Senate Urged To Delay Tax Cut

'Astros' Come Home

SPACE CENTER, Houston (UPI)—Apollo 12's astronauts, welcomed home by wives and colleagues from the moon landing mission they called "a blast," eagerly returned to the comforts of earth living Saturday in a roomy isolation suite.

It was a happy homecoming for Charles "Pete" Conrad, Richard F. Gordon and Alan L. Bean, entering the homestretch of a moonbug quarantine scheduled to end Dec. 10.

Their families and many fellow astronauts were in the crowd of 500 waiting in the 38-degree dawn chill when the moon voyagers arrived at Ellington Air Force Base in a quarantine van draped with red, white and blue bunting and flying the U.S. flag.

Under the glare of newsreel floodlights, the astronauts cracked jokes with fellow spacemen, visited briefly with their wives and children and heard the praise of Space Center officials.

Then the van was moved in a motorcade to the lunar receiving laboratory seven miles away and the astronauts stepped into their roomy quarantine quarters.

U.S. Gifts South Viets With Base

SAIGON (UPI)—The United States turned over a naval base in the Mekong Delta to the South Vietnamese command Saturday in a new move toward Vietnamizing the war. Nearby, South Vietnamese troops reported killing 59 Viet Cong in daylight fighting.

The navy base 40 miles south of Saigon at My Tho is a maintenance and training facility. At the turnover ceremony, the commander of South Vietnamese naval logistics support, Capt. Van Lich, said Saigon was determined to rid the delta of Communist influence.

"This turnover once more marks the good will of the U.S. Navy in helping the Vietnamese Navy to expand, consolidate itself and assume the territorial defense in the future," Lich said.

"We make a vow that we will make efforts to be worthy of the efforts of the U.S. Navy, which has wholeheartedly helped us, and to complete the mission assigned to the Vietnamese Navy."

Lich spoke a few hours after a 150-man unit of South Vietnamese militiamen battled

IN PAMPA'S immediate future is a new 27,000 square foot Furr's Family Center to be located in its former site, North Hobart and Decatur, according to an announcement this week by Roy K. Furr, Lubbock, vice president of retail operations. The new store will be larger and will be similar to the Furr's Family Center, pictured above, which opened this last year in Odessa. Furr's signed a lease with John Lee Bell, Pampa, owner of the proposed building. Plans are now being drawn up by an architect. Construction will start soon after plans are complete, early in 1970.

Small Capsule Will Alter Youths' Lives

WASHINGTON (UPI)—At 8 p.m. EST Monday, a young man or woman will step up to a large glass bowl, take out a small capsule—and change the lives of thousands of young Americans.

In the capsule will be a slip of paper with a month and a day written on it. It will be draft number 001 for 1970, and all young men born between 1944 and 1951 on the date chosen will be first in line for military conscription next year.

The life plans of about 850,000 men in the age bracket of 19 to 26 will be materially affected by the first drawing of the new lottery draft system. After the first capsule is opened, 56 young representatives of Selective Service's youth advisory committee chosen to participate in the lottery will continue drawing from the bowl until a list of 366 dates—Feb. 29 included—is completed. That will be the order of call for the 1970 draft, and youths will be able to make their plans according to the position of their birthdate on the list.

Probably fewer than half of the draft eligibles will have to worry about being called up in 1970. Military authorities estimate their manpower needs at 250,000, which means the dates toward the bottom of the list will be relatively draft-proof.

The drawing also will provide for a lottery within the lottery. After the list of dates is complete, a drawing of 26 letters of the alphabet will be held. The order of letters will be used to decide which men born on the same day will be called first.

Thus, if the first date selected is Sept. 19, and a draft board has 30 young men with that birthdate and only needs 20, the order of letters will decide who goes. If the first letter selected was "S," a young man named Sanders could expect to be called first.

Monday's drawing will affect an estimated 290,000 men who become 19 before January 1, 1970; 210,000 aged 20 through 25 who do not hold deferments; and an estimated 350,000 whose deferments will expire during 1970.

The whole procedure is expected to be completed within two hours. This is considerably shorter than the 16-hour marathon drawing for the World War II draft held in 1942—the last time the lottery was used as a method for draft selection.

IN MASSACRE TRIAL

Army Groups Witnesses To Alleged Murders

By United Press International

Further investigations into the alleged massacre last year at Song My, South Vietnam, appeared likely Saturday as the U.S. Army lined up its witnesses for a court martial. Sen. Edmund S. Muskie, D-Maine, said in London Saturday that congressional committees and possibly a special commission should be established to investigate the incident.

"We need to know a great deal more about Pinkville (Song My)," Muskie told reporters. "We need to know what if any coverups were made and we need to know who was responsible or connected in any way in covering it up."

It was learned authoritatively, meanwhile, that Sen. Tran Van Don, a leader of the political opposition in South Vietnam, would conduct an inquiry into the case despite a statement by an official spokesman for the South Vietnamese government that "the investigation is over."

Army authorities handling the case refused Saturday to comment on the latest reports in connection with the alleged killing of 109 civilians.

Officers at Ft. Rucker, Ala., would neither confirm nor deny reports that Chief WO Hugh C.

Thompson Jr., of Decatur, Ga., was listed as a potential witness at the upcoming court martial of Lt. William L. Calley Jr. because he had witnessed the slayings.

A Defense Department spokesman said the Pentagon would attempt to verify the name of a photographer and the authenticity of photographs purporting to show a Viet Cong being shoved from a U.S. helicopter in an incident apparently unrelated to the alleged massacre. The Pentagon would offer no other comment, however.

Thompson, awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross last month for flying his helicopter to the rescue of 16 children caught in cross-fire between American troops and the communists, was included in a list of potential witnesses at the court martial.

Calley is charged with the premeditated murder of villagers at Song My. He and Sgt. David Mitchell, are the only two men charged, but 24 other men, nine of them still in the service, are under investigation.

Thompson was cited for the rescue in Quang Ngai Province on March 16, 1968, the same day and in the same province in which the alleged massacre took place.

The public information office at Ft. Rucker said, however, that as far as it knew the rescue had no connection with the massacre.

Close Friend Of Slain Actress Found Dead In Manhattan Hotel

NEW YORK (UPI)—Steven A. Brandt, a Hollywood gossip columnist who was a close friend of slain actress Sharon Tate, was found dead in a Manhattan hotel Friday from an apparent overdose of sleeping pills.

Brandt, 26, had gone with friends to the Rollin Stones' concert in Madison Square Garden just hours before his body was found. He left the concert because "the concert was so lively—so opposite himself," said an actress friend, Ultra Violet.

"He had been upset since her (Tate's) death and since attempting suicide in West Hollywood" almost a month ago, she said. "He was very tense, depressed and in terrible shape."

The actress said Brandt left the concert about midnight and returned to his room at the Chelsea Hotel. After the concert, Ultra Violet and her friend phoned Brandt to check on him. She said he told them he had taken an overdose of pills.

Hotel clerk John Dorman found the columnist dead and notified police.

Brandt was among those questioned in the bizarre death of Miss Tate and four others in Hollywood Aug. 9. However, he was in New York when the murders were committed, police said.

He later said in a magazine article that he supplied police with information about Miss Tate.

Cuts Would Diminish Government Income

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Warning that a recession, continued inflation - or both simultaneously - are all possible, a Congressional unit urged the Senate Saturday to remove, reduce or delay some of the $9 billion worth of tax cuts it is considering.

The tax cuts in the reform bill now before the Senate could diminish government revenues by as much as $12 billion a year, leading to a government deficit that would be "grossly inflationary," the lawmakers said.

The warning came from a subcommittee of the Joint Congressional Economic Committee, composed of five Senators and four House members.

"Programming tax reductions before we have made sure that expenditures are under control, that we have conquered inflation and that we face a period of more stable and predictable costs for government programs, runs a grave risk of pushing the budget into a full employment deficit," the panel said. "That would be grossly inflationary."

"We cannot conceive of a monetary policy that this economy could tolerate and which would produce price stability in the face of any such trend in the budget."

Their report, based on a series of hearings held during October, also:

— Found "only a little evidence that inflationary forces are abating."

— Said the administration's tight money policies, if continued, "may be so severe as to sow the seeds of a future recession."

— Urged "further reductions in military spending and in such areas as space, the SST (supersonic transport) program, highway construction and similar items that have no place in an austerity budget."

— Called upon President Nixon to use "the very considerable powers of the Presidential office . . . to discourage unwarranted wage and price increases" and to reinstate wage-price guidelines to hold wage and price increases in line. Nixon has disavowed the guidelines.

"We seem to face the far from pleasant prospect of continued price-wage inflation at the same time as an inadequate rate of growth," reported the subcommittee, headed by Rep. Martha Griffiths, D-Mich.

Nonetheless, neither more inflation nor a recession is unavoidable, the subcommittee said.

Dallas Group To Ask For Beauty Pageant

DALLAS (UPI)—Don Aly, president of the Miss Dallas Pageant, said Saturday that the Dallas group will ask Miss American Pageant to move the Miss Texas Pageant from Fort Worth to Dallas in 1970.

Seven or eight Texas cities were considering withdrawing from the Miss Texas Pageant because of various complaints about judges and winners not getting what they were supposed to.

Aly said the board of directors of the Miss Dallas Pageant met Friday night and voted not to withdraw.

"We have no criticism of the current Miss Texas Pageant," Aly said. "But we are making our presentation (to Miss America Pageant) in an effort to unify the State of Texas because a number of franchise holders have expressed concern with the Fort Worth pageant and have withdrawn their franchises."

California led the nation in traffic fatalities with 44, while New York recorded 23, Texas 22, and Georgia had 21.

In one of the worse accidents, four persons were killed and 15 others injured Saturday in a fiery collision on the fogbound New Jersey Turnpike near Woodbury involving two trucks and 16 automobiles.

The Safety Council predicted that unless motorists use more caution, up to 800 persons could be killed before the 102-hour period ends at midnight Sunday.

FROM BORGER TO BROADWAY

Dedication Finally Lands Actor Role

By ALETHA DAVIS
News Staff Writer

From Borger to Broadway is a long hard road and Dan Priest has made the journey.

The former Borger resident, brother of D.H. Priest, 605 Doucette, visited in the area this week with friends and relatives as he took advantage of a week off from his role in the current Broadway hit, "The Great White Hope" which is in its sixteenth month of production in New York City.

Dan Priest left Borger High School to serve in the Armed Forces when he was a sophomore, so didn't get a taste of drama while a high school student.

He returned from active duty and enrolled at West Texas State with the intention of studying drama.

"Things just didn't work out that way," he recalls.

He remembers that since he was about seven years old, he has wanted to act. The opportunity time was never presented and he postponed his debut, other than two seasons with the Borger Little Theater, until 1959 when he was 35 years old.

In show business that's the time when most actors, or would-be actors, are ready to try something else. "I tried everything else first," says Dan.

He worked in Pampa with a bread company and later with a tobacco company. He adds that many breadmen are making more money than he had prospect of in acting until "The Great White Hope" was cast.

He has been through all the phases of becoming an actor including living meagerly in a cold water walk-up apartment on the lower east side of Manhattan, the melting pot of the world. He paid $38 a month for the small living quarters and adds that it wasn't too bad. . . only a block and a half from transportation, namely the subway.

In 1954, Dan Priest made the decision to go to New York and try the actors route to fame and success. Still, for five years he worked with a private detective. Finally he quit the $11,000 a year job and went into training with an actors' workshop group. For a year and half he studied. During this time he captured small roles through Actors Equity Theater and did the showcase theater productions of "Joan of Lorraine" and "Mr. Roberts", both directed by Edwin Sherin, director of Great White Hope. In the meantime he also filmed six television commercials, three of which were successful. The income from these plus minimum actors wage made his income in those years he says. "Just about the same as a breadman."

Then along came the "Great White Hope" and Dan says it will probably run through February when a film in which he plays a fire inspector will be released. He adds that acting and show business is the most insecure job in the world, materially. He contends that to be an actor, the sacrifices have to mean something. It's a true dedication to profession where monetary desires are put out of mind. He states that he can and will do better, when the opportunity presents itself. He believes that he can play the role if given the chance, and that some day will at least be awarded a "best supporting actor role" in a play. Self confidence is what it's all about," he stated. "And that I have."

Dan was in Pampa visiting his brother and life-long friends Ted and John Gikas Friday before traveling to Amarillo to visit a daughter and then back to Broadway and the play and he waits for the right role, at the right time, for the right type to give him another opportunity to "make it" in show business.

Area Man Taken In California For Questioning

A 28-year-old Skellytown man, wanted in Ochiltree County for jumping bond on a rape charge, has been arrested in California but is fighting extradition back to Texas.

Ben Alexander Hassler, accused of rape in Perryton and who was free on a $3,500 bond, was taken into custody by California officials about one week ago.

Hassler, who has not signed extradition papers that would bring him back to Perryton, is also wanted for questioning in Panhandle in the strangulation death and rape of 61-year-old Mrs. Edith M. Beighle of Skellytown on Sept. 7.

Hassler was free on bond on the rape charge when the rape-murder occurred in Skellytown. Carson County Sheriff Howard Nunn had questioned Hassler in connection with the slaying. The man was scheduled for a lie detector test when he disappeared.

Rock Musical Festival Features Free Flow Of Marijuana And LSD

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Thousands of bedraggled youths tried to dry out under a cloudy sky at Florida's rock music festival Saturday while undercover narcotics agents circled among them hunting for drug pushers.

"They're all on LSD. All of 'em are using it," said Palm Beach County Sheriff William Heidman. He said marijuana was flowing as freely as LSD tablets on the grounds of the speedway where the three-day festival was underway.

But he said his men had only made six narcotics arrests since the start of the festival Friday since agents are seeking peddlers rather than teen-age users. He said one of those arrested was found with over $5,000 worth of marijuana, LSD and other narcotics, and that another had 1,000 LSD tablets.

30,000 sticking it out. Heidman, using a command post set up across a muddy road from the quagmire festival field, said about 30,000 youngsters were sticking it out despite the discomforts of the Friday rain and an overnight chill.

"We got our grass and our chicks to keep us warm," said one shaggy-haired young man, giving his date a hug.

Allied military sources said the South Vietnamese force lost 1 dead and 31 wounded in the fighting Friday. The guerrillas were believed to be from the 263rd Viet Cong main force battalion.

Near Bu Prang, where American and South Vietnamese defenders repulsed a ground attack early Saturday, waves of U.S. Air Force B52 jets unloaded tons of bombs on North Vietnamese bases in the jungles along the Cambodian border 112 miles northeast of Saigon.

The Viet Cong attack was the first ground assault against the Green Beret outpost since North Vietnamese troops began laying siege to it on Nov. 2. Military spokesmen said casualties to the defenders were "very light" and that none of the 54 Americans at Bu Prang was hurt.

"We got our grass and our chicks to keep us warm," said one shaggy-haired young man, giving his date a hug.

Astros . . .

The spacemen's wives and children, whom they had not seen in a month, ran up as soon as the trailer was in place. But the reunion was lowkey. Bean's blonde wife Sue hung back a little until the other wives urged her to step up close to the van.

"It's nice to see your face," Barbara Gordon told her husband, speaking into an orange telephone. And Mrs. Bean assured her husband "I'm fine." She showed him a package addressed in a childish scrawl to Capt. Alan Bean, Moonman.

Conrad called his youngest son, who turned nine on Wednesday, to the phone and told him "Happy birthday, Christopher."

"The flight was fun," Conrad told the crowd. And Bean added "It was a blast."

"It's great to be back and I do appreciate all you folks coming out here," Gordon said. "I guess my feelings in seeing all of you people out here, cold as it is, can be summed up with three words (that) parrot the way our wives felt one day during the flight — proud, thrilled, happy."

Behind the astronauts lay 10 days of life in a spaceship, the nation's second lunar landing and first true exploration of the moon, and a five-day voyage by sea and air in the cramped quarantine van, from their 5th Pacific splashdown point.

DALLAS (UPI)—Pennyrich International, Inc., which started in brassieres and branched into girdles, lingerie and swimsuits, says it is not exactly busted but needs time to pay off creditors.

Miss Penny Rich, former president of the company, resigned a week ago. Miss Linda Wall, former attorney for the firm who was named president after Miss Rich's departure, filed a petition in federal bankruptcy court Friday.

The petition asks time to pay off creditors and said Miss Rich is indebted to the corporation for "unauthorized withdrawals and conversion of merchandise" worth at least $300,000.

Henry Klepak, a lawyer, said in the petition that "by no means are we planning to cease business. We will continue."

Klepak, a director of the re-shuffled board of the corporation, also is a party to the suit. Pennyrich now has five factories in Puerto Rico employing about 1,200 persons. Its headquarters are at Garland, Tex.

The blond dancer is free on $10,000 bond. She was sentenced in Dallas to 15 years in 1959 for a drug violation, but was released after serving three years and later received a full pardon.

Children Feted At Yule Party

The Gray County Association for Retarded Children hosted a dinner Tuesday evening for parents and children of the association at First Methodist Church.

The children were entertained by the Madrigal Singers of Robert E. Lee Junior High.

The NASA film, "Apollo II, Flight to the Moon," was shown.

Eugene Garms and Burtis Hollis, directors of the Amarillo Center for Human Development were official guests.

The local association is preparing a Christmas box for the children at the State School in Abilene. All members and friends who would like to contribute to the Christmas of a handicapped child are invited to bring a gift to the Presbyterian Church before Dec. 10. Toys, games, toilet articles and wearing apparel for all ages are needed.

PTA STUDY COURSE

Pill-Oriented Society Leads To Drug Abuse, Dis-Respect

Dr. Royce Laycock and Warren Hasse presented the fourth in a series of five Parent-Teacher Association sponsored programs on drug abuse at the Carver Educational Services Center.

Dr. Laycock, a Pampa physician for eight years, stressed "We are living in a pill-oriented society. Some people's medicine cabinets look like a drug store. Children have poor reactions to drugs when they see their parents abusing them. Pills to simulate, put them to sleep, gain weight, lose weight, and in larger doses than prescribed."

"Stimulant drugs in large doses produce a state of intoxication and even larger doses produce psychosis and suicidal tendencies in some people. Persons who have been on these drugs over a long period can have permanent mental damage," he said.

"Sedatives act like alcohol to produce slurred sleep, slight confusion, and decreased heart rate. Over a long period, persons take more of this drug to get the desired effect which can be fatal when combined with alcohol. One alcoholic drink with one sleeping pill equals not twice the effect, but five times the effect," Dr. Laycock said.

Dr. Laycock stressed alcohol is a number one national problem and should be considered as a dangerous drug. Annually out of the 60,000 auto accidents, 38,000 are directly caused by alcohol.

Hasse stated "kids seek their own level. Hippies and such have to live by themselves because nobody in any other society will have anything to do with them. Read about what is happening in San Francisco, Dallas and other cities. It is happening here in Pampa to our own kids. People don't abuse drugs, they abuse their bodies with drugs," he said.

Hasse read a letter to a San Antonio policeman who had been accused of using brutality while arresting narcotics addicts. The letter was written by a minister's wife who said "she and her husband saw the very best and the worst of young people." She asked the policeman, "if he had to deal with either of their sons to please be brutal, because police brutality can't in any way compare with the brutality that comes from breaking the law."

The final drug abuse study will start at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Carver Educational Services Center, with Sheriff Rufe Jordan as speaker and a film on "Narcotics, the Decision," for the program. Hospitality chairman of St. Vincent Catholic School and Lamar Elementary School will serve refreshments.

Larry Doss was charged with intoxication, simple assault and disorderly conduct while Ronald Doss and McLean were both charged with disorderly conduct.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

Leprosy is a disease that has historically made outcasts of its victims. The World Almanac notes that leprosy is one of the least infectious of communicable diseases. Fear of leprosy was stimulated by the unpleasant mutilations viewed in poorly treated cases. As no vital organs are affected, leprosy is not usually fatal until low resistance allows another disease to interact.

Most Young People Want Sex Education

Sex, that three letter word that evokes as much furor as the four letter variety, may here to stay, but does sex education belong in our schools? School boards have been toppled or giving what parents consider to be the wrong answers, but what do the students think? Gilbert Youth Research asked young people across the country, age 14 to 25, and found them overwhelmingly in favor of sex education.

"Children should be taught the facts of life the right way before they learn to snicker at the mention of the subject," said a 24-year-old from Springfield, Ill. Though the majority of responses was positive, slightly more males than females felt the subject should be taught (93.1 per cent and 89 per cent respectively).

The National Gilbert Youth Poll revealed that all of the 19 to 21 year olds were in favor of the subject, with 94.3 per cent of those 22 and over agreeing. The largest portion of those against it (14.3 per cent) appeared in the 17-18 age group.

A high school junior from Rome, N.Y., said, "I'd be too embarrassed if it's taught in coed classes, but that embarrassment is exactly why it should be taught at an early age, before kids learn to think of sex as something dirty."

While most topics elicit some "I don't know" answers from respondents, almost everyone questioned by the National

Gilbert Youth Poll had an opinion on this subject. The women felt sex education should be taught to children in lower grade levels than the men, with 10.1 per cent believing it should begin in kindergarten, as opposed to only 5.4 per cent of the men.

High School and college students agreed it would serve little purpose if begun in the 10th grade, with the most popular choice of high school students being the seventh or eighth grades (38.2 per cent), and of college students, the first or second grades (19.3 per cent).

"If it's not taught before kids have begun to pick up their own ideas, the whole purpose is defeated," said a college freshman from Little Rock, Ark. "The idea should be to teach, not to correct wrong conceptions."

Added a 24-year-old from Grand Rapids, Mich., "Kids are learning everything quickly, including sex, so proper in-

USA-Soviets In Fifth Talk Session

HELSINKI (UPI)—The United States and the Soviet Union Saturday held the fifth session of the preliminary Strategic Arms Limitation Talks (SALT).

Officials on both sides said they are sure the preliminary talks in Helsinki will succeed in laying the basis for concrete negotiations to be held early next year.

Structure should be given as soon as possible."

Among those who were against sex education in schools, a Harrisburg, Pa., high school senior said, "It's the responsibility of parents to tell their children as much as they think they should know." A Louisville, Ky., college sophomore offered that, "Not all children mature at the same rate, and therefore some children might not be able to handle what others could at the same age."

Gilbert Youth Research's National Gilbert Youth Poll is based on a National Probability Sample of 3,000 young people aged 14 to 25, which is projectable to the entire youth population of the nation.

Washington Report

From Congress

BOB PRICE NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J.

This week the House of Representatives debated and voted upon three important measures.

The House passed the fiscal year 1970 appropriations for the Department of Transportation and related agencies. With the passage of the appropriations bill, the Transportation Department will soon have the current operating funds needed to continue the development of our nation's transportation systems. I supported the appropriations because I believe we need to improve our transportation system and promote highway and air traffic safety.

Foreign Aid — The Foreign Assistance Act appropriating foreign aid for this fiscal year was narrowly approved by the House last week. In a floor statement I pointed out that I was voting against foreign aid again this year for two reasons.

In my view the main problem with our foreign aid program is that we are using a shotgun instead of a rifle approach. By this I mean we should provide aid only to promote the economic health and well-being of nations that are either firm allies or potential allies of the United States and that are willing to help themselves.

In addition to making basic changes in our philosophy and practice of foreign aid, we need to spend the $19 billion which has been appropriated but not spent. This means with the passage of this bill there will be more than $21 billion in the foreign aid pipeline.

Gun Control — Since my election to Congress I have vigorously opposed gun registration in principle and in fact. Early this year I introduced a bill to repeal the Gun Control Act in its entirety.

Part of this goal was accomplished last week when the House approved the Senate-passed Intergovernmental Tax bill. The Senate has added an amendment to the Bill repealing the section of the Gun Control Act requiring dealers to keep records on the name, address and age of persons purchasing shotguns and rifle ammunition. This amendment is essentially the same as a bill I introduced earlier in the year. I hope that this action marks the beginning of serious Congressional examination of the purpose and operation of the Gun Control Act.

Hollywood Reports

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Martin Ranshoff sits in his handsome office, wearing a sports shirt and talking about the end of an era.

"The concrete age is over," he says.

He's talking about the age of the studio, of a building and a conglomeration of machinery and equipment. He says that for all these years Hollywood movie-making has been a slave to the concrete of the studio.

"I'm sick of it," he says. "I'm not going to shoot in a studio any more, unless it makes sense to do it."

As one of Hollywood's most successful independent producers, what Ranshoff says is important. And he speaks from bitter experience about what shooting in a studio can mean to an independent.

"The studio is a self-perpetuating dynasty," he says. "All along, an independent had to go to a studio to shoot, because the studio had certain things he needed."

"But it was like an elephant. Maybe you only needed a trunk, but you had to take the whole elephant. Studios are the same way — you have to take all the parts. Who wants an elephant anyhow? What we need today is maximum flexibility, not elephants."

He talks about some of his current projects. He's just finishing "The Moonshine War," which was done in conjunction with MGM. He says he should have done it all on location in the south, but because of the studio affiliation, he only did eight out of 11 weeks on location.

The studio insisted that he use their backlot for three weeks.

S. Rockefeller, Wife To Go Separate Ways

NEW YORK (UPI)—Steven Rockefeller and the Norwegian wife he courted while she was a maid to his family have separated after a 10-year marriage, it was disclosed today.

A spokesman for the Rockefeller family said Steven, second son of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, and the former Anne-Marie Rasmussen have agreed to a formal separation.

"There are no plans for a divorce," the spokesman said. The couple was married Aug. 22, 1959 in Sogne, Norway after a Cinderella romance that began when the future Mrs. Rockefeller came to this country to work as a maid for the Rockefellers.

They have three children, Steven, 9, Ingrid, 6, and Jennifer, 5, and have lived on the Rockefeller family estate at Pocantico Hills in Westchester county while Steven worked on a doctoral thesis in the philosophy of religion.

Steven was one of five children of Governor Rockefeller and his former wife, Mary Clark Rockefeller, a daughter Ann was divorced several years ago from the Rev. Robert L. Pierson.

Highlights And Sidelights From The State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
 AUSTIN, Tex. — A 1968 constitutional amendment did not affect the amount of fees that should be paid county tax assessor-collectors for assessing and collecting county taxes, but it limits the amount that may be paid by the state. So ruled Atty. Gen. Crawford Marlin recently. (State cannot be required to pay more than two per cent of state taxes assessed which are actually collected.)

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

State Department of Public Welfare is authorized to spend money to refurbish the interior of a building which is leased by a county on a long-term basis and furnished the welfare agency rent-free.

An otherwise recordable affidavit of heirship may be recorded in the office of a county clerk even though the unprobated will is attached. However, the unprobated will not constitute the exhibit to an affidavit may not be recorded with the clerk although it contains acknowledgement.

Texas Board of Corrections is not obligated to collect, nor must public utilities pay, for placing lines along public roadways transverse state-owned lands under prison system control. (TBC has not authority to reserve the exclusive right to grant utility easements over such public roadways.)

Harris County Hospital District may legally enter into a lease contract for an X-Ray equipment system for a period of five years, contingent on availability of appropriated funds.

DDT BAN URGED — Travis Audubon Society of Austin called on Governor Smith to use "all resources" to ban the use of insecticide DDT in Texas.

Resolution claimed that DDT is harmful to wildlife, remains toxic in environment for 10 years, is spread by wind and water, and has been "implicated" as a possible cancer cause.

Arizona, California and Michigan, Czechoslovakia, Sweden and Denmark have banned DDT already, the Society contended, further noting that "numerous other insecticides can do the job and become harmless to the environment within a few weeks."

COURTS SPEAK — Supreme Court found that a truck driver who was shot during an overnight stop was not entitled to workmen's compensation for disabilities.

In other cases the high court ruled that:

A former liquor store executive is not entitled to recover $1 million in "back salary" from the business.

Court has no jurisdiction to hear the appeal of a Houston attorney who was disbarred in 1963 for alleged fraudulent and dishonorable conduct.

High Court also heard arguments that refusal to approve a new economy air flight service between Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston and San Antonio would frustrate efforts of Texas Aeronautics Commission to develop an efficient intra state air carrier system. Air Southwest Company seeks certification for service, but Trans-International, Texas International and Continental Airlines have blocked TAC from issuing credentials.

Federal court here took no advice from the government's request to dismiss atheist Madalyn Murray O'Hair's suit outlaw prayers by astronauts in outer space.

Court of Criminal Appeals upheld the death sentence of a man convicted of slaying during service station robbery in West.

CAUSEWAY URGEI — A Rio Grande Valley delegation, including Cameron County officials and Chamber of Commerce spokesmen, urged the Texas Highway Commission to approve a $7.8 million Port Isabel-South Padre Island causeway.

At the same hearing, an East Texas group asked for a $1 million four-lane railroad overpass in Jacksonville.

Highway commissioners indicated they favor the idea of a new Queen Isabella Causeway since traffic has nearly doubled during the last two years. Local officials pledged about $300,000 of the cost.

APPOINTMENTS — Dr. Fred Wendorf, Southern Methodist University professor from Dallas, is new chairman of the fledgling State Antiquities Committee, and Truett Latimer is acting executive director.

Woodville attorney and State Bar President, Josiah Wheat has been appointed to the National Water Commission of the U.S. Department of Interior.

Jerry Brock of Austin, formerly of San Antonio and Dallas, is a new research staff assistant to Governor Smith.

ANTIQUITIES — Texas State Antiquities Committee has decided to spend $2,000 of its $25,000 budget to help preserve the artifacts found in the wreck of a Spanish galleon off Padre Island.

Dr. Fred Wendorf, Southern Methodist University archaeologist who was elected chairman of the committee, proposed the expenditure for chemicals and photographic supplies for emergency work to prevent rusting of iron cannons and other iron artifacts.

Land Commissioner Jerry Sadler, who is a member of the committee, made it clear that it is now absolutely illegal for anyone to explore for offshore artifacts without a permit from the new committee.

SPANISH LAND CLAIMS — Mrs. Celia Saiz Montez of Victoria is trying to collect a debt from the United States that she says Mexico has owed her, under a treaty between the two governments, since 1934. Debt goes back to a land grant given her ancestors by the King of Spain. Under a treaty, the United States agreed to pay the claims of Americans living in Mexico and Mexico agreed to pay the claims of Mexicans living in the United States.

however, the Mexican government has refused to pay Mrs. Saiz Montez because she is an American citizen and the United States has refused because it argues that her ancestors were Mexicans. She is taking the case to Federal district court.

NATURAL GAS RATE — Texas Railroad Commission, after hearing testimony by consultants and Pioneer Natural Gas Company officials, has recessed its hearings on a proposed increase on the city gate rate for 61 West Texas towns until Dec. 15.

The proposed increase amounts to 8.33 cents per thousand cubic feet of gas.

LABORERS — R. L. Coffman, Texas Employment Commission administrator, reports that the moderate increase in placement of arm workers in October was due to early citrus fruit harvesting in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Increase came amid the seasonal decline in most other activities reported by local offices.

TEC filled almost 3,000 more farm jobs in October than September. Non-farm openings in October were down 6,727 from September and non-farm job placements were down 3,604 from the preceding month.

HOG CHOLERA — Both the State and Federal Departments of Agriculture are warning ranchers to be careful of hog cholera during winter. They report that hog cholera struck 19 Texas herds during October. A total of 1,684 animals in 19 infected and 23 exposed herds were disposed of during the month at a cost of $46,300. Departments said that "Every outbreak that is located and eliminated this winter reduces the chance for spread next spring when movements of pigs will increase again."

DEMONSTRATORS — Texas Board of Regents of State Senior Colleges endorsed the suspension of 10 Southwest Texas State University students by the school's president for participating in an unauthorized demonstration. Students were suspended by Dr. Billy M. Jones after they failed to break up a moratorium demonstrations on university property.

American Civil Liberties Union has said they will take the case to the courts.

SHORT SNORTS
 Tribute was paid by Governor Smith to one of Texas' most colorful legislative members,

State Sen. V. E. (Red) Berry of San Antonio, who championed horse racing and liquor-by-the-drink legislation until his passing on Nov. 24.

Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, who made soundings for several months about running for the U.S. Senate or Governor of Texas, chose neither — he says he will be a candidate for reelection.

Texas National Guard is Number 1 in the nation in participating in the federal savings bonds payroll program with more than 90 per cent of the Guardsmen participating.

Storage in 53 Texas reservoirs increased to 72 per cent of capacity in November due to heavy rains.

Coors Beer got a temporary injunction against the Liquor Control Board to prevent enforcement of its rule against warehouse refrigeration of beer.

Children See Triple Murder, Single Suicide

SHREVEPORT, La. (UPI) — Two couples were killed in a triple murder-single suicide today while their three small children watched.

They were identified by police as Rodney Wyatt, his wife Shirley, Jerry Bogues, and his wife Pat.

Officers said the two couples were at the Wyatt home Tuesday night when an argument broke out. Bogues left following the argument, leaving behind his wife and two children.

Officers said Bogues returned to the Wyatt home today with a gun and apparently fired the fatal shots before taking his own life.

Police said the house was riddled with bullet holes.

The two Bogues children and the Wyatt child witnessed the shootings, police said, but were unharmed.

SELECTED as officers for the Automotive Club, Oklahoma State Tech, Okmulgee, are these six students. The club, which holds weekly meetings, gives students an opportunity to take field trips and hear information concerning their field of study that they would not receive in the normal classroom routine. ## Fairer Sex Under Consideration For Supreme Court Appointment

WASHINGTON (UPI) — At least three women are among those being considered for nomination to the Supreme Court now that Judge Clement F. Haynsworth has been rejected, Attorney General John N. Mitchell said Friday.

"We're back at the drawing boards" after Haynsworth's defeat, looking at the original group of about 150 judges and lawyers the Nixon administration has considered to fill vacancies on the court, Mitchell said.

In an interview with UPI, Mitchell said those under consideration include judges, law instructors and lawyers in private practice. "At least three of them are women," he added.

Both Haynsworth, picked to fill the seat vacated by Abe Fortas, and Chief Justice Warren Burger, who succeeded retiring Earl Warren, were in that original group.

Mitchell said President Nixon hoped to submit another name to Congress about mid-January when members return from their Christmas recess.

Mitchell has disavowed any interest in going on the court although there has been recurring speculation he might be picked.

Four Years Disillusionment Results In Withdrawal From Beauty Pageant

Editor's note: Four franchise holders have withdrawn from the Miss Texas Pageant because of what at least one called improper conduct by two Miss Texas officials. Here is the exclusive story of that withdrawal, as told to UPI's West Texas bureau manager.

By MIKE WESTER

LUBBOCK, Tex. (UPI) -- The president of the Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce withdrew his city from competition in the annual Miss Texas Pageant because of what he called "four years of disillusionment, frustration, bitterness and mental blackmail."

Dr. Frank Butterfield, an optometrist and president of the civic group, announced the withdrawal Monday without making specific charges, but then decided to reveal all his complaints.

Franchise holders in Marshall and El Paso and at Baylor University also have withdrawn from the pageant. Others, including Dallas, Plainville, Glade water, Gatesville, Nacogdoches, Corsicana, Hurst, Euless and Bedford, are considering withdrawal from the 63-city competition.

"Most of the other franchise holders have contacted us by letter or telephone and many have said they intend to look into the situation further before holding pageants this year," Butterfield said. "We are not the only city upset -- and once all the facts are made public, many more cities will be upset."

Blames Two

Butterfield placed blame for the withdrawal on B. Don Magness, president of Miss Texas Pageant Corp., and Barry Hall, vice president of the corporation.

"Our action comes after a cumulation of four years of disillusionment, frustration, bitterness and mental blackmail. It began for us when our Miss Lubbock of 1966, Susan Logan, became Miss Texas, and the treatment she received thereafter, mainly by Hall who was at that time her manager," Butterfield said.

"Lubbock was so incensed by his handling of her that we requested his removal as manager after having received several complaints from Miss Logan," he said. "We waited until after this year's Miss Texas Pageant to write our letter and shortly thereafter M.R. Hubert Foster was voted out of office. Foster was chairman of the pageant because he backed us and would not yield to Mr. Hall and Mr. Magness."

Butterfield said Miss Logan's father reportedly had to threaten to sue Miss Texas Pageant Corp. before she received any benefits promised her, including her scholarship.

He said that in 1967 Miss Lubbock finished as second runnerup in the talent competition and had a hard time receiving her benefits.

Happens Again

"The same thing happened

again in 1968 when Miss Lubbock won both the swim suit and talent competition and was second runnerup, and again had trouble getting the benefits which were hers," Butterfield said.

"Most disturbing to us as Lubbock Jaycees, however, was that after we announced our resignation Monday that Magness told the news media the charges were too general for reply.

"The very next day, however, he was quoted as saying he had taken a polygraph test in August and was cleared of all charges. If he didn't know what the charges were, how could he possibly have taken a lie detector test and be cleared year three months ago?"

Butterfield said that during last year's state pageant at Fort Worth, Magness told the Lubbock Jaycees the local pageant "would have to have three of its five judges out of the state office if you want your girl to place in the top 10."

Not Local

"We just can't help but feel that this takes the local out of a local pageant and makes it controlled by state officials," Butterfield said.

Butterfield also said Magness was one of five judges at the Miss Lubbock pageant last year. He said Magness wanted another girl to represent the city and when other judges outvoted him he said the new Miss Lubbock would not win anything at the state pageant. The 1969 Lubbock entry did not place in the state contest, but the runnerup was invited to Fort Worth where she also was first runnerup in that pageant.

"It was with deep regret that we withdrew, but we believe it only fair to keep faith with the young girls who enter and the people who support us," Butterfield said.

By MIKE HOGAN
Special Writer
EL PASO, Tex. — Pampa came to the Sun City to give its young basketball team some practical experience and while there was no sun but plenty of snow the Harvesters put all their experience in one basket and whipped El Paso Cathedral, 58-47, for seventh place in the Jefferson Invitational basketball tournament Saturday evening.

Pampa played three games in the Turkey Day event and lost the first two, 65-42, in the opener to El Paso Bel Air, and 63-57 Saturday morning to El Paso Jefferson.

But coach Sterling Gibson experimented in the first two games and apparently came up with the right combination Saturday evening as Jim Gallman, Randy Marsh and Steve Scott all scored in double figures and sophomore Richard Bunton grabbed off 10 rebounds to pace the Pampa victory.

Gallman, Marsh and Scott scored 14, 13 and 10 points respectively while sophomore Mike Edgar and senior John Jenkins added eight apiece and Bunton chipped in five.

Cathedral jumped to a 6-0 lead over the Harvesters but Edgar put in two free shots, Marsh added a basket and free shot and Jenkins added one from the charity stripe to tie it, 6-6. But Cathedral jumped quickly back out in front and led, 14-11 at the quarter. Edgar put Pampa ahead to stay at 15-14. Scott added a basket and the Harvesters were on their way. The lead grew to, 21-16 with 5:18 left in the quarter and at halftime it was, 30-24.

Moore-Led Cadets Topple Middies

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Halfback Lynn Moore, a West Point cadet who nearly became a future naval officer, tormented Navy with a pair of touchdowns runs and 206 yards rushing Saturday in powering Army to an easy 27-0 triumph over the inept Middies in the 70th renewal of their intra-service football war.

Moore, making his farewell appearance in an Army gridiron uniform, also made it his best by bursting through the weak Navy defenses almost at will in a mismatch witnessed by 102,000 fans at John F. Kennedy Stadium and a national television audience.

It marked the first time since 1949 that Navy failed to score in the game between the two oldest service academies. The Middies missed a chance to score with 4:04 remaining in the game after four smashes into the Army line from four yards out.

Charged-Up Palmer Has Heritage Golf Lead

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (UPI) — Arnold Palmer, playing the 6,655-yard Harbour Town layout, had nine of 36-34. Three strokes back, tied for second, was Homero Blancas, who had his second consecutive 69, and under-par 70 for three-stroke lead and a 54-hole total of 209.

Palmer, playing near flawless golf on the tougher back side of the 6,655-yard Harbour Town layout, had nine of 36-34. Three strokes back, tied for second, was Homero Blancas, who had his second consecutive 69, and under-par 70 for three-stroke lead and a 54-hole total of 209.

Sept. 15, 1968, in the Kemper Open, had two birdies and two bogeys in his front side, then played par golf on the back nine with the exception of the 562-yard par 5 5 15th, where he sank an 8-foot birdie putt.

Owens, Sooners Nip Pokes

STILLWATER, Okla. (UPI) — Heisman Trophy winner Steve Owens made his final collegiate game his greatest Saturday, rushing for 261 yards in leading Oklahoma to a 28-7 victory over Oklahoma State — a win over Oklahoma State — a victory that was not clinched until the Cowboys missed a two-point conversion with 1:33 left.

Owens carried 55 times Saturday, breaking a single-game NCAA record. His two touchdowns left him with a career total of 56, three short of the collegiate record held by Army's Glenn Davis.

The Oklahoma fullback scored twice from a yard out and the Sooners got their other touchdowns on a 51-yard pass from sophomore Jack Mildren to Joe Killingsworth and a 34-yard keeper by Mildren.

Oklahoma State quarterback Bob Cutbuth scored twice for the Cowboys on runs of eight and one yards, and three touchdowns strikes of seven and six yards to end Hermann Eben.

But it was Cutbuth who wound up as the goat in the Cowboys comeback effort. After Oklahoma State's final touchdown the Cowboys went for two points. A delay of game penalty moved the ball back to the eight yard line, and then Cutbuth was hit and fumbled while looking for a receiver.

Owens' 261 yards was 13 yards more than his previous best effort and the third time he finished the season with more than 200 yards in a ball game. He finished with 1,091 yards, 1,523 yards rushing to wrap up the NCAA title for this year and wound up his career with 3,867 yards.

Spruill Leads Rice Victory Over Baylor

HOUSTON (UPI) — Tailback Mike Spruill, unable to start because of a shoulder separation, scored three touchdowns Saturday to lead Rice to a 34-6 victory over Baylor in a battle to stay out of the Southwest Conference cellar.

Larry Caldwell, the starting tailback, plunged two yards for Rice's first touchdown and flanker Dale Bernauer, a former conference sprint champion, scored the other one on a 5-yard run, his first touchdown since high school.

Aroused Auburn Crushes Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — Sullivan scored one touchdown and set up three others Saturday while leading the aroused Auburn Tigers to a 49-26 humiliation of Alabama.

Sullivan, who shattered the Auburn single season total offense record before 73,000 fans, got his touchdown on a three-yard sprint and then moved the Tigers into scoring positions three times with his passes, setting it up for runs one and three yards by Wallace Clark and a one-yarder by Mickey Zofko.

An interception by all-America Buddy McClinton set up a nine-yard scoring run by Zofko and Clark scored his second touchdown from the three. Connie Frederick added the last TD on an 85-yard run from punt formation.

Alabama, losing to Auburn for the first time since 1963, scored on field goals of 32 and 28 yards by Oran-Buck, a four-yard pass from Scott Hunter to Hunter Husband and a 100-yard kickoff return by George Kinnager.

The Tide collected its final set two school records for passing, hit David Bailey on a seven-yard aerial.

Sullivan, in leading Auburn to his most points ever scored against a Bear Bryant-coached team, passed for 192 yards and ran for another 53 to give him a season total of 1,892 yards, eclipsing the previous Auburn record of 1,715 set back in 1946 by Travis Tidwell.

UPSET IN ATLANTA Bowl-Bound Georgia Loses, 6-0

ATLANTA (UPI) — Quarterback Jack Williams led underdog Georgia Tech on an 80-yard march in the second period Saturday and Bubba Hoats picked off three pass interceptions to inspire a 6-0 Yellow Jacket victory over arch-rival Georgia.

It was the first time Georgia Tech had beaten Georgia in six years and posted the Yellow Jackets, who saved their third consecutive 4-6 season, from their worst record in 29 years.

Sun Bowl-bound Georgia, favored by 12 points, kept the pressure on throughout most of the game but Hoats' three passes and one by Jeff Ford in his given zone with only six minutes left in the game kept the Bulldogs from scoring.

Williams personally contributed 66 of those 80 yards in the game's only scoring march, going over himself from one yard out with 5:45 left in the first half. During the drive, Williams, a surprise starter, completed four of four passes for 47 yards and picked up 19 yards in three runs.

Actually, Tech should have scored one play earlier than it did but Steve Norris, who caught a Williams pass, slipped and fell at the Georgia one-yard line without a defender near him.

The extra point try failed when the center snap sailed over the intended holder and that missed point kept a record crowd of more than 60,000 in anticipation for the rest of the afternoon as Georgia threatened time and again.

The Bulldogs, who wound up with a 5-4-1 record, were deep in Tech territory twice in the final period but Jim McCullough was wide on a 32-yard field goal attempt with 9:59 left to play and Paul Gilbert's pass from the Tech eight was picked off by Ford in the end zone with 6:06 to go.

Hoats made his first interception at 10:07 in the first period, and his second at the Tech 35 in the closing seconds of the third period.

But the one that excited the Tech fans the most was the one he made at the Yellow Jacket 25 with barely one minute left in the game.

Georgia Tech appeared to be moving toward a touchdown the first time it got its hands on the football but Bill Darby intercepted a Williams pass at the Bulldogs' five to halt that threat.

Georgia's first scoring opportunity came early in the second period when a short punt gave the Bulldogs possession at the Tech 38. But the Tech defense gave up only four yards in the next three plays and McCullough was short on a field goal try.

It was at this point that Williams kept for 12 yards to start Tech on its touchdown march.

S. Miss Nips Buffs On Late Touchdown, 10-9

HATTIESBURG, Miss. (UPI) — Quarterback Ricky Donegan passed 27 yards to split end Billy Mikel with 34 seconds left Saturday and John Hale kicked the extra point that gave Southern Mississippi a 10-9 squeaker over West Texas State.

PAMPA NEWS SPORTS

12-yard field goal, but Hale tied it in the second period with a 26-yarder.

With time running out, Donegan guided the Southerners to the winning touchdown. His heave to Mikel tied the score at 9-all. Then, Hale, who had missed three field goal attempts, kicked the winning point.

Two of Hale's field goal attempts came after safety Troy Anderson had intercepted passes. Anderson set a school record with a total of 26 steals in one season.

Strong Paces Houston Past Fla. St., 41-13

HOUSTON (UPI) — Jim Strong, the nation's No. 6 rusher, scored three touchdowns and quarterback Gary Mullins accounted for two more to give the University of Houston a 41-13 victory over Florida State Saturday night.

Strong, a loping 6-1, 200-pound running back, scored on runs of 39, 37 and 16 yards to break a 13-13 tie.

Mullins, a 5-10, 185-pound quarterback, ran 51 yards for one touchdown and passed 23 yards to split end Elmo Wright for another touchdown to keep Houston in the game in the first 25 minutes.

Wright also caught a two-point conversion after Strong's last touchdown. Safety L. D. Rowden scored Houston's final touchdown on a 55-yard return of a Bill Cappelman pass with 1:30 to go in the game.

Cappelman, Florida State's quarterback, kept pace with Houston until midway in the second quarter. He passed six yards to 6-foot-6 Kent Gaydos for a first quarter touchdown and hit flanker Mike Gray with a 37-yard touchdown in the second quarter to tie the score at 13-13. Gary made a diving catch at the goal line.

But Houston's defensive line got to Cappelman nine times in the last half, throwing him for losses totaling 85 yards and forcing him to fumble once. Linebacker Ronnie Johnston recovered to set up Strong's final touchdown.

National Rankings Prompted Irish To Bowl

DALLAS (UPI)—There are a lot of reasons Notre Dame is going to a bowl game this year, but one of them has something to do with national rankings. "When I came to Notre Dame six years ago," Notre Dame coach Ara Parseghian said Friday, "the president of the university told me he would be in favor of a bowl game if it would enhance our national rating."

A chance to bump off a team ranked higher than they are when they invade the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1. Notre Dame, ranked ninth, will be meeting either top-rated Texas or third-ranked Arkansas. The Longhorns and Razorbacks will decide the Southwest Conference championship, and the host spot in the Cotton Bowl, on Dec. 6 in a showdown struggle at Fayetteville, Ark. "When it became apparent that the chances of an NCAA national championship playoff was remote," Parseghian said, "the next best way of assuring yourself of meeting a top team was to participate in a bowl game." The Notre Dame coach was in Dallas Friday to finalize plans for the Irish trip. Before Notre Dame's entrance into the bowl picture, the only way the Irish or any other non-bowling team could rank high was to stomp through a representative schedule. "But it is hard to schedule teams that you know will be good when you have to draw up the schedule ten years in advance," he said. Because of this, the Notre Dame coach came up with a suggestion two years ago that was passed on to athletic directors around the country. "I suggested that every school in the country should keep one date on their schedule open until the year before the season," he said. "You might keep the fifth weekend of the season open. "Then, if Notre Dame and Penn State went undefeated one year, they could get together and schedule a game against each other the following year on that open date."

How was this suggestion greeted? "It was not greeted well at all," he said. "Athletic directors like to schedule in advance." Parseghian still likes the idea, however, because it increases the chances of the two top teams meeting each year. Parseghian said he had yet to see the top-rated Longhorns in action this year—either in person or on film. The only glimpse he has had of Arkansas came last Thursday when he saw the Razorbacks whip Texas

Tech on television. "We won't look at films of either one until after they meet Dec. 6," he said. "I know Texas must have a fine club. They must have to score as many points as they do consistently. "They flashed the score on the television and Texas had score as many points as they was up. They must have a good team."

Top Ranked Prepsters Roll Along Unbeaten

The other half of the AAA games will be unrec'd today and tonight, with the feature contest bringing together top-rated Lubbock Estacado and Brownwood. There was one minor shocker in Class AA. Hondo downed previously undefeated Lyford 22-13 to advance to the quarterfinals against Klein, a 37-0 winner over Yoakum. Iowa Park romps Elsewhere in Class AA it was Iowa Park over Floydada 35-6 in a battle of the undefeated. Reagan County edging Haskell 28-7 and Jacksboro upending Forney 33-13. Last year's finalist against Daingerfield — Lufkin Dunbar heads a slate of three Class AA games tonight when it meets East Chambers. By United Press International Texas' big-city high school football powers rolled along unmolested Friday night in the regional round of the state playoffs. But the last year's Class AA champion was eliminated and a couple of Class A favorites had king-sized scares. All the favorites in Class AAAA picked up wins Friday night, moving on to next weekend's quarterfinals. Top-rated Abilene Cooper, as expected, had little trouble with El Paso Coronado, romping to a 36-0 decision. That set up a quarterfinal duel with Wichita Falls, a 27-0 victor over Garland. Second-ranked Houston Kashmere also had an easy time, bombing Houston Lee 41-15. Wilson Coasts Dallas Wilson coasted by Fort Worth Western Hills as expected, 48-20, and San Antonio Lee won its city's championship by downing San Antonio Edgewood 35-0. The closest call in Class AAAA came when Texarkana edged Galena Park 24-21, which moved Texarkana into the quarterfinals against Dallas Wilson. Ennis vs. Bonham Ennis will meet Bonham in the quarterfinals next week since Bonham easily eliminated Burleson 37-8. In the only other two Class AAAA contests Friday night West Columbia downed LaPorte 23-12 and Belton advanced on penetrations after tying Gregory Portland 10-10. In Class A both top-rated White Oak and second-ranked Poth had severe frights. White Oak, which had given up only two touchdowns all year, trimmed Paul Pewitt 19-14, and Poth nipped Somerset 13-6. Elsewhere it was about as expected. Clarendon thrashed Petersburg 35-14, DeLeon beat Munday 33-28, Honey Grove edged Clifton 7-6. Mart dropped Rogers 20-7 and Schulenburg beat Barbers Hill 14-10.

Namath, Jets Will Test Raiders Today

By United Press International Joe Namath left quite a bit to be desired Thursday night when he substituted for vacationing Johnny Carson on the NBC Tonight Show, but the New York Jets' quarterback hopes to put on a better show Sunday against the Oakland Raiders. The Raiders, currently leading the American Football League's Western Division by percentage points over Kansas City, will be making their first visit to Shea Stadium since last year's championship game, which they lost to the Jets, 27-23. Oakland needs a victory to retain its lead in the West, while the Jets can look up their second straight Eastern crown with a triumph. Broadway Joe followed up his Thanksgiving workout by replacing Carson on the Tonight Show and one of his guests was teammate Bake Turner, who displayed his talents as a country singer. Turner, used rather sparingly as the backup flanker, will be called upon for extensive duty for the rest of the season with leading receiver Don Maynard on the sidelines with a chipped bone in his instep. The game will be a preview of either one of the AFL's newly-instituted division playoff contests or of the championship game itself. Under the playoff system, the first-place team in the East meets the runnerup in the West and vice versa with the winners advancing to the championship contest. The odds-makers, obviously unimpressed with Turner's singing and Namath's chit-chat, have made the Raiders four-point favorites. The remainder of the AFL schedule Sunday finds Boston (3-8) at Tampa to play Miami (2-8-1) and Cincinnati (4-6-1) at Buffalo (3-8). Boston and Buffalo, both wallowing near the bottom of the Eastern Division all season long, find themselves still in contention for the second playoff berth in the East. For either the Patriots or the Bulls to earn some playoff money, both must win their remaining three games while the Oilers drop their last two. The Patriots have won three of their last four after dropping their first seven games. One of Boston's losses was an 18-7 heartbreaker at the hands of the Dolphins when a two-point conversion attempt failed. Carl Garrett, making a serious bid for rookie of the year honors, gained 96 yards in 13 rushing attempts in Boston's 35-21 victory over Buffalo last week. The Bulls' O. J. Simpson, improving with every game, gained 98 yards rushing against Boston. A victory for Cincinnati would move the Bengals out of last place in the West.

Sayers, Chicago Matched In Battle With Kelly, Browns

By United Press International A knee that has mended, a hamstring that has healed and a sore toe that still aches all adds up to an exciting rushing race in the National Football League. Gale Sayers, running with the grace and swiftness that carried him to the NFL's rushing title in 1966, has battled back from a crippling knee injury and has moved into second place behind Calvin Hill in this year's race. Sayers leads the Chicago Bears against the Cleveland Browns and Leroy Kelly Sunday in a game that matches two of the best runners in football. Kelly, sidelined earlier in the year with a pulled hamstring, has moved up to ninth in the league in rushing after his 154-yard performance against the New York Giants last week. Cleveland is a six point favorite. Hill, the Dallas Cowboys' sensational rookie, appeared to have the rushing title wrapped up but a swollen toe forced him to sit out the Los Angeles Rams game and limited him to a few minutes of playing time in Thursday's tie with the San Francisco Forty-Niners. Hill's inactivity in the past two weeks has given Sayers a chance to capture his second rushing title and Kelly an outside shot of winning the crown for the third straight year. Both are healthy now and they should close the gap when they match strides Sunday in Chicago. In other games Los Angeles is an eight point favorite over Washington, Baltimore is an 11½ point pick over Atlanta, New Orleans is a one point choice over Philadelphia, St. Louis is favored over Pittsburgh by 9½ and Green Bay is an eight point pick over New York.

West Texas Opens Basketball Season Monday In H-Simmons

CANYON — West Texas State University's Buffaloes test their basketball "muscles" Monday, traveling to Abilene to play the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboys. The Buffaloes fought Hardin-Simmons, 111-104, in their first high scoring battles last year. The Buffaloes whipped Hardin-Simmons, 111-104, in their first meeting last year, but fell in a double overtime game, 122-118. Buffalo coach Dennis Walling welcomes back three starters from last year's club which won 18 and lost only eight. That team, led by Mike Mitchell and All-American Simmie Hill, earned an invitation from the National Invitational Basketball Tournament. Back are 6-5 James McCloud, last year's third leading scorer and second leading rebounder, 6-3 Dale Blaut and 5-10 Ron Howle. McCloud averaged 14.1 9.5 rebounds. Blaut hit for an 11.3 average points per game last season and Howle averaged 5.9 points per game.

Letterman Gene Mardock (6-5) and transfer Eddie Fitzgerald (6-7) will probably start at the other two positions. Mardock scored at a 3.3-point per game clip last year and Fitzgerald is a junior college transfer. David Cole, the 5-8 senior from Austin, and 6-2 sophomore George Bailey will also see considerable action, as will 6-10 junior squadman Johnny Burkhalter. KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI)—Tennessee wrapped up its second Southeastern Conference football championship in three years Saturday with a 40-27 rout of Vanderbilt. Quarterback Bobby Scott threw one touchdown pass and scored one himself in leading the Gator Bowl-bound Vols to their one-sided triumph for a 9-1 season and a 5-1 SEC mark. That gave Tennessee the conference title over Louisiana State, which was 4-1 in SEC play.

Robinson Could Be First Negro Manager

NEW YORK (UPI)—Frank Robinson of the Baltimore Orioles insists he wants to become a major league manager. For Robinson, there's a point. He wants to be the first black athlete to manage a major league baseball team. But why other baseball men set their sights on managing is a mystery. There are small signs baseball is taking a more liberal view about long term contracts for managers, yet the turnover remains massive. Exactly one-third of the 24 teams in the majors will open next season with managers that weren't there last spring. Seventeen clubs will open with managers who weren't there for the kickoff in 1968. Social security in that business is more like social disaster except for that great escape artist, Walt Alston of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Walt has been on deck every year since 1954, always with a one year contract, of course. It's altogether a strange game. Managers who have been fired by one or more clubs have gone to other teams and won pennants.

Latest example would be Hank Bauer, who had been bounced before and since winning the 1966 world championship for Baltimore. Best example of all is Casey Stengel, who had been fired on several occasions before he took over the New York Yankees and won in 10 of 12 tries before he was fired by the Yankees for being too danged old. Alston stands alone as the dean of the current managers. Next in line is Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals (1965), followed by Leo Duracher of the Chicago Cubs (1966) and Ralph Houk of the Yankees (mid-1966, second term). All the rest are 1967 or later—with eight of them brand new for 1970. Well, at least they're brand new on current jobs. Some are old faces in new places like Dave Bristol who was fired at Cincinnati but turned up with Seattle on the first bounce. Bill Rigney, dropped during the season by the California Angels, replaced Billy Martin of the Minnesota Twins and Danny Murtaugh agreed to come out of retirement to take over for Larry Shepard of the Pittsburgh Pirates. One other, Charlie Mayo, is a more or less former manager. Charlie once was head coach for the Cubs in the days they had no manager as such but employed a revolving board of coaches. Charlie is the new man at Kansas City, replacing Joe Gordon, who announced he'd had it. The rest are rookie managers on their first go-round. Frank Lucchese replaced Bob Skinner at Philadelphia. Eddie Kasko went to Boston in place of Dick Williams. John McNamara replaced Hank Bauer in the ever-changing managerial scene at Oakland and Sparky Anderson took over Bristol's job at Cincinnati. As the exception to the rule, Alston is perfectly safe on his usual one year contract. Among the others, nobody is as well-fixed as Alvin Dark at Cleveland. Dark signed a five year contract last January, has a voice in front office affairs and has to be in good shape whether or not he's able to buy into the club as he hopes. But who gets deals like Alvin's? Or front-office cooperation like Alston?

Las Vegas, Nev. (UPI)—Former heavyweight champion Sonny Liston, continuing his comeback to win back the crown, has signed to fight Leotis Martin Dec. 6. Liston has won 14 straight fights, 13 by knockout, since he lost his title to Cassius Clay five years ago.

Groom Bounced In Bi-District By 14-0 Score

PANHANDLE — Groom finds playing Lazbuddie as frustrating as the Dallas Cowboys find the San Francisco 49ers. Groom lost for the second straight year to the Eagles in the bi-district playoffs, here Friday night.

in the first half and ended the Tigers' winning streak at 10 games, 14-0, behind the running of quarterback Darrell Matthews.

Groom, who posted a 10-0 regular season record and won District 5-B for the 10th straight year, could not get its famed offense of Danny Blackwell, Dal Howerton and Mark and Johnny Britten moving. Lazbuddie won last year, 26-6, in the playoffs.

Matthews, who was the night's leading ground gainer, put Lazbuddie in front, 6-0, in the first period on a 17-yard run. The conversion failed and Larry Hodges made it, 14-0 at halftime with a 20-yard scamper and Matthews hit Charles Lee with the two point conversion.

While the Groom offense was sputtering the defensive unit kept the game close intercepting two Lazbuddie passes, but the Tigers had one scoring threat stopped when they lost a fumble.

Matthews, a stocky 170-pounder picked up 141 yards rushing in 22 carries and helped the Longhorns move 51 yards in five plays on their third possession for the score, which was aided by a 15-yard Groom penalty.

The Longhorns now meet Throckmorton for the regional title at a site and time yet to be determined.

CANADIAN HONORED
MONTREAL (UPI) — Russ Jackson, the Ottawa Roughriders' quarterback who plans to retire after Sunday's Grey Cup game against Saskatchewan, was honored Friday as the outstanding player in the Canadian Football League as well as the top Canadian performer this season.

CLEVELAND (UPI) — Coach Bob Cousy had nothing but words of criticism for player Bob Cousy.
"I threw the game away," said the 41-year-old player-coach of the Cincinnati Royals following his team's 106-105 loss to New York Friday night that enabled the Knicks to set a National Basketball Association record of 18 straight victories.

after his ace, Oscar Robertson, fouled out, was referring to an inbounds pass he made with 16 seconds remaining. Dave DeBusschere of New York stole the pass and swept in all alone for the layup, which cut the Knicks' deficit to a single point.
"All I had to do was throw the ball inbounds and we would have won," said the disgruntled Cousy.

The victory was the Knicks' 11th on the road without a loss this season and upped their record to 23-1 as they returned home for tonight's game against the Detroit Pistons.
Frazier's two clutch free throws were his 26th and 27th points of the night, second only to the game-high 33 tossed in by Robertson. ## New Guard Prevails For Knicks

By United Press International
The paths of two National Basketball Association eras crossed Friday night.
As is to be expected, the new guard prevailed.
Bob Cousy, who helped the Boston Celtics build the finest dynasty in the history of the NBA, threw away a pass in the dying seconds and the New York Knicks—starting to build a new dynasty—scored six points in the last 16 seconds to beat the Cincinnati Royals 106-105.

It was the 18th straight victory for the Knicks, who are now 23-1, and enabled them to set an NBA record for the longest winning streak in league history. The previous streak of 17 was held by two teams coached by Red Auerbach, the 1946 Washington Capitols and the 1959 Boston Celtics. Cousy, now player-coach of the Royals, was a star member of that Celtic team, which had its streak snapped by the Royals.

Other NBA Action
In other games, Philadelphia trounced Detroit 110-91, Atlanta beat Boston 130-105, Chicago topped San Diego 126-119, and San Francisco downed Los Angeles 114-108.
Cousy, who entered the game with 1:49 left when Oscar Robertson fouled out on a controversial loose ball foul, made two free throws with 27 seconds remaining to put the Royals ahead 105-100 and it looked like the Knicks were doomed.
But Willis Reed made two free throws with 16 seconds remaining to cut the deficit to 105-102 and Coach Cousy called time out to set up the final strategy. Cousy then threw the ball in bounds but Dave DeBusschere stole the pass and dribbled in all alone for the basket that cut the Royals' lead to 105-104.

Cousy Takes Blame
"I threw the game away," Cousy said after the game. "All I had to do was throw the ball inbounds and we would have won."
But the Royals were still one point ahead and it took one more interception, by Reed, to win the game. Reed fired to Walt Frazier, who missed the shot, but was fouled by Tom Van Arsdale in the battle for the rebound. He made both shots.
Joe Caldwell scored 34 points to pace Atlanta to the victory over Boston. Celtic coach Tom Heinsohn was ejected from the game with 8:07 left and Auerbach took his place. John Havlicek had 22 for the Celts. Philadelphia took a 13-0 lead and breezed past Detroit. Billy Cunningham scored 26 points for the 76ers, while Jim Walker had 19 for Detroit.
Clem Haskins scored 14 of his 38 points in the last 12 minutes to lead Chicago past San Diego. Elvin Hayes had 33 for the Lakers.
Joe Ellis hit on 14 of 17 field goal attempts for 31 points and Nate Thurmond added 25 to power the Warriors over the Lakers.
The injury-riddled Lakers cut a 19-point San Francisco lead to 112-108 late in the game before Jeff Mullins' short jump shot put the game out of reach.

Brundage May Give Up Olympic Post

NEW YORK (UPI)—Sports of all sorts:
Clary Anderson, who became a college football coach at Montclair, N.J., State for the first time this year after more than a quarter century in the high school ranks, admits he made a wrong guess about one of his famous grads—fullback Garvie Crow of Michigan. Crow scored the first two touchdowns in Michigan's whopping upset over Ohio State Nov. 22.
"I told Garvie he'd be a regular on any college team in America by the time he was a junior," says Clary, whose former high school football stars include astronaut Edwin A. Dr. Jr. "But Garvie was better than that. He made it at Michigan as a sophomore three years ago and they haven't got him out yet."

Speaking of astronauts, as physical culture buff Brooks Mendell is doing constantly these days, they'll be getting a batch of scrolls with a million signatures on them as a salute to space pioneers. Brooks has signatures from persons in all walks of life and now is working in the sports crowd. He personally has collected scores of them from famous athletes but any individuals or teams who'd like their autographs included among the million can sign their own scrolls and send them to Mendell, care of the Yale Club, New York City.

LSU Star Maravich Sees Winning Season For Team

BATON ROUGE, La. (UPI)—"Pistol Pete" Maravich, the Louisiana State star who may become the first college basketball player to score 3,000 career points, says he'll ease up a bit this year.
Maravich captured the college basketball scoring crown the past two seasons, scoring 1,138 points for a 43.8 average his sophomore year and 1,148 points for a 44.2 average last year.
He needs 687 points to surpass the three-year record of 2,973 points scored by Oscar Robertson at Cincinnati, and 714 points to pass the 3,000 mark.
But the slender, 6-5 All-

America guard says he plans to concentrate more on refining those behind-the-back passes and his ballhandling this year, sharing more of the scoring with his teammates.
The Tigers have switched to a three-man front line this year, hoping 6-6 sophomore Al Sanders, 6-8 senior Danny Hester and 6-9 sophomore Bill Newton will add offensive punch. Jeff Tribbett, a plucky 6-foot senior, will join Maravich in the backcourt.
"This year we'll have more rebounding and a bigger front line, it will take the pressure off me as far as shooting is concerned," said Maravich. "I won't have to go out and average 40 or 45 points a game."
"This year I guess I'll shoot even less than I did last year. I'm going to concentrate on passing more than I ever have. I hope to have a repertoire of passes that I haven't used before."
A change in offensive manpower isn't the only new look in the Tiger basketball camp this season. The once skinny Maravich has added 20 pounds, and now weighs about 200.

Torres Praises Boxer Hagnata

GUADALAJARA, Mexico (UPI)—Eugen "Spider" Torres and Bernabe Villacampo may fight in Mexico in February to decide who really wears the world flyweight crown. Torres' manager and a local fight promoter said today.
Angel Casillas was elated over his fighter's unanimous 15-round victory Friday night over Susumo Hagnata of Japan to retain the World Boxing Council version of the championship.
Casillas said he planned to have Torres "working constantly" to prepare for a possible bout with Villacampo of the Philippines, regarded as champion by the World Boxing Association, "to decide once and for all who is the best."
Mexico City promoter Pablo Ochoa said Torres would return to action within three months, either here or in the capital. He said the Mexican would no longer fight non-title bouts.
Torres, meanwhile, had nothing but kind words for Hagnata. "He may be champion some day," the Mexican said.
Torres, who celebrated his 26th birthday Friday, said Hagnata was "very quick but his punches lacked power."

According to recent Rome he's on his final term in that post. British sources believe Navy may bring in a full-time leader in the running as civilian athletic director to give successor as Lord Killanin of a better continuity to its Ireland, Guilo Onesti of Italy, athletic program. PAMPA'S BETA Sigma Phi Sorority will present its Red Stocking Revue of "The Roaring 20's" Dec. 5, 6 in the Pampa High School auditorium.

THE REVUE, directed by Calvin Swanson, Los Angeles, Calif., will be set in New York during Charles A. Lindberg's ticker-tape welcome after his trans-oceanic flight.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

CURTAIN TIME at 8 p.m. will be the beginning of the end of several weeks of cast rehearsals and set construction by members of the sorority's six chapters, Phi Epsilon Beta, Rho Eta, Upsilon, Xi Beta Chi, Xi Theta Iota and Preceptor Chi.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

PROCEEDS of the show will be used for the sorority's scholarship fund which will be given to a deserving Pampa High School senior.

CHAIRMEN ARE Mrs. Raymond Williams and Mrs. Bill Baten who are directing volunteers and sorority members working on the 22 Revue committees.

A BLUE-COATER trio, the John Held Heroes, who will introduce Beta Sigma Phi's Red Stocking Revue are from left, Richard Hadley, Ken Freeman and Glenn Cox. Pianist for the Revue's Dec. 5 and 6 revival of the 1920's is Mrs. Jack Edwards. The trio is named for John Held, who immortalized the short-skirted "flapper girls" with his Roaring 20's magazine cartoons.

WRAPPED IN racoon coats to ward off New York's cold wind, Gertrude and George, alias Mrs. Tom Chambliss and Jack Edwards, conjure a match-making plot which mixes four "nice Texas kids" with a gangster "rub-out," a popular pastime during the Roaring 20's.

formance is one of several song and dance routines which will be mingled with the Revue's story theme, Lindberg's triumphant return home after his first trans-oceanic flight.

THESE FRINGE-SKIRTED lasses bent into position for their Revue performance will decorate the Pampa High School stage as they perform their "Sam The Old Acordin Men" routine. Three of several Pampons performing to raise money for a Pampa High School scholar-

POLLY'S POINTERS

She Cleans Table Cloth With Ammonia Solution

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY — Mrs. B.J. can remove coffee and tea stains from her plastic tablecloth by using 1/2-cup of a clear ammonia detergent to a quart of warm water. Scrub small areas at a time with a small brush and rinse with warm water. This also is good for any leatherlike fabrics. My flannel-backed plastic cloth looks like new after doing this.

MRS. G.R. DEAR GIRLS—I presume Mrs. G.R. is referring to an ammonia all-purpose liquid cleaner that makes suds like a detergent and does work well for this.

—POLLY.

POLLY'S PROBLEM DEAR POLLY — Our ceilings were plastered in a swirl design and I would like to know how we can paint them without ruining this pattern. I am afraid regular paint will cover the swirls.

—MAXINE

DEAR POLLY — I live alone and seldom use the big oven to my electric range but use a small broiler constantly. My counter space is limited so a place to keep the broiler was a problem until I took a 12x24-inch board, covered it with adhesive-backed paper and laid it across the two back burners on the stove which I never use. I shove the board all the way back to the wall so there is no danger of scorching when the front burners are on. I would not recommend this for a gas stove with a flame but it is great for an electric stove which has no flame. I use the range oven for storing cookies, crackers and paper products.

DEAR GIRLS — This is a great idea for a storage place for a portable boiler, or any other small appliance, but extreme care should be used when the front burners are on, even on an electric stove.

Omitting the paper covering would help but it would be safer to use a metal tray or even a cookie sheet.

Fashion Crosses American, Soviet Borders

TASHKENT, U.S.S.R. (UPI) — It was the first time a U.S. fashion show made a Soviet tour that took it all the way from Moscow to Central Asia.

But there the American "models" were, telling Uzbekistani women about American designer names like Adolfo, Malcolm Starr, Oscar De La Renta and Anne Klein.

The women were in this ancient capital of the Uzbek Republic undoubtedly did not know that the designers represented some of the top names in Western fashion. But they showed no surprise at seeing such items of Western dress as miniskirts, pantsuits and maxicoats. Styles have a way of crossing all borders. They applauded the American fashions with enthusiasm and with just as much enthusiasm we American women who gave the informal show snapped up their national "uniform," a many colored silk dress with short sleeves or sleeveless, its unbelted body falling in gathers from a yoke.

Civic Culture Members Review Impact Of New Religion Group

The Civic Culture Club met in the home of Mrs. D. A. Rife with Mrs. A. D. Hills conducting the business meeting as members planned a Christmas party for Dec. 9, with dinner at 6:30 p.m. in the Black Gold dining room.

Games and fellowship are scheduled in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Osborne of Pampa. The order of Texas Place Mats was received and distributed.

Members present were Mmes. Katie Vincent, A. B. Cross, C. V. Forsman, Frank Grantham, John McKnerney, George Neef, Emmett Osborne, Carl Smith and D. A. Rife, hostess.

The program on Home Life was brought by Mrs. A. B. Cross, program chairman, who said, "Today our religious faith is being challenged — and Christianity is falling behind in this country and abroad."

"American church membership is sagging. Attendance has slipped. Other signs of declining church influence have appeared not only in this country but also abroad," she said.

"United Nation report noted Christians constituted a third of the world's population at the start of the century but now are only 25 per cent. Continuation of that same downward trend would reduce this to 22 per cent by the century's end."

"Today non-believers have banded together to invent what Martin L. Gross calls a 'New American Religion' as it has no official name. It is a religion of social awareness made up of a pastiche of arrogant claims of moral superiority, national hatred, youth cultism and self-indulgence, all fashioned into a new worship architected to replace the religions that have underpinned our democracy.

"Its manifestations are all about us. Some of the young practitioners bear candlelit witness to their opposition to the Vietnam war; they chant against war, racism and poverty and use marijuana as a religious opiate," she said.

"What is wrong then with this new version of man's historic attempt to worship? The answer is the 'New American Religion' is a false religion. The false new faith confuses politics and religion, unaware that history can clearly refute one's assured social beliefs, leaving his morals naked and his person ashamed.

"It is a religion of hypocrisy, where one claims good intentions and social piety, but can hate at will; one's opponents, neighbors, nation, parents, or self. It espouses collective good, but has no sense of personal salvation.

"But despite its falsity, the New Religion has power and should not be underestimated. The spirit of the new religion is anti-democratic. It claims to know better than the people, a spiritual lie that imprisoned man for centuries. America broke that lie when it created a Republic and democracy with its base on religion," Mrs. Cross said.

"The fashion on-the-go show was the brainchild of Mrs. Earl C. (Bernice) Behrens, wife of the political editor of the San Francisco Chronicle. Mrs. Behrens coordinated the unofficial and informal 'delegation' of women for international understanding," some 30 of us representing assorted careers, on this tour of Eastern Europe.

Staged Show Last Fall Mrs. Behrens headed a similar group last fall and staged a fashion show too, but in Moscow only at the House of Fashion, a creative center for Soviet designers. Last fall, House of Fashion professionals modelled clothes and the Americans showed items from their own wardrobes only.

This time, the U.S. women modeled their own, and in addition combined with the Russian models to show clothes sent to the Soviet Union by such firms as Blass, Klein, Starr, De La Renta, Abe Shrader, Kimberly Knits, Teal Traina, Gayle Kirkpatrick and Samuel Roberts.

The designer collection eventually was returned to the House of Fashion for permanent exhibit.

"Dishwashers work best with conditioned soft water. Exceptionally hard water mineral deposits leave film and spots on your dishes," she said.

"Dishwashers aren't miracle machines; they have to be helped," says Faith Prior, home economist at the University of Vermont Extension Services. "All the manufacturers emphasize the importance of proper loading, adequately hot water, and the correct dishwashing detergent."

Dishwater should be hotter than your hand can take. About 145 to 160 degrees is best for reducing bacteria, the home economist advises.

Detergent made specifically for dishwashers is the only detergent to use in a dishwasher. Other detergents cause suds to build up and clog the machine, Mrs. Prior said.

"Dishwashers work best with conditioned soft water. Exceptionally hard water mineral deposits leave film and spots on your dishes," she said.

Variety In Fur Hats The fur hat is still "in," with more variety in furs. Leopard, mink, muskrat, rabbit and some great piles and fake furs (which are the next best thing to real) are great for snowy weather. Matching scarves and mufflers are also good.

"Dishwashers work best with conditioned soft water. Exceptionally hard water mineral deposits leave film and spots on your dishes," she said.

Dear Abby

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Our group is comprised of women who are interested in learning to wrestle and box for fun and amusement. We are not advocating bouts between men and women, but we wouldn't refuse such encounters if they were to arise.

servng. Your message would have been clear. And you have saved yourself a lot of fuming.

The girls wear bathing suits and work out on the mats in the health studio. We want to know if there is any "danger factor" in this kind of sport for women? This is not a put-on. We are sincerely interested in a serious reply.

DEAR ABBY: I am 16 years old. When I was not yet 1 I got pregnant, and the baby skipped town. I had a baby girl, and she is now 8 months old.

MILWAUKEE DEAR MILWAUKEE: My medical authorities agreed that repeated blows in the area of the breasts can be dangerous to women, so unless some kind of protective covering is worn, you'd better skip the boxing.

My problem is my parents. They kept the baby and are raising her to believe that she are her Mom and Daddy and that I am her big sister.

As for wrestling, you can bend each other into pretzels if you like, but co-ed bouts are not recommended.

Abby, I don't think this is right. I want my baby to know that I am her mother. My mother says this will embarrass the baby when she grows up and it's better this way.

I entertained at my home for dinner one evening. It was rather informal, and I placed the hot dish in the center of the table. Well, one of the women had several helpings, after which she took her fork and started to eat right out of the serving dish! While we sat and talked, she kept picking away.

My mother is very possessive. She hardly lets me near the baby. I think my mother acts this way because I am her only child, and she never could have any more after me.

DEAR ABBY: I will never have the same problem again with the person involved in this one, because she will never be invited to another meal at my house, but please tell me what I should have done.

Please tell me what to do. NO NAME PLEASED. DEAR NO NAME: Unfortunately, you are not much more than a child yourself now, but you are a mother and have some rights. Talk to your minister, doctor, or lawyer so that someone will know the true percentage of the child, should you decide to file a valid claim upon her later. For the present, finish your education and try to become the kind of woman your child will be proud to call "Mother" if and when you decide in due time to set her straight.

DEAR ABBY: I will never have the same problem again with the person involved in this one, because she will never be invited to another meal at my house, but please tell me what I should have done.

Celebrities Decorate Yule Trees Keyed To Children

NEW YORK (UPI)—Lipsticks, looking like so many red candles, decorate a yule tree dreamed up by Joe Namath, quarterback for the New York Jets. Why? Next to football, Joe likes girls best.

Ornaments on a tree meeting actor David McCallum's specifications are made of paper, yarn, bits of metal, egg boxes, milk cartons, macaroni.

They were made by retarded children under the direction of the National Association of Retarded Children. McCallum's interest in retarded children stems from his role in "Teacher, Teacher," a television production featuring a retarded boy.

The trees are among 18 decorated by famous persons from the worlds of entertainment, religion, politics, sport, music, writing, fashion and the arts.

The celebrity Christmas trees are at the Hallmark Free Gallery on New York's Fifth Avenue, not far from Central Park. The exhibit runs until Jan. 3.

Celebrities keyed their trees to interests. Samples:

—Terence Cardinal Cooke, Archbishop of New York, showed a tree dedicated to all the children of the world and decorated with pictures representing children of all ethnic and national groups.

—Dame Judith Anderson, actress, ordered her tree adorned with fruit, vegetables and cookies.

—Johnny Cash, country and western singer, is a former cotton picker. His tree is covered with cotton bolls.

—Tony Randall, actor, decorated his tree with insects, butterflies, spiders and beetles.

—Dan Rowan and Dick Martin, stars of "Laugh In," went halves on their tree. Rowan's side is traditional. Martin's is decorated with objects suggesting interests in earthly delights—pin up pictures, miniature liquor bottles, perfume bottles, cocktail glasses, fancy garters.

—Rep. Shirley Chisholm, D-N.Y., ordered up a tree decorated with costume dolls of all nations. The tree also is adorned with paper chains on which are printed the words: peace, harmony, brotherhood, love. A banner near the tree reads: "progress through understanding."

There are trees decorated with sausage, birds, and kitchen utensils. And one "tree" isn't a tree at all—it's a dressmaker's dummy decorated with fashion accessories.

At least, though, this year, all the trees are standing, even if one is a dressmaker's dummy. Last year, the celebrity collection included one tree placed horizontally on a bed.

STATE PRESIDENT

Teachers' Sorority Honors Mrs. Cable

Alpha Iota and Gamma conclave of Kappa Kappa Iota teachers' sorority met recently in Lovett Memorial Library for a salad luncheon honoring Delta State President Mrs. Myrl Cable.

A Fall setting of golden mums and russet leaves was completed with fan-tailed balloon turkeys marking individual luncheon tables. Hostesses for the meeting were Mmes. Herbert Coker, D.V. Biggers, Joe Davis, Jim Goff of Gamma conclave and Mmes. Jerry Peurifoy, Russell Mason, John Rosenberg of Alpha Iota conclave.

Gamma President Mrs. Wendell Watson presided at the luncheon. Choral grace and Kappa's Pledge was led by Mrs. Austin Ruddick. Mrs. D.V. Biggers introduced guest speakers Mrs. Fay Dellis Adams and Mrs. Essie Mae Walters who spoke on "The Effects of Movies on Our Daily Values".

Mrs. Adams reviewed several contemporary controversial movies and discussed the movie code rating of each. She stated

"these are designed as money makers by the producers, not as moral lessons for today's youth".

Mrs. Walters discussed teenage values and how they are formed, and stressed false values.

"The values by the establishment" have a more detrimental effect on teenagers than today's movies.

"Values of the young are still basically formed in the home, but a questionable movie is still a questionable movie for any age. Adults are more shocked by today's problems than our "children of the media", she said.

Alpha Iota President Mrs. Richard Serrurier presented an engraved silver bowl to Mrs. Cable in a salute to the Grand Royal High Lady. Mrs. Cable has taught in the Pampa school system and was a charter member of Gamma conclave. She now presides as Grand Royal High Lady over 53 conclaves in the state of Texas and lives in Midland. Your Horoscope JEANE DIXON

SUNDAY, NOV. 30 Your birthday today: The year ahead is one of learning to use unusual methods to extend both social and business activity. People are inclined to like your beliefs and proposals as your decisions and terms become crisp, clear cut. Partners are fairly easy to find and deal with. Romance is within reach if you have the time to devote to it. ARIES (March 21-April 19): Odd experiences are commonplace today, and coincidence features a rather improbable or fascinating situation. New contacts are promising. TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Family activities keep you occupied. Be sure, however, to do your duty to your community and to allow for some privacy. GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Everything is at the tip of your fingers and so easy to rush through that you may overdo. Someone in your social circle has a helpful idea. CANCER (June 21-July 22): Property holds your attention strongly; changes and repairs are needed. Creature comforts seem overattractive. Stick with your diet and thus enjoy the day and evening more fully. LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Everybody is acutely sensitive to disclosure of events of the last few days. Leave off the inquiry and you will eventually get a straighter story. Coincidence brings about a most extraordinary incident. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): New people may become very important in your thinking. Your financial outlook improves abruptly, then settles to normal. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): More facts come to light from travel undertaken for other reasons. Use notebooks or other ways of refreshing your memory. Nobody is very happy with your independent ideas, but much is at stake in looking after your own interests. SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): This Sunday it is important that you extend yourself and your resources to help keep the peace and to protect your community from dissension. Gladly make the effort. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Secret activities blunder into unexpected visibility this Sunday when you meet head on with somebody from your own bailiwick. It's better to stay home and concentrate on improving your mind or state of health. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Be ready to discuss your specialty with a visiting stranger - it just may happen that someone of competence and charm arrives. Otherwise, solitary diversions are preferable. AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Original projects thrive until you expect everybody to give up his own doings and join in yours. Then all balk. Lessen your demands on others. PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): People are seeking you for a wide variety of reasons. Be ready to readjust according to whom the inquirers are. Keep your main discourse to social trivia. Direct questions will then indicate the interests of the strangers. MONDAY, DEC. 1 Present conditions improve steadily in the year ahead as you achieve minor adjustments. Rough edges smooth as your skills sharpen. You must control your moods, yet find room to express yourself. Monday's natives are headstrong, fatalistic, apt to plunge into ventures prematurely. ARIES (March 21-April 19): Get out bright and early, be conversant with the day's situation. Do not reply to provocative strangers. New starts are not favored this week. TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Give other people extra space and time to work out details. Do your share with minimum comment. Routines, old matters can be cleared away now. GEMINI (May 21-June 20): Effort on necessary matters works out better than involving extra people. At night make use of the crosscurrents to hold a simple gathering of friends with differing viewpoints. CANCER (June 21-July 22): The temptation is to begin the week with overoptimistic activity, with everybody you care about going along. Detailed preparations for later activities are strongly advised. VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): You are close to your best Monday in material affairs if you will listen to the urging of your intuitive powers. Family members, friends, neighbors pose some distraction. Will be well rewarded. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): Matters that already have been started go well. Relatives are quite sensitive. You are tactful enough in crucial situations; now you are tested in moments of drift and unpreparedness. SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Stand on your own feet and do what you find is well within your reach. Prepare in advance for future activities. Social spending easily gets out of hand. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Close associates are firmly with you Monday, according to how well you have dealt with them. Outside factors arouse impatience, perhaps hasty initiative. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Your natural tendency to plan ahead in detail requires verification of your information. AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Your judgment is sharper and more to the point than your friends' ideas. Don't expect favors or preference in the management of anything that is not entirely your own personal property. PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): What you do Monday benefits your partner or relatives more than it helps you. Expend as much energy as conditions permit; get a good start on the new week.

Space Age Cooks Have Advantage Over Pilgrims

NEW YORK (UPI)—If you ate turkey Thursday, you followed the pilgrim footsteps. But turkey a la king the next day, and turkey hash three days later are strictly modern day additions. Pilgrims had no place to store leftovers. What the Pilgrims didn't eat on the feast day went to the chickens and pigs—17th century dispose-alls. The turkey—er, meleagris gallopavo silvestris—they ate bore little resemblance to fattened birds served up today. They were wild and scrawny specimens. Eighteen pounds was considered a good weight. The birds were easily frightened, as are wild turkeys today. Scared, they could fly out of reach at 55 miles per hour. Today's turkeys, farmbred, have the same skittish disposition as that of the wild turkeys. During electrical storms turkey growers have to patrol their birds to keep them from flocking into frightened heaps and smothering each other. Dr. Robert L. Hamlin, of Ohio State University, says turkeys tend to high blood pressure. At the slightest provocation, they go into a spin. The only way to keep a turkey's blood pressure down is to keep him absolutely quiet. But Dr. Hamlin says that is impossible "since so much as looking cross-eyed at the bird will provoke him." A report in the Sons of the American Revolution magazine credits Greeks with naming turkeys. To wit: "The combs on the head of the male bird reminded the Greeks of the Turks wearing their red fezzes. Hence, they named the bird a "Turkey." New views of the Pilgrims are coming from research by those associated with a recreated village, Plymouth plantation, in Massachusetts. It is based on an analysis of records and finds from diggings. Reporting in "Natural History," journal of the American Museum of Natural History, Dr. James Deetz, says the Pilgrims weren't neat and weren't drab. Inventories of clothing indicated many colorful ones and few black or grey. They couldn't be neat because they lived in cluttered homesites, mostly with dirt floors. Implements and all else were stored indoors. Diggings show that trash apparently went out a window. Diggings also show evidence of all kinds of animal bones, but surprisingly, no turkey bones. Dr. Deetz finds that of sentimental interest.

Thinking Course To Offer Lessons In Reasoning For Complex Society

NEW YORK (UPI)—Well-dressed schools of the land boast of carpeting, eye-right blackboards (actually greenboards), language labs, computer centers, audio and video systems—and you name it.

But what they don't have mixed in with all their space-age comforts and courses is a simple thing called "a course in thinking."

How do you hit the books without thinking, you say? That's not the kind of thinking that would be covered in the course.

According to Coralie Cogswell, who's advancing such a course for "not later than the ninth grade," the thinking course would teach a person how to reason. She maintains no such course now is offered.

Mrs. Cogswell, former high school teacher and now instructor in English at the Pennsylvania State University, Scranton, describes her thinking course plan in a report in Today's Education journal of the National Education Association (NEA).

"Our society is complex, highly specialized," she said, "our nation is rife with conflicts and pressure groups; our people are constantly bombarded, propagandized and distracted by the mass media."

"Faced with complexity, conflict, and confusion, many individuals are driven to one extreme or another by their emotions; others withdraw from social and political issues and devote themselves to private interests and hedonistic distractions."

"Neither of these actions is a reasonable choice... but the ability to reason is what many of our citizens lack."

Mrs. Cogswell figures a thinking course would call on the skills of psychologist, philosopher, social scientist, journalist, linguist, and a scholar in the humanities.

These teachers would ask (and try to answer): what basic facts should every person know about the functioning of his mind? What must he know to read, listen and view critically? What must he know to think, write and speak?

Students also would be taught about non-spoken language—the symbolism in the American flag, the Bible, a lily and a wedding ring. They would learn about body language—smiles, gestures, raising an eyebrow.

One unit of the thinking course that would deal with television, commercial films, newspapers, and magazines, Mrs. Cogswell wants the before leaving school.

La Cultura Club To Survey Media On Critique Cards

La Cultura Study Club met for their regular meeting recently in the home of Mrs. Lee Foxworthy as Mrs. Phillip Rapstine, president, conducted the business meeting.

After mass media survey cards were distributed club members were instructed to view eight hours of television and return the critique cards to the "National Citizens Committee for Broadcasting."

Mrs. Scott Hall, introduced by Mrs. Foxworthy, presented a program on Christmas crafts and demonstrated several items easily made by children or adults.

Refreshments were served to Mmes. Robert Derenthal, Frank Small and Don Wilson, guests and members: Mmes. Tom Chambliss, Walter Colwell, Ralph Dozier, John Ellis, Lee Foxworthy, Ricardo Ramirez, Scott Nisbet and Phillip Rapstine.

NEW YORK (UPI)—Making your Christmas gift list and finding blanks beside names of persons who are hard to please.

How about shopping for a sphygmomanometer or any other unusual thing bound to make conversation, stir curiosity and perhaps require imagination in the use?

The Christmas gift books and ads already are full of descriptions of such tokens of appreciation.

This sphygmomanometer costs $10.50 and it's used to take blood pressure readings. If the shortage of doctors gets worse, this gadget may even have a practical use in 1970.

Also medical is a $2.25 item billed as "fascinating and educational for kids and adults." The item? A stethoscope.

Some gifts are the pig-in-a-poke variety. In this class is a $3.50 weight control kit. It contains, according to the ad, "10 carefully selected items to help reduce weight and increase humor."

If money's a problem, for just $2 you can get a warning sticker that goes on the door, proclaiming — "Warning! Protected by electronic automatic alarm system." There is no alarm system to go with the sign but if it helps, the sign's authentic.

Other favorites among things I've seen is a flashlight with a siren and a dog collar that glows in the dark. The former does the screaming for you in a mugging situation. And the latter helps Fido to be seen by motorists at night.

Things for the kitchen

Adult Class Has Fall Devotional

Adult I Sunday School Class of Central Baptist Church attended a Thanksgiving devotional recently for a program presented by Al Williams. Mrs. Richard James, 2229 Dogwood, was hostesses for the evening meeting.

Members attending were Messrs. and Mmes. James Baird, Charles Tingle, Wayne Cobb, Gene McClelland, Richard James, Dave Henkel, Willie Beasley, Severn Roberts, Wesley Crozier, Mrs. James Harvey and Mrs. Uoah Quinn, with Mr. and Mrs. Al Williams, as guests.

Christmas Season Requires Gift List

abound in catalogues. The people who allegedly have everything all through the house probably don't have a stripper, zester, fluter, or notcher in the kitchen—so a gift of any of these things will be appreciated, once you explain how it's used.

The stripper takes the colored rind from citrus fruits in one continuous spiral. The zester shaves carrots. The fluter puts those ridges across a cucumber, zucchini or potato when you slice it.

The notcher is a V-shaped blade that enables one to separate fruits into perfect, evenly notched halves.

Even those who seem to have everything for the kitchen probably don't have a cooler for caviar. Not one made of English lead crystal and silver plate. A mere $45.

If caviar isn't on the premises, the recipient of this item certainly can use it as a centerpiece—filled with flowers.

Area WMU Group Studies Missions

SKELLYTOWN (SPL)—Ladies of the WMU of the Skellytown First Baptist Church attended a Foreign Mission's study in Berger on "Sons of Ishmael How Shall They Hear," taught by Miss Lillie Mae Hundley, a retired missionary from China, Hawaii, Albuquerque, N.M., and Lebanon.

Those attending and representing the Skellytown First Baptist Church were Mmes. Ethel Mae Thurmond, Bill Campbell, J. C. Jarvis, Walt Shair, M. L. Mills, Wanda Rogers, Curtis Prescott, Freda Sturgill, Bill Thompson, Cora Price and Julia Stephenson.

Panhandle Water

By FELIX ROYALS WEST TEXAS ECONOMY LINKED TO WATER

West Texas is currently able to offer to new industries the best overall situation in the nation. This includes year round weather, soil, water, gas and oil for fuel, a plentiful supply of electricity, transportation, and an intelligent citizenry to supply the work force for new plants.

There is constant worry about one of these items-water. With the coming of irrigated agriculture to the southern portion of the Texas High Plains, water moved to the center of the economic stage. The changeover from dryland farming to irrigation got under way in the late forties. By 1956 all of West Texas and the Texas Panhandle was moving to an irrigated economy. With all the needed factors present the oil and gas industry continued to boom.

A fine working relationship developed between industry and irrigated agriculture that resulted in the emergence of what we now know as agribusiness. Dryland agriculture had no need for commercial fertilizer. Irrigated agriculture does use fertilizer. The oil and gas industry has supplied the answer to this need in the agricultural fertilizer plants of the Phillips Petroleum Company at Cactus, Shamrock Company at Etter. Both of these are in Moore County, near Dumas. Fertilizers for irrigated agriculture is now a multi-million dollar business.

The growth of cities in West Texas is also tied to these economic factors. Research studies of future growth areas of the United States reveal that West Texas will grow faster than most areas of the country.

Water is being used in West Texas at a faster rate than ever before. Most of the water being used is coming from an underground reservoir called the Ogallala formation. This fresh water reservoir is underlain by red clay beds. This red clay bed is impervious to water and protects it from the oil and gas formation below it. The oil and gas is mixed with salt water that must be kept out of the fresh water. Studies made by the Texas Board of Water Development and the Water Conservation Districts, of the underground water reservoir show conclusively that the underground reservoir is being depleted. The underground water reservoir is not being recharged by an outside source. For proof of this, one may go over to the Canadian River see the red clay beds exposed along the banks of the river. The Canadian River has cut down into the red clay. Underground fresh water north of the Canadian River is not connected to the underground fresh water south of the Canadian River.

The water authorities who have the best information available, concerning the water picture, are all agreed that the Ogallala reservoir will be approaching the dangerous depletion stage by 1980. By 1985 we will be in trouble on the "water front."

Agri-business is moving to West Texas at a fast pace. Feed lots and meat-packing plants have now become a big part of the economy. All of the growth factors, including a plentiful supply of water is now serving the new agri-business. A plentiful supply of natural gas and a source for water has brought the giant Hill Chemical Company to the Borger area.

ECONOMIC GROWTH FOLLOWS WATER

The original growth of Pampa, Borger and other nearby cities can be traced to oil and gas production in the area. The continued growth is in a large measure being determined by a plentiful supply of water. The addition of Lake Meredith and the nearness to underground water reservoirs, both south and north of the Canadian River gives the Borger trade territory an asset many cities do not have. Hill Chemicals, Inc. undoubtedly looked with favor on this asset. Chemicals manufactured by Hill Chemicals require a constant supply of water. Hill Chemicals, Inc. is located on a 300-acre tract adjacent to Borger, Texas, is the site of the 1,000 ton per day plant and related facilities. A second 1,000 tons per day production unit is planned and can be economically added with a minimum of additional engineering.

Hill Chemicals was sought after by a number of Panhandle cities. The company is indeed an economic boost to the area. The locating of the company in the Borger area, in all probability will induce other companies to come to the same area for the same basic economic growth factors. Hill Chemicals, Inc. has made a big addition to the economy of Borger and the Panhandle area. The plant was scheduled to produce 1000 tons of chemical fertilizers per day. It is now producing more than that amount. The company, as of November 1969, has 52 employees with an annual payroll of $600,000. This alone generates over four times that amount to the economy of Borger and surrounding area, through the clothing store, automobile agency, super-market, garage and service station. In addition Hill Chemicals purchases large amounts of supplies and materials from local suppliers. The company is now considering the possibility of going into the production of urea. This would mean added employees and added purchasing power to further generate the economy of the area. One townswoman in Borger summed it up by saying, "thank God for Lake Meredith, the underground water reservoir, and Hill Chemicals."

The water authorities who have the best information available, concerning the water picture, are all agreed that the Ogallala reservoir will be approaching the dangerous depletion stage by 1980. By 1985 we will be in trouble on the "water front."

National Recreation Area Director Named

The appointment of a new Superintendent for Sanford National Recreation Area and Alibates Flint Quarries National Monument was announced by Frank F. Kowski, Regional Director of the Southwest Regional Office of the National Park Service, Department of the Interior, today in his office in Santa Fe.

James M. Thomson, Superintendent of Fort Clatsop National Memorial near Astoria, Oregon, will replace Superintendent Mike Becker who recently transferred to the Regional Office in Santa Fe as Management Assistant.

A career employee of the National Park Service, Mr. Thomson started in 1949 as a Seasonal Ranger at Yellowstone National Park, Wyoming. His first permanent position was as Park Ranger at Lake Mead National Recreation Area, Arizona in 1951. In 1954 he was promoted and transferred to Walnut Canyon National Monument near Flagstaff, Arizona as Supervisory Park Ranger. Since that time he has been stationed at Bandelier National Monument, New Mexico; the Regional Office in Santa Fe, New Mexico; Great Smoky Mountain National Park, Tennessee; and Glacier National Park, Montana. His first appointment as Superintendent was at Gran Quivira National Monument, New Mexico in January 1964. In 1965 he was promoted and transferred to Fort Clatsop.

Ag Service Points Out Winter Duties

With harvest of the 1969 grain sorghum crop now almost completed, interest in next season's fertility program is a point worth thinking about, states Jim Valentine, area Extension soil chemist at the Texas A&M University Agricultural Research and Extension Center at Lubbock.

Major points to consider are the amount of residue present and soil texture, temperature and moisture conditions. "Nitrogen fertilizer can contribute to faster residue breakdown provided the soil temperature is above 50 degrees," points out Valentine. "But the nitrogen must be applied so as to contact the residue in moist soil. For this reason, nitrogen materials can conveniently be applied after shredding, preferably just ahead of cultivation.

"Remember that on clay loam soils two years of work by Texas A&M researchers at the USDA Southwestern Great Plains Research Center at Bushland clearly shows equal yield response from nitrogen applied after plowing, after bedding, after preplant irrigation or as an early sidedress. Part or all of your nitrogen on these heavy soils can be applied any time after harvest."

Mixed and sandy land soils present a different situation, adds the soil chemist. On a fine sandy loam in Parker County, A&M researchers showed that very significant yield advantages result from delaying an 80-pound nitrogen application until after the preplant irrigation.

A definite yield advantage also resulted from delaying a 160-pound nitrogen application until after the land was bedded in the spring.

This research shows that nitrogen can be lost through leaching in sandy soils where applied ahead of the crop's peak requirement. On such soils where residue is likely to be a problem in next year's operation, consider applying 30 to 60 pounds of nitrogen after shredding and ahead of cultivation. If this program is followed, apply the rest of your nitrogen within 35 days after the crop is up.

Remember that urea nitrogen-first changes to ammonia," reminds Valentine. "If left on the surface, under certain conditions of high humidity, part of the nitrogen can be lost to the atmosphere as ammonia. However, the extent of this loss has not been definitely established. Urea should therefore be cultivated into the soil soon after application."

Six years of A&M's research on clay loam soils has shown equal yield response from ammonium nitrate, ammonium sulfate, urea and anhydrous ammonia where applications were made so as to avoid nitrogen losses.

"Many operators may wish to apply relatively low rates of nitrogen and all of their phosphate and potash, where needed, in the fall," adds Valentine. "Be sure to place the phosphate deep enough so that at planting time it will be in a zone not subject to alternate wetting and drying. This will allow a constant supply of phosphate to be available to the crop. All, or at least a good part of the phosphate, should be in the plow layer. Unlike nitrogen, it moves very little from the point of application."

A soil test can readily determine the present nitrate, phosphorus and potassium levels in your field, points out the soil chemist. When interpreted along with the information supplied on information sheets available from the county agricultural agent's office, the Extension Soil Testing Laboratory at the Lubbock Center will return specific fertilizer use suggestions to the farm operator. More than 10 years of research correlated with soil test values for grain sorghum and other major crops validates these recommendations.

Grain Producers Launch Campaign

The Grain Sorghum Producers Association launched its 1970 Membership Campaign this week. Statements for dues have been mailed to farmers throughout this grain producing area. A.W. Anthony Jr., Friona Farmer and GSPA president, pointed out that, "GSPA dues are not to be mistaken with the collection of the five cents per ton assessments, at the elevators for the research and promotion work to be carried on by the Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board.

All the legislative work of GSPA has to be carried on with dues paid to the Association. The dues for 1970 have been set at $10 per member in the area of Texas that farmers are paying five cents per ton to Texas Grain Sorghum Producers Board. In areas outside the 29 county referendum area, dues will continue to be based upon two pounds per 1,000 pounds of production. The $10 membership dues plus

Texas Farmers Union Will Meet For 66th Convention

The theme of the 66th Annual Convention of Texas Farmers Union will be "Farmers Union - Fighting to Save the Farm Program." According to Farmers Union officials, plans will be laid at the state convention to mount a statewide grass roots crusade in support of the Federal farm programs. Robert Rapstine is the Gray County Union President.

The convention headquarters will be the Windsor Hotel in Abilene and the convention will open with an evening session, Thursday, Dec. 4, and conclude with the annual banquet on Saturday evening, Dec. 6.

A host of nationally known farm organization and government leaders will fill the three-made Illinois Farmers Union day convention schedule with interest-packed speeches. Farm organization leaders include Fred Heinkel, president of the Mid-continent Farmers Association from Columbia, Mo., and Ray Watson, president of the Illinois Farmers Union.

Heinkei has been termed the "fiery and dynamic president of one of America's strongest and most effective organizations." He's president of Farmers' Export Co., and received the National Farmers Union 1969 Outstanding Service to Agriculture Award.

Ray Watson, an Illinois corn and soybean grower, is one of the young "new breed" of Farmers Union leaders who has one of the fastest growing organizations among the Farmers Union states. He is a member of the Illinois Governor's Agriculture Advisory Board. Watson is an effective and articulate spokesman on farm policy.

Senator Ralph Yarborough, chairman of the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee, will address the convention on Saturday. As a member of the Agriculture Subcommittee of the Appropriations Committee, Senator Yarborough has been a diligent worker for increased and expanded soil and water conservation programs and is an eloquent spokesman for family farm agriculture.

Highlighting the banquet program on Saturday evening, National Farmers Union President Tony Dechant, Denver, will report on Farmers Union's nationwide membership campaign and outline the organization's challenges for the future. President Dechant is the nation's foremost farm spokesman and agricultural leader.

Others addressing the convention will be Ray Novak, executive vice president of the National Farmers Union Ins., who will report on the progress of the service program in Texas; and Jay Naman, Waco, president of Texas Farmers Union, will report on the progress of the state organization during 1969.

The convention will give priority attention to drafting policy recommendations to guide the direction of the organization in 1970. Many controversial issues are expected to be discussed during the program adoption. Jerry Warren of De Leon and Ronald Kotara of Panhandle are co-chairmen of a 15-member program drafting committee that has prepared a rough draft of the policy recommendations from resolutions submitted by the county organizations.

The convention will elect a state president and vice president to serve for 1970 and two delegates to represent Texas president and vice president to serve for 1970 and two delegates to represent Texas Farmers Union at the 1970 National Farmers Union Convention, which will be held at Denver in March.

A special Legislative Award will be made this year to a member of the legislature who has made a special contribution to family farm agriculture.

Other awards which will be presented are a Farm Editor - Newspaper Award and a Farm Editor - Radio, TV Award. The presentation of these awards will be made on Saturday morning.

The Saturday morning program will also include the presentation of greetings from agricultural youth organizations and exchanges of greetings from legislators and other dignitaries visiting the convention.

Convention delegates from the Gray-Roberts County area will be Roy Kretzmeier and Henry Harnly. Others attending will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rapstine and Mrs. Roy Kretzmeier.

Casualties Near WW 11 Number

SAIGON (UPI) - The number of Americans killed or wounded in nine years of fighting in Vietnam surpassed 300,000 this week and is approaching the American casualty total for World War I.

Official U.S. records show that as of last Saturday, 30,572 GIs had died in Vietnam and 258,778 had been wounded - a total of 299,692.

American military sources said today that fighting across South Vietnam since Saturday has cost the United States at least 309 dead and wounded, pushing the losses for the war above 300,000.

The sources said that if this rate of casualties continues, the Vietnam war will surpass World War I by April, 1970, and become the second costliest foreign war America has fought.

Official records show 320,710 U.S. casualties in World War I - 116,708 killed and 204,002 wounded.

The U.S. military assistance command, Vietnam, began keeping American casualty figures on Jan. 1, 1961. The first U.S. soldier reported killed in the war was Spec. 4 James T. Davis of Livingston, Tenn., who died Dec. 22, 1961.

More than 700,000 Americans, South Vietnamese troops, Viet Cong and North Vietnamese have died in the war, the United States' longest.

Agriculturally Speaking

By FOSTER WHALEY

Raymond Maddox, president of Gray County Farm Bureau, just returned from a historic state convention of the Texas Farm Bureau held at San Antonio, Texas.

We say historic because the new policies adopted by this organization marked a major policy shift. A resolution was adopted to support the Agricultural Act of 1965 without any payment limitations. This resolution carried by sixty-eight votes with some seven hundred delegates attending.

In effect the Texas Farm Bureau joined a host of other state and national farm organizations in backing the present farm program that is now operating.

The National Farm Bureau at present stands firmly against the present farm program. Allan Kline, a staunch advocate of an abolishment of all Government controls and supports, served as head of the Farm Bureau for many years before Mr. Charles Shuman, the current national president. Mr. Shuman has been a very strong leader opposing most all of the Government Farm Commodity Programs. He has served almost two decades as president of the National Farm Bureau.

Raymond said there was plenty of action at the San Antonio meeting on other matters. One of these was to limit the terms the State Farm Bureau president could serve. This was defeated however. The thinking was, it would be more difficult to ever elevate a state president to a national office if he could serve only four years.

For the first time in the history of the state organization the president was elected by the voting delegates from all over the state. In the past, the president had been elected by the thirteen state directors.

Sidney Dean, from Victoria County, was elected but had strong opposition from Mr. J.T. Woodson, district four state director from Fannin County.

The only change in State Directors occurred in District One where D. Coleman from Wellington was defeated by Carrol G. Chaloutka from Hartley County.

Pampa Youth and Community Center

Basketball League:

At a meeting last Monday night the men's basketball league was formed. Six teams entered the league including First National Bank, Borger, Cock O Walk, First Baptist, Coca-Cola and Celanese. Each team will play once each week with most games scheduled for Monday and Thursday nights. The league will play a double round robin and trophies will be awarded winners and runners-up.

Teen Dances:

The Center sponsors a teen dance each Friday night during the year and also on special holiday nights. Each dance is scheduled according to the basketball schedule. If the harvesters are playing in town, the dance is from 9:30 to 12. If they play out of town, the dance is from 8-11.

All dances are well chaperoned by parents, Center employees and 2 off-duty policemen. Rules are strict as to conduct of the young people and they can't come and go but must either stay at the dance or leave permanently. The schedule of bands is: Dec. 12 Seattle, Dec. 19 Shucks, Dec. 27 Tyme; Dec. 26 Blues Society add Jan 2 the Beaver Express.

Health Facility:

The new addition to the Center has really gone over big with the people of Pampa. No where in the USA will you find an overall plant such as the community of Pampa operates. The new addition added a large exercise room, sauna, dressing room, individual showers, 2 handball courts and all the latest exercise equipment. This complements our existing structure of a large recreation hall, gym, indoor heated swimming pool, 2 large dressing rooms, a meeting room in addition to several smaller rooms.

There are two types of memberships available for those interested in participating in these activities. The limited membership entitles you to use the original structures including the gym, recreation hall and swimming pool. This does not include privileges in the health facility. The limited membership for an individual costs $5 for six months and $8 per year. For a family the cost is $12 for six months and $20 per year. The unlimited membership includes all the facilities including the new health facility. This costs an individual $65 for six months and $118 per year. A husband-wife combination membership costs $90 for six months and $166 a year.

Calico Capers:

The Calico Capers Sq. Dance Club held their semi-annual election of officers this past week and these are the new officers: Pres. Henry Spencer, Vice-Pres. Harold Lawley, Secretary Don and Mary Woodriddle; Hospitality Edie Young; Reporter Pam Stafford. The Capers meet each Sat. night from 8-11 p.m. If you're interested in this type of dancing, they would invite you to visit them and learn about the possibilities of joining.

Red Cross News

By LIBBY SHOTWELL
Executive Secretary ARC

The meeting with executives taking the new course on "The Dos and Don'ts of Interviewing" was well attended. Your executive secretary went to the chapter house and was directed to the YWCA on Jackson St. where the meeting was held. Miss Bonnie McAfee from St. Louis, Mo. was in charge of the meeting with Bill Jean showing the films. The following were present: Mrs. Lillian Philpot, Plainview; Leona King, Corse from Murray; Thelma Spearman; Margaret Riley, Perryton; Genevieve Miller, Herford; Virginia Simmons, Borger; Libby Shotwell; Pampa; Jo Cox, Dumas; Bill Jean, Pat Harrigan, Myr; Benedict, B.A. Bailey, an Delbert Groves from Amarillo.

The Austin Elementary School Council members visited the Red Cross office Tuesday morning with their principal, D.V. Biggers. They turned in their enrollment with $76.28, and ordered 18 magazines for their school. These boys and girls wrapped the coins and made out the deposit slip for the bank. They also learned about the work of the Red Cross and planned to fill bags to be sent to the children overseas after Christmas holidays. Thanks boys and girls!

Pampa Junior High with Mrs. Roberta Kincaid, teacher-sponsor turned in $27.95 for their enrollment. We will order Journals for their school this year. Woodrow Wilson elementary School enrolled with $20.51 with E. John Simon, teacher sponsor of the school. Mr. Simon asked us to order 15 JRC News for their school. Sam Houston school enrolled with $32.30 with Louise Thornton teacher sponsor. Lefors Elementary School enrolled with $10.50 with Jess Baker, principal of the school and we have ordered 6 RC News for the school. Mrs. Johnnie Sybert is teacher sponsor for Lefors School. Lefors Jr. High enrolled with $2.50 and we ordered one journal. Hopkins school enrolled with $3; Tommy Adkins principal of the school. Mobeetie Elementary School enrolled with $7.50 with Mrs. Emma Ogden teacher sponsor. More schools next week.

When you read this, Thanksgiving will be over. The Welfare Index has tried to work with all agencies this year to see that only one basket was given to a needy family. We have worked with the Welfare Index for the past ten years and we believe that this is the way to keep duplications from occurring at these very special days.

Occupying Alcatraz Called Important To Red Men

The old men are all killed... the little children are freezing to death. Hear me, my chiefs, I am tired. My heart is sick and sad. From where the sun now stands, I will fight no more forever.

Chief Joseph's surrender

By ROBERT STRAND
SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—

The old men went on dying and the children suffered for nearly a century after Chief Joseph laid down his arms to the white man's soldiers. But perhaps even the Nez Perce Indian leader, the old realist himself, might see a glimmer of hope in the "occupation" of Alcatraz Island by a band of brash young braves.

Anthropologist Margaret Mead called the Nov. 20 seizure of Alcatraz "a magnificent piece of dramatization." It isn't funny to Indians—one calls it the most important event since red men actually stopped fighting white men.

The 100-odd youths still huddling in the former federal prison in San Francisco Bay are serious in their claim to the island.

They are even more serious in their determination to cause trouble all over the country with demands for the righting of long lists of injustices.

"We have been silent and turned the other cheek too damn long," says Lehman Brightman, local head of United Native Americans. "This is the most important event since we actually stopped warfare with white men in 1889."

White Man's Ways

This was a reference to the battle of Wounded Knee Creek in which 200 Sioux men, women and children, including relatives of Brightman, were killed by the U.S. Cavalry. The event ended the ghost dance, a movement for rejection of white man's ways and a return to the old style of life, then sweeping western tribes.

In recent months new Indian militancy has resulted in picketing in Albuquerque, N.M., of Interior Secretary Walter Hvelke and the boycotting of Nebraska businessmen by the Winnebagos.

Now Indian leaders say the Alcatraz occupation has electrified their people and in one stroke unified members of the nation's 300 tribes.

"We are attacking the whole system by attacking Alcatraz," says Adam Nordwall, president of the United Bay Area Council of Indians. "It has become a symbol."

Indians also hope Alcatraz will focus attention on a staggering list of problems.

Infant mortality among 700,000 Indians is three times the national average. The average life span of 42 is one-third shorter than the national average. Yearly income averages only $1,500.

Indian's Problem

The Indian's dilemma is if he stays on the reservation, he is hopelessly mired in poverty; if as urged by the government, he moves to the city, he is unskilled and unprepared for urban life, and so remains mired in poverty.

OUR CAPSULE POLICY

NEVER STRIVING FOR THE TEXAS PANHANDLE TO BE AN EVEN BETTER PLACE TO LIVE

Let Peace Begin With Me!

This newspaper is dedicated to furnishing information to our readers so that they can better promote and preserve their own freedom and encourage others to see its blessings. For only when man understands freedom and is free to control himself and all he produces can he develop his utmost capabilities.

We believe that all men are equally endowed by their Creator, and not by a government, with the right to take moral action to preserve their life and property and secure more freedom and keep it for themselves and others.

To discharge this responsibility, free men, to the best of their ability, must understand and apply to daily living the great moral guide expressed in the Coveting Commandment.

Reds Wiggle Into Colleges

Apparently the conspirators have decided that the American people are so conditioned that they will no longer react to preserve their own institutions and save their own skins.

No sooner had the furor died down over the hiring of admitted Communist Angela Davis to an assistant professorship at UCLA, than Notre Dame University announced that it had appointed former Young Communist League organizer Bayard Rustin to its board of trustees.

That was preceded by the announcement, from once pious Bryn Mawr College that the chief theoretician of the Communist Party, Herbert Aptheker, had been hired to head their black studies program.

Aptheker is the "gentleman" who told the revolutionaries at last summer's Black Panther convention in Oakland that he was proud of them because J. Edgar Hoover had warned the nation that they (the Panthers) were dangerous.

He then referred to Hoover as having a "foul mouth."

Now we have Rustin, who pled guilty in 1953 to a sex perversion charge in Pasadena, in a petition to hire and fire teachers at the most prestigious Catholic school in the nation.

Rustin is allegedly a Quaker. He was, for nearly ten years, the executive secretary of the Communist Party, the War Register's League.

In 1955 Rustin began a five-year relationship with Martin Luther King, and helped organize the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

Rustin, in 1957, attended the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party and in 1958 organized the now famous first March on Washington.

Pat's Press Secretary

According to a not very well publicized release from Washington, D.C., Mrs. Pat Nixon has appointed a young (33), vivacious redhead as her new press secretary and staff director.

The new appointee is Mrs. Constance Cornell Stuart who is replacing Gerry Van der Huevel.

Connie Stuart is a Maryland graduate and is the wife of Charles Edward Stuart, an assistant to John Erlichman. Erlichman is considered President Nixon's most powerful assistant.

Here is where the real kicker comes in. Connie Stuart's starting salary is $30,000 a year, some $5,000 more than Mrs. Van der Huevel received.

However, do not feel sorry for Mrs. Van der Huevel yet. She is off to Rome as the special assistant to the American ambassador and she also received a nice increase in salary during the switch.

Connie Stuart had some re-

Pass The Compromise

If the way to a man's heart is through his stomach, could the way to all men's hearts lie along the same route?

"When you find out what the other guy eats — and you discover it tastes good — you begin to understand him a little more," says one Emanuel Margarites of Long Island, N.Y., author of a theory that accord between nations can be achieved through food.

Margarites ought to be very understanding, since he is owner of a small chain of specialty food stores ("Foods of All Nations") which purvey items from every continent in the world and virtually every country that packages and exports exotic native foods.

This may not be the oddest recipe for world peace ever concocted but it's certainly the most appetizing. Maybe even worth a try.

From now on it's rice and fish for the American negotiators in Paris and hamburgers for the North Vietnamese.

And for those Russian and American diplomats who have just begun strategic arms limitation talks in Helsinki, let one man's borscht be another man's fried chicken.

As Churchill didn't say, chaw-chaw is better than warwar.

marks to make about her new position, "My husband is very kind about the whole thing. I delight in his successes and he delights in mine." It was also noted that Mrs. Stuart has a limousine with her job and her husband does not have one with his.

We do not know how much Mr. Stuart's salary is at present, but it is probably right in line with his wife's, in the neighborhood of 30 grand a year (a pretty fancy neighborhood). And what it all boils down to, you long suffering tax payers, is that those fancy salaries are coming right out of the middle class pocketbook.

It would be interesting to know what Mrs. Coolidge paid her press secretary (if she even had one) or even Bess Truman. But it wasn't anything like $30,000 a year with limousine thrown in for good measure.

Guess pretty, red-haired, vivacious press secretaries don't come cheap.

WASHINGTON:

Aides Feel Nixon Erred By Snubbing

By RAY CROMLEY

Washington Correspondent
Within the White House staff itself, at the State Department, the U.S. Information Agency and the Pentagon, there are men who disagree strongly with President Nixon's public response to the October and November antiwar demonstrations.

It must be noted that the administration "dissemblers" known to this reporter are loyal to the President and believe in his Vietnam policies. But they think Nixon was in error when he so patently snubbed sizeable numbers of protesting Americans, however misguided and wrongheaded he may believe them to be.

In what Nixon and his key advisers are convinced is the U.S. interest, the President both in October and November sincerely believed it necessary to make it crystal clear to the people of South Vietnam and the rulers in Hanoi that he would not be pressured into selling out the south and that the demonstrators did not represent the majority in America.

But a firm stand is one thing and seeming rudeness to the views of others is quite another, some administration men say quite vigorously in private talks.

These men do not suggest that Nixon should have dickered with the demonstrators or implied in any way that demonstrations can substitute for deliberation by government or a vote by the people. They do not suggest that he be polite to those who carried Viet Cong flags or shouted Ho Ho Chi Minh, or to those Nazi types who sought violence.

The administration objects, rather, that Nixon should have announced in advance that he welcomed expressions for peace, that he, as much as any man, wanted peace, that he had called on the advice of some of the ablest men in the country, that he thought he was on the right path but that if anyone had ideas to offer he would listen. He could have repeated his statement that anything was negotiable except the self-determination and liberty of the South Vietnamese.

As the demonstrations progressed, even though the major parade did not pass the White House, Nixon could have waved off cheerfully toward the line of march blocks away (with all proper security precautions) to guard against the 1 1/2 per cent of lunatics among the huge numbers here for the demonstrations.

Nixon could have asked representatives of the marchers to send to his aides alternative concrete proposals on bringing peace which would preserve the freedom and integrity of the South Vietnamese people.

After the parades, Nixon could have repeated that he welcomed and appreciated the peaceful demonstrations. He could have said they would prove to the world that America was united in wanting peace even where there was disagreement on how to achieve it. He could have decided the actions of the violent minority as a betrayal of their fellow marchers.

Nixon could then have stated that he had studied the petitions and statements turned in to him. Assuming that the demonstrators provided no data of significance not already considered by the President and his advisers (and administration men who circulated among the visitors reported they heard no workable alternative plans or proposals), the President could have announced that it still seemed to him that he had one other course to follow than the one he had embarked on but that his "door" would at all times be open for suggestions.

Nixon On Latin America: Lecture Less, Listen More

By LEON DENNEN

Foreign NewsAnalyst

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (NEA)— President Nixon's policy not to meddle in the domestic affairs of other countries is likely to prove most effective in Latin America.

Taking his cue from the comprehensive study made by New York's Governor Rockefeller, the President suggested to the nations of the Western Hemisphere that they should "go forward in their own way and under their own leadership" while the United States "lectures less and listens more."

Nixon made it clear that Latin America is an area of special concern to the United States and that he will not alter basic commitments to the Alliance for Progress and its stress on broad economic and social reforms. But he called

With Some Reservation

By INJUN WOODY

Diplomatic blundering, bureaucratic meddling, have cost us another good alliance. The Philippine president Ferdinand Marcos has won another term with his campaign of breaking relations with the U.S. and forming closer ties with Asia and the Communist world.

He won an estimated 60 percent of the popular vote and became the first president in Philippine history to gain a second term. The political campaign was bitter and bloody (67 killings) with many promises of nationalistic freedom and future actions.

Marcos vows greater independence from the U.S., a renegotiation of the agreement on military bases, and withdrawal of the 1500 man civic action group of Filipinos from Viet Nam.

His election is sure to hasten the long-predicted end to the Philippines' "special relationship" with the U.S. But the worst thing to happen will be the huge rise in trade with Communist countries in Eastern Europe.

It is a sad thing for one who remembers the fervent and patriotic Filipino of World War II who stood side by side on the American front and fought bravely for this country. They were the best friends we ever had.

If we had got out after the war, left them alone, they would still be our friends. Unfortunately, our department of state believes it has to root in every political pen on earth. That's why trouble starts...

WIT AND WHIMSY

A captive of frenzied natives in the Congo jungles, the explorer had a bright idea: He would baffle the savages with magic. Pulling his cigarette lighter from his pocket, he cried:
Mr. Long — I will make fire! Flipping his thumb, he produced a flame. The savages stopped dancing, fell back, and gazed in disbelief.
Mr. Long (in a deep voice) — Magic!
Chief Bongo — It must certainly be. That's the only time I ever saw a lighter work on the first try.

The Doctor Says

By DR. W. G. BRANSTADT

Caesarean Section Need Depends on Many Factors Q—What is the cause of a miscarriage? What effect does it have on a woman?

A—The cause is usually the death of the fetus or a severe displacement of the uterus. With the proper care to prevent excessive loss of blood or an infection, a woman should recover completely within three to six days.

Q—Can a doctor tell whether a woman ever had a baby, even after 20 years?

A—A woman who has had a baby will usually have striae or stretch marks on her abdomen; dark pigmentation around her nipples or scarring of her uterine cervix for the rest of her life. Striae, however, may also be the result of obesity or a large tumor in the abdomen.

Q—What are the advantages and disadvantages of a Caesarean operation? If a child is born by Caesarean section, will all future babies have to be delivered this way?

A—A Caesarean operation must be performed if (1) measurements of the mother indicate a small pelvis, (2) there is evidence that the baby's head is disproportionately large, (3) there is a cancer of the uterine cervix, (4) there are fibroids in the lower part of the uterus, (5) the baby lies transversely in the uterus or (6) the placenta lies across the uterine outlet (placenta previa).

The disadvantages are a greater risk of infecting the uterus and danger that the anesthetic used may interfere with the baby's ability to start breathing.

Whether your next child would have to be delivered by Caesarean section would depend on the reasons for the first operation. Most doctors, however, prefer to do a Caesarean section on a woman who has already had this operation because the uterine scar is inelastic and the uterus may rupture during the contractions of labor.

Q—With both of my deliveries, part of the placenta was retained. How can this be prevented?

A—The retention of a small piece of the placenta is often the cause of a severe hemorrhage. It can usually be prevented by proper technique in delivering the placenta. In any case, the doctor should examine the placenta carefully. If it is not complete, the mother must be watched carefully for evidence of bleeding and if this occurs, prompt measures for removal of the retained placenta must be taken.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt can't answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

The Rearview Mirror

By TEX DeWEESE Editor

QUESTIONS HAVE been coming this way in recent days seeking answers concerning what's behind all the backroom fussing in the Pampa police department.

The talk centers around reasons for resignations, disgruntled patrolmen and general buzzing that conditions in the department are not what they should be.

City Manager Charles Hill says he's trying to get to the bottom of what appears to be a gradual worsening of department morale. He has indicated when the final report is made on what he labels an "evaluation" of the department, it's just possible some changes will be made. He called it a "possible revamping" in the department.

As of now, apparently neither the city manager nor the police chief have arrived at the answers. Reportedly there is some dissatisfaction with supervisory tactics. The city manager says you will find that in almost any police department. Perhaps he is right.

Just a few days ago, the City Hall Cat reports, one patrolman who has left the force was called in and asked what the trouble was all about. The Cat says the ex-patrolman gave his version to the city manager "cold turkey."

The Cat also says charges and accusations are being studied in the "evaluation" report. The police chief has been requested to come up with recommendations aimed at removing the stigma that has been seeping through the department.

To sum it up, apparently something exists in the department that needs to be ferreted out. The city manager says he's trying to pinpoint it and get rid of it. It's not going to be an easy job, but one that should be followed through until the atmosphere is cleared of back fence gossip now going the rounds.

The only advice available to questioners: Wait until the evaluation report is made public.

TURKEY SOUP tomorrow should put an end to the Thanksgiving turkey that has been showing up in a variety of disguises since Thursday.

There's warmed-over turkey, cold turkey and turkey hash, along with left-over dressing, left-over cranberry salad, left-over yams, left-over pumpkin pie, and left-over anything else that goes with a Thanksgiving feast.

One suspects the gobblers that survived Thanksgiving execution are a happy bunch. At least for awhile. They have a couple of weeks reprieve until preparations start for the Christmas and New Year's dinners.

Being a turkey is a lot like being one of Spiro's targets.

Air Collisions Inevitable

By PAUL HARVEY

With faster and faster planes using up more and more sky per second, we'd be bumping fenders on the skyways every day except that somehow the Good Lord managed to cram so much space into three dimensions.

But that space is getting used up fast. There is one near-collision in the air almost every day. There is one "reported" near-miss. FAA officials believe that there are an additional three-a-day which go unreported.

Over the past two and one-half years more than half of all persons killed in commercial jet crashes have died because their planes collided in flight with smaller ones.

I travel somewhere, usually for a speaking engagement, two or three days every week. Commercial schedules rarely accommodate mine, so I fly in private aircraft.

I've had a single-and multi-engine land-and-sea rating for many years — since one of those wars way back there — but I rarely fly myself any more.

To keep my license active, I'll take the stick on routine flights in fair weather, but flying is no longer for amateurs. I have a pilot who gives his full-time and his undivided attention to anticipating weather, to radio communication, to developing and maintaining expert instrument technique.

Usually, I crawl in the back and read or write or relax.

You never know when you're going to get it in the neck.

GETTING BACK to the City Hall Cat. He wandered a little during the week and wound up over in the Court House. He says you can always pick up interesting conversation pieces in court house corridors.

Politics is always a tasty morsel there and The Cat got some inside prognostications on what's in the Gray County wind come the 1970 May primaries.

For instance, The Cat reports, Ed Anderson will be up for reelection for Justice of the Peace in Precinct 2, Place 2. He currently is regarded as a shoo-in, says The Cat, even if there is someone with nerve enough to run against him.

Nat Lunsford, the JP in Precinct 2, Place 1, does not come up for re-election until 1971. From what The Cat could learn he's not expected to take another crack at the county judgeship as he did in '66 when he narrowly missed being in the runoff.

OTHER POLITICAL guesses picked up by The Cat as he roamed all three Court House floors included these:

That Charlie Thut will retire and not announce for re-election in 1970. Expected to seek the office is Thut's chief deputy, Mrs. Wanda Carter, a 17-year veteran in the county clerk's office.

That Ola Gregory may not seek re-election as county treasurer and if that's true, it is likely her chief deputy, Mrs. Jean Scott, will run for that post.

That a couple other "unbeatable" will be re-elected in 1971 if they decide they want to stay on the job. The Cat says these are Sheriff Rufe Jordan and Jack Back, county tax assessor-collector.

That Precinct 2 Constable H.A. Doggett, whose term expires at the end of 1971, will not be a candidate again.

And then, reports The Cat, comes the big question mark, and the guess is:

That County Judge Sherman Lenning, the Republican who upset Bill Craig in 1966, will have an opponent in the 1970 general election. Democrats have never recovered from what some called an anti-Craig rather than a pro-Lenning political backlash. Several are expected to enter the Democratic primary for the judge's post.

At any rate the next year or so looks like county politics will be spiced with red-pepper ingredients. Providing, of course, The Cat has listened at the right keyholes.

EDITOR'S NOTE — This column will be happy to set the record straight if The Cat has come up with wrong guesses on any of those mentioned here.

Who's Tacky Now?

NEW YORK (NEA) — Has anybody noticed that well-dressed, well-coiffed, well-made-up glamor girl who has emerged on the TV screen? The one named Carol Burnett?

Carol Burnett

If you haven't seen Carol lately, take another look at her CBS-TV show and note the really attractive female she has become. When a skit doesn't require her to look funny, that's...

Many people in the industry have always been convinced that Carol was better looking than she realized. Men particularly, struck by her good figure and fine legs, have called her sexy. She has always thought it was a big joke.

She's the first to admit she used to be a very tacky dresser. She recalls that during her years on The Garry Moore Show, if she wanted to buy something in one of New York's more elegant stores, she would take a chic friend along to command attention from the snobby sales people.

"Otherwise, unless the saleswoman happened to recognize me," she said, "they would ignore me." The clothes for her series are designed by Bob Mackie, who has come up with a basic, catfish-like dress for Carol which he varies with great originality.

And now she even dresses better when she is just being herself — herself being a nice, simple girl. "I'm actually dressing more carefully when I'm out because Bob is getting the credit," Carol said, "and I'm protective of him."

The clothes are all made so beautifully, too. There's a lovely lady named Elizabeth Courtney in charge and I appreciate her efforts. In New York I was always getting stuck with pins that were left in. I'd have a praffail to do, I'd land on a mattress and come up with a pin in my elbow."

Asked if maybe she isn't really beginning to think she's not all that bad, Carol laughed and said, "I feel gorgeous. Actually when I get back from Hawaii I was really a bronze goddess. Then I got a fever blister. If I have a fever blister, the whole world is ugly and if there's one thing I don't need, it's a bigger lower lip."

"Anyway, I think I'm darling," she said, "I think I'm average-looking. But I do get the darndest compliments from fans. One came up to me and said, 'You should never go on television.' I thought she didn't like my work and asked if that was what she meant. 'No,' she said. 'It's just that you look awful on TV and you don't look so bad in person.'"

Colossal, Gigantic Movies Are Vanishing From Scene

HOLLYWOOD (NEA) — Take a good look at the next big, colossal, gigantic, stupendous movie you see. Like the whooping crane, it's a vanishing breed. The movie business is in the throes of perhaps its most significant revolution since sound came in. Among the casualties are — or will be — the big-budget spectacles, high-priced stars and probably even the studios themselves.

In their place? You'll be seeing nothing but low-cost films, designed basically to appeal to the young audiences. You'll see casting to fit the picture, instead of stars, stars, stars. You'll see films made by independent companies, which shoot them on location.

Most veteran Hollywood hands are stunned by what's been happening in the last few months. But it isn't sudden at all. It's been coming for years. Like most changes in our society, the roots are economic, basically, with a little sociological thrown in. The sociological cause is television which changed the habits of a generation — the older generation. This left the movie balconies as the private preserve of the younger folks.

They don't want the same old stuff. They didn't go to see "True Grit" or "The Wild Bunch" or "Sweet Charity." They stayed away in droves. "Paint Your Wagon" was the last straw. Call it the turkey that killed the golden goose. It cost a fortune and it stands to lose most of it, although a miracle could still happen.

With the audience disappearing for these big films, simultaneously the audience grew for the smaller, intimate films. "The Graduate" started it. "Easy Rider" and "Goodbye Columbus" and "The Sterile Cuckoos" and "Midnight Cowboy" finished the job.

H. W. Waters Res. 669-6616

VACATIONS ARE OVER FOR US FRANKSINGING-how we see it. $5,000 to $75,000. This brick building lay yes - to see our loved ones, an awakening experience in contrast to our Hi-Fliner living. Here we find time to express genuine appreciation for our fellow citizens for their courtesies, to our co-laborers in the same business for their ethical dealings and citizenship - and still consider it a privilege to worship God regularly. Now we are ready to sell. We defend the right of all others to do so.

are I was observant, and inquisitive, too about real estate values. Why? A little 400 square-foot desert area, 150 miles from the city with no utilities has a price tag of not give it away here. The brand new $25,000 high quality brick 2 bedroom house with the best of the latest accessories I have listed here (ML# 214) could not be had there for less than $40,000. The nice 2 bedroom home in good location (1 bedroom house with good location) I would likely cost double (11.5 x 2 there on the West Coast. And of course, a 1 1/2 bath 3 bedroom house like I offer here for $7,500 (ML# 250) is a real value. The seller is redecorating they would pay $2 to $4,000 thousand there and not look back. This is a real value here in many homes of real value here I can offer in Pampa. But I'll take the more relaxed atmosphere of this area where honest dealings and fair prices are the rule. I'd like to see you here. Call me. I'll be glad to see you. Call me, please, and do it now when you wish to buy or sell real estate of any kind.

Gifts for the Family

Buy a Packard Bell color portable TV.
 And we'll stuff an animal into the deal.

When you buy any Packard Bell color portable TV, we'll give you a stuffed animal to go with it. There's a snooty dog, a snooty dog, a wide-eyed dog, and even a giant mouse who is cuddly and doesn't eat cheese. They're very cute and very expensive. And one of them can be yours absolutely free when you take home a Packard Bell color portable TV. The portable with good looks, low price, and high performance. This offer can only last as long as the supply does. And the supply is limited. So make sure you come in to see us soon. Remember too, you don't have to feed the animals—they're already stuffed.
