Kennedy Clan Gathers

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (UPI)—Joseph P. Kennedy, ailing patriarch of one of the most politically influential families in the nation's history, was in weakened condition today after suffering a heart attack. Family members gathered at his home.

Kennedy, the father of a president and two U.S. senators, was stricken Saturday.

"Ambassador Kennedy has had a minor heart attack," a family spokesman said. "As a result of that, his condition was weakened."

Cardinal Richard Cushing, a close family friend, said Sunday. "After eight long years of hopelessness, it seems the good Lord is about to take him in the foreseeable future." The archbishop of Boston, who received a call from the family earlier in the day, said the 81-year-old former ambassador to Great Britain had suffered "a severe setback."

Jackie Speeds To Bedside Of Father-In-Law

LONDON (UPI)—Mrs. Jacqueline Onassis arrived in London today for a brief stopover on her way to Boston to see her ailing former father-in-law, Joseph P. Kennedy.

Mrs. Onassis, wearing a dark coat and sunglasses, stepped from her Olympic Airways jet, smiled at photographers and hurried into a waiting airplane car to take her to a Pan American flight for the journey to Boston.

She avoided photographers who crowded around her at a transit passenger lounge, putting her hands to her face.

The former Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy set off for the United States from Athens today after receiving word that Joseph P. Kennedy, father of the late President John F. Kennedy, was ill.

Johnson Sisters Expecting

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Former President Lyndon B. Johnson's eldest daughter, Lynda Bird Robb, is expecting her second child in May.

Her pregnancy was made known Sunday by friends, who said Lynda, 25, was hoping for a boy to go with her 1-year-old daughter, Lucinda Desha.

Lynda and her husband, Marine Maj. Charles S. Robb, were married Dec. 9, 1967 in the White House and now live in suburban Alexandria, Va.

Lynda's sister, Luci Nugent, is also pregnant, expecting her second baby in late December or early January. Luci lives now in Austin, Tex., with her husband, Patrick, and their 2-year-old son, Patrick Lyndon.

The Johnson family will gather next week for the Thanksgiving holiday at the LBJ ranch in Texas as it does every year.

DEBRIS LEAVES ECHO

Big Peace Rally Silent As Marchers Depart

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The echoes of the biggest peace rally in American history fell silent in the debris left by a quarter million departed demonstrators today—drawing no comment from President Nixon, but an attack from one of his top officials.

The barricades which had surrounded the White House came down and Nixon hosted a Sunday morning prayer service at the Executive Mansion. But reporters covering the service were told the President was "adamant" that he was not to be questioned about the week-end rally.

Attorney General John N. Mitchell, a top Nixon confidant who watched from a Justice Department window while police lobbed tear gas at crowds of demonstrators in the street below, did respond.

"I see no reason to condone the illegal actions of a hard core of militants merely because they were undertaken during a peace demonstration," Mitchell said.

He said the New Mobilization Committee, which organized the rally, must bear the blame, especially "those influential members of the steering committee who knew the gathering in Washington would be a vehicle for violence."

He said the New Mobe Committee "aided this violence through a combination of inaction and affirmative action."

Ron Young, New Mobe project director, called Mitchell's charge "a lie." He told a news conference that had been scheduled prior to Mitchell's statement:

"The major part of the blame for the confusion of last evening has got to be laid on the government and its delay in giving the permits."

Reporters on the street near the Justice Department said New Mobe marshals formed a cordon and tried to prevent the more radical protesters from charging that building during one of the disturbances.

The violence was largely confined to two nights of police-protester confrontations at DuPort Circle, a hippie-haven park and a post-rally march on the Justice Department where clouds of tear gas were sent rolling through some downtown streets after more radical protesters tried to storm the building. The Thursday through Saturday period produced 135 arrests.

Wind-blown litter and plywood sheets swathing some broken downtown store windows were the only physical signs of a march and rally that organizers, participants and observers generally characterized as peaceful and potent.

Canadian Celebrates Birthday Of Heart

HOUSTON (UPI)—Leo A. Boyd, 51, a Canadian who received the heart of a Mexican woman in an operation performed by Dr. Denton Cooley, began today his second year with the transplanted organ and he is looking forward to many more.

"The one I had was of no further use to me or anybody," he said at a "birthday" party Sunday. "This one seems to be strong now. I hope it keeps it up. I feel good. I hope I can go on awhile yet."

Though Sunday was his real birthday, Boyd considered it the first anniversary of his new life.

"This (date) was a little more important to me. I've had a year of life that I wouldn't have had ordinarily," he said. "I really appreciate that."

During the small quiet party Boyd's bedside table overflowed with gifts and a five-inch, two-layer cake baked by Mrs. Alice Nye, heart transplant suite nurse at St. Luke's Hospital, during Cooley's 21 operations and now a private nurse.

Cooley stopped by for a few minutes to wish Boyd well but couldn't stay for the party. Only a few nurses, friends and Boyd's wife were there.

Boyd said he gets tired easily anyhow.

"I've been having trouble with my legs, but it won't be long now that I will be ambulating around on my own," he said. "I'm wearing a leg brace and using a walker, but I'll be rid of both of them in a short while."

Boyd left the hospital for the first time overnight three weeks ago and has spent weekly two or three-days in his Houston apartment since then.

He said he hopes to be home in Canada by Christmas but until then it will be the same routine of recuperation.

"I'll just go through the routine, walking in the hall and preparing to go out to the apartment for the weekend," he said.

Earthlings Get Glimpse Of Moon, Inside Look At Buglike Module

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Speeding into the grip of lunar gravity, Apollo 12's astronauts gave earthlings a television view of the gold sliver of the approaching moon today and an inside look at the buglike ship that will land on it.

The 56-minute telecast came during the final checkout of the lunar module Intrepid before Charles "Pete" Conrad, Richard F. Gordon and Alan L. Bean swung into orbit around the moon tonight.

All was in order, with both the machinery and its crew, for America's second lunar landing and man's first scientific exploration of an alien world.

Gordon summed it up: "We're all three in good spirits, doing great, we exercise, we slept well, the food's been good, we're lots of cold water to drink and we've enjoyed the scenery, but we do miss the good people back home."

The telecast, third since Friday's harrowing blastoff, ended at 3:10 a.m. EST. It showed the instruments Conrad and Bean will use to guide Intrepid to a smooth moon touchdown Wednesday morning. The picture was received so clearly on earth—203,000 miles away at the time—that dust particles were observed floating about in the cramped cabin.

Then the pilots pointed the little television camera out one window to show the bright, white half-earth and out another to show the waxing moon. The moon, 51,920 miles away, was larger.

It was the second time the astronauts had slithered through the narrow tunnel linking Intrepid to the command ship Yankee Clipper. The first occasion was to see that the lander had not been damaged by the still-puzzling electrical burst that jolted Apollo 12 only 6,100 feet above Cape Kennedy.

From that frightening experience, the 10-day, $350 million expedition has settled down to the routine of a long voyage from home. The three Navy commanders wore flight caps with their rank and the traditional gold braid as if they were at sea.

The astronauts' nightowl schedule was arranged because Apollo 12 must touch down on the moon just after the sun rises over the landing site on the southeastern "shore" of the arid Ocean of Storms. The long shadows of dawn will best show the hazardous boulders and craters littering the area.

Because of this, the crucial landing is scheduled for 1:53 a.m. EST Wednesday. The astronauts will first loop the moon 13 times, starting at 10:47 p.m. tonight when a braking blast from Apollo 12 slows it enough so that the moon's gravity will pull it into orbit.

Barrymore's Son Narcotic Suspect

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—John Drew Barrymore, 37, son of the late actor John Barrymore, was booked Sunday on suspicion of possession of narcotics after the car he was riding in was stopped on a traffic violation.

The driver of the car, Anthony B. Fairbanks, was booked on the same charge.

Barrymore, an actor, was convicted of possession of narcotics in 1967 and placed on three years probation. He was arrested Aug. 4 for possession of marijuana near Indio, Calif., and faces trial on that charge.

Tokyo Radicals Try To Halt Official's Trip

TOKYO (UPI)—Prime Minister Eisaku Sato left for Washington today, the efforts of student radicals to forcibly halt his trip frustrated by 15,000 policemen ringed Tokyo International Airport.

Accompanied by his wife and 24 government officials, Sato's special Japan Air Lines plane took off for Washington at 10:04 a.m. The prime minister will hold three days of talks with President Nixon concerning return of Okinawa to Japanese control.

Hundreds of Japanese leftists who want immediate return of the island to Japan and expulsion of U.S. bases in Japan fought with police Sunday afternoon and early today as they tried to get to the airport to stop the departure.

The Tokyo Police Agency said 1,893 persons had been arrested in Tokyo Sunday and today. Arrests of 167 persons in other parts of Japan had been disclosed earlier, bringing the known total of persons in custody to 2,060. More than 200 of them were women.

Haynsworth Issue May Climax In 'Too-Close' Vote This Week

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The nearly three months of controversy on the Supreme Court nomination of Clement F. Haynsworth may climax this week in a vote still too close to call.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield hoped to reach agreement today for a vote on the nomination either Tuesday or Wednesday. Debate on the nomination went into its third day with uncommitted Southern senators, to reveal how he will vote.

Others scheduled to make speeches in behalf of Haynsworth were Sens. Howard Baker, R-Tenn., and Robert C. Byrd, D-W.Va., according to Sen. Ernest F. Hollings, D-S.C., chief Senate sponsor of Haynsworth.

Hollings, along with Sen. Peter H. Dominick, R-Colo., were slated to speak Tuesday.

In the debate so far, there has been little give-and-take, just set speeches, largely predictable.

Senate GOP Leader Hugh Scott remains steadfastly uncommitted, but he said Sunday he has made up his mind "subject to change in the event of some unexpected development."

The latest UPI survey indicated that if the vote were taken today 38 senators would vote for Haynsworth and 46 against him. The 16 senators still uncommitted, including Spong, hold the margin of victory or defeat for the judge.

A recent Washington Post poll showed 40 opposed, 37 in favor and 23 uncommitted.

Champagne Toast Starts Parley Off

HELSINKI (UPI)—President Nixon called today for a reversal of the U.S.-Soviet nuclear arms race.

His statement was read to the long-awaited opening session of the Strategic Arms Limitation talks (SALT) which brought the two super powers together today in a first preliminary session.

The talks opened with a champagne toast in the mirrored portrait-lined salon of Finland's yellow stucco banquet hall which was built for the Czarist governors 150 years ago.

Nixon's statement called the SALT meeting "one of the most momentous negotiations ever entrusted to an American delegation." He asked for an agreement in which both sides can have confidence.

Today's opening session was purely ceremonial. The real talks begin Tuesday in the U.S. Embassy and will alternate between the U.S. and Soviet embassies. They could last for months, even years.

Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vladimir S. Semenov, chief of the Russian group, listened attentively as Nixon's remarks were translated into Russian.

Nixon's statement was read by U.S. arms Director Gerard C. Smith, head of the American SALT delegation. Nixon listed recent agreements such as the Antarctic treaty, the limited test ban treaty, the outer space treaty and the nonproliferation treaty and said:

"Other tasks remain on the agenda of the United Nations and the conference of the committee on disarmament. Today, however, you will begin what all of your fellow citizens in the United States and I believe, all people throughout the world, profoundly hope will be a sustained effort not only to limit the buildup of strategic forces but to reverse it."

Exploratory discussions prior to the start of definitive negotiations are expected to continue for several weeks. They will be held in secret, alternately at the U.S. and Soviet embassies in Helsinki.

Both sides entered the talks in a mood of cautious optimism, publicly pledging to work for their eventual success.

Heading the U.S. team is Gerard C. Smith, director of the U.S. Arms Control and Disarmament Agency. A 1935 graduate of Yale University, Smith, 58, has had considerable experience in matters of strategy and modern weaponry.

Leading the Soviet delegation is Vladimir S. Semenov, a deputy foreign minister. A career diplomat, Semenov, 58, has spent much of his time in recent years supervising Russia's relations with Germany, both East and West.

Both men brought with them dozens of diplomatic, technical and military advisers. The two held a brief private meeting Saturday night after their arrivals from Moscow and Washington.

According to diplomatic observers, Smith and Semenov will attempt first to determine what strategic weapons are to be included in the proposed limitation agreement.

The Russians were reported by diplomatic sources to have brought a package of specific proposals. Diplomats speculated this may be presented at an early stage to win a propaganda advantage.

American objectives, according to the diplomats, include a halt to unlimited development and stockpiling of strategic nuclear arms, limitation of deployment of such weapons, and reduction of risk of nuclear war.

The Russians appeared to be seeking a halt in production of nuclear arms, a reduction of stockpiles of existing weapons and mutual limitation and later reduction of delivery systems, the sources said.

'Chicago Seven' Defense To Say Undercover Agent Lied

CHICAGO (UPI)—The defense in the trial of the "Chicago Seven" was prepared today to argue for a mistrial on grounds a police undercover agent lied in giving a pretrial statement to defense attorneys.

The agent, Irwin Bock, testified last Friday—before the weekend recess during which most of the defendants and their attorneys went to Washington for the antiwar activities—that he infiltrated the leadership of Chicago and national antiwar groups.

Under cross-examination, Bock said an affidavit signed by him on June 30 for defense attorneys Irving Birnbaum and Leonard Weinglass was untrue. The affidavit absolved the defendants of suggesting "any criminal activity" or doing "anything of a criminal nature."

Bock said he signed the statement on the advice of his superiors in order to maintain

Hanson 'Quints' Doing Well

LONDON (UPI)—The 4-day-old Hanson quintuplets are "continuing to make progress and all is well," a spokesman at London's Queen Charlotte's Hospital said today.

The quintuplets—Joanne, Nicola, Julie, Sarah and Jacqueline—were taken off oxygen units Sunday and are now breathing regular air in their incubator, the spokesman said. They were born nine weeks prematurely.

Mrs. Irene Hanson, the 33-year-old mother of the quintuplets, was said to be making "excellent progress."

Vandalism, Fight, Show Ticket Thefts In Weekend Police Reports

Minor incidents kept Pampa police busy over the weekend with most of the reports dealing with vandalism and fighting.

This morning, however, Pampa policeman Freddie Brown took a 19-year-old and 16-year-old boys into custody for investigation after the pair were found asleep in an old apartment building at Buckler, and West Sts.

There was evidence that other youths had been making good use of the apartments. Beer cans, old blankets and other evidence of use were found in many of the apartments.

Ronnie Rice, owner of Rice's Feed Store, 522 S. Cuyler, reported to police that 20 sacks of feed had been left outside the building on a loading dock. Rice said that Sunday he found all the sacks had been cut open and the feed strewn over the dock.

Windows were reported shot out of buildings at Combs-

Death Penalty Asked In Pampa Man's Rape Case

PLAINVIEW (Staff) — The state formally requested the death penalty Thursday in the case of accused rapist Willie Charles Crummie, about 45, in a hearing before a 64th Judicial District Court.

The case was moved to 64th District Court on a change of venue from 31st District Court in Gray County due to "prejudice and pre-trial publicity."

Crummie is charged in connection with the alleged rape of a 55-year-old Pampa woman on or about Feb. 14 of this year. 31st District Attorney Guy Hardin, Shamrock, requested the death penalty in behalf of the state at the hearing Thursday. The request also had been presented in 31st District Court prior to the change of venue.

Hardin, as chief prosecutor, is assisted by 64th District Attorney Tom Hamilton, Plainview.

Chief defense attorney is Bob Gibbins, Plainview, appointed by 64th District Judge John T. Boyd. He is assisted by defense attorneys Ben Sturgeon and Jean Martindale, both of Pampa, appointed by the 31st District Court.

In the Thursday hearing, court trial tentatively was set for Dec. 8. A motion by Gibbins to allow bond for Crummie was denied by Judge Boyd, but a motion by Gibbins for prosecuting attorneys to provide the defense with evidence and names of prospective witnesses to be used in the case was not challenged.

TED FRITCHE

Funeral services for Ted Fritche, 60, were to be held at 2 p.m. today in St. Paul Lutheran Church, Vernon. The Rev. J. A. Birnbaum, retired pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Electra Cemetery in Electra, directed by Carmichael-Whitley Funeral Directors of Pampa.

Mr. Fritche died Friday on the Moody Farms, 12 miles east of city, of an apparent heart attack.

He was born Sept. 29, 1909, at Giddings, and moved to Pampa six years ago from Vernon. He had been employed with Moody Farms for about five years. A Vernon resident most of his life, he was a member of Zion Lutheran Church of Pampa. He was married to Gertrude McBride Sept. 13, 1940.

Survivors are his wife, Gertrude, Pampa; one daughter, Mrs. Vinell Turner, Pampa; two sons, Don, Shamrock, and Ricky, Canyon; four brothers, R. C., Electra; Earhart, Leonard, and Edgar, all of Houston; two sisters, Mrs. Emily Routher, Giddings; and Mrs. Freda Collingsworth, Houston; and four grandchildren.

S.W. WILLIAMS

MOBETTIE — Funeral services for S.W. Williams, 70, were held at 3 p.m. today in Mobettie Methodist Church with burial in Mobettie Cemetery, directed by Wright-Denson Funeral Home of Wheeler.

Mr. Williams died Saturday night in Highland General Hospital in Pampa. He was born Aug. 3, 1898, in Cook County, and was married to Mattie Elizabeth Walker, in Mobettie Dec. 19, 1920. He had moved to Mobettie with his parents from Cook County in 1912.

He was a farmer and director and vice president of the First State Bank in Mobettie for the past 10 years. He was a member of the Lions Club and the Mobettie Methodist Church.

Survivors are his wife, Mattie of the home; two sons, Marion, Littlefield, and Mansel, Big Spring; one foster son, Kenneth Walker, Sunray; four sisters, Mrs. Letha Roberts, Pampa; Mrs. Opal Whitson, Amarillo; Mrs. Olas Whitson, Shamrock; and Mrs. Cleo Wilsey, Baker, Ore.; two brothers, Merida, Ontario, Ore.; and Earl, Mobettie; and four grandchildren.

JOE K. THOMPSON

CLARENDON — Graveside services for Joe K. Thompson, 61, were held today in Citizen's Cemetery here directed by Murphy Funeral Home, Clarendon.

Mr. Thompson died Saturday in Veterans' Administration Hospital in Amarillo. Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. W.K. Adams, Amarillo and Mrs. Henry A. DeLamar, Pampa, and three brothers, Paul, Clarendon; Dec. of Amarillo and Judge, Pampa.

J.A. STEEL JR.

Funeral services for James Alexander Steel Jr., Hatch, N.M., were held today in First Baptist Church of Hatch with burial in Garden of Memories Cemetery in Hatch.

He died Nov. 7 in Memorial General Hospital in Las Cruces, N.M., after a lengthy illness.

Survivors are his parents, Dr. and Mrs. J.A. Steel, Hatch; and Mr. and Mrs. G.C. Williams, 414 E. Kingsmill; three brothers, Gordon, Samuel and Richard Steel, Hatch; two sisters, Sallie Anne Williams, Pampa, and Mrs. Carol Jean Lynnes, Hatch, and his grandmother, Mrs. Ernest Brawley, Albuquerque, N.M.

JUNIOR SERVICE League's annual Charity Ball Saturday night in the Pampa Country Club was deemed a success with over 150 couples attending. Proceeds from the Ball will be used in the League's annual speech and hearing clinic set for April. Pictured here are two of the couples attending, left, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Fraser II and Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Carver. (Staff Photo)

TFB Prexy Observes Farm Outlook Good

SAN ANTONIO (UPI) — The president of the Texas Farm Bureau said Saturday on the eve of the group's 36th annual convention that the outlook for the state's farmers is good.

"I wouldn't exactly say the picture is rosy," said Sidney Dean of Victoria, Tex.

"But I'm not a fatalist. The future certainly looks a lot brighter now for farmers than it did when we started farming."

An estimated 700 delegates are expected Sunday at the opening of Texas' largest farmers organization's convention.

The Texas Farm Bureau is composed of 116,622 "farm family members" across the state, representing an increase this year of 1,933. The bureau is the third largest state chapter in the American Farm Bureau Federation, after Illinois and Indiana. The national group has a membership of 1,750,000.

Few Changes Due
 Dean said he does not expect much of a change in markets for the farmer during 1970, except perhaps in the meat markets, which he feels will be affected by the inflationary trend.

"The average housewife spends only about 17 cents or her household dollar for food, and I'd say that's pretty good."

Dean said the Texas farmer has his problems, such as fighting for better markets and for fewer government controls over crops.

"We would like to see a return to the law of supply and demand, with a gradual phasing out of government controls over crops... not overnight, but a gradual return to the free market system," he said.

Wall Street Chatter

NEW YORK (UPI)—Although the Dow Jones Industrial average has run into some resistance at 870, the rest of the market list remained generally firm during the past week, says TPO Inc. Evidence of rotation of interest from group to group has begun to appear, suggesting the market may be picking up strength for a continuation of the rally. The overbought condition which existed at the end of October has gradually been corrected, the firm observes, and conditions are improving for a more sustained recovery.

It's still too early to reach any conclusions about whether a lasting bull market is developing, Hoppin Bros. & Co. says but a few investing tendencies are becoming evident. "Supergrowth" leaders that resisted the earlier decline are now moving from stronger to weaker hands, and many small glamour-type stocks, previously overlooked, are now being exploited. Also, it says, offshore oils are under heavy tax-loss selling pressure, institutions are becoming interested in blue chips, and performance stocks are popular but few in number.

Ag Finance Seminar To Discuss Vital Subject Of 'Money'

"Money" is a subject which is always of vital interest to everyone, and this particular subject will be in the spotlight when the Panhandle Economic Program (PEP) Management Task Force presents an Agricultural Finance Seminar in Amarillo on Dec. 4, according to announcement by the Agriculture Extension Service.

The seminar will be held at the Holiday Inn-West and will get under way at 9 a.m., points out County Agricultural Agent Foster Whaley.

An outstanding slate of speakers will present a program which should be of interest to all who have ties with the agricultural industry, says Whaley. Financial institution representatives and farming and ranching leaders are encouraged to attend.

Leo Forrest, Hereford, chairman of the PEP Executive Committee, will welcome those attending the seminar.

One of the featured speakers who will kick off the one-day session will be Dr. Tyrus R. Timm, head of the Department of Agricultural Economics and Sociology at Texas A-M University. He will discuss "Financing American Agriculture in the Future."

"Availability of Money and What Regulates It" will be discussed by Dr. Arthur Smith, economist with the First National Bank of Dallas.

Jack Barton, executive assistant with the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank of Houston, will talk about "Availability of Money through the Federal Intermediate Credit Bank."

A discussion on "Money for the Operator—What the Lending Institution Looks For" by Lynn Futch, state director of the Farmers Home Administration will round out the morning portion of the seminar.

Speaking at the noon luncheon will be Henry Sears, president of the First National Bank of Hereford.

Major addresses during the afternoon session will be made by E. G. Schuhart, a farmer at Dalhart, and Dr. A. E. Wooten, professor in A-M Department of Agricultural Economics. Schuhart will discuss "Meeting the Operator's Needs" while Wooten will talk about the "Effect of the Money Market on Land Prices."

Prince Pledges Life To God, Country

LONDON (UPI) — Prince Charles, the future king of Britain, knelt in the rain-swept Tower of London on his 21st birthday Friday and pledged his adult life to God and country.

Like medieval knights and sovereigns of yore, the jet age prince of Wales went to the 900-year-old chapel of St. John to vow he would "give and not count the cost" and "fight and not heed the knocks."

Leadens skies dumped rain into the historic courtyard where his ancestors lost their heads as Charles knelt in the candlelit chapel and prayed:

"Teach me, good Lord, to serve Thee and your people as Thou deservest... to labor and serve Thee without asking for any reward save that of knowing that I am doing your will."

Following the 45-minute service of thanksgiving and holy communion, Charles and his family returned to Buckingham Palace where 400 guests joined them Friday night for a birthday celebration with classical music, fireworks, vintage champagne and dancing to pop music.

EXPERT AT DEMOLITION

SHEFFIELD, England (UPI) — Grandmother Aggie Turner has been ripping down buildings since she was 13, and likes nothing better than the sounds of crashing walls.

The 49-year-old Aggie, grandmother of eight, said that when she began her career as a demolition worker the men used to make fun of her. "But they don't now," she said. "They know I'm not just a pretty face."

FOUR PERSONS INJURED

MACAO (UPI)—A series of explosions at the Im-Yuen firecracker plant Sunday seriously injured four persons, police said. The plant, located about 200 yards from the Communist Chinese border, was heavily damaged.

The Potters are expecting a very important phone call.

In the years ahead, you'll be able to preset your telephone to transfer calls to the number where you're visiting.

Electronic switching—using a sophisticated computer system—will make this and many other new services possible.

For example, your phone will have a memory. By dialing just two digits of a frequently called number, you'll activate that memory, then the phone will dial the remaining digits automatically. Electronic switching is fact, not fiction.

It's part of our program to plan today for tomorrow's communications needs.

We may be the only phone company in town, but we try not to act like it.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: An ugly rumor has been circulating all over town about my 16-year-old daughter, and I want to know what can be done to combat it. Here are the facts: Late last night, the day after school was dismissed, the children and I went to Texas to spend our summer vacation. (My parents own a 60-acre ranch there.) I was in my sixth month of pregnancy at the time but very much pleased because I hardly knew it because I hardly showed. My eldest girl is 16, I have three younger children, 14, 12, and 11. Well, I had the baby ahead of schedule in Texas, and we returned home with the new baby about a week before school resumed.

Now it's all over town that my baby is my daughter's—mine! Abby, my daughter is a "nice" girl, and we can't imagine how this rotten lie ever started! She has heard it from her friends at school, and I have heard it from many of my friends and neighbors. How can a person kill such a rumor? I prove it false—short of putting an ad in the newspaper.

DEAR TALKED ABOUT: One can't and one should not try. The one who knows you and your daughter won't believe it. And those who would spread such a vicious rumor don't count. And the less said about it the better.

DEAR ABBY: I received two invitations this week, one to a wedding celebration and another to a birthday party. Both of these invitations said, "No Gifts, Please." This is the first time I ever saw that an invitation and am wondering what I should do about it. I would hate to come empty-handed if others come with a gift. I'll be looking for your answer.

NO CHEAPSKATE
DEAR NO: If the invitation requests "No Gifts"—bring no gift. (A suggestion: Send a contribution to charity in the name of your host or hostess.) Guests who come with a pretty package in hand when the invitation says "no gifts" should feel embarrassed, not the empty-handed ones.

DEAR ABBY: Your answer to "Hank's Wife" struck me as being somewhat stupid. (Hank hated to get up in the morning so he took the night shift.) You said Hank's reason for working nights was childish, and he should get on a more "civilized" shift.

I have worked the night shift for 18 years, and I assure you I am as "civilized" as anyone who works the day shift. I find better working conditions on the night shift and the hours suit me fine, so if the night shift is "uncivilized," let us close the hospitals at 4 p.m., and maybe our boys should quit fighting for us at 4 p.m., and let's not run our power plants after the hour of "civilization."

I think you're a smart aleck for not appreciating those night shift workers who provide you not only with the luxuries, but also the necessities of life. Yet, you criticized Hank when an ungrateful wife should have been criticized.

If you can admit you're wrong, why not print this and give a word of praise to those of us who prefer to work nights in this "uncivilized" world.

Evans, who will speak on "What Our Law Is Concerning Drug Use and Abuse" attended Frank Phillips college for two years, served in the U.S. Marine Corps and spent 18 months with the Borger Police Department. He attended the basic highway patrol school at the Department of Public Safety Academy in Austin.

Tuesday's meeting is the third in a series of studies on drugs abuse, designed to educate parents concerning abuse of drugs. Robert E. Lee and Horace Mann PTA members will serve coffee. A handbook, entitled, "Youth & Drugs" will be available to parents for 35 cents. The last two study programs are scheduled for 10 a.m. Nov. 25, and 7:30 p.m. Dec. 2.

WOMEN OFTEN HAVE BLADDER IRRITATION
Common. Kidney or bladder irritations affect twice as many women as men, often causing tenderness and nervousness from frequent, burning, itching urination. ## 14 Garden Clubs Attend Northern Zone Meeting

About 70 members of 14 Northern Zone garden clubs attended the zone meeting of District One recently at First United Methodist Church Parlor. Hosted by Pampa Garden Club members, the program was directed by Mrs. Melvin Stephens, Pampa, zone director, and Mrs. R. L. Grubb, Midland, district director.

Don Lane, Pampa Chamber of Commerce president, welcomed delegates and recognized the Pampa club for its contributions to Pampa's city beautification and clean-up campaign, its work on Red Deer Trail and planting chrysanthemums in Harvester St. Park.

After the business session, Mrs. James F. Malone, Pampa, reviewed the book "I've Only Got Two Hands and I'm Busy Wringing Them," by Jane Goodsell. Mrs. Thelma Bray and Mrs. V. N. Osborn presented the afternoon program on "Creating Interest in Modern and Abstract Design."

"We are experiencing one of those rare intervals in history when a change in art occurs to produce a new culture. A change in emphasis in floral art is occurring as it is in painting, sculpture and architecture. Ours is an age of experimentation, action and tension which are reflected in our art forms," Mrs. Bray said.

Baptists Attend Prayer Session

GROOM (Spl) — A group of people of the First Baptist Church met in the home of Mrs. Othelle Driskill recently for a cottage prayer meeting in preparation for the Fall revival. After the service several members of the night W.M.S. stayed for their regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. Bertha Knight, president, was in charge of a brief meeting and gave a report on the W.M.S. Workshop that she attended recently.

Mrs. H.C. Swank, program chairman, gave the devotional entitled "Luther Rice, Missionary."

Those present included Mrs. D.A. Watson, Mrs. Mattie McAdams and Mrs. Beadie Brown, guests, and members Mmes. Odell Cain, H.C. Swank, Thelma Pool, Bertha Knight, Loula Wall and the hostess, Mrs. Driskill.

Cronister Speaks To KKI Members On Graphology

The Gamma Conclave of the K. K. I. Sorority held a Fall meeting at the City Club Room recently as refreshments were served from a table decorated in the Autumn motif.

Special guest speaker for the evening was J. R. Cronister, elementary coordinator for Pampa schools. He explained graphology and demonstrated this technique on several examples of handwriting.

It was announced a joint meeting of the Gamma and Alpha Iota Conclaves will be held Nov. 22, at noon at Lovett Memorial Library. A covered-dish luncheon will be served.

Delta State President, Mrs. Myrtle Cable, will be guest of honor at this meeting.

Mrs. Horst Sponsors Baby Shower

Mrs. John Horst, 1152 Prairie Dr., sponsored a baby shower recently in her home for Mrs. Jackie Wolfe.

Table centerpiece was a stork with toy baby bottles filled with nuts and mints for favors. Diapers made of folded napkins and pinned with small gold pins held small cookies.

Guests were the honoree, Mrs. Wolfe, Carolyn Earls, Mmes. R.B. Doan, William Earls, Jimmy Doan, Marilyn Wolfe, Mary Paulson, Bessie Kosonen, Christine Meeks, Pat Doan, and Becky and Kathy Paulson.

JEANE DIXON

TUESDAY, NOV. 18
YOUR BIRTHDAY TUESDAY: Despite false starts, the coming year's experience will bring you competence in coping with problems now beyond your skill. You become able to pursue your own interests despite emotional crosscurrents. Most triumphs this year will be in new activities. Tuesday's natives tend to be genial and philosophical.

ARIES (March 21-Apr. 19): Settle claims, tax and other fiscal matters. People are sensitive to comment or misguided humor. You earn all that you get Tuesday.

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20): Your tenacity saves the day and your feelings as well. Later it will be something to ponder, and perhaps laugh at the details which fail to come off.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Take nothing personally unless it's something pleasing to hear from somebody you like. The less you expect, the less you invite disappointment.

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Projects progress erratically. Hidden flaws surface for correction before causing difficulties. Make notes for later reference. Patience is still very important.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Put aside your pride and just listen — the things you learn can be utilized very quickly.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Group efforts thrive. Do your share without waiting for pressure. Relatives and their concerns cause much discussion. Hold your own counsel.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Travel, if convenient; expect no great adventure or precise scheduling. Keep things simple. Big beginnings are yet to be organized.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Your serenity should be deep enough to cope with comments and crosscurrents. Much of Tuesday's stimulus is mere noise. Pause occasionally to let intuition guide you.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): This is a day of activity for you, although much is limited or temporary goals. Home life is full, emotional; those you care about are sensitive to you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): — Some things, simply can't be tidied up unless you do so in person. Tuesday is most useful for just such details; so start early, settle what you can.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): — Tact with an associate is more valuable to you than material profit today and aside from some such passing tension, routines go smoothly. Earnings hold up well.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20): — Long range plans are important, but do not revise them today. Verify new information from far places, distant correspondents. Speak gently and simply amongst those you love.

Recruiter Speaks To B&PW Members

Sgt. Alvin G. Lawrence, with the United States Army Recruiting Service, was guest speaker for the Pampa Business and Professional Women's Club at its recent business meeting in the City Club Room. Sgt. Lawrence presented a film titled "Our Heritage."

Mrs. H. F. McDonald presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Earl Eaton, by repeating the Pledge of Allegiance.

Club members will assist the Chamber of Commerce in soliciting funds for this year's Christmas program. In addition to the decorations, other Christmas activities to be financed are: cost of maintenance and night watchman for the Nativity Scenes in Central Park; Santa Day Parade expenses; candy for the children at the Santa Day Parade; and installation, wiring, and maintenance cost of the street decorations. Approximately $4,500 is needed to meet these expenses.

Area WMU Meet

GROOM (Spl) — The Baptist WMU met in the Groom church recently as Mrs. Jeff Gray gave the program on "God's Plan for Ages."

Others present were Mmes. Melvin Asberry, Minard Henderson, Viola Harrell, Alvin Hiltbrunner, Bertha Knight and Eulice Monroe.

Foreign News Commentary

Foreign News Commentary
Some diplomats in London believe U.S.-Soviet strategic arms limitation talks (SALT) could drag on for up to five years. Certainly they expect no early agreement. Best chance, they think, is an agreement to limit antiballistic missiles. The Helsinki round is expected merely to set the ground rules, agenda and the place where the main talks will be held.

Projecting the Image
Philippine President Ferdinand E. Marcos, who was reelected last week, is preparing to make a series of state visits to Europe and Asia despite his public announcements that he will be too busy with homework to go on trips abroad. By early next year, Marcos is expected to visit Germany and the Netherlands and perhaps even Spain and France in Europe. He also is expected to tour Cambodia, South Korea, Nationalist China and India. He is convinced there is a need to project the Philippine image abroad, outside of its former colonial ruler, the United States.

Cost Adjustment
The agreement by which West Germany offsets local costs of the American armed forces in Germany will be "adjusted" in the wake of the increase in value of the German mark. The mark's revaluation increased American military costs in Germany. The hope is the adjustment can take place without attracting too much attention from the "bring the boys home" lobby in the American Congress.

TV Doctor Likes Diamonds More Than Stage Or Screen

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — David Hartman, who plays Dr. Paul Hunter in the new series "The Bold Ones," would rather be a professional baseball player than an actor or a doctor.
At 6-feet, 5-inches and 200 pounds, Hartman has the physical equipment for a major leaguer. He simply does not have the talent.
He is a bachelor, gregarious and laughs easily.
At the beginning of each baseball season he works out with the Los Angeles Dodgers to stay in shape and dream Walter Mitty dreams of smacking a basesloaded home run.
"It's my only chance to play a little baseball," Hartman says. "You just can not call up a bunch of friends and ask them to come over for a baseball game. There aren't that many guys around my age who enjoy playing baseball."

David is 32 years old.
He lives in a one-bedroom house in the Hollywood hills with a facade of glass that gives him a 250-degree view of the city. He spent months locating the house and was elated to discover he didn't have to pay New York City rental. It costs him only $200 per month.
Hartman is the first to admit his quarters are not "San Simeon."
He has furnished the place

'Hippie Look' Doesn't Always Mean Youth Are Ill-Mannered

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The overwhelming majority of the young people taking part in the "march against death" are dressed and groomed in the style that is popularly known as "the hippie look."
Actually, the style has never been confined to authentic hippies. It has permeated the whole youth subculture of America and is affected by many middle-class high school and college students who are very far from having dropped out of society.
The ground rules permit considerable latitude for individual tastes, but the typical garb includes blue jeans (preferably much-laundered and knee-sprung); a hip-length coat or jacket, disreputable in appearance but often of expensive quality; boots or loafers; and ahead covering which may be a broad-brimmed hat or a tight-fitting knit cap.
Long hair is de rigueur for boys and girls. Boys flourish beards, moustaches, mutton-chop whiskers, or goatees. Both sexes favor "granny glasses"—the small, round, metal-rimmed spectacles that grandmother used to wear.

The over-all impression derived from watching thousands of persons so attired, passing one by one, is that this "hippie look" has now become a sort of uniform whose purpose is to provide the wearer with protective coloration and instant identification.
The idea, apparently, is not to stand out but to blend with the young crowd, and the result is as drably monotonous, in its way, as button-down shirts and gray flannel suits.
Perhaps the most difficult fact for a middle-aged person to grasp is that this "hippie look" often is associated with excellent manners. A person over 40 instinctively expects rude conduct and wild talk from a youth who has gone to great pains to look like a social outcast. The expectation is seldom realized.
A reporter who mingles with them is continually impressed with how polite they are to strangers, how kind and generous they are to each other, how ready they are to accept hardship cheerfully, provided they see a meaningful reason for it.
It is neither fair nor factual to write them off as a bunch of long-haired kooks.

Russians Invent New Caviar

MOSCOW (UPI) — Russian scientists Saturday reported the invention of artificial caviar.
A dispatch in the newspaper Socialist Industry said the ersatz caviar "tastes, smells and looks natural enough to baffle tasters" familiar with the genuine product.
It said the substitute is now being produced experimentally but that a pilot factory will begin turning out cans of the stuff on a regular basis "in the near future."
The Soviet Union was once the world's major source of high quality caviar, but pollution and hydroelectric dams on the major rivers destroyed many sturgeon spawning grounds where it was gathered.
Much present-day "Russian" caviar is imported from Iran.

Textbook Selectors Face More Critics

AUSTIN (UPI) — State textbook selectors, fresh from a controversy over selection of biology textbooks for high schools in Texas, face another seige of public opinion next year when advanced high school biology textbooks come up for adoption.
The controversy surrounds the presentation of evolution in the books.
Already petitions are being presented asking state officials to let college professors and professional organizations join the fray.
Dr. Irwin Spear, University of Texas botany professor, appeared before the State Board of Education last week to protest procedures that barred him from participating in this year's fight over adoption of biology texts for Texas public schools.

Spear said board regulations give anti-evolutionists and "persons with no particular training or expertise in a field" undue influence on the book selections.

Rosburg Wins PGA Club Title

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (UPI)—Bob Rosburg's win in the $50,000 PGA Club Professional championship didn't encourage him enough to go back on the regular golfing tour.

"I'm getting too old for the tour," said the 43-year-old Rosburg. "I quit once."

However, Rosburg said after collecting his $8,000 first prize Sunday that he would enter 20 to 25 tournaments a year after leaving his teaching job at the Westwood Country Club in St. Louis, a position he already has resigned.

Rosburg's final round of even-par 72 gave him a 275 total, one stroke ahead of Jimmy Wright for the 72-hole event. It was the only time Rosburg failed to break par, having earlier rounds of 71-69-66.

Most scores were higher during the final round due to an all-night rain and afternoon winds.

Wright, 29, Long Island, N.Y., lost chances for a tie or a victory when he missed a four-foot birdie putt on the 18th hole and an 18-inch par effort on the closing hole. He won $4,500.

Bill Ogden, Glenview, Ill., won $3,300 for third place at 278, while veteran Tommy Bolt of Sarasota, Fla., and John Molenda, Birmingham, Mich., each took home $2,450 for their 279 totals.

Jimmy Powell of Yorba Linda, Calif., was two more strokes back at 281, good for $1,800.

If Chico Ramirez can hold on for one more week he will become the first Pampa Daily News staffer to win the weekly football selections three times.

Ramirez, who tied with Bill Heckathorn and Doris Wilson for first place in last week's picks, each with 18-7 records, holds a four game edge over Jim Casey and Bill Heckathorn. Casey, who was in first place three weeks ago, fell to a 15-10 record last week. Ron Cross, Al Bassett and Ricky Clark posted, 16-9 marks and Tex DeWeese had a 17-8 record.

This week the contest among News employes ends and Ramirez has a 168-53 season record while Casey and Heckathorn are at 164-57 and Cross is seven games off the pace at 157-64.

Bucks, Groom Test Tough Foes Friday

White Deer, winner of District 1-A by the narrowest of margins, will try to advance to regional class A action next Friday night when the Bucks host District 2-A's best team, unbeaten Clarendon.

The 7:30 p.m. bi-district clash between the two teams will be the second time the pair have met this season. Clarendon handed the Bucks a 19-0 defeat in the second game of the season for both teams.

After losing the following week to Panhandle, White Deer came on strong and won its next seven games to finish out regular season play with a 8-2 record.

But the Bucks biggest game of the season was against Sunray, who finished the season at 9-1, when White Deer bested the Bobcats, 7-6. In fact in its first three conference outings White Deer game up only 13 points while scoring 42.

It will be a matter of White Deer's defense against the explosive offense of Clarendon, which has scored a total of 432 points this season, and averaged 43.2 per contest.

While White Deer is trying to figure out a way to stop the Bronchos, Groom will be playing host to Booker in a game that will decide the champion in District 3-B.

When the two collide Friday night they will both start out with 2-0 conference records. But that is where the similarities end. The Tigers are 9-0 for the season while Booker has struggled to a 5-4 season record.

In another District 3-B battle Friday night Lefors will end its nine game season by playing at Follett. If the Pirates can pull this one out they can finish third in the conference and winup with a respectable 3-6 season.

AMERICAN FOOTBALL LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Word 'Chiefs' Says It All In AFL

By United Press International
The name "Chiefs" says it all.

The Kansas City Chiefs proved more than worthy of their nickname Sunday by thrashing the world champion New York Jets, 34-16, to establish themselves as the team to beat for the American Football League championship.

Flanker Otis Taylor, returning to the lineup for the first time in four weeks, and quarterback Len Dawson, playing under a strain due to the death of his father Saturday, led the route by combining for three touchdowns.

Dawson hit Taylor with an 18-yard scoring pass with the game only 22 seconds old and came back to the speedy flanker for later scores of 7 and 10 yards as the Chiefs boosted their record to 9-1 and snapped the Jets' winning streak of six games.

The Chiefs halted five Jet drives inside the 20-yard line and intercepted three of Joe Namath's passes.

Namath completed 24 of 40 passes for 327 yards and two touchdowns but was well overshadowed by Dawson, who hit on 23 of 38 for 285 yards with only one interception.

The victory kept the Chiefs a half game ahead of the Oakland Raiders in the Western Division race while the Jets remained two games ahead of Houston in the Eastern Division despite the loss.

Oakland edged San Diego, 21-16, Houston tied Denver, 20-20, Boston stunned Cincinnati, 25-14 and Buffalo beat Miami, 28-3, in other AFL games.

Daryle Lamonica connected with Warren Wells on an 80-yard touchdown play with 5:41 remaining to lift the Raiders to victory. The touchdown pass, Lamonica's second of the game, came after three field goals by Dennis Pardee in the second half had given San Diego a 16-14 lead.

Oilers Salvage Tie
A 19-yard field goal by Roy Gerela with only three seconds left capped a 17-point last quarter rally and enabled the Oilers to salvage a tie with the Broncos. The Oilers, who trailed, 20-3, entering the final quarter, got a touchdown on a 36-yard run with a fumble recovery by Tom Domes and another on an 86-yard pass from Pete Beathard to Jerry Levas before Gerela's gamely-tying kick.

Mike Taliaferro passed for two touchdowns and Gino Cappelletti booted three field goals as the Patriots upset the Bengals for only their second victory in 10 games. The Patriots' defense also contributed heavily to the victory by intercepting three of rookie Greg Gook's passes.

O.J. Simpson, playing his best game as a professional, caught two touchdowns passes from Jack Kemp and sparked the Bills to their third victory against seven losses. Simpson set up his first touchdown by returning the opening kickoff 73 yards.

Weekend Sports Summary

By United Press International
Saturday
NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Knicks set a National Basketball Association record for the fastest start when they defeated the Boston Celtics, 113-98, for their 17th win in 18 games.

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (UPI)—Forum won the $30,825 Garden State Stakes for 2-year-olds by four lengths and paid $39.60.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Quarterback Dennis Shaw of San Diego State set an NCAA record by throwing nine touchdown passes in a 70-21 rout of New Mexico State.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Elly Southworth, former big league player and manager, died of emphysema at the age of 76. Southworth managed the St. Louis Cardinals to National League championships in 1942-43.

Sunday
SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (UPI)—Bob Rosburg won the PGA Club Pro golf championship with a 275, one stroke better than Jimmy Wright.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Al Unser won the 200-mile Bobby Ball auto race and won $18,000. Cars driven by Bobby Unser and Mario Andretti collided, but neither was injured in the crash.

Lakers Win Without Wilt

By United Press International
The Los Angeles Lakers are showing the first sign they can hold their heads up with Wilt Chamberlain out of the lineup because of injury.

Jerry West pumped in a season high of 45 and Elgin Baylor tossed in 32 for his best of the year to lead the Lakers to a 138-125 victory Sunday night over the Philadelphia 76ers.

It raised Los Angeles into a tie with Chicago for second place in the NBA's West Division, 3½ games behind Atlanta.

The Phoenix Suns helped in the matter by turning in their first victory over Atlanta since their start in the league last year. Connie Hawkins' 26 points paced the Suns to a 139-118 victory over the Hawks at neutral Albuquerque. It put Phoenix in fourth place in the West, four games back of Atlanta and a game ahead of San Francisco.

With Lew Alcindor and Flynn Robinson combining for 12 points in overtime, the Milwaukee Bucks trimmed San Francisco's Warriors, 129-123, and moved to within one-half game of runnerup Baltimore in the East Division. New York, off to the fastest start of any team in league history with a 17-1 mark, has a bulging six-game lead over Baltimore.

Los Angeles confronted Philadelphia with a fast-break offense, and torrid outside shooting by West and Baylor in handing the 76ers their eighth loss in the past 10 games. Billy Cunningham led Philadelphia with 35 points. Archie Clark added 25.

Alcindor was Milwaukee's second-highest scorer with 28 points.

Unser Cools It

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Al Unser possibly could have led every lap in capturing the 200-mile Bobby Ball championship race at Phoenix International Raceway.

Instead, he chose to play it safe and led for 194 laps, allowing second-place finisher Lloyd Ruby, Wichita Falls, Tex., to go to the front for the other six laps.

Pittsford Elected

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Theodore J. "Ted" Zornow, Pittsford, N.Y., was elected president of the United States Trotting Association Sunday to succeed Walter J. Michael, Bucyrus, Ohio.

Zornow, 62, a prominent Standardbred owner in western New York, had been vice chairman of the USTA board.

TOURS JAPAN

TOKYO (UPI)—Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins, the American League's Most Valuable Player for 1969, arrived here Sunday on a sight-seeing tour of Japan.

One of Killebrew's appointments this week is expected to be with Sadaharu Oh of the Yomiuri Giants, the leading home run hitter in the Japanese Central League since 1962. Killebrew led the AL with 49 homers this past season.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE ROUNDUP

Dallas Nears NFL Playoff Spot

Vince Lombardi and the Green Bay Packers used to win together but now they lose separately.

Sunday both the Packers and Redskins died—and the National Football League regular season races ended, too.

The Packers played a stirring defensive game but suffered a 9-7 loss to the Minnesota Vikings while the Redskins were outscored by Dallas, 41-28, as Cowboy coach Tom Landry scored his first victory over a Lombardi-coached team.

It now seems certain it'll be Los Angeles at Minnesota on Dec. 27th and Cleveland at Dallas on Dec. 28th in the NFL playoff games.

LA Remains Unbeaten
In the other games Sunday, Los Angeles remained the only unbeaten team in pro football by beating Philadelphia, 23-17. Cleveland whipped Pittsburgh, 24-3, Detroit blanked St. Louis, 20-0, San Francisco beat Baltimore for the second time.

SPORTS
The Pampa Daily News

20-17, Atlanta routed Chicago, 48-31, and New Orleans upset New York, 25-24.

Fred Cox kicked three field goals as Minnesota beat the Packers. Mike Mercer had a 42-yard attempt blocked and missed a 22-yard attempt late in the third period. Doug Hart intercepted a Joe Kapp pass and dashed 85 yards for the only touchdown of the game in the second period.

Rookie Calvin Hill scored two touchdowns and rushed for 150 yards as the Cowboys ripped the Redskins before a crowd that included President Nixon. Sonny Jurgensen tossed four touchdown passes—three to Jerry Smith—in the losing cause.

Dallas Nears NFL Playoff Spot

Second-year quarterback Grey Landry guided Detroit to its fourth win in the five games he's started.

John Brodie's 18-yard TD pass to Jimmy Thomas with 1:45 left gave San Francisco the victory over Baltimore after John Unitas' 11-yard pass to Ray Perkins with 3:33 left put the Colts ahead, 17-13.

Unitas was benched throughout the second half except for the series when he threw the TD pass after Earl Morrall was injured.

Rookie Tom Dempsey, who kicks with a special shoe on his deformed right foot, booted four field goals—the final a 19-yarder with five seconds left—as New Orleans edged New York.

Randy Johnson threw four touchdown passes and Atlanta scored more points in a game than ever before in its four-year history while beating Chicago.

Weekend Sports Summary

By United Press International
Saturday
NEW YORK (UPI)—The New York Knicks set a National Basketball Association record for the fastest start when they defeated the Boston Celtics, 113-98, for their 17th win in 18 games.

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (UPI)—Forum won the $30,825 Garden State Stakes for 2-year-olds by four lengths and paid $39.60.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UPI)—Quarterback Dennis Shaw of San Diego State set an NCAA record by throwing nine touchdown passes in a 70-21 rout of New Mexico State.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Elly Southworth, former big league player and manager, died of emphysema at the age of 76. Southworth managed the St. Louis Cardinals to National League championships in 1942-43.

Sunday
SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (UPI)—Bob Rosburg won the PGA Club Pro golf championship with a 275, one stroke better than Jimmy Wright.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Al Unser won the 200-mile Bobby Ball auto race and won $18,000. Cars driven by Bobby Unser and Mario Andretti collided, but neither was injured in the crash.

Lakers Win Without Wilt

By United Press International
The Los Angeles Lakers are showing the first sign they can hold their heads up with Wilt Chamberlain out of the lineup because of injury.

Jerry West pumped in a season high of 45 and Elgin Baylor tossed in 32 for his best of the year to lead the Lakers to a 138-125 victory Sunday night over the Philadelphia 76ers.

It raised Los Angeles into a tie with Chicago for second place in the NBA's West Division, 3½ games behind Atlanta.

The Phoenix Suns helped in the matter by turning in their first victory over Atlanta since their start in the league last year. Connie Hawkins' 26 points paced the Suns to a 139-118 victory over the Hawks at neutral Albuquerque. It put Phoenix in fourth place in the West, four games back of Atlanta and a game ahead of San Francisco.

With Lew Alcindor and Flynn Robinson combining for 12 points in overtime, the Milwaukee Bucks trimmed San Francisco's Warriors, 129-123, and moved to within one-half game of runnerup Baltimore in the East Division. New York, off to the fastest start of any team in league history with a 17-1 mark, has a bulging six-game lead over Baltimore.

Los Angeles confronted Philadelphia with a fast-break offense, and torrid outside shooting by West and Baylor in handing the 76ers their eighth loss in the past 10 games. Billy Cunningham led Philadelphia with 35 points. Archie Clark added 25.

Alcindor was Milwaukee's second-highest scorer with 28 points.

Unser Cools It

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Al Unser possibly could have led every lap in capturing the 200-mile Bobby Ball championship race at Phoenix International Raceway.

Instead, he chose to play it safe and led for 194 laps, allowing second-place finisher Lloyd Ruby, Wichita Falls, Tex., to go to the front for the other six laps.

Pittsford Elected

COLUMBUS, Ohio (UPI)—Theodore J. "Ted" Zornow, Pittsford, N.Y., was elected president of the United States Trotting Association Sunday to succeed Walter J. Michael, Bucyrus, Ohio.

Zornow, 62, a prominent Standardbred owner in western New York, had been vice chairman of the USTA board.

TOURS JAPAN

TOKYO (UPI)—Harmon Killebrew of the Minnesota Twins, the American League's Most Valuable Player for 1969, arrived here Sunday on a sight-seeing tour of Japan.

One of Killebrew's appointments this week is expected to be with Sadaharu Oh of the Yomiuri Giants, the leading home run hitter in the

Headaches Of Hiring Women

More and more frequently employers are finding themselves on the horns of a dilemma, according to Don Oakley of Newspaper Enterprise Ass'n.

At the present time, 43 states plus Puerto Rico and the District of Columbia have laws on their books regulating female employment — the number of hours women may work, weights they may lift, their mealtime hours, their employment in establishments selling alcoholic beverages, etc.

But the 1966 Civil Rights Law forbids discrimination on the basis of sex — period. If an employer, to comply with state laws, refuses to hire a woman for a job requiring certain weight-lifting duties, he can be accused of breaking the federal law. But if he obeys the federal law and hires the woman, he risks prosecution for violation of the state law.

So what's an employer to do? The trend seems to be to yield to federal laws, reports Commerce Clearing House.

The Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, which hears alleged violations of the federal civil rights law, says it will not consider any state law regulating women's employment as a defense to what would otherwise be an unfair employment practice. The commission holds that the state laws are working against their original purpose, which was to protect the well-being of the "weaker sex."

The states are of mixed opinion. For instance, the Kentucky attorney general feels that until the U.S. Supreme Court settles the issue once and for all, Kentucky statutes limiting hours and periods of work of women for purposes of health and safety serve a legitimate purpose and are to be enforced.

Across the border in Ohio, however, that state's industrial relations director has given notice that his office will no longer prosecute violations of Ohio laws governing female employment when those laws run afoul of EEOC guidelines and/or federal law.

And across another border, Indiana is one of seven states with no laws at all regulating female employment.

That's the united states of America for you.

Le's Not Puff It Up

It isn't surprising that an Italian film company plans to make a movie about Lance Cpl. Raffaele Minichiello. His 17-hour, 6,000-mile hijacking of a TWA jetliner from Los Angeles to Rome, via Denver, New York, Bangor and Dublin, was wilder than any Italian Western yet.

Nor is it surprising that his Minichiello should be receiving the inevitable offers of marriage from impressionable girls. He may be crazy, mixed-up kid, but he's also rather cute-looking.

Nor is it surprising that his home town in the mountains near Naples is solidly behind him. How often does anyone from Melito Irpino become a world-famous celebrity?

What will be surprising, however, is if some people, both here and in Europe, don't try to make more out of the story than it really is—a very disturbed young man who got in trouble with the U.S. Marines and decided to bug out in a spectacular way, interfering with and endangering the lives of more than 40 innocent people while doing it.

It has already been suggested that since Minichiello is a Vietnam veteran, his experiences in that war might have something to do with his behavior. We can see the anti-U.S. picket signs now.

Minichiello has been charged in Italy with eight crimes, ranging from two counts of kidnapping to illegal importation of a military weapon. Conviction on the former charges could get him 30 years. For good measure a federal grand jury in New York has handed up an indictment charging him with air piracy, kidnaping and assault.

The boy obviously has enough problems of his own to worry about. It is to be hoped he is not made to carry the weight of a lot of international ideological baggage as well.

The Road Downhill

It's downhill from here to Christmas.

For the slaughter season, that is.

More people will be killed on the highways from now until the end of the year than at any other similar period of time during the year.

Get the message? How durable are you? How much can your body withstand? A 70-mile-an-hour jolt? Follow we know — rather, used to know — is no longer with us. He was making 35 miles an hour when he got hit — head-on.

The other fellow was making 35 mph, too. Totals 70. The other fellow lived. Follow we used to know didn't.

Daylight saving time has been struck dumb for another half a year. That means that the sun goes down an hour earlier and that not only the sun plots against the driver but man's inventions do the same.

Most accidents happen at night. Perhaps half of the total number of accidents involve alcoholic beverages. Man still hasn't learned to drink and drive, mainly because it takes a sober man (woman) to drive successfully, and alcohol tends not to make one sober.

Put some juice in a goose, a heavy foot on the accelerator, and you've got a prize of an accident in the making.

The road is downhill. All the way.

Royal Budget In Bind

Can it be that there is something good to be said about inflation after all?

It may pinch, but at least the pinch is democratic — or such seems to be the moral in the stories out of London on the queen's budget bind.

Parliament, of course, is certain to come to the rescue with a cost-of-royal-living raise before Her Britannic Majesty is actually up against the wall. But if drastic economies ever do become necessary, such as the suggested move to smaller quarters, unloading Buckingham Palace might turn out to be no problem at all. The way things have been going, there's a good chance a chap named Richard Burton would be delighted to snap it up for another Elizabeth.

IT WAS FOR REAL Mrs. Hall (the wife of a businessman as he sat down to dinner)—You look worn out, dear.

Mr. Hall — I am. I've had a trying day. That office boy of mine tried that old gag about wanting a day off to go to his grandmother's funeral. I thought I'd teach him a lesson, so I said I'd go with him.

PATRICIA YOUNG:

Are The Fear Merchants Taking Over?

VANCOUVER, B.C. — If Franklin D. Roosevelt never said anything else, I like that statement made in his first Inaugural speech on March 4th 1933, when he rallied the American people together to face the crisis of the Depression with the admonition: "There is nothing to fear but fear itself."

Today, some 36 years later, we have permitted the fear merchants to take over our lives, eroding our self-confidence, self-reliance, patriotism, individuality, responsibility and accountability. We have permitted an army of traitors to use our genuine abhorrence of The Bomb to create a climate of appeasement and surrender. We are made to fear for our jobs, our security, our ability to provide for our health and old age, our popularity and ability to think for ourselves. While we struggle to stand tall as individuals in a free society, an army of psychiatrists, social workers and self-appointed gooders would have us believe the individualist oddball who is somewhat paranoid about being nursed from the cradle to the grave.

Most of today's advertisers peddle their wares by way of implanting the seeds of fear—that we will be rejected and unloved if we don't rush out to buy Z toothpaste, deodorant, mouth wash, shampoo or floor polish. You name it, everything from toilet tissue to baby powder has become not so much a status symbol, but another brick in the wall of "social security" with which we must surround ourselves.

Newspaper, radio and TV commentators, fearful of being left behind by the progressives, of being a "square" stuck with a conscience, principles and a concept of morality, hide their truth in a tasteless mush of words which see no black and white issues — only a "safe" grey. Men are afraid of having convictions, preferring to hide in the weeds of consensus or "public opinion".

Fear limits our vision and aspiration as Big Government thrusts its paternalism upon us by way of rules and regulations supposedly designed to "protect" us. Millions of sincere citizens have been "neutralized" in the cold war by way of a cleverly contrived "smear" technique of labeling those who oppose communism, Fascism or Nazism as John Birchers, McCarthyites or extremists.

Yes, President Roosevelt hit the nail on the head when he pointed out the dangers inherent in fear. Unless the Free West breaks loose from these cunningly imposed shackles, we could wind up as a flock of mindless sheep ready to be stamped into the compound of a dictatorial collectivism.

With Some Reservation

By INJUN WOODY

I see where another scientist has come up with something — a way to get rid of rats. He gave a rat 50 times the maximum level considered safe for humans and it gave the rat cancer.

He then made a few snappy calculations and decided that if a human drank 300 bottles of dietetic soft drink a day, he just might get cancer too. Hot ziggy-dawgs! Hot-line to Sec'y Finch!

We have no evidence at this point that Cyclamates have caused cancer in humans," says Finch. But he stopped production anyway.

Riding the crest of the wave, the scientist then tackled glutamate. Mebbe this might cause cancer too! Hereafter, we can look for anything that ends in "mate" to be subject to suspicion.

If a classmate should consume a bromate of chromate, such a mistake could approximate a stalemate.

Of course, to approximate the penultimate and inanimate playmate, the Cyclamate could decimate the intimate message by a conformate amalgamate which would sublimate the ultimate and cremate. Postumate

Parents Wage An Almost Futile Fight On Marijuana

By RAY CROMLEY

Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — A group of parents in suburban Maryland on the outskirts of the nation's capital organizes to keep marijuana from their children at school and at neighborhood hangouts.

These men and women are concerned—and desperate. Similar groups are being organized in other communities. The parents pressure school authorities, local police and other officials to step up their efforts in cracking down on the sellers. They get together to educate themselves and their children on marijuana and other drugs.

These parents are not optimistic that much can be done. But neither are experts in the field. Though the official announcements of the strengthened federal Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs sound confident, the data available to this reporter does not back up a rosy outlook.

From everything that can be learned, organized crime has not taken up the pushing of marijuana. So far as arrests to date indicate, transportation and sales are largely in the hands of small independent groups. These men don't follow consistent patterns. Many are sophisticated. This means they are extremely difficult to catch. It means, too, that when you catch one group, you've knocked out only a small ring, a drop in the bucket.

The federal men have kept records which show that 20 per cent of the salesmen they've caught are college men, 30 per cent skilled labor and 10 to 15 per cent unskilled labor. Something around 5 per cent may be men in the professions. It has become a way for some college men to "work their way through school."

This type (and variety) of organization and the numbers of operators involved make the task of destroying the marijuana distribution and sales organizations in the United States next to impossible.

The problem of education is equally difficult. It is true that LSD is on the decline, reportedly because of effective publicity on what the drug seems to do to men's minds. But because of arguments over the effects of marijuana, authorities think it will be difficult to educate away the use of marijuana.

Administration men believe the only way marijuana can be stopped now is by halting production at the source. Thus the well-publicized clampdown on the Mexican border. This has caused shortages and upped the price here considerably. But no one thinks it has really dented the use of marijuana in this country.

The real hope here is that through negotiation with Mexico, Lebanon and other countries in the Middle East, and with the South Vietnamese government that these countries will institute such tight controls that their production of marijuana can be reduced to a trickle.

There is evidence this will not be easy. Pound for pound, the poor Mexican farmer can make six to 12 times as much on marijuana as on corn. And he can grow five crops of marijuana a year.

In the poverty areas of Mexico and other lands where marijuana is grown, local officials are friends or relatives of the farmers and are themselves so poorly paid that bribery is accepted as a matter of course.

It has been reported that the entire Mexican judicial police force has, but 267 federal agents, only 43 of whom are exclusively assigned to narcotics control, of which marijuana is only a part.

To make matters worse, marijuana grows wild in a number of midwestern states in this country. Teams of men make a living by periodically harvesting this crop. There isn't enough of this local variety to go around and this wild marijuana isn't nearly as potent, and is therefore less popular, than the Mexican variety. But it apparently will do when the imported drug isn't available.

Bellmon's Bombshell

(Politics and Taxation)

First-term U.S. Senator Henry Bellmon of Oklahoma exploded a bomb in the Senate Finance committee hearings on the House-passed "tax reform" bill with the following (quoted verbatim from the printed copy of the committee hearings on October 2):

"In a recent conversation with an official at the Internal Revenue Service, I was amazed when he told me that, 'IF THE TAXPAYERS OF THIS COUNTRY EVER DISCOVER THAT THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE OPERATES ON 90 PERCENT BLUFF, THE ENTIRE SYSTEM WILL COLLAPSE.'"

Earlier in his testimony, Sen. Bellmon remarked, "I believe that the main purpose of our tax system should be to raise revenue. During the period since the 1930's, the idea of using our revenue-raising laws to accomplish certain social aims has complicated and caused great confusion in the administration of these laws."

The Doctor Says

By DR. W. G. BRANSTADT

There's No Single Cause For Sudden Crib Deaths

Q—What is the cause of sudden crib deaths?

A—There is no single cause. In many cases a thorough autopsy fails to reveal any cause but the commonest causes are nasal obstruction or spasm of the larynx due to a mild or perhaps clinically unrecognized respiratory infection.

Crib deaths rarely, if ever, occur in infants over six months of age. But a younger baby, when his nose is obstructed will not breathe through his mouth nor cry out. Since death then occurs within two to five minutes, it is next to impossible to prevent it and no parent whose baby died in this way should reproach himself.

Older theories that an enlarged thymus, sleeping on the stomach or a whiplash injury was the underlying cause have all been thoroughly investigated and disproved. Any parent whose child has died unexpectedly in his crib should write to the National Foundation for Sudden Infant Death, Inc., 1501 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10036, for more information on the subject.

Q—My daughter, 14, has one breast that is much larger than the other. Is there any treatment for this?

A—Some difference in the size of the two breasts is normal. When it is so pronounced as to be noticeable it is best to adopt a philosophic attitude about it and use a unilaterally padded bra. No other treatment can be recommended.

Q—About six weeks ago my son, 13, complained of pain in his right breast. It has started swelling like a girl's. What causes this and what can be done about it?

A—Soreness of the breasts is common in boys at puberty and is the result of the activity of the pituitary hormone. In most boys the soreness lasts only a few weeks and the swelling recedes spontaneously within a few months. If it doesn't his doctor should determine the cause.

Q—My son, 13, has a lump the size of a dime in his right nipple. Should it be removed?

A—The decision whether or not to remove the lump would depend on the results of a thorough examination which should not be delayed.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Demands No Penalties On Jobs for Elderly

WASHINGTON — A vigorous fight is assured to do away with the long-existing limitation on earnings by Social Security beneficiaries.

Rep. Benjamin Blackburn, R-Ga., member of the Banking and Currency Committee, has introduced an amendment for raising the issue when the bill to increase Social Security payments reaches the full House later this month.

That legislation is now pending in the Ways and Means Committee.

President Nixon has recommended that the current $1,600 restriction on outside income be raised to $1,860. Blackburn wants to wipe it out entirely on three grounds:

(1) When a Social Security beneficiary reaches 65, he has in effect paid up his insurance policy. (2) Continuation of a ceiling on outside income means retention of a long obsolete concept. (3) Working is good for old people and the economy at large.

"I feel very strongly," says Blackburn, "that if a man or woman during their working years pay into Social Security, they should have the right to receive their benefits without restrictions. When they reach 65, they have in effect paid up their insurance policy, and should be allowed to receive the benefits without limitations."

"The President has proposed that the ceiling be raised to $1,860 from $1,600. That's a step in the right direction, but it does not go far enough. The ceiling should be wiped out entirely as a matter of common justice, and sound economics."

The Georgia Republican pointed out that the original reason for imposing a limitation has long since disappeared.

"In the dark days of the great depression when jobs were scarce," said Blackburn, "it was felt that the elderly on Social Security should not take jobs away from those seeking them. So a ceiling was written into the law on the amount of income that could be earned by Social Security beneficiaries. But all you have to do now is to look at the daily help wanted ads to see that the situation is entirely different."

Similarly, limiting earnings now has no relation to a recipient's economic status.

"No limit, for instance," pointed out Blackburn, "is placed upon the amount of income a retired person may receive from tax-exempt bonds. He can get thousands of dollars from this source without it in any way affecting his social security payments."

The well-to-do, and the wealthy, get full Social Security benefits even though their investment income may run into large figures. Clearly, equity calls for the ending of an ancient hardship wrought upon the elderly who have both the health and desire to hold gainful employment. Work is good for them, and for the economy at large.

"There is neither personal nor economic justification for maintaining a practice that is as unfair as it is obsolete."

PAUL HARVEY NEWS

Just Wait Until Next Year

By PAUL HARVEY

Nixon voters, impatient because the President has not fulfilled those ambitious promises of the last election campaign, must realize that Congress is already campaigning in the next election.

Here's how that works. Every member of Congress has an important stake in next year's election whether he, personally, is a candidate or not.

Being a member of the majority party in Congress involves powerful committee chairmanships, patronage, prestige, often even improved accommodations.

Presently Republicans need 30 seats to gain control of the House, seven to dominate the Senate.

President Nixon will be concentrating his coming 12 months on "looking good," encouraging election of a GOP Congress.

Democrats in Congress will also try to "look good," however that may involve restraining, resisting and, where convenient, embarrassing the White House.

That may help you better to understand the protracted deliberation over the Haynsworth nomination which, in any less sensitive political climate, would have been approved routinely.

President Nixon, on Oct. 13, challenged Congress to stop playing partisan politics and start passing his proposed legislation relating to welfare, draft reform, tax reform, revenue reform, postal reform, Social Security reform, electoral reform, law enforcement and so on.

With the exceptions of extending the surtax and voting for the AMB, his Congress has been long on talk and short on action.

However the President pleads his cause, he knows Congress will not declare a moratorium on partisan politics; at least it never has.

More likely, for enactment of any meaningful reforms he and we will have to wait until next year.

Next year, needed or politically popular White House legislation will have been sufficiently rephrased so that it will have a Democratic flavor.

And everybody is going to try to win for himself credit for ending U.S. involvement in Vietnam.

The most potent political issues in 1970 will be Vietnam and any threat of recession.

There is time between this November and the next one for any economic decline to be reversed. If the election timetable which governs partisan politics sometimes requires frustrating delays, it works for your best interests, too.

For the whole system which we sometimes pretend to deplore involves the parties of two parts trying to outdo one another in at least periodic effort to woo you.

Question Box

(We invite questions on economic and the proper function of government which will not injure anyone.)

QUESTION: Does compulsory attendance to tax-supported schools, or those approved by the state, retard mental development and thus injure everybody?

ANSWER: The tax-supported schools and colleges, where the young are required to attend school for a certain length of time, certainly retard mental development and thus injure everybody.

When the state tells you where you can send your children to school, it is taking away from the parents their responsibility to use their best judgment as to where their child can develop spiritually, mentally and materially.

Certainly, making those tax payers who do not want to use government schools pay to support them deprives the taxpayer of the God-given right of using what he honestly earned in the way he thinks will bring him the most benefit and happiness.

It is hard to see how tax-supported schools and colleges are beneficial to anyone. Tax-supported schools are part of the tenth plank of the Communist Manifesto. Every dictator and every communist country by means of state schools, takes control of the minds of the youth of the land and indoctrinates them, by example, to believe in socialism and communism.

Trice Electronics Supplies Dealers, Commercial Needs

For the best purchase value in the field of electronics, shop Trice Wholesale Electronics, 400 S. Russell.

Manager Henry Weaver has experienced a successful introduction in the trade area. He thanks all of his new friends, and invites others to call the store or stop in for a personal explanation on use or problem with electronic equipment.

Industrial, commercial, and dealer accounts are welcomed. Trice Wholesale offers to dealers CB and TV repairmen, a full line of electronic supplies, plus a wide variety of test equipment, speakers, radios and CB equipment.

Trice Wholesale Electronics is a relatively new firm to the Top O' Texas, but service and quality offered by the firm has made it a business acceptable and appreciated by customers. Customer service and friendly expert advice assures those dealing there they get the best.

Cable television may be installed at a residence for the nominal fee of $5.50 per month for the initial hook-up. A $1 charge per outlet is placed on each additional hook-up.

The method is not only an opportunity to enjoy FM music, also available through this service, but eliminates the need and upkeep of an antenna. Talk to Al Williams, manager, for full details on installation and advantages of this service.
