MRS. PIPES APPOINTED SHERIFF

Twinkles

The Children of Israel, remarks the West Foster group, used a so-called system. But, he adds, it took them 40 years to get out of the wilderness.

High school girls will be animated checkers in a P.T.A. tournament soon in the gymnasium. Interest in the game is reported to have risen 1,000 per cent since the announcement.

Tides flow in two directions. Kidnapers are riding into trouble on the breakers of federal vigilance, and the gangster menace has declined remarkably. Public and official indifference magnifies criminals' power in a most illusory manner.

The son of a former "best dressed woman" may wear straps of an electric chair—for murder. That is the best dress for such offenders.

As a West Texan, we have never thought much of the society men who change their dress more than once in a working day. But if the weather continues cold at sunrise and hot at noon we may revise our ideas.

The Kaiser's health continues good, but the fact stands in cutting contrast with the figures on world war dead—dead who settled nothing but the passions of the moment.

Brevitorials

Musings of the moment: We pause in tribute to "Tiny" Pipes, whose cheery smile will be missing from the sheriff's office. His good will was as big as his dimensions. He was the biggest man we ever knew, but avoidropis never affected his spirit. . . . Hundreds sought his advice; few did not know him. "Tiny's in the box" was a favorite expression as court house folk conveyed the news that the sheriff was in conference. Often in that same tiny room with the big sheriff, this writer knows the quality of the "horse-sense" that the kindly big fellow dispensed. . . . His pastime replaces calm with political uncertainty, for he was such a popular figure that his re-election was widely conceded. . . . The greatest thing in life to him, outside his family, was his circle of friends. When he moved ponderously through the courthouse, he always was surrounded by well-wishers. Whether he knew his greeters made no difference. . . . Peace to his ashes; grateful friends and family console his friends and his family.

OUT-DOOR air and sunshine are great health stimulants. Few of us have indoor working conditions or homes conducive to health. The homes of "tomorrow" and the offices too, will be vastly different from those of today.

THE first thing that needs attention in most homes is the air. It usually is too dry. It is either too hot or too cold. There are too many drafts, too many cold rooms. Homes of tomorrow will have a "winter" room in the basement and there will be weather units in every room providing means for sending conditioned air, warm or cool, to provide a constant temperature in winter or summer. Radio and television will be built-in. All illumination will be indirect, with no glaring bulbs to assault the eye. Built-in motors will open doors, wash and dry dishes, make the coffee, and perform automatically many of the household tasks.

Local Schools To Close One Day For Educational Session LINDBERGH CLAIMS AIR MAIL TRANSPORTATION BILL IS UNJUST

TRIAL OF AIR CONTRACTORS IS ADVOCATED

ARMY NOT EFFICIENT IN FLYING MAILS, HE ASSERTS

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—In a public but firm tone, Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh told a senate committee today that the bill to return airmail transportation to private hands was "unjust," that the private contracts should not have been cancelled "without a trial of the operators" and that the army had not been as efficient as private concerns in flying the mails.

Testifying in the senate caucus room jammed with hundreds of spectators, the aviator—who previously had criticized the amendment and turned down an invitation to serve in a committee study of army aviation—emphatically opposed as "unjust" a section of the bill placing limitations on the right of private companies to bid on new contracts.

The disputed clause would bar companies whose contracts were cancelled from bidding unless they waived all claims against the government in connection with the amendments.

Under questioning, he told of receiving $6,000 a year "up to the first of this month" from Transcontinental and Western Air, who lost a contract, and $10,000 a year from Pan-American Airways.

He said he had participated in none of the conferences leading to the contracts and repeatedly asserted that he was not interested in them, but that he had been asked to appear in connection with a bill to amend the act.

Unless the old companies were permitted to bid on new contracts, he said, it would take two or three years to get new contracts.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., March 16 (AP)—A furor over a "psalm of politics" has been carried to the door of the White House.

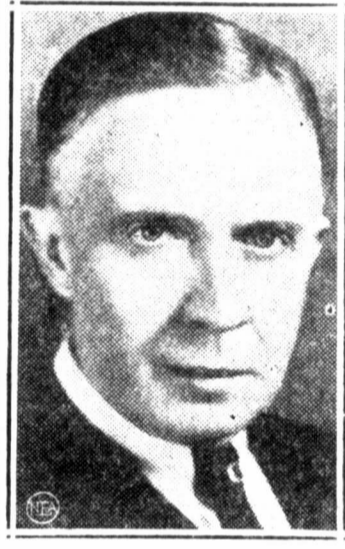

Because the Louisville Courier-Journal still declines to tell a now-famous secret, the Kentucky house of representatives seeks to have Robert W. Bingham, the paper's publisher, recalled as an ambassador to London.

The "psalm" appeared in a letter in the Courier-Journal over the signature of a member of the house of representatives. Legislators called it a caution to their body and sought to punish the editor, Vance Armentrout, for refusing to furnish the name of the writer. He said it was a confidence he could not ethically break.

After Armentrout filed a $50,000 suit yesterday seeking damages for false arrest, the house voted 44 to 39 to ask President Roosevelt to recall Bingham unless the secret were bare in six hours.

The Courier-Journal indicated plainly that it had no intention of meeting the demand, now or ever. At the expiration of the six hours, the house resolution was telegraphed to the president.

Arthur C. Willard, above, acting dean of the University of Illinois engineering college, has been named president of the university to succeed Harry Woodburn Chase, resigned. The new president to serve in a committee study of army aviation—emphatically opposed as "unjust" a section of the bill placing limitations on the right of private companies to bid on new contracts.

DILLINGER PAL SHOT TO DEATH IN GUN FIGHT

Negro Who Escaped With Bandit Is Slain

SARNIA, Ont., March 16 (AP)—Royal Canadian mounted police rushed to a patrol of the river bank here when it was reported a white man believed to be John Dillinger had crossed from the United States in a rowboat.

PORT HURON, Mich., March 16 (AP)—Herbert Youngblood, partner of John Dillinger in his escape from the Crown Point ind. jail a fortnight ago, died in a hospital here this afternoon of bullet wounds received in a battle with sheriff's officers who had trapped him in a store, and officers armed with machine guns were combing the vicinity for Dillinger who he said had been with him.

He was almost unconscious when he gasped out the information that sent all available officers into the manhunt for the desperado who had been the object of a nation-wide search since he evaded his Indiana jail guards with an imitation pistol carved from a washboard and fled.

Four officers, led by Sheriff William L. Van Antwerp, went to a store in a negro section of South Port Huron, on a tip that a negro carrying a gun and boasting of a jail escape was there.

The negro suspect met them at the door gave another name and when the officers sought to enter, opened fire.

The officers returned the fire, and the suspect fell with a wound near the heart and three bullets in the abdomen.

Undersheriff Charles Cavanaugh and Deputy Howard Lohr also fell, with serious wounds. Sheriff Van Antwerp was wounded in the arm but Deputy Ferris Lucas escaped injury in the hall of lead.

J. H. Wagoner of Roxana transported business here today.

Mrs. E. B. Cracken of Miami shopped here yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Hank Breining of LeFors was a Pampa visitor yesterday.

TEACHERS ARE TO HEAR MANY LEADERS TALK

OLD INSTITUTE GROWS INTO GREATER PLAN

SCHOOLS of the Pampa independent school district and several others in Gray county will be dismissed Friday, March 23, to permit the teachers to attend the Northwest Texas Educational conference at West Texas Teachers college at Canyon.

In making the decision, local trustees pointed out that the schools would still have the number of days required by the state department of education.

The educational conference, which grew out of the old teachers' institute plan, will stress discussion of current problems of curriculum building and direction of extracurricular activities. Supt. Perman Sawyer of Canadian is president of the conference.

With the public invited to attend, the meeting is expected to attract civic and club leaders from all over this territory. The first session will be held at 9:30 a. m. March 23 and the summit will be at noon of the following day.

Outstanding speakers will include Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the University of Oklahoma; Dr. J. A. Hill, president of the Teachers college; Dr. W. C. Campbell of the George Peabody college for Teachers, Nashville, Tenn.; Dr. Fred C. Ayres, University of Texas; State Supt. L. A. Woods; Deputy State Supt. E. E. Channess; President J. C. Loflin, Texas State Teachers association; Senator T. M. Small and J. O. Gilkrie of Amarillo.

Entertainment by school groups will be frequent during the two-day session.

Teachers look forward to the conference as an outstanding development in their profession in this region.

Safety Banquet To Be Held Here

A banquet at noon of March 28 was virtually assured today as civic leaders discussed the broadest of that day to announce winners in the National Traffic Safety contest, in which Pampa took second place.

La Grange, Ill., was the only city which placed above Pampa, Evansville, Ind., won the grand prize for larger cities. Pampa will receive an engraved certificate.

On the broadest program from 1 to 1:30 p. m. March 28 will be Floyd Gibbons, famous war correspondent; John E. Long, president of the National Safety council; Secretary of Commerce Roper, and other notables.

Eugene Worley, newest candidate for state representative, is a young Shamrock resident, now attending law school in the University of Texas, where he will take his bar examination in June. He is a graduate of Shamrock high school. A number of university students have, in the past, run for office in their home districts and some have been elected.

Mrs. Hank Breining of LeFors was a Pampa visitor yesterday.

FERA WORK TO BEGIN MONDAY ON CWA-COUNTY PROJECTS

FERA WORKERS, their names taken from the abandoned CWA rolls, marked time today while the changes were being made under the new system.

Work will be resumed Monday on the unfinished CWA projects. The number given 24 hours of work per week will be greater than the last CWA quota, which was 443 men for the week ending yesterday.

FERA is being set up because of the emergency brought about by the drought, otherwise, there would be no substitute for CWA.

At Air Probe

THE possibility that the system of bidding for airmail contracts might allow the airmail to become concentrated in the hands of a few companies, constituting a monopoly, was admitted by W. W. Howes, first assistant postmaster general, when, as shown here, he testified before the senate postoffice committee hearing on the revision of airmail laws.

The order of extradition was passed by Chief Justice Sid William Muleck on Insull's appeal from an extradition order previously issued.

It was regarded as ending Insull's fight against a return to Chicago to face a trial on charges of embezzlement and grand larceny.

Martin Insull started his legal battle against extradition nearly 17 months ago, shortly after his arrest in Dallas, Ont., where he was found after the collapse of the Insull utilities.

Sitting as an extradition commissioner, Justice A. C. Kingston found the charges, facing him in Illinois, constituted the charges in Canada and that he must go back to Cook county where he stood indicted.

MIAMI, Fla., March 16 (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt arrived here by Commercial Air liner shortly after noon today, completing an 11-day economic survey flight to Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

Ferguson Slated To Get National Democratic Job

AUSTIN, March 16 (AP)—Former Governor James E. Ferguson plainly indicated today he would accede to importunities of his friends and accept the place of national democratic committeeman for Texas if it were offered him.

"There has not been any slate made up so far as I know," he said. "But I still am vain enough to have my name mentioned occasionally."

HOUSTON, March 16 (AP)—Edward J. Hussion, secretary of state democratic executive committee, expressed the opinion today that the committee would select former Governor James E. Ferguson as national committeeman for Texas if he desired the post.

Hussion added, however, that the former governor had not approached him or anyone else so far as he knew in that regard.

BROTHER WILL BE RETURNED FROM CANADA

GOVERNMENT ORDERS MARTIN INSULL EXTRADITED

ATHENS, March 16 (AP)—Samuel Insull, Sr. who was located early today aboard the Greek freighter Matotis, will be expelled directly to the United States, the Greek government let it be known.

Angry because of his coup in attempting to sneak away from Greece, the government has decided to return Insull to America, where he will face charges of embezzlement and larceny.

The Matotis is now proceeding to Piraeus, port of Athens, where it is expected to arrive tomorrow.

Two ships sail shortly to America and it was held likely that the 74-year-old fugitive, who battled for nearly 18 months to escape return, would be aboard one of them.

Previously, the government had planned merely to expel Insull from Greece, allowing him to go where he wished in search of refuge.

TORONTO, March 16 (AP)—Martin J. Insull, former Chicago utilities operator and brother of Samuel Insull today was ordered extradited to the United States.

Insull immediately held in custody to await the arrival of American authorities to return him to the United States.

The order of extradition was passed by Chief Justice Sid William Muleck on Insull's appeal from an extradition order previously issued.

It was regarded as ending Insull's fight against a return to Chicago to face a trial on charges of embezzlement and grand larceny.

Martin Insull started his legal battle against extradition nearly 17 months ago, shortly after his arrest in Dallas, Ont., where he was found after the collapse of the Insull utilities.

Sitting as an extradition commissioner, Justice A. C. Kingston found the charges, facing him in Illinois, constituted the charges in Canada and that he must go back to Cook county where he stood indicted.

Supreme Court To Rule on Oil Code in April

WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—The appeal of the oil administration against recent decisions in Texas as courts holding unconstitutional parts of the NRA oil code and orders curtailing the production of crude oil was filed in the supreme court today by attorneys for Secretary Ickes.

Oil men thought the court would decide early in April whether it had jurisdiction and set the case for hearing.

Mourned Today

Gray county residents today mourned the untimely passing of their sheriff, C. E. (Tiny) Pipes, above, who succumbed to pneumonia yesterday while serving in his first term of office.

FUNERAL FOR SHERIFF TO BE HELD SUNDAY

Deputies Are To Be Pallbearers at M. E. Church

FUNERAL services for Sheriff C. E. (Tiny) Pipes, 53, who died suddenly yesterday afternoon, will be held at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon in the First Methodist church with the Rev. Gaston Foote, pastor in charge. Burial will follow in Fairview cemetery under direction of the G. C. Malone funeral home, where the body lies at rest.

Although he moved to Pampa only 7 years ago to become deputy sheriff under E. S. Graves, Sheriff Pipes was well known in this section of the Panhandle many years before that time. He operated a truck line out of Amarillo. Before that time, Sheriff Pipes visited this section while a Texas ranger.

He was elected sheriff of Gray county in the last election and a few weeks ago announced for reelection. He had no opponent at the time of his death.

Sheriff Pipes was married in Lincoln Parish, La., December 17, 1889. He is survived by his wife and two sons, C. E. of Pampa and S. C. of Monroe, La., who is en route to Pampa. Other survivors are his father, A. J. Pipes of Fairwell, a brother, M. M. Pipes, who resides in California, and two half-brothers, Major Pipes of Chicago, Ill., and Alex. Mayes of Jopeshoro, La. Pallbearers named are Bud Cottrell, Buck Koonee, O. R. Wasson, A. S. Cambour, Roy Stout, Floyd Hollenback, G. C. Stark and R. M. Mumford.

Mrs. Joe Shelton will be in charge of flowers.

Sheriff Pipes was a Methodist by faith and was a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge.

WILL SELECT HER DEPUTIES IMMEDIATELY

COMMISSIONERS' ACT IS GENERALLY APPROVED

BY APPOINTMENT of the commissioners court in special session this morning, Gray county has a new sheriff.

The sheriff is Mrs. C. E. (Fannie) Pipes, tall, stately, motherly wife of the late "Tiny" Pipes, who died yesterday of pneumonia.

Her bond was approved by the court before it adjourned. She was named several of her deputies immediately.

In notifying her of the appointment, County Judge C. E. Cary pointed out that, with the office of sheriff vacant, Gray county had no deputies and no jailer, officially.

"I appreciate the appointment, which I accept," said Mrs. Pipes. "I will give my personal attention to the office and endeavor to continue the policies as Mr. Pipes discussed them with me. I think this is what he wished that I should do."

Mrs. Pipes said she desired more time to consider her appointment of deputies. She had several conferees to hold, and there were a number of persons wishing to see her.

Many persons called to express their approval of the appointment and to assure her of their support while she fills out the unexpired term, lasting the remainder of this year.

In her early fifties, Mrs. Pipes is in fair health and strength. She is quiet by nature and devoted to her home duties. She is expected to have much to say about the activities of her "force."

Action of the commissioners court was taken after a brief discussion of the matter. Custom has established a precedent for appointing wives of sheriffs who die in office, especially where financial circumstances of the family make this timely and when the wives are agreeable to the idea of actively taking up official duties.

THOROUGH

PUBLIC interest is a racing, pulsing thing. It is one thing today and another tomorrow. But there are some avenues of news that are always open and with the information always in demand. Of these, the markets rank near the top.

Oil field people and business men own many stocks, even if they are not regular traders. Some own bonds. Farmers and merchants watch the grain and livestock markets closely. The stock exchanges have held public attention since the crash of 1929.

Reader interest, welded from day to day through printing of accurate and in the case of stock market close, exclusive market news, is a definite and valuable thing in THE NEWS—valuable to the paper and valuable to the advertiser who uses its columns. Competent demand market news, and you get this in the Northeastern Panhandle's only daily newspaper.

Talks to Parents

Editor's note: Problems of juvenile delinquency and recreation are current topics, hence THE NEWS today and herewith presents the first of a series of occasional articles addressed to parents.

THE MODERN GIRL By Brookie Peters Church.

Grace is 18 and threatens with some force to run away from home. She complains that she has no freedom and that her mother gives her no reason for the rules she makes.

Grace has been graduated from high school, and there is no money now for further education. Jobs are scarce and hard to get, and her mother even objects to her looking for one on the grounds that she wants her at home for a year or two. In an age of freedom and enterprise when all her friends are either at college or at work, she is living the life of a girl of 50 years ago.

Her mother cannot understand the trouble, and is worried about the child's instability and dissatisfaction, and the girl is ready to defy her family with some silly and imprudent escapade. The mother still looks upon Grace as the child she was 10 and more years ago. Were the girl married it would be quite different, though in point of fact she would still be 18 and inexperienced.

The basic difficulty is the lack of confidence between mother and daughter. Neither trusts the other, and they have not been brave enough to talk things out.

To some extent the child is to be blamed, but not nearly so severely as the mother. If she could ap-

WHAT IS HOME WITHOUT A GARDEN?

HIDING UGLY BUILDINGS
Many yards have unsightly garages or other small buildings that it is desirable to hide or ugly board fences to disguise. Annual vines and some of the taller-growing annuals are admirable to use as screens in such cases.

The best annual to hide an unsightly object quickly is the castor bean, the most majestic annual in the flower lists. The Zanzibar types are particularly fine. With the first warm days, the castor bean starts sending out its huge palmate leaves and spinning up a thick, sturdy stalk until it is six to eight feet tall with a wide spread.

The tall annual sunflowers of the old-fashioned, familiar "Russian" type now comes in shades of red and full doubles, which make majestic ornaments of height and form a substantial screen.

Then there are the annual vines, the morning glory being the quickest and most effective, and quickly covering any trellis or screen arranged for it by grabbing any support in sight if none is furnished. The Japanese morning glories offer a wonderful range of coloring and marking, particularly the imperial strain. They have leaves of varying shape and sometimes are attractively variegated. The hyacinth bean and the old scarlet runner are valuable vines to furnish thick foliage, attractive, clean and with handsome blossoms to go with it. The sunflower is another useful member of the morning glory tribe that will reach up to the second story in a hurry, once it gets going.

Vines of finer texture which furnish veils of concealment rather than screen are the handsome Cardinal climber, a gorgeous sight, and the cypress vine. Cobaea scandens is another handsome climber of splendid growth with beautiful purple bells. The seed should always be planted edgewise.

The old-fashioned madeira vine, tubers of which are now on sale, is coming into popularity again as a porch vine. It has leathery, glossy foliage and fragrant white sprays of flowers.

One of the quickest-growing annual vines is the wild cucumber. The gourds also are useful.

Make sure that the cold frames are in good condition. You will be using them before long.

If last year's garden was a failure, don't put all the blame on drought. Make an honest check-up on your garden activities, and see if there were not several things neglected, then, with all the facts at hand, plan the new garden.

A better watering system will allay much trouble if we get another drought this season.

Do your gardening with pencil and paper this time of the year. A plan well thought out beforehand will invariably result in the best garden.

Missouri cotton ginned in 1933 showed a decrease of 20 per cent from 1932.

The manufacture of hand-made rugs has become an industry of some importance at the mountain village of Mars Hill, N. C., and 100 mountaineers skilled in weaving have found permanent employment.

Big Dogs Menace Man's Supremacy Claims Canadian

HALIFAX, N. S. — The trouble with Amherst, according to J. S. Smiley, is the dogs, they are too big and too fierce. And so Mr. Smiley, who represents Cumberland in the Nova Scotia legislature, has introduced a measure which would virtually declare dividends on canine diminutiveness and meekness.

It takes the form of an amendment to the town incorporation act and provides for a graduated scale of license fees according to size and ferocity of the animal under consideration. Just how its ferocity shall be judged, the bill does not say.

At any rate, Mr. Smiley avers, there is need for restriction of big dogs. "So far as Amherst is concerned," he told the legislature, "man is in danger of losing his biblically promised dominion over the earth."

"Some say," he added, "that the police dog is the near kinsman of the wolf; others cite his bravery in war, his affection for human beings, the achievements of one of his breed—of Rin-Tin-Tin. But the fact is, there are too many of these dogs roaming the streets."

The bill went to committee. A drunk who leaned against a post and set off a false fire alarm was fined $100 in a Kansas City police court.

Man Is Held For Furnace Murder Of His Own Son

AKRON, O., March 15. — Detectives asked Howard K. Gross today why he thrust his infant son into a glowing furnace. They quoted him as replying: "I sacrificed my boy because the Lord told me to."

Blue-eyed John Gross, two years old, was the victim. He died last night in a hospital.

Gross, 34-year-old hardware merchant, returned home yesterday from a hospital where he recuperated from injuries suffered in an automobile accident.

Telling his wife Elsie he wanted to clean the mud off his shoes, he went into the cellar, taking the child with him. "An urge came over" him, he said, and he thrust the boy into the furnace. Attracted by the screams of the mother, a maid dragged the child from the furnace and called aid.

Police said Gross had been "talking strangely" since the auto accident. He was to have a sanity hearing today.

The state crop statistician of Idaho reported a decline of about 6 per cent in the number of cattle in the state.

Hovey, Texas, bids fair to become the newest "ghost city" of the state. Only about six families live in the community now, and the post office has been discontinued.

JACK DEMPSEY DROPS OUT OF GARDEN FIGHT

EX-CHAMPION TO GET CUT OF BAER'S RECEIPTS

By HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer NEW YORK, March 16. (AP)—Un- less a last-minute hitch develops, Primo Carnera will defend his heavy championship against Max Baer here June 14.

Setting up a new all-time record for pugilistic conferences, representatives of Carnera, Baer and Madison Square Garden finally have reached an agreement on terms for the match which will be held in the garden's outdoor bowl on Long Island.

Ancl Hoffman, representing the challenger, put his signature to the contracts last night. Louis Sorell, Primo's manager, will follow suit shortly, the garden announced.

Roughly the conditions of the agreement were understood to be:

- 1—Hoffman dropped his demand that Jack Dempsey be made co-promoter of the match.
- 2—In return, the garden agreed to give Baer more than the customary challenger's share of 12½ per cent of the receipts, probably 20 per cent. Out of that, Baer will

Andy Crocker, who has been a patient at Pampa hospital several days, returned to his home this morning.

Postmaster D. E. Cecil made a business trip to Berger yesterday, and was able to "cut in" Dempsey himself.

3—Baer agreed to the garden's demand that he defend the title once under the garden's promotion.

4—The garden, however, agreed that Baer will be allowed to select the date for a title defense and to have a hand in naming his opponent. This would give the Californian a chance to fight twice this summer and then return to Dempsey's promotional banner. It was Dempsey who promoted Baer's bout with Max Schmeling last summer when Baer knocked out the Teuton in ten rounds.

YAQUI JOE TO MEET WILSON MONDAY NIGHT

LEFORS RIG BUILDER AND LARSON TO WRESTLE

The main event wrestling match to be staged at the Pla-Mor auditorium Monday night is another "natural." Benny Wilson, Brown- wood bronco-buster, who made such a hit with fans last week, has been matched with Yaqui Joe, Sonora Indian.

The semi-final will introduce two heavyweights to Pampa wrestling fans. King Cole, better known in the wrestling game as Swede Larson, 192 pounds, will meet Bob Rodgers, Lefors rig builder who tips the scales at 208 pounds. The two grunt- and-giant are matched for a 30-minute time limit or one fall affair.

Billy Hallas, one of the toughest old men in the game today, will meet Farmer Miller in the opening 20-minute time limit or one fall affair at 8:15 o'clock. Miller has never wrestled here but has acted as referee.

The third man in the ring for the main event is liable to be the busiest man within the ropes. The going is scheduled to get rough. Wilson gave fans the impression last week that he is one of those silent individuals who gives no warning when he is going to get rough.

Yaqui Joe is a docile sort of individual until riled, then breaks loose and takes things into his own hands. The bout is loaded with dynamite and no one can predict when it will be touched off.

Wilson tossed Pat Garrison around the ring last week. He didn't exactly get rough, but he was on the verge of "blowing up" several times. It is doubtful if he can go the distance like a nice little gentleman.

The LeFors giant will be remembered as the mauler who met Oscar Peterson here more than a year ago. Since that time Rodgers has been working hard and is said to be in good shape. Larsen first made his appearance here two years ago. He is a rough customer. He had not been wrestling recently but has kept in condition.

THIRTY FOOTERS WIN BOWLING RACE IN COMMERCIAL LEAGUE

Art Swanson Takes Individual Title with Average of 187.5 For 56 Games.

The Commercial league bowling race ended Tuesday night with the Thirty Footers, last season's winners, repeating with 38 wins and 22 losses. The Schneider hotel team took second place with 31 wins and 29 losses by defeating the Country club in two games out of three Tuesday night. The golfers won 30 and lost 30 games. The Kiwanis club A team was in the cellar with 21 win and 39 losses.

Art Swanson of the Country club team won the individual bowling title with an average of 187.5 pins for 56 games. Swanson also won last year with an average of 186 pins. Eddie Fritchie of the same team took second scoring honors with an average of 184 pins. T. F. Morton of the Schneider hotel was in third place with an average of 183.4 pins. Hap Baxter of the Thirty Footers was the other bowler to have more than 180 pins average.

The Schneider hotel team rolled the team high three games with 2,907 pins. The Country club was second with 2,888 pins and the Thirty Footers followed with 2,781 pins.

The Country club team rolled high single game with 1,658 pins. The Schneider hotel was second with 1,027 pins and the thirty Footers followed with 1,018 pins.

Eddie Fritchie of the Country club team had high three game with 700 pins. T. F. Morton of the Schneider hotel had 653 pins and Art Swanson of the Country club was third with 642 pins.

Art Swanson of the Country club rolled the recognized high league game with 256 pins. Eddie Fritchie of the same team was second high with 255 pins and J. M. Powell of the Thirty Footers was third with 248 pins. Steve Neely, bowling substitute for the Schneider hotel Tuesday night, had a single game of 268 pins but the game was not recognized because Neely failed to roll the required number of games for recognition.

GRID TEAM TO BATTLE EXES ON SATURDAY

CHANGED LINEUP HAS BEEN CLICKING IN PRACTICE

After watching Coach Odus Mitchell's Harvester prospects scrimmage for more than an hour yesterday afternoon, sideline coaches appeared satisfied that the coach is "on his way" this year. The much changed lineup has clicked nicely in three scrimmages, which is "something" for a spring training period.

The new Harvesters will scrimmage the "Exes" at Harvester park at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The former stars will be strengthened by a number of stars who were unable to be out last Friday, when the Harvesters downed the "Exes" in a wild scrimmage.

The starting Harvester backfield tomorrow will probably be Nash quarter; Hamilton and Green, half-back; and Dunaway, fullback. Mackie, who has been assigned the fullback position, is suffering an attack of appendicitis and may not be able to play. When Mackie is in the lineup, Hamilton usually goes to quarter and Dunaway to half-back.

Hamilton and Nash are learning quarterback and halfback positions, while Dunaway and Mackie are both working at fullback and half-back. Green has been doing more blocking than anything else since he was taken out of the line.

Robert McAuley has been shifted to center, where he backs up the line. Jack Powell is being used at tackle and Charlie Johnson and Charlie Weston are starting a fight for one guard position. Bill Haner looks like a regular guard and Carl Smith appears to have a tackle berth in hand. Captain Monroe Owens is the left end. The other end position is causing all the worry. Fred Mumford has been working there but he has an injured shoulder. Nix, Scott, Montgomery, Park, and Harbour are all candidates for the position.

The scrimmage tomorrow afternoon should be the best of the season.

a great fighter to defeat him.

Saxton showed fans that he could make a good showing against fighters other than the Dunivan type. He is not the style of fighter that can combat footwork, jabs and blinding speed of the Dunivan type. Put Saxton in the ring with a slugger of a right-hander and he would show up much better.

The Oklahoma City boxer hurt Dunivan often with terrific punches but he was unable to keep up with the Irish speed artist.

Earl Madden and Dick Hedgspeth "stole the show" in the semi-final. Madden won the bout after being knocked down in the first round. Hedgspeth came from his corner with arms swinging and connected three times. Madden went to his knees but came back fighting and leather was in the air until the final gong.

Both boxers used a two-fisted attack that couldn't be stopped, and only their ability to take punishment saved a knockout. Madden connected with the more telling blows after the first round, although he took a right to the chin at the gong of the fourth. Fans clasped the bout as the best of the year.

Chief Eugene Parris, Oklahoma City Indian, had his hands full to win the six-round special event from Kid Stamper, local boy, in a great bout. Parris hit Stamper hard and often bit the Pampan bore in to connect at close range, and rock Parris. Both gave a good boxing exhibition at long range, but mixed the fighting to make the match a fast one.

Joe Vernon, local boy, won the opening bout from Kid Cooke of Oklahoma City. The Oklahoman couldn't break through to get a clean blow at Vernon, who showed up well.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

WILL you ever forget the sulphur and molasses "spring tonic"? But times have changed. Today, we know that much of the listlessness of spring days results from common constipation.

This condition can be corrected by including plenty of "bulk" with meals. So today, instead of getting an unpleasant "spring tonic," you go to your grocer's for a package of Kellogg's ALL-BRAN.

Two tablespoons of this delicious cereal daily furnish the "bulk" needed to help promote regular habits.

ALL-BRAN also provides vitamin B, as well as a generous share of the iron you need in spring.

People who are really ill after the winter, of course, should consult their physicians. ALL-BRAN is simply recommended for common constipation—and is not a "cure-all."

The labels of bran cereals tell, now, whether they are all bran or only part bran. Get Kellogg's ALL-BRAN—and avoid disappointment! At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

DUNIVAN WINS PLA-MOR BOUT FROM SAXTON

MADDEN, CHIEF PARRIS ARE GIVEN CLOSE DECISIONS

Mickey Dunivan, local middle-weight, jabbed and crossed his way to a win over Kenneth Saxton of Oklahoma City in the 10-round main event of the Pla-Mor auditorium last night. The crafty Dunivan used footwork to keep away from Saxton's terrific two-fisted attack while he continued to keep a left in Saxton's face.

The Irishman won the fight in the eighth round when he opened a bad cut over Saxton's eye. From then on the Oklahoma City boy backed away and covered, with Dunivan crowding him fast and hard. The Irish boxer doesn't pack a hard punch but he hits so often and misses so seldom that it takes

BY BERTHA CHISUM, B. P. W. Membership Chairman. "It isn't the individual or the army army as a whole."

This little verse expresses the ideals of membership in the Business and Professional Women's club. Duties of the membership committee are to function until every member of the club is a working member.

Too much importance cannot be placed on the work of each individual club member to strive for new members.

Our state membership chairman, Olga Eldridge of Amarillo, asks that our aim for this year be to hold each club member responsible for one new member or more in the week.

Membership of the Pampa club includes women with a wide range of interests and occupations.

Mrs. M. P. Downs, nurse; Mrs. Lillian Jordan, bookkeeper at Miller-Lybrand Motor company.

Mrs. Kathryn Vineard, director of dancing studio; Miss Hazel Christian, assistant to the county school superintendent.

Mrs. Hazel Bechtelheimer, beauty shop manager; Mrs. Viva Keehn, costiere; Miss Clara Lee Shewmaker, employed in office of the Phillips company.

Canning Methods And Scoring Is H. D. Club Topic

"Always the best for your children," said Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, in a demonstration to the Hopkins club Tuesday.

Miss Adams gave several helpful hints and points on scoring canned vegetables. Some of them were: Keep tips of asparagus out of the water while bleaching to keep them green; cut beans 1 1/2 inches in diameter for canning; crush best seeds before planting and soak in a glass of water; greens should be packed loosely in the cans; do not use table salt in canning; it is too strong and will cause the liquid to be cloudy; do not use can knaps, caulflower, or cabbage, as they are likely to turn black.

Mrs. Adams reported 41 entries from Gray county at the meat show in Amarillo last week.

Mrs. Ernest Vanderburg scored 87 1/2 on her collection of canned goods.

Now is the time to improve our standards and produce better quality products," said Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, when Merten Home Demonstration club met with Mrs. L. A. Laverty Wednesday afternoon.

Products scored to determine the variety best adapted to this climate were snapped beans, lima beans, English peas, field peas, okra, beets, greens.

Okra often turns dark because it has been in contact with iron knives or vessels. The greener the vegetable the more food value it contains, explained Miss Adams.

She gave these general rules for canning vegetables for exhibit: Use a coarse or cheap salt; a jar of canned field peas should be 1-4 snapped and 3-4 shelled; snapped beans should be 1-4 inch wide; no canned vegetables must be higher in the jar than 1/2-inch of the top, and water within 1-4-inch of the top.

During the social hour, fruit salad, cookies, and cocoa were served to Mmes Fred C. Fischer, J. H. Smith, Alva Phillips, T. L. Sirman, G. O. Bridges, H. B. Knapp, J. C. Brown, Miss Adams, and the hostess.

DETROIT CAMP BUZZING WITH PENNANT BEE

MICKEY COCHRANE HAS IMPROVED TEAM 25 PER CENT

(Note: This is the fifth of a series of stories analyzing at first hand the 1934 prospects of major league baseball clubs.)

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Editor LAKELAND, Fla., March 10, (AP)—It is divulging no secret to say that the faint buzzing of the pennant bee already has been heard in the spring training fair of the Detroit Tigers.

The sound may be deceptive or the bee disappointed. Even with allowance for a little of both, there is one good, substantial black haired reason, for being convinced the Tigers are already fully 25 per cent improved over 1933, when they finished only a few points out of the first division. The reason is Gordon Stanley (Mickey) Cochrane, successor to Busby Harris as manager and favorite backstop of this baseball generation.

The three prime factors which make the Bengals look like a much better ball club this spring—more power, more power and stronger pitching—all have their foundation in the personal playing ability and leadership of Cochrane. He not only fits naturally into his new job, after being the vital spark in Connie Mack's last great championship team, but he has given Detroit more baseball stuff to chatter about than any individual in Tiger uniform since Ty Cobb.

Cochrane bolsters Detroit's weakest spot for the past few years, behind the bat. He expects to play in at least 125 games. With a lifetime batting mark of .321 in the majors, Mickey will also contribute a much-needed punch to the line-up.

Cochrane traded a young and highly regarded outfielder, Jonathan Stone, to Washington for the veteran Goose Goslin, a fading veteran, with one big thought in mind—to get more clean up punch and a player accustomed to the championship life. He and Frank J. Navin, the Tiger president, tried hard to persuade Connie Mack to sell Frank Higgins, crack young third baseman of the Athletics, but they got the final "no" a week ago.

"Third base is the one really doubtful spot in our line-up," said Cochrane, "and the pennant race would just be a breeze for us with a player like Higgins to handle the job."

Cochrane's alternative choices for third now are Marvin Owen, whose health is doubtful, and Herman Clifford, a flashy recruit from the Beaumont (Texas) farm of the Tigers; in practice Bill Rogell, the regular shortstop, has been shifted to third, with Frankie Parker, a spectacular fielder, also up from Beaumont, at short. Parker's batting weakness—offsets his fielding skill to such an extent, however, that this experiment may not be successful.

The rest of the club is pretty well set. Big Hank Greenberg, the New York boy who packs a real home run wallop, has clinched the first base assignment. There are no better second basemen for more dangerous hitters than Charley Gehringer, whose arm gives him no further trouble. The outfield regulars will consist of Goose Goslin, in left; Erwin Fox, a sophomore, in centre, and Gerald Walker, the league's leading base stealer, in right. Goslin will bat fourth behind Cochrane.

Tommy Bridges, one of the most effective pitchers in the league last year, is the ace of the hurling staff. Big Fred Mathey, entering his fifth big league season as strong as ever; Vic Frasier, obtained from the White Sox last season; and Charley Fischer, southpaw star, are due for the other starting assignments.

Lyrwood (Schoolboy) Rowe, the young Texas giant who made a sensational debut last spring, has not recovered from an arm injury, incurred by coincidence in an attempt to throw Cochrane out on a bunt early in the 1933 season.

The best looking rookie pitching prospects are Eldon Auker from Beaumont; Luke Hamlin, who won 21 games with Toronto; and Steve Larkin, victor in 22 games with Shreveport, La. All three probably will stick.

For utility purposes Cochrane has Vic Sorrell, Ray Fritis and Elon Hogsett, pitchers; Frank Reiber and Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty of his kingdom" (Ps. 145:12).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Substance is that which is eternal and incapable of discord and decay. Truth, Life, and Love are substance, as the Scriptures use this word in its proper sense. The substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." Spirit, the synonym of Mind, Soul, or God, is the only real substance. The spiritual universe, including individual man, is a composite idea, reflecting the divine substance of Spirit" (page 468).

Some times even Christians belittle the value of the Old Testament in our present day life. They are likened to one who would destroy his old family album, burn all letters of his parents and attempt to forget his ancestors.

What a background for the coming of a Savior, the need of a Savior, and the value of a Savior it gives to us.

Sermon, "The Value of the Old Testament," 7:30 p. m. At 11 a. m. the music includes the prelude, "The Glory of God in Nature," by Beethoven, Miss Shanklin in solo, "A Message," by Braine, Offertory, "Sarabande," by Handel.

Teach your daughter how to guard her health

Mother... You Must Do Your Part
Most girls need a tonic and regulator when they come to womanhood. If your daughter is languid, nervous and cranky... if she complains of new pains and aches... see that she takes Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound regularly. When she is a happy, healthy wife and mother she will thank you. "My daughter Leona is a stenographer and switchboard operator. She was nervous and weak and often had to stay home from work. Never cared to go anywhere, lost her appetite and always had headache. Your Compound helped her wonderfully. She is more peppy and can work now every day." -Mrs. B. Trösmar, 2520 W. Junction Ave., Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

RFC SEEKING POWER TO LEND MONEY TO PRIVATE INDUSTRY

JESSE JONES TO MAKE PLEA ON SATURDAY

SENATE COMMITTEE TO HEAR OF PLANS FOR LEGISLATION

BY NATHAN ROBERTSON.
(Copyright, 1934,
By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 16 (AP)—Unprecedented power to engage in a general banking business, heretofore confined to private banks, was sought today by the reconstruction corporation.

Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the corporation, will be called before the senate's banking committee tomorrow to explain the necessity for the legislation just submitted on behalf of the RFC board. Under it the corporation could loan direct to industry.

Long a critic of the leading policy of private banks, Jones is expected to urge the measure as a means of providing sufficient credit for industrial recovery.

The proposed power would be conferred under the broad terms of a bill, drafted by the RFC, which also would grant authority for financing foreign trade and extend the corporation's functions in other directions.

Whether the bill had the approval of President Roosevelt was not immediately disclosed, but many argued the chief executive must at least have known of the proposal.

Taking cognizance of steps already underway to create a system of federal intermediate credit banks under the federal reserve board for lending to industry, Jones said the board did not want to oppose that proposal.

If this banking system is completed, he said, "it would not be necessary for the RFC to make such loans, but we could be in a position to do so if desirable."

The RFC bill would authorize loans up to five years to industrial and commercial concerns "to enable such business to obtain working capital, reduce and refinance its outstanding indebtedness or make plant improvements or replacements."

They could only be made, however, to companies employing ten people or more, that were fully complying with the NFA.

To provide for smaller enterprises, the bill would permit the RFC to "purchase a participation" up to 75 per cent in loans for commercial and industrial purposes by private banks.

A significant section of the bill, designed to facilitate the reorganization of railroads, would permit the corporation to purchase claims against carriers with the approval of the interstate commerce commission.

Other important provisions would:

- Permit the RFC to make additional loans to complete and enlarge self-liquidating projects for which advances had already been made;
- Increase its fund available for reorganizing drainage and irrigation districts from $50,000,000 to $100,000,000;
- Authorize the RFC to purchase preferred stock or purchase capital notes of mutual insurance companies;
- Facilitate the corporation in suing through the courts for liquidation of collateral on loans;
- Permit the corporation to extend loans so that they could be repaid after recovery has been achieved;
- Authorize loans up to five years instead of three as at present.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, March 16 (AP)—Indications that threatened labor troubles may be settled soon brought renewed hope to the stock market today and moderate recoveries were the rule. Even the silver group got back some of its yesterday's losses, trading was relatively quiet, however, and transfers approximated only 1,250,000 shares. The close was:

Another Highway Sought for City

Another highway which sponsors wish to see routed through Pampa was discussed at Kingfisher, Okla., where George Briggs, B. C. D. manager, represented this city.

The road is No. 33 across Oklahoma, beginning at a point nearly midway between Miami and Canadian, and continuing to Custer City, Kingfisher, Guthrie, Tulsa, and on through Siloam Springs, Ark. It is a designated state highway in Oklahoma paralleling No. 66 much of the route. Federal designation is being sought by Oklahoma.

The Texas highway commission has conditionally designated, but not for maintenance, the 20 miles from the Oklahoma line to the juncture of highways 4 and 60 east of here. Another meeting of the road body will be held soon in Wagona, Okla.

THE result will be a house of magic. Shadowless illumination to do away with eye strain and hundreds of electrical servants which leap to their tasks at the touch of a button. It will be no need for open windows even in summer, and the dust storm problem will be largely eliminated. Refrigeration will, of course, be built-in. Kitchens will be marvels of efficiency even more than now.

BEAUTY of design will accompany these innovations. . . . Have you often wished for some magic hand to close the garage doors or open them? Well, the home of tomorrow will have this and more. . . . Our information comes from Westinghouse engineers. . . . Our conclusion is, that the age of electricity is just arriving, and we almost forget to mention two things. One is that there will be microphones in every room so that if you want to call Junior you can just push a button and your voice will be carried to every room in the house. And the second observation is that the cost will be within the reach of millions of Americans. The importance of the utility industry should be observed. To be unemployed "tomorrow" will be unfortunate, indeed.

WE all read much of nationalism. Nationalism is an unfortunate necessity because it is forcing the pace in America's growth toward an economically planned and administered by the Washington government. For example, Italy has, for a long time, consumed several million bushels of American wheat annually in making spaghetti. Mussolini has erected a wall against such imports and about the only way we can dispose of wheat to Italy is to trade it for wines which California does not want imported.

APPLYING America's scientific method of agriculture to farming abroad is doing much to wipe out the American export market. This means that if American workmen insist on meeting all human needs at home, we may expect most of our best customers to do the same thing as far as possible.

But this economic nationalism is so contrary to the expert needs of the cotton and wheat belts that if the American farmer is to produce for domestic consumption only, he must submit to a plan of national economy in a plan of national economy in which compulsion will be necessary to prevent market chaos. . . . It will be vastly to America's benefit to promote a study of international relations and to encourage foreign trade so as to retain the world mar-years for new companies to restore normal service.

Lindbergh agreed with a suggestion by Senator Logan (D., Ky.) that the airmail contracts be returned to private companies pending a further hearing to determine whether the cancelled agreements were obtained through fraud, as charged by the administration.

In favoring large company organization rather than small units, the aviator gave better service as the reason and said he expected "that our passengers will be able to cross the continent without stop."

In answer to questions, Lindbergh said "so far as commercial aviation is concerned, America leads—or rather did lead the world."

"Do you think Postmaster General Brown was right in establishing transcontinental lines?" Barbour asked.

"I am not sufficiently acquainted with the details of setting up those lines to comment on his methods," Lindbergh replied. "But I do know that commercial aviation improved greatly while he was in office."

As Lindbergh concluded two hours of testimony and was excused with "many thanks" by the chairman, loud handclapping greeted him and committee members were profuse in the congratulations.

"The army mail carrying was not as efficient as that of private companies," Lindbergh said. "The army had only 10 days to take over a system that was built up by private companies over ten years."

"The army equipment was not designed for mail carrying. The pilots were not familiar with the airmail routes. It was not possible to take over in the short time that the army was given."

TALKS TO PARENTS

A number of dresses belonging to Mrs. Jack Dunn and Mrs. P. O. Sanders were located by Chief of Police Jno. V. Andrews in Plainview yesterday afternoon. The dresses had been stolen last fall. Police arrested a local girl yesterday morning and recovered a quantity of clothing and jewelry.

Chief Andrews was accompanied on his trip to Plainview yesterday by City Manager C. L. Shine and by Jack Dunn, who identified the articles of clothing.

The girl arrested was turned over to the Gray County Child Welfare board this morning. She gave her age as 14 years old but records show she is 16 years of age.

Farm Film Will Be Seen Saturday Free to Public

A free educational talking picture will be presented at the city auditorium Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the firm of Stark & McMillen.

The showing will be jointly sponsored with the J. I. Case company, for which Stark and McMillen are the local agents.

The public, and especially persons interested in modern farm machinery, are invited to see the picture. The films will include one reel showing the romance and progress of these "machines" since their invention.

Seniors Will Go To Caverns When Funds Available

To take the place of the annual "sneak day," Pampa high school seniors are planning a class trip to Carlsbad caverns near the last of April.

The task of getting funds to make possible the trip by most of the 125 seniors is so great that the help of the public is being asked. Any individual or business man who has even a little work that a senior boy or girl can do is asked to call the high school office, 70.

The seniors are making occasional "small deposits" with the class treasurer, in the hope that they may earn enough by trip time to accompany their classmates. In addition to the cost of the bus operation, there will be one night's lodging and food and incidentals. The high school P.-T. A. is cooperating in the move.

Blasphemy To Preach

President Thomas W. Brabham of Texas Woman's college, Fort Worth, will preach at the Sunday evening services of the First Methodist church.

Choir To Hold Practice of Its Easter Music

An important rehearsal of the sacred cantata, "Olivet to Calvary" will be held tonight at the First Baptist church by the Philharmonic choir. The practice will begin at 8 p. m., and another will be held at the same time Saturday.

The public will hear the Easter offering by the chorus at 4 p. m. Sunday at the Baptist church.

"Olivet to Calvary" recalls simply and reverently the scenes which mark the last few days of the Saviour's life on earth, and some of the reflections suggested thereby. The rejoicing of the multitude with hosannas and palms, the view of Jerusalem from the steep of Olivet, the lament over the beautiful city, the scene in the temple, and the lonely walk back over the mount at night, form the chief features of the first part.

Part II opens with the Supper of the Passover, at which Jesus washes his disciples' feet, and gives to his friends the new commandment of love for one another as the sign of true discipleship. From this the scene passes to the infinite paths of the Garden Gethsemane, the sudden appearance of the hostile crowd, Jesus forsaken by his disciples, his utter loneliness among ruthless foes, the tumult before Pilate in the Judgment hall, the passage of the Cross, the tragedy and triumph of Calvary.

Baseball Plant Will Be Built By Roadrunners

Construction of a modern baseball plant for Pampa will be started soon. The announcement was made officially this morning by Earl Roff of the Danciger Roadrunner park.

Mr. Roff has not signed a contract with the owner of the property where he plans to locate the park, but he expects to make the announcement of the location early next week. A carload of lumber was to be ordered today. Construction of the park will be started upon its arrival.

Plans call for a grandstand with a seating capacity of 1,100 and two bleachers with seating capacity of 300 each. The left and right-field fences will be at least 350 feet from the home plate, with center field about 400 feet away.

Plans are to use the park for Pampa enterprises of all kinds. The Junior chamber of commerce may revive Frontier Days, and it is hoped that a stock show can be arranged.

The Danciger Roadrunners are doped as one of the strongest teams in this section. Some well-known players are working for the company, and they will play ball in their spare time. Efforts are being made to form a league with Pampa, Borger, Amarillo, and Lubbock as the cities with teams. It is also planned to bring several well-known teams here for games.

Two Boys Injured In Street Crash

Andrew Hill was released from Pampa hospital last night after receiving treatment for injuries received when the motorcycle he was riding crashed into a car driven by Mrs. H. H. Hicks on East Browning avenue. Clifford Jones, the other occupant of the motorcycle, was bruised and scratched. Hill was taken to the hospital in a Stephenson Mortuary ambulance.

The youth ran into the side of the Hicks' car when Mrs. Hicks started to turn into a driveway. The motorcycle was badly damaged and the car was scratched and dented.

Bids Are Asked On Mail Route

Bids are being received at the postoffice to carry mail on Star Route No. 2, which will be extended July 1 to serve approximately 150 more patrons. The mail man now goes to Laketon, serving a circuit route.

The lengthened service will go to Laketon and then south to the Webb community. It will also take in the Coltoso gasoline plant and the Coltoso carbon black plant east of LeFors, and then turn north to Highway 33 and back to Pampa. The distance will be 69 1/2 miles.

Bids are also open for the mail route between Pampa and Clarendon. The mail leaves Pampa at 7:17 p. m. with stops at Jericho and Clarendon. The driver remains in Clarendon over night and leaves there in the morning, distributing mail between that point and Pampa, arriving in Pampa about 8 a. m.

How Are YOUR Nerves?

Do your responsibilities give you that "dragged through a knot hole" feeling? Do you come home tired, irritable, with nerves all askew? Whatever your job or place in life, healthy nerves are worth any effort. Check up on your habits—your eating, your sleeping, your recreation—and do not overlook the subject of smoking. Turn to Camels, for the sake of your nerves. Any impartial leaf-tobacco expert will tell you that:

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand. An important fact to nervous people!

Camel pays millions more—for your enjoyment. And how much better Camels taste—mild, rich in flavor, delightful. They never get on your nerves... never tire your taste.

Frank Crilley, Champion Deep-Sea Diver, says:

"Deep down under 300 feet of water, working feverishly under terrific pressure—no place for a nervous man! A diver's nerves must always be in perfect condition. I smoke Camels and have smoked them for years. They are a milder cigarette and they taste better. They never upset my nervous system."

Miss Elizabeth Harben, Secretary, Garden City, L. I., says:

"I know that deep-sea diving calls for healthy nerves. But, believe me, you can also feel plenty of real nerve strain being a secretary to a busy office executive! Telephones, callers,

SOME ENJOY LOOKING BACKWARD

We had not noticed it, but we are told that Americans have suddenly grown fond of looking back through old albums. Maybe they are only hunting for normalcy and wondering if they really desire it after all.

Most of us are just a little bit ashamed of the little gawky and somewhat grotesque ancestors pictured therein. Then we happen upon some old picture of ourselves and note with a bit of a shock that we once wore the funny clothes ourselves.

But there's little more to the present popularity of old-time pictures than that. These collections of photos that date back to the 1890's and beyond give us a spyglass through which we can peer through a door that time has closed and see an era which has gone from this earth forever.

The oddest thing about it all is that most of us, as we look on that era, have a sneaking, half-conscious wish that we might get back there.

For that bygone era—that time when gay blades rode perilous high-wheeled bicycles, and women's bathing suits were more voluminous than their street frocks are now, and minstrel shows were a popular diversion, and motorists were linen-coated pioneers who rode in frail juggernauts which were useful principally for frightening horses—that era, whatever its faults may have been, seemed at least to be a time of certainty.

We knew where we were going, then—or we thought we did, and that was about as good—and we had no doubt at all that presently we should get there.

Human society seemed to have reached a static phase, and, while its organization had certain faults that everybody recognized, it still seemed to be a pretty well-arranged and stable affair.

Radio crooners and agricultural allotment schemes were alike unheard-of. There were no traffic jams, and neither were there any Hitlers or Mussolinis or Stalins. NRA, RFC, CWA, and all the rest were just letters in the alphabet, and the staggering emergencies that were to call them into being still slumbered peacefully in the lap of time.

It was, in short, a simpler age than this one, and it contained far less to worry about. We can't get back to it, and if we really could we probably should think twice about it.

But at this distance it has a sort of halcyon look. It is misty with enchantment, because it was a time when the problems which beset us now still were below the horizon.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS BUILD GREAT NATIONAL HOME

Cited as the greatest humanitarian project ever sponsored by a veterans' organization, the V. F. W. National home at Eaton Rapids, Mich., created in 1925 as a haven for the children and widows of deceased veterans, has become one of the primary motives for existence for the veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. and its Ladies' auxiliary.

The chief purpose of the V. F. W. national home from the start was to provide an ideal home and living conditions for the children of former comrades. To date, approximately 100 youngsters are being maintained at the home, fed, clothed, educated, and equipped with vocations at the expense of the organization until they are able to make their own way in the world at large. Present educational facilities are provided by the City of Eaton Rapids with its modern schools, thoroughly equipped along vocational lines for both boys and girls. Eventually, the V. F. W. national home will erect its own schools to be operated and supervised by the educational authorities of the state of Michigan. Owns Large Tract. The national home, located on the outskirts of Eaton Rapids, covers more than 600 acres of Michigan farm land which is platted and in the course of development as a townsite. Thus far, 12 units have been erected at the home, each unit presided over by a mother or the widowed mother of the youngsters. By this plan, the purpose of the national home to perpetuate and maintain the family circle is carried out to the final degree. Eventually, additional cottages will be added with a chapel, gymnasium, administration building, athletic field, play grounds, and other developments to complete the plans contemplated by the board of trustees. Cottages have already been erected by the departments of New York, California, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Illinois, New Jersey, and Michigan. The department of New York is already contemplating the erection of a second unit while funds are being gathered in the states of Connecticut, Missouri, Ohio, Virginia, and Wisconsin, for the construction of further units. In carrying the message of the national home to prospective recruits, every comrade is asked to remember that membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the U. S. is equivalent to an insurance policy that guarantees the future care and welfare of a veteran's wife and children in the event of his sudden and untimely death. This guarantee includes food, clothing, medical attention and shelter in a comfortable home equipped with every modern convenience. More than this, his children are assured of public and high school educations, which provide, if desired, vocational training. In addition to all these benefits, home ties remain unbroken and his children will never be deprived of a mother's love and caresses. There is no time limit to this V. F. W. policy, no tricky clauses or excuses, once an ex-service man has affiliated himself with America's organization of overseas veterans. As soon as he assumes the obligation of membership, his wife and children become eligible, upon his death, to the V. F. W. National Home at Eaton Rapids, Michigan. A fresco painting, covering 1,500 square feet of surface, will adorn a wall in the Mission church in Santa Clara, California. A radio station with a tower 1,022 feet tall, said to be the highest in the world, has started broadcasting in Budapest.

A SCOTCH JOKE? KANSAS CITY, March 16 (AP)—

Informed that his income tax amounted to four cents, a taxpayer asked Dan M. Nee, collector if he might pay it in four quarterly installments. Nee told him it was his privilege under federal regulations. "Well, I want to do it that way," said the taxpayer slapping a copper coin on the desk. The production of briar root for smoking pipes dates back to 1880, when a French firm found it to be of excellent quality for that purpose.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General Topic: Jesus Responds to Faith.

Scripture Lesson: Matt. 15: 21-31.

21. And Jesus went out thence, and withdrew into the parts of Tyre and Sidon.

22. And behold, a Canaanitish woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of David: my daughter is grievously vexed with a demon.

23. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away, for she crieth after us.

24. But he answered and said, I was not sent, but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

25. But she came and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26. And he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread and cast it to the dogs.

27. But she said, Yea, Lord: for even the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' tables.

28. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it done unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was healed from that hour.

29. And Jesus departed thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there.

30. And there came unto him great multitudes, having with them the lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and they cast them down at his feet; and he healed them.

31. Inasmuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb speaking, the maimed whole, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they glorified the God of Israel.

Golden Text: Ask and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you.—Matt. 7: 7.

Title: Spring and summer of A. D. 29, the third year of Christ's ministry.

Place: The Sea of Galilee, and its northern shores on both sides. The region of Tyre and Sidon in Phoenicia.

Parallel Passage: Mark 6: 47-52.

Introduction: The Pharisees and scribes from Jerusalem had assailed Jesus orthodoxy, because he was not observant of the unimportant outward rules of their faith (15: 1-2). In answering them, he pronounced for inner, heart-righteousness—"out of the heart are the issues of life"—rather than a righteousness of forms. Matthew appropriately follows this with the incident of the Phoenician mother, a woman who had little or nothing of what those Pharisees and scribes regarded as religion, but who had something far better: that heart-righteousness, manifested in her devoted motherhood, in her reverence for Jesus, and in her faith in him.

"The Parts of Tyre and Sidon." v. 21. "And Jesus went out thence." Matthew last speaks of him as in the land of Genesareth northwest of the Sea of Galilee, a region which gave to that sea one of its four names (Matt. 14: 34). "And withdrew." Again he sought rest from the crowds clamoring for healing and from the captious scribes and Pharisees, rest which he had sought in vain by crossing to the northeastern side of the sea. "Into the parts of Tyre and Sidon." These two great commercial cities represented Phoenicia, immediately north of Palestine, a land which was the seat of the Baal worship whose iniquities wrought so much evil in the days of Jezebel and Ahab and their successors. This was Christ's only excursion into heathen territory (except that he was taken to Egypt when an infant).

"The Woman of Canaan," vs. 22. It seems likely that this woman already had considerable knowledge of Jesus and his message; perhaps an incipient faith in him. Mark 3: 8 tells that people from her neighborhood had been among those who gathered about him in the early days of his ministry.

"A mother's cry for help for an afflicted child is the most appealing of all human or brute pleas." Her daughter is not only mentally deranged, but "cruelly" so (Moffatt). Her desperation is shown in the fact that she persistently followed Jesus along the street, repeating her supplications (ver. 23). Even in their desperate anxiety (John 11: 6). Such a severe case of mental sickness as this could be cured only by an extraordinary healing wonder; and that would need to be supported by extraordinary faith. "Maybe our Lord saw that the woman's faith needed to be cultivated, made stronger. The delay and our desperation often effect that. If I do not find my Lord's hand as I reach out in the dark, I must reach still farther. Hopelessness compels to larger hope. The same story and lesson are told in Jacob's wrestling, in the night at the ford of the Jabbok" (Gen. 32: 22-32).

Christ's Ministry to the Jews. "But he answered and said, I was not sent, but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." That was Christ's second test, of the woman's faith, and it seemed to shut the door still more firmly in her face than did his silence. The whole history of Christ on earth shows him as sent to the lost sheep of Israel. Within the boundaries of Israel he was born, and within the boundaries of Israel he died. With the one exception of the journey here recorded, he never in his maturity left the Jewish land. His twelve disciples were of the Jewish faith; his friends were inhabitants of Jewish homes; his enemies were not the Romans, but his own, to whom he came but they received him not. For his teaching he sought no other audience than the men and women of the Jewish villages. In the fulfilling of his earthly ministry Christ confined himself to Jewish limits. But as we study the words of our Redeemer, one thing gradually grows very clear. It is that he anticipated a ministry that should be wider than these Jewish limits.—Ezra. George H. Morrison, D. D. And one of the events that makes this clear is the event we are now studying.

Delayed Blessings. "It is often so now. If with hearty confidence in the Lord's wisdom and mercy we continue to ask, we shall at least receive whatever he sees to be best for us, and besides may be improved in piety by the delay. The Healer of prayer is not less designing our good when he withholds or defers than when he hears while we are yet speaking" (Broadus). "He (Jesus) knew what was in this noble woman's heart, and he wished to bring it out . . . so that generation after generation and century after century should see it, and admire it, and learn its lesson. He very much needs a shining example of living faith to set over against the dead formalism of those traditions, and here it is . . . He tested her to the uttermost, because he knew that at the end he could say, 'O woman, great is thy faith! be it unto thee even as thou wilt!'"

The Faith of the Multitude. "Inasmuch that the multitude wondered." What must it have been to be an eyewitness of such a scene of healing and of worship! What an education for the apostles! What a stay for their faith in trying days thereafter their Master was taken from them!—C. H. Spurgeon. "And they glorified the God of Israel." After every exhibition of God's mercy should follow an exhibition of our exultant thanksgiving and profound adoration. Far too often we speedily forget the divine kindness, or take it carelessly for granted. The faith and gratitude of this multitude, especially if it was in large part a Gentile throng, should stir us to equal faith and rejoicing. "The sign of the Prophet Jonah." A group of skeptical Pharisees and Sadducees joined in demanding that he should prove his authority by some wonderful sign from heaven. But Christ condemned as evil and foul all such testing of God. He promised them one stupendous token of his deity in the future, "the sign of Jonah," his resurrection after three days in the grave similar to Jonah's respiration after three days in the body of the sea monster; but he would work no miracle to satisfy idle curiosity or at the requirement of those who would not believe after all the miracles he had already worked among them. "One who will not believe in Christ in view of his resurrection is self-condemned; his condition" is "hopeless," his "unbelief" is fatal.—Prof Charles R. Erdman.

Judith Lane

By JEANNE BOWMAN

SYNOPSIS: Radiant because of her engagement to Norman Dale, Judith Lane returns from a trip to Rio Diablo to find two disturbing things. One is that her employer's daughter, Martha Bevin, is trying to take her fiancé from her, and the other is that Morton Lampere, Norman's law partner, is conspiring to interfere with Big Tom Bevin's Rio Diablo dam. Judith is Big Tom's "perfect stenographer," but now she is on the Bevin yacht, trying to tell Big Tom of the new danger.

Chapter 9 THE PICNIC

Judith waited while Tom Bevin regained his composure. She had tried to lead up to Cila's message, gently, but the name of Lampere seemed to startle him.

or never did trust that man, Judy," he remarked at length. "You know we retained that firm because of Norman's father, then when he died before Norman was admitted to the bar, Lampere took over our work. Tell me what you know."

Judith related what Cila had overheard and when she concluded, the big man nodded his head—"he's seen a chance to make quick money exploiting the land... he needs it, Judith," as a reward appeared, "keep this quiet won't you, don't say anything to Norman. How about your friend? Can you trust her?"

"Absolutely."

"They went below to dinner, Judith aware of the faint condemnation in Mrs. Bevin's eyes for delaying the host. She found herself seated between two of Norman's friends who sought to make up for the lack of kindness shown by her hostess.

But at length the boat docked and Norman, his mother and Cila whisked Judith home to her apartment.

"Have a big rest," Norman admonished. "I'll be around here about noon tomorrow... or today, rather. Want to take you on a picnic; then we'll go home and you have dinner with mother. Is that agreeable to you?"

"Of course," agreed Judith, parting reluctantly from his embrace.

She walked out on the "understanding jaw" of her attic after he had left. The janitor had kept her potted shrubs and flower boxes watered and weeded. She stretched out in a wicker chair and looked up into the velvety blackness of the sky where stars... the color of Mathie's hair... seemed neatly applied.

Mathie loved Norman. Norman's partner Lampere was trying to hurt big Tom... Norman was going to marry her, a mere stenographer. She should stay and protect Big Tom. Women... stenographers and newspaper women were quicker to sense dishonesty than the bluff honest men.

But she loved Norman and she couldn't go on being a stenographer and have him too... now that she had promised.

She yawned at the velvety sky, made a face at the stars which looked like Mathie's hair, wandered indoors, dropped the rug-belong to a man like Tom Bevin, wandered indoors, dropped the ruffled dress and sheet of foam Cila had insisted was a petticoat, pawed sleepily through a drawer for a nightdress, donned it and tumbled into bed.

"How does this appeal to you as a picnic spot?"

Norman had brought his roadster to a stop at the foot of an oak-covered knoll. Judith, looking up from under the wide brim of starched linen hat, felt a queer tug at her heart as she saw the knoll, the two stalwart old oaks topping it, the lag stream meandering around its base to a far meadow.

"Perfect," answered Judith. She ran ahead of Norman, who carried hampers and rugs, and at the top of the knoll stopped enraptured. "Norm... look you can see the city skyline... oh it's a love of a place. I wonder who owns it."

"I do," answered Norman, spreading a rug at the foot of an oak, then seeing the rapt expression of Judith's face. "Judy, would you could you consider it as a home site? I know you business girls prefer apartments... want to be around where things are doing. I won't be able to afford a car for you for awhile and it might be lonely until we had neighbors but—"

"Norman I'd love it. Even stenographers like a wee bit of nature 'know," she chided.

"Perfect stenographers," he corrected, then "Judy, see that scale down there, that's where I used to go frog hunting and that creek... you'd be surprised at the size of the fish I caught in there. And see that decrepit old oak, the one leaning over as though its load of moss was too heavy? Once my hound Pepper mint treed a possum there."

"Norman, when did you buy this place?"

"Two years ago... the day I first saw you at a board meeting... I knew then you were the girl with whom I wanted to live here for the rest of my life."

Judith pondered a moment. "Canny Scotchman," she said, "waited two years to be sure."

"No... I was watching you all of the time. I waited the two years for the money to build after I'd bought the place."

"Judith laughed—that proves I was right, you canny Scotchman."

"But Judith," he protested, "couldn't come to you empty handed. On my small salary we'd have had to rent one of those little houses we saw from the viaduct that night. Tell me, what kind of a house would you like to have here?"

"A white one, with green roof and shutters, slim white pillars and... she added, "daintily, pink geraniums in window boxes."

"A magnificent Mount Vernon. Small one I mean."

"It would be ideal here... stone terraces with velvety lawns leading to the highway... and Norm, would I have an Iris bed down

PART OF HIS JOB
ATHENS, Tenn.—"It's all in the game," says Fred E. Wankar, CWA administrator for McMinn county. Last week an irritated applicant for a CWA job who did not get work immediately denounced Wankar's jaw in an altercation. Several days later Wankar argued with another man over tar for a CWA job on Athens streets and emerged with a nose that required the attention of a physician.

The federal railways of Germany have ordered five new self-propelled stream-lined trains.
