

Red Pressure Mounting In Five Sectors

(By The Associated Press)
Though officially spring had begun, there was no sign last (Sat.) night that Adolf Hitler's spring offensive had started. There was, in fact, not even any hint that Russia's winter offensive had been halted.

Instead Soviet pressure was mounting in five critical sectors of the defense line the Germans are attempting to hold—around Leningrad, that line's northern anchor; around Strava Russa, some 150 miles to the south; near Orel, 200 miles below Moscow; around Kharkov, key to the northern Ukraine, and in the embattled Crimea.

For the moment the sharpest of these thrusts appeared to be that against Orel, in Nazi hands for more than five months. Driving down from the north, the Russians were reported within 35 miles of the city, while well to the west around Bryansk Soviet guerrillas already were harassing the lines of possible withdrawal.

The Nazi garrisons defending Kharkov also faced a double-barreled threat. For while the main body of the Russian attackers was hammering at strongly-fortified positions around the city, other Soviet units—presumably guerrillas—were said by the Moscow radio to be battling fiercely for a German-built supply base at Poltava, 85 miles farther west.

To add to the burden of the hard-pressed Nazi high command, already straining every effort to rush new reserves to the front, word reached Moscow from Siberia that "tens of highly-trained divisions" are on call in Siberia, ready to move to the front on a moment's notice.

There was little likelihood the Russian war machine would run short of materials, either. For British observers, just returned from the Soviet reported that United States and British-made tanks, guns and planes were being brought in constantly.

Earlier in the week it already had become clear that Hitler has been shaken in his confidence. The speech he delivered last Sunday spoke of summer rather than spring as the time when his armies would "annihilate" the Russians. It also was disclosed that, no longer trusting on his intuition to direct the campaign, the Fuehrer has called back many of the high-ranking generals who were dismissed so summarily short months ago.

In the all-important battle of the Atlantic, meanwhile, the U. S. navy announced two more American ships had been torpedoed and sunk off our Atlantic coast—and the German high command, in special announcement, claimed two U. S. coastal patrol ships and 11 freighters had been sent to the bottom in the past week.

In the Mediterranean sea war Britain reported to Axis supply ships sunk by British submarines, while Italy acknowledged loss of one of her submarines and asserted Italian torpedo planes had sunk a warship.

There was no major action on the chief Libyan front, but the south free French patrols returned to their bases after completing a hazardous expedition in which they wiped out a number of Axis outposts and air fields which constituted a direct threat to the Allies' communications across central Africa.

Texans At War

(By The Associated Press)
Victory-minded Texans poured their war income tax payments into Uncle Sam's coffers in record sums.

Payments from 60 to 150 per cent over 1941 were reported by internal revenue offices.

Nearly 250,000 Texas living in the southern and western parts of the state paid $42,000,000 in income taxes for the first quarter of the year, a 3 to 1 proportion over last year's $15,000,000.

An estimated 40,000 returns are in transit from various outlying branch offices to the Austin headquarters office, where 234,000 taxable returns were filed, F. B. Parsons, chief deputy internal revenue collector, reports. Last year, taxable returns for the entire year from this district totaled 123,000.

First quarter payments usually represent about one-third of the total revenue for the year, indicating that Uncle Sam will collect a total of $126,000,000 from the people of the South Texas district during 1942 in income taxes.

T. W. Dennis, deputy clerk in charge of the San Antonio office, noted that the mental attitude of taxpayers was changed this year. "Hundreds of persons used the simplified form and claimed no exemption at all," he said. "One man said he would be glad to triple his tax if it would help lick the Japs. A hobo came up, filed a return, claimed no exemptions and paid us $50."

Deadline for payment of income taxes closed the biggest day in the history of Dallas taxpaying with estimated payments in the area totaling $35,000,000.

Total collected so far this year at the Dallas office is $30,100,000—a cool $5,000,000 more than revenue officials had estimated as total tax.

At the close of business March 20, last year, a total of $12,900,000 had been deposited against the current total of $30,100,000.

This year, March 20, a total of 181,000 taxable returns had been tabulated with 116,000 of them paid in full and 65,000 of them in quarterly payments. Last year by March 20, nearly all of the money had been placed in the bank and all the returns had been tabulated, 97,900.

Will Talbot, deputy in charge of the Abilene internal revenue office, estimates returns were 50 to 60 per cent ahead of a year ago.

Estimating the number of returns filed at Fort Arthur was four times greater than in 1941, Lloyd C. Clark, deputy collector of internal revenue, said collectors never could have handled the burden if the public had not been so cooperative.

"They were the most willing bunch of taxpayers I ever hoped to see," he said. "Many of them said they didn't care what it cost—just so we licked the Japs."

ORANGE, March 21 (AP)—The navy announced today that Mrs. H. G. Chalkey of Lake Charles, La., would sponsor the motor mine sweeper YMS-71 at its launching next Thursday at the Weaver shipyards.

Mrs. Chalkey is the wife of Lieut. Com. Chalkey, supervisor of shipbuilding for the navy at Orange.

The vessel will be the sixth of ten which the shipyard is building.

COLLEGE STATION, March 21 (AP)—County agents were advised today to call the attention of farmers to the need for planting their full cotton acreage allotted under the AAA.

George E. Adams, state agent and vice director of Texas A. & M. extension service, pointed to the urgent need for increased oil production.

MARKING THE RETURN OF ELEANOR POWELL to the screen since "Broadway Melody of 1940" Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "Lady Be Good" is showing today, tomorrow, and Tuesday at the Crown.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE, ELEANOR POWELL RETURN TO SCREEN IN WEEK'S FILMS

Beery Tough Army Sergeant In "The Bugle Sounds"; "Grown-Up" Shirley In "Kathleen"; Dancing Skills Of Eleanor Seen Again In Melodious "Lady Be Good"

Blustering Wallace Beery appears in a tailor-made role, Shirley Temple, who'll be 14 years old next month, comes back to the screen in a sub-deb role, and Eleanor Powell is back again with that old-time powerful dancing on Pampa screens this week.

"Mr. Celebrity," with Buzzy Henry, James Seay, Doris Day, William Halligan, at the Crown, Wednesday and Thursday, is the story of the attempt of lonely grandparents to take their grandson away from his uncle...

"Dangerously They Live," with John Garfield, Nancy Coleman, Raymond Massey, Warner Brothers picture, showing Friday and Saturday at the LaNora—exciting, timely melodrama dealing with sister Nazi espionage.

"Riders of the Timberline" with William Boyd, Brad King, Andy Cline, Paramount picture at the Rex Friday and Saturday—Producer Harry Sherman transfers Hopalong Cassidy from the sagebrush to the tall timber.

Winnah—And Still Champ! Survey conducted by Audience Research Institute states that 5,489,000 persons have seen the David O. Selznick all-time record-breaking "Gone With the Wind" twice or more—in all 51,000 theaters since GWTW premiere in December, 1939.

He Picks Tracy In Philadelphia recently for the opening of his new stage show, Eddie Cantor was interviewed by the local press and among things he told his interviewers was that "Spencer Tracy is the best actor I ever saw on stage or screen, Spencer is really a great actor. Why that guy could play a wardrobe trunk."

And So Does He Spencer Tracy is appraised as a new patron saint of sports writers by Francis Stan, sports columnist of the Washington Star. This appraisal came immediately after Stan had witnessed "Woman of the Year."

Under the Heading of Etiquette Mitch Woodbury relays the yarn about a movie house patron who was bothered by the incessant chatter of two women seated in the row in front of him.

Penny for Your Thoughts Girl That's what columnist E. V. Durling calls Myrna Loy. He thinks Myrna has the nearest thing to a Mona Lisa smile to be found in Hollywood and that she seems to be the smouldering bonfire type.

LAMESA, March 21 (P)—Purchase by the Higginbotham Cattle company of the 51,000-acre western Gaines county ranch of Dr. Edward H. Jones for $500,000 cash was announced today by Frank Higginbotham of Lamesa and Dallas. About 2,000 cows, largest single straight-line bred herd in the west, were included in the deal.

Stilwell May Clear Bases To Bomb Japs

By SPENCER MOOSA
CHUNGKING, March 21 (AP)—It may be the task of that aggressive, sharp-spoken and short-tempered infantry specialist, Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell who has been made commander of United States forces in China, India, and Burma, to clear the bases from which to bomb Japan.

From Tientsin to Ningpo, an area of China which today is "occupied" by the Japanese, there are many potential bombing bases which could be used to pave the way for the invasion of Japan, which Stilwell has announced as the Allied objective.

In the opinion of high military authorities, however, use of these bases is not now feasible because they are so lightly defended by Chinese guerrillas and would be subject to immediate Japanese offensives and air attacks.

To make them available, a concerted Allied offensive is necessary, with abundant aircraft in China to assist in wiping out thirly string Japanese loops thrown along the main railway and communication lines in North China.

The Tientsin to Ningpo area of China perhaps would offer the readiest bases for air attacks on Japan.

Ningpo, south of Shanghai, is about 1,100 miles from Tokyo and less than 600 miles from the nearest objectives in Japan.

South of Ningpo, along the Chekiang and Fukien provincial coasts, there are many other potential bases in unoccupied China.

Japan has blockaded the coast, but aside from intermittent raids and temporary occupations, has never taken military possession of many of the small, unfrequented ports.

SCORING AS THE FEATURED VOCALIST with the late Hal Kemp's orchestra, Janet Blair stepped from the bandstand right into a promising screen career.

Under contract to Columbia studios, she made her film debut in "Three Girls About Town" with Joan Blondell and Billie Barnes. The actress was born and reared in Altoona, Pa., the daughter of Fred B. and Florence Laferly.

While attending public schools, she studied dancing, sang in the church choir and became known as the town's most talented child.

Upon graduating from high school her voice attracted so much attention that she had the choice of joining Kemp's orchestra or going to college. She chose the band job.

Thoroughly Irish, Miss Blair is five feet four inches in height, weighs 110 pounds and has chestnut brown hair and brown eyes.

Radio City To See "Reap Wild Wind" At Premiere Thursday

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
NEW YORK, March 21—If it is possible to lend glamor to a city as old and colorful and rich in romantic legend as Charleston, Hollywood has glorified it.

In addition to Paulette Goddard, Ray Milland, John Wayne, Raymond Massey, Susan Hayward and Robert Preston are featured in "Reap the Wild Wind," which will have its premiere at the Radio City Music hall in New York Thursday to be followed by the opening in Charleston on April 19.

Adapted from the Thelma Strabel Saturday Evening Post story of adventures, ship operators and wreckers in the Key West and Charleston of a century ago, "Reap the Wild Wind" tears a page from a little-known phase of American history.

Then, as now, there were "rattlesnakes" of the sea, marine outlaws intent on cutting the country's lifeline. It is with the heroes who have their lives to keep that lifeline open that the story is concerned.

In addition to thousands of feet of location shots, Key West and Charleston sets were constructed on the Paramount lot covering a total of 150,000 square feet, with a flotilla of windjammers lying at anchor in a man-made harbor.

Collected symphony records as a hobby.

Four Killed In Head-On Crash

COLORADO CITY, March 21 (AP)—Authorities today sought to identify a youth who was killed with three other persons in a head-on collision of an automobile and a bus three miles east of Colorado City last night. The other dead were: Walter Hutson Kokernot, Longview oil broker; William H. Fletcher, of Big Spring; and Vaughn A. Pate, about 22, of Brady. Four persons in the eastbound Greyhound bus suffered minor injuries. The unidentified youth was burned almost beyond recognition by a fire which followed the crash. A laundry mark found in the car bore the names "S Hart," the "S" being the initial or the last letter in the victim's first name. Also found were bits of brown tweed cloth and green and white underwear. The youths apparently had hitchhiked a ride with the bus.

Texas Round-Up To Honor 1917 Class

AUSTIN, March 21—Men who answered the plea of "Don't show the white feather" in early days of World War I will be chief among honorees at the University of Texas pays tribute at its annual spring roundup Friday and Saturday, March 27 and 28, to its men of the services—past, present, and future. The class of 1917, turned out shortly after the United States was plunged into the past World war, will be one of the honor classes as university ex-students, parents and friends move into Austin for a two-day program of celebration and tribute. That was the class of men who stood down at the foot of the steps of the old law building and heard the late Dean T. U. Taylor deliver his fiery plea to the men of Texas to carry the war back to the war-makers and come back victoriously. It is credited with having sent more university men to the colors than any other single speech or plea. The other class that gets top attention this year is that of 1892, the group which 50 years ago left the university campus to go into the everyday life of Texas.
