JERUSALEM—(P)—Thousands of Christian pilgrims today filed past rugged reminders of recent war to observe the passion of the Prince of Peace on the route He took to His crucifixion.

Reception to Jobless Plan Is Uncertain

WASHINGTON — (P) — President Truman got a mixed and uncertain reception on Capitol Hill today for his new proposal to (1) blanket 6,000,000 more workers under employment insurance and (2) pay bigger benefits to the jobless for a longer time.

Mr. Truman cited an average of nearly 4,500 unemployed persons today for his proposal.

Democratic leaders were not enthusiastic at the prospect of putting the plan through Congress this year, however, and some Republicans signaled that they are ready to do battle against it.

In a special message to Congress from Key West, the president asked:

1. A $30-a-week nationwide minimum in jobless pay, plus additional money for dependents, with these payments forthcoming for each unemployed person, if needed, for 26 weeks. The various states now determine the size and duration of payments. Benefits vary by states from $15 to $27, and duration of benefits runs from 12 weeks in some states to 26 in others.

2. That the taxes on employers be increased to carry the enlarged program. The employer now pays the tax on the first $3,000 of an individual worker's pay. Mr. Truman proposes to tax the employer on the first $4,800 instead. The tax ranges up to 3 percent.

The 6,000,000 new workers blanketed under the program, if it is approved, would bring the total of covered workers to about 36,000,000.

The newly insured would be employees of firms with fewer than eight workers, also civilian employees of the federal government, about 30,000 persons who

FBI File Clears Lattimore But McCarthy Cries 'Liar'

Taylor Gives Rogers' Drive 'Shot in Arm'

(Additional pictures on Page 9.) More than 300 Panhandle peace officers, business, professional and newspapermen yesterday saw and heard Jay Taylor, prominent Amarillo cattleman, take to a small platform and endorse Atty. Walter E. Rogers as a candidate for Congress in the May 6 special election to replace Judge Eugene Worley.

Taylor made his endorsement at a barbecue given for Rogers by Sheriff G. H. "Skinner" Kyle at 5 p. m. yesterday as an official starter for the Pampa attorney's intensified congressional campaign.

Rogers, first to announce and file for the special election and Democratic primary, also made a short speech from the same little platform prior to Taylor's endorsement. The speech-making was an impromptu affair started by Atty. Curtis Douglas who herded the group together and called Kyle as the first "witness."

Taylor, in a few short sentences, urged every man present to get behind Rogers and push him to victory at both the special and Democratic primary elections.

He described Rogers as the best qualified man in the race because of his experience and "deep-seated knowledge and understanding of conditions existing in the Panhandle and the nation as a whole."

This move by the Amarillo cattleman was considered by most political observers as being the biggest shot in the arm the Pampa attorney has gotten so far in his campaign.

Other prominent Amarilloans are expected to follow the same line in a few days.

Flash bulbs popped intermittently during the "informal" eating period as men from several walks of life were introduced to others from towns and cities over the Panhandle.

Several of them told newspapermen that Rogers' stock as a candidate was gaining in their own communities.

The barbecue was prepared by J. W. "Bill" Graham, seeking reelection as county commissioner, Precinct 2; John V. Andrews, chairman of the Gray County Democratic Committee; Chief Deputy Sheriff Ruff Jordan, and Constable Bill Langley, also seeking reelection as constable of Precinct 2.

Beginning next week, groups of local men who have built an interest in the Pampa attorney are expected to follow the same line in a few days.

Bank Building Pact Is Signed

Officials of the First National Bank yesterday afternoon signed a contract with C. S. Lamb & Company, Amarillo, as general contractor for the razing of the present bank building and construction of a new one on the site at Cuyler and Foster.

A spokesman for the bank said all equipment would be moved into the temporary quarters for business operations at the close of business at Saturday noon.

The new building, a city permit for which shows an outlay of $150,000 will have 6,000 square feet of floor space, including the mezzanine. It will be a one-story brick building. It will contain office space to lease, it was announced.

About 10 months will be required for construction, it was said.

Attack Is Fatal To Walter Huston

HOLLYWOOD — (P) — Walter Huston, veteran stage and screen actor, died today. He celebrated his 66th birthday yesterday.

He succumbed at the Beverly Hills Hotel to a heart attack. The death hit Hollywood with stunning suddenness.

Only last night, many of his friends gathered with him to celebrate his birthday.

His most recent role — which won him an academy Oscar as a supporting actor — was as the hard bitten old prospector in "The Treasure of Sierra Madre," which was directed by his son John.

Highland Hospital Room Rate Reduced

The Board of Directors yesterday reduced the price of rooms at Highland General Hospital. The action was taken, it was said, after a "favorable review of the regular report from the superintendent, Chet Lander."

A spokesman said that "in view of the fine statement for March, we have decided to reduce charges for private rooms from $9.50 to $8.50 and two-bed rooms from $8 to $7."

A report to The News showed that 290 patients were admitted to the new institution in March, 207 in February.

In respect to the statement from the superintendent on the first full month of operation since the hospital opened, Chairman of the Board Reno Stinson said:

"This first report was better than we had expected, because of my study of hospitals prior to the opening of Highland with out exception they were losing money the first few months of operation. The initial reception given to Highland in the form of patronage has been beyond our expectations."

Supt. Lander said: "I wish to take this opportunity to thank the people of the Top of Texas area for their splendid cooperation with and acceptance of Highland General Hospital."

The board voted to install temporary floodlights over the parking area. This will be until street lights, scheduled to go up, are installed. Another oxygen tent, which will be the third, will be purchased.

Other members of the board are O. G. Stokely, vice chairman; Art Reed, secretary; J. W. Garman, Edwin Nelson, J. L. Sparkman, and Dr. Frank Kelley.

Scout Executive Board Asks 14 To Join Group

Fourteen men have been extended invitations to become members of the Adobe Walls Area Council's Executive Board. They will be introduced at a banquet meeting at 7 p. m. today in the City Palm Room.

The invited members include: Joe Key, Joe Gordon, Pampa; R. Board, Boise City, L. L. Nunley, Hooker, Marvin McKee, Goodwell, Lee Johnson, Ray McSpadden, Phillips, Fritz Thompson, Dr. W. G. Stephens, Norman Motley, Berger, Carl Ellis, Alton Boxwell, Perryton, Tom Conatser, Canadian, and M. M. Craig, Miami.

W. B. Weathered, chairman of the council's nominating committee, will introduce the new members. A. W. Paris, Phillips, president of the council, will preside over the meeting. Various other committee chairmen will report on future Scouting activities.

Pampan's Brother Succumbs in Dallas

Max King, 57, pioneer of Memphis, Texas, and brother of Mrs. J. Ray Martin, 708 N. Frost, died at 4 p. m. yesterday at St. Paul's Hospital in Dallas.

Funeral arrangements are pending in Memphis.

Mr. King for the past two years was engaged in farming and ranching. He owned King Furniture and Undertaking in Memphis for about 30 years.

Besides Mrs. Martin he is survived by three other sisters, Mrs. C. H. Smith, Dunson, Okla., Miss Imogene King, Memphis, and Mrs. F. H. Bowdoin, Memphis; and a brother, J. E. King, Memphis.

City Youths Faced With New Charges

TUCUMCARI, N. M. — Raymond E. Frazier, his brother, Billy Frazier, and Claude L. Gardner, all of Pampa, entered pleas of guilty yesterday to breaking in a San Jon garage Sunday before District Judge E. T. Henley, Jr.

The Pampa youths were nabbed in the act by a night watchman Sunday, and signed statements to burglaries in Pampa before police officers on Wednesday.

Sentence on them has been postponed pending action by Pampa and Vega authorities.

The Vega authorities hold order came to light yesterday afternoon when authorities here said the trio was also wanted for questioning in a Vega garage break-in where $250 worth of equipment was taken.

Raymond Frazier admitted breaking into the Fox-Rig and Lumber Co., J. C. Daniels Garage, and Bovard Supply Co., and implicated Gardner in the break-ins. He did not, however, implicate his brother, Billy, in those burglaries.

No plans for their return to Pampa to face burglary complaints have been made by local officers.

Communist Leaders Enter South Korea

SEOUL — (P) — A new wave of Communist-trained guerrillas from North Korea has slipped into the South Korea mountains.

The army said today it has killed 88 and captured 22 of them. But it estimated about 700 of the specially-trained "trouble-makers" slipped across border March 26, eluding strong border patrols.

Judge Will Attempt to Take Hollywood Out of Child Star

HOLLYWOOD — (P) — You can take the child out of Hollywood, but can you take Hollywood out of the child?

Judge A. A. Scott, who proposes to find the answer to that one, yesterday made nine-year-old actress Lora Lee Michel a ward of juvenile court. Temporarily taking the $100-a-day Miss from her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Michel, the judge said:

"The glamour is being taken out of this child. She must find out that she is not the center of attraction."

Lora Lee is leading a normal life at Juvenile Hall, playing with children her own age, said Judge Scott, and probation officers are seeking a suitable home for the child.

"She's improved beautifully just being with the kids in the hall," the judge said.

He did not indicate how long the child will be kept a ward of the court, but the Michel's attorney, Oscar Cummins, said: "I think there is no question that ultimately Lora Lee will be restored to the foster parents."

They agreed to the court action. The Michel's adopted Lora in Texas in 1945.

Meanwhile the child veteran of 20 movie roles will continue to undergo a "deglamorizing" process designed to curb her emotionality.

Lora Lee told conflicting stories of mistreatment and starvation last January, which first brought her to court attention. Mrs. Michel, however, was acquitted of mistreatment charges March 24, after Lora Lee had run away from home and into the arms of juvenile authorities again.

The Michels admitted they had put the child back "into one last movie" after Judge Scott had advised them to take her back to Texas.

Police Seeking Real Clues in Two Slayings

KANSAS CITY — (P) — Police lacked tangible clues today in the slaying of two men, one named Charles Binaggio but the crime was linked with the underworld; Binaggio, a former worker in Boss Tom Pendergast's once-powerful Democratic organization, was shot to death yesterday.

His strong-arm aide, ex-convict Charlie Gargotta, also was killed. Binaggio, who broke with the Pendergast group after Boss Tom's death, had developed a strong following in Kansas City northside wards.

The crime brought repercussions in both the state and national capitals.

In Washington, Rep. Short (R-Mo.) declared Binaggio was killed because he was "in the way" in the Missouri senatorial primary.

The congressman said Binaggio was backing a senatorial candidate opposed by President Truman, but said they had no Pendergast political organization.

Rep. Macy (R-NY) called for a congressional investigation into the "affiliation of crime and gangsters with politics" in Kansas City.

Missouri Governor Forrest Smith ordered that state highway patrol and the attorney general's office to aid local police in the investigation.

Police questioned more than 20 persons but said they had no clues to the slayers' identities. No weapon was found in the First District Democratic Club where the men were killed.

Four shots had been fired into each man's head at close range. The Kansas City Star said Binaggio "was murdered because he wanted to quit the ball game when his team — the shadowy national crime syndicate reaching from coast to coast — was losing and it was Binaggio's turn 'at bat'."

The Northside political chief and Gargotta had appeared recently before a federal grand jury investigating underworld activities.

"The execution was carried out by local men, close friends of the fallen leader, on orders which (See POLICE, Page 14)

Jury Rules 'Guilty' in Mercy Death

ALLENTOWN, Pa. — (P) — Harold Mohr was found guilty today of voluntary manslaughter in the mercy-killing of his cancer-wracked brother.

The jury of eight men and four women recommended a sentence of Judge James P. Henninger said yesterday such a recommendation is not mandatory on the court. Maximum term for voluntary manslaughter is 12 years in prison.

Mohr stood to hear the verdict with no visible sign of emotion. He stared, dully, at the floor.

The verdict was returned today an hour and 25 minutes after the jurors resumed deliberations. Five hours of study yesterday failed to bring forth a verdict.

The jurors had a choice of four verdicts: a complete acquittal, acquittal, voluntary manslaughter, or acquittal.

Defense Counsel Harry C. Creveling promptly made an oral motion for a new trial. Judge Henninger did not sentence Mohr pending the appeal.

District Attorney Kenneth H. Koch, in his summation yesterday, accused Mohr of stepping "to the shoes of God when he shot" his brother, Walter, 55, the night of March 8 at their home in Copley.

He asked the jury to convict Mohr to "bring mercy killings to a halt."

The defendant had signed a statement saying he shot Walter to end his suffering after Walter repeatedly asked to be "put out of his misery."

"We've been fooling around with the Almighty," Koch told the jury. "That's what Harold Mohr did."

Creveling offered a defense of temporary insanity, stating that Harold cracked under Walter's plea for death and shot him as he lay moaning on his bed.

Kyle Going After Attack Suspects

Gray County Sheriff G. H. Kyle was on his way to Panhandle today to pick up three men held there in connection with an attack on a 50-year-old woman last night.

Kyle said Sheriff Clarence Williams of Carson County told him today that three men were being held on a complaint stating that they attacked the woman, not identified by the officer, on Highway 66 inside the Gray County line.

Jack Martin Elected By Shamrock Group

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Jack R. Martin, Shamrock, was elected president of the Maunty Thursday Scottish Rite Club in an annual meeting held in Shamrock last night.

Other officers include Dr. H. E. Nicholson, Wheeler, vice president, and Neal Wilson, Shamrock, secretary treasurer.

Members from several neighboring communities attended the meeting. J. B. Clark delivered the principal address and O. T. Nicholson served as master of ceremonies.

They crucified Him, and with Him, two thieves. And they set and watched His agony, mocking and reviling Him. Darkness covered the earth. After three hours, the end was at hand. And Jesus, again crying with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. (Matt. 27:50)

Q: How popular is company housing in the coal mining industry?
A: There is a trend away from company-owned housing in the coal industry. Four out of every five bituminous coal miners' families now live in houses which they either own or rent from private landlords.

Q: Does white light penetrate fog as well as colored light?
A: Although white light penetrates fog just as well as colored light, motorists favor amber over clear lens fog lamps ten to one. This is probably because amber light is the more unusual visual signal.

Q: What is the length of the longest moving stairway in an office building?
A: The longest moving stairway ride in an office building anywhere in the world is in Boston, Mass. The 16 stairway units run from the basement to the eighth floor and down again, and contain 1083 moving steps.

Q: Who composed the song "My Wild Irish Rose"?
A: Chauncey Olcott wrote both the words and music of this popular love song.

Q: Which of the cities named in his honor did Abraham Lincoln help to lay out?
A: Lincoln, Ill., founded in 1821. It is the only one of 24 similarly named cities of the United States which was named for Abraham Lincoln before he became famous.

Q: Do deer compete with domestic livestock for forage on the forest range?
A: If the numbers of deer and livestock are adjusted to the available food supply, there will be no conflict. Generally speaking, deer feed on browse; cattle and sheep prefer grasses and weeds. Competition exists only where either livestock or deer, or both are present in excessive numbers.

Q: What is the shortest distance, approximately, between Russian and American territory?
A: About five miles. In the Bering Strait between Siberia and Alaska, Russia owns an island called Big Diomed, the United States one called Little Diomed.

Q: How many constellations are there in the sky?
A: Before 1930 there was some confusion about the number and their exact boundaries, but in that year the International Astronomical Union officially defined them and set their number at 88. Of these, 48 go back to ancient times.

Q: How many ordinary years are there in a light-year?
A: None. The year is a measure of time, and the light-year one of length, like the mile. It represents the distance over which light can travel in a year's time.

Marshall Plan Proves Confusing in Sudan
KHARTOUM — (AP) — Former Secretary of State George Marshall isn't related to Dr. A. H. Marshall, city treasurer of Coventry, England.
Civil Secretary Sir James Robertson had to explain that to the Sudan Legislative Assembly the other day. The Assembly was studying a plan for government reform prepared by the British Marshall.

A rumor had started among the assemblymen that if they approved the Coventry city treasurer's plan, the Sudan would get U.S. Marshall aid.

Genetic Theory of Cancer Supported by New Evidence

By RENNIE TAYLOR
AP Science Reporter
PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — New evidence supporting the theory that cancer is caused by changes in genes, the hereditary factors in living cells, has been reported by two Stanford University researchers.

Dr. Edward L. Tatum and Dr. Raymond W. Barrett, biologists, made the tests on neurospora, which are single cells of mold but which like human cells contain genes. They reported the results to the American Cancer Society.

Nine different kinds of rays and chemicals which are known to cause cancer in animals and humans were used on the neurospora. This was not done in any attempt to produce cancer in the neurospora but rather to see what other things the rays and chemicals could do to a single cell.

Seven of the nine rays and chemicals caused terrific increases in the number of gene changes in the mold cells. The changes took place at rates ranging from four to 200 times normal.
Since a gene change means a change also in some characteristic of the whole cell, the results suggested but did not prove that this is the process by which the rays and chemicals turn normal cells into malignant ones.

The next steps in this research is to treat neurospora with some chemicals which are structurally similar to those cancer-causers but which never have produced malignancy in experimental animals.

If these non-cancer causing relatives do not produce gene changes in the neurospora the experimenters then will have strong evidence in support of the genetic theory of malignancy.

This theory has been known to cancer researchers for many years but they never have had air-tight proof of it.

Forest Fire Season Fear Is Expressed

ALBUQUERQUE (AP) — A "really bad" forest fire season is forecast for New Mexico unless moisture conditions improve.
Fire Control Chief Don Beck of the Southwest Forest Region has asked the district weather bureau to begin releasing daily fire weather forecast three weeks early this year. The fire season normally starts about May 1.
Beck said "the state's most destructive fire in many years" swept 23,000 acres in Northern New Mexico last week.

Baylor Nurse School Move Is Scheduled

WACO — (AP) — The nursing school of Baylor University will move from Dallas to Waco. The move was approved by university trustees in a semi-annual meeting here.

Baylor President W. R. White said the move will allow the school to enlarge its instruction program leading to a degree of bachelor of science in nursing.

Dean Zora N. Fielder of the School of Nursing will go to Waco May 1 to set up the new program. Courses will begin in Waco with the fall quarter in September.

Dr. White said students in nursing will take 12 months of class-work in Baylor's College of Arts and Sciences in Waco. Then they will move to Baylor Hospital in Dallas or some specialized hospital for two years of hospital training. They will return to the Waco campus for their final nine months of study.

Not affected by the move is the 12-month course in technical or practical nursing offered in Dallas.

Baylor now has nine schools and colleges on the Waco campus. The College of Dentistry is in Dallas and the College of Medicine in Houston.

Baylor trustees also authorized Baylor Hospital to borrow $500,000 for completion of the two top floors of its new seven-story building.

The Hayden Planetarium in New York City has 3,758,432 tiny holes drilled through its steel ceiling.

First Methodist Women's Groups Meet for Study in Members' Homes

The meeting of Circle One of the First Methodist Women's Society of Christian Service was opened with group singing, followed by prayer led by Mrs. R. J. Epps. The group met in the home of Mrs. R. W. Lane, 1214 North Russell.

During the devotional period Mrs. E. L. Campbell read Luke 24, 1-36 verses. Mrs. R. W. Lane read a poem, "Song for Easter."

Mrs. Lee Harrah led discussion of the study "Missions at the Grass Roots," and Mrs. Walter Purviance told the history of the First Methodist Church in Pampa.

In closing Mrs. R. W. Lane read the 12th chapter of Romans. Circle Two met in the home of Mrs. Claud Byrd with nine members present.

Mrs. W. R. Campbell, chairman, presided and conducted a business session.

Mrs. H. F. Barnhart told of the early history of the local church. Mrs. W. R. Campbell taught chapters three and four of the study "Mission at the Grass Roots."

Mrs. J. E. Kirchman concluded the meeting by bringing an Easter devotional from the Bible.

Refreshments were served. Circle Three met in the home of Mrs. Irvin Cole. There were 15 present.

Mrs. J. E. Ward brought the devotional on "Jesus Love for the Church."

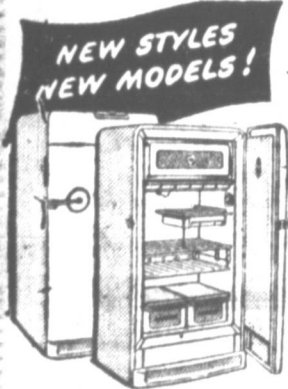

Mrs. Sherman White directed the study, and asked Mrs. Cole to discuss "A Look at the Church," Mrs. R. I. Davis told the story of "A Church Takes Stock" and Mrs. H. H. Kealey spoke on "What Does Youth Want and Need?"

Mrs. W. R. Ewing concluded the study for the afternoon with discussion on youth and the churches.

The group used as a benediction a piano solo by Mrs. Cole.

Revival Services To Begin Today

Revival services will begin at the South Hobart Street Baptist Mission, Brown and Hobart, on Easter Sunday and will continue through Sunday evening, April 16.

The Rev. W. Finley Vandenburg, pastor of the mission, will preach twice daily at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The revival theme will be "God's Will in My Life."

The above picture is of the visiting singer, Joe Kayser, a junior in Wayland College, Plainview. Mr. Kayser will direct the congregational singing and arrange for all special music during the revival.

He plans to meet with the young people of the church each evening from 7 until 7:30.

An undivided heart, which worships God alone, and trusts Him as it should, is raised above all anxiety for earthly wants.

—Geikie

A childlike trust of heart, that can take a hand, and wondering, walk in paths unknown and strange, is the prime requisite of all religion. —James Martineau supplies for the Bethlehem Center.

Mrs. H. H. Boynton conducted the business session, announcing the general meeting which will be held the 19th. Mrs. Kenneth Irwin gave a devotional on "The Hope of Christianity."

Mrs. W. Purviance gave a history of the Methodist church in Pampa and described the activities of the church. Mrs. J. D. Wright, Jr., discussed the "Youth of the Church."

Mrs. Boynton closed the meeting with a prayer.

The next meeting will be May 3 in the home of Mrs. Joe Tooley at 1214 N. Russell. Mrs. W. D. Waters will be co-hostess.

Circle Eight met in the home of Mrs. Jack Walton with 12 members and two visitors present. Guests were Mrs. C. P. Conover and Mrs. H. B. Howse.

Mrs. J. A. Grundy and Mrs. Henry Ellis joined the circle as new members. Mrs. Sam B. Cook presided at a short business meeting.

Mrs. J. B. Austin, study chairman, introduced the study, "Mission at the Grass Roots." Mrs. Cook spoke on the importance of home missions and their growth during the past few years. She read a story of the work of a missionary among the Spanish speaking people.

Mrs. Don Nienstiel brought the devotional on "The Way of the Cross" and closed the meeting with prayer.

Refreshments were served.

Catholic Women Have Day of Recollection

A day of recollection for women of Holy Souls Parish was held recently under the sponsorship of the Parish Council of Catholic Women. Theme for the day was "Family Life."

received Communion in a body. Mass was followed by breakfast in the Parish Hall. After a period of solemn recollection the group returned to the church for High Mass at 10 a.m.

The Rev. Francis Kuns conducted a conference at 11 a.m. The group submitted questions at the end of the conference, which were answered by the Rev. Kuns at a "question box" held at 1 p.m. following lunch in Parish Hall. After the Rosary and another short period of solemn recollection the group returned to the church for a conference conducted by the Rev. Otto Meyer. Stations of the Cross, led by the Rev. Kuns at 2:30. Rosary and the closing conference by the Rev. Meyer ended the program. The day was brought to a conclusion with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Shamrock Church Groups Meet in Regular Session

SHAMROCK — (Special) —

The Women's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church held circle meetings with the Many More Circle gathering at the home of Mrs. J. R. Brown. Mrs. Charles Daughtry opened the service with prayer and led the Bible lesson. She was assisted with the discussion by Mrs. R. A. Nichols, Sr., and Mrs. Fred Holmes. Plans were made during the business session for cottage prayer meetings to be held during the revival which begins soon at the First Baptist Church.

The Blanche Groves Circle met in the home of Mrs. Bill Wilson. Mrs. R. W. Shields, chairman, presided and led in prayer. The meeting was in the form of an enrollment program, and recent census cards turned over to the First Baptist Church, were used to plan for new members in the circle. Members of the circle went out to visit instead of the regular Bible lesson or program.

The First Ray Circle met in the home of Mrs. P. T. Boston. Mrs. E. K. Bechtel presided over the business session, which opened with prayer led by Mrs. D. L. Worley. The Bible lesson was taught by Mrs. Jack Kersh.

The hostesses served refreshments during the social hour to the following members: Mmes. Charles Green, C. V. Wood, D. L. Worley, Ben A. Skidmore, Jack Kersh, E. K. Bechtel, B. F. Rishinger, George Bealy and daughter, Donna.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met recently for a worship program, which opened with group singing. Mrs. J. P. Solomon led the opening prayer, and a short business session was held with Mrs. C. L. Reavis presiding.

The group voted to send a donation of $10 to the Bethlehem Center, recently established in Fort Worth. They also made plans for a library for the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Chester Tindall was program leader and in her "Call to Worship," the 6th Psalm was used.

The song, "Holy, Holy, Holy," was sung in unison with Mrs. S. M. Dunnam at the piano.

"Our Christian Brothers Overseas" was the general theme for the service and Mrs. Rufus Dodgen discussed "The Christian Advance in Japan." Mrs. H. T. Fields led the prayer to dismiss the meeting.

Those attending were Mmes. Maggie Fleener, L. E. DePew, L. S. Griffin, Rufus Dodgen, Chester Tindall, W. J. Foster, O. T. Glasscock, Scott McCall, Lonnie Burks, H. T. Fields, J. F. Solomon, S. M. Dunnam, T. C. Milam, Glenn Richerson, Albert Cooper, E. C. Hofmann, M. E. Risk, and C. L. Reavis.

Modern Youth in Need of Advice

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

It would be helpful to have somebody turn up with some up-to-date advice to parents, clergy and youth counselors on public and private morality, in view of current events.

First there was the Kinsey report which found half the married men surveyed had been unfaithful to their wives at least once.

A couple of months ago, reports the New York Times, Yale anthropologist, Dr. George P. Murdock, predicted that within "very few generations" our society would become as tolerant of premarital experience as "the majority of the other peoples of the world."

"Moreover," said the scientist, "I suspect that increasing premarital freedom may ultimately lead to more rational selection of mates and thereby to a decline in divorce."

Along comes a world-renowned actress with a son named after a gentleman not her husband — and with a husband still legally bound to her when this son was born.

These are just three examples, picked at random. Meanwhile, we are proud of our literacy rate, and as a result of our fine public education system, our young people can read, try to understand and — one hopes — ask questions of their elders.

If I were a teen-ager, I would be very confused. As a matter of fact, I'm a confused grown-up.

Meanwhile parents and youth counselors continue debating the pros and cons of sex education for children — and handing out familiar old platitudes about how if you want to be really popular, and win the one you want to wed you will be a nice, friendly person but never, never cheap or promiscuous.

Youngsters, beset with growing-up fears and doubts, reads on one hand about a trend toward promiscuity as an aid in happy marriage. And this is followed up by familiar and earnest admonitions about being careful of kisses. Ah, yes, the sage ones warn, boys may like to take out cheap, wild girls, but they don't marry them.

St. Mark to Present An Easter Cantata

The choir and other members of St. Mark Colored Methodist Church will present an Easter Cantata, "Palms of Victory" at 5 a.m. Sunday morning. Breakfast will be served in the Church Educational Building beginning at 8 o'clock. The pastor will preach at the 11 o'clock service, and infants will be baptized. At 8 p.m. there will be a special program presented by the young people and children. The public has been invited to these services.

McLean Churches In Weekly Meets

McLEAN — (Special) —

McLean churches held weekly programs in their churches on Tuesday afternoon.

The Baptist Women's Missionary Union Ethel Peck held Bible Study on "Man" with Mrs. Homer Abbott conducting the lesson. She was assisted by several members.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist on a Bible Study with the program being in the charge of Mrs. Leamon Andrews.

Mrs. Bill Day, at the piano, gave meditation followed by prayer by Mrs. R. N. Ashby. "Prayer is the Soul's Sincere Desire" Mrs. Bob Black, Mrs. W. B. Hicks, spoke on "Bible Women at Prayer." "Our Task in This Changing World" by the leader, and Mrs. Alvin Dentob sang a solo, "Teach Me to Pray."

Mrs. J. E. Kirby, Mrs. Ellen Wilson and Mrs. J. L. Hess were hostesses and served refreshments. Study on "Prayer" was held by the Presbyterian Ladies' Auxiliary. Leader was Mrs. Ruth McCune. Mrs. Haskell Smith led a short business session.

It is better to suffer wrong than to do it, and happier to be sometimes cheated than not to trust. — Samuel Johnson

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 8.

The Golden Text is: "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death" (Proverbs 12:28).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee."

he sabbath hour" (Matthew 8:15).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christ, as the spiritual or true idea of God, comes now as of old, preaching the gospel to the poor, healing the sick, and casting out evils" (page 347).

Trust Truth, not error; and Truth will give you all that belongs to the rights of freedom. — Mary Baker Eddy

Skee Riegel Leading Masters With Par-Busting 69 Round

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — The stars of the 14th Masters Tournament field tried again today to break the spell of a championship course and find the way to glory on its rolling greens.

Only stocky Skee Riegel managed sub-70 shooting among the 65 golfers yesterday in the first round. Riegel celebrated his first major tournament try as a professional by firing a 69.

Just seven other golfers broke par 72 at the great Augusta National course which has seen the best and conquered most of them. The 6,900 yards of thickly sodded, never flat fairways and the hillocked greens were exceedingly rough for all but a few.

Jim Ferrer of San Francisco, Horton Smith of Detroit, Jimmy Demaret of Ojai, Calif., Lawson Little of Monterey, Calif., and Hercul Spear of Huntsville, Ala., got under par with 70's.

Little, Toney Penna of Cincinnati and defending Champion Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., had 71's. Johnny Palmer, the Baden, N. C., pro who was picked to win the Masters by fellow golfers, managed a round in par.

Many another great golf was left with the kind of score hardly worth whispering about — Jack Burke, Jr., Lloyd Mangrum and Chick Harbert with 75's and Byron Nelson, Herman Keser, Cary Middlecott and Hermion Barton with 76's.

Ben Hogan and national amateur champion Charlie Oat tied with George Fazio at 78.

There was a striking similarity with 1941 as the 1950 Masters went into the second round.

At the opening of the second round last year, a 69 led the field — Lloyd Mangrum's Today, Riegel's 69 was being At the opening of the second 1949 round 51 golfers had scores below 80. It was the same today — 51 players were under 80.

WHITMAN CUT DOWN—Dick Whitman, Philadelphia Phils outfielder, is out at the plate as his team attempts a double steal in an exhibition game with the Washington Senators at Clearwater, Fla. Grady Hamner of the Phils, on first base, broke for second and Whitman started for home. Nats catcher Al Evans (8) threw to Eddie Yost at second and Yost returned the ball to Evans in time to make the tag. Phils batter Eddie Waitkus and Umpire Frank Dascoll watch the play. NCAA Heads Accomplish 2 Months Work in Two Days

CHICAGO (AP) — The NCAA's embattled sanity code appeared geared for revision today after a successful fact-finding meeting of the nation's athletic chiefs.

Officials of 20 conferences accomplished in two days more than it would normally take two months to do by going through channels.

In brushing aside the usual red tape, six proposals for amending the code were drafted. They were kept secret. NCAA President Hugh C. Willitt of Southern California said they ranged from "absolutely no change up to considerable additional aid for worthy athletes."

The proposals, he said, pointed toward these common aims: 1—That athletes getting aid must be academically worthy both in college entrance and progress toward degree requirements; 2—There must be positive and definite evidence aid recipients need assistance; 3—All such aids must be administered by regular campus agencies.

The proposals, undoubtedly including the South's suggestion for a free board and room to the needy, now will be funneled to a screening committee. From there they go to the NCAA's policymaking council in August and on to the NCAA's annual convention in Dallas next January.

Anyone Seen 'Dolores' Tatoo?

NEW YORK (AP) — Anybody seen a stocky 152-pounder with the word "Dolores" tattooed on his chest?

Tuzo (King) Portuquez, a charged middleweight from Costa Rica, is looking for him. So are red-faced fight officials in Kansas, put in the middle by boxing's biggest "ringer case" in years.

"Dolores" may connote a chic Spanish, freely translated, it means "misses."

That's what Portuquez says he has in mind for the mysterious gladiator who used his name Wednesday night in Wichita, Kan., to absorb a first round knockout and pick up $225.

"Knockout in first round—very embarrassing," the 22-year-old Madison Square Garden headliner said in his best Spanish.

"I never hear of Kansas. I never hear of this fellow Williams."

It was Williams — Alvin Williams, a 161-pound Wichita Indian—who gave the tattoo a good working over and knocked out the fighter listed as Costa Rica's Portuquez in 2 minutes, 33 seconds.

The beaten battler collected his purse and did a quick fadeout. He hadn't been located early today.

"It wasn't me," insisted Portuquez. "See, no tattoo." He stripped off a jacket and red shirt to display a muscled but unlabelled chest.

Friends from Costa Rica translated his vehement protests in an interview at the Associated Press office.

The unmarked Central American said at the time of the Wichita fight he was either developing a plate of tortillas at a Latin restaurant or dancing at a New York club — with witnesses aplenty to prove it.

Who, then, was the fighter with the inch and a half tattoo on his chest and intimate knowledge of Portuquez?

The impostor told fight authorities in Wichita he had broken with his manager and was fighting free-lance.

Pollet Tries to Give Reds Four Outs, Turns an Easy Game Into a Hard One

BY HOWIE POLLET

Cardinals' 30-game winner. There is no excuse for a ball player, especially a pitcher, not knowing how many are out.

Yet I was guilty of it.

The Cardinals had a two-out, first-run lead.

The Reds had runners on first and second.

There were two out, but for some reason I will never know, I got it into my head that there was only one out.

The batter hit the ball right back at me. I got set to throw to second base to start what I thought would be a double play, and to my utter astonishment, found no one covering.

Marty Marion and Red Schoendienst and everybody else present, for that matter, no doubt were more amazed than I was. I tried to stop the throw, but couldn't, and the ball went into right-center field.

The man on second scored. The man on first went to third. The batter was safe.

An easy ball game had been turned into a tough one.

When the fireworks subsided and the ball had been returned to me, I stooped over to pick up the resin bag.

Before I straightened up, I saw two feet. They belonged to Eddie Dyer.

"What in blazes were you thinking of?" asked Skip.

"I thought there was only one out," I replied.

Manager Dyer snorted, turned back toward the dugout.

He turned around again, snorted once more, just had to get something off his chest.

"Yeah, you thought," said Eddie Dyer, "and look at the hole you got us in."

That was my Biggest Boner in Baseball.

Pettit Curbed For Six Runs By Parent Club

(By The Associated Press)

The exhibition baseball chatter today was mostly about pitching performances, including one by the $100,000 bonus baby, Paul Pettit.

Pettit is the 18-year-old California lad recently acquired by the Pittsburgh Pirates. Paul was shipped to the Pirates' farm club, New Orleans. Just a few days ago he landed five hitless innings against minor league opposition.

Yesterday he was sent in to pitch against major leaguers — the Boston Pirates.

Perhaps young Paul had a case of stage fright. At any rate, before the first inning was over he had given six runs. Three straight walks filled the bases. Pettit then allowed three singles, a double, a wild pitch and a balk, with a double steal sandwiched in.

But Paul stayed in there for three more innings and, indicating he may yet prove his mettle, blanked the major leaguers over that stretch. Pittsburgh won the game, 10-7.

Mel Parnell, ace Boston Red Sox moundman, showed a lack of form that won 25 games last year as he led down the Jacksonville Tars of the Sally League with no runs and four hits in a full route won by Boston, 12-0.

Bob Kuzava, Chicago White Sox southpaw (12-10), pitched a few inches of pitching a no-hitter against the Houston, Texas League club. Chicago got only three hits in winning, 2-0.

The lone bingle off Kuzava came in Bob York's eighth inning. He belted one down the leftfield line for a two-bagger that barely stayed inside the white line.

The New York Giants also got an all-time pitching stint from the South's suggestion for a free board and room to the needy, now will be funneled to a screening committee. From there they go to the NCAA's policymaking council in August and on to the NCAA's annual convention in Dallas next January.

Blustery Day Oilers Outscore College Nine

Runs Score to 24-14 Total

The Pampa Oilers opened their home exhibition baseball season yesterday afternoon with a wind-blown 24-14 victory over the Southwestern Tech Bulldogs of Weatherford, Okla. The high winds and blowing dust caused the game to become a farce from the start.

The game was a test for lefty Bill Garland and except for a wind-blown home run with one man aboard he went through three innings unscathed.

Righthander Merlin Hubbard wasn't treated as well, however. He was rapped solidly for nine hits and eleven runs in the two innings he worked and found the Oilers trailing 13-10 when he retired from the ball game in favor of Roy Parker. Parker kept the collegians in check the rest of the way as the Oilers' bats came to life and rapped off 14 more runs behind the diminutive southpaw.

The game, the first of the season in Pampa, found only a handful of fans braving the strong wind and cool weather. The ones that were there, however, saw some good baseball in spots despite the weather conditions.

The Oilers opened up the game by getting three runs in the first frame through the wildness of Curtis Hurst, opening Bulldog pitcher. The Bulldogs gained two of them back when Bill Hubbard pounded one into deep rightfield that the wind caught hold of and pushed out of the park with one man aboard.

The Oilers came back in their half of the third, however, and hit for four more counters on four hits which included singles by Fortin and Squires and doubles by Richardson and Rose.

Then the college boys took over. Merlin Hubbard came in to hurl for four more innings and immediately misjudged a wind-blown home run over the centerfield fence by Sonny Timms, that brought in seven runs.

The Oilers retaliated with three in their half of the fourth on a walk, a fly-ball error and a single by Dunkovitch.

Then the collegians jumped on Hubbard again in the fifth for four more on two hits and two walks.

In the sixth and seventh frames the Oilers came to life. They scored 14 runs on 8 hits in these two innings with three-run home run by Dunkovitch being the big blow of the uprising.

The final run of the day came in the ninth when the Bulldogs coupled together a double and a single to make the final score 24-14.

Roy Parker was the winning pitcher, giving but two hits in four innings and fanning five. Garland allowed three hits and two runs in his three innings of work.

The next game for Pampa is next Sunday when they play the Lamesa Lobos in Lamesa. On Monday they play in Abilene and then return here to play Albuquerque on Thursday. Friday they travel to Borger and then return home for a Saturday game with the Gold Sox and a Sunday contest against Borger. That closes out their exhibition schedule with the championship season opening on the 19th at Lubbock.

Local Boxers Set for Broncs

The Pampa Boys Club boxing team has been training hard each night this past week in preparation for the first home bout of the season next Monday night when the local fighters will entertain the Clarendon High School Broncs. The fights will be held in the Junior High School Gymnasium, starting at 8 o'clock.

So far this season the local fighters have a good record. They lost the match to Leffors, defeated Panhandle, Kres and Clarendon and lost to Shamrock and Wellington. They also fought the Irishmen to a draw.

Clarendon High is a strong runner-up to Wellington in the recent District 2-A boxing tournament held at Wellington last weekend. The Clarendon team is strong and experienced and just barely lost to the Pampa club in the first meeting.

Tickets for Monday night's bouts may be obtained from any of the directors of the Pampa Boys Club, who are John Rankin, Vince Collins, Homer Anderson, Jack Vaughn, Orin James W. He Cooper and Ham Luna.

Ring official for the bouts will be Eugene Cooper, former state Golden Gloves boxing champion from Pampa.

On Wednesday night of next week the fighters will close out their season with a team match with Panhandle's Panthers at the Junior High Gymnasium.

Newhouser's Arm Bursts Tigers' Hopes

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — Hal Newhouser's doubtful condition has punctured the budding Detroit pennant boom.

Many experts, impressed by consistently smooth performances of Manager Red Rolfe's Tigers, were hopping the Tiger bandwagon until Prince Hal came up with a sore arm.

Now nobody knows what way to jump. X-rays showed nothing wrong with the arm. Newhouser isn't worried. He thinks he'll be all right with a little rest.

Pitching is Rolfe's ace in the hole. His five-man starting staff of Virgil Trucks, Art Houtteman, Freddie Hutchinson, Ted Gray and Newhouser is second to none.

Hal White, back for another chance after a year in Toledo, may be the answer to Rolfe's search for a reliever. Dizzy Trout and Paul Calvert, acquired from Washington, are other bullpen workmen.

The Tigers are improved, probably more than any other club in the American League. Addition of second baseman Jerry Priddy and first baseman Dick Kryhoski figure to help.

George Kell, the league batting champ, is the standout third baseman in the league. Johnny Ligon at shortstop doesn't figure up to pennant caliber because of a poor arm and spotty hitting.

Next to the "big five" of the pitching staff, the outfield is Detroit's strongest point. Hoot Evers in left, Johnny Groth in center and Vic Werz in right are hustling youngsters with good power and speed. This may turn out to be the best outfield in the league this summer.

Catching is only so-so, the Tigers' weakest spot. Aaron Robinson is the No. 1 man. Then comes Bob Swift. Myron (Joe) Gutschlag, a real comer, may have to go back to the minors because the Tigers have to keep Frank House, the $75,000 bonus boy.

Edmondsons Likely Owners Of El Paso 9

R. L. Edmondson, Sr., and R. L. Edmondson, Jr., returned early yesterday from El Paso where they had been reportedly dickering for the purchase of the El Paso baseball club of the Arizona-Texas League. The Edmondsons recently sold the Pampa Oilers organization to Mr. and Mrs. Doug Mills of Pampa for a reported $125,000.

Both Edmondsons stated that there was a very good chance of their buying the Class C club which was reportedly put on the selling block a short while ago for $25,000. What all was included in that amount was unknown.

Edmondson, Sr., said that although the deal hadn't been completed it might be soon, depending upon certain details that have to be worked out.

The Edmondsons went to the border city last weekend to look into the possibilities of purchasing the club and spent the early part of this week looking into the property and the condition of the club. They appeared well pleased with what they saw, especially the fact that the second division club drew over 100,000 fans last season.

Other member clubs of the Texas-Arizona League include Phoenix, Juarez, Tucson, Bismarck and Globe-Miami.

Demars Due Back

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Billy Demars, the St. Louis Browns' leading hitter, is expected back in the lineup today against the Browns' San Antonio farm club.

He missed yesterday's game with the Chicago Cubs after being hit on the left wrist Wednesday by a pitched ball.

Demars is hitting .435.

Chisox Face Loss

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Chicago White Sox face an estimated loss of $43,000 on their spring exhibition tour.

General Manager Frank Lane has estimated the total cost of the training period at $74,000, or about $1,500 per day. In 22 exhibition games thus far, the Sox have drawn 48,000 customers, which if an average is maintained, will give them about 66,000 for the schedule.

WARREN'S WARMUP

By Warren Mason—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: Who was the last major league pitcher to like out over 300 batters in a season?

YESTERDAY'S PERFORMANCE against Weatherford indicated that Bill Garland is ready to go. While he was pitched for two runs, they came on a solidly hit ball that ordinarily have been just a fly out to right field, the strong wind turned it into a two-run homer. Out-of that blow he had things well under control.

The lefthander is ready to go season he can take a lot of tries off the mind of Manager Ver Seitz, who currently has eight of them.

And speaking of boxing, Dom Napolitano, associate professor of physical education at Notre Dame and long in charge of conditioning boxers for the university's famed Bengal bouts, recently outlined a five-point program by which professional boxing could correct the abuses that have made it a target of criticism.

Napolitano says officials should demand: 1. Better physical examinations; 2. Empower the referee to immediately halt a bout that is one-sided; 3. Use heavier gloves and mats; 4. Make it mandatory for boxers to rigidly train for a fight; 5. Restrict the supervision of bouts to qualified coaches and medical men.

Napolitano has been conditioning boxers for the Notre Dame bouts since 1930, has followed this code, and not one contestant ever has suffered a serious or permanent injury.

ANSWER: Bob Feller fanned 348 hitters in 1946, the last pitcher to do so, and the first since Walter Johnson fanned 303 in 1912.

North Star Cage Squad Announced

AUSTIN — (AP) — Three Texas all-stars are listed on the North all-star basketball squad announced here today by Coach Wilson Head of Denver City.

They are Jackie Bell of Polytechnic High, Fort Worth; Richard Bryant of Crozier Tech, Dallas; and Joe Abbott of Canyon. Hank Iba of Oklahoma A&M will coach the 12-man squad.

Class AA teams furnished four of the North squad. The City Conference and Class A supplied three each, and Class B schools two. Nine of the 12 were selected at their respective state tournaments and three came from the state at large.

"We had to leave off some fine boys. This was particularly true of the taller boys in order to have a well balanced squad," Wilson said. He is chairman of the Selection Committee.

The committee made no reference to positions in announcing the squad. That was because of the difficulty in distinguishing between forwards and center in the modern game.

The squad: Class AA: Glib Ford, Amarillo; Class A: Glib Ford, Amarillo; Class B: Billy James, Vernon; Wallace McNeil, Lamesa, at large; and Lynn Mullen, Austin (El Paso).

City Conference: Jackie Bell, Polytechnic; Richard Bryant Crozier Tech; and Henry Ohlen, Paschal.

Class A: Jim Horray, Kermit; at large, Joe Abbott, Canyon, and Gorman Wiseman, Birdville (Fort Worth).

Class B: Damon Miller, Early (Brownwood), and Elealo Flores, Marfa.

Cincinnati Depending Upon Comeback of Big Blackie

COLUMBIA, S. C. — (AP) — Once again the Cincinnati Reds figure to sink or swim with their ace pitcher Blackie in his comeback try.

Despite a rocky record in the Grapefruit League, Manager Luke Sewell knows he does not have a solid ball club. Outside Sewell's outfield chances, it's the same team that finished seventh, only one game out of eighth, last fall.

With a sound Blackwell, taking a regular turn, there is hope of bettering the Reds' sad 1949 record.

If you had to grade Blackwell so far, you'd have to say "just so-so."

Taking it slow and easy, he has not been firing the ball with his old zip. Maybe he will when opening day rolls around.

Cincinnati officials hope for improved pitching behind Blackwell. Kenny Rafensberger, the cagy 32-year-oldster with the "cannon ball" pitch, was the ace with his brilliant 18-17 '49.

Ken goes a long way with soft and appears in good form. He and Herm Wehmeier, 23-year-old righthander, should be a regular winner. Howie Fox, despite a 6-19 record last year, probably will take a turn. The fifth job is open with Kent Peterson, Johnny

Johnson and Lindell Start Another Year As Yankees' Ugly Duckling Flag Winners

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

RALEIGH, N. C. — (NEA) — A man long associated with the Yankees read where General Manager Fred Haney refused to do Billy Herman a favor and get rid of Ralph Kiner in the spring of 1947.

Manager Herman said the Pirates' home run king would never hit with his golf swing.

Shipping the magnetic Kiner, it said there, would have been the biggest boner in baseball history.

"I have a better one than that," said the man long associated with the New York Americans. "This one will stop you, and it's absolutely true."

"In June, 1947, Larry MacPhail, then an impatient head of the Yankees, offered to trade Bill Johnson, Johnny Lindell, Joe Page and Aaron Robinson and toss in $50,000 cash for Mickey Vernon of the Senators. George McQuinn was playing first base for the Yankees at the time, and MacPhail was afraid he had run out of gas.

Vernon had led the league in hitting the year previous.

"Fortunately for the Yankees Clark Griffith didn't like MacPhail; and refused to do business with him.

"So all Johnson and Lindell did was help hit the Yankees into another World Series while Page was pitching them there.

"On another occasion, MacPhail offered to swap Phil Rizzuto and George Stinweis to the Browns couple more and be one of the biggest attractions in the annual of the borough.

"Remember how the Brook were always trying to ditch Walker, how some kid would eventually start in his place.

"Well, the same is true of Bill Johnson and Johnny Lindell of the Yankees.

"Johnson and Lindell have helped the Yankees to three World Series, and the front office is still trying to get rid of them. Lindell is definitely on the market, although he's a distance hitter who steps up in September, when it's toughest and counts most. What does a fellow have to do? The old-timer is right."

Bill Johnson and Johnny Lindell are ugly ducklings who are the Yankees into World Series.

Indians Lock Punch
SHREVEPORT, La. — (AP) — Cleveland's Indians needed an extra base hit in the worst sort of way today.

For 30 innings now, the mighty Tribe men haven't been able to pound out anything better than a measly single. They got nine yesterday in losing to the New York Giants, 5-1, in Dallas, when they got four on Wednesday when the Giants beat them 8-2.

On Tuesday, it was the same story, nine hits and all single; but the Indians won that game 7-6.

"So Walker remained with the Dodgers to help bat them into a World Series, narrowly miss a

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

AUGUSTA, Ga. — (AP) — Skee Riegel, a rookie in the pro basketball circuit, was taking a ribbing from his rivals after his pace setting 69 in the Masters Tournament yesterday.

The general theme was: "You can win some money here, so you're bearing down. You didn't play this way when you couldn't take the cash." . . . Skee, who turned pro only a few months ago, still is serving his six-months "probation" before he can collect prize money in PGA sponsored events.

The Masters, being very independent, doesn't have to observe that restriction . . . In his best tournament performance as a pro so far, Skee has finished tied for 12th at St. Petersburg and tied for 14th at San Antonio.

The guys who cut up those prizes collected each $210 a net $195, respectively — which isn't getting rich.

MORE MASTERS PIECES
After shooting a 70, one behind Riegel, Lawson Little chortled: "That was the best round I ever shot. I had 35 putts, 35 fairway shots and chipped in three times. . . . It wasn't good enough for one thing. He only got an eagle three on the 18th — the hole made famous by Gene Sarazen's double-eagle in 1935 . . . Little didn't have the best shot of the day, either. . . . Herchel Spear, the 26-year-old Huntsville, Ala., pro who also had a 70, hooked two shots, pitched up a too-strong wedge shot and hit the pin so that he had only a three-inch putt for his par . . . And Ray Wade Hill got behind a pine tree on the second, and cromed a left-handed wallop off the trunk out into the fairway . . . Maybe he should take up pool instead of golf . . ."

FASHION NOTES:
Charlie (Thin Man) Coe, the amateur champ, tried to fend off cold winds with a wool shirt, two sweaters and a poppin wind-breaker. All that couldn't make him look fat. . . . Jimmy Demaret wore chestnut green slacks topped by a salmon pink sweater. No wonder George Fazio says he's color blind.

MAIL BAG
Baseball scouts are keeping close tabs on Billy Henderson, Georgia's all-Southeastern Conference outfielder, who hit .317 over the past three seasons and stole 26 bases in 26 games last year . . . New American Bowling Congress merit awards is a belt buckle . . . How about bowlers who can't get inside a belt? . . . When a Kansas U. footballer ran too wide on an end sweep the other day, Coach Jules Sikes holed: "Close the gates before we lose a halfback." They take that precaution all the time in this sector.

U.S. Will Ask Consumers About Beef Grade Changes

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—Housewives who buy their beef by federal grades soon may be purchasing it under different names. A large segment of the livestock and meat industry have proposed a re-naming of the federal grades so as to make them fit changing consumer tastes. The proposal soon will be published officially by the Agriculture Department. Interested persons, including consumers, will be given 40 days to submit their views. If the proposed changes meet with general favor, they will be put into effect. Beef is now graded by these names and in this order by quality: prime, choice, good, commercial, utility, and cutter and canner.

Less than one percent of beef is prime—a grade in which the lean is marked by extensive marbling of fat and by its firmness. Choice, the next lower grade, makes up less than six percent. Like prime, it too is marked by its streaks of fat through the lean tissues. Then these grades first were set up, consumers as a whole liked their beef fat. But in recent years demand has been shifting to beef with less fat. This shift is reflected in consumer tastes for pork too. It reflects the fact that today's labor-saving economy has greatly reduced body demands for fat, an energy food. Beef now in demand by a large proportion of consumers is graded "good" under the present system. It makes up about 50 percent of the supply. Under the proposed re-naming program, present prime and choice grades would be put into one single grade, called prime. "Choice" would be used to describe beef now falling within the "good" classification—that is, beef which is the choice of a bulk of the consumers. The present grade of "commercial" beef—about 28 percent of the supply—would be divided into two grades—one "good" and the other "commercial."

Sunday School Meeting Is Held

DARROUZETT — (Special) — Speakers at the Lipscomb County Sunday School Convention held recently were the Rev. and Mrs. Ezekiel P. Alberts, natives of India and students of Phillips University, Enid, Okla. Rev. Howard J. Follett, pastor of the largest churches in India, and is now on leave to pursue further education in America. Representatives were present from Booker, Viewpoint, Darrouzett, Follett, and Lipscomb. The Follett Congregational Church received a banner for record attendance and distance traveled. The Rev. Fred J. McKinney, pastor of the Viewpoint Friends Church, is president of the convention.

Darrouzett Church Is Holding Revival

DARROUZETT — (Special) — A revival service is being held at the Darrouzett Methodist Church through Friday night. Ministers from various points in this area have been speaking each evening. Speakers include the Rev. J. Wade Griffin, Follett; the Rev. Arthur Kendall, Canadian; W. L. Scott, Wellington; and the Rev. K. L. Kirk, superintendent of the Perryton District Methodist Church. The service this evening will be delivered by the pastor, the Rev. C. T. Jackson, followed by the Holy Communion and Week of Dedication. The service tomorrow night will be led by the Rev. Grant MacMillan, pastor of the Union Church at Lipscomb.

Raw Cotton Purchase Permission Granted

WASHINGTON (AP)—Three European countries yesterday received permission to buy 345,200,000 worth of American raw cotton under the Marshall Plan. They are Western Germany $40,000,000; Italy $3,000,000 and Norway $2,200,000.

A BIT CROWDED—Fifteen special guests for Texas Industrial Week at Lions Club yesterday made a total of 136 men in the basement of the First Methodist Church for the luncheon meeting. The program was highlighted with an address by G. S. "Pinkie" Vineyard, Chamber of Commerce president.

State Pension Think Offensively, Lions Club Is Told

AUSTIN (AP)—Old Age Pension checks to 224,722 persons this month carried a 50-cent per cent check cut, the State Department of Public Welfare announced. Department Director John H. Winters said that available funds would no longer stretch far enough to make full payments to everyone on the increasing rolls. April rolls showed net increase of 1,694 claimants over a month ago, he said. April old age checks totaled $7,559,389, for an average payment of $33.64, compared to $31.14 last month. Checks went to 6,408 newly blind persons with the average grant amounting to $37.91, also down 50 cents from a month ago because of insufficient funds, Winters said. Aid to dependent children checks went to 18,819 families. The average check was for $44.91, an increase of 12 cents over March but still 11 percent under the authorized grant.

Zale Stores To Observe 26th Birthday

The completion of a quarter-century of jewelry business will be marked with Zales' 26th anniversary celebration to be held in the 30 retail stores, including the one at Pampa, beginning tomorrow. Abe Udashen, manager of the Pampa store, said new types of jewelry will be shown. From a small store in Wichita Falls in 1924, Zales has grown into one of the country's largest jewelry concerns and one of the biggest diamond importers. The 30 stores extend from Des Moines to Corpus Christi and from St. Louis to Albuquerque. Over 1,200 people work for the concern. Founder and president, Morris B. Zale, said he attributed much of the company's success to its department store style of operation which emphasizes buying and selling, accompanied by minimum merchandise mark-up. "Advertising," said William Zale, vice president, "has always been our main means of securing the mass market necessary for this type of operation. Zales has constantly endeavored to be the leading jewelry advertiser in every city where a Zale store is located. And we firmly believe heavy use of newspaper advertising will make 1950 our greatest year. Our budget is set up for the largest advertising expenditures in our history."

SKELLYTOWN — (Special) — Mrs. Orma Harlan spent last weekend in Oklahoma City visiting relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Troy Teel and W. E. Barentin are in Omaha, Neb., on business. Mrs. F. E. Dahlgren has returned to her home in Omaha, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. Dalton Green and Mr. and Mrs. Grene Harlan spent the weekend at Lake McClellan. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hoggett have recently moved to Pampa. Pupils of blue eyes contract more in bright light than do the pupils of dark eyes.

Board Hires Manager for State System

AUSTIN (AP)—W. C. Cason is the new business manager for the State Hospital Board. His appointment was announced by Board Chairman Claud Gilmer and Board Executive Director Moyné Kelly. Gilmer said Cason's salary would probably be set by the board's executive committee when it meets here to assist in a reorganization of the central office. Cason's appointment was recommended by the business engineering firm of Ernst and Ernst which the board hired last month to take over business management of the State Hospital System. Cason, 42, has been in state work most of the time since 1930. He has been assistant attorney general, once headed the franchise tax division of the secretary of state office, was chief accountant for the board of control in 1948 and went to work for the hospital board in September of last year. Cason will work under the direction of Ernst and Ernst and be directly responsible to that organization so long as it is retained in a supervisory capacity, Gilmer said. Ernst and Ernst, in turn, is directly responsible to the board.

Knights of Pythias Induct 5 Members

Pampa Lodge 480, Knights of Pythias, met in regular session last night and conferred the rank of Page on Cico Hoyer, Myron B. Warden, Carl Sexson, H. V. Turner, and J. B. "Pat" Patterson. L. M. Davis was welcomed into the Lodge as a new member on a transfer from Progressive Lodge No. 10 of Wichita Falls. Bryan Thomas, Grand Chancellor of Grand Lodge of Texas, Knights of Pythias, will be the main speaker at next Thursday's regular meeting. George Neef, Chancellor Commander of Pampa lodge, presided over the meeting.

Jet-Equipped B-36 Flown to California

FORT WORTH (AP)—The first of the B-36 bombers to be equipped with jet engines is at the Consolidated Vultee airplane plant in San Diego. The plane was flown from Fort Worth. The converted plane — to be known as the B-36D — will have four jet engines and six 3,500 horse power piston engines.

Police Appreciation Not Strong Enough

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP)—The next time a policeman asks Francis C. O'Donnell to buy an advertisement in the policeman's hall program — well here's the story. O'Donnell a truckman dropped into the police station to pay for the $4 ad he had ordered. He paid. And when he came out he found on his car — a parking ticket.

Monday Meet Starts Concert Ticket Drive

Final details for the Pampa Community Concert Association's annual membership campaign have been completed. Frank Smith, general chairman, said today. This year's drive will begin with a workers' and Executive Committee dinner at 6 p.m. Monday at the Parish Hall of the Holy Souls Catholic Church. Dr. Douglas Nelson, association president, said last-minute check-ups of all campaign preparations will be made this weekend to assure success of the drive, which officially will start Tuesday. Mrs. J. W. Garman, Jr., who is chairman of the dinner, said more than 80 reservations have been made. John Lyons, Chicago, field representative of the nationwide Community Concert Service, will be at the dinner. He will remain in Pampa next week to assist with the details of the campaign. Following the meal, Lyons will present a new sound film production entitled, "A Carnegie Hall in Every Town." The movie shows outstanding performances of artists who are on the concert list. The movie is available for showing at meetings of other organizations and groups during the week. Mrs. Carl J. Wright, secretary of the association, has a charge of the arrangements.

Third Accident Victim Dies in San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Staff Sgt. W. P. McClelland, 29, of San Bernardino, Calif., died yesterday of injuries received in a head-on collision of two cars near here Wednesday. Two other persons — Master Sgt. James G. Harris, 41, Lackland Air Force Base, and Naomi Jean Kindred, 13, McClelland's stepdaughter — died in the crash. McClelland was driving a 1948 Buick when he was struck by a 1947 Buick. The Buick was driven by a man who has been named April Lions Sweetheart. Squeaky Door Four quartet, composed of Bunny Shultz, Mack Hyatt, E. O. Wedgeworth and Dude Balthrop, presented "Easter Parade" and a novelty number.

Mrs. Clark Should Learn the Facts

MRS. ALTA VENE CLARK, who has been on the receiving end of federal emoluments for 17 years, wrote us a letter the other day.

In addition to saying she would soon be seeing you - all as a candidate for the congressional seat now open, she said she hoped an ad she was sending would get her in time to meet "your deadline next week."

If there is anything a candidate for office should know it is the facts about the people and their business of her "balliwick." For 23 years now the Pampa News has been a daily newspaper, but for all those years Mrs. Clark apparently has not been in the Panhandle long enough to know that.

It seems to us that the crowd in Washington who are running her for this office should have seen to it that she was informed about the "facts of life" regarding the community she seeks to represent, before they sent her here to capture the congressional seat.

IF MRS. CLARK did not know we are a daily newspaper, covering the Northeast Panhandle, we wonder if she knows other pertinent facts about the people and their business of this area.

We wonder if she, who is so bereft of the facts, is capable of representing the area in Washington.

No, Mrs. Clark, we don't think you are, per se—that is, on the face of the matter. And when we delve into your New Deal philosophies, more than ever we don't think you are capable.

Gracie Says

By GRACIE ALLEN According to a recent story, "an 81-year-old man and his 71-year-old fiancee were married in their wheel chair at a Tampa, Fla., nursing home where both reside."

That reminds me of my grandparents. They were so romantic that on their golden wedding anniversary they decided to renew their honeymoon. So they spent a week walking to the near-by park and back.

They were so cute. Grandma was carrying their trunks because grandpa didn't want people to think they were newlyweds. He was always very shy about everything. In fact, even after their children were full grown, he wouldn't kiss her except when under mistletoe.

Canadian Blaze Kills 6 Children

TORONTO — (AP) — Six children perished yesterday in flames that swept swiftly through their family home here.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Harding, owned two children, but were unable to help the six, who burned to death in their beds.

A neighbor said the flame-dwelling "went up like a torch" shortly after midnight. Hearing the alarm, he awoke to find the rear of the house in flames. He and his wife escaped, carrying three-year-old Howard, Paul, 14, jumped through an upper window and crawled to safety over an adjoining roof.

Fair Enough - Pegler

By WESTBROOK PEGLER (Copyright, 1950)

Mrs. Henrietta Nesbitt, the housekeeper of our national palatial White House, has published her diary as a public service.

There are psychological, political and financial reasons why the White House should be converted to other uses or knocked down.

The president of the United States has grown too big for his britches and the superstition and awe which surround the White House contribute to this effect.

The president of the United States has come to regard himself as a prince of privilege entitled to luxuries out of keeping with the office and our traditions.

His wife is not the first lady of the land but just the wife of a citizen who has been selected to perform certain duties for a specified period.

The president is not a king. He is not a monarch. He is not a ruler. He is not a deity. He is not a god.

He is a man. He is a mortal. He is a creature of flesh and blood. He is a human being.

He is not a deity. He is not a god. He is not a ruler. He is not a monarch. He is not a king.

He is a man. He is a mortal. He is a creature of flesh and blood. He is a human being.

Common Ground

By E. C. BOILES Bishop Answers Woman Defending Americanism

This column recently reproduced a letter originally sent by Imogen McMurtury of Marysville, California to Bishop L. Parsons of St. Luke's church in San Francisco, California.

Bishop Parsons had sent out literature presenting the Bishop of Canterbury's social philosophy, to this Miss McMurtury protesting. I am reproducing below the Bishop's answer to Miss McMurtury's second letter.

I quote the bishop's letter: "My dear Miss McMurtury: I want to acknowledge your letter of February 26, but I hardly think it is worth while for me to try in any way to answer it at length.

The closed politico-legal corporation which has conducted the three most important Senate investigations in recent years — Pearl Harbor, Lillenthal and atomic security, and the McCarthy charges of Communist influence within the State Department — points toward eventual exoneration of every high administration official and adviser on positive foreign policy from Harry S. Truman to Owen Lattimore.

The merry-go-round manner in which almost the same clique of senators, lawyers and investigators have handled these three inquiries into alleged neglect of national security problems resembles the plot of a very narrow partisan authorities.

But Republican members begin to suspect that it was "planned" that was by the White House and Capitol Hill aides under both Roosevelt and Truman administrations.

Responsibility — The plot begins with the senatorial approval of the Pearl Harbor disaster, when the Republicans set out to prove from internal evidence and documents that the responsibility for our worst naval defeat rested with the Democrats.

Committee counsel was Seth Richardson, who was an assistant attorney general under Herbert Hoover. In view of his background, it was expected that he would make a penetrating and far-reaching investigation of all the causes which enabled the Japs to surprise our Pacific fleet.

But, for one reason or another, his performance was utterly ineffectual insofar as illuminating hidden recesses was concerned. Unimportant military men "took the rap."

Partner — Although this intersection destroys the chronological sequence of this column, it is a partner of Joseph E. Davies, former ambassador to Russia and once an acknowledged admirer of Stalin and the Russian government, as revealed in his book and movie, Mission to Moscow.

Appointment — The chief investigator of the Pearl Harbor Committee was a Washington lawyer named Edward P. Morgan. His name will appear again in this summary of these inquiries.

It should also be noted that the North Dakota Republican is a law partner of Joseph E. Davies, former ambassador to Russia and once an acknowledged admirer of Stalin and the Russian government, as revealed in his book and movie, Mission to Moscow.

So They Say I thought I could be of more service to my country in the Navy, but if I am not going to be in the Navy, then I feel that perhaps I could be of more service in Congress.

It is just as important that we keep our financial house in order as any other line of national defense and unless we do, we are not going to be able to have any national defense.

It was bad enough that the decisions first to build and then to use the original A-bomb had been made by a few persons in high positions and shrouded in secrecy.

There is no intention here of criticizing the committee's findings, particularly as to Mr. Dean. But the tie-up is interesting, especially as it continues into the current story of Senator McMahon.

The chief investigator in this effort was another Washington lawyer named Lyon Tyler. Curiously enough, he is an attorney with Edward P. Morgan's firm.

Miracle Of Light

By GORDON MARTIN

When you're waiting at the corner for a traffic light to switch, and it's late enough you'd think the night would be dark as pitch, there is brilliance all around you in a bright electric glow, as the countless flashing lights put on a multi-colored show.

There's a sign that shows a lady on a glinting pink trapeze, and against the sky she's swinging back and forth with supple ease. And another sign nearby displays a fountain in the night, and it showers down in gleaming letters of colored light.

The Doctor Says An injury to the brain occurring during or right after birth produces a pathetic condition called cerebral palsy.

There are thousands of unfortunate children who suffer from this kind of muscular affliction. Sometimes these youngsters are called spastic children.

Much has been done for the cerebral palsied child in the past. Now the interests of these children are being even better taken care of today largely because of the efforts of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults—an organization which has branches in many cities and states.

This society acts as a clearing house to provide information on this little-understood and long-neglected problem. It aids also in providing state and local groups with the skilled consultation which is needed to organize and run treatment centers.

Children handicapped in this way need to be treated both physically and mentally. On the physical side there should be a long-range plan set up by the medical advisers with the co-operation of the home and the school.

Special muscle training should be started at the earliest possible moment in order to decrease the difficulty with movement. Certain games are particularly adaptable for these handicapped youngsters.

The educational and psychological assistance which can be given is most important. A calm harmonious home life is desirable. The education should be given at the speed which the youngster can take easily and carried as far as it is reasonable to go.

It is necessary to train and distribute large numbers of nurses, psychologists, and teachers who understand the special problems involved. Sometimes these youngsters have superior intellects, but have difficulty in developing them satisfactorily in regular schools.

Special schools and special attention bring big dividends in the way of improvement for those whose brains have been injured before or at birth.

Dr. Jordan will answer questions from his readers in a special column once a week. Watch for it.

A Salute

To PAMPA'S DIVERSIFIED INDUSTRY

DURING TEXAS INDUSTRIAL WEEK

Cartwright Cabinet Shop

Small industry is one of the most vital parts of any community, for without a variety of small manufacturers, the community lacks one of its most important features. Pampa is indeed fortunate to number among its business firms a variety of independent industrialists. Viewed with reference to the large corporation, these firms may seem insignificant, but be not misled, they are the vital cogs that keep the wheels of larger industry turning smoothly.

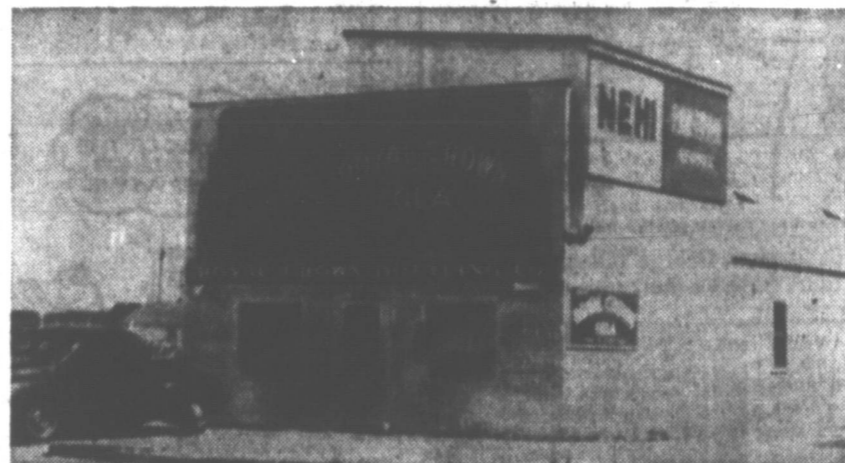

To Pampa's small diversified industries, a hearty "Well Done" for your necessary and appreciated products.

FINGERPRINTS Dont Lie

By Rupert Hughes
Copyright 1950 by Rupert Hughes
Dist. by NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Private detective Martin Quierpel is trying to clear Paul Moody, a young sculptor, of the murder of Wendell Palmer, father of Moody's fiancee. "Somebody crushed Palmer's skull with the bloody base of that telephone. The man who did it left his fingerprints on the felt base. Your prints eliminate Moody so far as his ever wielding that telephone base as a weapon. But somebody did. The weapon did not kill alone." Stivers groaned as Quierpel went on: "Cheer up, man. You did your part perfectly. But you couldn't be expected to distrust another member of the police force. Yet it's the old Latin saying all over again: 'Who will guard the guards?' We have guardians, and most of them are willing to risk death at their task. But you can't guarantee that all of them will or that all of them are honest. The very honesty of the honest ones works to protect the crookedness of the crooks." From his utter misery Stivers spoke: "You're accusing Kelso of murder and of destroying the evidence against him. That's a pretty serious charge, Quierpel. You haven't an iota of evidence against him. 'That's all too true,' said Quierpel. 'You've got to start all over and get it.' " "But how? Where?" "The trail is pretty cold by now. Kelso probably destroyed the prints you took from the telephone, if my theory is correct," said Quierpel. "But when you collected your specimens from the house, did you take any from the back doors or windowsills or other places the killer might have entered?" STIVERS sighed. "Of course not," he said. "I suppose you'll think I'm a poor cop. But the case seemed open-and-shut against Moody. He had been seen going in the front door shortly before the discovery of the crime. Kelso brought in the names and addresses of several people who had seen him enter. "Kelso! Kelso!" snapped Quierpel. But he didn't condemn Stivers as a "poor cop." Quierpel himself, from the newspaper accounts, had at first believed in Moody's guilt. Who would doubt the evidence of fingerprints? "But," Quierpel went on, "the killer might well have slipped in the house by the back way, or come through the cellar door, or climbed over a window sill. You naturally assumed he came in the front door. But assuming is dangerous." Poor Stivers nodded and tossed his hands in helplessness. His pride had suffered in his fall. Quierpel revived him with a word: "What would you say to our going out to the Palmer place and giving it a real going-over?"

DETECTIVE JAMES STIVERS leaped to his feet with a renewal of life and hope and self-respect. From his chief he quickly obtained permission to complete the checking of the Palmer home for prints. Indeed, Stivers was furnished with a key to the front door, since the house had been locked up and more or less sealed after the first debris of the murder had been removed. Azalea Palmer had been taken away from the gruesome emptiness by her friend Nadine Fendall and was now living with Nadine's parents in their apartment. "Because there was no police car available, Quierpel took Stivers in his own machine. They parked the car at a distance from the house. It was Martin Quierpel's first visit and the huge Palmer home seemed to him to be something like a mausoleum when he first walked into it. But Quierpel brushed aside this feeling and in another moment he was a detective again.

"That's a pretty serious charge, Quierpel. You haven't an iota of evidence against him. 'That's all too true,' said Quierpel. 'You've got to start all over and get it.' " "But how? Where?" "The trail is pretty cold by now. Kelso probably destroyed the prints you took from the telephone, if my theory is correct," said Quierpel. "But when you collected your specimens from the house, did you take any from the back doors or windowsills or other places the killer might have entered?" STIVERS sighed. "Of course not," he said. "I suppose you'll "Don't ask me. Tell me," Quierpel demanded. "Who was with you at the Palmer home? Who was with you at the Moody studio?" "Only Pete Kelso. But—" "Was he ever alone with the prints?" "No-o-o-yes! of Tydings and Senators Green (D-R.I.), McMahon (D-Conn.), Lodge (R-Mass.) and Hickenlooper (R-Iowa).

Hickenlooper is the one member who was not present when Tydings and the others went to the Justice Department two weeks ago.

When Tydings made his announcement at yesterday's session, Hickenlooper said he wanted to make it clear that he had not yet seen the summary on Lattimore.

Tydings broke in to say he will take Hickenlooper to the Justice Department next week to scrutinize the document. Hickenlooper had told reporters earlier that Attorney General McGrath had invited him to come in and have a look at his convenience.

Tydings said after the hearing that Hoover, McGrath and Peyton Ford, assistant to McGrath, all agree with the estimate of the four members of the committee that the FBI summary clears Lattimore of McCarthy's charges.

McCarthy said some time ago all of his charges of communism in the State Department would stand or fall on the outcome of the Lattimore case. He said he would be "pretty disgraced" if his Lattimore accusations were disproved.

When Lattimore stepped down from the stand yesterday, McCarthy said his charges had not been disproved. He said Lattimore actually proved in his testimony that he consistently had advocated policies for the Far East which followed the Communist party line to the last comma. He added:

"I am not retracting anything. I intend to prove everything I have said."

After hearing Lattimore, the committee recessed until next Tuesday. At that time, Tydings announced, the group expects to receive from McCarthy the names of "mystery witnesses he has said he can produce to swear that Lattimore or was a Communist."

Lattimore flatly denied that he ever has been a Communist.

work on a commission basis, and 200,000 in industrial work connected with agriculture — all now exempt.

Mr. Truman also asked for benefits for workers who move from state to state, strengthening of the federal and state laws concerning fraud and disqualifications, and improvements in financing arrangements including "re-insurance grants" to states when their jobless reserve funds approach exhaustion.

Republicans began blasting the program as soon as it hit Capitol Hill.

Rep. Arends (R-Ill.) said: "This is an admission by the president that hard times and serious unemployment are in the offing as the result of the Truman program."

Said Rep. Brown (R-Ohio): "Another grab for power! This is strictly a CIO program."

House Democratic Leader McCormack, of Massachusetts, immediately introduced a bill embodying the president's suggestions, and some Democrats gave statements agreeing with the president on the need for such legislation.

But the men who must handle the bill if it gets anywhere were non-committal.

Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) of the House Ways and Means Committee, said "we got our hands full trying to get a tax bill. I don't suppose anybody wants us to drop the tax bill now and take up something else."

Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Finance Committee and Senate Democratic Leader Lucas, of Illinois, told newsmen they were unable to say what would be done about the jobless pay proposal.

originated in another city," the Star said.

"Binaggio, both as a political and as a racket boss, had made wide-scale promises to open Missouri to gambling. He had accepted money from the national syndicate for use in the 1948 elections."

"When the federal grand jury began work last September, with Binaggio obviously among their top targets, he was in the position of a man who had promised a lot, had obtained money on his promises, but had delivered only crumbs."

Binaggio began his strong bid for political power in 1944. He backed the late mayor Roger T. Sermon of Independence for governor. Sermon, a close friend of President Truman, failed in his gubernatorial bid.

In his statement issued in Washington, Representative Short said he had been informed that Tom Hennings, a candidate for the Missouri Democratic senatorial nomination, has the backing of the Binaggio faction in Kansas City.

He declared that President Truman and remnants of the political organization built by the late Tom Pendergast oppose Hennings.

"Mr. Binaggio was in the way," Short said, "so what happened? He is bumped off."

El Progresso Club to Sponsor Sunday School Week Events

The El Progresso Club of Pampa is sponsoring on a local scale the sixth annual National Sunday School Week, April 10-16.

A spokesman for the club said the objective of the observance is to "lead more people into Sunday school participation."

A release from the laymen's committee said "men and women of all faiths (are) convinced that somehow Providence and a compassionate public will provide the way for the enlistment of new pupils and thousands of others who live in spiritual darkness. Their parents must be reached, and they must be shown the way to Sunday school where they can study and pray and be given guidance from so many temptations to sin. With communism and atheism on the march, this is of vital importance."

where he later was buried before the resurrection.

The procession ends at the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in the underground depths of which is Christ's tomb. The church, near the northern wall of the old city, has been fully repaired following last winter's fire which damaged its cupola.

Sermons will be given in different languages on Christ's last words. Then an effigy of the crucified Jesus will be taken down from the cross, wrapped in a shroud, anointed, sprayed with incense before the Stone of Unction and finally carried to the tomb.

Other Good Friday observances, meanwhile, are going on in the new part of Jerusalem across the wide no-man's-land of truce which separates the Jewish and Arab territories.

Besides their own services in the old city, Protestants have conducted joint Holy Week services in St. Andrew's Church in the new city. From the churchyard worshippers can see the old city and the olive-treed Valley of Gethsemane to the east.

Easter morning sunrise services are to be held by the Protestants in St. Andrew's Churchyard. The services will be broadcast in English by shortwave to Europe, the United States and Canada.

The orthodox Easter will be celebrated by about 20 Russian orthodox nuns living near the picturesque church and Garden of Gethsemane. Some 200 Russian Orthodox monks and nuns will hold services in various monasteries in Israel — in Western Jerusalem, in the village of Ain Karen in the Judean hills, on Mt. Carmel near Haifa and in Galilee to the north.

Soviets Training German Pilots

BERLIN (AP) — Soviet-occupied Germany openly embarked today on a program of training thousands of young Communists as glider pilots, despite a four-power ban.

The Soviet-licensed newspaper Neue Zeit said the state of Saxony-Anhalt has already begun "extensive measures to promote this beautiful sport."

Many German Air Force pilots of World War II got their initial training as glider pilots in the days of official German disarmament.

Hollywood Chef Says Cans Cause Divorce

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Divorce," says a Hollywood chef, "begins in the kitchen."

Mick Lueck, a cook for 46 years, says "more marriages start heading for trouble when the wife reaches for a can opener than you would suspect. Home-making, especially cooking, is ultimately the most important part of marriage. Yet young girls are being trained for everything but that."

Lewis Warm To Merger

WASHINGTON (AP) — A warm reception by John L. Lewis strengthened prospects today of merging the nation's big labor unions into a single, powerful federation.

Lewis yesterday accepted CIO President Philip Murray's plan to establish a joint committee for cooperation on legislative, political and economic problems.

The same committee, according to Murray's plan, would work to achieve an actual merger of all labor unions.

An answer to Murray's proposal was awaited from the AFL, the railroad labor unions and the Independent Machinists Union, also invited to join.

Together, the unions claim about 16,000,000 members. A pledge to act as a team could be the beginning of a labor party in America, with joint action in national elections.

HUGE FLIES

Some Australian robber flies have a three-inch wingspread and bodies one and three-fourths inches long, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

AUSTIN (AP) — Streams ran lower and some water storage showed drops under March drought conditions, the State Board of Water Engineers reported.

Flow gradually fell during the month on the Lavaca, San Antonio, Nueces and Mission rivers in Southeast and South Central Texas, the report said.

North Bosque River, a tributary of the Brazos, set the pattern for other Central Texas streams, with a flow of 43 percent at Medina. Medina reservoir dropped from 19,800 to 15,200 acre-feet as irrigation got underway. That was about the same level as a year ago, but considerably under the 36-year average of 122,000 acre-feet, the board reported.

In West Texas, the Colorado and Pecos rivers continued on their downward flow trend of several months. The North Concho near Carlsbad, Texas, spent its sixth month in drought.

Lake Nasworthy on the South Concho near San Angelo was almost full at the end of March but Red Bluff Reservoir on the Pecos was down to the one-third mark. The latter dropped from 112,000 to 101,000 acre-feet during the month as irrigation began in the area.

The Dallas-Fort Worth area reported slight storage losses during the month but by month's end stored water in Bridgeport Reservoir, Lake Dallas, and Eagle Mountain exceeded storage of a year ago and of the long-time average for that date, the board reported.

Shamrock Senior Play Is Success

SHAMROCK (Special) — A capacity audience estimated at more than 800 persons jammed Clark Auditorium last night for the presentation of "One Foot in Heaven" by the Shamrock High School Senior Class.

The auditorium was filled before curtain-time and the overflow audience soundly applauded the cast at the end of the popular dramatic presentation.

Members of the cast, directed by Mrs. Claude Montgomery, were:

Don Glover, Martha Montgomery, Don Reavis, Mary Alice Close, Harvey Reeves, Betty Hamill, Katherine Smith, Barbara Gott, Gilbert Stribling, Barbara Brickley Paisy Porter, Norma Chapman, Donnie Ray, Johnette Hood, Peggy Hefley, Paul Roper, Jimmy Culbertson, Gene Hamill, Jane Woolley, James Hale and Doyle Brown.

Methodist Chiang Leads Friday Fast

TAIPEI Formosa (AP) — Chiang Kai-shek led Chinese Christians in a Good Friday fast today for the starving millions in Communist China.

The Nationalist president, a Methodist, began a six hour prayer starting at noon. He asked "God's blessing on the Republic of China."

Chiang in a broadcast affirmed his faith in "the fight against the Russian aggressors and Chinese Communists and Satan, the Devil."

Wilson Plans To Attend School Meet

Frank Wilson, Pampa High School principal, will leave for Dallas the first of the week to participate in a three-day high school evaluation session sponsored by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools.

The evaluation is conducted every few years. Each school receives the opinions of other members of the committees after the school has been evaluated. Wilson, member of the Plant and Administration Committee, heads the Guidance and Student Activities Committee. He will return to Pampa Friday.

The meeting will be under the direction of Drs. Fred Thompson and Frank Wilson, both of Southern Methodist University. Others on the visiting committee besides Wilson are Dr. James H. Maley, Dallas, Staff and Instruction Committee; Jim King, Brownwood Planned Administration Committee; Mrs. Lynn Luller, Library Philosophy and Pupils Population Committee; and A. O. Calhoun, Philosophy and Pupils Population Committee.

Indian Leader Finally Off Suspicion List

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The former Indian ambassador to the United States is no longer regarded as a "suspicious character" by Delhi Police. The name of Asaf Ali, now governor of Orissa Province, was removed only recently from a police list of persons on whom an eye should be kept. He had been on the list since 1919, when he started taking an active part in the Congress movement against British rule.

Delhi police explained that they hadn't had time in the two years since independence to bring the list up to date.
