Outlines Of 'Peace Plan' Due Monday

Syria Becomes Chip On Shoulders of British, Nazis

(By The Associated Press) German troops were reported marching in Moldavia, eastern province of Rumania facing the Soviet Ukraine, today (Sunday) as developments in the Balkans and middle east indicated the slow gathering of forces for the opening of a new phase of the war.

Other Axis men and machines, it was indicated, were continuing a steady infiltration into Syria, the French-ruled territory which seemed fated to be the next battleground in the German and Italian effort to push Britain out of the Mediterranean.

A British news agency, Reuters, reported from Turkey that blue-gray Nazis were being moved out to positions facing the Red army in Russia.

Partial confirmation of something astir in the Balkans was reported in a Hungarian radio broadcast, which said Rumania was taking extraordinary military precautions, mobilizing troops, building air raid shelters and drastically curtailing ordinary railway passenger traffic.

The precautions, the radio said, were especially noticeable in Moldavia.

These reports followed a British radio statement that Berlin newspaper correspondents had been instructed to hold themselves in readiness for an important announcement Monday on Soviet-German relations.

Authorized German sources, however, characterized the report as "nonsense" and foreign correspondents there said they had not heard of any important forthcoming announcement.

Other British radio reports told of flights of German and Italian aircraft toward Syria, with a number of planes forced down in Turkish territory. One big German flying boat was reported shot down near the Dardanelles by Turkish anti-aircraft batteries.

The Italian government announced last week that the large German air force based on the island of Sicily was being moved to other bases.

A German troop ship also was reported at Salonika, in Greece, ready to sail in a day or two, and British airmen said they had spotted large troop concentrations at Rhodes, Italian Dodecanese islands east of Crete.

The British radio report that Hitler has ready an important announcement regarding the Soviet did not hint at its nature.

The report, however, recalled dispatches Thursday from Ankara, Turkey, that Germany was putting heavy pressure on the Soviet union for access to rich wheat granaries of the Ukraine, by concentrating 150 German and Rumanian divisions for a joint, German-Rumanian invasion of the Soviet by mid-June.

A quick denial came from Berlin the next day, an authorized spokesman declaring: "Be assured of no political earthquake in that region."

Furthermore, there came reports from Nizhny, France, last week that instead of getting ready to fight Russia, Hitler had met secretly with Joseph Stalin and agreed upon a program of collaboration by which Russia would undertake to deliver bread to a Hitler-dominated Europe.

A hint that something might be stirring in southeastern Europe was seen in a Bucharest announcement of a drastic curtailment of passenger train service, effective this Sunday, to clear the tracks for heavy freight traffic.

The need for heavy movement of freight was given as the reason for the curtailment, but observers speculated on the possibility of important military movements—either against Russia or through the Black Sea against the British in the middle east—which might require the utmost use of rail facilities.

Possibility of another Axis declaration this week came from Rome with the summoning of the Italian Chamber of Fasces and Guilds, which has replaced the Chamber of Deputies in the Fascist regime, to meet in special session June 10, the first anniversary of Italy's entrance into the war.

Travis Lively thinking out loud Friday afternoon as the rain fell. "Well, there's one thing to say about the Panhandle, she does things in a big way. When it rains, it sure rains. When it's dry, it's mighty dry. When the wind blows, it really blows."

News About State Clubs And Fiesta

Members of the Georgia state society will meet at 8 o'clock Tuesday night at the Huffman-Nelson Funeral home.

The Sooners will have their final meeting before the Fiesta when the Oklahomans meet at 8 o'clock Tuesday night in the district court room. A big turnout is asked. Everyone is to turn in unsold buttons, and a complete and final report on money raised will be required.

Natives of the Bayou state, Louisiana, have started rolling the ball. Tuesday night they're going to meet again in the city commission room in the city hall to complete plans for their float, consider electing a queen, and make other plans. Yesterday, Mrs. Bell Wells and Evelyn Auld, natives of Louisiana, and Leslie Hart, collared Louisianans in this community and made them promise to attend the meeting Tuesday night. Hundreds of Louisianans live in this section, and they are all invited to attend the meeting.

The ribbons started it. Dozens of native state clubs as soon as they organized, ordered ribbons with the name of their state printed on them, and started selling them and that's how they are financing their clubs, which have floated in the past on the various states are more than anxious to buy and wear the ribbons and contribute to the club expenses.

Natives of Arkansas are invited to attend a meeting Monday night in the district court room to complete organization of the Arkansas Society of the Panhandle, to plan their float in the Fiesta parade and to elect their queen. All candidates for the queen who will be natives of the beautiful Arkansas float are also urged to attend the meeting. Ribbons have been printed and these will be sold at 25 cents each to "Arkansawyers."

The ribbons are printed on red silk, with white letters. Elmer Irving, Jaycee sponsor, and numerous Arkansans are calling the meeting.

Dozens of native state clubs have organized, raised money for their floats, elected queens, attended dozens of meetings, but thus far, L. H. Beck, Johnson, Ohio sponsor for the Jaycees, have not been able to get a rise out of the Buckeyes. So he is wondering if they really are proud of their native state which has furnished more U. S. presidents than any state in the union except Virginia. Anyway, he expects to find out Monday night when he and Mrs. J. B. Townsend and Tex DeWeese, natives of Ohio, have scheduled a meeting of native Ohioans in the district courtroom at 8 o'clock. The big idea is to organize, elect permanent officers, plan their float and elect a queen. More than 50 native Ohioans have registered for the Fiesta the theme of which will be patriotic unity.

The Michigan Society of the Panhandle of six active members yesterday.

ONE OF FREE FIREWORKS SIGHTS

Patriotic Fireworks Will Open Fiesta

The silver fountain, shown above, is one of the 17 attractions Pampanos will see Thursday night at Recreation park, as a part of a patriotic fireworks display, which will be featured by "Bombing of London."

All through the show beautiful colored shells will trace the sky at regular intervals.

In the finale, bombs will burst in the sky and on the ground. The city lights up. Then a plane is heard in the distance. It comes over and bombs a part of the city.

There is a direct hit and the plane comes falling to the ground.

In rapid succession will come the playing from the sound truck of "God Bless America." As this fades into the darkness, there will be seen Old Glory waving in the breeze, while a band on the sound truck plays the national anthem.

The display will be concluded with the firing of "Good Night." Tribute To Mothers Another feature of the display will be the Mothers Gold Star, a beautiful star spreading golden flickers of fire in memory of the Gold Star mothers of World War I.

Other parts of the display will be the flying pigeon, ground illuminators, sea of fire, jewel jet fountain, whistle wheel, golden glory, fairy circle, rising sun, cat fight, mystic circles, cave of jewels, battle of the tanks, Niagara Falls, and the devil wheel.

The fireworks will be presented in front of the grandstand. There will be no admission charge. After the display, dances will begin at the high school gym and at the southern club.

Violent Winds Sweep Across Oklahoma, Texas

(By The Associated Press) Violent rain and windstorms sweeping southeastward across Texas and Oklahoma, taking one life and doing untold damage to crops, dipped into Louisiana Saturday and killed three persons near DeQuincy.

The twisting wind destroyed a house in the town near the Texas-Louisiana line, flinging the bodies of its victims between 100 and 150 yards. Two other persons were injured.

Firemen in motor boats patrolled mile-wide Pine Oak creek near Smithville, Tenn., plucking several families from tree and roof tops and ferrying them to safety. Nearly three inches of rain sent the stream roaring to flood stage.

Heavy rains north of Smithville sent the Colorado river on a 12-foot rise.

A cloudburst dumped an inch of rain on Fort Arthur in 15 minutes. In 75 minutes the total was 2.50 inches.

Beaumont had a two-inch rain that filled city streets from curb to curb, taxing to capacity overloaded drainage ditches. The rain was accompanied by an electrical storm and high wind, but no serious damage was reported.

Land, roads and crops were badly washed in spots near Athens when nearly six inches of rain fell in 24 hours. Roads were inundated in the Austin vicinity after the Friday night storm that left a near-record precipitation of more than eight inches.

Some highways in the Lubbock-Plainview area were still under water, and the Trinity river at Dallas was again at flood stage.

Dead in Louisiana were Mrs. David Mahaffey, her three-year-old son, and Alonzo Smith, 17. Injured were Willie Smith and a 62-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. David Mahaffey. W. E. Holbrook, president of the Calcasieu parish police jury, said bodies of the dead were thrown between 100 and 150 yards from the site of the house, and that a heavy cooking stove was blown a good distance away from the building. ## Fiesta Trippers To Visit North Plains

Pampa good will trippers, advertising the Top O' Texas Fols Fiesta, will take a swing through the north Panhandle Monday visiting Skellytown, Berger, Stinnett, Spearman, Perryton, Canadian and Miami. They'll leave the city hall at 8 a. m.

Fifty Pampanos made a long trip through White Deer, Panhandle, Claude, Clarendon, Memphis, Wellington, Shamrock, Wheeler and Mobeetle on Friday, inviting everyone to the fiesta Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The trippers missed showers until reaching Wheeler when they ran into one that kept them from entertaining the Wheeler folks.

Entertainment on the trip was furnished by Jeff Guthrie and his orchestra and by the Stark family. The same two musical organizations will accompany the group on Monday. Every business house in the city is asked to send a representative on the trip which will be in charge of Johnny Wells of the Jaycees and W. B. Weathered of the senior chamber.

The trip itinerary follows: Leave city hall at 8 a. m. Arrive Skellytown 8:30, leave 8:45. Arrive Berger 9:15, leave 9:45. Arrive Stinnett 10, leave 10:15. Arrive Spearman 11, leave 11:30. Arrive Perryton 12 noon, leave 1:15. (Dinner at Perryton). Arrive Canadian 2:15, leave 2:45. Arrive Miami 3:15, leave 3:45. Arrive Pampa 4:15.

Plant Seizure Being Planned By Congress

(By JACK BELL) WASHINGTON, June 6 (AP)—Senate Democratic and Republican leaders have agreed, authoritative sources said today, to rush enactment of legislation which would permit the government to take over a manufacturing plant if the secretary of war or navy certifies to the President that "an existing or threatened failure" of its production is hampering the armaments program.

This measure, drafted as an amendment to the selective service act, will be offered to the senate Monday, it was said, and immediate action will be sought.

The bill was described as not related to the North American Aviation case. The White House said today that President Roosevelt was prepared to take over this plant at Inglewood, Calif., if the strikers did not go to work Monday. He would act, it was said, under powers he has as commander-in-chief in a time of unlimited emergency.

Some legislators expressed the view, however, that enactment of the legislation would be a desirable clean-cut expression from congress, irrespective of whether it added to any powers Mr. Roosevelt now holds.

Administration leaders were said to have made two concessions to Republican backing for the measure: (1) An agreement to delay action on the war department's drastic property seizure bill.

(2) An agreement to support a Republican-sponsored amendment to the selective service act which would permit the President to defer the service of draft registrants who had reached their 28th birthday without being called.

Administration leaders had opposed fixing any age limit in the legislation, preferring to leave that wholly within the President's declaration.

The selective service act now authorizes the President to take over plants which "refuse" to produce goods needed for defense.

The new amendment, as presently drafted, was described in the following general terms: During the full emergency declared by the President on May 27, the chief executive could act through the war or navy department or any other agency he might designate, to take immediate possession and lease to the government, or operate personally or by contract, any plant or plants in which there was an existing or threatened failure of production. Neither strikes nor lockouts would be mentioned specifically.

Such plants would be defined as those already equipped, or which the secretary of war or navy held or operated by government, person or company, or which were being used as products of facilities required by the army, navy or maritime commission or "useful" in national defense.

The amendment also would carry a provision that the authority granted the President under its terms should be in addition and not in lieu of other legal authority already given him.

Seizure Of Plane Plants Threatened

President Says Army Would Operate Factory

INGLEWOOD, Calif., June 7 (AP)—Ranks of the CIO in the North American Aircraft corp., strike split wide open tonight as Richard T. Frankenstein, national head of the United Automobile Workers' Aircraft division, charged that the walkout was without authorization or approval.

Bitterly censuring the local membership in a nationwide broadcast, Frankenstein said: "I take this opportunity of serving notice on the Communists that they must keep their hands off the policies and the affairs of the aircraft division of the CIO here on the west coast."

His rebuff, delivered first at a conference with the local's strike committee, a few hours after President Roosevelt had ordered the plant reopened voluntarily Monday with the alternative of army action, brought the following comment from Elmer Freitag of the committee: "It is the unanimous opinion of the committee that the workers stay out until the 75-cent (per hour) minimum wage and the 10 cents an hour general raise are obtained."

Ironically, the workers involved did not hear the broadcast, which went east at 8:45 p. m. (CST), but could not be arranged on a western hookup until 11:15 p. m. (CST).

The cleavage threw the strike situation into mass meeting called for 1 p. m. (CST) tomorrow, when Frankenstein and Freitag, and supporters of each, will speak.

By RICHARD L. TURNER WASHINGTON, June 7 (AP)—President Roosevelt issued an ultimatum today to the North American Aviation Corporation strikers—go back to work on Monday or the government will seize the plant and the army will operate it.

Stephen T. Early, a presidential secretary, firmly and firmly made this announcement to newspapermen and told them that the documents necessary to this highly unusual action had already been drawn up. The President will sign them, he said, unless the strikers decide to resume work at a mass meeting scheduled for tomorrow night.

The papers would, in fact, have been signed late yesterday, he disclosed further, but at the last minute it was learned the meeting had been called and the President was advised there was a real chance that the workers themselves would decide to end the strike.

At the same time, Early revealed that Mr. Roosevelt was taking action to end a second strike—that in the San Francisco shipyards. A telegram was dispatched today to Harvey W. Brown, head of the International Marine Workers' (I.M.W.) asking him to appear at the White House.

Virginia West To Be West Virginia In Fiesta Parade

Virginia West will be West Virginia. To be exact, she will be West Virginia's queen who will represent the state and ride on the state float in the Top O' Texas Fols Fiesta parades next Friday and Saturday.

Miss Virginia Lee West was elected West Virginia queen at a meeting of the West Virginia society, held Friday night in the county court room. Another meeting of the society is scheduled for 8 o'clock Tuesday night at the same place.

C. S. (Red) Moore, West Virginia society chairman, appointed two committees to meet Friday night in the county court room. Another meeting of the society is scheduled for 8 o'clock Tuesday night at the same place.

Conley is the son of an ex-governor of the state. Betty Jeanne Hewitt, as princess, will ride on the society's float with the queen.

Crawford Atkinson To Take Office As Lions President

Crawford Atkinson will take office as head of the Pampa Lions Club for 1941-42 at the club's first meeting next month which will be held on July 3.

As president, Atkinson succeeds Carl Benefiel, who has the odd distinction of having served as president, then automatically becoming vice-president, then president once again as he succeeds Joe Burrow who, being a reserve army officer, was called into service.

Other officers elected were Charles Laska, lion tamer, Dr. Malcolm Brown, tall twister, and W. E. James, secretary-treasurer.

James succeeds Roy McMillen, who has served four consecutive years as secretary-treasurer. The retiring tall twister is Dr. Adrian Owens, retiring tamer, Ralph Dunbar.

Other business taken up at the club's regular weekly luncheon Thursday was the distribution of Soap Box derby ticket books to members of the club for sale. There were 57 books of tickets issued. Each book contains 10 tickets, for sale to spectators of the third annual Pampa News-Pampa Lions Club Soap Box derby to be held here July 17-18.

NEWEST ADDITION TO PAMPA'S SKYLINE

Vantine's White Way Will Have Formal Opening Monday on W. Foster

Pampa's newest dining place, Vantine's White Way Drive Inn, 618 W. Foster, will hold its formal opening Monday from 2:30 to 8:30 p. m. Located on a 112 x 140 foot lot, the new building, gleaming in its whiteness, is of modernistic design, with an attractive tower outstanding, on which appears the sign of the place.

The building measures 68 x 41 feet, has seven large windows across the front, a novel curved portico, one entrance for curb girls, another for customers.

Entering the place, one finds on the west side of the 32-foot long dining room with total seating capacity of 55, in the nine booths and the club room at the north end of the room. The club room will seat 15 persons; is designed specially for private parties.

On the west of the door leading to the club room is the bus station, where coffee making equipment and a water fountain are located.

Blue Predominates

There are eight windows in the dining room which, plus the attractive color scheme used throughout, enhances the beauty as well as having the practical value of making the room as bright and shining as a new silver dollar.

Interior color scheme of the dining room is sky-blue, dark-blue, buff, gray-blue, and white. The linoleum floor is of light gray blue, walls are of sky blue, leather seats of the booths are of dark blue trimmed in buff, while venetian blinds are of white.

In one corner of the room is the pipe organ nickelodeon. Adjoining the dining room on the east is the lunch counter with its 12 stools. Interior of this room follows the general color scheme throughout the building, sky blue and white.

Spotless Kitchen

Immaculate in cleanliness is the kitchen, located east of the main room. There is absolute cleanliness and every precaution is taken to insure healthful conditions in the preparation of food.

The room contains three Star de luxe fryers, a potato peeler, charcoal broiler, and new dishes among other equipment.

Office of the Inn is located back of the kitchen. On the east side of the kitchen is the ice cream department; underneath, the basement storeroom, where 10 compressors are in use.

Foods Featured

Star items on the bill of fare are the Inn's ice cream, steaks, chicken, barbecue, White Way Specials and hamburgers, its fountain service and sandwichery.

In the ice cream department four storage boxes contain 235 gallons of ice cream. Total capacity of the department is 575 gallons. Vantine's make their own ice cream, and last year in the period from Easter to Labor Day, sold an average of 63½ gallons of frozen malt and ice cream a day.

There are 21 different flavors of ice cream that can be obtained at Vantine's. The most popular are vanilla, chocolate, strawberry, banana nut, and black walnut.

Delicious Steaks

Use of a charcoal broiler adds to the fine flavor of the beef, tenderloin, and sirloin steaks served at Vantine's.

The Inn uses only the best grade quality beef, and the best New York cut, sirloin, and baby beef tenderloin.

Steaks are placed on a tray in the charcoal broiler. On a shelf beneath a quantity of charcoal is placed. By use of cooking with charcoal, steaks are seared on both sides at the same time, hold flavor better, greasy substances are eliminated, and cooking is done faster.

Business 5 Years Old

It was on April 14, 1936, that Vantine's opened in a little 24 x 24 foot wooden building, which stood directly in front of where now stands the splendid modern building of the new Inn.

Ice cream was the specialty of the old business.

The building had only six counter stools, and there were only five in the personnel: Fred Andrews, sodaman, Hubert Dunham, cook; en building on the same location in 1936 to the fine Inn of today, measuring 68 feet long by 41 feet wide, and set upon a spacious 112 x 140 foot lot. The old building, forerunner of this splendid addition to Pampa's skyline, was located on a spot directly in front of the doors of the new. Mark and John Vantine, owners, have been receiving hundreds of congratulations from their friends on the beauty and efficiency of their new place.

Armoured Tank Inventor

Maj. Gen. Sir E. D. Swinton of the British army invented the armoured tank which first was used on the Somme, in France, Sept. 15, 1916.

January in England

The first month of 1940 was England's wettest January in 60 years. Normal rainfall is less than two inches; in that month some districts recorded 5½ inches.

Use 24 In Business

There are 24 in the personnel of the new business, of which John and Mark Vantine are the owners and operators. Employees, job, and length of service, are:

Alton Breithaupt, fountainer, two years; H. L. Ogan, fountainer, four months; Buster Cisco, assistant sodaman, six months; Herbert Trent, day chef, three weeks; Buddy Nobilit, night chef; Leonard Cockrell, cook, two years.

Bill Swerengen, bus boy, one year; Catherine Covington, cashier, three years; Hazel Skifis, cashier, one year; Louise Murphy, cashier, six months; Violet Kayava, cashier, six months; Pearl Vantine, cashier, five years.

Two Arrested On Vagrancy Charges

City police officers arrested two men on vagrancy charges Saturday morning. Both had been in the city jail before and their record of times arrested and fingerprinted reads like a fairy tale.

One of the men had been arrested and fingerprinted 65 times and the other 60 times, according to Federal Bureau of Investigation records on file at the police station. Usually after the first offense in a city the person arrested is not fingerprinted, officers said, which means that not more than half the arrests had been recorded.

One of the men had two new slacks suits wrapped in a newspaper and they were later identified as having been taken from the Montgomery Ward store here, officers said.

How do you do, Top O' Texas Folks?

Oh, that's the wrong script, isn't it? Well, while we're on the subject those Fiesta news broadcasts each day at 12:15 will be increasingly important this week. They are to continue right through the Fiesta and will, of course, conclude with Saturday's program.

Have you heard the new guessing-game program, "What Was the Year?" that comes on each evening at 6:15, the time formerly taken by "What's the Name of That Song." It requires a good memory for dates and incidents in history. Announcer Ray Monday reads some incidents, such as "It was the year of the Black Sox scandal," and then asks what year that was. Listeners start telephoning the answers, and the first one to give the right date gets a pass to the ball game. The incident mentioned are from all phases of history.

"What's the Name of That Song" has not been discontinued. It has changed its name and comes on each day Monday through Friday at 9:30 a. m. as "Tickets for Titles." Jerry Dunaway plays the songs on the piano, and the listeners wait until the program is over and then call in their guesses for all six of the songs she has played. The first two to guess all six correctly win baseball passes.

The premiums on the 8:30 program, "Where Am I?" have been changed from show tickets to cartons of soft drinks.

And on that five-minute program at 1 o'clock, "The Pause That Refreshes," more cartons of soft drinks will be given away. You all ought to be getting your ice boxes stocked this summer.

On Friday and Saturday, the Fiesta Parade days, the Light Crust Dough boys are to pay for Fiesta dances and are to ride in the parades. And each day after the parade they will visit the studios of KPDN and play a program over the air. Parker Wilson, Dolores Jo and all seven of the famous musicians will be up in the studios on those days.

The American Legion is to broadcast an important Flag Day program at 6:45 next Saturday evening from KPDN. It will be particularly worth while, coming as it does at a time when Top O' Texas community spirit is high during the Fiesta and national spirit is also high.

Ken Bennett is commanding a group of performers from the KPDN Staff Frolic cast to Amarillo Monday night to take part in the entertainment of the Lions assembled there for their state convention tomorrow night. Ken's own comical singing may steal the show, but those Frolic characters, Miss Blue, Herbert the Salesman, Boike and Cecil Bassington-Blinkinsop will also be there.

Locations And Completions Hold Nearly Even In Panhandle

Well To Be Drilled On School Land

Locations and completions held nearly even in the Panhandle field last week, 14 new locations being staked and 13 new wells being tested adding 2,146 barrels of oil to the field potential.

An interesting location was the Fain Johnston No. 1 Magic City school in section 38, block 24, H&GN survey. The test is on the southwest edge of the Magic City pool and on the location of the old Magic City school.

The W. H. Taylor Oil company, which re-explored the Taylor Ranch area six miles southwest of LeFors in central Gray county, bringing in a good well, has staked four new locations on top of the two they have drilling.

Fourteen new locations were staked in the field last week, bringing the total for the year to 384. Gray county was the hotspot with nine of the new locations, followed by Hutchinson with four and Wheeler with one.

Thirteen new oil wells were tested last week. Seven of the new wells were in Gray county and six in Hutchinson county.

The Humble Oil and Refining company's wildcat test in Hale county was reported drilling ahead at 5,550 feet Friday in shale and lime formation. The R. and J. Oil company wildcat in Potter county was at 1,100 feet after shutting off water.

Co. Rieger has apparently hit a good producer in his No. 3 Herring in the Price survey in Hutchinson county. The test, a mile and a half from production, swabbed 100 barrels in three hours cleaning out after a shot of nitroglycerine.

Back-From-Church Singing Festival Will Be Tonight

All young people of Pampa, including young people and seniors of all churches, have been invited to attend a back-from-church singing festival tonight from 9 until 10 o'clock at the Church of the Brethren, 600 North Frost street, two blocks north of the high school. Each young people's group is requested to bring its pastor.

In planning this occasion, nothing has been spared in an effort to make this an outstanding experience for all who attend. Arthur Nelson has consented to serve as director for the evening and Miss Pauline Stewart will be at the piano.

During the hour of inspirational singing there will be a number of selections of special music, both instrumental and vocal. Mr. Nelson will have his vibra-harp, Miss Margaret Thompson, instructor of stringed instruments in the Miami, Oklahoma, high school, will assist with her violin. The senior quartet of the First Baptist church, composed of Orene Alford, Virginia Covington, Gene Alford and Gordon Bayless, will sing.

All young people, whether connected with any church or not, are invited. Those who plan to attend are requested to be on time so as not to delay the program.

390 Million Barrels Of Oil Produced In Panhandle Since '25

A total of 390 million barrels of oil have been produced in the Panhandle field since 1925, R. T. McNally, in charge of production, for the Shell Petroleum company, told Pampa Kiwanians at the club's regular weekly luncheon at noon Friday.

Mr. McNally's speech was a classification talk on the oil industry. In his speech, Mr. McNally further said that the average production per well in the Panhandle field to date was 78,000 barrels, basing this figure on 5,900 wells.

Average potential production of Panhandle wells was 314 barrels per well, Mr. McNally stated. Allowable is now 17 $\frac{1}{2}$  barrels per day and the total field outlet 86,000 barrels a day.

Attendance at the luncheon was 45. Iranians have discarded the turban and the veil.

40,000 Expected To Attend Oil Show At Odessa June 21

ODESSA, June 7.—The more than 40,000 visitors, oil men, and oil field workers expected for the second annual Little International Oil Show in Odessa on June 21-22 will be privileged to witness absolutely free one of the most inclusive and elaborate safety shows ever presented in the United States. W. E. "Bill" Mosher, general chairman of the safety show, announced today.

Feature attraction of the safety show on Saturday, June 21, will be an industrial first aid contest, starting promptly at 3:30 p. m. in the spacious county auditorium with a stage 30 by 60 feet, an arena 60 by 90 feet, and a seating capacity of 2,750 persons.

Fifteen teams of six men each, from cities as far north as Borger and Phillips; from Breckenridge and Sweetwater on the east; and from New Mexico to the west; in addition to teams from the Permian Basin proper, will compete for substantial cash prizes to which will be added the entry fees of the contest.

T. D. Brown, safety specialist of the U. S. Bureau of Mines, has been stationed in this area by the bureau to work with the first aid teams for 45 days prior to the Little International Oil Show in preparation for the contest. Members of the teams are to be guests of the oil show at the de luxe barbecue on Saturday afternoon, June 21 and at the dances on the nights of the 20th and 21st, featuring big name bands.

Colonel Homer Garrison, chief of the State Department of Public Safety, Austin, and Captain George E. Schauer of the Texas Highway

Patrol will jointly have charge of a huge electrically operated and illuminated safety display, 9 feet in height and 50 feet in length. Not a motion picture, the display will present a sequence of illuminated scenes for the visitors.

The State Safety Patrol of Texas will during the two-day oil show present safety demonstrations in the auditorium by members of the patrol. Several reels of traffic safety motion pictures are scheduled for showing at regular intervals on the two days.

The National Safety Council is sending a representative from Chicago to the Little International Oil Show with hundreds of safety posters designed especially for this event. These posters will decorate the interior of the auditorium and furnish suitable atmosphere for the show.

The U. S. Bureau of Mines, in addition to taking an active part in the first aid contest, will have a mammoth safety exhibit, with trained personnel present to demonstrate the latest safety devices in all phases of work.

Exhibits of more than a dozen manufacturers of safety equipment and safety appliances will furnish additional interest at the gigantic, all-inclusive safety show, said Mosher, who has for the past 15 years devoted his energies and time to the program of safety for oil companies, city police and fire departments, and the State Department of Public Safety.

South Dakota Launched To 'Prevent War'

CAMDEN, N. J., June 7 (AP)—The United States' bid for unchallenged supremacy of the seas moved forward today with the launching of the 35,000-ton battleship South Dakota, which Secretary of the Navy Knox declared was built for the "prevention of war."

As the third battlewagon launched by the navy within a year and down the ways four months ahead of schedule, Knox asserted the giant ship "will make a tremendous contribution to the safety of the country and all the people in it."

Addressing the floating fortress directly, the secretary said: "Your mission, the mission for which we built you, is not for war, but for the prevention of war, if God wills."

Mrs. Harlan J. Bushfield, wife of the governor of South Dakota, smashed a bottle of champagne on its prow.

The vessel was still moving across the Delaware river as workmen at the New York Shipbuilding company yard laid the keel of the 10,000-ton cruiser Santa Fe on the same ways—symbolizing the speed of the nation's drive for a two-ocean navy.

Knox told the 12,000 employees of the yard and the 500 guests, including ranking naval officers and government officials, that "we must establish and maintain the greatest sea power and auxiliary air force the world has ever seen, making us all-powerful everywhere. We live in a world that lives by force."

Before the launching, Knox inspected the nearby Cramps Shipyard at Philadelphia which holds government contracts.

"We are living in a world on fire," he told workmen there. "God knows whether we will be strong enough to save our part of the world from that conflagration."

The $5,794,000 South Dakota, sister ship of the North Carolina and Washington, both placed in commission during the past two months, plunged into the river with a surge that carried it near the Philadelphia shore. She will be taken to the Philadelphia navy yard, where her armament, including nine 16-inch guns and smaller broadside and anti-aircraft guns, will be put in place.

Rear Admiral A. E. Watson, commander of the navy yard, said the battleship would be ready to join the fleet early next year. She will be the 18th battleship of the line in the U. S. Navy.

Common Ground

This column contends there can be no satisfactory progress until we measure the share of each man by the common yardstick of the God-given equal right to create and enjoy anything anyone else has a right to create and enjoy.

TARIFFS AND PRODUCING MILK

I have a couple of friends who are constantly lobbying me about my contention that tariffs lower the standard of living of people and cause wars.

Both of these men were reared on the farm and have done lots of hard work. One of them points out to me that in the '90s he bought his choice of cows out of a large herd for $10 apiece.

More Milk?

I would ask the man who believes in protective tariffs whether tariffs would make these cows give any more milk?

It is not dollars that people want. It is more of the comforts of life. And tariffs that interfere with free exchanges and the natural division of labor, and even result in food being grown where climatic and soil conditions do not lend to large production, then tariffs, instead of helping increase production greatly reduce production.

And when in addition they lead to wars, as they are doing at the present time, then all these soldiers and destruction must be subtracted from the things that people would produce and use if it were not for this tariff form of force that interfered with free exchanges.

HONESTY ABOUT FREEDOM OF THE SEAS

We, of course, would all like to have freedom of the seas but to use the words "freedom of the seas" as a cause of war, when we are at the same time being prevented from having the right to use the seas freely to transport food to starving people, is rather distorting the meaning of the words, fighting for the freedom of the seas.

Of course, it is understood that people should not have freedom of the seas to transport contraband, but when one of the belligerents put food as a part of contraband, then the freedom of the seas does not exist for the very necessities of life.

If we are to have freedom of the seas for food, we should have it for all nations and not just for some.

The Nation's Press

NEW MAGNESIUM SOURCE

Announcement from Toronto that Canadian metallurgists have succeeded in developing a process for the extraction of magnesium directly from dolomite rock comes on the heels of a report that scientists in the United States were almost ready to announce a similar process.

According to the Canadian report, the cost of extracting the light metal, now in great demand for aircraft engines and plane parts, will be approximately 10 cents a pound, and since magnesium compounds exist in nature in great abundance, there will be no lack of raw material.

In the United States it is planned to step up the normal annual production of 5,000 tons to 50,000 tons this year. But new plants going into operation may enable producers to exceed that estimate, it is said.

THE KINGS DEPART

King George II, of Greece has now made two sensational escapes, one from the Greek mainland to Crete, a second Crete to Egypt—whence he is expected to go to London.

The boy King Peter of Yugoslavia was last heard of in Jerusalem, several weeks ago. Queen Wilhelmina of Holland is in London, where she has lived since leaving her own country a few hours ahead of the German invaders in May of last year.

In the world war, the kaiser's six healthy sons were in military service, but none of them was wounded. The prince of Wales was with the British army, but was kept carefully in the safer spots.

The present king of England, George VI, took actual part in the battle of Jutland, as a junior officer on the battleship Collingwood, and acquitted himself bravely.

We still are headed toward active participation in this war. Repeated requests for statements of allied war aims have been rejected scornfully by Prime Minister Churchill, and by the more enthusiastic pro-ally thinkers in this country.

Would it be entirely out of order and bad taste to ask what are our war aims with regard to these deposed, imprisoned, and/or exiled sovereigns, in advance of the armed strength of the United States, if and when we help the British beat Germany, is to be further expended in restoring all these one-time monarchs to their thrones, and full sovereignty to the little countries over which they once presided?

Propaganda activities are confined to writing free radio continuities about the government for 250 stations and making daily digests and weekly summaries of the digests from all government press bulletins.

The whole thing, therefore, boils down into this principal function of providing Washington with a listening post on what the country thinks about things. A senator who has made the most use of OGR has still been one of its most bitter opponents.

It has won what seems to be a final lawsuit which will allow him and his Aunt Mylicent to keep all his earnings hereafter.

By the way, one of the toughest jobs of the Fiesta will be to pick the queen of the Fiesta from the state society queens, I haven't seen all of them, but I've seen Mrs. Hofess, Mary Belflower, Dorothy Campbell, Virginia West, and if the rest are as pretty as those four you can put it down in your little book that those floats are going to be laden with pulchritude next Friday and Saturday.

I'm getting to the point where I hope it won't rain any more for a week or so, although in 1935, when it was the Dust Bowl instead of the Water Bowl, I swore up and down that no matter how much it rained in the future I would never gripe.

This column wants to call your attention again to the story today in the adjoining column, 'The Looking Glass, By Madame Stella. It is a touching, serene folk tale, and so true to life in its simplicity and sweetness, that I nominate it as the best story I have read this year, and I've read a lot of them.

People You Know

By Archer Fullingim

Your friend, Bill Kenton, the popular accordion player, has returned from a visit with home-folks in Kentucky and Ohio and Monday morning will leave for Amarillo, Oklahoma City and California to join the Marines.

Speaking of joining the service I know a young man who has a draft complex, in fact, you might call him draft daffy.

THE LOOKING GLASS

By Stella Holit

Every day was right and good when Jewel could see Paul plowing nearly a mile away. It had to be Paul because his pa was dead and the head of the family always rode the cultivator.

When dinner was ready, and your family gathered around the table, were you thankful that your children have not been "evacuated," and must stay in some strange home away somewhere?

Our democracy has survived five wars and it cannot be very deeply rooted in us if fighting for it will destroy it.

KNOW YOUR NATION

See America first is the slogan in these days of curtailed travel abroad. If you've followed the suggestion, you shouldn't have any trouble with these questions about our United States.

1. How many times larger is the state of Texas than the state of Rhode Island.

2. Which three states are entirely bounded by straight lines.

3. Does the Mississippi river run through the state of Mississippi?

4. Which state has the longest coast line?

5. Which state is cut in two by two lakes, and what are the names of the lakes?

So They Say

By Galbreath

Our democracy has survived five wars and it cannot be very deeply rooted in us if fighting for it will destroy it.

It may well be, if we do not change our national habits, that the future historian will refer to your generation as seeing the end of the republic.

There can no longer be any doubt that this war will be determined by two things, one thing—a successful combination of sea and air power.

More Than Third Of Draftees Found Unfit For Service

More than one-third of the selective service registrants over the nation have been found unfit for general military service.

The general's statement is in connection with his citing that general physical conditions of the country's youth is something of which "we nationally should be ashamed."

There are no longer to be determined by two things, one thing—a successful combination of sea and air power.

DID YOU have a tough day Saturday? Were there many little annoyances that got on your nerves?

When you got ready to leave the house for your job, you didn't hunt up your gas mask before you dared go out of doors. You haven't any gas mask—and you don't need one!

When you got to your office and opened your mail, you knew you were the first to peruse it since it was sealed. It hadn't been read by some official and marked "opened by censor."

When you got home at night, perhaps your wife told you of her shopping trip and of the abundant supplies of good things to be found in stores and markets.

When darkness fell, were you thankful to see the street lights—few as they are in Pampa—come on, and were you thankful that you have no orders to put up shutters or to draw the blinds?

When dinner was ready, and your family gathered around the table, were you thankful that your children have not been "evacuated," and must stay in some strange home away somewhere?

AND when, in the evening's quiet, you heard the roar of an airplane overhead, did you start in terror?

No, you remembered with pride they rest forward steps in aviation in this country and you knew it was just some pilot from a Pampa airport, who has heard of only just sky-riding, or a TWA plane going over.

The War Today By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Nazis assertions that Britain is "bleeding to death" at sea—citing claimed destruction of well over half of the merchant tonnage the British had when the war started—are designed in part to answer President Roosevelt's recent firebrand broadcast.
They meet head on his challenge that control of the sea—particularly of the Atlantic—is essential to victory and that to achieve it the Axis "must capture Great Britain."

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, June 7. (AP)—The stock market ended a generally favorable week today on a rising note stressed mainly by steel and specialties.

It was not a one-way trail, however, as white gains of fractions to a point or so were noted for favorites, there were just about as many down or unchanged at the close of the brief session.

Attendance in Wall Street, as on recent Saturdays, was limited, but those who appeared seemed to derive some cheer from reports congress would write its own tax bill and shelve treasury recommendations.

Scant stimulus was derived from the fact news and worries over labor rifts were sufficient to keep many potential bidders in the conservative class. Announcement the government would take over the strike-bound North American Aviation plant at Inglewood, Calif., unless the dispute was ended Monday was a case in point.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks rose up 2 1/2 points at 44 1/2 and the Dow Jones retained a net advance of 2 1/2 points for the two hours totaling 185 1/2 shares compared with 177.100 a week ago which was the smallest aggregate since last August.

First Prize In Bicycle Parade

These hints and awards except more talk and a fresh crop of reports on Germany's hand in Syria, to wit:

1. General Henri Dentis, high commissioner and military commander in Syria, asked Vichy to send more troops "and, if necessary, German troops to take the place of those wavering to the De Gaulle Free French cause. This came off the British radio, credited to the free French news agency.

This report added that Dentis already had handed over to Germans arriving as "tourists" the control of anti-aircraft stations in Syria.

2. Luftwaffe engineers have begun construction of a base at Latakia, Syrian port, from which German airmen could strike easily at the British island naval base of Cyprus. This report was current in Ankara, Turkey, where earlier in the week reliable informants said German motorized troops had been landed at Latakia.

3. Eight German pocket submarines, short range craft suited to the narrow waters of the Mediterranean, have been ordered to Syria from Greece.

This report, likewise originating in Ankara, was relayed by Reuters, British news agency.

Such U-boats might be handy in easing a pathway through British sea-power for troopships enroute to Syria from Greece.

4. Several hundred tons of gasoline have been unloaded at Latakia by a Hungarian tanker. Also an Ankara report.

5. Aleppo, Palmyra and Damascus airdromes were being curried swiftly in full-fledged Luftwaffe bases—this was common talk in British circles throughout the middle east.

Certain Britons, customarily well informed but now as confused as anyone else, had looked for a prompt display of British initiative. Decisive action had been authoritative forecast. But nothing happened. British sources were left to conclude that reports of German movements had been exaggerated and possibly encouraged by the Germans trying to provoke a premature British move.

Britain perhaps was playing a wary game. The British insist that Vichy's policy of collaboration with Germany never will gain the support of the French people or colonial troops until Vice-Premier Admiral Jean Darlan can convince them that an aggressive Britain is trying to seize French territory for keeps.

He might be able to do that if the British without great provocation moved into Syria from neighboring Palestine, Iraq and Transjordan.

If the British do take the first crack at the Syrian chip they undoubtedly will do so with the free Frenchmen of General Charles De Gaulle as comrades-in-arms. Underlining this Allied strategy was a report by Exchange Telegraph, British news agency, from Zurich purporting to tell of French fears in such an eventuality.

Exchange Telegraph quoted a French diplomatic source as saying that Generalissimo Maximilien Weygand, commander of Vichy's forces in Africa and the middle east, had told Darlan that he could not guarantee the attitude of his men in North Africa if they were called on to fight the De Gaulle forces.

Moreover, it was said, Weygand at his own insistence was relieved of responsibility for conduct of French troops in Syria. This report hadn't a traction of confirmation from Vichy, which reported that Weygand had flown back to his Algeria headquarters after consultation with the men of Vichy.

The only possible difficulty reported in Vichy to date was whether immediate armed action should be taken against the De Gaulle-led colonies and it was said, conditions were considered unfavorable for such action now.

As though waiting for the eastern lid to pop, the war virtually marked time in other sectors, although the British reported capture of 2,000 more prisoners in Ethiopia mop-up, and both sides claimed damaging aerial blows to shipping.

Following London's first night bombardment since May 11, British and German fighters duelled yesterday over the German-occupied coast of France but there was, as officially described, "very little enemy activity" over England by daylight.

In the war on shipping, the British claimed for their air force the probable destruction of two 5,000-ton German supply ships off the Netherlands coast and destruction of two German planes attacking a convoy. Germany claimed aerial destruction of two freighters totaling 27,500 tons west of Scotland and one of 3,000 tons off the west African coast.

With long range guns on the French coast pounding shipping off Folkestone, the Luftwaffe badly damaged two large ships in the Thames mouth, according to the German high command.

In the Far East, more than 60 Japanese planes thundered anew over Chungking, firing dozens of incendiary bombs and causing the second time in five days. Hundreds of persons were made homeless.

Meanwhile, the Japanese foreign office conferred with British, French, Italian and German envoys and was reported scheduling a Sunday conference with high army and navy officials to study the trade impasse with the Netherlands East Indies. The Dutch reply to Japan's trade demands, which was delivered in Tokyo Saturday, was authoritatively described as unsatisfactory.

Leading a bristling press, the newspaper Hoochi declared "Japan should cope with the hostile nature of the Indies; a determined attitude is necessary."

Italian Tanker Hit
 ISTANBUL, Turkey, June 7. (AP)—The 7,000-ton Italian tanker Strombo limped into port today after being hit by a British submarine torpedo off the Dardanelles.

The tanker anchored in the Bosphorus while her pumps were manned. She was struck forward on the port side and was listing, but crew members said no one was injured.

Roy McMillen, float committee chairman, reported that the float was ready to be built on the truck. Mrs. Pauline Thurman and S. L. Pipkin announced that they were ready for items for their window and that Missourians having articles to place in the window should take them to the club headquarters.

Miss Mary Nelson is the Missouri queen.

"There'll always be an England!" "Thumbs up!" These are the slogans the Jaycees had in mind yesterday when they called a meeting of all natives of England and Canada for Monday night at 8 o'clock in the city auditorium of the city hall. The Pampa Bicycle Safety parade is staged in the interest of safer bicycle riding in this community. Every mother and father should welcome and encourage any event that calls attention to the constant need for careful bicycle riding. A set of 10 rules of safety are given with each entry blank, together with a set of colorful wheel discs bearing the slogan, "I Ride Safely . . . Do You?" Boys and girls are urged to register now, obey the safety rules, use the wheel discs, and prepare their bikes for the big parade.

The parade will start from Montgomery Ward's store at 10 a. m., Saturday, June 21, proceed west on W. Francis to Russell, south to north, east to Cuyler, thence north on Cuyler for the return to the store where prizes will be awarded.

House on Monday for a conference with the President. The shipyard machinists are on strike.

Briefly, the presidential secretary mentioned another strike situation in the Pacific Northwest's lumber industry. Mr. Roosevelt was not countenancing or condoning this stoppage, he said, but there was no shortage of lumber because the country in other areas was capable of meeting all necessities for that product. The plain intimation was that for the present, action in the lumber strike was not considered necessary.

The North American Aviation Corporation, located at Inglewood, Calif., has been producing medium bombing planes and training planes at a rate of eight to ten daily. It employs 11,500 workers and holds contracts for $195,000,000 worth of planes.

After two postponements requested by the defense mediation board, the strike was called on Thursday morning by the United Automobile Workers (CIO). The union demands a union shop, a general wage increase of ten cents an hour, and that the minimum wage rate be increased from 50 to 75 cents an hour.

Early said the shortage of planes for American defense and aid to Britain was so pressing that the stoppage could not be permitted to continue. The President decided yesterday, he said, that the strike must end by Monday.

Under army operation, he said, all workers would be given an opportunity to return to their jobs, and further, union pickets would not be permitted to interfere.

Beyond that there was no intimation of what might be done to force a resumption of operations or put pressure on the men to return to their jobs, should they refuse to do so.

However, it was suggested unofficially that the government would have several lines of action at its command—though such action might require legislation. Draft deferments for the men could be cancelled, federal benefit payments—unemployment insurance and other social security bonuses, and relief through WPA—might be refused. The men might be blacklisted and denied fu-

Roy McMillen, float committee chairman, reported that the float was ready to be built on the truck. Mrs. Pauline Thurman and S. L. Pipkin announced that they were ready for items for their window and that Missourians having articles to place in the window should take them to the club headquarters.

"There'll always be an England!" "Thumbs up!" These are the slogans the Jaycees had in mind yesterday when they called a meeting of all natives of England and Canada for Monday night at 8 o'clock in the city auditorium of the city hall. "We are right with you until the last bullet," Finis Stillwell of the Jaycees steering committee said when he and Jack Stevens, C. P. Buckler and other British and Canadians called are now on exhibition in the store, and invites prospective contestants in to see them.

The Pampa Bicycle Safety parade is staged in the interest of safer bicycle riding in this community. Every mother and father should welcome and encourage any event that calls attention to the constant need for careful bicycle riding. A set of 10 rules of safety are given with each entry blank, together with a set of colorful wheel discs bearing the slogan, "I Ride Safely . . . Do You?" Boys and girls are urged to register now, obey the safety rules, use the wheel discs, and prepare their bikes for the big parade.

The parade will start from Montgomery Ward's store at 10 a. m., Saturday, June 21, proceed west on W. Francis to Russell, south to north, east to Cuyler, thence north on Cuyler for the return to the store where prizes will be awarded.

FDR ORDERS

House on Monday for a conference with the President. The shipyard machinists are on strike.

Briefly, the presidential secretary mentioned another strike situation in the Pacific Northwest's lumber industry. Mr. Roosevelt was not countenancing or condoning this stoppage, he said, but there was no shortage of lumber because the country in other areas was capable of meeting all necessities for that product. The plain intimation was that for the present, action in the lumber strike was not considered necessary.

The North American Aviation Corporation, located at Inglewood, Calif., has been producing medium bombing planes and training planes at a rate of eight to ten daily. It employs 11,500 workers and holds contracts for $195,000,000 worth of planes.

After two postponements requested by the defense mediation board, the strike was called on Thursday morning by the United Automobile Workers (CIO). The union demands a union shop, a general wage increase of ten cents an hour, and that the minimum wage rate be increased from 50 to 75 cents an hour.

Early said the shortage of planes for American defense and aid to Britain was so pressing that the stoppage could not be permitted to continue. The President decided yesterday, he said, that the strike must end by Monday.

Under army operation, he said, all workers would be given an opportunity to return to their jobs, and further, union pickets would not be permitted to interfere.

Beyond that there was no intimation of what might be done to force a resumption of operations or put pressure on the men to return to their jobs, should they refuse to do so.

However, it was suggested unofficially that the government would have several lines of action at its command—though such action might require legislation. Draft deferments for the men could be cancelled, federal benefit payments—unemployment insurance and other social security bonuses, and relief through WPA—might be refused. The men might be blacklisted and denied fu-

Just Between Us Girls

By Johanna Davis

"Be not as we take it. This mystical world of ours. But as we make it. A garden of thorns or of flowers. —Goethe"

One of the most fortunate persons we can think of is Mrs. Gene Fatheree. Last week when Mrs. Fatheree entertained with a party for Mrs. Odus Mitchell, she received five dozen gardenias from her mother, Mrs. C. R. Miller, of Austin, who grows the flowers in her yard. A gardenia corsage seems to be the floral gift to say nothing of five dozen of these fragrant blossoms.

Among the college students who have returned home for the summer months, Betty Jean Timmann is one of the most attractive whom we have seen. Betty Jean, who attended Texas State College for Women at Denton, looked pretty in a beige tailored suit last week with a white sport blouse, anklets, and saddle oxfords.

In connection with national defense, the National Girl Scout News Bureau has pointed out that Girl Scouting stands for good citizenship in a democracy. Because it stands for the child who is fostered and aided by nations that want their citizens to grow up to think for themselves, be self-reliant, resourceful, active participants in their own government.

An adorable youngster is Dickie Barrett, son of Mrs. Freda Barrett. Dickie, who is two years old this month, is friendlier to strangers than most children. In fact, he is very talkative at times. Whereas most little boys and girls get excited over going to town for a new doll or airplane, Dickie just can't wait to get to the drug store for a "coke."

Maybe Popeye gave them the idea with his strength-giving can of spinach. Or maybe he has inspired them with his spinach and carrots and peas and just loved ice cream! At any rate, at least two ice cream manufacturers are making vegetable ice cream. And probably there are more. A method of freezing tomato sherbet has been perfected in Cleveland, and in New Jersey they're making ice cream from asparagus and other vegetables. This ought to make everybody happy; mothers who want their children to get plenty of milk and fresh vegetables; children who never get enough ice cream; and the manufacturers who have the satisfaction of knowing they're helping solve a major problem in an attractive, modern way.

Since red is a favorite color of ours, we particularly like the red felt hats worn by Mrs. Foster Fletcher and Mrs. Jimmy Nelson.

Even food for the Army is going patriotic these busy days. Dairy-men selling milk to Army camps at Patsburg, Charleston, and Louisville are hooding bottles with red cellophane covers and holding them down with blue ribbons. Since the milk looks creamy white, each trim bottle is a neat pattern of red, white and blue.

Helena Eberly, a former member of the local Business and Professional Women's club, is convalescing at a hospital in south Texas. Helen will be able to leave the hospital in the fall.

Speaking of the B.P.W. club, several members of the organization are attending the state convention in Lubbock this week-end. Social affairs of the conference included a chuck wagon dinner and barn dance Friday night and a round-up frolic Saturday evening. A "Hello Los Angeles" luncheon at noon today will conclude the session. The National convention is to be held in Los Angeles July 6-11.

Summer social activities of Upsilon chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority began last week with a clever school day party. Prizes were awarded for the most appropriate costumes, Mrs. J. B. Massa, sponsor, would have received first prize. Mrs. Massa wore a plaid pleated dress, long white cotton stockings, black patent leather sandals, and long curled tines with a large ribbon bow. Twins at the event were Johnnie Lodge and her sister, Polly Gaskins who were dressed in blue striped jumper dresses and anklets. Johnnie wore small red bows in her hair and Polly wore yellow ribbons.

Just a friendly tip to all young girls who are beginning to think about being in love: Dishes have to be washed 1,000 times a year! America's harvest of seafood varies from the jumbo halibut, taken by hook in the Northern Pacific, to the periwinkle, a little shellfish plucked by hand off the rocks of the New England coast.

Popular Couple To Wed In Local Church June 17

Mrs. J. L. Wheatley, 600 East Francis avenue, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Maxine Wheatley, to Rex Rose, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rose, Sr., when she entertained with a coffee at her home Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

Miss Wheatley will become the bride of Mr. Rose on June 17 at the First Methodist church. Receiving the guests were Mrs. Wheatley, Mrs. Rose, Mrs. Eust Turner of Borger, sister of the bridegroom-elect, Mrs. Bill Monahan, sister of the bride-elect, and Miss Wheatley.

Decorating the reception room were arrangements of gladioli, peonies, roses, delphinium, and mock orange blossoms. In the dining room the table was centered with a miniature bride and bridegroom standing beneath an arch of feverfew and encircled with a ring of pink carnations and white anemone flowers. Attached to the ring of flowers was a love knot of pink satin ribbon on which was written "Maxine and Rex, June 17." Tall, white candles in white pottery holders lighted the table.

Mrs. Walter Daugherty and Mrs. Kenneth Thornton poured coffee during the morning. They were assisted by Mrs. A. C. Martin, Mrs. Charles Cook, Mrs. Bob Tripplehorn, and Miss Mary Price.

Miss Wheatley wore a corsage of pink roses and blue diducous. Mrs. Wheatley and Mrs. Rose wore corsages of gardenias, while Mrs. Turner's was of white carnations and Mrs. Monahan's, Jonanna Hill roses. All other members of the house party had corsages of pink and white carnations.

Guests attending were Meses. Wayne Phelps, Freda Barrett, Bob Rose, B. W. Rose, R. E. Williams, B. E. Finley, Charles Burton, Earl Blackman of Borger, R. E. Lackey, Gene Fatheree, George Pollard, Allen Evans, Gaston Harbor, Jack Smith, Albert Reynolds, C. H. Schulke, Tom Rose, Jr., Ed Myer, and Misses Claudina Jeffries, Isabelle Wagon, Heidi Schneider, Lucille Bell, Janice Purviance, and Bonnie Lea Rose.

Miss Wheatley was graduated in 1937 from Pampa High school, where she was a member of the National Honor society. Last week she received a B.A. degree in speech from Texas Technological college at Lubbock. While attending college, Miss Wheatley was vice-president of the Alpha Psi Omega, national honor society, and a member of the Phi Kappa Phi dramatic fraternity, chosen for outstanding work in 1940, vice-president of Stock and Buskin in 1939, and a member of the debate club.

In 1939 she was named a Laventana beauty and in 1940 junior class queen. Last year the honoree was president of the Forum, director of the senior one-act play, vice-president of the women's dormitory, a member of Women's Inter-Club Council, chairman of the hospital committee for the National I.A.W.S. convention held at Tech, and a member on the senior invitation committee. Also, she had charge of the intercollegiate league for two years, and for three years was recognized for outstanding social and scholastic work on the campus.

Mr. Rose, who was graduated from the local high school, also was graduated last week from Texas Tech college. Mr. Rose was president of Knapp hall in 1940-41, a member of the B.B.A. club, and a member of the senior invitation committee.

Bridge-Luncheon And Shower Given For Bride-Elect

Mrs. Albert Reynolds and Mrs. Charles Cook entertained Friday afternoon at a bridge-luncheon and crystal shower at the Schneider hotel for Miss Janice Purviance, bride-elect of Frank Akrigh.

The honoree's chosen colors of yellow and blue were stressed in the appointments. Centering the luncheon table was a two-tiered mirror topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom standing beneath an arch. Blue delphinium, white sweet peas and fern encircled the reflector. Yellow and white tapers in silver holders lighted the arrangement. Yellow and white wedding ring mints in white nut cups matching the centerpiece marked the place.

A corsage of split white carnations was presented to the honoree. Following the luncheon, the group went to the home of Mrs. Cook where bridge was played. Spring flowers were arranged throughout the rooms and tiny brides bouquets were painted on the tallies and place cards.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. George Pollard for high score and to Mrs. Tom Rose, Jr., for low score. Gifts arranged in a long white basket tied with a white satin bow were presented to the honoree. The guest list included Meses. George Pollard, Skeet Wise, Tom Rose, Jr., Gene Fatheree, Jack Smith, Carroll Baker, Bob Tripplehorn, Wiley Reynolds, Bill Monahan, Taylor Price, Gaston Harbor, Allen Evans, Frank Carter, Ed Martin, H. E. McCarty, Maurice Saunders, and Misses Betty Lou Ford, Lucille Bell, Maxine Wheatley, Mary Price, Claudine Jeffries, and Barbara Ziegler.

SPOTTING NEW STYLES IN OLD IS NOTED DESIGNER'S HOBBY

Marlene Dietrich's magnificent gown, at left, is definitely dated "1845." But note the applique of filmy black lace flowers, set between shirred bands of narrow black velvet ribbon. "That idea isn't dated at all—it's newer than tomorrow!" declared designer Rene Hubert. At right, Anne Gwynne, Hollywood starlet, models this modern adaptation of the old idea. The black applique of her gown is on heavy white crepe; the original is orange.

Hollywood is doing a good job of distilling "new" styles out of old ones. The screen predicated a return to the styles of 1845—with a streamlined difference. The fro-trou and fluff of yesterday are gone, but in the small details of designing, recapturing lines and trimming motifs, bygone fashions are due for a revival this summer.

Authority for this is no less a person than Rene Hubert, noted European designer whose costume-creating career rotated among Paris, London, and Hollywood for many years. His first American film was "Monsieur Beaucaire," with Rudolph Valentino, his most recent is the latest Marlene Dietrich picture, "The Flame of New Orleans."

And it is the costume for Miss Dietrich, playing a gay adventuress of 1845, that inspired Rene Hubert to adapt them to modern needs. A first glance at this extensive film wardrobe—16 of the most luxurious gowns—is deceptive. Each might have stepped out of a museum showcase, so authentic is it the spirit of its day.

"But how wrong," said Rene Hubert, smiling broadly. "Look at this organza afternoon frock with which Miss Dietrich wears a sweeping brimmed hat, trimmed with black and white ostrich feathers. The fashion importance here is the applique of filmy black lace flowers, set between shirred bands of narrow black velvet ribbon. That idea isn't dated at all—it's newer than tomorrow!"

And to prove his point he used the fitted-jacket-effect on a modern evening gown of pure white crepe. Modeled by young Anne Gwynne of the cast of "Tight Shoes," here is a dress to make fashion writers sit up and take notice. Place it beside at a glance what Rene Hubert means.

Designer Hubert stresses handwork—unusual handwork—for the evening season. It is his opinion that any clever needlewoman, working at home, can learn tricks from these Dietrich clothes and apply them to her own summer dresses with devastatingly attractive results.

For instance, a really different summer afternoon dress could be made by using inserts of eyelet embroidery on plain white plique—a combination he has used most successfully in a "matinee" or morning-about-the-house, costume from the film.

Plain net, embroidered in a swirling, unstudied pattern in chenille thread is something any woman could make without a great deal of effort—and think how delightful it would be for a summer evening dress.

Chenille embroidery belonged to 1845, and it is brand-new to the eyes of today. And the use of lace, in bands and insertions, for lingerie touches on suit blouses is another of his suggestions, stemming from three different evening dresses in "The Flame of New Orleans."

Pampa Garden Club Members To Attend Lectures

Pampa Garden club members have received an invitation from the Amarillo Garden club to attend two lectures to be given by Harry O'Brien, Better Homes and Gardens dirt gardener, on June 18 in the municipal auditorium.

Mr. O'Brien is known throughout the United States for his clever articles, and the Amarillo club is anxious to have everyone hear him that might be interested. Who's the greatest guy in all the world? Why, your Dad, of course. Remember how he used to dangle you on his lap when you were little, and ride you around on his shoulders? And how you were so sure he could lick any other kid's Dad if he wanted to? Sure you do.

Well, next Sunday, June 15th, is Dad's day. Yep, it's his turn to sit back and relax and enjoy all the honor and glory you can heap on him in one day.

And say, you ought to remember him with some kind of gift, too. If you're stuck for ideas, just drop in the store and browse around. You'll find dozens of things he'll be crazy about, and they're all moderately priced, too.

The newly-elected officers marched in and were seated in a semi-circle in the West.

quoted a passage of scripture. The following officers were installed: Edrie Colvin, w. m.; Ralph Irwin, w. p.; Stella Wagner, asso. m.; W. W. Hughes, asso. p.; Ruby deCordova, secretary; Ruth Sewell, treasurer; Ruth Casey, cond.; Hazel Parker, asso. cond.; Jeanie Ward, chaplain; Margaret Stockstill, marshal; Jessie Hoffman, organist; Minnie Bridges, Adah; Nell Rankin, Ruth; Alice Cockrell, Esther; Mary Fleming, Martha; Mildred Garrison, Electa; Hattie Broome, warder; and Eliza O'Dell, sentinel.

To obtain straw hats for a bonfire to help a local football team, a store in Cleveland offered free ice cream cones.

Benefits of Summer Round-Up Program Cited In Bulletin

During the years 1925 to 1940, the summer round-up program in Texas has made it possible for a large number of children in Texas to have their physical defects corrected prior to school entrance. These corrections are to be commended and have removed many obstacles which would otherwise have handicapped the development of these children. The local parent-teacher units are to be commended for this progress.

First emphasis for the summer round-up program was focused on correction of defects so forcefully brought to attention during the last World War. It was assumed that a corrective program such as this type would eliminate recurrence of the large percentage of defects at any time in the future. Today as the young men of our country are being called into service through the selective draft, the latest available figures reveal the existence of practically the same percentage of physical defects as were found at the time of the last draft.

In other words, with the present summer round-up, P-T-A workers find themselves each year waiting until school entrance, then giving a physical examination and attempting to correct the existing physical defects of each child. The fallacy of this procedure remains, however, due to the fact that each succeeding year another group of children is examined and approximately the same number of defects are found and a similar program of correction worked out. Year after year this situation persists and will continue until the things within each child's life are eliminated from prenatal period to school entrance which are causing these defects to occur in the first place. An examination at this time is a great help but it is not good as a prevention of the defects throughout pre-school development.

The medical advisory committee and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers Health committee during the last meeting in 1940 came to an important conclusion—"the health of the school child begins with the prenatal period." The National Congress is stimulating interest in the prenatal period as the beginning of our school health program.

Parents know, as has been so adequately stated by numerous authorities, that the infant and pre-school period of the child's life is especially important in relation to the child's future—physical, mental, and social growth and development—abilities. Organically and structurally, the child develops more rapidly during this pre-school period than at any other time in the child's life. In other words, this is the foundation upon which each child shall build the rest of his life, and it must be a foundation which is sufficiently strong—physically, mentally, and socially—to uphold the individual as he builds himself into an adult, so that when adulthood has been attained, there will be an efficient functioning individual in our community, rather than one who is maladjusted in any of his phases—physical, mental, or social.

The purpose of the summer round-up of the children is that of arousing the interest of parents in improving the health of children entering school for the first time, and to bring about continuous medical and dental supervision of children of all ages, especially those apparently healthy. The most effective way that this purpose can be achieved or carried out is to begin by having a continuous medical and dental supervision of children from prenatal period throughout the rest of his school life.

Included in the policies of the summer round-up is found this statement: "The summer round-up is but one phase of the child health activities of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers. In communities where established community services exist for child health protection, the local units of the national congress are urged to cooperate with and lend their support to such services in preference to conducting such a project independently. In such communities the summer round-up should be coordinated with the work of the existing health agency or agencies. The round-up is regarded as but one step in a well-balanced health program."

The fact that authorities are finding 20 per cent of the children entering school in the first grade with visual difficulties; 50 per cent of children in the third grade with visual difficulties; and 90 per cent of those in the fifth grade with visual difficulties indicates that we are making a mistake somewhere.

Dr. Willard C. Olsen, an expert in the field of child study and education, has made the following statement: "At a given calendar age, all children are not equally mature. Thus, the first permanent tooth which appears in children on the average at about six years of age may appear in some several years earlier and others, several years later. Similarly, some children will attain a greater height and weight than others in proportion to the total to which they are growing. One child's bones will be more immature than another's, as shown by X-rays. The functional capacity of one child's nervous system will not be at the same stage as another's." The stage of maturity of systems of the individual and his development indicate the individual child's ability to function effectively in school.

Since total growth and development of the child—physically, mentally, socially, and emotionally—is so important and since the foundations for total growth are laid during the entire pre-school program, parents see the necessity for strengthening our health programs during this complete developmental period, rather than waiting until they have reached a particular period, that of school entrance, and WHITE DEER, June 7—The marriage of Miss Lorena Hatton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hatton of White Deer and Berger, and Loyal O. Stalcup of Oklahoma City, will be solemnized Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the Rev. L. C. Carby officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Vows will be read under a rose arch on the lawn at the home of the bride-groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Stalcup of Goodnight, Okla. Preceding the nuptials, Mrs. L. C. Carby will play the "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, and Mrs. Jack Hartman will sing "I Love You Truly."

Attendants will be the bride-groom's only brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Stalcup of Stillwater, Okla.

The bride has chosen a blue lace ensemble with white accessories. For "something old" she will wear her mother's Eastern Star ring; for "something new," her own Eastern Star ring; for "something blue," blue earrings; and for "something borrowed," she will carry a white Bible belonging to Miss Glendine Griffin.

Following the ceremony, a reception will be held, with Miss Irene Stalcup presiding at the guest register, and Mrs. Mattie Lee Shultz and Mrs. Richard Grimm at the refreshment table.

After a two week's trip to Carlisle, N. M., and points in Old Mexico, the couple will be at home at 110 North West 6th street in Oklahoma City.

Miss Hatton attended school in White Deer and Amarillo, and was graduated from Berger High school. She has done some college work at West Texas State college, and Texas Tech, and is now attending Draughon's Business college at Oklahoma City. An accomplished musician, she has taught band music at White Deer and Berger.

Mr. Stalcup was graduated from Perkins High school in Oklahoma, and is also a student at Draughon's, where he is studying bookkeeping and stenography.

Among the guests at the wedding will be the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hatton.

WOMAN HATING WORLD

Hiding the disfigured face which has turned her to a life of crime, Joan Crawford calls on Osa Massen with intent to blackmail. The scene is from "A Woman's Face," emotional drama of a woman robbed of her beauty and turning her hate on the world. Melvyn Douglas is seen opposite Miss Crawford as the plastic surgeon who brings back her beauty and aids in her regeneration, with Conrad Veidt the third member of the strange triangle. George Cukor directed. At the LaNora Friday and Saturday.

END OF SKY TRAIL

A sure-fire dramatic story with mass appeal enhanced not a little by the essential timeliness of its subject matter—the U. S. Army's aerial defense program—makes Paramount's 131-minute "I Wanted Wings" atop of the class. Melodramatic as the story is constructed it is plausible. Gist of the plot deals with three air corps cadets, their instructor, and with Constance Moore and Veronica Lake providing the femme complications. Pictured above is a scene from the pic, showing end of a hedge-hopping flight, as Wayne Morris, on ground, crashes. Ray Milland, left, and William Holden, kneel beside him. At the LaNora, today through Wednesday.

TOP AVIATION PICTURE OPENS FOUR-DAY RUN AT PAMPA THEATER

Paramount's "I Wanted Wings" Features Milland, Morris, Holden, Donlevy, and The Blond Bomber; Randolph, Kelly, And March Fields Scene of Sequences For Master Air Story

Ever since "Hell's Angels" and "Lilac Time," the airplane has been a favorite theme of motion picture makers. Now comes the climax, the ultra-ultra air film, titled "I Wanted Wings." It opens a four-day run today at the LaNora.

Here's what it is all about: there are three air corps cadets, Ray Milland, former polo playing Long Island socialite; Wayne Morris, ex-All-American pigskin hero; and William Holden, garage mechanic. Brian Donlevy is their flying instructor.

Enter the women—Constance Moore, mag photos, filling a Randolph Field assignment, and Veronica Lake, San Antonio night club warbler.

What happens next? Well, Lake, one-time cream in the Holden coffee, makes a play for Milland, whose paycheck is near-annexing by Miss Moore. Lake almost gets away with her play, but before the story is over, she has married—and deserted Holden, killed the man with whom she has run away to Florida, and caused a giant army bomber (in which she has hidden to escape the guard civil) to crash as it participates in a simulated air attack on the City of Angels.

Don't be fooled by all this blithe chatter. "I Wanted Wings" is really superb, top notch, and in the words of The Film Daily: "Sure-fire dramatic story with mass appeal heightened by subject's timeliness... blond, throaty-voiced Miss Lake delivers, and how!"

High In Patriotic Appeal

There are a lot more adjectives, but I skip those for the words of William Boehnel, N. Y. World-Tele critic, who says that when you see "I Wanted Wings"

"I'll wager you'll get the thrill of a lifetime, because no other flying service film has touched this one for excitement, spectacular flying, and accuracy in detail."

The patriotic angle is that the pic shows how the army air corps is transforming aviation-minded youths into crack pilots, and there is an appeal of inestimable value to these United States in what well may be the nation's greatest crisis.

Of special appeal to Texans is that Randolph and Kelly fields are two of the three scenes of the training sequences. The other is March field in California.

And if you are interested in clever gags—the Paramount publicity men have dubbed Lake "The Blond Bomber."

In both this nifty and acting ability of Veronica—Paramount's got something there.

To the State Tuesday comes another Cisco Kid, 20th Century-Fox's 87-minute, "The Gay Caballero," with Cesar Romero, Shella Ryan, Robert Sterling, and Chris-Pin Martin. Romero, as the Kid, helps Montague Shaw and his daughter Shelia Ryan when the latter arrive to purchase a tract from Janet Beecher, whose lands holdings cover two counties.

Wednesday and Thursday the State is showing Warner's powerful hard-hitting dramatic sea story, "The Sea Wolf," based on the Jack London book. Running time, 100 minutes.

Wolf Larsen, most villainous of all sea captains, is interpreted by Robinson with his consummate skill.

He is brutal, always aware of the fact that he is going blind, sadistically cruel to everybody.

Ida Lupino is fine in the role of the wayward escapee of a woman's reformatory, and John Garfield is excellent as the unbeatable young tough, fleeing from the police, but filled with a spirit not even Larsen can break.

Timed right on the nose the film will be shown at a special midnight show on Friday, June 13, at the LaNora. Basil Rathbone, Hugh Herbert, and Broderick Crawford, are the principals. WACKY COMEDY

Dennis Morgan and Merle Oberon score in Warner's wacky comedy, "Affectionately Yours," showing Thursday at the LaNora. The story:

"Rickey" Mayberry (Dennis Morgan), is an ace foreign correspondent. He discovers his wife (Merle Oberon) has divorced him while he was covering a story in Lisbon. He hurries home to find Ralph Belamy just about to step into his shoes as her new husband.

He begins a campaign to win her back, and tries everything in the book, from kidnapping her every time she steps out of the house, to following through with a "phony" auto accident to take her away from Bellamy at the very altar. Rita Hayworth, a fellow journalist, and James Gleason, his boss, are the villains in the piece and wind up with nothing more than a thorough ducking in a "false alarm" fire for their chicanery.

SERIAL STORY

FOOTSTEPS IN THE FOG

BY ELINORE COWAN STONE

Copyright, 1941, NEA Service, Inc.

YESTERDAY: Lonely for Stephan, Deborah went out to the sea. Then, suddenly, Stephan returned. Bridget makes arrangements for him to remain in the house. "How did Bridget know?"

ANGELA ISSUES A WARNING

CHAPTER VI

SO this was the way it was to be—just as it had always been—walls between them! . . . Well, if that was what Stephan wanted, she could play that way, too. Deborah moved nervously about the room, turning on lamps, lowering shades. "Technically, of course," she heard herself rambling on, hating the bright brittleness of her own voice—"I'm the head of this house; but if you hadn't clicked with Bridget, you would have been put in 'The Master's' room over her dead body. Mere civilians get parked elsewhere."

He listened to her, laughing a little at first. At length he came and stood looking down at her, his eyes troubled. "Deborah," he said gently, "you're somehow—not like yourself. What is the trouble?"

If only he would not stand there, so very near that she was conscious in every fiber of his nearness!

I can't let him hurt me—like that—again, Deborah thought. He doesn't intend to; but he somehow makes a gesture, a few words that mean—just nothing—seem to mean so much.

DEBORAH was almost glad when the front door opened, and Angie came in—as Angie was likely to do at any time—without the formality of ringing.

"The fog's so thick you could cut it into pieces and fry it," Angie called from the hallway. "Debby, may I borrow your last copy of 'The World by the Week'? Mine's—"

Strolling into the room, stripping from her head the bright handkerchief she wore, she stopped short at sight of Stephan. "Well! Welcome to our city!" she cried.

While Deborah went to hunt through the periodical rack, she heard Angela explaining briskly, like his new, predigested, and at least a week old, Mr. von Thalmann. By that time it's history, and there's no use tearing your hair over it."

"You'd tear your hair over the Old Testament, Angie," Deborah threw over her shoulder, "that is, if you ever took the trouble to read it."

"Perhaps I shall some time—" the present world stops being exciting. . . . By the way, Mr. von Thalmann," Angie went on with the bluntness Deborah had come to dread, "all sorts of rumors keep coming from Europe. They say Germany's sitting on a young volcano in what used to be Czechoslovakia. But it's all so secret. Perhaps you can give us the lowdown."

"I'm afraid not," Stephan was gravely polite. "I have been in this country for some time, you know."

"Oh, but this started months ago," Angela persisted. "The story goes that sabotage in the Czech armament plants has been really serious; and that some underground organization has been simply papering Europe with subversive pamphlets. I understand that the people find the things in the most improbable places—under doormats, in their laundry bags, or wrapped around milk bottles, for instance. . . . It's said that they have even been slipped under pillows and into pockets in the most excited Nazi circles."

"Indeed?" Stephan said blandly. "But that seems a rather reckless form of practical joke, don't you think?"

"Well, it's a kind of recklessness that seems to have gone over in a big way with the masses. According to the story, one bright lad who slipped a tract into a German general's glove became Public Hero Number One overnight. It seems that he had been thumbing his nose at the secret police for so long without their being able to put the finger on him that he was nicknamed 'Der Poltergeist.'"

"Poltergeist?" Deborah echoed from the magazine rack. "That's supposed to be some kind of malicious spirit that goes around pinching people, isn't it?"

"Well, he seems to have been pinching some of them all right—where it hurts. They say some of the pamphlets have been printed in this country; and I understand, Mr. von Thalmann—"

Angela's eyes were dangerously innocent—"that your secret agents are very busy trying to find out who the boys are who've been doing the homework here."

"I see," Stephan's tone was still gravely polite; but his eyes danced wickedly. "And you hoped that I might be big hearted enough to tell you what they have found out? But even if I were as well informed as you seem to think—oh, well, I suppose I might as well give up! I say, Miss Silva, would you mind telling me how you found me out?"

"Perhaps I shall some time—"

"Oh," Angela announced coolly, "we all knew this summer that you hadn't come all the way over here just to read poetry?"

"So? . . . All of you?" His grin was quite open now. "Then you no doubt also know that in my bag upstairs are documents containing the darkest secrets of your War Department? . . . I say, I do hope you won't give me away. You see, it's devilish important to me to get away with them without losing my own head."

FOR a brief instant Angela examined him behind narrowed lids. Then she laughed. "You certainly can look as completely dead-pan as anyone I ever knew," she said. "Anyhow, I'd stake my head that when you go home and turn in your report, Mr. Poltergeist, or some other poor reckless dev in the circulation department over there is going to find himself in a concentration camp—or worse."

"Perhaps." Suddenly there was no more laughter in Stephan's eyes, and his mouth was grim. "But after all, he took that risk, did he not? He must have known what he was in for."

"Well"—Angie got to her feet—"George Washington took a few risks, too, thank God! . . . Don't bother to look any more, Debby. I think I'll go home and read the Bill of Rights."

At the doorway she stopped. "By the way, Debby," she said, "remember that fisherman's ditty you were asking about that night in California? . . . The one about the fog? . . . Well, the rest of it's just come to me. Altogether, it goes something like this: 'I'll fated is that which comes out of the fog, For in the end it must return whence it came. And never can it come again unless it is drawn by a spell Which neither Heaven nor earth, nor all the powers of darkness may break!'"

SHE went out, a little secret smile upon her lips. "So your little friend thinks I'm a dangerous character?" Stephen said. "After this, when she is around, I must take care to look as dead-pot as possible—but not!" he broke off at Deborah's involuntary giggle. "I see that 'dead-pot' is not the correct usage. I fear I shall never learn."

He was laughing; but his laughter was not entirely spontaneous. . . . So Angie had got under his skin.

Texas Protests Tanker Withdrawal

AUSTIN, June 7. (AP)—A protest from Texas against withdrawal of tankers from Gulf Coast service for use in supplying Great Britain with oil from South America today was in the hands of Federal Petroleum Coordinator Harold L. Ickes.

In a message to Ickes yesterday, Railroad Commissioner Olin Culberson expressed the opinion such tankers should be utilized to transport oil from the Gulf Coast rather than from South America.

"Otherwise," he asserted, "we not only furnish tankers but also surrender markets and seriously disrupt production in the Southwest area."

Culberson pointed out that Texas production under the railroad commission's orders conformed closely with current market demand estimates of the bureau of mines. He added that legislation was pending in the legislature to "renew and strengthen" the state's conservation law.

The tankers to which he referred were those turned over to the British to supply their oil needs under the lend-lease program. He said 25 tankers had already been put in the service and the British had asked for 25 more.

Pledging cooperation to Ickes in carrying out his part of the national defense program, Culberson said Texas was "able to meet any call made upon it in the production branch of the industry and will cooperate with you as coordinator to accomplish objectives indicated in the president's letter."

Schools in Iran increased from 612 in 1921 to 5,000 in 1937.

BEGINS SECOND YEAR AT CHURCH

Rev. T. D. Sumrall

Last Sunday marked the beginning of the second year of the Central Baptist church under the leadership of the Rev. T. D. Sumrall, above.

The past 12 months have seemed rather short in this busy field and fast growing church," stated Rev. Sumrall. "We have found the people of Pampa to be very kind and friendly and the people of our church are remarkably faithful and devoted. No finer people ever lived than those we find in the churches of Pampa," declared Rev. Sumrall.

In the Central Baptist church there has been a gradual increase in spirit and general interest through the passing months. Many have united with the church both, by letter from other Baptist churches out of the city, and many have been converted and added to the church. Most of these have been heads of families, men and women.

The finances of the church have shown an increase so that the indebtedness has been greatly reduced. It is expected that the present indebtedness will be retired within the next 60 days. Each month has shown an increase in gifts to the church. Each member has been asked, by the pastor, to give into the church one tenth of each month's income. This scriptural plan is easy and is in proportion to the ability of every member.

Plans are now under consideration for the erection of an auditorium which is greatly needed. The present building is practically filled with people at the regular Sunday services.

A revel meeting will open today at the Central Baptist church, Rev. H. T. Sullivan, pastor of Line Avenue Baptist Church of Amarillo will do the preaching and the music will be under direction of O. H. Gilstrap, who is the regular music director of the church. Rev. Sullivan is a powerful preacher of the Word of God. Day services will be held at 10 o'clock each morning and evening services will be at 7:45. Every one is invited to this meeting.

Oldest Texas Outdoor Rodeo To Be Held At Canadian July 4-6

Special To The NEWS
CANADIAN, June 7.—Dates established for the 19th Anvil Park rodeo are July 4-6, with a performance each afternoon, at historic Anvil Park, which will be the last year the contest will be held there. In 1942 all the events will be held at a new stadium to be built during the year on the outskirts of Canadian in the city park, where plans and preparations are under way for a WPA project with a new grandstand and chutes. The order calls for a five year program with various developments each year.

The Anvil Park rodeo is the oldest outdoor rodeo in Texas, having operated for 19 consecutive years. The first steer roping contest was held at Canadian in the summer of 1888 near the Santa Fe stockyards with Ellison Carroll, world's champion early-day roper as the main contestant, and now residing at Big Lake, Texas. Mr. Carroll participates in roping contests for men over 50 at rodeos in west-central Texas regularly.

$22,000 PURSE
The purses with added entry fees will amount to more than $22,000 this year, which is sure to bring the top contestants, Clyde Burk of Comanche, Okla., 1936 and 1938 RAA champion calf roper, and 1940 SRA champion calf roper will be one of the participants this year. Along with Burk will be numerous other champions, as have always been the case, because of the handsome prize list and continuity of operation of this established rodeo.

Events this year will consist of single steer roping, steer wrestling, calf roping, bronc riding and bull riding.

Amateurs Eligible
Local amateurs as well as professionals will be permitted to contest in the rodeo this year, and no one will be barred except those on the "black list" of the Cowboys Turf Association.

The committee has made a contract with Beutler Bros. of Elk City, Okla., to furnish the stock. This organization has acquired a number of new bucking horses this year, and a number of the world-beating bronc riders are sure to "bite the dust" as a consequence.

In addition to furnishing the bucking horses, Beutler will have their Mexican dogging steers, Brahma roping calves, and Brahma riding bulls.

The Anvil Park rodeo is a community wide organization with the committee made up of cattlemen, business men and professional men. Since no profits will inure to any individuals, the Anvil Park rodeo does not require an admission tax.

Earl Blackmore, local trucking contractor has been selected as chairman of the association this year.
