War Department Accepts Lindbergh's Air Corps Resignation

FDR'S REOPENING PROPOSAL ENDS COAL STRIKE

Secretary To FDR Assails Flier's Acts

Released Letter To Press Before President Got It

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—The War Department announced today that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh's resignation as a reserve air corps officer had been accepted.

The famous flier had written President Roosevelt he was tendering his resignation because the president's comments on him at a press conference last Friday left "no honorable alternative."

While it has been the war department's policy not to accept resignations from reserve officers during the emergency period, Secretary Stimson possessed discretionary power to act favorably or unfavorably on it.

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—Stephen Early, presidential secretary, said today that Charles A. Lindbergh's resignation as a reserve colonel in the army air corps "leads me to wonder if he is returning his decoration to Mr. Hitler."

Early referred to an honorary award for service to aviation given Lindbergh on a visit to Germany several years ago.

The White House official also was sharp-spoken in saying that Lindbergh had released a letter to President Roosevelt for publication before it was received at the White House. "Twice," he said, Lindbergh has followed that procedure.

Lindbergh gave out the letter yesterday in New York, notifying the president he was resigning his commission in the air corps reserve because of implications which he said the chief executive had made concerning his loyalty, character, and motives.

The resignation followed a press conference discussion in which Mr. Roosevelt had classified the famous flier with civil and revolutionary war appeasers.

Asked whether the president would consider it a loss if Lindbergh's resignation were accepted, Early said the answer would be provided when and if action on the resignation was taken by the war department.

Reporters said that this opened up a "nice question" of when the resignation should be accepted since it might open the gate for conscientious objectors to protest against any service to their government.

Lindbergh, it was noted, would have no duties to perform in time of war. "The president," Early commented, "indicated he wouldn't have any duties if he continued to hold his commission. Now there is a commission some one else can have."

Early said that while the newspapers printed Lindbergh's letter of resignation yesterday, "it has not yet

'Farmer Jim' Angles For Job As Senator

AUSTIN, April 29 (AP)—"Farmer Jim" Ferguson today began taking the political pulse of the people to see whether he would run for the United States senate.

He suggested that the voters send him a letter or postcard if they liked the things he stood for, commenting with a smile that it was now a popular process to sample public sentiment in that manner.

Dr. Jones To Be M. C. At Groom Event Tonight

Students of Groom schools and the Groom High school band will join Pampa entertainers in presenting an interesting and varied program when Pampa goodwill trippers go to Groom tonight for their last goodwill trip of the season.

The program will start leaving from the city hall at 6:30 o'clock with the last car leaving promptly at 7 o'clock.

The program will begin at 7:30 o'clock in the Groom High school auditorium. The Pampa visitors will be welcomed by Dalton Ford, superintendent of Groom schools, after which the Groom band, under direction of Robert Newton, will present a short concert.

Entertainment by Groom students will include piano solos by George Benson and Margie Babcock, accordion solo by 5-year-old Patricia Franklin, baritone solo by Mark Chilton, bass solo by Robert Newton and mellophone solo by J. C. Whitley.

Dr. Calvin Jones of Pampa will be master of ceremonies and also leader in a sing-song festival with Ken Bennett at the piano.

Dr. Jones will also introduce the Pampa program which will be in the form of a surprise.

"We want every business house in Pampa to be represented on tonight's trip, our first to Groom in several years," W. B. Weathered, chairman of the goodwill committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, announced today.

British And German Speedboats Battle

(By The Associated Press) A battle between British and German speedboats, attacking along the southeast "invasion" coast of England, was reported today as Nazi long-range guns on the French coast unleashed the heaviest cross-channel bombardment of the war.

The twin actions may have been "feeler" tabs of the type likely to become general in an invasion attempt.

Food Stamp Office Opens In Courthouse

Gray county's food stamp plan went into gear today as a temporary office was opened in the grand jury room at the courthouse and six workers began the "paper work" on the numerous forms necessary to certify persons to take part in the plan.

The paper work includes filling out more than a dozen forms. Some of these are: letters, notifying persons of their eligibility under the plan; identification cards, folders, two sets of forms covering each individual case, and a list of stamp plan eligibles by occupations.

Location of the office at the courthouse is only temporary, pending work to be done on the brick building at 535 E. Cuyler, which will be the headquarters.

Supervising the work is J. E. Yoder, Gray county issuing officer, and Robert Moss, Amarillo, district supervisor. Employed in the office are James M. Mercer, Lula H. Young, Fay B. Truder, Daley S. Appleton, Ernest P. Prather, and Edna P. Griffith.

The food stamp is estimated to benefit 750 Gray county families. Starting date of the plan is May 16. Preliminary work has to do with certification of persons wanting to secure food supplies under the regulations of the plan.

Open to Old Age Pensioners One of the seven classes eligible to obtain stamps is old age assistance clients, which there are 315 in Gray county. However, the eligibility of the pensioners is limited to those who are householders. If they are eligible they will be notified by the food stamp office after certification by the county case worker.

22 Counties Added Gray with a population of 23,847, is one of the 22 Texas counties recently added to the food stamp program.

Counties to which the program has been extended are Willacy, Cameron, Coleman, Jones, Briscoe, Donley, Collingsworth, Gray, Falls, Wheeler, Howard, Baylor, Jefferson, Caldwell, Bastrop, Navarro, Coryell, Grayson, Denton, Kaufman, Johnson, and Henderson.

Population of these 22 counties, according to the 1940 census is 730,343. It is estimated that there are 1,000,000 people in the area. The present population is 1,479,400 persons, receiving public assistance in the area. Actual operation of the plan is expected to begin about May 15.

Salaries Of Bus Drivers Here Raised

Salaries of bus drivers in the Pampa independent school district were increased by the board in regular session last night. The new salary scale will become effective September 1, 1941.

Salary of Joe Shelton, bus superintendent, was increased $10 a month while salaries of all other drivers were raised $5 a month. The board voted to pay the Truscon Steel corporation of Youngstown, Ohio, $10,000 on the $21,400 bill for windows for the new high school, according to contract terms.

President C. P. Buckler named W. D. Kelley as the school board's representative on the advisory council of the diversified occupation board, succeeding L. L. McCole.

The board voted to pay its share for paving streets on the east and north sides of the Woodrow Wilson school campus.

Board members continued discussion of a location for a machine and woodwork shop. Several plans have been submitted and costs will be secured before any action is taken. The board has under consideration construction of a new brick building, construction of a cheaper type of building, installation of machinery in the basement of the new school, and securing a temporary location.

Machinery for the shop is being purchased and it will be stored until a shop is secured.

Churchill Calls For Debate On War

LONDON, April 29 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill turned down today a suggestion that he form a streamlined supreme war cabinet and he announced that full dress war debate would be held in the house of commons next week.

The house greeted with loud cheers Churchill's announcement that he would be offered the following motion for debate:

"That this house approves the policy of the government in sending help to Greece and declares its confidence that our operations in the middle East will be pursued by the government with utmost vigor."

Churchill said that if the house wished the debate could be extended over two days, explaining that full dress war debate would be held on the first sitting day after this week.

He indicated that Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, whose trip to the Balkans and the middle East preceded the Greek campaign, would "take an important part" in the discussion. Eden is expected to report on his diplomatic efforts in the middle East to build up a front against the Axis.

The inter-city meeting will be substituted for the Pampa club's regular weekly Wednesday noon luncheon.

Late News

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, April 29.—With a snappy "no sir," Prime Minister Churchill flatly rejected today a suggestion that he form a streamlined supreme war cabinet and called for a vote of confidence next on his conduct of the war.

Churchill put the question of his conduct of the war in general and the ill-starred Balkan campaign in particular before the house in an hour and a half debate which will be held next week on the entire issue.

BERLIN, April 29 (AP)—Informed sources said tonight that German troops were "approaching" the last harbors in extreme southern and southwestern Greece.

These harbors were described as the only ones available for the moving the remainder of the British and Greek forces still fighting in Greece.

Students Clean Up Schools In Campaign

Pampa students, 3400 of them, today added a new subject to their studies, as spring "schoolcleaning" was in progress in six Pampa schools.

Busier than a fire siren in London, the students put out plenty of clean grease as they cleaned up desks, removed ink stains, and generally did a thorough job of cleaning up all rooms as their contribution of the city-wide Clean-Up Campaign which opened Sunday.

Janitors in the public schools were also busy as they worked over school campuses.

An inspection of the schools is to be made on Thursday by Supt. L. L. Sore and Ernest Cabe, supervisor of instruction.

City Manager Steve Matthews was hopeful today that the rainy spell of the week-end was over, and said that work of cleaning up alleys would be continued as rapidly as the weather permitted.

"It makes cleaner streets, streets and alleys should be cleaned up and kept in a clean sanitary condition."

"Fire losses are reduced. The accumulation of waste and rubbish are removed thereby eliminating the causes of many destructive fires. Fire traps should be razed and replaced by modern, up-to-date buildings."

Rotarians Will Hear Official Tomorrow Night

Rotarians of Pampa, Berger, Canadian, Shamrock, Wellington, and Panhandle, and their ladies, will gather in Pampa tomorrow night to hear an address by Allison Ware, of Chico, Calif., Rotary International vice-president.

It will be the first time an International vice-president has ever been in Pampa. Mr. Ware comes here from Colorado Springs, where he has been attending a district conference. From Pampa he will go to Amarillo, thence to Falls, and on to El Paso for another district meeting.

Charlie Burton will be toastmaster at the program here at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow night, to be held in the basement of the First Methodist church. An attendance of 200 is expected.

The inter-city meeting will be substituted for the Pampa club's regular weekly Wednesday noon luncheon.

Mine Owners Boost Wages Of Workers

$1 A Day Hike To Prevail Pending Settlement

WASHINGTON, April 29 (AP)—The United Mine Workers union announced today that soft coal production would resume Thursday morning in the nation's bituminous fields shut down since April 1 in a dispute over a new wage contract.

The announcement was made by a spokesman for Union President John L. Lewis after he had discussed with his district presidents in the Appalachian coal area the decision of southern producers last night to accept President Roosevelt's proposal to reopen the mines.

The union said it had received the notice from L. Ebersole Gaines, chairman of the southern producers' group, that the latter was willing to negotiate a new two-year agreement with the miners' union to be made retroactive to the date of resumption of coal production.

The southern operators unexpectedly agreed to a $1-a-day wage boost pending the final contract settlement.

Union officials said the reopening of the mines was scheduled for Thursday instead of Wednesday because Thursday is the beginning of a payroll period in the mines. If production started Wednesday, they said, it would mean that the operators would have to make up a payroll for one day instead of a full day period.

The end of the month-old deadlock was buoyant news to worried defense officials, for it promised speedy replacement of the dwindling fuel supplies which threatened to cause major curtailment of arms production in vital defense plants.

The soft coal mines in the eight states Appalachian area and outlying districts which produce approximately 11,000,000 tons a week, were expected to go back into production as soon as John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers union and the northern and southern producers can complete the details for getting miners back into the pits.

The break in the coal wage controversy which has kept the mines shut since April 1 came last night when President Roosevelt's Secretary Stephen Early announced that the southern operators had accepted a proposal by the president to reopen the southern mines and negotiate a wage agreement with the UMW on a retroactive basis to the date of resumption.

The decision of the southern operators to put a $1 a day wage boost into effect at once—raising the southern rate from $5.50 to $6.50—provided a surprise since most of the mine union officials since the president had not asked for any wage change in his back-to-work proposal a week ago.

The decision of the southern operators was reached after a night conference which followed a visit with Commerce Secretary Jesse Jones and a senate committee in-

The Looking Glass Stories Praised By Canadian Reader

Are you reading 'The Looking Glass' stories by Mrs. Stella Hall on the editorial page?

If not, you are missing out on something good, according to a reader from Canadian who wrote: "I consider these intensely interesting stories to be the essence of American folk-lore. They appear to be a new form of literature—not short stories, nor short, short stories. The people she writes about are so like the people we know, and so like we ourselves, that it's like looking at ourselves in a mirror. I'm writing this note because I'm afraid all your readers have not yet discovered Mrs. Stella."

Wheat Quota Election Set For May 31

Wheat quotas neared the stage of actual proclamation over the state this week with the indicated wheat supply for 1941 still well above the level calling for a marketing quota. There was no quota asked on wheat production last year, as has been the case in cotton and other farm products. In 1940 559 Gray county farmers produced 797,443 bushels of wheat. An election will be held in this county on May 31 to determine if Gray farmers want a quota on their wheat.

Love Turns Down Liquor Board Head

AUSTIN, April 29. (AP)—Thomas B. Love of Dallas informed Governor W. Lee O'Daniel today that he could not accept appointment as a member of the state liquor control board. The appointment was announced and confirmation by the senate requested yesterday by the governor. Love told the governor he was profoundly grateful for the honor and the call to public service but deeply regretted he was not able to give the time and attention which the position, because of its importance, required. Immediately after the appointment, he said it was a surprise because the governor had not mentioned it to him. An ardent prohibitionist, Love is a former state senator, a former speaker of the state house of representatives and a former Democratic national committeeman for Texas. His declination opens for the governor once more the duty of filling a vacancy on the liquor board caused by the senate's rejection of the appointment of Dr. J. R. Bradford of Dallas.

Parade Of Values Program Outlined

Plans for Pampa's 1941 Parade of Values, to be observed the week of May 12, were outlined to Pampa merchants at a meeting last night in the city hall. M. C. Johnson, chairman of the steering committee, presided. There will be no ballyhoo or parades introducing this year's observance, Mr. Johnson reported. Instead the Parade of Values will be strictly a merchants affair with merchants conducting their own special sales, advertising campaigns, etc. Pampa merchants are ordering merchandise for the big event and are preparing special advertising features and window displays. The chamber of commerce, sponsors of the celebration, will present merchants with special streamers, etc., for advertising the Parade of Values.

American Industry Surpassed Germany, Says NAM Head

PHILADELPHIA, April 29. (AP)—American industry has performed a modern miracle of defense, declared President Walter Fuller of the National Association of Manufacturers. "Through the voluntary co-operation of free men, we have made more progress in 10 months than Hitler did in two and a half years with his much-vaunted dictated economy." Addressing 500 industrialists from this heart of the "arsenal" region last night, the head of Curtis Publishing company pointed out that industry had absorbed $13,000,000,000 in defense orders in less than a year and placed 99 per cent of them in production. "And our February survey shows that 88 per cent of the manufacturers expect to deliver on or before contract delivery date." By the end of 1942, Fuller stated, America will be "the unsurpassed arsenal of the world."

Axis Commission Convenes In Rome

ROME, April 29. (AP)—A joint German-Italian-Japanese commission created to carry out provisions of the three-powers pact, met today, an official announcement said, to consider military, political, and economic problems arising under the alliance. The meeting was presided over by Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano, and attended by German Ambassador Hans-Georg Viktor von Mackensen, and Japanese Ambassador Zembie Hirokiri. It followed a similar session in Berlin two days ago, the announcement said, and another session is to be held in a few days at Tokyo.

Inequality In Tax Exemptions Unfair Congress Advised

WASHINGTON, April 29. (AP)—An investment advisor told congress today that present law permitted "the gambling houses in Reno" to deduct business expenses from their taxable income while a widow was denied the same privilege. This statement was made by Clinton Davidson, representing Fiduciary Counsel, Inc., of New Jersey, in urging the House Ways and Means committee to approve a clarification of law with regard to such deductions. Davidson said that in a recent decision, the supreme court had held that an individual, unlike a business, could not deduct such items as book-keeping, safety vault rent and so on, "because of certain technical wording." Up to the time of the decision, Davidson said, internal revenue collectors had allowed such expenses, frequently incurred by individuals, such as widows, in connection with collecting and managing their incomes.

We Have Some Bananas Today, Say Merchants

"Yes, we have no bananas—or pineapples," was the theme of Pampa grocers over the week-end but today they say they have bananas and a few pineapples. The shortage of the fruit is caused, wholesalers say, by the transfer of ships usually operating between South America and the United States to some other line or to the British. Wholesalers said they had no bananas and no pineapples over the week-end.

HINGER NAMED CAGE COACH—ALLS HEIR TO GREAT TEAM

Jack Davis Will Tutor Gorilla Squad

Oscar Hinger, head of the physical education department at Pampa high school and for the past two years football and basketball coach of the high school Gorillas, was elected head basketball coach last night at a meeting of the school board.

The board also elected Jack Davis, former coach of the junior high Pee-wees, as coach of the high school Gorilla team to succeed Hinger.

Coach C. P. McWright of the junior high Reapers elected to remain as reaper coach and his salary was placed on the same scale as the Gorilla coach.

Dick Livingston, former Horace Mann school coach, was named to coach the Pee-wees, succeeding Jack Davis, in junior high where he was transferred as a teacher last fall.

Coach Hinger will take over the best prospective team the school has had in 10 years. It is the most promising club in a decade because it is one of two quintets which Odus Mitchell, former coach, took to the district meet, the regional tournament and the state finals at Austin.

Coach Hinger's starting lineup next season was Coach Odus Mitchell through most of last season. It will be remembered that Coach Mitchell had two teams, and he couldn't decide which was the best. The season was almost half over before he finally decided to start the boys who wouldn't back next season. There was not that much difference in the two squads.

Because Coach Hinger will have the most promising prospects in the history of the school, of course the team should win the district meet which will be held next February at Shamrock, instead of Pampa where it has been held for the last 10 years. On account of the experience the boys already had, the Harvesters next year should also win the regional, and compete again at the state meet. But of course what they will actually do remains to be seen. On the basis of their past record they should go even farther than last season's team.

Boys who will be back next season are Pat Flanigan, center; Leslie Burge and Tom Cox, forwards; T. J. Halter, Wayne Ott and Floyd Allen, guards. Starters of last season's team who will not be back are Grover Lee Heiskell and Ed Terrell, forwards; Billy Means and Thomas Dewey, guards. Dewey recently enlisted in the navy.

Flanigan was a starter throughout the year and was all-regional center at Canyon. Halter, Ott and Burge were starters on the 1940-41 team in about half the games.

Hinger will again take over the team he coached when Flanigan, Halter, Ott, Allen, Burge were sophomores. That was season before last, and was the spring of the feud between Hinger's sophs and Coach Mitchell's glamor pants. That was the first and only sophomore team of challenging importance, but that may have been because the material was outstanding. Last season the material was mediocre and the team was mediocre.

The new Harvester basketball coach who will fall heir to this world of material, graduated from West Texas State college at Canyon in May of 1938. He came to Pampa as director of physical education and football coach in junior high school in September of 1938.

In the fall of 1939 Coach Hinger was transferred to the high school faculty where he took charge of the physical education department and also coach of the Gorillas or second team.

Coach Davis is also a graduate of West Texas State college, class of 1938. He came to Pampa as football coach at Horace Mann school in 1938. The following year he was transferred to junior high school where he organized the Pee-wees, composed of boys too small for the Reaper football squad.

Coach Livingston came to Pampa last year from Texas Wesleyan college at Fort Worth as coach of the Baker school ward school team which won the conference championship. Last winter he was moved to junior high school.

Dodgers Beat Reds For 7th Successive Victory

By JUDSON BAILEY Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cincinnati Reds last year were world champions, and they may be again, but it must be said at this early date that other teams have improved while the Reds have remained stationary.

The champs came east yesterday and bumped into the Brooklyn Dodgers, one of the National League's improved clubs. Their clash was a battle of titans, but the Dodgers emerged with their seventh successive victory, 3-2, and took over first place in the senior circuit, while the Reds were left languishing in fourth place.

The Reds had good pitching—a six-hit job by their veteran ace, Paul Derringer. They had their customary flawless fielding—including one of the most spectacular catches of the young season when Ival (Polson Ivy) Goodman stood almost against the rightfield fence, 300 feet from the plate, and jumped high to spear a liner in the sixth inning. They had as good an offense as the Dodgers—six hits, including a home run by Buck McCormick.

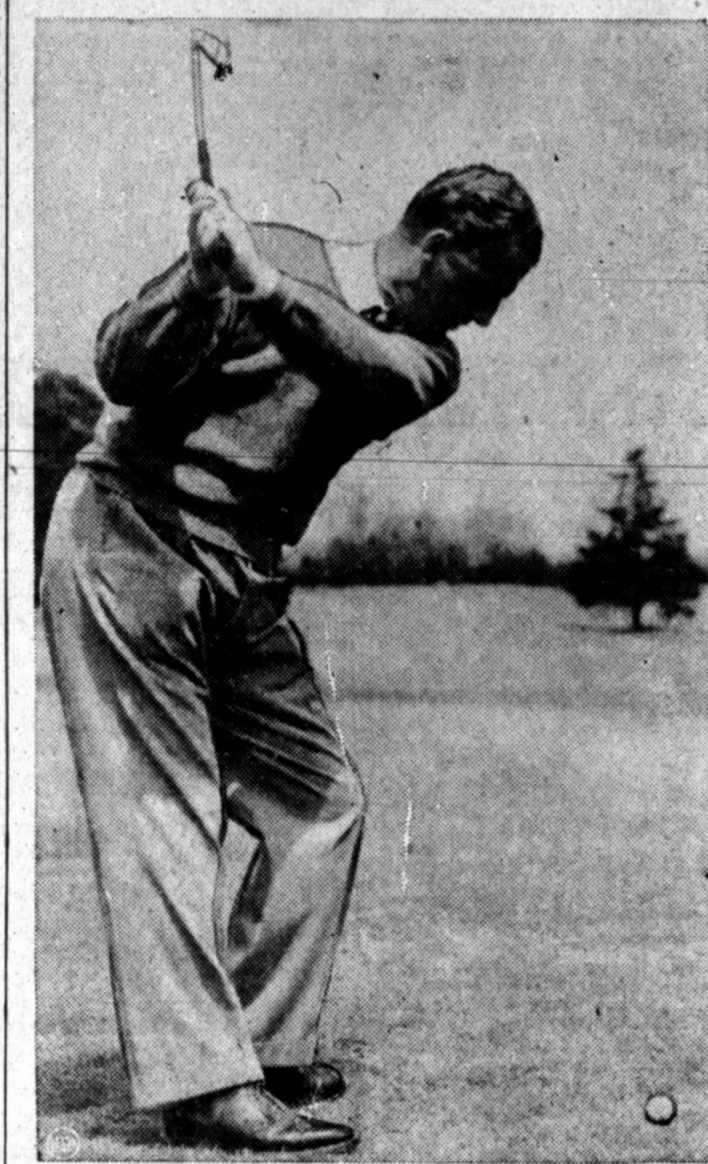

But the Dodgers had that "zing" that challenges sometimes get and champions eventually lose.

The Reds haven't skidded, but to finish 12 games in front of the Dodgers last year they had to win 41 games by one run and Brooklyn had to fall into a lot of trouble like Joe Medwick's beaning, Harry Lavaretto's appendicitis operation, Wyatt's sore arm and Pee-wee Reese's broken heel bone.

You can bet that the fighting is going to be a lot fiercer this year. The St. Louis Cardinals are in the middle of it, also. They were idle yesterday, along with the rest of the league but today were to open their eastern swing against the third-place New York Giants.

The American league action has switched to the west. While the eastern teams were traveling yesterday, the Cleveland Indians reinforced their grip on first place by drubbing the Detroit Tigers, 7-2. The Chicago White Sox moved into a third-place tie with a 2-1 edge over the St. Louis Browns.

Wood Closed-Face Player And An Open-Face Hitter

Craig Wood at top of backswing with No. 5 iron. Note that the face of the clubhead is closed.

(Third of six informative and instructive articles.)

By Craig Wood

Winner of Masters' Tournament and Golf's Foremost Teacher

NEW YORK, April 29—I was a chronic hooker while hitting the ball with the face of the club-head closed at impact.

I eliminated the hook by turning my left hand a bit to the left, thus seeing that it was not so much toward the top of the shaft.

When the left hand is turned toward the right too far, it blocks wrist action at impact.

Before the reader becomes confused about the open and closed face, permit me to explain that when the face of the club is open at the top of the swing it must be closed before impact.

It might be said that I am a closed-face player and an open-face hitter. I seldom hook.

An open face at the top of the swing has the face of the club at right angles to the ground.

A closed face at the top of the swing has the face of the club turned a bit skyward.

A closed face at impact has the face turned inward toward the ground. The reverse is true of an open face.

Cliff Bergere Can Become Iron Man Of Speedway Race

INDIANAPOLIS, April 29 (AP)—Cliff Bergere, tall, dapper Hollywood automobile stunt man, has yet to win the Indianapolis Speedway 500-mile race but this year he can become the "iron man" of the famous Hoosier arena of speed.

Bergere, whose bright-colored clothes make him look more like a fashion plate than race driver, needs to drive only 186 miles of the May 30th race to cover more miles on the Indianapolis track than any other man.

And if he only starts he will gain at least a tie for having driven in the most races.

This will be Bergere's 14th start, but Ralph Hepburn, of Los Angeles, can equal that mark by also starting the 1941 classic.

Gray-haired, 44-year-old Bergere now has driven 5,064 miles at Indianapolis, a figure surpassed only by Louis Meyer of Huntington Park, Calif., who has 5,249 miles to his credit. Meyer has retired from competition.

the face of the clubhead is closed . . . turned skyward.

No. 7 iron up and the face of my club is 50 per cent closed at the top of the swing.

In this way the ball is hit lower and this is better controlled in bad weather, particularly when it is windy.

Lawson Little offers a striking example of this. The National Open champion has won several tournaments under unfavorable conditions.

Canadian Football Squad Largest In School's History

CANADIAN, April 29—The Canadian high school Wildcats are going into their second week of spring training with 50 candidates still in uniform. This is the largest number of boys ever to turn out for football in Canadian.

Coach Bob Mack Gibson spent nearly a week scraping up old uniforms for his squad and all have not yet been accommodated.

Twenty squadmen, with 14 of them lettermen, make up the main squad. Coach Gibson reports sophomore and freshmen lines that are heavier than his varsity but they lack experience. Nearly every lineman from last year's team will be lost.

The past year was a banner one for Canadian high school. The Wildcat football team won eight games and lost only two games, to Phillips and Panhandle, the Wildcat basketball team won 20 out of 24 games, while the Wildcat boxing team broke even in dual meets.

Much interest was taken in track and field this spring and a good team is expected next season.

Flying Cadets Report At Kelly Field

SAN ANTONIO, April 29 (AP)—Seventy-six flying cadets from the first class of 96 to be graduated from the air corps basic flying school at San Angelo reported to the advanced flying school at Kelly Field here yesterday. The remaining 20 students were assigned to the new air corps pursuit school at Selma, Ala.

At the same time Randolph Field here made preparations to receive a new class of basic students from civil elementary schools after sending 130 cadets to Kelly Field, 120 to Brooks Field here and 80 flying cadets to Barksdale Field, Shreveport, La.

$40,000 Blue Pair May Not Run In Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 29 (AP)—Topping off the list of circumstances that makes this the "different derby," a report went the rounds today that the derby trial mile this afternoon may uncover an injury to keep the $40,000 Blue Pair out of Saturday's run for the roses.

Starting from apparently well founded sources, this rumor said the colt that Tom Bragg, the California and New York investment broker, bought from C. C. Van Meter for $40,000 less than two weeks ago had turned up with a splint ailment and sore back and that his performance in the annual mile "preview" would decide his chances of getting to the post Saturday.

Trainer Willie Crump refused to discuss the whole thing, but it was noted that the atmosphere around Blue Pair's stable was not of the holiday variety that usually stamps an optimistic derby barn.

At any rate this possibility and the showing—if any—of a colt named Sporting, purchased recently by Dan Withers of Chicago, are the only factors which save today's trial stake from being just a $2,500 workout.

So far as Warren Wright's Whirlaway and the four others in the field of seven are concerned the whole thing might just as well be a barn dance. Because Whirlaway, to be ridden by Eddie Arcaro Saturday, will go to the post Saturday, with Joe of scratch today, and the other quartet—Cadmium, Shaung, Quintillion and Burman—won't get in the derby even through the back door, according to their handlers.

Ball Pitched By Parrish Fractures Tulsan's Skull

(By The Associated Press)

A fractured skull suffered by Ivan (Goober) Crawford, Tulsa centerfielder, when struck on the head by a pitched ball, cast a pall over the 2-1 victory which the Cats wrested from the Oilers in a Texas league baseball contest at Fort Worth last night.

Fellow players declared Crawford "froze" at the plate as Ben Parrish, Fort Worth moundsman, released a pitch in the fifth inning. The ball struck Crawford over the right ear. Physicians at the Fort Worth hospital where Crawford was taken in an ambulance said an X-ray examination disclosed a skull fracture.

In the only other league game the Dallas Rebels kicked away a 9-2 lead in the ninth frame of their fray with the Oklahoma City Indians to lose 11-9 in an extra-inning contest played under the incandescents.

The Shreveport at Houston and Beaumont at San Antonio games, both scheduled as doubleheaders, were rained out.

Oklahoma City, apparently too far outdistanced to be a threat, scored seven runs in the first half of the ninth to tie up their game charges through a skull practice in the gymnasium.

Coaches Buck Prejean and Mac Best, new backfield coach, have been putting their Harvesters through stiff workouts in the hope of whipping them into shape for a tough season.

Neither head coach has named starting lineups for the scrimmages. They plan to scramble their teams and then select definite starters for the final scrimmages the following week.

Harvesters And Reapers To Hold Intra-Squad Scrimmages This Week

The junior high Reapers and high school Harvesters will hold intra-squad scrimmages this week, scheduled as split-second precision, complicated maneuvers, and a modicum of pageantry—stuff he picked up on the drill grounds and in engineering work.

It all paid off for the Vols—sending them to three post-season bowls in successive years—and for the major himself—enabling him to become one of the nation's highest-paid coaches.

Now the major is to return to the service—his first love—and he'll be taking with him a lot of tricks he picked up in 20 years of coaching when he reports at Norfolk, Va., next month. He was ordered to army duty yesterday.

Just how valuable the lessons are Neyland has learned in the handling of men, mapping out strategy for Saturday afternoon battles, and in the use of practical psychology will be determined later.

One afternoon, fall when the talk switched from the bright prospects for his third undefeated, untied season to the major's favorite subject, the army, he observed:

"I believe the experiences I've had in teaching young men to play football have been as beneficial to me—an army man—as was the early training I received in the army."

The major talked about the problems he has had to solve in welding groups of strong-willed, individualistic, awkward youths into smooth-working, effective football machines.

"For having had this experience," he said, "I believe I would make a better officer if ever I return to active service."

Game Rained Out At Clovis

Rain, no game. That was the terse announcement received here last night from Clovis, N. M., where the Pampa Oilers are waiting to play the Clovis Pioneers. Should the weather clear up today the two teams will stage a double bill tonight.

Tomorrow night the Oilers will open in Wichita Falls, new club in the West Texas-New Mexico league. On Friday the Oilers go to Lubbock for the first of three games and then they return home Monday night for a week's stay.

Kelch Clark, catcher scheduled to report Friday to the Oilers, is still at his home in Enid, Okla., where his father is critically ill. He wired Business Manager Harold Miller that he was delayed because of his father's condition.

Miami High School Athletes Honored

MIAMI, April 29—Every boy who participated in any school sports in Miami high school was invited to a big steak barbecue Thursday afternoon, given by Coach Garrison B. Rush and Mrs. Rush. All lettermen in the three major sports, football, basketball, and boxing, for the last two years, were present.

Leaving the school at 3 o'clock, the boys, each accompanied by a girl friend, motored to the seven-mile park east of Miami, where the barbecue was held. Coach and Mrs. Rush, Mr. and Mrs. Hood Willis and Mr. and Mrs. Sloan Baker accompanied them.

About 55 in all enjoyed the afternoon's fun and the huge feed provided for them.

'Women Pay All' Dance To Be Sponsored By Council

"Turn about is fair play," say the boys, "and now it is the girls' turn to pay off." A 24-hour WPA (Women Pay All) Day has been announced by the Student Council to give the girls an idea of what it costs the "down-trodden" boys every time they have a date.

Premier event of this week will be a dance in the gymnasium at 9 p. m., Friday, May 2. A nickelodeon will furnish the music.

So you will know just how to behave on this "wrong-way" day, a set of rules has been drawn by the Emily Post of the council, Gretchen Ann Bruton, Betty Lou Leonard, Ernestine Crane, and W. C. Epperson, lone masculine member of the social committee.

Following rules were drawn for the dance:

All dates shall be made by girls. Both boys and girls may cut in. The admission fee of 25 cents per couple must be paid by the girl.

Admission for those who come stag will be 35 cents.

Girls must observe the same courtesies toward boys that the boys supposedly exercise toward the girls—opening doors and the like.

One feature of box supper was cancelled because it conflicted with the A Cappella choir date.

Girls P. E. Classes

Become Bowlers

Miss Evelyn Gregory, physical education director, has been taking P. E. classes bowling for the past two weeks.

"This was some of the girls' first experience at bowling, and they seemed to enjoy it very much," Miss Gregory said.

Girls rolling high scores are: Lavone Stone, Pat Bisset, Betty Jean McAfee, Pat Garfield, Jennie Graham, Beth Bailey, Ruby Kyle, Betty Lou Leonard, and Betty Jean Myers.

Class Gives Reports On Various Subjects

Each student in Mr. W. H. Galloway's Occupations class is writing reports on various subjects.

Subjects of the reports will be chosen by the students. Subjects which have been chosen are: Mechanical Refrigeration, Auto Mechanics, U. S. Navy Pilot, Secretary, Military Career, Motion Picture Management, Forestry, Women in Aviation, Salesmanship, Department Store Salesmanship, Civil Service, Aviation, Transportation by Truck, Interior Decorator, Telephone Operator, Beauty Culture, Clerical Work, Nursing, Department Store Occupations, and Construction Engineer.

Jeanne's essay has been entered in the state contest.

Leonard Hollis and a certain little girl by the name of Bertha are always seen together. Isn't love grand?

DON'T BE A CLASSROOM PEST

Are you a class room pest?

You answer, "No, of course not."

But lets hang on and rate yourself before you make a hasty, incorrect answer.

Do you go into a classroom and visit everyone else before you go to your seat?

Do you ask silly, unnecessary questions just to be noticed, or to annoy the teacher?

Do you persistently talk while someone else in the class is discussing the lesson?

Do you continually borrow writing materials and never return them? Remember some one pays for them.

If you answer "yes" to any of these questions start in tomorrow to reform, and don't be a class room pest.

DREAM BECOMES REALITY

A Cappella Choir To Give Concert

The high school A Cappella choir will give a concert Thursday night, May 11 at 8 o'clock to raise funds to enable it to go to the National Music Festival at Waco. Pampa's choir was the only mixed group to win a first rating in the regional meet in Amarillo.

Pampa has had an A Cappella choir for four years. It has won a first rating in the regional festival all three years it has been held and last year won a second rating in the national contest.

The entire proceeds from the concert will go to pay for rooms for the members, the fees, individual fees, and the expenses of the bus driver.

The choir will leave Tuesday, May 6, and return on Thursday.

Said Miss Helen Martin, choir director, "I hope everyone will attend the concert, as it will help a lot toward expenses. The program will include all types of music from 'Adoramus' to 'Oh Susanna'."

Last Wednesday the choir went to Miami to sing for the Chamber of Commerce good will trippers. A large crowd was on hand to hear them.

Poultry Judges To Be Given Sweaters

Poultry judges, Don Stanley, Oran Rake, and Julian Hicks, are to be given sweaters for their excellent work in the judging contest held at Lubbock March 29.

Out of the 50 teams judging, these boys placed fifth. Julian Hicks was high point man with 348.5 points, while Don Stanley and Oran Rake followed with 343.3 points each.

Bill Stockstill, Herndon Sloan, and Calvin Skaggs will receive letters for placing twelfth in livestock judging.

J. L. Lester, instructor of the F. A. boys, was well pleased with the results.

D. O. Students Have Photographs Made

For the past week, students of the Diversified Occupation class have their pictures made while they are working at their jobs.

Carl Adams, amateur photographer and Horace Mann band director, took the pictures. Pictures were developed at a local studio where they are to be made into a composite and published in a special edition of the Little Harvester dedicated to the work and aims of Mr. Galloway's classes.

Mr. Galloway stated that 207 pictures have been ordered by students who like this opportunity to see themselves at work.

Sone Sends Open Letter To Faculty And Students

In a letter to the teachers and students of Pampa, Supt. L. L. Sone has written that the city of Pampa has designated the week of April 28 through May 3 as Clean-Up Week for Pampa, Tuesday, April 29, he wrote, was set as Clean-Up Day for the school system.

A copy of his letter is as follows: Pampa, Texas April 22, 1941.

To the Teachers and Students:

At the Principals' Meeting on Monday, April 21, the subject of discussion was the care of school property, including desks and all other school equipment. The administrators feel that it is our duty as teachers and students, to see that this equipment has the very best of care.

The city has designated the week of April 28 through May 3 as Clean-Up Week for Pampa, Tuesday, April 29, was set as Clean-Up Day for the school system. We should like to encourage every teacher and every student in the Pampa School system to make a special effort to see that our school plants and equipment are in perfect condition. All scratches and all marks should be removed from desks. Any condition that cannot be taken care of by the teacher or the student should be called to the attention of the janitor.

On May 1 and 2, an inspection of every room and every desk throughout the entire school system will be made by the superintendent, the supervisor of instruction, and the principal of each school.

L. L. Sone, Superintendent of Schools

Mary Gurley, Elizabeth Roberts, Martha Pierson, and Elaine Carlson were Amarillo visitors recently.

Herndon Sloan, president of the F.P.A. has been out of school with a troublesome knee.

Mrs. R. H. Sanford was absent last week with the mumps. Mrs. Bruce Walters substituted.

Wanda Davis's green eyes exactly match one of her dresses.

Faye Walker visited her family in Oklahoma City during the Easter holidays.

Eugenia Phelps bowled a total of 106, the highest in the fourth hour physical education class their first day of bowling.

Charles Erickson had to go to Miami to find his old-fashioned shoes for the one-act play. He found you can buy four new pairs for only fifty cents.

Jerry Morse has returned to school after a dreadful week and a half of bowling.

Charles Erickson had to go to Miami to find his old-fashioned shoes for the one-act play. He found you can buy four new pairs for only fifty cents.

Heleen Morse has a smart new blue tweed jacket. It is Mexican made.

Betty Lee Thomasson has returned from Springfield, Mo., where she visited her uncle.

The award was presented during Wednesday assembly.

Jeanne Cox, 16-year-old Sophomore, was awarded the prize given by the Women's Auxiliary of the State Medical Association for her essay on "Increasing the Span of Human Life."

Betty Ann Culberson placed second.

Martha Fry has been wearing flowers in her light blond hair.

Lenore Stone has a jingly bracelet that isn't hearts. It is Mexican donkeys, vases, men and hats.

Dental Survey Shows Improved Teeth

According to Coach Oscar Hinger, who compiled the report, the condition of Pampa High school students' teeth is much better than in preceding years. Of 516 students examined 352 were found to need the attention of a dentist. This is about 68 per cent as compared with 86 per cent which were found defective in the survey last year. "The improvement is due largely to visits to the dentist which follow the annual examination given the students," Coach Hinger said. "Many other schools have included this examination in their calendar, and are finding that the results justify the trouble."

Council Members Will Receive Pins

Fifteen members of the Student Council will receive pins for regular attendance. To receive one of these bronze pins, the council members may miss only three meetings, one on personal business, and two on school business.

Members who come in late may miss only one meeting, that on school business.

Pins were awarded to 11 members of the Student Council last year.

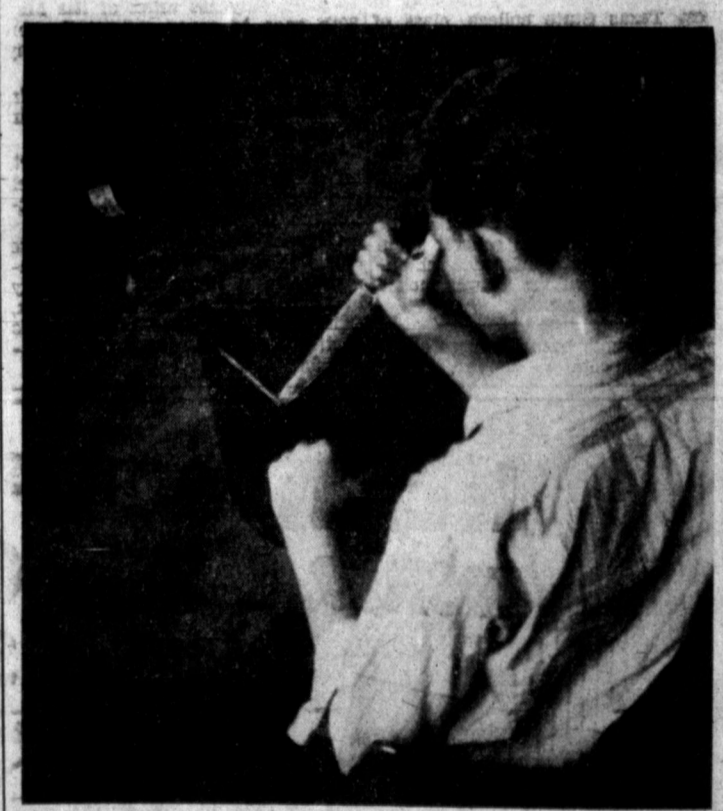

These members will receive a pin this year: Doris Taylor, Ollie Crossman, John Tom McCoy, Gretchen Ann Bruton, Betty Jean Myers, W. C. Epperson, Nell Holden, Mollie Kennedy, Ernestine Crane, Calvin Skaggs, Billy Bass, Betty Lou Leonard, Fern Simmons, Eld Terrell and George Glascock.

Harvester Band Adds New Numbers

At the present time the Pampa Harvester Band is practicing on several new numbers. This will bring the band repertoire up to around 50 numbers.

New numbers which have been added are "The First Movement of the Symphony on B Minor" which is Schubert's "Unfinished Symphony," "Kiss Me Again" by Victor Herbert, "March of the Toys," from Victor Herbert's "Babes in Toyland," "Texas Plains," a march by Cassady Myddleton's "Down South" an American sketch and the "Overture 1812" by Tchaikowsky which was the band contest piece six years ago.

THIS WEEK: PUBLIC ENEMY NO. 1

Students in all Pampa schools conducted a war on dirt, ink and pencil marks, and untidiness of all kinds today as part of Pampa's observance of a city-wide Clean-Up week.

Sandpaper, varnish, soap, water, rags, and plenty of "elbow grease" were used this morning as pupils spent the first period as amateur furniture repairmen, reworking old desks and polishing the new ones.

"Student opinion in senior high school is against pupils who destroy property and 'mar' furniture," D. F. Osborne, high school principal, said yesterday. "This is shown by the fact that offenders are comparatively few among the more than 700 using the building," Mr. Osborne said. "We are especially interested in this clean-up since we wish to leave this building in excellent condition for junior high students who will use this same equipment next year.

"Next year we will be in one of the most beautiful high school buildings in Texas, and we want to begin now to get ready to care for the new by showing that we have appreciated the old," Mr. Osborne concluded.

SERIAL STORY

LOVE POWER

BY OREN ARNOLD

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY Leana Sorni is annoyed by the way Bob treats Carolyn, hates the efficient secretary. After a turbulent session with Bob, Leana returns to her own office. A plan begins to develop in her mind. She owns a share in X-999. She will take it, leave the laboratory wrecked. It will not be necessary to murder Bob, Leana decides to act, quickly.

CAROLYN READS A WIRE

CHAPTER XIII
Less than an hour Leana Sorni had crystallized a rather daring plan. One to change the entire course of her life hereafter.

Robert Hale's tact reprimand, because she protested against Carolyn's "intrusion" here, had left her furious. Plainly, then, she must take complete possession of the X-999 herself. In a way, it belonged to her. Dr. Hale could never have achieved his great discovery without her aid here, at least not for many more months, she felt.

And with the substance actually in her possession, plus her own reputation as a scientist in the Schoenfeld Laboratory with Dr. Hale, she could command attention in any other scientific center—command the world to bow at her feet.

Before stupid, childish Robert Hale could even realize what had happened, Leana told herself angrily, she could make herself immensely powerful and rich. Maybe, then, Robert Hale would come crawling to her if she still wanted him.

The young woman built up the scene in her imagination to astonishing reality. Normally, she would have been shocked at herself; shocked that an otherwise orderly, trained mind could go off at such a tangent. But in her intense training, Leana Sorni had taken no cognizance of the personal self, and did not now recognize that she was, after all, very human.

As if to strengthen a case which needed strengthening, Leana wrote a telegram. She worded it with infinite care so as to indicate tremendously important information without actually revealing anything for sure. She didn't dare telephone it; she called the telegraph office for a delivery boy. The message was addressed to the general manager of one of the greatest industrial plants in North America, one whom Leana had known personally for several years and who had maintained a more than ordinary interest in her work here with Robert Hale.

"He will jump at the chance!" Leana assured herself, with keen satisfaction. "He will recognize the possibilities at once. He will keep quiet and still do exactly as I say!"

BOB HALE readily agreed to Carolyn's suggestion that the X-999 be shipped west by train, under special guard.

"The railroad goes right through the village of Blair, which is nearest the place," Bob told her this morning. "Normally a freight train wouldn't stop there, but, of course, it can. That is an exceedingly rugged country."

"How will we then take the stuff to the cave, Bob?" Carolyn wanted to know.

"Cave? Oh, I forgot to tell you. There is no cave. Something better. Four miles from Blair, the village, is Tonto Mountain, and an abandoned mine. There is a shaft, like a small tunnel, which slants almost horizontally into the mountain. There's even an old narrow-gauge rail track for ore carts still in fair shape, and it can haul our leaden containers nearly three-quarters of a mile. Right into the very depths of a rock mountain, Carolyn! It's perfect!"

"She was impressed. 'I should think so, Bob!'"
"Tonto Mountain is half rock, apparently. One side solid granite, so high it looks scary, the other side is eroded granite, shale, loose earth, with considerable vegetation. There's even a four-room shack near the tunnel entrance where workmen used to live. I have ordered it reconditioned. Two guards can live there and keep watch for one night and day. They ought to be enough."

"We can all pose as mineralogists doing field work—it will be a good front for Leana and me, known as chemist and physicist, and that way we wouldn't attract attention from curious neighbors."

"I see. But the four miles from Blair, Bob. How about the road?"

"Narrow, but not bad. It is being repaired at my order, too. Sorni fills necessary after 45 years' neglect, and two small bridges. We'll live in tents until better houses can be constructed. You and your mother shall have the best. There's a mountain stream. You can have horses for riding. You can hunt. Fish. With a radio you can—"

"Oh Bob, I am not concerned for personal luxury!" Carolyn interrupted. "This is all too important for any such worry."

He smiled slowly at her, slowly and appreciatively. "You're tops, miss!"

HE went away then. There was work to be done in the secondary lab and in the warehouse, she knew. There Bob, and she supposed Leana, were supervising the pouring of the lead containers for the X-999, small but heavy metal boxes which insulated off its invisible but extremely powerful radiations, more dangerous to man than radium's own. The outer cases with padding and springs were being prepared also with meticulous care, she knew. In two days more, perhaps less time, the priceless element—if X-999 could be called an element—would be all ready to move.

A detail sense of excitement had crept into Carolyn's being ever since Bob returned home, partly because she was near him again and had been ordered to go west with him, partly because of they were again handling the explosive, power-laden X-999, and all faced danger together.

She had utmost confidence in him; but still, her heart clung to a vague sense of danger for him. It was a growing apprehension, if not actual fear.

To a degree it disturbed her work so that she was a little nervous that afternoon. She walked often out into the office hall just to gaze out at the laboratory and its guards across the open compound.

About 3 p. m. she was standing near the drinking fountain when the outside door opened and a telegraph messenger came in.

"I'll sign for it," she said, quite naturally. She smiled at the girl, and a smile from a girl as pretty as Carolyn was worth more than the conventional dime.

Idly she opened the yellow envelope; it easily came unsealed. She started inside to put it on Bob's desk as she had done with numerous other routine business messages, reading it as she went to see if it demanded his immediate attention. It said:

"DEFINITELY INTERESTED YOUR STATEMENT YOU CAN HAVE EXCLUSIVE POSSESSION OF FABULOUS NEW POWER SUBSTANCE. MONEY NO OBJECT BUT KEEP ABSOLUTE SECRECY. LEAVING AT ONCE FOR PERSONAL CONFERENCE."

Surprised, and vaguely alarmed, Carolyn read it again. Only then did she discover that it was addressed not to Bob—but to Leana Sorni.

Fort Worth Residents Dine On Rattlesnake

FORT WORTH, April 29 (AP)—Seventy-seven Fort Worth citizens—men, women, and children—Monday were trying to adjust their lives to the mundane after knowing for a brief moment Sunday afternoon the thrill of the exotic.

These were guests who turned out in spite of rain, for a rattlesnake meal banquet served at 5 p. m., Sunday beside the snake pit in the Forest park zoo here.

"The banquet was a whole of a success," judged Harry Jackson, snake pit operator and host. "Not a single, solitary woman faltered."

The snake—a four and one-half foot, diamond back rattler—was killed as the guests waited. Jackson fried the cutlets in hot oil. Doubtful guests became enthusiastic at first taste of the meat—and there wasn't enough to go around.

Sports Roundup

By EDDIE BRIEZE

NEW YORK, April 29—More than half the guys on Snorty Luster's Oklahoma U. grid squad are looking for their draft numbers to go up.

Did you know that the only time Whirlwind whipped Out Boots in four tries last year was the only race in which "The Boots" wasn't ridden by either Carroll Bierman or Eddie Arcazo? ... New York Boxing commission is listing fighters who are considered losers and will revoke the licenses. Yep, a heap of small fry managers are mighty indignant and are getting ready to go on relief.

First serious football casualty is Steve Juzwick, Notre Dame's high scorer last year, who broke an arm in scrimmage the other day.

Today's Guest Star

Ralph Allen, Toronto Globe and Mail: "Can it be the International league is going dramatic on us? ... Jersey City's Saturday bakery rears 'East, Lynn, and Blaemire.' ... Next week: Uncle Tom's Cabin."

Gadding About

Harry Stuhldreher already has picked Minnesota to win the Big Ten football title again next year, with Northwestern and Ohio State second and third. ... Columbia is looking for someone to fill the role of Forest Evashevski in the forthcoming movie, "Tom Harmon of Michigan." Well, Ed Trevor of the Broadway hit, "Lady in the Dark," is a dead ringer for Evashevski—in the face, anyway. ... Each of the 15 rooms in Joe Louis' ranch house boasts a juke box. But that's nothing. When King Levinsky trained at "Peg's Haunted House" in Chicago, for his bout with Louis, the joint sported 50 slot machines.

What's The Big Idea?

The other day you read that Bobby Riggs, our No. 2 ranking tennis player, had been appointed assistant publicity director at Presbyterian college down in South Carolina. ... Well, Art Cohn, our No. 1 gum-shoe man on the coast, reports that three years ago the U.S.L.T.A. wanted to send Frankie Kovacs to Presbyterian.

People and Things

Elmer Layden will open his new pro football office in the same Chicago building that houses baseball's American league. ... Aurel Toma, Rumanian-born bantamweight, has run afoul of the immigration authorities at Elia Juana. ... Those in the know say Eddie Shokes, Duke's fine first baseman, has definitely passed up the Yanks for the Reds. ... The boys out in the big house at Joliet have made and presented to Ted Lyons a lamp snatched from a tennis set in a rock case. ... Johnny Quilty of the Montreal Canadiens will be presented with the Frank Calder cup, awarded annually to the outstanding rookie of the National Hockey league, at a banquet at Ottawa, May

Phillips Fund Scholarship Won By Carson Youth

James Allen Holcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Wyatt Holcomb of White Deer, is one of the nine winning candidates in the United States who will participate in scholarships from the Educational Fund for Children of Phillips Petroleum company employees created by the Frank Phillips Foundation, according to an announcement made today by the educational fund committee. His father is a pumper in the production department of Phillips Petroleum company.

James is an honor student at Berger High school and last year won third place in the National Latin tournament. He is interested in dramatics, is a member of the student council and the National Honor society.

The Educational Fund for Children of Phillips Petroleum company employees was established by the Frank Phillips Foundation, Inc., a year and a half ago on the occasion of the 66th birthday of Frank Phillips, chairman of the board of Phillips Petroleum company. Each student awarded a scholarship will receive each of the four years he attends college. Winning candidates for scholarships from the fund are determined by nationwide scholastic aptitude tests and other factors as determined by the committee.

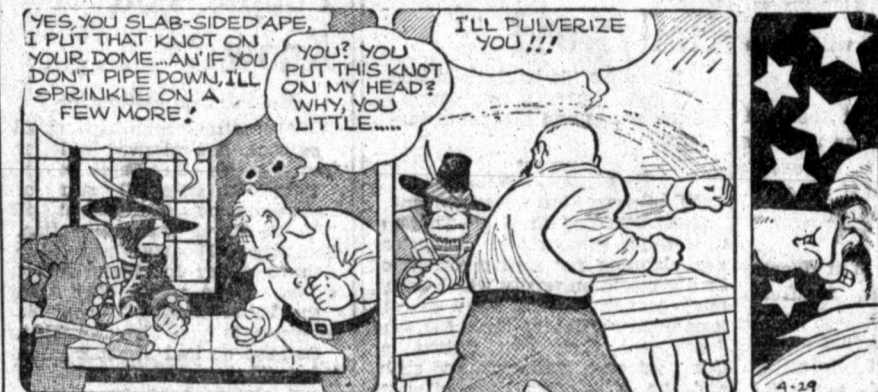

From the 100 to 200 candidates who apply each year, awards are made to six boys and three girls. The nine next ranking students are declared alternates. Other scholarship award winners this year are Marjorie Hawkins, Kansas City, Kas.; Marinda Carley, Webb City, Okla.; Elizabeth Finkle, Florence, Kas.; M. Joseph Weigel, Sioux Falls, S. D.; Victor Young, Charles City, Iowa; James Pretz, Kansas City, Kas.; Marrion Newberry, Phillips, James Averill, Webb City, Okla. Alternates are Joycelyn Gulpepper, Oklahoma City; Marjorie Carley, McPherson, Kas.; Mary Underwood, Phillips, Rex Hoy, Louann, Ark.; Wallace Stone, Springfield, Mo.; Bennie Turbeville, Oklahoma City; Curtis Hilden, Minneapolis, Minn.; Eugent Wright, Phillips; and Charles Goodgame, Smackover, Ark.

Karl Ripple, Pampa High school student, received a scholarship last year and is attending Texas university.
