Ocker Court Martial Trial Starts

PHYSICIAN WAS PREJUDICED IS DEFENSE PLEA

BLIND FLYING EXPERT BEFORE COURT IN SAN ANTONIO

SAN ANTONIO, Feb. 28 (AP)—In a martial setting Major William C. Ocker, one of the army's outstanding experts on blind flying was hailed before a military court at Fort Sam Houston today to answer charges of using improper language about a superior officer.

Major Ocker, a pioneer in the development of instruments used in blind flying, specifically was charged with making derogatory remarks concerning Lieut. Col. Henry B. Claggett, commanding officer at Kelly field.

The first witness, Major Clyde C. Johnston, senior flight surgeon, testified that Major Ocker had asserted he was being discriminated against with reference to a physical examination.

Major Johnston on direct examination declared Major Ocker reported to him for a special physical examination on September 29, 1933. Ocker previously had been taken off flying status as the result of an examination.

Because of a previous controversy, Major Johnston said, he told Major Ocker he preferred to have two flight surgeons make the examination.

In an effort to prove that Major Ocker had been removed from flying status because of bias and prejudice, defense counsel introduced into evidence a physician examining work sheet which allegedly had been altered to lower the officer's physical rating.

Under questioning of defense counsel, Major Johnston admitted he had made the alterations. The sheet showed where words had been blotted and inked out and where other words had been written above them.

Defense Attorney C. W. Anderson brought out that the alterations gave Ocker a lower physical rating than the original.

"Problem" Youth Happy to Have Home on Lease

The 13-year-old boy held in jail for delinquency last week and then given a temporary home by Principal J. A. Meek of Baker school has been taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Logan on a Combs-Worley lease.

After inspecting the proposed home, where there is an extra room for him, the boy begged to be allowed to live with the Logans, who have no children.

The lad will have an opportunity to raise a garden. Recreational opportunities are good. When last seen, he was swinging on a rope from a tree and imitating the cry of Tarzan of the Apes. He will attend school in Pampa, coming in daily by truck.

FIRST SNOW FALLS DALLAS

DALLAS, Feb. 28 (AP)—The first snow of the winter fell in many north Texas towns and cities last night but, with few exceptions, it melted as it struck the ground.

"Wouldn't you like to borrow my coat?"

Woman: "No, I'd rather have your pants."

Sometimes our idea of an ideal winter job would be working in that restaurant in the Carlsbad cavern.

Roosevelt is our idea of a smart man and reformer. Instead of taking up the colossal task of reforming congress, he merely dictates to it. We've known a few wives thus to work over imperfect huddles.

Musings of the moment: School girls in books, some in socks, some in big fur coats, some in sleeveless dresses, some walking stiffly, heads turned away from chilling wind, others laughing, apparently only partly conscious of the cold.

School boys in "P" sweaters, overalls, hats, without hats - mostly - some walking home alone, some carrying books for "the girl."

But the boys reflect the cold more than the girls. Why? Try looking down on heavy traffic from a window in a high building some time. Then you'll wonder why there are not more collisions.

CONTRIVERSY over the proposed child labor amendment grows stronger, but understanding of the amendment continues fragmentary as usual.

The proposed federal amendment provides that (1) congress shall have power to limit, regulate, and prohibit the labor of persons under 18 years of age; and (2) powers of the several states would be unimpaired except to the extent necessary to give effect to legislation enacted by congress.

When we think of child labor we usually think of sweat shop conditions and starvation wages. These obviously are things to abolish. One's attitude is apt to be softened considerably when he considers that the amendment would give congress the right to prohibit children up to 18 years of age from working on farms and about their homes.

Personally, we have little fear of such action by congress but there are many persons who honestly believe that the amendment as drawn would create another vast

Cattlemen Will Meet on Friday

MIAMI, Feb. 28.—Cattlemen from the Panhandle counties will gather at Canadian Friday (March 2) at the city hall to outline a relief program which is to be presented to the committee of five which Dolf Briscoe of Uvalde is chairman.

The time for the opening of the meeting is 1:30 p. m. An interesting program has been arranged and many men prominent in the cattle industry will appear. Entertainment has been planned and cattlemen throughout the Panhandle are invited to attend.

A group of young Pampans arranging a skating party. Strangely, there are a large number of pairs of ice skates in Pampa, and an even greater number of skaters.

An interesting discussion on moral conditions in Pampa, and if some of the things said were true, an investigation by the grand jury is likely. State laws, however, make it almost impossible to convict in some of the most deplorable cases, it was pointed out during the discussion.

CONSUMERS LEAGUE DELEGATE SAYS EMPLOYERS' VIOLATIONS WILL DESTROY NRA'S PURPOSE

CRITICISM 'ROUNDUP' IS BEGUN IN EARNEST AT CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Critics of NRA swung into action today with the assertion by Mrs. Mary W. Dewson of New York, representing the National Consumers League, that "wholesale chiseling" by employers were stopped the recovery program would be destroyed.

She started off the second-day's bombardment of NRA in response to Hugh Johnson's request that anyone with a grievance to air come to Washington and tell of it. The recovery administrator referred to the gathering as a "great roundup" of criticism.

Mrs. Dewson, presenting a summary of studies in 25 states made by her organization, cited "the settled evasions and outright violations" she said were used to defeat NRA's purposes.

Mrs. Ruth Scott of Washington, explaining she was appearing for her brother who works in a Massachusetts theater, said:

"He used to be paid $24 a week before NRA, now his hours have been cut and he is making only $12 and can't make ends meet. He has a little fellow who is often sick in winter and prescriptions cost 85 cents. He must buy his own uniform. He must pay $9 for a light housekeeping room."

"I've heard hundreds and hundreds of cases like his brother. It is true he works less hours but what can he do with his spare time?"

Charges that the Delco Products corporation, Dayton, Ohio, had been working employees 48 hours and 60 hours, a week under the guise of emergency or peak production period allowances of the electric code were filed by Floyd Hartwell, a spokesman of Frigidaire corporations and other electrical workers.

Edward F. McGrady, assistant administrator, asked him to file affidavits with NRA's compliance division.

J. E. Burke, trade commissioner of Kansas City, Mo., asked that all wage scales and labor classifications be removed from codes. He spoke principally for garment plants in the Kansas City area which he claimed were unfairly treated because wages were based on New York City levels.

Austin Official Visits in Pampa

George H. Fern, director of emergency education in the state department of education at Austin, visited here briefly this morning.

Mr. Fern brought word that the school year would be continued and that the number of teachers would not be reduced.

The director said that some of the classes discontinued could be started again if facilities were available. Any new classes would have to be approved by the state. The school has proven successful here.

DEFENSE IN SUIT HINTS PRINCE DID NOT TAKE LIFE OF RASPUTIN

LONDON, Feb. 28 (AP)—The defense sprang a surprise in the libel suit of Princess Irina Youssoufopoff against Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures Ltd., today by indicating it would contend her husband, Prince Chegodieff Youssoufopoff, did not kill Rasputin, "the mad monk," as he claims.

Cross examining the princess after question regarding historical surroundings of the tragedy. Some were interpreted by the crowded courtroom as definitely suggesting that it was not Youssoufopoff who slew Rasputin in that crucial period of history in the midst of the world war.

Much of his argument, however, was directed to showing that the character in the film "Rasputin and the Empress" did not correspond in many particulars to Prince Youssoufopoff, and therefore, the woman character, upon whose depiction the suit is based, could scarcely be taken as representing the princess.

She seeks $2,000,000, claiming the film linked her identity objectionably with Rasputin's "mad monk."

Sir William endeavored to show that parts of the film to which she objected had been cut out, but the daughter of Grand Duke Alexander, an uncle of Tsar Nicholas, insisted she was still dissatisfied.

Prince Youssoufopoff, who has often written how he slew Rasputin to save Russia, the throne and the czar, was expected to be called later.

Repeating what he called a true version of this mysterious chapter of history, an attorney for the princess said: "Rasputin told the prince he was in the pay of the German emperor and aimed to secure the czar's abdication and become supreme ruler of Russia himself."

For this reason, the attorney said, Youssoufopoff killed him.

Dead Physician Threatened To 'Kill Us Both,' Says Woman in Poison Trial.

GREENWOOD, Miss., Feb. 28 (AP)—Apparently undisturbed by a stiff cross-examination, Dr. Sarah Ruth Dean today exhibited a broad smile on the witness stand as the state attempted to make her admit before the jury trying her for murder that "to kill us both" when she broke off her engagement to him in order to marry Maull.

"When did you first begin preparations to marry Captain Maull?" "foreign office sent a sharp protest today to Moscow, demanding that flights of soviet planes over Manchuria and Korea be stopped."

"We consider such incidents highly dangerous," a spokesman of the Japanese foreign office said. "It is always dangerous for children to play with fire."

The protest was sent by Foreign Minister Koki Hirota to Ambassador Ota at Moscow for presentation to the soviet government. With it, said a foreign office spokesman, went a demand for guarantees against any further flights by Russian planes over Manchurian or Korean territory.

Claim Plane Shot Down. The filing of the protest followed reports from Hanking (Changchun), Manchukuo, of two instances in which the reports said Russians fired upon Japanese planes.

There was also a report that a Japanese military plane had been shot down February 17 near the Manchukuo-Soviet border. The war office said it lacked information concerning this report.

On February 23 and again on February 25, a foreign office spokesman declared, planes "satisfactorily identified . . . as Russian" were sighted by Japanese authorities.

The first planes flew over Hon-chun, Geigen, Keiko, and the strategically important ports of Yuki and Rashin, February 23, disappearing into soviet territory, the spokesman said.

Two days later, he added, a similar craft was seen over Keito. It likewise flew away toward Russian territory.

The air office announced also it had received reports that the pilot of a Japanese civilian airplane was wounded slightly when fired upon over the Amur river.

Territory Disputed. A military observer accompanying him was said to have escaped uninjured. The plane was able to return safely.

The war office said that in this same region Russians fired on a Japanese plane February 12, but did no damage.

Russia Files Protest And Makes Similar Charges

TOKYO, Feb. 28 (AP)—The Japanese foreign office sent a sharp protest today to Moscow, demanding that flights of soviet planes over Manchuria and Korea be stopped.

"We consider such incidents highly dangerous," a spokesman of the Japanese foreign office said. "It is always dangerous for children to play with fire."

CWA WILL BE REPLACED BY GROUP POLICY

UNEMPLOYED CLASSES WILL GET EQUAL ATTENTION

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—President Roosevelt today announced a reorganized national relief program to be substituted for the civil works lineup now being demobilized.

This developed at his regular press conference, held prior to an afternoon meeting to which he summoned democratic leaders in congress.

It was presumed at the capital that the White House meeting would have to do in part at least with proposals for legislation to grant the president powers to make reciprocal tariff agreements with foreign countries.

As to relief, federal efforts of the future will be classified as—

For distressed families in rural areas.

For stranded populations in communities where industries have died. And for unemployed in large cities.

Mr. Roosevelt showed confidence that the recent $850,000,000 relief appropriation will be sufficient to carry out the new program until next spring. He has stipulated that federal funds be confined almost 100 per cent to wages and to absolutely needy cases.

"This program," he said, "expresses a conviction that industrial workers who are unemployed and in need of relief should be given an opportunity for livelihood by the prosecution of a flexible program of public works. The several states will be aided, as the federal relief law provides, in the financing of this enterprise."

Mr. Roosevelt's program provides also for continuing working opportunities for the professional group in need, including teachers, engi-

"Rented" Acreage Has Six Uses of Approved Type

According to recent rulings received by Ralph R. Thomas, county agent, from Associate Chief Geo. E. Farrell, of the wheat section in regard to use of contracted wheat acreage, it will be deemed a violation of his contract for a producer who has executed a contract to shift food crops grown for home consumption on the farm or feed crops grown for the production of livestock or livestock products for home consumption or use on the farm, to the contracted acreage, thereby releasing other lands on the farm for the planting of crops for sale or for feed for the production of livestock or livestock products for sale.

The contracted acreage of 1934 and 1935 must not be used to produce feed for dairy cattle, beef cattle, hogs, sheep, or poultry kept for sale or kept for the sale of their products.

It is advised that each contract signer should practice one of the following uses for his contracted acres:

1. Let the land lie unplanted.
2. Summer-fallow the land.
3. Plant the land to permanent pasture.
4. Plant the land to meadow crops.
5. Practice weed control on the land.
6. Plant soil improvement crops, for plowing under.

If the contract signer does not handle this withdrawn wheat acreage in one of the above mentioned ways, but handles it in some other way, the burden of proof will be on him, and it might be that his adjustment payments will be delayed, or he may not be able to get them at all. Therefore, every contract signer should adopt one of these practices, which are approved by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, for his contracted wheat acres.

JAYCEES COMBAT BACK TAXES

Members of the Texas Junior chamber of commerce who have made a survey of the financial conditions of the various units of government in this state report having viewed discouraging sights.

1. Delinquent taxes which are due all units of government in the state amount to about $120,000,000.
2. Of this huge amount, more than $46,000,000 was delinquent in 1932. Totals for 1933 are not yet available, but will add greatly to the sum.
3. The deficit in the state funds exceeds $10,000,000.
4. The state general fund had a deficit of $3,174,000 at the end of 1932.
5. Tax collectors in many counties report that many taxpayers who are able to pay have purposely gone delinquent on 1933 taxes.

The Jaycee drive will launch immediately an educational campaign. Governor Ferguson will be asked to designate a Tax week. All means available for calling the attention of taxpayers to conditions that obtain will be used. No pressure, political or economic will be used. It will be a non-political and non-partisan campaign. The man who has the money to pay his taxes but does not will be appealed to strongly.

It will be pointed out that the delinquent taxpayer (a) causes the levy of additional taxes to offset the deficit created by his own failure to pay, and thus increases the amount of tax he eventually must pay; (b) imposes an unjust burden upon his neighbor who pays before delinquency; (c) increases the cost and decreases the services of his government; (d) and strikes at the foundation stones of organized society.

PU-YI TO BE CROWNED EMPEROR IN SECRET CEREMONY THURSDAY

Associated Press origin Staff
HSINKING (Changchun), Manchukuo, Feb. 28 (AP)—In sub-zero weather, the rites at the altar of heaven which will climax the enthronement of Henry Pu-Yi as emperor of Manchukuo were solemnly rehearsed today.

Young Pu-Yi, present chief executive of the Japanese-occupied state, remained indoors. He was fasting and meditating in preparing himself for Thursday's ceremonies.

Participants and onlookers alike were chilled to the bone. The 28-year-old Pu-Yi's octogenarian courtiers suffered acutely.

Newsprinters were permitted a brief glance at the earthen throne.

SPANIARD AND NEIGHBORS CLAIM METEOR FELL AND BURNED HOUSE

SEVILLE, Spain, Feb. 28 (AP)—Francisco Megia told his own story of the destruction of his home by what he and all his neighbors at the village of Rinconada believe to have been a meteor's fall.

Senior Megia and his family sat down in their home for lunch between noon and 1 p. m., Feb. 18. Suddenly there was the noise of an airplane flying low over the cottage.

Jose Megia, 13 years old, rushed to the door. He saw a dense column of smoke dropping from the sky toward the roof.

Panic-stricken, he shouted his alarm.

Senior Megia tried to run to the door but a powerful column of air and smoke knocked him down. Megia and his family said they smelled a heavy odor of sulphur and burned coal.

The whole family rushed outdoors, carrying only the mattress from a bed.

As they attempted to return to the house for more belongings, they were stopped by a short, deafening noise and their cottage was immediately enveloped in flames.

Farmers in the neighborhood heard the noise and hastened to the aid of the family.

Jefferson Was Skeptical
NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (AP)—In all historical time only eight or 10 meteors have been authentically established as striking buildings, and none of these destroyed the structure.

But the chances for a meteor striking a house are probably greater than this low average shows because the world in general has not recognized the existence of meteors as such until very recent centuries.

Even as late as Thomas Jefferson their existence was disbelieved, and H. H. Nininger, of Denver, one of the foremost meteor experts, tells as a historical fact that Jefferson as president, when told that a shower of stones had fallen at Weston, Conn., said:

"I would rather believe that those two Yankee professors would lie than that stones fell from heaven. The 'two professors' were Yale

WEeping Willow's TEARS ARE WATER—WE ALREADY KNEW THAT

NEW YORK, Feb. 28 (AP)—Discovery that the weeping willow's tears are made of heavy water was announced today in "Science."

The good old tree, it appears, has been doing unbeknownst for millions of years, the thing which is the latest and greatest sensation of science—producing heavy water.

The willow's roots draw in ordinary water. In the process of growing the tree breaks this water into its hydrogen and oxygen atoms. In the hydrogen one atom out of every 6000 is twice normal weight.

These rare heavy hydrogen atoms are seized upon by synthesis to combine the atoms into water again—its weight more than normal because the tree has given preference to the heavy atoms. The discovery is described by the late Edward W. Washburn and Edgar R. Smith of the U. S. bureau of standards.

The chemical discovery of heavy water recently was described by Lord Rutherford as possibly the most important scientific event of a century. With it an inconceivably vast number of entirely new chemical products can be made. In the few books alone there are 300,000 organic compounds made with hydrogen.

An equal number of new compounds can be made simply by the substituting heavy for light hydrogen in the text book formulae.

To advance his claim for the needle-threading championship of the country, H. Duke Norton, airplane designer of Alameda, Calif., put 55 strands of thread through the eye of a No. 5 needle in 32 minutes.

Is This Too Good for Your Cough?
Cremulsion may be a better help than you need. It combines seven major helps in one—the best help known to science. It is made for quick relief, for safety.

Mild coughs often yield to lesser helps. No one can tell. No one knows which factor will do most for any certain cough. So cream people more and more are using Cremulsion for any cough that starts.

The cost is a little more than a single help. But your druggist guarantees it so it costs nothing if it fails—to bring you quick relief. Coughs are danger signals. For safety's sake, deal with them in the best way known. (Adv.—E)

20TH CENTURY CLUB ENACTS CITY SESSION

DRAMA EMPHASIZES STUDY OF CITY GOVERNMENT

MAYOR BRATTON banged the gavel to open a city commission session yesterday afternoon, but it was an all-women session, with the mayor's lady in his place in the chair. The mock commission meeting was a part of the Twentieth Century club program at the home of Mrs. B. C. Low.

A study of citizenship in the community was directed by Mrs. Lynn Boyd, who traced the history of city government from ancient times. Roll call was answered with sections from the city charter.

Officials portrayed.

In the dramatization of a commission meeting, Mrs. W. A. Bratton enacted the mayor, Mrs. Tom Rose and Mrs. F. M. Culbertson the commissioners, Mrs. J. M. Fitzgerald the city secretary, Mrs. John Sturgeon the city attorney, Mrs. Boyd the city manager, Mrs. Edwin Vickers the police chief, and Mrs. W. T. Fraser the fire chief.

Actual reports from the city of Pampa for January were heard for police, library, health, fire, building inspection, park, and water departments, and the Board of City Development.

Mrs. A. R. Sawyer, I. B. Hughey, and Ivy Duncan appeared as citizens before the commission, making complaints or asking for commission rulings.

Refreshments were served after the program to those taking part and Mrs. W. R. Campbell, Raymond Harrah, H. H. Hicks, W. J. Smith, Otto Studer.

Misses Kinard, Riley Entertain

Five tables of players enjoyed bridge when Misses Roy Riley and Leora Kinard entertained Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Wynne.

Miss Margaret Jones, who made high score, and Winston Savage, low, were presented with cleverly chosen favors. After the games guests were served sandwiches, olives, cherry pie, and coffee.

MRS. TODD IS COMPLIMENTED WITH SHOWER

Bride Is Presented Many Gifts By Friends

Honoring Mrs. Harvey Todd, who before her marriage on Valentine day was Miss Elizabeth Corson, a shower was given at the home of Mrs. P. C. Ledrick Monday evening with Mrs. Jim White and Mrs. Ledrick as hostesses.

Mrs. Todd was ushered into the dining room, where the table was covered with a lace cloth over pink. A centerpiece of pink sweet peas and fern was flanked with lighted candles. Gifts for the bride were heaped on the table.

After the packages were opened and the gifts admired, a program was rendered by Mrs. John Andrews and Mrs. Albert H. Doucette each sang solos, accompanied by Mrs. Walter Nelson. Mrs. Carson Loftus read, and an interesting game was directed by the hostesses.

Refreshments repeated the dainty pink and white color note. Miss Louise Walstad and Mrs. Skeet Roberts assisted in serving.

Present to honor Mrs. Todd, who is a member of a prominent pioneer family, were Mrs. Walter Nelson, Roger McConnell, Doucette, Loftus, Ted White, Andrews, J. G. Sanders, C. H. Dunaway, B. E. Finley, G. C. Walstad, Russell H. Kennedy, A. A. Hyde, Bob Muller, J. E. Corson, Skeet Roberts, W. Purviance, Clyde Thierree, T. D. Hobart.

Misses Alice Gordon, Lillian Mullinax, Clara Brown, Sue Smalling, Fern Hughey, Mary Snead, Bernice Larsh, Travis Finley, Walstad, Anita Andrews, Dorothy Mullins, Kathryn Vincent.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. N. M. Cooper of Amarillo and Mrs. Clinton Henry of Paloduro.

Gifts were sent with regrets by Misses Claudine Haynes, Ruth Britton, Ann Clayton, Mmes. Garret, Allday, J. S. Thomas, Lee Ledrick, Dude Balthrope, DeLea Vickers, L. W. McCullough, A. A. Tleaman, W. R. Ewing, Earl Mead and J. E. Mead of Miami, A. L. Mullins, Kathryn Vincent.

American Legion Auxiliary will have a regular meeting, Legion hut, 8 p. m. Members and visiting members asked to be present.

Mrs. Helen Turner will present her pupils in a play-recital at city club rooms, 8 p. m.

Mrs. H. C. Wilson will entertain the Queen of Clubs at her home, 1119 Mary Ellen, at 2:30.

FRIDAY
New Deal club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Shannon for a covered dish luncheon.

Mrs. Jess Stalls will entertain the Friday Contract club.

First Baptist Bethany class will have its monthly luncheon at the church, 12 o'clock.

Alancord Girls' 4-H club will meet at the school Friday morning.

McLean Home Demonstration club will have its regular meeting.

Order of Eastern Star will have a regular meeting at Masonic hall, 8 p. m. All members and visitors invited.

Hoover Parent-Teacher association will meet at the school building, 7:30 p. m.

Surprises are in store for those who attend the big dance tonight planned by the management of the Pla-mor auditorium. It will be in keeping with the efforts to provide something different from week to week for those who enjoy entertainment and good music for dancing.

Tonight will also be a bargain night for the first fifteen paid admissions, at 75 cents each. The "door" tonight will be given free admission tickets to the dance next Wednesday night.

Ralph Emerson and his talented musicians and entertainers will provide the music. Numbers which have proved so popular here and other places will be used and also new ones which show promise of becoming popular.

LITERATURE OF TEXAS STUDIED WITH REVIEWS

TWENTIETH CENTURY CULTURE CLUB MEETS

PASSING from a study of Texas history, geography, and government to its cultural growth, members of Twentieth Century Culture club discussed literature in the state yesterday afternoon in a meeting with Mrs. J. E. Cunningham.

Authors of Texas were named in answer to roll call, made more interesting by the fact that many of the members were acquainted with the writers they mentioned.

Mrs. T. F. Morton, leader, read several patriotic poems of Texas. Miss Mabel David told a true story of Texas rangers, "Rangers and Pioneers of Texas," by Sowells.

An unusual book review was presented by Mrs. R. S. Lawrence, who briefly sketched the 19 short stories in O. Henry's "Heart of the West."

Completion of the child welfare program which women's clubs are sponsoring here was discussed in the business session.

Members present were Mmes. C. S. Boston, E. M. Conley, Ralph Dunbar, Clyde Gold, Lawrence, F. E. Joseph, M. N. Lewis, A. M. Martini, Morton, G. G. Post, C. H. Schulkey, J. P. Wehrung, Cunningham and Miss Davis.

Camp Fire Girls To Have Guests To Hear Address

Camp Fire Girls will have Girl Scouts of troop five as their guests tomorrow afternoon at their club room, to hear an address broadcast by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt from the White House. She will speak at 4:30, on "Hobbies for Girls."

Her address is a part of a national program on hobbies that is being stressed in the organization now.

Mrs. Roosevelt is chairman of the national advisory council. All girls of Pampa are urged to listen in to her talk.

In a letter published in a recent issue of "The Guardian," national Camp Fire magazine, she urged that every girl build up hobbies to take her to the open air or fill quiet hours, and satisfy her desire to create.

"The hobby may be cooking, knitting, pottery, or writing," she says, "but that we should develop every possible outlet, no one who knows busy, happy women can deny."

Laketon Women Aid Scholarship

"I'm more than glad to give my nickel to the home demonstration scholarship fund to help some worthy girl," said Mrs. Charles Talley when the Laketon club met with Mrs. H. I. Gillespie Thursday.

Mrs. Talley gave a short history of the club scholarship fund. Members paid their part of the fund 100 per cent.

The agricultural adjustment act was studied in round table discussion. Honesty in the handling of the act was stressed by Mrs. M. L. Roberts.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following members: Mmes. Roberts, Leo Paris, Nettie Attaway, Chess, Terry, Charles Talley, and the hostess.

Canyon Teacher Heads Alpha Chi

CANYON, Feb. 28.—Miss Edna Graham of the mathematics department of West Texas State Teachers college, was chosen president of Alpha Chi, national scholarship society, at the thirteenth annual meeting of the national council held at Denton, February 21 and 22. The F. M. Braly chapter of the Texas State College for Women was host college to the council.

Miss Graham, faculty sponsor of the local Lloyd Green Allen chapter, has been actively associated with the work of the society for some time.

Other members who attended from here were Dr. B. F. Fromberger, head of the college English department and two student members, Miss Marie Park of Nara Vista, N. M., and Miss Madeline Cox of Goodrich, Kansas.

One of the most important business transactions at the meeting was the selection of a new Greek letter name, Alpha Chi, replacing the one so long used, Scholarship Societies of the South.

Merton Parent-Teacher association will present the program for the monthly Parent-Teacher council meeting at high school cafeteria tomorrow at 3 p. m. Mrs. E. M. Hope, president at Merton, will be in charge.

Executive board members are asked by the council president, Mrs. Claude Lard, to meet at 2:30. Bi-monthly reports of council unit presidents will be heard in the business session of the general meeting.

Bride of Heir

The elopement was a complete success, so Mrs. John Schulte is shown here, celebrating with a dip at Miami Beach, Fla. She and her husband, son of the New York and Chicago cigar store magnate, surprised their friends recently and now are honeymooning at the Florida resort.

JUNIOR HIGH TO OBSERVE TEXAS DAY IN CHAPEL

Texas independence day, March 2, will be observed in junior high school with a program by the Texas History club. The public is invited with parents and friends of pupils for this chapel program Friday.

A surprise number will end the program, following these selections: Pageant, Texas Under Six Flags, Songs, America, Eyes of Texas, Texas, Our Texas, Star-Spangled Banner.

Readings, Shall We Divide the State?, Our Flag.

Members of the club expect to make the program instructive as well as entertaining, and to present facts not generally known about the state.

Bazaar Is Chosen As Madonna Class Benefit Project

A bazaar was chosen as the next benefit project of Central Baptist Madonna class, when its weekly business meeting was conducted at the home of Mrs. L. S. Bridge yesterday afternoon. The date is to be set later.

Mrs. Bridge was chosen as class reporter. After the business session, a social hour was spent and refreshments were served to Mmes. E. V. Davis, teacher, and Mmes. Earl Phillips, Jerry Lockard, Walter Kerbie, Fred McCann and the hostess.

FIFTH AVENUE FASHIONS

By ELLEN WORTH
Every Wardrobe Needs This Frock

One of those all too rare frocks that look well on everyone, young or old, slim or inclining to plumpness. If you're young and slender, you'll like its tailored trimness; if you're older and no longer slim, you'll appreciate its height-giving, slenderizing lines, and the flattering effect of the one-sided collar and graceful sleeves.

In black dull crepe with touches of white, you'll be amazed at how little this frock will cost you, if you make it yourself—and that's easy. Size 16 requires 2 1/2 yards 39-inch dark, 3/4 yard light. Width about 1 1/2 yard.

Pattern No. 5445 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 bust.

BIOGRAPHY OF QUEEN STUDIED IN JUNIOR CLUB

CLINIC SPONSORED BY WOMEN IS OPEN TODAY

A WOMAN whose "only lover and husband was her country" was revealed in a study of "England's Elizabeth," biography by Milton Waldman, which was the program subject for the Twentieth Century Junior club yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. M. C. Overton was hostess, and Miss Ruth Ann Mitchell was the program leader. Her review of the book showed Elizabeth in her most exciting aspects, not as a woman but a sovereign, a typical politician who constantly held the hope of marriage before the rulers of Europe to gain her ends, who passionately loved England, and who changed the country from an insignificant island to a world empire.

Only routine business was conducted, including plans for the child clinic sponsored by the club. Mrs. Boy Wight is chairman of the clinic committee is working today.

A dessert course was served after the program to Mmes. Clarence Barrett, Julian Barrett, Roy Bourland, Fred Cary, A. B. Goldston, Frank Perry, Arthur Swanson, Edward Damon, Wight, Overton; Misses Margaret Buckler, Virginia Faulkner, and Mitchell.

Carnival Stunts Planned at Sam Houston School

Plans for the St. Patrick's carnival to be given at Sam Houston school on the evening of March 16 are under way, with various rooms making their choice of the features they will sponsor. Principal A. L. Patrick reports.

A popularity contest is also starting among the students, in which a boy and a girl will be nominated from each room for a race to choose a carnival queen, king, and attendants.

Rooms which have already announced their features are: Miss Mullinax's, fortune teller; Mrs. Stout's, freak show; Miss Sessions', magician; Miss Jones', movie; Mrs. Irwin's, fish pond; Mrs. Peddicord's, recreation; Mrs. Bradley's, doll show.

Members of the club expect to make the program instructive as well as entertaining, and to present facts not generally known about the state.

Merten Study Club To Continue Course

Their course of parent education was continued by members of the Merten Parent-Teacher Study club Friday, when they met with Mrs. Joe Mullins. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. B. W. Bettis with Mrs. E. M. Hope as hostess.

Present last week were these visitors: Mmes. Jo McMullins Jr., Frank Hopper, Scott Green, S. C. Barrow, and members: Mmes. F. E. Bailey, Hope, Bettis, H. B. Knapp, Charles O'Connor, and the hostess.

PECAN TREES LIKELY STARTED IN TEXAS, DISCOVERY SHOWS

BRADY, Feb. 28 (AP)—Pecans grew on Texas soil at least 80,000 years ago, Ross Wolfe, well known pecan authority of Stephenville, recently told a group of West Texas pecan growers at Brady. Discoveries indicate that Texas was the cradle of the world's pecan culture.

Wolfe said that the antiquity of pecan growth on Texas soil has been known for at least 15 years. Recent discoveries have added a more interesting chapter to pecan history.

Two perfectly shaped and petrified kernels, found near Corsicana by Wolfe last year were as large as the modern paper shell pecan. These specimens were taken out of the late cretaceous strata estimated to be 70,000,000 years old.

Impressions in Rock
Imbedded 40 feet in a San Saba hill in a formation estimated to be 200,000 years old, Wolfe, five years ago found two perfect rock impressions of pecan nuts and one fossil pecan still wrapped in its green outer shell. The size of the fossils was larger than the average orchard run varieties of today and as large as some of the present day improved varieties.

The first paleontological find of a petrified whole pecan was made fifteen years ago by the world's most famous pecan culturist E. E. Risien of San Saba. This fossil was 24 feet underground in a geological strata estimated as 80,000,000 years old.

Risien also owns the world's oldest pecan tree—the "mother" tree to which practically every improved variety of pecan traces its ancestry. Risien, who came to San Saba an immigrant youth, rose from an obscure position in a second hand furniture store to dean of the world's pecan culture.

Started Improvement
He worked and budded the first tree and started the modern pecan improvement program. The nuts grown from his improved trees soon attracted world-wide attention. British royalty have been among his regular customers.

"We know that Texas has the oldest pecan tree in the world, the famous San Saba tree owned by Risien," Wolfe says, "but we are also about to claim, and we believe can verify it from the fossils, that the pecan species originated in Texas as long as 80,000,000 years ago."

Wolfe related that the pecans degenerated for thousands of years.

LEGISLATURE ADJOURNS AFTER TURNING THE CLOCK BACK

AUSTIN, Feb. 28 (AP)—Governor Miriam A. Ferguson's special session of the legislature, called by her to enact unemployment relief legislation, was in adjournment today.

The work after the 12 o'clock deadline before the houses quit work. The clock was turned back to avoid the constitutional limitation which terminated it at midnight.

The bill to issue additional state bonds for relief of destitution and to declare a moratorium against forced sales of real estate were sent to the governor. Both bills were passed with a majority sufficient to make them effective on signature of the governor.

The session ended at 2:05 a. m. Before presiding officers had gathered up the scattered bills and directed to closing the session and declared sine die adjournment.

For time it appeared the legislature would be forced to adjourn with its job only half done due to failure of the senate to approve the moratorium bill by enough votes to make it operative immediately.

Father-Son Event At McLean Is One Of Best Reported

MCLEAN, Feb. 28.—More than one hundred plates were laid in the basement of the Presbyterian church when the Boy Scouts sponsored a Father-Son banquet.

Guests assembled in the auditorium at 7:30 at the bugle call given by Scouts Hobby Appling and Jesse Dean Cobb. Music was furnished by the scout band under the direction of Robt. C. Davidson.

An impressive address on citizenship was delivered by Rev. Cecil G. Goff, who was attired in an Uncle Sam costume. A. G. Post of Pampa, president of the Adobe Walls council presented the charter to Claud Williams, representative of the Lions club, who in turn passed it on to A. R. McHaney, local scoutmaster.

Mr. McHaney, Loyd Hunt, and Johnie R. Back, the latter two being assistant scoutmasters, then gave to each boy his membership card in the local council. Mess call was sounded by Hobby Appling.

The entire delegation passed to the basement where women of the Parent Teacher association served a three-course chicken dinner.

An interesting program as follows, interspersed by impromptu talks and jokes, was rendered:

Toast to the fathers, Charles Finley, response, Jesse J. Cobb, Vocal solo, "That Silver Haired Daddy of Mine," Wayland Floyd, Trombone solo, Clint Doolin Jr.; toast to sons, Rev. W. A. Erwin, response, Forrest Stout, Vocal solo, Billie Biggers, cornet solo, Jack Bogart; reading, Clyde Carpenter; piano solo, John Kirby; baritone solo, Hobby Appling; reading, James Edwin Finley; cornet solo, R. L. Appling; piano solo, Frank Wharton; the value of Boy Scout Work, Rev. N. U. Stout; cornet solo, Jesse Dean Cobb; song led by Billie Biggers; caps, Jesse Dean Cobb.

Special guests for the evening were Mr. Post and Executive C. A. Clark of Pampa.

Special attention was called by Scoutmaster A. R. McHaney, to the fact that the father of most children present, at the suggestion of L. V. Lonsdale, all drank a toast to their mothers. Supt. C. C. Cryer made an impromptu talk.

A rising vote of thanks was given the committee from the Parent Teacher association, whose chairman was Mrs. T. A. Massey, for the menu prepared.

What Is Wrong With NRA Told Hugh S. Johnson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—General Hugh S. Johnson has what he asked for: a lot of complaints and suggestions about NRA.

Among the statements voiced at meetings called to talk over the recovery movements are these:

That the small business man should be protected better.

That cut-throat competition is not sufficiently outlawed.

That some codes tend toward monopoly of the industry.

That some codes overlap.

That the maximum work week should be 30 hours.

That unconstitutional acts are committed under NRA.

That union men are discriminated against in some cases, and workers "exploited" by employers.

That women should be permitted to continue industrial home work.

That industrial home work should be abolished.

Among the prominent people who registered their thoughts with NRA were:

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, who urged consideration for small book stores and groceries.

Senator N. D. D., who wants small business protected better.

Norman Thomas, socialist leader, who wired after a tour: "There is utter breakdown of NRA enforcement machinery in all parts of the country I have visited."

Corn Hog Plan Is of Interest to Cotton Farmers

To the cotton farmer who has already reduced his cotton acreage by diversifying with other crops and livestock in previous years, and who feels the government cotton program is unfair to him, the corn-hog contract may offer interesting possibilities, says Ralph R. Thomas, county agent.

Suppose a farmer, changed from an all-cotton farm system to half cotton and half feed a few years ago. He milks cows and feeds hogs and raises chickens for a steady year round living, and takes his cotton money in the fall for paying the bigger bills. He makes the same percentage reduction in his 1934 cotton crop as the neighbor who still plants nearly the whole farm to cotton, but he will receive only half as much in the way of a government cotton benefit check.

In many such instances it works out that the diversified farmer may sign a corn-hog contract to reduce corn acreage or hog production or both, and receive government benefit checks that will total just as much or even more than the checks received by the all-cotton farmer. In addition the diversified farmer is in a much better position than the all-cotton farmer to use the extra feed which the farm can grow under the terms of the cotton and corn-hog contracts.

CONCERT TICKETS SELLING
Ticket sales for the concert to be given Saturday evening by Helen Fouts Cahoon of Fort Worth are meeting with success, and indicate that the diversified farmer will be filled with listeners, girls of the Junior Treble Clef club, sponsors, report.

Mrs. Cahoon, who teaches voice at Texas Christian University during the regular term and in Chicago in the summers, has appeared this year in programs sponsored by the Neyin club at Corsicana and the Schubert club at Dallas. She was guest soloist for the European club at Fort Worth, and soloist for the church federation meeting in Dallas.

Dern Hits Back At Committee's Army Air Plan

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (AP)—Secretary Dern, chief of a war department which has been criticized on Capitol hill, is hitting back at some of the ideas he hears bruited about.

In a letter, the contents of which were disclosed today, he hinted he would withdraw his request for 1,800 new army planes if congress pushed the idea of establishing a separate budget and separate promotion list for military fliers.

Chairman McSwain of the house military committee, to whom the letter was addressed, meanwhile, pushed a resolution in the house to investigate all army procurement policies.

Dern's letter to McSwain, which opposed giving any aviation a separate budget and advancement list, said:

"These two extraneous issues which have been added would result, on the one hand, in jeopardizing government control, and on the other, in the introduction of privilege and favoritism, which would be reflected in a specialized officer corps elite."

"I know of nothing that could be more destructive to the prestige of victory to the American army in war."

Despite the protest, McSwain said that the "committee will have to make up its own mind."

Bank Messenger Brutally Slain; Trio Questioned

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 28 (AP)—A woman and two men were questioned for hours today in a $207,294 robbery in which an unarmed bank messenger was shot through the heart.

Detective Chief T. J. Higgins said the witnesses had identified one of the men, but he declined to say which it was. The prisoners are Sam Decaro, Joe Marino and Decaro's wife. The detective chief said Decaro had admitted that he killed a man here in 1922 because "he slapped me."

Webster Kemner, 29, assistant teller for the Commerce Trust company, was stopped on a downtown street yesterday by two men. One of them shot the unresisting teller, despite the fact that he offered no resistance.

The men picked up his satchel, containing cash and securities, and fled in a small car, believed to have been driven by a woman. A fourth man, held by Doyle Swofford, bank guard, at Bay during the robbery.

The crime was executed so swiftly that a traffic officer 30 yards away did not know about it until too late. Dozen passers-by saw the cold-blooded killing.

Whose Fault?

Is a Child Won't Play with Others?
Parents who understand children know where to place the blame when a youngster misbehaves. It is not himself, or his "ugly" toward others. Sluggishness ruins any disposition and that's what is usually wrong. But it's just as wrong to do that child with sickening cathartics. Until 15- or older—a child's bowels need but little aid—a very mild form of help. Stronger things often upset the stomach or weaken the bowel muscles. For the happy solution of this problem see what to do, in the next column.

These are happy, healthy boys and girls who have never known the bitter taste and violent action of castor oil or similar cathartics. The only medicine they ever get—or ever need—to help the bowels is plain California Syrup of Figs. The formula in this famous syrup has the natural laxative action that assists Nature as it should. Next day, the child feels and acts himself, and has a normal appetite. But use the real California Syrup of Figs, with the word "California" on the label and on the bottle.

PAMPA FACULTY WILL MEET BORGER'S TEACHERS IN CAGE GAME MARCH 9

FUNDS TO BUY SWEATERS FOR SCHOOL CLUBS

FIRST GAME WILL BE PLAYED AT BORGER ON MARCH 6

The local basketball season is not over, believe it or not. There will be another game played here and it should be one of the outstanding games of the year. The Pampa Faculty will meet the Borger Faculty in the cage.

The game will be played Friday night, March 9. Admission will be 20 cents for students and 35 cents for adults. The two teams will meet March 6, in Borger, in the first game of the series. Proceeds from the two games will be used to purchase sweaters for the four basketball teams of the two schools—namely the Pampa Harvesters, Pampa Harvestettes, Borger Bulldogs, and Borger Redbirds.

Pampa's faculty team has started practice and shows much promise. There is plenty of material available, and the only trouble will be getting the quintet in condition for the hard grind.

The Harvesters will line up with Odus Mitchell, Harvesters coach and former Canyon Buffalo star, at center. Frank Monroe, star from West Texas State Teachers college, will be at one forward position and Harry Kelley, another WTSST boy, will be the other forward. Line man, William Savage, a fourth Canyon product, will take one guard position and E. N. Dennard, Trinity university star and the only "outsider" on the quintet, will be the other guard.

For substitutes the Pampa faculty will have Assistant Coach Argus, Robert Smellege, B. G. Gordon, Ben Guill, R. A. Selby, T. H. McDonald, and Tom Herod.

The Pampa faculty basketball team demonstrated last night that it should give Borger a hard tussle next week when the two teams meet in a series by defeating the Cabot Shops team 60 to 9 at the high school gymnasium.

The Harvesters passed, dribbled, and hoped baskets in a manner that pleased Coach Lem Sone. Frank Monroe, recent graduate of West Texas State Teachers college, led the parade of points with 22, followed by Coach Odus Mitchell, also of WTSST, who made 17 counters. R. A. Selby was a close third in the scoring race.

The Cabot stars were Archie Lee Walstead and Jones Seitz, former Harvesters. They tried hard but were no match for the studious gentlemen.

Faculty substitutes gave a good exhibition while on the floor. Borger has a strong team led by Acker and Knowles, basketball coaches, and McDonald. Money from the games will be used to buy sweaters for the basketball teams of the two schools.

Keith Gledhill and Chapin join Tilden and Vines.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. (AP)—Keith Gledhill of Santa Barbara, Calif., ninth ranking player among the amateurs, and Alfred H. Chapin, Jr., of Springfield, Mass., have joined Bill Tilden's troupe of professional tennis stars.

"Our signing of Chapin to a contract may come as a surprise," said Bill O'Brien, co-promoter with Tilden, "but he has convinced us he can hold his own in professional ranks."

Chapin was the seventh ranking player in the 1929 national list.

Gledhill and Gledhill, who held the national doubles championship with Ellsworth Vines in 1932, will make their pro debut in New Haven March 21, and then join Tilden and Vines in a nation-wide tour winding up on the Pacific coast.

SPORTS PROMINENTS ATTEND FUNERAL OF JOHN J. MCGRAW

Notables of Wide Different Fame Included Among Honorary Pall-Bearers.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. (AP)—His friends gathered to take their farewell of John Joseph McGraw today.

The tremendous pile of gray stone that is St. Patrick's Cathedral was the setting of funeral services for the baseball veteran whose turbulent career came to a peaceful conclusion in New Rochelle hospital Sunday.

His parish priest, the Rev. Vincent de Paul Mulry, pastor of St. Catharine's church in Pelham, was to sing the solemn requiem mass.

After the services the body is to be taken to Baltimore and placed temporarily in a vault, awaiting interment in the spring.

Preparations were made to handle an overflow throng come to pay final tribute to the leader whose creed, in baseball and out of it, was that anything worth having was worth fighting for.

Baseball naturally furnished the largest single group of mourners with representatives from every club in the National league. The New York Giants, whom McGraw served as manager and vice president of 32 years, were to be represented by a large group of officials headed by President Charles A. Stoneham and including Manager Bill Terry.

The list of honorary pall-bearers also included notables of widely different fame—John McCormack, the Irish tenor; George M. Cohan, De Wolf Hopper, Sam Harris, Will Rogers, Charles Dillingham and Frank Crumit of the theatre; Edward Burke, Max Hiran and James E. Milton of the turf; Edward P. Mulrooney, former police commissioner; Willie Hoppe, Jack Doyle and Frank Dwyer of billiard fame; Tim Mara, sports promoter; Supreme court justices; business men; sports writers and many others who had come to know and respect the doughty fighter of the diamond.

Harvester Field Will Be Seeded In Grass Soon

The 1934 Harvester football team will play its home games on a turf equal to any in the state, weather permitting, and in the shadow of a freshly planted grandstand. The ground of the playing field is now being prepared for planting grass. Its success will depend on the weather during the summer months.

The athletic committee will water the field during the winter. Bermuda will be planted and the committee would appreciate persons having Bermuda grass set in town.

But the minutes, he knew, were rolling into precious hours. Soon he hoped to be speared into the daylight—into the quiet waters of some mangrove-fringed lagoon that joined the sea.

Gray daylight showed above him! He was being shot down-stream between creeper-hung walls. But half-conscious, he realized that although he was in the main channel the width of it was diminishing.

The stream was branching variously. A danger lay in that. Stuck into one of the branches he might be forced into a swamp from which he might not be able to extricate himself.

He must keep to the main channel at all costs! Only the main channel would have water-force enough to have cut through the mangrove.

Suddenly he shouted with hope. Ahead, glimpsed on either side of a jutting spine of rock that thrust upward from the seething water about it, were low grass-covered banks backed with palmetto and mangroves. Further on was a turquoise lagoon. The sea!

Frank's nostrils twitched with the tang of beach reeking in the sun. That flaming disc burst, as he looked, through a layer of clouds lying low above the horizon. It was nearing sunset.

As the current twisted him toward the divided channel, he felt a tugging at his legs, an inexorable suction, the pulled his feet away from the surface current while the buoyancy of the life-belt tended to float it toward the peaceful lagoon.

Subconsciously he struggled a little as if the attempt could relieve his legs from some clinging, unseen menace. The suction pulled harder.

Sudden realization swept him. The underground river discharged here at sea level, but also it plunged into the hidden chasm that could have no outlet except in the floor under that glittering, turquoise sea ahead!

FIGHT BETWEEN CARNERA AND LOUGHRAN POSTPONED A DAY

Rain Causes Title Fight to Be Delayed Until Thursday Night at Miami.

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 28. (AP)—Rain today forced a postponement until tomorrow night of the world's heavyweight title fight between Primo Carnera, the champion, and challenger Tommy Loughran, which had been scheduled for the Madison Square garden outdoor arena here tonight.

By ALAN GOULD Associated Press Sports Editor

MIAMI, Fla., Fe. 28. (AP)—For no apparent reason other than to prove it can be done despite all obstacles, Primo Carnera fights Tommy Loughran tonight in defense of the world's heavyweight championship 15 rounds or less, win and weather permitting.

The 256-pound Italian giant ruled a 3 to 1 favorite to beat the 185-pound American challenger and it was even money he would win by a knockout.

Doomed to financial failure from the outset by a combination of circumstances, the fight has been hard by several days of unruly weather. Rain dampened the st. of the chance of postponing the whole show until tomorrow night.

Officials of Madison Square Garden of New York, promoting the fight, declared most of the 2,000 ring-side seats at $20 each had been sold or reserved. Even so it was unlikely the net gate receipts would be far beyond the $50,000 mark. The attendance, cash and on the cuff, may not pass 25,000.

For a heavyweight title battle the odds are the lowest "odds" in more than 30 years, contrasting sharply with the glamorous $400,000 bet show that followed Tex Rickard's first invasion of this tropical resort in 1929.

Despite an extraordinary "build-up" for the popular and clever but light hitting Loughran's chances, insiders consider Carnera a sure thing to win, probably by a knockout inside six or eight rounds.

One of the things that reflects confidence in the outcome is the fact that plans already are pending to match Carnera with his motion picture rival Max Baer, for the big outdoor title fight of the year in New York.

Loughran's following is made up mostly of well wishers and patriots. The handsome Philadelphia, once holder of the world's lightweight title, has undoubtedly made a comeback. His record of several victories against big opponents as well as his training performances have been widely ballyhooed in his favor. It may be that Tommy can contribute another startling upset to the string of surprises during the past year but it's highly unlikely.

The title is about the only thing Carnera can save from the latest of his bizarre adventures. The grinding fight, already in bankruptcy, got some small change for knocking out Jack Sharkey for the championship last summer; defended the title against Paulino in Rome for charity and a medal, and now will be lucky to get training camp expenses for himself and the entourage here. Under the circumstances he might be glad to get rid of the title against Paulino and go back to free lance work.

Tonight's fight is to go to an official decision by two judges and a referee, Leo Shea, all from Miami. The main bout is to begin about 10 p. m. E. S. T. It will be broadcast live on the radio with station WMAC, New York.

BLOND GODDESS

A New Serial by HERBERT JENSEN

SYNOPSIS: Frang Grahame, the explorer, is taking a desperate chance to save his three companions in misery. He is floating down an underground river in Yucatan, trying to reach the coast before the rainy season fills the valley in which the party is imprisoned. Janice Kent, the movie star he loves, is one of the party, as is Bill Langton, the famous aviator. And there is also the high priest of a savage tribe, dangerously injured, but malevolent.

Chapter 44

THE PLUNGE

Swifter plunged the current. The cavern seemed wider, but the roof was lower. A down-projecting stalactite struck his head. Half stunned, he struggled to keep his hands above his head to guard against a repetition of the blow as he was thrown against wall projections, and sucked away into the greedy current. He became dazed with an ever-increasing dizziness. It was an effort to breathe with the spray lashing his face.

His arms seethed with the effort of upholding them. He peered above the top of his life-jackets and clasped his hands above his head. He realized that he was growing weak with the buffeting.

But the minutes, he knew, were rolling into precious hours. Soon he hoped to be speared into the daylight—into the quiet waters of some mangrove-fringed lagoon that joined the sea.

Gray daylight showed above him! He was being shot down-stream between creeper-hung walls. But half-conscious, he realized that although he was in the main channel the width of it was diminishing.

The stream was branching variously. A danger lay in that. Stuck into one of the branches he might be forced into a swamp from which he might not be able to extricate himself.

He must keep to the main channel at all costs! Only the main channel would have water-force enough to have cut through the mangrove.

Suddenly he shouted with hope. Ahead, glimpsed on either side of a jutting spine of rock that thrust upward from the seething water about it, were low grass-covered banks backed with palmetto and mangroves. Further on was a turquoise lagoon. The sea!

Frank's nostrils twitched with the tang of beach reeking in the sun. That flaming disc burst, as he looked, through a layer of clouds lying low above the horizon. It was nearing sunset.

As the current twisted him toward the divided channel, he felt a tugging at his legs, an inexorable suction, the pulled his feet away from the surface current while the buoyancy of the life-belt tended to float it toward the peaceful lagoon.

Subconsciously he struggled a little as if the attempt could relieve his legs from some clinging, unseen menace. The suction pulled harder.

Sudden realization swept him. The underground river discharged here at sea level, but also it plunged into the hidden chasm that could have no outlet except in the floor under that glittering, turquoise sea ahead!

Francie now, he flailed his arms.

FRANCIE FALLS INTO THE GRIP OF A NEW HORROR, TOMORROW

Her mind was too dull to speculate upon this. Days of association with him had made her immune to the constant hate in his eyes; that this mad priest's hate should increase or wane was a matter of indifference to her.

They worked on the three life-belts until far into the evening. The downpour outside made a continuous sound that seemed to lull her ear drums. The very stillness of this closed place was terribly depressing.

Finally she took down from a peg a tattered khaki coat—it was Frank's—and took it to the cot he had made for her—hide things stretched across a framework and covered with skins and soft grasses.

Janice falls into the grip of a new horror, tomorrow.

Lower he sank. He clawed for support that was denied him. Down he was dragged into a vortex. He felt the waters closing about his head.

Gasping for a last despairing breath, he was hot down into a great funnel. A rushing and roaring sound filled his ears. His body was hammered and flailed against the rough sides of this terrible aqueduct. His lungs were on fire, they were burning.

There was a blinding flash on the mirror behind his eyes.

Then the darkness of oblivion.

Janice Kent walked slowly back to the little clearing where their ever-burning fire smoked amid the rocks. She stepped herself up the back-log and started automatically at the glowing embers.

Something had gone dead within her—something that in dying had left a void that yet was capable of aching. Her mind was too confused for analysis but that very confusion released a swarm of queer mental figures that seemed to gesticulate at her mockingly.

She had told the man she loved that she loved him, and he had, upon that telling, pressed her away from him and was gone, perhaps, to his death. This was incredible, that this man loved her.

Was a man's love different than a woman's? All her life she had avoided what was called falling in love as a matter of expediency—a measure of safety against an emotion that she felt would demolish a career and a position in it that she had worked so hard to achieve. She knew her avoidance was not based upon repugnance, but on timidity. She had played too many roles wherein the woman gave all for love not to appreciate that there was a sound basis of fact for this instinct.

During the weeks that Frank and she had been companions, she came to a fuller appreciation of the enormous timidity that had held her that night in Hollywood when Frank had asked her to marry him.

She had struck him, gripped with that instinct that is as old as Eve which causes the female to flee before the advancing male. She had paid for that unreasoning gesture since with many a headache.

Was man's love different than woman's? How could Frank have left, loving her, without some word for her alone? "Billy will explain why I'm going." Then he was gone—like that last night in Hollywood.

She was scarcely conscious that Billy Langton stood before her. Gently he bent forward and took one of her hands in his own.

"He'll be back, Janice. Frank is resourceful. Why, he's got as many lives as a—" He broke off

New Ways to Fill Cookie Jar Given To Laketon Club

An attractive cookie jar filled with Mrs. Cook's whodone cookies is a delight to all children as well as to grownups. Miss Ruby M. Adams, county home demonstration agent, told members of the Laketon club in special session recently at the home of Mrs. Cheryl S. Talley.

Miss Adams demonstrated the making of dropped, rolled, filled, and plain cookies. Her recipe for mince meat cookies calls for 1/2 cup butter, 1/2 cup brown sugar, an egg, a cup of mince meat, 1 1/2 cups flour, and 2 teaspoons baking powder. Green tomato mince meat was used.

Mrs. Leo Paris presided during a business meeting when the meat show to be held March 5 at Amarillo was discussed.

The cookies were served from a prettily appointed table and tea was poured by Mrs. Talley to two guests, Mrs. Sam Arnett and Mrs. Jay Evans, and Miss Adams, Mmes. Terry, Hoffer, Attaway, Paris, and the hostess.

CLASS LUNCH POSTPONED

Postponement of the quarterly luncheon of the Wesley Friendship class of First Methodist church, scheduled tomorrow, has been announced. The luncheon will be given a week later, on March 8, when all members are invited to the church dining room.

day afternoon, the second of a series on American music and musicians. Mrs. T. D. Hobart was hostess at her home.

J. M. Dodson, program leader, discussed national music, good and bad. Illustrating the four types of music originated in America, she sang four solos.

Standin' in the Need of Prayer, a negro spiritual; Land of Sky Blue Water, an Indian song; Cowboys' Dream, a song of the range; and Nearer, My God, to Thee, a religious song, were her selections. Mrs. W. R. Ewing accompanied her, and also played American patriotic airs.

American musicians were listed in a brief "Who's Who" by Mrs. John K. Sweet. Mrs. C. P. Buckler spoke of musicians of the southwest, and sang with the importance of music in schools.

The program was followed by a social period, when a salad course was served to Mmes. John Andrews, Buckler, W. M. Craven, Dodson, Ewing, C. T. Haskins, J. H. Keller, L. L. Leitch, P. G. Leitch, Carson Leitus, J. M. McQuaid, S. G. Surratt, Thos. James, T. J. Geo. Walsiad, and others.

"Scandals of 1934" Here Friday at La Nora Theater

Elaborate scenery, fast dancing, and the latest song hits will be featured in "Scandals of 1934," the stage attraction to be presented Friday and Saturday, March 2 and 3, at La Nora theater.

The stage show, a world fair edition, comes to Pampa with its original cast, and exactly as it has been produced in some of the larger cities of the country.

Talent has not been spared to make the world's fair edition of the Scandals one of the fastest and smartest stage presentations on the road today.

An other outstanding feature of the show is Sally Ryan, offering her sensational fan dance. Well-known dispensers of comedy appear in the 30-minute act also, and skits, blackouts as well as straight gags go to make up that part of the entertainment bill.

Latest costumes are used not only for principals in the Scandals, but for the chorus. Novel and intricate dance routines are used for many of the elaborate dance numbers.

Theatersgoers of this city will be able to see the Scandals of 1934 at the La Nora theater from two days, beginning Friday, March 2.

CLYDE BARROW IS ACCUSED IN BANK ROBBERY

HAMILTON AND BONNIE PARKER HELPED HIM, POLICE CLAIM

DALLAS, Feb. 28. (AP)—Once again, investigators concluded today, Clyde Barrow has laughed at "the law" and got away—this time with the $4,138 robbery of a bank in the small town of Lancaster, half an hour's ride by electric interurban from Dallas.

Positive identification was lacking, but, from a description of the robbers and their methods, officers were convinced that the three men who matter-of-factly robbed the cashier and a customer of the R. F. Henry & Sons bank of Lancaster yesterday were Clyde Barrow and Raymond Hamilton, boastful young West Dallas "hister," and another escaped convict from the Texas penitentiary.

A farmer living near Kleburg, not many miles distant, told of seeing three men drive up to a car in which a woman had been waiting for roadside repairs.

The woman, they surmised, must have been Bonnie Parker, Barrow's cigar-smoking moll, whose companions in many bullet peppered escapades throughout the middle west, Hamilton was freed, along with five other convicts, from the Eastman state prison Jan. 16, under cover of a fusillade from a machine gun reputedly directed by Barrow.

Kleburg was identified as one stolen Sunday night from G. Jeff Waggoner of Wichita Falls.

RELIEF

Others, architects, artists, nurses, and poets, are the text of the new unemployment program made public at the White House today.

The experience of the past nine months has shown that the unemployment problem must be faced on more than one front.

Coincidental with the plans for the demobilization of civil works has been the development of a program to meet the peculiar needs of three separate and distinct groups in need through no fault of their own.

The care of needy persons in rural areas is a problem quite distinct from that of the urban unemployed. Their security must be identified with agriculture. They must be placed in positions of self support.

In many parts of the country this calls for a change from commercial farming and dependence upon a single cash crop to the raising of the various commodities needed to maintain the families.

Relief funds, therefore, will be expended on behalf of rural families in a manner and to an extent that will enable them to achieve self support. Work for wages from relief funds is not an essential part of this phase of the program and will be provided only insofar as it is necessary to accomplish the primary objectives.

No encouragement of an extension of competitive farming is contemplated, but rather the placing of thousands of persons, who have made their living from agriculture, into a relationship with the soil that will provide them a security they do not now enjoy.

Some of the methods to be employed include building or rebuilding, to provide adequate farm homes; the provision of seed and stock from other than commercial purposes, and opportunities to these workers to earn modest cash incomes through part time or seasonal employment in small industrial enterprises.

There should also be a planned distribution of the regular jobs on highways; in the national and state parks and forests, and other public work prosecuted in agricultural communities.

The plans call for complete co-operation with the department of agriculture, and with the state and county agricultural departments throughout the country. It substitutes for direct relief an opportunity to obtain and maintain self support in an accustomed environment, and completely divorces relief activities in rural areas from those in the cities.

The needy unemployed living in cities and towns and who, in the course of coming months may reasonably look forward to regular jobs, are entitled to, and should receive insofar as possible, adequate assurance of means to maintain themselves during the balance of the period of their enforced idleness.

The federal government, both in its relief measures and in its civil works program, now nearing completion, has been meeting an emergency situation.

RECOGNITION IS ADVOCATED BY PUPPET RULER

Pu-Yi Will Be Made Manchu Emperor On Thursday

By JAMES A. MILLS (Copyright, 1934, HSHKING, (Chicago, Ill.), Manchukuo, Feb. 28.—Henry Pu-Yi, on the eve of his enthronement as emperor of Manchukuo, made a new bid for foreign recognition in a statement given the Associated Press today.

He reviewed the progress made in the Japanese-assisted state during the two years he has ruled as chief executive.

"Let the world judge this," he invited in the statement, "whether we deserve the right of a separate existence, or whether we ought to have foreign encouragement or recognition."

"By suppressing banditry, corrupt rule, 'squeeze' and exploitation of the masses by predatory war lords, we feel we have made a distinct contribution to the peace of Asia and to the welfare of the people."

But the statement continued, "The Amur and the Sungari river, the 28-year-old emperor-designate drew a contrast between conditions in Manchukuo and in China proper."

He asserted that "20 years of republican rule in China has brought the people of that unhappy country only misery, poverty, suffering, corruption, disorder and continued civil strife."

But the statement continued, "Two years of benevolent rule in Manchukuo based on the wise, liberal doctrines of Confucius has brought happiness, peace, security, well-being and new life to this nation."

The emperor-elect completed his pre-enthronement purification ceremonies today and immediately thereafter received American and foreign newsmen for the last time in the Sungari, flowing north, at Heilung, this is about 150 miles south of Khabarovsk.

On behalf of the press, this writer as the senior correspondent, felicitated the young monarch-to-be—former child-ruler of all China—upon his coming accession to the throne.

Pu-Yi, who was dressed in his field marshal's uniform, a group of women writers and reporters accompanying the newspaperman created a perplexing problem for the officials, who feared presentation of women would break down centuries-old court traditions.

The democratic young sovereign, however, promptly relieved their anxiety by ordering that all the women be admitted.

Mrs. C. B. Morris and baby left Pampa hospital for their home this morning.

vaguely defined, both Russia and Manchukuo claiming certain areas, but is supposedly the Amur river. The Amur and the Sungari river flow together at the border between soviet territory and the Japanese-assisted state of Manchukuo.

The Amur river follows the border. It is joined by the Sungari, flowing north, at Heilung, this is about 150 miles south of Khabarovsk.

Russians Protest

MOSCOW, Feb. 28. (AP)—The soviet government today charged that Japanese military planes again have flown over soviet territory near the Manchukuan frontier.

They lodged a formal protest with Ambassador Ota of Japan on the matter, saying that a "few" Japanese planes penetrated ten kilometers into soviet territory in the region of Pogornichnaya and Iman several days ago.

At the same time the soviet government officially denied that any soviet airplanes had flown over any part of Korea or Manchukuo, as charged by Tokyo. The government also denied that soviet soldiers had shot down any Japanese airplanes.

Markets

NEW YORK, Feb. 28. (AP)—Stocks dropped in a late selling flurry today and many early gains of fractions to around 2 points were either cancelled or replaced with small losses.

There was no important news to account for the sudden reversal. The close was somewhat irregular. Transfers approximated 1,000,000 shares.
