43 MORE NEW PANHANDLE LOCATIONS STAKED

Russia Claims Dead Piled High In Gory Victory Over Nazi Tanks

Gray County Leads Entire Field With 23

Wheeler County Reports Nine New Wells On Ranch

The Panhandle oil field went on another drilling spree last week proving that the 64 locations staked two weeks ago was not just a flash in the pan. Last week operators in the field staked an additional 43 new locations, bringing the total for the month of June to 140 and the year to more than 500, or a new record since early boom days.

Gray county took the lead away from Hutchinson county with 23 of the new locations announced last week. The Wilcox Oil and Gas company, which has drilled a few wells during the past couple of years, announced a drilling program of 15 wells, all on their vast holdings on the Combs-Worley ranch south and southeast of Pampa.

Wheeler county also became a hot spot with the Smith Brothers Refining company and Hanlon-Buchanan reporting locations for nine new wells on the D. E. Johnson ranch.

Hutchinson county had nine locations, Moore two and Carson one.

First big company to invade the new Taylor pool, opened three weeks ago by the W. H. Taylor Oil company with a 300-barrel well, was Phillips Petroleum company who announced a location for a well on the Taylor lease in section 24, block B-2, H&GN survey. Taylor Oil company has completed two wells and J. L. McLean one in the new pool, located six miles southwest of LeFors and three miles south of production.

Pampa streets are still crowded with drillers and there is a scarcity of rent property.

Twenty-three new wells were gauged last week, adding 3,144 barrels of oil and 260,000 cubic feet of gas to the field potential. Gray county led in completions with nine wells.

One of the largest wells ever completed in the field was brought in by the Shell-Sinclair companies when their No. 1 J. Morton in section 352, block 44, H&GN survey, Moore county, gauged 260,000 cubic feet through a choke. The well, according to the railroad commission, might make 400,000 cubic feet through 8-inch pipe if it could be gauged open-flush.

The well is in the vast Moore county gas pool and only three miles from oil production.

Drilling in the Hemphill county wildcat, the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company's No. 1 Wiggins in section 55, block 1, I&GN survey, was reported going ahead at 3,500 feet Friday.

Hoare Car Found Stripped Of Tires, Wheels And Tools

An automobile won't run without tires and wheels and when George Walstad discovered a Chevrolet coach belonging to Harry E. Hoare five miles south of Pampa Saturday morning it was resting on the brake drums.

The car was taken from in front of Road Runner park on Thursday night. Walstad reported his discovery to city officers yesterday morning, stating that he saw the car, parked on the old road around Meers lake, yesterday but thought nothing of it. When the car was still there this morning he decided to investigate and discovered that the car had been stripped.

The thieves smashed the handle of the trunk and then jimmied it open, taking the spare tire and wheels. Also missing were tools and the cigar lighter.

The car had been pushed or towed to the isolated spot, no attempt having been made to start the motor, officers said.

Whoever stole the car removed the hub caps, took the wheels off, and placed the nuts in the hub caps, which were put in the car.

Officers are following a clue discovered in the car.

BACK HOME

Rep. Ennis Favors

Ennis Favors Returns From Historic Session

State Representative Ennis Favors yesterday returned from Austin where a historic session of the legislature ended July 3. The session was considered momentous because it was the longest in history, and because it passed the most far-reaching bills on the record.

Rep. Favors says that all he's got to worry about now is making a living. His pay as a legislator ended when the session ended, because legislators are paid only for the time the legislature is in session. Unless there is a special session, Mr. Favors won't receive the legislature until January, 1943.

Mr. Favors was active in passing numerous bills that benefitted the Panhandle and his constituents as a whole.

The 47th legislature passed the largest tax bill at one time in the history of Texas, taking care of the entire social security program, including old age pension, teachers retirement fund, the blind and dependent children. In addition to this, placing $6,000,000 a year in the debt ridden general revenue fund. This bill culminated a long and bitter fight, lasting over a period of years.

This legislature raised the 7,000-pound net truck load limit to 38,000 pounds gross over all load, and passed the driver license law which was sorely needed, particularly to curb drunken driving in Texas. Also made provisions for enlarging the state institutions sufficient to take care of all the insane now in the jails in Texas.

The legislature passed the anti-violence bill to club strikes in defense plants in Texas, and passed a constitutional amendment prohibiting future legislatures from appropriating money out of any fund unless certified by the comptroller that such fund has sufficient cash to cover the appropriation.

Fast Times Made In Anvil Park Contests

CANADIAN, July 5—A parade depicting the improvement of transportation from its beginning to the present time opened the second day of the 19th annual Anvil Park rodeo and Fourth of July celebration today. Included in the panorama were floats contributed by the various clubs of the city and surrounding communities, bands, remuda of horses from the Bell ranch, the Santa Fe miniature train, the Yokum family of Dogpatch, and many mounted horsemen, including rodeo contestants.

In the rodeo contests yesterday afternoon, exceptionally fast time was made in the bulldogging event, which Charles Broadnax of Pampa won with a time of 8.8 seconds. All events showed marked improvements over Friday's go-rounds.

The newly originated wild mule race, which is being held here for the first time this year, drew cheers from the crowd again. Jiggs Burk of Comanche, Okla., gave record performances to top first place in both calf roping and single steer roping and third place in the bulldogging event. The rodeo performances will end today with the closing events scheduled to begin at 2 p. m. Three day money will be awarded in each event with all entry fees added to the purse. Winning contestants also will win points in the Southwest Rodeo Association from which the grand champion and champions in the various events will be determined. The summary of the day's results are as follows: Calf roping: First, Jiggs Burk of Comanche, Okla., 15.2 seconds; second, Buddy Ellison of Oklahoma City, Okla., 16.4 seconds; third, Roy Lewis, House, N. Mex., 19.4 seconds; and fourth, Elmer Randall of Supply, Okla., 19.8 seconds. Single steer roping: First, Jiggs Burk of Comanche, Okla., 15.2 seconds.

Man Working Out City Fine Badly Injured

W. L. Long, 42, of El Paso, suffered a crushed left leg and right arm and possible internal injuries when he fell under the wheel of a city dump truck in the 900 block on South Barnes street about noon Saturday. His condition last night was reported critical at the local hospital where he was taken in a Du-enkel-Carmichael ambulance.

Witnesses of the accident told police that Long jumped from the truck just as it started forward, and that he slipped and fell. One of the dual wheels passed over his leg and arm and along the side of his head.

Driver of the truck was Chester Clark. Seated with him in the cab was Jack Patton. Riding on the truck with Long was Ed Rogers, officers said. Long was working out a fine assessed in city police court earlier in the week when the accident occurred.

The truck was being used to fill holes on Barnes street. At the time of the accident the truck had stopped at a hole and Long jumped off, witnesses told officers.

Pampa Girl Run Over By Car And Killed

Everlyn Ray Simmons, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Simmons, 945 East Gordon street, died at 11 o'clock Saturday morning in the local hospital two hours after she had been run over by an automobile. It was Pampa's first traffic accident this year.

The child was found lying in the roadway two little girls who were crossing the street near the Simmons home, according to city and county officers investigating the accident. The child was taken to the hospital in a car. She suffered a badly crushed head, bruised arms and other injuries. The car wheel apparently had passed over her head, leaving a tread mark. Her head was in a hole in the rough street which probably saved the child from instant death, the officers learned.

Police Saturday night were unable to reach a definite theory regarding the manner of the child's death, and they were further analyzing possible situations that might support their first reaction, that the child might have been the victim of a hit and run driver. There was a possibility that a car driven by J. B. Simmons, an uncle of the child, might have been involved in the accident.

Officers said they had learned that the uncle had stopped at the Simmons home a few minutes before the accident and that the child had crawled in and out of the car and may have crawled under it. If the child did not crawl under the car, officers said it was not likely that the Simmons car wheels passed over it.

The children who discovered the injured girl said a car passed them just before they saw the girl, officers reported.

The street at the point is rough and rutted and a wheel of the car could have passed over the child's head, officers said.

The father of the accident victim is employed by the Magnolia Petroleum company.

Surviving the child are the parents, four sisters, Eloise, Fern, Edna and Betty Jo, and one brother, J. P.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the First Baptist church by the Rev. C. Gordon Bayless, pastor. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery under direction of Du-enkel-Carmichael Funeral home.

Mexican Urges U. S. Workers To Defend Democratic Rights

MEXICO CITY, July 5 (AP)—Anti-strike legislation in the United States, if enacted, will sweep the western hemisphere unless American workers now begin to defend their democratic rights, Mexican Labor Leader Vicente Lombardo Toledano said tonight.

In a message to all branches of the confederations of Latin American workers (CTAL), of which he is president, Lombardo Toledano wrote: "Anti-democratic governments of the Spanish-American nations always try to take advantage of all acts of the government of the United States which favor their conduct against the interests of the workers."

"The best guarantee of alert vigilance by the Latin American peoples against Fascism, is the maintenance and the development of democratic liberties in every country in America."

VFW To Purchase Defense Bonds With Surplus Money

Pampa chapter, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will purchase defense bonds with surplus money in the treasury, Commander J. G. Sturgeon announced yesterday. The post finance officers have been instructed to report on the amount available at the next meeting.

The post will hold open house for all veterans of this section on the night of July 29. On Aug. 3 the post will hold its annual picnic at Lake McClellan.

Commander Sturgeon has appointed A. M. Gumm chairman of the bicycle safety club, H. E. Lawrence chairman of the Americanism committee, and Paul Hill to make the monthly radio address on July 11, his subject to be the 14th amendment.

Motorcycle Crash At Lubbock Fatal

LUBBOCK, July 5 (AP)—Lawrence Woodward, 21, of the Welman community, was killed last night and Miss Jo Oliver, 17, of Abilene, was injured when the couple, riding a motorcycle, was in collision with an automobile near Brownfield.

Mrs. C. A. Dempsey, of Brownfield, driver of the car was not injured.

Dogpatchers, Float, Riders In Big Parade

A score of floats, decorated cars, truck tractors and a whole "slew" of horses moved up and down the hill at Cannon-town yesterday morning in a parade that was viewed by a multitude of people lining the main street.

A feature of the parade was a band of horses driven "loose" by a band of cowboys. These horses, about 50 in number, were without saddle, bridle or rope and gave a realistic touch to the parade.

Pampa was well represented in the parade. Leading the Pampa riders were Sheriff Cal Rose, Mrs. Rose and Miss June Marie Amick, her daughter, all on palominos. The Pampa News Yokum family and other well-known Dogpatchers drew laughs and cheers. Mrs. Belle Wells as Mammy Yokum, Pat Flanigan as Lil' Abner, Betty Lou Leonard as Strange Gal and Wilma Webb as Daisy Mae Scraggs, the latter two walking barefooted, were applauded particularly.

The pink and blue Junior Chamber of Commerce float with a map of Texas on each side, also the legend "Top O' Texas," was also in the parade, with Miss Virginia West, queen of the 1941 Top O' Texas Polka Fiesta, riding on the blue and silver throne. Miss West wore her blue coronation dress and silver crown. Garnet Reeves, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, arranged for the float to be in the parade. It was also in the McLean parade.

Most of the Canadian floats and parade entries were commercial but several represented churches, the P-T-A and home demonstration club. It was one of the most interesting parades, as well as one of the longest, ever held at the annual celebration.

Immediately after the parade several hundred old timers heard Judge Newton P. Willis of Pampa, former Canadian resident, relate early day experiences and incidents at a building on main street. Immediately afterwards, the old timers served a dinner of ham, beans, apricots, salad, cake, coffee.

Convicts Strike In U. S. Penitentiary

LEAVENWORTH, Kans., July 5 (AP)—A strike of 1,000 convict workers at the federal penitentiary has halted manufacture of shoes and brushes for the army. There has been no disorder.

The work stoppage began July 3 with a sit-down strike in protest against an increase in the prison work week from 39 to 44 hours. The strikers also are demanding increased pay, double time for all hours above 38 a week and additional good behavior time to apply on their sentences.

Prison pay, reported to be nominal, is given the convicts upon completion of their sentences. Penitentiary officials declined to make public the basic wage scale.

Consumers Goods In Mexico City Highest

The confederation, to which most of the Republic's important chambers belong, said latest statistics showed that on a world-wide standard of 100, the cost of living index here was 156. The highest is Shanghai at 460, Istanbul, Turkey, at 80 was the lowest of the major capitals.

Damages Asked For Dam

BEAUMONT, July 5 (AP)—Claiming that his trapping lands normally would produce 30,000 muskrats, 450 mink, and 600 raccoons annually, trapper Joe Demary today asked $36,000 damages in a district court suit against Jefferson county officials.

Construction of a coffer dam on Salt Bayou flooded his lease holdings, he alleged.

GERMANS

center, continuing on north, partly paralleling the Minsk road to Smolensk and Moscow.

It goes without saying that the overland section of the line north of Rosha has been doubly strengthened to make for the lack of a water barrier, as was the Maginot line from the point where it left the Rhine and covered the remaining German land frontier of France.

The Red army communique said the Germans were trying simultaneously to force both the Berezina and the Dniepr rivers, not acknowledging that the Dniepr had been reached. How this could be a puzzle.

Except by crossing the Berezina river, there is no way of reaching the Dniepr, save through a wide flanking action to the north, where the Berezina starts as a break. An air-borne attack might be the answer, but air troops would be without heavy weapons.

The Russians acknowledged earlier that they had withdrawn in the face of heavy attacks in the vicinity of Lepel, at the head waters of the Berezina, so the attack on the Dniepr actually may have been delivered by forces outflanking the Berezina river defenses.

The grim picture of Germans caught in watery traps on the Berezina and Dniepr was suggested by this line of the Russian communique: "The enemy suffered heavy losses in the water and on the banks."

The Germans may still have over-extended themselves in their assaults, attacking far ahead of the main bodies of motorized troops and before rearguard positions have been consolidated. In the Minsk area, at least, 120 miles west of the Dniepr, the German high command spoke of action against encircled troops, and capture of Minsk was yet to be claimed officially.

Neither the German claim that the resistance of the Russians had been broken, nor the Luftwaffe's asserted mastery of the skies over the battle zone, seems to have been clinched. The Russians, for example, claimed destruction of 48 German planes yesterday, against 27 Russian losses.

The German high command made no claims of Russian planes shot down, but DNB (official German news agency) came along later—after the Moscow communique had been issued—to declare the score in planes yesterday was 98 to 6, in Germany's favor.

On the speech-making diplomatic front, British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden predicted again, on Britain's behalf, turned down in advance a Hitler offer of peace with Britain.

Expanding collaboration with Russia, the British announced two experts on civilian defense had arrived in Moscow, following military, naval, air and economic missions.

The RAF's offensive against Germany's western front appeared to be gaining in ferocity and meeting stronger German opposition.

Increased German night activity over England was acknowledged for Friday night but the British claimed three attackers were downed. The German high command said large fires were started in Birmingham, Plymouth, and other ports.

In the war at sea, Italy claimed aerial torpedoes had hit a British auxiliary cruiser of about 7,000 tons in Panagusta Bay off the British Mediterranean island of Cyprus and, said the communique, the ship "must be considered sunk."

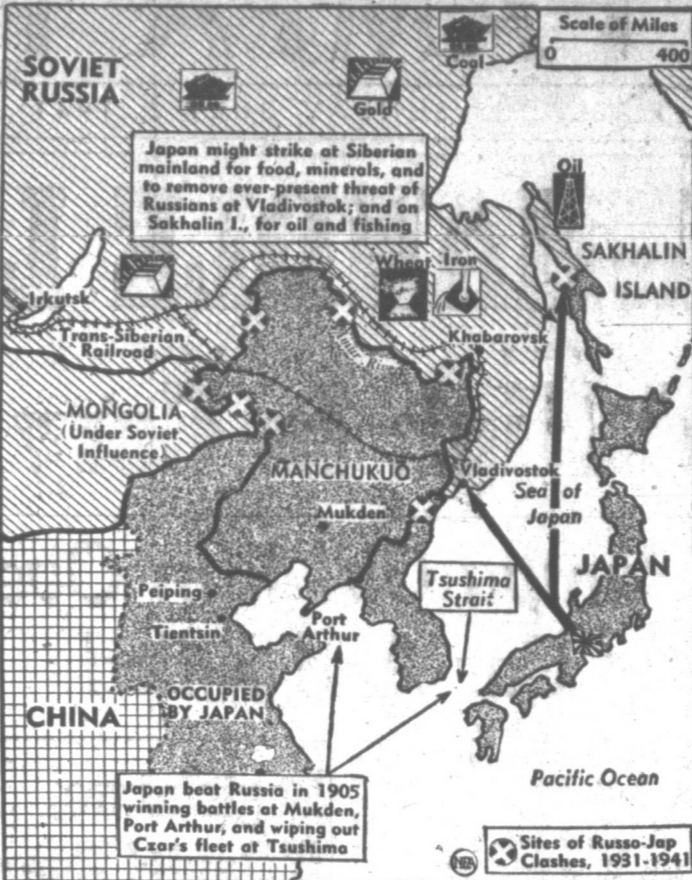

In the British-Free French campaign to wrest Syria from Vichy control, the defenders acknowledged development of a British drive to cut Syria off from Turkey but denied that Kamehlie, frontier town and first objective of this move, had been reached, as reported earlier and unofficially.

Syrian objectives were under increasing attack but there was no sign that the mandate authorities would soon capitulate.

In East Africa, the Italians had given up all but one of their footholds, Gondar, northwestern Ethiopia. The surrender of the garrison at Dabra Tabor after weeks of hunger siege was acknowledged by the Italian high command.

A new British attack on Bengasi, Axis advance base in Libya, was the only other outstanding development in the African theater.

Eden Rejects Peace Offer In Advance

LONDON, England, July 5 (AP)—Internal conditions in Germany will force Adolf Hitler during the Russian campaign to make a new peace offer to Britain, Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden predicted today. Eden rejected in advance the anticipated offer, which he said would be a false gesture.

Addressing an outdoor meeting here, Eden linked the unexplained flight to Scotland of Rudolf Hess, Hitler's deputy, with conditions within Germany.

"However little the German people may be encouraged to speculate or reflect," he said, "there are signs who begin to see perils ahead and are correspondingly anxious and perplexed."

"Recurrent confusion of thought finds expression in a strange variety of ways, including the parachute descent of a deputy Fuehrer on a Scottish farm. We shall, no doubt, see stranger happenings than that before we are through with the men who rule Germany."

Of the expected peace offer, Eden said: "We anticipate that Hitler, at a moment he considers opportune during his campaign in Russia, will seek to present himself in another of his occasional theatrical roles. 'This time his make-up will be that of the man of peace. Internal conditions in Germany may make this false posturing necessary for him for a spell. He will offer smooth assurances and specious promises in the hope of lulling some foolish birds.'"

But Britain, Eden said, will not be taken in. "We shall intensify our war effort until we find all the stands for us utterly destroyed," the foreign secretary declared.

318 Killed In Fourth Accidents

(By The Associated Press)
D.O.A.—dead on arrival; D.O.A.—dead on arrival. . . . All day long in 39 states of the union, police jotted down the routine notation on desk blotchers; behind the routine lay the individual stories of at least 318 lives cut short as the nation celebrated the first two days of the 4th of July week-end.

Automobiles brought death to at least 196 pleasure seekers; 122 died in airplane crashes, drownings, shootings, and other violent forms of death. The traffic toll soared continually as traffic increased. . . . In upstate New York, a three-year-old boy was killed by a stray bullet on a target range. In Connersville, Ind., a pyrotechnical expert was killed at an authorized fireworks display. . . . On New York City's teeming East Side, a 12-year-old boy fell to his death from a five-story ledge. He was the leader in "follow-the-leader."

There was one bright spot: Only four deaths resulted from fireworks. One occurred in Missouri; in Tennessee, a 10-year-old boy died of burns after a firecracker was thrown into a large container of fireworks. Police sought an older boy in the death. In Pennsylvania, a celebrant was killed when a dynamite cap exploded. Despite a rainy Fourth which curtailed holiday traffic in the east, Pennsylvania led the nation in traffic deaths with 20. Ohio and New York each reported 17, and California 16.

The plane was the property of the Alley Oop club, composed of a group of Wichita Falls flying enthusiasts, of which Thomas was a member.

Aluminum, Cork, Copper Scarce

WASHINGTON, July 5 (AP)—Aluminum, cork and copper, in that order, are the scarcest materials at the moment in American civilian economy.

A sudden rise of copper to prominence on the list of shortages, and the marked easing of the zinc scarcity of three months ago, were noted today in a report on major shortages prepared by Robert E. McConnell, chief of conservation and substitution for the Office of Production Management.

Commenting that modern warfare is a "war of metallurgy," McConnell said that the demand for raw materials, "especially metals, is so great that there are very few metals that can be substituted for other metals—you just run into another shortage."

On the basis of present production, McConnell's figures showed, only 300,000 tons of copper will be available annually for civilian purposes after meeting army and navy requirements of 1,250,000 tons. Normal civilian demands amount to 800,000 to 900,000 tons.

McConnell's report showed that the civilian demand for aluminum is 15 times greater than the available supply after defense needs have been met.

He listed the following ratios of civilian demand to supply in other instances of shortages (in the cases of some imported materials government stockpile demands have been subtracted from supply as well as defense needs):

Corn, 10 to 1; copper, 5 to 2; mica, 3 to 1; nickel, 2 to 1; alloy steels, 2 to 1; tungsten, 2 to 1; zinc, 3 to 2; tin, 3 to 2; chromium, 3 to 2; manganese, 3 to 2; nitrates, 8 to 7; rubber, 10 to 7; power, 10 to 9 (except in the southeast, where the ratio is about 3 to 2); steel, 10 to 9; and lead, 1 to 9-plus.

The observatory seismograph recorded the impact when an airplane crashed into Lick Observatory, Mt. Hamilton, Calif.

Huns Claim 25 Miles Per Day In Russia

BERLIN, July 5—German advance units, fighting forward an average of 25 miles a day in the two-week-old war with Soviet Russia, were reported authoritatively tonight to be in contact with the main Stalin line on the Dnepr river in the region of Orsha, about 300 miles west southwest of Moscow.

Authorized sources announced the location of this thrust and contact (which normally means fighting between patrols) a few hours after the high command reported: "East of Minsk, the river Dnepr was reached."

But in the Minsk area itself, 120 miles to the rear, fighting apparently was continuing, for a communique spoke of encircled troops there, and the capture of Minsk had not been announced officially.

The German press paid less attention to military developments today than to atrocity stories.

Sample headlines were: "Blood bath in Lwow," "Murders by GPU before conquest," "GPU bestialities," "Thousands of Ukrainians tortured and slaughtered."

Newspapers printed numerous pictures of bodies at Lwow.

Russian prisoners were quoted concerning cruelties of Russian commissars (political instructors within the army), and stories which they said were spread among them that the Germans would take no prisoners and would torture those who fell into their hands.

The announced surrender of 20,000 Soviet troops near Minsk was interpreted by the press as "the first sign of a break in Russian army discipline and the expressio of the true will of the Russian people in contrast to the Bolshevik force imposed on them."

South Carolinans To Fight 'Fifth Column'

ANDERSON, S. C. July 5 (AP)—Colonel William L. Roberts, acting commander of the Forth Corps Area Reserve Officers Training camp at nearby Clemson college, announced today that college students undergoing training at the camp would take the city of Anderson next Friday in what is believed to be the first fifth column maneuver ever staged in the United States.

A battalion of cadet "fifth columnists" in civilian dress will filter into Anderson 24 hours in advance of the attack and at the zero hour will "seize" public buildings, power, communications, and transportation centers as has been done in European fifth column coups.

A fully armed uniformed force will move against the city at the same moment to complete the first war game of this type ever directed at an entire city in this country.

Roof And Ceiling Of House Damaged By Morning Blaze

Firemen were up early Saturday morning, answering a call to the residence at 845 East Locust street. The truck stationed on South Cuyler street answered immediately after the alarm but the truck from the north side was delayed by a train at the Starkweather street crossing.

The fire was discovered by a neighbor who turned in the alarm. When the first truck arrived, flames had broken through the roof. Water from booster tanks of the two trucks soon had the blaze under control and firemen then learned that damage had been confined to the roof and ceiling, the fire having started in the attic.

Owners of the house were out of the city at the time.

HALE NAMED OILERS MANAGER, PRATHER HEATS GOLD SOX

Fulenwider Of Amarillo With Oilers

The Pampa Oilers have a new manager. He is that well known veteran of more than 10 years in the big show, Sammy Hale. Many baseball fans have welcomed new managers but yesterday it was Hale who welcomed a new team, because the Oilers drove to Wichita Falls yesterday morning to join Hale in a game against the Wichita Falls Spudders, the team which released him earlier in the week.

Dutch Prather, veteran first baseman, who took charge of the Oilers in April, has been traded to the Amarillo Gold Sox for Emmett Fulenwider, slugging outfielder.

The naming of the new manager and the trade was announced yesterday by Business Manager Harold Miller.

Manager Hale will take over the second base job as soon as Sam Malvica leaves for his year in the army next Friday. Lou Frierson, right fielder, will move to first base to replace Prather and Fulenwider will take over in right field.

Prather will play first base for Amarillo and Frank Hargrove will move to the outfield, his regular position.

Sam Hale is not a newcomer to Pampa baseball fans. He managed the old Pampa Road Runners back in 1927. In 1935 he managed the Coltejo team of LeFors. In between he was manager of the Phillips 66 Oilers of Borger.

Hale spent 10 years at third base for the Philadelphia Athletics, managed by that veteran of veterans, Connie Mack. In 1927 Hale participated in the most doubleplay ever made by a third baseman when he started 46 double killings.

The new Pampa manager is hitting the ball at a 320 clip and has snatched in 30 runs. He is a real pal to ball players and he knows how to teach youngsters fundamentals of the game. Hale managed the Midland club in 1939 and last year but moved to Wichita Falls this season.

Fulenwider was one of the league's outstanding hitters last season and one of the classiest fielders in the business, but this season he has been in a hitting slump, failing to reach the coveted 300 mark so far. He has been anxious to join the Oilers for several months and on Friday night he informed Manager Hubber Jonnard of the Gold Sox that he would personally beat the Sox in Amarillo the nights of July 10 and 11, hitting at least one home run in each of the games the Sox pitchers throw to him. He is second in home runs this year, one behind Gordon Nell.

With Fulenwider in the outfield with Malvica and Scott the Oilers will have the classiest gang of gardeners in the league. They are considered the three fastest men in the entire league.

Hale, on second, will steady the kids at shortstop and third base. Frierson is not a newcomer to the first base job. He spent several of his 10 years in baseball at the initial sack.

Sam Hale and his Pampa Oilers will return to Pampa on the night of July 12 with the league-leading Big Spring Bombers. It will be a homecoming and Ladies Night attraction.

Oilers And Clovis Split Doubleheader July Fourth

Teams in the West Texas-New Mexico Baseball league played soccer on the Fourth of July by splitting doubleheaders. In Pampa the Oilers swapped the Clovis Pioneers 13 to 8 in the first game but lost the abbreviated nightcap 8 to 1.

Although fans didn't know it, the holiday games were the last for Manager Dutch Prather with the Oilers. On Friday night Prather was traded to Amarillo for Emmett Fulenwider and the veteran Sammy Hale took charge of the Oilers.

Harley LaFavers, elongated right-hander, and the Oilers spotted the Pioneers five runs in the first inning and then came back to win handily. LaFavers was nipped for four hits, gave a base on balls and had an error pulled behind him to give the Pioneers five runs. Then he settled down and pitched three-hit ball the rest of the way, a walk, wild pitch, hit and error costing him two runs in the eighth.

Curd, ex-lefthander, started for Manager Grover Seitz and the Pioneers but he was blasted from the hill in the second. Jim Hollins, veteran, relieved but he lasted only until the third when he gave away a Charlie Bond who finished. The Oilers jumped the three visiting chukkers for 18 base hits.

Scott Slugs Ball
Frank Scott, who is hitting the ball at a 357 clip, led the attack for the Oilers with a triple, double and single and he was robbed of an infield hit by the umpire to spoil a perfect day at the plate. Sam Malvica and Jim Reynolds assisted in the slugfest by bagging three singles each.

Scott and Haralson pulled the prize defensive plays of the game, making sensational catches of almost impossible plays.

Clovis Bridwell, aged righthander, swabbed the Oilers to death in the nightcap. He thumped the ball in slow enough to count the stitches but only three hits were registered by the Oilers, two by Haralson and one by Phillips, a triple in the seventh which scored the only Pampa run.

Frank Grabek went the distance for the Oilers, hitting eight hits, but they were bunched. Grabek started his own downfall in the first when he threw Quillen's easy roller away, allowing one run to score and the batter to advance to second.

Prize play of the game went to Monty Montgomery, pitcher, who relieved Matney who sprained an ankle. Montgomery backed into the fence in deep center to rob Seitz of a sure hit.

The first game was interrupted for five minutes so that players and fans could hear the radio address by President Franklin Roosevelt, relayed over the public address system.

After the holiday the Oilers had 34 games and lost the same number to remain in third place in the league standing, eight and a half games behind Borger and three games ahead of the other place Amarillo Gold Sox.

Frank Scott Leads WT-NM League In Hitting With .357

Frank Scott, Pampa's kitenish left fielder, is way out in front in the Oiler hitting department with an average of .357 through games played Friday. The streak of greatest lightning has bagged 75 hits on his 210 trips to the plate, including 14 doubles, seven triples and four home runs. He has also driven in 31 runs.

Next in the hitting department is Sam Malvica, second baseman, with an average of .330 which is one point ahead of Dutch Prather. Besides Scott, Billy Phillips is the only Oiler to boost his average during the past week. He is now hitting .228 or 13 points over the previous week.

Big John McPartland has a commanding lead among the pitchers with 11 victories against four defeats for a percentage of .733. Harley LaFavers is the only other Pampa pitcher above the even mark. He has five wins against three losses.

Half-way batting and pitching records were scheduled to arrive from the league statistical in yesterday but they failed to reach here. Batting records of the Oilers through Friday follow:

Lefty Lucas And Wichita Falls Stop Oilers 4 To 0

WICHITA FALLS, July 5. — Lefty Ray Lucas hung another victory here tonight by stopping the Pampa Oilers 4 to 0 with a brilliant pitching performance. Lucas, who pitched eight innings and whiffed eight and walked one, Pampa bunched three hits in the ninth but the wily southpaw pulled out without marring his shutout.

Sammy Hale, former manager of the Spudders, took over the management of the Oilers with tonight's game, seeing his former charges beat him in his first appearance as Pampa skipper.

Ward, Todd To Meet In Golf Finals

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. July 5. (AP)—Two sober young men who both have long-range guns off the tee will battle tomorrow for the Western Amateur Golf championship which they controlled the last two years.

Defending Champion Marvin (Bud) Ward of Spokane, Wash., shattered Broadmoor's par for the third consecutive day in crushing John Kraft of Denver, 6 and 5, in today's 36 hole semi-finals.

Harry Todd of Dallas, 1939 Western champion and this year's medalist, caught a much tougher opponent in Morris Norton, freckle-faced Wichita Falls, Texas, oil man, before winning 2 up.

Ward, 25-year-old bachelor, met Todd, 24-year-old father of a small boy, in the Western tournament at Minneapolis last year and the Texan said "he skunked me."

The strong-willed Ward, seeking to be the first two-time winner of this event in 18 years, fired seven birdies at the way today and the pace setting teacher and football official.

For 115 holes Ward is six strokes under par on the high altitude course he never had played until this week.

The Texas duelist, Todd and Norton, although neither could lick par, put on a fine scrap with neither more than two holes ahead.

Tacklert Harry, low-scoring amateur at this year's National Open, took a permanent lead at the 407-yard 33rd where Norton was trapped and wound up three-putting for a six.

It looked as though Todd had ended it when he tapped home a 12-foot putt for a birdie four on the 569-yard 35th, longest on the course, but the spectated Norton gamely ran down a 10-footer for his four. Norton split the fairway with his drive on the last hole after Todd hooked into deep rough, but the situation was reversed on the next shot as Norton, hitting a wood into a strong breeze, faded the ball into rough. He played a penalty ball, tried hard to hole a chip shot from the fringe, and then smilingly admitted defeat.

Thrilling Rodeo To Have Final Session Today

CANADIAN, July 5.—In a whirlwind round of activities never before equaled here, the nineteenth annual Anvil Park rodeo opened July 4 before a record crowd. Twenty states were represented in the fans who gathered to see outstanding cowboys of the Southwest display their various abilities in the arena.

Off to a flying start with the wild mule race, the rodeo afforded the audience an afternoon of excitement. This event saw Hubert Taylor, Jr., of Raywood, Texas, emerge as winner in a mirth-provoking exhibition of rib-ticking shenanigans as has ever been offered in Anvil park. Eddie Mott of Medicine Lodge, Kan., captured second-place honors, while Arthur Ivey of Canadian and Bud Fisher of Shawnee, Okla., split third and fourth place.

Outstanding cowboy of the day was Roy Lewis of House, N. M., who proved his ability by winning two of the timed events. He was victorious both in the calf roping event, with a time of 15.6 seconds, and in the single steer roping contest, in which he required 19.4 seconds to tie his animal.

Junior Oilers And Gassers To Play Here Today

Baseball in Pampa Sunday afternoon will be furnished by the Pampa Junior Oilers and the Borger Junior Gassers, who will play at 2:30 o'clock at Road Runner park. No admission will be charged.

B. T. Adkins, new coach of the Junior Oilers, will send Bybee to the mound with Davis behind the plate. Batterymates for Borger have not been learned, Coach Adkins said last night.

Lineup for the Junior Oilers will be Hatcher on first, Arthur on second, Adkins at short, Brown on third, Isbell in left, Kerbow in center, and Spencer in right.

The Junior Oilers have played only two games this season because of the wet weather. They lost to the Pampa All Stars, composed of men, and they lost in 10 innings to Cities Service, another men's team.

Low net score was won by Mark Heath with a 54 while high net was won by Harry Barnett with a 117. Grover Austin, Jr., C. F. McGinnis and Haskell Maguire went to Quannah went to an invitation tournament yesterday.

Fourth Year of Fighting Nets Japan Little in China

Geography has made a stalemate of the four-year-old war between China and Japan. Harassed by guerrilla fighters in pockets within the occupied area of China, and unable to penetrate the interior, Japanese forces made even fewer gains in 1940-41 than in 1939-40. Only major Japanese occupation of the year was in northern French Indo-China. It is estimated war has cost Japan $4,000,000,000 so far.

Dizzy Going On Air, Gallagher Imagines

CHICAGO, July 5 (AP)—James T. Gallagher, general manager of the Chicago Cubs, said tonight that Dizzy Dean hadn't advised him as yet that he would leave baseball for radio broadcasting.

"However, I imagine that it is so," Gallagher added, "because Pat (Mrs. Dean) was in to see me the other day and she left me with the impression that Diz was going to take the offer."
Dean, former Cub pitcher and now a coach with the club, told newspapermen in Pittsburgh today that after tomorrow's double header he would leave for St. Louis and his new job.

Gallagher declared that it was his personal opinion that Dean "is making a mistake, because like Charley Grimm and Frankie Frisch, I don't think anybody who has lived baseball like he has, will be satisfied merely looking on."

Cleveland could have had Richard Cummings Wakefield for $1,500 two years ago, when as a high school graduate the lanky Michigan sophomore worked out with the Indians in Chicago.

Richard Wakefield's mother proved a much better business woman than his late father was a business man.

Mrs. Wakefield took her hard-hitting son on an unprecedented shopping tour, and wound up collecting $45,000 from Detroit, or just 30 times what Howard Wakefield, the old catcher, asked.

Young Dick Wakefield was only swinging for the exercise, when for the edification of owners, managers and scouts he hit five successive drives into the upper right field stand at Briggs Stadium and belted the ball over the place in Cleveland, Cincinnati and Chicago.

Walter O. Briggs told Mrs. Wakefield to get the biggest offer elsewhere, and that the Tigers would top it by $7,500.

Luke Sewell, the Browns' manager, was a Cleveland coach when Wakefield caught batting practice for the Indians at Comiskey Park.

"No one paid the slightest bit of attention to him," recalls Sewell.

"Because the visiting club's batting practice is limited to 20 minutes, Wakefield didn't get a chance to show off the thing he does best... pound the pill."

They started paying attention to Wakefield when at Michigan, Coach Ray Fisher, the one-time Yankee pitcher, transformed the loose 190-pounder into an outfielder.

Cleveland has the inside track on Wakefield until his father died this spring. Howard Wakefield caught for Cleveland and was a close friend of Bill Bradley, the famous third baseman who scouts for the Tribe.

But Mother Wakefield got different ideas when 11 major league scouts watched her left-handed hitting son in Michigan's game at Northwestern.

Wakefield twice hit balls that would have cleared any right field wall in the majors.

Body Builder Briggs didn't give Mrs. Wakefield $45,000 simply because he has too much money.

Jock Fournier, the former first baseman who seeks talent for the Browns, calls Wakefield the finest college player he ever saw.

Every trained baseball man who has seen him agrees young Dick Wakefield can't miss.

Women Satisfactory Jurists, Says Ohio Chief Justice

DALLAS, July 5 (AP)—Carl V. Weygant, chief justice of the Ohio supreme court, told members of the Texas state bar tonight that women had been satisfactory as jurors in Ohio.

He spoke at the annual banquet which closed the association convention. Earlier in the day the group had heard Jacob M. Lashly of St. Louis, president of the American Bar Association, describe as the national bar's greatest defense responsibility the creating of a "solidarity of sentiment and unity and loyalty of the people behind the judiciary."

Lashly, declaring that defense is not only a matter of armaments, asserted:

"Our system of government is based not on war but on the output of the courts of law where people go to find justice. Justice and liberty must go hand-in-hand if the American way is to be preserved."

Labor Contract To Stop Coal Strikes Drafted

(By The Associated Press)

A draft of a labor contract that would eliminate the last chance of another stoppage in soft coal production was reported ready today for the signatures of the CIO unit, Mine Workers and southern soft coal operators.

Representatives of both sides studied the proposed contract yesterday, but then postponed final action until a meeting today—a delay understood to have been requested by the operators to give them opportunity for further perusal of details.

Both UMW President John L. Lewis and L. Erbeole Gaines, representing the operators, had commented earlier in the week that negotiations had shown progress—the first time either side had evidenced such view.

The operators already had waived their overtime insistence on a 40-cent a day differential between the $7 a day paid by northern mines and the southern rate. That left comparatively minor details to be worked out in the written contract.

Another immediate strike threat vanished when the AFL chemical workers agreed to shelve an order for its members to walk out of the Western Cartridge company's Alton, Ill., plant on Sunday midnight. The union and the company accepted a recommendation by the Defense Mediation board that they negotiate meanwhile continuing work on $8-468,000 worth of government contracts.

At stake was the union's demand for recognition as the bargaining agent for the amoleless powder division's 550 employees, an increase in the minimum wage rate from 60 to 85 cents an hour, adjustments in the higher wage brackets and a union shop.

Camp Wolters Road Named For Texas Man Killed In World War

Special To The NEWS

CAMP WOLTERS, July 5—More than 22 years ago William H. Chambliss gave his life in the first World War. Today the road which constitutes the circular entrance to the infantry replacement training center headquarters at Camp Wolters, bears his name.

The road was named for the soldier this week after residents of nearby Mineral Wells informed Brigadier General W. H. Simpson, camp commander that Chambliss was a brother of Mrs. Luther Ladd, Salesville.

In a letter to Mrs. Ladd, General Simpson wrote: "To commemorate and honor the sacrifice he (Chambliss) made of his life, I am naming the road 'Chambliss Circle,' and that name will appear upon all maps of this reservation published hereafter."

The general closed his message simply, with: "It pleases me greatly to have this opportunity to honor the memory of your brother."

Chambliss, born March 18, 1896, was wounded in action in France on November 2, 1918, and died of his wounds the following day, November 3, 1918.

Britain And Vichy Confer About Syria

NEW YORK, July 5 (AP)—Britain and the Vichy government are in a pre-armistice stage of exchanging views on ending the war in Syria, Martin Agronsky, National Broadcasting company correspondent in Ankara, reported tonight in a broadcast from Ankara.

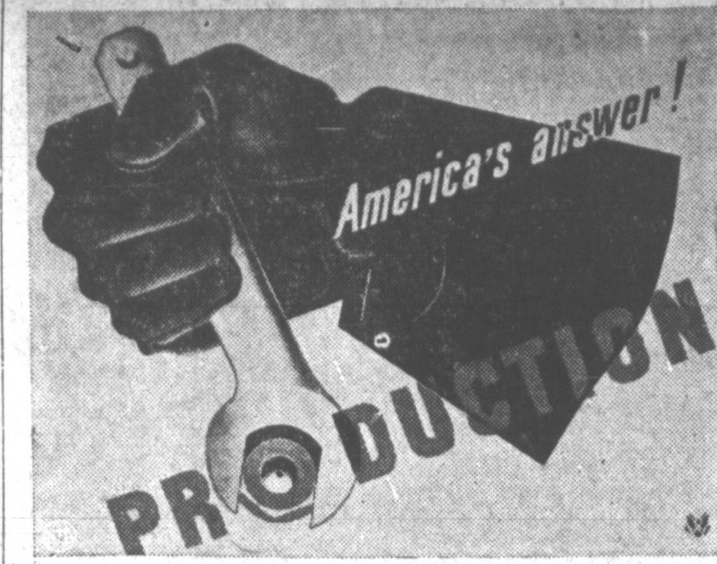

Agronsky quoted authoritative British diplomatic circles as saying the war in Syria is in its final and decisive stage.

He quoted one reliable diplomatic source as saying that while certain armistice negotiations had not yet started, there has definitely been an exchange of views between Vichy and Britain concerning an armistice.

This source added, Agronsky said, that "a certain great neutral power whose identity I am not at liberty to disclose has so far been the go-between."

Prescription-Blast Plot Foiled By Clerk

LOS ANGELES, July 5 (AP)—A quick-thinking clerk foiled an apparent plot to blow up at least two drugstores today.

Police quickly warned other druggists against filling prescriptions of explosive character.

Capt. Vern Rasmussen of the police homicide squad said a drugstore clerk reported that a man identifying himself as a physician telephoned a rush prescription.

After mixing three of the four ingredients, the clerk became suspicious and instead of adding the four drams of an acid, used a medicine dropper and added one drop.

There was a violent explosion. The clerk, uninjured, telephoned the drug company's main office, and warnings were issued to the branch units. At one, a clerk had started to mix the same prescription, which he said also had been ordered by telephone.

Rasmussen said a mixture in the proportions would have blown up the store.

"It looks like a plot of some maniac with a diabolical knowledge of chemistry," he said.

"We are warning druggists throughout the city."

Market Briefs

NEW YORK, July 5 (AP)—Strength of a handful of specialists today put a little backbone into stock market leaders generally and enabled the list to finish the week's satisfactory week ending slightly upward.

While gains of 1 to 2 points were tacked on a few favorites, plus signs elsewhere were in minor fractions at the close of the brief proceedings. Numerous issues were unchanged or off a shade.

Many boardroom customers stretched yesterday for a lengthy weekend but most of those who came down to Wall Street seemed to get some business inspiration from Russian claims of successful resistance to the Nazi push. In addition, business news was more encouraging than otherwise and some suggested the heavy tax bill which must meet next year might have been partly discounted marketwide.

The Associated Press average of 80 stocks was up 1/4 of a point at 41.9 and showed a net gain of .2 on the week. Of 125 individual issues traded, 211 were up, 91 down and 123 finished at Thursday's final levels. Transfers totaled 189,479 shares compared with 199,559 last Saturday. It was the best two-hour volume since June 14.

CHICAGO, July 5 (AP)—Accumulated receipts in the wheat belt over a holiday week which there was no harvest or movement of the crop gave the market enough selling today to lower prices about a cent a bushel.

Wheat closed 3/4 to 1/2 lower than Thursday, July 5, 1941, September 1.04 1/2, corn unchanged to 1/4 off, July 7 1/2, September 7 1/2; oats 1/2-3/4 down; soybeans 1/2-3/4 higher; rye unchanged to 1/2 lower and lard unchanged to 1/2 higher.

Defense Costs To Reach Billion A Month, Says Smith

WASHINGTON, July 5 (AP)—Harold D. Smith, budget director, predicted today that expanding defense expenditures would reach a rate of $1,000,000,000 a month by September.

This acceleration, he said, should make good recent estimates that defense costs this fiscal year will be $15,500,000,000.

Reviewing the last fiscal year (which ended June 30), Smith said $6,274,000,000 was spent for defense. The spending rate was $807,000,000 in June.

"I have just spent three and a half weeks visiting defense plants," the budget head said, "and I got the definite impression that we are going to have a pretty sharp step-up in production pretty soon."

Although noting that the defense total of the past year was $190,000,000 short of the budget estimate made last January, Smith said it failed to reflect other millions of dollars of defense work being done by normally "non-defense" agencies.

"The defense totals include only the army, navy and a few obvious defense agencies," he explained. "But nearly every other department of the government is spending a large part of its money and time on defense."

Smith noted that non-defense costs were $697,000,000 less than in the preceding fiscal year, and added: "I hope they can be cut some more, but here we have the same difficulty as in totaling defense costs—it's so hard in some cases to tell what is defense and what is non-defense work."

Two years ago there were 53,000 women working in the Volunteer Special Services of the Red Cross. Today, there are 600,000. By May of this year, Red Cross volunteers in chapters throughout the country had made over 4,000,000 garments and 22,000,000 surgical dressings for shipment abroad.

Someone whom we have always admired for her beauty is Mrs. J. W. Garman. Last week she was attractive wearing an all-white ensemble with a striking hat. Her handsome son is usually good-humored.

No Woman Who Still "Cares" Cares To Hear The Following

There are some things no woman who lances herself attractive likes to hear. So if you want to please, do not make any of the following comments to a woman who still "cares":

Don't ask her if she hasn't gained a few pounds. Even in the case of a thin woman who goes around becoming the fact that she can't gain weight. It's safe to assume she really is proud of her streamlining and that her complaining is only a harmless way of calling attention to it.

Don't (especially if you're a man) rave about how attractive some other woman is—or what a wonderful cook, if you're talking to a woman who prides herself on her own cooking. Even if you are raving about how pretty a woman's daughter is, it's nice to see a reasonable resemblance between her and her mother.

Don't tell a woman how much she looks like some other woman. That's not flattering—unless you are talking to a sixteen-year-old girl, and then you'd better find a resemblance between her and a movie star—not between her and some other high school girl.

NO WOMAN WILL APPRECIATE THESE

Don't say to a woman, even if she is your contemporary, "When we were young—" or "We old folks." She won't appreciate it one bit.

Don't guess a woman's age, even if she asks you, unless you underestimate it considerably.

Don't tell a woman you like her hair better the old way than the way she is wearing it now.

Don't tell a woman that you saw a man she is, or was once, interested in with another woman.

Don't say "at HER age" about a woman who is about the same age as the woman to whom you are talking.

If you disobey any of those rules

FDR Expected To Settle Price-Fixing Controversy Soon

WASHINGTON, July 5 (AP)—A usually well-informed member of congress said today that President Roosevelt probably would settle next week a controversy between administration officials and leaders on Capitol Hill over the question of enacting price-fixing legislation.

This informant said Leon Henderson, chief of the government's price-fixing set-up, was urging Mr. Roosevelt to recommend mandatory price-fixing to congress promptly.

Henderson recently said "the honeymoon is over" so far as voluntary government-industry cooperation to fix prices was concerned.

At the capitol, it was reported some house lieutenants wanted the president to delay any recommendation for price fixing. They believed, it was said, the legislation would stir up a long senate controversy and prevent a projected rest period for the chamber while the house is working on the new tax bill.

Senator Hill (D-Ala.), the acting majority leader, told reporters that any price measure undoubtedly "will be pretty thoroughly gone in to, but in the final analysis the congress probably would take favorable action."

Senate Republicans were reported by one of their number to be almost solidly opposed to granting the administration a free hand to fix prices, and a bloc of farm-state legislators already is at work to block any such proposal.

you needn't expect a woman to feel kindly toward you.

ELECTED OBJECTOR

A club in Reidsville, S. C., elects one member for the purpose of objecting to every proposal, regardless of its merit, to keep the club from adopting it too hastily.

COOL AS PEAKS OF THE PYRENEES

Dressed for Fun

JUST AS FASHION designers wrack their artistic minds for new styles, prints and color combinations, so, too, do the styling engineers of the automobile industry. New upholstery fabrics in widely varied color combinations and brightly hued exteriors for the spring and summer provide the eye-catching qualities of their products.

Marriage Licenses About Normal Here

Mars does not spur any noticeable increase in the number of marriage licenses issued here, as it does in some other parts of the nation. Marriage licenses issued from the office of County Clerk Charlie Thui during June totaled 20, but there was nothing unusual in this figure, the county clerk said.

Meanwhile from Washington, the census bureau reported an all-time record for marriages in 1940—nearly 1,500,000, or 11.8 marriages for every 1,000 population, according to the Associated Press.

Don't Mask Those "Bad Habits" When Mama Comes To Visit

"I can't smoke when mother comes to visit," I heard a woman say regretfully the other day. The woman was forty years old—and the mother of a family herself.

That's an odd situation—but not an unusual one. There are lots of parents who continue to try to influence their children's behavior long after they are grown men and women, with minds and judgments just as sound as those of their parents—or sounder.

It's a big mistake for parents to make, for there are enough natural obstacles in the path of congeniality between the old and the young without the old thinking up artificial ones.

No wonder it's not always an unmixing blessing when Mama or Papa writes a young married couple or a working son or daughter that "I'm coming on a visit," if Mama or Papa is going to object to the way things are done in the child's home or bachelor's apartment.

The best way for a parent who wants to be truly welcome at any time to behave is to accept his grown child's way of living without criticism, whether he secretly approves of all the "goings on" or not.

KPDN Radio Chat

By BILL BROWNE

First, how did you fishermen like Bill Pearce's broadcast at 6:45 last night, taking the time formerly occupied by the Sports Picture? Mr. Pearce is game warden for this section of the state, and his program will be continued each Saturday evening through the summer under sponsorship of the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission.

Second, KPDN has started broadcasting play-by-play accounts of the baseball games played by the Pampa Oilers both in and out of town. Most of the evening games will be played about 8:30 o'clock and the afternoon games are scheduled usually for 2:30 or 3 o'clock.

Curly Nickell, the guitar-playing, singing cowboy who warbled each morning at 7:45 throughout June and July, has left town, at least for the present. Curly drew more fan mail than any program on KPDN during the time he was here.

Esk Robertson, the old time fiddler who has been playing at 4 each evening, has also left Pampa for a while, but he has promised to return.

Maxine Holt has given up her piano program for a while due to an overload of other duties. In the time she used to use, 8 o'clock Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, you can hear Fred and Charlotte Warren, playing favorite music. Fred plays records and brasses while Charlotte accompanies him on the piano.

You are invited to listen each Saturday at 9:45 a. m. to "General Fuqua's Warcast," an authoritative military analysis of the war as broadcast. The script used is prepared by Major General Stephen O. Fuqua, military affairs editor of NEWSWEEK Magazine.

Listen for the new twist in the "Where Am I?" and "What Was the Year?" programs.

Eli Whitmire Dies Of Brief Illness

Funeral services for Eli Whitmire, 35, were held at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Fairview cemetery by the Rev. C. Gordon Bayless, pastor of First Baptist church. Burial was under direction of Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral home.

Mr. Whitmire died Friday afternoon at a local hospital where he had been admitted on Thursday. Death was of a brief illness.

Survivors are four sisters, Mrs. Lizzie Willingham, McCorrie, Okla., Mrs. Rozena Willingham, Pampa, Mrs. May Robinson, Arizona, and Mrs. Gracie Wakley, Durango; and four brothers, Joe of Sanford, Eddy of Kenesaw, Okla., Elmer of Pottawatomie, Okla., and Jess of Pampa.

STARTED SPORT

The sport of horse racing in America started in New York. Col. Richard Nicolls called a meeting on Long Island for "encouraging the bettering of the breed of horses," and the sport spread throughout the nation from there.

BLOUSE AND SKIRT

The blouse has a dropped shoulder yoke and a gracefully shaped turn-down collar. The yoke belt at the bottom may be worn out over the skirt or tucked in. The flared skirt is made with a plain hand top. You'll like this frock best in a contrast effect, light top, dark skirt, or the pieces may match. It is the youthful casual sort of costume you will wear with pleasure throughout the summer and fall seasons.

Speaking Of Pleading Diction: Learn To Relax Tongue, Jaw

A pleasant voice is an important part of charm—the worthwhile variety which doesn't fade all too quickly with the years. Generally speaking, the great beauties of all times have been easy on the ears as well as the eyes.

Not every adult can cultivate positively musical voice tones, of course. But it's not too difficult to learn to control the voice so that it doesn't go up and up and up when you get the least bit excited, or when you are in a crowd of people. And it's simple to learn to hold tongue and jaw in relaxed positions, thereby eliminating a nasal twang from your voice.

Instead of holding your tongue stiffly against the roof of your mouth, place the tip against the back of the lower row of teeth. Learn to hold it there when you are not speaking and when you pause for breath between sentences.

To relax your jaw, simply swing it back and forth, then close your mouth slowly. Let mouth fall open, taking a deep breath as it falls, then close it slowly, exhaling through your nose. Repeat five times a day or whenever you are particularly nervous and tense or just before you are going to keep an important business appointment.

Learn to pause and to breathe between sentences. Nothing grates more on the nerves of others than the voice which rambles on and on, minute after minute.

It doesn't matter what you read—a book, a magazine or the daily newspaper—just so long as you read aloud, taking time out to look up the meaning of words you don't know or can't pronounce, and remembering to breathe at each period, pause or comma and enunciate clearly. Before you know it you will have cultivated a habit of speaking distinctly and more interestingly.

FUN, ROMANCE, AND TUNES

Miami, the South's glamor city, is the setting for 20th Century-Fox's Technicolor picture, "Moon Over Miami," opening a four-day run today at the La-Nora, featuring Betty Grable and Don Ameche.

Leo Robin and Ralph Rainger's music is impressive in the picture, their songs including "Solitary Seminole," "Miami," "Loveliness and Love," and "You Started Something."

Equally impressive is the dancing. A Congo routine is performed by Dance Director Hermes Pan. He demonstrates on the set were so excellent that the studio drafted him to go through this routine for the film with Betty Grable. Betty also does a surefire number with the sensational Condos Brothers, stage and night club favorites. Jack Cole, one of the nation's finest interpretive dancers and his company of sixty bring to the screen for the first time a sensational series of modernized Indian folk dances.

This amusing film is the gay, tune-filled tale of how to invest an inheritance. Two sisters, Betty Grable and Carole Landis, induce their aunt, Charlotte Greenwood, to accompany them to Miami. All three have just inherited $5,000, and Betty decides to invest it in clothes and a lavish suite at one of Miami's ritziest hotels. Her purpose is to hook a millionaire by looking like a millionairess. Carole poses as her secretary and Miss Greenwood as her personal maid. Betty is so convincing as an heiress that she not only hooks a millionaire, Robert Cummings, but another fortune hunter like herself, Don Ameche.

GANG-SATIRE

Cesar Romero is seen as the gangster who keeps his enemies in a private jail instead of "rubbing them out" in 20th Century-Fox's laugh and tune hit, "Tall, Dark, and Handsome," on the State screen Tuesday.

WHIMSICAL "ROGUE'S" NEW FILM

Another tailor-made role for Wallace Berry, shown above with Virginia Weider, in his part in Metro's "Barnacle Bill," at the LaNora Friday and Saturday. Berry and his pal Leo Carrillo are caught selling stolen boat gear to a San Diego chandlery, but Berry manages to get away in a Monterey fishing boat to a hide-out, a chandlery owned by Donald Meek and his manish daughter, Marjorie Main, whom Bill courted eight years before.

LOVE-JINX

Warner's "Singapore Woman," showing Thursday at the La-Nora, and featuring Brenda Marshall, above, with David Bruce, is the story of a woman who becomes embittered because everyone associates her with bad luck. BUBBLE-LIGHT FILMS MARK WEEK'S SCHEDULE AT THEATERS OF PAMPA

Glamorous Technicolor Film musical, "Moon Over Miami," Opens Today at LaNora; "West Point Widow" Features Anne Shirley, Richard Carlson; "Red Head," At Crown

By BROWNWOOD EMERSON

It's comedy, music, and glamor that rule screens in Pampa this week.

There isn't a full pic in the whole sked, and it nearly all as frothy as champagne bubbles.

There's the colorful, in two ways, "Moon Over Miami," as bewitching as the song title, and full of the masterful tunes of Robin and Rainger, current at the LaNora, with Betty Grable and Don Ameche.

"West Point Widow," opening today at the Rex, with Anne Shirley and Richard Carlson, is another bang-up comedy.

Wallace Berry brings his own distinctive brand of acting to the screen again in a typical Beery vehicle, "Barnacle Bill," at the LaNora Friday and Saturday.

An old formula is brought back but with a novel twist in "The Cowboy and the Blonde," on the Rex screen Wednesday and Thursday. Opening the week at the Crown is "Red Head," with June Lang and Johnny Downs.

Gray Grand Jury Will Reconvene Monday Morning

Members of the grand jury will re-convene tomorrow morning, as the regular petit jury panel assembles, and the sixth week of the June term of the 31st district court opens. The week is civil jury. Petit jurors are:

INTERNE VS. GRID HERO

Anne Shirley, star of "West Point Widow," the new Paramount comedy opening today at the Rex theater, is shown with Richard Carlson, one of the claimants to her heart in the film. Her other suitor is Richard Denning. Between the two, Anne's heart is in a very confused condition. In the picture Anne is a nurse, Carlson an interne and Denning a West Point officer and football hero.

GUN-JUGGLER

The Masterson Roll is the new one Johnny Mack Brown has invented to beguile cowboy film fans in Universal's "Rawhide Rangers," showing Friday and Saturday at the Rex. The "roll" named in honor of Bat Masterson, one-time famed U. S. marshal, is a combination of gun-spinning, balancing and juggling.

Pampa Students Commended For Scholastic Marks

On the honor roll from Pampa are Beryl Tignor, John Kirk Duncan, and John Edwin McConnell.

Other honor students from this area include Catherine Elizabeth Miller of Borger; Jimmy Eugene Thompson, Clarendon; Winfred Mills York, Panhandle; Mary Louise Begley and Roy Willis Holmes, both of Shamrock.

CLEVER HOLLYWOOD COMEDY

Spark and punch in the plot make 20th Century-Fox's comedy, "The Cowboy and the Blonde," with Mary Beth Hughes and George Montgomery, above, over the average program picture. This 68-minute film is about Hollywood, a homely cowpoke who is "discovered" and brought there, and his romance with film star Mary Beth, mixed with jealousy, a return to the range, a spat, and then again comes love and the final kiss-facet. Clever dialogue makes it more than just another boy-meets-girl story. In the opinion of The Film Daily, At the Rex Wednesday and Thursday.

"RED HEAD" OPENS AT CROWN

June Lang, Johnny Downs, and Eric Blore are the principals in Monogram's 64-minute picture, "Red Head," current at the Crown. Plot revolves around what happens when Downs, usually less playboy, gets kicked out of his home by his father, Jacques, and meets Miss Lang. He dreams up the idea of marrying her and having her pose as an adventuress to get some money from his father.

RAF Scores Hits On Lille Steel Works

(By The Associated Press) LONDON, July 5—British heavy bombers made a smashing attack upon German-occupied northern France today and were reported to have scored direct hits upon important steel and engineering works at Lille, key industrial center.

This raid, in which a strong fighter escort participated, was part of an almost-continuous attack upon German-held territory on the continent and followed a strong night assault upon the harbor at Brest.

The daylight raid was made by one of the biggest forces used by the new heavy air offensive against Germany's turned back. The roar of plane motors was heard continuously for half an hour over the north-east coast as shore observers watched the bombers fly out to attack.

The coastal command, in daylight attacks with fighter escorts, scored direct hits upon a German vessel of about 4,000 tons off the Belgian coast, the air minister said, and also raided the coast of southern Norway, setting fire to docks and shipping at Haugesund and to a factory and the waterfront at Kristiansund.

The night attack was against Lorient, as well as Brest, the German submarine base there being an objective. Other flights were against Cherbourg, railway yards at Abbeville and industrial targets in Germany's Rhineland.

An official British tabulation in the war of attrition against the Luftwaffe showed 204 Nazi aircraft destroyed since the start of the large-scale offensive against June 16.

The British acknowledged the loss of 72 of their planes over the same period and stoutly denied German claims that the British had lost 315 aircraft in the period since the start of only eight planes to the Luftwaffe.

The campaign is conceived to accomplish two objectives. The first is to deliver a series of crushing blows at German-organized and German-directed industry and commerce in northern Europe.

The second is a war of attrition against the fighter strength of the Luftwaffe, a strength which the Nazis must have intact, if they are to complete an invasion of Britain.

Although Britain's bomber strength is far above that of early spring because of her own and American production, heavy raids upon Berlin have not been contemplated, because of the short nights this time of year. The RAF is loath to risk its most powerful weapons in raids which would necessitate three or four hours of flying in twilight or dawn, when the big ships would be easy to German fighters.

Thus, the bombings have been directed at ports and industrial and military targets well within range during the five to six hours of darkness. The aim is to make northern Europe unusable as an invasion base for years to come and cripple German-manufactured industry at a time when the Russian war is believed to be straining it to the utmost.

Biggest problem facing the RAF is the development of a long-range fighter capable of accompanying bombers over Berlin in daylight and to establish local command of the air, which Britain now holds over the channel and northern France.

A large group of specially-trained Canadian, Australian and New Zealand pilots, some wearing dark glasses, intended to keep their night-vision goggles on during the flight to join the night fighter squadrons, an authoritative announcement said today.

Many of the men were chosen through tests showing a particular aptitude for this night fighting. The pilots are the first graduates of the empire training plan to arrive for night-flying assignments.

SERIAL STORY

ANOTHER MAN'S WIFE

BY DONNA ASHWORTH

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

YESTERDAY, Lita gets her divorce, but it will not become final until she has been in New York for six months...

church. Ann had never dressed with such care. Her golden hair was a mass of ringlets beneath her green felt hat...

At the red brick church with the tall steeple, Ann's heart stood still with sudden fright. It would take courage to go inside...

Now she was singing, songs she had almost forgotten. The readings all came back, too. The years of the orphanage were as yesterday...

Service was over. People were moving down the aisles. People were coming up, speaking and introducing themselves to her and to Sally.

"I'm Ann Marshall," she was saying, "and this is my aunt, Miss Green. We're living in the old Willard house..."

"Hello. Oh, Ken, darling, you've got to come over right away. I'm in a panic. Your mother..."

Her voice broke. "You can't! Either this afternoon or tonight? But you promised. Oh..."

It was 2 o'clock when he called. "Hello. Oh, Ken, darling, you've got to come over right away. I'm in a panic. Your mother..."

"Yes, I understand. Perfectly. Yes, in Farmington you don't rush things. You wait... Yes, of course I'll be waiting. That's all I have to do. I may get used to it in time. But I doubt it."

"So she thinks I'm pretty. It doesn't matter. I don't care what she thinks about me right now, or you either. I wish I were back in New York with Jerry."

She slammed the receiver on his words and turned to Sally. "Life looks lovely in Farmington," she said, with bitter sarcasm. "I'll love it. I wonder how he thinks I'll love sitting by my own fire-side while he takes Mama around. I wonder..."

ANN INVADERS FARMINGTON

CHAPTER VI

ON a gray February morning Lita—now Ann—and Sally drove into Farmington. Trucks loaded with furniture, bought in New York, followed them...

When the furniture was finally in place, Ann and Sally surveyed their new home. It was perfect. From pictures to rugs and knick-knacks, the place had an air of having been lived in for a long time...

"And now what?" Sally asked. "Ken is here, but he might as well be a thousand miles away. What are you going to do next?"

"Today is Saturday," Ann answered. "Tomorrow we go to church. Ken will be there and we shall be properly introduced. He will call tomorrow afternoon."

"Church," said Sally slowly. "And I haven't been to church in 20 years. I wonder if I'll know how to act."

"You'll never learn any sooner. And if you had ever been in an orphanage, Sally, my love, you could never forget, because you had to go so much."

ANN walked out on the porch and stood staring out at the street. The air was chilly but not raw. There was no sound except a car passing down the street...

Home. Her whole life from now on would be here. Everything was beginning here. For Ann Marshall. A nice, ladylike name, Ken had said. Lita Dawson was entirely dead. She would never live again.

SUNDAY morning, and all of Farmington was going to checked by departmental investigators. At the training school the cadets learn traffic and criminal law, public speaking, motorcycle riding, first aid, ju-jitsu, and a host of other subjects. After graduation the rookies are placed on six-month probation and assigned to work with experienced officers.

Examinations Open For Highway Patrol

Special To The NEWS

AUSTIN, July 5—State police officials moved quickly today to employ and train more than 100 highway patrolmen and drivers license examiners provided for in the new departmental appropriation bill signed Wednesday by Governor O'Daniel.

"Our forces already are far overtaxed by internal security investigations and the enormous increase in traffic due to defense activities," said State Police Director Homer Garrison, Jr. "These new men are desperately needed, and they will be placed in training immediately after the appropriation becomes effective September 1."

Garrison set July 28 as the deadline for mailing of form applications to the department. He said examinations will be given at highway patrol district offices around the middle of August, allowing only a few weeks for investigation of successful applicants before the 7-week training school begins at Camp Mabry.

"These appointments are decided strictly upon the individual's merit," Garrison said. "All applications will be handled in the same way, and it will be a waste of time for anyone to come to Austin until he may be called."

To be eligible for appointment an applicant must be a citizen of the United States and a resident of Texas for at least one year. He must be of good moral character and in perfect physical condition, not less than five feet, eight inches in height without shoes, and must weigh not less than two nor more than three and one half pounds for each inch of height. He must not be less than 23 nor more than 35 years old at the time of appointment.

The applicant must have at least a 10th grade education, and is required to furnish 10 letters of recommendation, a letter certifying that his credit rating is satisfactory, and a physician's certificate of sound physical condition.

Amariillo Test Location Examinations are given in the headquarters office of each patrol district. For Gray county, Amarillo is the center. A personal interview and oral examination follows the written examination, which includes a multitude of subjects ranging from geography, mathematics and spelling to tests of general intelligence and aptitude.

When the applicant appears for examination, he is given a card bearing his assigned number, and his thumbprint is placed on the card. When successful applicants appear for appointment, their thumbprints are compared with the prints on their cards to guard against any switching of identity.

In addition to his physician's certificate, each successful applicant is given a thorough examination by doctors appointed by the department of public safety. The applicant's character and background are
