WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—The sea-war added another American-owned merchantman to its toll today, and the capital wondered whether this latest sinking was meant to be an open challenge to President Roosevelt's shoot-on-sight order which barred the "defensive waters" of the United States to all Axis raiders.

The newest victim was the freighter Pink Star, owned by the U. S. Maritime Commission but operating under Panamanian registry. The sinking took on great potential significance, for it was the first such incident reported since Mr. Roosevelt proclaimed the "defensive waters" policy Sept. 11.

The Pink Star went down last Friday, the state department disclosed last night, and she met her end southwest of Iceland in the same waters that witnessed the loss of two other American-owned vessels and the unsuccessful submarine attack on the U. S. destroyer Greer.

The announcement of the Pink Star's sinking was silent on several details, a fact which caused some speculation. Nothing was said about the fate of the 34 men in her crew, and there was no hint as to how she met her end—by a mine, torpedo, aerial bomb or the guns of a surface raider.

The location of the ship's sinking, however, was definitely placed some 255 miles south of Iceland on the corridor of sea communications which Mr. Roosevelt specifically has ordered the navy to keep clear.

The first ship sunk in these waters was the Sessa, American-owned but of Panamanian registry, which was torpedoed and shelled to the bottom Aug. 17, about 300 miles southwest of Iceland, and on Sept. 11 the freighter Montana was torpedoed in the same location.

Like the Sessa and Montana, the Pink Star was a former Danish vessel. All three were among the fleet of some 80 foreign vessels taken over by the Maritime Commission over by the Maritime Commission

Fidler Wants Flynn To Keep The Peace

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., Sept. 23 (AP)—Jimmy Fidler, movie gossip who almost weekly picks on some star, verbally wants a court order to restrain his man actor Errol Flynn from picking on him, physically.

So Flynn has a date Thursday to tell Justice Cecil D. Holland the circumstances of a clash he and Fidler had early Sunday in a swank night club, peopled with some of Hollywood's first citizens.

Fidler and his attorney visited the judge yesterday, in quest of a complaint. Judge Holland said he would not issue one until he has heard the actor's side.

"I want Flynn to keep the peace," snapped Fidler, radio and newspaper columnist. "I make my living with my mouth, and if he should punch me so hard I couldn't talk, it would cost me thousands of dollars."

16 Blocks Under Water At Roswell

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 23 (AP)—Flood waters of the Hondo river, slowly inundated a large part of the Pecos valley city of Roswell today but the threat of a major flood appeared to have been dissipated by gradually clearing weather in valley watersheds.

Meanwhile, eastern New Mexico worked to bring order to disrupted highways and utilities in the wake of three days torrential rains which poured tons of water down rivers and draws the 400-mile length of the state.

It was estimated that some 200 city blocks were under water in Roswell by mid-morning, with the swollen Hondo showing a slow rise but with the flood crest due to pass by mid-day.

Weather bureau observers reported the water a foot deep at the Roswell post office.

A flood crest on the Pecos, moving slowly downriver from Aomarrado Dam, neared Roswell during the morning and was due to pass the city and reach Carlsbad late tomorrow or early Thursday.

Roswell, at the junction of the Pecos and Hondo rivers, was at the alert throughout the night as flood crests moved down the Hondo and sent muddy waters through deserted streets in the western section, where state guardsmen stood watch.

As the water rose slowly in the business district early today, the city presented a grim aspect. Guardsmen and police patrolled the silent streets. Doors to business establishments already had been sand-bagged.

The murky waters, slowly covering a 16-block area early today, entered several houses in a residential section.

Carlsbad, 80 miles downriver, posted "air raid wardens" from its recent blackout mobilization to watch for signs of flood waters moving down the Pecos from Roswell.

Meanwhile, Albuquerque was cheered by the announcement that resumption of gas service would be 96 per cent complete tonight following three gasless days as result of flood-shattered natural gas pipelines west of the city.

Clayton in the north, crews worked by flashlight last night to repair a flood break in a 22-inch gas main serving Denver and other Colorado cities.

Representatives from Pampa, Amarillo, Borger, Plainview and Lubbock attended the meeting. Questions of eligibility were discussed and the basketball plan for the Big Five adopted. Play will be from January 9 to February 13. A round robin schedule will be played.

Representing Pampa at the meeting were Supt. L. L. Sone, Principal Doyle Osborne, Buck Prejan, football coach, and Oscar Hinger, basketball coach.

At San Diego, AFL machinists, announcing the strike vote, said that a conference with Maj. R. H. Fleet, president of Consolidated Aircraft Corp., had failed to settle the union's demand for a flat 10-cent-an-hour wage increase for workers not covered by a minimum pay raise for beginners.

The International Longshoremen's union meanwhile strove for a quick settlement of the dispute between the Alcoa Steamship Co. and the SIU. Joseph P. Ryan, ILLU president, said that "allegiance to the government compels" longshoremen to handle cargoes where non-union crews were being used.

The commission has requisitioned three strike-bound Alcoa freighters, two of which have sailed with government-recruited crews.

At the same time, an SIU official said Atlantic and gulf port units would investigate the resolution authorizing a general strike referendum.

Nazis Claim 380,000 Prisoners Captured

(By The Associated Press) MOSCOW, Sept. 23—In violent fighting around Lake Imen, south of Leningrad, Russian troops have brought the German onset to a standstill and driven forward in successful counterattacks, Red Star organ of the Red army, declared today.

An article by Lieutenant General Vaitin said the drive had cost the Germans up to 50,000 killed, wounded and captured, and denied German reports that three Soviet armies had been routed in the sector 150 miles south of Russia's besieged second city.

Warfront dispatches declared today that fierce Russian counterattacks and bayonet charges hurled back two German regiments of the central front and drove Finnish troops from strong fortifications in the lake country to the north.

Fighting raged unceasingly around beleaguered Leningrad and Odessa. Red Star, organ of the Red army, said two regiments of the 102nd German infantry division were defeated in the Soviet counterattack, aimed at the recapture of a district designated only as "N."

The Germans retreated when the Russians followed up intense artillery fire with bayonet charges, Red Star reported. It said the fighting was continuing.

BELIN, Sept. 23—Simultaneous Russian counter-offensives in the north, central and southern sectors were reported in German war dispatches tonight for the first time, although all three were denied.

Brownfield May Join District I

Brownfield may become a member of District 1AA football circles in 1942. A representative of the Brownfield schools attended a District IAA meeting in Amarillo today and reported that the school might have enough scholastics to move out of the Class A division next year.

Representatives from Pampa, Amarillo, Borger, Plainview and Lubbock attended the meeting. Questions of eligibility were discussed and the basketball plan for the Big Five adopted. Play will be from January 9 to February 13. A round robin schedule will be played.

Gas Lights To Be Used During Blackout At Telephone Office

Adding more realism to Pampa's "black-out," to be held for a quarter-hour here beginning at 10 o'clock Saturday night, emergency gas lights will replace electric ones in the switchboard room of the Southwestern Bell Telephone company.

This will give the operators experience in handling their work as though an actual "black-out" was in progress.

A platoon of Company D, Texas Defense Guard, will be stationed at strategic points downtown, a half-hour before, during, and shortly after the black-out.

Preliminary plans were mapped at the non-commissioned officers school held last night in the city commission room. Here the squads will assemble and the guard be formed at 9 p. m.

To Patrol Streets Then three corporals will take their respective squads in charge and place their men on posts. The men will walk these posts until relieved after the black-out.

Guardsmen will have no duties and will assume no authority other than as directed by their officers. The purpose is simply to give

23 Ships Idle As Strike Of Seamen Spreads

(By The Associated Press) A seamen's strike kept more than a score of ships needed for defense and lease-lend aid riding at anchor today and AFL machinists reported a strike vote was being taken at a big West coast bomber plant.

The maritime commission offered to sponsor conferences at Washington in an effort to end a dispute over war bonuses on various sea trade routes—and brought in reply an appeal by the New York unit of the Seafarers International union (AFI) to President Roosevelt to investigate the commission's "anti-labor activities."

The 11-day-old strike spread to three more vessels in the Atlantic and gulf last night and Secretary-Treasurer John Hawk of the SIU said 23 ships were idle.

Chairman Emory P. Land, sending the commission's offer to aid to unions representing unlicensed personnel unions as well as to ship operators, said the strike was disrupting "shipping so vitally needed for national defense and all-out aid to democracies."

The union has sought unspecified bonuses for its men who go into war zones and has demanded $60 bonuses for trips to the West Indies.

At the same time, an SIU official said Atlantic and gulf port units would investigate the resolution authorizing a general strike referendum.

The International Longshoremen's union meanwhile strove for a quick settlement of the dispute between the Alcoa Steamship Co. and the SIU. Joseph P. Ryan, ILLU president, said that "allegiance to the government compels" longshoremen to handle cargoes where non-union crews were being used.

Adams To Discuss Oil Industry And Defense

Plans for the Girl Scout barbecue, sponsored by Pampa civic clubs, were completed at a meeting of Girl Scout officers and representatives of civic clubs this morning. The barbecue, to begin at 5 o'clock Friday afternoon at the new Girl Scout camp site four miles east of LeFors, will be for civic club members, Girl Scouts and officers, parents of the Girl Scouts, and invited guests.

Principal speaker will be K. S. "Boots" Adams of Bartlesville, president of the Phillips Petroleum company, who will fly from Washington where he is attending a national defense board meeting. President Adams will come direct from Washington to Pampa and his talk will be on "The Oil Industry's Part in National Defense."

Serving of the barbecue will begin at 5 o'clock. At the same time the Girl Scout troops will present a brief program, each troop giving a short skit. Mrs. Claudia Bengel will introduce the program.

A brief outline of the Girl Scout program will be presented beginning at 6 o'clock, after which visitors will be introduced. President Adams will speak about 6:15 o'clock. That hour has been set so that persons who cannot leave Pampa until nearly 6 o'clock can arrive for the talk, which will be over in time for everyone to return to Pampa in time for the Pampa-Clovis football game.

The grounds committee, composed of members of each civic club, will go to LeFors this evening to make arrangements for location of the barbecue pit, tables and chairs and the platform.

Knox Calls For Quick Repeal Of Neutrality Act

QUINCY, Mass., Sept. 23 (AP)—Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox today watched the huge 35,000-ton battleship Massachusetts slide down the ways of the Fore river ship yards and then declared to a crowd of thousands attending the launching that the neutrality act was "cripping" the efforts of this country and should be immediately repealed.

"There should be no handicap on those who are trying to keep war away from these shores," the navy secretary shouted into a loudspeaker system that carried his words throughout the vast ship-building yards.

"We must waste no time in repealing the neutrality act," the mighty Massachusetts was launched without a slip-up.

The keel of a new cruiser, the U. S. S. Flint, was laid on the spot just vacated by the Massachusetts before the bow of the battleship had entered the water.

Knox asserted that recent events on the Russian front had made "the prospect of victory dim."

He did not elaborate on this, except to say that the casualties in Russia were greater than in any other conflict in history, and that the fighting in Russia had "a direct bearing on our own situation."

Storm Will Pass Inland At Freeport

Winds 90 Miles An Hour Whirling At Its Center

PORT O'CONNOR, Sept. 23 (AP)—A tropical hurricane now characterized by the weather bureau as severe and destructive, with winds up to 90 miles an hour whirling at its center, bore down on the Texas Gulf coast today.

The bureau's 8:45 a. m. advisory predicted that the furious blast with its attendant masses of high tides would pass inland between here and Freeport, Tex., tonight, if the present somewhat slow forward movement of the disturbance continued.

The new warning stepped up precautionary activity along the Texas-Louisiana coast, where dangerous gales were expected to blow throughout the day from Port Aransas, Tex., to Cameron parish, La.

Accompanying high tides are expected to go still higher, the weather bureau said, warning: "All interests should be safeguarded against this severe, destructive storm with attendant tides inundating low-lying sections. Hurricane warnings remain displayed from Port Arthur to Port Aransas, Tex., and storm warnings south of Port Aransas to Brownsville and east of Port Arthur to Biloxi, Miss."

The center of the storm was located about 100 miles southeast or east of Port O'Connor. It was moving westward at about six miles per hour.

At midmorning tide waters spreading into Port O'Connor covered two blocks and there was some water-front damage from the waves. The state highway department had two trucks in readiness to help evacuate the remaining 100 citizens if the danger became more acute.

State highway 185 was still open to Port Lavaca, approximately 35 miles northwest, on Lavaca Bay. Several hundred residents of Port Lavaca, a town of 3,500 persons, had evacuated inland to Victoria and Cuero.

Port Lavaca and Palacios, the two largest towns in the area now regarded as most likely to bear the brunt of the big blow, were boarded up tightly with heavy pine planks nailed over windows. Business continued as usual, but everybody kept an eye on the weather.

Salads Discussed At Bell H. D. Club Meeting Recently

Bell Home Demonstration club met recently in the home of Mrs. Melvin Whitcomb where roll call was answered with "What I now have in my garden for salads."

"A homemaker must know the value of foods to be a success," Mrs. Julia E. Kelley, home demonstration agent, said as she prepared salad from the club's available garden greens.

"Our bodies must have calcium, phosphorus, and iron to build teeth, bones, and tissues," Mrs. Jess Morris stated in her talk on "Minerals in Vegetables."

Mr. Ernest McKnight pointed out that vitamins are potent forces in creating vigorous, buoyant health. A lack of vitamin is responsible for varying degrees of ill health depending upon the extent of the lack. The vitamins known to be necessary to human health are all found in common foods. Therefore, with proper selection, foods will supply all our vitamin needs.

During the business session, presided over by the president, a party was planned for the latter part of the month in the home of Mrs. Ernest McKnight.

Refreshments were served to five members, one new member, Mrs. Harshel Kelley, and two guests, Miss Gene Whitcomb and Mrs. Julia E. Kelley.

Two Pampa Women To Attend State Directors Meeting Of Church Women

On the last day of September delegates from the many state and local Councils of Church Women, including Mrs. E. C. Seaman of Amarillo, state president of the Texas council of church women, will assemble for the biennial meeting of the National Council of Church Women to be held in Columbus, Ohio, September 30-October 3.

A happy combination of convention forces will make this the largest interdenominational group of church women to meet together. During three days of the conference many of the sessions will be joint sessions with the delegates to the annual conference of the woman's department of the Ohio Council of Churches.

Following the biennial meeting, Mrs. Seaman will return to Fort Worth for the semi-annual meeting of the board of directors of the Texas Council of Church Women which will be held October 7 and 8 at the First Presbyterian church.

Mrs. Fred Roberts of Pampa, secretary of the Texas Council of Church Women, and Mrs. F. E. Leech, president of the local council, and a member of the state board also will attend this meeting in Fort Worth.

The program will include a business session, fellowship dinner and evening program on the first day; a business session, committee and group meetings on the last day.

The next meeting of the Pampa council is scheduled for November 7 at which time officers will be elected for 1942.

The first day of the biennial will be given over to a consideration of some of the various relationships of the National Council of Church Women to other interdenominational organizations and groups, such as the United Christian Advance, the United Relief Appeals, and the Inter-Council Field Department. Conference periods for presidents of state councils, presidents of local councils, and for other delegates will be provided. The business sessions will include the regular reports of officers and a consideration of the proposed plan for one national organization of church women.

The remaining sessions will present through addresses, discussions, exhibits, workshops and seminars the most pressing and pertinent questions facing Christian citizens today in the areas of community life, world relations, and personal faith for Christian living.

Among the leaders of the organization are: Dr. Roswell P. Barnes and Dr. Arthur E. Holt, both world travelers and students of the place of the church in community and world relations and the authors of the two interdenominational study books for the coming year; Dr. Herman N. Morse, administrative secretary and clerk of the Board of National Missions and chairman of the Inter-Council Field Department; Miss Margaret Applebach, writer and speaker, who will conduct the worship periods and devotion studies; Dr. Leslie Moss, executive director of the Committee on Foreign Relief Appeals in the churches; Miss Ruth Seabury of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions; and others to be announced in the near future.

The fall weather should make possible a delightful trip from any state in the union; the attractions of the convention program should invite serious thinking women to its halls; the bewilderment of our times should make imperative for a large group of Christian women to see "the Way" together.

ONE-A-MEAL Remember summer days call for one hot dish a meal. A cup of hot tomato juice or beef or chicken broth will do the trick. Do not let your health run down by going on all cold foods because the weather is sizzling.

LEARN THE TRUTH ABOUT BOWEL WORMS

The signs are misleading. Nobody is sure to escape. Worms can make real trouble. Anybody, anywhere, can "catch" roundworms! So watch out for these signs in your child or yourself: uneasy stomach, nose-bleeding, loss of weight, itchy seat, nervousness.

Get Jayne's Vermifuge if you even suspect roundworms. It expels stubborn worms, yet acts very gently. If there are no worms, it works just as a mild laxative. Jayne's is America's best known proprietary worm medicine; scientifically tested and used by millions for half a century. So, play safe! Insist on Jayne's Vermifuge.

Recipes Given For Second Day Of Cooking School

At the second session of the Happy Kitchen Cooking school held this morning in the Junior High school auditorium under the sponsorship of The Pampa News and local merchants, Mrs. Corn Wilson demonstrated an additional group of recipes.

The final class of the school will be held in the morning, beginning at 9:30 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Among the dishes prepared this morning were chicken pot pie, broiled fish with creole sauce, escalloped celery and carrots, Harvard beets, modern spoon bread, orange nut bread, hot cross buns, pepper pot ring, coffee cup cakes with coffee icing, coconut rice pudding, orange nut pie, lemon frost cake, Frieda's spice cake, basic ice cream and drip coffee.

Chicken Pot Pie

1 chicken
1 sliced onion
1-2 cup celery
Parsley
1-2 lb. fresh mushrooms
2 tbsps. Pampa Creamery butter
1 hard cooked egg
Salt and pepper
Flour
Select young chicken, boil until tender. Remove from cooking liquid and when cooled, remove bones. Put onion, celery and parsley in cooking liquid. Boil 1-2 hour. Thicken a little with flour and return chicken to it. Saute mushrooms in butter, season to taste, and add to chicken. Line buttered casserole with short crust rolled thin, put in chicken and all of gravy if possible. Slice hard cooked egg thin and spread over top of chicken. Put on top small biscuits. Bake until biscuits are done and a warm brown in color (400 degrees for 30 minutes).

Broiled Fish With Creole Sauce

1 fish to broil (2 to 2 1/2 lbs.)
1 cup canned tomato soup—undiluted
6 stuffed olives—sliced
1 tbspn. minced onion
1 tbspn. capers
1 tbspn. sugar
1 tbspn. Morton's salt
1-4 tbspn. paprika
1-2 tbspn. Worcestershire sauce
Lemon and parsley for garnish
Select the fish and have it split and cleaned for broiling. Having a high fat content, mackerel is a good choice for broiling as it requires no basting while cooking. Pre-heat the broiling unit. Place fish on well-greased broiler or baking sheet, skin side up. Arrange the pan about 2 inches below broiling unit and cook about 10 minutes. Run a spatula under the fish to loosen it from broiler and turn. Continue cooking about 5 minutes more or until the fish is a delicate brown. Slide the fish or sizzling hot platter spread with butter and garnish with lemon and minced parsley. Accompany with creole sauce made by adding to the tomato soup the olives, onion, capers, sugar, salt, paprika and Worcestershire Sauce. Add fresh green beans.

and julienne potatoes to the platter and serve.

Escalloped Celery And Carrots

Scrape 3 medium-sized carrots and cut small to make 2 cups. Add 1 cup diced celery. Cook carrots and celery together in small amount of water until soft. Make a white sauce by melting 2 tbsps. butter. Add 2 tbsps. flour and 1 cup cold milk. Add 1-2 cup grated yellow cheese. Stir until mixture thickens. Place a layer of the vegetables in the casserole, then a layer of white sauce, repeating until all are used. Cover with buttered bread crumbs and brown in a 450-degree oven. Serves six.

Harvard Beets

Melt 2 tbsps. butter and add 2 tbsps. flour. Blend well and add 1-4 cup boiling water and cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Add 1-4 cup sugar and 1-4 cup vinegar and season with salt and pepper. Next add 1 can cubed beets or 12 small beets. Heat thoroughly before serving. Serves six.

Modern Spoon Bread

1 pint sweet milk
1 cup cornmeal
2 tbsps. Light's Best flour
2 tbsps. Mrs. Tucker's shortening
1 tbspn. Morton's salt
1 tbspn. KC baking powder
4 eggs—separated
Scald milk, add cornmeal, flour, salt, baking powder, which have been sifted together, slowly to hot milk. Stir constantly to make smooth. Add egg yolks to hot milk one at a time, beating well and cook slowly. Remove from heat and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into greased baking dish. Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes. Serve from the dish with heated silver spoon and don't forget the butter and plenty of it.

Orange Nut Bread

Sift together Light's Best flour, 2 tbsps. KC baking powder, 1-2 tbspn. Morton's salt and 1-4 cup sugar. Add 1-2 cup chopped nutmeat, 1 tbspn. grated orange rind, 1-2 cup orange marmalade, 1 egg (well beaten) 1 cup milk and 2 tbsps. melted Mrs. Tucker's shortening. Mix well and turn into a well greased bread tin, let stand 10 minutes and bake 50 to 60 minutes in moderate oven 350 degrees. Delicious made into sandwiches with cream cheese filling.

Hot Cross Buns

Scald 2 cups sweet milk and pour over the following mixture—4 tbsps. Mrs. Tucker's shortening, 4 tbsps. sugar and 2 tbsps. Morton's salt. Let stand until cool. Dissolve 1 yeast cake, add 1 tbspn. KC baking powder and about 5 1-2 cups Light's Best flour (if you desire, add 1 or 2 eggs.) Place in warm place, let rise. Shape and let rise. Bake at 400 degrees 15 to 20 minutes.

Pepper Pot Ring

Mix in order given: 2 beaten eggs, 1 10 1-2 cup condensed Pepper Pot Soup, 1 cup milk, 2 cups day-old bread cubes. Place in greased ring mold, let stand at least 15 minutes. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) until firm—about 20 minutes. Unmold on hot platter, fill center with buttered peas or other green vegetables, garnish with oven steamed carrots, pimiento and parsley. Serves 8.

Coffee Cup Cakes

1-4 cup Mrs. Tucker's shortening
1 cup dark brown sugar
1 tbspn. vanilla
1-8 tbspn. Morton's salt
1-3 cup sour cream
1-2 cup strong Admiration coffee
2 eggs
2 cups Light's Best flour
1 tbspn. KC baking powder
1-2 tbspn. soda
Cream shortening and sugar and add rest of ingredients. Beat hard for 3 minutes. Half fill well-greased muffin pans and bake 15 minutes in a moderate oven (350 degrees). Cool and cover with coffee frosting:

Lemon Frost Cake

1-2 cup Mrs. Tucker's shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs—unbeaten
1-2 tbspn. Morton's salt
2-3 cup milk
1-2 tbspn. orange extract
1-2 tbspn. lemon extract
2 cups Light's Best flour
2 1-2 tbsps. KC baking powder
Cream together shortening, sugar, eggs, salt and extract about 1 1-2 minutes on high speed (6th or 7th). Sift flour and baking powder 3 times. Add alternately with milk. Bake in two 8-inch layer pans at 350 degrees for 30 minutes.

Cocoanut Rice Pudding

1 box cocoanut
2 cups hot milk
1 cup uncooked rice
7-8 cup brown sugar
1-3 tbspn. Morton's salt
1-4 tbspn. cinnamon or nutmeg
2 tbsps. freshly made Admiration coffee
1 tbspn. vanilla
Wash rice several times. Cover with water and let soak one hour. Drain thoroughly and combine it with sugar, salt and cocoanut and milk. (To make cocoanut milk, add hot water to cocoanut and let stand for 1-2 hour). Cover and bring to boiling point. Reduce heat to very low. Continue to cook without stirring until the rice is half cooked. Pour sugar.

Frieda's Spice Cake

1 cup Mrs. Tucker's shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup white sugar
4 egg yolks (beaten)
1 cup milk
1 tbspn. vanilla
3 tbspn. KC baking powder
1-4 cups Light's Best flour
4 egg whites
1 tbspn. cinnamon
1 tbspn. nutmeg
Cream shortening and sugar until very light. Add egg yolks which have been beaten until thick and lemon colored. Sift all dry ingredients three times and add alternately with milk. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in greased layer pans at 350 degrees 30 to 35 minutes.

Mocha Frosting

4 tbsps. strong Admiration coffee (free from sugar)
2 tbsps. melted Pampa Creamery butter
1 tbspn. vanilla
2 tbsps. cream or enough to make consistency to spread
1 box powdered sugar
Mix extract, coffee and butter with the sugar and stir into cream, gradually rubbing out all lumps. After the frosting is spread on cake, 3-4 cup of chopped nutmeats may be sprinkled over the top.

Basic Ice Cream

1 cup sugar
3 tbsps. Light's Best flour
1 1-2 cups milk
2 egg yolks
1-4 tbspn. Morton's salt
2 tbsps. extract
2 tbsps. cream—whipped untilropy (free from sugar)
2 egg whites (beaten stiff)
Combine sugar, cornstarch, salt and milk with beaten egg yolk. Place over low heat and cook about 10 minutes, stir constantly. Chill. Add vanilla, whipped cream and egg whites. Set temperature control at coldest position about 30 minutes in advance of freezing. As soon as frozen, set back to normal to ripen.

Drip Coffee

Measure into drip coffee maker, 1 tbspn. Admiration coffee for each cup desired. Bring freshly drawn water to quick boil and pour over coffee, using 1 cup of water to each tablespoon of coffee. Serve immediately or keep hot until ready to serve. Do not boil.

When you cream vegetables, cool the vegetable broth a little before adding the flour and water thickening. Thus you avoid the unpleasant "jumping" that so often results in these dishes.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

By ALICIA HART

The minute you begin to take your beauty seriously, you'll be more careful. And the very first object of your care may be those little things that banish any question about whether you ever give that suggestion of "un-showeredness."

So much has been said about body odors lately, that some people believe American women have become over-conscious of them. I don't doubt that those who tend to be self-conscious anyway may have. But others still neglect this really-important beauty point: next to the daily bath, there's nothing so fundamental to civilized living as a deodorant. Therefore I say again, and I say it particularly to women who worry about this matter: get yourself a good anti-perspiration routine, practice, and forget.

A good anti-perspirant will not hurt anyone, and most women feel more comfortable nowadays when they use this grooming-aid at intervals once a week at least. Then there's the deodorant. Outstanding manufacturers make these more tempting, now, by adding a slight fragrance. A new one of this type smells good and clean (it's made largely of alcohol) and just barely sweet.

Of course, every meticulous woman changes her lingerie daily. It's so easy to rinse out those few wisps of clothes at night, especially now when you're paying more attention to rinsing out your stockings the moment you take them off.

Hang up your clothes, too, so that the garments will fall into their natural lines and keep that well-groomed look. Hats, shoes, and dresses should be aired before being put away. This goes especially for fall and winter, because clothes get musty just as quickly in closed, warm rooms as in the heat of summer.

THEN YOU'LL NEVER WORRY

Remember your shoes should have their own shoe-trees put into them as soon as you shed them, so they can retain their shape while still warm from your feet. If you have it, put a drop of cologne into your shoes, too, once in a while.

If you do these things, the most accusing advertisement ever contrived will, at worst, amuse you.

Milk is regarded as the almost perfect food because it contains virtually all the elements the human body requires—vitamins, minerals, proteins, sugars, fat.

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You

SOME PEOPLE NEVER LEARN... but most of them do!

There are always a few "smart alecks" who want to stand up and rock the boat. But most people try to keep out of trouble.

The same sort of thing happens in the retailing of beer. The great majority of beer retail establishments are clean, law-abiding and wholesome. But occasionally you may find a "smart aleck" retailer who violates the law or permits anti-social conditions.

We of the brewing industry want these anti-social retailers wiped out! Because they imperil your right to drink good beer...and our right to make it.

We want to protect the benefits that beer has brought to Texas—employment for 31,165 persons since relegalization, an annual payroll of $22,076,182 and taxes of $2,273,968.64 paid to the state last year.

This state, too, has an important stake in Beer's purchases from over 100 industries supplying the brewing industry with materials, equipment and services.

You can help us in our public-spirited program by (1) patronizing only reputable and legal beer establishments and (2) by reporting any irregularities you may see to the proper authorities.

Two Mississippi Congressmen Seek Senator's Seat

JACKSON, Miss., Sept. 23 (AP)—Two veteran Mississippi congressmen today sought to fill the 15-month unexpired term of the late U. S. Senator Pat Harrison in an election in which less than half of the state's 350,000 voters were expected to participate.

The candidates are Rep. Ross Collins, 61, of Meridian, who has served ten terms in the house, and Rep. Wall Doney, 49, of Holly Springs, a member of the house since 1928.

Palacios Troops Moved To Safety

PALACIOS, Sept. 23 (AP)—All of the remaining 2,000 troops stationed at nearby Camp Hulen, in the indicated path of a tropical disturbance, have been moved to safety at Wharton, Tex., camp headquarters said today.

Most of the 11,500 former national guardsmen, and selectees principally from Missouri, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Florida, Louisiana and Texas were already miles away in war games in Louisiana.

Only a skeleton force of headquarters troops and officers remained, and they were ready to pull out if high tides threatened. All precautions had been taken to protect buildings and property from the blow.

Survivors Insurance May Be Available To Members Of Family

There may be somebody in your neighborhood who is entitled to payments of old-age and survivors insurance, and who does not know that such payments are available, said Dewey Reed, manager of the Amarillo office of the Social Security Board.

"Therefore, if you are concerned about the needs of any family who recently lost its breadwinner, you may be doing it a favor by advising some member of the family to call at the Social Security Board's office and talk about a possible claim for benefits. A representative of our office will be glad to investigate the matter and if any member of the family is entitled to file a claim for insurance payments, he will assist in preparing the necessary papers. There is no charge for this service. The Social Security Board office is located in Room 324 of the new Post Office building, Amarillo." In addition, a representative of this office is in Pampa each Tuesday, from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. at the Employment Service Office.

Continuing his discussion of claims Reed stated that in the Amarillo field office area there are 173 men and women who have reached the age of 65 and who are receiving monthly payments of old-age insurance. "Some of these retired workers now have an opportunity to go back to work in industrial plants or in commercial employment. The law does not permit the Social Security Board to pay monthly benefits to persons while they are earning $15 or more a month from a job that is covered by the law. The recipient of old-age insurance benefits may earn as much as $14.99 per month, on

North Somerville House Burglarized

Cash, bonds, silverware and a watch were taken from the home of Mrs. Palestine Gething, 903 North Somerville street, city police officers were notified last night about 9:30 o'clock after Mrs. Gething had returned from a trip to Oklahoma.

Officers discovered that burglars had cut a screen on a rear window which was forced to gain entrance. The house had been ransacked and other valuables may have been taken, Mrs. Gething reported.

Officers said that $35 in cash, several government bonds, a set of silverware and a watch were reported missing. The officers believe the burglary took place shortly before Mrs. Gething arrived home because neighbors had not noticed the screen out of place yesterday.

Officers are following several leads.

Cards And Pittsburgh To Play Doubleheader Today

By SID FEDEER
Associated Press Sports Writer

There is a guy named Frankie Frisch in the National league, known up and down the senior circuit as "Onkel Franz."

Now, Onkel Franz doesn't care much for Leo the Lip Durocher who manages the Brooklyn Dodgers. Onkel Franz said as much when he was boss man of the St. Louis Gas House Gang and Leo the Lip was just a St. Leo hired hand.

Well, Leo the Lip and his Dodger had a game and a half edge over St. Louis this morning as the Cards moved into Pittsburgh for a four-game series with Onkel Franz's Pirates in the lightest National league race in the memory of the oldest inhabitant.

Onkel Franz, if he so desired, really could make it softer for the Cards than he would for the Gowanus Gallants, but the old flash is still playing up the hit showing no favorites. He has nominated Ken Heintzelman as his elbow in the first game of a twin bill with the Cards this afternoon and Ken has given the warriors from St. Louis plenty of trouble.

The Dodgers are idle today after adding a half game to their margin yesterday with a 5-0 trimming of the Phillies as the Cards had an open date.

The only other action in the National league found the New York Giants splitting a twin bill with the Boston Braves. King Carl Hubbell served a steady nine-hitter in the opener for a 5-3 decision. Phil Masi's ninth-inning two-bagger enabled the Braves to break a tie and cop the nightcap, 2-1.

One of two games on the curtailed American card saw the 1940 champions, the Detroit Tigers, move into a fourth-place tie by mowing down the Chicago White Sox, 11-0.

Johnny Niggeling blanked the succumbing beauties from Cleveland with seven hits for a 5 to 0 St. Louis victory.

Isbell Kicks Field Goal That Wins Game For Murray

By HARRY E. HOARE

During the 1938 and 1939 football seasons, Pampa high school had a midget substitute quarterback. He didn't get much of a chance to show his stuff and he never even tried to kick a field goal.

He graduated from Pampa high school last spring and this fall he hitch-hiked to Murray State Agricultural college at Tishomingo, Okla., and went out for football. Frankly, I doubted whether Bert would make the grade. But on Friday night the little squirt became a big shot. Yep, it was Bert "Squirt" Isbell who on Friday night made a 27-yard field goal for the Aggies to defeat the Central State Tigers 3 to 0. It was the second time since 1938 that a Murray State football team had ever defeated Central State, a senior college.

And Isbell wasn't the only former Pampa Harvester in the lineup. W. C. "Lefty" Pendleton, former Harvester fullback, started the game at that position for the Aggies while Kenneth Mullings, former Harvester end, started the game at tackle. Isbell and A. C. Enloe, former halfback, saw service.

Isbell is not only on the football team but last week he was elected president of the freshman class, an honor not usually conferred on a Texan.

The Aggies, outweighed about 20 pounds per man, were up against one of the classiest outfits in history. Included in the Tiger lineup were Russell Kane, 220-pound All State halfback from Oklahoma, Calvin Capshaw, 195-pound All State end from Oklahoma, and several other top hands from Oklahoma schools.

Five of the Tigers weighed 300 pounds or over while heaviest man on the Aggie squad was 198-pound J. W. Green, tackle, and he was the only player over 190 pounds.

On November 29 the Aggies will play the Cameron Aggies in their most important game of the season. Last Friday's game was played in Ada and here is the story carried in an Oklahoma City paper:

ADA, Sept. 19 (AP)—The Murray Junior college Aggies from Tishomingo used a last-quarter field goal Thursday night to spill the East Central State Tigers, 3 to 0, in a non-conference football game.

Santonio Sees Mustangs As Title Winner

By HAROLD SCHERWITZ
San Antonio Light Sports Editor (Written for The Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 23 (AP)—In this neutral zone, the unbiased football fan who follows the fortunes of all Southwest Conference teams from afar with an open mind and no love of alma mater to color his convictions, is having a horrible time rating the boys for the 1941 scramble.

Even the coaches, his weather-vanes of long standing, are crossing him up. Dana Bible, at Austin comes right out and admits his University of Texas Longhorns should be the favorites. Matty Bell at Dallas, trying to look so breaks out in so many smiles and is caught rubbing his hands in glee as often as he watches his Southern Methodist lads practice, that our information-seeker is completely bewildered.

Cheering reports come from Baylor, where Frank Kimbrough is anxious to have a winner in his first year as coach, and the warning "Beware of Rice" sound from Houston, where Methodists' Mustangs will do their initial Southwest Conference team in 1940, commands widespread respect as a team-builder.

T. C. U. Arkansas and the Texas Aggies are "dangerous" labels, according to word that reaches this outpost of gridiron civilization. And the local football fan, accustomed to surprises in the southwest, wouldn't be a bit amazed if the champion emerged from this group of three.

Because there are a lot of University of Texas adherents through this section, and because Dana Bible is very popular here, as elsewhere, there's a general hope that the University of Texas comes through with a winner. But a great many feel that the Steers are likely to miss the jackpot—purely a hunch, it seems—and that Southern Methodist Mustangs will do the big job. If Matty Bell, always a noted builder of defense, can produce a line that will match his backfield's potentialities, the long-distance dopsters feel the Ponies will practice in the bowls as the Southwest's champs.

It'll be S. M. U. of Texas, thinks San Antonio, chewing a straw and smiling tolerantly at the excitement of partisan publicity purveyors.

Frnka Moans Over Chances With Frogs

By BEN FUNK
TULSA, Okla., Sept. 23 (AP)—The big, mid-mannered fellow, who goes about his business of coaching Tulsa's football team with the depressed attitude of one who expects to meet disaster just around the corner, considered the question long and carefully.

"Our chances with Texas Christian? Slim. Mighty slim. They've got a great team down there. A friend who scouted them called me up and told me we couldn't get through their line with a locomotive. And that backfield! They'll pass our boys crazy."

But while Henry Frnka continued his discourse on the strength of the opposition, there was a twinkle in his eyes that belied the pessimism of his words, and a quiet determination that seemed to spell trouble for the Horned Frogs.

This is Frnka's first year at Tulsa and he is treading the new territory cautiously. He shies fearfully away from newsmen, prays that when game time comes around at Fort Worth Saturday, he'll be enjoying the comfortable position of underdog.

On this particular afternoon, the Golden Hurricane was tearing thru a full-dress scrimmage. True, the offense was a bit ragged and Frnka was grumbling: "Awful, isn't it? Our boys aren't ready. If they play like this, T. C. U. will murder us."

Occasionally though, at an unguarded moment, Frnka will let drop a word of admiration for some of the fine veterans that comprise his 40-man squad. Once, when N. Akeley slipped away for a 40-yard touchdown gallop, the coach remarked: "That was great! Great! Say, he's a good boy, isn't he?"

And when Glenn Dobbs fired a 60-yard punt that carried out of bounds inside the five-yard line, the coach found it difficult to conceal his enthusiasm.

Gloomy as Frnka likes to appear, there seems little reason to doubt that Tulsa has one of its strongest teams in recent years. Sophomore material is scarce but he has 19 letter men back from the 1940 squad that won the Missouri Valley championship and upset T. C. U., 7 to 0.

Clovis Played Scoreless Tie With State Champs

A bunch of tired Harvesters left the practice field at Harvester park late yesterday afternoon following one of the toughest workouts since football practice started September 1. The boys learned about their mistakes of last Friday night and then went to work trying to correct them.

An open scrimmage is in order for this afternoon, about 4:30 o'clock, with fans being admitted to the park. Tuesday is the only day the workout is open to the public.

The Harvesters will get their second test under fire Friday night when they meet the tough Clovis Wildcats here. Clovis has always been tough a Harvester team. On the last trip to Clovis the Harvesters lost 7 to 0 while on the last trip here Clovis has always been tough a Harvester team.

Vols And Rebs Will Resume Dixie Series In Nashville

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS, Sept. 23 (AP)—The Dallas Rebels and Nashville Vols sped toward the heart of Dixie today where they resume their series in the battle to determine the minor league champion of the South.

But Dallas' miracle men of the Texas league must cope up a potent batch of legerdemain if they expect to return home next Saturday still in the running and holding a chance for the Dixie series title.

Nashville pulled out with two decisive wins in two games, each by the staggering score of 6-1, and it seems nothing Dallas can push up to the Vols is capable of halting the slug-ging Vols.

Little Sal Gialato the ace of the staff, tried it Sunday night. Otto Nicholson, star of the Shaghuenssy play-off, attempted it last night.

The result: 24 hits and 12 runs. Manager Wally Dashiell has nominated Gordon Matzberger, right-hander—and to right-handers the Vols are poison—for pitching duty Wednesday night, when the series is resumed in Nashville.

The Vols will use Russ Meers, a left-hander who was the leading Nashville hurler over the regular season route with 16 victories and five defeats, and who won three games in the Southern Association Shaghuenssy play-off.

Nashville used its two former big leaguers to squelch the Rebels in the opening games, Roxie Lawson taming Dallas Sunday night and Vito Tamulis, late of the Brooklyn Dodgers, southpawing the Rebs into submission with a six-hit masterpiece last night.

Hank Helf, husky Vol catcher, was the batting star, driving in three of the runs with a triple and single.

Dallas must win two out of three games at Nashville to stay in the fight for the title. Should the teams need more games after the three there, they will return here for battles Sunday and Monday.

X-ray pictures today reveal that Jerry Kerbow, only reserve center on the Pampa Harvest team, suffered a broken arm in workout yesterday afternoon. The center job all by himself Friday night against the Clovis Flyers. Kerbow broke a small bone in his right arm and will be out uniform for several weeks. He brother, Guard Harry Kerbow, was in uniform yesterday after receiving from a cracked rib.

Rock Staubus and three of his were in a car wreck and the Harvesters won the game.

A twin ball-carrying combination will be featured by the Wildcats when Dick and Jim Colvin team up at the halfback positions. Only difference in the boys is that Jim wears uniform 60 and Dick wears uniform 61. John Daugherty is the power house fullback and ball carrier preme for the Wildcats, however.

Coaches Buck Freeman and M. Best announced earlier yesterday workout that the first and second team idea had been abolished at that everyone was equal as far as they were concerned. It's going to be a case of the best boy gets the starting call.

Decision to abandon the first and second team idea was reached after last Friday night's game with Burnburn when it was impossible to tell whether the so-called first and second teams were on the field. It serves showed up so well that changed lineup is expected to stay the Clovis game.

But coaches have not announced the starting eleven.

after a stinging like that.

"Something is always being done for the batter. He only has to suspect that a ball sailed, and the umpire tosses it out. The ball goes out of game at the slightest trace of grass stain. Recently at Ebbets Field, Larry MacFarrin sacrificed 500 or more badly needed seats so the curtain could be lowered giving batters the perfect background out of which to hit. The center field seats at Wrigley Field were painted for the same purpose.

"A few batters are beamed, and they all get headgear, but no one ever speaks up on behalf of the poor pitcher."

So Lon Warneke professes to be seriously considering anking out there in shin guards.

Either that or building a fort.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14 — Roger Bresnahan introduced shin guards at the turn of the century, and Lon Warneke contends it is time pitchers get next to themselves.

Some pitchers use shin guards while throwing in batting practice, but Warneke threatens to be the first to wear knee protectors in a game.

Mary Shes, the old backstop coaching Detroit, calls the catcher's equipment the tools of ignorance.

Warneke holds that the pitcher's glove is the mark of a brave man.

Cookie Lavagetto of the Brooklyn broke one of the Cardinal's shin, no run hero's shin with a line drive a couple of years ago. Jim Ruppel belted both of them in one game.

"It was nice of Ripple to scatter his punches," laughs the Arkansas Humming Bird, who has good reason to be so opinionated. "I don't need no protection than the catcher. He suggests bullet-proof uniforms."

"A catcher at least knows what is coming," he explains. "Anything can happen when we turn one of those jawbreaker balls loose in the direction of the plate. Why, the ball has actually clipped my amper ears without me having as much as seen it."

"Every pitcher present admired Fred Fitzsimmons for the quickness with which he recovered after his throwing hand was nearly torn off by a liner off Johnny Mize's bat in that key game with us which the Dodgers kicked and threw away at Ebbets Field.

"I've lost more than one game as the result of stopping balls too hard to foot with. Explaining a debatable base hit, scorers say: 'Too hot to handle,' but, with pitchers it frequently is a case of too hot to foot with. The pitcher can't grip the ball."

Details must be worked out between President W. P. Zimmerman of the University of New Mexico and Rector Mario De La Cereva of the Mexican institution, the senator said.

NEW YORK, Sept. 23.—(The Special Agent) A gloom along the Gowanus Dept. The Tulsa at Fort Worth, and the highly touted University of Texas Longhorns, who will go up against the University of Colorado Buffaloes at Boulder.

Both teams should come through, but in an early season contest you never can tell. Tulsa reportedly is capable of upsetting the Horned Frogs, and Colorado might turn the trick, but if it did the Flatiron mountains which overlook the Buffalo stadium probably would quake in amazement.

Southern Methodist should have an easy time with North Texas State at Dallas, and so should Texas A. & M. with Sam Houston State at College Station. Baylor is expected to have no very hard time of it with Hardin-Simmons at Waco and there is no reason to suppose that the University of Arkansas will play Central Oklahoma State at Fayetteville.

Rice won't tackle its first opponent until the following Saturday, when it meets Sam Houston at Houston.

Texas And Frogs Face Toughest Foes This Week

Southwest Conference teams will emerge from behind a thicket of rumors and show something of what they've got this weekend.

Each of the seven teams will get into action next Saturday and how much they'll have to exhibit, of course, depends upon the opposition.

Perhaps the toughest foes will be encountered by Texas Christian, Tulsa at Fort Worth, and the highly touted University of Texas Longhorns, who will go up against the University of Colorado Buffaloes at Boulder.

Shortage in Freight Cars Predicted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP)—A defense research official expressed the opinion today that an imminent serious shortage of transportation facilities may become one of the most serious bottlenecks in the arms program.

Harry Magdoff, acting chief of the civilian supply section of OPM's research and statistics bureau, predicted that only 1,516,000 active, serviceable freight cars will be available this fall to handle an estimated peak load requiring 1,646,000 cars.

SERIAL STORY

BRIDE FROM THE SKY

BY HELEN WELSHIMER

Copyright, 1941, NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Judy Allen really feels that her mixed-up life is straightened out when she decides to marry handsome, rich, and successful Philip Rogers, attorney for the state of Texas. But when she is called to the editor's office instead of the aviator Sandy Ammema, Sandy convinces Judy that she does not care for him, that she does love Philip. Her plans are going forward, with nothing to disturb Judy except the possibility of trouble with her jealous secretary, Sara Fuller. Then Sandy makes an appearance the day before the wedding. Judy's father, not knowing his daughter once thought herself in love with Sandy, is puzzled.

SANDY IS PERSISTENT

JUDGE ALLEN at once sought his pretty, plump wife and explained that an intruder had entered the drawing room.

"Oh, I know," she explained with a funny, feminine laugh that had been nice at 20 but was misplaced at 50. "It's that aviator... the one Judy used to mention sometimes. He made a parachute and intended to marry Judy if anybody bought it or something of the sort. Nobody wanted it though."

"Should I ask him to leave?"

"Oh, dear me, no!" Her gold curls shook. "Maybe he'll be famous some day."

In the drawing room, meantime, Judy had accepted the silver tea service, asked Sandy to sit down, and uncovered a plate of cinnamon toast. Sandy was out of place in his boots, his khaki trousers tucked into them, his leather jacket.

"Any of my bridesmaids will be thrilled to see you," she told him as she handed him an ancestral cup. "I have some pretty ones. And they'll be beautiful tomorrow with their cartwheel hats and cherry ruffles with black velvet ribbons."

"I didn't come to select a bridesmaid," he answered, putting down the silver cup, strolling to the long French windows and looking at a clump of green bushes which concealed a bend in the road. "I came about this."

"About us?"

Strange that she could laugh so easily this afternoon.

He turned from the window and walked toward her swiftly. He did not touch her, but the old glory was in his eyes when he looked at her.

"Judy, Judy, how did we ever come to such a pass?" he asked.

"How did we ever come to such a pass?" she repeated, her voice bold. "Darling, you were fun for short jaunts, but people have to pay rent on this earth! To pay rent men need steady jobs. Why not find someone like, say, Peg, who doesn't need to do anything but look beautiful?"

His eyes had looked tired. Now suddenly he grinned. "Jealous?" he asked.

"A little when I get to romancing. Not much, though, because I'm getting the best of the bargain." Oddly enough she meant it, looking at Sandy's careless flying attire, remembering the perfection of Phil's suits, perfection that sacrificed nothing to masculinity.

DUSK was coming rapidly. A pretty bridesmaid stuck her head through the draperies and reminded Judy that it was time to meet the bridegroom.

"Goodby—good hunting," Judy told the tall young aviator.

"Goodby, Judy," he said, and held out a browned, muscular hand. "We'll not be meeting. I like high ceilings best. Maybe I'll find a star and give it your name."

Then he was gone, quietly, quickly, leaving no echoes.

Philip came a little later, escorted by a few of his ushers. Two of the ushers already had arrived, two more were expected before the rehearsal dinner. The old house was filled with youth and song and music. The group became more reverent at the church where rehearsal was held.

When Phil caught Judy in his arms and drew her close in the dimly lighted vestibule, she surrendered to him, forgetting the disturbing caller of a few hours ago.

Phil was everything she wanted. He was everything her family wanted for her.

The mood sustained her through the morning. She watched the house become more beautiful under the florist's pattern for decorating.

She admired the bride's cake, watched two maids cut the wedding cake and place the pieces in the waiting boxes. She gave her mother a list of names of people in New York to whom some of the boxes should be sent.

Every house guest was resting, waiting for the wedding, when Miss Mattie, the town dressmaker, knocked against Judy's door.

"Were you sleeping?" she asked, as though she had entered a place sacred to Cherubim and Seraphim. "It's the lace on the wedding dress. Your grandmother's dress, that I remade for you. I found a worn thread a little while ago which I never noticed in the final fitting."

Judy slipped the billowy masses of lace and tulle over her head. She stood still, not even objecting when the dressmaker adjusted the veil and asked her to slip into the white satin pumps.

THE telephone on her desk began to ring and she smiled at Miss Mattie, motioning her to leave the room. "I'll bring the dress to the sewing room for any final stitches," she promised, picking up the receiver.

"Yes?"

"Judy dear!" Phil asked. "You're supposed to be asleep."

"So are you, and furthermore you aren't see the bride on the wedding day before you meet her at the altar—or aren't you planning to be there?"

She laughed a little huskily, a little shakily, because marriage was so new, so strange.

From the living room below she heard the orchestrated rhythm of the wedding march where five musicians followed Mendelssohn down a vista of familiar sound.

"Enjoying the concert?" he asked Phil. "Are you sure you'll be ready on time?"

"More than ready. I have my silk topper, my gloves, my gardenia—everything I need. I'll be seeing you at the altar. Goodby, honey."

Making no move to remove her dress, Judy started to brush her glowing hair. She felt peaceful, rested, not at all excited. "I was more excited on my first merry-go-round," she said aloud.

"How did you expect to feel? As though you were going into a tailspin?" a man's low voice asked.

Turning, Judy saw Sandy, wearing his best uniform today, climbing over the window sill from the terrace outside her room.

"You see, honey, Phil would make a deplorable husband for you." He held her firmly by the wrists. "That, my sweet, is why you are marrying me."

1,000 Officers Called On Carpet By Staff Chief

WITH THIRD ARMY, Sept. 23. (AP)—A thousand officers, who have directed the greatest peacetime force of American soldiers ever placed in the field, were summoned today to Camp Pank to hear the man who has headed the training program of the new army explain what was wrong in the first week's war game between the second and the third armies.

The lecturer was Lieut.-General Lester J. McNair, chief of the army general headquarters staff, who wastes few words. Through the year he has visited camp after camp, checking the instruction of the million-odd men who have been enlisted or inducted into national service.

The war department has frankly said that the status of most field officers would depend on their records in the field maneuvers. Already scores have resigned because of the prospects of reclassification and others have been reshuffled to jobs that do not involve field leadership or tactical ability.

Already the maneuver, in which the second army commanded by Lieut.-General Ben Lear ended virtually trapped by the third army led by Lieut.-General Walter Krueger, had been discussed in staff meetings over the weekend.

Meanwhile the half million men participating in the vast field exercises enjoyed a cool, gusty night on the fringe of a tropical storm that swung from the Gulf into Texas with the maneuver area. Wind velocity at times reached 40 miles an hour and some tents were blown down.

Class Schedules, Meeting Places To Be Announced

By M. C. DAVIS

There will be an organization meeting at 8 p. m. in the Pampa Junior High school auditorium, Thursday night Oct. 2 when class schedules and meeting places will be decided.

Every effort will be made to accommodate the lower worker so that he can get as much from the courses as one who does not have to work lower. This will be done either by having make up classes or by allowing the worker to do his class work at home.

Mr. Reno Stinson has worked up a course in gas measurement and gas handling. An inspection of the course showed that it would be very much worth while for people working in the gas and petroleum industries to take this course.

Petroleum courses to be offered are elementary and advanced math, elementary and advanced science, internal combustion engine, maintenance and repair of mechanical equipment, steam power, electricity, natural gas, production practices, blue print reading and sketching, compressors, petroleum and gas from source to consumer and general refining practices.

Carbon black courses to be offered are elementary and advanced math, elementary and advanced science, maintenance and repair of mechanical equipment, blue print reading and sketching, gas measurement and pressure regulation, gas testing, and carbon black from source to consumer. Trade courses to be offered are pipe fitter's blue print reading and sketching, custodian engineering, welding and shop math.

Remember to send your registration slips thru your company mail so that your area coordinator can collect them or send them to P. O. box 955, Pampa. Listen tonight or any night over KPND between 6:05-6:10 for further information about night courses.

Neutrality Act Repeal Would Mean War, Says Norris

WASHINGTON, Sept. 23 (AP) — Senator Norris (Ind.-Neb.) asserted today that repeal of the neutrality act "would mean war" and he voiced his doubts that congress would approve a declaration of war at the present time.

On the question of a declaration of war, Rep. Fish (R-N. Y.) was ready with the prediction that the House would vote it down "more than two-to-one." He announced he intended to seek a showdown next week with a resolution calling for immediate war with Germany.

Capital Hill's preoccupation with international affairs was furthered by the start of house committee hearings on a new $5,000,000,000 lease-lend appropriation and by the news that another American-owned freighter had been sunk near Iceland in waters which President Roosevelt has barred to Axis raiders.

Norris, although not commenting specifically on the latest sinking, made it clear that he endorsed the policy the administration has pursued regarding freedom of the seas. The veteran Nebraskan, only surviving member who cast a senate vote against this country's entrance into the last war, consistently has supported the administration in foreign affairs. He emphasized to reporters today that he thought all possible aid should be given to Great Britain and Russia.

Nevertheless, he contended that "changing the neutrality act to send our ships to belligerent ports would mean war. And if we decided to arm merchant ships that might give Hitler a right to sink them under international law."

NOW ON DISPLAY at the Lewis-Coffey Pontiac company, 218-20 N. Somerville, is the 1941 Pontiac torpedo de luxe sedan coupe. This is a new model in the de luxe line, same as the famous sedan coupe of the streamliner which broke all records in 1941. It has 119-inch wheelbase, with either six- or eight-cylinder engine, restyled in appearance, 50 per cent longer front fenders, and new wider radiator grille.

Brinkley Faces Fraud Charges

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 23 (AP)—Dr. John R. Brinkley, 35, who has been in and out of courts throughout a lucrative career as a gland surgeon, headed toward a court again today.

Armed with a fugitive warrant based on federal mail fraud charges, U. S. deputy marshals said they would arrest Dr. Brinkley before his scheduled release today from a hospital. His left leg was amputated in August and he suffered a heart attack September 2.

His wife, 49, arrested yesterday on similar charges, pleaded innocent at arraignment before U. S. Commissioner Charles H. Thompson. She posted $10,000 bond for appearance at a preliminary hearing this afternoon.

The charges, filed at Little Rock, Ark., branded as "false and fraudulent" treatment Brinkley claimed would "restore to normal sex vigor sexually weak men and women" and accused the couple of using the mails to "promote this fraud."

The complaint said the goateed, bespectacled surgeon had treated 16,000 persons for $750 each, a total of $12,000,000, in hospitals he formerly operated at Milford, Kas., Del Rio, Tex., and Little Rock.

Dr. Brinkley, termed a "charlatan and quack" by Dr. Morris Fishbein, secretary of the American Medical association and editor of its journal, fought Dr. Fishbein and the association in libel actions through the courts and lost. He fought unsuccessfully revocation of his license to practice in Kansas. He lost a fight to stave off judgments totaling $230,000 sought by former patients. Several months ago he filed a voluntary petition of bankruptcy at San Antonio, Tex.

Dr. Brinkley thrice ran for governor of Kansas. In 1932 he lost out to Alf M. Landon, 1936 Republican presidential nominee, in a close three-cornered race.

Officers were elected as follows: H. Walpler, president; Max Wade, vice-president; Ray Nielson, secretary-treasurer; A. B. Whitten, sergeant-at-arms.
