

O'Daniel Suggests Gasoline Shortage Planned To Pave Way For Pipeline

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—A suggestion that a shortage of gasoline in the East might be planned in order to facilitate construction of a vast pipeline from Texas and Louisiana to the Atlantic seaboard was advanced today by Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex.), member of the special senate committee investigating threatened shortages of gasoline and oil.

Senators "proved there is no shortage of petroleum or transportation to get the products to the East," O'Daniel suggested that the committee "try to develop what's back of this alleged shortage."

Ralph Budd, defense transportation adviser, had told the senate group that railroad tank cars could solve the shortage and had opposed construction of the huge new pipeline to carry oil from the Southwest to the East on the ground that all available steel was badly needed for ships, railroad cars and defense industries.

At the senate committee session, O'Daniel said that the proposed new pipeline was to be 22 or 24 inches while most oil pipelines were from 8 to 10 inches and that larger lines were needed for carrying natural gas. He recalled that Ralph K. Davies, acting petroleum coordinator, had told the committee that the big line might be used for natural gas after the present emergency.

O'Daniel told newsmen later that people of Texas and other large natural gas centers opposed gas pipelines because this cheap fuel brought industries to the immediate areas.

At one point in the hearing, Chairman Maloney (D-Conn.) of the investigating committee said one source informed him that railroad tank cars might be able to bring 400,000 barrels of petroleum to the East coast daily or twice the estimate of Budd and J. J. Peiley, president of the Association of American Railroads.

Battle Of Russia Surges Toward Climax

(By The Associated Press)

The battle of Russia is surging toward a climax in the four principal sectors of the main Russian-German front, on the immediate approaches to Leningrad, in the north, on the front west of Moscow, on the railways and highways converging on Kiev, and on the siege ring around Odessa.

The Russians said that the assault on Leningrad, now threatened on the north by victorious Finns and on the south by the Germans, had been checked, but Pravda, Moscow organ of the Communist party, admitted that "the beastly, treacherous enemy is breaking through on the approaches to the city."

Inhabitants of Leningrad had turned out to build a deep, continuous defense line to meet their foe, determined, it was said, to turn the approaches into graveyards for the attackers.

Ferocious fighting has started on the approaches to Kiev, capital of the Ukraine, with the Russians declaring the Germans repulsed by stiff counter-attacks. In one outlying village several German regiments were said to have sustained loss of more than 15,000 men in dead and wounded.

Somewhere on the indefinite front west of Moscow the Russians claimed their deepest counter-thrusts while the Red fleet, taking advantage of its command of the Black Sea, was attempting to relieve Odessa by landing storm troops behind the German-Rumanian siege lines.

The severity of the struggle was pictured by German and Russian sources independent of the official communiques.

The German radio, sending perhaps public dissatisfaction with uncommunicative communiques, appealed to the people today "to forego a complete and detailed description of military operations."

"The people know only too well why this lack of information is necessary," the broadcast said. "But they also are aware of the fact that each time a campaign has been concluded, a detailed report was given."

One report by DNB said German forces had encircled and virtually destroyed the 108th Russian tank division on the center of the front. The bulk of Russia's 293rd infantry division also was reported destroyed.

Prime Minister Churchill, addressing a Lord Mayor's luncheon in London, declared that the only way to beat Germany was through

Large Barn Burns At Frank Lard Residence Here

A large barn at the rear of the Frank Lard home on East Frederic street burned to the ground last night about 9:45 o'clock. When firemen arrived the barn was a mass of flames, and the firemen had no chance to save the building.

Earlier in the evening the firemen were called to the negro section where a house was gutted by fire. An adjoining house was slightly damaged but firemen were able to throw water on the building and keep it from igniting.

The Lard barn contained water drilling equipment and a truck, which was completely destroyed. Cause of the fire, which had gained great headway before discovered, has not been determined. Amount of the loss has not been announced by Chief Ben White.

It is believed that the fire in the negro house was caused by a stove. Loss has not been estimated.

CONGRESSMAN, 83, DIES
DENVER, Sept. 4 (AP)—Rep. Edward T. Taylor (D-Colo.), 83, a former Kansas cowboy who was elected to the United States house of representatives in 1909 and became its oldest member after 17 consecutive terms in office, died last night of a heart attack.

The man who ran for office at 22 general elections and was never defeated held the most pride in his Taylor grazing act, which regulates use of the public domain. He was the author of 100 other federal laws.

SLAYER'S HUSBAND CHARGED WITH THEFT
ABILENE, Sept. 4 (AP)—R. E. Walker, whose wife was accused of murder in the slaying of Miss Annie Elizabeth Parsons, was charged today with the theft of a $1,500 watch that belonged to the slain woman.

The $1,500 valuation was placed on the watch in a complaint filed by County Attorney Theo Ash in Justice of the Peace W. J. Cunningham's court.

Walker was arrested at the office of a taxicab company he operates. The charge was filed against Mrs. Walker after she signed a statement in the presence of newspapermen admitting the shooting. Miss Parsons, owner of two drug stores here, was shot last Tuesday night.

The slaying occurred soon after Walker stepped from an automobile in which he and Miss Parsons had been riding.

Declaration Will Shorten War, Claims King

LONDON, Sept. 4 (AP)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill of Britain and Premier W. L. Mackenzie King of Canada both called today in diplomatic but strong terms for full United States backing in the struggle against Nazi Germany.

Addressing a Lord Mayor's luncheon in honor of King, Churchill declared that "no lasting or permanent solution of the difficulties with which we are now confronted—with which the whole world is menaced, can be achieved without the full cooperation in every field of all nations which as yet lie outside the range of the conqueror's power."

Churchill linked his statement with that of King, who had preceded him and who, after recalling President Roosevelt's pledge to defend Canada, stated:

"Your declaration, Mr. Prime Minister, that in the far east Britain would stand at the side of the United States is a sure sign of the deepening interdependence of the free world."

"A similar declaration on the part of the United States as respects Nazi Germany would, I believe, serve to shorten this perilous conflict. Such a declaration would be full of meaning for the German people. At the same time it would constitute a realistic recognition that Britain is the one obstacle in the way of a Nazi attack upon the new world."

Before he made the reference to Churchill's far eastern pledge and called for a similar U. S. declaration concerning Germany, Prime Minister King will meet with the Ad-

WOMAN REPORTS THEFT OF $1,000
City police officers today are investigating the reported theft of $1,000 in cash from Mrs. G. A. Perry, who gave her address as 123 West Brown street. She told officers that a man had taken $1,000 in $20 bills from her purse while she was on a deal with him for the purchase of an Amarillo cafe.

Mrs. Perry said she had the bills in her purse while discussing the deal in a local hotel. During the conference she said she went to the wash room, leaving her purse on a desk. Later the man excused himself, Mrs. Perry told officers, and left the room. Soon after she discovered that the money was missing.

Mrs. Perry went to Amarillo and reported the theft before coming to local officers, Chief J. B. Wilkinson said today. As a result the local officers are handicapped in their investigation.

Numerous Top O' Texans Deprived Of Driving Privilege Recently

AUSTIN, Sept. 4—Reflecting the increase in drunken driving convictions under the new misdemeanor law, a report by State Police Director Homer Garrison said today that 333 persons were deprived of their driving privilege between June 6 and August 20.

Of this number, 245 drivers' licenses were suspended or revoked for driving while intoxicated. Others lost licenses for reckless driving, negligent homicide, assault with a motor vehicle, and other traffic violations.

Following are the names, addresses, suspension expiration dates and offenses of those losing their licenses in the Amarillo Highway Patrol district, 2-4-42, drunken driving; William Ray Carter, Pampa, 2-11-42, drunken driving; Jay Cole, Borger, 2-2-42, drunken driving; Guy W. Flippo, Skellyton, 2-4-42, drunken driving; Tracy Fox, Tulla, 2-4-42, drunken driving; Ozio Carter, Amarillo, 2-7-42, drunken driving; Edward Erwin, Pampa, 2-4-42, drunken driving; H. C. Hicks, Claude, 1-28-42, drunken driving; Van Bass, Wheeler, 1-22-41, drunken driving; R. S. Patrick, Memphis, 1-26-41, drunken driving; C. E. Register, Keller, 12-5-41, drunken driving; Walter Archie Stout, Silvertown, 12-6-41, second conviction of reckless driving.

Noland Commodore Of Boat Club
W. A. Noland was elected commodore of the McClellan Boat club last night at the best attended meeting of the year. His election was by acclamation. He will succeed Joe Gordon who was named rear commodore.

Other officers elected by L. A. Horne, vice-commodore, for the second term, and Earl McConnell, secretary-treasurer, both by acclamation.

Board of directors will consist of the officers and Roy Branscum, Alva "Shorty" Phillips, Artie Shaw, Bert Howell, and Johnny Morrison. Plans were made to conduct winter races and also to hold dances during the winter months.

Nazi Losses In Russia Thus Far Set At 1,750,000
LONDON, Sept. 4 (AP)—An authoritative British source said today German losses in the war with Russia thus far are believed to total about 1,750,000 and that Russian losses have been "from 2,000,000 to 3,000,000" in the bloodiest fighting in history.

This source, in the highest quarters, said: "None can overpraise the Russians' conduct of the war. They are magnificent and proved the sincerity of their scorched earth promises by blowing up the Lenin (Dnieper river) dam."

Lease-Lend Critics Invited To Britain

LONDON, Sept. 4 (AP)—Brendan Bracken, minister of information, today invited members of the United States Congress to visit Britain to investigate use of lease-lend materials.

He gladly accept the suggestion that members of the United States congress come to Britain to make their own inquiries on the use of lease-lend materials, and they would be under no obligation," Bracken said.

"We are anxious," said Bracken, "to find independent witnesses and critics but not peace mongers." This remark was made when newsmen asked the minister if his invitation would hold good if the same congressmen went on to Germany. Bracken said the congressmen would be allowed to visit British factories but would not be shown war secrets.

The Shadow Walked But Not For Long

AUSTIN, Sept. 4 (AP)—City police reported the Shadow walked again last night and with him was the infamous Zorro, wearing a blue cape. Residents informed police the sign of the Bat in tar and an announcing "Tonight the ghost walks—you will die" had been found on their homes.

The Shadow and Zorro, both youthful pranksters, today were in the toils of the law.

Central Baptist W. M. U. Elects New Officials

Central Baptist W. M. U. elected new officers at their meeting held Wednesday afternoon at the church.

The meeting was in connection with a covered dish luncheon served at 1 o'clock.

"Jesus Saves" was sung, opening the meeting, followed with a prayer by Mrs. John Browning.

Announcement was made that a change in the meeting date would be effective October 1, the organization meeting on Wednesday of each week, instead of Mondays, as heretofore.

An accordion solo was played by Neva Fay Power.

To Mrs. O. H. Gilstrap, retiring president, who has headed the W. M. U. for the past two years, a gift in appreciation of her services was presented.

Mrs. C. A. Jones was elected president and Mrs. John Browning recording secretary, upon report of the nominating committee.

The devotional, taken from the 65th Psalm, was given by Mrs. T. D. Sumrall, who also gave the closing prayer.

There were 21 members and one visitor attending.

200 Attend Party At Phillips Camp Honoring Mallows

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Tex Mallow and family who leave tomorrow for Phillips Berger plant, where Mr. Mallow will become a sub-foreman in the production department, 200 persons gathered in the community hall of the Phillips camp south of Pampa last night, and presented the couple with a farewell gift of a chest of silver.

Mr. Mallow has been with the Phillips Petroleum 15 years, 12 of which he has been with the plant south of Pampa. He has the distinction of being the first Texan employed by Phillips.

He has been a deacon of the Baptist church at LeFors and a school trustee at Hopkins ever since a school was founded in that community.

Bart Coleman was master of ceremonies at the party last night. Dee Partridge was in charge of entertainment, and Dewey Voyles in charge of refreshments. Pie, ice cream, and coffee were served.

Talks of appreciation for Mr. Mallow's service to the community were made by Deacon Jones, Mr. Coleman, J. L. Pratt and others.

Claudia, Of Radio, Explains How 'Grapevine System' Got Its Start

The origin of the expression "by way of the grapevine system" came to light today when somebody asked Claudia Bengé, commentator for the "What's Doing Around Pampa" radio program, about it. Or rather it did after some extensive research on the part of Claudia.

It seems that back in 1859, a telegraph system was put through from Placerville, California to the famous gold and silver mines center, Virginia City, Nevada, by Colonel Bee. The colonel had the wires strung on trees through the forests, which no doubt saved time and work, but obviously was not as efficient as our present day way of doing it.

At any rate, the wires refused to stay taut; they hung down in swirls and loops, just like a grapevine in anybody's vineyard. So people called the colonel's venture the "grapevine system," and there you have the source of an expression that is still used today.

However, when you hear Claudia, popular radio commentator, use the word "grapevine," she is not referring to any kind of telegraph or telephone device, but rather to a mysterious system of her own that keeps her in the "know" of what's doing around town.

Her chatty program is given over strictly to local gossip, and is often compared to the old-fashioned party line, only in this instance one person does all the talking and many listen in.

"What's Doing Around Pampa" has been on the air now for 9 months, and listening to Claudia has become a pleasant habit with a large audience of Pampa women, and not a few Pampa men, who are apt to hear an amusing anecdote about their next door neighbor... an interesting story about a newcomer in town... or perhaps their own names mentioned among the commentator's nominations for the most attractive personalities in town.

supported statements made yesterday by J. J. Pelley, president of the Association of American Railroads, that 20,000 or more new idle railroad tank cars would eliminate any eastern seaboard petroleum shortages.

Another witness, J. Howard Marshall, chief counsel for the Office of petroleum coordination, informed the senate committee that defense officials had ample power "to enforce a program of consumer rationing of gasoline in the Atlantic coast area should such a program become necessary."

Budd joined Chairman Emory S. Land of the maritime commission and other witnesses in opposing the proposal to construct a pipe-line from Southwestern oil fields to the Atlantic seaboard to solve the petroleum situation.

Budd said such a pipeline would require a vast amount of steel and other supplies needed for ships, machines and other pressing defense projects, including railroad cars and locomotives.

While the defense transportation coordinator was testifying on Capitol Hill, representatives of the railroad and oil industry met at a downtown hotel hopeful of reaching some agreement on railroad rates for bringing additional oil to the East in tank cars.

Chairman Maloney (D-Conn.) of the senate investigating group said Pelley's testimony yesterday concerning availability of railroad tank cars indicated that the "shortage could end in two weeks."

Pelley said that railroads could bring 200,000 additional barrels of petroleum products to the eastern seaboard daily. Senator Maloney noted that Ralph K. Davies, acting petroleum coordinator, had estimated the daily shortage at 174,000 barrels.

Both Pelley and some members of the senate investigating committee were critical of a proposal to erect a huge new pipeline to carry oil from the Southwestern producing fields to the Atlantic coast. The railroad official estimated that such a line would require 500,000 to 750,000 tons of steel, in high demand for other defense uses.

Miss McCarty To Be School Nurse

The promotion of health and good health habits will be one of the fundamental goals of the Pampa public schools during the coming school year, according to E. W. Cabe, Jr., director of instruction.

Employed as the school nurse has been Miss Ursula McCarty. Miss McCarty comes to Pampa from Clinton, Okla. She is a graduate of the Border and McGregor Nursing school, Mangum, Okla., with affiliation at the university at Oklahoma City. Miss McCarty has had four years teaching experience prior to her nursing training.

She has attended the University of Texas, working toward her B. S. degree in nurses education. For the past year Miss McCarty has been employed in the office of Drs. Overton and Howze, and has engaged in general duty at the local hospitals and private duty in the city of Pampa for the past six years.

The office of the school nurse will be in the new high school building, with temporary offices in the local ward schools.

Cade's Condition Reported Unchanged

Condition of Alonso E. Cade, Pampa man, remained unchanged today in a Clovis, N. M., hospital where he was taken Monday for treatment of a gunshot wound, self inflicted.

Cade has been charged with murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Constable W. W. Cumberland of LeFors. Funeral services for the slain man were to be conducted this afternoon here.

Derby Pictures To Be Shown Tonight

Motion pictures of the All-American and International Soap Box derby, held August 17 at Akron, Ohio, will be shown to Pampa boys at 8 o'clock tonight at the Salvation Army building at 831 S. Cuyler.

The pictures were taken by D. L. Parker, general chairman of the 1941 Pampa News-Pampa Lions Club Soap Box derby.

Bobby Gayle Pedmon, the Pampa champion, is shown along with his racer, in the parade and races at the finals.

The films are in color and were shown last week at the Pampa Lions club luncheon.

Captain Jack Smith of the Salvation Army has announced that the exhibition tonight is for all boys and especially for boys residing in South Pampa. There is no admission charge.

Besides the Soap Box derby picture, there will be another film shown, entitled "America's Call to Arms."

BATTLE

Full cooperation of all nations which "as yet lie outside the range of the conqueror's power."

Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King of Canada, a fellow speaker, suggested that the United States give Britain a guarantee like that given Canada three years ago—that the United States would not stand idly by if Canadian soil were threatened by another empire.

The Russian and German high commands matched each other today in secretiveness on the course of the war while the Finns, still comrades-in-arms of the Nazis, indicated that the defenders of Leningrad were being squeezed into a pivotal struggle for possession of the second largest city of Russia.

Said the Hitler headquarters: "Operations in the east continue successfully."

Said the Red army:

"Fighting continued along the entire front during the night."

The language of the communiques, but for the fact that they frequently are silent on developments of utmost importance, might be taken that a Russian-German deadlock had been reached, that the vast battlefield has been stabilized for the present at least.

Russian dispatches—not, however, with the full authority of a high command communique—insisted that the German thrust on Leningrad from the south had been checked and indicated that the Red air force and the Luftwaffe were waging a battle for control of the air over the city.

Aerial superiority in the area may indicate the fate of Leningrad, northern anchor of the main Russian-German front.

The Helsinki picture of Leningrad's position was that Finnish troops were advancing from the north, separated by 40 miles from German forces attacking in the south, with Leningrad in the approximate center of the 40-mile vise.

Tass, indicating Russian control of the air at Leningrad, said the city was exhibiting "a spirit of firm composure" and that its industries were operating normally, supplying the Red army with material necessary to defense.

Military dispatches to Moscow on the center front action said that the Russian counter-offensive there was still being pushed aggressively, the Germans resisting fiercely but yielding locally after localities.

The Russians said that their foe resorted Tuesday to a "physical attack—a thrust by two companies of picked troops behind a military band—but this novelty ended in disaster."

The Germans came on "as on parade, kettle drums rolling and base drums thundering," said the Russians, but they were met by "terrific fire from our machine-guns followed by a bayonet charge. The psychic attack ended in fiasco, both Nazi companies were annihilated."

While the German high command was virtually silent on the Russian campaign, DNB, official news agency, reported the crushing of an attempted landing on the Black Sea, presumably to relieve beleaguered Odessa.

Luftwaffe blows on vital Russian communications deep within the Red army's lines were emphasized in German dispatches.

Triumphantly the Finnish high command announced recapture of the entire 60-mile strip of the Kallian Isthmus which Finland lost to Russia in their 1939-40 war, and declared Russian troops had driven back everywhere beyond the old frontier.

Partly counter-balancing the dark picture for the Russians conjured up by this situation, however, were reports from Moscow that the German push toward Leningrad had bogged down and that the Soviet air force was successfully fighting off Nazi attempts to gain control of the sky over the city.

The ticklish far eastern situation, meanwhile, was highlighted by an Australian radio report that the first American tanker bearing aviation fuel to Soviet Russia had arrived safely at Vladivostok.

The shipment—expected to be the first of many—had been bitterly criticized by the Japanese press and was the subject of representations by the Tokyo government, which obviously is anxious lest the fuel be used against Japan in event of trouble with Russia.

For the past five years, Gilks has been in charge of the Salvation Army in Texas. He has been a Salvation Army officer for 28 years, and is the son of parents who had 50 years of active service in the organization.

He served in the United States navy from December 10, 1917 to December 21, 1918, when he was honorably discharged.

There are 300 land-owners in the association of which R. L. Taylor is president.

Invitations to attend the meeting have been sent to all farmers who have obtained land bank commission loans through the association, as well as to all farmer-members who have regular federal land bank loans through the credit co-operative.

The program will include a review of the year's activities of the association, discussion of its affairs and talks on various subjects bearing on problems of farmers of this region. Members of the association will elect directors to serve on the board for the next three years.

Colonel Hits 'Lace Panty Interference'

By RICE YAHNER
 WITH THIRD ARMY IN LOUISIANA, Sept. 4 (AP)—The personnel officer of the first national period division said today army morale was very good but declared it would be better if it weren't for "lace panty interference."
 Lieut. Colonel Henry A. Bootz of the staff of the 45th division said he considered the 170 men absent without leave from the division was low since there are about 22,500 troops in the unit.
 "The morale buster was the hesitating and vacillating attitude of congress during consideration of the act extending the training period of federalized and conscripted soldiers," Col. Bootz declared. "Now the men have found out what was wanted and they're taking their lot as they go. There will be morale in the army if we just let it be the army and get rid of lace panty interference."
 The 61-year-old regular army officer said much of the interference came from outside organizations and groups who sought to dictate army welfare policies instead of letting them evolve naturally.
 Under the original induction order the 45th division would have been released Sept. 15. Conversations with men throughout the division, however, brought from dozens the statement that "they were ready and willing to fight as soon as somebody told us to."
 All men of the third army resumed simulated battle today after a six-day lull in preliminaries to war games with the third army opposing the second, September 15 to 29.

Bombing Of Japan Unthinkable, Says Jap Publication

TOYOYO, Sept. 4 (AP)—The Japanese were told by one government-supported publication today that the United States and Great Britain were pushing rapidly toward a goal of world domination and another gave them a comprehensive set of air raid rules.
 The foreign office-backed Diplomatic Review said British-American intention to dominate the world became clear after the Atlantic meeting of President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill.
 "The intention of the British and Americans is to burn up and exhaust Japan's natural resources and to threaten Japan by both economic and military pressure," the Review's editorial said.
 Attention to the use of Vladivostok as an entry port for U. S. material aid to Russia continued to be emphasized.
 The cabinet information board's weekly report told home owners today not to pay attention to wild rumors concerning possible air raids on Japan. The report asserted that so long as the imperial navy and army functioned it was unthinkable that Japanese cities could be subjected to air assaults similar to those delivered against Chungking and London.

 The newspaper Nichi Nichi, discussing the privy council's approval yesterday of an air defense bureau within the home ministry, said defense against air raids should be based on fire prevention.
 "We should make a point in protecting our individual house," the paper said. "Never should we take refuge in air defense shelters or other safer zones. Instead we should be prepared to meet any situation squarely, put incendiaries out of action and prevent fires."

Horse And Mule Breeding Program Nearing Its End

AUSTIN, Sept. 4 (AP)—The state sponsored horse and mule breeding program started in 1934 from part of the take from then legal wagering on bangtails is rapidly nearing its end. It included many fine specimens, including a grand champion jack. Their progeny is in evidence everywhere in Texas. Although the horse and mule population of the state has been on the decline for five years, the state-purchased stallions and jacks have aided in raising the quality of new stock.
 As initiated in 1934, the state operated the breeding program, charging and retaining fees for service. When race track betting was outlawed and revenue dried up a policy of leasing them for $30 a year was instituted. The lessee retains service fees.

700 Well-Armed Germans Threaten Bitter Resistance

TEHERAN, Iran, Sept. 3 (Delayed AP)—More than 700 well-armed Germans inside the thick-walled compound of the German legation at suburban Shemgan threatened bitter resistance today against any attempts to seize them "contrary to international law."
 Iranian police, acting at British-Russian suggestion, forbade the Germans to leave the compound after the Allies received reports that they planned to take refuge in the Turkish legation to prevent internment in Russia or India.
 Turkish quarters denied they had consented to use of the legation, saying explicit instructions from Ankara were to avoid any controversy which might harm Turkey's foreign relations.
 The British-Russian information, however, said the Germans were packed for moving.
 The report that the Nazis planned resistance came from diplomats who were in contact with the German legation and said the hundreds of men of military age there were fully armed with rifles and pistols. The German minister, seeking through the United States legation, to assure the safety of 100 German women and children, was described as resigned to the prospect of Siberian internment for all men not of diplomatic status.

FDR Authorizes Aid For Polish Troops Training In Canada

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—President Roosevelt authorized today the first lend-lease aid to the exiled government of Poland in London, permitting military equipment to go to Polish troops training in Canada.
 "Polish troops are now training in Canada for action overseas," a White House announcement said. "Under the President's order, machine guns, sub-machine guns, rifles, artillery equipment, trucks and other supplies will be sent to these troops in the future."
 The statement added that the President had "stressed the importance of this new aid to the government of Poland as a continuing expression of the policy of the United States to extend aid to all who resist aggression."

Enlisted Men Can Join Air Corps

Army regulations, authorizing enlisted men of the regular army, with certain qualifications, to apply for pilot training with the army air corps. Any applicant who can meet all of the qualifications listed below is eligible to apply for this training at any time:

He must be an enlisted man of the regular army in active federal service.

He must be unmarried and a citizen of the United States, between the ages of 18 and 22 inclusive. Applicants who have reached their 23rd birthday are not eligible.

He must be a high school graduate and have at least 1 1/2 mathematics credits.

He must be of excellent character and furnish letters of recommendation to substantiate his character.

Each enlisted man applying for aviation student training will be required to sign an agreement (with the consent of his parents if a minor) by which he will agree to the following:

To reenlist for a period of three years if he has less than one year to serve on his current enlistment.

That upon successful completion of pilot training (about eight months) he will again reenlist so

Axis' Lies Show Weakness, Says General Wavell

SIMLA, Sept. 4 (AP)—The Axis is showing by lies that it is weaker and more anxious, Gen. Sir Archibald P. Wavell, British commander in chief in India, declared in a broadcast today on the second anniversary of the outbreak of war with Germany.

"There are many signs that the enemy is growing weaker," said Gen. Wavell, "and that from arrogant confidence he has passed into a restless anxiety which will turn to despair as he sees his ruin approach."

"There is a sign by which you may judge an enemy's growing fear—the growing recklessness of his lies."

Gen. Wavell asserted that "well over 100,000" Indian troops are serving overseas and that India's fighting forces were approaching one million.

Texas To Have New Governor, Hints Coke Stevenson

AUSTIN, Sept. 4 (AP)—Governor Coke Stevenson today hinted Texas might have another governor for a day or two the latter part of this week.

The other governor would be Rudolph A. Weisert of Seguin, state senator chosen by the upper legislative body to be president pro tempore who, by law, would be acting governor should Stevenson leave the state.

"I might go to Oklahoma City to look into Texas' participation in the interstate oil compact some time this week," the governor said smiling. "That would give Texas a new governor for a day or two."

Stevenson explained he had not determined upon a definite date or itinerary.

The governor and the Seguin attorney are close friends. Like Stevenson, Weisert has a keen sense of humor, is as tall as the governor, broad-shouldered and well liked by his colleagues.

ROLLS AND BIG SPRING WIN OPENING GAMES IN PLAYOFF

Bombers Hit Gold Sox For 15-1 Victory

The Clovis Bombers and the Big Spring Bombers won opening games in the West Texas-New Mexico league playoff last night, Clovis edging out a 1 to 0 decision over the Gassers while Big Spring pounded Amarillo with a 14-hit attack for a 15 to 1 victory.

John Rollins, Clovis veteran, hurled a four-hit ball to subdue the Gassers who never really threatened. The Bombers got only seven hits off Glen Hausmann who pitched a great game.

Only score of the game came in the fourth when Schmeidlen doubled, advanced to third on an out and scored on Schmidt's sharp single to left.

Big Spring jumped on Kid Crier, Amarillo ace, in the first inning and before he and Risinger could settle the Bombers, 10 runs had crossed the plate. Louis Yarbrough finished, pitching good ball.

Big Charlie Wheelchell, who chanked a perfect no-hit, no-run game here during the season, held the Gold Sox to five hits and no runs.

Tonight in Borger Manager Grover Seitz will send Mel Kramer to the mound while Gordon Nell will use Blasin' Bill Garland.

The teams will switch fields Friday, Borger moving to Clovis and Big Spring to Amarillo.

Harlow Sees Attack At New High With '41 Football Rule Changes

DICK HARLOW, at Eastern Coaching Clinic, Manhattan Beach, diagrams deceptive full-back formation with man-in-motion not to expect too much this year.

Full spin-mouse trap, Struck on this, Crimson coach still calls play after that fine fullback.

coaches dabbling with the modern "T" formation with man-in-motion not to expect too much this year.

The system employed so successfully by Stanford and the Chicago Bears requires superlative material and, as Harlow stresses, the coach who does not understand it thoroughly is likely to make a wreck of his season.

Harlow becomes vague when asked about Harvard's outlook, but late performances in 1940 lead to optimism.

After a losing start, Harvard grew progressively stronger and climaxed its campaign by unexpectedly achieving a 10-10 tie with Pennsylvania.

The Harvards also played deadlocks with Army and Princeton. They defeated Brown and Yale, and lost to Michigan and Dartmouth.

Cautious Harlow waxed enthusiastically about three seniors, Franny Lee, 170-pound halfback, captain; Loren MacKinney, 187-pound end, and Chuck Peabody, 186-pound guard.

"They could make any football team in the country," he asserts. Charley Spreyer, the brilliant quarterback who has another year, joined the air corps.

Yet he almost passed up football entirely in favor of attaining high scholastic marks.

Son of the dean of the University of North Carolina, MacKinney did not play high school football. He failed to go out as a freshman at Harvard, but two weeks after he reported as a sophomore, he owned a regular job, though he had never played a game of football.

Dick Harlow is looking for a fleet break-away runner and a capable passer to work behind a veteran line.

If he can find them, well—Bring on your Yales and Princetons.

Dallas Now Game And A Half Ahead Of Fort Worth

(By The Associated Press) Minus one of their stars, the Dallas Rebels nevertheless took a long stride in the direction of the Shaugnessy playoff last night by defeating the powerful Houston Buffs 4-3.

Fort Worth is now lagging behind the Rebels by a game and a half in the battle between the teams for a place in the post-league series because of its 3-2 defeat by the lousy San Antonio Missions.

At Tulsa the Oilers dropped a 4-3 decision to the Shreveport Sports and at Oklahoma City the Indians beat Beaumont 9-8.

Population of the United States was 12,866,020 in 1930, when the fifth census was taken.

Cards Relying On Southpaws To Win Title

By CHARLES DUNKLEY CHICAGO, Sept. 4 (AP)—Billy Southworth, manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, today placed all his reliance on four conquering heroes, one a rookie just 20, to keep his fighting crew ahead of Brooklyn in the sizzling drive for the National league championship.

The 47-year-old pilot of the Cardinals is supremely confident they'll come through. His confidence is shared by the players, none showing any trace of jitters.

The quartet on whom Southworth depends is: Lonnie Warneke, oldest and most experienced, who at 32 turned in his first no-hit game against Cincinnati Saturday, and has won 15 and lost 7.

Morton Cooper, 27, another right-hander with 13 victories out of 18 starts.

Ernie White, a lefty who will celebrate his 35th birthday tomorrow, playing his first year in the majors. White has won 17 out of 21.

Howard Pollet, just 20 and fresh from the Texas league. This phenomenal rookie has won three out of four and 16 innings allowed only eight runs and 20 hits, while striking out 22 and walking only 13. He allowed no more than seven hits a game.

"That Pollet is certainly a wonder. He's like an iceberg out there. He has confidence in us and we have confidence in the boy. He's an honest-to-God American boy, nothing upstage, and determined to make good. I don't see how he can miss."

Southworth received the heartening news that both Enos Slaughter and Terry Moore, injured outfielders, would be ready to play Saturday for their first drill since they were knocked out of action nearly two weeks ago. Slaughter broke a shoulder when he crashed into a wall Aug. 10. Moore was knocked unconscious in Boston, the victim of an accidental beaming by Lefty Art Johnson Aug. 20.

Gillespie, brilliant triple threat, has been handicapped by a wobbly knee. Now the limb is mended. If it's sound, the Horned Frog is ready to hop.

Texas A. & M. is wrecked with the loss of Kimbrough and his mates—but out of the wreckage looms another pair of high scorers in Senior Derace Moser and Willie Zapala—the former a fast triple threat, the latter a bone-crushing plunger and blocker.

At Baylor is Jack Wilson, 205-pound terror set for triple threat, best year. Powerful, fast, this Paris youth is potentially the best in the league. He's a good mudder, averaged 47 yards on his punts in a quagmire at Houston last year.

Yanks May Clinch Flag Today; Dodgers Lose One

By JUDSON BAILEY Associated Press Staff The New York Yankees may clinch their American league pennant today—their fifth championship in six years—and the dawdlers over in the National league must be trembling at the thought of the forthcoming World Series.

The Yanks are in Boston and need only one more victory to figuratively sew the new bunting onto their flagpole.

They squeezed the Red Sox thru a 2-1 eleven-inning wringer yesterday to assure themselves of no worse than a tie.

Meanwhile the Brooklyn Dodgers plew a bountiful opportunity to take the National league lead away from the St. Louis Cardinals, who were kept idle by rain.

Brooklyn had a doubleheader with the last place Philadelphia and won the first game 4-1 with White Wyatt pitching a four-hitter for his 19th victory. Then Manager Leo Durocher gambled on a young righthander named Ed Albeda, who reported two days before from Durham of the Piedmont league. The Phils gave him a going over to win the nightcap 4-1 with Frank Hoerst pitching four-hit ball and blanking Brooklyn till the ninth. This put the Dodgers four percentage points instead of two behind the Cards.

Philadelphia best Cincinnati 9-3 in a night game although Elmer Riddle held the Pirates to six hits.

Washington whipped the Philadelphia Athletics 8-8 with a five-run rally in the ninth after the A's had bunched five in the eighth.

New York Giants Maul All-Stars Before 54,279

NEW YORK, Sept. 4 (AP)—Put together as teams, the All-Star footballers are a well-walloped collection of warriors today, but as they nurse their bruises they have the satisfaction of knowing they're the classiest freshmen ball players to move into the professional game in years.

From last year's shindig in Chicago, where the Bears' "T" formation rolled to victory, and last night's party in the Polo Grounds in which the New York Giants mauled the eastern All-Stars 23-3 before a sell-out crowd of 54,279, you can pick two dozen of as neat an assortment of bone crushers as you'd want to see on any man's gridiron.

Headed by a string of blasting ball-carriers, fellows like Minnesota's George Frank, Fordham Len Eshmont, Marion Fugh of Texas A. and M., the Stanford speedsters, Norm Standlee and Hugh Gallarneau, these youngsters threw plenty of scares into the pros here and in Chicago.

The Giants put the game on ice the first time they got the ball, when old Ed Danowski pitched two passes to the Stars' one-yard line and Tuffy Leemans smashed over.

1,300 See Gassers Lose At Borger

(By The Associated Press)

Clovis scratched out a 1-0 victory over the Borger Gassers and Big Spring swamped Amarillo 15-1 in the West Texas-New Mexico league Shaughnessy playoffs last night.

About 1,300 fans saw the Pioneers edge out the defending champion Gassers at the latter's home grounds with Schoendienst doubling in the second inning, advanced to third on Quillen's outfield fly and come home on Schmidt's single for the only tally of the contest.

Big Spring, opening the series before a home crowd, allowed Amarillo no time in which to warm up. The Bombers collected 10 runs in the first inning and scored almost at will thereafter. Charley Wheelchur hurled shutout ball for eight innings, but let in one run in the final inning when he loaded the bases with two on and walked the next batter.

Ted Williams Still Billy Kane's Hero

BOSTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—Billy Kane's hero is Red Sox Slugger Ted Williams—more so today than ever.

Billy, 14 years old, wanted to see Ted hit a home run, so he set out from his home in South Brewer, Me., on Monday on a 250-mile hitch-hike trip to Fenway Park in Boston, eating fruit and berries along the way.

He arrived yesterday and was broken hearted to discover there was no game. He walked into the park behind some workmen and fell asleep in the bleachers.

Two policemen found him there early last night and heard his story. They took him to the police station and telephoned Williams.

The baseball player, just going to bed, dressed again, hurried to the station, put his arm around the boy and told him everything was going to be all right.

Billy spent the night in a rooming house arranged for by police after they provided him with a dinner—and he will be Ted's guest in a box seat at today's game with the New York Yankees.

Speaking Of Big Fights, There's One Between Simon And The Baby Baer

Buddy Baer

Abe Simon

NEW YORK, Sept. 4—Mike Jacobs is staging the second edition between Abe Simon and Buddy Baer at Madison Square Garden, Sept. 5, for those who like quantity.

Otherwise Ample Abe and the baby Baer are scheduled to fight 15 rounds for no reason at all.

Certainly, there isn't much quality.

But the bigger they are the harder they fight fall so Monopolist Jacobs hopes to do $40,000 worth of business at from $2.50 to $11.50, and the customers aren't being hit over the head to get them into the joint.

Simon, a Long Beach cop, wears a 19 1/2 collar, Baer 17 1/2. Abe is bigger around the waist, 39 inches to 37 for Buddy, who has the longer reach, 80 inches to 7 1/2.

A DOUBLE KNOCKOUT WOULD BE DISASTROUS

Everything will be all right as long as they don't go down at the same time. A double knockout would wreck the place.

Simon joined the National Guard a few years ago. His fingers are so large it was impossible for him to get them inside the trigger guard of a gun, so they made him a color sergeant. He had the same trouble with a revolver when he became a special policeman at Long Beach. A ring worn on his pinky swings around a 250-pounder's thumb.

Baer is the sharper hitter, but Simon takes a punch very well for an over-stuffed fighter. Simon looked like a one-handed fighter against Louis, but contends his right was jammed.

Simon, a Long Beach cop, wears a 19 1/2 collar, Baer 17 1/2. Abe is bigger around the waist, 39 inches to 37 for Buddy, who has the longer reach, 80 inches to 7 1/2.

Until he was 13, Simon was just an average sized boy. Then he shot up so quickly the kids he played with were too small for him. The older boys would have nothing to do with him, because size or no, he was just a big kid. A very big kid.

Jock Whitney and Gene Tunney first had Abe Simon, but it remained for Jimmy Johnston, the Old Boy Bandit, to make profitable goods out of such a large package.

Hitlerized Europe Virtually In Existence --- 17 Nations Conquered

By JAMES P. HACKETT
Associated Press Cable Staff

The very thing Great Britain and France went to war in an attempt to prevent two years ago today—a Hitlerized Europe—virtually is in existence.

By the sword and the pen the men of Nazi Berlin have bent to their will the peoples of 17 European nations and at this moment are directing invasion of the continent's largest country.

Only three countries which were neutral in the World war remain out of the present conflict—Spain, Switzerland and Sweden.

Others not embroiled in this war, but which took part in the last, are Portugal, Turkey and Eire.

Some authorities have estimated that four-fifths of humanity—about 1,700,000,000 persons—already have had their every-day lives conditioned to participation in the fighting.

Just as this war has raged over almost the same European territory that felt the tramp of soldiers' feet during the first two years of the World war, so have Africa and the middle East figured in the fighting.

Between them the British Empire and Soviet Russia have thrown more than 626,000,000 persons into their war efforts, probably 30,000,000 as actual combatants or men under training.

Russia in all likelihood has equalled if not surpassed the 12,000,000-man army mobilized by the Czar in 1914-17. The British, from latest reports, have close to 6,000,000 men—including home guards—ready to defend the British Isles and at least another 2,000,000 men in Africa, and the middle and far East. During the World war the British Empire mobilized 8,410,000 men.

Germany was reported at the outbreak of the war to have had available 6,000,000 men in her armed forces. Premier Mussolini boasted of 9,000,000 "bayonets." How many men Axis junior partners like Rumania and Hungary have added to the fighting forces has not been determined.

Including Finnish troops, the Hitler-Mussolini camp probably held more than 20,000,000 fighting men. Soviet Russia was invaded. Not all these men, of course, were thrown into the conflict. Hitler's headquarters announced early in the struggle that 9,000,000 were fighting on the eastern front on both sides.

Two years of this war have involved Russia, France, the British Empire, Yugoslavia, Greece, Poland, Belgium, the Netherlands, Nor-

Shipbuilding Program Ahead, Says Admiral

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4 (AP)—Asserting that the maritime commission's construction program is "not behind, it's ahead," Chairman Emory S. Land predicted today that 1,153 new ships of approximately 12,440,000 deadweight tons would be placed in operation between July 1, 1941, and the end of 1943.

These figures, Land told a press conference, do not include 105 vessels in the commission's long-range program which were delivered up to Sept. 3, or additional small vessels and crafts for which the commission is contracting.

Land issued a formal statement which he called a progress report "in view of the critical importance of ship construction to the national defense program . . . particularly since questions have been raised both in congress and in the press as to the adequacy of the commission's building and the speed and lack of speed in producing the new ships."

The navy department also issued a report of progress in its two-ocean fleet construction program, announcing that 213 vessels of all classes had been completed since January 1 include two battleships, the North Carolina and Washington, nine submarines, 12 destroyers and 42 patrol craft.

CHAPTER X

SUMMER COTTAGE - accommodations for six on Lake Olivara. Boating, swimming, fishing. Write for details. A-23

MIKE FLYNN beamed down on the four of them, gathered in the plant office. "That's the place. We all need a vacation. Let's go. The sooner we forget this incident, the better."

"I'm sorry, Joe," Ted said, thrusting out his hand. "I must have been imagining too many things. I should have trusted you."

"Can you ever forgive ME?" Mary asked. "I was going to shoot you!"

"Perhaps you'd better explain everything, Benton," Flynn suggested. "Taylor said it would be all right to let them."

"There really isn't much to tell," Joe began. "I am a professor of chemistry at the university, as you know. But there were a few things I kept to myself."

"You see, we've all been working on explosives since this trouble in Europe began. Quietly working, but getting the job done. And a lot of investigating has been going on. All patents on explosives are thoroughly checked. Anything that even resembles an explosive has been dug out of files and tested."

"That's how we got next to Wondrosoap. Your father patented his discovery about 15 years ago, Kay. It was a simple formula, and at that time the office didn't give it much attention. Perhaps they didn't realize its possibilities. Anyway, it was overlooked."

"Well, when the war started, chemists all over the country were summoned to test these various formulas. Most of them were pretty haywire schemes; a few were good. I got Tim Donovan's formula. The thing I couldn't find was his catalytic agent."

"I checked in on Tim Donovan, discovered that he had built this factory here, then died suddenly. Then you made things easy by putting Wondrosoap on the market."

"So you came down and applied for the job as chemist..." Flynn put in.

"And got it," Benton went on. "When I discovered that Wondrosoap was a real find as a super-explosive, I reported to the FBI. I told them about Hans Stadt and a lot of you. I got a commission as a special agent to guard the secret. I would have kept you from selling it outside the United States, Kay."

"But Hans Stadt is loyal as any native American. He was approached. His brother was threatened. And Hans sent his brother to a concentration camp rather than tell what he knew about Wondrosoap.

"I had spy jitters, too. But I picked Mary as the agent. When she drilled that can du center, I knew there was going to be trouble. Thanks for not shooting me, Mary. We're even now. I was going to send you to jail."

"I feel like a fool," Ted grumbled. Kay's hand found his. "Don't, Ted. You did exactly right. You knew how valuable Wondrosoap is and you were trying to protect it for me."

Benton nodded. "You were right on your toes, Ted. There was no way of your knowing I was working with the FBI. Even Taylor, the district chief, didn't know. A few officials in Washington and the head of the chemical research, perhaps, but no others."

"That's all of that," Flynn ordered. "It's your vacation plans from now on. Army ordnance officers will start Wondrosoap tests tomorrow. With Tim's plans for a time bomb, and Hans Stadt to work them out, we should be making shells here as soon as the plant can be enlarged."

TED and Kay walked through the factory for the last time. "It all belongs to the government now," Kay said, a little sadly. "But you're making money money." Ted reminded her. "It was fine of you to offer the plant for practically nothing, but I'm glad Flynn made arrangements to lease it for duration of the emergency. You're guaranteed a steady, comfortable income. You can get along on $20,000 a year. The government couldn't build an outfit like this for 10 times that price. Afterwards, you can go on making explosives for peacetime uses, blasting tree stumps, building roads."

He paused in front of a door in the warehouse. The doorknob gleamed in the semi-darkness. "Remember the day we tried Wondrosoap as a cleaner?" "I can't forget it, Ted."

"Then we were business partners." "That's over, too." "It's not 'strictly business' any more, then?" "We're going on a vacation, Ted." Kay reminded him. His arms reached out for her, but she slipped away, laughing. "Joe and Mary are waiting." She ran from the warehouse. Ted glanced at the doorknob.

"You were grand, Joe. Just like a brother, working for me." Impulsively, she raised on her tip-toe, kissed him. The tucking her arm in his, Kay hurried him to the house. "Come on, I have to see Mary, and hear more about this."

Down in the shadows along the beach, Ted Andrews said that kiss, although he heard none of the conversation.

He pulled a shining doorknob from his pocket, threw it far out into the lake.

A dime fitted into the slot of the screw. In a moment it was off the door, in his pocket. He hurried after Kay.

THE two weeks' vacation was all too short. Flynn spent most of his time fishing, but the others—Joe and Mary, Ted and Kay—found time for canoe trips up the river, daily swimming parties on the lake, and long moonlight rides on the launch that they rented with the cottage. Lake Olivara was everything they had hoped it might be.

Ted would have enjoyed it more had he been able to summon courage enough to ask Kay to marry him. Daily he planned what he would say, imagined how Kay would answer. But the super-salesman had encountered his toughest selling job. He couldn't sell himself.

Kay's money was his principal worry. When she was poor, jobless, almost friendless, he had been sure that she loved him. Now, with money pouring in, would she want to sacrifice those luxuries she could afford to be the wife of a salesman?

He got his answer the last night of the vacation, but not as he had expected it.

KAY was standing at the end of the dock, loving the moonlight, the quiet lap of the water against the boats, when Joe Benton came to her.

"I've been wanting to talk to you alone, Kay," Joe said. "This is good, you know. Mary and I are taking the morning train, back to school."

"Mary and you?" "Yes, Mary decided that policeman's job is too risky. She came mighty near shooting her future husband."

"You and Mary! Oh, Joe, I'm so glad."

"We thought you would be. You're the first to know. There's something else, too, Kay. I want you to know. We think you're swell. You were the only one who trusted me. That faith meant a lot."

O'Daniel Warns Against Pipe Line

FORT WORTH, Sept. 4 (AP)—A warning that the industrialization of Texas might be menaced by construction of a Texas-eastern seaboard oil pipe line was sounded by Senator W. Lee O'Daniel in a telegram to the Chamber of Commerce yesterday.

O'Daniel said that the special committee investigating the eastern oil shortage has developed the fact that the proposed 22-inch pipe line later may be converted into a natural gas pipe line.

The telegram declared that "inasmuch as natural gas is one of Texas' greatest industries for industries to locate in Texas, it is quite obvious that our industrial progress in Texas will be seriously impaired if our natural gas is to be piped out of Texas to industrial centers in the East."

McKechnie Catches Wrong Plane And Goes To Detroit

DETROIT, Sept. 4 (AP)—"Forbes Field," said the tall, scholarly-looking passenger to the taxi-driver who picked him up at Detroit city airport today.

"Huh?" demanded a startled cabbie.

"Forbes Field," insisted the passenger. "You know, where the Pirates play."

"Mister," was the reply. "I don't know nothing about no Forbes Field and no Pirates. Where do you think you are, anyway?"

"Look," said the passenger kindly. "I'm Bill McKechnie. Maybe you've heard of me; I'm manager of the Cincinnati Reds."

"That's a baseball team. We're going to play your Pittsburgh Pirates today at Forbes Field and I want to go out there right away."

It was the taxi driver's turn to explain. When he had finished a blushing passenger alighted and bought himself a ticket on the next plane from Detroit to Pittsburgh. The traveler said he had bought a Pittsburgh ticket in Chicago earlier in the day, but boarded the wrong plane after turning it in at the airport gate.

Nazis Don't Have Enough Straw Shoes To Go Around

BERLIN, Sept. 4 (AP)—German fashion dictators went to great pains to create a demand for straw shoes this year—and now have suddenly discovered that manufacturers can not meet the demand.

Since rationing limits each person to two pairs of leather shoes a year, the shoe stylists' campaign won instant popularity.

Women and children favored straw shoes during the summer and have begun asking for winter models. Men, too, were to be supplied.

But the Reich's 39 manufacturers of straw footwear are able to produce only 2,500 to 3,000 pairs monthly—the newspaper Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung says in not enough to go around. The soles, too, wear out in four to six weeks. Penal institutions, which have been doing some of the work, have produced only one shoe a convict each day.

All reptiles have teeth suitable only for grasping prey; the teeth are useless for crushing victims. The best light-reflecting surface obtainable is highly polished silver.
