics he has requested.

Deadline For Paying Income Tax Is Today

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—The treasury advised Mr. and Mrs. Citizen today to mail their income tax returns before tonight to avoid any chance of a tangle with the government.

The law requires that returns be in the hands of the internal revenue collectors by midnight, March 15. If a return is late a 25 per cent penalty may be assessed.

Officials pointed out that a March 15 postmark used not be accepted by the collector if the postman does not deliver the return until March 16. Actually, however, they usually say:

Indian Heiress Is Mother at 12

Credited by physicians with being the youngest mother ever to undergo Caesarean surgery, Juanita McElish, 12-year-old Creek Indian heiress, shown here in a Sapulpa, Okla., hospital with her 9½-pound son, has only one worry—whether she'll have to go back to school. The child is the grand-daughter of Mosey Deere, wealthy Indian. The father, Buster McElish, Indian farmer, is only 18.

PAMPA TAKES SECOND PLACE IN 1933 NATIONAL TRAFFIC SAFETY CONTEST—AWARD IS IMPORTANT

Radio Hookup Will Tell of Event on March 28

NATIONWIDE recognition for Pampa has come in the form of a second place award in the 1933 National Traffic Safety Contest.

City Manager C. L. Stine has received this telegram from W. H. Cameron, managing director of the National Safety Council:

"I take pleasure in notifying you that the committee of judges of the 1933 National Traffic Safety Contest has awarded Pampa second place in your population group. Congratulations to you and your people on your splendid showing. Writing details of award."

There were 37 cities in the contest in Pampa's population group but only those with no traffic deaths last year had a chance at first place. Mr. Stine believes that Pampa came very near taking the first award.

A national radio hookup March 28 will tell the nation of the contest and Pampa will be prominently mentioned. In many of the cities receiving high places, banquets will be held to hear the broadcast and discuss safety in motoring.

Pampa's Kiwanis club had a large part in the city's excellent showing. Its Junior Police movement and the publicity given to it by THE NEWS scored well in the contest. Other factors were arrests, convictions, and low percentage of dismissals in traffic control, low number of accidents, safety courses, precautions at the swimming pool, first aid courses, and the exhaustive work in which City Manager Stine reported on each accident.

Pampa will have no chance for high rank in the 1934 contest, since there has already been a traffic death here.

Leslie Cobb of Canadian was a Pampa business visitor today.

CONNALLY OF TEXAS VOTES AGAINST BILL

ROOSEVELT TO SUBMIT PACT BACK FOR SCRUTINY

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—Administration efforts for ratification of the St. Lawrence waterway treaty with Canada failed miserably in the senate today on a 46 to 42 vote.

This meant that a majority of four in favor of the pact, instead of the two-thirds majority required to get it across.

With many house democrats standing against the administration on the veterans compensation economy issue again up at the time, 22 senate democrats opposed President Roosevelt on the treaty. Among those who voted against ratification was Senator Connally of Texas. Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas voted for the measure.

The vote administered the first major legislative setback for the Roosevelt administration.

President Roosevelt had urged ratification in two communications to the senate as a step toward opening vast interior areas of the United States to cheap commerce and providing cheap electricity for his own state of New York, but the opposition of a large group of democrats and republicans proved too strong.

Only a while before the treaty vote he told reporters he would send the treaty back for reconsideration when there is time, the giant waterway is going to be built anyway and he feared that failure of ratification would place the seaway entirely under Canadian control.

To reach the vote, treaty opponents withdrew all reservations to the resolution of ratification, paving the way for a clear cut vote on the pact without strings.

Without mentioning directly the house action in voting for cash payment of the bonus, President Roosevelt said today there was danger in paying off government obligations in paper money in that it might lead to meeting running expenses of the government by such a method.

The president expressed this opinion at his press conference as the house sought to send to conference with 318 yeas the independent offices appropriation bill increasing by $20,000,000 allowances for veterans and government employees.

President Roosevelt said he fears that once a legislative body gets in the habit of paying debts in paper money, there will be no limit to it.

'Liars Contest' Won By Canadian Man at Banquet
Rotarians and their wives from Pampa, Panhandle and Borgia were guests of the Canadian Rotary club last night in what was characterized as one of the most interesting inter-city meetings of the year in the Panhandle. H. S. Wilbur, president of the Canadian club acted as toastmaster.

A feature of the evening was a "liars contest," wherein Glen Ragsdale, representing the Pampa club, was eliminated by Bill Calloway of Canadian.

WASHINGTON, March 14 (AP)—Creation of a permanent labor board was recommended to the senate labor committee today by Secretary Perkins as "a very important step forward in the management of community life and the practice of democracy."

AUSTIN, March 14 (AP)—The supreme court held today that exemplary damages are recoverable in cases where workmen's compensation insurance is paid. The decision was in the case of the Fort Worth Elevator company against Mrs. Mary Lee Russell.

AUSTIN, March 14 (AP)—The Texas supreme court today held that public service companies are privileged to retail appliances having to do with use of the commodities sold by them.

AUSTIN, March 14 (AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today signed a bill to prohibit walkathons and other endurance contests. It will become effective in 90 days. The law will limit contests to 24 hours and require contestants to rest 168 hours before engaging in another test of similar nature.

Stocking Says Oil Strike Has Been Postponed

SEMINOLE, Okla., March 14 (AP)—Pending conciliation conferences between representatives of certain major oil companies and their employees in the Seminole district, a 48-hour labor "holiday" scheduled for today has been postponed indefinitely.

This announcement was made by Dr. George Stocking of the national petroleum labor policy board, who is arranging negotiations between the oil companies and officials of the oil workers' local of more than 5,000 men.

Dr. Stocking said the conferences would be held "in the near future," and would be participated in by "certain of the major oil companies and duly authorized representatives of their employees."

Dr. Stocking, an economics professor from the University of Texas, planned to go from Seminole to Tulsa, thence to Washington, returning to Seminole in about ten days for the labor conferences.

Indians Are On 'Warpath'

Hollywood Redskins Cannot Get Jobs Because of Many Limitations in Filmland.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14 (AP)—Indians of the west dusted off their war bonnets today in moves against several of the white man's institutions and ideas.

At Hollywood Chief Many Treaties, a six-foot Blackfoot from Montana, stalked out on the verbal warpath with a denunciation of film directors who cast members of other races as American Indians.

Celebrities who have been adopted into the Navajo tribe may no longer wear their bonnets of feathers as a result of an edict issued by the tribe's executive council at Gallup, N. M. The expulsion order was directed against scores of adopted Navajos, including former Mayor James J. Walker of New York.

On the Fort Defiance, Ariz., reservation, the tribal leaders are organizing a "vice squad" of 25 members to deal with gamblers and "fire-water" peddlers.

Jim Thorpe, world famous athlete, joined Chief Many Treaties in denouncing the alleged impersonation of the Indians by other races in filmland.

"This business of motion picture stars casting Mexicans, Hawaiians, Arabs, Negroes, and Chinese as American Indians in their productions has got to stop," Chief Many Treaties said.

"It's getting so the 500 real Indians of the film city can't get a job in Hollywood any more."

Motion picture producers said they used other faces in preference to Indians because the average Redskin there "does not look like the Indian the motion picture public expects to see."

The film audience "likes his Indian tall, husky, and well proportioned," one director explained.

TO THE BOSS

"The Boss", is the title given the editorial reprinted below which appeared in the Omaha-Herald:

During these changing days when some labor is going on the forty-hour week and men by the hundreds of thousands are going to have more leisure than they ever had before, it is well, perhaps, to give thought for a moment to the one who isn't going to be quite so happy. We mean the boss.

He's the man that the national recovery administration refers to as an executive who is exempt from the code provisions for the shorter week. He is exempt for the simple reason that he is going to work harder and longer hours and carry greater burdens than before. He's the guy who must think up ways and means of changing his business methods to meet code conditions and still, if possible, keep out of the red. He's the fellow who has to dig up the newer and higher wage scale cash, so that the pay envelopes will still be available on Saturday night. He's the man who must answer "I will" to the president and, in order to get that precious eagle emblem—think and work and worry as never before.

In some future day when, we all hope, historians will look back upon the summer of 1933 and record it as the period of a new emancipation of the American people, when they will tell the story of a nation that destroyed that old-fashioned heresay which will write of a leadership that was coming out of the shadows and determined, at last, to face the world. The Prescotts and Gibbons of the era will find time to at least a paragraph about the usually unmentioned and unappreciated...

hero of it all—the boss. Just in case those future historians neglect their duty, we hasten to seize the opportunity here and now to cast a few bouquets and laurel wreaths at the fellow who is too busy to know or care about praise, who is only hoping he can scheme a way to make ends meet, while he devotes forty and twice forty hours a week to the process.

'THE OWL' IS CONVICTED IN FACTOR CRIME

BANGHART IS GIVEN 99 YEARS; STREWL SENTENCED

By The Associated Press
In seven states kidnappers within a few hours have found out what it means when the law "bears down."
A Chicago jury quickly found Basil Hugh (The Owl) Banghart guilty yesterday of participation in the John Factor kidnaping and fixed his punishment at 99 years imprisonment. Similar sentences for the same crime have been pronounced against three other members for the gang including the leader, Roger Touhy. Two members have met violent death, Charles "Red Wagon" Connors, having been found slain yesterday.
At Albany, N. Y., Manny Strewl was convicted of the kidnaping of John J. O'Connell, Jr., son of a politically powerful upstate family. Because of his criminal record, Strewl, who acted as go-between, will receive a mandatory sentence of 50 years.
St. Louis police sought Mrs. Nellie Tipton Muench, alleged "brains" of a gang that kidnaped Dr. I. D. Kelley, wealthy physician in 1931. She was indicted yesterday with five men for the crime.
At Racine, Wis., George Wolf, a negro theatre employe, was seized and later confessed in Chicago, police said, to participation in the attempted kidnaping of E. P. Adler, Davenport, Ia., newspaper publisher. Two others are awaiting trial, a fourth committed suicide and a fifth is sought in connection with a plot to hold the publisher for $100,000 ransom.
Delaware saw passage by the state house of representatives of a kidnap law providing death or life imprisonment, at the discretion of a jury, for persons convicted of kidnaping. The senate now has the bill.
In Ohio, to frustrate any attempt by friends of John Dillinger escaped desperado, to kidnap Gov. George White and hold him as a hostage for release to three of Dillinger's pals, armed guards patrolled the executive mansion at Columbus. The governor had no fear for himself but said "there might be a possibility of kidnaping Mary, his daughter."
California officials arraigned Albert A. Stapp and Al Reinke, automobile race drivers, on charges of kidnaping a reporter for a newspaper which had conducted a campaign against the dangers involved in automobile racing. They are at liberty on $2,500 bail each and will get a hearing Friday.
IT LOOKED THAT WAY
ST. LOUIS (AP)—Haled before City Judge Finnegan on a charge of operating an automobile while intoxicated, William H. Mabel, a hotel manager, testified:
"I can't help my looks. I always look like I'm drunk. But I'm not drunk now and I wasn't drunk then."
Judge Finnegan fined Mabel $150.

'Best-Dressed' Woman's Son Is Held in Slaying

NEW YORK, March 14. (AP)—A youth charged with murder on the high seas sat in a federal cell today awaiting the arrival from Paris of his mother, the former Jean Nash, once hailed as the "world's best dressed woman."
The former Miss Nash, whose five marriages gained her international attention and who is now the wife of Paul Dubonnet, millionaire French wine manufacturer, packed up to come immediately.
A noted lawyer has been engaged to defend the youth, Andrew D. Kirwan, 23, who is accused of stabbing a fellow passenger, Gilliam Sessions of Seattle, aboard the liner Presidential Garfield Feb. 10. An argument over religion led to the stabbing, federal officials say.
Death by hanging or life imprisonment is the penalty for murder committed on the sea. The trial begins March 20.
In Paris, dressmakers, milliners, makers, a hairdresser and a manicurist stood in line outside Mme. Dubonnet's apartment as she rushed preparations to sail with her husband.
Kirwan told authorities she was born when his mother was only 16. She was then the wife of John S. Kirwan, young son of a New York broker. After a divorce parted them, she married successively Capt. Winfield Sifton, son of a Canadian millionaire; Capt. John V. Nash of the British army and Prince Mohammed Sobeh Bey, Turkish social figure, before becoming the bride of Dubonnet.

FATAL ERROR OF SNATCHERS IS DISCLOSED

FACTOR REVEALS WHY HE PROSECUTED KIDNAPERS

CHICAGO, March 14. (AP)—With another of the "Touhy" gangsters doomed to spend the rest of his life behind bars, John Factor, their kidnap victim, disclosed today the error that decimated the once powerful gang.
Basil (The Owl) Banghart was convicted last night and sentenced to 99 years in prison for his part in the $70,000 Factor kidnaping last July. Three other members of the gang—Roger "Touhy," Gustave Schaefer, and Albert Kator—already are in prison. Three others are dead, one by venereal disease, one by a labor union fight, and the third by his own hand.
Factor disclosed that all of them might be alive and free if they had accepted an offer by him of $50,000 for his release a few hours after he was kidnaped.
"They wouldn't be decent about it," Factor said. "They abused me for 12 days, kicked and beat me, and threatened me with death. They drove my wife and family almost insane with worry."
"That's the reason I prosecuted them. If they had been decent to me, I would have arranged for a $50,000 payment and kept my mouth shut. They wanted $200,000 and they finally got $70,000—and look what has happened to them."
Factor, market speculator wanted in England on a charge of receiving money knowing it to have been fraudulently obtained, said he wanted to pay the ransom and say nothing because he believed publicity might hurt his fight against extradition to Great Britain.

Whose Fault?

A boy or girl may be warmly clad, dry shod, and ever so careful, yet catch one cold after another. Do you know what's to blame? Low vitality. A sluggish system makes any child an easy victim for colds. The youngest whose bowels haven't moved for two days will contract a cold quicker than the one who has forgotten his rubbers. A powerful rathartic that opens the child's very pores is just as bad. The proper treatment is described on the right.

Here's the plan many mothers use to protect their children from a cold all through the cold season. Instead of waiting for biliousness to strike, they ward it off in this way: Every few days, they give the child a spoonful of plain California Syrup of Figs. No violent purg! No laxative of adult strength! Just this natural, fruity syrup containing senna. Use the genuine California Syrup of Figs, sold everywhere; bottle should say California.

You will soon be planning your vacation, which will most certainly include the Carlsbad Caverns.

DILLINGER IS SUSPECTED IN IOWA ROBBERY

MACHINE GUN BANDITS LOOT BANK FOR $52,000

CHICAGO, March 14. (AP)—The sinister hand of "Whittling" John Dillinger, Indiana desperado, was seen today in a $52,000 robbery of the First National bank of Mason City, Iowa.

The loot of the raid, staged yesterday by seven machine gun bank bandits, marked a new high in a recent series of assaults on Midwest banks.

Tactics employed by the gunmen were similar to those used by the bandits who stole between $10,000 and $30,000 March 6 from a bank at Sioux Falls. They were also like the methods of robbers who made away with $21,000 at Atchison, Kan., last Monday.

In each instance they took hostages with them as shields.

Arriving at the Mason City bank, the bandits scattered a rain of machine gun bullets, injured two persons, scooped up the cash and escaped under the protection of a dozen hostages.

Vigilantes and police withheld their fire as the robbers' car, its running board lined with bystanders and bank employees, roared out of town. The hostages were released unharmed a short time later.

The wounded are R. L. H. James, secretary of the Mason City school board, shot in the leg by a stray bullet, and Clarence McGowan, who attempted to pursue the bandit car.

Judith Lane

SYNOPSIS: Judith Lane has returned from the Rio Diablo, engaged to Norman Dale, who is junior partner in the law firm that handles Big Tom Bevins' law business in Houston. Bevins is an engineering contractor and just has completed the surveys for a dam on the Rio Diablo that will reclaim the valley and help the impoverished settlers. The boat bringing back the engineering party docks at the Bevins yacht, and Norman's mother, who has come to meet her prospective daughter-in-law in the yacht's tender.

Chapter Seven CLIA'S NEWS

Under Norman's guidance Judith went over the side, stepped into the small boat and made her way towards Mrs. Dale.

She was certainly handsome, Judith thought. She had Norman's coloring, not a streak of grey in her hair. She was wearing a dress of steady hand, and Judith, laying her sunburned fingers in the firm pink palm, was suddenly shy before the studied elegance of the woman who was talking steadily to put her at ease.

"What a stunning looking child you are! I thought Norman said you were a business woman. Sit down here. If I kiss you now we'll both go overboard. I'm not built on skiff lines. Norm, this girl isn't old enough to marry."

Judith regained her composure and smiled. "I'm willing to bet I'm more than ten years older than you were when you were married."

"You're a dear child," was Mrs. Dale's response to the compliment.

"In case you're worrying about your clothes (not that you don't look like a million out of bed), your friend Clia is on board with—"

"Clia aboard?" questioned Judith, too overjoyed at having a friend in that desert of strangers to realize her rudeness. Clia Sanford could hold her own with a dozen Bevins women.

"Yes, very much aboard. However, I doubt that Ma'teel Bevins knew she was your best friend when she was invited." She gave Judith a twinkling smile, which puzzled the girl.

They were at the yacht's side, and Judith was squaring her shoulders to meet the crowd surging to their side of the yacht when she heard her friend's voice high above the others.

"Hello, Judy girl. . . look at her, do you blame any man for sacrificing his freedom for that figure . . . and her tall up her eyes. She threw a friendly arm about Judith as she stepped on deck.

"How do you do, Miss Lane? Your stateroom is below to the left, third door." Mrs. Bevins offered Judith a mechanical smile, then saw that Mrs. Dale had stepped up to slip an arm about her. "Oh, if you are going down, Beth, I won't crowd things. Ma'teel seems to be taking her usual care of Norman."

Between Mrs. Dale and Clia, Judith was swept below to a luxurious room and after a quick tub came out to find them chatting over a fluffy array of clothes spread on the bed.

"Trousseau gift," explained Mrs. Dale, slipping a sheath of white satin and foamy lace over her head.

"You got this too large, Clia. Look here."

"Judy," scolded Clia, "you must have been lying out in the sun shriveling up. You're as thin as a rail."

"Short rations," Judith explained; then, "What a love of a dress!"

"Frothy," Clia teased, tossing the plaid organza over her head and pulling it into line. "Anything that costs as much as this is a frock. The white's gorgeous against your tan, blue matches your eyes, and you need the red, Mrs. Dale, will you hand me that vanity. . . no, not mine; she'd look like a pumpkin; there, that's it. . . and somebody's at the door."

Mrs. Dale went to the door. "Judy," she said, turning back, "you'll excuse me if I go up, won't you? They need me for a bridge foursome. Norman's bringing you over tomorrow."

The door closed, and Clia sat back on her heels. "Well, what a fine mess you've got yourself into," she barked.

Judith smiled placidly. "Clia even a wise woman like yourself tried matrimony before condemning it."

"Oh, tush," snapped Clia. "Anyone with brains would snatch at Norman. But why couldn't you have waited until you came to town for the announcement? I'd have given you a greater party than there you went and sent those messages ahead to warn your enemy, for all the world as if you were afraid."

"Afraid . . . enemy . . . messages?" Judy, listen, Day before yesterday every newspaper in town received a telegram telling of your engagement. I telephoned Mrs. Dale, and she okayed it. Half an hour later we received a second telegram saying the Bevins was a hoax to tease Norman. Dick Levy, the city ed of our afternoon paper, asked me what I thought. I showed him your latest picture.

"That was enough. He took it away from me and ran first page three columns with a streamer head line. It was on the streets at three thirty. At three forty-five Ma'teel Bevins telephoned and invited me on this yachting party. Then yesterday morning Mrs. J. Anthony Dale invited me on a shopping tour. She'd found out we were good friends and said she figured you ought to be given a chance to hold your own."

"But, Clia," Judith was completely bewildered, "what's it all about? Who sent the second telegram?"

"Judith, how well do you know your boss' daughter?"

"Not well at all. She doesn't like me."

"Then let me give you a bird's eye picture of her. A decade ago she'd have been one of those but she's such a nice girl. She knew it, so she went abroad and bought trimmings for the slightly slinged variety. She had her face skinned, her hair silvered, changed her nose

Business Women Have Large Part In the New Deal

BY ALTA LAGOW, Legislative Chairman, B. F. W. Club.

The 10-year objective of the Business and Professional Women as adopted in 1923 is "to fit ourselves for leadership in thinking on economic problems and their social implications." Work and study along these lines have fitted women to play a vital part in the economic reconstruction program of the present day.

In carrying out our objective the clubs at our national convention pledged our support to the NRA, especially favoring a revision of the child labor law and the governmental regulation of the speculative use of money.

We not only pledged our support to the NRA, but we enlisted the support of General Hugh S. Johnson, President Roosevelt, and Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins to see that codes assured equal pay for equal work and equal opportunity for equal ability regardless of sex.

Perhaps the greatest part women have played in the present economic program is the influence Frances Perkins had in the setting of a minimum wage regardless of sex. The principle of equal wage for equal work is being written into the industrial codes, at least to some extent, because of the skill and courage that women have evinced in playing the hands given them in the new deal.

We also approve the principle of compulsory unemployment insurance thereby making a dole or charity as unnecessary for workers as for stockholders. However, along this line we favor the state control rather than federal control. State control to be developed by employers contributing to state required reserve or insurance funds for the benefit of the local unemployed workers.

We are constantly striving to attain our 10-year objective and thereby assist in every possible way in the economic reconstruction of our country.

Women Writers And Stories Are On Club Program

Women short story writers and their stories furnished program material for the Child Study club yesterday in its meeting at the home of Mrs. Burton Fitzsimmons.

Favorite writers were named at roll call. Mrs. T. C. Shaw sketched the life of Dorothy Canfield, and discussed her story, "The Great Love Flame in the Wind" as the greatest short story of Mrs. Crowell was presented by Mrs. Hugh Stennis.

A thorough discussion of the types of short stories best for children was given by Mrs. A. A. Kelley. Two guests, Mrs. Wining of Borger and Mrs. James Seig, were present with Mmes. A. N. Dillely Jr., Lee Harrah, Horace McBe, Shaw, Robert Gilchrist, Sherman White, and the hostess.

At the next meeting, on March 23, husbands will be guests of the club at an evening entertainment in the city club rooms.

Over 22 Rounds On Boxing Card Tomorrow Night

Mickey Durivan, local boy, is training at top speed for his 10-round bout with Kenneth Saxton of Oklahoma City, Thursday night. Durivan is one of the fastest 160-pounders to appear here in a long time and he is also able to take plenty of punishment. He is, however, anxious to be in tip-top condition to meet Saxton.

The Oklahoma City boxer has been meeting all the good boys in the southwest in the last year. He won the championship of Fort Hill recently and then stepped into Oklahoma City to win a main event. Saxton defeated Joe Vernon about two years ago when the Pampa boy was going his best. "He is one of the toughest boys I have ever met," Joe declared yesterday during a workout.

Two sluggers will meet in the six-round and semi-final when Earl Madden of Spearman meets Dick Hedgespeth of Peryton. The two are fighters. They like to stand toe to toe and slug it out until one backs up. Fans are wondering if the bout will go the distance.

Chief Eugene Paris of Oklahoma City will give 10 pounds weight when he meets Kid Stimpfer, local boy, in a six-round special event. Paris is a local favorite, especially since he knocked Pug Grubbs in Borger last week.

A good preliminary will open the card at 8:15 o'clock. It may be that Joe Vernon and Frankie Bates will be the two in the ring.

Babe Didrikson Developing Into League Pitcher

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 14. (AP)—Babe Didrikson would be one of the best pitchers in baseball if she were a boy, said Burleigh Grimes of the Cardinal hurling staff after watching the noted woman athlete work out here with pupils of the Rhy Doan baseball school.

But since Babe is a girl, Grimes still thinks she is the wonder of the athletic world. The Texan who flashed across the Olympic horizon also convinced newspaper correspondents here that she can play ball, and that she is fully competent to take her place in the box.

The Babe has mastered something of a curve, too, that surprised those who gathered to watch her in action. She also showed a flash of the speed that enabled her to hang up a record in the 90-meter Olympic event when, during batting practice, she hit one to short and easily beat out the throw to first.

Babe will go into the box in New Orleans Sunday for the Cleveland Indians against the Crescent city Pelicans. On March 20, she will pitch for Connie Mack's Athletics in Fort Myers, Fla., against Brooklyn, and on March 22 will start for the Cards in their game against the Boston Red Sox at Bradenton, Fla. It is likely, it was said, that she will remain with the Cards on their trip north.

SECOND POLO DEATH
SAN ANTONIO, March 14 (AP)—San Antonio's second polo death within a week occurred as First Lieut. Nelson J. Delaney of Fort Brown succumbed last night at the station hospital, Fort Sam Houston, as a result of injuries he received in a polo game at Brownsville.

BORGER DROPS CAGE GAME TO PAMPA 24-15

1935 PROSPECTS BEAT CABOT QUINTET 24 TO 5

Playing close, defensive basketball and breaking fast to score, the Pampa Faculty basketball team last night defeated the Borger Faculty 24 to 15 at the high school gymnasium. The Harvester prospects for next season won an easy 24 to 5 game from the Cabot Shops.

The Pampa Faculty won the first game between the two teams, 34 to 32, in Borger last week. The game was much faster and more open than the exhibition last night, when both teams played more defensive basketball.

The Borgerites smothered Coach Odus Mitchell of the Harvesters last night but that player passed word to Monroe and Savage who were high scorers on the floor. Mitchell led the Pampa attack in Borger with 17 points. Kelly, Selby, Dennard, and McDonald were the other Pampa sharpshooters. Monroe topped five pretty field goals.

Pampa's teachers, effectively covered Goode, Borger star of last week. Knowles and Acker were also bottled excepting for some pretty long shooting. Schukey and McDonnell were the other Borger stars. Schukey, who looped four long field goals last week, was kept away from his favorite spot. Borger used Hanna, student, who scored seven points.

The Cabot Shops failed to count a field goal in the last two minutes of play. The Harvester prospects worked smoothly on the offense and the defense speaks for itself. Bill Dunaway was decidedly "on" and hit the basket for eight points and high scoring honors. Big J. R. Green also had his eye on the basket for seven points. Rose, Dunaway, Scott, Nash, McAulley, and Hamilton worked well while in the game.

Jones Selts, scored a field goal and free throw to lead the Cabot boys. Walstad made the other Cabot points. Other carbon black players were Dixon, Vernon, Timley, Sharp, Wilson, Crenshaw and Morris.

CONFIDENCE IS DOMINANT IN GIANTS' CAMP

CHAMPS BELIEVE SKILL, NOT OPPORTUNISM WON PENNANT

(Note—This is the second of a series of stories outlining the 1934 prospects of major league baseball clubs.)

BY ALAN GOULD,
Associated Press Sports Editor.

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., March 14 (AP)—The combination of sure-pitching, extraordinary fighting spirit and optimism, which carried the New York Giants on a surprising flight to the baseball heights last season, has blended with tropical balminess this spring to produce an uncut brand of confidence in the camp of the world champions.

As viewed now under Florida's blistering sun or mellow moonlight, it wasn't luck and the "breaks" but skill that swept the team to the top. Instead of being due to a fortuitous chain of events or a manifestation of the art of making a little go a long way, it was the result of foresight, development and aggressive "percentage" baseball. In short, Mr. Will Terry's cheerful young men and old, along with their partisans, now look upon the Giants as a team destined to prove there was not the slightest "fluke" about all that started the baseball world last year.

As a matter of fact, there isn't much excitement for the opposition or the skeptics, who doubt that Hubbell, Schumacher, and Parmelee will duplicate their pitching feats of 1933 or that the team as a whole will click so effectively as a winning unit in the National league this year.

All but one of the major developments, the illness of the No. 1 backstop, Gus Mancuso, with an attack of typhoid has been calculated to strengthen the Giants' chances.

Johnny Vergez has completely recovered from his operation for appendicitis last September and is ready for a big year. Not only are the pitching heroes of 1933 all in good health but Terry has every reason to expect a come-back by William Watson Clark, no longer worried by illness and potentially one of the best outpitches in the league. To cap the climax Travis Jackson, the team captain, has so far exceeded his ability, as to recognize the shortstop job from the cerebral Blenny Ryan, whose spirited work proved so vital to the club's success last year.

Blenny is sure at least of being carried as a substitute but Jackson's return to form, after almost two years of inactivity because of bad knees, means a substantial increase in batting power. It's Ryan's tough luck but the Giants' good fortune to have in Jackson, whenever he is fully able to play, one of the best shortstops in baseball. He outclasses Ryan in hitting and experience and has a rifle-shot arm.

The rest of the club will tee off in the National open the way it finished in front of the 1933 field. Terry and Hughey Critz, the pint-sized second baseman, will have George Grantham as their understudy. The outfield of Joe Moore, George (Kid) Davis and Mel Ott will cover all available territory, aided when necessary by Frank (Lefty) O'Doul, the celebrated lefthanded pinch-hitter, and Hank Leber, the curly-haired clouter. Leber so far has the edge on Phil Weintraub and Homer Peel for reserve duty on the raimparts.

Terry plans to use young Paul Richards regularly behind the bat. Richards, who is due in camp this week, rounds into condition. Harry Darning is next in line for reserve catching duty. The Giants will be handicapped, however, unless their No. 1 man recovers his health fully by the end of April.

Pitches Pleasant.
The ace of the pitching staff, Southpaw Carl Hubbell, is a rocking-chair hurler but most of the others need Mancuso's advice and steady influence to be at their best. This applies especially to Hal Schumacher, the sinker-ball star who won 19 games last year and Roy (Terzani) Parmelee, who has a world of stuff but still lacks control and steadiness. Fat Freddie Fitzsimmons and Clark round out a "big five" that is potentially the strangest staff in either big league.

"Actually I have more good pitches than I know what to do with this year," says Terry, "whereas last season Schumacher and Parmelee had to come through if we were to have a chance in the pennant race. Bill Shores, Jack Seligson, Al Smith, and Joe Bowman give me a wealth of reserve material, in addition to the two men who know all the tricks of the relief game. Herman Bell and the grand old Cuban, Adolfo Luque. With the extra punch we will get from Jackson and the best defensive club in the league, I don't see how we can miss."

TOKYO, March 14 (AP)—The foreign office announced today that two Soviet aviators who made a forced landing in Manchukuo will be questioned regarding why their plane—a light bomber—was flying over territory of the Japanese-protected empire.

The fliers, who a war office announcement said had been held by authorities in Manchukuo since their landing March 11, will be taken to Hanking (Changchun), the capital, to be questioned at Japanese general headquarters.

Japanese officials said the Russian aircraft came down in the Manchurian district, north of Laid Hong, a district near the border of Soviet Russia's maritime province, north of Vladivostok.

Southwestern PUBLIC SERVICE Company

What A. T. & T. means to your Telephone service
(American Telephone & Telegraph Company)

Good service at fair cost is the aim. The men and women who furnish your telephone service here could not do that job so well without the help of American Telephone and Telegraph Company, parent company of the Bell System.

If a better way of doing a job gives better telephone service on the Pacific Coast, it may work equally well in the cities and towns of this state. A. T. & T. staff experts and engineers search constantly for these economies and improvements... test them... study them. The perfected result is offered to aid the 24 Bell operating companies give a nation-wide telephone service, uniformly good and fair in cost.

To give good service, millions are spent each year to keep pace with the public's constantly changing demand for telephone service. Instead of obtaining the funds for scores of such projects individually, the operating companies bring their problems to A. T. & T., where the combined projects are financed on a nation-wide basis at substantial savings in interest rates and financing costs.

Nation-wide long distance service, fast and dependable, would be almost impossible without the long distance lines operated by A. T. & T., which owns and maintains the trunk lines that link the territories of the operating companies.

IRISH PROGRAM AND DECORATIONS ARE EFFECTIVE

THE GREEN of St. Patrick's day decked tables for the annual public relations banquet of the Business and Professional Women's club last evening. Heads of other clubs and civic organizations, with many business men and women of the city, were guests for the annual event, a feature of national business women's week.

Guests were welcomed by Mrs. Alex Schneider, public relations chairman of the club who was in charge of banquet arrangements and acted as toastmistress. Mrs. Mary Lou Downs, president, introduced club guests and asked individuals to present their guests.

Mrs. Downs also made the only address of the evening, a brief resume of the Pampa club's history and an explanation of the national objective which calls for study and action on social and economic problems of the world.

Irish Music on Program Mrs. Nina McKinnim, a former president of the club who was a guest, played piano solos, Valse Brillante by Mana-Zucca, then a medley of Irish tunes. Mrs. W. O. Wirsching sang two Irish numbers, Sweet Kitty O'Toole, and Come Back to Erin, accompanied by Mrs. McKinnim.

Mrs. T. F. Morton entertained with two humorous readings. John Sturgeon sang popular numbers, playing his own accompaniment, and a trio including Emmitt Smith, Robert Smellage, and Harry Kelley also sang.

Tables in Schneider hotel dining room were laid in green and white with shamrocks, clay pipes, and Irish potatoes cut from paper laid along the strip of green that extended down the center. Figures of Irish collectors standing against shamrocks stood at intervals. The green programs bore the seal of national business women's week and its slogan, Confidence. The menu reflected the green and white theme in every detail.

CARNIVAL ATTRACTIONS AT SAM HOUSTON HERALDED FROM BOOTHS

Everything from cabbages (maybe) to kings (a real one and his queen) will be included in amusements at the Sam Houston school's St. Patrick's carnival Friday evening. The queen and king, chosen from the student body in a contest that will end on the day of the carnival, will be crowned in a ceremony to climax the evening. Each room has charge of one booth, whose wares they describe in the following carnival fashion: Alluring questions regarding the unknown will be answered at the fortune telling booth in Miss Mullinax's room. Young people undecided about the future, and old people puzzled regarding the all important question of the depression, can secure positive and valuable information here.

Miss Florence Jones' room will present the greatest motion picture show ever showcased for a nickel. Come and bring all the children and the neighbors' children. The greatest bargain of a lifetime. Mickey Mouse and other clean company reels. Miss Violet Durrett's room will sell delicious candies and will also check your hat and coat, a convenience you can secure for the small fee of five cents. Be sure to see the Dolls Symposium, a clever program by first grade boys and girls of Mrs. John Bradley's room. Mrs. Sam Irwin's room will re-verbinate with the ballroom of the future, the opportunity to fish and know you will catch something. What a fishing tale you can tell after visiting this booth—that of helping to place chairs in the school building.

Fairbanks Will Not Build Radio City in London

LONDON, March 14 (AP)—Douglas Fairbanks Sr. emphatically denied today reports published abroad that he is associated with S. L. "Roxy" Roxy in plans to build a "radio city" in London.

He was joined in the categorical denial of the report by young Doug Jr.

"The report is absolutely untrue," said the senior Fairbanks. "I have no connection whatsoever with Roxy."

And Doug Fairbanks Jr. promptly added:

"I know nothing whatever of Roxy's plans. I have put up no money to back him in anything, whatever. I have no connection with him of any kind."

Friends were quick to declare that the only interest of the father and son here now is in the making of pictures.

Voice Conviction Upheld by Court

AUSTIN, March 14 (AP)—The positive manner in which Mrs. John York identified the voice of a person who robbed her and her husband today caused the state court of criminal appeals to uphold the conviction of Andrew Hodges, sentenced to 20 years from Stonewall county for robbery.

Mrs. York testified that while the robbery was in progress the robber kept his hand over his mouth and his hat pulled low over his face. She did not obtain a good view of the robber. He spoke several times, however. Two weeks after the robbery Hodges passed the York home and spoke to the Yorks.

NEW ACT IS EXPECTED TO FACE COURT TEST SOON

BY WILLIAM VOIGT, Jr., Associated Press Staff Writer.

TULSA, March 14 (AP)—Oil men found it scattered mid-continent matters of sufficient importance to engage their principal attention this week—one the impending "holiday" of field workers in the Seminole, Okla., area, the other the enactment of the new "refinery report" law in Texas.

With the larger companies who operate in Seminole showing a decided lack of public interest in the activities, representatives of the oil workers unions were called into session today to make final plans for conducting or abandoning the 48-hour "holiday."

During this period not a wheel would turn or a barrel of oil flow in Seminole, as a gesture of protest against wages paid, operation of company unions and night schools, and lack of recognition for the American Federation of Labor affiliates.

At Tulsa, oil company heads indicated they would resist any change in the present scheme of things in a passive manner, and that no public recognition of the movement would be given.

The Texas situation presented another angle of the complex oil industry, and the National Petroleum News in an article under the signature of Lawrence E. Smith, mid-continent manager, saw the new "report" measure signed Friday by Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson as chiefly another means for legal entanglement of the oil control problem.

The new law, designed to bring East Texas refineries under the supervision of the railroad commission, is expected to face a court test soon, the oil publication asserted.

E. O. Thompson, railroad commissioner, was quoted as saying the refineries will be required immediately to report their operations, while at the same time F. W. Fischer, Tyler, Texas, attorney for a group of refineries opposed to the measure, took the view that delay is necessary under the law.

First Lady To Return to U. S. Early Thursday

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico, March 14 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, suffering doubtless from "handshaker's cramp," prepared today for her return to the United States.

Last night, after a 300-mile motor trip, she shook hands—smiling and apparently unwearyed—with 2,000 persons at a reception given by Gov. Blanton Winship.

On her list of "last things to do" were visits to points of interest about San Juan, a shopping tour—and the inevitable packing.

Tentatively, America's first lady plans to be away bright and early with her friends on the homeward flight.

Her breathless round of visits, designed to give her first-hand knowledge of social and economic conditions, has not made her forget her four grandchildren. She sent birthday greetings to little Sarah Delano Roosevelt yesterday, and bought gifts for all four.

On the two-day automobile tour of the island's needlework district, from which she returned last evening, Mrs. Roosevelt visited huts to see women at their needlework and called at schools where children looked, too.

letics, campus courtships, and purely domestic topics. The American student, as a class, is well fed, harmless, mild—a wholesome contented cross-section of young America that has come to accept self-government with indifference. Consequently an American student would be no match for a European student in a discussion of social and economic problems. But the depression, which has brought financial strain upon American students, is beginning to show the same effect as hunger is producing in Europe. More and more our students in this country are becoming interested in social sciences and are discussing life and living in international terms. It is a peculiar fact that America is becoming more internationally minded at a time when economic nationalism is a favored federal policy.

Mrs. R. L. Getz of Hoboken shopped in Pampa yesterday afternoon.

Charles Crutchfield of Berger transacted business here this morning.

300 Gallons of Gasoline Stolen

More than 300 gallons of gasoline was siphoned from storage at the Phillips Petroleum company's storage in south Pampa last night. City police officers investigating the theft found that a ladder had been used to get into the enclosure where the gasoline was stored.

The thieves apparently siphoned the gasoline into a small container, then carried it to the fence, where it was poured into barrels. Marks on the outside of the fence showed where barrels were rolled 50 feet to a truck. The truck tire marks showed plainly on some soft ground.

Even so... you can say Chesterfields are "not like others"

NO two people in the world look alike... act alike. So it is with tobacco... just like folks.

No two leaves are the same.

And it's the same with cigarettes... no two brands are alike.

Furthermore, not only are the tobaccos different, but the way the tobaccos are handled is different.

This, you can understand.

You know just as well as we do that no two manufacturers use the same kinds of tobaccos, or blend them or cross-blend them or weld them together in the same manner.

We do everything that science knows and that money can buy to make CHESTERFIELD as good a cigarette as can be made.

We hope you like them. They are "not like others."
