

Texas Senate Passes Bill to Limit Cotton to One-Fourth

THREE MEN ARE SLAIN

HOUSE WILL PROBABLY NOT ACCEPT PLAN

Compromise in Free Conference Is Likely Because of Disagreement; Lower Body Shows Effect.

HALF PREDICTED

Much Land Is Not Suitable for Cotton Anyway; "Liar" Bill May Never Go Into Being.

AUSTIN, Sept. 18.—The Texas senate today finally passed a bill to limit cotton plantings next year to one-fourth the land in cultivation this year. The vote was 19 to 8 with one pair.

The senate substituted its bill for the house proposal to reduce the 1932 cotton acreage to one-third the cultivated land. The house probably will refuse to accept the senate substitute and a free conference committee will be named to adjust the differences.

Approximately 32 per cent of the state's cultivated land was in cotton this year. Advocates of the house bill, however, claimed their bill would cut acreage in half because it prevented any farmer from planting more than one-third of his land to cotton and one-third was unsuitable for cotton and farmers, in some sections would not desert other crops for cotton.

Postpone the "Liar"
AUSTIN, Sept. 18.—The house of the Texas legislature voted 63 to 47 today to postpone indefinitely consideration of a senate concurrent resolution calling on Huey P. Long of Louisiana a "conscience liar."

The resolution was adopted in the senate after Governor Long had charged the Texas legislature "had been bought like a sack of corn" to vote against the Long "no cotton in 1932" plan advocated by the chief executive of Louisiana.

Amendment Is Adopted
The motion to postpone the resolution indefinitely followed adoption of an amendment offered by Representative Joe Greathouse of Fort Worth which struck out the resolving clause and inserted one stating Governor Long was beneath the dignity of further consideration by the Texas legislature since he had departed from a course of courteous conduct. This amendment was adopted 56 to 47.

The resolutions of two southern states remained in session on cotton relief measures today while the governors of two others withheld calls for special sessions on the problems pending further developments.

Want Holiday Plan
Texas legislators, who have definitely rejected the Louisiana plan to prohibit production of cotton in 1932, continued consideration of acreage reduction measures. Meanwhile South Carolina held to the cotton holiday plan at its special session.

Yesterday the Texas house of representatives adopted a bill providing limitation of cotton acreage in 1932 and 1933 to one-third the cultivated area while the senate followed the house's previous action in killing the "no cotton" bill.

The South Carolina representatives passed the cotton holiday bill of second reading after final approval by the senate.

Gov. Richard B. Russell Jr. of Georgia said he would support the bill.

Local rabbit breeders took many prizes at the Oldham County fair at Vega yesterday.

Vandover's White farm won first for junior New Zealand white doe and third and fourth in the same class.

S. E. Love's white New Zealand senior doe was first a junior doe was fifth, and a junior buck was second.

Mrs. J. H. Smith took the following prizes: Black and white senior Dutch doe, first; black and white senior Dutch buck, first; blue Junior Dutch buck, second; black and white senior Dutch buck, second; Chinchilla senior doe, fourth.

Mr. Love in the special contest took first for the best white New Zealand, with his senior doe, and Mrs. Smith's black and white senior Dutch doe was judged the best of the other classes.

LETTER IS CLUE IN WOMAN'S DEATH

HAMILTON, Va., Sept. 18.—A letter which her father said brought "great unhappiness" to Mr. Jenny Graham Kane held attention today as one of the chief factors leading to the death of her daughter, Elisha-Kent Kane.

The coroner's verdict, returned late yesterday after a four-day inquest called the alleged act of the University of Tennessee professor who is a son of Dr. Evan O'Neill Kane, Pennsylvania surgeon, "a premeditated murder."

Decision of Kane's application for bail has been withheld by Judge Vernon C. Spratley after the coroner's report. W. C. Graham of Hillman Village, father of Mrs. Kane, made his first public statement since her tragic death while bathing with her husband off a remote section of Grandview Beach last Friday.

He said the verdict was "not at all surprising to any of her family" and expressed his intention to cooperate with the commission in the trial of the case which commences next week.

Graham spoke of the "great unhappiness" caused in the family by discovery of a letter from "that woman."

Dr. Kane's father-in-law made public a letter he said was found in the luggage of Professor Kane after he was arrested last Sunday. He said he believed the writer to be a Betty Dade.

Addressed to "Betty Dade," the cryptic indicated that the writer was employed on the S. S. America and was dated Sept. 1.

After describing a European trip it continued: "There were numerous times, Saschy, when I wondered if you and I would ever get leisure to do some of the old world places together."

In another place the writer said: "Where by the way I can't understand why you came she stayed home a week and still intend to stick to it."

Members of the Kiwanis club will sponsor a Girl Scout troop in Pampa, working in connection with other organizations in the movement.

A committee composed of Edwin Vickers, chairman, J. B. Barnett, and Joe Lutz has been appointed to cooperate with scout officials in getting the movement started.

J. H. Hulme was presented a member of the board of directors at a meeting last Tuesday night.

At the regular meeting Friday, Mrs. M. P. Downs appeared before the club to investigate "convention rumors" that have been drifting back to Pampa since her husband, M. P. Downs, and several other members of the club attended the district convention in Oklahoma City a few weeks ago.

John Studer was appointed official investigator, and after a series of questions from the delegates and a vote of "no charge or rumor," Dan McGrew gave the official report of the convention which was adopted by the club.

Mrs. Downs brought with her Eob Archer, a student in the Hopkins school who gave several harmonica selections.

The members of the local fire department, having heard that the Kiwanis club was collecting tin foil to sell and help in the underprivileged child work, sent nine and one-half pounds to the club by Kiwanis Lee Waggoner.

The firemen are planning a big Christmas tree for the poor children at Christmas time and are asking for discarded, broken or worn toys so that they can repair and repaint them and have plenty of toys for the children. Anyone having toys is asked to bring them to the fire station or call and someone will come after the toys.

Grand Jury to Convene Monday

The 31st district grand jury will convene Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Judge W. R. Ewing of Miami will open a 12-week term of court the same morning.

The grand jury will be assisted in its investigations by District Attorney Raymond Alford, who will also represent the state in all criminal cases.

Only one murder investigation will come before the grand jury. Pat Fisher, negro, is charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Charles "Geechy" Wilson, negro, in the "flats" last May. Many liquor violation cases will take the attention of the grand jury.

The grand jury will be summoned for the second week of court.

COL. MULHALL, NOTED FIGURE OF WEST; DIES

Onetime Cattleman, Showman and Friend of Roosevelt to Be Buried Sunday at Town of His Name.

STARTED ROGERS

Lucille, His Daughter, Became Famous as Rider, Roper and All Around Star of Rodeo Circuits.

MULHALL, Okla., Sept. 18.—Col. Zack Mulhall, colorful Oklahoma plainsman, died at his ranch home here early today.

Funeral services will be held at the ranch home Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with burial in the family plot. Mrs. Mulhall died only a few months ago and the aged pioneer's health had been failing since that time.

At the ranch where he settled 41 years ago, the pioneer ranchman, one of the last of Oklahoma's picturesque frontiersmen, died at 5:05 o'clock this morning.

His daughter, Lucille, who was the colored partner in his wild west show enterprise, a grandson, Billy Mulhall, and his wife, Mrs. Tom Ralston, of Mulhall, his close friends, were at the bedside.

Funeral services will be conducted by Father Van Mens, of Guthrie, his friend and spiritual adviser.

Once a Showman
Fascination for the hardy life of the pioneer ranchman took Zack Mulhall from the Mississippi livestock ferries in St. Louis to a homestead near where an Oklahoma town which now bears his name and into a prominent part of the history of the territory and state.

He became Col. Zack Mulhall, influential Oklahoma rancher, cattleman and wild west showman, and object of presidential attention.

Born in 1847, Mulhall was orphaned at an early age, attended parochial schools and for a time Notre Dame university and obtained his first job working on ferry boats on the St. Louis water front. He learned the ways of the then thriving stock industry, while learning cattle shipments across the Mississippi and came to old Oklahoma territory in the 1869 opening to find the cow ranch he'd dreamed of near the present site of Mulhall. The ranch became his lifelong home, and he made it famous to the southwest.

Started Live Stock Commissioner for the Pecos railroad through the offices of the late Benjamin F. Yookum, one-time Texas president, his friend. Later, during the Long and purchase expedition in St. Louis, he entered the wild west show field. His daughter, Lucille, teamed with him and his show appeared at Mack Square, Garden, in New York several years ago. Lucille, he took Will Rogers, later to become famous as Oklahoma's cowboy humorist. Rogers' technique immediately attracted the attention of vaudeville managers, and he ended his career.

A Democrat, Colonel Mulhall attended the funeral of Col. Theodore Roosevelt and when Roosevelt became president Mulhall's name was mentioned as a possible appointee of governor of Oklahoma Territory. However, this did not materialize.

Mulhall had much to do with the entertainment provided for Roosevelt at the first annual ranch riders' reunion in Oklahoma City in 1909. He staged a wild west show in which Lucille, then 16, amazed spectators with roping and riding feats. Later the daughter became an outstanding rodeo star. Even before Oklahoma City convention, she had roped a lobo wolf at the Mulhall gate. Mulhall set the lure to Roosevelt.

Gilchrist Says New Labor Law Not in Effect

AUSTIN, Sept. 18.—Gibb Gilchrist, state highway engineer, said today he knew nothing about the importation of negroes into the Panhandle for use in state highway construction.

Gilchrist said the state highway department had not imported any negroes into the Panhandle and that if any had been imported it was by contractors.

The protest of Gene Howe, editor of the Amarillo News-Globe, to Gov. R. S. Sterling against the use of negro labor in highway work in the Panhandle, had not been received this morning, secretaries to the governor said.

Gilchrist said the law requiring highway contractors to pay labor a minimum of 30 cents an hour did not become effective until Aug. 22 and would have no effect on contracts awarded prior to that date. The highway commission will discuss the 30 cent law at its meeting next week, Gilchrist said.

Germany's sales of industrial machinery to New Zealand in the first four months of this year were greater than those for the entire year of 1928.

Leroy Henderson of Pampa will sing cowboy songs over station WDAQ, Amarillo, tonight from 10:30 to 11 o'clock.

Unrest Menaces 1,000-Year Loyalty of Navy

These pictures help tell the story of the serious problem faced by Great Britain in the "positive strike" among enlisted men of its Atlantic fleet, the first major break in the traditional loyalty of England's navy in a thousand years, except for a mutiny in 1797. The men refused to work, following dissatisfaction over recent pay cuts. The top picture shows the great battle cruiser Hood, while below is a scene aboard the H. M. S. Phillips Meets Oil Prices

Company Drops Back to Prevailing Level; Had Been at Premium

TULSA, Okla., Sept. 18.—The Phillips Petroleum company, only buyer in the midcontinent field at $1 per barrel, withdrew its offer today and posted the official scale of prices, from 16 cents to 70 cents, for crude oil.

The reduction amounts to an average cut of 30 cents per barrel in the price of Oklahoma and Kansas crude oil. Lovest gravity oil is reduced 32 cents per barrel.

Phillips also cut the price of oil from the Panhandle of Texas from 7 to 14 cents per barrel in Carson, Moore and Hutchinson counties. It

For Gray county, Texas Phillips posts a price of from 46 to 58 cents a barrel, an average reduction of 14 cents.

In Oklahoma and Kansas the Phillips purchasing division is known as the Standish Pipe Line company, and in Texas as the Phillips company.

Company officials did not comment on the price cuts. Only recently the Standish company, only purchaser at $1 from the Ritz-Carlton pool, McPherson county, Kansas, withdrew its offer at that point on what it termed a "temporary" basis because it alleged other purchasers

When the Lindberghs arrive here their plane will be moored to an especially constructed wharf, replacing the first one that was swept away. However, the fliers still will be some distance from solid earth, as the whole of the Hsankuan, Nanking's waterfront is under flood water.

The fliers will board a boat at the landing jetty and then proceed through flooded streets to the south gate of the Nanking city wall, where motor cars will be waiting.

Many social events have been arranged in honor of the Lindberghs for the five days they are expected to spend in the capital.

CALIFORNIA MEN TELL OF HARD FLIGHT

TOKYO, Sept. 18.—Four men who were taken off a Japanese ship and flown to Siberia after they had taken off from Japan on a projected flight to Alaska, were published today by the newspaper Asahi.

The article, signed by Mochi and Allen, said they had been forced to turn back toward Siberia after they had sailed over the Aleutian Islands for about 20 hours.

The three, who transmitted their story from their rescue ship, the Russian steamer Boriat, to Tokyo via the Okhotsk wireless station of Nemuro, Japan, recounted their experiences after leaving Japanese mainland at Cape Emiso, 100 miles from Samushiro, their take-off point.

They were last sighted at Cape Emiso 20 minutes after taking off on Sept. 7. Their story to Asahi said a storm condition had been favorable until they neared the Aleutian islands, where they encountered a gale.

Allen quoted the three as saying their plane was "blown up down and away like a leaf" by the Aleutian storm.

"For nearly 20 hours" they said "we kept the plane up only by almost super human efforts."

The dispatch said Mochi and Allen flew for 34 hours after leaving Samushiro beach they had a fuel supply which they had estimated would last them about 47 hours and managed to land on an uninhabited Albatross island without damaging the plane.

The storm, they said, continued to rage and for seven days they were unable to continue their flight. On the eighth day, they related, the weather improved, and they took off from the Albatross island flying in a northerly direction and finally landing near Miamo Pilemo, Siberia.

"We went through a trying ordeal," said the three, but added that they were in good spirits. They said they planned to start for Seattle tomorrow (Saturday), but did not mention where they got assistance to continue their projected flight.

Grass Is Planted On City's Land

Grass was sown the week in the grass plot in the center of Sonoma boulevard and in the new car park in the north part of the city under the direction of City Engineer C. S. Sims.

The boulevard was sown in bermuda, clover, and blue-grass, and a good stand is expected before snow falls. Plenty of water is assured by the sprinkler system that was installed the full length of the street. Sprinkler heads were installed every 10 feet.

Clover and blue grass were sown in the park south of the creek. This is the second time grass has been sown in the park this year. Last spring bermuda was planted all over the eight-acre plot, but a stand was secured only on the northern half. This was due largely to the fact that the ground was so loose that after harrowing the seed was buried as much as six inches in places.

To avoid recurrence of this difficulty the new crop was being raked in by hand, which also had the effect of giving employment to five men. They were employed through the welfare board, which gave the work to the most needy applicants.

A sprinkling system was not installed in the park because of the terrific expense.

LURE SLAYER FROM STATION LAST EVENING

J. H. Boyd Abducted When He Answers Call From Stranded Motorists, Who Display Weapons

IS ALSO INJURED

Fourth Assailant Believed to Be Fatally Wounded But Boyd Will Survive His Pistol Wounds.

ATLANTA, Sept. 18.—Three men were shot to death, with fourth probably fatally wounded near here last night by J. H. Boyd, 50-year-old Louisiana gasoline station operator, who said they lured him from his station and kidnaped him.

The dead men were identified as Hardy, Lacy, 45; Bill Fish, 38; Boyd's stepson and Early Sullivan, 28. Bill Sullivan, brother of Early Sullivan, and brother-in-law of Fish, was not expected to live.

One pistol bullet struck Boyd in his right arm, shattering the bone. Another hit him in his chest.

Boyd said two of the men came to his station 13 miles from Atlanta and told him an automobile in which they were riding developed trouble and asked him to get his machine and tow them in. When he drove up behind the machine one of the group forced him at the point of a shotgun to enter their automobile.

Boyd said he was driven into Louisiana and back into Texas. He was struck over the head. A struggle was precipitated when they sought to place a sack over his head. He liberated an arm and opened fire with his pistol. Two of the four slumped on the seat. A bullet tore into his right arm, disabling it. He shifted the pistol, he said, into his left hand and fired two more shots. Boyd fired but four shots during the exchange.

The Sullivan brothers lived near Avon, La. Lacy operated a gasoline station and owned a home in Texas. Both Boyd and Fish operated stations in Louisiana.

Boyd was expected to recover. He was carried to a Texarkana hospital.

Boyd, who is 55 years old and who operated a fish described the shooting from his hospital bed. He blamed the trouble on a feud with Lacy which started after an argument over a proposal to sell a filling station owned by Mrs. Boyd which Boyd opposed.

Had Rival Station
Lacy, 37, had owned each operated a filling station within 100 yards of each other. The boundary lines of Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana meet where the stations were located. Those of Boyd and Fish being in Louisiana and Lacy's in Texas.

The marksmanship of Boyd was remarkable. He said he did not know how many shots were fired, but he was sure he did not fire more than six times as he did not reload his weapon during the fight.

The trouble started, according to Boyd, when Lacy and his wife were returning home from a visit to a neighbor's home. He said he stopped his automobile on a road leading to a highway near their station where another car was parked.

Two men resembling negroes, he stated, asked for a ride and he let them about to get them when he recognized two of his enemies stopping in a car on the highway and immediately drove around the parked car by going into a ditch.

Officers said the two Sullivans got out of their faces when picked up.

Got His Pistol
Lacy and Boyd was about to return he said one of the "negroes" came to his home and asked for help in towing in a car, pretending to know Boyd. He decided not to help, so he got a pistol, and he went to the car.

As he walked up to the car three men ran out of a wood and commanded Boyd to put up his hands. A man with a shotgun had a hood over his head, he said.

Boyd got in the car but dropped his pistol at his feet. The men then drove into Texas and as they passed Boyd's station he shouted for help. He said he then was beaten by his captors.

After driving about a mile from his station, Boyd showed that he grabbed his pistol and shot the man wearing the hood. He then exchanged shots with the other men.

Boyd reported the shooting to officers and the men later were found dead or wounded in the car which had gone into a ditch.

Two Southwest conference grid matches today were within a few hours of their initial games of the 1931 season.

These Christian university coaches indicated the 1931 Horned Frogs would sit on the side lines today and watch the reserves tackle the Texas Military college warriors.

The veterans however realized tomorrow's test against the Eagles of the North Texas Teachers college of Denton would be another proposition, something for them to do.

Rice's Owls did not scrimmage yesterday and went through polishing up work in anticipation of somewhat of a struggle with the Texas A. and I. Javelins of Kingsville who meet Meagher's men on Rice field tomorrow. The Rice mentor scrutinized with work of his men closely this week, and seemed to be satisfied with the way the 1931 Owl machine was functioning. He liked particularly the aggressiveness and offensive punch of his charging forward wall.

At S. M. U. Coach Ray Morrison took time out to jet loose a slide against the protracted heat wave. He said his men were sluggish under the beating rays of the sun. A number of them suffered with headaches all of which he thought to be attributable to heat.

Too he was worried about the almost ideal climate enjoyed by the University of Arkansas Razorbacks, first 1931 Southwest conference opponents for his Ponies. The Mustangs' musing mentor said nothing could please him better than a "kick of northern."

The ideal weather over next to the Ozarks where their practice sessions and the little publicity given feats of the Hogs plainly worried Coach Morrison.

Rich Purse Will Lure Fine Entries To Belmont Park

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Sept. 18 (AP)—Lured by one of the richest purses in turf history, 20 or more of the country's leading two-year-olds are expected to start in the 42nd running of the $125,000 futurity at Belmont park tomorrow.

When the late Harry Payne's Whincup outstayed a field of 17 in 1929, $105,730 of the total purse of $130,000 went to the master of the cotton blue and brown capped silks.

Tomorrow's renewal may not be as rich as that record breaker, but it is as rich as any other in the history of the race. The owner of the colt or filly that leads the field down the widener straightaway is in line to receive more than $100,000.

Another Whitney youngster will face starter George Cassidy as the favorite. Top Flight, an unbeaten filly racing for Whitney, stands out as the one to beat.

She has won six consecutive races, all by wide margins, but faces no easy task tomorrow. In the field slated to get under way about 2:30 EST are at least half dozen colts of championship caliber.

Should the Whitney ace fail, the stable will still have a speedy performer in Mad Frump.

Mrs. Louis G. Kaufman's Tek On, winner of the Hopeful at Saratoga, is almost sure to go to the post as one of the well played chances while Victor Emanuel's Morfar apparently has returned to his early season form.

W. R. Coe probably will send the largest entry to the post. He has four colts and fillies eligible in the race for Polonus, Pompeius and Masked Knight. The stable also rates high with Curacao and Semaphore.

Foreign Whites Not Increasing

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—The foreign born white population of the United States has increased only eight-tenths of one per cent since 1920.

Census bureau statisticians who computed this percentage increase by making an adjustment for a different method of figuring Mexicans, noted also a decided falling off of percentages from Ireland, Germany and Scandinavian countries, and a marked increase from Canada, Italy, and Mexico.

The number from Ireland was 11 per cent less in 1930 than in 1920; from the three Scandinavian countries nearly five per cent less; from Germany 4.6 per cent.

Those of Canadian birth increased by 14.4 per cent; of Italian by 11.2 per cent; of Mexican by 12.9 per cent; of Scottish by 39.2 per cent.

Among the 13,366,407 foreign born, eight countries were represented by more than a half-million persons each.

Germany, 1,608,814; Italy, 1,790,429; Canada, 1,278,421; Poland, 1,268,583; Russia, 1,153,624; England, 808,672; Irish Free States, 733,810; and Sweden, 595,250.

Gambling Debt Leads to Demand That Widow Pay That Widow Pay

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 18 (AP)—The gambling debts of the late Leo P. Bergin, Los Angeles soap manufacturer, fell upon the second generation today as ten sentries assigned from the district attorney's office stood guard over the mansion of Mrs. Gladys Ballou Bergin to keep her three children from harm.

Her husband, Bergin, contracted debts of between $50,000 and $75,000 to "big shot" New York gamblers in 1926. He attempted to repudiate them in the belief the dice game had been unfair, but, according to a statement found in his effects after his death last May at Santa Barbara, extortionist methods applied after his return to Los Angeles wrung from him thousands of dollars.

Eight days ago, pressure descended on the widow.

Several letters received by her threatened the kidnapping of her children unless she continued the payments. She appealed to District Attorney Buron Pitts.

Yesterday, lying in ambush with 14 other district attorney's agents on a lonely mountain road in the expectation that members of the gang would appear to collect an installment of $2,000 on the debt, investigator Harry Leslie accidentally discharged his revolver and wounded himself seriously in the side.

The accident, Pitts said, may have prevented arrests leading to the apprehension of the entire group of extortionists, who, he said, apparently were former members of the New York gambling organization of Arnold Rothstein, mysteriously slain in November, 1928.

The district attorney assigned four guards to the Bergin home and two each to the children—Gloria, 10; Lee, 19; and John, 17—to accompany them wherever they go.

"A year ago," Pitts said, "Bergin called at my office and told of losing between $50,000 and $75,000 on gamblers he met on Broadway while on a visit to New York."

Jobless Man Kills Wife and Himself

TEXARKANA, Sept. 18 (AP)—Dependent at unemployment, Erin H. Beggs, 38, Commerce, shot and killed his 31-year-old wife and then took his own life Thursday. The tragedy was witnessed by their 12-year-old daughter, Bessie Lee.

Beggs was laid off work at the Cotton Belt roundhouse yesterday. He had been employed as a machinist's helper.

Bessie Lee told officers her father and mother had quarreled the night before. She said she was washing dishes in the kitchen when she heard shots. She ran to the front room where she found her mother dying on the floor and her father lying nearby. Both died before they could be taken to the hospital.

Two other children, Argenia, 11, and Mildred, 9, were in school when the double shooting occurred.

RED SOX OUT OF CELLAR TO GAIN RECORD

Earl Webb Beats Mark of George Burns, Set up Back in 1926.

BY GAYLE TALBOT

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Boston Red Sox are giving the home town fans something to talk about in the waning days of the 1931 campaign. First, they pulled out of the American league cellar two days ago, and then, yesterday, one of their number set up a brand new record of two-baggers in a season.

When Earl Webb, back right fielder, hit his 66th double off Jab-Jonowski of Cleveland in the second half of a doubleheader, he passed the all-time mark of 64 set in 1926 by George Burns, Cleveland first baseman. He had tied the former record in the first game.

Webb's first double of the day helped the Sox beat Cleveland, 9 to 2, in the opener, but his record-breaker could not avert a 2 to 1 defeat in the nightcap.

Flight for Second

The New York Yankees and Washington Senators, meanwhile, became involved in a hot fight for second place in the American league, the Yanks climbing into a tie for the coveted position by beating St. Louis twice while Washington was dropping its opener to Detroit.

Charlie Ruffing and Bill Dickey co-started to give the Yanks a 17 to 0 victory in their first game, Ruffing allowing nine well spaced hits and Dickey leading the offense with a pair of homeruns that drove in seven. Vernon Gomez, rookie leftfielder, yielded only three hits in the nightcap and this time Babe Ruth parked a pair, his 41st and 42nd of the year, to give the Yankees a 6 to 1 victory.

Art Herring pitched Detroit to a 3 to 1 win over the Senators. Rain held the Chicago White Sox idle at Philadelphia.

Chicago and Brooklyn locked horns in the day's feature bout in the National league, the Cubs finally pushing across the winning run in the last of the ninth after the Robins had scored twice to tie it in their half. The score was 4 to 3 and gave the Hornsbymen their eighth straight victory.

Dempsey to Get Divorce Monday

RENO, Nev. Sept. 18 (AP)—The Dempsey divorce case has been set for trial Monday at 11:30 a. m., and the former heavyweight champion will take the decree by default.

Estelle Taylor, Dempsey's wife, failed to answer his divorce complaint within the 30 days allowed by Nevada law so this morning his attorney, Robert E. Burns, moved that Dempsey be granted a default decree on Monday.

Dempsey, who has been barnstorming through several western states, will arrive here Sunday so as to be on hand when the case is called for trial. Miss Taylor will not appear in court.

SERIES EVEN AS TEAMS GO TO HOUSTON

Dick McCabe, Fort Worth Product, Shuts Out Birmingham Nine.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 18 (AP)—With the Dixie series all squared at one game each, Birmingham and Houston, winners respectively in the Southern association and the Texas league, were en route to Houston today for renewal of hostilities Saturday night.

In the two games played here, the two teams broke even, Birmingham winning the first 1 to 0 and Houston the second 3 to 0. Ray Caldwell of the Barons and Dick McCabe, imported from Fort Worth by the Buffs, were the hurriers turning in the shutouts.

In the third game tomorrow night Bob Hasty is scheduled to open for the Southern association champions and George Washington Payne for the Texas entrants.

Three games are to be played in Houston, the fourth and fifth battles being scheduled for Sunday and Monday night.

In the first two games hitting was at a minimum with Caldwell, McCabe, Dizzy Dean, and Jimmy Walker allowing only 23 hits between them. Caldwell gave up seven and Dean five in the opener and McCabe allowed four and Walker seven in the second game.

Nearly 30,000 saw the two games here 20,074 packing the local park for the opener and a little better than 9,000 seeing yesterday's game.

Former Champ Will Be Buried Sunday Afternoon

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Sept. 18 (AP)—Funeral services for Marvin Hart, 55, once a claimant of the heavyweight boxing championship of the world, died at his home in Fern Creek, a Louisville suburb, yesterday, have been set for Sunday afternoon.

Hart, who defeated Jack Root at Reno, Nev., July 3, 1930, for what he claimed was the world heavyweight title, died after an illness of nine months. He was 55 years old day before yesterday.

Physicians said death was caused by high blood pressure and complications. His condition became grave several weeks ago and he had been unconscious several days before his death.

The Hart-Root fight was staged after Jim Jeffries announced he had retired and would present the title to the winner of a match between Hart and Root. Hart knocked Root out in the twelfth round of the scheduled 20-round bout with Jeffries as third man in the ring.

Hart then laid claim to the championship but a controversy arose over whether Jeffries had any right to pass the title around as he did.

TWO FIREMEN HURT

HOUSTON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Two firemen were injured slightly last night fighting a fire of unknown origin that damaged the second floor of a four-story brick building occupied by the Googs Market store, at 605 Preston street.

Four were overcome by smoke but were revived quickly.

FEMININE FANCIES

By Hollyce Sellers Hinkle

Tomorrow will be "stepping out" day for Pampa men. Scores of women are seeing to it that their husbands are not a season behind time in the matter of hats. They are helping Friend Hubby select a hat which will give him self-confidence though a satisfaction of being well-dressed.

Besides, some of the women would like to attend a movie tomorrow on the ticket that is given free for the straw hat of the "lesser half." Tomorrow, let it be remembered, is felt hat day.

Pearl gray and browns of all shades seem to be the most popular colors here this season. The gray, usually with a black band, is being selected for dark blue and other dark suits, while the brown is worn with brown suits. The ensemble effect is necessary for the best appearance.

As for shape, there is little difference from last year, except there is a tendency toward wider brims. Curled brims also are finding favor.

There are some who prefer the softest felt hat. This is a light gray with a wide black brim.

But regardless of style, men like to begin the season with a hat that is new.

And most of the men want their wives' approval. So if you like hubby's hat, tell him so. If not—well, you'd better go along and help select the hat to be sure you do like it.

FOR WOMEN ONLY: Here's the secret of this little talk. When hubby has bought the new hat, how can he complain when you suggest that a new Princess Eugenie hat would be very becoming to yourself?

MRS. TRUHITE VISITS W. M. S.

Mrs. D. H. Truhitte, wife of the former pastor of the Central Baptist church, was a guest of the Women's Missionary society of that church Wednesday afternoon. The Rev. and Mrs. Truhitte, who are living in Purdin, Mo., are visiting for a short time in Pampa.

The group voted that each woman in the organization should contribute one pair of bloomers to the Welfare Board to be used for school girls in needy families. The organization has done a great deal of welfare work recently.

Announcements were made of the observance next Wednesday of week of prayer. The women are asked to meet at the church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning and to bring covered dishes.

"Mother" Anderson led the Bible study, and Mrs. B. F. Walker dismissed the society with prayer.

Those present were Mesdames G. C. Stark, S. L. Anderson, R. M. Mitchell, G. L. Moore, L. H. Anderson, Ray R. Hungate, Cecil Lunsford, D. H. Truhitte, G. D. Holmes, O. J. McAnster, J. M. White, and B. F. Walker.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB ELECTS

DIZZY HEADACHE RELIEVED

A dizzy, sickening headache often is a warning sign of constipation. Poisons which constipation dumps up in the intestine are beginning to get in their dangerous work.

There's refreshing relief in a dose or two of Theodor's Black-Draught. "I first began taking Black-Draught for biliousness and constipation," writes Mrs. Alonzo Rothrock, of Ilmo, Mo. "I would have sick headache and dizziness so I could not ston over. I did not get any better until I began taking Black-Draught. After using it for some time, I quit having sick headache."

PARENTS VOTE TO SUPPORT CAFETERIA PLAN

ONE CENTRAL BUILDING MAY BE DESIGNATED IN WHICH TO DO ALL OF SCHOOL COOKING

Plans under consideration of the Pampa School board and the Parent-Teacher associations to place a cafeteria in each school of the city were approved at initial meetings of parents and teachers at three schools—Baker, Woodrow Wilson and Horace Mann—yesterday.

If present plans materialize, a central cafeteria will be placed in the red brick building on central campus. There enough food will be prepared and will be taken to the smaller cafeterias of the ward schools.

Although a minimum charge will be made, it is the plan to have the cafeterias self-supporting and the equipment has been bought, and it has been suggested that dishes be provided by showers given by the Parent-Teacher associations.

Only the noon meal is to be served.

Over Hundred Present More than 100 persons attended the meeting at Horace Mann school. The first part of the hour was devoted to a sing song program led by Miss Loma Groom, this being primarily for the purpose of allowing patrons and teachers to become acquainted. All new patrons and teachers were introduced.

An inspiring talk on cooperation was given by the Rev. F. W. O'Malley, minister of the First Christian church.

Prof. Otto Schick rendered two violin solos. He was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Frank Kechn. The business session was conducted by Mrs. N. F. Maddux, new president of the Horace Mann P.-T. A.

At Baker School Invocation by Principal J. A. Meek and three numbers by "Pop" Frazier's band opened the meeting at Baker school, and a song by the entire group followed. Russell Roof, accompanied at the piano by Miss Martha Wulfmair, entertained with a violin solo.

Talks were made by Supt. R. B. Fisher, who spoke on cooperation, and Mrs. V. E. Fathere, past president of the city council of Parent-Teacher associations.

A picture was awarded to Mrs. A. J. Johnson's room for having the largest number of mothers present.

Refreshments furnished by the Coca Cola Bottling works, were served by members of the hospitality committee, Mrs. J. W. Crowder, Mrs. Earl Roof, Mrs. H. D. Jones, and Mrs. S. G. Atwood.

About 55 persons attended. Vote is Unanimous The Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher association voted unanimously to accept the cafeteria plan. The meeting was presided over by Mrs. Catherine Wilkerson.

Mrs. W. R. Warner was elected as the new president of the group and Mrs. Frank Murry was chosen as vice-president.

Instructions in the new traffic rules to be enforced at the ward schools were given at the meeting by Mrs. Wilkerson.

It was voted to hold regular evening meetings on the third Thursday of each month.

About 30 persons, including 100 per cent of the teachers, attended.

SUSPECTS IN BANK RAIDS ARE HELD

TEXARKANA, Sept. 18. (AP)—Two men sought in connection with the robbery of the First National bank of Avery were in custody today.

Two brothers, one of whom was arrested Wednesday night, the other late yesterday, were in separate jails. The younger of the two was held at Clarksville, Texas. The elder brother was arrested in Texarkana, Ark., and refused to waive extradition to Texas.

The younger of the two was positively identified yesterday by one of the bank's customers as a participant in the robbery.

GIRLS SCOUTS TAKING TESTS

Twenty-four girls have passed the tenderfoot test for Girl Scouts, according to announcement this morning by Mrs. Catherine Wilkerson, captain. About the same number will take the test next month.

Membership in the troop is complete, said Mrs. Wilkerson, although another troop may be organized soon. She asked that those interested in the work notify her or Mrs. John I. Bradley, first lieutenant.

The next meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock in the basement of the Methodist church.

Helium Holdings Much Enlarged

AMARILLO, Sept. 18. (AP)—The purchase of 11,833 acres of land in the Cliffside helium gas structure was announced today by U. S. helium plant officials. The consideration was $172,000.

Title to the tract, located in the southwest part of Picher county, included all gas and oil rights, and one completed well. The purchase completed the 52,000-acre tract sought by the government for its helium operations. The 11,833-acre tract is the only purchase made in fee. Gas rights were valued at little more than $50,000.

The land was bought from the Humble Oil and Refining company. A provision of the contract will give that company the privilege of developing any oil wells that might be drilled while the government is seeking helium gas.

Nine thousand acres owned by the Bivins estate was recently condemned when the government and the Bivins heirs could not agree on a price for gas rights.

"We now have a solid block of 52,000 acres in which no drilling can be done, except by the government," said C. J. Vestal, assistant superintendent of the helium division, U. S. bureau of mines.

"There is no danger now of the structure being sapped of helium." The new well brings the total to five now supplying the plant with natural gas from which the helium is extracted.

FLY TO FORT WORTH

Dr. J. C. McKean, Pampa's flying doctor, and J. G. Burns, business manager of the Worley hospital, left at 6 a. m. yesterday in Dr. McKean's Stearman biplane on a business trip to Fort Worth and Dallas. They are expected back some time today.

LEGION AUXILIARY PREPARES 98 CANS OF FOOD FOR BOARD

Seven members of the American Legion auxiliary spent Thursday evening preparing 98 cans of food for the needy of the city through the Welfare Board.

Those doing the work were Mesdames Al Lawson, W. J. Murphy, W. M. Voyles, D. E. Cecil, William Faler, Ray Anderson, and E. D. Smith. Miss Myrtle Miller, county home demonstration agent, directed the canning.

At a regular meeting of the auxiliary Thursday evening, it was decided to give away a beautiful double wedding ring quilt Nov. 11. The quilt will be on display at the L. T. Hill store Oct. 1.

Arthur Clough, who is in the national soldiers' hospital in Kansas, was "adopted" by the auxiliary. He will be sent magazines and tobacco on Christmas, on his birthday, and on other special days.

Those at the meeting were Mesdames Albert Wood, E. P. Hogsett, Joe Shelton, J. W. Murphy, Larry Spicer, Clyde Garner, F. L. Dotson, W. M. Voyles, S. A. Burns, Al Lawson, Ray Anderson, William Faler, E. O. Smith, and W. C. de Cordova.

Box Supper Will Be On Saturday

A benefit box supper will be given by the Loyal Order of Moose and women of the Mooseheart Legion Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Locust Grove club.

Plans for the supper were made when the Legion met Wednesday evening for a business session. It was also planned to give away a Pandora chest filled with handmade and embroidered articles the last of October. The chest will be on exhibit at a local store in the near future.

Farm Board Is Short of Ideas In Cotton Crisis

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. (AP)—The farm board has failed thus far to find a cotton surplus relief plan to which it is willing to attach its name.

Hundreds of proposals have been received since the Aug. 1 cotton forecast disclosed a bumper crop which will add to the existing burdensome supplies. Many have been carefully analyzed and have been deemed unsatisfactory.

Unless an entirely new proposal is offered, embodying principles the board considers sound and feasible, it was made known today, the board will confine its activities to assisting in financing holding a part of the 1931 crop through co-operatives. It also may authorize the stabilization corporation to retain 1,300,000 bales previously acquired, from the market for another year.

The board has consistently urged acreage reduction. As a drastic measure it proposes that the 1931 crop be destroyed. In the wake of its rejection came hundreds of new ideas which the board now considers unworkable.

Meanwhile, southern states are debating legislative proposals that acreage be reduced sharply next year and bankers are talking of means of extending credit to foreign buyers with which to purchase American farm surpluses.

Mitchell Likes Looks of Sooners

Coach Odus Mitchell of the Pampa Harvellers "looked over" Coach Jim Lookabaugh's Capitol Hill high school Redskins last night following their arrival here and remarked that his green and gold clad boys would have a job on their hands scalping the Redskins.

"They are a sweet looking bunch of boys and we are going to have to be on our toes from the opening whistle," Coach Mitchell told the POST last night. "I believe we will beat them but it is going to be no walk-away as some of our fans 'predict,' he declared.

The boys are heavier than expected. Word was received here earlier in the week that the team would be light but fast. Mitchell believes the team will be heavy and fast. The Redskin coach is well known in football circles in Oklahoma, having had one year, taking district honors four years out of five.

This afternoon's game will start promptly at 3:30 o'clock. Persons desiring reserve seats can get them at Pampa Drug No. 1 until 2:30 o'clock when the tickets will be taken to Harvester park. Entrance to the field will be through the west gate, the east gate being reserved for students and those carrying passes.

WHEAT RECOVERS
CHICAGO, Sept. 18. (AP)—Grains advanced early today after an initial sag that was associated with Liverpool wheat quotations going lower than expected, and with pressure of Argentine offerings abroad. Speculative buying, however, developed on the decline here, with nearby deliveries in demand on the part of previous sellers.

Opening unchanged to 1/2c lower. Chicago wheat afterward scored gains all around. Corn also started unchanged to 1/2c off and later showed a general advance.

Yacht Killing Is Near Solution

NEW YORK, Sept. 18. (AP)—District Attorney Alexander G. Blue of Suffolk county, is to refer the killing of Benjamin P. Collings by yacht pirates to a grand jury in hope of obtaining indictments against the slayers.

"I now have a clear picture of what happened on the Penguin and after the events on the Penguin were over," he said, adding that he had information he did not care to reveal. He announced that Felix De Martini, private detective, and one time an ace of the New York police, had been retained as his special investigator.

Martini figured prominently in the Hall-Mills murder trial as a defense investigator.

Two unidentified men boarded the Penguin at Lloyd's neck, Long Island Sound, a week ago last Wednesday, threw Collings overboard and kidnapped his wife. His body was washed up last Wednesday.

Germer William B. Gibson of Suffolk, in announcing an inquest for this morning, said he would have liked to call Mrs. Collings as a witness, but Mr. Blue had ruled against it. Several policemen and N. L. Noteman, who found the Penguin drifting in the sound, were asked to be the first witnesses.

KNOWS WHAT TO DO WHEN SEES ROBBER

CHICAGO, Sept. 18. (AP)—Henry Lucas saw a familiar face yesterday and knew just what to do. He put up his hands.

"Hello, Huggy," said a genial stranger who walked into the bus station where Lucas is manager. "I suppose the money's in the same old place."

The visitor then helped himself to $200 in the cash drawer, smilingly waved a pistol, and said to Lucas:

"You remember what you do next?"

Lucas remembered. He led three prospective passengers into another room where he waited while the robber kicked the door and escaped.

"Sure, I know him," he told the police. "He robbed me six weeks ago and locked us all in the washroom. He got $300 then."

GRAF ZEPPELIN OFF ON FLIGHT

FRIEDRICHSHAFEN, Germany, Sept. 18. (AP)—The Graf Zeppelin, Leviathan of the trans-Atlantic Airways, left early today for Pernambuco on her second non-stop cruise to South America within three weeks.

She took off at 1:15 a. m. (6:15 p. m. CST, Thursday) and was sighted over Lyons, France, about four hours later, heading for Sainte Marie de Lamer. She was carrying 40 passengers, including Harold Knight of New York, and James McVittie of Chicago, 265 pounds of mail, and 2,000 pounds of provisions.

Captain Ernest Lehman was in command, pinch-hitting for Dr. Hugo Eckener who was attending a conference at Innsbruck. The Graf will wait five days in Pernambuco for return mail as she did on the last trip, starting Aug. 29 and ending Sept. 7. A third cruise is planned for the middle of October.

A Cave-in in Court Road, Eltham, England, just after a bus had passed revealed an underground passage to the ancient Eltham Palace.

Teachers College Opens Sept. 23

CANYON, Texas, Sept. 19. (Special)—The twenty-second long session of the West Texas State Teachers college will begin Sept. 23 when freshmen will be enrolled. Sophomores and upper classesmen enroll on Sept. 24 and 25 and entrance examinations will be given the same days. Classes will be meeting regularly beginning Sept. 26.

Dr. J. A. Hill has called a meeting of his faculty for Sept. 22, and the entire staff will be in the city by that time ready to begin work.

No predictions have been made concerning the attendance this year, but real estate men and administrators whose college offices have been open during the vacation report that there have been more people making inquiries and looking for houses and apartments than for many years. The summer attendance for 1931 showed an increase of 10 per cent for that of last year and it seems likely to those on the ground that the fall attendance will be heavy.

The Canyon public schools show an increase of 20 per cent in the high school, and an increase there usually means that more families have come to this city to take advantage of the college opportunities which can be had at moderate cost.

Faculty and prospective students are facing the years work with great seriousness of purpose and determination," said Dr. Hill. "With such a spirit we are sure to have a successful session, even if conditions are hard."

Wealthy Men to Assist Unemployed

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18. (AP)—Owen D. Young turned his attention today to providing the hundreds of millions necessary to prevent distress next winter among the unemployed.

The New Yorker, author of the Young reparations plan and a possible Democratic presidential candidate in 1932, undertook the task as chairman of a committee in President Hoover's unemployment relief organization.

The committee was called to work out plans with Walter S. Gifford, national relief director, for raising funds through local communities to prevent suffering among the jobless.

Its membership included men accustomed to deal with large sums among whom were Pierre DuPont of Wilmington, Del.; Fred Fisher, of Detroit; Henry M. Robinson of Los Angeles, and Walter Teagle, of New York.

BULL FIGHT IS OFF
HOUSTON, Sept. 18. (AP)—It looks like the big bull fight planned here for Sunday by the Mexican population to round out their celebration of Mexican independence, is off.

Humane society leaders called on city authorities today to protest and were told, they said, it would not be held, even though it had been described as a "scientific bull fight" where no animal would be killed.

Use of Negroes on Highways Deplored

AMARILLO, Sept. 18. (AP)—Protests against importation of negroes to the Texas Panhandle to work on state highway projects was lodged with Gov. Ross S. Sterling yesterday by Gene Howe, editor of the Amarillo News-Globe.

"Negroes imported from South Texas to work on state highways had better be sent home," Howe cautioned in his message.

He, simultaneously, protested against contractors on state highway projects employing laborers at 20 cents an hour.

One motorist TELLS another!

"HIGHEST TEST" at the price of ordinary gasoline

GRAVITY from 60.6° to 71.4° TO MATCH WEATHER

PHILLIPS 66 is made by the world's largest producers of natural high gravity gasoline

It started as a whisper, this word-of-mouth advertising about Phillips 66... the greater gasoline. Then, as one motorist told another, the good news spread.

Soon a mighty thunder of approval rolled over 14 states. Millions, actually millions of experienced drivers, tried and approved this sensational new gasoline. And marveled because it gave high test results without higher price.

Extra power, smoother running, longer mileage—that is what you get with Phillips 66. Because the famous Phillips principle of CONTROLLED VOLATILITY matches this gasoline to the monthly changes in your weather. With a year 'round gravity from 60.6° to 71.4°. Always higher test than others. Without higher price.

Try a tankful today. And ten-to-one, you will form the same buying habit which is saving gasoline money for millions of drivers—the habit of stopping for gas at the Orange and Black 66 shield.

Also Phillips 66 Ethyl at the regular price of Ethyl gasoline

PHILLIPS 66 MOTOR OIL... 30¢ a Quart ... as far ahead in quality and value for the money as PHILLIPS 66 Gasoline!

FEWER PLAYS TO BE USED BY KANSANS

Bill Hargiss Said He Had Too Much Offense in 1930 Season.

BY CHARLES A. GRUMICH Associated Press Sports Writer LAWRENCE, Sept. 18. (P)—Fewer plays executed with greater precision are planned for the 1931 Kansas Jayhawk football squad. "We are eliminating some of our offense," says Headcoach H. W. (Bill) Hargiss. "We have had too much, so we are going to take fewer plays and work them better." Although graduation and ineligibility cut deeply into the 1930 Big Six champion squad, Hargiss isn't pessimistic, for a flock of sophomores scaling 200 pounds and down has turned out for practice under a blistering September sun. Hargiss lost Ormand Beach, 200-pound fullback, whose employment by an insurance company isn't compatible with the eligibility rules, but Johnny Madison, star back who broke an ankle in spring practice, has returned unexpectedly. Larry (Moon) Mullins, pupil of the late Knute Rockne at Notre Dame, is making his bow in the coaching profession as tutor to the backfield, including such veterans as Elmer Schaeke, 205 pounds; Carmie Smith, 200-pound quarterback;

Lee Page, 175; Bernard Gridley, 170, who, with the wind at his back, once-stepped the 200-yard low hurdles in world record time, and Fred (Bunny) Black, 165.

Planing them are numerous sophomores and reserves, notably Clyde Coffman, 160-pound death-on-man, who is equally versatile on the gridiron, punting and dropping-kicking with his left foot and place-kicking with his right, or vice versa with only slightly varied results. There is plenty of talent in the line except at guard, where only one veteran out of four survived the scholastic requirements.

The Hargiss five-and-five huddle that is pleasing to the eye in contrast to the Laddadical signal lineup employed elsewhere will be used in an attempt to confound opponents as to the intent of the ensuing play.

The schedule: Sept. 26, Colorado Aggies at Lawrence; Oct. 2, Haskell Indians at Lawrence (night); Oct. 10, James Milliken university at Lawrence; Oct. 17, Kansas State at Lawrence; Oct. 24, Nebraska at Lincoln; Oct. 31, Oklahoma A. and M. at Lawrence; Nov. 7, Oklahoma at Forhan; Nov. 14, Washington university at St. Louis; Nov. 21, Missouri at Lawrence.

Continental Has Big Prize Offer On Their Oils

An offer of $10,000 in cash prizes for the best answers to "The Mystery of the Hidden Quartz," and launching the largest advertising campaign ever sponsored by Continental Oil company in the interest of Conoco Germ Processed motor oil has been announced.

"Teaser" announcements of this campaign have appeared throughout the country, and advertisements announcing the cash prize contest appeared in 1,500 newspapers, with a combined circulation of more than 9,000,000.

The advertising in connection with this prize contest will constitute one of the largest campaigns ever conducted by an oil company during a similar period of time, according to Wesley I. Nunn, advertising manager of Continental Oil company.

"During 1931 Continental will spend considerably more than half of its entire advertising budget for newspaper space," said Mr. Nunn.

"Despite the general downward trend of business conditions during the early part of this year, Continental decided to increase its advertising budget. The result has been that we have had a very worthwhile increase in volume of business this year, and have definitely proved the wisdom of going after business by a stronger advertising appeal during the so-called depression periods."

The contest announced today is one in which motorists are invited to compete for $10,000 in cash prizes, in telling how the "hidden quartz" of Conoco Germ Processed motor oil benefits motorists. The question is "What becomes of the 'hidden quartz' and how does this quartz benefit the motorist?" There are 29 prizes, first prize being $3,000.

The contest closes at midnight, Sept. 28, 1931, with all communications being sent to Continental Oil company, Ponca City, Okla. Judges of the contest are: Dr. W. B. Bizzell, president of the University of Oklahoma; John A. Hunter, professor of mechanical engineering, University of Colorado; and Frank I. Martin, associate dean, School of Journalism, University of Missouri.

Were Out of Line: "Our prices were all out of line with those of other companies," he said, "and we could see no reason why we should take undue punishment."

He added that he expected mid-continent crude prices generally to take an upward swing again and that when this occurred, Phillips would be among the first to increase.

KILGORE, Texas, Sept. 18. (AP)—Necessity for a closer check on the flow of East Texas' oil was called to the attention of Gov. Ross S. Sterling by Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Wolters, last night.

General Wolters urged Governor Sterling to request the Texas railroad commission to immediately enact a rule requiring lock stops and seals on oil tank.

Is Urgent Need: "This will enable a check to be made on operators and also protect the royalty owners. The necessity for having such a rule is urgent and we were permitted to withdraw oil at a lower price."

SHERIFF'S SALE THE STATE OF TEXAS, County of Gray.

BY VIRTUE OF AN EXECUTION issued out of the Honorable 114th District Court of Gray County, Texas, on the 9th day of September, A. D. 1931, by the Clerk thereof, in the case of Western Newspaper Union vs. The Pampa Times Publishing Company, No. 2917, and to me as sheriff directed and delivered, I will proceed to sell within the hours prescribed by law for sheriff's sales, on the First Tuesday in October, A. D. 1931, being the 6th day of October, A. D. 1931, before the Court House door of said Gray County, Texas, in the City of Pampa, the following described property, to-wit:

Lot Number Ten (10) in Block Number Sixteen (16) of the town of Pampa, Gray County, Texas, according to the recorded map and plat thereof of record in the office of the County Clerk of said County levied on this the 9th day of September, A. D. 1931, as the property of The Pampa Times Publishing Company, to satisfy a judgment amounting to $2,004.36, with interest at the rate of 10 per cent per annum from the 14th day of August, A. D. 1931, and all costs of suit, said judgment being in favor of the Western Newspaper Union.

It is requested that the rule be adopted immediately. General Wolters urged.

Meanwhile, production in the field yesterday was gauged at 421,323 barrels, a slight decrease over production of the day before. General Wolters said the slight slump was attributed to trouble the Magnolia Pipe Line company had with its line this failing to carry all oil offered.

NO-EAT-NO-WORK IS IN FORCE AT HOUSTON

HOUSTON, Sept. 18. (AP)—The ancient rule of a "no eat, no work" which "the who will not work shall not eat" will be invoked against transients here this winter, according to announcement of F. M. Law, chairman of the mayor's unemployment committee. Captain Smith promulgated the rule during hard times in the early days of Virginia.

"We figured that the best way to handle transients would be with a work test," Mr. Law said in explaining the plan.

"When a transient comes to town he will have to register. Then he will be given work on some city improvement project. He will receive no pay, but if he works eight hours a day he will be given three square meals and a place to sleep."

TOKYO, Japan, Sept. 18. (AP)—A Rengo news agency dispatch from Fukuoka, Japan, said today Col. Charles A. Lindbergh had announced he was going to Europe, but did not name the route he might follow after completing his air tour of China, upon which he expects to start from Fukuoka tomorrow.

The dispatch said Colonel Lindbergh, in a conversation with E. R. Dickover, American consul at Fukuoka, reiterated he would not decide upon a route until he arrived in China.

Rengo also quoted the colonel as saying he would fly as far as Europe but would not attempt a flight to America.

Previously the colonel had said he would fly all the way home but that the route had not been selected.

J. S. Dewar, vice-president, speaking from Bartlesville, offices of the company, said the oil did not promise further reductions in mid-continent crude prices, but was merely a matter of the Phillips interests returning to the scale paid by virtually all other purchasers.

Were Out of Line: "Our prices were all out of line with those of other companies," he said, "and we could see no reason why we should take undue punishment."

He added that he expected mid-continent crude prices generally to take an upward swing again and that when this occurred, Phillips would be among the first to increase.

KILGORE, Texas, Sept. 18. (AP)—Necessity for a closer check on the flow of East Texas' oil was called to the attention of Gov. Ross S. Sterling by Brig. Gen. Jacob F. Wolters, last night.

General Wolters urged Governor Sterling to request the Texas railroad commission to immediately enact a rule requiring lock stops and seals on oil tank.

Is Urgent Need: "This will enable a check to be made on operators and also protect the royalty owners. The necessity for having such a rule is urgent and

CHAPTER XIX

Norma stepped from the elevator and searched the lobby with a swift glance. Cliff Halloran, in soft cloth, a bag of clubs slung over one shoulder, came toward her, smiling.

"Good evening, Mrs. Travers. Well, it my luck I'm going to show up that husband of yours."

The girl interrupted. "Have you seen Mark? I've been looking for him."

Halloran shook his head. "Just got in," he told her. "Haven't seen anyone. There's a gang outside but I didn't notice Mark among 'em. Is there anything I can do for you?"

Norma thanked him, said there was nothing. It wasn't important. Only that she was ready for dinner now and Mark had come downstairs ahead. Probably she'd find him on the mezzanine.

Halloran nodded and moved away. Norma went up the stairs to the right which led to the mezzanine lounge. Several strangers were there writing but Mark was not in sight. She spoke to an acquaintance, returned downstairs.

Where could Mark be? She had promised to join him in 15 minutes. Of course he was worried because the telegram had not come. It was this that made her anxious.

The orchestra was playing a new Cuban fox trot. Strains of the rhythmic seductive harmony floated out into the lobby. A group of women in pastel frocks and men in dinner clothes was entering the dining room. Norma looked up at a huge wall clock and saw the minute hand on the dial shift from seven to eight minutes until seven o'clock now.

She turned her back on the dining room and stepped through the wide doors leading to the street. The crowd Halloran had spoken of had disappeared. Norma wore no evening wrap and a chill breeze whipped the chiton back from her shoulder.

There was no one on the board porch which ran the width of the inn. Norma walked to the end overlooking a small park. She looked down and saw a dark figure pacing along the path.

"Mark!" she called. "Oh, Mark!"

The figure stopped. It was too dark for her to see his features but of course it was Mark. She would have known that walk anywhere. He hesitated, then came toward her.

Norma ran down the steps and met him at the corner. "I've been wondering what had become of you—the begin. Then she met his eyes and the words broke off. Even before he spoke the girl knew what had happened. "The telegram!" she exclaimed. "It—it's come!"

A crumpled bit of paper showed in Mark's clenched hand. So angry his face looked that he seemed scarcely to comprehend her words. "The old skinflint!" Mark was muttering. "The damned, miserly old cockroach! I'll get even for this—I'll show him if it's the last thing I do! He'll be sorry for this!"

"Tell me what's happened, Mark."

For the first time the young man seemed aware of what she was saying.

"You shouldn't be out here, Norma," he told her. "It's cold. Look—you're shivering. You shouldn't have come out here without a wrap."

"But I didn't know where you were. What is it, Mark? Is the telegram—I mean didn't the money come?"

Swiftly, in a half dozen quick motions, Mark had torn the sheet of paper into bits. He flung them to the breeze. The were hard, ugly lines about his lips as he said, "So much for F. M. Travers and his lousy millions! I wish I knew how he got hold of that telegram I sent to Mother—!"

His expression told the story. An arbitrary refusal of a loan from his father. Probably insulting references in the last meeting between Travers and his son. Blatant "I told you so's." No wonder Mark's countenance was stormy.

Norma sought his arm. Fearfully, sympathetically she raised her eyes to his.

"It doesn't matter," the girl said softly. "I'll find some other way, darling. We—we've each other—!"

He was not listening. A sharp wind caught the fragile drapery of her bodice, barring her arm.

"Here," Mark said roughly. "You can't stay outside any longer. You have got to get indoors!"

He half-led, half-pulled her up the steps and through the entrance of the inn. A mirror showed how tangled and disarranged her hair had become. The girl caught the reflection and drew back.

"I can't go into the dining room," she told him, "looking like this! I'll have to go upstairs and fix my hair. Will you wait here? It won't take five minutes."

Instead Mark said he would come with her. They crossed the lobby, and ascended to their rooms. Once there Mark slumped to a chair and sat staring at the floor. Norma blanced at him, decided against interrupting his mood and went to the mirror to repair her coiffure. A few moments later she told him, "I'm ready now!"

"You'd better go down and eat. I don't want anything."

"Oh, Mark—you can't go without eating. You'll be ill! Come on. We can talk things over in the dining room. We'll find some other way to get the money!"

Her words set him off on a new tirade. He was like a small boy, petulant and willful. He would not eat. He broke into violent denunciations of his father. He got to his feet and stormed about the room like a caged animal. What business did his father have intercepting a telegram addressed to his mother? Someone was to blame for that and Mark would just like to get his hands on the guilty one. One of the servants, doubtless, set to watch and pry! What he wouldn't do if he could find out who had done it!

It required half an hour's coaxing before Norma could persuade him to eat.

to go to the dining room. Through the meal Mark snaked blissfully. This girl had never seen him in such a mood.

Every attempt failed to cheer him and presently Norma gave up her efforts.

As they left the dining room Mark stopped at the check stand for his hat, announcing he was going out for a time. There was no invitation for Norma to accompany him. Just the announcement.

"But Mark—?"

"Oh, don't stand here and start arguing. All I said was that I'm going out. Nothing wrong about that, is there? There are plenty of people around you can talk to. Why don't you go in and dance? I won't be gone long."

Fride kept her lips from trembling. She left him immediately but she did not go to the bath room of the mezzanine where the dancing was in progress. Instead she returned to their rooms, took off the children dinner gown and hung it away. She got into the big blue negligee, curled up in her favorite chair and rested her head in her arms.

A dozen times she rehearsed the arguments Mark didn't mean to be cross. She mustn't blame him. He would be back in a few minutes now. Apologetic and with kisses to make up for every moment of unhappiness. Mark loved her and with that love nothing in the world could make any difference.

It was all to happen very nearly as she had anticipated. Less than an hour after he had left her the door opened and Mark strode in.

"Well, I got it!" he announced dramatically. Mark was not angry now. There was triumph in his voice.

Norma sprang to her feet. "You have got—what?"

"Five hundred berries! Enough to pay our bills and get back to Mayboro. Told you I'd get it, didn't I? Well, it's here—right in the good old wallet!" He patted the left-hand pocket of his vest. "Five hundred berries!" he repeated.

"We're pulling out of here first thing in the morning!"

"Oh, I'm so glad! I knew everything would come out all right, Mark." Norma raised her head, threw her arms about his shoulders. "How did you get it, darling?"

Mark kissed her casually, squared back and said in an off-hand tone, "Oh, I hit Stone for a can. Ran across him on the street and he gave me his check. It's good all right—no need to worry about that. Stone's a pretty good fellow even if he does seem a trifle stiff some times."

The bright flush faded slowly from Norma's cheeks. She drew away and hid her hand unconsciously rose to her throat.

"Stone?" she asked a little weakly. "You mean—Hollis Stone?"

"Sure. Why not? He knows he'll get his dough back—all right. Besides he's a sort of relative. Why shouldn't I borrow from him?"

"Why—why there's no reason, of course."

"What's the matter, Norma? You act as though I'd done something wrong! I thought you'd be glad to hear we can get out of this dump. You're acting darned funny about this, it seems to me!"

Desperately she tried to cover didn't mean, of course it's all right I'm glad you got the money, mark. I'm awfully glad. If we're starting in the morning I ought to start packing right away."

She turned and began fumbling through bureau drawers.

"Wait a minute!" Mark was beside her, slipping an arm about her waist. "See here, sweetheart, I was a bear tonight at dinner. I'm sorry. Honestly, I am. I didn't mean to be cross or hurt your feelings. Say you forgive me—please, Norma!"

"His tenderness was a thousand times dearer because an hour earlier she had been so tormented, so haunted by fears she would not even name to herself.

"It's all right, Mark. Of course! There isn't anything to forgive. Oh, my darling—oh, I do love you!" They were happier that night than they had been for a long while.

At 10 o'clock next morning Mark and Norma boarded "The Sentinel" fast train that would transport them to Mayboro in 24 hours.

There was no private compartment on this trip. They rode in an ordinary pullman. The car was only half filled and no one sat across the aisle. Norma's hand dug its way into Mark's protecting fingers. The slight pressure in response was a momentous secret.

Above the droning of the train wheels Norma's heart was singing. "I'm glad we're going back, Mark."

"Guess I am too, kid. Had fun at the Springs though, didn't we?"

"Oh, yes, it was wonderful!" She would have agreed to anything Mark said that morning. Norma was radiant. Such plans for the future. Such confidence those plans would succeed. Mark was going to find a job. She would work hard too, keeping their tiny apartment. Cooking and cleaning. Economizing. They would pay back their debts and begin saving. They had talked for hours planning all this.

Nothing could come between them now. Mark was her husband. He would stand squarely on his own feet and she would help him. It was as though they were making a fresh start and this time they would start in the right way.

No one was looking toward them.

Eleven Careless Drivers Arrested

Eleven careless Pampa motorists paid fines in city court for violations of the state traffic laws. Traffic Officer Joe Penky and State Highway Officers Lee Miller and W. C. Cowell made life miserable for motorists who persisted in driving with one headlight, no tail light, glaring lights, etc.

The state officers visit Pampa once every week to check up on traffic violators. The number is now increasing and it may be necessary for the officers to visit Pampa more often.

It costs $5 to drive through a school zone at more than 15 miles an hour. Chief of Police J. I. Downs declared last night. The chief says he is going to protect the children of Pampa from reckless drivers if he has to hunt them with special officers. Motorists are also to stop at stop signs entering school zones, he says.

Straw Hats Taboo After Saturday

Saturday being felt hat day, Manager C. B. Akers of the La Nora theater has devised a scheme to take the straws off the street.

He will give free admittance Saturday to every man wearing his own straw hat to the theater. He emphasized that, only owners of the hats would be admitted, and said that a sharp pole would be run through every hat to make sure it did no more service.

The styles in new felt were shown at the La Nora Wednesday and Thursday at the fashion revue sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's club. Merchants have complete stocks of the latest mode and are ready to fit local men on short order. After Saturday, straw hats will be taboo, according to style edicts.

For an instant the girl's cheek brushed Mark's.

"I'm so happy!" she whispered. Norma had failed to take into account obstacles the strength of which she did not even dream.

Sister MARY'S KITCHEN

BY SISTER MARY NEA Service Writer

Too often picnic menus are planned in a haphazard fashion with an unbalanced meal as the result. If these careless meals are repeated frequently, much damage can be done to the digestion.

Unfortunately, it's the children who are the chief sufferers at picnics for their needs are seldom considered. The same principles of nutrition must be kept in mind whether a family dinner is being planned or luncheon is being selected from a menu card in a restaurant. The choice of a balanced diet is one of the most important single factors in maintaining health. Lack of care in this respect contributes to loss in weight and lessened resistance and sends children back to school in poor condition for beginning the year's work.

The picnic composed of sandwiches, fruit and a drink is the simplest meal to plan. The sandwiches are the "main" dish and must be high in food value and easy to digest.

Salad Must Be Fresh

A menu which is a bit more elaborate adds a salad to the sandwiches and little cakes or cookies to the fruit. Here again the sandwiches may be the chief source of protein, although a meat or fish salad may be chosen and vegetable sandwiches provided. If heavy sandwiches are planned, then the salad should furnish bulk, mineral salts and vitamins as well as adding palatability and interest to the meal. Always choose a salad which carries well for unless the dish is attractive it's a doubtful addition to the repast.

The picnic planned to take the place of dinner at home adds a hot dish to the salad and sandwich menu. The hot dish might well be a "one piece" concoction which combines vegetables and meat. Macaroni or rice combination dishes are also suitable. Scalloped potatoes with ham, scalloped tomatoes with bacon, scalloped cauliflower in cheese sauce combinations of vegetables with meat cooked in a casserole, stuffed baked vegetables—the dishes are legion that are acceptable for such a meal. These mixtures are easily carried in the dish in which they were baked and can be kept hot several hours if wrapped in many thicknesses of newspaper.

Sometimes it seems advisable to carry the salad ingredients in separate containers and combine them when ready to serve. The dressing may need to be carried in a glass jar, but the other materials usually can be packed in paper containers which can be destroyed when empty. For example, tomatoes can be scalded and chilled at home, ready for quick peeling and slicing when wanted. Lettuce can be washed and chilled and kept deliciously crisp if carried in a closely covered tin pail.

If you can carry a watermelon, it makes a delicious dessert and acts as a thirst quencher as well. Ice cream packed in a vacuum freezer at home or commercially packed in "dry" ice is always popular for dessert at a picnic.

Browns Return To Pampa Today

Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Brown are scheduled to arrive in Pampa on the 4:44 o'clock Santa Fe train this afternoon, according to a telegram received by C. P. Buckler yesterday afternoon. Miss Margaret Buckler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Buckler, will remain in Springfield, Mass., visiting friends and will return to Pampa later.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Miss Buckler spent three months in England and touring the continent. They visited relatives of Mr. Brown in London. While in Europe Mr. Brown attended the Rotary International convention in Vienna, Austria.

In a recent week 1,452,006 National Savings Certificates were sold in Britain.

Particular attention will be paid to community exhibits, the judges said last night. They have learned that ten Hemphill county communities have entered exhibits. "With so many communities entered the judging will be particularly hard as a gift will probably decide the winner," Mr. Thomas said.
