Musings of the moment: Now is the time to paint; spring sandstorms will turn paint into mud. We don't know whether L. C. Gommellon of the Bradshaw Oil & Gas company ought to be given a medal or examined as to his sanity—it all depends on what you think of carrots. He brought us a real he-carrot, weighing 5 pounds and being nearly as large as a half-gallon jar. (Many thanks: We eat the things frequently.) Those who dislike the idea of raising bigger and better carrots should consult Mr. Gommellon before this thing goes too far. We don't doubt that all those Harvesters earned sweaters, and we share their enthusiasm in the athletic awards, but it does seem that Pampa high has adopted inflation—of heads—and flutter—of feminine hearts.

It is not a very delightful pastime to hunt for an address in a city where the street markers are inadequate and illegible. Some attention to remarking Pampa streets would be welcome. The Junior chamber of Commerce has for one of its 1934 objectives a related and equally desirable project—that of urging citizens to number their houses. Absence of house numbers causes much inconvenience and waste of time. There are many errors in house numbers, some of which are misleading not only as to the house sought but other houses in the neighborhood as well.

A new era has dawned for hitchhikers but evidently very little has been done to help them. The highway robbers if you are a hitch-hiker, young or old, male or female, you are supposed to report to one of the twelve Texas transient bureaus that provide shelter, food, clothing and work on relief projects. Your pay will be only $1.50 per week but that is spending money and if you are a beggar who has had poor success in recent months the arrangement may suit you. At any rate you are supposed to stop at one of the bureaus and quit annoying motorists.

As long as there are CWA projects available in every community, there will be little cause for jobless persons to roam in and down the country. Bands of restless persons of both sexes, young and old, who have made hitch-hiking and bumming a habit.

TWINKLES

News is scarce these days. Most of the old thrills have been worn out, death is common, life is cheap, there's always a war somewhere, the gamut of human emotions has been run so many times that tragedies excite hardly a yawn.

Americans see so many staggering figures that no mortality totals are apt to shock them. Real grief is limited; in most cases, to the nearest relatives involved in any death.

Personally, we read, is "that which one leaves with another." So, if someone gives you a pain, just call it personality and forget it.

The West Foster grouch says that it is just his luck not to have even a canary when the government starts feeding people's livestock.

Maybe the farm lassies that hate the farm can now move to the cities and be pharmacists, instead of farmhands. At least, we hear the ladies are turning to pharmacy and making good at it in a big way.

Wynekoop Trial Postponed -- Woman Growing Weaker

PHYSICIAN IN GRAVE DANGER, SAYS WITNESS

FATAL HEART ATTACK MAY COME AT ANY MOMENT

CRIMINAL COURTS BUILDING.
CHICAGO, Jan. 19. (AP)—The murder trial of Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynekoop was postponed today until Monday because of the 62-year-old defendant's physical condition. Defense attorneys announced that Dr. Wynekoop's condition was grave and that she had spent a bad night, aggravated by nausea. Her pulse was given as 100 and her temperature as 99.6. Dr. Earle Gray, a heart specialist, warned that the woman's condition was such that her life was in constant danger. He said a stroke might come at any time. Looking extremely tired and her face an ashen gray, the aged defendant was wheeled into court a few minutes before the trial was scheduled to get under way, but she was soon wheeled out again. After a conference of principals for half an hour in the judges' chambers it was announced that the trial would be postponed until Monday. A conference of members of the Wynekoop family and relatives was called in Judge David's chambers and the judge announced he would appoint a physician to determine whether Dr. Alice was sufficiently strong to survive the ordeal of the remainder of the trial.

Sheriff Pipes Is Opening Race for Another Term

Sheriff C. E. (Tiny) Pipes is asking a second term. In making formal announcement, Sheriff Pipes said that he had kept his campaign pledges to serve the people with courtesy and fairness, to protect their property, and to abide by their wishes as far as possible. He pointed to the fact that major crimes of his administration have been solved and the offenders sentenced in most instances. It has been a "quiet" year and grand juries have complimented the department on the fact that crime has been at a minimum. The personnel of the department also has been praised. This record, the sheriff believes, entitles him to ask the voters in the democratic primaries to give him a second term.

Byrd's Ship In Narrow Escape

LITTLE AMERICA (via Mackay Radio) Jan. 19. (AP)—Admiral Richard E. Byrd's Antarctic expedition flagship narrowly escaped destruction today when a huge ice cliff toppled into the bay of Whales. The flagship, bearing most of the members of the expedition, was moving slowly through the bay of Whales seeking a permanent mooring place from which supplies could be transferred to the permanent camp at Little America. Admiral Byrd himself was on the bridge. The ship was moving at "slow speed" about 200 yards off the barrier. Suddenly one-quarter of a mile of the barrier ice, rising from 50 to 70 feet above the surface of the bay, roared into the water.

Rotarian C. P. Buckler saying that no questions will be asked if the Rotarian who took his hat by mistake Wednesday noon will return it to the White Deer Land company. The hat left for Mr. Buckler is the same make, Borsalino, but is too large. Referee Jimmie Marshall counting like a trip-hammer over a fighter at the Pla-Mor last night. Jimmie that no questions will be asked if the fight over. Timekeeper Rusty Cahill announced that Jimmie's count of nine took five seconds.

4 AMERICANS TO BE JAILED BY SPANIARDS

Imprisonment For 6 Months And Day Set By Court As Punishment for Assault.

MADRID, Jan. 19. (AP)—Four United States citizens were sentenced to six months and a day imprisonment today for assaulting a civil guard last year at Palma, Mallorca. At the same time the court acquitted Rutherford Fullerton, Columbus, O., one of five Americans concerned in the incident. Those who must go to jail are Mr. and Mrs. Clinton B. Lockwood of West Springfield, Mass.; Roger P. Mead of New York; and Edmund W. Biddget of Stamford, Conn. All five of the Americans were arrested last year after an altercation in a hotel with a civil guard. Under the Spanish law the matter was rendered serious and the subject of a court-martial. The military court, however, acquitted them of guilt after they had been held in jail six weeks while the United States government sought their release. This verdict was later refused by military auditor Morales who placed the case in the jurisdiction of the supreme court of the republic. The prosecution asked prison terms of six months and one day for each defendant. In its ruling today the court did not recommend a pardon but the government can be asked to pardon the defendants. United States Ambassador Claude Bowers planned to go to the ministry of state at once to discuss the court's decision, despite the fact that it has not yet been announced officially. Observers were unable to find a case in the conviction of Mrs. Lockwood and it was regarded as the first time that a woman has been ordered to jail in such a case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19. (AP)—

A challenge of the constitutionality of the Roosevelt dollar evaluation bill was given to the senate today by Carl Glass (D., Va.), as the administration speeded efforts to obtain enactment of the legislation by Tuesday.

Quota of Men Is Cut To 700—Crisis Arrives

WORK on CWA projects in Gray county, including the Pampa-McLean road, stopped abruptly today on receipt of a telegram from Lawrence Westbrook, state administrator, ordering payments for teams and trucks discontinued and reducing hours from 30 to 24 per week here. Hours in rural areas were cut to 15 per week. Although the county is buying the caiche and furnishing some machinery, there is no money available for payment of the $1,800 needed monthly for trucks and teams. In the absence of any project that can be operated without trucks and teams, a return to direct relief, amounting to a dole system, will be necessary unless congress makes a liberal new appropriation. It is believed here that the work is being curtailed to show congress what will happen if the appropriation is drastically cut or discontinued. President Roosevelt plans to ask congress to continue the CWA until May 1. Gray county citizens, the NEWS, members of commerce, and other institutions will join in the nationwide protest against discontinuing CWA work. The Pampa-McLean project had just been well started. First caiche had been laid on three-quarters of a mile east of Left's, seven-tenths of a mile near the underpass southeast of here, and two miles near McLean. Gray county's quota of men has been limited to 700, compared with the requested 900.

LACK OF TEAMS AND TRUCKS CAUSE

ROLLER skating on the pavement and sidewalks of downtown Pampa must cease. The city commission has ordered Chief of Police Jno. V. Andrews to make all skaters remove their skates when they enter the business section and, if the practice is not stopped, to take the offenders before the city judge. Several complaints have been registered by citizens who have been struck by boys and girls rounding corners at high rates of speed. Several small children and babies have been hurled to the sidewalks and injured. Parents are urged to warn their children. The practice is even more dangerous to the skaters themselves. There is the ever present possibility of being struck by automobiles. Little Jerry McGraw, 8 years, of Borger, was killed Wednesday night when struck by a car on the main street of Borger. The child, unable to stop his headlong flight, skated between two cars and was thrown to the pavement, breaking both legs and fracturing his skull. He died in a Borger hospital. Chief Andrews considers the "main part of the city" as Cuyler, Russell, and Frost streets between Francis and Atchinson avenues, and Atchinson, Foster, and Kingsmill streets between Ballard and Somerville streets. Roller skating within that area will be "taboo."

Duel Imminent After Negro Deputy Slaps Editor in Stavisky Scandal

PARIS, Jan. 19. (AP)—Two duels involving deputies appeared imminent today. Both were results of the Stavisky scandal. A negro member of the Chamber of Deputies, Joseph Samuel L. Croisilliere of Martinique, slapped Deputy Besire Ferry, the editor of the newspaper La Liberte, twice in the face, in the lobby of the chamber this morning. LaCroisilliere said he understood Ferry had couped his name with perjury charges in connection with the collapse of Serge Stavisky's (See DUEL, Page 2)

BREMER RESISTED ABDUCTORS AND WAS SLUGGED OVER HEAD, IS CONCLUSION OF OFFICERS

KIDNAPERS' CONTINUED SILENCE AROUSES ANXIETY

ST. PAUL, Jan. 19. (AP)—Blood stains on both front and rear seats of Edward G. Bremer's automobile, today inspired fears for the safety of the 37 year old bank president, held for $200,000 ransom by kidnapers who have threatened him with death. Sploches of blood smeared the front seat of the Bremer sedan when it was found in an outlying residential district shortly after 10 a. m. Wednesday, it was reported today. Indications were the kidnaped owner and head of the Commercial State bank, whose father, Adolph Bremer, is a personal friend of President Roosevelt, was brutally slugged over the head when he resisted his captors as they invaded his car. Then, presumably, sources close to the family said, the unconscious man who at 8:15 a. m. Wednesday had left his daughter Betty, 8, at the exclusive Summit grade school was dragged into the back seat, which also was blood stained. A ransom note, left at the home of Walter Magee, wealthy contractor and friend of the missing man, gave instructions for assembling $200,000 for his freedom and warned he would be killed if the police were summoned or the newspapers notified. Fearing his son's life was in jeopardy, Adolph Bremer, chief owner of the Jacob Schmidt Brewing company here, last night begged law enforcement agencies to desist in their efforts to hunt down the abductors. No word from his son's kidnapers, who were expected to attempt contact with negotiators yesterday, added to the uncertainty surrounding the case, for which a special detail of investigators from Washington has been ordered here. Sheriff C. E. Pipes went to McLean on official business today.

Court of Honor To Be Held Here Monday Evening

A court of honor will be held at the Gray county courthouse Monday evening at 7:15. It was announced here today. Boy Scouting in Wheeler was given a big boost last evening when troop 77 was re-registered with 30 boys enrolled. The troop is jointly sponsored by the chamber of commerce and the American Legion. C. J. Meek is postmaster, with the Rev. J. E. Kirby as assistant. The troop committee is composed of Dr. H. E. Nicholson as chairman and C. C. Fillmore and H. M. Wiley as members. The Wheeler meeting was attended by the Rev. A. Hyde of Pampa, chairman of the council court of honor, and Raymond Herrah, troop organizer.

Bond Cancellation Election To Be Held Tomorrow

MIAMI, Jan. 19.—Roberts county voters will go to the polls tomorrow to decide whether the county commissioners shall order cancellation of $150,000 in road paving bonds. A two-thirds majority will be required for cancellation. The bonds were voted as of 1930. Since then the state has taken over some paving and the CWA funds are available to place caiche on some county roads.

WOMAN, SONS DIE IN JUMP IN SHANGHAI

TEXAS MOTHER WIFE OF Leading Aviation Official Kills Self and Boys.
SHANGHAI, Jan. 19. (AP)—Mrs. W. S. Grooch of El Paso, Texas, took her two sons, William, 6, and Thomas, 7—one under each arm—and jumped off the roof of an 8-story apartment house today. All three were killed. Mrs. Grooch was the wife of the operations manager of the Pacific American Airways. Their home was in the apartment building from which she jumped, one of the most fashionable in the French concession. When he heard of the tragedy, Grooch lost consciousness as a result of the shock. The cause for the suicide was not explained. Mrs. Grooch came here in December from Rio de Janeiro where she lived six years while her husband was associated there with Pan-American Airways. Authorities learned that Mrs. Grooch had been scheduled to sail for the United States tonight aboard the S. S. President Wilson to reach the bedside of her father, who she had been informed, was so seriously ill he might die.

WALLS SCALED BY SEVEN AT KANSAS 'PEN'

LANSING, Kan., Jan. 19. (AP)—Seven convicts, at least four of them accused or convicted of murder, escaped from the Kansas state prison shortly before 7 a. m. today after overpowering but not harming Guard Clyde Deer. Three hours after their escape they were still at large. Prison guards, national guardsmen, peace officers of nearby cities and counties, and federal agents were engaged in a search. The fleeing convicts were not armed when they scaled the south wall with the aid of a ladder improvised from scrap wood, and a hose used as a rope. Guards, who fired at them in the darkness, believe some of their bullets took effect. Two who fled were Bob Brady and Jim Clark, two of the 11 who escaped last Memorial day under the leadership of Wilbur Underhill, now dead, and Harvey Bailey, now serving a life term in nearby Leavenworth federal penitentiary for participation in the $200,000 ransom abduction of Charles F. Urschel, Oklahoma oil millionaire. Others who escaped were Benjamin Young, Tommie McMahan, Frank Delmar, Fred Cody, and Charles Clifton McArthur, alias Claude Newton. Oklahoma Border Guarded. Milton R. McLean, adjutant general of the Kansas national guard, ordered out two batteries of artillery, Fort Scott and Iola; and cavalry troops from Coffeyville and Pleasanton to guard against the convicts gaining outlaw retreats in (See ESCAPE, Page 3)

BRADFORD NAMED Head of Masons

AUSTIN, Jan. 19. (AP)—Texas CWA workers went on a drastically reduced working week today. Acting on instructions of Harry L. Hopkins, federal emergency relief administrator, Texas CWA officials ordered the hours of CWA employees in cities of more than 2,500 reduced from 30 to 24 hours a week and reduced the number of hours of work in rural communities from 30 to 15. It was estimated by Texas officials the curtailed hours would reduce CWA activities in Texas by about one-half. Purchase of materials and supplies for CWA projects also was ordered discontinued. The curtailment was ordered, Hopkins stated, because weekly CWA payrolls had exceeded the original estimates. The order to discontinue cash outlays for supplies and materials in (See CWA, Page 2)

Jaysees' Award To Be Bestowed Monday Evening

Some Pampa man will be honored with a "Distinguished Service Award" when the Junior chamber of commerce holds its annual banquet at the Schneider hotel next Monday. Officers for 1934 will be officially installed at the same time. The award, a key to be conferred jointly with the United States Junior chamber of commerce, will be given to some outstanding man between 18 and 35—the age limit of the Junior chamber—although he will not have to be a Jaysee. The honoree will be selected by a group of prominent business men beyond the eligible age. Last year the award was given Jim Collins. The national chamber will broadcast a special program on the same evening from 11 to 11:30 p. m., with Leslie B. Farrington, national president, and Floyd B. Olsen, governor of Minnesota, going on the air from St. Paul. The broadcast will be received just before the banquet ends. Locally, the program will open at 8 p. m., with many Pampa business men and women of all ages attending. Tickets for the banquet may be obtained from A. F. Smith, at the Harvester Drug store. Members of the Board of City Development will be special guests.

The Wheeler meeting was attended by the Rev. A. Hyde of Pampa, chairman of the council court of honor, and Raymond Herrah, troop organizer.

Mae Wows 'Em

"How'm I doing, boys?" Mae West asked courtroom spectators and the answer seems to be "Great!" The screen siren is shown on the witness stand in the Los Angeles trial of Edward Friedman, charged with robbing her of $3400 in cash and $12,000 in jewelry. "I didn't care so much about the loot," said Mae, "but I was afraid that he might punch me in the nose."

BACKSTAGE IN WASHINGTON

By GILMORE N. NUNN, Washington Correspondent, THE NEWS
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Some people are prone to look down on lobbyists, and say they haven't brains enough to get along in some legitimate work, and that they depend on their personalities to put them across. Maybe so, maybe not. I had dinner one night with an NRA lobbyist. It happens he's an old friend of mine who moved in on Washington about the same time Hugh Johnson Gilmore N. Nunn did, and I got a slant on the inner-workings of a Washington lobby that was most interesting and amusing. This particular man's business wasn't setting the world on fire (back in an Eastern city) so he conceived the idea of lobbying un-

PAMPA WINS GRID FIGHT

Here's big news for football fans: Pampa Harvesters will play Amarillo's Sandies in Amarillo on next Thanksgiving. It was so decided at a schedule making in Plainview today. The rest of the league schedule for Pampa follows: November 3—Plainview at Pampa; November 12, with Borger at Borger; November 23, Lubbock at Pampa. Supt. McIntosh of Amarillo voted for Pampa as the Sandies' Thanksgiving opponent, saying the Amarillo fans demanded it. Lubbock school men fought the change in vain.

I SAW--

Mrs. Al Lawson with a big roll of Texas centennial stamps which the local American Legion auxiliary wants Pampa to buy so a Texas museum can be built in time for the centennial, 1936. The stamp depicts a white map of Texas within a red circle on a dark blue background. A star is in the center of the map. The words "for the Texas Centennial" are above and below the map.

Probably the most significant single thing about Mayo LaGuardia's inaugural in New York was his blunt prediction: "I never shall be re-elected."

That brief remark, taken in conjunction with the new mayor's policies, contains a whole volume of commentary on municipal politics as it is practiced in America. The reasons for the new mayor's pessimistic prediction is simple.

He aims to give New York a clean and efficient administration. He is going to reduce the number of city employees by approximately 10,000.

He is going to cut salaries, abolish useless boards and commissions, consolidate city departments, end the reign of graft in the letting of contracts and the buying of supplies, remove politics from the police department.

He is going, in short, to do those simple things which obviously and indisputably are proper for a mayor to do.

But we have built up the kind of system in our municipal politics which makes it very unlikely that any administration can do those very proper and necessary things and win re-election.

To succeed in American municipal politics, as a general thing, a mayor must consent to a certain amount of inefficiency, a certain amount of favoritism, and a certain amount of outright corruption in government.

The extent to which he puts up with those things varies from city to city, naturally; but the man who, like LaGuardia, boldly proposes to abolish them entirely is a great rarity, and he takes it for granted at the start that he cannot be re-elected.

We need not only politicians who are courageous enough to put principle above the success of their own careers; we need a public opinion that will support such men when they do appear, and give them the backing they must have.

The piping times in which money was so plentiful that we could afford to support wasteful and grafting city governments have gone, now, and there is not much chance that they will return soon.

It is up to us to cut our cloth to suit our purse; to hunt for and support politicians willing to take office with the prediction, "I never shall be re-elected."

Brady Had Good Connections Says His Pretty Wife

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 19 (AP)—"He's a smart man—I always told you he was a smart man!"

That's how pretty Leona Brady, 22-year-old wife of Bob (Big Boy) Brady, took the news of his third prison break today—the second he has made from the Kansas state prison at Lansing.

Glad in black pajamas, she stood in her mother's small home here and then collapsed in a chair, weeping.

"Isn't that the way things go?" she asked. "It seems I get the blame for everything he does. They won't believe I never have had anything to do with his escapades."

Only a few days ago officers here discovered that a girl who had eluded to go to jail rather than pay a traffic fine was Mrs. Brady. Subsequently they detained Mrs. Jim Clark, wife of Brady's companion in both his Kansas escapes—today and last Memorial day. Both have been released.

Mrs. Brady said she thought her husband was in solitary confinement and "near death" and wondered: "How in the world did he do it?"

"But then," she added, "he always had good connections."

"I can't tell you how happy I am," she said. "I don't care whether I ever get to see him again, but it's a great comfort to know he is out. I was angry with him, too—the last time he wrote me he only said two or three words."

TO ATTEND MEETING
 Dr. W. A. Seydler and Dr. C. P. Callison will attend the quarterly meeting of the Panhandle Association of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons to be held at the Amarillo Country club Saturday afternoon and evening. Dr. Callison will appear on the program and will preside as president. Prominent visiting speakers will be heard. The local men will leave here at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

habit and whose feet will grow very impatient if they stay long in one place. But there is a definite relation between movements of all types of individuals from hobo jungle to railroad yards to police headquarters. Control of the transient problem will be very welcome to people and officers who make an effort to know the identity and business of every new comer. Officers will have more time to watch for the more desperate criminals, many of whom have been enjoying seeming immunity from arrest.

Contempt Fine Is Assessed By District Judge

"What kind of a court is this? It ought to be turned into a mill barn if such things as this can get by," said J. M. Deering, complaining witness in a trial in the local district court, addressing Judge W. R. Ewing after an instructed verdict of acquittal had resulted.

"That remark will cost you $25—I hold you in contempt of court," was Judge Ewing's instant rejoinder.

The incident took place after the district attorney had told the court that evidence was not sufficient to convict. Judge Ewing then instructed the jury to return a verdict of acquittal. Deering, visibly disturbed by the outcome, rose to his feet and approached the district attorney, then faced the court and made his costly comment.

George Kilcrease had pleaded not guilty to entering Deering's house with wrongful intent, and had stated that it was a mistake.

In the robbery trial of Clarence Owsen and Willie Parks, the jury was discharged at 4:30 yesterday afternoon after it had been unable to reach a verdict in more than 12 hours. The second trial will be held later in the term.

Judge Ewing was to hear several pleas of guilty in non-jury cases during today.

Ferry replied to the slaps with a punch in the jaw.

Before these two deputies came to blows, however, and while the cleaners still labored at their sweeping, seconds for two other notables met in the chamber to decide which of their principals had been offended in another argument.

They represented Anatole de Monzie, minister of education, and Deputy Philippe Henriot.

These seconds selected Francois Pietri, former cabinet minister and noted swordsman, to decide whether either two principals really ought to fight a duel and which one, under the code of honor, had been offended.

This, they considered, was an important matter, for the offended party has the choice of weapons.

the Spavinaw hills of northeastern Oklahoma.

The last definite report of the convicts came from the guards. They said the seven scattered here and there as they dropped over the wall.

Later there were unconfirmed reports convicts had been seen near Walcott and Victory Junction, not far from the prison.

Members of the family of J. E. Bart, two miles southeast of the prison, said a strange motorcar stood for two hours near their farm between 5 and 7 a. m. Thursday.

The seven men were doing cleaning work at the cellhouse when, apparently carrying out a planned escape, they took Guard Deer by surprise, leaped upon him and took the keys.

Brady, his mouth twisted by a bullet wound, first shipped himself out of the Oklahoma state prison at McAlester in a box of overalls while serving a 35-year bank robbery sentence.

Of course everybody knows Long has been, is, and would like to continue to be high-handed in his political procedure. But it will be if they're not careful, but as for actually proving the opinion—well, it just hasn't been done.

It's reasonably safe to predict, however, that the house committee will refuse to seat EITHER Mrs. Bolivar Kemp, Long's protegee, or Mrs. Sanders, her opponent. Just like so many of Huey's pies, it is so complicated it is uninteresting to anyone except its Louisiana bakers!

A little girl drank a bottle of red ink up this way the other day and suffered no ill effects. Wonder how much better off the country would have been if we'd been using it for a beverage for the past three years?

If everything goes as it is planned, this congress will appropriate more money than any other congress in history, outside the world war session.

Speaking of the action which Louisiana is urging against Long, a few statistics of the court of federal impeachment are rather interesting. The senate has convened as a court of impeachment in the case of ten accused officials, resulting in three of the men being removed from office, one case being dismissed for want of jurisdiction, five of the men being acquitted, and the resignation of one man causing the proceedings to be dismissed.

A FEW MORE STATISTICS: (Relating four of the most peculiar accidents during the year 1933, as taken from the records of a Federal bureau.)

DUKE'S 'SON' ADMITS GUILT IN BLACKMAIL

LONDON, Jan. 19 (AP)—Clarence Guy Gordon Haddon pleaded guilty in Old Bailey court today to a charge of attempting to blackmail King George and will be bound over to keep the peace.

CLAIMS SHATTERED BY KING'S ATTORNEY IN TRIAL

The attorney general traced a series of errors in Haddon's claims in regard to the date of his birth and finally identified him as one of three children born to a Lieut. Molesley in a box of overalls while serving a 35-year bank robbery sentence.

The date of Haddon's birth was set as 1889—two months before the Duke of Clarence, late elder brother of King George, visited India. It was on this visit that Haddon claims the duke met his mother.

Addressing Haddon, 43-year-old unemployed engineer, accused of having written menacing letters to the king demanding money, the judge said: "Unless you wish to end in a madhouse, the sooner you depart from the belief you have been nursing in your brain, the better. Throughout your life, the very holding of this belief—which seems to rest upon nothing—has been your curse."

Haddon arrived at the court with several women companions. He kissed each of them before entering the dock.

When called upon to plea, Haddon said "guilty under extreme provocation."

Simmons Appointed Sanitation Engineer

H. O. Simmons has been appointed engineer in charge of the county-wide sanitation program being sponsored through the federal relief program. Mrs. L. Otterbach has been named county nurse in the same project.

Several men will be hired when the program gets under way. At present, the engineer and nurse are making preliminary surveys and outlining the work to be done.

Numerous other county projects are being planned and will get under way soon.

Mother of Six Favors Birth Control Bill

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—Mrs. Thomas N. Heppburn, mother of six children including the actress, Katharine Heppburn, advocated the Pierce birth control bill before the house judiciary committee today with the words: "The terror of race suicide is non-sense for women want children—but they want them when they can afford them physically and economically."

"Race suicide talk is just as ridiculous as that of those who said, when we women wanted the vote, that for them to go to the polls would destroy the home."

Accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Sanger, Mrs. Heppburn was introduced by Representative Walter Pierce (D., Ore.).

Pierce, author of the bill, contended the present law prohibiting mail dissemination of contraceptive information was unenforceable, causing a "bootleg traffic" to spring up.

TCU Suspends Football Star

FORT WORTH, Jan. 19 (AP)—Rex Clark of Eastland, Star halfback and sub-captain elect of the football team, was suspended from TCU today.

He will be eligible to re-enter the university next fall, but will not be eligible to play football again until 1935.

Clark, a junior, was dismissed by the faculty discipline committee who announced: "His conduct under the provisions of probation, on which he was placed last fall, has been unsatisfactory."

Clark, and more than a score of other students, were placed on probation in October because of their participation in hazing activities.

LUCKIES

For these are the Mildest and fully ripened for perfect smoking

We buy only the center leaves for Luckies. Not the top leaves for they are under-developed. Not the bottom leaves for they are inferior in quality. Only the center leaves for these are truly mild and fully ripe. And that's the fine tobacco we use—to make Luckies so round, so firm, so fully packed—free from loose ends that spill out. That's why Luckies are always mild, always truly mild. And remember, "It's toasted"—for throat protection—for finer taste.

CHAMPION OF CLASS 'A' CAGE RACE MAY BE DECIDED HERE TONIGHT

SANDIES HOLD LEAD OF GAME OVER PAMPANS

HARVESTERS CAN HALT AMARILLO CHANCES BY WINNING

Another "Sandstorm" will hit Pampa tonight. This time it will be the Amarillo high school basketball team which will puff away at the Pampa Harvesters in the high school gymnasium about 7:45 o'clock. Amarillo needs a victory to remain undefeated in the Class A race, having already beaten Lubbock, Plainview and Borger.

Coach Odus Mitchell has been training his eagles at top speed for the last week. He believes his boys are ready for the Sandies. Amarillo nosed out the Harvesters 16 to 14 in Amarillo last week. It was a disorganized green and gold quintet that battled in the hazy city.

Captain Miles Marbaugh is back in the Harvesters lineup, and his presence should prove beneficial. He will take the center position and should get the majority of the tip-offs. The Harvesters have appeared weak in taking advantage of the tip at center, but that point received much attention recently.

The Blackwell twins, Benie, Cleg-horn and Mahuron will probably be the Amarillo starters. The twins are not known in Pampa, except for their work when the Sandie prospects trounced the Harvesters prospects last fall. The two mid-gets were all over the floor and often had two Harvesters guarding one twin while the other broke away to score.

Beale, Amarillo center, has had a severe cold but he is expected to be in the starting lineup tonight. The big fellow is dangerous under the basket and is a good defensive man. Little Red Stidger and Bulkin are substitutes who will probably be used.

Clingman Will Wrestle Here Monday Night

Sailor Otis Klingman, Pampa's own wrestling star, will formally open the wrestling season here Monday night at 8:15 o'clock when he tangles with Prof. Dick Kanthe of Detroit in a finish match at the Pla-Mor auditorium. Klingman has returned from the Pacific coast in hope of getting a try at the mid-weight championship, now held by Gus Kallio.

A good supporting card has been arranged. Rob Roy, another favorite of the Pampa mat, will be seen in a time-limit affair with Pat Garrison, local boy formerly of Borger. Roy has also been doing big-time stuff on the Pacific coast and is ready for all comers. Garrison, the Phillips "66", had boy, remembers a year ago when Roy defeated him.

The opening tussle on the card will introduce Charlie Heard of San Antonio; the boy who is after Jack Reynolds and the welterweight crown, and Lobo Brown of Amarillo. Kanthe is a strong man who also knows wrestling. He went to a draw with the great Sailor Moran before that worthy left this country. Kanthe came within a shade of defeating Klingman in Amarillo recently and he is all steamed up for another match. The professor says he couldn't get another crack at Klingman in Amarillo because it would be "too bad" for the sailor.

VINES EVENS SERIES WITH BILL TILDEN

OLD MASTER'S POISE IS SOMEWHAT UPSET BY DECISIONS

CLEVELAND, Jan. 19 (AP)—Young Ellsworth Vines has evened the road tour tennis series with Big Bill Tilden at three matches all in a short power show which included a spray of baffling drives and a breath-taking service good for 17 aces.

Tilden utilized his contract privilege to shorten the match. Vines' victory was on scores of 6-3, 3-6, 6-3.

Vines appeared to be at top form, but for Tilden the crowded space, the lights and some of the linesman's decisions added nothing to his poise. Big Bill halted the bounding dynamo from California in the second set, when games followed service until the score reached 4-3. Deep drives and a passing shot which caught the younger player coming into the net turned the tide.

Despite his 43 years and a few graying hairs, Big Bill says he is ready to meet "all comers". Commenting before the match on his and Vines' acceptance of a proposal for a meeting with Hans Nusslein of Germany, with Nusslein's world pro title at stake, Tilden said:

"Even if I thought I'd be beaten, I'd play 'em." He plainly indicated, however, that he expects to defeat the German star.

The proposed title matches—Tilden says he holds the world indoor pro title himself—would be for the world pro title as recognized by the International Federation, play being outdoors at five matches, providing satisfactory arrangements can be made after April 1.

In last night's exhibition Bruce Barnes defeated Vincent Richards 6-2, and Richard beat Barnes 6-3. Vines and Richards defeated Tilden and Barnes 2-6, 6-4, 6-1. They play in Chicago Saturday.

SWEATERS ARE GIVEN TO 26 GRID PLAYERS

2 MEMBERS OF SQUAD TO GET LETTERS LATER

Sweaters were presented to 26 Harvesters and the business manager, Fred Mason, at chapel exercise yesterday afternoon. Three members of the 1933 squad did not receive their letters, but two of them will be honored when they make up their work. The third member had a faulty transcript and was not eligible. He practiced faithfully all season.

Presentation of the sweaters was in charge of Principal L. L. Stone, who called the boys on the stage. Coach Odus Mitchell spoke briefly about each boy, and Supt. R. G. Fisher thanked the coaches for their work of building the boys and the teachers for their patience with the players. Coach Argus Fox "wouldn't talk." Coaches Harry Kelley and E. N. Dennard of the Coralia coaching staff were introduced.

Monroe Owens, all-state end last year and captain-elect of the Harvesters, was presented a gold football, the gift of the athletic association. The presentation was made by Mr. Stone.

There were no four-letter men to receive sweaters. Since the eight-semester rule went into effect, it will be practically impossible for a boy to play four years of football. Captain Jess Patton and Bert Stevens were the only two Harvesters who received three stripes. Six boys were awarded two stripes.

Seventeen members of the 1933 squad will be eligible to return for football in 1934. Included in the list will be seven backfield men, four guards, three tackles, two ends, and one center.

Boys receiving sweaters with three stripes were Jess Patton and Bert Stevens. Two-letter sweaters were given to Miles Marbaugh, Carl Smith, Orville Heiskell, Lloyd Hamilton, Ray Eldridge, and Monroe Owens. One-letter men were J. R. Green, Leon Noblett, C. A. Clark, Hazel Mackie, Ray Elkins, Harold Gregory, Richard Montgomery, Virgil Frasher, Robert McAuley, Gerald Maxey, Bill Dunaway, Charlie Welton, Roscoe Pinnell, Cedell Walker, Mayse Nash, Bill Parks, Herbert Reynolds, and Bill Haner.

Returning next season to do their part in the Harvester race for a state championship will be Green, Noblett, Smith, Mackie, Elkins, Hamilton, Montgomery, McAuley, Dunaway, Welton, Owens, Walker, Nash, Parks, Haner, Mumford and Stewart.

Mobeetie Cage Tourney Opens With 23 Teams

MOBETTIE, Jan. 19.—The Mobeetie high school invitation basketball tournament got under way this morning with 13 boys' teams and 10 girls' teams entered. The tournament will continue through tomorrow, when winners will be declared. Prizes will be awarded the winning teams and the runners-up.

Some of the best teams in the eastern Panhandle and even into the central part of the state arrived this morning to participate. The race for winning honors, particularly in the boys' division, is expected to be close.

Cassy Cade of Higgins has been appointed official referee. Supt. Carl Chadoim of the Mobeetie schools will be host to visitors and act as master of ceremonies.

National Ski Championships Set For Sunday

CHICAGO, Jan. 19 (AP)—A total of 150 entries, 103 of them from jumpers of championship caliber, have been received for the national ski championships to be held Sunday at the giant Norge slide at Fox River Grove, north of Chicago.

President Fred Brunn of the Norge Ski club said that competition in all four classes—A, B, senior and junior, was expected to be the keenest in many years.

Ray Mikken, representing Auburn, Calif., is the defending titleholder and favorite, but must defeat such jumpers as Casper Oimen of Minot, N. D., several times American champion, Lamorne Batson, Chicago; Sevre Fredheim of Minneapolis and Ted Petersen of St. Paul.

Erik Solid of the University of Wisconsin, third place winner in the famous meet at Holmenkollen, Norway, in 1927, was favored to win the title in class B. Reider Byfuglin of Minot, N. D., was among the entrants in that class.

Class Officers.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
901 North Frost Street.
"Life" is the subject of the lesson-lesson which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 21.

The Golden Text is: "If thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments" (Matthew 19:17).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-lesson is the following from the Bible: "And Jesus answered him, 'The first of all the commandments is, Hear O Israel; the Lord our God is one Lord' (Mark 12:29).

The lesson-lesson also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "This is life eternal," says Jesus,—is, not shall be; and then he defines everlasting life as a present knowledge of his Father and of himself, knowledge of Love, Truth, and Life.

"This is the life eternal, that they might know Thee, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom Thou hast sent." The Scriptures say, "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God," showing that Truth is the actual life of man; but mankind objects to making this teaching practical" (page 410).

Sunday, 11 a. m.
Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.
Wednesday testimonial meeting, 8 p. m. The reading room is open Monday, Wednesday and Saturday from 1 to 4 p. m. and Wednesday evening before and after the service. The public is cordially invited to attend our services and use the reading room.

The Macedonia Baptist church will observe the first anniversary of the present pastorate beginning Monday night.
The services will open with good singing and preaching. Three churches are in a contest, and the one reaching the highest amount will receive a pulpit scarf.

All are welcome to these services. Our white friends are also invited to attend this anniversary celebration.

Rev. J. J. Johnson, pastor.
Mrs. O. F. Hunter, secretary.

CENTRAL BAPTIST CHURCH
The services at Central Baptist church will be conducted by Rev. Verne Pipes of Abilene Sunday, at both the morning and evening hours.

Rev. Pipes is a pastor student in Simmons university, having finished his college work in Wayland at Plainview prior to his entrance in Simmons at Abilene. He is also a good speaker and possesses a fine personality. We cordially invite you to come and hear him Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Sunday school will open at 9:45 a. m. under the direction of Supt. G. C. Stark. The Threefold Ministry of Jesus, is the subject of our Sunday school lesson. The scripture passage is the 12th to 25th verses of the fourth chapter of Matthew. If you are not attending some other Sunday school we invite you to come and be with us in the Central Baptist church. Men's prayer meeting at 6 p. m. and B. T. S. at 6:30 p. m.

LUBBOCK CAPITALIST DIES

MANY BIGWIGS ARE INVOLVED IN BANK CRASH

'ABSURD,' SAY TULSANS, BUT SINCLAIR IS SILENT

TULSA, Jan. 19. (AP)—With a mixture of feelings Tulsa today awaited judicial sifting of embezzlement charges against 25 of its financial leaders, including Harry P. Sinclair, the oil magnate.

The charges, filed on complaint of J. M. Springer, special investigator appointed by Governor William H. Murray, grew out of the crash last spring of the Exchange Trust company, into which clients and investors had poured $23,000,000.

The accused men were directors and officers of the company.

Springer's complaints allege embezzlement of $23,869,933 through manipulation of trust accounts.

"Ridiculous," "absurd" and "instigated by political dislike" were terms used by some of the accused financiers in commenting on the charges. Others withheld statements.

For many of the trust company's investors the filing of charges brought a degree of relief in that the action meant bringing things to a head after many weeks of gossip and rumor about the affairs of the defunct financial house, which formerly was quartered with the Exchange National bank, the parent firm, in the imposing 30-story Exchange bank building. The bank was reorganized as the National National Bank of Tulsa last spring.

Harry Sinclair's reaction to the charges was not available. His New York office pointed out, however, that he had not been active in management of affairs of the trust company since he left Tulsa about 20 years ago. His office said he was vacationing in Florida.

A banker, not involved, who asked his name be withheld, commented: "Harry Sinclair put $4,000,000 in these companies. Why should he embezzle $500 from one trust and $9500 from another? Would he bother with this comparatively small sum?"

"And Jim Chapman—he put in twice as much as Harry Sinclair, just to try to keep these companies from going under!"

The complaints cited seven specific violations, ranging in amount from $500 to $6,850. Not all of the 25 men were charged with each violation.

Preliminary hearings have not been set.

Deportation Of Samuel Insull Recommended

ATHENS, Jan. 19. (AP)—The reporter of the supreme council recommended today to the council that Samuel Insull Sr., former Chicago utilities operator, be expelled from Greece. The decision is expected next Tuesday.

The reporter, Theodore Angelopoulos, presented his recommendation in a two-hour session of the state council which had to decide whether it is competent to handle Insull's appeal against the government order that Insull shall be deported before January 31.

In the court corridors it was rumored that President Ractavias of the council and the seven other judges were evenly divided as to what course they should take.

Insull was not in the court room when the case was taken up shortly before 11:30 o'clock, remaining in bed at the advice of his physician, Dr. Vaylas.

MEN WANTED
MADISON, Wis. (AP)—At least two Wisconsin co-eds are having trouble getting dates for the university prom.

Carrying bold captions, "Men Wanted," two personals appeared in the student newspaper. One advertiser willing to pay all expenses specified that the man must be "at least 5 feet 10 inches tall, a good dancer and a fraternity man." The other, offering to share expenses, described herself as "brunette, considered attractive and about 5 feet 3 inches tall."

To escape COLDS

When children catch cold easily, it is usually due to run-down conditions. To build up, the advice of modern authorities is—feed more vitamins and minerals. That's easy now—thanks to recent discoveries.

In 3 chocolate-covered tablets you can now get all the vitamins of 2 teaspoonfuls of high grade cod liver oil! Not only this, but these same tablets bring your child important minerals (calcium and phosphorus). Youngsters take these tablets readily—no fishy taste!

Start the children at once on these tablets. Ask the druggist for MCKESSON'S VITAMIN CONCENTRATE TABLETS OF COD LIVER OIL. Be sure you get MCKESSON'S because they're the ONLY ones bringing you minerals in addition to vitamins.

Black-Draught For Gas After Meals

"About five years ago, I suffered at my stomach quite a good deal," writes Mr. M. H. Venable, of Persia, Tenn. "I would smother, have a lot of gas, and bloat. A friend asked me why I didn't take Black-Draught. I took little doses after meals and my stomach trouble was over and has not come back. Now I only take a dose every once in a while."

Children like the new, pleasant tasting SYRUP of Black-Draught.

LUDLOW WINS FROM DUNIVAN IN SLOW BOUT

HILL AND MADDEN PUT UP MOST PLEASING BATTLE

Oddie Ludlow, Vici, Okla., middleweight, won a judges' decision over Mickey Dunivan of Springfield, Mo., in the main event at the Pampa auditorium. However, Ludlow's victory was the "snide variety," despite the fact he dropped Dunivan for two counts of nine. Dunivan led the fighting all the way and hit the more blows, although they were not as effective as those landed by the Oklahoman.

Pete Regal, Berger, had plenty of trouble winning a decision from Dick Whittington of Wellington in the semi-final. The boy from Wellington appeared nervous and failed to take advantage of many openings. He landed many solid blows that rocked the Mexican, but Regal had a little the better of the number of licks landed and their effectiveness. The two boys stood toe to toe and slugged for a portion of each round.

Whittington allowed the Mexican to get him into a corner or backed into the ropes where he took severe punishment. Whittington used a devastating right, while Regal stuck to his side and worked on Whittington's kidneys, which proved to be weakening. Neither could land a knockout blow although each connected "dead to the point" several times.

The bout that stole the show was the six-round special event. It went to Earl Madden of Spearman who won a technical knockout from Kid Hill of Tulsa in the second round. Madden's terrific two-handed attack battered Hill in the closing part of the first round and the Tulsa man was on the floor at the end of the round. A left to the solar plexis and a right to the jaw laid Hill across the ropes as the second round opened, and Referee Jimmie Marshall stopped the fight.

Kid Stumper checked out a win over Gordon Parks of Spearman in the opening four-rounder. Stumper opened fast and took the first two rounds. The Spearman boy came back strong in the third, but faded again in the closing round. It was a leather-slugging affair.

Oddie Ludlow failed to show any reason why he went undefeated during 1933. He was on the defensive from the first gong and landed only when he had a wide opening. Dunivan kept a fist in the Oklahoman's face and jabbed away continuously. The fight was slow and uninteresting, chiefly because Ludlow refused to fight. He could have done better and fans knew it.

Dunivan gave a wonderful exhibition of boxing. His footwork was superb and his defensive work, with only a few exceptions, was faultless. The Irishman is not a hitter and his many blows failed to register on Ludlow, who took them smiling. However, Dunivan could easily have been given a draw because of his huge margin in points from leading the fight and on the number of blows landed.

Ludlow dropped Dunivan for a count of nine in the seventh round and for the same count in the ninth round. The fight was saved by a wild tenth round which saw Ludlow open up for the first time. The Oklahoman took most of Dunivan's blows going away.

O'KEEFE YOUTH 'CASHING IN' AS COWBOY SINGER

Is Earning Expenses At Northwestern University

PANHANDLE, Jan. 19 (AP)—Because people in Chicago like to hear about cowboys and life in the west, a Panhandle boy, Winston O'Keefe, is making his way through Northwestern university at Evanston, Ill.

O'Keefe lectures and gives dramatic interpretations before women's clubs, civic groups, boys' organizations and in department stores where cowboy furnishings are for sale. He will receive his M. A. degree from the school of arts and speech in June, and for two years he has made his lectures pay all his expenses.

"People in Chicago and farther east are hungry for knowledge of the west," O'Keefe said in explanation of his success. "The adventure-loving east is eager to learn more about it."

O'Keefe, who was brought up in the cattle country, knows cowboys, and his interpretations are authentic. Only his attire is exaggerated. To the customary chaps, spurs, and big hat he adds an ornate leather jacket, heavy leather belt, holster and six-shooter. Standing well above six feet with ruddy complexion and red hair, he reaches that phase of his lecture which treats of the loneliness of frontier life, O'Keefe strums a guitar and sings the ballads which originated around the campfire, atop a cow pony riding herd or on the trail, explaining that "these ballads are the only original contributions of America to literature."

O'Keefe will write his thesis on the influence of the cowboy in drama and literature.

Winston is the son of Mrs. R. C. O'Keefe and a brother to City Commissioner Earle O'Keefe of Pampa.

'Ma's' Clemency List Includes 9

AUSTIN, Jan. 19 (AP)—Because he aided in preventing a general escape of prisoners from the Burt Ridge state prison farm, Thomas Foster, Nueces county convict, has been granted his liberty by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson.

The governor granted Foster a conditional pardon. Among those recommending executive clemency was Lee Simmons, prison system manager.

Foster was convicted of criminal assault in November, 1930, and sentenced to ten years. Five other conditional pardons, one full pardon and one general parole were authorized by the governor.

Ex-President's Brother Is Dead

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 19 (AP)—Dr. George T. Harding, 2nd, a brother of the late President Warren G. Harding, died at his home in Worthington, a Columbus suburb, Thursday. He was 55.

Dr. Harding was famed as a neuro-psychiatrist. He had been seriously ill for several weeks. During the war he was a member of the medical reserve, becoming an examining neuro-psychiatrist for the United States veterans bureau at the close of hostilities.

He was the second of three generations active in the medical profession. His residence was near the Columbus rural rest home in Worthington, which he founded in 1915 after practicing in Columbus as a specialist in disorders of the nervous system. He previously had headed a sanatorium in Washington, D. C.

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (AP)—Harrison Fisher, 57, artist, died unexpectedly today in Doctors hospital after an emergency operation last night.

Nine Sweaters Given McLean Grid Players

McLEAN, Jan. 19.—Nine members of the McLean Tiger football team received sweaters during the chapel program Tuesday morning. Five other boys eligible for sweaters will receive them when they complete enough school work.

The pep squad gave a fine demonstration preceding the presentation of sweaters. Many McLean citizens attended the program.

Boys receiving letters were June Wood, Charles Stratton, Paul Dowell, Averill Christian, George McCarty, Billie Robinson, C. C. Bogan, Brownie Cable and Sherman Crockett.

Panhandle high school basketball teams, which have proven a jinx to the McLean teams all season, continued their victory march over the Tigers here Tuesday when the Panhandle Panthers downed the Tigers 29 to 21 and the Panhandle girls defeated the McLean girls 38 to 25.

CATTLE HEARING
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19 (AP)—Secretary Wallace today placed his support behind legislation to include cattle as a basic commodity in the agricultural adjustment program but warned cattlemen that "there is nothing sudden or miraculous that can be done for beef."

PAIR CAPTURED
DENISON, Jan. 19 (AP)—Frank Williams and Jack Fancher, two of three men Oklahoma officers captured today, gave their homes as Denison but said they had no families here.

PRaises GUARD SYSTEM
AUSTIN, Jan. 19 (AP)—Lee Simmons, manager of the Texas prison system, said here today that while he regretted the escape of Raymond Hamilton and other prisoners last Tuesday from the Eastham state prison farm the present system of guarding prisoners was the best that had been devised.

WAS ON FURLOUGH
AUSTIN, Jan. 19 (AP)—E. V. Allen, one of three men wounded at Woodville, Okla., today, was granted a 90-day furlough from the Texas penitentiary December 18, 1933.

A count of the "hoboes" on one freight train between Fresno and San Francisco disclosed 261.

The PEOPLES COLUMN

Editor, The NEWS:
Hall Prosperity
Hoover said prosperity was just around the corner. For eight years we heard him shout. She's just around the corner. But it took Roosevelt to bring her out.

He dressed her in the NRA. Which was a worthy gown. But like the ladies of her day. The gown exposed a presence: To be born a later day. This child's name is inflation. 'Twas sired by the brains of the NRA.

With prosperity and justice, Roosevelt's stepping-out-means Biscuits in the oven and food in every home.

With shorter hours for labor and a raise in pay; And the farmer setting pretty. Honest sweat beneath his hat. With his checks for wheat and cotton. With his uncle goes to 'bat.'

The bankers have been groggy. But some pep they're getting now; And that's not the slightest doubt That the U. S. A. Is looking upon the dawn. Of a better day. Hall Prosperity!

LEE BIRTHDAY OBSERVED
AUSTIN, Jan. 19 (AP)—Many of the offices in the Texas capital were closed today in honor of the birthday anniversary of General Robert E. Lee.

HERO WORSHIP AND HUMOR MIXED IN ADDRESS BY JOSH LEE

ANNUAL AAUW DINNER HONORS FOUNDERS DAY

SPEAKER ENTERTAINS A LARGE CROWD AT BANQUET

Americans are hero-worshippers despite "debunking" efforts of recent years, and Franklin D. Roosevelt fills their need for a hero worthy of admiration, Josh Lee said in his address to the American Association of University Women and its guests last evening at the annual A. A. U. W. founders' day banquet celebrating the seventh birthday of the Pampa chapter.

His talk mixed humor and common-sense philosophy as he outlined three principles of success: Purpose, idealism, and diligence. Story after story, told in the famous Josh Lee style, kept the audience of about 150 persons laughing and commenting on events and heroes, past and present.

The only other program number was by Miss Hermine Stover and Roy Walrabenstein, violinists, and Mrs. May Foreman Carr, pianist. They played Brahms' Lullaby and selected Swiss melodies. An orchestra played during the dinner.

Contest Closes

Announcement of the close of a membership and attendance contest in the club, in which Mrs. Henry Thut's group led the group captained by Mrs. Earl B. Powell, with a close tally of 1178 to 1137, was made by Mrs. J. B. Massa, president. The winners will be guests of the losing group at the next club dinner.

Mrs. R. B. Fisher acted as toastmaster and Mrs. Massa welcomed the visitors. The Rev. Gaston Foote gave the invocation.

A polar decorative theme was used, with a miniature south pole topped by an American flag and surrounded by icebergs and penguins as the centerpiece of each table. A ship in an icy sea, against a background of the aurora borealis, had been arranged behind the speaker's table.

EASTERN STAR MEETING

The regular meeting of the Order of Eastern Star was conducted this evening at 8, in the Masonic hall. All members are urged to be present, and visiting members are also invited.

P-TA Will Serve Lunch at County Council Meeting

Lunch will be served to all who attend the county Parent-Teacher council meeting at Webb-school tomorrow, as well as to executive board members who will meet in the morning. Webb Parent-Teacher association members will be hostesses.

The board meeting is to start at 11 o'clock. Lunch will follow at 12, and the general program will begin at 1:30. Representatives from the various county associations are invited to be present for the meal.

Representatives from Pampa are Mmes. Roy Holt, H. G. Myers, J. D. Lawson, M. C. Egan, and O. E. Palmer. Alternates are Mrs. J. C. Browning and Mrs. J. M. Daugherty. All are urged by Mrs. Claude Lard, city council president, to attend the meeting.

I-Double-U Club And Guests Play

Special guests were included with members of the I-Double-U club last evening when Mrs. Tom Blair entertained at her home. Two tables were arranged for bridge.

Mrs. Inez Boland received high score award, and Mrs. R. D. Yowell second high. Guest favors went to Mrs. J. M. Smith and Mrs. W. W. Hughes.

Refreshments were served to them and to Mmes. O. D. Myatt, C. E. Harvey, R. C. Abbott, and the hostess.

STUDY COURSE IS CHOSEN BY P-TA COUNCIL

CHOOSING a study of local Parent-Teacher committee work and its relation to state and national committees, a group of P-TA members yesterday ordered material for this national correspondence course and completed plans for pursuing it.

The course, sponsored by the Pampa Parent-Teacher council, will also include a study of parliamentary procedure. It will start as soon as the material arrives, and be concluded before the district conference in Shamrock this spring.

Meetings will be the homes of members, on dates most convenient to the class. Certificates from the national Congress of Parents and Teachers will be awarded those who complete the course.

Members who have already registered for the study are Mesdames Bass Clay, O. E. Palmer, Roy Holt, W. B. Murphy, H. G. Myers, W. G. Irving, Claude Lard. Others have signified their intention of starting with the opening class period.

H. F. Ulmer of White Deer spent this morning in the city.

Madame Bovary Inspires Trend Of Spring Hats

BY MARY E. PLUMMER.
NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (AP)—Away off the face are the new spring hats—sometimes as far back as two inches from the hairline.

And in styles they're as refreshing as the first glimpse of green in Central park. In Lilly Dache's collection about five main types were seen today—all lively and different.

First, there's the bonnet, important this spring for the first time since pre-war days. Katharine Hepburn aided in bringing it back. But as this designer creates it, it's an 1840 bonnet, like Madame Bovary's.

Madame Bovary is almost the greatest single millinery influence right now. But other important hats from this designer's collection are the Breton sailor, the bowler, a new beret, and a dashing "desperado" hat.

Sailor, Bowler, Beret.

The Breton sailor, which turns up all around, she makes in straw or stitched straw cloth. Sometimes she faces the brim with bright imported silk. Then it is worn with a matching scarf, which ties saucily in front.

The bowler is a little hat of the English type, very shallow and small, sometimes tilted over one eye. It exposes one entire side of the hair. This designer makes it in dark straw to wear with suits, and also in white pique, for wear with pique-trimmed evening dresses.

Each season the beret comes back with a new trick. This spring it's a "wind-blown" straw. It has a pleated flange on the right side that sweeps down and almost conceals the cheek. The other side is entirely exposed.

This forward movement, combined with off-the-face effects and the use of straw are the main new millinery trends.

The "desperado" or "bravado" hat, which will be seen with new silk suits, is an off-the-face hat which also has width. It has an irregular big brim that sweeps across the face and turns up in front. Henry the VIII halo effects also are being shown by this important millinery house. One of these is called the butterfly hat. It is worn on the back of the head, and gets its trim effect from a butterfly bow on top.

School Campus Day Program Observed At Woodrow Wilson

Campus day was observed by Woodrow Wilson pupils this afternoon, with members of the band in charge.

All pupils marched onto the schoolground for drills, a flag raising ceremony climaxed by the pledge of allegiance, and band music. A number of parents and friends witnessed the program.

MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

Judge L. Gough of Amarillo will be the teacher Sunday morning for the Men's Bible class of First Christian church. All members are urged to be present, and visitors are invited to hear the special speaker. It was announced by Paul Hill, president.

In Social CALENDAR

THRIFT MAXIMS TOPIC OF CAMP FIRE PROGRAM

Officers Installed As Girls Meet On Thursday

New officers, headed by Katherine Ward as president, were installed when Camp Fire Girls met Thursday afternoon and heard a program on thrift.

Roll call of Indian names was answered with thrift maxims. The life of Benjamin Franklin was reviewed in round table discussion. Anna Mae Jones spoke of his maxim, "haste makes waste."

Mrs. V. E. Fatheree talked on various aspects of thrift, and announced that she would give thrift charts to the girls. Mary Elizabeth Seeds' topic was "Thrift for Camp Fire Girls." The entire program carried out the national thrift theme of "Spend, save, share."

Members worked out two major honors by learning to recognize a number of plants and vegetables by sight and smell. They also discussed their hobbies, which will be the main topic of next week's meeting.

Those present were Helen Harris, Jessie Marie Gilbert, Kathleen O'Hara, Norma and Edith Beckham, Mildred Pierce, Wanda Ancutt, Katherine Ward, Mary Elizabeth Seeds, Anna Mae Jones, Mrs. B. Barrett and Mrs. Fatheree.

BACKACHE, NERVOUS

Mrs. Sallie Catlin of Iowa Park, Texas, says: "I was down and out, had pains across the small of my back, my feet and hands were swollen. I was very nervous and slept and ate poorly. A few bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription soon relieved me of all my pains and aches. The swelling left my feet and hands and I enjoyed perfect health." BLOND GODDESS

A New Serial by HERBERT JENSEN

SYNOPSIS: Janice Kent, the popular movie star, has disappeared and Frank Grahame and Spin Winslow are flying in a battered old plane along what they hope is her trail. Before the disappearance there had been a suspicious accident in which Janice was involved; a man named Ortega, conspicuously in Hollywood to arrange for a Mexican picture with Myberg, the producer, has telephoned Janice and then has disappeared himself. Frank, who is much attracted to the star, believes Ortega has abducted her but can assign no reason for his action. He and Spin are about to land at Caliente.

Chapter Ten THE CRASH

The wheels grounded at the edge of the field and they bumped to a standstill. Climbing out of the plane Grahame faced Winslow. "Till try the hotel," he said. "Take a look at the ships on the lee, and see if you can see that cabin job."

"Oke," replied Winslow. " . . . and Frank: if there's any fancy work to do, wait for me, will you?"

The man broke into a trot, Frank leading toward the edge of the field where was the path that led to the hotel. Winslow diagonally toward a dark line of planes. Frank noticed a man appear, walking toward his companion.

The two met in midfield. They paused a moment. Grahame saw his companion grasp the arm of the other, who lifted his free arm and pointed toward the edge of the field.

Winslow turned. "Hi! Frank!" he called. "Om here!"

Frank joined them.

"We're right, Frank. They were here. What's his name? He recognized Kent. Said he talked with Micky McGuire who flew them down. He's gone back now. But Frank . . . a car met them."

"A car? Where'd it go?"

The man with Winslow lifted his arm and repeated the gesture Grahame had observed.

"Took the Encinada road," he said.

"What's down there, Spin?" asked Frank.

"Just a Mex town, seventy miles south of here; there's a kind of a harbor, and south of it a thousand miles of the world's roughest road."

"When did they leave?"

"About an hour ago. Two men, and the girl from the plane, and the guy who was waiting with the car."

"How did Miss Kent look?"

Their informant waved his shoulders and blinked his eyes. "She was a poor imitation of an intoxicated person."

"Can the act," warned Winslow snuffly.

The man shrugged his shoulders and said: "It ain't illegal in this country. They looked kind of hot to me if you ask me. Except the little guy with the eagle-beak. Mean looking little cuss. Looked like he was ready to heave a stick of dynamite if anybody spoke to him."

Grahame experienced a flicker of response as the little man was described . . . the vulturine shadow on the studio panel—that was it!

"What are you guys after 'em for?"

Winslow smiled. "None. We owe 'em a drink. Ready, Frank?"

The field man walked with them to their ship. He commented that the propeller was off balance, which Winslow acknowledged. He then suggested that the beach at Encinada could be landed on if the tide were out.

"Thanks, old man," said Grahame. "We'll get along."

They lifted out of the field and veered across the low range that lay between them and the coast. They swung south. For twenty minutes by the illuminated dial of Frank's wrist watch they followed the coast.

The plane seemed to shake more excessively than it had on the previous flight. Something hot stung Frank's cheek. He put up his hand; his face felt hot and greasy. Straining about in his seat he called:

"Engine knocking, Spin. Let's get back to Caliente."

"I know it!" yelled Winslow. "I haven't been able to raise her in the last ten minutes!"

Frank pursed his lips in an inutile while. This meant they were losing altitude. They could not lift over the coast range that blocked them from Caliente field. The vibration would get steadily worse.

Already the whirling crankshaft was putting an audible strain on the connecting-rods. Within minutes one of them would give; then, if the big motor did not fly apart, it would stall. The plane was nose-heavy.

He turned to call to Winslow—to tell him to bank and attempt a return up the coast to Coronado and San Diego. The engine clattered suddenly. There was a succession of sickening thumps; whereupon it seemed to erupt. Frank threw his arms across his face. Hot oil seared his neck.

Winslow cried out unintelligibly. The plane lurched, leveled, and Frank was conscious of a shock and the sounds of cracking and of rending about him. Sea water, in a over-riding cascade, poured over his head. He struggled with his safety belt and stood erect.

Through the hiss of breaking seas, Winslow called to him in a voice charged with anxiety.

Frank replied hoarsely. "Okay. How about you, Spin?"

"Same here. Was that a wet smack? Meet the world's best crack-up man. On the stunt-man's day off he cracks—"

A black-breasted cormorant reared its crest above them. Frank clung desperately as tons of spume shined about him.

Winslow snarled. "Get ashore, Frank. Cruise won't float long. Another like that . . . Shore's not far. Road's half a mile back. You can make it. I think we're far enough ahead to stop that car if you make the road."

A swell lifted them and dropped them sickeningly into the trough.

"Missed you, Frank. Next one won't get going, fellah."

Grahame looked seaward. A long, sullen line of surf was forming a hundred yards out. Swiftly it began to move toward them topped with phosphorescent spindrift.

"Come on, Spin, a big one's coming."

Spin did not answer. Frank strained his eyes toward him. A sudden fear gripping his heart. He made out his companion's face, white against the black sea.

"Get going, Frank," Winslow's voice was weak. "My arm's on the bum . . . besides, I can't swim a-y!"

The black bulk of the oncoming combet arose; it blotted out the stars. Grahame threw himself toward it; lunging for that white face that gleamed in the pit of the wave. His hand found and clutched the shoulder strap of Spin's chute pack.

Tons of water descended upon him, driving him down into the blackness.

FIVE BRIDGE EXPERTS SEEK EVERY TITLE WOULD CHANGE BIDDING METHODS; SYSTEM NOT NAMED

NEW YORK, Jan. 19 (AP)—Five contract bridge stars who are seeking names, both for their combination and their system, will try to win all the laurels of the game in existence.

David Burnstine, Richard L. Frey, Michael T. Gottlieb, Oswald Jacoby and Howard T. Schenken—the names are given in alphabetical order because there is no captain and they insist that no one of the five is better than any other—hold the first team of four championship of the United States bridge association. Gottlieb and Schenken won the first pair championship.

They intend to enter every major tournament, beginning with the eastern championships next month. They will play in various pair combinations. Recent tournament arrangements by which a team of four is permitted to have an alternate will enable them all to play on out of experience with the great rivals, Ely Culbertson and P. Hal Sims has come this brilliant combination of players which hopes to dominate championship competition and to change popular favor in methods of bidding and play.

Jacoby and Burnstine were members of the "Four Horsemen," which made an impressive record in team championships. The others were P. Hal Sims and Willard S. Kern. Jacoby and Sims parted and Kern retired from competition.

Sidney S. Lenz, in the famous match with Culbertson. He retired after a disagreement with Lenz and after the match became an associate and partner of Culbertson for a time.

Wanted: A Name

Schenken and Gottlieb were partners of Culbertson for a few rubbers in the match with Lenz. Gottlieb was on Culbertson's team which defeated 2 British Quarters last summer.

Burnstine has won titles of various sorts than any other player. Jacoby has been on more winning teams. Schenken and Burnstine both have won individual master's events in which each competitor has every other entrant as partner as times. Frey has long been regarded by Jacoby as one of the best dozen.

The champion team clicks in any alignment of pairs. During the recent tourney each played with every other member of the quintet at times.

"We play our own system," says Jacoby. "It needs a name. So does the team. Suggestions are welcome."

"They play 90 per cent Culbertson," says Frey.

"They play Sims," says Hal.

Famous Orator Dies In Ireland

BELFAST, Ireland, Jan. 19 (AP)—Joseph Devlin, veteran nationalist leader of Ireland, died here early today. He was 62 years old.

Known as the "Irish demagogue," Devlin was one of the foremost Irish politicians for more than 30 years.

He died peacefully at 9:45 o'clock after a long illness which kept him out of the campaign in the last election.

Five thousand children prayed in West Belfast churches for his recovery. He was an idol among children owing to the excursions, a feature of every summer in his constituency, on which he took thousands of children to the seaside on special trains.

Because of his oratorical powers, Devlin was chosen by the nationalist leader John Redmond to go on a mission to the United States to collect funds in 1902.

Devlin headed six missions to the United States and one to Australia and brought home large sums of money for his party.

Mrs. E. Berg of LeFors shopped here yesterday afternoon.

International Sunday School Lesson

BY DR. J. E. NUNN

General topic: Jesus Begins His Ministry.

Scripture lesson: Matt. 4:12-25.

12. Now when he heard that John was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee;

13. And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali;

14. That it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

15. The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles.

16. The people that sat in darkness saw a great light, and to them that sat in the region and shadow of death, to them did light spring up.

17. From that time began Jesus to preach, and to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18. And walking by the sea of Galilee, he saw two brethren, Simon who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishers.

19. And he saith unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you fishers of men.

20. And they straightway left the nets, and followed him.

21. And going on from thence he saw two other brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them.

22. And they straightway left the boat and their father, and followed him.

23. And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of infirmities, and he healed them.

24. And the report of him went forth into all Syria; and they brought unto him all that were sick, and possessed with demons, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them.

25. And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and from the Jordan.

Golden Text: Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matt. 4:17.

Place: Capernaum. Sea of Galilee.

Parallel Passages: Mark 1:14-20; Luke 4:14-31; 5:1-11.

Introduction

"After our Lord's temptation followed an entire year of ministry spent chiefly in Judea. A. D. 27, and recorded only in the Gospels, occupied with what the other Gospels omit, but yet is closely connected with them throughout. The chief events described by John (1:15-4:45) are the calling of the first disciples, the working of the first miracle—turning water into wine at the marriage feast of Cana in Galilee, the first cleansing of the temple, the first recorded discourse—the conversation with Nicodemus, the summer and autumn spent in evangelistic work in Judea, the talk with the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well, the healing of the nobleman's son at Capernaum, and the healing of the cripple at the pool of Bethesda in Jerusalem. Then Jesus left Judea for his great ministry in Galilee."

And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of infirmities, and he healed them. And the report of him went forth into all Syria; and they brought unto him all that were sick, and possessed with demons, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them. And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and from the Jordan. Golden Text: Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matt. 4:17. Introduction

"After our Lord's temptation followed an entire year of ministry spent chiefly in Judea. A. D. 27, and recorded only in the Gospels, occupied with what the other Gospels omit, but yet is closely connected with them throughout. The chief events described by John (1:15-4:45) are the calling of the first disciples, the working of the first miracle—turning water into wine at the marriage feast of Cana in Galilee, the first cleansing of the temple, the first recorded discourse—the conversation with Nicodemus, the summer and autumn spent in evangelistic work in Judea, the talk with the Samaritan woman at Jacob's well, the healing of the nobleman's son at Capernaum, and the healing of the cripple at the pool of Bethesda in Jerusalem. Then Jesus left Judea for his great ministry in Galilee."

"And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the borders of Zebulun and Naphtali; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying, The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles. The people that sat in darkness saw a great light, and to them that sat in the region and shadow of death, to them did light spring up. From that time began Jesus to preach, and to say, Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. And he called them. And they straightway left the boat and their father, and followed him. And Jesus went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of infirmities, and he healed them. And the report of him went forth into all Syria; and they brought unto him all that were sick, and possessed with demons, and epileptic, and palsied; and he healed them. And there followed him great multitudes from Galilee and Decapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and from the Jordan. Golden Text: Repent ye; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matt. 4:17. Place: Capernaum. Sea of Galilee.

DEMO LEADERS PUT ON CARPET BY ROOSEVELT

Party Chiefs Resign As Profit Plans Are Revealed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18. (P)—Further resignations from the democratic national committee and a complete reorganization of that machine expected certainly today at the aftermath of President Roosevelt's trown upon members practicing law in Washington.

The national committee lacked both a secretary and a treasurer, Fresh vacancies exist, also among the list of committee members.

Friends of Postmaster General Farley say he wants to be relieved of his chore as chairman of the national committee but such a move is not expected to be allowed by the president for a while.

Robert Jackson announced both his resignation as secretary and as a committeeman from New Hampshire yesterday, while Frank O. Walker of New York let it be known that he had resigned as treasurer some time ago in order to devote full time to his duties as chairman of the president's national executive council.

Other resignations are due although Arthur Mullen, Nebraska committeeman and a vice chairman of the national committee, who set up office here after March 4 is saying nothing about his intentions. Another democratic national committeeman who has established himself in legal practice —Orman Spring of Ohio—has given no word about his plans.

Meantime, republicans on the senate air mail investigating committee are seeking to inquire into the reported use of an air mail transport plane by the postmaster general on a trip to Texas last fall.

George J. Kurtz of Green spent this morning in the city.

Mrs. J. M. Williams of Kingsmill shopped in the city yesterday.

Elimination of Surplus Is Aim of Cotton Plan

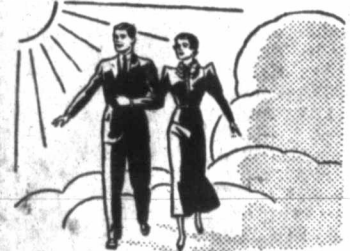

COLLEGE STATION, Jan. 19.—The big idea behind the 1934-35 government cotton plan is to wipe out the 11,600,000 bale carry-over without curtailing the cotton farmer's purchasing power and without shifting production from cotton to other farm commodities in an equally bad plight.

"The carry-over is to be cut down to a 3- or 4-million-bale normal by reducing American acreage 40 per cent, and the cotton farmer is to be protected from decreased income while he does this by paying him the money collected from a 4-cent per pound processing tax on the domestically used cotton in the United States."

"If cotton farmers were to take these retired cotton acres for producing food for sale it would make trouble in other farming lines which are all temporarily over-produced. Furthermore if cotton farmers were to increase their cultivated acres at a time when the nation has too many acres in cultivation, the national farm situation would be made worse."

"That is why," explains Mr. Adams, "that cotton farmers who sign cotton contracts must agree not to use rented acres in any way that may lead directly or indirectly to throwing more farm commodities on the cash market. They must also agree not to increase their total cultivated acres above 1932 or 1933, and further, they must agree not to increase their acreages of corn, wheat, rice, or tobacco, nor their numbers of dairy cattle and hogs."

WHEN YOU'RE HEALTHY YOU'RE HAPPY!

The blame for "blue" days can be laid often to common constipation. It may bring loss of appetite and energy, sallow and pimply skins, even serious illness. Correct it by eating a delicious cereal.

Research shows Kellogg's All-Bran provides "bulk" and vitamin B to relieve common constipation. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in All-Bran is much like that in leafy vegetables. Isn't this better than taking patent medicines—so often harmful?

Two tablespoonsful of All-Bran daily, relieve most types of constipation. With each meal, in chronic cases.

FRNKA PLANS FREE SCHOOL FOR HIGH SCHOOL MENTORS

If Membership Is Increased To 400, No Charges To Be Made By Association.

BY BILL PARKER Associated Press Sports Writer The Texas high school football coaches association soon will launch a drive for members. Henry Frnka of Greenville, the man who piloted the Greenville Lions to this year's Texas interscholastic league grid-iron crown, is president of the association. His object is to secure at least one member from each of four hundred class A and B schools with a special plea for class B coaches to unite with the association.

The possibility of holding a free coaching school next summer was pointed out by Frnka who said that such an event could be arranged if the membership is increased to four hundred. Due in the association are $2.00 annually and various benefits are derived from membership in the organization.

Frnka's program is studded with sectional meetings for next spring summer. These meetings will be presided over by various leaders who will be appointed later and aid in perfecting a better understanding of the organization. At an early date ballots will be mailed to members and non-members for the purpose of determining the site of the next coaching school.

Last Year's School The last coaching school was held at San Antonio under the direction of Dana X. Bible, university of Nebraska coach. It was one of the most successful schools for interscholastic league mentors that has been held in the southwest. The success of last year's school leads Frnka to believe this year's school will draw even more members.

Frnka is in communication with several prominent coaches and from the list one will be selected to direct it. Frnka is open to suggestions for betterment of the organization. Several suggestions have been received from various members. One proposed the establishment of an association magazine and another the affiliation with other high school and collegiate groups. All suggestions received by Frnka will be discussed at the sectional meetings.

Frnka is convinced that high school coaches can get much more out of a school conducted for their special benefit than by attending a school conducted mostly for university and college coaches. He said that high school coaching problems usually are vastly different from those at a university because all high school gridsters are learning the game for the first time. Frnka is determined to make his term as president of the association a memorable one by leaving the office with the largest paid-up membership in history of the organization.

Dr. Duflot Will Make Speech For Democratic Club Dr. J. L. Duflot of West Texas Teachers college will be principal speaker at a session of the Young Democratic club here January 20. It was announced today by W. J. Smith, president.

Dr. Duflot, professor of sociology and economics and specialist in government, will speak on political origins and social aspects of self-government. At the close of his address, there will be a round-table discussion in which members of the audience will ask questions and make comments. Olin E. Hinkle is program chairman for this meeting with Sherman White and Jack Dunn as other members of the committee. There will be brief entertainment in addition to the address. All men between the ages of 18 and 35 years are eligible to attend the meeting, regardless of whether they expect to join the Young Democratic club. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock in the city auditorium.

CARUSO'S SON SINGS FAMOUS TENOR'S ARIAS

Youth Shows Promise of Genius In Film Test

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 19. (AP)—Where only the jazz of "In Pau Alley" has echoed musically before, Enrico Caruso, Jr., sang for the first time to an orchestra some of his late father's celebrated arias. Seated in the darkened interior of a film studio stage, his audience of three persons watched intently as the young son of the great opera singer lifted his tenor voice, rich in dramatic intensity.

For months Caruso had been studying the arias for the motion picture, "The Fortune Teller," written by the Mexican diplomat, Don Manuel Reschi. He, too, is producing the film, the first of a series for release in Latin-American countries.

Young Caruso for three years has been around Hollywood studios, without success. He became a pupil of a former president of Mexico, Adolfo De La Huerta. Don Manuel heard young Caruso sing a few bits of Manrico's arias of "Il Trovatore" and cast him in the leading role of "The Fortune Teller."

Yesterday they were ready to record for the film the operatic scenes, and young Caruso sang "O Paradiso" of "L'Africane" on a stage that before had resounded to strains from popular hits of the day.

While his instructor, Don Manuel and Alfonso Pedroza, noted basso, watched and listened, Caruso sang the grand aria of "Don Pasquale" and "Una Furtiva Lagrima"—operas long associated with his father.

He thundered with force in Vasco de Gama's soliloquy on the beauty of Africa. He played easily with "Don Pasquale." He struck responsive chords in "Una Furtiva Lagrima."

Then he toyed with the fun and the tricky beauty of Victor Herbert's "Romany Life." The world has known of few sons of the great who inherited their father's genius, Pedroza said, "and if this youth continues with his wisdom and work he may wear the crown that death took from his father."

WHEAT 'DESERT' BARS CONTROL, HINTS EXPERT

Panhandle In Great Grain-Producing Section CHICAGO, Jan. 19. (AP)—Bernard W. Snow, internationally known grain expert, said today that a vast area of land lying west of the 100th meridian, fitted for the production of wheat and "little else, must be reckoned with if regimentation of crop acreage is to be effected by federal authority. Snow was the first speaker in the third annual series of talks on grain and its marketing, sponsored by the association of grain commission merchants. In geographies of an earlier generation, Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota and North Dakota, Colorado and Montana carried the legend "Great American Desert," but by 1929, Snow pointed out, "practically 81 per cent of the wheat acreage of the United States lay between the 100th and the 105th meridian, in these states. That means that 18,993,000 acres of wheat lay between a line north and south through Dodge City, and the eastern slopes of the Rocky mountains. In 1929, the Great American Desert produced 226 million bushels of the finest type of wheat grown anywhere."

WANTS LEG FROM STATE WALSBERG, Colo. (AP)—Timco Valdez pleaded with officers to send him to the state penitentiary where he thinks he can get a wooden leg. "It's a good thing you came around," officers who arrested him quoted him a saying. "I was going to break into this store."

Later he told police he had been trying for two years to get money to buy a wooden leg and finally decided if he was sent to the penitentiary the state would purchase one for him. He lost one leg in an accident several years ago.

Meagher Hired as Coach in Alabama

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 19. (AP)—The Journal says Alabama Polytechnic institute at Auburn, Ala., has closed negotiations with Jack Meagher to succeed Chet Wynne as head football coach, although official announcement will not be made until about Sunday. Meagher learned his football at Notre Dame and will carry on the same style of play adopted at Auburn by Wynne, also a Notre Dame man. Meagher formerly coached at Rice institute in Texas.
