

MacArthur's Army Repulses Attack With Heavy Jap Losses

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—The war department announced today that General Douglas MacArthur's Philippine army repulsed a Japanese attack with heavy enemy losses, estimating that at least 700 of the enemy were killed.

American-Filipino losses were described in a communique as relatively small.

The war department said "this was one of the most serious reverses suffered by the Japanese invaders since the war began."

The Japanese attack took place northwest of Manila.

At the same time the garrison of Corregidor fortress shot down four more Japanese bombers in beating off the fourth successive air attack on the fortress.

This raised officially reported enemy plane losses over Corregidor to 15.

The communique said four additional Japanese planes were hit but their destruction was not confirmed.

Fifty-two bombers took part in the attack, which continued three hours.

Both the land battle on Luzon island and the latest air raid on Corregidor took place Sunday.

General MacArthur reported that his forces crushed the attack, presumably in Pampanga Province northwest of Manila, in escaping an attempted enemy trap.

The Japanese, MacArthur said, undertook to crush the greatly outnumbered defenders between two invading forces operating as a pincers from north and south. But he added that when the trap was closed "American and Philippine troops were not in the jaws."

The communique said that Japanese strategy thus failed in this instance, necessitating the frontal attack which likewise failed.

The attack on Corregidor, like the onslaught of the previous day in which four enemy planes were shot down, failed to inflict material damage and casualties were said to be slight.

As far as could be deduced from dispatches from the Far East, the Japanese were in feverish haste to complete their conquest of the Philippines in order to release large numbers of troops for major operations elsewhere. And as far as the evidence went, General Douglas MacArthur was giving the enemy no cooperation.

Reports from British Burma explained why the Japanese high command might be thinking in terms of other theatres. Large Allied forces were concentrating there and intensive Allied air activity was noted, with the Japanese coming off "decidedly second best, according to a British official."

In Allied hands, Burma represents a major potential threat to Japan's grandiose plans for domination of the south Pacific. A smashing drive eastward would cut across the top of Thailand and French Indo China, placing the Allies squarely in the rear of the Japanese forces now driving furiously southward down the narrow Malay Peninsula toward Singapore. It would also put the Allies in a position to neutralize the Indo-China bases which have played such an important role in Japan's South Sea successes to date.

General Sir Archibald F. Wavell, architect of Britain's first victory in Libya and the newly designated supreme commander of Allied forces in the south Pacific, has given no hint that such a big flanking operation is in prospect. On the contrary, before assuming his new command he cautioned that "the situation may become worse until the tide turns."

Wavell, however, has not been a man who telegraphs his punches—legend is that he was having a casual cocktail in Cairo when the zero hour came to rattle Libyan push—and there is the evident Japanese haste to free troops in the

All Men From 20 TO 64 Will Register For Service Feb. 16

Group Subject To Military Service

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt today set February 16 for registration of all male citizens of the nation between the ages of 20 and 44 who have not registered previously.

Men in this age group will be subject to military service.

The date was fixed in a proclamation. It made no mention of registration of men from 45 through 64, who are to be registered later on but who will be exempt from service with the armed forces under present legislation.

In his proclamation, the chief executive noted that this and other registrations under the selective service act "will be required to insure victory, final and complete, over the enemies of the United States."

The registration will apply to all male citizens and some non-citizens born on or after February 17, 1897, and on or before December 31, 1921. It is to take place, not only in the United States, but also in Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico, between the hours of 7 a. m. and 9 p. m.

Provisions were made for registration before February 16 and after that date in exceptional cases through arrangements with selective service officials.

The president, for the sake of full cooperation with the selective service program, urged all employers and all government agencies to give workers sufficient time off to register.

Selective service officials estimated approximately 9,000,000 men would be enrolled at the registration, the first of two or more such enrollments in prospect.

Officials explained that those to be registered February 16 were men 20 years old, those who have turned 21 since the registration last July, an men between 38 and 44.

All men must register under the law. The president may exempt persons residing in the United States who are not citizens and who have not declared their intention to become citizens, but other non-citizens must register.

A native of Switzerland residing in the United States, for example, would have to register if he has taken out his first citizenship papers but has not become a citizen. If he had not declared intention to become a citizen he could be exempted by presidential order.

Arrangements for the chief executive to speak in person tomorrow at a White House conference attended by Vice President Wallace, Speaker Rayburn, House Majority Leader McCormack and Senate Majority Leader Barkley, Barkley told reporters that the President had been advised the senate would take up a price control bill on Wednesday, and that committees in both senate and house would consider promptly legislation to let the President establish daylight saving time.

The daylight savings bills now pending before committees, Barkley said, contemplate allowing Mr. Roosevelt to order clocks moved forward or backward a maximum of two hours.

If the fifteen to eighteen billions of dollars in special funds for the army and navy are requested in the budget message, they would represent a start toward the President's announced goal of stepping up war

President To Deliver His 1942 Message

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—President Roosevelt will deliver to congress in person tomorrow (at 11:30 p. m., C. S. T.) his annual message on the state of the union.

He will address the senate and house, assembled in joint session in the house chamber, on the basis of plans worked out today with congressional leaders. They conferred with the chief executive shortly before the 77th congress began its second session and reported that Mr. Roosevelt probably would request between $15,000,000,000 and $18,000,000,000 in special appropriations for the army and navy.

The budget message, which will disclose the accuracy of these reports and the blueprint for war government war expenditures in the year beginning next July 1, will be submitted to the legislators on Wednesday.

Bandits Rob Sudan Bank Of $5,489.16

SUDAN (Lamb County), Jan. 5 (AP)—Two overalled bandits, blue bandanas over their faces, guns clutched in rubber-gloved fists, at about 8:30 o'clock this morning robbed the Sudan First National Bank of $5,489.16 in currency, locked Assistant Cashier C. M. Furneaux in a vault and escaped in an automobile.

W. H. Lyle, cashier, made the following announcement at 10 o'clock.

"Furneaux went into the bank and was confronted by two men believed to have been from 25 to 30 years old. They entered the bank vault, released the lock about the same time. The men, at gunpoint, forced Furneaux to open the vault and deliver to them the bundled vault currency and the drawer currency.

"All bills were of $1 to $20 denomination.

"The men had forced entrance through a back window, by cutting a screen, prying latches. No one knows how long they had been in the bank.

Tire tracks indicated a car had been parked near the back of the bank and that the machine had been driven fast to the highway and turned toward Clovis, N. M.

Sheriff Sam Hutson of Littlefield, the county seat, his deputy, Sid Hoppling, Littlefield and Deputy C. T. Lindsey of Sudan were quick to the scene after Furneaux let himself out of the vault after five minutes imprisonment.

Officers from the Rangers, state police, sheriff's department and city police of Lubbock were here about an hour later, as were officers from other departments of the south plains.

Radio reports and telephone calls blocked roads in all directions.

The robbery was the second for this institution. Aug. 27, 1936, a lone bandit held the bank up and took $4,000. He was captured and sentenced to 10 years in the Texas prison.

Mercury Plunges To 9 Below Zero Here

Pampa was the coldest city in Texas this morning when the temperature dropped to 9 below zero. Early this afternoon the temperature was 10 above, but the forecast for Pampa and vicinity was occasional snow flurries this afternoon, partly cloudy tonight, continued cold.

The sun shone brightly on a two-inch blanket of snow late this forenoon. Snow was still falling, but was not as heavy as earlier in the day. Wind direction was south, at 15 miles an hour.

Sunday's maximum temperature was 10 above, minimum 5 below, the latter recorded at midnight Sunday. The low of 9 below zero was recorded by the U. S. Weather bureau here at 4:30 a. m. today.

Electric power lines were not affected by the bitter cold weather.

The Southwestern Bell telephone company had some trouble on its Oklahoma City circuit, and had to re-route long distance calls into Oklahoma, but there was no trouble locally.

Buses were arriving and departing on time today, the local terminal reported, and roads to Amarillo and Oklahoma City were not blocked.

Gears Freeze Up

Dozens of cars would not start this morning, and many that did start were unable to be driven due to grease in gears being frozen and drivers unable to shift gears.

2-Way Help for WOMEN!

CARDUI may help women in two important ways. Many who begin 3 days before "the time" and tall, it as directed find it helps relieve pain. When taken by directions as a tonic, it usually helps stimulate appetite, increase the flow of gastric juice, and so aids digestion. Thus, it helps build energy and strength and reduce periodic functional distress for many. 61 years of popularity invite confidence in CARDUI.

MRS. JOHN ARRINGTON

Pioneer Families United When Miss Locke And John Arrington Wed

SPECIAL TO THE NEWS
MIAMI, Jan. 5.—In an impressive home ceremony, Miss Betty Locke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Locke, and John Mark Arrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Arrington, were married in the home of the bride's parents, Thursday, Jan. 1, at high noon.

The solemn words of the marriage rites were said by the Rev. R. A. Pryor, pastor of the First Baptist church, as the couple and the attendants stood before an improvised altar of greenery flanked by tall urns holding pink and white carnations. In the background seven-branched candelabra with tall lighted white tapers formed an arch and provided illumination for the scene.

Preceding the single ring service, Mrs. C. T. Locke, aunt of the bride, sang, "I Love You Truly." She was accompanied at the piano by Miss Francis Deen Carmichael, who also played the other wedding numbers, Lohengrin's "Wedding March" and "A Sweet Mystery of Life."

The bride was attired in a pastel wool ensemble with antique accessories. She wore an heirloom watch, the gift of her paternal grandmother. She carried a white Bible topped with a bouquet of white gardenias with satin streamers and a shower of buds. She was given in marriage by her father.

Attending the bride was Miss Florence Hitchcock of Amarillo, who wore a frock of soft blue wool with a corsage of pink roses. Jack Osborne, cousin of the bride, was best man. His brother, Wallace Locke, was usher.

An informal reception was held immediately following the ceremony. The lace-covered dining table was centered with a bowl of pink and white sweet peas. At one end was the crystal punch bowl at which Miss Rhudean Talley presided. At the other was the wedding cake on a reflector. The bride cut the cake which was served by little Miss Donna Lee Kitchens.

Only members of the immediate families were present.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a beige suit with brown accessories and brown-ribbon hat. She wore a gardenia corsage. The couple left for a short trip to Dallas and other points south, after which they will return to Austin, where Mrs. Arrington will re-enter school in the University of Texas, where she is a junior in the drama department.

The bride was reared in Miami. After her graduation from high school she attended Mary Hardin-Baylor college at Belton. Last year she transferred to the University of Texas where she is a pledge of the Redwood lodge. The bridegroom also was reared in Miami and was graduated from high school, where he was prominent in athletics. He attended Texas Tech at Lubbock three years and he was a member of the Wrangler's club. Mr. Arrington will enter army service at an early date.

The wedding, which is the culmination of a high school romance, connects four prominent Panhandle families. The bride is a granddaughter of the late N. F. Locke, Texas ranger and pioneer business man. Her maternal grandfather is J. H. Osborne of White Deer, a plains ranchman and wheat farmer.

The bridegroom is the grandson of Captain C. W. Arrington of the Texas rangers, and of Mark Huselby, both prominent pioneers in the early history of the country. Neither of his grandfathers are now living, but both grandmothers survive. Mrs. Arrington residing at Canadian, and Mrs. Huselby at her ranch near Mobeetie.

OBSERVE COFFEE MEASUREMENTS CAREFULLY
Coffee experts say that good coffee is never made haphazardly. Both water and coffee should be measured accurately by standard measuring spoons and cups. Your taste will guide you in making a coffee which will give your measurements. If you use the vacuum method, be sure to have the water boiling in the lower bowl before the upper bowl, containing filter and coffee, is adjusted. Almost immediately the water in the lower bowl will rise through the tube to the upper section. When all but the small amount of water below the tube has risen, stir the mixture in the upper bowl and turn the flame very low. If you use a very fine grind coffee should remain in the upper bowl about two minutes before turning out the flame; if a coarse grind, about five minutes. When all the coffee has returned to the lower bowl, remove the upper compartment. Then coffee is ready to serve, fragrant and hot.

Defense Council To Meet Tonight

Plans for Pampa's part in civilian defense will begin to take definite form when a meeting of the Pampa Civilian Defense Council is held at 7 o'clock tonight in the city commission room at the city hall.

Nearly 900 Pampans have registered during the past week for civilian defense, indicating their desire to volunteer for service as air raid wardens, nurses, members of demolition crews, or of other units of the 15 in the OCD setup.

Is your child a NOSE PICKER?

It may be more than just a nasty habit! It may be a sign of worms. Yes, ugly, crawling roundworms inside your child. Other warning signs are itching, "sandy" stools, crankiness, itching in certain parts. Roundworms can cause real trouble! If you even suspect your child has them, get Jayne's Vermifuge right away! Jayne's is America's best known proprietary worm medicine. Scientifically tested and used by millions for over a century. It expels stubborn worms, yet acts very gently. If no worms are there, Jayne's acts merely as a mild laxative. Be sure you get Jayne's Vermifuge.

A follow-up on this registration and plans for the formation of the different units and their training and assignment of duties is expected to be a part of the business of the meeting tonight.

The coldest wave of the season today brought some Texas cities their lowest readings in years.

Sub-zero temperatures prevailed in the Panhandle. Borger reported a minus 4 while Amarillo's 9 below hasn't been equaled since February, 1933, when the mercury hit 9 below.

Continued cold was forecast, but Amarillo expected "a balmy zero tonight."

Three Leave To Join Armed Forces

Three youths from Pampa, one from Mobeetie and one from Keller, enlisted in various branches of the armed service over the week-end.

Leaving Pampa today for Shepard Field, Wichita Falls, were Truman C. Kitchens Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Kitchens, of Pampa, and Quevedo M. Morgan, son of Mrs. Grace Morgan of Mobeetie, both for ground crew service.

Clarence Smiles, member of last year's Pampa Harvester boxing team, left yesterday for Dallas from where he was to leave today for San Diego, Cal., for service in the navy. On Saturday Edward E. Vaughn of Pampa left for San Diego for service with the Marine corps and on the same day Claton C. Mullins of Kellerville enlisted in the army.

Sgt. Harvey M. Gies, local recruiting officer, has several other boys signed for service and they will leave soon, he reported today.

Enlistment in the aviation cadet service in the El Paso recruiting district, of which Pampa is a part, has increased from 41 in October to 210 in November to 314 in December, according to a scale map received today at the local recruiting office.

Boys found shooting air rifles in the city will be taken to the police station, their rifles will be held liable for damage, Police Chief Ray Dudley declared today.

Police have had several reports lately regarding boys shooting air rifles in the city. Several windows have been broken, chickens and pigs have been killed, and a number of street lights have been shot out, Chief Dudley said.

LOUIS TO RISK TITLE AGAINST BAER FRIDAY NIGHT

Navy Relief Society Will Get Proceeds

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
NEW YORK, Jan. 5 (AP)—Joe Louis, who wound up with a knot on his head, an argument on his hands and $40,000 in his pocket the last time he tied into Buddy Baer, risks his heavy-weight title against the California again Friday night with nothing but thanks as his reward.

The champion expects to earn twice as much as he did before, in about half the time, but he's giving it all away. Win, lose or draw, Louis will donate his end of the purse to the Navy Relief Society, which takes care of the families of navy men felled in action.

If the gate reaches $225,000, the goal set by Promoter Mike Jacobs, the Bomber's share will be around $80,000. And all that he'll take, under an agreement reached long before the fight, will be his training expenses.

Baer is turning part of his purse back to the naval fund and Jacobs is working for nothing.

It took Louis six rounds to finish the job in Washington, D. C., last May, after Baer had bounced the champion on his head in the opening frame. Baer was disqualified by Referee Arthur Donovan when Buddy's manager, Ancil Hoffman, remained in the ring to claim a foul after the seventh round was scheduled to start.

Although Louis had floored Baer twice in the sixth, Hoffman protested that his man had been hit after the bell. "The argument that followed lasted for days, but capital boxing officials sided with Donovan.

"This time, Louis says, there'll be no room for argument. He has been powdering his sparring mates with terrific blows at his Greenwood Lake training camp, and his handlers say he will be the Louis of old when he crawls through the ropes at Madison Square Garden for the 15-round tussle at 9 a. m. (CST).

Louis Concerned About War, Golf, Not Ring

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Service Sports Editor
GREENWOOD LAKE, N. Y., Jan. 5—Joe Louis Barrow turns into his 11th year of fighting with only a slight scar on his right eyelid to show for 110 battles—56 as a professional.

Joe Louis will be 28 years old, May 13.

He has earned $1,750,000 with his fists.

What are the world champion's plans?

"I'm going to see Franklin fight Bob Pastor in Cleveland in February. I've seen him two or three times.

"Saw him lose a six round decision to Freddie Fuducia in the Garden. He hasn't hit Fuducia yet, but that was four years ago, and Fuducia knew too much for him. He's a right hand puncher who depends on punching and has a brittle right hand.

"I hope that right hand stays in the Garden, repair it, but he keeps knocking them fellas out until September, I'll be lookin' for an appointment about that time."

"With the greatest of pleasure," says Louis, "Roxy (Manager John Rosenberg) and Chappie (Trainer Jack Blackburn) don't think much of him, but I know he has improved. I keep track of all them fellows."

"Would he box Franklin, the Cleveland Negro who has moved along like a prairie fire?"

"With the greatest of pleasure," says Louis, "Roxy (Manager John Rosenberg) and Chappie (Trainer Jack Blackburn) don't think much of him, but I know he has improved. I keep track of all them fellows."

Halas Proves His Point But Loses $6,000

By SID FEDER
NEW YORK, Jan. 5 (AP)—In the name of sweet charity and by way of proving that his Chicago Bears are just about the greatest gridiron collection ever turned loose to prowl—Jumping George Halas' bankroll showed a $6,000 hole today for two all-star games.

George, mind you, had a lot of satisfaction from the way those apples of his eye knocked over the National pro-football league all-stars two years in a row, turning in a 35-24 decision yesterday in the Polo Grounds for the second one. But the red ink is getting to be quite an item.

A year ago, Halas took his Bears out to sunny California and blew $3,800 of his own while turning in a 28-14 win over the all-stars. Yesterday George brought the thundering herd into the local National league ballyard because of the war, and in the process of becoming a pro league champ rolled up in this four-year series.

The choice of freezing a few toes aplece or staying home by the fire-side resulted in a cozy gathering of only 17,725 fans. This produced a net gate of $51,059.67, of which the Navy Relief Fund got $25,529.84.

Out of the balance came some $3,800 rental for the park and $3,200 for the 28 all-stars—each of whom collected $150 and expenses. What was left, after George paid his men and a few incidentals represented the estimated loss of a couple of thousand iron men. So, George won the ball game and proved his point about his goliaths, but he paid for it.

For that matter, so did the all-stars. Don Hutson, Green Bay's pass-catching end, wound up with a broken rib; Frank Filchock, Washington ball-carrier, had two of the same; and Slinging Sammy Baugh had to have four stitches taken in his jaw.

Rice Cagers Favored To Win Southwest Conference Title

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
The Rice Owls today became even stronger favorites—at the expense of the Arkansas Razorbacks—to win the Southwest conference basketball championship.

The Porkers, defending titlists and ranged in most quarters as the current race, lost O'Neal Adams, star forward, to the Navy.

Arkansas already was handicapped because George Carpenter, giant center, was out of the lineup recuperating from an appendicitis operation.

Loss of Adams shoved Texas into the contending spot and fandom will find out early whether the Longhorns are just flashes in the pan or capable of making it a two or three-team race down the stretch.

The Longhorns play those high-scoring Owls in the conference opener Wednesday night.

Rice is the only unbeaten team through the practice grind while Texas lost two games, both to worthy foes in the Oklahoma City all-college tournament where Texas was a semi-finalist.

All seven conference teams see action this week. Arkansas meets the rather impotent Southern Methodist Mustangs at Fayetteville Friday and Saturday nights. The Porkers already hold a victory over S. M. U. and it was by the decisive margin of 30 points when the teams met in the Oklahoma tournament.

Texas Christian, which won the consolation title in the all-college tournament, losing but one game and that to the runner-up Oklahoma Aggies, clashes with Baylor, also a one-game loser—and that to the Texas Aggies at Austin.

Texas finishes out the week with the Texas Aggies at Austin.

A. and M. wound up a Midwest tour with five defeats in five tries, among which was a pasting from Washington university of St. Louis. T. C. U. beat the same Washington team at Oklahoma City.

While the Texas Aggies, who volunteered for service in the navy, is a big blow to Arkansas, the Porkers still are quite formidable—and will be tough as a boot when Carpenter returns.

On the basis of the practice schedule, the teams look like they'll finish in about this order in the conference race:

Rice, Texas or Arkansas, Baylor, Texas Christian, Southern Methodist, Texas A. and M.

T. C. U. appears to be the most improved team over last season. The Frogs, who did not win a conference game last season, are going to turn the trick this time, says Whitey Baccus, coach of Southern Methodist, who remarked about the upsurge of the Purple.

"They're going to take several this season," Baccus forecast. "They probably won't be title contenders but they're going to be tough for all of the teams."

The Prog record shows two conference victories in three years. In fact they have taken only six in six seasons.

Food Production Goals Boosted

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP)—The agriculture department is boosting the country's record-breaking 1942 food production goals so that the United States can, if necessary, become the veritable breadbasket as well as the arsenal of the anti-Axis nations.

The stepped-up goals may be another step toward the goal of self-sufficiency in food. The department is anxious to get them on record as quickly as possible so that they can be appointed among farmers in time for them to make the necessary adjustments in their plans.

Japanese successes in the Pacific coupled with official predictions that the war may be prolonged have led Secretary Wickard and his crop control experts to review the tentative current goals for such products as corn, oats, barley, soybeans, wheat, and other grains, and vegetables, fruits, and dairy products.

These goals were established early in the fall, before the United States became involved in the war. While calling for the largest production in the history of American agriculture, the program was based upon the expectation that only Great Britain would be needing substantial quantities of food produced in this country.

Officials said that with Russia and China throwing greater and greater portions of their manpower into the war, this country may have to supply both with considerable quantities of food.

Farm officials no longer are concerned about surpluses. They take the view that in a war such as is being waged now, there cannot be too much food and fiber supplies. They point out that present governmental power to place floors under government prices make it possible for farmers to produce abundantly without suffering price drops.

Phoenician Grocer Operates Chinese Listening Post

PHOENIX, Ariz., Jan. 5 (AP)—When the Chungking radio, the voice of Free China, broadcasts the announcement of the Chiang Kai-Shek government from a station far up the Yangtze river, a Phoenician grocer, Ying Ong, operates the official listening post in this country.

Ying, equipped with a powerful receiving set, functions as the principal listening station in the United States for the broadcasts, furnishing Chungking with reports of reception, information on the best hours to broadcast, and which dialects are best understood by American Chinese.

Sometimes he makes transcriptions of broadcasts from China and sends copies to Chinese newspapers published in the United States. He keeps radio stations, radio magazines, individuals and newspapers informed of new broadcasting schedules, and reports to the federal communications commission.

Ying works without pay from any source. He has refused offers of Chinese newspapers to make him a salaried correspondent, but continues to provide all Chinese publications with the news he transcribes.

Isis Skinner, Dean Of Theater, Dies

NEW YORK, Jan. 5 (AP)—Otis Skinner, dean of the theater, is dead at 83.

The veteran actor, whose mother once said he would never succeed on the stage because he "could not even talk straight," but whose histrionics during a 55-year span won him international acclaim, died last night of uremic poisoning.

Funeral services will be held at noon tomorrow in the Little Church Around the Corner. Burial will be in Woodstock, Vt.

Skinner was stricken December 7 while attending a benefit performance at the Plymouth theater. With him when he died was his daughter, Cornelia Otis Skinner, herself a famed actress. His wife, the former Maudie Durbin, whom he met on the stage, died five years ago.

Joe Kirkwood Will Play Here Wednesday

Westfall, the spinner who made the Wolverines' attack spin, and Tackie Baumann have perforated each other's eardrums. Baumann is deaf in that ear.

Graves is exempt because of an ear operation. Butler because of poor sight.

Bob Swelger, Minnesota's blocking back, has a 1-B classification. He remained in the thick of things despite three broken vertebrae in his back, incurred in the Gophers' opener—a little warm-up against Washington.

Glen Conley, Washington tackle, has bad eyes. A knee injury may defer Urban Odson, Minnesota's huge tackle. Joe Bialock, Clemson end, has a hernia.

Jack Wilson of Baylor is suspected of a recurrence of eye injury, the result of having been struck on the bulb by a corn cob as a child. He also suffered an internal injury playing the game.

Chief Standlee, the Chicago Bear back, tried to make it in the United States and Canadian Air corps, but was rejected because of color blindness. Lee Artoe of the Bears didn't know whether the 40-yard field goal he kicked against the New York Giants was good. He's nearsighted.

The services will take these and many more giants of the gridiron only as a last resort, which gives them something worth while in reserve.

I'll take them right now in preference to any group of able-bodied citizens.

They're good guys to have on your side in any kind of a rumpus.

Veteran Chinese Troops May Be On Way To Malaya

LONDON, Jan. 5 (AP)—Veteran Chinese troops are believed to be on their way to Malaya to help block the Japanese drive toward Singapore, British sources said today.

These sources said such an assignment for Chinese forces was a likely first step of the unified southern Pacific command under General Sir Archibald P. Wavell.

They said the call on Chinese manpower was for aid in a crisis until Britain and the United States can rush men and arms to the Far East. It probably was worked out during the recent visit to Chungking of Wavell and Major General George H. Brett, United States army air corps chief who is Wavell's aide in the unified command, they added.

Chinese forces already have bolstered the British in Burma, on the flank of the Malay front.

Military observers said British troops in Malaya had been forced to retreat not by more efficient Japanese fighting but by superior numbers and their inability to defend a wide front.

This situation, they said, could be remedied by Chinese infantry supported by British artillery and motorized forces.

TAMBAY GOLD

CHAPTER I

THE man at the crossroads gas-pump came out to the pump. "Why, it's Mom Bittner," he said. "Hiya, Mom?"

"Hiya, pal," I said. "Fill her up."

"Must be five years since I seen you," he said.

"All of that," I said. "You've got a good memory."

"Oh, nobody ever forgets you, Mom," he said.

"I guess that's right, too. I'm a sort of institution on the roads. He took a gander at my trailer.

"How's the feed trade?" he asked, being polite.

While he was polishing the windshield I said, "What's this I hear about Tambay Plantation?"

"It's right," he said. "Life among the ruins. Poor relation."

"What sort?"

"Yankee. Keeps herself to herself."

"Would she take in a tourist, do you reckon?"

"Would the White House?" he said. "Tambay's still Tambay."

"Okay, pal," I said. "But that's where I bunk tonight. I've got a particular reason for wanting to sleep there tonight."

Coming into Tambay Plantation I rolled along quietly. Opposite the mansion I dropped the trailer. Before turning in at the big entrance, I switched off my lights. What with the rain and the wind, there wasn't much danger of my being heard before I was ready. I got out of the car and hung a satchel of mine that had been a good old standby many a time when I wanted a lodging, on the gatepost.

Through the untended shrubbery between the live oaks I could make out Tambay Mansion. It was like a tired old lady, tired of everything, even of pride, but with the everlasting gus to keep her chin up against all comers, no matter how shabby and sad and poor she might be. Well, I was feeling a little like that myself, after 10 years on the road. I could use some rest.

I KNOCKED on the door; a good, hard, honest knock. The light moved and the door opened.

"Who is it?"

I was all set for a scrawny old-maid type with slit-eyes and a New England-yellow skin. This wasn't it, at all. The voice didn't have a poor relation whine, either.

"Could I get a room?" I said.

"No," she said. "You're in the wrong place."

"Tourists Accommodated," I said. "Going to make a liar out of your sign?"

She got an umbrella and we sloshed through the long grass. I switched my pocket flash on to the place where I'd done my picture-taking.

"What about it?" I said.

Instead of answering she put up a hand and felt the woodwork back of my sign. Naturally, it hadn't had time to get wet. Nobody's fool, that gal.

"Do you get away with it often, she asked me."

"More often than you might think," I told her.

I guessed that maybe she didn't have entire confidence in me. So I put the spotlight on myself.

"Mom Bittner," I said. "Fat and 50, wet and tired."

She kind of hesitated. "There's only the north room furnished," she said. "It leaks."

"So does this sky," I said.

"I don't know," she said to herself. "Why do you pick on Tambay?" she asked.

"It's a long story," I said. "I'd do a lot better by it in the morning."

"I'm Jane Ann Judson," she said.

That north room would sure have been a risk for anyone in weak health. Pots and pans did their best to take care of the dribbles. The bed was pretty clean, my

I knocked on the door; a good, hard, honest knock. The light moved and the door opened.

"Who is it?"

"Could I get a room?" I said.

I could see myself sitting in the drawing room in a dark red satin gown with a brooch, and lifting a finger to an old, silver-whiskered dandy, and saying in a cultured voice, "You may now fetch the juleps, Erastus." Do you wonder I got a kick out of last night?

"You couldn't sit in the drawing room now," she said with a sort of sigh in her throat.

"No?" I said.

"Nothing to sit on. It's all been sold to the antique hunters. Before I got here."

"The place wouldn't be for sale, maybe?"

"Not if I can help it." Her face went quiet and secret. There were things back of the look that she didn't want to think about.

"Mind if I snoop around a little?"

"Go anywhere you like."

After breakfast she took her fly-rod and went down to Tambay Bend to get a mess of fish for dinner, leaving me with the two Gullahs. I've always modeled my life on the fella that made a big success minding his own business. What I mean to say, I never ask questions except, of course, when I want to find out something. Because what other way is there? I went to work on Ollie and Nolie.

"How long have you girls been here?"

"Us? We been a 'vin' heah sence Mist' Clement Maurie's time."

"With Miss Judson?"

"Oh, no'm! Miss Jane Ann, she only been heah a little piece. She let us stay on cause we ain't got no other place to res'. An' she gotta have sumpdy."

"Hasn't she got any folks?"

Well, I looked the place over and located a sweet spot for my trade, between road and river, a high jut of land with nice trees. So I towed the trailer in and was ready for Miss Jane Ann when she came back.

FORT WORTH, Jan. 5. (AP)—Curtailed deliveries of bread to grocery stores was recommended as a tire-saving step yesterday by directors of the Independent Bakers' Association of Texas, in meeting here.

The directors sent their recommendation to Leon Henderson, federal price administrator. They further suggested that the consignment system which necessitates picking up stale bread, be discontinued and that retailers be required to purchase the bakers' product outright.

CHINESE

Chiung Kai-Shek's army were being transferred to bolster the Malayan line until Britain and the United States could put reinforcements there.

It was noteworthy that the British censorship at Rangoon and London yesterday passed a dispatch saying that the gathering of Allied forces in Burma suggested that the united nations command was mounting an offensive there.

The Japanese could be struck as easily overland from Burma at their flank and rear, as they could be by reinforcement of the front against them on the Malayan peninsula.

Unspecified numbers of Chinese troops are known to have massed in Burma. Their primary function, however, then appeared to be guarding the Burma road, Generalissimo Chiang's lifeline.

Now some sharp offensive action by the new supreme commander for the united nations in the war zone, General Sir Archibald P. Wavell, seems to be in prospect.

Military observers said that the retreats in Malaya had been forced not by more efficient Japanese fighting but by superior numbers of the invaders. The British imperial forces are perforce spread too thin and the front is too broad.

The balance might be restored, it was said, with Chinese infantry supported by British artillery and mechanized forces.

A Singapore dispatch said that confidence was mounting in the long-range possibilities of defending Singapore, even though about 200 miles of the Malay peninsula had been yielded in a little less than a month of fighting.

But frankly Singapore's hopes reported to city police this morning that his 1935 Ford sedan had been stolen from his house yesterday.

Private Jack W. Vanderburg, 411 South Houston street, Pampa, has completed 13 weeks of basic medical training at Camp Grant, Ill., according to announcement made by Brigadier General John M. Willis and received by The Pampa News today.

Scott Executive Fred Roberts and Field Executive J. Troy Israel, of Shamrock, left today for Mineral Wells to attend a leaders conference.

At the same time the garrison at Corregidor shot down four more Japanese bombers yesterday, bringing to 15 the number of enemy plane losses in four successive air assaults on that Gibraltar of Manila Bay. The last raid, by 52 planes, lasted three hours.

The Japanese see-sawing down the Malayan coasts against the fulcrum of Singapore's outstretched defenses, raised today a fresh threat to the British left flank in the most vital sector of the Pacific war with new landings at the mouths of the Perak and Bernam rivers.

The British acknowledged this and the Japanese simultaneously claimed

The unit was set up simultaneously with the announcement of the national January quotas for tires and tubes. The totals for the 48 states, District of Columbia, Alaska, Puerto Rico, and Hawaii, are:

Passenger cars, motorcycles, and light trucks, 114,191 tires and 95,580 tubes; and trucks and buses, 242,783 tires and 202,966 tubes.

Just how many tires can be made available for later months will depend in part on developments in military requirements, the OPA said.

"There is no need for people to get panicky," said OPA Administrator Henderson. "The fact that a rationing plan is going into effect doesn't mean that everyone is going to get a flat tire one minute later. All of us should begin at once to conserve in the use of tires by stopping unnecessary driving, by carrying our neighbors, by driving slowly to minimize tire wear and by following the rules of good tire care."

In issuing tire purchase certificates, local ration boards are limited to 25 per cent of their monthly quota during the first seven days of the month and to an additional 25 per cent each in the next seven-day periods. No local board can issue purchase certificates for more tires than are covered by its monthly quota. The quotas are valid only for the month for which set, and unused portions of any quota do not carry over.

To secure a new tire or tube under the quotas, an eligible purchaser must fill out an application which much be certified to by an inspector as to the condition of the tire or tube being replaced. The application then must be taken to the local board which can issue a certificate for purchase if the purchaser can show that he is eligible. The application must then be taken to a tire dealer where the tire or tube may be purchased.

The eligibility list has been supplied by the OPA and it in general covers vehicles whose continuous operation is required to maintain the public health and safety, buses with a capacity of 10 or more passengers, and necessary truck operations.

James Noel

ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL JAMES NOEL was named today as head of the oil and gas division of the attorney general's department. Announcement of Noel's promotion was made by Attorney General Gerald C. Mann. Noel joined the attorney general's department when Manila began his administration on Jan. 1, 1939.

The battle for Singapore had assumed by far the most strategic import of any action in the Far East; the Philippine defense has become primarily a fight for time. As such the Philippine holding action seemed to be going pretty well. A morning communique of the war department at Washington said that General Douglas MacArthur's men had repulsed on Sunday a Japanese attack northwest of Manila, with at least 700 Japanese killed.

"This," said the communique, "was one of the most serious reverses suffered by the Japanese invaders since the war began."

At the same time the garrison at Corregidor shot down four more Japanese bombers yesterday, bringing to 15 the number of enemy plane losses in four successive air assaults on that Gibraltar of Manila Bay. The last raid, by 52 planes, lasted three hours.

The Japanese see-sawing down the Malayan coasts against the fulcrum of Singapore's outstretched defenses, raised today a fresh threat to the British left flank in the most vital sector of the Pacific war with new landings at the mouths of the Perak and Bernam rivers.

The British acknowledged this and the Japanese simultaneously claimed

Chungking dispatches reported a a broadening of their invasion of Borneo with occupation of Brunel, between Sarawak and British North Borneo, already plotted by widely spaced landings. The Japanese said also that the strategic island of Labuan, off British North Borneo, had been in their hands since Jan. 1.

Whether the Japanese meant that both the city and sultanate of Brunel had been overrun was not clear but control of the city would amount to control of the surrounding area.

In these various campaigns, along with the straining effort to wipe out American-Philippine forces in the Philippines, the Japanese undoubtedly were spurred by evidence of an impending united nation's offensive somewhere on the Asiatic mainland.

Whether the British empire troops, fighting over the Malayan hills, through the tangle of mangrove swamps and along the muddy banks of the Perak, could check the enemy's swarming rushes toward the Singapore base in time for a successful relieving diversion was the major question before the new supreme command of the ABCD powers in the southwest Pacific.

Washington heard the invaders were increasing their pressure upon General Douglas MacArthur's American and Philippine troops north and northwest of Manila.

The Berlin radio reported from Tokyo that a large fleet of Japanese transports was moving southward, presumably carrying reinforcements for the attempt to rub out MacArthur's last forces in that Luzon island corner stretching from the important Ologapo naval base, 50 miles northwest of Manila, to the Corregidor island fortress at the entrance to Manila Bay.

A Sunday bombing of the fortress—reputed one of the world's strongest—by 21 Japanese planes cost the attackers at least four planes, Washington said.

MacArthur said treatment of American civilians caught by the Japanese in Manila was especially bad. All white residents were reported ordered off the streets by the city's new masters.

Observers saw in the mustering of forces in Burma under the new supreme commander for the united nations, General Sir Archibald P. Wavell, one reason for Japanese haste in cleaning up the Philippines. A Thailand newspaper said 90,000 fresh Australian fighters and some Chinese troops had arrived in Burma, whence a large-scale offensive might be launched to strike across Thailand at vital Japanese bases in that nation and in French Indo-China and Malaya.

The British admitted the Japanese swept across the Perak river in Malaya some 280 miles north of Singapore. They also effected a landing at the north Borneo port of Weston, 170 miles north of their first Borneo foothold, obtained in Sarawak.

serious Japanese defeat ending in retreat from the Hunan Province capital of Changsha, where 9,000 Japanese were said to have been trapped and slain by Chinese. This brought Chinese claims of Japanese casualties to 52,000 in three days. The Japanese claimed complete occupation of Changsha.

Philippines for operations elsewhere as quickly as possible.

The Berlin radio, quoting Tokyo dispatches, reported that a large fleet of Japanese transports were moving southward, presumably for operations against the Batan peninsula, the big land arm enclosing Manila bay and the logical spot for the American-Philippine last stand.

Tokyo reported intensive air bombing of troops withdrawing from the Manila area northward toward this region, which is largely jungle country.

The Japanese also have been pounding away from the air at the island fortress of Corregidor, which would anchor the southern flank of any determined stand on the Batan peninsula.

Communications issued by the war department here indicated that Japanese bombers were finding Corregidor a tough nut to crack. The anti-aircraft batteries of the fortress were credited with knocking down four enemy bombers out of a flight of 21 yesterday and damaging others in an exhibition shooting which drove the attackers off. Only minor damage and a few casualties in the fort were reported.

Tokyo dispatches—which already on several occasions have "destroyed to pieces" the entire U. S. Pacific fleet—told a somewhat different story. They said no Japanese planes were lost and claimed that the effectiveness of the bombing in the third mass raid on the island was evidenced by the weakening of American defense fire.

The U. S. Navy took occasion yesterday to challenge Tokyo's veracity anew. There was absolutely no foundation, the navy said to Japanese assertions that 17 American destroyers, 25 submarines, and one aircraft carrier were trapped at Cavite, the U. S. Naval base near Manila which was evacuated. All ships and personnel were removed safely, the department reported, except for a hospital detail left behind to care for sick and wounded.

The belief here was that the navy had shifted from Cavite to Ologapo, a secondary naval base on the Batan peninsula where MacArthur's hard-pressed troops apparently are now concentrating.

Resigned to a further worsening of the situation in the Philippines, the capital looked to the newly-appointed unified command set up a special unit for such service to the boards.

The unit was set up simultaneously with the announcement of the national January quotas for tires and tubes. The totals for the 48 states, District of Columbia, Alaska, Puerto Rico, and Hawaii, are:

The chief executive spent a good part of his week-end drafting the address, which may disclose some further details on the campaign the grand alliance of nations has planned to crush the Axis.

Speaking of the anticipated request for military funds, informed legislators said that last-minute even beyond $10,000,000,000. They pointed out that additional appropriations would be requested later as production of equipment was speeded up. Mr. Roosevelt's plan of pouring half of the national income into war expenditures would entail monthly outlays reaching $4,000,000,000 by June 30, 1943.

Most legislators believed that war-time secrecy would be clamped down upon the military budget, resulting in requests for lump sum appropriations in general categories, rather than the usual specific allocation for planes, guns, tanks and other items.

There was considerable speculation as to what the non-war section of the budget would show. Some legislators expressed hope that it would provide for a $1,500,000,000 cut in the amount of money appropriated last year for the operation of government departments and non-defense agencies.

Under this rule, selective service boards will be required to keep these names from the press. Purpose of the rule, as stated by the state office, is to keep number of men inducted a secret, as this is deemed valuable military information which should not be revealed.

As the result of the bombing of a German-frequented restaurant in Paris, German said the city's cafes and public places were put under a 5 p. m. curfew by the German authorities.

"In the Agedabia area our mobile columns and air forces maintained their pressure on the enemy, especially against his communications to the west."

The Italian high command communique told of "intense artillery and air action against our positions" near Salum.

The Hitler command said that five RAF planes were struck down in battles over the Libyan front yesterday; that German bombers damaged six ships and a destroyer at the Crimean ports of Feodosiya, and that submarines in Atlantic, Arctic, and Mediterranean waters had recently sunk four ships.

Following Sunday RAF attacks on Germany and German positions in occupied territory, observers at a southeast coast town in England said there was great air activity on both sides of the channel this morning.

Passenger cars, motorcycles, and light trucks, 114,191 tires and 95,580 tubes; and trucks and buses, 242,783 tires and 202,966 tubes.

Just how many tires can be made available for later months will depend in part on developments in military requirements, the OPA said.

"There is no need for people to get panicky," said OPA Administrator Henderson. "The fact that a rationing plan is going into effect doesn't mean that everyone is going to get a flat tire one minute later. All of us should begin at once to conserve in the use of tires by stopping unnecessary driving, by carrying our neighbors, by driving slowly to minimize tire wear and by following the rules of good tire care."

In issuing tire purchase certificates, local ration boards are limited to 25 per cent of their monthly quota during the first seven days of the month and to an additional 25 per cent each in the next seven-day periods. No local board can issue purchase certificates for more tires than are covered by its monthly quota. The quotas are valid only for the month for which set, and unused portions of any quota do not carry over.

To secure a new tire or tube under the quotas, an eligible purchaser

set up a special unit for such service to the boards.

The unit was set up simultaneously with the announcement of the national January quotas for tires and tubes. The totals for the 48 states, District of Columbia, Alaska, Puerto Rico, and Hawaii, are:

Passenger cars, motorcycles, and light trucks, 114,191 tires and 95,580 tubes; and trucks and buses, 242,783 tires and 202,966 tubes.
