Troops Battle Desperately For Escape Through Traps

Korean East Coast Is Americans' Goal

TOKYO (AP)—Thousands of American and allied troops battled desperately to break through fiery Red Chinese traps today in efforts to reach the Korean east coast for probable mass removal by sea.

Chinese forces were reported close behind one retreating force of 20,000 at the Koto airstrip, on both sides of a canyon trail leading down to the sea, and ahead of them near their expected place of embarkation on the Sea of Japan at Hungnam.

Thousands of others scattered in the northeast were trying to reach the escape port.

In northwest Korea, only patrol contact was reported along the newly-formed Eighth Army defense line.

Top American naval and marine officers conferred secretly on a ship off the stormy east coast. A U. S. Eighth Army source said some allied South Korean troops, in the far northeast, already had escaped by sea.

The big question was how many others in the northeast could reach the coast. At the most critical spot the 20,000 U. S. Marines and doughboys and a few British were in the midst of a tank-led drive to break out of a four-sided Chinese trap south of Changjin Reservoir.

Reds entrenched on dominating ridges and shielded by a snow-storm from allied air attack raked the column with heavy fire.

The leathernecks and infantrymen moved slowly down a steep, ice-glazed and snowy mountain trail from Koto, eight miles south of the reservoir. Forward elements had covered five of the 45 long miles from Koto to the airstrip by Friday morning.

Driving north to meet them was a relief column of the U. S. Third Division, trying to clear the roads into the mountains from Hungnam.

But even if the 20,000 should link up and escape that fiery defile, thousands of additional Chinese masses north of Hungnam and the nearby industrial city of Hamhung threaten to cut them off again.

A Chinese attack on the Koto airstrip behind them made the critical situation even worse.

In the trophy case was a card that read: "Dear Santa. Please bring us a victory over Whitta Falls. (signed) PHS."

Collins Sounds An Optimistic Note on Korea
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army chief of staff said on his return from Korea today that "our forces there will be able to take care of themselves without further serious losses."

COACH DUTCH MEYER, TCU

President, Attlee Begin Winding Up Conferences Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee began the wind-up sessions of their conferences on the world crisis today, and asked Vice President Barkley and members of Mr. Truman's cabinet to meet with them.

This was taken to mean the meeting was chiefly for a review of what has been accomplished rather than being aimed at reaching further decisions.

Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Army chief of staff, was called in to give a report on his flying visit to Korea. Collins, who returned only this morning, told reporters he believed "our forces there will be able to take care of themselves without further serious losses."

The President and Prime Minister were reported to have reached wide agreement on European defense measures but to have had less success in welding a common front on Far Eastern policy.

The two are understood to have decided that the precise next steps to be taken on Korea and Communist China, aside from pending moves in the UN must await evidence (A) as to whether United Nations forces can hold on there and (B) whether there is any chance of negotiating an acceptable settlement with the Chinese Communists.

The British are understood to have opposed various American suggestions for possible new measures against the Chinese Reds, if the military situation continues to grow worse, on the grounds that they would result in a wasteful and indecisive "limited war."

The American ideas for action, which might be taken through the United Nations, were reported to include a blockade of the China coast.

A joint statement was expected to stress points of agreement reached and possibly to list other topics discussed.

Informal officials said the agreements cover such matters as these:

1. Europe is the primary strategic area in the conflict with Soviet communism. Its defenses must be built up with all possible speed. A supreme commander will be named promptly.

2. Each of the countries must rapidly develop its maximum defense capacity.

Condemnation Of Red China Slowed Down

LAKE SUCCESS (AP)—The American drive to rush United Nations condemnation of Communist China ran into a slowdown today.

The 10-nation political committee scheduled a meeting to debate the issue but no country signed up to speak. A U. S. spokesman said, however, he still expected a vote by tomorrow morning.

A sampling of opinion here showed that the reluctance to go ahead was largely owing to two factors:

The British—and several other delegations—do not want to say anything until they know results of the conference between President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee.

The 13 Asian countries, led by India, which appealed to the Chinese Reds to stop at the 38th Parallel for negotiations want to wait for an answer.

The Russians contend that there is no Chinese intervention in Korea and that the whole problem should be thrown off the agenda.

The United States, however, is determined that the UN condemn the new Red aggression in order to give its moral sanction to the Russians.

PEP RALLY—Cheer leaders from Pampa High School give out with the old Harvester yell at a half hour pep rally held at 9:30 a. m. today in the high school auditorium. Highlight of the activity was when the entire student body spent over 10 minutes giving nothing but that Harvester yell. The Pampa Harvester football team will play a bi-district game with the Wichita Falls Coyotes in Coyote stadium Saturday afternoon. (News Photo and Engraving)

Control Not Readied Yet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Price stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle said today the government definitely is making plans for a ceiling on prices but sees no reason to freeze them now.

Such a ceiling would necessarily be coupled with a lid on wage increases, but DiSalle told a news conference he hoped any freeze would not be necessary.

In any case, the former Toledo mayor said his price agency would be unable to impose a general ceiling for 60 to 90 days because of a lack of staff, space, and administrative organization.

DiSalle is director of price stabilization in the Economic Stabilization Agency. He spoke at a conference held jointly with economic stabilization administrator Alan Valentine and Wage Stabilization Board Chairman Cyrus S. Ching.

All made it clear that a wage-price freeze, widely rumored in the last few days, is not imminent.

DiSalle implied that "selective" controls may be employed on basic defense materials before any general action is taken.

The ESA administrator indicated also the agency might make any price roll-back retroactive—a plain warning to businessmen that attempts to "beat" a freeze by boosting prices now might be fruitless.

Valentine said he had not yet received any reply from Ford Motor Co. or General Motors Corp. to his telegrams last night urging them to suspend their announced price increases on 1951 models, pending an industry conference with ESA here next week.

Valentine declined to say what ESA would do if the companies refused to rescind the price boosts. But he noted that ESA "is fully clothed with authority and if voluntary action fails we will resort to compulsory action." (See CONTROL, Page 3)

Spirit Should Win Game for Pampa Team

If spirit will do the trick, Pampa's Harvesters should win tomorrow.

One of the longest, noisest and most enthusiastic pep rallies ever held at Harvester High was held this morning to send the Harvesters in quest of a victory in bi-district play tomorrow at Wichita Falls. The rally lasted for 30 solid, cheer-packed minutes and no presidential candidate ever got a more solid vote of confidence from his party upon nomination than the steady cheering that rangued for the Harvesters.

The clanging of the Victory Bell and a drum corps marching through the halls backed up the signs of "Wallop Wichita," "Get a Coyote" and "Watch Wichita Fall," that were put up all over the halls.

In the trophy case was a card that read: "Dear Santa. Please bring us a victory over Whitta Falls. (signed) PHS."

Rogers Home; Without One

Solan-to-be Walter Rogers learned this week that being a congressman has its disadvantages as well as advantages.

Returning yesterday from the capital, Rogers was still without a house and without an office staff.

However, he drew the best spot for a suite of offices in the old House Office Building even though he drew 17th place in line for choosing a spot. Rogers picked Suite 108 on the first floor.

"Those other new congressmen felt that by being on 'top floors' would lend dignity and prestige to the office. But, my office will be easily reached by constituents and lies closest to the capitol, the congressional subway, main entrance and right between Ed Gossett and 'Tiger' Teague," Rogers told The News this morning, pointing to a floor plan of the five-story building.

"Housing," he added, "was the biggest problem and those available are entirely too high. So, I still don't have one."

His office staff has not been selected yet, but he expects to be able to announce it early next week.

"I want to fill it from this district, if possible, but I still don't know who they will be."

Shortly after Christmas the Rogers family will leave for Washington by automobile. They will stay in the Shoreham Hotel until they can find suitable housing quarters.

An army source said the remainder of the division was pulling back by land toward Hungnam.

Coincident with these developments, top marine and Navy officers met at Yonpo airfield south of Hamhung Friday afternoon and then left for shipboard conferences.

They included Lt. Gen. Lemuel C. Shepherd, commanding Fleet Marine Forces, and Vice Adm. C. T. Joy, commander of Far East Naval Forces.

The east coast Port of Wonsan, 50 air miles south of Hungnam, was evacuated by sea Wednesday under covering fire by three U. S. destroyers. Wonsan had been garrisoned by U. S. Third Division elements.

In the northwest, below Red-occupied Pyongyang, the U. S. Eighth Army consolidates positions on its newly-formed defense line.

AP Correspondent Don Whitehead reported that up to 40,000 well-armed guerrillas — mostly reorganized North Korean troops — are operating behind the Eighth Army line and on its extreme right flank.

Time for Posting Christmas Mail Is Now Says Weathered

"Christmas mailing should be done now," Postmaster W. B. Weathered said in a statement urging people to mail their parcel post to friends for Christmas.

Weathered pointed out packages which must go a great distance may be laid over in mail terminals because of shortage of transportation facilities. The bottleneck in Christmas mails is in transportation, he stated, because the railroad can not produce the needed number of cars to carry the extra loads of mail. Enough personnel can be hired by both the railroads and the post office to handle the rush, but railroad cars cannot be produced in a day, he said.

The post office is urging everyone to mail the distant packages now and mark them "Do not open until Christmas."

Packages must be wrapped with heavy paper and tied with heavy cord. Tape must not be used because it is too easily destroyed. If the paper is torn, heavy cord will hold it on the package and tape will not.

Correct addressing and permanent addressing is also necessary, the postmaster emphasized.

Time to Think of America's Safety

It is vitally important that the American people put playing the role of lackey to foreign politicians. The military reversal in Korea has made that clear. The politicians—Democrats, Republicans, Socialists, Communists—have used us, the people, as a fence over which they've heaved stink-bombs, rotten potatoes and political lead cats and one another with no thought for us and our fate. We aren't forgotten or ignored, for we are the political medium they employ to carry on their selfish little purposes. But our well-being is forgotten and our destiny is ignored.

Now we have to do something to protect ourselves. We've got to demand—and stand ready to back the demand—that our safety as citizens of the United States be made the first objective fact of the legislative and executive branches of our government. Political hickering and horseplay have to stop. Jockeying for positions of advantage in the elections supposed to take place two years from now has to be made the main goal of the politicians. Instead of the main goal there may be no 1952 elections.

Our soldiers were sent to Korea to bolster the tottering United Nations. The action there was supposed to demonstrate that the UN actually had a power in the world affairs. All it has proved is that the only power the United Nations has is over the United States. Mr. Truman called the Korean affair a "police action." He couldn't call it a "war" because the Congress of the United States had not declared war on North Korea. Which means that we, the American people, had not declared war through our representatives in Washington.

When President Truman ordered our soldiers into combat in Korea he violated his trust as Chief Executive of the United States, for he was using that office to exercise his power as commander-in-chief of our military forces in order to plunge us into a war which we had not authorized through the medium of our Congress.

"That," you may say, "is neither here nor there. The war in Korea is a fact and how it came about doesn't matter now." But it does matter now. If the people of the United States can be thrown into a war approximately 7,000 miles away without their consent and for no clearly explained purpose, then their constitutional power to regulate their own affairs to the best of their ability does not exist.

That is one point of tremendous significance about the conflict in Korea. Our country is pouring men and military equipment into that Oriental pit—moving a big part of our military defenses thousands of miles from home, across the Pacific. And all this while the real, breathing menace to our survival is concentrating its military strength on the other side of us, across the Atlantic.

"Divide and conquer" is an ancient trick in war. Our national leaders are falling for this old trick like a yokel for the shell game. When it was evident that we weren't sending enough of our military power to Korea to break our home defenses against the breaking point Red China moved into the picture in a big way.

The purpose is clear. We'll have to get out or openly go to war against Soviet China. If we get out we'll "lose face" in the Far East, and so will the UN. If we increase our fighting strength to meet that of China we'll be shunting men and equipment across the Pacific as fast and furious as possible. The result: depleted military defenses at home.

Our country is pouring men and military equipment into that Oriental pit—moving a big part of our military defenses thousands of miles from home, across the Pacific. NEW YORK — I may not succeed in forcing the Buchanan Committee of Congress to do its duty ere it ends a disgraceful career, but I will show up the character of the Anti-Nazi League for which the committee performed a whole program of operations and personal espionage.

Today I advance a few steps more in the development of this expose. Last week, a letter came from an informant who formerly had worked for a "screening agency," a fact, I repeat, which I have already exposed "professor" James H. Sheldon, the professional exploiter of religious and racial fears, and the boss of a gang of cheap sneaks who have boasted of the commission of outrageous acts of racial and personal espionage.

WASHINGTON — Stalin's massive Red army will stage the same sort of brutal, aggressive attack against Western Germany that his Chinese stooges delivered against General MacArthur's men, when and where he chooses.

Every military expert here and abroad admits that he can sweep to the Rhine River on a weekend jaunt, and to the channel ports of the North Atlantic. It is also understood that he has a vast army of bombers and fighters in several satellite countries to pass this word to their western colleagues.

ALTERNATIVE — This specter of an overnight blitzkrieg by from 50 to 100 armored and infantry divisions, supported by an armada of bombers, has figured in all conversations about the world situation between President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee, and in the latter's earlier London meeting with Premier Churchill.

PART 3

The importance of the sedition case was not that—with God's help—the defense was in its implications. It was to be a precedent setting case, the first one of its kind in our history.

And now for our friend, World-Federalist Eugene Murphy's of the personal insinuation: "I understand that his (Baxter's) anti-Semitism and anti-Catholicism have continued since then."

Continuing, Mr. Mandeville said: "I never did go to his office but, once in a while, we would check with them and, in the course of time, they asked permission to check our files in our files they came on one in whom they were interested for the purpose of hanging something on him. They wanted to show he was a Nazi. We did some work on this one. This led to our doing a 'society play' here and there for the $200 we never made more than $150 or $200 from them. We shadowed one man on Long Island. They wanted something on him because they were afraid that he was going to sue them for $150,000."

When relations broke off, Mr. Mandeville sent Lipschutz's league a bill for $50. "They said, 'All right, if you will make us a contribution, we will pay,'" Mandeville continued. "I gave them $25. I didn't list it voluntarily. I took the case to my lawyer and Sheldon told him to get me to give a contribution of $25. The lawyer said, 'Why don't you do it and save a law-suit? I did and I got my other 25 bucks from Sheldon.'"

Mandeville said he had never encountered Dorothy Waring, a character who has lived by her wits in the operations of the league and who recently received mysterious flattery publicly as a "society playwright." Igor Cassin, the "Cholly Knickerbocker" of the New York Journal-American's society column, unwarily printed one or two of these little "mentions." When he learned the background of the Waring woman he said he had received several such blubs from personal "press agents," a form of insect life which plants the names of aspiring actors, saloons and ladies in the gossip "columns."

However, Mr. Mandeville said, an employee in his office had had a number of telephone colloquies with the "society playwright."

And what were they about? "They were about trying to collect our bill," Mr. Mandeville said.

THE GHOST OF YALTA

(Chicago Daily Tribune)

American proposals for a peace treaty with Japan, belatedly submitted to the American public after being published in Russia, are so sensible as to suggest strongly that they originated with Gen. MacArthur rather than with the state department. They offer a workable peace, with honor and justice, which enable Japan to resume her place in the community of nations and will assure America of Japanese friendship.

The only point at which the treaty as outlined justifies criticism is in connection with the proposed disposition of the island of Formosa, which MacArthur has termed vital to the security of the United States. Mr. Truman and Mr. Acheson have in the past manifested a simple minded disposition to turn this strategic base over to the Chinese Communist, and Truman went so far as to attempt to gag MacArthur after he had spoken to the contrary.

Yet the draft terms of the treaty contain a transparently clever provision that the eventual disposition of the island is to be handled in a package with the Pescadores, the southern half of Sakhalin island, and the Kurile Islands. Japan is to accept the future decision of Britain, Russia, China, and the United States on these territories, with the reserve specification that if no agreement can be reached among these nations within a year after the peace treaty comes into effect, the United Nations general assembly is to decide.

The American government here has shown considerable ingenuity in trying to wriggle out of Mr. Roosevelt's idealistic commitments to Stalin at Yalta. There, as the price of bringing Russia into the war with Japan for six days out of 1,347, Roosevelt agreed that the soviet union should be given South Sakhalin and the Kuriles, an important island chain flanking the American line of communications in the Pacific.

By suggesting that this deal is not final, but subject to review, the American government has confessed the insanity of Roosevelt's personal diplomacy and has made the first attempt to undo the colossal damage that was done. If Russia could be brought to accept the decision of the United States, Britain, and China (undoubtedly Chiang Kai-shek's nationalist Chinese regime is meant), the prospect is that Stalin would be forced to disgorge his ill-gotten gains. Failure to reach agreement among these countries would throw the matter into the U.N. assembly.

Hughes Keeps Hollywood in Puzzled State

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (P) — Hollywood has its own man of mystery and his name is Howard Hughes. The 44-year-old millionaire Texan becomes more of a legend every day. His unusual operation of RKO Studios has given rise to a wealth of stories.

For some unexplained reason, he maintains his office at Samuel Goldwyn Studios, two miles away. The most recent of Hughes' amazing adventures in movie-making was "Two Tickets to Broadway." The picture was announced to start last spring. The entire RKO dance rehearsal hall, mirrors, sets and all, was moved into the studio.

Hughes was supposed to have dropped in at the studio at an early morning hour. The studio manager showed him through every darkened building, every empty stage. Hughes said many words until he was about to leave. Then he turned to the manager and uttered two words: "paint it."

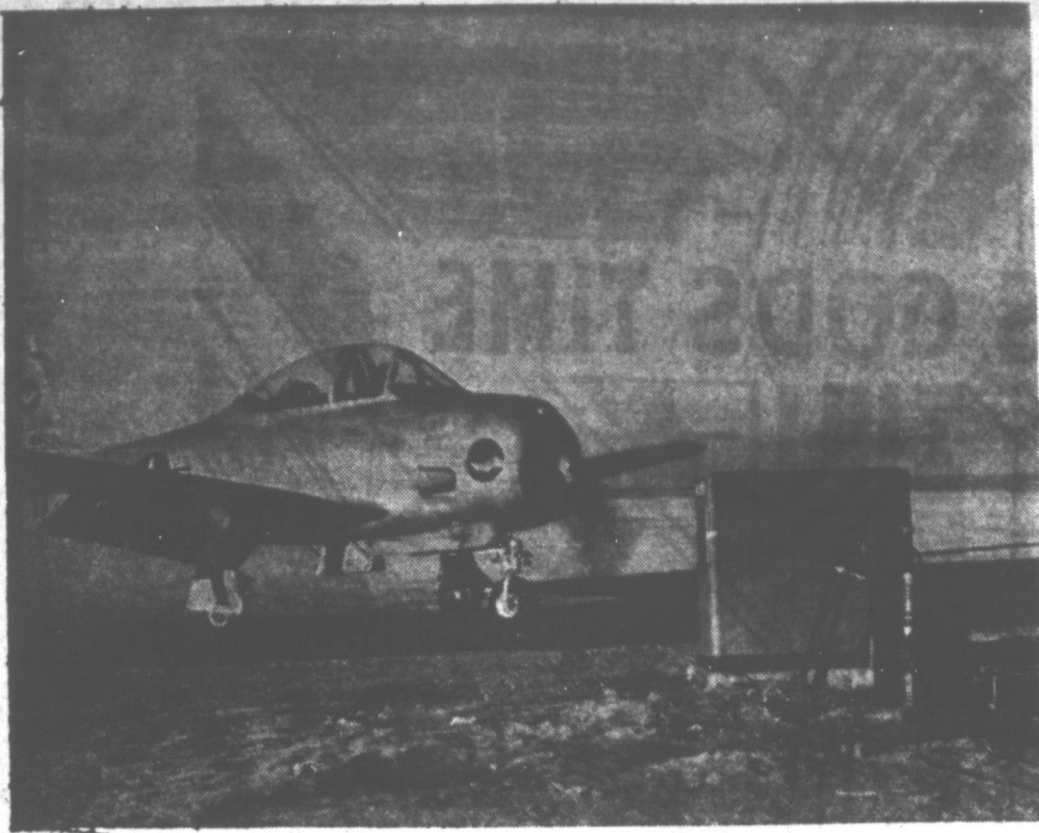

The story has never been confirmed, but studio workers observed that the entire studio was painted shortly afterward. The Hughes mode of releasing pictures is also cause for wonderment. The classic example is "The Outlaw," which he showed in two locations until he ran into censorship trouble. Then he held the film for seven years before releasing it generally. He just now is releasing the Harold Lloyd film, made five years ago, and "Vendetta," which was remade four or five times over as many years. He has announced no plans to bring out two Jane Russell films produced two and three years ago.

Storage Tips Given For Sweet Potatoes

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. — Dr. Robert H. Daines of Rutgers University knows all about storing sweet potatoes. He says it is important because the U. S. sweet potato crop is worth $100,000,000 a year and 20 percent of it rots in storage. He says they should be stored at 80 degree temperature with 90 to 95 percent humidity for a few days. This will give the potatoes a chance to grow new skin over damaged areas, and keep out disease. Then the temperature should be lowered to 55 degrees. But if you are a housewife and just want to store a sweet potato for a few days — dunk them in the refrigerator, he says. Minnesota is said to have the sole remaining herd of woodland caribou in the United States.

NO GAS—Pampa's Municipal Airport looked like an island in an ocean of aviation cadets from Enid Army Air Field Wednesday night about midnight when he was lost and had but 10 gallons of gas to get him somewhere. He finally set down at Pampa. The plane is a North American T-28, latest type trainer used by the Air Force. He left yesterday after another T-28, and finally a DC-3 with a special power unit, had arrived to help him. (News Photo and Engraving)

PHS Debate Team Provides Program For Pampa Rotary

Members of the Pampa High School debate team, coached by Jack Nichols, presented the program at the Rotary Club meeting, Wednesday. Quentin Williams was in charge of the program.

The team, composed of Sallie Cobb, chairman; Reuel Casey and Jimmy Robison, affirmative; Jan Dickey and Sarah Jane Cruzan, negative, discussed the subject: resolved, that social welfare to the people should be extended by the government of the United States.

The affirmative favored government loans to farmers for soil conservation purposes, housing loans and other federal aids now in practice. The negative side was against government control of federal welfare benefits except where a large group of people might be benefited. No decision was made by the club as to the winners of the debate.

Fred Neelge, president, announced that a club assembly will be held next Tuesday, Dec. 12, in either the chamber of commerce office or the city commission room. The chairman of each committee and all officers and directors are expected to attend this meeting.

The club voted to adopt one or two needy families to feed and clothe during the Christmas season. Members have this week and next to give voluntary contributions to this cause, Neelge announced.

Beavers Responsible For Slowing Pipeline

CORRY, Pa. — (P) — Beavers are responsible for holding up construction of a natural gas pipeline through this section. The animals blocked up a 100-yard lakefront area in the pipeline route. Engineers were required to use several dozen sticks of dynamite in blasting the beavers' dam work.

They made no effort to trap the furry creatures but farmers probably will take on the job. The beavers branched out and completed the even more unappreciated project of flooding pasture acreages and farms in the same vicinity.

YOUR TIME IS GOD'S TIME

When asked to prepare a statement concerning the proper use of time, a group of young people came up with these words: "Your time is God's time." Grown-ups may well heed this truth. One's time is really not one's own. Even though budgeted to include only such things as business, golf, gardening, travel or what not, it is still God's time. And when we fail to include in our time budget a few hours for the Church and its constructive program, then the One from whom we get all the time we have is being ignored and we are losing priceless returns. Time given to the Church and the enterprises for which it stands is an investment that pays dividends for all the other worthwhile things we have to do. Try it. Take an interest in some Church—in the Bible—in an activity on the high level of service to others—and see how much more productive all of your time will be.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The Gospel Versus the World News

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
The Gospel of Jesus Christ is the good news of God. In its message of love and grace, and its revelation of the true way of life, it is in strong contrast with the bad news of the world, which our morning paper brings us day by day.

This news is of war and strife, of international suspicions and distrusts, jealousies and hatreds, of cold wars and threatening of tragedies of conflict abroad, and of crimes and gangsters, gamblers and grafters, greed, dishonesties and incompetencies in high places at home.

It is, of course, good news that if wars are fought, aggression and violence are being overcome. It is a satisfaction that so many in high places and in low are true patriots, setting the interests of their country and the welfare of their fellowmen above all considerations of personal interest and gain.

It is good to know that in the world, in all countries today, even under great trial and persecution, so many are seeking to know and follow the Christian way of life. This dark world is not without rays of light and hope.

But the evil in the world is so great and so appalling, so scattered over the lives of men, and so entrenched in high places of material might and power, that one might almost despair of the triumph of Christ and His Gospel.

It is important, therefore, that we remember the condition of the Roman world in which the Christ lived on earth as did the Gospel, fulfilling the richness and greatness of the law and the prophets.

How did that Gospel take hold and spread in that indifferent, or hostile, environment? The power of his might, and his world conquest, might well have looked with scornful contempt, upon a Jewish teacher and his few disciples.

Furthermore, the Christians talked about things strange to Roman ears: of love, enemies, forgiveness, blessings on the poor in spirit and the meek, and of a kingdom of love and peace that would conquer the world.

The secret of that growth, which we must learn, and from which we must profit, could bring the Gospel to triumph in the world of today.

I think it was two-fold. It was, first of all, an intense devotion and loyalty of the disciples to their Master.

Secondly, they found the reality of His mission and purpose spiritually strengthening. And with this was the witnessing, testifying what they had heard and seen, and through others passing on the story to others in a continuous chain of spoken experience and power.

It is that sort of Christian witnessing the world needs today; and it is only in such witnessing to the power of the Gospel that the triumph of the Christ can come in such a world as this.

Christian Fellowship Has Regular Meeting

Mrs. Oscar Huff, 1116 Christine, was hostess to Group One of the Women's Christian Fellowship of the First Christian Church for a short business session and social hour.

Mrs. De Lea Vicars presented the Christmas devotionals. The group sent a mackinaw, baseball, pencil and handkerchief to a Korean boy.

Toys were taken for the children of the Fowler Home and arrangements were made to send Christmas gifts to Harwood Hall. Small gifts were exchanged by the members, and refreshments were served by the hostess.

We should endeavor to be long-suffering, faithful, and charitable with all. To this small effort let us add one more privilege, namely, silence whenever it can substitute censure.

District Has Three Seventh Day Adventist Churches

Three Seventh Day Adventist Churches are in this district and the Rev. Edward K. Koenig is pastor of each of them.

The Pampa Church is located on the corner of Purviance and Browning. The other churches are in Borger and Wellington.

The local church was organized in 1935. Among the charter members who are still attending the church are Miss Gladys Hickman, Mrs. Jay H. Nichols, Mrs. Archie Cole and Mrs. Christina Tucker. The pastor then was A. G. LaSrone of Amarillo.

The church now has 38 members with the Sunday School enrollment about the same.

Men responsible for the construction of the church at its organization were T. E. Cheek, Roe Davis and Gus Davis.

Members of the church board are L. L. Childers, Don Childers, Elwood White, Walter Noel, Mrs. Gladys Hickman, Christina Tucker and Mrs. Jay Nichols.

The Ladies' Dorcas Society meets at 1:30 p.m. each Tuesday with Mrs. Noel as president.

The youth organization, sponsored by Mrs. Koenig, meets at 7:45 p.m. each Friday. Regular services of the church are held at 11 a.m. every Saturday following the church school which convenes at 9:30 a.m. Prayer services are held each Wednesday night.

Rev. and Mrs. Koenig have been with the district churches for three years and are helping to organize a camp in 1951. The local church holds at least one revival per year.

Pampa Minister to Preach in McLean

McLEAN — (Special) — The First Presbyterian Church is without a pastor, but Sunday School is being held each Sunday morning. Dr. Douglas Nelson, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Pampa, conducted services here Sunday night and is scheduled to return the fourth Sunday night. Rev. Parker of the Canadian Presbyterian Church will fill the pulpit the third and fourth Sunday nights.

A Christian will find it cheaper to pardon than to resent. Forgiveness saves the expense of anger, the cost of hatred, the waste of spirits. — Hannah More

Small Family? Roast a Duck

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

If yours is one of the nearly 30,000,000 families in the United States who have three members or less, a roast duck is a happy choice for your holiday dinner.

We asked Mabel Stegner, food expert on duck cookery, to plan a dinner exclusively for this column.

"Start with chilled cranberry cocktail," she says, "adding a little dry white California wine if your taste runs that way. Then roast duckling garnished with fresh watercress and cubes of clear cranberry jelly. Accompany with buttered broccoli, candied sweet potatoes cooked in the oven while the duck roasts, and a colorful plate of raw vegetable relishes. Finish up with a favorite dessert and lots of hot black coffee."

Miss Stegner suggests preparing your duck like this. Cut off the neck and wing tips. Wash carefully in cold water. Stuff lightly with your favorite stuffing, made exactly as you usually do and omitting none of the fat. You'll need about 4 cups, as much for a 3-pound roaster chicken and a half that usually needed for a 10- or 12-pound turkey. A particularly good stuffing for roast duck, and one with a fitting holiday flavor, is made with crumbled cornbread, plump meaty oysters and a bit of parsley. Next fasten the vent opening with poultry pins and light string.

Place the duck breast side up on a rack in a shallow roasting pan. Do not prick the skin since this only causes the precious meat juices to run out during the roasting. Roast in slow oven 325 degrees F., until tender, about 1 1/2 to 2 hours. At this time a meat thermometer thrust into the dressing will register about 165 degrees F. for a medium well-done duck. Cook the giblets, neck and wing tips in 2 cups boiling

Grace Friend

DINNER DRESS
Dear Grace Friend:

I am going to a church convention soon. There is going to be a semi-formal banquet. I have a black party dress with a very low neck line and no sleeves. It is also very long.

Do you think that this would be the thing to wear or is too fancy? The other kids are going to wear either suits or good dresses. I don't have anything but the party dress.

Would you suggest wearing shoes with high heels or just plain flat ones?

I am 14 years old and my height is 5 ft. 7 in. Mary

Your black dress doesn't sound right for you on any occasion but alone a church convention. It is much too formal for a 14 year old. You would create a much better impression in the simple clothes you wear to school. It is far better to appear in a wigwag and skirt neat and becoming, than in a dress much too old for you.

As for the shoes—Sometimes higher heels dress up a costume while low heeled dress shoes with the same clothes make it more informal.

1 quart soft bread crumbs.
2 tablespoons melted butter or shortening
1-8 cup sugar

CELERY BREAD STUFFING
1-4 cup drippings or shortening
1-2 cup chopped onion
2 cups chopped celery
2 quarts 1-2 inch bread cubes
1 teaspoon chopped parsley
1 teaspoon salt
1-4 teaspoon pepper
1 leaspoon sage
2 eggs, beaten
1-2 cup bouillon or milk
Melt drippings in a skillet; add onion and celery, and saute until tender. Pour over bread cubes, parsley and salt, pepper and sage. Add beaten egg and bouillon and mix well.
Yield: 1-4 quarts stuffing, or enough for a 5 pound duck.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

"God the Preserver of Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 10.

The Golden Text is: "The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; the God of my rock; in him will I trust; he is my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my savior. (II Samuel 22:2, 3).

Among the vibrations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "He that is our God of salvation; and unto God the Lord belong the issues from death" (Psalms 68:20).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The central fact of the Bible is the superiority of spiritual over physical power" (page 131).

Forgiveness ought to be like a cancelled note — torn in two, and burned up, so that it can never be shown against one.

Mrs. Anna Laverne, Church Point, Louisiana, says she has a word of advice for those folks who seem always blue, mad at the world, or think cloudy skies are always hanging over their heads. Mrs. Laverne says most folks when they act that way must not be feeling well . . . cause a poor disposition is a sure sign of trouble. Mrs. Laverne says, just taking herself as an example . . . now that she is taking HADACOL there isn't a person in the world who can make her mad. Mrs. Laverne found that by taking HADACOL her system was no longer deficient in Vitamins B-1, B-2, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mrs. Laverne's own statement: "You don't know how wonderful it feels to be in such good condition — after two years of feeling run-down. I had a very poor appetite—in fact, food didn't agree with me at all. I had a hard time sleeping nights . . . sometimes I would stay awake until 1 or 2 in the morning and then the next day I would feel tired and groggy all day long. You have no idea how terrible I felt. Now all this at gone — yes, now that I have been taking HADACOL, I feel wonderful. I get lots of good, sound sleep, have a fine appetite and just lots of energy. I can eat any kind of food now and it doesn't bother me a bit. I just can't begin to thank HADACOL."

Don't Put Off Taking HADACOL. . . . do as thousands of others do whose systems lacked Vitamins B-1, B-2, Niacin and Iron are doing. The HADACOL formula is very effective for stomach disorders, insomnia, due to upset stomach, vague aches and pains, and a general run-down condition if they are due to such deficiencies. Make up your mind to give HADACOL a chance to help you as it has helped others whose systems lacked Vitamins B-1, B-2, Niacin and Iron. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or hospital size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you, your druggist does not have HADACOL, order it direct from the LeBlanc Corporation, Lafayette, Louisiana.

Draft Board Loses Seven

The Gray County Draft Board has lost seven men, according to Charlyne Court, clerk.

An organization with a long reputation for finding men, the board has turned the tables, and is now looking for them.

Selective Service officials have been to explain the men listed as delinquent had probably forgotten to notify their local board of any change of address.

At any rate, the board has made repeated attempts to draft these men but to no avail.

The men, with their last addresses, are Allen A. Roberts, c/o T. Slavin, Clarendon; Floyd W. Allen, general delivery, Shamrock; Charles William Dean, general delivery, Shamrock; Manuel Fuentes, Jr., Box 1552, Allison; Don Edward Reynolds, general delivery, Amarillo; John B. THE STORY: Thirteen soldiers from the Pacific war realize they are dead when they find themselves in their home town. Only one, Eddie, is aware of their presence. A girl going swimming on the beach makes friends with the dog Duke and says her name is Margie Lou. Eddie, who thinks "she's swell," but while swimming, Margie Lou has a cramp and Eddie is unable to help her when she is drowning.

Eddie would perhaps have contemplated indefinitely the drowning girl's spiritual perfection, revealed now only to himself, if her body had not turned over and then slowly started to rise.

To add to the confusion Duke was in the way when Margie Lou rose and one of his paddling paws struck her on the shoulder and forced her down a second or so longer.

Duke thought it was all a game and he was barking appreciation as Eddie and Margie Lou's heads finally appeared on the surface.

Eddie would gladly have wrung the dog's neck and was about to order him to be quiet when he was struck by what, for Eddie, was a very brilliant idea.

"Fetch it, Duke!" his master commanded as he pointed to Margie Lou's hair.

She was going down again when Duke finally got the idea. He got behind her and clamped one of her braids in his paws.

As soon as he was sure that Duke had a good grip Eddie headed for the beach shouting, "Come on, Duke! Fetch it!"

Attracted by Eddie's shouts the rest of the squad hurried over toward the part of the beach where the dog was towing the girl. When Duke had pulled her into shallow water, which was all that he could do, they gathered around her in curious pity.

"Stand back a little," Eddie ordered. "Give her a chance to breathe."

Stork Overtakes Stalled Family Car

COLUMBUS, Ohio — (AP) — The stork overtook a stalled family auto here last night, bringing the 13th child to Mrs. Mary Adams, 22.

A seven-pound boy arrived when the motor of the Adams' car stalled at a street intersection while en route to University Hospital.

A fire department emergency squad administered medical aid. Then the mother, father Linzie Adams, and the new baby turned around and went home.

George Is Careless — Just Like a Fox

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

When a kibitzer watches Generous George, he usually comes away from the table muttering to himself about careless play.

"Why, he can't even count trumps!" one spectator recently complained. This complaint intrigued me, so I got the hand from George.

The bidding was enterprising enough, especially the final jump to four spades. This jump was made by George, who held the South cards. It happened that his partner was a very conservative bidder, and George expected to find a much stronger dummy than was actually put down.

West opened the eight of hearts, East put up the ten, and George won with the ace. He returned a low diamond, playing the king from dummy, and East took the ace. East then led two more rounds of hearts, and George was much relieved to find that he could ruff the second of these safely with a low trump.

Since it was now time to tackle the trumps, George entered dummy with a club and successfully finessed the jack of trumps. He then laid down the ace of trumps, dropping East's king.

This left West with the lone ten of spades, which could have been picked up by dummy's queen.

Much to his kibitzer's disgust, George didn't draw that last trump. Instead, he cashed the queen of diamonds, ruffed a diamond with dummy's low trump, cashed the ace of clubs, and ruffed a club with his own remaining trump. He then ruffed another diamond with the queen of spades and gave up the last trick to West's ten of spades.

"He made his game," the spectator told me, "but he should have made an extra trick. If he'd just counted the trumps he could have picked up another 30 points. It hurts me to watch that sort of thing."

Kibbiting is a noble profession, and I have nothing but respect for the sort of serious kibitzer who is pained by careless play. However, George hadn't given anything away. He had gained a trick by letting his opponent win a trump trick!

For example, suppose George had continued trumps after dropping East's king. That would have left dummy with two losing clubs, or South with two losing diamonds. He wouldn't lose a trump trick, but he'd wind up with only nine tricks instead of ten.

The Kaczmareks were wounded on the same hour, of the same day, while fighting with the same division in the same battle.

November Building Permits Bolstered by Bank, School

Remodeling of the Citizens Bank and Trust Co., and construction of Carver School were large factors in boosting Pampa's November building permits over the previous month's totals. Building permits for November totaled $373,204 to October's $298,515.

According to the building permit records in City Hall the Citizens Bank remodeling operations will run to $40,000 while the Negro school will be constructed at a cost of $166,389. Seventeen permits for new residence totaling $122,975 were issued; six residences were remodeled at a total cost of $10,790; permits for two new business buildings were issued amounting to $40,500; three new private garages went up at a cost of $2,100; and seven buildings moved into town at a cost of $7,950. 'We Shook the Family Tree' Has First-Nighters Laughing

By GEORGIA SMITH

The curtain went up last night on the junior class play in the high school auditorium and a hilarious uproar descended on the stage to hold its own until final curtain.

A near-capacity audience laughed continuously through the three-act comedy, "We Shook the Family Tree," the story of Hildegarde Dolson, and her troubles, portrayed by Betty Kiff. The play will have its second presentation at 8 p.m. today.

Hildegarde is a teen-age girl, who wants very much to attend the school prom and finally, much to her chagrin, comes up with a date with Freddy Sherman, the town's favorite joke, Fredy is played by Jackie Weathered.

Mrs. Dolson, Hildegarde's mother is played by Sue Lynn McFall, and her father, Jimmy Orr, Little Pattie Lohman characterizes Paige, a little neighbor girl, who loves to play postman. Bob, Hildegarde's brother, a trouble-maker, but always ready to help out, is portrayed by John Lee Welton. Her little sister Sally, by Jeanie Johnson, is full of big-sister adoration. Her other brother, Jimmy is played by Revel Casey.

Snooty girl friends of the Dolson brothers are Ellie May and Jill, by Fatsy Ellis and Jane Wilson. Parents of Freddie are haughtily characterized by Cecil Steward and Carla Wyatt.

Poage Wants to Use German, Jap Troops

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Poage (D-Tex) has reported in the House his demand for use of German and Japanese troops in the U. S. Army.

"The recruits should be volunteers," he said, "and they should be paid by the U. S. government in their own money. If we are to save our armies, if we are to maintain the slightest hope of peace and keep intact any international organization, we must build up our ground forces with the utmost speed."

Oil Taxmen Told Things Get Worse

DALLAS — (AP) — Things are going to get a lot tougher before they get any better, oil company taxmen were warned.

The best we can hope for in the next few years is higher taxes, less goods to sell, more controls on those sold, and fewer people to do the job with," said H. Clyde Reeves, commissioner of revenue for Kentucky.

C. D. Gallamore of Tulsa told the three-day ad valorem tax forum that local governments should have those things essential to betterment but not beyond." He warned against wasteful cost.

Snappy Comeback Buffaloes Gunman

RICHMOND, Ind. — (AP) — Mrs. Bertha Hercules, wife of a roofing company owner, told police the following dialogue took place when a man entered their office and pointed a gun at her last night:

Gunman: "Sister, I need some money and I need it bad."

Mrs. Hercules: "Brother, if you can find any money here just go ahead and take it."

The nonplussed gunman walked out. Mrs. Hercules told police she wouldn't have had such a snappy comeback if she hadn't thought the man was joking. Police took the view he probably meant it.

Fighting Harvesters Clash With Coyotes Saturday at 2 p.m.

CO-CAPT. SCHEIG

COACH TIPPS

SPECK SPECULATES

By SPECK REYNOLDS

Weather conditions in Wichita Falls are going to play an important part in the outcome of the Harvesters-Coyote game. Temperature in Wichita Falls Friday morning was 19 degrees. It is expected that the forecast for Saturday will be a cloudy day with a high of 20 and a low of 12. A dry field, Pampa, 26-19.

A muddy field will favor Coach Tipps' single wing. The Harvesters will have a tougher time working off the T. A slippery ball will be hard to handle on hanoiffs and pichtouts. Both squads are in tip-top condition for the district game. Toney Fields, Coyote fullback, missed the first game against Pampa this year, but he shook off an early season injury and will attempt to roll Saturday.

Phil Collier of the Fort Worth Star Telegram picks the Coyotes to measure the Harvesters, 26-20. If the field is muddy, I pick Pampa, 7-6. A dry field, Pampa, 26-19.

Sports writers throughout West Texas are divided on who they think will win the game. Most of the predictions are close as a cat's whisker. The talk is how the Coyotes have improved since dropping a 14-0 decision to the Harvesters. However, they don't mention how the Green and Gold machine has operated in its last three games.

The Harvester line has been denied for only 77 points in ten games, for a gain average of 7.7, which isn't a bad mark for being back a stuffed Coyote Saturday forward wall. Pampa has outlasted its end and linebacking down in defeat, it's still one position. Wichita Falls piled up the yardage against the Harvesters, but they've never seen in action.

Weather Man Promises Wet Field for Playoff Game

Two gridiron titans of West Texas, Pampa's undefeated Fighting Harvesters and Wichita Falls' rugged Coyotes, wind up their week's practice today, and then both will await zero hour, 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon for their football clash to determine who will enter the quarterfinals in Class AA state playoffs.

Coach Tom Tipps sent his Green and Gold machine through a final workout in Harvester Park at 12:30 today and then the Harvesters boarded a bus and left for Wichita Falls, where they will spend the night.

The Harvesters are in top physical condition, with every man ready to answer the call for action. Wichita Falls is also at full strength for the bi-district contest.

Weather conditions took a turn for the worse in Wichita Falls this week, and it looks like Pampa's T attack will have to operate in the rain, or snow, soon starting falling in Wichita Falls Tuesday, and it will be either mud or a frozen turf for Saturday afternoon's clash.

With Wichita Falls operating off the single wing, a muddy field will favor Coach Tipps' attack. A slippery ball will play havoc with Coach Tipps' formation.

The Harvesters measured the Coyotes earlier in the season, 14-0, but five Coyotes missed that game because of injuries. Those five are ends Kermit Cummings and DeeDee Wilston, tackle Everard Terrell, guard Merrill Blakely, and fullback Tommy Fields. Fields is a dangerous man up the middle and he will aid the Coyotes considerable with their ground game.

Both clubs have improved since their last encounter. Wichita Falls knocked off Childress, 38-0.

FOIT WORTH — Phil Collier, Star Telegram sports writer, picks Wichita Falls over the Pampa Harvesters Saturday afternoon in Coyote Stadium, 26-20. "Now that they are in top condition," said Collier, "the Coyotes figure to have too much on them for the Harvesters. Wichita Falls should win it on the ground, with Edward Beach and James Self inflicting the damage on the outside and Tommie Fields wreaking havoc on the middle."

and capped Vernon, 19-6. The Harvesters defeated Vernon, 34-0, and clipped business, 27-6. A Coyote crowd of 13,000 is expected at the "sugar game."

Wichita Falls has dropped four games this season compared to the Harvesters' ten straight victories. Sports writers throughout West Texas are ranking the game as a toss up, and predictions are divided on the outcome.

The Harvesters will be stronger at the end positions than they were the last time they played Wichita Falls. John Young has been playing a lot of defensive end to strengthen the Harvesters at that position. Guard Bill McPherson has also improved in the last three games, and has been playing outstanding ball in a linebacking role. Gerald Matthews is another Pampa stalwart at the linebacking post.

The Coyotes made most of Harvesters, running around ends and up the middle.

If guard Bill McPherson and Gerald Matthews play the type of ball they have played in the last three games, Fields will find rough sledding up the middle, even if snow is on the ground. However, the Pampaans are hoping for a stuffed Coyote Saturday evening. Even if they go bolstered its end and linebacking down in defeat, it's still one position. Wichita Falls piled up the yardage against the Harvesters, but they've never seen in action.

Aggies, Bulldogs Meet in Bowl Contest Tomorrow

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — (AP) — The Texas Aggies and Georgia's Bulldogs were due here today to take the lid off the major post-season bowl games. They meet in the first Presidential Cup contest tomorrow.

Coach Wally Butts' Bulldogs, arriving in new Washington, D. C., by train, will be shooting for their third bowl victory over a Southern team. They whipped Texas Christian in the 1942 Orange Bowl and Tulsa in the 1946 Oil Bowl.

The Aggies, who chose to fly up for the big game, have split their four previous bowl games: They beat Tulane in the 1940 Sugar Bowl and nipped Northham in the 1941 Cotton Bowl. They dropped decisions to Alabama in the 1942 Cotton Bowl and LSU in the 1944 Orange Bowl.

Royal welcomes were worked out for both teams on their arrival here. Col. Waldron E. Leonard, chairman of the District of Columbia citizens committee, planned to present the keys of the National Capital to Georgia in the morning and the Aggies in the afternoon. Luncheons, dinners and other affairs are at the weekend schedule.

Elaborate ceremonies for Washington's entry into the bowl season are being planned for half-time during the game, it was announced today.

HIS TURN? — Ball-carriers have taken turns starting for Tennessee. It may be Wingback Bert Rechichar's time to do that against Texas in the Dallas Cotton Bowl, Jan. 1.

St. Petersburg, Fla. (AP) — Minor league officials headed for home today with Commissioner A. B. "We've got to look facts in the face. We've got to be ready for every emergency."

"We must be prepared to face the uncertainty and you fellows must make plans accordingly." While denying, in effect, that he had told a group informally of baseball's high commissioner had told the meeting at a banquet last night marking the 49th convention's closing. "We've got to look facts in the face. We've got to be ready for every emergency."

Chandler told a recent visit with President Truman in Washington when he discussed baseball and the world crisis with the nation's No. 1 executive. The Commissioner said the President's views were encouraging. He was assured that every effort would be made to keep baseball going, Chandler, on the other hand, assured the President that baseball was prepared to do anything asked of it, in the event of a third world war, in the way of manpower and material.

Minor Leagues Close Meet With Chandler's Warning

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — The war threat to baseball hinted at by Chandler's address pushed into the background the bonus and high school rule repeal.

The moguls ended a three-year battle to kill the bonus law with yesterday's action that will affect 43 big league and 278 minor league bonus players. The rule officially will be tossed out next week when the majors do the expected and follow the minors' initiative.

Should that happen, it would mean that such lads as Paul Pettit, Pittsburgh's $100,000 bonus baby, Johnny Antonelli of Boston's Braves, Frank House of Detroit and Gus Karizakos of the Chicago White Sox, could be sent out for more seasoning. Under the present rule a bonus player must be kept after only one year in a lower classification.

The high school rule is due to be revised. An eight man committee will be appointed to draw up a new agreement permitting baseball to discuss terms with schoolboys, particularly during their senior year. Under a present agreement, which does not expire until Dec. 31, 1951, a student may not be approached until either he or his class has been graduated.

"We have three offers for Robinson and four involving Ray Scarborough," General Manager Lane of the White Sox tells the press.

"If George Weiss is more interested in Bill Wright than in Scarborough, he has yet to reach that stage of negotiation. If we can better ourselves, we are willing to trade Robinson, we are willing to trade Scarborough."

"The Tigers and Browns, as well as the Yankees, are interested in Robinson. But the Browns are not talking Ned Garver."

The Indians admit interest in Scarborough.

The Athletics are willing to trade Fain because they have a replacement in Lou Limmer. With the Dodgers' St. Paul farm last season, Limmer, a native of the Bronx, won the American Association most-valuable honors.

The White Sox need outfielders, and the writer is informed that General Manager George Weiss of the New York club has offered Gene Woodling.

If Frank Lane makes a deal, he must get a package, however, and naturally Hank Bauer is his first choice. But nobody is going to get Hank away from the Bombers.

As between Woodling and Cliff Napes, other clubs prefer the superior arm, even though his 1950 batting average was only .249.

Reagan Favored Over Sunset

DALLAS — (AP) — John Reagan of Houston seeks to complete one of the amazing drives of Texas schoolboy football tonight by beating Sunset of Dallas for the state championship of the City Conference.

Not given a look-in at even its own district championship, Reagan has been one of the sensations of the season. The Bulldogs whipped Lamar, the heralded Houston power, then turned on the heat for a 35-0 conquest of Thomas Jefferson (San Antonio), the state title favorites.

Early in the season Reagan beat Sunset 13-6 and will be favored to again turn the trick tonight. Sunset, however, is a vastly different team from the one that took that defeat.

A crowd of 10,000 is due to watch the game at Dal-Hi Stadium.

The City Conference has its state championship game, Sunset (Dallas) and John Reagan (Houston) playing at Dallas.

Longhorn Coach Says Dillon Comes in Handy at Texas

By WILBUR MARTIN Associated Press Staff Texas Coach Blair Cherry said "Bobby Dillon is sure a handy guy to have around."

He won't get any argument. Dillon pulled two games for Texas out of the fire this year, and but the Longhorns a head against Oklahoma.

His 84-year touchdown run with a punt won the Baylor victory at Lubbock, Breckenridge at San Angelo and Sherman at Highland Park (Dallas).

In Class A New Braunfels and Lavesa meet at Waco in an afternoon game with Wharton at Pearsall at night while tomorrow afternoon Levelland and Kermit get together at Odessa.

Class B decides seven regional championships today and tonight. These are: Happy vs Dimmitt at Tulla (day), Stanton vs Rochester at Abilene (day), Eldorado vs Eden at Eden (night), Lewisville vs Farmersville at McKinney (night), Sengoville vs Grand at Ennis (night), Valley Mills vs Elkhart at Waco (night), Granger vs Fort Hood at Temple (night). Another regional title will be on line at Kilgore tomorrow when Pine Tree and Levrett's Chapel clash.

Harvesters Rally in Last Half to Bury Lynx, 58-36

Letter Scores 15 Points to Lead Pampans

Spearman's purple clad cagers gave the Harvesters more than they bargained for the first two quarters in the Junior High School gym Thursday night, but the last half Pampa regained its shooting eye and sped past the Lynx, 58-36.

Coach Garland Head's quintet left the floor at half-time with a 21-20 lead. But the Harvesters played a ragged first half, losing the ball many times on bad passes. Coach Cliff McNeely's half-time talk must have been the right tonic because the Green and Gold crew kept the score keeper busy chalking up points the last half.

Duane Jeter, 6-foot 8-inch center, led the Harvesters with 15 points. Ray Martin was high point man for Spearman with 14 tallies.

Martin build the Spearman lead to 22-20 with a free throw starting the third quarter. Jeter knotted the game with a tip in and Jim DeArmond drove in for a lay up for Spearman's last lead of the game.

Toney Jones and James Claunch tied the game when they came through with one pointers. Claunch split the net with a one hander from 20 feet to put the Pampans out in front 26-24, and Spearman was never able to catch the high flying Harvesters.

The Harvesters built their lead to 36-28 at the start of the fourth quarter. At this point Coach McNeely's basketeers caught fire, scoring 15 straight points while holding Spearman scoreless.

Bond parted the cords with a free throw to start the fourth period. Claunch hit a two handed set shot from 30 feet out to make it 39-28. Bond added two more points with a fielder, and Claunch scored two buckets on fast breaks. Bond drove in and under for two more and Jeter hit a bank shot to widen the gap to 49-28. Jones ended the scoring barrage with a drive in set up.

Buck Tucker broke the ice for Spearman with a free throw. DeArmond repeated at the free line to make the score 51-30. The second string took over for the Harvesters and scored seven points before the final whistle blew. Jimmy Bond scored five and Eugene Bonny two to finish the night's scoring for Pampa. Tucker hit a jump shot for the last bucket of the game.

Spearman took the lead in the first half on Joe Lackey's fielder, but Jeter matched it with an overhead one hander. Jeter made good a free throw and Tommy Smith drove in for two more to make it 52. Pampa. Martin made good on Jeter's four, but Toney Jones tossed in two free throws and a field goal. Martin and Bond swapped fielders, but Andy Burlinson at the free line scored two quick buckets to make the score 61-39. Pampa.

The Harvesters, with Jones and Jeter doing the scoring, jumped into a six point lead before Spearman started piling up the points.

Trailing 18-12 in the second period, Nooler, Martin, and DeArmond, blistered the net for 9 points. T. Smith hit a field goal to make the halftime score 21-20, Spearman.

Digging Out Bill Snows County

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Philadelphia motorist caught in last week's snow storm while driving through western Pennsylvania's Lawrence County had to dig out his own car.

Oleg N. Dudkin, an industrial engineer, figured he was doing the county a favor and sent in a bill for five hours' labor at $4 an hour.

The county commissioners wrote Dudkin that if they had to pay wages like that they could only afford mild weather. In fact, they added, it might be cheaper to move the county body or roof it all in. They said they were filing Dudkin's bill in the county court.

Dudkin, in Philadelphia, indicated the matter was closed.

Dr. Means spent 10 years as a missionary in Malaysia and Sumatra before World War II. He has been engaged for several months in a study of changes in religious thought in Southeast Asia and in furthering a literacy campaign in Malaysia.

Snead, Ferrier Eliminated at Miami Golf Open

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A pair of professional golfers named Furgol—Ed and Marty—ranked as the surprise favorites today in the $10,000 Miami International Four-Ball Golf tournament.

The Furgol boys, who have similar last names and deadly putters but otherwise are not related, downed the top seeded duo of Sam Snead, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and Jim Ferrier, San Francisco, 4 and 1 yesterday in the major upset of the tournament.

They are matched for today's third round with Tony Penna, Cincinnati, and Bob Toki, Northampton, Mass. The Penna-Toki combination eliminated the top seeded, Royal Oak, Mich., and Earl Christiansen, Miami, 7 and 5, for the most lopsided victory of the second round.

Pete Cooper, Ponte Vedra, Fla., and Alcide Harmon, Manassas, N. Y., who are playing the seven under par 29 over the front side of the rain-sodden Miami Country Club course yesterday, are matched with Gene Kung, Hollywood, Fla., and Steve Warga, Miami.

The Cooper-Harmon team was seven under par going into the ninth hole and went on to trounce Al Brosch, Garden City, N. Y., and Lew Worsham, Oakmont, Pa., 3 and 2.

Kunes and Warga beat Nick Lazor and Joe Thacker, both of Akron, Ohio, 3 and 1.

Tommy Bolt, Durham, N. C., and Skeel Riegel, Tulsa, Okla., who carded a frontside best ball of six under par 30 in their 4 and 2 victory over Herman Baron, White Plains, N. Y., and Vic Ghazal, Inwood, N. Y., are matched with defending champion Clay Middlecoff, Ormond Beach, Fla., and Ed Oliver, Seattle, Wash.

Middlecoff and his chunky partner breezed to a 3 and 2 win over Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y., and Glenn Teal, Jacksonville, Fla.

Joe Kirkwood, Jr., part-time movie star playing out of Daytona Beach, Fla., and Bill Nary, Chino, Calif., are matched with Dave Douglas, Newark, Del., and Jim Turnesa, Briarcliff, N. Y.

Kirkwood and his partner upset John Barnum, Grand Rapids, Mich., and Jack Shields, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, 5 and 4.

Pampa Glovers Battle Lefors

Pampa's Boys Club, Inc., boxers will engage Lefors boxing team at 8 o'clock tonight in Lefors High School gym. Coach T. J. Watt has been sharpening his boxing crew for tonight's card in the White Building.

The Pampa clouters have been working out the past three months, but have been holding practice rounds for two weeks.

Coach Robert Callan of Lefors has come up with his usual promising boxers. When these two teams match gloves, a good boxing card is promised.

Two of the top matches are the Ronnie James, Pampa, vs. Jerry Herring or J. D. Redus of Lefors. James likes to mix it up, and he is expected to make a strong bid in the golden glove tournament to be held here.

Redus won a decision over James in their last bout, and the two glovers may wait until the golden journey before they meet, providing they get past the other opposition.

Wilhelm is another Pampian who is expected to go places in the golden gloves. The Wilhelm, Todd bout should provide fans with plenty of excitement.

Several of the Pampa glovers will have to wait until weighing in time before they know who they will fight.

Bouts already scheduled are:

50 pounds—Dickie James, Pampa, vs. Boker Bigham, Lefors, 85 pounds Wyland Holtman, Pampa, vs. James Warner, Lefors, 70 pounds—Gerry Watt, Pampa, vs. Cecil Sanders, Lefors, 80 pounds—Ronnie James, Pampa, vs. Jerry Herring or J. D. Redus, 135 pounds—Bobby Wilhelm, Pampa, vs. Friday Todd, Lefors, 155 pounds—Jimmy Bennett, Pampa, vs. Bob Newsome, Lefors.

Texas Ags Tap Canisius, 45-44

NEW YORK (AP)—Two great basketball players battled it out in Madison Square Garden on even terms last night until a leg cramp decided the issue.

Sid Ryan, 6-4 Denver forward, twice brought the Pioneers from behind. Long Island University with last-second baskets to send the game into double overtime. Then with the score tied at 55-55 in the final overtime leg cramped from exhaustion and Denver lost, 58-56, after he left the court. Ryan scored 19.

The Texas Aggies pulled 'one of the night's big upsets in trimming unbeaten Canisius, 45-44, on Jewell McDowell's basket in the final 11 seconds. Canisius led, 44-41, with 47 seconds to go. A basket by Marvin Martin brought it to 44-43 then John DeWitt stole the ball and passed to McDowell for the winning goal.

Bob Zawoluk scored 28 points in St. John's 76-72 triumph over Southern Methodist in the Madison Square Garden opener. It is the Brooklyn team's fourth straight victory and SMU's second loss.

White Deer Opens Cage Campaign At McLean Today

The White Deer Bucks open their basketball campaign today at the McLean Invitational tournament.

The Bucks have three starters back from last year's team: Charlie Meadows, Jackie Freeman, and Dale Imel. The other two starters are returned lettermen, Floyd Travis and Guy Thornburg.

Coach Kenneth Gibson is impressed with the showing so far, but is hampered since the Bucks have not played a game. Coach Gibson is also impressed by the showing of freshmen and sophomores, who are helping to push the juniors and seniors.

The following boys are battling for the other seven places on the traveling squad: Seniors—Taylor Skaggs, Raymond Broome, Bob Moore, and Billy Cofer; junior—Earrest Willis; sophomores—Carl McCabe, Jerry Foom, and James McCoy; freshman—Jerald Hunt, Donald Denham, and Ronald Mills.

The five starters run up a score of 66 to 24 against two teams in an inner squad game this week.

This year the district is divided into two conferences with Groom, White Deer, Panhandle, and Claude as conference foes.

The Bucks first game of the season is Friday morning at 8:45 when they will meet McLean at the McLean tournament.

Four Lettermen Highlight Irish Basketball Prospects

Shamrock Lassies Look for Better Basketball Year

SHAMROCK (Special)—Four lettermen highlight the Irish basketball prospects for the 1950-51 season. They are: Vernon Tarbet, guard; Carrol Valentine, guard; Vaughn Terry, forward; and Roger Skaggs, only 2-year letterman on the Green and White team.

Tarbet will be remembered as the outstanding halfback on the Irishmen's 1951 District 2-A football champions, and leading scorer in the grid sport. He is a letterman from last season and a regular this year.

Valentine, also a regular last year, played a little football this fall for the Irish—enough to hurl a TD pass to Don Carlton against the Dalhart crew—but he is considered a better basketball player. Like Tarbet, he is a senior.

Vaughn Terry, forward, played some last year, enough to win a letter, but he was not a regular. Terry, a senior, was star right end on the Irish grid team this fall, scoring four aerial TD's and starring as an outstanding defensive line backer, a deadly tackler. He will likely win a key forward post in basketball.

Roger Skaggs, a junior, broke his leg last September, after scoring 19 points in the first two grid games. He is expected to be available for basketball combat in about 60 days—enough to help in later tournaments. Skaggs was a regular last year. Other who will compete for the remaining posts are: Robby Hammack, forward; Dwayne Hager, center; Don Carlton, guard; Mack Terry, guard; Van Pennington, guard; Haral Dunnam, guard; Billy Harris, forward; Billy York, center.

All but Harris and Hager are former B squad members from the 1949-50 aggregation. All are remembered as leaders on the Irish grid machine this fall.

Coach Scott McCall is rapidly Irish will enter the McLean tournament this week-end, after only three days practice. The Irish were held up this year by the need for playing two games in the state football playoffs in the Class A field—a game at Hereford, won 20-6, and against Leveland, lost 34-14.

The Irish will be defending their 1949-50 crown as the District 2-A champions. They are expected to be strong contenders for honors this season.

Children Pay Visit To Iceland President

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)—The president of Iceland, Sveinn Bjornson invited the children of Keflavik Airport, who are mostly of American and Icelandic-American parents, to his country residence the other day. The home, which is over 200 years old and was formerly the residence of the Danish governors, is furnished with many handcarved pieces in the traditional Icelandic style.

Bjornson invited the children into his study where he showed them his collection of photographs of European Royalty as well as many notables of the United States government.

Two Dogs and Horse Living an Easy Life

WINNIPEG (AP)—Two shaggy dogs and an old horse are living a life of leisure here. Shep and Bounce, collies, and Rock, a 17-year-old horse, inherited a $5,160 estate when their mistress, Mrs. Elinor Scott, died at Fisher Branch, Man.

Others, when hunting for fish, always swim up stream. This is because fish, when waiting for food or resting, have their heads up the water. The other can more easily approach them from behind.

Warships Shell Red Camps

SINGAPORE (AP)—British warships are giving Communist terrorists in the dense jungles of Malaya a hot time. Units of the Far Eastern Fleet, cooperating with British air and land forces, are pumping shells into Communist camps as fast as they can be spotted.

British soldiers who often have to hack their way into suspected jungle hideouts say the fleet is putting up 'a fine show'. From time to time, a destroyer or cruiser is dispatched from Singapore up the Malayan coast.

Heavy receipts of lettuce piled up prices lower in most markets.

Also lower priced in produce departments: apples, carrots, parsnip celery, eggplant, watermelon, grapes, sweet potatoes, tomatoes and most citrus fruits.

Cold weather in some important winter crop areas of Florida and other states damaged a few vegetables like beans and caused price rises in far-distant markets.

New cabbage, broccoli, Brussels sprouts, cauliflower, onion, peas and summer-type squash were a little higher.

The first Texas beets and spinach of the season arrived in Atlantic seaboard markets this week.

Price trends in retail foods were irregular this week. Pork items and broiling and frying chickens were lower in most places, along with several fruits and vegetables, while beef cuts and eggs turned higher.

Many foods were edging upward at the wholesale level and the mark-ups appeared likely in stores in the next few weeks.

The Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food index made its sharp jump this week since late August, rising 10 cents to $6.77 - highest in more than two years.

The index represents the total wholesale cost of a pound each of 31 foods in general use. Several cuts of pork eased two to six cents a pound in competitive stores across the nation as supplies continued liberal. Small chickens were unchanged to about four cents a pound lower. The upward changes in beef items
