C. W. WARWICK in Canyon News—If experience, training, and ability amounts to anything, Senator Connally will be re-elected for his second term by a very large majority. His opponent hopes that the dripping wet sentiment and the name of Bailey will defeat one of the ablest men now in the senate.

J. C. ESTLACK in Donley County Leader—As time goes on more thinking people come to realize that manufacturers of war material are nothing short of international criminals. Through paid newspaper articles and other methods of propaganda, armament manufacturers build up animosity between nations for no other reason than to sell war materials.

W. MAX WADE in Groom News—Morris Knopp tells us the term "cowboy" was first used during the American revolution. It referred to a band of torres who frequented the neutral ground of Westchester county in New York state stealing cattle from both parties and doing other mischief. At the present time it is used to designate the skilled horseman who have charge of cattle on the western ranches of the United States.

J. M. NOBLE in Canadian Record—So far as the home-owner is concerned, building and repairing now is good business—it saves him money, and gives him something worth while at bargain prices. And, when he builds, he is contributing substantially toward speeding recovery.

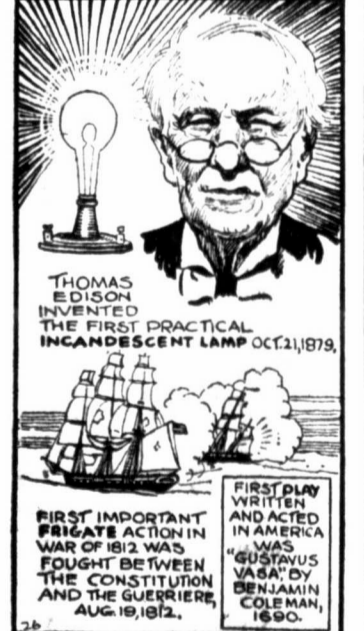

B. M. in The Prairie (W. T. S. T. C. Canyon)—Do you have high ideals and aims? Is your greatest ambition a high and worthy ambition, yet one that is within your reach? There are many people in the world today without any desire for achievement in any field. All they hope to do is to exist with the common multitude of people.

The battle between the Constitution and Guerilla was one-sided from the start, since the American vessel had 44 guns to the other's 32. The fight lasted less than half an hour. MOISTURE IN AREA TOTALS 11-2 INCHES

NEAR-AVERAGE WHEAT CROP NOW SEEMS POSSIBLE

SNOW-BLANKETED wheat lands drank deeply of the timely moisture during the week-end and today as the white covering sank rapidly into the soil without drifting. Estimates of the precipitation in this area averaged about 1 1/2 inches, representing snowfall of about 15 inches. Some observers thought the snow would have been deeper had it not melted. Seldom was it more than 5 1/2 inches as it melted. Ordinarily, snow in this region requires 10 inches to make one inch of moisture. Wheat fields, still green but beginning to suffer from blowing, will quickly take on a deep green hue and, assuming that there will be more moisture before harvest, a fair crop is assured. Wheat in Gray county and nearby parts of neighboring counties is about the best on the plains.

Wild flowers which last year never attained their customary profusion, may be expected to bloom within a few weeks, turning hillsides and valleys a bright yellow, with reds and blues mingled. Faith in this section underwent an astonishing boost because of the snow. But optimists would not agree that it was the biggest snow they had seen fall in 25 years. They recalled 10 and 15-inch snows on the level, with huge drifts. But it was admitted that this snow, melting as it fell, was deceptive.

AMARILLO, March 26 (AP)—Snow, which is some localities was record-breaking, brought the greatest relief of the year to the wheat belt of the middle western Panhandle yesterday and last night, while rain fell to the east and north. The 42-year record of the U. S. weather bureau here was broken with 21 inches of snow in the last 24 hours. The precipitation was 2.06 inches. The previous snow record was 17.5 inches on February 24, 1903. The heaviest snowfall was from vicinity of Amarillo to Clovis, N. M., where 23 inches was recorded.

Oil Discovered In New Area In Wheeler County

The Watchorn Oil company's semi-wildcat in the south central part of Western Wheeler county will probably mean the drilling of a number of wells in addition to proving a large territory. The well was nearly full of oil when shut down Saturday. The hole was deepened to 2,449 feet total depth yesterday when the well flowed 30 barrels an hour for two hours before being shut in for storage. The hole was deepened 11 feet after first oil was discovered. Watchorn's well is located in the northwest quarter of section 47, block 24, on the Johnson lease. It is two miles southeast of proven territory. Pay was found in the granite wash formation. Locations for two offsets have already been made and it is probable that others will be announced soon. The Elbar Oil company is reported to have made a location for a direct offset and might make a location in a nearby lease. The Huckins interests of Oklahoma City are also expected to have ordered a location made for an offset. The Skelly Oil company and the Shell Petroleum company, holders of offsetting leases, have not announced new locations.

I HEARD—

J. S. Wynne "worrying" about some of his trees. He is afraid they will drop in the moisture, not having had any before. More weather arguments this morning than election talk. Pampans had the snow fall all the way from 5 inches to 20 inches but most of them agreed that this was not the largest fall in a 24-hour period since 1903.

PRAYERS FOR ORDER OFFERED AS KANSAS CITY PREPARES TO VOTE TUESDAY IN MUNICIPAL ELECTION

Rival Camps Charge Force Will Be Used To Win; Claim Use of Firearms Is Urged

KANSAS CITY, March 26 (AP)—An air of apprehension ruled Kansas City today on the eve of the municipal election. Prayers for order at the polls were offered. More than 225,000 voters will decide between tickets backed by the entrenched democratic organization of Tom J. Pendergast and the citizen-fusionists, anti-boss movement. Aroused by a bitter campaign, heading the democratic ticket is Mayor Bryce B. Smith, a bakery company executive. His opponent is Dr. A. Ross Hill, former president of the University of Missouri and former director of foreign operations of the American Red Cross. Eight councilmen and two municipal judges also will be chosen. Apprehension was aroused by charges in both camps that force would be used to win the election. Pendergast speakers charged that the fusionist ticket was supported by a "secret organization advocating the use of firearms at the polls." Joseph C. Fennelly, fusionist leader, said police and armed hoodlums were used in the primary to intimidate voters and perpetuate frauds.

PHYSICIAN STATES CRUTCHFIELD, ON TRIAL FOR KILLING OF POLICE CAPTAIN IN AMARILLO, IS SANE

State Summons Long Line of Doctors To Testify

AMARILLO, March 26 (AP)—The testimony of physicians who examined Frank Crutchfield of White Deer shortly after he was arrested for the slaying of Preston Burnam, Amarillo police captain, on January 5, began at noon today in Crutchfield's trial for murder. Dr. John H. Vaughan, the first of a large group of physicians to be called by the state, testified that Crutchfield was sane. He said he questioned Crutchfield for 30 minutes to an hour, and studied him while he talked with others. District Attorney Grady Hazelwood objected to the type of cross-examination indulged in by defense counsel on the grounds that inadmissible statements were being introduced before the jury, but Judge Henry S. Bishop held that the defense procedure would speed up the trial. A ballistics expert, the taxi driver who took Crutchfield to a camp ground after the shooting, a camp ground attendant, and arresting officers testified to the defendant's actions the night Burnam was killed.

Honor Court To Be Held Tonight

A Boy Scout Court of Honor will be held in the district courtroom at 7:45 o'clock tonight. The Rev. A. A. Hyde will preside. Scouts, parents, and persons interested in the Boy Scout movement are asked to be on time so that the session will close promptly at 8:30 o'clock. A number of boys from troops in and near Pampa will be advanced in rank and a larger number will receive merit badges and other recognition. The boys have been working hard on their work the last month and easily passed the board of review last week.

President Will Sail Tuesday on Fishing Cruise

WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP)—President Roosevelt, now that a load is off his mind, heeded the call of southern seas today. Cheered by the settlement of the automobile trouble, he packed up to sail tomorrow night on a fishing cruise. The chief executive, however, is seeking a solution of three other pressing problems before taking the train for Jacksonville, Fla., where he will board the yacht Nourmahal, owned by Vincent Astor. He wants to see the railroad wage controversy settled; some definite action by congress on the veterans' government pay row and an understanding on return of the armistice to private companies. Leaving here tomorrow night, Mr. Roosevelt plans to board the Nourmahal Wednesday morning in Jacksonville and head for the fishing grounds in the warm waters to the south. He will be back in Washington by the end of next week, thus giving opportunity for action on any legislation which may be passed by congress before the ten-day constitutional time limit elapses.

Mrs. E. W. Outlaw of White Deer shopped in the city Saturday night. Glenn Bennett of Miami transacted business here this morning.

AT LEAST 12 ARE HURT IN CATASTROPHE

75 HOUSES ARE BLOWN DOWN BY GALE IN TWO MINUTES

NEW ORLEANS, March 26 (AP)—A thunder squall of great intensity blew down at least 75 houses in a five-block area in the Edge-wood section of New Orleans shortly after 8 o'clock today. At least a dozen injured persons had been brought out of the wreckage, but an hour after the catastrophe no dead had been reported. A baby was reported imprisoned, dead or alive, under a house. The wind followed the Almonaster canal and blew out on Lake Pontchartrain. The wind struck, the screams of horrified men, women and children were heard and when the policemen and firemen arrived, families, dazed from fright, were wandering about the debris in a heavy downpour of rain. Live wires and burst gas mains offered another menace and the police herded the families out of the stricken area into neighbors' homes. Particular care was taken of small children who had become separated from their panic stricken parents. An hour later the residents were too hysterical to give coherent accounts of their experiences and were digging into the debris in search of their possessions.

The 5-block area presented a mass of twisted and torn houses, felled telegraph poles, smashed automobiles and garages. Roofs were blown into the streets and houses were turned end on end. The wind first struck a garage on St. Claude avenue, wrecked the building and scattered about 20 automobiles. It then skipped two blocks and leveled a filling station. It rose for another block and then settled down on the 5-block area of dwellings where it turned the neighborhood into wreckage and pandemonium.

REHEARSAL POSTPONED
No rehearsal will be conducted by the Philharmonic choir this evening, it was announced today by Mrs. May F. Carr, director. The next weekly rehearsal will be next Monday evening at the Methodist church. The choir is working on its music week opera, "Trial by Jury."

FINE PROGRESS IN WTCC DRIVE REPORTED AS CAMPAIGN OPENS
THIS might be called West Texas chamber of commerce week in Pampa. A membership drive for 30 or more members began today and will continue the rest of the week.

J. M. "Jim" Williams, regional director, and Gilmore N. Nunn, local director of the WTCC, will be in charge of the Pampa drive, assisted by a local committee. The West Texas chamber has been very active in representing towns and cities of its area in federal matters. More than $9,000,000 has been lent in West Texas on 28 RFC applications. The Texas Relief and Rehabilitation commission includes three members from this region. Locating of construction camps in parks has been assisted by the chamber.

Much work has been done in helping Marvin Jones and other lawmakers in drafting farm legislation favorable to the Panhandle. In some cases, such alertness proved very valuable. Other projects included re-districting, state economy, payment of taxes, budget making conferences for local communities, home rule amendment, placing of West Texas exhibit at Chicago fair, beautification contests, publicity for this area, freight reductions, conservation, and many others.

Mr. Nunn reported at noon that excellent progress was being made in the drive. The moisture created a receptive atmosphere. The first list of members will be printed tomorrow.

restoration of part of government workers' cut pay.
WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP)—The conference report on the Jones bill to make beef and dairy cattle a basic commodity under the farm adjustment act was adopted today by the house and sent to the senate. The bill authorizes a processing tax to raise $300,000,000 for immediate distribution to the cattle industry in return for a reduction in production and surpluses. In addition, it leaves it to the discretion of the secretary of agriculture to make peanuts, rye, flax, barley, and grain sorghums basic commodities under the farm act, but provides for no processing taxes for them.

CONFERENCE REPORT ADOPTED; AIR MAIL BILL GOES TO PRESIDENT FOR SIGNING.
WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP)—Congressional action was completed today on the controversial independent offices appropriation bill providing for veterans' allowances and return of part of government employes cut pay, and the measure was sent to an uncertain fate at the White House. The House agreed to a senate amendment by Steiwer (R., Ore.) after the senate has concurred in house approval of $83,000,000 for veterans and $128,000,000 for government employes. The senate previously had voted $118,000,000 for veterans and $190,000,000 for them.

House Adopts Cattle Bill

The house approved the administration's temporary armistice bill, completing congressional action on the measure. It now goes to the White House. There is no doubt on capital hill that President Roosevelt would sign it. Without a dissenting vote, the house adopted a conference report compromising its differences with the senate. In final form, the bill authorizes the postmaster general to use army airplanes and equipment for mail carrying; requires that the planes be equipped for "safe" day and night flying and the pilots trained in the use of the equipment; allows payment of expenses incurred by mail used in the mail service.

More Trouble

Revising the Harding administration oil scandals, the U. S. government has filed a $9,282,561 suit against Edward L. Doheny, above, oil magnate, charging fraud in three petroleum leases in California fields. The suit was obtained by collusion with ex-Secretary of Interior Albert B. Fall, the suit alleges.

PRESIDENT OF HAITI ARRIVES AT U. S. PORT

To Talk Withdrawal Of Troops From Island

BY HOMER MCCOY.
NEW YORK, March 26 (AP)—To the booming of cannon and with much official fanfare, President Seno Vincent of Haiti came to the United States today to pay a neighborly visit to President Roosevelt. President Vincent arrived on the liner Haiti, and the waterfront went high that for the occasion.

In "full dress," the flag of the Haitian republic fluttering from her forehead, the presidential insignia from the rear, the Haiti steamed up the bay with the distinguished visitor standing on the sun deck. The president, a short, gray-faced, scholarly looking man, issued a written statement on his arrival. He understands English but does not speak it fluently.

"I have come," the statement said, "to confer amicably and loyally with you, president of the United States, on the subject of the withdrawal from the territory of Haiti."

Whether Wilkins set fire to the house while striking matches in a drunken stupor, or whether he was murdered was an unanswered question. One witness said he did not appear drunk at midnight.

Many persons were being questioned by County Attorney Sherman White, Chief of Police John V. Andrews, City Manager C. L. Stine, and Fire Chief Clyde Gold.

Wilkins is survived by his estranged wife and two children. Other survivors are his mother and two brothers, Bob Wilkins and Curtis Wilkins, all of Commerce, and a sister, Mrs. S. H. Fuller, of Ladonia. The body is at the G. C. Malone Funeral home. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

Weather Not To Affect Revival

Inclement weather will not result in any changes in previous plans for the pre-Easter revival services which began yesterday at the First Methodist church, the Rev. Gaston Poole, pastor, said. The meeting will continue throughout the week regardless of weather, and the public is invited to attend he said. Tonight, Rev. Poole will discuss the subject, "The Man Who Held the Devil's Coat," and tomorrow night, "Boomerangs." Last night, the minister talked on the subject, "Our American Gods," declaring that money, pleasure, liquor, were some of the false gods Americans worshipped. Mrs. R. E. Paige of Alnreed was a Pampa shopper Saturday. Charlie Barker of Skellytown was in Pampa yesterday.

FLAMES CHAR BODY OF MAN; HOUSE BURNS

OFFICERS INVESTIGATE POSSIBILITY OF HOMICIDE

ALTHOUGH there were no circumstances definitely regarded as suspicious, city and county officers today were investigating the possibility that Homer Wilkins, 42-year-old world war veteran, was murdered before dawn Sunday morning and his body burned in a South Pampa house to cover up the evidence. Wilkins' body, charred beyond immediate recognition, was discovered partly beneath an iron bed in a two-room house which was mostly destroyed at 706 South Gray street shortly after 3 a. m. Sunday. The body was face down, an arm under the head, and the lower limbs were charred. The head, too, was badly burned. A small pool of blood was under the body, which bore no marks of violence as far as had been determined this morning. The torso was covered with debris and charred timbers of the roof when found about daylight.

House Is Destroyed.
The two-room house was gutted with flames and beyond saving when the fire department arrived. J. W. Vandevanter, who owned the house and whose own house was aflame and damaged, said the fire was well advanced when discovered. The alarm was turned in by a policeman before the residents of South Gray could reach a telephone.

Firemen were told that there was no one in the house. The renter of it is in jail, officers said, laying out a small fine. Wilkins was staying in the house temporarily, caring for it. He was a teamster and collector of junk.

Meanwhile, a man and his son who live nearby are in jail for drunkenness, having been arrested early Sunday morning. They are also under investigation but have not been connected with the case. Neighbors described drinking that had been freely done during Saturday evening, in which Wilkins presumably participated.

Had Feared a Fire.
Mr. Vandevanter said he had been apprehensive that Wilkins would set the house afire and had investigated the possibility several times when he heard Wilkins, familiarly known as "Cigar Shorty," breaking wood for the small stove. Mrs. Vandevanter said she too looked out a window several times. She said the last noise she heard in the adjoining house was something like the fall of a body. She said there was no light in the house when she looked out her window. Then she went to sleep.

Flames Stopped the spread of the flames to nearby houses and soaked the house where Wilkins body was found partly buried under the fallen roof. They also carried out smoldering mattresses.

Probe Under Way.
Whether Wilkins set fire to the house while striking matches in a drunken stupor, or whether he was murdered was an unanswered question. One witness said he did not appear drunk at midnight.

Many persons were being questioned by County Attorney Sherman White, Chief of Police John V. Andrews, City Manager C. L. Stine, and Fire Chief Clyde Gold.

Wilkins is survived by his estranged wife and two children. Other survivors are his mother and two brothers, Bob Wilkins and Curtis Wilkins, all of Commerce, and a sister, Mrs. S. H. Fuller, of Ladonia. The body is at the G. C. Malone Funeral home. Funeral arrangements have not been made.

ILLNESS WIPES OUT FAMILY OF 3 NEAR HAMLIN

Father, Mother And Son Succumb To Pneumonia

HAMLIN, March 26 (AP)—A pleasant white cottage on the property of the Texas Cement & Plaster company here has, within a week, become a house of death for three persons—father, mother and son.

Third to die, at 3 p. m. yesterday, was Nolan Haines, 35, chief chemist at the plaster mill, victim of pneumonia, the same disease that earlier took the lives of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Haines of Oklahoma City.

Three weeks ago the elderly couple arrived from their Oklahoma home to visit their son and seek health for J. M. Haines, 65, who had been frail since he died Sunday, March 19. The body was forwarded to Oklahoma City and met there by his only other child, Mrs. J. M. Dagnan of Houston, who then hastened to Hamlin to help nurse her brother.

On Thursday, March 22, Mrs. J. M. Haines developed pneumonia. The case developed swiftly. She died Saturday the 24th. Early yesterday her body was sent to Oklahoma City, for burial beside her husband, while her son Nolan lay under an oxygen tent, himself at the point of death. He succumbed yesterday afternoon, not knowing his mother and father had died.

J. M. McDonald is in Austin on business. J. C. Jackson of White Deer was a Pampa visitor yesterday afternoon.

DEMOCRACY STILL OUR SYSTEM

There is more of democracy left in this country than the calamity howlers would have you believe. Although Americans have experimented freely and many owe work opportunities to N. R. A., there is a vast difference between the way the president of the United States has met a national crisis and that used by the German chancellor for instance. The two theories of government, while having similar ends, are opposed in methods. Some progress has been made in each country.

In each nation there was widespread confusion, discouragement, and want of work, finance and industry were nearly at a standstill, the mass of mankind was ready to embrace almost any kind of program that promised action.

What have we today? In Germany there is an era of suppression. A large section of the populace suffers from a pitiless persecution. Thousands upon thousands of men are in jail—some because of their race, some because of their beliefs.

Freedom of the press and of such speech is no more. No one dares criticize anything the government may do. An iron discipline has descended on the entire nation.

And over here? Nobody is in jail, nobody suffers persecution, nobody is under boycott. A newspaper editor can say anything his heart moves him to say; a politician can denounce the administration in the most violent terms his vocabulary will permit.

In the fall we are to have a national election in which the voters, if they choose, can repudiate their national administration completely.

To put it more simply, the Germans have sacrificed the last vestiges of their individual liberty to meet a great crisis. We have met our crisis with our liberties unimpaired.

Now this is not to say that we are wiser or better folk than the Germans. We are used to democracy. We had had a century and a half of experience in governing ourselves. The Germans were not used to democracy; when trouble came it was only natural for them to turn to a dictator for relief.

And it is precisely that which is the point of the comparison. Because we have been able to make our democracy work, we are a happier people than the Germans, who have not been able to make theirs work.

If we wish to preserve our happiness, we must preserve our democracy.

Eye Will Be Finished Four Years Hence, Makers Say

By WALTER BROWN

CORNING, N. Y., March 26 (AP)

A large telescopic eye, the largest ever made and expected to reveal vast, unexpected depths of the universe, cooled slowly today in its honeycombed mold in preparation for the final stages of a costly reach depths of one billion light years distant. The most powerful astronomical eye now in use, at Mount Wilson, California, throws back images only 300,000,000 light years distant. Although officials said they fully expected the eye will be a success, they disclosed that several hemispherical "cores" attached to the bottom of the mold disintegrated under the terrific heat. They indicated this probably would be of little moment, but said that a precaution planned sometime ago will be followed. A new mold will be prepared. If, on examination, two or three months hence, imperfections are discovered in the glass, a new disc can then be poured forthwith, losing as little time as possible. Every one emphasized that making an eye of such size is a brand new experience and that only time can tell glass works will make the required crevices by drilling after the mirror is annealed. Within the next 24 hours the mirror will be transferred from its igloo-like house to the annealing tank. There it will cool gradually during the next ten months. It then will be shipped to the Carnegie Institute of Technology in California to be ground to produce a concave reflecting surface. Finally there will be the task of affixing a mirror surface. These last stages will require three years. Completed, the telescope will represent an investment of $6,000,000 furnished by the International Education board. The pouring of the glass, an all day task, was witnessed by almost 10,000 persons.

ECHO OF THE WAR

TILLSONBURG, Ont.—Jack Vanneel, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Vanneel, was seriously injured when the nose cap of an 18-pound shell found in Flanders after the war, exploded as the boy was playing with it yesterday. The explosion broke furniture and smashed visible China, and wrecked a window. Portions of the cap were buried in the walls. While touring Flanders fields, Mr. and Mrs. Vanneel picked up the nose cap and the 18-pounder and the children had played with it in their home for years. Jack was pounding the cap on the floor when it exploded.

DETROIT LABOR BOARD TO SETTLE ALL DISPUTES IN FUTURE

HORTON SMITH WINS MASTER GOLF TOURNEY

JONES LOSES PUTTING TOUCH AND STANDBY CALAMITY JANE

BY ALAN GOULD,
 Associated Press Sports Editor.
 AUGUSTA, Ga., March 26 (AP)—Now that it's all over and Bobby Jones Jr. knows what it feels like to come back and take it square on his golfing chin, the explanation is quite clear today why the renowned Georgian trailed an even dozen professionals in competition for the first time in his career, finishing ten strokes behind the winner, Horton Smith, in the $5,000 first annual masters' invitation tournament.
 Jones not only mislaid "Calamity Jane," the putter with which he stroked his way through the greatest golf championship winning streaks of all time, but he lost his putting touch along with it.
 There may have been some other contributory causes to the fact that he finished no better than a tie for thirteenth with 294 for 72 holes in the company, incidentally, of the past and present British open champions, Walter Hagen and Denny Shute. But the outstanding fact remains he was soundly beaten because he lacked control and confidence around the greens.

 Far from being discouraged, Jones fully intends to make this spring just with his old rivals an annual event. The Augusta national tournament, he said, will be made an annual fixture, adding: "Unless I break down completely, I hope to participate every year, regardless of how I am putting or where I finish."
 That's the full extent to which he intends ever to return to competition. Spiking the revival of reports that he might enter this year's national open at Merion, Pa., Jones said emphatically: "I'm through with all of that—for good. You can make it just as strong as you like that my answer is no."
 Smith's winning 294 was worth $1,500, one of the biggest cash awards of the winter. Craig Wood of Deal, N. J., finished a stroke behind Smith and collected $800.
 Tied for third place were Bill Burke of Cleveland, former open champion, and young Paul Runyan of White Plains, N. Y., the tournament favorite, each carding 286 and winning $540 apiece.

AUTO STRIKE IS PREVENTED IN AGREEMENT

NEITHER WORKERS NOR EMPLOYERS WIN A VICTORY

BY JAMES COPE
 WASHINGTON, March 26 (AP)—President Roosevelt looks for a new order in the relations between the working man and his employer as a result of his eleven-hour settlement of the controversy that threatened a general strike in the automobile industry.
 He and Gen. Hugh S. Johnson obtained an agreement from executives and labor leaders last night after weeks of negotiations. It established representation for all employees dealing with management, while extending fresh safeguards to all unions against intimidation or interference.
 "It is my hope," said the president, "that this system may develop into a kind of works council in industry in which all groups of employees, whatever may be their choice of organization or form of representation, may participate in joint conference with their employers."
 He hailed this as basis for a more comprehensive, adequate and equitable system of relations than ever existed in a large industry.
 Under the agreement the NRA planned to complete before nightfall a three-man board, with one neutral member and one from either side. It will sit in Detroit and there settle all questions of employee representation, including discharges and claims of discrimination.
 The name of Richard E. Byrd of Pontiac, Michigan, was handed to the president by spokesmen of the automobile workers as their nominee to represent labor on the three-man mediation board. The motor car executives had several men in mind as their representative. Johnson also had several in mind to serve as the third or neutral member.
 Decisions of this board shall be final, and it shall have access to all payrolls and union lists. On the basis of these it shall apportion the number of employee representatives in each plant. A P. of L. local, company union or other union—in ratio to the number of men belonging to each.
 The union lists need not be disclosed to the management except on order of the president's business. Unless the union men cannot bring claims of discrimination.
 In laying off men, when the high production period ends, the companies are pledged to consider "the jobs of married men with families, above all and then take seniority, individual skill and efficient service as guides. Past that point, they may not lay off a greater proportion of men belonging to outside unions than of other employees.
 This agreement was accepted by both sides with expressions of satisfaction.
 The solution of the automobile deadlock lifted from the administration one of its greatest industrial worries. Had the strike occurred, officials feared, there would have been on stopping industrial discord for spreading to other fields in enough volume to nullify much of what has been done toward recovery.

TRAINING WITH THE MAJOR LEAGUES

By The Associated Press.
 BILOXI, Miss., March 26 (AP)—Ossie Bluege has scooped up from the ground and snatched out from the air some new arguments to convince Joe Cronin why a veteran is better third base protection for the Nats.
 Young Cecil Travis, who was announced by Cronin as the Washington Senators third baseman for the duration of the training season, watched yesterday from the bench while Bluege showed in agile fashion what years of experience have done for him.
 Bluege, who now wears spectacles, gave his show during the Nats exhibition game with the Biloxi Browns, a 17 to 0 affair for Griffith's boys.

Poultry Moving Up to Average

AUSTIN, March 26.—Interstate rail shipments of poultry and eggs totaled 169 cars in February, against 167 cars during the same month a year ago, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Of these shipments 23 cars were live chickens and 74 dressed, a total of 97; while in February, 1933, there were 110 cars of chickens, 31 cars live and 79 cars dressed. Only three cars of turkeys were shipped out of the state against 14 cars in February last year.
 "As usual, practically all of the live poultry was shipped to New York City where the large Jewish population constitutes the great market for live poultry," the bureau's report said. "More than half of the dressed poultry also was shipped to this market while the remainder was distributed among nine states, the bulk going to Pennsylvania and Connecticut."

"YOU LEARN WHAT SAFETY IS WORTH ON A JOB LIKE MINE!"

A CERTIFIED INTERVIEW WITH MISS DOLENA MacDONALD—NURSE—OF BOSTON, MASS.

"That's why I bought a Plymouth... it's got Hydraulic Brakes and a Safety-Steel Body"

IT'S SECOND NATURE for a nurse to think about safety first. So when Miss MacDonald set out to buy a new car, safety was in her mind.
 And after looking at "All Three" low-priced cars... she picked Plymouth. She feels safer with Hydraulic Brakes. For they are always equalized... they stop her more quickly, and without side-skidding.
 And common sense told her a Safety-Steel Body, of steel reinforced with steel, is safer than other types.
 Miss MacDonald found that Plymouth alone, in the lowest-price field, offered her both these safety features.

THINK ABOUT SAFETY when you buy your next car. And about comfort, too. Plymouth's Individual Wheel Springing plus Floating Power engine mountings give you a smoother, more comfortable ride.
 Any Dodge, DeSoto or Chrysler dealer will gladly demonstrate the New Plymouth at your convenience.

1. "It didn't pay to run unnecessary risks. And it was only natural for me to inquire about all the safety features."
 2. "I was always having the brakes on my old car fixed. And they often made my car swerve sideways when stopping."
 3. "How different with a Plymouth! I merely touch the pedal and the hydraulic brakes take hold evenly. They stop the car quickly... and never need adjustment because that's entirely automatic."
 4. "Brakes aren't the only thing. Plymouth is a joy to drive. And it amazes me the way those new springs 'walk' over bumps."
 5. ABOVE—the De Luxe Plymouth Coupe. Plymouth prices begin at $495 f. o. b. factory, Detroit, Michigan, and are subject to change without notice.

The volume of "hot oil" during that period was estimated by a reliable source to be about 27,000 barrels per day compared with more than 60,000 barrels per day the previous week, and a high of some 73,000 barrels a short time before. As a result of this continued production of the "hot oil" market, instead of advancing in the wake of improved retail quotations, sank against the seasonal trend to the lowest point for the season in a year or two.

In view of the improvement in the retail market and the balance of over-all operations, oil men were estimating last week that the "hot oil" production, which sells for a few cents per barrel, was costing the state as a whole at least $4 per barrel, approximately a quarter of a million dollars a day.

This calculation is based on the belief, widely held by well-informed oil men, that the elimination of this "hot oil" would open the way to an increase of as last 25 cents per barrel on the roundly million barrels of daily legal production for the state. Belief that the sole handicap to full recovery of the oil business is the inability to date to stamp out "hot oil" was heightened during the past week by the survey of the production situation made by geologists from all parts of the country at the annual meeting of the American Association.

The uncontented opinion expressed by leading members was that the sole production of crude in the United States was a day to day over production.

The total amount of oil in sight to fill future needs was declared to have slipped badly in the past two years with few discoveries of new pools to supply oil in the place of the huge quantities which this country uses every year.

In The Panhandle

Panhandle oil production last week was 57,846 barrels last week as compared to 52,814 barrels the week previous.

During the week there were 1,994 wells on production with a daily average per well of 29.0 barrels. The greater part of the increase was in Gray county, where for two weeks there have been good wells completed. This county registered a gain of 3,435 barrels daily.

The daily average for the field by counties as compared to that of the week previous was as follows:

County	Wells	Week	Prev.
Gray	252	5,976	5,710
Hutchinson	893	35,971	32,536
Hutchinson	785	13,906	12,905
Moore	13	1,083	679
Wheeler	51	900	964

Total 57,846, increase 5,052. No wells 1,994.

MANY ATTEND VESPER MUSIC HOUR, OTHER SUNDAY SERVICES

CLUB AND ITS GUEST ARTISTS PLEASE CROWD

CHURCHES ANNOUNCE THEIR ACTIVITIES FOR WEEK

A VESPER service of Easter music was one of the Palm Sunday services in Pampa churches, which reported large attendance yesterday despite bad weather.

The program of music was presented at Methodist church yesterday afternoon, with a background of flowers adding to the beauty of the songs. The Treble Clef club sponsored the program. Its robed chorus sang three numbers under direction of Mrs. W. A. Bratton.

Solo and ensemble numbers were also given club members. Methodist, Presbyterian, and Christian churches contributed selections, and other guests were Mrs. Nina McSkimming, organist; Miss Madeline Tarpley, pianist; Miss Willie Reece Taylor and Roy Waltraubstein, violinists.

Mmes. J. W. Garman, Carl Sturgeon, Sam Irwin, and H. C. Price acted as ushers. They distributed hand-made programs in the club colors, green and white.

Sunday school attendance indicated that the weather kept few church-goers at home. The Church of Christ had 133 in Sunday school and six additions to the church. First Baptist church had 563 in Sunday school and 86 in training service. Central Baptist church reported 135 in Sunday school, Presbyterian church 114, Christian church 359, and four additions.

Meetings announced for this week in churches include the monthly Men's Brotherhood dinner at the Presbyterian church Tuesday at 7 p. m., with John S. Mullen, Christian minister, as the speaker; and the monthly B. T. S. conference at First Baptist church this evening at 7.

L. J. Setz of Mobeetie was a business visitor here Saturday.

AWARDS MADE LAST WEEK IN TWO McLEAN SCHOOL CONTESTS

McLEAN, March 26.—The annual spelling contest which is sponsored by the Lions club was held Thursday afternoon at the high school building with the following schools represented: Back, Whitefish, Hopkins, Alandred, Pakan, and McLean. The contest follows the rules of the interscholastic league. A beautiful loving cup has been presented each year. This year the cup became the permanent property of the McLean schools for having won it three years in succession. Whitefish, Back, and Alandred tied for second place in the contest Thursday.

Highest individual scores went to Jesse Deane Cobb of McLean with a score of 99; Perry Masterson of Back, 98; Bathus Woodward of McLean, 97; Leo Ledbetter of McLean, 96; Zena Bells Ridgeway of Hopkins, 95; Anna Lee Miller of Back, 95; Cleo Ledbetter of McLean, 95. An interesting feature of this part of the contest was the fact that Cleo and Leo Ledbetter are twins.

The contest was under the direction of A. F. McHany, principal of the ward school at McLean. Supt. Craver gave a short welcome to the visitors in an assembly meeting prior to the contest. McLean teachers who pronounced the words were Miss Vera Cummings, sub-junior; Miss Jeoline Vainoy, junior, and Mrs. Jim Back, senior.

Demonstration Club Active.
The McLean home demonstration club has been actively engaged in constructive work this last month. On the third Friday in March they met with Mrs. J. H. Wade where an interesting and instructive program was carried out. Those present were Mmes. E. J. Gething, W. R. Wise, Josie Stewart, Lillie Jones and Wade.
High seventh: First, Lela Mae Phillips; second, Julia McCarty; third, Jesse Deane Cobb.

noon a pot-luck dinner was enjoyed. The guests honored the hostess with a kitchen utensil shower. Proceeds from the sale of the quilt are to go to help defray the expenses of delegates of the club to a short course at a A. & M. college in June.
Those present for the all-day meeting were Mrs. C. T. O'Neal, Mrs. E. J. Gething, Mrs. W. R. Wise, Mrs. Josie Stewart, Mrs. Claud Hunt, Mrs. Scott Johnson, Mrs. Raymond Shaanon, Mrs. A. A. Tampe, Mrs. Crawford, and Miss Cockrell, Red Cross nurse, who brought the club a message on health.

Essay Winners Announced
In assembly last week Georgia Colebank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Colebank, was awarded a lovely medal and proclaimed winner in a contest in essay writing on the subject of "Tuberculosis." Mabel Back, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Back, was given second place; and Lela Mae Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rich Phillips, was third place winner.

This is a contest for pupils of the ward school, and was sponsored this year by Supt. C. A. Craver and Mrs. Jim Back, teacher of English in this school. So much interest was manifested in the contest that it is planned to make it an annual affair with some phase of tuberculosis as its cause or cure, as the subject as one part of the health program of the school.

Winners in each class were: Low sixth—Eugene Stewart, first; Vada Appleby, second; Johnnie Mae Scott, third.
High sixth: First, Velma Mann; second, Donald Dorsey; third, Herman Hug.
Low seventh: Georgia Colebank, first; Mabel Back, second; Louise Kennedy, third.
High seventh: First, Lela Mae Phillips; second, Julia McCarty; third, Jesse Deane Cobb.

Pointers On Poise

I. STANDING GRACEFULLY
How can one acquire poise? This is the first of 12 daily articles, written by an expert, answering that question.

BY LAURA TOWNSEND DAVIES.
Hours have been spent teaching many of us how to handle our forks and spoons correctly, but precious few of us have had the slightest training in the matter of handling ourselves, or learning the social amenities, such as keeping our listeners awake and making all our guests feel equally consequential.

It isn't a Gift.
In spite of a generous lack of training in these directions, most of us admire tremendously that man or woman who has charm of manner and poise. But too often we make the mistake of thinking that poise is solely a gift of personality, when, as a matter of fact, it is largely the result of training.

That favorite movie actress of yours does not "just happen" to do her parts pleasingly. As for the interesting lecturer you heard recently, his splendid poise was the outgrowth of experience. The ease of manner and poise that artists bring to their work may be yours, if you are willing to make the effort.

Watch Your Feet.
Take the right, graceful way to handle our feet when standing (if you don't believe this is important, just observe the "unbeautiful" positions women get their feet into). For grace, a woman should stand with her feet together, the weight swayed slightly forward over the ball of one foot, the back foot and knee propped against the front foot and knee.

Try this in front of a long mirror, and you will never again make the mistake of standing with your feet spread apart.

ART EXHIBIT IS OPENED TODAY BY ARNO CLUB

FAMOUS PICTURES WILL BE SHOWN HERE FOUR DAYS

OPENING this morning for a four-day display, the art exhibit sponsored by the Arno Art club will be viewed by many school children of the city as well as by lovers of good paintings among adults.

It will be open each morning and afternoon, through Thursday, in the building on Cuyler street, recently vacated by the gas company offices. The 150 reproductions of famous masterpieces have been hung to form an attractive display, so that each picture is accessible for study.

Mrs. John V. Andrews heads the club committee in charge of the exhibit, and various club members will serve as hostesses while the pictures are on display. They have studied the paintings and are able to give interesting facts about each one and its painter.

School children are carrying on ticket sales, with free trips to the educational exhibit as their goal. Each classroom selling its quota of tickets will be admitted free to see the pictures.

Judith Lane

by JEANNE BOWMAN

SYNOPSIS: Judith Lane knows that her husband's law partner, Morton Lamper, plans to wreck her old employer's plans for the Rio Diablo dam, which were put into Judith's hands for execution upon the death of Big Tom Bevin, whose pet project it was. Judith has been left the Bevin fortune in trust, to be spent on the dam. But Norman, her husband, is torn by the belief that Judith should step out of the picture; they have quarreled, and now, reconciled, have settled back to talk.

Chapter 17 NEW RIFT

The meal over, dishes back in the kitchen, Norman found an old scarlet dressing gown, dug in its pockets for pipe and pouch, then filling and lighting the pipe sank into the divan.

Judith, at a gestured invitation, curled into the circle of his free arm, wide eyes on the flames shooting up through the oak logs. Outside, twilight was moving in, a cold spring wind in its wake. The leafless arms of the nearest tree rubbed fretfully against the house, the fire crackled. "Happy?" inquired Norman, contentedly.

"Perfectly."

"Wish this could go on forever," he mused, "no more outside influence. Sounds archaic, maybe, but I believe there's a primitive need in every man for a home of his own; you know, the kind of a need that forces him to go out and make good in business like—"

"Like the cave-man in the forest made good with his billy club?" inquired Judith.

"Judy, you're laughing at me."

"No, I'm not, I'm just thinking how nice it is to be your particular woman, to say nothing of living in such a cave."

"I like this cave too," he said, boyishly possessive.

"She knew he had had but little home life; as Cila had said, 'Plenty of house and nobody in it.'"

He settled back again, and then into their peaceful moment came the whirr of the telephone. Judith, not wanting to listen, couldn't help hearing a few words and was ready for something unpleasant by the time she returned.

"Jud—" under the brave scarlet coat his shoulders were sagging. "I forgot to tell you, Lamper has called a meeting of stockholders and the board of directors for the company, tomorrow at three. He wants you there."

She nodded. She remembered dimly that Poppy Norville was giving her one o'clock luncheon and she had promised to help. Would she have time to change? She shouldn't go to such a meeting in a ruffled silk suit and Dolly Varden hat.

"Judith," Norman interrupted her thoughts, "I'd promised myself I wouldn't discuss this Bevin matter with you, but you're my wife and I can't let you go to that meeting unprepared. I want you to know what other people know."

"Judy girl, I wonder if you realized that Big Tom had been losing his mind during the last few months of his life; in fact that he had a serious brain affliction at the time he drew up that new will?"

Judith jumped from the entrancing haven of her husband's arm. "Norman," she cried.

"There, Judy, don't take it like that. It was bound to be a shock to you, I know, but I thought it was better for me to tell you than someone else."

"Norman," she repeated, this time brokenly.

"Yes, dear, it probably came from sort of a belated sun-stroke. You remember how we suffered on that trip? Why, healthy as I am, there were times when I nearly went under. It seems Big Tom stood up while he was actually on the job, but the moment he got back home where he could relax, the whole thing came down on him like a ton of brick."

"What do you mean?"

"If you'll remember, Judy, he had a slight fever the day after his return. From then on he began to grow queer. Everybody in the legal department noticed... what's the matter?"

Judith stood before him, eyes narrowed, body rigid with emotion.

"So that's what they're saying!" she began in the low voice Norman had come to recognize as one of anger. "The... theads. Listen, Norman, Dale, you go to Lamper and tell him he's the lowest kind of a liar there is; the kind who will try to destroy the reputation of a man who can't defend himself."

"Judith, will you listen to reason?"

"To reason, gladly, where is it?" Norman's dark eyes were glowing in the firelight, his chin had jutted forward with Scotch stubbornness—"you'll admit he kept you working all night the night after his stroke. Was that an evidence of sanity?"

"After what you've just said, Norman, it was evidence of more than sanity... it was sheer genius. Only a man facing death could have had the foresight to do what Big Tom Bevin did that night."

"I suppose that you, a twenty-four-year-old—"

"Ma'teel calls me an office girl," supplied Judith bitterly.

"Leave Ma'teel out of this," snapped Norman.

"Try to leave her out," laughed Judith. "You were saying that a twenty-four-year-old office girl 'presumes,' is the next word isn't it?"

"Alright... presumes to know more than brilliant, tried and proven engineers and lawyers."

"That's what you really believe," she said with sudden conviction, then "Norman, do you see what this is doing to us?"

"It needs," he replied, arose and walked to the door, "as long as Lane is taking the week off, instead of the day I'll have to go down and look at that furnace."

Judith walked slowly upstairs, undressed mechanically and slipped into bed. She felt exhausted. The quick exhilaration of anger had burned out, leaving her numb.

Down to the west the full moon began its ascent blocked by the oak tree before the window. Slowly it eased into view, seemingly climbing from limb to limb.

Norman would come up, they would talk it over and regret their flurry of temper. He would come up before the moon reached the limb with the queer hump. But it flattered its silver surface against the filligree of topmost boughs and sailed in into the clear blue, with no sound from below.

Judith was asleep when Norman, hair ruffled, eyes blinking even in the soft glow of the bed lamp, did appear. She didn't see him stand and stare down at her, a baffled, troubled look on his face. Even had she seen the look, she couldn't have known how much like a child she appeared to the man.

In deference to her new dignity as a matron she had let her hair grow and it lay spread in becoming disorder on her pillow. Her eyes were tear stained.

Her body, fuller now and healthily pink, due to Delphy's untrusting care, lay clad in maize yellow pajamas, one foot and one arm hanging over the edge of the bed. Carefully Norman moved them back, pulled the covers high, then went to the chair before the window.

They spoke quietly at breakfast, the apprehensive Delphy and Lige hovering around like two solicitous black birds.

"Small I call at Neville's for you?" Norman asked as he was leaving.

"No," Judith answered, "as long as you belong to the firm retained by the Bevin women, it would be less embarrassing for you if I come as Big Tom's stenographer, rather than your wife."

"Just as you say." He kissed her and left, and Judith felt an unreasonable desire to weep because he hadn't insisted upon standing by her through the coming ordeal.

Judith was afterwards to wonder how she managed to live through Poppy's luncheon. Her beruffled frock of dark bluish green, and pert, small hat, won the hearty approval of Poppy's guests.

"Look as though you'd been clipped from the top of a candy box," one guest remarked.

She thought of this later, for she

CARL CHAUDOIN RE-NAMED TO HEAD SCHOOLS OF MOBEETIE

Re-Elected

Carl Chaudoin, above, under whose guidance as superintendent the Mobetie schools have made definite strides this year, has been re-elected to that office for the next term.

Carl Chaudoin, who has received much praise for work accomplished in the Mobetie schools this year, has been elected superintendent for another year.

Immediately after Chaudoin was elected superintendent last year he appealed to the school board and patrons for assistance in securing a program for this year. Through the confidence placed by the board in their new superintendent, they gave him practically free rein to develop his ideas in promoting the school and assured support in whatever course he wished to take.

The first step taken was to cut all salaries down to the state aid schedule, thereby making the school eligible for state aid. Chaudoin spent last summer in Mobetie, donating his services to the goal he was working toward. During this time six rural schools, which had been teaching some high school grades, were persuaded to ask the county school board to permit them to teach only through the grammar grades. This arrangement permitting them to offer a longer and better grade term, and send their high school students to Mobetie.

These schools were Union, Mountain View, Spring Creek, Mt. Zion, Lone Star, and Dixon. Three buses were obtained to transport their high school pupils to and from the central high school. Two extra teachers were added to the Mobetie faculty and definite results began to take place.

The Mobetie schools have an enrollment of 178 in high school and 197 in the grades.

Approximately $450 has been raised in the community through programs and donations. The libraries have been augmented about 500 volumes; football, which had been discontinued, has been reinstated. The Wheeler county interscholastic League meet, for the first time in the history of the town, will be held at Mobetie this year.

Classification and affiliation has been granted by State Inspector E. E. Chamness in 13 subjects; $3,000 in teachers' aid has been granted, and approximately $1,500 will be received in tuition fees from rural students. Plans are under way to add another teacher next year and either vocational agriculture or home economics will be included. A nine month school is already assured.

DESKINS WELLS in Wellington Leader—It is related of Andrew Carnegie that after one of his new department heads had been in charge for a year he sent him to Europe for six months. If the department didn't run better while he was away, the department head was fired upon his return. Carnegie's theory was that man could not organize a department so that it would function in his absence was not fit to be head of it.

T. T. WAGGONER in Claude News—Why not plan that garden now, and buy seeds for same. It will mean more good eats and the kind that gives health. People do not eat enough vegetables and especially fruits, in this country.

SAM BRASWELL in Clarendon—This week a new Boy Scout group was sponsored, with the possibility of still another, and there is a movement in the making that will provide a scouting camp and playground for all Scouts of this community. Interest in Scouting means an interest in the future welfare of the nation as well as the peace and progress of this community.

Heart Attack Kills Company Employee
Heart failure caused the death of Clyde Wheeler about 4 o'clock this morning while he was at work. Mr. Wheeler was at work on the Skelly Oil company's test on the Vicars lease west of Pampa when he was stricken.

Mr. Wheeler had finished sharpening a bit about 3:30 o'clock and told workmen he didn't feel well. He laid down to rest but other men on the job had him removed to a hospital where physicians and members of the Pampa Fire department used the department's inhalator for a long time, but unsuccessfully.

Mr. Wheeler came to Pampa from Missouri about six months ago. He was employed by the Cree and Hoover Drilling company.

The body is at rest at the G. C. Malone funeral home. Known relatives are a wife, mother and one sister, all of Webb City, Mo.

Mrs. W. J. Adkins, Panhandle dramatic teacher, and four pupils, Harvey Weeth, Irbey Davidson, Ralph Gentry, and Charles Stone, attended the staging of "Smokescreen" here Friday night.

--WEATHER

Heavier precipitation, however, was reported in the northeastern Panhandle where rain and snow amounted to three inches of moisture. The Santa Fe reported three inches from Shattuck, Okla., to Perryton, and about two inches from White Deer to Canadian.

The wind-swept northwestern corner of the Panhandle, from Dumas and Stratford west to Channing, Dalhart, and Texline, still was without an appreciable amount of moisture. The precipitation at Spearman was only half an inch. West and southwest of Amarillo the snow extended well into New Mexico.

The Santa Fe reported three-fourths of an inch of moisture from Panhandle to Clinton, Okla., and five inches of snow at Berger and Skellytown. Rain fell throughout Sunday at Shamrock and McLean, and through the eastern Panhandle.

In the Pertyton area, where grain men report the finest wheat in the southwest, there was sufficient moisture to assure an average crop. It was the general belief that many other sections of the wheat belt, where the wheat is up and growing, would have a harvest little short of normal with favorable conditions through the rest of the spring.

J. E. Davis, manager of the Burrus elevators here, said much of the wheat acreage still was intact, and that normal growing season following the moisture of yesterday and today would assure the Panhandle a near average crop. Other grain men a little less optimistic, nevertheless were jubilant.

The moisture also was of unestimated benefit to ranges, where grass was just beginning to put out, and conditioned farms for row crops. Dirt highways in some localities were almost impassable. Buses to Lubbock had been cancelled, and those to Wichita Falls and Clovis, N. M., were running late.

Skies were clearing today.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, March 26 (AP)—Prospective benefits to crops because of snow and rain over domestic wheat territory southwest put a damper on buying in the grain markets today, and prices went downhill.

Amarillo, Texas, reported 21 inches of snow on the ground, the heaviest fall since 1903. Under such circumstances, improved industrial prospects, with advances of securities, were largely ignored. A fresh decrease of the United States wheat visible supply total was also without much immediate market influence.

Wheat closed weak at about the day's bottom prices, May 86 3/4, and 1-1/2% under Saturday's finish, corn 3/4% down, oats 3/4% off, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 5 cents.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, March 26 (AP)—The stock market today staged only a brief celebration of the settlement of the automobile labor controversy.

Early gains of 1 to 2 or more points were cancelled under profit taking and the list settled down to the familiar dull routine. The close was irregular. Transfers approximated 1,150,000 shares.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON
NEW ORLEANS, March 26 (AP)—The market developed only moderate trading during the morning and although stocks were higher, prices here were barely steady owing to lack of buying support. There was a slow reaction to 12.04 for May, 12.15 for July and 12.28 for October, or 6 to 8 points down from the early highs but still three points above Saturday's close.

"DON'T LET ANYBODY TELL YOU THAT RUNNING AN OFFICE DOESN'T TAKE HEALTHY NERVES, TOO, MR. JAFFEE."

Irving Jaffee,
Olympic Speed Skating Champion, says:

"It takes healthy nerves and plenty of wind to be an Olympic skating champion. I find that Camels, because of their costlier tobaccos, are mild and likable in taste. And, what is even more important to a champion athlete, they never upset the nerves."

John W. Grout,
Office Manager, who hails from Detroit, Mich., says:

"An Olympic champion speed skater needs healthy nerves—but a man can't handle a tough office job without healthy nerves, either. Many hours of nagging details and the pressure of work all tell on the nerves. I smoke Camels all day long...and I never have to think of nerves. Camels have the finest flavor, too."

How Are YOUR Nerves?

Sooner or later today most of us come face to face with jangled nerves.

If nerves are a problem with you, now is the time to check up on all habits that may affect them—your eating, your sleeping, your recreation. And get a fresh slant on your smoking by trying Camels. Much is heard about tobacco quality, so always remember this:

Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS than any other popular brand.

Note the way "edgy" nerves become a thing of the past. You can smoke more than ever, without a sign of "cigarette" aftertaste. You'll be delighted to find that Camel's costlier tobaccos do make a difference—to your taste, and to your nerves!
