Huge Strikes Loom On Defense Horizon

(By The Associated Press)
Labor disputes today cast dark shadows over the immediate future of railroad transportation, long distance telephone communication and the mining of soft coal to fuel the nation's steel mills.

In addition, there was a growing possibility that the disturbed labor situation might even cause the defeat of administration-sponsored legislation. Some house members declared they would not vote to send American merchant ships into war zones unless the administration took firm steps to prevent work stoppages on defense projects.

While House action of some sort appeared certain in the soft coal dispute, involving the CIO United Mine Workers' demand for a union shop in the captive coal pits operated by the steel companies. President Roosevelt invited UMW President John L. Lewis, CIO Chief Philip Murray, UMW Secretary Treasurer Thomas Kennedy, and the heads of three large steel companies to confer with him tomorrow.

Murray and Kennedy resigned Tuesday from the defense mediation board, in protest to that group's 9-to-2 recommendation against the UMW's demand for the union shop in the captive mines.

There was no indication of what action Mr. Roosevelt had in mind, but the conference was called for the very day that Lewis summoned the UMW policy committee to a special meeting, presumably for a decision on union action in view of the mediation board recommendation.

While the White House conference was called for tomorrow, the house of representatives was slated to vote on the neutrality act changes today, so the effect of Mr. Roosevelt's move on the pending legislation remained problematical.

The UMW so far has shown no sign of giving up its demand for a union shop clause in the captive mines—a provision which would require every miner to join the union after a probationary period of employment.

The threatened nation-wide railroad strike caused extreme concern to the country's shippers as well as to the administration.

The five operating brotherhoods, representing 350,000 workers, decided to walk out progressively December 7, 8, and 9 in support of their demand for a 30 per cent wage boost. A fact finding board appointed by President Roosevelt had recommended a 7 1/2 per cent increase which the men rejected flatly but which the carriers said they would accept. The lowest paid of the operating personnel now receives $5.06 a day.

A decision was awaited from the representatives of 900,000 non-operating crafts, who asked for 30 to 34 cents an hour more than their present range of 35 to 85 cents. The president's board recommended that they be granted an increase of 9 cents an hour. To date the leaders of the non-operating unions have not commented on the board's recommendation, but the decision on whether to strike was expected today.

The projected telephone strike, set to begin at midnight tomorrow, would tie up not only long distance lines in 42 states, but

New Vitamin Brings Back Color Of Hair

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—Red-heads are getting the best results in restoring natural color to white or gray hair by taking the new B vitamin, P-Amino-Benzic acid.

A beautiful red returns, Dr. Benjamin Sieve of Boston, reported today to the Society for Experimental Biology and Medicine. Blondes and brunettes get varying degrees of restoration to youthful color, and a few of them are almost complete.

Dr. Sieve disclosed that about 1,500 persons all over the United States already are trying the new vitamin for hair, under guidance of physicians.

Some startling incidental effects on other troubles have cropped up. Several women who had been sterile for years entered upon motherhood. A man reported restoration of sex which had been lost for eight years.

A few asthmatics reported benefits. A skin disfigurement, vitiligo, in which white patches appear, is disappearing on a fair number of victims. Some reported improved appetites.

These secondary effects, however, were quite lacking on some persons, and there is as yet no explanation of the difference in reactions.

The vitamin is now made from coal, synthetically, and, in contrast to many vitamins, is inexpensive and plentiful.

The 300 cases reported by Dr. Sieve ranged from 14 to 74 years. The very young had white hair mostly because of nutritional troubles. In later life many of the white haired had endocrine gland deficiencies. Their hair color came back, or partly back, however, without gland treatment.

The first changes in color appeared about five weeks. This is a yellowing, not at the roots, but out along the hair.

Large doses of the vitamin are given by mouth, with meals, and sometimes an extra vitamin snack is added at midnight. In no case has there been any report of bad effects.

Nazis Girding For New Moscow Drive

(By The Associated Press)
Masses of German and Russian reserves were reported moving into the central front today for a possible climactic battle for Moscow, while in the south, Adolf Hitler's Crimean armies were declared to be storming the fortifications of Kerch at the gateway to the Caucasus oil fields.

A Nazi spokesman said the German air force was already roaring over the narrow Kerch Strait to carry the war into the great fields which produce much of Russia's oil.

German military dispatches said Nazi assault troops had captured several of Kerch's key fortifications and that the port was open to direct attack from the west and south.

Parliament Hears Demand For A Second Fighting Front In Libya

Red Cross Roll Call Going Over 'In Year Of Its Greatest Need'

British See Diversion Of Nazi Planes

LONDON, Nov. 13 (AP)—Aviation circles predicted today that heavy losses being inflicted by the British Navy on Axis supply lines in the central Mediterranean would soon compel Germany to divert strong air forces from the Russian front to bases in Crete and Greece.

With British land forces in North Africa growing ever stronger, these sources said, it is imperative that the Axis powers maintain sea communication with North Africa to meet a possible offensive to drive them out of Libya.

"Neither the Italian navy nor air force has shown the slightest ability to cope with Britain's Mediterranean squadron," one air authority asserted, "and Germany must maintain a Libyan garrison."

"The only answer is for Germany to establish bases in Crete and Greece as she did last May when she gave the fleet such a pasting."

The British announced the loss of four cruisers and six destroyers in the battle of Crete as the result of German air blows with forces estimated at about 1,000 planes.

To keep out of range of British warships and planes now based on Malta, the Italians are said to be sailing to Libya by slipping down the Greek coast from Brindisi, then south toward Bengasi and coastwise to Tripoli.

These informants deduced that a coastal German air patrol from Crete, which lies like a stepping stone on this route, might make it extremely difficult for British submarines to operate and make attacks by British surface forces extremely costly.

Workers at the Baker school area reported an increase of 400 per cent over last year's contributions. Next largest gain in members is in the Horace Mann district where a 300 per cent increase has been announced. The Woodrow Wilson area reported a 50 per cent increase. All are preliminary reports. No report has been received from the Sam Houston district.

Winston Savage is chairman of the residential group and today he praised the women workers for their excellent work.

Frank Smith, chairman of the group working the business district, reported to Roll Call Chairman Joe Key that some firms had doubled without paying one dollar, and no cards or buttons can be issued except for that amount, but many people knowing that the money is going to be used for the benefit of Uncle Sam's armed forces and for war victims of other nations, are giving amounts under.

One of the most touching stories reported to date concerned a small Mexican boy who came up to the Red Cross women solicitors and said, "What are you all doing? And they told him, 'Oh, the Red Cross. It takes care of the soldiers, ain't it?' he said, 'I want to give something.' And then he fished in his pocket and brought out seven cents.

"The smile on that boy's face when he skipped away was beautiful to see," the women reported.

and trebled their usual gifts. No dollar report was available today. The drive will continue until everyone has been given an opportunity to join the Red Cross.

"This is the 6th anniversary of the founding of the Red Cross by Clara Barton and it is the year of greatest need," Chairman Key declared.

"Not only has the Red Cross to carry on its regular burden of disaster relief and care of the needy but it has an important part in national defense and in European relief this year."

"The Red Cross has been in the national defense picture for a long time. It is in the camps and naval stations by reason of time tested army and navy regulations. History and tradition mark this relationship as one of mutual esteem and interdependence. The chief of staff of the army in 1937 briefly stated that team plan as follows: 'It is the business of the army to support the Red Cross in time of disaster. It is the business of the Red Cross to back the army in time of war. This applies to the navy also.'"

Held in jail at Corpus Christi, awaiting arrival of Gray county officers, is Avery Dobson, 30, charged here with theft in alleged connection with the taking of a 1936 sedan belonging to a Pampa dealer.

Dobson allegedly obtained the vehicle here Friday on a pretense of trying the vehicle out with a view toward its purchase, local officers said.

Also held at Corpus Christi is a Gray county woman, Dobson's companion, on a morals charge.

Will Jimmy Allred Run For Senate?

By HOWARD C. MARSHALL, Associated Press Staff
A football game recently provided material for political gossip.

The game was between the University of Texas and Rice Institute in Austin. The subject for tongue-wagging was the fact that Federal Judge James V. Allred and Congressman Lyndon B. Johnson attended together.

Only the night before, at a dinner given by friends, Allred had been hailed as the next man to be elected United States senator from Texas.

Johnson, runner-up to W. Lee O'Daniel in the special senatorial election last summer, long has been considered a potential entrant in the 1942 race for the senate.

The congressman is known as an ardent New Deal and Roosevelt advocate while Allred, appointed United States district judge by the President, also has been considered a Roosevelt supporter.

Questions which the politically-minded pondered included: Was the show of comradeship between Allred and Johnson merely the result of chance meeting, or was it planned?

Had the men been talking the situation over with regard to the campaign next year?

Had Johnson brought a message from Washington, perhaps from a senatorial candidate or administration source, to the judge and former governor?

Would Johnson run for re-election to his seat in the national house, and would he throw or attempt to throw the organization and strength that was his last summer to the support of Judge Allred?

Would both Johnson and Allred run for the senate in an effort to crowd out and draw strength from Attorney General Gerald C. Mann, in the event Mann also became a senatorial candidate again?

Capitol talk is that there is no love between Allred and Mann. Plenty of people would use strong expressions than those in describing their relationship.

On the morning following the Allred dinner, press correspondents

'Bad Boy Mayor' Again Nominated

NEWBURY, Mass., Nov. 13 (AP)—While friends strove to get him paroled so that he could campaign before election day, Dec. 2, red haired Andrew J. "Bossy" Gillis, often called "the bad boy mayor," nominated again in yesterday's mayoralty primary, mapped out his own plans in county jail today when "I go in."

Thrice mayor of this seaboard city of 14,000, Bossy, who is serving a nine-month term for criminal libel—his second period of incarceration since he entered politics—is quite confident he'll be elected again and isn't even worried about being paroled.

Asked if he would seek parole if elected, Bossy replied: "I can handle everything from here. I did it in jail when they thought they had me for cutting trees. I don't see any reason for going out."

Bossy spent part of one mayor's term in jail for defying an old city ordinance by chopping down trees near his gasoline station.

He is in jail this time for remarks he published about a judge in his weekly paper "Asbestos." He will be eligible for parole on Jan. 1—in time for his inaugural, if he is elected.

Gillis topped the ticket yesterday in a five man field, polling 1,831 votes to 429 for John Kellner, his nearest opponent.

125 Men Dine On Elk Killed By Ira W. Spangler

By THE ROVING REPORTER
I. W. Spangler of Pampa was riding ahead of his guide in elk country in the vicinity of Jackson Hole, Wyoming. The snow was about eight inches deep. They were riding along a ridge. Ira, that's Spangler, then heard the guide behind him whistle sharply. Ira knew that meant an elk.

"Look down yonder. There's your elk," the guide said.

The elk was partly hid behind a tree. It had the biggest branch of horns the Pampa man had ever seen. Then he drew a bead right on the neck but he wasn't satisfied. That old twinge in his right elbow bothered him. He drew several beads and changed positions. Finally he shot, and the elk charged away.

"You shot him in the horns," said the guide.

"No I didn't," averred Ira. And Ira was right because the elk ran a short distance and fell dead. It was the first eight-point elk buck brought out of that reserve.

Last night, about 125 contractors, officials of oil companies and employees, helped Mr. Spangler, teaming and tractor contractor, eat that elk out at the sales ring at Recreation park. John Andrews barbecued part of it and H. C. Coffee and Bill Graham fried part of it. Besides the two kinds of meat there were beans, onions, pickles, and potato chips. It was the best elk that the R. R. ever ate, but it was also the first he ate so much it was pitiful, but so did a lot of other guys, including George Berlin, Johnny Hines, Sam Dunn, Bob McCoy, Mayor Fred Thompson, City Manager Steve Matthews, Frank Robinson, Supt. McNally of Shell, and dozens of Shell employees.

Asked if he would seek parole if elected, Bossy replied: "I can handle everything from here. I did it in jail when they thought they had me for cutting trees. I don't see any reason for going out."

Phone Workers Map Strikes In 42 States

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—Leaders of an independent union of telephone workers mapped plans today for a strike which Union President John J. Moran said would disrupt long distance communication over the American Telephone and Telegraph company's system in 42 states.

Moran, head of the Federation of Long Lines Telephone workers which is made up of A. T. & T. employees, said 15,000 members would leave their jobs at 12:01 a. m. Saturday unless a wage dispute was settled.

Representatives of 55,000 members of nine other unions have informed him, Moran said, that they would refuse to be drafted into long lines work if the strike was effective.

Efforts by the U. S. Conciliation service to settle the dispute have collapsed, Henry Mayer, union attorney said, but it was understood that Dr. John R. Steelman, conciliation service director, would confer with A. T. & T. and union officials today.

Moran said the tieup would affect the majority of radio programs of the three major networks, as well as the transmission of pictures and news by wire.

The nine unions which pledged support, he said, were in St. Louis, Chicago, Philadelphia, Indianapolis, Newark, Minneapolis, Richmond, Brooklyn and New York.

States which would not be affected by the planned strike are Washington, Oregon, New Hampshire, Vermont, Nevada, and Montana, where the union has no locals.

The long distance workers, whose membership is scattered throughout the 42 states and who have no competing union, handle not only the long distance telephone system criss-crossing those states but the important defense communications systems of the army, navy, Civil Aeronautics Authority, foreign and ship-to-shore phone services.

Included in the personnel are switchboard operators, commercial office employees, traffic, plant de-

Possible War With Japan Predicted

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 (AP)—Senator Murray (D-Mont.) said today "There is a definite possibility" that the United States may go to war with Japan, but his colleague, Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.), declared that "We now have a real chance to adjust our differences with the Japanese."

Murray, a member of the foreign relations committee, told reporters that forthcoming conversations between state department officials and Saburo Kurosu, Japan's special envoy appear pretty futile.

"We can not afford to agree to any far eastern settlement which would sanction the oppression of the Chinese," Murray declared. "Japan must get out of China if there is to be any agreement."

"I have little hope that anything will come of the Kurosu conversations, because the war party is in control in Japan and it is unlikely that it will back down now. There is a definite possibility of war in the Pacific."

Wheeler thought differently. "The people of Japan, like the people of the United States, do not want war in the Pacific," he said. "There is no reason why differences between the two countries can not be worked out in a peaceful way."

Wheeler said he had "known for some time that the Chinese and some of the British want us to send an expeditionary force to protect the Burma road." He expressed confidence, however, that "the President will take counsel on the matter with the army rather than our hot-headed Secretary of the Navy (Frank Knox). If he does, I am sure he will not send an

Churchill Critics Have Field Day In London

(By The Associated Press)
LONDON, Nov. 13 (AP)—A renewed demand that Britain form a second fighting front to aid Russia, with emphasis on the possibilities of Libya, was sounded in parliamentary debate today by Laborite Emanuel Shinwell, who has been among the critics mentioned as a possible recruit for the British cabinet.

"Why has the offensive in Libya been delayed?" Shinwell demanded. "It has been expected many months."

"It would in effect have created a second front. It would certainly have distracted the Nazis and created difficulties for them. Let the government answer that question."

"Next week or next month an offensive in Libya may not be as effective."

If the failure to move again into Libya was due to a lack of equipment, Shinwell added, then obviously it is idle to speak of invasion elsewhere.

The Shinwell criticism was the high spot of a wide-ranging debate in the house of commons on the house's reply to King George VI's message opening a new session of parliament yesterday.

Shinwell asked whether defense of Britain's oriental empire represented the government's idea of a second front and, if so, whether it bore Russian approval.

He asserted that Prime Minister Churchill made the parity claim for the RAF on Monday when he also declared that Britain would join the United States immediately in any war with Japan.

Socialist Dennis N. Pritt called for the removal from the government of elements "unswerving" to the British-Russian alliance.

Referring to a recent statement by Lord Croft, undersecretary of war, that the British should concentrate their energies on defense of the eastern empire, Shinwell added:

"For a representative of the war office this declaration was inexcusable. x x x This would be fatal to victory."

"While large forces were immobilized Hitler would be free to 'roll' the British empire and squeeze the last ounce of production out of the occupied territories."

Charging that Lord Moyne had "abused" government critics and referring to his parliamentary assertion that an invasion of western Europe would be "suicide," Shinwell declared:

"If this is the decision of the government, it is hardly consoling to Russia and most pernicious that Hitler should be equally informed."

Shinwell made it clear he was not accusing Prime Minister Churchill and several others in the government of "harboring subversive thoughts," but added "we are not so sure of all the others."

Daniel Baker Losingest Team With No Scores

BROWNWOOD, Nov. 13. (AP)—If Daniel Baker isn't the losingest football team in the nation—that is, among the colleges that at least try not to—it will do until the outlying precincts are heard from.

The Hill Billies haven't won a game since Nov. 4, 1939, and unless they turn the trick Saturday night the streak will rest at 21 until next season. Because this week's game with Southwestern university closes the 1941 schedule.

For a time the losing streak was looked upon with considerable humor. The proposal to play some sort of bowl game with another noted loser, the Arkansas A. and M. Bol Weevils, might have drawn a laugh.

But now there probably wouldn't be even a grin because the Bol Weevils lose for fun and Daniel Baker does its best not to. Moreover, one of the last games won by the Billies was over Arkansas A. and M.

Why, Daniel Baker hasn't been able even to score in nine games. In fact, they won what might be considered a moral victory last week while being defeated 60-0 by Texas Wesleyan. The Billies made, of all things, more first downs than Wesleyan—9 to 7. At least that showed they were developing an offense.

In the starting line-up Saturday night will be no less than eight freshmen. Some of them have shown promise of becoming fine players, so maybe the Billies can at least close out the season on a note of optimism.

Of the 20 games lost, three were in 1939, eleven last year and six this season. Daniel Baker scored 14 points and the opposition 529. And one more thing: the mascot of the team is a goat.

Fine mechanisms, such as watches, use whale oil for lubrication.

Choir Sings At Rotary Meeting

Pampa Rotarians observed American Education Week in their regular weekly program at noon Wednesday.

Members of the a cappella choir, directed by Miss Helen Martin, sang three songs, "Let My Song Tell Your Heart," "Beautiful Savior," with vocal refrain by Mickey Rafferty, and "Ride the Chariot," a negro spiritual.

Principal talk was by Dr. E. C. Ellis, psychologist, of Cleveland, Ohio, who is with the Hogg Foundation of the University of Texas. His subject was "The Pulse of a Nation."

The Rev. Edgar T. Henshaw, pastor of St. Matthew's Episcopal church, spoke on the unity and Americanism he found in eight years residence in the Territory of Hawaii, and Mrs. Henshaw sang a song which explained the meaning of the word aloha.

Introduced as the Junior Rotarian of the month was Mickey Rafferty.

Attendance at the luncheon was 46. Visiting Rotarians were Dr. R. P. Jarrett of West Texas State college, Canyon; C. H. Everett, Ardmore, Okla.; W. A. McIntosh, superintendent of schools, Borger. Other guests were Lawrence C. Noce, assistant county farm agent, and L. L. Sone, superintendent of schools, both of Pampa.

FDR Calls For Use Of All Resources

BOSTON, Nov. 13. (AP)—President Roosevelt called today for the use of all the nation's energies and resources to build our defenses against "those who would crush decency and humanity under the dictators' heel."

In a message to the 17th annual New England conference, sponsored by the New England Council and the governors of the six New England states, the president said:

"As a nation of free men we are engaged in a great effort to build our defenses against those who threaten our way of life; those who threaten our decency and humanity under the dictators' heel. The task before us is not easy. Success will come only through the use of all our energies and all of our resources. We must realize now that building for defense means more than peak production in a portion of our industries. It means spreading the work equitably, efficiently and quickly throughout our entire economic structure. It means the production in tens of thousands of factories of the 'bits and pieces' so vital to defense. It means certain hardships and sacrifices. We have borne them before in times of stress. We shall do so again. x x x"

Governor Cole R. Stevenson whether he might Alired would run for the senate. Stevenson said "I don't know who is going to run for justice of the peace at Slippery Rock," Stevenson replied. If Senator Jesse Martin of Fort Worth runs for attorney general, as it has been reported he may, three members of the Fort Worth delegation in the state house may seek Martin's senate place. The trio are Rep. Marvin Simpson, Obel L. McAllister and Lester C. Boone. Martin doesn't make a try for the attorney-generalship, the three probably will ask re-election. These statements were made by Simpson on a visit to Austin. McAllister is serving his second term in the house while Simpson and Boone are first-termers. The attorney general's contest will not shape very clearly in all probability until Mann has decided to yield the office or ask a third term. Martin was considered O'Daniel's spokesman in the senate district on governor's nominations, a position usually held by a close friend of the governor. Jesse James, new state treasurer, is a former colleague of Stevenson in the house of representatives. The other day Stevenson appointed James treasurer to succeed Charlie Lockhart, who resigned because of ill health. James had been chief clerk in the treasury department for several years. James was a member of the 43rd, 44th and 45th houses. Stevenson was speaker of the 43rd and 44th, and a member of the 45th. President Roosevelt has a handsome appointive plum to give someone in Texas, the federal district judge, vacated by the death of T. J. McMillan of San Antonio. Paying $10,000 a year for life and carrying much prestige among lawyers, judges and even laymen outside professional circles, the office is one of the prime appointments a President may make within a state. Although their mentioning probably means little at this time, a few names already have been suggested as good timber for appointment, and some, Washington reports, say, have been urged upon Senators Tom Connally and W. Lee O'Daniel for presentation to Mr. Roosevelt. Those mentioned include Robert Lee Bobbitt of San Antonio, member of the state highway commission, former attorney general, former speaker of the Texas house and former member of the San Antonio court of civil appeals; Rep. Paul Kliday of San Antonio, who defeated Maury Maverick for re-election to the national house; National Rep. Charles L. South of Coleman; Attorney General Gerald C. Mann; A. J. Wirtz of Seguin, former undersecretary of the interior and a former state senator; and Everett L. Looney of Austin, former assistant attorney general. The President usually follows the recommendations of a state's senators, with regard to such appointments, but not always. Mr. Roosevelt named Allred a judge when Senators Connally and Morris Sheppard could not agree on someone to recommend. It was recalled in Austin that Senator O'Daniel, when he was governor, appointed Mann chief justice of the state supreme court, which Mann refused to accept. Discussion has included the possibility that Allred might be assigned to McMillan's district, which extends roughly from Austin to the Rio Grande Valley, and that a new man might be appointed to the judgeship of South Texas (Houston). A close friend of Senator O'Daniel says that Allred has become an enthusiast over aerial travel and aviation generally. On one recent trip to Texas, the senator piloted the army plane bearing him and other Texas members of Congress for an hour and a half, the friend said. He never piloted a plane previously, but when offered the opportunity promptly tried his hand and was delighted, it was said.

phone and Telegraph company to discuss the union's demands for a 4 per cent wage boost and narrowing of geographic differentials in pay. There still appeared to be a chance the strike would be averted if the dispute was certified to the national defense mediation board. A one-day strike of AFL machinists at the $20,000,000 naval ordnance plant at Canton, Ohio, was terminated last night, but the terms of settlement were not disclosed. The dispute involved the company's alleged refusal to dismiss seven employees who, the AFL men said, were trying to sign up workers into a CIO union. A projected strike of more than 1,000 workers at the government's $57,000,000 Ravenna, Ohio, arsenal, originally set for next Wednesday, was postponed until next Wednesday as the war department gave assurance it would take up as rapidly as possible the ratification of a bargaining contract agreed upon by the affected unions and the Atlas Powder Co., operator of the plant. The unions were the Arsenal Workers of America (independent), the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and two AFL unions. Members of the United Aircraft Workers union (independent) called off a week-old strike at the Lockheed and Vega aircraft plants at Burbank, Calif., and at the Consolidated Aircraft plant at San Diego. The strike was called in an effort to gain a bargaining election, and a spokesman said it was called off in the interest of the defense program. The AFL machinists union has blanket contracts at the three plants. An conference was arranged today in an effort to settle a CIO strike at the Mack Manufacturing corporation, New Brunswick, N. J. The dispute involves bargaining rights and demands for increased pay. An independent union won a recent election supervised by the National Labor Relations board. The plant employs 2,000 persons and has a $10,000,000 order for army tank transmissions. A possible tie-up of truck transportation in 11 Midwestern states was foreshadowed by a wage dispute involving more than 250,000 truck drivers and 800 truck operators. Frank Brown, a Chicago official of the AFL Teamsters union, said the strike might begin Sunday unless an agreement was reached or mediation was begun. Several months ago the drivers demanded an increase to 5 cents from the present 3 cents a mile and a rise from 80 cents to $1 an hour additional pay for pickups and deliveries. The operators offered to continue the present mileage rate and to boost the hourly wage to 82 1/2 cents. NAZIS (Continued from Page 1) said today that German assault troops were storming the fortifications of Kerch, gateway to the Caucasus oil fields, and had already captured several coastal defense points south of the town. Reuters, the British news agency, quoted the Rome radio as announcing that German and Rumanian forces had captured the port, which lies on a narrow strait separating the Crimea from the Caucasus mainland. Dispatches to the Soviet newspaper Pravda, however, asserted that Red army troops had beaten off a German attempt to turn the Rus-slan lines in the Kerch area. "The German attacks were repulsed by the joint efforts of land troops, aircraft and naval forces," Pravda said. Russian front-line reports said the Germans were "equally unsuccessful" in fighting near Sevastopol, key Black Sea naval base at the southwest tip of the Crimea, and that repeated Nazi tank assaults "failed to break through our defenses." German bombers were pictured by the high command as blasting furiously at Soviet ships which might be used to evacuate Red army troops from the Peninsula. A Nazi communiqué reported that three cruisers, a destroyer and five large merchant ships were badly damaged in nearby waters. On the central front, Soviet dispatches declared that fierce battles were raging on both flanks of Moscow's 200-mile defense arc—at Kalinin, 95 miles northwest of the capital, and at Tula, 100 miles south. At Tula, where the Germans were reported driven back five miles yesterday, a Soviet correspondent gave this account of the battle: "Our artillery fire destroyed the enemy fortifications at the approaches to the city, retreating from the line, the enemy left hundreds of dead and wounded and anti-aircraft guns, tractors and automatic rifles. Fighting is now going on outside the city." The Moscow radio said Field Marshal Gen. Fedor von Bock, commanding the Nazi central front armies, had moved up a division of Hitler's elite guards in the Volokolamsk sector, 65 miles northwest of the capital, in preparation for a new assault there. London military quarters reported that the Nazis were apparently girding for a new offensive against Moscow at several points despite enormous losses already suffered in the 42-day-old drive on the Soviet capital. Authoritative London quarters said 16 German armored divisions and 70 infantry divisions—perhaps 1,200,000 troops—had suffered "appreciable casualties" and that in some instances, Nazi losses ran as high as 50 per cent. Eight Nazi armored divisions were withdrawn from the front early in September after two phases of "furious and exceptionally heavy fighting," these quarters said, and have only reappeared in action in the last few days. "Bitter fighting is continuing in conditions in which frost, snow and mud are additional causes for casualties," the source said. London military observers said Hitler's high command was still baffled in attempts to find a "soft spot" in Moscow's defense ring. "The Germans have hit the defenders at so many spots and found them capable of either warding off blows or taking punishment that they are wondering HEAD-COLDS COUGH—BRONCHITIS SIPTOL (Continued from Page 1) brings you instant relief from a stuffed-up head-cold and cough, throat irritation and hoarseness due to a cold. where to hit next," observers said. A bulletin from Hitler's field headquarters said German planes had "effectively" bombed Moscow and Leningrad again, and that heavy Nazi batteries shelled Leningrad and the harbor at Kronstadt, Soviet island naval base in the Gulf of Finland. The Moscow radio said fighting at Kalinin, northern anchor of the Moscow defenses, had been in progress four days and that the battle still raged. German bombers were said to be carrying out heavy bomb attacks on Novorossiisk and Anapa, both on the Caucasian shore of the Black Sea. Novorossiisk, with a large natural harbor, offers a possible refuge for Russian warships if they are forced from the naval base at Sevastopol.

POSSIBLE WAR (Continued from Page 1) expeditionary force." Senator Johnson (R-Calif.), ranking minority member of the foreign relations group, commented tersely that "there are some people in the government who would like to fight Japan whenever it is convenient—who would like to fight the whole world." Senator Nye (R-N. D.), like Johnson and Wheeler an opponent of administration foreign policy, shared Wheeler's view that chances were good for a settlement in the Pacific. Great Britain can't afford to let us go to war with Japan," Nye declared, "because she needs our engines for the production of lend-lease materials. War with Japan would require shifting to the Pacific many ships which Britain says she needs in the Atlantic." Kurusu, making a stopover at Honolulu on his flight to Washington, told reporters it was the common responsibility of the United States and Japan to maintain peace in the Pacific. Describing his mission as very important and very difficult, he said details must be withheld until his arrival in Washington. Told of Prime Minister Winston Churchill's statement that Great Britain would fight alongside the United States in a war with Japan, Kurusu laughed and said: "He might as well have said he would have breakfast in the morning."

Today's War Analysis

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The refusal of little Finland to heed America's warning that she stop fighting mighty Russia raises the issue of whether our efforts to aid the Allies shall be governed by our hearts or by our heads.

We have a similar problem, from the standpoint of hearts versus heads, in former President Hoover's renewed appeal that we feed Europe's starving children.

The fundamental question, of course, is what is the right and the wrong in these cases. What answer would each of us be willing to take before the throne of heaven as justification for our acts.

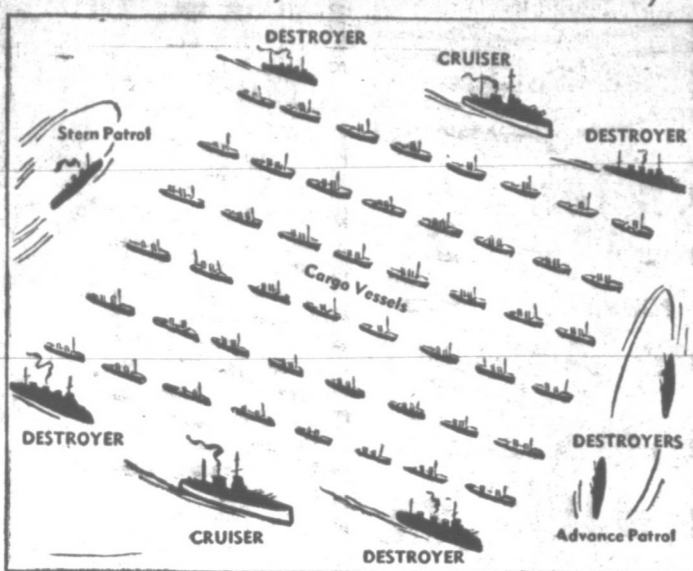

Unfortunately we can't base our decision solely on the individual cases. Each circumstance must be judged in its relation to the whole vast picture of this horrible war. We must consider what effect the individual tragedy will have on the outcome of a conflict which is moulding the future of humanity for a hundred and one years.

Argued from this basis, many individual tragedies must be endured in order that a broader justice, affecting all mankind, may be achieved.

Take the case of the Finns. Mr. Hoover also intervened on their behalf and in a protest against the attitude of the United States government he said:

"Only two years ago this peace-

Overseas Service Questionnaires To Armored Divisions

WITH ARMY IN THE FIELD Nov. 13 (AP)—The war department is asking members of the armored forces whether they would be willing to serve overseas, it was disclosed today.

Several enlisted men and officers in one of the armored divisions participating in the Carolina maneuvers said they had been queried. "Would you be willing to serve overseas with an armored division?" only a "yes" or "no" answer was desired.

Officers of the division, asking that they not be quoted by name, said, "the war department is carrying this thing out. We know nothing about it here."

Whether the questioning was a sampling or throughout the personnel could not be determined. However, the second armored division has been the most strenuously trained and is almost fully equipped. One other armored division, the first, has been on field maneuvers for three months. Two more are training in camps and others are soon to be formed.

The tanks of the first and second divisions, maneuvering for the first time in terrain suitable for mechanized forces, played spectacular roles in a 30-hour, virtually non-stop simulated attack ending yesterday. It literally "cut to pieces" two slower infantry divisions, reinforced by mechanized cavalry and one of the new anti-tank groups.

Two Schools To Present Program On Station KPND

A 15-minute radio program will be presented over Station KPND this afternoon at 5:15 o'clock by eight students from Sam Houston and Horace Mann schools.

Principal Kenneth Carman of Sam Houston school will introduce the speakers who will conduct a round-table discussion on "What Are the Elementary Schools Doing for National Defense?"

Horace Mann students taking part will be Bobby Jo Tucker, Jimmy Cline, Mary Frances Denman, and Joyce Kinard.

Representing Sam Houston school will be Gloria Kennedy, Johnny Hayes, Jerry Jester, and Junie Ann Fahle, who is chairman.

The program will conclude with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

the decision of the Allied high command, rather than that of our hearts, as to whether trying to feed children would by indirectness be giving aid to Hitler, thus prolonging the war and perhaps defeating the Allies. We mustn't forget that the longer the conflict continues, the more will be the slaughter on the battle-field, and the greater the loss of children's lives in bombings.

New York city has opened 15 tracks for bicyclists to keep them off the streets.

ful little nation was outrageously attacked by Communist Russia. Our whole country heralded Finland's resistance as the most heroic stand of democracy since Thermopylae, x x x Has America lost all sense of human and moral proportions?"

If Leningrad falls, the Reds will be cut off from the Baltic, and their navy will be rendered impotent. Moreover, Leningrad is the anchor of the right wing of the Russian battle-line, and its loss would mean a turning of the flank. Then, too, the Finnish action threatens to close the Arctic ports of Murmansk and Archangel, through which American and British aid for Russia is moving, thereby cutting the Reds off from the Atlantic altogether.

So the problem ceases to be one relating solely to Finland's welfare. The whole Allied cause is endangered—and what are you going to do about that?

The question of feeding hungry children is more difficult. Mr. Hoover recently stated that a survey of Belgium showed "the shortage of meats, fats and milk is crucifying the children," and the situation in Warsaw was so bad that "the municipal newspaper was appealing to the people not to throw corpses into the streets." And he declared:

"Hitler cannot be defeated with armies of starving children."

When you put it that way, it's pretty hard to deny him his viewpoint. However, there are two viewpoints about shipping food into Europe, and the British government has taken the stand that any supplies would in effect be aid to Hitler. It isn't a nice subject to debate, for everybody would feed the children if possible, but here again it is necessary to consider the case in its relation to the outcome of the war.

That seems like a mighty cold way to look at it. But war is a cold and bloody business, carried out by killing and imposing such hardships on peoples as to make them collapse. You can't humanize war.

Thus we would seem to arrive at the position where we must accept

House Will Pass Bill, Says Rayburn

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13 (AP)—Speaker Rayburn calmly predicted today that the administration's neutrality revision legislation would pass the house despite disaffection expressed by members critical of defense strikes.

Whether President Roosevelt will ask congress for legislation to curb them was said meanwhile at the White House to be a matter which would have to be held in abeyance pending the outcome of a conference tomorrow between the president, CIO leaders, and steel company officials on the captive mine situation.

"We have enough votes," Rayburn told newsmen, while declining to estimate specifically what he thought the margin would be. In response to questions, however, he asserted he had "no knowledge" of any commitment by President Roosevelt or of any other administration leader to the house group seeking stronger action by the president to curb defense strikes.

Although Rayburn talked with the president late yesterday after a group of southern Democrats bolted the administration's foreign policy because of the labor situation, Rayburn said it would not be correct to assume that he had complete information as to what the president might have decided to do in the situation.

Presidential Secretary William D. Hassett, asked about reports Mr. Roosevelt had promised congressional leaders that he would propose some measure to halt work stoppages in defense industries, told reporters:

"Nothing can be said about that in anticipation of the meeting tomorrow."

To a question whether this meant the meeting and possible strike-halting legislation were connected, Hassett replied:

"I would not say they were connected, but the meeting tomorrow is of such importance to us to be hoped that some constructive results will come out of it."

Should a coal strike develop, some officials and informed legislators indicated a belief some form of compulsory arbitration or a "cooling off" period before strikes could become effective would be recommended by the president.

Mr. Roosevelt told a recent press conference that he was studying the question of strike-curbing legislation.

The house appeared closely divided as it drove toward a vote on the senate-approved broad revision of the neutrality act.

"A photo finish," concluded Rep. McCormack (Mass.), the house majority leader, after an industrious week-long canvass of members.

Republican opponents, reinforced by disaffected Democrats, were openly optimistic. "We have this bill licked," they claimed.

Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.), who wore a worried look as administration votes swung over to the opposition yesterday, still insisted, however, that when the final roll call came, the house would approve the senate revision amendments allowing American merchantmen to go to belligerent ports and operate in combat zones.

Nevertheless, Rayburn disclosed that he intended to take the floor himself in behalf of the legislation—an extremely unusual thing

Dr. Ellis Speaks To 200 Parents Here

Education has a big spot in the building of a strong America, Dr. A. Caswell Ellis of Canyon told more than 200 parents last night in the Junior High school auditorium. He was introduced by Dean R. P. Jarrett of West Texas State college at Canyon.

Dr. Ellis is lecturer for the Hogg foundation of the University of Texas and West Texas State. He appeared here in the interest of National Education Week.

Dr. Ellis said that in these trying times we might forget the future and the building of a stronger America and that education of children was imperative.

Johnson Has Played 35 Minutes At Game

DALLAS, Nov. 13 (AP)—Preston (Presto) Johnson, the Southern Methodist fullback who has only four more games in his collegiate career, has played 952 minutes of football—an average of 35 a game—without ever having to have time called out for him or being withdrawn for physical disability.

Johnson is the top punter of the Southwest conference, the fourth leading ground gainer and second in conference scoring with 41 points. And he has accomplished this on a team that has won only three of six games.

for the speaker—and he was closeted with Mr. Roosevelt for an hour last night at the White House, reviewing the whole neutrality situation.

The speaker seemed to feel better after the conference. "Everything is fine," he assured newsmen. "I think we are in better shape tonight than we were this morning." But these remarks apparently did little to dispel the admitted uneasiness of administration supporters.

From what Rayburn said, the decision was to have the vote today at the conclusion of the remaining three hours of debate (between 3 and 4 p. m., E.S.T.) the speaker dismissed—"under present plans"—the idea of deferring the final roll call until absentee members could be rounded up—a possibility that was much mentioned at the end of yesterday's session.

Leaders in both camps conceded that last-minute developments might have a decisive influence on the vote, but as the house convened an hour early today everything pointed to a hairbreadth decision.

There was speculation current that some presidential move might be imminent to strengthen Mr. Roosevelt's hand on the neutrality issue, but nothing came from the White House to bear it out.

Fishing, Scenery Attractions At Highway Meeting

Pampans interested in good roads, and also in fishing and beautiful scenery, can combine all three by attending a meeting of Oklahoma Highway 51 association in Tahlequah, Okla., November 21. A caravan will leave from Okene, Okla., at 7 a. m. the morning of Nov. 21 and will arrive in Tahlequah that afternoon.

Comfortable cabins and fine hotel accommodations will be available at Tahlequah for those desiring to stay for a week-end of fishing in the Illinois river and nearby streams and lakes, according to word received here.

Highway 51 is of importance to Pampa. It starts at Seiling, Okla., on U. S. Highway 60 out of Pampa, and runs to Tulsa, shortcut of nearly 50 miles between Pampa and Tulsa. The association is trying to have the entire distance paved. Some sections of the highway are hard-surfaced.

A delegation of association members visited here last week and invited Pampans to attend the meeting. Anyone who can make the trip is asked to call the chamber of commerce office.

Grand Jury Indicts Watch Companies

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—The Hamilton Watch company, Elgin National Watch company, Waltham Watch company, 26 other corporations and 73 persons were indicted by a federal grand jury today on charges of violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

Three indictments were handed up to Federal Judge John W. Clancy. The first named the Hamilton company, of Lancaster, Pa., its officers and 23 distributors and their officers, located in principal cities including New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Kansas City, Omaha and Dallas.

The indictment contains one count alleging a combination and conspiracy to restrain interstate trade and commerce in the distribution and sale of Hamilton watches, in preventing certain described persons, partnerships and corporations from buying, selling, distributing or dealing in those watches.

The indictment also charged that such dealers were discriminated against, arbitrarily eliminated as dealers, restricted or prevented from obtaining Hamilton watches by blacklisting and boycotting on the part of the Hamilton Watch company and certain distributors.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Cornett, End, To Be Out For Rest Of This Season

The Harvesters rested yesterday afternoon. It was their first day off since the opening of the season and they relaxed and enjoyed themselves despite bruises and cuts received in the Plainview game Tuesday afternoon. Only dependent Harvester was John Cornett, end, who will have to watch the rest of the games from the sidelines. Cornett suffered a broken bone in his shoulder when he threw a jarring block into a Plainview blocking formation Tuesday. Only other Harvester on the "out" list is George Neef, sophomore half-back reserve, who has been on the sidelines for three weeks with a chipped bone on his knee. He is off crutches but will not be allowed to play again this season. Cornett will be missed by the Harvesters. He has proved himself to be aggressive and not afraid to run into a whole team if necessary. He was particularly strong on tearing through and getting the passer before he could get the ball away. With Cornett missing, the end combinations will be selected from Ott, Arnold, Cox, Shotwell and Lard. Ott, Arnold and Cox have been on the firing line all season now either Shotwell or Lard will move up to compete the foursome. This afternoon the Harvesters started preparing for the arrival of the Amarillo Sandies one week from today. All practices will be behind closed gates. There'll be no open scrimmage sessions before the big game. Coaches Buck Prejean and Mac Best have a big job ahead of them. They've got to get their ends clicking, especially on going downfield on punts and keeping end runs from getting around them. There has been a hint that a couple of half-backs may be substituted for the ends on punts. In Halter and Ed-

Battle At White Deer To Decide District Title

The White Deer Bucks, who have jumped from the cellar to contenders for the district championship, of District 2A, will meet their supreme test Friday afternoon in White Deer when they tackle the Phillips Blackhaws. Game time will be 2:30 o'clock, on Buck field. Coach Gene McCollum started the season with three boys back from last year's team, and a bunch of small, green boys. He has brought them along slowly and smoothly until they are now ready for the defending regional champions. The Bucks opened the season by losing to McLean and Shamrock by lopsided scores. Then the Bucks showed improvement in a scoreless tie with Tulane. After that they defeated Canyon and Perryton and last Friday they upset the Panhandle Panthers 26 to 0, a feat accomplished only once before by a White Deer team. Coach Chesty Walker of the Blackhaws will present a big team sprinkled with veterans from last year's team which went through the regular season and the regional playoff without a loss. They are undefeated so far this season. Two members of the White Deer team were slightly injured in the Panhandle game but they will be ready to go Friday afternoon.

Grange Picks Northwestern Over Irish

By RED GRANGE The Original Man-in-Motion CHICAGO, Nov. 13—Lynn Waldorf must mould a tighter pass defense than Northwestern has exhibited all season to beat Notre Dame in Evanston, Nov. 15. Unless Northwestern can stop the slingshot thrusts of Angelo Bertelli, Notre Dame's amazing sophomore passer the Wildcats are apt to suffer the same fate as Navy did in Baltimore. The game should be a dogfight all the way with one of football's elusive breaks determining the final outcome. I'm casting a faltering vote for the Purple. Notre Dame took a physical beating at the hands of the Middles. Northwestern had no easy time with the Purple. The Celts were primed for the extra point, Canadian, with a team not much bigger than the Blues, but more experienced, raced to two touchdowns and led at the half. The third quarter was all in favor of the Peepees, Lindsey breaking in the loose for 36 yards and a touchdown and Hopkins powering across from the three yard line. Hopkins added one point and missed the other, his first miss in 11 attempts this season. Pampa led 20 to 19 at the half. All starters from the Blue team and Wilson, Appleton and Elson will go up for trials with the Reapers. Coach Carter will have 12 boys back for next season. Coach Dick Livingston of the Whites will send 15 boys up to the Reapers. C. P. McWright, Reaper coach, plans to take all the boys up from the Peepees and Reapers eligible for next year and play a game with either Shamrock or Wheeler. Pampa starters were Binnion and Mayes, ends; Humphreys and Stewart, tackles; Billy Ball and Gilchrist, guards; Gray, center; Proper, quarter; Anderson and Lindsey, halves; Hopkins, full. Subs: Wilson, Appleton, Lawrence Bain, Elson and Forrester.

Peepees Hold Canadian Kittens To 32-20 Score

Peepee football came to a close yesterday when the Pampa Junior High Blues dropped a 32 to 20 game to the Canadian Kittens, who two weeks ago defeated the Pampa Whites 34 to 7 in Canadian. The same Whites defeated the Blues 13 to 7 to win the Peepee conference. Troy Hopkins, Pampa fullback, was the standout of the game, scoring two touchdowns and completing four out of five passes for good gains. The Pampa youngsters drew first blood when Hopkins broke off tackle, cut to the sidelines and roared 45 yards. He plowed for the extra point, Canadian, with a team not much bigger than the Blues, but more experienced, raced to two touchdowns and led at the half. The third quarter was all in favor of the Peepees, Lindsey breaking in the loose for 36 yards and a touchdown and Hopkins powering across from the three yard line. Hopkins added one point and missed the other, his first miss in 11 attempts this season. Pampa led 20 to 19 at the half. Ysleta Due To Win First Grid Title Friday Night

(By The Associated Press) Little Ysleta gets its chance Friday night to win an undepicted district championship—the first in history for the Indians and the first of the season in Texas Schoolboy football. Ysleta already is conceded the title because it has knocked over both Austin (El Paso) and El Paso High, the only teams retaining a chance of finishing in a tie with the Redskins for first place in district 4. It is believed the district committee would vote the pennant to Ysleta even should the Indians lose to Bowie of El Paso this week. Elsewhere in the state are few crucial games but there will be much leveling off for the big battles of next week and Thanksgiving when all 16 district champions must be determined. Here's a birdseye view of the situation: District 1—Amarillo the only undefeated team. No conference games scheduled. District 2—Wichita Falls, the lone undefeated team, plays once-beaten, once-tied Burk Burnett Friday. Wichita Falls has two more games and must lose them both to drop the district title and could tie for it by losing one and tying the other. District 3—Sweetwater and Odessa in a virtual tie for the lead with one defeat each. Odessa has played the most games. No conference tests scheduled this week-end. District 5—Paris, the only undefeated team, does not play a game this week. District 6—Highland Park, undefeated, plays once-beaten Greenville and Denton both retain mathematical chances of winning or tying for the title. District 7—Masonic Home, the lone undefeated team, meets four-times beaten Arlington Heights Friday. Poly and Amon Carter Riverdale retain mathematical chances at the championship should Masonic Home lose a game. District 8—Woodrow Wilson and Sunset, both undefeated, play Forest and Adamson on Friday and Saturday nights, respectively. District 9—Breckenridge and Mineral Wells undefeated do not have games this week. District 10—Unbeaten Temple and Waco meet Corsicana and Ennis respectively on Friday night. Corsicana is the lone team with an outside chance of finishing in a tie with Waco of Temple. The Tigers would have to beat Temple and Ennis trim Waco, then Waco and Temple play to a tie. District 11—Undeclared Tyler does not have a game. District 12—Livingston plays at Jacksonvile Friday but the game means nothing. Undeclared Nacogdoches and Henderson do not have games. District 13—Here is a real jumble, with Jeff Davis, Sam Houston and Lamar all tied for the lead. Sam Houston plays Austin Friday and Davis meets Sam Jacinto-Saturday but Lamar does not have a conference game. District 14—Conroe and Goose Creek, both unbeaten, play Fort Arthur Saturday. District 15—Austin is the only undefeated team. The Maroons do not have a conference game this week. District 16—in the north zone Robstown and Corpus Christi play next week for the championship. In the south zone, Harlingen, Edinburg and Brownsville are tied for the lead and McAllen can make it a four-way proposition by beating San Benito Friday. Six of the state's eight undefeated, untied teams have games this week-end with none appearing in great danger of being upset. The teams with perfect records are Amarillo, Sunset, Paris, Masonic Home, Temple, Waco, Conroe and Goose Creek. Corpus Christi is undefeated but has been tied.

LeFors To Play Wellington, Last Barrier To Grid Title

LeFors' undefeated and untied Pirates meet their last obstacle in a race for their first district championship Friday night when they go to Wellington to battle the Wellington Skyrocks. Game time has been set for 7:30 o'clock. Coaches Francis Smith and John Rankin have been working their Pirates at top speed this week, knowing that the Skyrocks will be out on the limb and pick coaches will throw the conference into a tie. Still in the running, all with one loss, are McLean and Shamrock, and those teams have yet to meet. The Pirate coaches are afraid of overconfidence among their mighty Pirates. Last Friday night Wellington pulled the prize upset of the season by battling the Shamrock Irish to a scoreless tie, with Shamrock winning on penetrations, 3 to 1. On Friday night the Pirates must win to clinch their first title since joining the district and they will be shooting the works. They'll have "Scat" Earhart and "Ox" Oldham cocked and primed for the offense, working behind a line that has been outstanding all season. In fact the line has done wonders with a team that's been leading the ring magazine. . . . Which inspired the suggestion that it is time for somebody to give Nat one.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (The Special News Service)—Looks as if the 1941 most valuable player awards will be much help in getting Joe DiMaggio and Dolph Camilli pay raises next season. DiMaggio is dragging down about as many chips now as the Yanks are willing to hand out and Brooklyn bosses aren't entirely sold on Camilli's hitting, especially when he goes into one of those slumps. DiMaggio told his San Francisco pals recently that he may ask $5,000 more because it costs a lot to bring up a child these days. . . . Moving the hockey Americans across the river will give Brooklyn a monopoly on the "Reds." A Brooklyn scribe says: "We'll have Red MacPhail, Red Dutton and in-the-red Topping." . . . The championship belt Nat Fleischer gave Gus Lesnevich the other day was the 10th in a row awarded by the ring magazine. . . . Which inspired the suggestion that it is time for somebody to give Nat one.

According to the latest report Jinx had survived both the shock and his own efforts to explain.

Notre Dame Favorite Over Northwestern

By EARL HILLIGAN EVANSTON, Ill., Nov. 13 (AP)—An 11-year gap in Notre Dame football fortunes challenges a little band of fighting Irish who'll charge into Northwestern's tough Wildcats at Doye stadium next Saturday. It's a far cry back to 1930, Knute Rockne and Notre Dame's last undefeated team, one which won 10 games and lost none. That team—and many before it—had reserve strength in every position, with Rockne using shock troops pulled from third, fourth, and fifth elevens. It's different with the 1941 Irish under Frank Leahy, who started practice with a comparatively slim half-hundred candidates. From that half-hundred Leahy culled some 20 players who've carried the load through seven games without defeat. And Notre Dame believes those players will be good enough to take the Northwestern hurdle before winding up with Southern California next week.

Given a dry field, Notre Dame will be slight favorites to take Saturday's battle, to be played before a sell-out crowd of 48,000 fans. The Irish are fast, and their supporters believe that Steve Juszk, a great running halfback is due to hit his peak. Owen Evans always is a threat. And then there is sophomore Angelo Bertelli.

Louis To Be Earning $21 A Month Soon

By JUDSON BAILEY NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis has been paid princely sums for fighting, but his wage scale is skidding to the vanishing point. Within a few weeks he will be inducted into the army to fight, if necessary, for $21 a month and now he has agreed to fight for the navy for nothing.

A 15-round title bout between the champion and Buddy Baer, the Californian he beat in six rounds last spring, was announced last night for Jan. 9 in Madison Square Garden. The profits will go to the New York auxiliary of the Navy Relief society and Louis will receive nothing more than his expenses for staking his heavyweight crown, the most valuable bauble in sports.

Rear Admiral Adolphus Andrews, commander of the third naval district and commander of the North Atlantic Naval Coastal frontier, announced the match, which was arranged for him by Promoter Mike Jacobs. As for the fact that Louis will be donating his services, the financial arrangements for the champion's 20th defense of his title were not disclosed.

But Alvin Hoffman, Baer's manager, said in Sacramento, Calif., that Buddy would receive the customary challenger's percentage after taxes and a 10 per cent cut for the navy had been taken off the top. Telephone Turns In Fire Alarm ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 13 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. William Miller were away when their home caught fire, but the telephone turned in the alarm. Switchboard Operator Alma Patrick saw the light flash on her board. She heard a crackling noise over the wire and called the fire department.

Firemen saved the home. Flames had burned the wall behind the telephone and the instrument had fallen to the floor, knocking the receiver from the hook. respectively. No other team has a chance at the title. District 15—Austin is the only undefeated team. The Maroons do not have a conference game this week. District 16—in the north zone Robstown and Corpus Christi play next week for the championship. In the south zone, Harlingen, Edinburg and Brownsville are tied for the lead and McAllen can make it a four-way proposition by beating San Benito Friday. Attack On "Sixth Column" Recommended To Texas Club Women

DALLAS, Nov. 13 (AP)—An attack on the "sixth column of apathy" was recommended to Texas club women by Mrs. John L. Whitehurst of Baltimore, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, in a speech today.

"This sixth column includes those who aid Nazi propaganda by listening to its softening-up phrases and then asking, 'Why prepare?'"

"When will we awaken to the fact that in order to sell democracy we must praise it, not denounce it? We must fight for it—yes, die for it—if necessary."

Mrs. Whitehurst also branded as belonging to this "sixth column" the "luxury-loving who are unwilling to exert themselves to defend the very democracy which made possible their luxurious tastes and habits."

Talks were made on the woman's role in national defense by E. S. Germany of Dallas, Miss Ada Miller of the Dallas Red Cross, Mrs. Callie Hill Stephenson, army hostess at Camp Bowie and Mrs. Volney W. Taylor of Brownsville, vice-chairman of civilian defense for Texas.

Annual Fathers' Night Observed By Baker P-TA

With Principal J. A. Meek in charge, the annual Fathers' Night meeting of B. M. Baker school Parent-Teacher association was held in the school auditorium.

Miss Evelyn Thoma led the group in singing "America" and "The Eyes of Texas." Junior patrol members, who were wearing their new uniforms, assisted in leading the group in the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Miss Thoma accompanied by Carl Adams played two violin selections, "Cadez" (Albeniz) and "Polish Dance" (Saverio). Mr. Soper played "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" and "Nocturne Op. 9" (Chopin).

Mrs. Lester Benge announced that the federated clubs are stressing nutrition during the month of November.

Superintendent L. L. Sone and Ernest Cabe, director of instruction, discussed the various phases of their positions.

Mr. Cabe said that through his office, as an assistant to Mr. Sone, such problems as purchase of library books, health and classroom equipment and materials, periodical checks-ups on school work and means of improving it, adjustment of grade work on the 12-year system, and professional library materials for teachers, are handled.

Supt. Sone pointed out that his job is to discuss the school policies with the school board, to survey the community, its resources, its income, number of children to be educated, equipment for each classroom, and materials for teachers to make the work improve as best it can. He discussed budget making, selection of teachers, curriculum making, buildings and equipment for children, and the morale of the school as the most important phases of his work.

Principal Meek introduced each teacher by the extra duty he or she did for the school.

Miss Minnie Allen won the room contest.

GLORIFYING YOURSELF

Tired of fancy reducing exercises, or lickered by the thought of them, so that you mean to do some but don't?

Then here's a consoler. You can get results with very simple routines, and they needn't be too dull either.

Of course it is fun to do them the fashionable way, in a good salon. The outstanding houses are offering new courses at the moment, and it does mean something to work with a stimulating instructor, amid all the comforts and diversions you find in such a setting.

But suppose you need to take off a few pounds—say a few pounds off hips—by yourself, at home. It can be almost as easy as rolling off a log.

YOU DON'T EVEN NEED THE ROPE Attach a rope to a low hook or the back of a good solid chair, letting the rope ends hang about 18 inches from the floor. Then lie flat on your back with your head toward the chair, and grasp the rope with both hands, lifting head and neck off the floor. At the same time raise both feet, keeping ankles together, so all your weight is on the hips.

Now roll to the right, then back, and to the left. Roll back and forth 10 times the first day. Every day roll a few times more, till you get up to 50 good rolls.

You can even roll, with good effect on your hips, without the rope. Just cross your arms on your chest, raise head and feet, and roll over 10 times the first day. Every day roll a few times more, till you get up to 50 good rolls.

In three months your hips certainly should be slimmer.

POLISHING TIP Never put furniture polish or wax on a dirty surface. Always clean thoroughly first. Apply polish sparingly and rub down with a clean, soft, dry cloth until you have a bright hard polish. Four or five really good polishings is all that should be necessary during the year.

Mrs. Todd Reviews Book For Study Group Of Sam Houston P-TA

Mrs. James Todd, Pampa librarian, reviewed "There's One In Every Family," by Frances Elsenberg, at a meeting of Sam Houston Parent-Teacher association's study group Wednesday morning at the school.

"What the world needs most is a good hearty laugh and you find that in this book," she stated. "It is not a literary book, but a talk-provoking book. It was written by a public school teacher and is the story of Joey Marsden, a problem child, who is shy, stubborn, easily embarrassed, and self-conscious."

Mrs. Todd told of the characteristics of other members of the Marsden family and gave a number of episodes from the books which showed the problems arising in Joey's behavior and how his mother, who is shy, stubborn, easily embarrassed, and self-conscious.

Twenty members were present at the meeting.

Art Of Meal Planning Outlined By Nutrition Campaign Committee

Planning appetizing meals is an art, the publicity committee, Mmes. J. B. Massa, Robert Sanford, W. J. Foster, and S. C. Evans, working in connection with the nutrition campaign being conducted by local women's clubs, has announced.

"A person who can plan meals which appeal to the eye as well as the palate is as much of an artist as one who paints beautiful pictures," they pointed out.

"The artist who works with food must consider contrast in color, form, texture, flavor, balance, variety, temperature and arrangement of the foods to be served."

Color: No matter how well prepared or deliciously flavored a meal may be, if colorless foods or foods which clash in color are used, the meal lacks interest and appeal. Picture the following party. Which would you prefer?

White fish, mashed potatoes, boiled onions and cabbage slaw or white fish, golden brown french fried potatoes, green beans and ripe red tomatoes.

Foods which clash in color should be avoided in the same meal. Some of these are tomatoes, beets, carrots and grape jelly. Used separately, such colorful foods give life to otherwise uninteresting meals.

Form: Food in its natural state has much variety in shape as well as color. Think of carrots, beans, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes, tomatoes, the squash family including small yellow crookneck, round scalloped patty or foardhook varieties, beets, peaches, pears, grapes and many others.

Although contrasting shapes in foods are limitless, many meals become monotonous because either the natural form of the food is lost in preparation or else foods of the same shape are used together. For example, in a meal of sausage, mashed potatoes, stewed squash and spinach the method of preparation destroys the natural shape, while a meal of salmon croquettes, new potatoes, beef and english peas lacks contrast in shape.

Texture: In planning meals, contrast in texture of foods is important. With soft foods serve something crisp and "chewy." With dry foods serve something moist.

Flavor: Too often foods in a meal all taste alike. This may be due to lack of variety in the use of seasoning or lack of contrast in serving mild and strong flavored foods.

In a meal, a variety in seasoning and in the use of different kinds of good quality and by learning the art of cooking with herbs and spices. For contrast in mild and strong flavored foods, serve bland foods with highly seasoned foods and tart foods with sweet foods.

Balance: By using the Texas Food standard and meal patterns daily, nutritional balance may be maintained. Balance is also necessary for arranging food attractively for serving.

Variety: It is easy to get in a rut in menu planning and serve the same foods prepared the same way day after day or week after week. The modern homemaker gains variety by surprising the family with new and unexpected dishes. Never serve the same food twice in the same meal. For example, tomato soup and tomato salad.

Avoid preparing foods in the same way such as creamed chicken and creamed cauliflower.

Serve only one jam, jelly,

Larry MacPhail Has $250,000 For Ace Players

NEW YORK, Nov. 13 (AP)—If a bankroll of approximately $250,000 and some excellent training material hold any charms for rival club owners, President Larry MacPhail of the Brooklyn Dodgers has no intention of standing pat with the club that won this year's National League flag.

In the first place, he admitted today, the Dodgers badly need a good left-handed pitcher and another outfielder who bats righthanded.

And in the second place, he said with a twinkle, both the Dodgers and the Cincinnati Reds had better get busy and do something if they expect to live in the same league with the St. Louis Cardinals next year.

"I just got through telling Warren Giles that in this letter," he said, waving a copy of his epistle to the general manager of the Reds. "Warren would like to do some trading, and I've told him I hope we can get together on our mutual benefit, because St. Louis is going to be tough.

"Guy would like to have Babe Phelps. He needs a catcher, and it's no secret that we're going to trade Phelps to somebody. But I know on what he's willing to give up to get Phelps.

"Sure, we would like to have Johnny Vander Meer. He's the left-hander we need. And so would Giles like to have our Pete Reiser. But I doubt he would give up Vandy, and I know we're not trading Reiser—though one of by rules is that no player is indispensable. Maybe we'll get together on something."

About "Time"

In olden days, time was given out to those who had no time-measuring devices by the ringing of bells, and our word clock comes from "cloche," meaning bell.

The anthracite coal mine at Summit Hill, Pa., has been burning since 1860.

Lubbock Writer Can't See Pampa Upsetting Sandies

By COLLIER PARRIS Sports Editor, Lubbock Avalanche-LUBBOCK—That was a right interesting game the Pampas and the Plainviews put on up at Plainview yesterday afternoon. A game between two well-matched teams. The victory might very easily have gone to the Plainview Bulldogs, who certainly have the better backfield performance of the two teams. Pampa's heavy line made a mediocre backfield look pretty good. Plainview's tackling was not the best we have seen, and the team seemed a little slow. Both teams showed better offensive than defensive strength.

Either Plainview or Pampa is capable of scoring against Amarillo's Sandies. It is not hard to suppose that Plainview and Pampa have better backfields and more offensive punch than Amarillo. We have not seen Amarillo perform, but, sad to relate, we can not see either Plainview or Pampa upsetting the Sandies. We had hoped for such an upset, in either or both cases, in order that the Westerners might get back in the district race where they rightfully belong, because the Westerners can play rings around either Pampa or Plainview, and have demonstrated that in one instance. Conditions being different from those of October 25, the Westerners could play at least one ring around the Sandies.

The Mason boys, Mick, Wick and little Johnny, along with Dawson Malone, give Plainview one of the better backfields of the state right now, and if they had an adequate line in front of them, they would be tough competition for anybody. They may surprise somebody yet, including Lubbock. Put Plainview's backfield behind Pampa's line, and inject a little "oomph" and get-up into the latter, and you'd have quite a football team.

Fireworks Will Feature Game At Wellington

WELLINGTON, Nov. 13—The largest fireworks display ever exploded in Wellington will pay tribute Friday night to all the men who have ever worn the red and white of the Skyrocket football team. This brilliant exhibition will come between the halves of the Skyrocket-LeFors Pirates game, which closes the season for the Wellington boys.

Appearing for the first time will be the newly-suited Skyrocket band, the twirling corps, and the drum corps—altogether 80 boys and girls wearing the red and white of the school. More than 500 pounds of skyrockets will be exploded during the fireworks display. Added to this will be a 200-foot, 300,000 candlepower Niagara Falls display, and one of the flag of the United States, exploded high in the air. Multiple break shells will shower red, white, and blue stars.

The LeFors Pirates stand at the top of District 3-A, having won every game they have played this year. The Rockets have lost one game and tied one.

Three Texas College Teams Still Undefeated

Records of undefeated Texas college teams:

Texas A. & M. 7 0 0 234 17

Texas 6 0 1 237 34

Howard Payne 6 0 1 144 20

(By The Associated Press) Only three Texas college football teams remain in the ranks of the unbeaten and two of these have been tied.

Last week there were five but St. Mary's and East Texas State tumbled and this week there is an excellent chance of a clean sweep.

The Texas Aggies, only undefeated outfit in the Southwest, face the vengeful Rice Owls at Houston.

Texas, tied 7-7 by Baylor last week, tackles upsurging Texas Christian.

Howard Payne, which has one tie, to mar an otherwise perfect record, meets Abilene Christian college in a battle deciding the Texas conference championship.

There are 14 games on the Texas college schedule for the week and this time all are scheduled Saturday.

The Aggies, rolling along at the top of the Southwest conference with a half-game margin over Texas, looks for trouble aplenty from Rice, which has pulled itself together since the Texas debacle.

Two other games also are scheduled in the Southwest conference. Texas-T.C.U. tilt and a battle for the cellar between Southern Methodist and Arkansas at Fayetteville.

Baptists Exhorted To Support Colleges

ABILENE, Nov. 13 (AP)—An Oklahoma Baptist educator today told the Baptist general convention of Texas that "protestant Christianity is engaged in a life or death struggle in the field of higher education."

He was Dr. J. W. Raley, president of Oklahoma Baptist university of Shawnee. Half of the Christian institutions of higher learning have been closed since the beginning of the century, said Dr. Raley. Total college enrollments have increased 322 per cent, but the Protestant college enrollments have only increased 82 per cent.

He said the demand is for schools that radiate a positive Christianity, and which are provided with sufficient financial aid and which meet the highest academic and cultural standards.

"We are not surrendering our traditional policy of training Christian leadership for the nation," he said. "Of the task ahead, our colleges and universities are saying in the words of Churchill to America: 'Give us the tools and we will do the job.'"

Army Turns Down Argentina Beef

SEATTLE, Nov. 13 (AP)—An entire shipment of a half million pounds of canned beef from Argentina was turned over to the agriculture department today for disposition after army inspection disclosed much of the meat was deteriorated.

Col. Charles O. Thrasher, quartermaster at the army's general depot here, said many cans were swollen and others broken. He described the meat as unfit for human consumption.

A similar shipment was refused by army authorities at San Francisco recently.

Price Control Means Wage Control

The argument, made in some political circles, that prices for commodities and services should be arbitrarily fixed but that wages of labor should not be subjected to control, is a magnificent example of muddled thinking.

The price trend now is to a very large extent the result of the successful demands for ever-higher wages made by large groups of labor in all fields. We are beginning to witness the consequences in our daily living. For example, the retail stores of this country, led by the chains and the organized independent groups, have conducted an aggressive campaign against price inflation. They have cut overhead costs whenever possible and passed the savings on to the consumer. They have in many cases voluntarily accepted smaller unit profits. Even so, retail prices are rising steadily. The stores of America have reached the point where no major additional economies are possible, and where they can no longer keep in business without increasing the price charged the consumer.

In most industrial and agricultural fields, the cost of labor is a very large part of the total cost of production. It is reflected in the cost of all commodities, all materials, all supplies. How can there be cost stability under these circumstances without wage stability?

The plain truth is that all talk of workable price ceilings is idle unless wage ceilings are considered as well. The sooner labor understands that, the better for all. If it becomes necessary to adopt strict price control, the freedom of action of all industry and all groups will be severely limited. Price control is price dictatorship. And labor must expect wage dictatorship by government, if government is forced to establish price dictatorship.

Priorities And Your Store

There can be no question of the need of strict material priorities at a time when defense demands are straining our resources. But, unless these priorities are carefully and wisely applied, there is a danger that the normal life of the people will be unnecessarily disrupted.

An example is found in the present-day need of retailing for materials and supplies which are absolutely necessary to its efficient operation. A modern store, for instance, must have adequate refrigeration, cutting machines, scales, paper and bags and a host of other articles. It must have repair materials. In many cases, priority ratings are making it extremely difficult for stores to obtain them. That is creating an extremely serious problem for all kinds of stores, chain and independent alike, and it is a problem which is of direct concern to the consumer.

All Americans look to retailing for efficient service. They take it for granted that sanitary standards will be of the best. They take it for granted that they will be given honest weight, and will receive precisely what is ordered. If stores are not permitted to obtain supplies which are vital to their operation, it is clear that standards of service will suffer tremendously.

Here is a matter which affects 130,000,000 people. It is understandable that there should be confusion in the priority system at the beginning. But this confusion must be swiftly eliminated, and a scientific workable rating basis must be established, if the American people are not to suffer needless harm.

The Nation's Press

THE BRITISH ENIGMA (Chicago Tribune)

London reports that peace feelers from Turkey in behalf of stricken Europe were received with chill politeness. The small British peace party is in great disrepute. Mr. Churchill's government with the support of parliament adheres to the war aims which require the destruction of Hitler and his Nazis as the first condition of peace negotiations.

The entire Nazi combination in Europe and Asia would fall apart with the defeat of Germany. Italy would be helpless. Finland, Rumania, and Hungary would be pleading for the best terms they could get, and Japan would be in a precarious position. Our government indorses Mr. Churchill and Mr. Roosevelt out-talks him.

A war plan which requires the destruction of Europe's most powerful army and yet presents no sort of approach to its problem is an enigma. The blockade has been in operation more than two years. Possibly all its effects are not revealed, but Hitler's forces betray no lack of essential supplies. The conquered people of Europe are in distress and may be going into a winter of famine because of the blockade, but Hitler's armies go rolling along with everything they need and every month that Hitler can be defeated only by armies which meet his armies in Germany and there win the field.

On June 22 Mr. Churchill was presented with an astonishing and undreamed of military gift. The greatest army in the world, the German army, was attacked by Hitler and an eastern front was opened. Since that day in June the Russians, who had been fighting with a tenacity unencountered by the Germans in any other field, they are still pouring their

Common Ground

By R. C. HOILES "I speak the pass-word universal, I give the sign of democracy, by God! I will accept nothing which cannot have their counterpart on the same terms."—WALT WHITMAN.

WHO ARE EMPLOYERS?

A socialist and communist attempts to prove that if the government owned all equipment, the workers would be working for themselves. He quotes a statement made by the Editor of Common Ground and puts in parentheses "themselves" for "the government". He attempts, therefore to show that government ownership would make no difference to the workers. I quote his sophistry: "To show how ridiculous such a discrimination becomes in the mind of the studious I quote and interpolate the other name for the same thing. There would be no other employers than (themselves) the government. The workers would have to work for (themselves) the government at the wages (they) the government established or starve, or steal (from themselves) or be a subject of charity."

What this communist fails to understand is that the employer of labor is another producer and not a straw man, called an employer. When private individuals as agents for other workers employ labor they refuse to employ the laborer who will not benefit those they represent by giving an amount equivalent to what the other worker gives through his employing agent. But when things are done collectively, as they are done when the government employs all labor, the big producer must exchange his production for whatever the government will give him, no matter how much more he is giving than he receives. He is refused the right to exchange freely with those who will give him an equal exchange. He cannot work for himself under socialism. He must work for the State. Thus, he has less choice. He realizes the injustice he is subjected to and so he produces less. Thus, all the workers suffer.

Under private enterprise each man freely exchanges with any one of the millions of other workers—not with a single representative of the workers. It is nonsense to claim that a limited market for a worker's services, as in the case when the government is the only employer, will give a worker a larger reward than an unlimited market, as in the case to the degree we have free enterprise or the capitalistic system.

THE GODLESS SOCIALISTS

A socialist correspondent takes exception to my statement that socialists are godless, or men without principle. He attempts to prove his contention by citing Acts 4:32—"But they had all things common." This is not evidence that socialists are in harmony with God's laws. The people referred to in this verse were voluntarily pooling their resources. They were not compelling those who did not believe it wise to have things in common to do so, as the socialists would do by the force of the State.

No man that believes in a just God or in free enterprise or the capitalistic system, would think of trying to prevent anyone from sharing with others, if it made him happier than consuming the wealth he created himself.

Socialists and their apostles, on the other hand, do not seem to be able to understand the difference between coerced and voluntary sharing. The socialists and communists are godless because they recognize no immutable, impersonal rule. They make their own rules. They will not admit that all people shall have equal incomes or equal abilities to earn a living, nor will they admit that the only way of ascertaining what each man should receive is to permit everyone an equal right to pursue happiness, by producing anything he believes is costing too much. They want to be the final judge of what each man should do and have. This is contrary to natural laws.

It is for this reason that all socialists and communists are godless. They love themselves more than they love principles. They make right and wrong. They will not follow mathematics, order, natural law, principles, formulas. God follows all of these.

man power and their dwindling material into the combat. They have been worsted but not demoralized. Mr. Churchill adopted them as his allies. Mr. Roosevelt did the same thing. But Mr. Churchill has not taken advantage of the opportunity. He is permitting Hitler to defeat Stalin without firing a British gun. For what does Mr. Churchill wait if it be the British theory of this war that it can be won only by an advance on Berlin? Is it for the as yet nonexistent American army, the material for which is flowing into Britain to be there unused? Where does the prime minister expect the new battlefield to be found? With what forces does he expect to land on it and how does he expect to win?

The enigma of Britain war policy happens to concern the American people profoundly because Mr. Roosevelt is Mr. Churchill's other voice. Churchill is running the American government to a much greater extent than he is running the government of the British dominions. He is doing nothing to win the war as he says it must be won. The golden opportunity to win it so, if it can be won, is slipping away. Britain in its island fortress may be unconquerable, but that is a condition of stalemate and not of victory. Is it Mr. Churchill's idea that when millions of Russians have been sacrificed in vain, millions of Americans can be sacrificed to win a peace which he can dictate? The British prime minister may have something up his sleeve. He certainly has shown nothing in the open except a determination to bring America into the war which he allows Russia to fight unaided.

HYSTERIA AS HISTORY

(St. Louis, Post-Dispatch) At once one of the worst and one of the most unnecessary aspects of a war psychology is that it is prone to turn everything to its use, even the persuasion of truth. Woodrow Wilson struggled in vain against this sort of thing. And now we are confronted by it again. To be specific: The professors—albeit not the best of them—are beginning to write and prove that Germany has been an aggressor throughout the ages, that German philosophy from Martin Luther to Hitler has been Fascist, etc., etc. The next step is to forbid the teaching of one of the greatest languages of the western world. And after that we begin to eat liberty cabbage. If Fascism started with Luther and the secularization of the state in the 16th century, then so did most of the other political ideas of current coin. We do not have to tar the past to hate the present. Those who go on a diet of that kind of "hate" are always the losers. It is hard then to get rid of hysteria, hard to get the mind's wheels back on the track of history. Nobody knows better than Hitler how valuable this abuse of history can be.

AFTER THE BIG WRESTLING MATCH

Around Hollywood

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 13.—Nelson Eddy was having a tough day at the factory. Girl trouble. Except when he'd lock himself in his dressing room, beautiful cuties kept chasing him, hurling themselves into his arms, and sitting on his lap. Besides being beautiful, they were personable. Not a vacuum-brained doll in the lot. And to make it worse, none of 'em had on very many clothes. They were wearing comprised the most elaborate and glamorous set of costumes never shown on the film mills since "Ziegfeld Girl."

Poor, distraught Mr. Eddy had only himself to blame, because nobody had forced him to become a singing actor. He could have been a newspaper reporter or a grocery store proprietor, and then he wouldn't have had to go into an endless succession of clinches with lovely girls.

As the head man in Metro's filming of "I Married An Angel," Eddy's job is to act like a rich playboy, sing songs, and marry Jeanette MacDonald. But before he gets around to Miss MacDonald, he maintains a wider circle of feminine acquaintances. When Eddy tosses a party in Budapest, his lady friends flock in from all over pre-war Europe.

The gals include Inez Cooper, luscious young opera student turned actress; Janice Carter, who was one of the original angels in the stage musical; Mona Lisa, Argentine charmer and star of dozens of Spanish-verse films; Jacqueline Dayla (pronounced "dahlla"), a languorous Cleopatra in 16 pounds of gold fringe; Lillian Eggers, a model and outstanding figure in the sweater set; Buriel Burr, another model who is a mermaid in a blue and white, technically-placed shells and pearls; Eileen Haley, one of the 12 "Louisiana Purchase" lassies; Veda Ann Borg, Binnie Barnes, and Vivien Du Bois, a local girl who went east and was chosen by Earl Carroll as a "typical New York beauty."

Some Pickings

At Eddy's fabulously elaborate costume party, it is the aim of each of these and numerous other choice dishes to persuade the playboy to marry her. In real life, most of them would have brought along their attorneys, by a screen means. They resort merely to the call of their wiles. They sing to him, dance for him, propose to him and pose for him. As soon as there's a rest period between scenes or rehearsals, the indefatigable still photographer grabs Mr. Eddy and a few cuties and herds them into a corner for publicity pictures. I don't know what happens to these shots, but at this writing nobody has seen any. There may be a stack of them at the Hays Office awaiting the action of a special committee. The costume designers for this "Angel" picture have done an artful job of avoiding the usual details of "objectionable" exposure. Except for the necklines, they have gone in for suggestion of the old peacock variety, plus tight, flesh-colored fabric to fill in some of the gaps. The aforementioned Miss Cooper for instance, is as properly covered as a gal in a ski suit; but in her large-mesh lace gown she looks like a nude in a fish net.

By Archer Fullingim Jimmy Dodge has resigned as manager of the bus terminal to go into the insurance business. He didn't like the hours he had to keep at the bus station and he had been considering the insurance company's proposition for a year or more. He had been arriving at the station at 5:30 o'clock in the a. m., and leaving at midnight, and that's a lot of hours on one job. Jimmie is the immediate past president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and is the chairman of the Jaycee Santa Day parade committee. The Dodges' son, David, is now six months old and has legs like a wrestler and a grip like a weight lifter. He is now getting big enough to wear some swanky garments sent him by Mr. and Mrs. Don Wilson who attended the 1941 Folk Fiesta. The gift clothes were sent after the Wilsons went back to Hollywood. Speaking of the Wilsons, the Jack Benny program has become far more interesting because of having seen Wilson and of having heard him talk. He's getting bigger roles in the program, too. And Dennis Day became my favorite singer last Sunday—I even prefer him to Bing Crosby—when he sang Carry Me Back to the Lone Prairie. . . . But speaking of selling insurance, John Ketterling is another who quit a good job to sell insurance. It some times looks to me as if there were so many in town that they ought to wear badges to keep from selling to each other, but according to them, statistics show that there aren't enough in Pampa yet!

Clarence Simmons, one of the ticket-takers at the LaNora, says he wants to be a doctor, but he spends his spare time drawing good pictures of marvelous airplanes. He can draw from memory a pen and ink sketch of almost any plane you can name, and as he sketches them rapidly he will name each part of the plane. That boy really can draw pictures of planes who writes a hand that is sinister in its medieval writings, but which has a haunting charm—I am writing about his long-hand, his script, in case you never heard handwriting talked about like that. Will you ask Clarence for a sample of his script and you will see what I mean. . . . He's an ambitious lad and he learned the value of a smile quickly in life.

Highlights From Latest Books

"Opinions of Oliver Allston," by Van Wyck Brooks (Dutton; $3). "Opinions of Oliver Allston," Van Wyck Brooks calls his new book, and since Oliver Allston is Van Wyck Brooks, the use of this quite transparent device seems gently foolish. It only necessitates a good deal of circumlocution, and since most of the book consists of Mr. Brooks' opinions of certain other critics' opinions of certain writers, there are even times when the Allston fiction is annoying. Yet Mr. Brooks does not take the new book too seriously. It is not in the class, nor even remotely near the class, of "The Flowering of New England." It is a curiously assembled group of bits from the Brooks notebook—curiously, because although the book has striking chapter headings, most of the chapters are about the same thing. This is Mr. Brooks' justification of his own critical attitude. Perhaps it is even more fundamental than that. Perhaps it is his justification for having become a critic.

He never doubted that he would be a critic, he says. He only wishes he had read some of the men he criticized, early in his career, a little more carefully. He is, therefore, the wholly literary man who (as he indicates in some of the scraps afore-mentioned) has deliberately confined himself to passing judgment on life by passing judgment on the interpreters of life. This probably gives his new book the most of its color, for a man interpreting life, as Mr. Brooks indicates in his text, is colored by life, whereas one writing about the subject of life once removed, as it were, can more consistently apply the color of his own personality.

Mr. Brooks is an exceedingly wise man. His pictures on T. S. Eliot should be framed and hung on the walls of every public library in the land. He is most impressed by such cases of arrested juvenility as Gertrude Stein. He takes neat digs at Hemingway and his coterie, but reserves most of his frowns for the pseudo-aesthetes. He has the great gift of perfect precision; you may disagree violently with his judgment, but you will not misunderstand it. You will smile as you read, too, which is helpful in a book of this sort.

Behind The News In Washington

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—There was hardly a day during the senate debate on repealing the neutrality act when you couldn't get a discussion in the press galleries or the cloakrooms of the surprising apathy both on the part of public and participants, that attended the debate. Opponents of neutrality revision had warned that there was the last barrier to a shooting war and girded themselves for a fight which promised to match in intensity that of 24 years ago when a handful of senators talked to death President Wilson's armed neutrality bill. The stage was set; the cast in top form. Leading the fight for repeal was Senator Tom Connally, who rushes into forensic battle like a Texas longhorn heading for a China shop. Backing him up were the administration's twin fire-eaters from the South, Senators Pepper of Florida and John Lee of Oklahoma. Squared off against these in the front rank of the opposition were Senators Wheeler and Nye, two battle-scarred veterans who always are where there's smoke is thickest. With them was Senator Danaher of Connecticut, who can toss verbal knives in a half dozen directions at once. There were more worthy of mention on both sides but that's enough.

Act I, Scene I ran true to all the gloom prophecies that had been made that the battle of the senate was upcoming. That opening day the galleries were full. On the floor there was name-calling and fist-shaking and invective. And then the show flopped, went to pieces, disintegrated. The audiences stayed away in droves. There were days when there was only a scattering of the faithful in the galleries and if once there were any of those long patient queques waiting their turn for seats there have been in every other major scrap on national defense and our foreign policy, I failed to see them.

The country didn't seem much interested either, if the senators' mall is any criterion. The senate post-office reports that a slight increase in the daily mail had been noted. The apathy spread to the senate floor. There were days when senators making their best speeches faced only a half dozen or so of their leagues and 90 empty seats. When the absence of a quorum was suggested, necessitating a roll call, the clerks had to drag it out interminably and run over the absentees again and again while the bells in the senate office building jangled pleadingly for enough senators to get on the floor so that business might proceed.

One day, in the middle of the debate, I checked the Congressional Record appendix, where the "Explanatory Remarks" always reflects the matters in hand. Out of 35 such "Extensions," only one dealt directly with the neutrality act and only four others considered the war from a foreign relations angle. The observations on defense strikes, the failure of the states to contribute to small industrial plants, and defense highways far overshadowed the neutrality act.

There was, of course, more fire toward the finish. An approaching vote always brings them out, but in between that and that promising Scene I, it was pretty listless business. You can get as many answers as to the reasons for it as you will ask questions. One isolationist senator said: "Nobody is interested in fighting for or watching a fight for a hopeless cause." A senator on the other side of the aisle explained it this way: "The public is thinking away ahead of congress. They considered the neutrality revisions passed from the first and were already giving their minds to other problems."

Whatever the cause, the lack of interest was one of the big surprises Capitol Hill has had of late.

TEX'S TOPICS

Whatever became of the "hut-sut" song, we hope? . . . For some reason or another interest in the Pampa-Amarillo football game here a week from today already is surging. . . . Boy, it's a nail-biter even if Amarillo did luck out a 5 to 0 win over Lubbock. . . . It was just possible that Plainview will whip Amarillo on Nov. 27 after the Harvesters trip the Sandies on Nov. 20. . . . Berger couldn't score on Plainview, but Berger scored two touchdowns against Amarillo Tuesday. . . . At any rate you can bet your bottom dollar that one of the Panhandle's biggest 1941 football crowds will be in the stands out at Harvesters Stadium next Thursday. . . . Everything is very, very uncertain about the outcome of that game, and that kind of an attraction always packs 'em in.

WE get it straight from Burnett and Phillips, co-captains of the Pampa high team, that the Harvesters are going to win over Amarillo this year. . . . They say every member of the team agreed after the Lubbock upset that they would win the remaining three games on the schedule and absent stadium home that they've got what it takes. . . . Incidentally, the Harvesters did not stay up late the night before the Lubbock game, they say, as reported in this space last Monday. . . . Over Amarillo they still imply that Pampa's defeat of Plainview was an "upset." . . . Now, says the Amarillo paper, the Sandies fans are looking to Pampa for the big game of the year on Nov. 20 instead of at Plainview on Nov. 27. . . . They're talking special train, 3,500 tickets for Amarillo fans, and all that sort of thing. . . . It all adds up to a "natural" for Thanksgiving Day in Pampa. . . . If you don't have your tickets, better get them now.

Some women who say they suffer in silence may mean that when in silence they suffer. . . . Dry cleaners report a shortage of coat hangers. Now maybe dad can't get away with hanging his coat from the back of a chair. . . . This is one time when you'll recommend that you be a "yes" man. Don't say no to the Red Cross. . . . American typewriters are used in Egypt. They can have ours if it doesn't learn to spell. . . . Teacher says college students get intoxicated at dances. How can you tell an intoxicated person at a modern dance?

THE Lubbock Avalanche-Journal says on its sports page that Pampa will not win over Amarillo. . . . And, says the Lubbock paper, the same goes for Plainview. . . . Lightning took an Indiana man's shoes off without hurting him. Just a streak of luck! . . . Fall cleaning quite often consists of removing all the trash from the attic and cellar before putting it back. . . . German government has made it a crime to listen to American broadcasts. It's a crime over here to listen to some of them. . . . "Man Arrested for Flirting With Phone Operator" . . . Electricity travels 11,600,000 miles a minute, arriving just 59 seconds behind bad news.

A dictatorship cannot bend, but some days it breaks. . . . DOUGLAS MILLER, former U. S. commercial attache in Germany. . . . Probably we won't be in any war until Hitler decrees that we shall. . . . The moment is opportune for establishing the dollar as a basis of standard value not only in international transactions but in the domestic economy of the different countries of the Americas. . . . SERIAL STORY

FOR THE LOVE OF PETE!

BY BURTON BENJAMIN

COPYRIGHT, 1941, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE TEAM PROTESTS
CHAPTER IX
PROWNING the doctor examined Lander's shoulder. "He'll have to go to the hospital," he said to Laird. "Can't tell whether there's a break until we X-ray. Whatever it is, he won't play football for awhile."

"George," Pete bent over the bed. "George—I'm sorry. Didn't mean to hurt your shoulder."

"Shut up," said Lander. "Can't you see the X-rays? Tell the boys I slipped—tell them something. They're liable to string you up if they find out what happened."

"Fat chance," Laird rubbed his eyes. "It was already blue. This shiner's a beaut."

"You've got to make up an alibi," Lander pleaded. "Team's all split up now."

Fortunately, the X-rays showed no break. But there was a bad strain. "It's one of those injuries that may take a long time to heal," announced the doctor.

Dinty Dugan stormed into his office that morning and found Pat Lester leaning back in a chair whittling a pencil with his knife. "I can't figure it out," Dugan said. "How can a guy like that slip...?"

"Seen Laird today?" Lester cut in.

"Don't tell me he's on the loose again?"

"Nope," Lester said drily. "But what a mouse he's got under his eye!"

"Well, what's so strange...?" Dugan stood up. "What's that again?"

"I said he's got a shiner."

"H-h-hub," Dugan plopped limply back in the chair. "Now I see. Slipped against a wall, eh? Yeah—after Laird socked him he did. I'll bet a couple of women had something to do with it."

"That's what I figure," nodded Lester. "Anne Humphreys for one and Stephanie the Tools for another."

"This is murder," groaned Dugan. "Losing Lander is as bad as losing Laird! He's the only guy keeping the team together. I'll have to play young Roskauer. He's smart, but who's going to block?"

"I dunno," said Lester. "Maybe Stephanie's got a sister we could introduce to Minnesota."

"Cut the comedy," snapped Dugan. "This thing is bigger than you think. I wouldn't be surprised if the team pickets this joint."

Dinty Dugan had no idea how close his guess was. At that moment, 15 State players were convening in the Students' Building. "I'm through," announced Socko Wonsocki. "Either Laird goes out of this deal. Either Laird goes out of this deal."

"Count me in," said Joey Anderson. "This business about Lander slipping against the wall is a lot of hokum. He slipped just like Billy Conn did against Joe Louis. I'd like to take a shot at Laird myself."

Squad members grunted assent. "We can get along without that guy," continued Wonsocki. "Bill Dugan, Laird's understudy, can do just as well. Let's go down and tell Dugan. Either Laird or us, what say?"

Players pounded the table in approval. "Opposed?" asked Wonsocki. "No one spoke. 'All right,' he concluded, 'the seniors on the squad will see Dugan today.'"

"All right," Lander turned to Dugan and told him the story. "I didn't want it to get out, coach," he said. "Team's all busted up now."

"This may be only the beginning," said Dugan.

"I wanted to talk to you about that," said Lander earnestly. "If anyone starts any trouble, send 'em up here to see me, coach. I think I can straighten them out."

THE delegation was properly forwarded that evening. There was Wonsocki, Anderson, Mike Tullio, Dan Holloway and Ed Fontaine. Anne moved to leave as they entered. "Stay, darling," whispered Lander.

They stood at the door shifting their feet. "What's the matter?" he grinned. "This isn't a wake. Say something."

"Dugan sent us up here," said Wonsocki uneasily. "It's about Laird."

"Pete?" Lander feigned surprise. "What about him?"

"He's getting a little rick for our blood," said Wonsocki, cautiously. "We know how you hurt your shoulder. Either he goes or we do."

"Hold on," Lander said sharply. "You guys are jumping at a lot of conclusions before you hear my side of the story, aren't you?"

"We've heard enough," grunted Wonsocki.

"Have you?" Lander stared at them. "Well, supposing I told you that Laird was right, and I was in the wrong. We were arguing, I stepped offside and he smacked me. I deserved it, didn't I, Anne?"

"Y-yes," Anne Humphreys forced herself to say it. "That's right, fellows. Pete was here this morning, and George apologized."

"Well..." Socko groped for words. "Well, if that's the way..."

"That's the way," Lander cut in. "I think you guys are barking up the wrong tree. This is a football team, not a debating society. You know what you've got to do—win six more games. Maybe I'll be back for some of them. Maybe not. But that's neither here nor there—your job is to win them. Any objections?"

They shook their heads.

"Good," Lander grinned. "Thanks for dropping in," called Lander as they left.

"George," Anne was standing beside him. "George—that took courage."

She leaned over, put her hand on his cheek and kissed him tenderly.

Argentine Backs FDR'S Statement On German Plans

BUENOS AIRES, Nov. 13 (AP)—Support for President Roosevelt's recent assertion that Germany has designs on South America came overnight from the acting chairman of Argentina's "Dies committee."

Declaring he had evidence to back the president's statement, Juan Antonio Solari, acting head of a congressional committee investigating subversive activities, said Adolf Hitler already had appointed a leader for a proposed "Ibero-American protectorate" and had named regional directors to control Nazi organization units in Argentina and other South American nations.

He said the general headquarters for an ambitious German colonization scheme was installed in Argentina two years ago.

Books and maps found by committee investigators and the map President Roosevelt mentioned Oct. 27 in his Navy Day speech, Solari asserted, formed "an expression of the dominant sentiment of the third Reich, whose ambitions for world hegemony it is not necessary to stress."

Private Burial It Still Unhappy

RANDOLPH FIELD, Nov. 13 (AP)—Private Richard Burton, a clerk in the file office at the "West Point of the air," was unhappy today.

He received a letter from his parents in Beaverdam, Va., saying that his father has retired from business and that they were moving to Texas in order to be near their son.

Why is Private Burton unhappy about this?

He has been trying for three months to get a transfer to Langley Field, Va., so that he could be near his parents. Today, arrangements were completed for the transfer.

Sooner Demands End Of All Beer Sales In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY, Nov. 13 (AP)—An injunction against all beer distributors in Oklahoma from further sale of the beverage was asked in a district court petition filed today by Ernest Albright, candidate for governor.

Albright has announced his candidacy for governor in 1942 on a platform advocating repeal of constitutional prohibition.

He contended in his petition that sale of 3.2 beer violated the "bone dry" section of the Oklahoma constitution because it was "in fact intoxicating."

He also alleged sale of 3.2 beer "is not only in violation of the constitution but it has and is now creating public nuisances to the damage of the health and welfare of the state of Oklahoma."

"Numerous cabarets, honky-tonks and brothels are in operation in the state," the petition contended, "where men, women and children are permitted to congregate, dance and drink with the main attraction x x x the opportunity to obtain 3.2 beer."

"Plaintiff further states that if 3.2 beer is permitted to be manufactured, sold and distributed, the places where it is consumed will continue to demoralize the people and the community where they are situated, and a public nuisance will thrive in violation of the law."

No date for hearing was set immediately on the petition.

After filing it Albright said he intended to "dry up" the state completely so the citizens would be more receptive to an outright repeal law he is sponsoring and then "they can have six per cent beer if they want it."

Moving Cows Cost U. S. Extra $2,703

TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 13 (AP)—A farmer's contention that moving his dairy herd would make his cows more fretful cost the government an extra $2,703 for an addition to Fort Lewis.

The government had offered $13,797 for the 276 acres that Edward Castle leased from J. L. Wolf for dairy operations. The farmer and landlord asked double the amount.

Farmer Castle pleaded that his cows would lose that contented look and fall off in their milk production if moved to other surroundings. A jury awarded $16,500.

King Of Italy Sent Birthday Message By BBC

LONDON, Nov. 13 (AP)—The British Broadcasting corporation sent congratulations to the king of Italy on his birthday Tuesday and some members of parliament said today they planned to raise a fess in the house of commons.

They called it "an astonishing slip," but BBC officials replied that the congratulations were included in a light entertainment program which "might have a good effect in Italy."

The officials said "of course we wouldn't send birthday messages to Hitler or Mussolini."
