'Secret Army' Assailed In Dies Opener

By DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Staff
GREENVILLE, April 19 (AP)—Rep. Martin Dies (D-Tex.) plunged into his senatorial campaign today with the demand that the "agents of the dictators" be expelled from national defense industries.

Die's special election will be held June 28. Opening his campaign for the senate seat left vacant by the death of Morris Sheppard, Dies told a crowd made up mostly of cotton farmers that "the dictators have a secret and un-uniformed army in greater numbers than our own army."

These soldiers, the chairman of the house committee investigating un-Americanism charged, are "entrenched in key positions in defense industries." "Their purpose," he said, "is to sabotage through strikes, sit downs, slowdowns and acts of destruction, the defense program that is vital to preservation of our free institutions."

"Our chief problem today is to save our institutions and the democratic processes from enemies from within and from without. All other problems will be beyond hope of solution in our country if this problem is not solved."

Die's said the committee of which he is chairman is in possession of incontrovertible evidence "which will be made public in hearings starting in a few days that will prove that many of the strikes in defense industries have been instigated from abroad."

"No measure will be adequate unless we expel from defense industries these agents of the dictators," he asserted. "That must be our first step. If I am elected to the senate I will carry out a program calling for the expulsion of undesirable aliens and the detention and outlawry of all foreign-controlled political organizations."

If he is elected to the senate, Dies said, he would immediately introduce legislation to augment and carry on the work now being done by the house committee. He said he believed a permanent committee should be authorized to carry on investigations tending to preserve democratic institutions.

Fourteen times during the address he mentioned the "secret army" of dictators.

Britain Expects Major Setbacks In Greece

(By The Associated Press)
MOSCOW, April 19.—The Soviet Union through the newspaper Pravda, official mouthpiece of the communist party, bluntly described the new Soviet-Japanese neutrality pact today as a bewildering blow at the plans of United States and British interests whom it accused of conspiring to draw Russia into war against Japan or Germany.

Declaring that the pact had been under consideration for 10 years, Pravda said it was not directed against Germany and at the same time disclosed, without elaboration, that the Kremlin last November refused a bid to become an Axis partner.

Calling the Japanese-Russian agreement an instrument of peace which "creates a solid foundation for development of friendly relations between the two states," the communist organ added: "This obvious fact did not suit the taste of those foreign political circles which are striving not to limit but to extend the atmosphere of war and, above all, to draw the Soviet Union into the orbit of war."

In the American press there appeared even an official statement emanating from the state department that the significance of this pact is somewhat exaggerated; it merely formulates on paper relations which lately have existed between these countries.

"However, the attempt to belittle the importance of the Soviet-Japanese pact suffers a fiasco. The nerves of certain Anglo-American commentators are giving way."

Pravda asserted that both British and American newspapers have begun to display "unprecedented attitude" for the interests of the two signatories, adding that "discussion is growing on the subject of who benefits more from the pact—the U.S.S.R. or Japan."

"All arguments of the British and American press," it went on, "lead one to conclude that, irrespective of the extent to which the pact benefits Japan or the U.S.S.R., it disturbed the plans of London and Washington politicians."

Pravda cited Washington reports to the effect that the United States had sought friendly relations with Moscow, hoping that strained Soviet-Japanese relations would deter Japan from attacking Britain's south Pacific naval base at Singapore and the Dutch East Indies.

"But," it went on, "the 'ungrateful' Soviet Union failed to appreciate such an attitude towards itself and concluded the pact with Japan, directed against extension of the war and against embroiling the Soviet Union in any way. Isn't that annoying!"

Panhandle Oil Men Protest 'Unjust' Taxes In Omnibus Tax Bill

Levy To Hurt Plains Field, Group Claims

By HARRY E. HOARE Staff Writer

The Panhandle Producers and Royalty Owners' association in annual session in Amarillo Saturday afternoon unanimously adopted a resolution protesting the "unjust tax on oil, gas and allied industries imposed in the proposed omnibus tax bill" which will be debated before the senate on Tuesday. The association also passed a resolution asking the federal government to curtail the importation of such vast quantities of oil.

A. E. "Ollie" Herrmann of Amarillo and Pampa was elected president of the association for the following year. He succeeds Mel B. Davis of Pampa. Other officers elected were George Cree of Pampa, Gordon Burch of Borger and Bill O'Brien of Amarillo, vice president; and George McGrath of Amarillo, secretary, and E. L. "Gene" Green of Pampa, treasurer.

Mr. Herrmann is an independent operator and drilling contractor in the Panhandle. He is interested in the Herrogan Oil company and the LePors Petroleum company of Pampa.

The annual meeting opened with a noon luncheon in the Amarillo hotel attended by nearly 200 members and guests.

Tax Situation Grave

The grave tax situation overshadowed the feeling of optimism that the Panhandle would see better days. Speakers admitted that "taxes are with us, and with us to stay" and that the oil industry was not and would not shirk its tax responsibilities.

George McGrath, secretary of the association, said the group had worked diligently to have taxes equalized and that progress could be reported. He declared that the taxes to pay the national defense program must be raised but that local and state taxes must be reduced.

"The Panhandle of Texas is the powerhouse of the nation and we, its citizens, must place its potentialities before the nation," declared George C. Gibbons of Dallas, vice-president of the Mid-Continent Oil and Gas association. "The day is coming when industries will move to the natural resources and the Panhandle must be ready. Our defense program is showing that the trend has already started."

Mr. Gibbons said the Panhandle was first in gas, first in carbon black, and first in natural gasoline production. More than six hundred billion cubic feet of gas, or 61 per cent of the state's output, was produced in the Panhandle in 1940, and three-quarters of the world's output of carbon black was manufactured in the Panhandle.

Import of Oil Dangerous
The proposed omnibus tax bill is dangerous to the Panhandle," Mr. Gibbons declared. "Under the proposed taxes the oil industry of Texas would carry 81 per cent of the burden."

Fear of expansion because of chaotic conditions and taxes was expressed by Joe S. Bridwell, oil operator from Wichita Falls. He said he believed in the good neighbor policy but not to the extent that imports should undermine our own oil production. He said that the Panhandle had been discriminated against in its oil allowances and that equity and fairness should exist in the oil industry. He also urged an increase in the price being paid for gas in the Panhandle.

Walter David of Borger extended an invitation for the association to hold its 1942 meeting in Borger and the retiring president recommended to the directors that the 1942 meeting be held in Borger with the 1943 meeting in Pampa. Mr. David also expressed his belief that only a hike in the price of gas would relieve the present gas situation.

He also said that he had given serious thought to the plan to divide the state. He declared that the present senate would never draft a fair tax bill because of sectionalism.

"One part of the state is fighting the needs of the natural gasoline that exists we'll never get a square tax bill," Mr. David declared.

Hester And Thompson Speak

The directors also passed a resolution endorsing the active fight being made by Senator Grady Hesterwood in behalf of the oil and gas and carbon black men and offering him their support.

Bob Kay of Amarillo was named official delegate of the association to lead the fight against the tax measures in Austin.

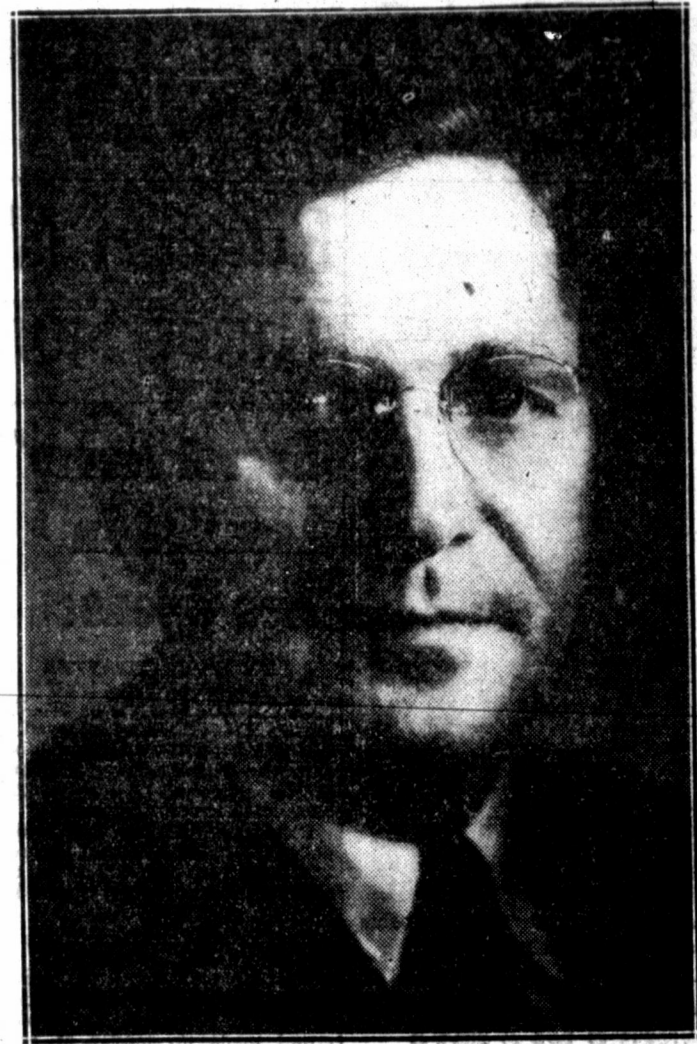

An interesting talk on government economy was presented by Dr. George C. Hester, professor of journalism at Southwestern university at Georgetown. He explained the muddled manner in which finances are handled in the state government and discussed a pay as you plan or streamlining of the government whereby all departments spending money would be under a single board.

A humorous address by Prof. C. P. Thompson of Oklahoma A. & M. college at Stillwater, Okla., in which he "panned" the oil men was the only other talk on the program.

A floor show by the Dixie Dice troop closed the meeting.

The motor bus and improved highways have brought modern schools within reach of 3,500,000 children in rural areas.

Anguish Causes Greek Premier To Kill Himself

ATHENS, April 19, (AP)—Premier Alexandros Korizis took his own life because of anguish over Greece's unequal struggle with Germany and Italy, it was announced officially tonight.

The 56-year-old premier, less than three months in office, shot himself yesterday at his home.

An announcement said:
"Korizis, having had a nervous breakdown as the result of the strain and emotion of the unequal struggle which Greece is waging against an army of two empires, ended his life."
It was announced officially that King George II, reserving to himself for the time being the presidency of the council of ministers, had entrusted General Alexander Papagos with formation of a new cabinet, which will have a military character due to the war circumstances.

The preceding dispatch, coming through the strict Greek wartime censorship, is the first indication from Athens as to the cause of Korizis' death. An official announcement from Athens Friday night said merely that he died "suddenly" at 4 p. m. Friday, Greek time.

Berlin charged today that the British drove the premier to his death, either by murder or "in some other way," because he had wanted to make peace with the Germans. There had been no previous indication, however, that the premier favored a negotiated peace.

Korizis succeeded Premier-Dictator John Metaxas on the latter's death last January 29. Metaxas died of natural causes.

Gasoline Meeting Will Have Two Unique Features

The twentieth annual convention of the Natural Gasoline Association of America, scheduled for April 23-25 in the Baker Hotel, Dallas, will have two features unique in the activities of oil trade associations.

According to George P. Bunn, Phillips Petroleum Co. president of the association, no other trade group has associated with it an organization comparable with the Natural Gasoline Supply Men's association. While oil field supply companies often join forces in entertaining the delegates to various trade meetings, supply companies catering largely to the needs of the natural gasoline industry make up the only group organized for the purpose. Established in 1928, this association has its own annual dues, officers and directors and every year assumes the job of entertaining the delegates to the N. G. A. convention. The rather elaborate entertainment this year is scheduled for Thursday evening, April 24th.

Another function of the supply group is the occasional compilation of a Natural Gasoline engineering data book which is highly regarded by engineers and plant men throughout the industry. At late edition of the book will be given to all registered delegates at the N. G. A. convention.

The other unique feature of the N. G. A. program is the "Operating Kinks" session which occupies most of one whole day. Started five years ago as a two hour forum for the discussion of practical field and plant problems, it has grown in importance until it threatens to dominate the convention. The session takes the form of a prize contest in which field, plant and laboratory men compete for substantial prizes with their original ideas for doing any job within their province in a cheaper, safer or easier way. The session is a mine of information for plant superintendents and engineers. Judges of the contest this year are: Allen T. Givens, Collexo corporation chairman, W. P. Fulton, United Gas Pipe Line Co., Frank Fisher, Skelly Oil Co., B. R. Carney, Shell Oil Co., Inc. and C. A. Short, Lisbon Gasoline company.

M. E. Sadler Named New T. C. U. Prexy

FORT WORTH, April 19, (AP)—Dr. M. E. Sadler, pastor of the Central Christian church at Austin, Tex., for the last five years, was named today as president of Texas Christian university.

The 44-year-old former chairman of the Texas public welfare board succeeds Dr. E. M. Waits, who retired recently as Texas Christian president but will continue as president emeritus.

On his way to Enid, Okla., to fill a speaking engagement at Phillips university, Dr. Sadler stopped here long enough for a conference with trustees and to formally accept the presidency after he was confirmed by the board.

He was enthusiastic about the university's expansion plans, announced today by the trustees, with immediate improvements costing $635,000 planned, including a girls' dormitory, field house, power plant and modernization of present buildings. Other structures planned will send the cost up to $1,500,000.

Flashes Of Life

Opelika, Ala., April 19 (AP)—T. F. Fowler, 84, of Colorado Springs who boasts 82 direct descendants, was challenged today for his claim to the title of champion grandfather.

W. P. Ennis, 79, of Opelika, listed 95 direct descendants by a first marriage—10 children, 56 grandchildren and 29 great-grandchildren. That takes the title, he says, and three children and seven grandchildren by a second marriage adds a bit of a margin. All of his descendants are living.

Baton Rouge, La., April 19 (AP)—Rep. Charles Wolverton, (R-NJ), forgot he was in the deep south while inspecting the Louisiana house of representatives chamber.

"But where do the Republicans sit?" he asked. Amid the laughter he was told "we keep the Republicans outside."

SAN PEDRO, Calif., April 19 (AP)—Five times a young Czech politician in New York called Edith Katarina Kann in Australia to propose. But, she said, she couldn't understand a word he said.

The sixth time she asked the telephone operator to do it for him.

Back came the answer, "yes."

So today Miss Kann, also a Czechoslovakian, stepped off a Trans-Pacific liner, ready to marry Dr. A. P. Wachstatter, the persistent physician.

WEATHERFORD, Tex., April 19 (AP)—Draft board officials smiled understandingly today.

"I have only a wife," wrote a registrant on his questionnaire. "If you want me, just drop me a card."

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP)—"Small earner don't pay no tax," the letter said. "I am enclosed twenty dollars money order. Contribution for American defense. God blessed America."

This is the thought expressed in many letters from rich and poor which reach the treasury and the white house with gifts from 10 cent up.

Making public excerpts from these communications today, the treasury said that the donations were being put into a special account, marked "miscellaneous receipts, donations from United States citizens for national defense." The present total was not disclosed, but it is in excess of $11,000.

The buildings in New York's immense Rockefeller center actually weigh less than the material excavated in their construction.

Stillwater Band Wins Tri-State Festival

ENID, Okla., April 19 (AP)—Stillwater (Okla.) High School's band won the coveted Sweepstakes trophy for the second time in three years tonight at the close of the Tri-State band festival.

The Sweepstakes award for junior high schools was won by Harding Junior High of Oklahoma City for the fourth straight year.

The University of Arkansas trophy for the best drilled band went to the Alice Fortier High school at New Orleans, national champions at the World's fair contest in New York last year.

The Tri-State massed band of 300 instruments gave a concert tonight under the leadership of 10 directors as the concluding event of the festival. Featured was the premier of the symphonic overture, "Clmarron," a musical history of Oklahoma composed by Oklahoma-born Roy Harris.

A two-hour parade of 70 bands this morning was reviewed by Gov. Leon C. Phillips, who later was a guest at a civic luncheon.

PLAYS

MISS PENDLETON—Oh, I don't want you to think I'm prejudiced against Happy Journey. I don't like the play but I'm not prejudiced against it.

ACT THREE The four plays have been performed and Miss Pendleton is discussing them in the order of their production on the stage.

MISS PENDLETON (shuffling notes)—Congratulations on a most interesting play from Pampa. It was very very well done.

VOICE IN THE TULLA SECTION—I think we're going to win. We got the best boy and girl actor in the tournament.

(fies her notes). I have a linen duster in my trunk at home, and I know that I was not wearing it in 1915.

(Miss Pendleton then discussed the Spur and Crowell plays, and the performances of the individual players.)

(The Crowell play's title refers to the last flight of geese, before winter comes, over a Nebraska farm house where the mother of two sons lies dead in another room and where the father and son are fighting with fists and with chairs because the oldest son wants to go away and learn to build bridges.

I think the wind effect in the Crowell play got in the road—just as the automobile in Happy Journey got in the road.

(Miss Pendleton discusses the four plays for an hour, and then names the all-star cast.)

VOICE FROM CROWELL CAST—I think Pampa will go to state—she shuffled among her notes. I can never find my notes (apologetically). And so I have rated Crowell, Pampa and Tulla, superior, and Spur excellent.

SECRET ARMY

It was a serious-minded, shouting audience that frequently interrupted with cries of "That's what I say," "Pour it on," and "Amen" as Dies reported the Committee investigating Un-Americanism had evidence that 7,000,000 persons in the United States were affiliated with foreign controlled organizations, "an army more dangerous than it would be if it actually were the uniforms of its foreign masters."

Dies asserted he favored parity prices between agricultural and industrial products; social security including "adequate pensions for the aged" and unemployment insurance; broadening and increasing a program of conservation of natural resources; stricter control of subversive activities; tightening of immigration restrictions; outlawing of foreign-controlled political organizations.

"I have supported all the important legislation that has been introduced to protect the rights of union labor," Dies said, "but I have no sympathy for labor unions that permit agents of foreign powers to hold powerful offices and positions of authority."

"I plead with John L. Lewis, the head of the CIO, to cooperate with our committee to expose the agents of foreign powers working in this country. He declined our committee and refused to cooperate. Nevertheless we have established that there are 40,000 tools of Stalin in the CIO. That organization proposes to battle me in Texas as it has elsewhere, and I propose to carry the fight to the people."

"The foremost issue in this hour is the preservation of democracy and the institutions that live under the blessings of democracy. We must expel from national defense industry every person who has been active in these subversive, foreign-controlled organizations. I am asking the people of Texas to join me in a crusade of Americans to save America for our children."

He urged his legislative experience as a qualification for the promotion, saying, "I believe you should send to Washington a man of experience, not a man who will have to spend the next six months learning where to hang his hat."

"The torch of human liberty" is being destroyed in Europe, Dies said. He characterized the conduct of the small nations in Europe as a "tragic setback to human progress" and urged that steps be taken quickly to forestall any such possibility in the United States.

FDR And King To Confer Tomorrow

HYDE PARK, N. Y., April 19 (AP)—The president of the United States and the prime minister of Canada, each beset by momentous problems rooted in war, will hold a potentially significant conference tomorrow.

Possible subjects for exploration by President Roosevelt and W. E. Mackenzie King were the $7,000,000,000 lease-lend program and its myriad ramifications, war and defensive financing, convoys, re-definition of combat zones, and joint Canadian-American defense measures.

But the temporary White House preferred not to forecast specifically what might be discussed when the men who direct the affairs of the neighboring nations sit down for a chat in the small study in President Roosevelt's Hudson Valley home.

The War of 1812 was the only major American war which did not begin in the month of April.

GREEKS ADMIT

British headquarters in Athens insisted the British-Greek lines still held firmly and that the flanks had not been turned.

The resistance of British and Greek forces to the Nazi offensive near Mount Olympus was described in dispatches as approaching another Verdun. A communique said simply that "despite all efforts, our front rowhere has been penetrated," but the British press was anything but optimistic.

"Should the moment come, as unfortunately it may, when forces of the empire will be compelled to retire from the Greek mainland, there certainly should be neither despondency at the event nor any regret that help to Greece was undertaken," said the London News Chronicle, adding that "elsewhere in the middle east, particularly in Libya, the situation is full of factors that give confidence."

An indication that the government itself might be thinking along the same lines was seen in the announcement of the landing in Iraq. A British force was put ashore at Basra, at the head of the Persian Gulf.

The new Iraq government, established April 4, the London announcement said, was cooperating with the British in line with assurances of Premier Sayid Rashid Ali Al Gailani. The official British explanation was that the move was made to open up lines of communication through Iraq.

The Greeks themselves had a problem on their hands—a government crisis resulting from the suicide of Premier Korizis, who had succeeded Premier General John Metaxas less than 123 weeks ago. King George II conferred with political and military leaders in an effort to form a new government.

In Rome, Italian dispatches from Albania pictured the Greeks as retreating all along the line from Lake Presba on the northeast of the mouth of the Adriatic on the south. War maps showed five Italian columns operating.

Tex DeWeese Elected Head Of Newsmen

Censorship of news, outside of military information, was opposed in a resolution passed at the 32nd annual convention of the Panhandle Press association in Amarillo Saturday.

Also condemned, in another resolution, were strikes on national defense projects.

Tex DeWeese, managing editor of The Pampa News, was elected president of the association at the afternoon session yesterday. He was vice-president last year.

Amarillo was again selected as the 1942 convention city, the date to be April 10-11.

Wes Izard of Amarillo was named as the new vice-president, and Clyde W. Warwick, publisher of the Canyon News, for the 29th time was re-elected secretary.

Trophy Given Warwick

In recognition of Mr. Warwick's long service, he was presented a bronze photograph plaque. The presentation was made by Ed Bishop, publisher of the Dalhart News.

Yesterday morning's program consisted of music by the Blackburn-Shaw quartet of Amarillo, with Douglas Meador presiding; talk, "Meeting the Polks I Like," by Otto Bordenkrichter of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

"Radio and Newspaper in Co-operation," by DeWitt Landis of KYPO Lubbock, with the discussion led by Richard Hensley, general manager of the Clovis, N. M., News-Journal; "Better Plants—Better Printing," by Herschel Combs of the Wellington Leader.

A luncheon at noon, courtesy of the Amarillo News-Globe, at which John McCarty was toastmaster, preceded the election of officers.

Anti-Convoy Bill Languished In Senate Committee

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP)—Although concentrating upon getting action on the Tobby anti-convoy resolution, senate foes of the administration's foreign policy have not lost sight of another measure which several of them introduced jointly.

It is a resolution requiring approval in a national referendum before any American air, naval, or land forces could be sent outside the Western hemisphere and American possessions. Like the anti-convoy resolution introduced by Senator Tobby (R-N.H.), it is languishing in the Senate Foreign Relations committee.

Interested senators said today they planned an active campaign to get it before the senate soon as the convoy legislation has been disposed of. They reported, too, the receipt of much mail urging the adoption of the referendum measure.

As the convoy resolution is now worded, it would prohibit the use of American naval units as escorts for ships carrying war supplies. Some of its backers, conceding there was little chance for its adoption in that form, devised an alternative today under which convoys could be ordered only with the approval of congress.

Senator Nye (R-N.D.), said he would introduce it and push it in the Foreign Relations committee as a compromise for the Tobby measure.

Diaper-Wielding To Be Taught Grandma

NEW YORK, April 19, (AP)—Classes for expectant mothers are old stuff in this modern age and classes for expectant grandmothers are new or less common. But classes for expectant grandmothers—never!

That's what you'd expect most grandmothers would say—who ever heard grandmas acknowledge she didn't know all there was to know about babies?—But it's already happened. The first such class heard of hearabouts opened at the maternity center association today and 25 women, most of them mothers of daughters expecting babies, attended.

"Some grandmothers," said association director Hazel Corbin, "are very set in their ways and think what was good for their babies still is good for theirs. Well, it doesn't."

The idea of the class, she added, was to train the grandmothers in the modern way of baby-tending—such as applying the up-to-date square diaper instead of the old-fashioned three-cornered one—and to help adjust the point of view of families for baby's arrival.

World's "Cold Pole"

The cold pole of the earth is said to be at the Siberian town of Verkhoyansk, where the temperature goes down to 160 degrees below zero, Fahrenheit.

Federal and state gasoline taxes, standing at an estimated $1,116,000,000, amount to 60 per cent of the 1940 automotive burden.

Operators And Miners Turn Down Perkins' Plea To Open Coal Mines

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP)—Secretary Perkins, making an appeal in the name of national defense, asked today that soft coal production in northern mines be resumed Tuesday, but her request was turned down by both the CIO United Mine workers and northern operators.

In a telegram to the UMW and the northern operators, who reached an agreement on wages several days ago, Miss Perkins said that "in the public interest as well as in the public safety" the northern mines should be reopened despite failure of the UMW to reach an agreement with southern operators.

To the southern mine owners—who withdrew a week ago from the eight-state Appalachian wage conference in New York—she telegraphed a request that they "meet promptly" with union officials "for the purpose of negotiating and reaching an early agreement."

Then she ordered the labor department's chief conciliator, Dr. John R. Steelman, to hurry back from New York.

Here telegrams brought these replies:

John L. Lewis, UMW president, said his union was "not inclined to divide the mine worker forces" (apparently by having northern workers go back to the mines while negotiations for the southern fields continued.) He said the UMW was willing to resume negotiations, if the southern operators went to New York. And he added that if the government could arrange a re-summation of negotiations it would be "logical to assume" an agreement could be reached within two or three days.

The southern operators renewed a previous offer to meet union spokesmen in Washington, but not as part of the general wage negotiations in New York.

The northern operators contended that Appalachian area mines constituted a "single unit" and that "as businessmen it is essential that the wages paid and conditions of their employment throughout the area be made upon an equitable basis."

With some vital defense plants already facing a fuel shortage, Miss Perkins emphasized the emergency character of the situation in her telegrams.

Scout Board Of Review Will Be Held Monday Night

Regular Boy Scout board of review, at which time boys may make application for advancement in rank, above first class, and for merit badges, will be held Monday night at 7:30 o'clock in the Boy Scout office in the city hall.

V. Darnell, chairman, will preside.

A large group of Gray county Scouts is expected to attend the board so that they will be eligible to attend the Ladder Court of Honor in May. Position of troops on the court ladder will depend on the number of boys advancing in rank, the number of merit badges each troop receives, attendance at the court and attendance of parents at the court of honor.

Mrs. Roy Coston Will Head Pampa Pythian Sisters

Pampa Temple 41, an auxiliary to the Knights of Pythias, was instituted in the Pythian Castle hall here last Thursday evening. Seventeen ladies and 15 knights were obligated following a buffet supper at 7 o'clock, then initiated by a corps of officers from Lubbock and Wichita Falls. A degree staff of eight ladies from Plains Temple 135 at Lubbock exemptified floor work and ritualistic drills.

Mrs. Lella Schaffli, grand chief of Texas, of Seguin, represented the grand temple in her official capacity. Mrs. Ina Bell Ater, district deputy grand chief for the Plains and Panhandle, of Lubbock, was the instituting officer. She introduced the grand temple officers and visiting ladies, then surrendered her gavel to Mrs. Jeannette Hensley, past grand chief, of Santa Anna, who directed the initiation of candidates and installed the officers.

The grand chief presented gifts to Mrs. Ater and to Mr. Fann in recognition of their work in organizing the Pampa temple.

Mrs. Virginia Fann of Lubbock, mother of Maxine Fann, chancellor commander of the local Pythian lodge, was initiated as a charter member of the Pampa temple, and was elected to the honorary position of senior past chief. She will also serve this temple as its installing officer. Mrs. Bob Cecil was elected junior past chief; in this capacity she will be the grand temple representative and deputy of this subordinate lodge.

Mrs. Roy Boston will serve the temple for the remainder of this calendar year as its most excellent chief. As the presiding officer, she will be the alternate representative to grand temple which convenes in Beaumont at the time of the convention of the Grand Lodge of Texas, Knights of Pythias.

Other temple officers are as follows: Mrs. R. M. Johnson, excellent senior; Mrs. Roy Dyson, excellent junior; Mrs. Maurice Robinson, manager; Mrs. Ernest Gee, mistress of records and correspondence; Mrs. Sammie Turner, mistress of finance; Mrs. T. G. Green, protector of the temple; Mrs. Ray Barnard, guard.

Trustees who will serve for one, two, and three years, respectively, are: Mrs. Harvey Downs, C. F. Bastion, and John McKay. Mrs. Ivan Reeder will be the drill captain; her assistants are Mrs. Tracy Cary and Harold Heffner. Mrs. Jack McKay will fill the capacity of press correspondent.

The installing officers were Mrs. Jewel Evans and Sarah Brown of Wichita Falls; and the following from Lubbock: Mrs. J. H. Hackfield, Elbert Dresser, Russell Hardin, A. C. Cope, and J. W. Phillips. The Lubbock degree staff was composed of Mrs. John Crawford, C. H. Tisdell, Lloyd Ricketts, Ethel Lindsay, T. J. George, Bob Ingram, J. D. Corcoran, and Earl Taylor.

The following members of Pampa Lodge 480, Knights of Pythias, were initiated as associate members: Maurice Robinson, Sammie Turner, Ernest Gee, T. G. Green, Mose Johnson, Tracy Cary, Harold Heffner, Ray Barnard, Ivan Reeder, Roy Coston, Russell Kennedy, C. F. Bastion, Bob Cecil, and Maxine Fann. The Rev. E. Lee Stanford of Miami, a member of Lubbock Lodge No. 486, was also initiated. Visiting knights were Dr. G. H. Ater, grand prelate of Texas, J. H. Hackfield and John Crawford, all of Lubbock.

The new organization will hold its first meeting in the Wynne-Merten building next Monday evening. Regular meeting nights have not yet been selected.

Janitor Conesses Incinerator Murder

AKRON, O., April 19 (AP)—Police tonight pressed a 38-year-old church janitor for details of a scuffle which preceded incineration of pretty Ruth Zwicker's body, meantime linking him with a second woman's death and with the investigation into the killing of still another.

Detective Inspector Verne Cross announced today that Janitor Albert B. Lukens had confessed stuffing the body of the 23-year-old North Hill Methodist church Easter morning after she refused him a kiss. Cross said he was not satisfied fully with Lukens' story and would continue questioning him over the weekend.

Lukens' story, as announced by the inspector, was this:

He scuffled with the young music teacher the morning before Easter when he asked her for a kiss and she declined. Her head struck the church piano at which she had been practicing. After going to lunch, Lukens dragged her to a coal bin. Her body was warm, but he did not know whether she was alive.

Easter morning, 20 hours later, he found her head and dress were bloody. He built a fire and jammed the body into the boiler firebox.

Rockport Oil Man Senate Candidate

AUSTIN, Tex., April 19 (AP)—Pitching his candidacy on a program of national security, including an "immediate declaration of war on Germany and Italy," John C. Williams of Rockport, a former naval officer, announced today he would seek the U.S. senatorial seat of the late Morris Sheppard.

The 45 year old oil man and graduate of the U.S. Naval academy said in a statement he also advocated:

Creation of a separate air force with a secretary for aviation in the president's cabinet.

Administration and full payment of social security programs, including old age assistance, by the federal government.

Guard Can Be Called To Duty At Texas Points

Questions Pampans have been asking in connection with the Texas Defense Guard were answered in a letter received here recently from Neill H. Bamister, Lieutenant colonel, infantry, assistant to the adjutant general, Austin.

Pampa has a company of the Guard, commanded by E. J. Dungan Jr., as captain, Carl M. Smith, first lieutenant, and Roy Bourland, second lieutenant. It is a part of the 14th battalion.

Guard members receive no pay except when called out by the governor to serve in such emergencies as are provided by law. No compensation is allowed for drill. The Pampa company drills twice a week.

When called out, the defense guardsmen receive the same rate of pay as the Texas National Guard.

Service in the TDG is not intended to jeopardize a man in his employment.

Honorable discharges may be granted upon the recommendation of a unit commander in cases where a man's service interferes with his job.

The Texas Defense Guard, formed to take the place of the Texas National Guard while it is in camp, can be called into service at any point in Texas, but it is not anticipated that units will be called away from their home station.

Due to the cost of transportation in moving troops, and the fact there are 200 units so located to be of service in their immediate vicinity, it is unlikely that it will ever be necessary to call troops from one area to serve at some distant point, from their home station.

Transportation, meals, lodgings, compensation, and hospitalization, in case of wounds or disablement, will be provided by the state.

Last Enemy Will Be Beaten, Say Nazi Commanders

BERLIN, April 19, (AP)—Commanders of the German forces of the air, land and sea proclaimed tonight a new slogan in a message to their men: "The last enemy, too, will be beaten!"

The last enemy for Germany is Britain.

The following messages also were sent to the forces on the eve of Adolf Hitler's 52nd birthday:

From Reichsmarschal Hermann Wilhelm Goering to the air force: "Your blows strike the enemy in the heart."

From Field Marshal General Walter Von Brauchitsch to the army: "Our lives belong to Germany."

From Grand Admiral Eric Raeder to the navy: "Great victories at sea have been accomplished; more will follow."

Britains Maintain African Offensive

CAIRO, April 19, (AP)—The strengthened army of the Nile and the royal air force pursued the offensive in North Africa tonight against the Axis motorized forces which have come to a virtual standstill in their drive toward the Suez Canal.

In an engagement with an Axis motor convoy near the Egyptian frontier port of Salum, a communiqué said, British mobile units aided by the RAF damaged a number of vehicles, including an armored car, and unharmd units retreated at full speed.

(A British broadcast heard by CBS in New York, said "there are no reports from North Africa of any renewed efforts of the Germans to continue their push east of Tobruk."

Reports from the Libyan front said British airmen constantly harassed the enemy in the Tobruk region.

In east Africa the movement of British troops converging upon Dessye, Ethiopia, was slowed up somewhat by road damage, but to the south, the British said, the advance of other imperial forces was progressing satisfactorily and many additional prisoners were taken.

FDR Intervenes In Defense Strikes

(By The Associated Press)

President Roosevelt and his secretary of labor intervened respectively yesterday (Saturday) in labor relations problems of the shipbuilding and coal mining industries, both vital to national defense.

Miss Perkins was rebuffed in a request for resumption of soft coal production from northern mines next Tuesday. There was no immediate reaction to Mr. Roosevelt's move.

The chief executive, at his Hyde Park, N. Y., home, urged Pacific coast shipyard managers and workers to ratify "a coastwide master contract for wages. Such an agreement would be effective for the duration of the national emergency.

Through a secretary, Mr. Roosevelt said that adoption of the plan—a proposal of the office of production management—would result in speeding up the whole shipbuilding program and set a precedent for eastern yards.

The secretary, William D. Hassett, said that a tentative agreement had been reached, but that "a minority group in Seattle is attempting to block ratification."

6 Regulars, 11 Squadmen Report For Grid Practice

Seventeen boys from last year's Pampa Harvester football squad reported for spring football practice Friday afternoon. Six of them were members of the starting lineup.

In all, 53 boys were in uniform and two or three others are expected to be on hand Monday. Jack Davis, last year's junior high Peewee coach, is assisting Coach Buck Prejan until Mac Best, new backfield coach, arrives, probably early this week. Best is at present coach at Hereford.

Last year's Gorillas, coached by Oscar Hinger, and junior high Reapers, coached by C. P. McWright, are expected to give the returning squadmen plenty of trouble. Both the Gorillas and Reapers were the best teams in the class in recent years.

Coach Prejan announced yesterday that there is going to be no fooling around about scholastics this year. Any boy behind in his class work will not be allowed to work out with the team until he has gotten in good standing. There'll be no "making up" at the end of the week or semester. Every boy must keep his work up to par at all times if he stays at school and doesn't work out. Then, if someone beats his time at his position, it will be his own fault that he's lost out.

Harvesters are going to train and keep in training. Coach Prejan announced. Those unable to stand the stuff will be dropped.

Coach Prejan has five lettermen in the line and one in the backfield with which to start the season, but none of them have their jobs clinched. They've got to keep on batting or some up and coming Reaper or Gorilla will take over.

Returning will be Co-Captains Roland Phillips, tackle, and Ralph Burnett, guard, Leslie Burge, center, John Chesser, tackle, and Wayne Ott, end. Only backfield starter will be Bill Arthur, halfback.

Room 63 Beats 106 B For Third Place In Tournament

Most intramural softball fans in junior high agree that Room 63 has the most unpredictable team in the tournament. Thursday they lost a one-sided affair to Room 77, but Friday it was a different story. Playing heads-up ball, Coach Evan Jones' "Little Redas" clocked out a 9 to 8 victory over Room 106 B and took third place honors in the Junior High Intramural Softball tournament.

The game was a see-saw affair with Room 106 B having a little the best of it until Room 63 came to bat in the last half of the last inning and bombarded pitcher Billy Eldkins for enough hits to win the ball game. Trailing by three scores, Christian college as a "thriller diller" which will long be remembered. Duane Hogsett was aided in the rally by his brother Derrell, Dale Irving, J. B. Horn, Clifford Jones, and Ernest Hoyler. Jones tied the game up when he doubled and sent Horn and Derrell Hogsett across home plate. With cheers ringing in his ears, Ernest Hoyler walked nonchalantly up to the plate, took two called strikes and then slammed out a double to bring Jones in with the winning tally.

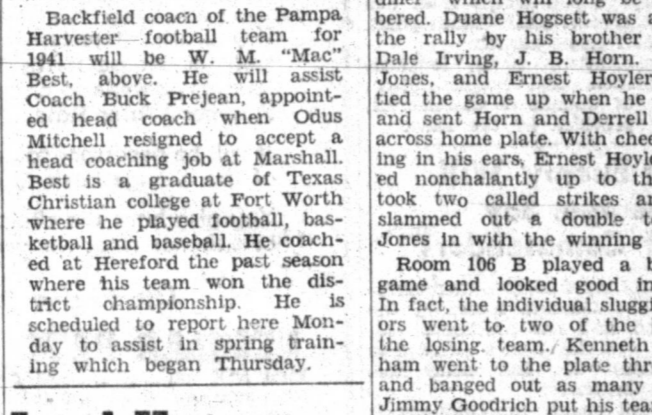

Room 106 B played a bang up game and looked good in losing. In fact, the individual slugging honors went to two of the boys on the losing team, Kenneth Grant-ham went to the plate three times and banged out as many doubles. Jimmy Goodrich put his team ahead in the third inning when he hit a home run with the bases loaded. Warren Fatheree, Eugene Ferguson, Alvin Dezer, and Wayne Fable also hit safely for the losers.

Julian Hicks allowed 8 hits in winning his second game of the tournament. Lee Hutchens and Charles Johnston got one hit each and played errorless ball in the outfield. Howard Kelly and Clifford Jones had perfect batting averages for the day. The winners will be staged by a group of local horsemen with admission 10 cents.

Besides the races there will be a goat roping contest. The boys have secured six fleet goats on which to try their skill.

There was to have been polo practice, too, but yesterday the Lobos accepted an invitation to play a game in Dohart. Making the trip will be Captain Hub Burrow, Bud Mooney, Mose Wiginton, Billy Stockstill and Red Horton.

The Lobos have practiced only two or three times this season and are not ready for play. Dohart couldn't get another team for Sunday so the Lobos accepted.

Assistant Coach W. M. 'Mac' Best. He will assist Coach Buck Prejan, appointed head coach when Odus Mitchell resigned to accept a head coaching job at Marshall. Best is a graduate of Texas Christian college at Fort Worth where he played football, basketball and baseball. He coached at Hereford the past season where his team won the district championship. He is scheduled to report here Monday to assist in spring training which began Thursday.

Local Horsemen To Show Skill At Park Today

Potato race, clear race, relay race and a straight dash, all on horseback, will be presented at Recreation park Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The unusual events will be staged by a group of local horsemen with admission 10 cents.

Longhorns Smash Mustangs 14 to 3

AUSTIN, April 19. (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorns slapped Southern Methodist university further down the percentage columns today with a 14 to 3 victory in a southwest conference baseball game. Eudell Moore went the route for the Steers but gave up 10 hits. Brooks Atchison, S.M.U.'s ace moundman, was relieved in the seventh with 12 hits and 10 runs chalked against him.

A barrage of Texas hits tied the game in the seventh.

31 Reapers Report For Grid Training

Coach C. P. McWright has 31 boys out of his junior high Reapers football team, and Billy Coy Sheehan was with last year's championship team. Another 1940 Reaper, Bill White, is eligible but he hasn't reported. The rest of the squad is with the Harvesters.

Coach Dick Livingston, who was in charge of the Reapers and is in charge of the Harvesters, is assisting Coach McWright in spring training.

Most of last year's sensational Peewees, coached by Jack Davis, are out for the Reapers and it is they who will comprise the 1941 Reaper team.

Coach McWright believes he has some good backs, outstanding ends, good tackles coming up but he is worried about guards and a center. He has a couple of 175 pound tackles in Lewis Allen and Eugene Turner and if they come through the line should be strong.

Johnny Campbell, Robert Custer and Dee Griffin are coming up from the Peewees for backfield men while Dee Griffin, Randall Clay and Bobby Siler are outstanding ends.

Reapers in uniform include Billy Sheehan, Joe Cree, Charley Hatcher, Randall Schultz, Dee Griffin, Eddie Pipkin, Billy Bird, Lewis Allen, Donald Gray, James Hester, Don Howe, Virgil Fish, Walter Wilson, Jackie Fletcher, Jack Dunham, James Perry, Johnny Campbell, Clifford Howard, Eugene Turner, Herly Lane, Billy Gethings, Robert Custer, James Noll, Russell Nee, Randall Clay, Charles Johnston, Dean Lovell, Wayne Proper, Byron Buck, Gene Lane, Bobby Siler.

Why are there charges on some checking accounts?

It is a banking fundamental that each account should pay its own way. When the activity of an account (checks drawn and deposits made) raises the cost of handling above the earnings of the free balance (the portion available for investment), it becomes necessary to make a charge for the service. We will gladly compute the free balance needed to carry your normal checking activity without a service charge.

All Athletes Falter Except Hoosiers At Kansas Relays

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
LAWRENCE, Kas., April 19. (AP)—A chilling wind and a track as heavy as a bride's first cake called a halt to all the athletes except those from Indiana and Texas today at the Nineteenth Annual University of Kansas relays.

Two records were improved upon, both by members of the script from Hoosierland.

A spectacular half-mile by Campbell Kane, national champion, brought Indiana a time of 3:25.2 in the spring medley and Archie Harris, their negro football star, tossed the circus between guts for a mark of 71 feet, 6 3/4 inches.

Kane was timed at 1:51.1 for his anchor lap. He took the baton 29 yards behind Mac Umstedt, Texas sophomore, and finished a stride and a half in front.

Their duel down the straightaway into the stiff breeze cut one-tenth of a second from the mark set by Oklahoma last year, but was one and two-tenths second slower than the world mark the same Texan created only two weeks ago.

Other than those instances, the elements protected the record book. The track was heavy from an easterly morning wind and the infield was greasy with the south wind so strong it was necessary to hold the pole vault cross bar on its pegs while the athletes leaped.

Only other approach to a record was the 100 A Carlton Terry, Texas sprinter, accomplished in the 100-yard dash. He was pushed all the way by the wind and crossed the finish in exactly the same time by Leland, Texas Christian, did in 1930.

Coach (Bill) Harjio, coach of the Kansas team, said he believed Terry's effort would not be recognized because of the assistance from the wind.

Harris, encased in a sweat suit to ward off the cold, made his record on the final heave, sailing the platter aloft across the football field and on to the track on the far side.

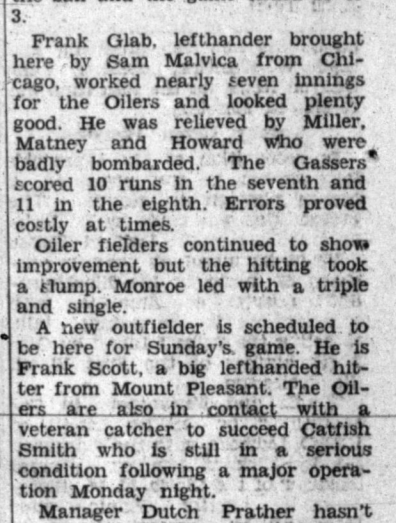

He eclipsed the former record of 154 feet on an earlier attempt, getting inches better than 164 feet that time in his personal duel with Jack Hughes of Texas, twice winner of the title here.

Last June Harris edged out the Texan for the National Collegiate crown at Minneapolis.

On the whole, the wind and cold seemed to trouble the athletes from the state of Texas less than anyone else.

The Longhorn squad won the 440-yard and half-mile relays in addition to their second behind the record-breaking Hoosiers in the sprint medley. North Texas State gobbled up the blue ribbons in the college division with wins in the half and two-mile relays.

Kay Pearson Wins Women's Golf Title

BY WILLIAM T. RIVES
The Associated Press
GALVESTON, Tex., April 19.—Stocky Kay Pearson of Houston, who has solved the intricacies of two major sports, won the Texas Women's Golf association championship today, smothering Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth 8 and 7.

Miss Pearson, former National Intercollegiate tennis titleist, assumed the study of golf only four-and-a-half years ago, but her game today was that of a born champion.

With almost monotonous precision she blew around the country club course, while Mrs. Goldthwaite, defending champion, found a bushel of trouble from left to green.

The victory brought Miss Pearson her biggest conquest since she took up the links and broke the monopoly on Texas Women's golf which Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite and Betty Jameson of San Antonio, the National champion, had held for seven of the past eight years.

For Mrs. Goldthwaite, defeat was bitter. She had hoped to make this her fourth state title, which would bring her a tie with Miss Jameson for championships won.

More Than 200 Enrolled Here In Defense Training

Training in three branches of national defense occupation is in effect in Pampa now, through classes formed here under the state department of vocational education of which James R. D. Eddy is head.

Most popular of the classes is the one providing training in acetylene welding. There are 52 men taking this course, which started February 17, will end July 1.

A majority of the students are oil field workers. Classes are held from 7 to 11 p. m. on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday night, and at the same hours on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday at Pampa High school.

Ground School
Pampa's airport and the high school are the location of classrooms for the civilian pilot training program. There are 120 enrolled, taking ground school work. The class started March 1 and meets from six to eight hours a week.

Training in welding in relation to commercial light aircraft is another course. There are 45 enrolled. Classes are held at the high school, 30 hours a week, 7 a. m. to 1 p. m., 1 p. m. to 7 p. m., Mondays through Fridays.

This training is a part of the program for out-of-school non-rural youth, 17 to 25 years old.

USES Cooperates
All of these courses are under the state department of education. C. Malcolm Davis is the coordinator for Gray county.

In cooperating with the courses is the United States Employment service, an office of which is located in Pampa, with Lonnie Hood as manager.

Throughout the nation there are 1,500 full-time and 3,000 part-time employment offices run by the states in cooperation with the United States Employment service. While some employers continue to recruit workers only through their own personnel departments, more and more employers are utilizing the free services of the public employment offices.

These agencies are making surveys of available labor and recruiting skilled and non-skilled workers for private manufacturers, working on army, navy, and other defense contracts. In addition, they are cooperating with the civil service commission in finding skilled workers for jobs in navy yards, arsenals, and related federal defense establishments.

Through the nation-wide coordinating machinery of the United States Employment service, skilled workers who are registered in any one locality are notified of need for workers in other localities which cannot be met there.

200-To-1 Shot Wins Excelsior Handicap Race

NEW YORK, April 19. (AP)—The New York end of the Kentucky derby became as scrambled as your breakfast eggs today.

The highly-rated Dispose and Curious Coin, kings of the three year olds in the Florida winter campaigning and high up among the derby favorites, looked like a pair of selling platters in one feature on Jamaica's program. And in the other Robert Morris, a colt mentioned only with snickers up to a week ago—a 200-1 shot in the first week-book Calover—won like a champion the hard way, against older horses.

The performances of Dispose, Curious Coin and Victor Emmanuel's Omission, the only three derby eligibles in the six-horse field of the experimental handicap sprint—and the only three to finish out of the money was a shock to the racing world generally, except probably the fellows operating winter books. They thought it was just dandy.

Dispose, Richard Kieberg's winner of the Flamingo and Bahamas stakes at Hialeah last winter and backed down to co-choice at 4-1 in the derby futures, finished dead last, 16 lengths back of the victorious Mettleome, without showing the faintest lick of speed at any time.

Omission, stake winner at Bowie only a week ago, wound up fifth after an even trip. And Curious Coin, standard bearer of the Coldstream stud, who chased Dispose home in both the Bahamas and the Flamingo, came in fourth. Mettleome, who was not nominated by

Spurgeon Bell Of Houston Appointed State's Attorney

AUSTIN, April 19. (AP)—Thirty-three-year-old Spurgeon Bell of Houston today became state's attorney in the court of criminal appeals.

Bell is a native of Gatesville, and former resident of Austin and Texarkana. He graduate from the University of Texas law school in 1933, and practiced law in Houston for three years. He is a former attorney for the Home Owners Loan corporation, assistant criminal district attorney of Harris county, and first assistant attorney for the City of Houston.

Davidson, long the prosecutor in the state's highest criminal tribunal, succeeded George Christian who died this week.

Tax Bill Debate To Start Tuesday

AUSTIN, April 19. (AP)—Senate debate on the $23,661,000 general tax bill, starting Tuesday, wins top billing in the legislature next week although it is but one of several elements which will shape the final record of the 47th session.

Disposal of the revenue raising bill bears importantly on Governor W. Lee O'Daniel's future plans—whether or not he will run for the United States Senate—and the speed with which it is handled should be something of a gauge to the length of the session, less than a month removed from the 120-day mark.

Senate action on the tax bill should have great impact on the governor's five-point program, the success of which he recently advised would help him reach a decision about the senate race.

He has not said publicly whether the finance committee-approved bill, nearly $2,000,000 weaker in estimated revenue-producing power than the house version, meets his favor.

The upper chamber is at liberty to reversion it and in fact there is much talk about new and substitute provisions, including a state income tax.

French Claim Nazis Seized 53 Vessels

(By The Associated Press)
 VICHY, France, April 19—Fifty-three ships of nearly 240,000 tons have been requisitioned from France in recent months, reliable informants said today, bringing at least one open demand that the government be firm and set a limit to such action.

(The cable did not say so, but the Germans apparently requisitioned the ships perhaps to transport Axis men and supplies to Africa.)

The trans-Atlantic French liner De Grasse, 18,453 tons, heads the list of the ships reported requisitioned. Others include the Mexique, 12,200 tons; the Kerguelen, 10,133; the Vendee, 9,153; the Flandre, 8,571; and the Yangtze, 8,150.

This is the first figure on requisitioned means of transportation since it was learned that by last February 140,000 out of 450,000 French freight cars had been requisitioned, and that 240,000 of the remainder had been concentrated in occupied France. (These cars were requisitioned by the German authorities.)

Le Temps, the influential newspaper, called early this week for governmental "firmness" to set "limits to the requisitioning."

The two 30-foot bronze winged figures that adorn Boulder Dam are believed to be the largest single bronzes ever cast in one piece.

Suez Canal Is Still 'Open' To Axis Vessels If They Don't Mind Those Unhospitable British Warships

BY NEA SERVICE
 NEW YORK, April 19—Picture the Panama Canal in enemy hands and you'll have a pretty good idea of what it would mean to Britain if the German drive on the Suez Canal should succeed.

In both cases an alternate sea route, thousands of miles longer, is available to freighters and warships. But speed is success in bitterling warfare. And the Suez Canal cuts almost 5000 miles of precious time for supply-laden freighters hurrying from Britain's arsenals in the East to their besieged mother country.

Small wonder that this 100-mile ribbon of blue, only 197 feet from desert bank to desert bank at its narrowest point and but 37 feet to its shallowest bottom, has so often been called Britain's "life-line" of empire.

In the light of present-day developments, it seems hard to believe that when, in the middle 1850's, the great French engineer Ferdinand de Lesseps tried to interest British capital in a canal between the Mediterranean and the Red Sea, Britain not only bought no stock but tried to discourage the whole project.

De Lesseps had obtained permission from the Egyptian government to form a private company (Compagnie Universelle du Canal Maritime de Suez) to build a canal in 1854. It was to be built without cost to Egypt and to become Egyptian property after 99 years. (Unless some new agreement is arrived at, the canal will revert to Egypt in 1954.)

Actual construction on the Suez Canal was begun on April 25, 1859. It took ten long years and $80,000,000 (Panama Canal cost: $375,000,000) before, in November, 1869, the French Empress, on her yacht L'Albatre, led a flag-bedecked fleet of 68 ships through the long, narrow waterway that was to become the world's busiest maritime canal. Panama has sometimes run Suez a very close second.

It was not until six years later that the British government, in the person of the legendary, farsighted Disraeli, obtained an interest in the Suez Canal company. In that year Britain's prime minister, knowing that the Khedive of Egypt was in need of cash, paid $20,000,000 for the Khedive's 176,602 shares of canal stock—44 per cent of the total stock.

Since that time, although France has 19 of the company's 32 directors to Britain's ten (two are Egyptian, one Dutch), the Suez Canal has been primarily a British ditch. In 1938, 6171 ships, 3020 of them flying the union jack, carried over 50,000,000 gross tons between Port Said and Port Tewfik. They brought Britain petroleum from Iran (22 per cent of all Britain's petroleum imports); tin and rubber from Malaya; jute, manganese, rice, tea and cotton from India.

By the Suez Canal convention of 1888, the waterway was "always to be free and open, in time of war as in time of peace, to every vessel of commerce or of war... As in the days of the first World War, Suez is open in theory today. But the presence of powerful British naval squadrons at either end effectively discourages Axis shipping from taking advantage of the terms of the Canal convention. Since the fall of France, the British have taken over the collection of all canal tolls and have sent the money to London for distribution after the war.

KPDN Radio Chat

By BILL BROWNE
 This column has commented before about the favorable comments that Kathryn Carver and her 10 o'clock cooking school class has been getting from KPDN listeners. Well, last night a number of the staff members at the station, including the oversigned, enjoyed munching on the finished product of some of Kathryn's recipes. So, take it from them as knows, you won't go wrong on a Kathryn Carver recipe. The woman is a genius.

And, if you are of the more adventurous type, try some of Don's Dainty Dipsy Doodle ideas, too. He was there, foot tub and all!

Claudia Bengel next Wednesday is going to devote her program to "What's Doing Around Borger." So you folks who have friends over there in Borger, be listening Wednesday morning at 9:15 and maybe you'll hear about them.

A lot of Pampa radio listeners have complained that too many "soap operas" in the middle of the afternoon make life miserable for them. Well, it is for these people that KPDN has arranged a new full-hour program of dance music from 2:30 to 3:30 each day. You'll like this music. It is being taken from new additions to the KPDN music library.

The American Family Robinson has been moved to 2:15 o'clock each Tuesday and Thursday. The Robinsons are going Hollywood now.

The man on the street is now "The Man About Town." Listen in at 11:45 each morning and hear him wandering over Pampa. He pops up in a new place practically every day.

The new announcer you've heard during the past week is Lester Aldrich, Pampa, voice teacher. Bob Morris has been helping out quite a bit in the mornings. His new job at Danciger's keeps him occupied in the afternoons. What he does with his spare time has not been revealed.

The ladies' clubs in Pampa have been cooperating with the Police department for one week now in presenting speakers for the 5-minute police broadcast at 12 o'clock over KPDN each day. Speakers last week were Mrs. H. B. Landrum, representing the Delphian society; Mrs. Carl Boston of the City Council of the Parent-Teachers association; Mrs. Frank Hall of the Federated Council of Church Women; Mrs. Julia Kelley, county home demonstration agent; Mrs. Frank Culberson, Girl Scout commissioner; and Mrs. Joe Ecy, representing the Twentieth Century Culture club.

Freeman, Waco, 4; W. P. (Bill) Hood, Wichita Falls, 5; Ray Christopher, Brownfield, 6; and Morris Galatzan, El Paso, 7.

28 Nazis In Internment Camp Escape

(By The Associated Press)
 PORT AUTHOR, Ont., April 19—Soldiers, mounties and the hardy Finns of the Lake Superior bush country hunted tonight for the remainder of 28 Nazi air raiders who tunneled out of their internment camp last midnight in a break believed timed to coincide with the Hitler birthday week-end.

Nine of the prisoners, most of them non-commissioned air officers captured during raids on London, were rounded up today amid the tangle of evergreens and rocks about the northwestern Ontario camp.

Col. H. E. Stethem, director of internment operations, authorized the hunters to "use any force necessary" to capture the rest.

The Canadian Pacific railway line, the only route of the country to the United States, was guarded heavily. The break was discovered at 1 a. m. today. This was a few hours before a special guard was to have been put on duty at all internment camps in Canada to prevent any trouble in token of Adolf Hitler's 52nd birthday Sunday.

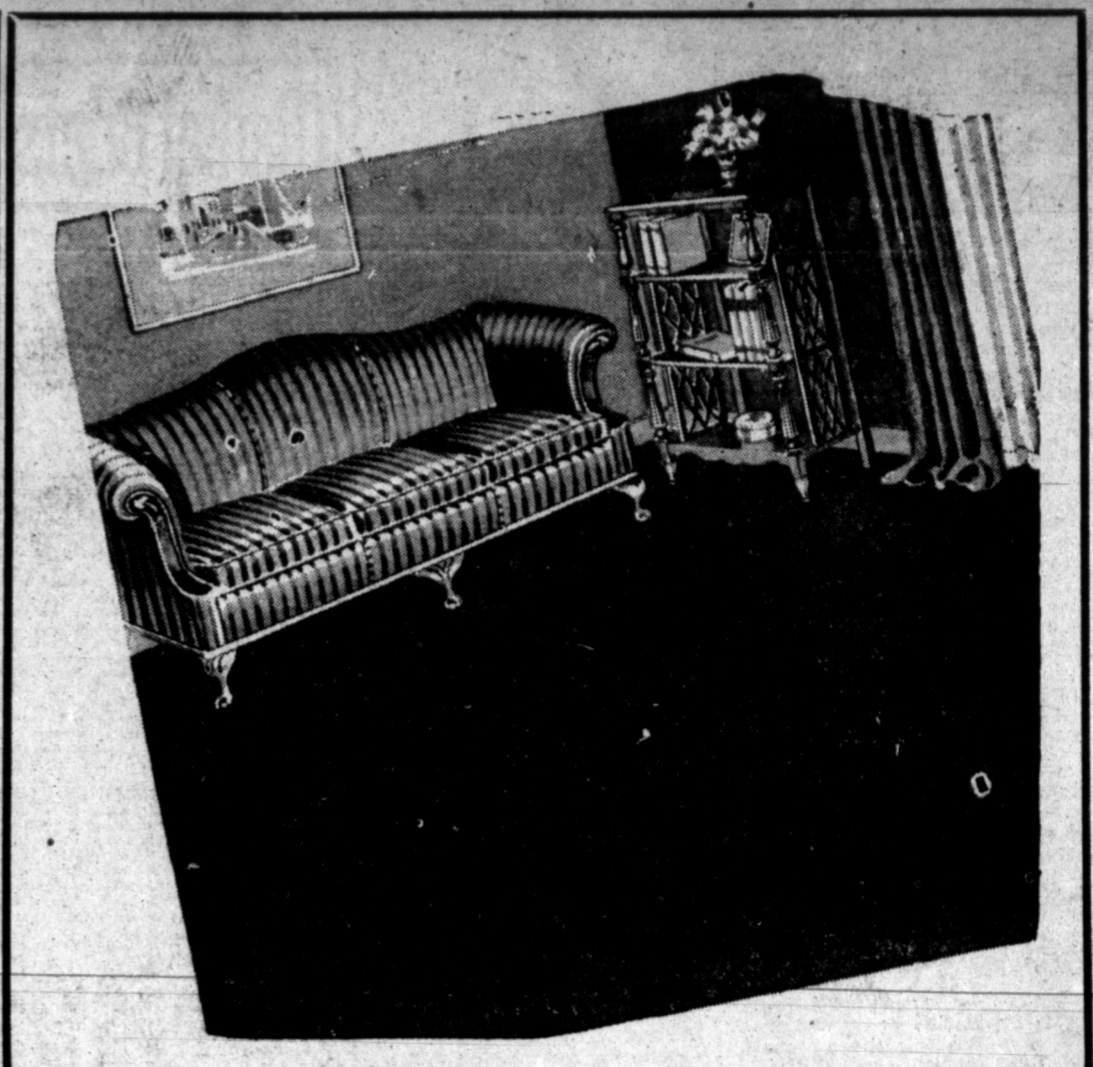

Consequently officials expressed the belief that the break had been long planned for just that purpose. Although the figure brought to 51 the number of attempts to break away from Canadian internment authorities since the first German prisoners-of-war were brought here, only one of the previous escapes is at large. He is Baron Franz Von Werra, who dropped from a prison train and made his way to the United States, where he now is free on bail on a charge of illegal entry.

Nazi Raiders In Far Pacific Driven Out, Claims Aussie

SAN PEDRO, Calif., April 19 (AP)—Lieut.-Col. Lawrence M. Cosgrave, Canadian trade commissioner to Australia, declared today that four-motored Consolidated bombers had sunk or driven out of action German commerce raiders operating in the far Pacific.

Colonel Cosgrave arrived on the Matson-oceanic liner Monterey, en route to Ottawa.

He reported great strides in war production in Australia, adding: "We put many German experts, interned at the start of the war, to work designing tools and planes for defense of the empire."

Principal Speaks At Monthly Junior High P-TA Meeting

At the monthly meeting of Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association held last week in the high school, Mrs. E. A. Eaton presided over the session in which 16 delegates were elected to the district conference at Dumas last Thursday and Friday.

The devotional, "Parental Duty," by Mrs. Euri Graham preceded the Lord's Prayer by the group. Miss Richardson's tumbling team of 12 girls entertained with a demonstration.

In discussing "Junior High School," Principal Frank Monroe said that the reason for a Junior High school in Pampa is to relieve congestion in the ward schools, to increase attention to the pupils, to utilize the old high school, to bridge an age gap, and to begin pre-vocational courses of training.

"Junior High school is a development period where pupils are beginning to explore. The activity periods of Junior High school are made for this means. This year the library service, under the direction of Miss Inez Shaw, has been most useful; the geometric design class taught by Bob Carter, a merit badge club under the direction of Flaude Gallman, and an archery club directed by Carol Killebrew, have been helpful. During these club activity periods students may choose an activity and follow it through.

"The development period remedial reading drill has been beneficial. One hundred and seventy-five entering Junior High are taking this drill and after six months an average of one and a half year's improvement has been shown. Seven teachers, Miss Ruth Barton, Mr. Gallman, Miss Violet Durrett, Mrs. Jack Stroup, Mrs. John L. Rahkin, Miss Pool, and B. R. Coltharp, give the drills and Miss Ethelene Murrell gives the tests and scores in September and March," Mr. Monroe concluded.

Mrs. Stroup's room received the attendance award.

P-TA SPEAKER

Principal Frank Monroe of Junior High school, spoke at the monthly meeting of Junior High Parent-Teacher association on the topic, "Junior High School." Also at the business session, which preceded the program, 16 delegates were elected to represent the unit at the district conference in Dumas.

Famous Gardens To Be Shown In Colored Movies

Colored movies of famous American gardens interspersed with comments on gardens she has visited throughout the world, will be presented by Mrs. E. W. Hardin of Amarillo next Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the city club rooms under the sponsorship of the American Association of University Women. This will be the final program in the organization's monthly arts series and will be open to the public for a small admission charge.

Mrs. Hardin has visited many of the loveliest garden spots of the nation and made motion pictures of them when they were at the height of their beauty. The azalea trail, camellia gardens, cypress gardens, Middleton gardens, and other famous gardens in Washington, D. C., Charleston, Jacksonville, and New Orleans will be among those shown.

Mrs. Hardin, who with her husband has visited nearly every country of the world, making pictures wherever she went, is in much demand throughout the Panhandle for her illustrated travel talks. This past week she presented her garden pictures in Pampa, Green, Memphis, and Clovis. Pamphans who have heard her say she is a delightful speaker.

Tuesday evening the regular monthly meeting of A.A.U.W. will be held in the city club rooms at 8 o'clock with Miss Jessie Bumpass as leader of a program on "National Defenses." She will be assisted by Miss Lola Campbell and Mrs. J. D. Beach. Officers for next year will be installed, and Mrs. V. P. Sheldon, president-elect, and Mrs. F. E. Leech will give highlights from the state convention which they recently attended at Abilene. Prospective members of A.A.U.W. are invited to attend this meeting.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. J. B. White, Mrs. Hugh V. Anderson, and Miss Viola Shaffer.

The executive committee will meet in the city club rooms at 7:15 o'clock preceding the general meeting Tuesday evening.

The Million group will meet at the home of Mrs. F. E. Leech next Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. The lesson will be book six of "Paradise Lost."

Other meetings planned for the remainder of the club year, in addition to the regular meetings of the study groups, are the annual bride's breakfast at the Schneider hotel on May 3 and the annual reception honoring the high school girl graduates and their mothers in the city club rooms on the evening of May 20.

The United States does an annual business of $1,000,000,000 in the production of chickens and eggs.

"CHEERS FOR MISS BISHOP" SEEN AS SURE CONTENDER OF 1941 BEST ROLL

Martha Scott Superb In UA Picture; Eugene O'Neill's Powerful Sea Saga, "The Long Voyage Home," Brought To Screen; Carmen Miranda Sparks Technicolor's "Night In Rio"; Whalen In Jack London Story

By BROWNWOOD EMERSON

Box score on the topners: "Cheers For Miss Bishop," (United Artists), Martha Scott, William Gargan, Edmund Gwenn, Sidney Blackmer, Dorothy Peterson, Mary Anderson. Directed by Tay Garnett. From the novel "Miss Bishop" by Bess Streeter Aldrich. Screen adaptation by Stephen Vincent Benet. At the LaNora Friday and Saturday.

"The Long Voyage Home" (UA-Wanger), John Wayne, Thomas Mitchell, Ian Hunter. One hundred and five minutes. Directed by John Ford. Eugene O'Neill's brilliantly directed sea saga recounting the voyage of a British tramp from the West Indies to Baltimore, thence to England, with a cargo of munitions. A Nazi bomber swoops down off the English coast, machine-guns the vessel, killing Hunter who is going home to his wife and children.

"A splendid document of blue water and life thereon—diary of excitement, drudgery, animal instincts, tenderness, strength and weakness, hope and fear," comments The Film Daily. At the Rex Wednesday and Thursday.

Glamor

"That Night in Rio" (20th-Fox), with Alice Faye, Don Ameche, Carmen Miranda. Lavishly mounted Technicolor film musical. Running time, 90 minutes. Ameche plays dual role, Alice Faye, beautiful to look at, acts with finesse. Miranda, the brunet Brazilian bombshell provides most of fireworks, as when she sings a song she gives it everything from the top of her head to her toenails. Current at the LaNora.

True To Life

A story of adventure that only the master pen of Jack London could have written is "Sign of the Wolf," picture current at the Crown. Grace Bradley and Michael Whalen have the leading roles.

London lived the life he wrote about. He knew what was before he ever put it down in writing. That's why films adapted from his books always ring the bell.

Opening the week at the Rex is a return showing of "Paramount's Northwest Mounted Police," featuring lanky Gary Cooper as the Texas Ranger who rides to Canada and gets his man—but loses the girl, Madeleine Carroll. There's beautiful scenery of the Canadian woods, Indians, some good brags, and some keen humor in the adventure yarn.

Hopalong Rides Again

William Boyd hops from the Bar-26 to Hopalong some more in another of the Clarence E. Mulford-Harry Sherman-Paramount sagebrush operas, "Border Vigilante," on the Rex screen Friday and Saturday. The title tells the story.

Boyd, by the way, is about to temporarily forsake the cactus country settings to appear in "Sheik of Buffalo Butte," local Arabia, according to The Film Daily.

"Hoppy" has appeared only once before in non-native backgrounds. That occasion was in "Law of the Pampas," an Argentine story. (Out of state papers please note: this town's name is without the S.)

The soft voice of Myrna Loy, the expression she puts into her eyes, are enough to keep the adventures billowing over this page—just as she had an ounce of acting ability—of which she has most decidedly.

Definitely on the plus side is her acting in Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Third Finger, Left Hand," in which she is teamed with Melvyn Douglas. It is a thoroughly entertaining comedy of a marital mix-up in which Myrna, fashion magazine editor, invents a husband in order to protect her job. Then the gag backfires when Melvyn discovers the husband to be a myth, turns up at her home, and pretends to be the mysterious mate.

It's on the State screen today and tomorrow.

Jewel Thieves

Adventure in South America, full of international jewel bandits, adventuresses, army officers, and sophisticated are in the plot of Paramount's "Adventure in Diamonds," with George Brent and Isa Miranda, on the State screen Tuesday.

South Sea Typhoon "Destry" Dietrich ranges the South Sea Isles, leaving romantic trouble all around in Universal's "Seven Sinners," with John Wayne, playing the leading male role. It's at the State Wednesday and Thursday.

Every once in a while a socko picture gets a fast booking here and is shown without much advance publicity. Such was the case in RKO Radio's "The Devil and Miss Jones," the pic that opened last week at the Crown.

From the amusing forward to the convincing serious scenes this was solid entertainment. There was rich drama in the plight of Charles Coburn as the imperialist, compelled to submit meekly to a martinet section manager in a department store.

Jean Arthur did a whale of a job and Robert Cummings neatly filled the juvenile lead.

The ad writer made a ten-strike in his accurate description: "the gayest, freshest, brightest comedy romance you could ever hope for," directed by the men who gave you "Kitty Foy" and written by the author of "Mr. and Mrs. Smith."

This was the first effort of the Frank Ross and Norman Krasna

GLITTERING TECHNICOLOR MUSICAL

A bombshell of color, music, and "colossalness" - is 20th-Fox's "That Night in Rio," opening a four-day run today at the LaNora. A panoramic scene from the Technicolor musical starring Alice Faye, Don Ameche, and Carmen Miranda, and the supporting members of the cast amidst the lavish surroundings of Rio's swanky Club Samba is shown above.

JACK LONDON STORY AT CROWN

Red blooded adventure in the Northlands is seen in "Sign of the Wolf," Jack London story, opening a three-day run today at the Crown. Michael Whalen and Grace Bradley have the leading roles.

UNFORGETTABLE LOVE STORY

Comedy and humor are contributed by Dorothy Peterson, Martha Scott, and Donald Douglas in this sequence from Richard A. Rowland's "Cheers For Miss Bishop," the stirring film romance on the LaNora Friday and Saturday.

Coffey Will Attend Detroit Meeting

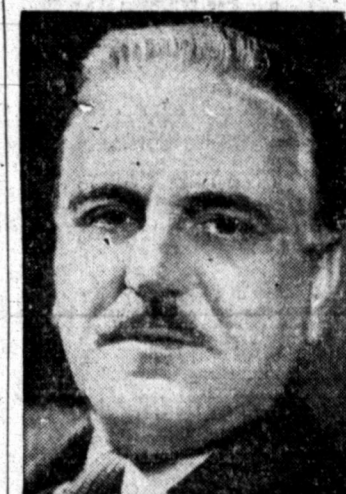

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. (Doc.) Coffey are enroute today to Detroit, Mich., where on Monday and Tuesday Mr. Coffey will attend a merchandising conference of 48 dealer sales managers and eight of the Pontiac Motor division's district managers.

Marine Recruiting Officer Will Be In Pampa Monday

Marine Corps Recruiting Sergeant Lon F. Rowlett is scheduled to be in Pampa Monday and Tuesday to interview youths in this section of the Panhandle who desire to enlist in the Marine Corps, and also in the Marine Corps reserve.

PHILANTHROPIST

Timely is the word for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Washington Melodrama," adventure tale against the background of a nation preparing for Democracy's defense. Intrigue, mystery, and locality in the city of magnificent distances are packed into the plot of the picture on the LaNora screen Thursday. Frank Morgan, above, has the role of Calvin Grayson, millionaire philanthropist (who else can be one except a millionaire?) who leads a fight to send American food to European war victims.

By imprinting the dough with their fingers in their own individual patterns, Arabs of Morocco brand their bread as ranchers do cattle. They do not bake the bread at home—but in neighborhood bakeries. The dough is left on the door-step for any passerby to carry to the bakery, and then claimed there by the brands on the loaves.

SERIAL STORY

BY OREN ARNOLD

LOVE POWER

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY: Carolyn breaks a dinner date with Red. He goes to work again. Dr. Hale has decided to transfer to the isolated farmhouse, well out of the city. There is danger of an explosion. When the substitute truck driver sees the armed guards, then the little heavy box that is to transport the car, he thinks the idea is silly. Carolyn is worried, but Robert assures her this method of moving it will excite less suspicion.

DELANEY GETS CURIOUS

CHAPTER V

UNANSWERED questions in the mind of Mr. Spud Delaney, substitute driver for the Metropolitan Transfer Company, nagged at his curiosity for a full half hour while he edged his truck in and out of the city's traffic. Technically he should have taken the truck route down Commerce street, which would have been faster, but this was midnight and by going straight through town he could stop over by the furniture factory and have a late beer with Red Cragin. It was only 30 miles to the farmhouse anyway, so why hurry?

He pulled up in front of Cragin's "Red Spot," which was just a shanty saloon catering to factory workers by day and chance motorists by night. The place would have been closed for lack of business, except that Red also slept there. Red was willing to chin with Spud Delaney. They had more than one beer; at least Spud did. It was past 1 when Spud left Red's bar, singing. He was not drunk—he was too smart to get drunk on any driving job—but he wasn't depressed, either. He had a good new cigar in his hand. He climbed up to his truck cab and turned to face Red again.

"Red, I got the nuttiest load I ever heard of," he declared sarcastically. "Big, my two fists, settin' on cotton."

"What is it?"

"Hell, they ain't told me! A two-ton truck and a two-bit package. Heavy, though. I hefted it. Going to a farmer, and all." She couldn't quite phrase her feelings about the strange events on this new job. Things had an air of mystery about them; vague, but inseparable.

"Of course. I appreciate your interest, Miss Tyler."

"Would you like to call me Carolyn? I'd prefer it. At least when we are away from the office. 'Miss Tyler' sort of old maids me!"

He suddenly smiled. "Why—yes! They were at the nearby drive-in cafe now and he turned to her as he parked. He had a

"Yeah!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Huh!" Spud grunted. "Got a metal lid two inches thick or better. Wire handle."

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

"Lift it. Go on!"

full view of her merry eyes again. "Yes, Carolyn. What a lovely name it is!"

She might have thrilled a bit to that except that she had come now to know Dr. Hale better. His enthusiasm was the same he might have expressed at a successfully worked equation in chemistry. Or was it? She ventured one quick, quizzical glance at him again, and again met his eyes.

That flustered her. Her, Carolyn Tyler, who thought herself entirely sophisticated about such personal trivia! She had to laugh aloud, at herself.

"It's good to relax with you," he went on. "You don't act so eternally formal, like—well like Leana. You know what I mean. And as for names, mine is Bob."

"You are my employer," she reminded him.

"Not here. Not here, Carolyn! I—please! Last night you showed me something. Showed me the great value of relaxing from work. I had almost forgotten. A bit of gaiety, of dancing, of smiling, please let that be a part of your job!"

He was so earnest with his pleading that she was suddenly touched by it. Obviously a gentle being at heart. They talked for a quarter-hour, rather personally, and she learned or at least deduced easily that Bob's only intimate companion for the past year or so had been the brilliant Leana Sormi. He all but confessed acute loneliness despite his fame.

WHEN he had left her at home she went quietly to her room and put on pajamas of blue silk, then she sat on the edge of her bed with one knee hugged up under her chin. Staring unseeing at the floor, she reconstructed the past two days.

A new job, a sensational new job; an even more sensational new secret and the trust it involved. The responsibility assailed her, and the personality of Bob Hale was an influential thing. She had a sense of confusion but it was a delightful, stimulating sort of feeling even so, enough to make her live in constant anticipation.

She had no idea how long she had thus sat meditating when, abruptly, a not-too-distant roar reverberated through the room. Her very bedroom shook.

"Goodness!" she exclaimed, face suddenly taut.

Immediately her mother called from the next room.

"Carolyn, was that thunder? It seemed so loud!"

Carolyn did not answer. She knew the night sky had been clear and starry.

SHAMROCK, April 19—Bennett Clark, son of Judge and Mrs. J. B. Clark, will be valedictorian of the 1941 Shamrock high school graduating class according to announcement by W. C. Perkins, superintendent.

Young Clark has made the highest possible grades during his high school career. He was rated straight A in every subject for the entire four years. Only once before has the valedictorian of the Shamrock school made all A's and that was last year when Roy Holmes accomplished the feat.

Mayon Goodrich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Goodrich, and Kathleen Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Rose, tied for the salutatory honors with each having only one B in their four years of high school work.

The grades of these pupils are unusually high and along with their excellent class work each of these have been popular and active in the school life.

Clark is outstanding in basketball and track and established a new record in the North Plains Track and Field meet held in Claude last Saturday when he high jumped 5 feet 11 inches. He is also an Eagle Scout.

Miss Goodrich is fashion editor of the Campus Mirror, high school paper, has competed in the district meet in typing and short hard and took part in the Latin tournament this year.

Miss Rose is managing editor of the Campus Mirror and a popular student in the school.

Discoverer Of Dr. Pepper Dies

DALLAS, April 19 (AP)—The death of Robert Sherman Lazenby, 74, well-known chemist and discoverer of the formula for the soft drink, Dr. Pepper, occurred Thursday at his home.

Funeral services were conducted here at 4 p. m. yesterday, with President Humphrey Lee of Southern Methodist university officiating.

Lazenby, who was for nearly 40 years president of the Dr. Pepper company, retired from active business in 1935, but he continued the study of chemistry. He recently completed a successful experiment in the Rio Grande valley for the government whereby certain important vitamins were developed in grapefruit.

He was a native of Johnson county, and lived in Waco virtually all his life. He moved to Dallas two years ago.

Defective vision afflicted him as a child, but despite that handicap he studied intensively to become a chemist. It was while studying pharmacy at Paris that he hit upon the formula for Dr. Pepper, named after a man who befriended him. His interest in carbonated beverages brought him national attention as an authority on the subject.

He was one of the men who put up funds for the establishment of Southern Methodist university in 1915, from then on he took a keen interest in the development of that institution. He is survived by his widow, whom he married in Fort Worth, 49 years ago. Other survivors include four daughters, Mrs. J. B. O'Hara of Dallas, Mrs. Sherman L. Brown of Atlanta, Ga., Mrs. W. E. Harvin of Houston and Mrs. Benjamin H. Adams of Kingston, N. Y.

Not A Criminal Case Filed Here In Last Month
 For nearly a month, not a single criminal case has been filed in either one of the two Pampa justice of peace courts.

The county's jail population is also down to a low level. Only 12 persons were in the jail this morning. Two of the 12 are awaiting the "chain drag." They are Charlie Guyton, under a two-year sentence for forgery, Willie Parks, 99 years, on a murder charge.

Guyton has been in jail since August 8 of this year, Parks since February 7, 1940.

Panhandle Woman Endorsed By Conway Club For HD Office

PANHANDLE, April 19—The Conway Home Demonstration club has endorsed one of its pioneer clubwomen, Mrs. Charles Walker, of Panhandle, as a candidate for district vice-president, highest ranking office of 22 counties comprising the district.

All other clubs of Carson county have endorsed Mrs. Walker one hundred per cent.

The election will be held at the First Methodist church in Pampa, Monday. A large delegation of clubwomen from the county plan to attend.

Mrs. Walker has co-operated with or demonstrated all phases of work carried on in the county. As clothing demonstrator in 1930, she won first place in the county, and was awarded a trip to the short course at College Station, and an excursion trip to Galveston.

Besides having served as the various officers of her club, she was secretary and later chairman of the Reporters and Photographers Association, and reporter of the County Council.

At present, Mrs. Walker is council chairman, serving as such for the second year. She is district secretary, having been elected at the meeting held in Amarillo last year.

She is a member of the county land use planning committee, and represented that organization at the state land use planning meeting at College Station, where she was sent as a delegate to the state meeting of the home demonstration association in July, 1940.

In addition to home demonstration work, Mrs. Walker is active in Red Cross, church, and Parent-Teacher organizations. She is a member of the board of trustees of the Carson county free library, and is secretary and vice-president-elect of the Carson County Federation of Women's clubs.

 CANYON, April 19—A new road from Umberger south to Buffalo lake, near here, has been completed except for topping.

A popular resort for two years following its completion, Buffalo lake must have spring rainfall to raise the water level sufficiently for boating. Jim Golden, concessionaire, says his plans for the tourist season will depend upon the lake's rise in the next two months.

It was pointed out that the law makes the employer responsible for maintaining a record of the employee's name, account number, and wages and for reporting them correctly to the government. The next quarterly social security tax return is due on or before April 30, and should be sent to the United States Collector of Internal Revenue, Dallas, Texas.

Practically all employees have now learned the importance of correctly reporting their employee's account numbers and names as well as their wages. Reed said, however, that occasionally an employee's account number will be missing from an employer's report, or the number will be slightly incorrect, or the employee's name will be spelled wrong. Business, Daffodils
 LONDON, April 19 (AP)—Battered by Wednesday night's worst air raid of the war, but still relaxed, the central and west end of London blossomed today with a new crop of daffodils and "business as usual" signs.

The only shops not open were those wrecked by bombs and fire. Behind shattered windows clerks were busy with customers who thronged the streets in as great a number as ever.

Many streets closed to traffic yesterday were open today, with the movement of all kinds of vehicles brisk.

"Business?" said one weary salesman, "Why, it's excellent. Good as last year, I would say."
