Hitler May Try To Send Troops To Greece Through Yugoslavia

Premier Goes To Berlin To See Dictator

Adolf's Latest Move Surprises Balkan Nations

(By The Associated Press) Yugoslavia's Premier Dragisa Cvetkovic left Belgrade by special train for Germany at the invitation of the Nazi government today amid circumstances suggesting that Adolf Hitler may be planning pressure on the Balkan countries for the passage of German troops.

Political quarters in Belgrade said the Yugoslav leader had been invited to discuss "the present political situation in the Balkans," as well as Yugoslavia's adherence to the Axis three-power pact.

In some quarters it has been considered possible that Hitler—perhaps uneasy over Russia's traditional "big Slavic brother" protection of Bulgaria—would seek transit of Nazi troops through Yugoslavia into Greece as an alternate route instead of through Bulgaria.

Germany is reported to have 600,000 soldiers massed in Rumania for a swift thrust into southeast Europe—either at Greece or Turkey.

Russia declared a month ago that if German troops were entering Bulgaria, it was done without either her consent or knowledge.

The Nazi high command reported that destructive aerial blows against the Suez canal had caused "severe paralysis" of ship traffic in that link between Britain and her far east possessions.

"Pictures showed large ships congested north and south of the blocked points," a German communique said.

A Nazi spokesman commenting on the whole of the British sea-borne commerce declared the world now was witnessing the first large-scale development of tactics combining warships, U-boats, and long-distance scouting planes for attacks for out at sea.

The spokesman recalled the previously announced wrecking of six ships in another convoy off the coast of Portugal last Sunday.

Diplomatic quarters said Yugoslav railways and highways leading to Greece and the Mediterranean afford an even better avenue for the Nazi army than the winding gravel roads and single-track railways of Bulgaria.

Germans Claim 13 Armed Ships Sunk

(By The Associated Press) BERLIN, Feb. 13.—The German high command announced today that 13 armed British merchantmen laden with war supplies had been sunk in the Atlantic by German warships, in what some sources called "probably the most successful attack on a convoy in naval history."

"Among them," the daily communique declared, "were several large trans-Atlantic steamers which were loaded to capacity with war material for England."

A spokesman said the Germans, in speaking of a trans-Atlantic steamer, usually visualize a vessel of at least 20,000 tons.

Other far-ranging Nazi aircraft have caused "severe paralysis" of ship traffic in the Suez canal, today's communique said. In addition to two ships previously reported sunk in the canal, it said the Luftwaffe since mid-January had scored hits on the canal embankments, railroad and port facilities.

The announcement of the pounce on the convoy in the Atlantic caused a stir in Berlin. It was described as a continuation of a raid started last Sunday when bombing planes and submarines were asserted to have sunk 24,500 tons of ships off Portugal.

German authorities obviously regarded cooperation of planes, submarines and surface vessels in the war on commerce as an effective means of beating the convoy system.

The first concerted attack on a British convoy was reported last Nov. 8, when the Germans claimed an entire merchant convoy of 15 to 20 ships, totaling 86,000 tons, was destroyed in the very middle of Britain's vital North Atlantic life line.

The British reported that 32 of the 38 ships attacked by the Germans in the November raid escaped as a result of the heroic action by the armed cruiser Jervis Bay, which went down with her guns blazing at the German raiders.

Military authorities indicated that the convoy had been attacked fiercely and scattered, after which the vessels were picked off one by one.

The approximate tonnage and the names of the ships were not disclosed.

The communique said merchantmen in the convoy were armed. Informed sources at the same time said the German air force yesterday made several "successful" attacks on British maritime objectives.

Two bomb hits were scored on a 4,000-ton merchantman off the northeast coast of Scotland, which was forced to stop, they said.

In general air warfare was restricted, apparently because of bad weather.

Be Prepared Party Elects All Officials

Boy Scouts will direct the business of the City of Pampa and of Gray county between 11 a. m. and 12 o'clock noon on Saturday as closing event of Boy Scout Week in Pampa. Members of the Be Prepared party were elected over the Good Turn party in a lively election last night in the city auditorium.

The boys had campaigned actively for more than two weeks and the battle of ballots last night was in favor of the Be Prepared group. The election followed strong campaign speeches by campaign managers and candidates of both groups.

The meeting opened with the Scout pledge and oath. Frank Monroe presided as election judge, and Executive Fred Roberts spoke briefly on the benefits of scouting.

On Saturday morning before the boys take over their new duties all Scouts will be guests of the La Mora theater at a special picture show.

Boys who will be officeholders Saturday morning are: Everett Sparks, troop 18, city commissioner; Dale Harrel, troop 30, mayor; Milton Stamford, troop 27, city commissioner; John Browning, troop 21, county tax collector; Othel Burnett, troop 27, sheriff; Charles Erickson, troop 30, district judge; Doye Ray Bridges, troop 21, district attorney; Dale Thut, troop 14, county clerk; Earl Edwards, troop 19, county attorney; Neely Joe Ellis, troop 14, district clerk; Billy Joe Day, troop 19, county judge; and Jackie London, troop 19, county superintendent of schools.

Here's Story From New Oil Boom Town MCLEANSBORO, Ill., Feb. 13 (AP)—A couple of restaurant proprietors in this oil-boom town insist this is true.

An oil well driller—known as a "roughneck" to the oil entry—ordered a meal in a cafe, asked for ketchup but none was available.

He put his plates on a tray and carried his dinner to a second restaurant where he was provided with ketchup. Then he ran out of bread and butter and after he telephoned the first restaurant, it was promptly delivered.

When he had finished the meal, he took the dishes back to the first restaurant, paid his check.

Aid Britain Bill Approved By Committee

Senate To Debate Measure For At Least Two Weeks

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations committee approved today, 15 to 8, the administration's aid-to-Britain bill.

The legislation was approved in substantially the form voted by the house. It now goes to the senate floor for debate, which will start Monday, and which leaders hope to restrict to two weeks.

The committee acted finally after rejecting a proposal by Senators Johnson (R-Cal.) and Ellender (D-La.) to restrict the president's authority to send American armed forces out of the western hemisphere.

The committee rejected also an amendment proposed by Senator McNary (R-Ore.) which would have stated specifically that any ships transferred to foreign countries must be returned.

No amendment was put forward in the committee on Wendell L. Willkie's suggestion that aid under the legislation be limited to Britain, China, and Greece.

The British aid bill would permit the president to transfer, lease, or lend war materials to nations whose defense the president considers vital to the security of the United States.

Transfers of existing equipment would be limited to $1,000,000,000 and could be made by the president only after consultation with army and navy chiefs.

The measure also would authorize the repair or re-outfitting of belatedly sent ships in American yards and would permit the president to communicate "defense information" to warring "democracies."

Income Tax Agents Arrive In Pampa Ralph Kenniston and Delmar King, deputy collectors of the internal revenue department, arrived in Pampa today to advise citizens regarding filing of income tax returns.

The two men will be at the post-office between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 4 p. m., today and tomorrow and from 8:30 a. m. to 12 noon on Saturday. They will not return to Pampa this year.

Vote Ignores Advice Of Committee

Minority Report Ordered Printed In Action

AUSTIN, Feb. 13 (AP)—The House of Representatives today made two important moves favoring legislation advocated by Governor W. Lee O'Daniel.

Overriding a committee recommendation, it ordered printed on minority report a bill increasing the truck load weight limit from 7,000 to 14,000 pounds.

A little later it returned to the appropriations committee a bill which the committee had reported favorably appropriating $3,500,000 from the general fund to effectuate the teachers retirement program.

Both actions came swiftly after the house had convened for a new day.

The action on the truck bill by a vote of 106 to 24 was an outstanding development in the struggle to boost the weight restrictions on truck loads, one of the most controversial questions before the legislature.

The immediate effect was to give the bill equal status with another recently recommended by the house committee on highways and motor traffic providing for weight limiting according to a scientific formula which would permit some loads up to 56,000 pounds.

Governor O'Daniel had declared for the bill specifically setting a new load top of 14,000 pounds and against the so-called scientific bill. The committee had reported unfavorably on the former, recommending that it not be printed, a step in parliamentary procedure.

At a hearing last night, R. L. Bobbitt, member of the highway commission testifying at the committee's request, asserted: "It is my judgment the principles of the scientific bill are correct. The present highway system will carry this load with 85 per cent efficiency and reasonable safety. I don't think the weight proposed is excessive."

Opponents and supporters of the bill were agreed on one thing—that regardless of the limit adopted the law should be enforced.

Only One Novel Can Be Checked Out New books for the Pampa library will be ordered soon. Committees for the year have been appointed by Mrs. C. P. Buesler, chairman of the board, and lists are being prepared.

Members of the children's committee are Mrs. Ray McKernan, Mrs. Ewing Leavelle, Mrs. B. E. Finley and Mrs. S. G. Strutt. Members of the fiction and science committee are Mrs. Roy McMillen, Arthur Teed, Joe Gordon and D. E. Cecil.

In the future, by ruling of the board, only one fiction book can be checked out on a card and the number of non-fiction books to be checked out on a card will be at the discretion of the librarian, Mrs. James Todd, Jr.

A total of 3,062 books were checked out of the library during the month of January. During the month gifts included $19.02 from the 20th Century club and five books from the 20th Century Culture club.

Committee Acts To Boost Debt Limit

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 (AP)—The Senate Finance committee gave quick approval today to legislation increasing the national debt limit to $65,000,000,000 to meet costs of defense and proposed British aid.

At an executive session the committee reported out legislation already approved by the house. This would boost the present debt limit of $45,000,000,000 plus 4,000,000,000 earmarked for national defense; subject to all future federal security issues to federal income tax and give the treasury broad powers to issue securities in small denominations.

Senator Brown (D-Mich.), who presided at hearings on the measure and will act as floor leader for it, said the legislation would be taken up in the senate Friday.

Newspapers Note Growth Of Ft. Bliss

Activity in "booming" El Paso as the result of the expansion of Ft. Bliss is reflected in copies of two El Paso newspapers received here.

The El Paso Times issued a 40-page national defense edition and the El Paso Herald-Post on the preceding day, issued its Greater Ft. Bliss edition, in four sections.

Both newspapers are crammed full of pictures of Ft. Bliss and related subjects including the picture of anti-aircraft unit, commanders of Ft. Bliss and units training there, the chief of staffs of the various corps, the First Cavalry mobile howitzer unit, new $100,000 Ft. Bliss chapel.

There is a full page picture of R. E. Thompson, representative of the 16th congressional district, appearing in both papers.

A special article by Marshal Hall is illustrated with an air view of home of anti-aircraft regiments, Ft. Bliss proper, and the 56th cavalry brigade area.

Headlines of the article summarize the story:

"Army steps lively to build giant military city on E. P. desert for defense troops; comfortable camp ready at Ft. Bliss for 27,000 soldiers; 7,000 workers get $2,500,000 in wages military payroll to reach $22,000,000 a year."

Wind Velocity Still 32 Miles An Hour

Wind velocity in Pampa dropped from 44 miles an hour at 1:19 o'clock yesterday afternoon down to 32 miles an hour shortly before noon today.

Yesterday's southwest wind was so strong that it blew out a window at the local F. W. Woolworth & Co. store.

The maximum temperature in Pampa Wednesday was 64, minimum 28. At noon today the temperature was 46, an increase of nine degrees over the 5:35 a. m. reading.

Forecast for West Texas: fair tonight and Friday, except partly cloudy with occasional light snow in extreme north portion tonight; colder tonight.

School Heads Will Attend Meeting At Amarillo Saturday

Pampa school heads will go to Amarillo Saturday to attend a meeting of the Panhandle-Plains Superintendents and Principals Association. Presiding will be Blake Bolton of Dalhart, president of the association.

The meeting will be called to order at 10 a. m., with the first number being music by the White Deer choir club directed by Glenn Davis.

V. B. Watson of the crippled children's division of the state department of education will then discuss rehabilitation of crippled children. Dr. O. L. Troxel of the Greeley Teachers college of Greeley, Colo., will address the gathering. He will also speak at the afternoon session, which will follow luncheon in the high school cafeteria.

Attending from Pampa will be Super. L. L. Stone, Doyle Osborne, Ernest Cabe, Tom Herod, Frank Monroe, Herman Jones, Miss Josephine Thomas, Aaron Meek and H. A. Yoder. W. B. Wethered, county superintendent of schools, also will attend the meeting.

Varied Program Enjoyed By API Members Tuesday

Members of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute and friends saw natural color pictures of the big game hunts, witnessed an excellent display of ventriloquism by a Pampa youth, and heard an interesting paper on electrical treating of paraffin Tuesday night in the city auditorium. More than 500 persons attended the meeting.

Pictures of the big game hunts in Mexico, Wyoming and Canada were shown by W. G. Melrose of Lubbock who in 1922 was quarterback of the Texas Aggie team that beat Texas university in Austin and later the famous Center college Praying Colonels, on which Bo McMillan was quarterback. The Texas McMillan scored the winning touchdown. Jack Johnson, local ventriloquist, presented a clever skit, assisted by Woodie Baker, guitarist. API members were on the receiving end of many wisecracks by Johnson's wooden stooge.

Ben Turner of Los Angeles presented an educational paper on electrical treating and removal of paraffin. He will present the same paper at the Southwestern district API convention in New Orleans on February 28.

Ralph Russell of Oklahoma City was unable to present to give a paper on the Koble process. George Berlin and Bob Kay invited everyone to attend the Mid-continent API convention in Amarillo March 21 and 22.

On Gibraltar And Suez Expected Soon

LONDON, Feb. 13 (AP)—British circles said today twin German thrusts at Gibraltar and the Suez Canal were expected "within the next 30 days" in an effort to seal both ends of the Mediterranean and isolate British forces in the Libyan campaign. A drive in the west, they asserted, would be made with the full acquiescence of the Spanish government which would allow the Germans free movement through Spain.

The drive in the east "probably will force the Turks to fight" but this new foe would be balanced by cutting off Greece, they added.

It was indicated that Britain was mobilizing all her diplomatic resources in the Balkans in an effort to offset the danger of a German thrust through Bulgaria. British diplomatic sources offered an outline of Britain's attitude toward Bulgaria, stating that Prime Minister Churchill in his Sunday broadcast "did not ask Bulgaria to abandon her neutrality in favor of Britain or anyone else, but to preserve and defend it."

Red Cross Committee Chairmen Appointed By President Osborne

Committee chairmen of the Pampa chapter of the American Red Cross were named by President Doyle Osborne at a meeting yesterday in the city hall. Directors named Mrs. J. B. White, executive secretary, to represent the chapter in the coordinating council.

In discussing "What can the local Red Cross members do to help with National Defense?" Mrs. White suggested that they take a course in first aid or in home hygiene and the care of the sick. Both of these courses will be offered by local instructors.

Mrs. G. C. Gardner announced that two local Red Cross nurses have volunteered for nursing service in the army.

Present at the meeting were President Osborne, Mrs. White, Hal Lucas, Frank Smith, O. K. Gaylor, Rev. William Stack, Ben White, Guy McTaggart, Mrs. Gardner, and Mrs. John Ketter.

Committee chairmen named by President Osborne follow: production—Mrs. Fred Roberts; Junior Red Cross—Miss Lillian Mullinax; life

Legislators Discuss Printing Textbooks

AUSTIN, Feb. 13 (AP)—A proposal that Texas print its own free public school textbooks rested in a legislative committee today.

Setting a hearing on the matter Feb. 26, the house group last night thus amended a bill which originally called for purchasing the books from Texas printers only.

Opponents asserted limiting buying to Texas printing establishments would create a virtual monopoly, sky-rocket the cost of the books and provide inferior texts for children.

The lower chamber's state affairs committee recommended a bill permitting reduction of fraternal organizations' social security taxes and hearings Feb. 17 on a proposal to create a legislative auditing committee; Feb. 19 on requiring citation of more than 10,000 population to set up civil service systems for fire and policemen, refunding gasoline taxes on fuel for stationary engines, tractors and motorboats and providing a method for replacing cigarette stamps, and March 6 on providing for re-employment of persons in military service.

Payne, Nicholl To Attend Course In Water And Sewage

Oran J. Payne, superintendent of the city water department, and Dr. N. L. Nicholl, city sanitation officer, will leave Saturday for College Station where they will attend a water and sewage short course.

The course, which will cover all phases of drilling wells and producing water, operation of water and sewer departments, analysis of water, health, etc., will last from Monday through Friday with classes in the morning and laboratory work in the afternoon.

Scouts Present Rotary Program

Climbing the Boy Scout ladder was the theme of the program presented at the meeting of the Pampa Rotary club yesterday by Boy Scouts of Troop 14.

Raymond Perkins gave an interesting talk on the requirements to pass tenderfoot, second class, and first class work and the securing of merit badges, and then advanced to star, life, and eagle classification.

Nesley Joe Ellis and John McCollin led in the repeating of the Scout oath and the Scout law. They sang several Scout songs.

Rotarian Ray Evans, scoutmaster of Troop 14, gave a history of the Boy Scout movement, comparing it with the Rotary club history.

The program was under direction of Dick Hughes.

E. B. Landrum was introduced as a new member. There were 53 present at the meeting.

Guests were Art Nixon of Fort Worth, Fred Roberts, Jack Hanna, and Harry E. Hoare, all of Pampa.

Secret Debate On Bases Requested

LONDON, Feb. 13 (AP)—A house of commons member requested the government today to allow time for a secret debate on the circumstances of leasing naval bases in the western hemisphere to the United States and their subsequent administration by the American government.

Clement R. Attlee, lord privy seal, replied that the government was very pressed for time, but that the suggestion would be brought to the attention of Prime Minister Churchill.

The request came from Commander Sir Archibald Spothby, Conservative, who said there was a "very widespread desire" that the house should know exactly what was being done in what was proposed.

He explained that personally he was "quite in favor of the policy of leasing the bases," which the United States obtained in exchange for 50 destroyers last fall.

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, Feb. 13 (AP)—The stock market was held with further selling today as a result of a sharp decline in bond prices. There were a few wider swings for inactive.

Quotations picked up momentum for a brief interval, then slipped precipitously. Transactions totaled 500,000 shares, some of the largest in about two weeks.

At the bottom today the Associated Press average of 60 issues was back where it was last August.

Aside from Santa Fe, Great Northern and Chesapeake & Ohio, most of the rails were off only minor fractions. Utilities also were narrow.

Bonds and commodities were irregularly lower.

The curb trailed the "big board," losers of a point or so included American Cyanamid, "B" Hamamille Paper, E. W. Bliss, Midvale and Singer Mfg.

Teaching Of Spanish In Grade Schools Of State Gets Boost

AUSTIN, Feb. 13. (AP)—Increased teaching of Spanish in Texas grade schools got a boost today. The senate educational committee reported favorably a bill by Senator Weaver Moore of Houston removing any barriers against teaching the language and permitting the state board of education to supply free Spanish texts, if it wishes.

NEW PLANES AT RANDOLPH FIELD

Thirty primary training planes, destined for recently authorized Air Corps elementary flight training schools, already are on hand at Randolph Field, Texas, awaiting completion of the new training fields. By spring there will be 23 elementary flying schools throughout the country devoted to the training of future pilots for the Army Air Corps.

Divorces were granted in two judgments in 31st district court today: Mary Clements vs. Frank Clements; Edna Milner vs. Clayton Milner. Bond of $1,500 was set today in the court of Justice of the Peace E. E. Young for a man who gave his name as D. W. Stevens charged with forgery. The charge was in alleged connection with a check on the First National bank, dated February 2, for $24.85, purporting to be signed "I. W. Spangler."

Among other so-called congressional safeguards written into the measure was a provision giving congress power to terminate operation of the bill at any time by a majority vote, a clause requiring presidential progress reports every 90 days and a statement that nothing in the act should authorize American naval convoys of war material shipments or the entry of United States vessels into combat zones.

Arms May Be Furnished Texas Defense Guard But Not Uniforms

Definite information on the Texas Defense guard, what it is, what it is supposed to do, and what equipment it is likely to receive, was contained in a letter received here by E. J. Dunigan, Jr., captain commanding the local company.

Although other letters have been sent out on the subject, the one received here last gave the most complete and coherent data. It was signed by Lieutenant Neill H. Banister, infantry, assistant to the adjutant general.

There are now 193 companies of the guard in the state, of which Pampa's Company D is one of the four comprising the 14th battalion. Other units of the battalion are located at Borger, Plainview, and Amarillo, with Lou J. Roberts of Borger as major.

Lieutenant Colonel Banister said there had been, in addition, 38 applications and 69 informal inquiries. A bill to establish the guard is now pending before the legislature. The senate military affairs committee has made a favorable report on the measure.

Membership in the Texas Defense guard, a patriotic, voluntary organization, is open to all able bodied Americans from 18 to 64. Joining the guard does not interfere with a man's civil life, nor does membership conflict with a change of residence. Members must drill at least 1 1/2 hours each week.

The next, and second, drill of the Pampa company of the Texas Defense guard, will be held from 3 to 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon at 314 W. Foster.

There are no funds available from the state for armory rental, uniforms, or arms.

Enlistment in the guard is for three years, or until all units of the Texas National guard are relieved from active duty, whichever period may be less.

When the Texas Defense guard is officially set up, it is planned to have the governor requisition from the federal government 5,215 of each of the following:

- 30 caliber Enfield M-1917 rifles;
- M-1907 gun slings; M-1917 bayonets;
- M-1917 bayonet scabbards.

The ammunition for the rifles is to be supplied by the state, but will be limited to 10 rounds per rifle.

As there is no provision for uniforms, all companies must furnish their own. Design for the uniform must be submitted by the adjutant general to the commanding officer of the eighth army corps area for his approval.

Americans Urgently Advised To Leave China Immediately

SHANGHAI, Feb. 13 (AP)—United States embassies and consulates sent out circulars today "urgently" advising withdrawal to the United States of American women, children, and non-essential men from China, Indo-China, and the Japanese empire.

The circulars were sent "both in the interests of safety and convenience of American nationals and in the interests of national security," it was announced.

A sharp drop in the Shanghai stock market accompanied this renewal of U. S. government advice for American departures.

Simultaneously, it was reported British women and children have begun leaving Shanghai and other points in the far East in small groups.

Secretary Hull said today in Washington that American consular officers were telling American citizens to leave for Eastern countries as a precautionary measure in view of disturbed conditions.

State department officials said American consular offices in China, Japan, and other far Eastern countries had been instructed to renew similar suggestions which previously have been made in conformity with the United States government's policy of advising Americans to leave possible danger zones while adequate transportation facilities were still available.

Greeks 'Threaten Important Base'

ATHENS, Feb. 13 (AP)—Greek troops were reported today to have advanced their lines about three miles in the coastal sector after an intense artillery action to prepare the way toward Valona, Italian-held port on the Albanian coast.

The Greeks also were reported to have attacked over a wide front in the central sector and to be threatening "an important enemy base."

The fighting near Valona was said to have occurred in the heights within a short distance of the Adriatic shore, with the Italians stubbornly defending strongly fortified positions. The Italian units at length were reported dislodged by bayonet-thrusting Greeks who found heavy losses had been inflicted by their artillery fire.

Desperate resistance also was put up by blackshirt contingents in the central sector. But the slackness of Italian artillery fire in the last few days was taken by Greek officers as confirmation of recent statements by Italian prisoners that Fascist guns have been moved back in an effort to organize a new line of defense.

A Greek spokesman reported acute supply and transport problems had led Italian armies to abandon offensive thrusts to build up defenses.

Don't Guess About Your Groceries--

USE BRANDS THAT ARE KNOWN FOR QUALITY

In buying our merchandise it has always been our policy to buy the very best merchandise so that our customers may have the very best. We notice that a great many merchants in trying to meet competition, buy cheaper brands of merchandise and pass this inferior quality on to the customer. We also believe that in lots of instances, that people pay more for the cheaper brands of food than they do for nationally known brands.

We believe that if you pay for the best, you should receive the best—don't be misled by inferior brands and hot-shot items.

Southern Meat Pie

Broadcast by Mary Lee Taylor February 13, 1941

1 1/2 cups sifted, all-purpose flour
1/2 cup corn meal
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup cold shortening
5 tablespoons Fat Milk, diluted with 1/4 cup finely cut onion
3 tablespoons water

3 tablespoons hot shortening
2 cups twice-ground beef (1 lb.)
1 1/2 teaspoons chili powder
10 1/2-oz. can condensed vegetable soup
1/2 cup Fat Milk

Turn on oven and set at hot (425° F.). Beat flour with corn meal and 1 teaspoon salt. Work cold shortening into flour mixture with pastry blender, 2 knives or fork. When mixture has appearance of small peas, gradually stir in diluted milk. Roll out 1/4 of pastry on floured board to 1/4-inch thickness. Save remaining pastry. Line a 9-inch pie pan with pastry, pinching with fingers to make fancy edge. Pick bottom and sides of pastry with fork. Bake 10 minutes, or until lightly browned. Meanwhile, cook onion 5 minutes in hot shortening in skillet. Add beef, chili powder and remaining 1/2 teaspoon salt. Continue cooking, stirring frequently, until meat is brown, or about 10 minutes. Stir in soup. Remove from heat. Stir in milk. Let stand. Meanwhile, roll remaining pastry into sheet 1/4-inch thick. Cut into strips 1/4-inch wide. Put meat mixture into baked pastry shell. Arrange strips over top crisscross fashion. Bake 15 minutes, or until pastry is browned. Serve 6.

British Labor's 'Ernie' Takes Charge Of 7-day Week Drive

Burly Ernest Bevin drives home a point.

By MILTON BRONNER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

Ernest Bevin, Britain's No. 2 leader and minister of labor, holds the center of empire stage as the man who will set in mighty motion an army of laborers working seven days a week to produce airplanes and munitions for their country.

With Hitler preparing for the most savage all-out assault in history and with American aid to Britain not yet in full stride, the cry has been for more planes, more guns, more shells—and Bevin has heard and heeded the cry. He expects his fellow workers also to heed it and to forego all thought of Sabbath rest.

In a recent speech he said men and women must be drafted for industry, just as men are already drafted for the armed forces of the nation. Fearless and determined, he will not hesitate to conscript workers for their last great battle of Britain.

Ernest Bevin is no old-school-tie politician, no son of a rich and patrician house, but a man graduated from the ranks of labor itself who battled his way up. A burly, smooth-faced, swarthy man of 60 with jet-black hair into which the gray has noticeably crept since he accepted governmental responsibilities, "Ernie" Bevin has the confidence of labor.

SAYS BEVIN: "NO SENTIMENT..."

He started out with all the handicaps. Born in the village of Winsford, Somersetshire, bitter poverty was his childhood portion. By all the rules of probability his was destined to be a humble role. At 11 he was working on a farm for 10 cents a week. In adolescence he drifted to Bristol and ultimately became a minor trade union official.

Encouraged by the famous labor leader, Ben Tillett, Bevin rose in the labor union hierarchy. After the World War, he went to London, leaping to sudden fame in 1920 when he represented the dock workers in their fight for higher wages and better working conditions.

The steamship companies had a formidable array of famous lawyers arguing their side before a court of inquiry.

Bevin wound up the dockers' case in a brilliant, moving speech that lasted 11 hours and won for him the affectionate title of "Dockers' K. C.," the initials meaning King's Counsel," tops in British lawyerdom.

Bevin won his case. Advised by an opposing lawyer to study for the bar, he replied: "No, I can only argue with conviction when I am sincere."

Bevin became head of the powerful Transport and General Workers' union. He fought Communists in Britain just as vigorously as he did would-be Fascists. Back in 1924 he predicted Fascism would lead to war and disaster.

When he went in Premier Churchill's cabinet, he said:

"I made up my mind when I went into the government that there would be no sentiment and no settlement, as far as I was concerned, with the Nazi regime. If they beat us to smithereens, there would still be no settlement."

CALLED NEXT PRIME MINISTER

In all the world there is probably no stranger contrast than Churchill and Bevin sitting together on the government bench in the house of commons. Churchill had everything fate failed to give Bevin—famed and aristocratic family background, college education, comfortable income, ministerial post after post.

In the past, Churchill and Bevin had often crossed swords both on political and economic subjects. As for the present—not long ago Churchill, his shoulders stooping with care, came into the house of commons, sat down by Bevin, gave him a playful dig in the ribs and broke into a boyish grin that heartened everybody who saw it. These two strong men, come from the north and the south poles of society, now were pals, fighting for the England both loved. That is why Englishmen predict Bevin will be Churchill's successor. But neither Bevin nor the labor ranks encourage this speculation.

Sir Walter Citrine, general secretary of the British Trades Union congress, said to me during his recent trip to the United States:

"We deprecate the talk that the next government will be Labor, even naming those who will lead it. Labor and capital, rich and poor, have but one job right now—to beat Hitler. None of us wants to introduce any political or economic subjects of controversy that would tend to bring cleavage in the ranks of the nation."

Texas Girl To Sing Lead In Opera Tomorrow

Alma Milstead, a lovely dark-eyed girl with a Mona Lisa face who is also blessed with the finest voice ever to have come out of Marshall, Texas, will sing with Cecile Sherman, a leading soprano role in the opera "Jack and the Beanstalk" when it is performed here on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Enacting the role of Jack, she is one of the principals in the Junior Programs Opera company, which will appear at Pampa High school auditorium under the sponsorship of the 20th Century Forum.

Coming of a singing family—her father was a singing teacher and all her brothers and sisters were noted vocalists in old-fashioned all-day "sings" which are a tradition down Texas way—Miss Milstead was taken under the wing of the Rotary club of Marshall early in her career. The club financed her training for opera in New York, and she has since made her home city proud of her series of triumphs.

No stranger to local music lovers, who will remember her singing opposite Reinald Werrenrath in the well-known radio concert series known as the Camel Hour, Miss Milstead is one of the most popular artists on the roster of NBC, and she performs often on the radio, sometimes having to fly in order to meet engagements both before the microphone and with the Junior Programs Opera company on tour.

Her success with the latter attracted the notice of RCA Victor, and now two of the Junior Programs operas, "Hansel and Gretel," and "The Humpty Bree Frisco," are preserved in albums of recordings which are among the most popular of the company's list.

Between all these activities (and it might be mentioned that the Junior Programs Opera company has the longest and most extensive tour of any professional opera troupe in the country), Miss Milstead somehow seems to make time for concert work. She won rave notices from New York critics when she recently gave a recital at Town Hall, and in another concert with the famous cellist, Emanuel Feuermann, one enthusiastic reviewer exclaimed over her "pleasing quality and went on to say, "Her musicianship is joy and she does not detract from her singing by artful aid of pose and gesture. Her vocal equipment is well adjusted and she sings with style. Moreover, she has the gift of being able to immerse herself entirely in the music under consideration. One senses instantly her sincerity, intimate musicianship, and fine sense of proportion."

Miss Milstead's career in opera is indeed a credit to the Rotary club of Marshall, Texas, and every time she comes back to her home town, they practically declare a holiday.

Members Of Mary Martha Circle Have Bible Study

Mary Martha circle of Woman's Missionary society of Central Baptist church met in the home of Mrs. D. L. Lunsford for a business session and Bible study. Mrs. G. C. Stark led in prayer and Mrs. Harry Dean conducted the business hour after which Mrs. Paul McCunn taught the remainder of Acts: 17. A season of prayer followed.

Twenty-one members were present. At the next meeting of the circle in the home of Mrs. W. R. Morrison, the first chapter of the study book, "How to Pray," will be taught.

ORGANIZER

Organizer of Junior Programs, Inc., which will present "Jack and the Beanstalk," under the sponsorship of Twentieth Century Forum Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the high school auditorium, is Dorothy L. McFadden. For three years, Mrs. McFadden worked in cooperation with the National Music League as adviser to other interested communities. Then at her own expense she studied the Children's Theater in Russia, Scandinavia and Germany. Returning, she organized Junior Programs, Inc., and began her campaign of helping children of the United States get cultural education. European children were getting as a matter of course.

FEATURED DANCERS

Colleen and Mary Jo Cockerill, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cockerill, will be among the featured dancers taking part in the "Dance, America" revue to be presented by Kathryn Vincent Steele next Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the city auditorium.

Federated Clubs Continue Study At Regular Meetings This Week

Varied courses of study were continued at the regular meetings of the six federated clubs Tuesday afternoon.

When members of Twentieth Century club met in the home of Mrs. O. R. Humphrey, 1329 North Russell street, a program on "The Cowboy and the Buffalo" was presented with Mrs. J. P. Wehrung as leader.

After roll call was answered with famous cattle brands, Mrs. Wehrung told "The Story of the Cowboy." A review of "The Thundering Herd" was given by Mrs. C. W. Briscoe, who discussed "The Old Cow Trails."

Mrs. Clifford Braly II presented the eighth grade sextette, Alexia Brown, Anna Lois Alford, Anna Barrett, Betty Jo Holt, Betty Lou Clifford, and Joan Hawkins, who sang two old-time ballads, "The Dying Cowboy," and "Ragtime Cowboy Joe."

Attending were Mrs. John Evans, sponsor, Mrs. Paul McCunn, Misses Maxine Haygood, Alma Lee Reader, Viola Burnett, Sanny Sue Barnard, Winnie Green, Kathleen Paxton, Loreen McKendie, Aileen Weathered, Ethelyn Williamson, Vivian Woodrige, and the hostess.

WILL SING

CONRAD THIBAUT

There are few radio listeners who are not familiar with the baritone voice of Conrad Thibault, featured on important coast-to-coast programs of the National Broadcasting company. He has been heard so often that he has become practically a household name. Indeed his popularity has reached the point where his air audiences are demanding to see him in person. So he is now supplementing his microphone activities with concert appearances. He will come to Amarillo Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock under the auspices of the Panhandle Civic Music association.

Thibault is an American, a native of Northbridge, Mass. His earliest musical experience was in a church choir in Northampton. There Calvin Coolidge heard the boy sing and became interested in him, and through this connection a scholarship was obtained for him at the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia. He studied there for five years with Emilia de Gogorza and coached operatic acting with Wilhelm von Wymetal. He made his debut with the Philadelphia Grand Opera company and continued singing leading roles with that company for three seasons. During this period he spent the summers studying in Europe.

He was first presented over the air on the regular series of Curtis broadcasts. This brought him a commercial radio contract over WCAU in Philadelphia. It was but a step to the National Broadcasting company networks, over which he has been heard hundreds of times.

Season memberships in the Civic Music association may be secured by contacting Mrs. Alex Schneider, Mrs. F. M. Perry, Mrs. H. H. Hicks, Mrs. Lynn Boyd, and The News office. Admission price and other information may be obtained by calling any of this group.

Saturday has been set as the deadline of the membership drive for next season and no single admission tickets will be held to any concert. Admission is by membership card only. These tickets are transferable and may be used by any member of the family.

New members who join this week before Friday may attend the Thibault concert in the Amarillo high school auditorium.

BGK Club Names Representatives To City Council

Members of the BGK club met in the home of Mrs. Allen Evans Tuesday evening for a regular business session with Miss Catherine Pearce, president, presiding. Miss Flora Deen Finley and Mrs. Tom Rose, Jr. were elected to represent the organization in the City Council of Club.

Members attending were Mrs. Allen Evans, Bob Tripplehorn, Jack Smith, Tom Rose, Jr., George Polard, Skeet Gregory, H. E. McCarty, sponsor; Misses Claudine Jett, Gloria Fosdy, Beth Mullinax, Betty Jo Townsend, Barbara Ziegler, Katherine Pierce, Flora Deen Finley, Betty Jo Thurman, and Lucille Bell.

Next Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, Mrs. Charles Fagan, Mrs. Gerald Fowler, and Mrs. Allen Evans will be co-hostesses at a program night meeting of the club in the home of Miss Donna Jo Berry.

PANTIES AND SLIP DESIGN

PATTERN 8879

Make your own undies this spring! Why? Because you can have luxury materials then—silvery satins, petal soft silk crepes, and batistes—sewing at home spells savings. And because you'll get an inspired perfection of fit impossible except in made-to-order lingerie. This slip, for instance (design No. 8879) is made with two straight panels and two bias ones, so that it won't twist, and it melts into your waistline with beautiful smoothness. The bra-top provides a little uplift and restraint, too.

It's very easy to do, and of course, the panties are simply nothing. Notice that you can make them as steps, or gathered in, or blouser style. Send for the pattern today, and make yourself a whole undie wardrobe, quickly and inexpensively.

Pattern No. 8879 is designed for sizes 14, 16, 18, 20; 40, 42. Size 16 requires 3 1/2 yards of 39-inch material and 1 yard ribbon for straps. Detailed sew chart included.

B-PW Club Completes Arrangements For Benefit Game Party Friday Night

Final plans for the benefit game tournament to be held Friday night at 8 o'clock in the Schneider hotel were made at the monthly business meeting of Business and Professional Women's club this week in the city club rooms.

All proceeds from the party will benefit the Junior Chamber of Commerce recreation hall fund.

Lillian Jordan, general chairman, announced the following committees: Ticket sales at the door, Neva Burgan, Ida Mae Jones, Blanch Anderson, Natha Tinnin, Elvise Hurt, and Vada Lee Olson; and ticket sales, Ruth Griggs.

Groups playing together at the party may progress but general program will not be carried out.

A door prize will be given as well as high and low score awards for auction and contra-bridge, dominoes and forty-two. Each member of the club is to take a card table to the hotel.

At the meeting Frances Craver announced that Ruth Waldstad had been named chairman of the nominating committee for the Council of Clubs. Also Mrs. Waldstad was elected representative from the club to the council for the second year.

Four new members, Louise Hoover, Mattie Brittain, Helen Windsor, and Avis Thompson, were initiated by the vice-president, Audrey Fowler.

A letter of thanks was read from the Shamrock B-PW club in regard to the gifts sent for its bazaar. The health committee chairman announced that another recreation night will be held on February 20.

Following the business discussion, Mable Gee, international relations chairman, presented the program which included a review of the international federation by Vada Lee Olson. The federation was organized in 1930 with a membership of 26 countries. Grace Pool, who attended this organization meeting, spoke briefly.

The present war has shuffled out many clubs but organizations are still functioning in Finland, Canada, Sweden, Burma, New Zealand, Austria, Switzerland, Great Britain, and the United States, it was pointed out.

Elvise Hurt spoke on the movement of mobile kitchens for England and a voluntary offering to this fund was made by the local club.

Climaxing the program, Mrs. W. L. Hoskew spoke on the Balkan countries, the people, customs, and immigrants to the United States from these countries. Mrs. Hoskew, who appeared wearing a costume typical of those worn in the Balkans, speaks five languages fluently. For three years she was an interpreter for a mining camp in Montana. The speaker sang several songs in the native tongue of these countries.

Attending the meeting were Ruth Waldstad, Mildred Lafferty, Elvise Hurt, Ruth Griggs, Lillian Jordan, Vada Lee Olson, Vera Lard, Avis Thompson, Louise Hoover, Clara Lee Shewmaker, Lola Carol, Ann Hoskew, Mable Gee, Neva Burgan, Audrey Fowler, Lillian McNutt, Julia Kelley, Madeline Murray, Delton Hall, Jess Bumpuss, Madge Rusk, Grace Pool, Letha Northup, Mayme Counselor, Ida Mae Jones, Ruby Boss, Mattie Brittain, Fran-

Five Hostesses Entertain With Farewell Shower

As a farewell courtesy to Mrs. Fred Woodall, a miscellaneous shower was given in the home of Mrs. U. H. Hall Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Cap Griggs, A. F. Ponton, C. N. Barber, George Fogleman, and Hall as hostesses.

Mrs. Woodall, who has been in the grocery business on the Champlain lease for the past 12 years, will move to Texola to make her home after school.

Bingo was played by the group and prizes were awarded to Mesdames Otto Gross, W. W. Mossy, A. Payne, Jessye Stroup, and E. S. Moore.

Each guest wrote in the honoree's book, after which a gift was presented to Mrs. Woodall by the hostesses—and numerous other gifts were given by those attending.

The guest list included Mrs. C. C. Hill, D. B. Coleman, W. T. Cole, C. H. Lively, C. H. Buttram, Henry Magerkurth, J. A. Turner, Ray Stepp, Claude Henderson, Bill Krotzmeier, H. R. Box Supper Will Entertain Eastern Stars And Guests

An event of unusual interest in the activities of the Pampa chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star will be held Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in the American Legion hut, when a box supper will be given for members, their husbands, Masons, their wives, and friends.

A patriotic theme will be used in decorations and appointments. An interesting program is being arranged by the committee in charge, which includes Frankie Lee Hughes, Edrie Colvin, Tillie Montgomery, Katie Vincent, and Kathryn Vincent Steele.

All proceeds from the entertainment will go to the "Dyer-Shirley Educational Fund" for underprivileged O. E. S. and Masonic children.

The cooperation and attendance of all members and friends will be appreciated as this is a worthy cause. All women are asked to bring a box.

Methodist WSCS To Be Represented At Zone Meeting

MIAMI, Feb. 12.—Woman's Society for Christian Service held a regular meeting in the home of Mrs. Edna Newman this week with 20 ladies present.

Mrs. J. K. McKenzie, president, presided and introduced the guest speaker, the Rev. R. A. Pryor, pastor of the First Baptist church, who gave an account of his experiences as a home missionary to the Navajo Indians of northern New Mexico.

During the business session, the new plan launched by the society for making money was begun. Ways and means for the trip to White Deer Friday to the Zone 2 all-day meeting of the Amarillo district were discussed. Mrs. McKenzie, chairman of Zone 3, stated that at least two cars of women from Miami will attend. A former missionary from Brazil will speak at the meeting.

The Present Lesson

Look at American industry moving today to turn out defense equipment and to make itself, as the President has demanded, the world's great "arsenal of democracy!"

Daily increasing in momentum, it is becoming like a mighty river at floodtide, offering a stirring example of what free men can do by working together when they really set themselves to the task. There are still eddies and slow currents in the river—sure—but as time goes on they too will become part of the main stream.

Industry is picking up speed every moment. In the last twelve months it produced a total of nearly 6,000 army and navy planes and sent at least 400 heavy bombers alone to help defend Great Britain. The biggest number of these came in the past three months, which means a rate of production that will produce many, many more planes this year.

The same is true of all other types of military materials. Lately there have come reports that American all-wheel drive motor trucks made in Indianapolis were used in the successful British campaign against Sidi Barrani and Bardia and Tobruk in far-away Africa. Reports like these will soon be commonplace; and all around us, meanwhile, will be a vastly increased number of articles for America's own direct defense.

There is a lesson in this tremendous and speedy achievement of industry. It shows that when industry is given a reasonably free hand and the governmental confidence to answer problems—however complex their nature—it can really do the job superlatively well. This is a morale too lately apparent to be applied to the depression years which this nation endured during the past decade, of course. But government and the other groups in our economy would be wise and America-minded if they continued to remember it when the present emergency is ended.

Behind The News

By PETER EDSON Pampa News Washington Correspondent WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—All right you're a manufacturer of curryscombs. You want to do your patriotic bit for the defense of your country, and you want to sell your curryscombs to the government.

Your curryscombs, you want the world to know, are not just ordinary curryscombs. They have a vacuum cleaner attachment, with a gadget that sterilizes the hair and packs it in bales so it can be made into horse-hair sofas.

Anyway, since you've heard there's a lot of red tape connected with getting an order from the government, you decide to go right to Washington yourself, cut through the red tape, and get your contract.

You arrive in town at night, get a big boot out of the sight of the capitol dome lighted up, taxi to a hotel—and find that it's sold out. Tourists. You go to a more expensive place with better luck, but realize that if you're kept around very long it's going to cost you more than you're allowed for. The seafood, though, is good and it's too bad you can't get it fresh back where you come from.

You get a guide book to the city and with a telephone book and map sprawled out on the bed, you figure out your attack for the next morning. You'll bust right down to the Defense Commission, giving 'em just time enough to get their mail read, and do business.

DEPARTMENT OF PURCHASES DOES NOT PURCHASING

The Defense Commission is in the new social security building, which seems a bit cockeyed, but you don't let it get your goat. You walk right by a policeman seated at a desk, but you can't find an information desk and you can't make out all the signs on easels near the elevators, so you go back to the blue-coat who doesn't know the answers himself but does send you to the information desk of the department of purchases.

You get shunted around a bit by a number of nice but green secretaries, till you finally get to a man who speaks your language—a fellow from one of the chain store outfits, loaned to the government for the emergency. This gent brings you up with a shock, however, when he tells you the department doesn't do any purchasing.

That is, it doesn't monkey with anything under $500.00 and on jobs over that amount, it merely acts in advisory capacity.

Where you should have gone is to the War department, army quartermaster corps.

Undaunted, you taxi across town. To get into the building, you have to stand in line to sign a card and be given a three-inch red button with a number on it, which you wear all the time you're in the building, surrender when you leave. You don't know whom you want to see, but the clerks are helpful and finally steer you to an officer in the contract information section who listens to your story, grins, and then sympathetically tells you that the only place that the army buys curryscombs is at the quartermaster depot in Jeffersonville, Ind.

P. S. You have to get a permit to take your own briefcase out of the building.

PAMPHLETS GIVE ABC'S OF BUYING

Now, it really isn't as bad as that, of course. Not a few businessmen do come to Washington and go thru experiences like this, but it's all unnecessary, and as inefficient on the part of the businessmen themselves as it is an indication of red tape in the government.

Army and navy buying has been going on for years. There are simple pamphlets, "Selling to the Navy" and "Army Purchase Information Bulletin," which gives the ABC's of what the services buy where and how. Simple letters, which too many businessmen do

Common Ground

This column contends there can be no satisfactory progress until we measure the ability of each man by the common yardstick of the God-given equal right to create and enjoy anything anyone else has a right to create and enjoy.

REDUCTION AND LABOR UNIONS

Many people think that the millions of dollars of graft that the heads of the labor rackets get is shocking and important, but the millions of dollars that the labor racketeers and organizers get are relatively unimportant in themselves, other than the practice sanctions robbery and bribery. The real harm and disservice that labor unions do to humanity is infinitely greater than the few million dollars the labor racketeers get. The acts that the labor unions do that do the greatest harm is that they interfere with using the talents of all workers.

Labor unions set arbitrary prices at which services dare be exchanged. This throws exchanges out of balance, out of harmony, discourages and disheartens the workers who have to pay the arbitrary wage of union men. These discouraged men give up trying and go on the dole. This increases the taxes and reduces the wages, discourages and disheartens more men. This causes the government to increase its cost to take care of these unemployed, which discourages and disheartens more workers, until finally there is so much poverty and misery that the people throw up their hands in the fight for freedom and say, give us a dictator.

This is what has happened in all modern dictator countries. Wages were set arbitrarily, instead of by a free market. Some demanded so much that there was practically nothing left for the rest of the workers. So when this happens, those who are in on the "graft," finally find that their standard of living is greatly reduced and they have not, in the final analysis, gained by their special privilege.

No, it is not the labor racketeers consuming a little wealth that is important but it is the billions upon billions of dollars worth of wealth that is not being produced because labor unions interfere with the free and natural division and use of the talents of all the people.

The columns of this newspaper are open to any union labor advocate who will answer questions to refute the above conclusions.

WHAT IS PRODUCTION?

Harold Waterbury, president of Truck Drivers and Helpers union in the county in which this article is being written, challenges the writer to point out one place where union contracts, put into effect, interfered with production.

In the first place, before this challenge can be properly met, we will have to define what is meant by production.

Production is satisfying a human want; and producing something that does not satisfy a human want is not production. For instance, if this newspaper would produce 10,000 more copies than it could sell, it would not be satisfying a human want. So producing something is not production.

The Nation's Press

HE WANTS A BARN (Bill Long in Liberal Times)

Did I ever tell you about wanting a barn? I do—have ever since I was a kid. If we'd had a barn, in Overbrook, we'd have had a cow. And if we'd had a cow, of course I'd have had to have a pony to herd the cow out to Joe Coffman's pasture every morning, and back in the evening. I'd have had plenty of room for a gymnasium, and a work bench, and circuses in the hayloft, and a springboard to learn fancy dives, plunging into the hay whenever there was hay in the loft. I don't need a pony now, and I wouldn't care for a cow when homogenized, pasteurized, bottled milk can be purchased, delivered, for eight or nine cents a quart. But I still want a barn. I'd still have the gymnasium in it, where my friends could exercise while I sat quietly and told them what a fine thing exercise is for a man. Maybe I'd even get some fresh sweet-smelling prairie hay, and rig up a springboard to practice dives. And I could play carpenter while I built a complete and convenient carpenter shop—then I'd quit playing carpenter. I'd paint horses and cows on the barn so it would look as if they were looking out the windows. And I'd have a big, rough study in which I'd never study, and a library in which I'd never read. And I'd raise Cain if the L. W. ever even suggested storing any of the household junk in my barn.

AT LEAST ONE REPUBLICAN

(Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt as quoted in Scribner's Commentator Magazine) "The custom in the White House is that the President, out of his salary, pays for all food for the servants and for the family with their unofficial guests, but an official entertainment, where both political parties are represented, is paid for out of a government fund. If the President invites a number of senators for breakfast or lunch, he must be sure not to have them all of one political faith. Otherwise he pays for the meal out of his own pocket."

not write, would clear up most of the difficulties and the answers would tell where any factory or selling outfit would have to go to do business.

Buying for a war is highly specialized business. The specifications and standards are high, for the stuff has to be good. Bargain basement buying would be disastrous, and just-as-good substitutes mostly don't work.

New inventions offered to the services are tested mercilessly in laboratory and field before being accepted.

General supplies purchased on the open market through competitive bidding are advertised in technical and trade journals, in the government bulletins, and there is a mailing list on which any sales agency can get to receive information on contracts to be let. It's nice business, if you can get it.

ADD WASHINGTONIA

The President's "cuff links gang" goes back to 1920, when he was a candidate for the v. p. After the campaign, he gave a few faithful followers good cuff links, with PDR monogram on one side and the recipient's initials on the other. Now, the links go to those who dined with him on his birthday, and they are badges of admission. The "gang" numbers about 30. . . Formation of a "sixth column" has been advocated before Washington Rotary. It would include members of U. S. "knife and fork" clubs dedicated to service of country. . . Census Bureau reports number of farms in U. S. has decreased 192,000 in 10 years. Value of farm lands has dropped $14 billion. . . Goal of army ordnance output from big new smokeless powder mills is production of 1,500,000 pounds a day—enough to keep an army of 2,000,000 men in the field. And that does not include TNT.

THE FUEHRER TOLD US WE WERE FIGHTING PLUTOCRACY!

Around Hollywood

BY PAUL HARRISON HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 13—Behind the screen:

For years, Billy Gordon, an assistant casting director at Metro, has been looking over actors applying for roles and telling most of them they were not quite the type. So the other day, Gordon went before the draft board. A director looked him over and told him he wasn't the right type.

Only thing wrong with that anecdote is that Gordon wasn't exactly heartbroken at being turned down. A better turn-about story involves Lew Sherrill, a talent agent, member of a large group much maligned as blood-sucking liars. Well, one of this agent's clients fell desperately ill the other day and needed a transfusion. Sherrill went to the hospital and gave 10 per cent of his blood.

Two screen writers, Ivan Goff and Jack Scholl, have done a musical called "You Asked for It," in which they poke fun at Hollywood. . . . Movietown now has a theater called The Hitching Post which shows nothing but westerns. And it's cleaning up. Until now, local theaters never have shown horse-ops, and yesterday, the "Hitching Post" even recognized Gene Autry or Bill Boyd.

GARBO WEDDING DELAYED?

PRODUCER JOE PASTERNAK is planning to take a troupe to Hawaii and make a picture, mostly with a Honolulu background. It's high time that Hollywood kids couldn't even recognize Gene Autry or Bill Boyd.

BORROWING FROM THE TITLE

"Babes in Arms" and the story of "Strike Up the Band," Metro's first picture for Shirley Temple probably will be "Babes on Broadway." Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland and Shirley will probably be Broadway brats who win recognition by putting on their own show. Not even the incredible, hairy touch of Director Busby Berkeley could spoil such a combination or such a well-tested formula. . . . Maria Dietrich, daughter of Marlene, is being groomed in drama for the cinema.

CLARK GABLE IN A SKIRT

SHELLA RYAN, selected by press agent maneuverings as the "Health Girl" for National Health Week, is abed with flu. . . . Newsweek companies are quarreling with army authorities again, the specific beefs about being left out of important events while certain government officials have commented on the newsreels' lack of interest in the national defense program. . . . A Los Angeles theater, hollywoodian Greek war relief, has in its lobby display a wax image of Clark Gable as a fluffy skirted Evvone.

"CHARLEY'S AUNT"

A comedy first staged in London in 1893, has been purchased by 20th-Fox at a reported price of $110,000. It has been done by almost every high school dramatic club during the past 30 years and twice has been made into a movie. Its revival on Broadway recalled it to Hollywood's attention, and the price paid is an indication of movie-men's lingering respect for the judgment of anyone connected with the living theater. . . . Incidentally, the live Buddy DeSylva finally got from M-G-M for "Panama Hattie" was $140,000, highest figure paid for a stage hit this season.

People You Know

By Archer Fullington

Notes on yesterday's dust storm: the road north of town which North Hobart streets runs into was completely blocked yesterday by tumbleweeds blown into the road from nearby fields. The best crack about the wind was made by Emmett Ellis, manager of Frick-Reed supply company, who asked a man how much he weighed. "One hundred and eighty," the man replied. "Well I just wanted to know; I wouldn't go out in this wind with anybody who didn't weigh at least 140." Long-fingered Mr. Ellis, is by way of being quite a violinist, or was. He got his fiddle down the other night and it had a lot of squeaks in it, but there was a time when Mr. Ellis used to play the violin (mostly popular and semi-classical numbers) over the radio and in concerts in the east. . . . That ruster was like old times, wasn't it, and it didn't make us a bit blue. . . . Finis Sowell of the Griffith theaters, the fellow who looks like the Best-Dressed Man no matter what he wears, used to play football and basketball for Cleburne high school, and yesterday he was wearing a bright red sweater, minus the football letter. Mr. Shiwell is a native Texan.

So They Say

Germany will stop when it becomes unprofitable to go further. —CHARLES A. LINDBERGH.

The average man of the 13th century had 6,500 more chances of dying peacefully in bed than has his descendant of the 20th century. —WALDEMAR KAEMPFERT on the prospects for peace.

The greatest accomplishment of my government consists in having given tribute to a new sense of dignity of citizenship and public institutions. —Gen. ELEAZAR LOPEZ CONTRERAS, president of Venezuela, in announcing that he will not run again.

I have often heard Newton D. Baker say that he despaired of our ever solving the complicated economic, social and political problems of our day as long as our citizens after they are 21 years of age cease all systematic study of everything but their private business or profession. —A. CASWELL ELLIS, director, Cleveland college.

Cranium Crackers

Some names pop up so frequently in the same place that it seems one man is getting more than his share of publicity, but it generally turns out that there are two men of the same name involved. Can you tell what these persons have in common besides the same names?

DAYS OF 'RAW DEAL'

REVIEWED BY DANIELS IN SECOND BOOK

Josephus Daniels has a long memory. He is making the most of it in perhaps the liveliest and most important set of memoir to come off the presses in a long time.

The elderly North Carolina newspaper man, who was secretary of the navy under Wilson, is now U. S. Ambassador to Mexico under Roosevelt. He published his first volume a year ago, "Tar Heel Editor." Now comes his second "Editor in Politics" (University of North Carolina Press: $3.50). He plans to write two more and perhaps a third, five in all, tracing his remarkable experience in American politics from the "raw deal" to the New Deal.

The "raw deal" was the sort of politics Josephus Daniels tackled head-on as a young editor in the Carolinas of the gay nineties. And because he tackled it he got into trouble. Once the advertisers threatened to put his little Democratic sheet out of existence, another time he was held in contempt of court.

This second volume covers the period from 1893 to 1913. Those were bitter years in North Carolina and Daniels' chatty yet two-fisted book mirrors graphically the struggle between liberal and reactionary forces in the south. Always was the editor on the side of the progressives, "agin" the corporations, "agin" corruption in politics.

But by no means does Editor Daniels project himself boldly into these memoirs. If anything he is subordinated so that you get a picture of American politics first and the story of Josephus Daniels second.

In 1893, the young editor with a bride and family responsibilities and a paper with dwindling income, accepted a post as assistant secretary of the interior in Washington. His political career dates from that point. He got $2,700 in Washington, lived on $100 a month and kept his paper going with the balance. It was a sacrifice but it paid dividends in the public benefits that paper, the Raleigh News Observer, returned in North Carolina over the years. Incidentally, there is a very good picture of Franklin D. Roosevelt as Daniels first knew him in this second volume. That was when Roosevelt as a young state senator organized a bank of liberal young Democrats to defeat a pillaging Tammany candidate, "Blue-Eyed Billy Sheehan," for the U. S. Senate.

Warnings Issued on Three Plains Roads

Warnings to motorists on roads in three Plains counties are contained in the latest road condition bulletin of the Texas Highway department. The report advises caution on the Panhandle highways:

- 117, Lipscomb county, 3.5 miles, from Booker, east, fair when dry, difficult when wet, dusty; Ochiltree, 5.5 miles, from Perryton, northeast, fair when dry, difficult when wet, dusty. U. S. 287, Sherman county, 8.5 miles from Moore county line, north, fair when dry, difficult when wet. Traffic routed through construction; dusty.

SPEAKER TO VICE PRESIDENT

Of the 41 men who have held the important office of Speaker of the House of Representatives in the 76 United States Congresses, only two have later become vice presidents: Schuyler Colfax and John Nance Garner.

The "War of the Roses" was a series of civil wars between the houses of Lancaster and York, in England. The red rose was the symbol of Lancaster, while the white rose was the emblem of York.

TEX'S TOPICS

By Tex DeWeese

AFTER taking a gander at yesterday's duster, we came to the conclusion that Kathryn Vincent Steele's pet dog knows his weather changes. . . . The pooch predicted Tuesday there would be a marked about-face. . . . When the dog gets an indoor complex, moving to a spot under the bed or behind the kitchen range—it's always a sure sign the weather is going to change from fair to bumpy. . . . Which reminds us that Friday Brandon, courthouse right-hand man, now has a rival as a weather prognosticator. . . . Friday rarely misses. . . . He can just reach his hand out the window, feel the atmosphere and tell you what kind of a day it will be on the morrow.

WE STAYED UP A WEE BIT LATE

Tuesday night, doing some teleshooting, we were on the new "Adam and Eva" show that is gaining much popularity on KPFD at 8:55 a. m. Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week. . . . Outside of coming to oral bids with a temperamental script writer over an allegedly funny dialogue reference to a neighboring town, we considered the evening well-spent. . . . Adam and Eva, you know, are a newly married Pampa couple who already are having their ups and downs after a comparatively few days of married life although they are very much in love with each other. . . . It may interest listeners that Adam is Junior Williams and Eva is the charming Jerry Smith. . . . The script is written by Johnny Wells and Bill Browne of KPFD.

The new radio show is something of which its local producers can be proud, and young Williams and Miss Smith are doing a good job on the Adam and Eva portrayals.

Because the two principals cannot be at the radio station at the time the program goes on the air, the dialogue is recorded on KPFD's new recording equipment under the supervision of Station Manager Herman Krieger. . . . If you haven't heard this new program on KPFD we recommend that you be listening at 8:55 o'clock tomorrow morning when Adam and Eva will engage in a little domestic spat caused when Eva thoughtlessly clips a recipe from Page 7 of the evening paper. . . . On the back of the clipping is the continuation of a war story Adam has been reading on Page One. So you might guess what happens. . . . Try it tomorrow ay-em at 8:55.

JOHN KETTER DROPS BY

John Ketter drops by the office with an advertisement clipped from the Boston (Mass.) Herald. . . . It may be a sign of the times. . . . At least it gives one a rough idea of what they're thinking on the Atlantic coast of these United States. . . . THE AD HOME: "CHANGE YOUR HOME GARAGE INTO A BOMB SHELTER. . . . While Hitler is still plenty in Time Materials and Labor, still will function as a Garage. Attractive Exterior." . . . Well, the idea is not so silly as you might think. . . . We're assuming that this clipping was sent to Mrs. Ketter by ex-Pampian, now Bostonian, Jean Barnes. . . . Observed while at luncheon, in a booth across the way—two unrelated Pampa young women who could pass for sisters: Mrs. Dan Williams and Mrs. Walter Biecy. Thanks to "Bee Gee Bee" for these Night Caps.

SINCE WRITING THE ABOVE PARAGRAPH

SINCE writing the above paragraph, Mrs. John Ketter came by the office en route to a book review—incidentally imparting the word that she had no knowledge of the Boston bomb shelter ad, which complicates matters a bit and leaves it up to Mr. Ketter to come forth with more information as to where the clipping came from. . . . Tomorrow is St. Valentine's Day. . . . Rather than reprint lyrics of love for general purposes, we think this little poem will be more apropos for a reading public. . . . So, here's a Valentine thought we'd like to leave with you for consideration:

YOU, TOO!

Perhaps I've sometimes slipped a bit— Well, so have you.

Head Coach At Oklahoma A. & M. To Officiate At Cage Meet

Lookabaugh Will Referee 2-Day Event

When the district 1 executive committee met here last December and made plans for the 1941 basketball tournament, they instructed F. L. Mize, an able basketball arrangement committee to "get one good official for the basketball tournament."

So Mr. Mize and his committee took the statement as an order and have secured Jim Lookabaugh, head coach at Oklahoma A. & M. college at Stillwater, Okla., to officiate at the two-day event February 21 and 22.

Lookabaugh is recognized as one of the outstanding basketball officials in Oklahoma. He officiates at college and high school games throughout the state.

Coch Lookabaugh is not a stranger to most Pampans. Before going to Oklahoma A. & M. college last year, he was for many years coach of the Capitol Hill Indians of Oklahoma City, one of the strongest teams met year after year by the Pampa Harvesters.

The tournament will begin at 10 a. m., February 21 with 11 teams participating unless some county does not enter a team. Twelve teams were scheduled to tie off in the two-day grind but Canadian, the Hemphill county entry, has announced withdrawal of its team.

The tournament stacks up as one of the most evenly contested in many years. Although the Pampa Harvesters, because of two wins over Borger and the withdrawal of Canadian who defeated both Pampa and Borger in the Canadian tournament, are favored they do not have anything like an easy road to victory because there are many known strong teams in the running and there are also a number of dark horses who can upset the dope basket, in the opinion of the dopsters.

Pampa, Borger, Phillips and Miami are only teams already certified for places in the tournament. Other counties have yet to decide their champions.

Play will continue through Friday night with three games scheduled for Saturday, two in the afternoon and one at night.

Play will be as follows: (Friday) 10 a. m.—Ochiltree county vs. Carson county, with Hansford meeting the winner at 3 p. m.

11 a. m.—No game because of Canadian's withdrawal. Donley county therefore will draw a bye and will play Borger at 4 p. m.

1 p. m.—Lipscomb county vs. Gray county, with Pampa playing the winner at 7 p. m.

2 p. m.—Wheeler county vs. Roberts county, with Hutchinson county playing the winner at 8 p. m.

The championship game will be played at 8 p. m.

Jimmy Kitts Coach At Virginia Tech

BLACKSBURG, Va., Feb. 13 (AP)—Jimmy Kitts, who remained out of coaching a year following the shake-up at Rice Institute, will report March 1 as head mentor of Virginia Tech here.

Kitts yesterday accepted the post at an undisclosed salary. He succeeded Henry Reed, who resigned at the close of the past football season to become alumni secretary of Tech.

Pirates Rout McLean And Tie Up County Cage Race

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
LEFORS, Feb. 13—The LeFors Pirates threw the Gray county high school basketball race into a tie last night with a spectacular 41 to 30 victory over the McLean Tigers. The Pirate "B" team won 22 to 18 from the McLean "B." A third and deciding game will be played Wednesday night at 8 o'clock in the Kellerville gymnasium.

Tonight the LeFors Pirates will meet the Pampa Harvesters here. Game time will be 7:30 o'clock. A second game will see the LeFors Pirates meeting the fast Pampa Jaycees, independent team, composed of former Harvesters. No admission will be charged.

Earhart and Bowman paced the Pirate attack against the Tigers last night. Earhart swished the basket nine times for a total of 18 points while Bowman followed with 14 points.

Cook was the McLean scoring ace, bagging 18 points for the Tigers.

McLean won the first game of the playoff series Monday night in McLean. The team winning the Wednesday night battle in Kellerville will represent Gray county in the district tournament here Feb. 21 and 22. The Gray champion will meet the winner of the Lipscomb county championship playoff at 1 p. m., Feb. 21. Pampa will play the winner of the Gray-Lipscomb game at 7 p. m., Feb. 21.

Porkers Blast Owls 66 to 41

(By The Associated Press)
The Southwest conference basketball race has dwindled to a two-team affair with the party of the second part just managing to stay in front of the eight ball.

The Arkansas Razorbacks, with seven straight victories behind them, are expected to put the finishing touches tonight to the Rice Owls' hopes of repeating with the title.

The Porkers blasted the Owls last night 66-41.

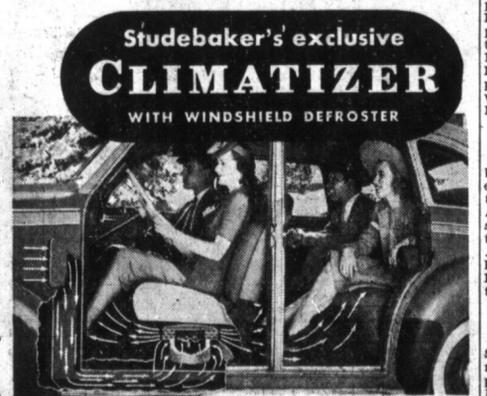

At the same time Southern Methodist university was forging to undisputed second place and retaining a fair chance at the crown by defeating the Texas Aggies 43-37.

S. M. U. has lost two games and could make them up by sweeping its series with Arkansas—should the Mustangs get that far without further defeat.

Johnny Adams slipped in 19 points to pace Arkansas in its defeat of Rice. The Porkers got away to an early lead and never were in danger.

S. M. U.'s game with A. and M. was a see-saw affair in the first half, but the Mustangs took the lead shortly before the period ended and stayed ahead the rest of the way. Vergil Wilkerson of the Mustangs led in scoring with 12 points.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIETZ
NEW YORK, Feb. 13 (AP)—Add old Notre Dames who don't want Elmer Layden's job—Jimmy Phelan of Washington. Yanks haven't hear a word from Joe DiMaggio, and probably won't so long as Mickey Cochrane goes around the coast telling the papers Joe is worth 45 grand. . . . Jack Dempsey nightly calls from Miami to inquire about his estranged wife who is seriously ill. . . . Not more than a dozen or so of Private Tommy Talley's buddies in the quartermaster's corps at Fort Dix, N. J., have tumbled to the fact that he not only is a top golfer, but a millionaire to boot. . . . Larry MacPhail had an Irish terror in the Garden Dog show.

Today's Guest Star
Walter Stewart, Memphis Commercial-Appeal: "Steve Casey, another of those wrestling champions, has also volunteered for army service. . . . And here we were thinking the war was strictly on the level."

Near and Far
Eddie Brannick of the Giants and Bobby Feller sat at adjoining tables at Leone's the other night and if they recognized each other, neither nodded. . . . Jimmy Bradlock is schooling a young heavy, Freddie Fitzgerald, 21-year-old Hoboken dock worker who'll be unveiled as a pro in a few months. . . . Notre Dame and New York U. quints will play to the seventh full house in the Garden tomorrow night. . . . Philly papers are taking Louis vs. Dorazio so seriously one of 'em is printing the story of Dorazio's life, written by the eminent author, Dr. Dorazio, himself.

1941 Gas Hoaxers
The U. of Georgia players seem to be the gas house gang of the Southeastern conference. . . . One Bulldog tangled with a Florida player. . . . Another went at it with a Tennessee player. . . . Two others charged the referee after the Auburn game. . . . Serious trouble was averted when husky Auburn gridders flanked the Bulldogs and marched them from the court.

Sports Cocktail
The Birmingham Barons of the Southern association are the first minor league to check in with a player roster. . . . Maybe one reason Buck Shaw of Santa Clara asked to be withdrawn from consideration for the Notre Dame job, is that Mrs. Buck said: "I'd rather live in a tent in California than a castle in Indiana." . . . Al (Bummy) Davis has taken on 30 pounds since he fought Fritzie Zivic 12 weeks ago. "What the army will do for the 'watermelon'." Looks like they're going to have to call out the fire department to stop the Loyola (New Orleans) basketball team. . . . How about a Garden bid, Mr. Irish? also one for the U. of Arkansas Razorbacks.

Texans Like Booming Gale At Orleans

By MORTIMER KREEGER
NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 13 (AP)—The Texans, used to playing golf in the teeth of a booming gale, viewed with satisfaction today the heavy weather descending upon the $5,000 New Orleans Open tournament.

Although they cared little for the "occasional rains" predicted for today, they believed the disturbance which caused high winds here and gales in their native state yesterday would increase their chances of taking major prize money, if it continued.

"If the wind blows it's Jimmy Demaret against the field," declared F. G. A. Champion Byron Nelson, a Fort Worth boy now living in Toledo.

"It wouldn't be much fun playing in a high wind but it would increase my chances of winning," admitted Demaret, a Houstonian who came from behind to win the event last year.

The pro-amateur competition is scheduled for today with the tournament proper starting tomorrow. Finals are Sunday.

A breeze that approached 20 miles per hour kept most of the entrants from completing practice rounds yesterday. Nelson and Demaret finished with 71 apiece, a stroke under par for the notoriously tough city park course, but the day's best round went to Harold "Jug" McSpaden, a native of Kansas—where the weather has been known to become gusty on occasion.

Nelson, elaborating on Demaret's play during a blow, said Jimmy won the San Francisco match play two years ago, "in a terrific wind," and "beat the field by four strokes" last season at Indian Creek, Miami, Fla., when "it blew so hard you could hardly stand up."

Other entrants here were born or played much golf in the Lone Star state included Harry Cooper of New London, Conn., winner in 1938; Ralph Guldahl of Madison, N. J.; Dick Metz and Lloyd Mangrum of Oak Park, Ill.; Ray Mangrum of Oakmont, Pa.; and Ben Hogan of White Plains, N. Y., leading 1940 money winner.

Brucie Again Wins Westminster Show

NEW YORK, Feb. 13 (AP)—Working in the same arena where Joe Louis has done some of his most effective work, My Own Brucie has gone the heavyweight boxing champion four better.

So far the Brown Bomber never has knocked out more than one rival at a time. The Black Bomber—American cocker spaniel, officially kayeed Five-A-One-Time to retain his title as American dog champion last night at Madison Square Garden.

Brucie, first since 1931 to get best-in-show in the Westminster Kennel club competition two years in a row, is owned by Herbert E. Mellen-thin of Foughkeepsie, N. Y. His victory here in 1940 already has been won plenty to his owner in stud fees. What will be worth now? Well, as one professional handler put it when Judge Joseph P. Sims reached his verdict:

"Boy, how would you like to put a price tag on that dog now? Ten thousands bucks, or I miss my guess."

This year's show, cut to two days, was limited to prize winners only. Up to the time entries closed, The Kerry, Buskin of Kenmare from the old Westbury (N. Y.) kennels of James M. Austin, hadn't even been shown. But his owner received a special dispensation—if he placed in last Sunday's Terrier club show, he'd be admitted to Westminster.

China has an annual soybean production of 217,192,000 bushels, leading the world in this commodity.

Harvesters Will Battle Booming Pirates Tonight

Coach Mitchell saw the booming LeFors Pirates overwhelm McLean last night at LeFors, and after he had slept over it he announced this morning that the Harvesters may have their hands full tonight at LeFors. The game will start at 7:30 o'clock. Admission will be free to everybody.

Early last month the Harvesters beat LeFors 51 to 23, but that was when the so-called reserves were playing as much as the quintet, that has now become the first team. In the first game with LeFors, Burge scores 12 points and Enloe 10. Finigan scored 8 tallies—more than he has scored in any one of the last four games. Pat hasn't looked bad on defense but he's been short on offense.

The Harvesters are expected to win tonight—if they don't it will be an upset, but they certainly can't regard LeFors lightly. LeFors has slugged down Canadian on the latter's court, and among the Harvesters' painful memories is one concerning a looking which they were forced to absorb at the hands of the Wildcats.

Then, too, the Pirates swamped McLean last night, and only last week McLean was nosed out by only two points by Memphis, a team that the Harvesters have had some trouble with this season.

Coach Mitchell intends to play the game tonight and whisk his Harvesters right back to town and then tuck them in bed. The big game of the season comes up Saturday night with Amarillo's tall Sandies and state championship football players invading the local gym. The first of two games will start at 7 o'clock.

It will be a championship game any way you look at it. If the Sandies beat Borger at Amarillo Friday night, then the Harvesters carry the Big Five title by again wallowing Amarillo here Saturday night. If the Bulldogs win at Amarillo then the Harvesters can tie for the title by beating Amarillo. In brief, the Harvesters can't lose if they win.

Porter's Cap Wins $50,000 Anita Derby

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13 (AP)—Mr. Charlie Howard, the wealthy San Francisco horse owner, has quite a problem.

He doesn't know whether to shoot a double-barreled threat at a $100,000 purse, or save one barrel and aim it at more glory than gold.

Howard's crack Porter's Cap thoroughly thumped a field of the finest three-year-olds campaigning in the west, yesterday when he won the $50,000 Santa Anita derby.

The beautiful chestnut son of the Porter took charge of the race coming into the stretch and easily subdued Mrs. Anthony Pelletier's Bull Reign by four lengths, and left Copperman to beat out Welcome Pass in the photo finish for third.

The distance was a mile and one eighth. Porter's Cap carried the usual derby weight for this event of 120 pounds, and his rider, Jockey Leon (Buddy) Hax, declared he had plenty of ran left—for a mile and one quarter, if need be.

The point is that the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap March 1 is to be run at a mile and one quarter, and so is the famed Kentucky Derby later this spring. Porter's Cap is weighted at a mere 104 for the Santa Anita Handicap, and the Kentucky Derby scale is 120 for colts.

Howard is perplexed. He doesn't know whether to send Porter's Cap into the big handicap here and try to win his third cup—and huge pot of gold—in the event, or perhaps save Porter's Cap for the less rich Kentucky Derby and other engagements for three-year-olds that will follow.

Intimate Glimpses Of The Touring Golf Professionals

DALLAS, Feb. 13 (AP)—Intimate glimpses of the touring band of golf professionals:

Lord Byron Nelson—He adopts the tempo of his game to the gait he walks between shots. The National P. G. A. champion insists that a canter between shots will result in a hurried swing; a badly timed shot. Once he was known as the Seabiscuit of the fairways. Now he takes it easy.

Ky Laffoon—Only a few years ago this fellow was a top-notch pro. Now his golf comes in spurts. Recently he struck upon an idea. He changed his ways. Naturally a handsome chap, he has started baring his snow-white teeth in an grin after another while playing. He has changed from a robot to a gallery favorite. The fans go wild over this little long hitter—the man who takes his putter to his hotel room nightly for a session on the carpet.

Ben Hogan—Once known as the iciest player in the business, Hogan, one-time Fort Worth caddy, has changed his ways. Naturally a handsome chap, he has started baring his snow-white teeth in an grin after another while playing. He has changed from a robot to a gallery favorite. The fans go wild over this little long hitter—the man who takes his putter to his hotel room nightly for a session on the carpet.

Ralph Guldahl—Painstakingly trying to find the great game that gave him two National Open titles only a few years ago, Guldahl, former Dallas boy, is becoming recognized as one of the slowest players in golf. He came in with the moon during the last round of the Texas Open. Wide spaces separated his threesome from the trio that teed off on No. 1 just five minutes ahead of them.

Slammin' Sam Sneed—Bridgemoor Sneed, the rhythm man of the links, has his moments of anger. On the seventh green during the Texas Open he missed a short putt. Slowly he raised his putter and then brought it crashing down into the green. It buried a good eight inches on a surface covered with water and mud from a snowfall. Then he grinned. He was sorry a few seconds later.

Jimmy Demaret—Loudest dresser on the tour, Demaret's latest creation is a multi-colored hat (with feather that approaches being a plume that he describes as his displeasure of the season. Bing Crosby fetched it for him on the coast. It has an extremely wide brim that curls flat against his head in the back. Sort of a Tyrolean effect. He wears it without cracking a smile.

Ed Porky Oliver—Greatest showman on the tour, Porky now weighs in the vicinity of 235, stands less than six feet. Panicked a huge gallery at San Antonio by sinking a 60-foot putt, slumping to the green. Then he jerked to his feet, kissed his putter and threw it some 75 yards over a tall clump of trees. P. S., he just got his second draft notice and will report back to his Hornell, N. Y. home around March 1.

Sweaters Given LeFors Football Players Monday

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
LEFORS, Feb. 13—Fifteen LeFors Pirates received their football jackets, Monday afternoon. They are black and orange reversible jackets, made out of wool, satin, and leather combined.

The 15 boys getting these awards were: Junior Ammons, Ralph Earhart, Bob Delver, Felton Webb, Edward Vincent, Joe Gourlay, Lynn Fite, Kenneth Twigg, Virgil Cole, Melton Oldham, Charles Nipper, Leo Ferguson, Johnny Turner, Walton Hughes, and Joe D. Hamrick. The other boys that will receive their jackets at a later date are: Paul Barrick, Vernon Watkins, Robert Matteson, and Cecil Straener.

Those on the Pirate reserve getting letters were: Jimmy and Jacky London, Fred Browning, Clinton Benefield, O. V. Gomer, Don Clemmons, Floyd Stevens, and Harold Ellis.

Eugene Turner Wins North American Figure Skating Title

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 13 (AP)—A 21-year-old Canadian lance corporal, who expects to sail this summer with his artillery regiment for duty in the battle of Britain, rules today as North American figure skating king.

In one of the most dramatic finishes in the history of the competition, Ralph McCreath cut down the commanding lead of the United States title holder, Eugene Turner, and carried off the North American crown last night by the bare margin of eight-tenths of a point.

McCreath, who also holds the Canadian championship, executed a daring free style performance to run up 1,575.8 points to Turner's 1,575.

American Craze For Building Rinks Gives Nobel Prize Winner Home Ice In California

Barbara Ann Gings

part in making possible ice skating beneath the palms. RINK GIVES CALIFORNIA HOCKEY TEAM SURFACE

So, today you may watch dozens of internationally famous men and women—Professor This or That, who discovered something or other that was very important, at least at the time—glide around with devotees from foundries and 10-cent emporiums.

Berkeley probably has the finest setup of any city of its size—about 100,000 population—in the country. The plant gives the California hockey team home ice on which to entertain its traditional rival, Southern California, which with the nucleus coming from western Canada has had some of the nation's top college puck-pursuing outfits.

Pretty Barbara Ann Gings, star of this year's national figure skating championship matches and Pacific coast and California senior women's titleholder, is a California sophomore who lent a voice for rinks in California, strong though the ice movement is in most other sections of the country.

Skating authorities are awed at the money Californians have dug up for rinks—almost all of them profitable. Small towns are building them.

While the east and middle west are chipping off ice in front of homes, California has to call upon the oracles of science to bestow surfaces in convenient locations.

There are rinks in Oakland and San Francisco, but even these short distances were too great for college swains and widows, faculty members and townies.

Joel Hildebrand, president of the venerable and famous Sierra Club, assured the townfolk that while it was all very well to travel a few hundred miles to good skating in the High Sierras, how much nicer it would be to acquire one's ice legs within a few blocks of home.

What happened was a $300,000 skidding palace toward which California officials, professors, instructors and old graduates contributed. Townies chipped in.

Of course it helps when a mayor like Frank Stewart Gaines, a California man, is a retired vice president of a rolling mills company with ability to obtain capital from far outside the city's environs. Maurice Read, former California athlete who heads the Chamber of Commerce, also played an important

LeFORS, Feb. 13—Coach Waggoner's Pirate boxers will meet the McLean boxers in the LeFors gymnasium Friday night. The fights will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

McLean is reputed to have a strong team, proving so by beating the strong Miami boxers of Coach Rush.

Old man jinx has hit the powerful Pirate team. Several boys have been lost from the team for different reasons. Coach Waggoner believes that the boxing fans of LeFors and surrounding territory will still pack the LeFors gymnasium to see such boys as Walton Hughes, Paul Barker, Donald McLaughlin, Charles Nipper, Bobby Dunn, Eugene Cooper, Noe Clemmons, and others with less experience go to fist city for them.

Many people are expected to come over from McLean. The rivalry between the two schools is great and the strength of the two teams are apparently even so the fights should be as good as fans could ever expect.

World copper consumption is estimated to have been in excess of 2,500,000 short tons in 1939.

BLOCK THAT BASKET

LOOSE GUARDING OF PIVOT MAN STATIONED NEAR FOUL LINE PERMITS BETTER DEFENSE

Guard should play loose if his man is in pivot position outside foul line, allowing room for defensive players to go through when following out.

By JEFF CARLIN
Famous Player and Coach
While defensive players should play very close when pivot man is near the basket, they should play loose against a pivot man stationed "high" or outside the foul line.

On the accompanying diagram, for example, an offensive man is playing within the foul circle. Ordinarily, if another offensive man cut close to him, the pivot man would brush off his guard. But if the pivot man's guard is playing loose, there will be room for other defensive men to get through. It will also be easier to switch.

A variation on this play calls for one of the guards outside the foul circle to turn and play the ball once it has been thrown in to the pivot man.

Then if the offensive man originally assigned to him gets a cut, he can be picked up by the guard who was watching the pivot man. This switching can be made easily because of the guard's loose play. The defense has something of an advantage on such plays, of course, because of the three-second rule.

McLean Seniors Give Program At Clarendon School

McLEAN, Feb. 13—The McLean seniors received their play books entitled "Tea Topper Tavern," this week and will have a try-out for the characters Monday.

Six men and eight women are needed for the cast and this will take almost one-half of the senior class, since there are only 33 seniors graduating from McLean this year.

After selection of the characters the play cast will start practicing immediately under the direction of Vergie Hall, speech director and senior co-sponsor.

If the play is considered good enough by the faculty it will be put on twice.

Money from the play will be used to help finance the senior trip.

SERIAL STORY

DRAFTED FOR LOVE

BY RUTH AYERS

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY, April 13, Ann... she has been waiting for it to be her...

TRUST IN TOMORROW

CHAPTER IV

APRIL BURNETT was a great believer in tomorrows.

Perhaps Mother and Dad would return ahead of time from the camping trip and figure a way out of this situation.

And tonight, after the long train ride, the fresh memory of what had been through, Kent would be spared.

For a minute, it struck her as strange that she should be bothering at all. Yet somehow the memory of Kent's unseeing eyes, the thought of how much this week-end leave meant to him, made her pick up the telephone restlessly.

"Hello, Kent—but you could never guess what sweet young hero worshiper this is."

"Why, yes," Kent was saying, "it's April. How are you, April?"

"Never mind about how I am," she crooned. "How is the conquering warrior?"

"Oh, very well, thanks." His words were clipped.

"Why didn't you let us know about your leave ahead of time so we could have brought the band out and thrown a party? It's not every day a man of military affairs comes into our midst."

"I'm hardly that." He made a forced attempt at laughter. April lowered her voice.

"Kent, in all seriousness, Ann wanted me to send word to you."

"Ann—is she all right?"

"APRIL held the hand-set a little closer. So far, so good. She mustn't say a thing she couldn't stand by later."

"Ann will be all right," she hastened on, "it's only that she's a little—well, your coming home so sudden and everything."

Kent was quick to answer. "I know it. It's all my fault. Trying to pull the heroics and not writing her."

"You know how Ann is," April was whispering, as if Ann herself might be overhearing. "She's not very strong."

"She'll be fine tomorrow if she gets a good rest, don't you think?" The eagerness in his voice made April's fingers curl around the cord.

"Oh, yes. Oh, my, I should say so," she answered. "Everything will be fine tomorrow."

"I guess it won't hurt me any either to slack up a bit, you know. You tell Ann it's perfectly all right and I understand. I'll call her the first thing tomorrow."

"Yes, I'll tell her. Any other kind words you want to pass along?"

"Why, yes," Kent spoke very quietly. "Say that she's got to be okay tomorrow. I'm going to kidnap her for the whole day."

"H'm, orders from the top sergeant. If you were here, I suppose I'd salute."

"Good night, April, and thanks for calling."

"Wait a minute, Cap'n Carter. Whoa, there!" She knew she should say good night. She knew she would spoil the whole results of her inspiration if she said another word. And yet she couldn't stop herself. The Glitterbug, indeed!

"Yes?" he said impersonally. "How about me volunteering in Ann's place tonight?"

"Thanks, April," he said, "but that wouldn't do. Good night and good luck."

of swirling black, her yellow head with the upbrushed curls rose like a sunburst.

"What's the trouble, April?" One of the trio of young men escorting her leaned forward.

"There's a perfectly good thumb going to waste and you haven't noticed a single imploring look in our eyes."

"Something got you down?" It was Hal Parks, the nicest of the three; in fact, the nicest man she knew.

For a while, April tried to forget the problem that faced her in the morning. She made herself feel confident that Ann would return. If Ann didn't, surely there'd be some way to sidestep Kent. You could always send notes.

So she danced with the three men in turn; lighted their cigars since she didn't smoke; listened as they made love in their bantering way. But through the haze of smoke and the blur of music, Kent's face kept coming before her.

It was Hal who had a way of understanding her better than anyone she'd ever known, who extricated her early and drove her home.

"Feel like talking about what's bothering you?" he asked.

She stammered an answer. "Oh, maybe it's this war business. The men going to training camps. You'll be leaving, too, Hal?"

Hal was handsome, with smooth dark hair and a mustache that gave him a debonaire, man-about-town look. He wore a tuxedo with bonnet grace, knew how to do things the right way. And yes, Hal was going places.

"I'd like to be in uniform right now," he was saying. "But I'm in chemical research at the plant on a rush order for the government, so it looks as if I'd be kept there for a while. Is that what was worrying you, April?"

April shook her head, uncertainly.

Hal didn't try to kiss her, but taking her hands said, "Well, whatever it is, April, if the time ever comes when I want to tell me, I'll be around. I feel that way about you."

A month ago, a week ago, even last night, April's heart would have given a skip or two at this. Now she could only nod and say gratefully, "You're a grand guy, Hal."

He helped her out of the car. "Sure I am," he said with vast aplomb. "And remember this, honey, there are other ways of being drafted besides for the army."

(To Be Continued)

CASA BLANCA, everyone said, was a wonderful night club for a town like Pattonsville.

A big shell of a place, it had a smooth floor and a good orchestra. Every row and then some of the big-name bands you heard on the radio came here to play a one-night engagement.

Tonight, April decided, Casa Blanca looked like Casa Blank to her. It seemed suddenly too big, too much decorated, a sort of imitation of the real thing. And every dance piece the orchestra played was just in imitation, too, of some other band that played it better.

April wore a new black net dress, with a skirt billowing in yards-and-yards and a bodice cunningly sprinkled with small silver sequins. Out of this froth

New Cretney's Opens Here After Swift Remodeling Job

Low Prices To Prevail At Store Sale

Growing from a small store with only two employes six years ago to a business firm with branches in three cities, and with 16 persons employed alone in the parent Pampa store—that is the record in brief of Cretney's, 110 1/2 N. Cuyler.

All the more remarkable in the case of the local store is the swift remodeling job done after the December 28 fire. Within a month after the fire has swept the interior, the place has been completely repainted, and remodeled, and Cretney's is doing business again in the same way as though no fire had occurred.

A dual note is thus struck in the sixth anniversary which the drug store is observing this week. A store-wide "formal opening" sale opens today at Cretney's and will extend through Saturday.

Clyde Oswalt, local manager, said the store was offering the lowest prices on its merchandise in its history.

Cretney's has a complete line of all types of merchandise to be found in a modern drug store, in addition to its fountain and lunch departments, and the regular drug and prescriptions.

It was in 1935, when the nation was struggling through the doldrums of a depression and gradually feeling its way out, that W. F. Cretney established his store on N. Cuyler.

Although it was not, by all the signs, a good time to start a new business, the faith of Mr. Cretney in Pampa and the future of the Top O' Texas was steadfast, and time has proved that he was right in his decision.

Rapid Growth
So fast did the business grow that it wasn't long until the narrow store was too small and the wide-windowed, amply lighted, remodeled store made its appearance in the same location.

The formal opening was held in February, 1939. Before this, however, the firm had branched out and established a store in Borger, then later the Fox Drug in Amarillo was

Years Of Misery Ended By Hoyt's Says Texas Lady

Indigestion, Gas, Bloating, Constipation are Gone; I Eat Well, says Mrs. Mprtinex. She Credits Hoyt's Compound.

"For nine years I suffered with indigestion, gas and bloating," says Mrs. Nora Martinez, 716 South Irving St., San Angelo, Texas.

"After meals I had untold misery from this trouble. I could not eat fried foods of any kind without after distress. I was badly constipated, and had nervous fainting spells. Nothing I tried relieved me.

Now that I am using Hoyt's Compound, I can eat anything put before me without suffering. Hoyt's has been a perfect laxative, and my bowels are regular as can be. The fainting spells have ended, and I haven't had a trace of nervousness. I gladly recommend Hoyt's!"

Hoyt's Compound is recommended and sold by the Cretney Drug Store and by all leading druggists in this entire area.

SANDWICHES, DINNERS, ICE-CREAM

Food and fountain drinks of finest quality draw the crowds to Cretney's on Sunday, as on other days of the week. Here's a part of a luncheon crowd in the coveens, at the tables, and along the fountain counter of Cretney's, located on the south side of the store. Employees in the picture are Johnnie Paddock, behind the fountain, Bertha Henderson, drawing coffee from the urn, and standing next to her, Mable Kirby.

purchased and incorporated into the system.

Improvements made in the local store since the remodeling started on January 7 include a new insulated ceiling, new fixtures, repainting, redecorating, installation of Rock-Ola music boxes, addition of six tables and one more booth, making a total of 13 booths, arranging for all cooking to be done at the rear of the store, and a new prescription room.

Cretney Heads Firm
At the head of the three-store system is Mr. Cretney, now of Amarillo. He and Clyde Oswalt, were the only ones employed in the original store when it was opened here six years ago.

The present employes in Pampa are: Drug department, Oswalt, H. H. Shier, prescriptions; Rudyard Kipling, Edensorough, in charge of display, window-trimming; Elbert Adams, stockman; Odessa Kunkel, bookkeeper; Emma Olsen, cashier.

Fountain, Eddie Hardcastle, manager; L. L. Reger, cook; Johnnie Paddock, fountain man; Doris Oswald, a Smittie Hubbard, Bertha Henderson, Mable Kirby, and Betty Rice.

Porters, Herbert Woods, head porter, and Nathan Rogers.

Shier, Edensorough, and Oswalt are all registered pharmacists. Edensorough and Shier have been with Cretney's for two years each, while Adams, the bookkeeper and cashier have all been with the firm since 1937.

Length of employment of some of other employes ranges from six months to two years. In the two-year grade are Doris Oswald, Smittie Hubbard, L. L. Reger.

Fountain Manager Hardcastle has been with Cretney's one year as has Bertha Henderson. Johnnie Paddock has been an employ for one and one-half years, and Mable Kirby for six months.

Serums Carried At Cretney's Drug

Cretney's is distributor in Pampa for the famous O. M. Franklin line of serums and veterinary supplies. They always maintain a complete stock of these supplies to fill the needs of Panhandle stockmen.

In their biologic department they carry such Franklin cattle and horse serums as blackleg bacterin for cattle; equine encephalomyelitic vaccine for sleeping sickness among horses; hog cholera serum and virus for hogs and avian mixed bacterin for poultry. These items are just a few of the many serums and vaccines in this department which features along with Franklins such well known lines as Golbe Laboratories, Cutter laboratories and Lederle.

In general needs for stockmen they carry a complete line of all necessities, including such items as screw worm killer, dehorning paint and all the general needs for cattle, horses, hogs and poultry.

85 Employed At Cretney's Drug

The Cretney Drug stores operating in Pampa, Borger and Amarillo have grown from an organization of 11 employes to a modern, up-to-date system of three super drug stores with 85 employes, in the last three years.

Such a rapid and steady growth, says W. F. Cretney, owner, must be justified. It is his belief that Cretney's principles of service, nationally advertised merchandise at low prices and guaranteed satisfaction offer the inducements which the buying public want.

Volume buying and volume sales combine to enable the Cretney Drug stores to feature the best in nationally advertised merchandise at the lowest possible prices.

Low price is a fixed policy at Cretney's and this ability to save the customer money on all purchases made, aiding in reducing the housewife's budget for needs of this character, is one outstanding reason for the success of the Cretney Drug stores.

CONSIDERED LETTER LUCKY
In the belief that the letter "F" was lucky for his family, the late King Fund, of Egypt, named all his children with names beginning with that letter. King Farouk, his son, has kept up the custom, causing his wife to change her name to Farida, and naming his two daughters Ferial and Fawzia.

Highway Department Puts Out 1941 Maps

The 1941 spring edition of the Texas Highway map issued by the Texas Highway department is now available to the public. It may be obtained at no cost by the public by writing to the Texas Highway department at Austin or to any of its district offices.

That the map is the most correct published to date is attested by the fact that all roads in Gray county that are paved are shown for the first time. Even Lake McClellan appears on the map, although the name McClellan is incorrectly spelled.

The cover of the spring edition is a natural color photograph picture showing a sunrise scene on the Gulf Coast of Texas, and the new map shows all state highways, cities and towns, and, as with every issue of the map, shows that pavement has been placed on many unpaved roads since the last map was issued in the spring of 1940.

Features of the 1941 spring edition map are the new federal census figures for Texas cities and towns. Shown on the map itself are oil and gas regions, national forests, and principal lakes and streams. Inserts around the map show in larger scale the routes into and through larger cities.

On the back is a brief description of state parks, and other attractions; facts about Texas, and interesting pictures of industry and development in the state. The data includes comparative distances showing that it is farther between some cities in Texas than from the same cities to Los Angeles, Chicago, and Jacksonville on the Atlantic ocean.

White Deer To Send 40 To Press Meeting

Special To The News
WHITE DEER, Feb. 13—About 40 members of the high school journalism class and the annual staff plan to attend the meeting of the Panhandle High School Press association in Canyon Saturday.

Frances Lamb, editor-in-chief of the school paper, has been elected voting delegate, with Dona Newton, managing editor, alternate.

Jacquelyn Simmons will be nominated by the school as a candidate for vice-president of the press association.

A trio composed of Max Helen Pickens, La Velle Horton, and Ollie Buchanan, accompanied by Glenn F. Davis, will sing at one of the sessions.

SATURDAY NIGHT SHOPPING BEGINS

Before Charles Lindbergh made his epic flight over the Atlantic to Paris, 67 persons had flown that ocean. Lindbergh's flight was the first solo flight.

Cretney's Drug Line Complete

Cretney's prescription department is one of the most complete in this territory, featuring a complete line of fresh drugs and pharmaceuticals. They feature the Control number line as manufactured by E. F. Squibb and Sons, one of their main sources of supplies for their prescription department.

This means that every item has a control for the customers, safety regulating the length of time merchandise has been on hand and the source from which it was obtained.

Among the other well known names featured in their prescription department are Lederle, Eli Lilly, Upjohn, Parke-Davis and company, and Sharpe and Dohne.

A registered pharmacist is always on duty at Cretney's super service drug store to fill your needs day or night.
