Boyles Named President Of School Board

V. L. "Fuzzy" Boyles was elected president of the Pampa School Board at an organization meeting yesterday evening in the city hall. Dr. H. H. Hicks was elected vice-president and M. A. Graham was named secretary. Mr. Boyles succeeds C. P. Buckler, retired member, as president of the board.

The board voted to file necessary papers making the bonding company handling the bond on the new high school building responsible for all damage resulting from water which seeps between the bricks and across the ceilings and down the walls of class rooms, and responsible for correcting the faults.

Every time it rains water pours into the building. Already ceilings and walls have been damaged. The architect, bonding company and construction supervisor have been notified that the damage must be repaired and the cause eliminated. O. L. Boyington, construction supervisor, notified the board that he will be in Pampa within a week to investigate the leaks.

The board also voted to allow the Plains Electric Company to purchase necessary parts for lighting fixtures to finish hanging lights and to release the bond when the job is completed. Securing of lighting fixtures has been delayed because of the war.

The frame office building used during construction of the new high school building was given to the football team for a club house. It will be moved to the veterans' grounds.

Board members discussed at length raising salaries of the administration staff, but took no action. Salaries of lower salaried teachers were increased $10 a month at the last meeting but the board did not raise the higher salaried group.

McNitt Asserts U. S. Must Provide Aid To Families Of Soldiers

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Paul V. McNitt, federal security administrator, declared today the adequate financial care of dependents of men in the armed services was "a federal responsibility" as the house committee on the national fighting men.

McNitt told the house military committee the care of dependents of soldiers and navy men was "a vital factor" in maintaining the morale of the armed services and the civilian population. The administrator emphasized that a financial assistance for the dependents should not be considered as direct relief.

He said that up to January 31, 1942, more than 10,000,000 men had received deferred status in the draft because of dependents and added that such liberal classification is "unthinkable" in an all-out global war effort.

The administrator said 15 countries in all have military provisions for caring for the dependents of soldiers, sailors and marines.

The house itself was set to debate for two hours and then vote on a senate-approved measure raising the pay of the service men.

Prices Of Hogs And Cattle Frozen

By FRANKLIN MULLIN
CHICAGO, May 12 (AP)—Prices of hogs and cattle which farmers ship to slaughtering centers are frozen within certain limits today as if expressly included, instead of exempt, among ceilings now governing wholesale markets.

After observing the market's behavior yesterday, the first day with blanket ceilings in effect, livestock experts expressed belief the anti-inflation strait-jacket on beef and pork prices applied with almost equal rigidity to the live animals.

As long as wholesale meat prices hold near these ceilings, they said, the stability is likely to be transmitted to the live market. In other words, unless there is a revision of the wholesale ceilings, live cattle and hogs can go down but not up, at least not much.

Ceilings on retail meat will go into effect Monday. Mutton and lamb are exempt from restrictions in both the wholesale and retail trade.

Livestock men do not look for outright freezing of cattle and hog prices. They expect local supply and demand conditions to continue to play an important role. Thus, pecking interests who find themselves temporarily shy of certain supplies may be forced to bid over ceilings at times to meet their requirements.

On the other hand, they could not forecast what the markets would do with any material expansion in receipts, such as normally occurs in the hog trade late in the summer. A change in the export shipping situation also might be a factor.

Trains Will Soon Be Running Over Cuyler Underpass

Trains will soon be passing over the Cuyler street underpass. One line of track has been almost completed and the other lines will be finished immediately.

A huge Santa Fe crane reached Pampa yesterday morning and by noon was in place to set the huge steel stringers in place. The great claws clamped tightly on the steel, lifted it from two flat cars and gently placed it on the concrete abutments. Soon it was anchored and ties and rails were being placed.

The crew worked until nearly dark last night and this morning continued laying rails. The track should be ready for use in a few days.

In all, three lines will be laid. Then temporary tracks will be torn up and excavating of the south approach to the underpass will be started. Then it won't be long until concrete is poured and Pampa will have its first mass in operation.

The job was started more than a year ago but was delayed several months because of inability to secure steel.

It Takes Five Dry Holes To Discover One New Oil Field

Do you know how new oil fields are discovered? Well, that interesting subject will be discussed in the junior high school auditorium here at 8 o'clock tonight by Don Hughes, consulting geologist, who is being brought to Pampa by the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute. The program will be free.

Entertainment, preceding the talk, will be presented by the 40-member high school a cappella choir, directed by Miss Helen Martin. The choir will give a varied program of popular, spiritual and classical numbers.

Mr. Hughes will give an illustrated lecture on the various methods used by geologists in determining whether there is oil or gas thousands of feet under the ground. It is almost unbelievable how the depths of the earth are explored from the surface.

Ten years ago oil companies drilled as many as 15 wells before discovering a new field. Now, through advanced methods which will be explained by Mr. Hughes, one well is discovered for every five dry holes.

Tonight's meeting is not only for members of the chapter or men in the industry but for everyone. Women will be interested in the subject. Chairman R. T. McNally said today.

Bob Waves At Last Passing Motorist

ST. GEORGE, Kas., May 12 (AP)—Bob Reynolds is dead. Gone are the happy smile and friendly wave of the democratic little fellow who greeted the nation from his wheel chair by the side of the road.

In 1928 Bob, a husky 23-year-old truck driver, was shot by filling station bandits.

His legs and arms were paralyzed. Bitter at his fate, Bob sat in his yard bordered by a sweeping curve of U. S. Highway No. 40.

Some of the motorists waved as they slowed for the bend. Bob answered the greetings reluctantly at first, and then with greater animation. In this simple expression of good fellowship became a life-sustaining fetish.

Since then, regardless of the weather, Bob has been at his post. Every passerby received the same friendly accolade.

He became a Kansas legend. Governors regularly stopped to visit. Jim Farley paused long enough to contribute to Bob's 10,000-book match collection.

They are going to bury the little fellow this afternoon, and many of his friends of the highway will gather in final salute—the first Bob has not returned in fourteen years.

30 Applicants For Navy Interviewed

Thirty men from Pampa and vicinity, signed within the past 15 days, will go to Amarillo tomorrow for final examination for enlistment in the navy, construction division, by Ensign Gaffney. Four local youths went to Amarillo today to take the examination for naval cadets.

Yeoman Harold Hamilton of the Amarillo recruiting office was in Pampa yesterday and interviewed 30 men. He accepted four applications—one for machinist school, one for radio school, and one for the Seabees or construction crew.

Men accepted for duty in all branches will be sent to Dallas for induction on Thursday.

Yeoman Hamilton visits Pampa every Monday and is located in the basement of the post office.

William C. Collins and James A. Clepper of White Deer were accepted for navy duty yesterday in Amarillo.

Papa To Wear Hats Made Out Of Skim Milk

By JOHN B. LEWIS
NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—Skim milk tell hats for papa, cotton girdles for mama, and vegetable quilts to warm the family—these are some of American industry's answers to the problems of supply posed by wartime priorities.

They were among products displayed by leading firms here to prove that manufacturing genius could provide substitute articles of equal and better quality than those formerly made of materials now diverted to wartime needs.

The display was convincing evidence that the average citizen will still be able to buy household gadgets and little luxuries he thought he would have to do without when current supplies were exhausted.

To replace rationed rubber, metal and other scarce materials, industry has plumbed the resources of forest, farm and chemical laboratory.

For example: Little Jimmy may now anticipate repairing his roller skates with plastic wheels that wear longer and make less noise than steel ones.

And Miss Mary will find her dolls cuddle just as cozily, filled with milkweed instead of kapoc, a fibre.

Musicians who used to boast about their specially imported record for their clarinets or South American product can now "go out of the world" with a home-made plastic lip piece.

Comforters of sufficient warmth to withstand the coldest night are now made from plain garden variety vegetables. The technical name for the filling is cellulose, but it's still just a vegetable offspring.

Pillows, like Mary's doll, are softer when they contain milkweed silk instead of wool matting.

And, incidentally, the U. S. Navy is using some life preservers filled with the same milkweed silk instead of kapoc.

Drapes, curtains and even dress materials are being made of soy.

Nazi Menace Seen In Petain's Hasty Trip

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Suspense and uncertainty were injected into the question of Martinique and other French overseas possessions today by the sudden decision of Chief of State Marshal Petain to cut short a Riviera vacation and hasten back to Vichy.

State department officials said they had no information which would shed light on Petain's move, but in other quarters it was suggested the Axis powers might be exerting pressure on the Vichy government to undertake some desperate action in retaliation for the Madagascar occupation and what they called the American "threat" to French western hemisphere possessions.

It was recalled that Pro-Nazi Pierre Laval's sudden return to power in Vichy a month ago was accompanied by reliable reports that he was considering a grandiose campaign to "reconquer" (presumably with German assistance) the French colonial possessions now in British and Free French hands.

There still was no official word of the reaction in Martinique to the American proposal laid before Admiral Georges Robert, French high commissioner there, by the American mission last Saturday.

Nor was there any official disclosure of the details of the "arrangement" proposed to Admiral Robert whereby Martinique and other French Caribbean possessions would be safeguarded against becoming involved in Axis operations against the United States or its Allies.

Doctors Urged To Volunteer Services To Armed Forces

HOUSTON, May 12 (AP)—Doctors of the nation were urged today by Col. Leonard G. Rowntree, chief of the medical division of the selective service system, to volunteer their services without delay to the United States Army or Navy.

"We need you," he declared. "We need you now. Let's get into the fight now; the army is calling—and share in the fruits of the coming victory."

Hitler Trying To Open First Great Offensive Attack

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor

Russia's armies were reported today to have crushed a big-scale German attack in the Crimea, frustrating a Nazi drive toward the great Caucasus oil fields after four days of heavy fighting.

Soviet dispatches said the Germans apparently were trying to develop their first full-fledged 1942 offensive. A bulletin from Adolf Hitler's field headquarters said German and Rumanian troops, supported by strong Nazi air force units, opened the attack on the Kerch peninsula last Friday.

"The battle since then has been in full swing," Hitler's headquarters said.

A Berlin broadcast quoted a German military spokesman as saying the Crimean action was "the first great offensive operation since the winter defensive."

While a Soviet mid-day communique reported that "nothing important occurred last night," indicating that the German assault had stopped at least temporarily, a Berlin military spokesman declared:

"It has been long since the Kerch peninsula." "Squadron after squadron of German planes is racing over the Kerch front, where Junkers 87's are carrying out dive-bombing attacks."

German sappers and infantry were said to have landed behind Russian lines under fierce fire. Berlin military quarters acknowledged the importance of the Kerch front but shied at describing the new action as the start of a German spring offensive.

Military advisers reaching London said the German onslaught collapsed against the Red Army's stubborn defense and that counter-attacking Russian troops drove the invaders back into their original lines with heavy casualties.

German infantrymen still held an advanced point in one sector, it was said, but now are being fiercely attacked by the Russians.

London military quarters said reports that a German army of 2-000,000 troops had launched an offensive on the Donets river front, in the Ukraine, were "completely unfounded."

Commenting on the Kerch peninsula battle, a British spokesman said the Nazi thrust may have been at least the prelude to a major offensive because "the German re-advance they must clear the Kerch peninsula before advancing from Taganrog on to Rostov."

A German communique indicated that the Russians were attempting to land sea-borne reinforcements to check the assault, reporting that German planes sank two Soviet transports totalling 5,000 tons and several small vessels in attacks off the Kerch peninsula and off the southeast coast of the sea of Azov.

A Nazi broadcast said the drive was marked by the introduction of new, improved weapons.

In this connection, the Soviet news agency, charged last week that the Germans had used poison gas shells for the first time in the Crimea; and British Prime Minister Winston Churchill sternly warned Hitler in his broadcast Sunday that Britain would attack the Reich with poison-gas bombs if Germany used gas against Russia.

The London Star today published a Vichy news agency dispatch quoting Bucharest sources as declaring that a new type of German mine had deceived the Russians into believing the Germans were using poison gas.

Actually, the dispatch said, the new-type explosive "causes a considerable decrease in pressure and neutralizes oxygen in the air over a radius of 300 yards."

A German spokesman again denied that Hitler's armies had resorted to this outlawed form of warfare, asserting that the coming battles would prove the Germans needed no gas.

Meanwhile, a Soviet communique reported that big munitions works in Munich, Germany, had been blown up and attributed it to mounting "resentment of the German people to the criminal Hitlerite clique."

The communique said walls and fences in Munich, the birthplace of the Nazi movement, had been plastered with such slogans as "Down with the criminal war!"

On other fronts in the worldwide conflict, Allied prospects appeared on the upgrade:

Burma—Chinese military quarters reported that Japanese columns driving up the Burma road into China proper had been thrown back and had retreated to the Burma-China frontier town of Wanting. Other reports said the Japanese had abandoned Wanting.

A German broadcast said Japanese vanguards had crossed the Indian frontier at several points and had seized control of the coastal zone between Akyab, Burma, and the Indian port of Chittagong. The Paris radio said Japanese troops "fighting in the Bay of Bengal area" had advanced within 31 miles of Chittagong, or about 25 miles inside India from the Burma frontier.

A Chinese spokesman said the deepest Japanese thrust into China's Yunnan province reached a point 12 miles northwest of Lungling, which is 90 miles inside China, but declared the enemy had been driven back 30 miles by a Chinese counter-offensive.

The spokesman said Chinese troops from the north and south were attempting to encircle the Japanese, while the enemy sought to trap the Chinese—"and who will succeed remains to be seen."

Australia—Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters reported that Japan was still paying a heavy price for its gains in the battle of the Coral sea.

A communique said Allied fliers tracking down the scattered remnants of the huge enemy invasion armada had damaged two, and probably three, more ships, raising the eight-day total to 23. The 24 Japanese ships crippled or sent to the bottom.

The communique said Allied bombs hit two enemy transports yesterday in the Solomon islands, in the northern Coral sea, and scored two hits or near misses on a big Japanese tanker in the Bougainville islands off the southeast tip of New Guinea.

Imperial Tokyo headquarters, whose claims on the Coral sea battle have already been branded as "fantastic" by Gen. MacArthur, listed four Allied ships as sunk and four others damaged.

Tokyo said 98 Allied planes were shot down, against a loss of 31 Japanese aircraft.

It was also announced that Emperor Hirohito had visited the front.

They were not rescued, for the plane had no floats to come down on the water.

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—The navy announced today that a medium-sized Dutch merchant vessel had been torpedoed off the Atlantic coast and that survivors had been landed at an east coast port.

VICHY, Unoccupied France, May 12 (AP)—The German military command in France issued today a sweeping decree taking to itself powers to increase working hours in French enterprises and ordering employers to report immediately the number and categories of workmen made available for other work as a result of longer hours.

CAIRO, May 12 (AP)—The defenders of Malta shot down 14 more Axis raiders in the 24 hours ended at noon Monday, the RAF said today in a communique.

AUSTIN, May 12 (AP)—Two members of the Texas Railroad commission agreed today the state should have a 1,400,000-barrel daily crude oil allowable for the last 15 days of May.

Commissioner Jerry Sadler, asserting purchasers had made a 1,400,000-barrel firm nomination at a special statewide hearing yesterday, declared he would not sign an order for less oil production.

Commissioner Olin Culberson said he was in "substantial agreement" with his colleague.

Commission Chairman Ernest O. Thompson was out of the city.

The office of the petroleum coordinator has certified a 960,000-barrel allowable for Texas in May.

Reflecting on the special hearing Sadler added:

"From all indications it appears that the major companies are trying to close in on the independent operators, and one example came to light to bear this out."

"This company's Washington representative requested that the OPEC fix Texas' allowable at 360,000 barrels daily and the same company's representative told this commission that his company's nominations were all firm."

"The commission's records show that on March 1, there were 93-256'000 barrels of oil in storage, and on April 25 storage was 94,323,000 barrels. This means that there are approximately 90,000,000 barrels of empty refinery storage, a good part of which is located at plants operated by independents throughout the state."

"Petroleum Coordinator Ickes has a tireless and thankless task, but in all his conscientiousness and sincerity I believe that major purchasers, through their representatives in Washington, are telling Mr. Ickes one thing and then these same purchasers are having their representatives here give this commission conflicting information. I believe that it is high time to bring these 'planted' irregularities out in the open."

"This is certainly no time to let such differences exist, and I, for one member of the Texas commission, am not going to sit by and let the big boys try to hoodwink the people, choke the life's breath out of the independents and permit the one-sixth of our Texans who are dependent upon the oil business take the rap."

Colorful May Lunch Served To Church Women

More than 150 women enjoyed the fellowship and food for spiritual and physical upbuilding when the Pampa Council of Church Women observed the annual May luncheon at the First Baptist church.

Brightly colored costumes and effective table decorations carried out the theme of the day, "Malice Toward None." The head table represented Hawaii with Mrs. Edgar Henshaw, dressed in a formal costume now worn by Hawaiian women, presiding. She had with her an attractive native fan. The background for this table was a stand topped by flags of all nations and draped with cloth used by the Hawaiian women before missionaries and others set the modern fashion in clothes. Women seated at Mrs. Henshaw's table also wore leis and used place mats of fibre.

Mrs. John Hessey, speaker at the table for Japan, wore an elaborate Japanese garment originally from that country. Other women also wore kimono or other held displays of Japanese products.

The table representing India, adorned with incense burners, elephant trinkets, and an image of Buddha, was presided over by Mrs. Clyde Carruth. This idol and the costume worn by the speaker are possessions of Mrs. Jessye Stroup and were brought from India 30 years ago by the late Jim Stroup.

Cuba's table, with Mrs. J. E. Beard as speaker, was decorated with the plate favors of sugar cubes tied with yellow ribbons. A palm tree and a sack of coffee beans added local color. Mrs. Beard was dressed as a senora of Cuba.

Mrs. R. R. House, wearing the costume of a Mexican senora, spoke at the Mexican table, which was loaded with beautiful trays of peppers and other vegetables from Mexico.

South America was represented at a table on which coffee beans formed an elongated centerpiece with coconut and tropical fruits adding their part. Mrs. Paul Briggs in South American dress, and two outstanding visitors, Mrs. W. O. Cooley of Kellerville and Mrs. M. F. Handy of San Antonio.

Mrs. Izzard Speaks At Venado Blanco Dinner In Pampa

Special To The NEWS

WHITE DEER, May 12—President Roosevelt urged the women of America to continue the work of the Federated Clubs, since they afford a medium of communication with two million women already organized and working.

Mrs. Wesley Izzard, newly elected president of Seventh District of Federated Clubs, said in speaking to the members of Venado Blanco club at a formal dinner at the Hotel Schneider in Pampa.

"This war has brought about developments in chemistry, plastics etc., that will advance scientific research 15 years," Mrs. Izzard said. "Equally drastic changes are occurring in social developments, and women's clubs should make their programs up-to-date and flexible enough to meet these changing conditions."

In discussing the recent National Convention, she pointed out the need for a greater feeling of equality with and understanding of our South American neighbors.

Miss Gladys Holley, president of the club, was in charge of the program. Miss Edythe Strickland sang "Feeling" and "My Man"; Mrs. Elton Beene played a piano solo, "The Lotus"; and Mrs. Holt Barber gave a musical reading, "Peggy." Attending were Mesdames Izzard, Beene, Barber, June Duvall, Ray Wevayard, B. R. Weeks, Ronald Davis, and Bob McNeely; and Misses Holley, Strickland, Mary Lee Davis, Claudia Everly, Mildred Hogland, Odessie Howell, Virginia Martin, Evelyn Mayfield, Vera Taylor, Dorothy Wittif, Ola Mae Roberts, Mary Dee Mereson, and Vivian Hammack.

This was the final program in the year's study of "Our American Heritage and Its Defense." During the year the club has continued to supervise the upkeep of the park, contributed to the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, and welfare work; given magazines to the public library; purchased $25 worth of clothing for a high school girl; presented a citizenship award to a high school senior; sponsored a Santa Claus visit to 70 children, and a community dinner attended by more than 100 persons.

In keeping with its study of current affairs, the club has taken the Time magazine current affairs tests, and presented as speakers on two special programs Dr. Richard Falkenstein, a native of Germany, who spoke on Nazi Germany; and A. K. Barakat, Amarillo business man, who spoke on his native country, Palestine.

Wayside HD Club Members Discuss Care Of Clothing

"Being a waste warden is not all scrapping and doing without, it is being ingenious about perking up old clothes with new touches; it is putting worn and discarded things to some other use; it is taking conscientious and unceasing care of the things women already have," Mrs. W. F. Taylor pointed out at a recent meeting of the Wayside Home Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. Wood Osborne.

"Children grow so quickly they do not get full wear from their clothes. Waste wardens will overcome this by laundering twice a week instead of once. This means the child needs a wardrobe only half as big, but double the amount of wear is gotten out of each garment before the child outgrows it," Mrs. Taylor concluded.

"There are thousands of brands of named goods available in retail stores and neither the homemaker nor the retailer can be sure of the quality each brand represents. That is where the department of agriculture's Agricultural Marketing service has come to the rescue. Regardless of the brand name, the quality classes for canned fruits and vegetables established by the department of agriculture provide a reliable means of identifying quality. Only products packed in plants under the continuous inspection of government inspectors can be labeled as a U. S. grade," Mrs. S. J. Meador pointed out.

Colorful May Lunch Served To Church Women

More than 150 women enjoyed the fellowship and food for spiritual and physical upbuilding when the Pampa Council of Church Women observed the annual May luncheon at the First Baptist church.

Brightly colored costumes and effective table decorations carried out the theme of the day, "Malice Toward None." The head table represented Hawaii with Mrs. Edgar Henshaw, dressed in a formal costume now worn by Hawaiian women, presiding. She had with her an attractive native fan. The background for this table was a stand topped by flags of all nations and draped with cloth used by the Hawaiian women before missionaries and others set the modern fashion in clothes. Women seated at Mrs. Henshaw's table also wore leis and used place mats of fibre.

Mrs. John Hessey, speaker at the table for Japan, wore an elaborate Japanese garment originally from that country. Other women also wore kimono or other held displays of Japanese products.

The table representing India, adorned with incense burners, elephant trinkets, and an image of Buddha, was presided over by Mrs. Clyde Carruth. This idol and the costume worn by the speaker are possessions of Mrs. Jessye Stroup and were brought from India 30 years ago by the late Jim Stroup.

Cuba's table, with Mrs. J. E. Beard as speaker, was decorated with the plate favors of sugar cubes tied with yellow ribbons. A palm tree and a sack of coffee beans added local color. Mrs. Beard was dressed as a senora of Cuba.

Mrs. R. R. House, wearing the costume of a Mexican senora, spoke at the Mexican table, which was loaded with beautiful trays of peppers and other vegetables from Mexico.

South America was represented at a table on which coffee beans formed an elongated centerpiece with coconut and tropical fruits adding their part. Mrs. Paul Briggs in South American dress, and two outstanding visitors, Mrs. W. O. Cooley of Kellerville and Mrs. M. F. Handy of San Antonio.

Mrs. Izzard Speaks At Venado Blanco Dinner In Pampa

Special To The NEWS

WHITE DEER, May 12—President Roosevelt urged the women of America to continue the work of the Federated Clubs, since they afford a medium of communication with two million women already organized and working.

Mrs. Wesley Izzard, newly elected president of Seventh District of Federated Clubs, said in speaking to the members of Venado Blanco club at a formal dinner at the Hotel Schneider in Pampa.

"This war has brought about developments in chemistry, plastics etc., that will advance scientific research 15 years," Mrs. Izzard said. "Equally drastic changes are occurring in social developments, and women's clubs should make their programs up-to-date and flexible enough to meet these changing conditions."

In discussing the recent National Convention, she pointed out the need for a greater feeling of equality with and understanding of our South American neighbors.

Miss Gladys Holley, president of the club, was in charge of the program. Miss Edythe Strickland sang "Feeling" and "My Man"; Mrs. Elton Beene played a piano solo, "The Lotus"; and Mrs. Holt Barber gave a musical reading, "Peggy." Attending were Mesdames Izzard, Beene, Barber, June Duvall, Ray Wevayard, B. R. Weeks, Ronald Davis, and Bob McNeely; and Misses Holley, Strickland, Mary Lee Davis, Claudia Everly, Mildred Hogland, Odessie Howell, Virginia Martin, Evelyn Mayfield, Vera Taylor, Dorothy Wittif, Ola Mae Roberts, Mary Dee Mereson, and Vivian Hammack.

This was the final program in the year's study of "Our American Heritage and Its Defense." During the year the club has continued to supervise the upkeep of the park, contributed to the Boy Scouts, the Girl Scouts, and welfare work; given magazines to the public library; purchased $25 worth of clothing for a high school girl; presented a citizenship award to a high school senior; sponsored a Santa Claus visit to 70 children, and a community dinner attended by more than 100 persons.

In keeping with its study of current affairs, the club has taken the Time magazine current affairs tests, and presented as speakers on two special programs Dr. Richard Falkenstein, a native of Germany, who spoke on Nazi Germany; and A. K. Barakat, Amarillo business man, who spoke on his native country, Palestine.

Wayside HD Club Members Discuss Care Of Clothing

"Being a waste warden is not all scrapping and doing without, it is being ingenious about perking up old clothes with new touches; it is putting worn and discarded things to some other use; it is taking conscientious and unceasing care of the things women already have," Mrs. W. F. Taylor pointed out at a recent meeting of the Wayside Home Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. Wood Osborne.

"Children grow so quickly they do not get full wear from their clothes. Waste wardens will overcome this by laundering twice a week instead of once. This means the child needs a wardrobe only half as big, but double the amount of wear is gotten out of each garment before the child outgrows it," Mrs. Taylor concluded.

"There are thousands of brands of named goods available in retail stores and neither the homemaker nor the retailer can be sure of the quality each brand represents. That is where the department of agriculture's Agricultural Marketing service has come to the rescue. Regardless of the brand name, the quality classes for canned fruits and vegetables established by the department of agriculture provide a reliable means of identifying quality. County To Purchase $1,000 Federal Bond

Gray county practically cleaned up its permanent school fund yesterday, when the county commissioners authorized County Treasurer W. E. James to take $1,000 of the $1,000.50 in the fund and buy a U.S. government bond, series G, for the county.

Other business transacted by the commissioners yesterday consisted of two budget amendments, and an order setting up the salary of Mrs. Jessip Craddock, welfare office clerk and secretary.

Her salary was set at $76 a month, beginning May 1, this year. To provide for an increase in the salary of the jail cook, effective Feb. 1, 1942, from $45 to $60 a month, a budget amendment of $165 was voted. For the local company of the Texas Defense Guard, the commissioners made a $250 amendment in the budget.

Gray's arrest was ordered by the U. S. attorney general's office, after he had written to Attorney General Francis Biddle last month and explained his chief reason for failing to register was that conscription is "the backbone of war."

Dynamifers Damage Paris Radio, Cafe

NEW YORK, May 12 (AP)—Dynamifers have damaged the station of Radio Paris and the famous Parisian restaurant of Marguerys, trustworthy advice to the Associated Press from Europe said today.

The extent of the damage was not fully known but several persons were reported killed in the restaurant.

These same sources said 20 more hostages had been shot near Rouen after two German sailors were killed and that five others faced a firing squad at Saint Auben.

It was said that 50 more would be shot if the guilty persons were not produced by May 15.

The Paris long wave transmitter has not been heard since regular close down time Saturday night.

Man Cheats Then Drives Car Over Foot Of Newsboy

HOUSTON, May 12 (AP)—Fourteen-year old Homer Thompkins told police today he sold a Sunday newspaper to a man in an automobile. After getting the paper, the man stepped on the gas and drove away without paying the boy the dime. As the car lurched forward, one wheel passed over the lad's right foot.

Homer was treated at a hospital for the injury and released. No bones were broken.

UNCLE SAM IS PUTTING The Right Tools in the Right Hands

If your work is vital to our nation...if you're one of the men behind the men with guns...the government wants you to have the tools you need to do your job at top speed! The Priorities System helps you get these tools...so you can help WIN THE VICTORY! Ask at Montgomery Ward for full information on Priorities!

Nothing like that's going to happen to America. America is going to win its battles... win them by seeing that the men who need the tools, machines, guns, and supplies HAVE THEM... WHEN THEY NEED THEM. That means you... us... everyone... is going to give up a lot of things we enjoyed and took for granted... because the men who fight... and the men behind the men who fight... need those things! Okay... we're willing... GLAD to make the sacrifice... any sacrifice. But how will we make sure that the right men get the things they need? The priority system takes care of that. Our Government knows what's needed... knows who makes it... knows who should have it! The priority system is the Government's way of seeing that the right men get what they need... when they need it. The priority system says DEFENSE NEEDS COME FIRST... and tells in what order those needs come. Up to now we everyday people haven't been touched much by priorities. America's vast storehouses gave us a big supply in reserve... on almost everything. The picture's changing rapidly. Right now... at Wards... and in retail stores all over... clerks are telling customers, "Sorry, but you'll have to give us a priority rating on this." Some customers, who understand, take it as a matter of course. Others... who don't understand... are pretty peeved. We're printing this ad so customers will understand. When Wards... or anyone... asks for a priority... that's because the Government wants it that way... wants to make sure that a defense worker isn't being deprived of something he needs... needs vitally! And we want to make this clear—although many items are restricted by priorities... most of the things you need... clothes, shoes, furniture... practically everything you use... you can still buy as before. And you can buy all these things at Wards... economically... with assured satisfaction. Not being able to sell tools and equipment except on a priority is going to cost us a lot of business. Well, that's part of our sacrifice... and we're glad to make it. Not being able to buy those things is part of your sacrifice. We're pretty sure that's okay with you!

German Trouble

"If we pretend that we are at war merely because the Japanese attacked us at Pearl Harbor we are depriving the greatest of human tragedies of all its meaning," says Herbert Agar in the current Harper's Magazine. "We are at war primarily because of the sickness of our civilization." He asks what civilization is, and answers thus:

"Civilization is a set of rules by which most men abide, of promises to which most men adhere. It is a set of institutions, of homely customs, which express the experience of centuries. It has its roots in cultural disciplines, religious and humanistic, which give life its meaning. Man creates these disciplines and supports them, to foster what is good in his nature and control what is bad. When he begins to break his own rules and ignore his customs, civilization sickens."

Barbarism, he says, derides rules and promises, destroys institutions. To the rule of law, customs, promises and self-discipline there is no alternative but terror. Mr. Agar explains why Germany, historically, has remained a weak spot in world civilization and adds, "When one man is under the weather he has trouble trouble, another has stomach trouble, our civilization has German trouble."

This neither excuses Germany, nor blames world sickness on a single people, says Mr. Agar. We must heal our own inner weakness, folly and injustice, as well as overcome the enemies outside of our nation. His statement is an acute diagnosis of world miseries, indicating means of preventing future outbreaks of the disease. The question is whether the nations will be willing to take the bitter medicine necessary.

We Need Victories

And so Corregidor is gone, and another glorious chapter has been added to the legend of the Far East, where Wake Island and Bataan have demonstrated that the sons of democracy have no superiors, man for man, as fighters.

The sad thing is that all these epics of heroism had to be in lost causes. Our little expeditionary forces have fought to the bitter end against overwhelming odds. To us the glory, to the Japs the spoils.

We can not continue thus indefinitely. Somehow, some day soon, we must find the way to get enough men and equipment to the battlefields to stop the little brown men in their tracks, and send them back home, like the naval battle in the Coral sea.

The Serbs Still Fight

It is easy to understand why Hitler was so anxious last year to have Yugoslavia sell out to the Axis. He knew how easily his mechanized legions could overrun the little Balkan country. But probably he realized, also, that such a victory would be far from final.

When we win this war, we should do something nice for the Serbs. Thanks to them, the Nazi attack on Russia was delayed so long that winter saved Moscow, and gave Britain and us time to help the Reds. Meanwhile General Mikhailovich's little guerrilla army is tying up close to half a million Italians, Hungarians, Bulgarians, Germans and Croats who, otherwise, would be available for the invasion of Russia.

Today's War Analysis

By DeWITT MACKENZIE, Wide World Staff Analyst. The heavy German counter-offensive in the Crimea probably represents an effort to drive an entering wedge to enable Herr Hitler to embark on his delayed spring offensive through the gateway to the Caucasus where he has the oil on which he yearns to float to glory.

The four-day-old battle is still under way, but the business-like manner in which the Reds reportedly have flung the enemy back in the early stages is a further demonstration that the Muscovites are swinging into this critical year with great striking power. This is the third time within recent days that the Bolsheviks have displayed their readiness to deal with emergencies, projected German attacks in the Ukraine and Leningrad sectors having been upset at least temporarily by lightning Russian thrusts.

The Reds' persistent attacks against the uneasy German line throughout the winter, and their ever-ready counter blows at Nazi insurgency certainly are making the going tough for Herr Hitler's spring drive. The Fuehrer is ready for the race (well, he says he is, anyway) but the Russians just won't give him time to dig in his spikes and get a good start.

This is the third spring for which the Nazi chief has prepared his offensives, and always before this he has got into action with the first flowers and the earliest birds. He hurried Germany's massive weight onto Norway and Denmark on April 9 two years ago. Last year he struck on April 6 at Yugoslavia and Greece. This year here we are at May 12, with summer already trying to crowd out spring, and the Fuehrer hasn't yet fired a big gun in anger.

These Red tactics of beating the German offensive by not letting it get started may have a decisive effect on the trend of the spring and summer fighting, and that is to say on the outcome of the war. If the Muscovites can continue to prevent another blitzkrieg from getting under way, they will have gone far towards beating the man who would rule the world.

Despite the terrific lacing which he took from the Russians last winter, Hitler has managed to hang onto his main strategic positions along the general defensive line which he fixed as the limit of his retirement.

However, while Hitler hasn't yet got fully under way we mustn't be foolish enough to think that he is finished. He still is powerful and when he finally gets his strength into play—which he might do in his present drive—we likely shall see some of the force of former springs. Whether he will persist in trying to break his Red line, though, is problematical.

If the Reds continue to hold him at bay, he may lash out in some other direction while doing a defensive holding operation along the Russian front. He might, for instance, try to break into the Middle East by means of by-passing Turkey and striking through Syria. This would involve that great air force which he has been getting ready for many months past.

Common Ground

By R. C. HOILES. "I speak the pass-word primal. I give the sign of democracy. By '20d I will accept nothing which all cannot have their counterpart of on the same terms."

WALT WHITMAN

"NO COMFORT FOR THE MINORITY"

A New Dealer, and of course a labor unionist, writes, "I can find no comfort for the minority in the Constitution. It checks the majority in various ways but in every case it provides a way for the majority to administer the law of the land. I shall be mighty grateful for an adverse opinion backed by equally incontestable authority."

The answer to this man's confusion is that nine men have the power to prevent the bare majority from changing the law of the land. Nine men have a right to protect both the minority, and the majority. The Constitution was so set up to protect the minority as well as the majority.

But this socialist, New Dealer and unionist, of course, recognizes no rights of an individual. Every socialist loves to domineer and exploit his fellowman. They disregard all the safeguards of the Constitution to protect the minority. If our founding fathers wanted a bare majority rule, they would never have had a Constitution. They never would have had equal senators for every state. They never would have required three-fourths of the states to ratify a change in the law of the land. They never would have given the President the power to veto the bare majority of Congress.

The fact that one-fourth of the states can prevent a change of the law of the land, can easily mean that as low as 10 per cent of the population can prevent the law of the land from being changed that would interfere with the rights of the minority or the majority.

Truly, we do not want a government that does not protect both the majority and the minority. Real democracy respects the dignity of every human soul, not just a bare majority. A government that only respected a bare majority is not the kind of a democracy we want. Certainly it is not the kind our Founding Fathers tried to establish. A bare majority government could be tyranny of the worst kind.

If I as an individual have no right to do to another as I would not have another do to me, then a bare majority has no right to do to the minority what the bare majority would not want the minority to do to them.

If the Constitution or our government does not try to protect the inherent right of the individual or the minority as the New Dealer contends then it has repealed the Golden Rule. Then our nation is not Christian. Certainly those who really believe in Christianity know that this is the reason we are in the trouble we are in.

LET DEFENDERS OF INCOME TAX ANSWER

Those who believe that income tax is a fair and wise tax should explain why, if it is so, that all of them will admit there must be some other tax besides income tax.

If it is a fair rule and does justice to every one and to the state, then why not use it exclusively. Take a certain percentage of what each man produces and pay all our bills by this one tax.

The minute this is proposed, the unfair situation arises where a man owns a lot of land and leaves it lay idle and has no income and, thus, pays no tax. If the income tax were the only tax, a man could own half of the United States and have the government defend him in the right to own it and he would not have to use it to benefit the rest of mankind.

This is the very reason why an income tax is not as desirable as a tax on consumption.

If everything consumed were taxed on the uniform rate, then the man who had the property and was, thus, occupying it and consuming it, would have to use this property to satisfy human wants in order to have enough income to pay his tax. If he did not so use it, the tax would eat it up and take it from him and put it in the hands of those who would use it to the public interest.

No, there is absolutely no excuse for any tax to be put on a man for adding to our wealth, to our tools, to our defense, to raising our standard of living. The tax should be on the man who subtracts from our wealth, from our defense, from our standard of living. We need only one tax and that is a universal consumer tax. It stands every rational test.

Dallas Contributes $37,222 To Army, Navy Relief Funds

DALLAS, May 12. (AP)—A $37,222 contribution to the army emergency and navy relief funds was made last night by the thousands who turned out to see an array of movie stars, starlets and supporting players touring the country in the Hollywood caravan.

The box office counted $35,222, and the difference was made up by expensive concessions at the show sold by Dallas career girls, bonds sold by some of the actors at a downtown department store, and two programs autographed by all the members of the caravan which sold for a total of $2,000.

J. C. Parker of Fort Worth was high bidder at $500 for one program. Each bidder received a kiss from Merle Oberon as a bonus.

Senator Formby Enlists As Buck Private

Around Hollywood

By PAUL HARRISON

HOLLYWOOD, May 12 — Gossip department: Periodically the Movie-town correspondents and radio commentators are reproached from various quarters for what are termed destructive attacks against the industry and its people. Scurrilous gossip is especially feared and hated.

You cannot blame Hollywood for not liking scandal slinging, but its plaintive attitude seems pretty silly when you find that the movie industry hasn't backbone enough to protect itself even in its own trade press. A paper which is almost wholly dependent on the studios and picture for subscriptions and advertising still can, and does, publish eye-widening items such as the following:

"The married actor nobody suspects has quit Hollywood and accused the best girl of that big comedian who hits first and thinks after."

"What top male grosser begged his studio to scam a female star on his lot because she was in his hair? They got another lot to pick up her contract."

"That star stormed into the front office of what studio and accused everybody therein of breaking up her home? They sanctioned a junket which included gal's attractive husband and a w. k. glamor item."

"What foreign singing star's husband exhibits nauseating pro-Schickelgruber opinions when he's in his cups—which is often?"

"When a studio delivery lad brought her script, who was it that greeted him with the stinky slimsy with 'Oh! I thought it was my agent.'"

"What extortive had her secretary occupy a bungalow where she'd registered, and then took over another booked in secretary's name, so she could meet her married actor boy friend, undisturbed?"

TRAVEL NOTE: A man from Alaska says the comparatively fresh films now being shipped to the north country, mostly for the benefit of soldiers and navy men stationed there, have astonished the Eskimos. Previously it was Hollywood's custom to send only aged pictures to Alaska where, after a last showing on the igloo circuit, they were destroyed. Formerly, years of peering at the flickering, badly scratched films, the Eskimos were convinced it rains continuously in the United States, both indoors and outdoors.

Behind The News In Washington

By PETER EDSON

WASHINGTON, May 12 — That segment of the population which has believed the fake hue and cry that the investigation of Father Coughlin's Social Justice represented a threat against all "freedom of living, the army and navy were nothing more than veiled white slave recruiting drives to procure women for the soldiers and sailors of the armed forces. If there is any suppression of civil liberties in squelching people who spread stuff like this, bring on Hitlerism."

Gen. Erwin Somervell, commander of the Service of Supply, and his experts say it's impossible to make any accurate calculations of how many workers are needed behind the lines to keep one soldier in the field. There have been unofficial estimates running from three to 18. The top figure is obviously ridiculous, for on that basis an army of 10 million men would need 180 million workers in reserve, including babies, is only 130 million.

In the first World War, just before the armistice, the A. E. F. had about two million men, 36 per cent of whom were in the Service of Supply. This being a mechanized or gadget war, the supply problem is more complicated, and the ratio may be higher. But the effort is being made to keep that ratio as low as possible.

If you want a rough guess of how you'll be fixed at the end of this year or a year later, here's one official economic guess from the Henderson staff: By the end of 1942 the standard of living will be down to what it was in 1935. A year later, it will be back to the level of 1933.

People You Know

By Arch Fullingim

A fellow, unmarried, came into The News Saturday night and pounded his fist on the desk. He said he couldn't afford to be drafted into the Army at $21 a month, said his insurance cost more than that, said he couldn't afford to lose his house, said he had written to the draft board about it, and that brings up the subject of our draft board—John Sturgeon, C. P. Buckler, and C. H. Walker.

When you hear about the troubles Clarendon, Amario, and other towns are having with their draft boards, one can feel proud of the draft board in Pampa. Of course, you can hear a lot of rumors about who the draft board is passing up, but you can take it from The News that nobody is getting by. The News is the first to hear such rumors, and every one has turned out to be just a wild rumor with no basis in fact.

The News is constantly investigating every rumor with eagle eye, just so they will have an answer for the grippers, and not because they figure there might be any truth in them. We have complete confidence in the integrity, the patriotism, the fairness of Mr. Walker, Buckler, and Mr. Sturgeon, just as most people have who know them. They follow the selective service act as it is laid down. And here's a significant fact. A number of appeals from the city have been made but every single ruling has been upheld in such cases.

They have a thankless job, and they draw no salary. They give an average of two or three hours a day of their time, and now that they have about 7,000 men registered they are called upon to give more and more of their time. When they are in doubt about a case they write to the state draft board here for his opinion, and they abide by it. The rich and the poor, the big shots and the little people receive the same treatment, because the draft board follows instructions from Gen. Page and Gen. Tennesby to the letter.

The draft board deserves your helpful cooperation, your support, not your criticism, and when you hear a wild rumor ask the bearer to prove it. Also deserving of praise for their public service are the doctors of the city who donate their skill and time to examinations. The advisory draft board, comprising the attorneys of the city, who give legal advice, also performs a patriotic contribution. All these men cooperate to do fairly with all registrants. Pampa is fortunate in having men on its draft board that it can trust.

North California Under "Dim-Out"

SAN FRANCISCO, May 12. (AP)—A nightly "dim-out" of lights that can be seen from the ocean was ordered today for Northern California.

Each night, all lights visible from the sea must either be dimmed or extinguished. The Office of Civilian Defense issued the order, at the request of Rear Admiral J. W. Greenleaf, commandant of the 12th naval district.

Bank Robbed Of $60,000

MATHIS, May 12. (AP)—A widespread search was underway today for a false-whiskered bandit who robbed the First State Bank of Mathis of approximately $60,000 at the point of a blue-barreled gun. The man forced three employees to the bank's rear lobby after a fourth handed him a pastebored box crammed with $10, $5 and $1 bills. Cashier J. W. Nelson said. He then ran out the back door and fled in a pickup truck.

that Dexter Keener, administrator of the Consumers' League, dubbed it "The Niagara of Leaks."

The War Labor board, which is supposed to settle the labor controversies that can't be conciliated, is up to its neck. The board has had about 125 cases referred to it for settlement, some 25 of them being inherited from the reorganized National Defense Mediation board. The board has settled only 30-odd cases.

Price Administrator Leon Henderson every now and then has to get settlement calls from economists to explain some of the background for his anti-inflationary moves. "A lot of people," he says, "have had to take courses in Henderson I or Henderson II."

BATTLE IN BOLIVIA: If the Board of Economic Warfare were of a mind to do so, it might issue communications, just as the army and navy do, telling of battles fought on the fields of international big business.

For instance, here is one of the engagements for which the economic warrior strategists might have to map battle lines soon: Argentina, unable to get her usual rubber supplies from the United States, has been sending rubber buyers into Bolivia to scout for native crude rubber, in competition with U. S. buyers. To beat the Argentinians, several attacks might be made. First, Argentinian buyers might be guaranteed a certain percentage of her normal manufactured rubber imports from the U. S. Or, U. S. buyers might make a deal to buy all the rubber Bolivia can produce, thus freezing Argentina out of the market. Or, long-term contracts must be offered Bolivian producers by U. S. buyers, at prices higher than Argentina can pay and with bonuses for amounts delivered over contract quotas, to encourage production and make the Argentinian buyers' work more difficult.

See History of Economic Warfare for Survival, yet to be written, as to how it all comes out, and a thousand other battles just like it, only worse.

HIGH LIFE And low life in The BIG City

A New Yorker's brother in a foreign country always writes at great length about the cost of ordinary commodities. He believes that the advancing price of butter is a vital bit of news. He may be right, so here is New York:

Rubber tips on my heels cost me 35 cents the other morning. Two-bits is all I ever paid in that shop before. I saw $1.19 appear on the cash register in a grocery store for a man who bought two dozen eggs. I pay only 42 cents a dozen. Practically all can goods has advanced from 2 to 5 cents. A neighborhood with stomach disorders tells me that bicarbonate of soda is the only article that has not increased in price. But the biggest miracle of all to me is that sugar is still 6 cents a pound. Nobody I know uses as much as the ration allows.

Butter is 48 cents a pound. Lovely grapefruit are 5 cents apiece. Cucumbers, when I last priced them, were 29 cents each. Most of us smell them only. Tomatoes are set like precious gems in boxes a dime used for decoration in the stores. I haven't seen anyone purchase a tomato in ages. They are not very good this time of year. Round steak is 40 to 54 cents a pound.

Silk stockings in the large department stores are still plentiful, nearly a year since people started hoarding them. They are still from 69 cents to $1 for ordinary business girl service weight. Nylons are only to be had in very sheer and are $1.95. Cotton stockings, exceedingly clumsy looking, are from $1 to $1.85. There is no inducement to buy them when silk are much cheaper. War Dads To Go All Out For Sons

KANSAS CITY, May 12. (AP)—The war dads figured it was time to do something besides cheer his son.

So a new organization—the American War Dads—was born in Kansas City today to assure the armed forces that dad is going all out for them at home.

Nat Milgram, grocery store executive, came home with the idea from a visit with his six-foot six-inch son, Lester, at Camp Lee, Va.

Papa Milgram just had seen the soldiers there contribute on a 100 per cent scale $1.25 each of their $21 a month pay for War Bonds.

"When I saw those boys do that, knowing they didn't have much left over after odds and ends are taken care of, I made up my mind fathers can give the boys some encouragement they aren't getting from any one else."

The organization is a non-profit, cooperative group.

Among things the members intend to do "as soon as we spread out to other towns of the nation," says Milgram, "is to see that a man in uniform gets complimentary tickets to sports events, and invitations to play on golf courses."

Some of the things the group plans: To fight subversive activities; to initiate letter-writing campaigns to the service men; to maintain clubs where the uniformed man can find recreation and cigarettes at cost and to prepare gift packages for service men.

EDITORIAL ECHOES

The Buck Private Of Today

The future of our country and of the entire world depends largely upon the buck private of today. He makes up the majority of our whole army of 2,000,000 men, and it is to him the American citizen looks for the defense and victory of America in this present struggle.

Who are the men who gave their lives for their country when Pearl Harbor was so cowardly attacked, and who so gallantly and heroically against overwhelming odds gave their all at Bataan? Most of them were common buck privates, boys like your brother or the fellow next door. They continued the stand until lack of rations, disease, and fatigue forced them to give up the battle.

They are the men who have the same spirit, patriotism, and loyalty as the men who were with Washington at Valley Forge, and the men who fought to hold our country together in the Civil War. They are like those who fought and died on foreign battle fields in France to make the world safe for democracy.

Now again American doughboys are fighting to preserve our democratic ideals of life. It will be because of them that we shall not be overrun by our enemies. On them we place our hope for retaining the four freedoms.

As quickly as they can be trained they are being sent to defend us. They know that they are fighting for—and they are united in one common cause—the defense of democratic principles and their homes. They know like we that half measures will not win this war. Hence they are ready to leave their jobs, home, and families to defend the rights they have enjoyed.

Many a common buck private at this instant is in distant parts of the globe never to return. They are the unselfish boys who make the first line of defense and suffer first when things go wrong. They will ever be our heroes. They were buck privates who gave their lives.

Scrap Iron

Scrap iron collected on the Junior High campus, lately weighed 2,206 pounds, enough for four aerial bombs which weigh 500 pounds each. The iron equalled a machine gun and 13 pounds of shells for each student in school.

Another feature which might be termed surprising: The girls brought little less than the boys. Their motto reads: Give the Japs all the scrap iron they want from the end of our guns. Duke Menefee, Sixth grade.

Valedictorians Number Four In Class Of '42

In a call meeting of the freshmen teachers Monday afternoon, Mr. Winston Savage, principal, announced the four freshmen who tied for top honors in the class of 1942 (alphabetical order): Anna Barnett, John Robert Lane, Jean Paxson, and Shirley Taylor.

Judging these students from a variety of angles their grades tied to a hundredth of a point. Rather than call a difference in the students and their accomplishments, the motion was made and carried that the four students be given joint honors as high-point valedictorians, known as co-valedictorians.

Certificates of promotion to senior high school are being filled in by Mr. C. T. Hightower, whose penmanship merits him this privilege (or responsibility) each year. He also has charge of the dramatic background to the graduation exercises which will be given Monday, June 1, in the Junior High school auditorium.

The freshman picnic will be sponsored by the Parent-Teacher association and will be an affair of this week. Final plans have not been made.

In the three months after Pearl Harbor the United States made more money available for the war effort than in the previous 18 months. From June, 1940, until the Jap attack, approximately 64 billions were appropriated. From Dec. 7 through March 5 more than 72 billions were made available. Largest share of the total was for tanks, guns and ammunition. Next most important share was for aircraft.

Food reserves, emergency medical supplies, a Salvation Army mobile canteen, regular school alerts, and blackout warnings without previous notice are provided by civilian defense co-ordinators in the Caribbean outposts of the U. S., as submarine warfare centers attention on dangers in this region. Conch shells and bells sound alarms in the rural regions of St. Croix, St. John and St. Thomas Islands, in the Caribbean.

Government surveys show that tobacco is produced on one-eighth of the nation's farms.

Music And Awards

Feature Assembly On Thursday

Combined choirs and Junior High band entertained in assembly Thursday with 50 awards going to boys of merit in many fields of work.

There's Something About a Soldier and Overture American were choice numbers played by the band. The choirs sang a medley of songs including these: Calson Song, Marine's hymn, Anchors Aweigh, This Land of Mine, Fairest Lord Jesus, and America the Beautiful. Diffing from the usual procedure, the choir sang while the band played Star Spangled Banner to the flag services.

Elvis Wilkerson and James Hester received the rank of lieutenant commander in the model airplane building project sponsored by Mr. Robert Carter for the navy training service. Other chevrons went to members of the modeling class which has worked every waking hour for the past weeks: Cadet, lieutenant junior grade, ensign, and lieutenant.

L. J. Crabb, Randall Clay, and Joe Cree received high point awards for intramurals and scholarship combined for 1941.

Kenneth Hobbs was awarded a reading certificate for having read 20 books. William Ross, Benjet, Dust Which is God; biography; "The Novel. Crusader in Crinoline; novel, Ellen Glasgow, In This Our Life; and drama, no award.

The principal gets a large percentage of this left: advertisements of books and supplies, personal-looking letters which probably concern teacher elections or recommendations, and a big package which is marked "fragile."

The Reaper school paper gets its share of exchange papers from Texas, Arkansas, to Atlanta, Calif. —most of them junior high papers. Then there is a letter from DeWitt Reddick of Austin inviting all journalists to attend the state meet early in May. In two yellow envelopes the monthly news letters from the University of Texas comes ready for publication.

Cards have been returning in stacks from the parents who report mostly that their child has had the condition remedied or will do so in the near future. This is the follow-up work of the dentists who visited the school last week. The art teachers receive their special magazines; the business class has The Balance Sheet for the last month of school; Miss Campbell has a personal note from a student who has gone to California and someone would write him; no correspondence for the airplane modelers this time, although a shipment of planes is due any minute, states Mr. Robert Carter, sponsor of the project.

Each mail time brings excitement to the office, for something interesting is sure to show up aside from the usual run of business and correspondence.

The third stanza of our national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner" (the most unsung stanza):

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
"Mid the havoc of war and the battle's confusion,
A name and a country they'd leave us no more?"
Their blood has washed out their foul footsteps' pollution.
No refuge could save the hireling and slave
From the terror of flight, or the gloom of the grave,
And the Star Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

The library personnel missed Miss Ila Pool the last few days last week when she accompanied John Robert Lane of Junior High to Austin to participate in the State Inter-scholastic meet there. John Robert won regional in Class B essay writing, and third in state.

Joan Paxson and Burke Mordy held down the rooms with the help of the usual library club members. Of course Bill White and Joe Bob Rowell got some publicity for their attempted irregularities.

Nickie Fraser and Ruthie Lee Franks won the sixth grade intramural debate contest which closed last Friday. They come from Room 107, teacher, Miss Florence Jones. This room leads now in Sixth grade Intramurals. Mr. Hammett's team, Jim Wilson and Fleurette Russell lost in the finals to Room 117 as they debated the affirmative on "Is the questioner a creature that every able-bodied man and woman be drafted for the duration."
Jack McCord from Room 201, according to judges, has a debater's stage presence and an easy natural technique for debate.

Fancy radiators, concealed piping, and other heating equipment luxuries will probably disappear from the market soon. Manufacturers have agreed to simplify sizes of radiator valves, trap bodies, and other items in order to save productive capacity.

Mr. Nathan Cleek sauntered by with a relieved look on his face when the sixth and seventh grade math contests were finished last Wednesday afternoon.

School Life Marches On

As I think of the facts of the passing year
And school is to end once more,
I recall the things that have happened.
And I add to the growing score.
I feel years older, instead of only one,
At the knowledge gained in that time
And all the things we've done in school,
Which are fitting to put in rhyme.

And, yet it hasn't changed at all— The same sounds come to my ear:
A different teacher with our students
From the group I mentioned last year.
And now another grade is gone.
I'm wiser—but there's room for more.
I study math and English and science,
Wondering what the future holds in store.
Birds are beginning to chirp outside,
Blending in business tone—
Again, I repeat as I did last year:
School life marches on.

John Robert Lane Wins Third Place In State Essay Writing Contest

John Robert Lane brought back a bronze medal for winning third place Friday at state in Class B high school essay writing. He represented one of the seven regions of Texas with the essay, "Impressions of the University of Texas." (Editor's note: Next week we will print this essay.)

A school bus driven by Mr. Harvey Anderson took two sponsors, Miss Ila Pool of Junior high, and Mrs. Philip Gruber of senior high, and five students: John Robert Lane of Junior high; Billy Waters, Pat Flannigan, Basil Arnold, and Juanita Osborne, all of senior high school. Pat and Billy received honorable mention with fourth places to their credit.

First John Roberts, a freshman with many interests and who does all of them well, won first place in the school, "My Early Ambitions"; in Shamrock he won first place with the theme, "Dust Storms," and in Canyon, won regional placement with the essay, "Highlights of the Last Circus I Saw." This last contest placed him eligible to enter the Texas contest with six other regions in the University Inter-scholastic league contest.

The winning essay in Austin was entitled "How I Can Help Win This War" by Willard Bennett of Fort Worth.

The bus left Pampa Wednesday noon and returned Sunday.

Hatcher's 8th Grade School Champions In Soft Ball For 1942

Amid the swirling dust for which the Panhandle is famous, Coach Charles Hatcher's baseball team from 116 came from behind the eight-ball to upset the Ninth grade champions of Coach Charles Winborn. The Eighth grade team won over this older group 6 to 1.

Randall Clay, pitcher for the winning Eighth grade team, seemed to have plenty on the ball as he sent the highly-touted Ninth grade champions (of their own grade) to defeat. In the dust both teams showed good fielding despite the wind turning into dust several would be hits.

That Don Lane is fifth cousin to the famous Lane sisters of the stage?
That Mr. Dan Price's ancestors were refugees from the French Revolution and settled in the Panhandle in 1808?

That Wanda Jay is a descendant of the most famous John Jay in the history of our country?
That Mary Bellamy is kin to the famous Ruth Bellamy of the stage and screen?

I Don't Either

Have you noticed the grin on Joe Cree's face since Beverly Candler's return to Pampa?
Evan Jones is playing his winning smile with Shirley Sone en route to classes.

Flora Alexander seems to be doing all right. You would not know him—his grin would not know him—Richard Gene and Beverly Sue Baker are both on the seventh grade Reaper staff—they have so much in common now.

Dorothy Rook, Doris Shackelford, and Betty Schuller would not get off their early morning senny duty for anything. Some of the boys know they are at the west door.
Can you make a match of any two here?—Libby, Junior, Gene, and Norma Jean.

How is the weather today? Dorothy Deard and John Morse, Gladys, David Levine and Helen Marie Hager, freezing; Jere Lane Hancock and Virgil Van Huss, hot today and cold tomorrow; Virginia Lee Giddens and Art J. Berry, ice and snow; Wanda Sue Campbell and L. J. Crabb, smooth going; Gloria Jay and Warren Jones, good month for fishing; C. L. Farmer and Betty Lou Harris, growing warmer.

Libby Sturgeon and Junior . . . Lucille and J. C. . . Betty Jo Nolan and a soldier . . . Jimmy Pyles and Phyllis Ann Parker having a good time in dramatics . . . Kathryn Dyson and Gilbert Moore . . . Warren Fathers . . . redden when D. R. is mentioned . . . Betty Schuller and Brock Combs.

Gas Masks For Civilians And Workers Urged

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—A possibility of imminent poison gas warfare in Europe prompted members of congress today to urge speedy action toward supplying American war workers and other civilians with masks to protect them against any sneak gas raids that might be attempted on this country.

Congress appropriated $29,893,894 last February for the purchase of gas masks for civilians, and Senator Hill of Alabama, the Democratic whip, said he thought industrial workers ought to be equipped with them as quickly as possible.

"I don't anticipate any gas raids on this country," Hill told reporters, "but we can't afford to leave any stone unturned to protect our vital war industries, particularly in the coastal areas."

There has been speculation in congress that Atlantic coast cities might become targets for token raids by Axis planes launched from submarines, carriers or even dirigibles with the coming of summer months.

The United States is ready to use gas if the enemy breaks the Geneva protocol of 1925 but Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader, said he hoped that time would never come.

"If they start it, though," he declared, "we certainly shall have to use gas."

While most legislators thought the American armed forces were well supplied with both offensive and defensive gas equipment, they pointed out that few civilians in this country had masks.

Part of last February's appropriation was set aside for the construction of facilities to manufacture masks for civilians, but Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo) pointed out that the shortage of rubber—a necessity in masks—was such that it might interfere with any immediate large scale production.

NO NEW ARRIVAL from "boot camp"—navy equivalent of army "rookie"—is first class fireman and deep sea diver, Leo Grantham, above. Leo is the son of Mrs. J. E. Grantham of Strawn and has been in the navy for seven years. At the present time he's with the Pacific fleet. Leo is a nephew of Mrs. T. J. Winton of Pampa and has visited in the Winton home here several summers. He is also the nephew of Mrs. L. A. Barnes of Pampa. Leo was only 16 years old when he finished high school at Strawn. Not only was he an excellent scholar, but also an expert wrestler and football player.

NOT AS WELL PUBLICIZED as the navy but doing just as big—and as good—a job is the U. S. Coast Guard, of which Warren E. King, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. King, 429 N. Russell, is a member. Young King typifies the wholesome, true-blue Americanism of the coast guard, in which he enlisted three months ago. He was trained at New Orleans, is now stationed at Portsmouth, N. H., and is a second class seaman. Warren graduated from Pampa High school, attended West Texas State college one year before enlisting in the coast guard. He was a lifeguard at the swimming pool for the last two years.

Views Of Vichy Government Given By Ambassador

WASHINGTON, May 11 (AP)—Gaston Henry-Haye, French ambassador to Washington, called at the state department today to present the Vichy government's views on United States proposals to safeguard French Caribbean possessions and commented that "this is no time to pour oil on the fire."

"The less I say today the better," he told newspapermen before meeting Secretary of State Hull. "Patience is called for at the moment. I am trying to avoid complications by refraining from commentaries which might interfere with the adjustment of a delicate problem."

The ambassador indicated that he had come to discuss, rather than to protest, the American negotiations which were opened directly with Admiral Georges Robert, French high commissioner, at Martinique last Saturday.

He declined to discuss the nature of the American proposals or to disclose the attitude of the Vichy government. State department officials likewise have declined to discuss details of the negotiations.

The German radio today broadcast a Vichy dispatch saying that the United States had demanded that French warships off Martinique be demobilized; that United States garrisons be permitted on the island, and that a number of French tankers be turned over to the United States.

There was no definite word from Martinique as to Admiral Robert's reaction to the American offer to guarantee French sovereignty over the Caribbean possessions of France in return for peaceful cooperation with United States defense measures in that area.

WD Seniors Hold "Last Round-Up"

Special To The NEWS
WHITE DEER, May 12—With "Old Whizz" in person to add authenticity to the scene, the juniors and seniors "whooped it up" in true western style at their annual banquet Friday evening in the high school cafeteria.

Each person was "branded" before he entered the room where red and yellow candles in bottle holders on tables and hand-drawn mats lighted the tables and tiny campfires added their glow. Red and yellow triangular programs with initials forming "brands" marked the places, and "corral" made of matches served as nut cups.

All the waitresses were in full cowboy regalia.

Ralph Pauley was "foreman" and Geraldine Walker called for "The First Branding." William Franks, senior president, responded with a "Heading for the Last Round-Up."

Brooxys Houston, the night herder, sang a cowboy ballad and the whole group joined in several appropriate songs with Glenn F. Davis accompanying.

Miss Ola Mae Roberts read "I'm A Cowboy," and "Old Whizz," famous Amarillo cowboy philosopher, interspersed his bits of homely wit and philosophy throughout the evening's program.

Following the banquet, most of the group went to the gymnasium which was decorated with bales of hay and racks of saddles, to conclude the evening with folk and square dancing.

Bonnie Satterfield and Geraldine Walker, with their class sponsors, Mrs. B. R. Weak and H. A. Freeman, were in charge of arrangements.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Wide World Sports Columnist
NEW YORK, May 12—Looks as if Billy Conn and his pav-in-law wasted a good outdoor light show by putting it on in the house.

A lot of folks we know would have paid more to see that one than some of the so-called "big" fights.

Headline: "Chaiky Wright Stops Young Boxer at 57"—we always thought Chaiky was clipping a few years off his age.

After looking over Ernie Bonham's record of three shutouts in four games, Roy Nassau of the Harrisburg (Pa.) Telegraph suggests calling him "the Wizard of Oz."

And Deak Morse of the St. Johnsbury (Vt.) Caledonian-Record adds that Bobby Doerr's big batting average obviously tabs him as a "swinging Doerr."

"The doc did and found Sam Okay."

"That's because I've never trained in my life," Rose explained.

CANADIAN, May 12—Augustine Turner, native American who has lived in Chile since 1918, addressed the Canadian school pupils and faculty at the chapel hour Friday morning and spoke to the public in the high school auditorium that night.

He discussed Latin-American friendship and relations, telling the high school students that their attitude towards the young people of South American countries would have much to do with making towards world peace.

He told them that their high school buildings and equipment was equal to the best in the city of Valparaiso, Chile, and better than any other in that country, that they should be proud of this fact and appreciate of their educational opportunities.

Mr. Turner who is making a tour of the country, lecturing, was brought to Canadian under auspices of the Canadian Rotary club.

When Sam Rose, 220-pound New-ark, N. J., fight manager, took a couple of his boys to Washington to fight, the boxing commission doctored them both down because of high blood pressure.

"Give me a check, Doc," Rose suggested.

"The doc did and found Sam Okay."

"That's because I've never trained in my life," Rose explained.

Cadet Lieut. Raymond Harrah, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Harrah of Pampa, was one of the two Kemper cadets who took part in the school's 96th anniversary program at Booneville, Mo., Friday. Wardens were also urged to wage a campaign against loose papers that clutter up the town, and it was suggested that the wardens attempt to obtain cooperation of the block to halt the constant shifting and blowing about of unsightly papers.

Every one of the 50 persons present listened attentively to the talks made by Fire Chief Ben White, Jane Kerbow, secretary to the city manager, and to Mrs. Dan Williams, who presided at the meeting.

Fire Chief White told the group that there were three principal fire hazards in the home, the attic, basement, and garage, as these are the places where rubbish is most likely to be accumulated.

Where Bomb Fires Start

"Another point on the attic," the chief said, "is that in this war we

car. The officers are investigating. City Manager Steve Matthews made a business trip to Amarillo yesterday afternoon.

All was quiet in city police court today, City Recorder C. E. McGrew not having a single case.

Members of the Pampa Defense band will meet at 8 o'clock tonight for regular weekly rehearsal in the band room at the high school.

have learned that most fires from incendiary bombs start in attics. Bombs dropped from 5,000 feet crash through roofs but do not go through the house, lodging in the attic instead, and that's where your fire starts.

Clean-up time should be all the time, not just one special week."

Chief White stated his desire to see Pampa win the award this year as the cleanest city in the state. Last year Pampa placed third in the National Association of Fire Underwriters association contest, with Amarillo first and El Paso second. Lubbock also has been praised for being clean town and the chief said he wanted Pampa out in front now.

Speaking for the city manager's office, Jane Kerbow told of the municipality's part in the movement.

"The city will pick up cut grass and tree limbs in its garbage trucks," she said. "It can't pick up sod and dirt. Several persons in the past have piled up dirt; the trucks can't haul that.

"You can get a painted garbage barrel from the city for 75 cents—and this sum can be added to your water bill, so you don't even have to worry about that."

"Route of the garbage trucks when the clean-up starts will be published.

"A 50-foot lot will be mowed by the city at a cost of $1.

Date of the starting of the campaign was set as May 17 and the movement is to continue all summer.

Mrs. Dan Williams, who presided at the meeting, said the Pampa Garden club had been asked to be sponsor of the clean-up and that while the campaign was something new for them, she felt sure the clean-up would be a success, as the club has the reputation of "getting things done."

European sea warfare—The German high command said Axis warplanes sank three out of four British destroyers in an attack south of Nazi-occupied Crete.

The British reported that a United States-built Hudson bomber set fire to a 10,000-ton ship in an attack on a German convoy 200 yards off the Norwegian coast. The Germans reported three Hudson bombers were shot down by a convoy escort in a futile attack off the Netherlands.

France—Diplomatic quarters in Bern predicted that France's premier, Pierre Laval would refuse to accept American "demands" on the strategic French island of Martinique, in the West Indies, and that a break in relations with the United States would result.

These quarters said that with French-German negotiations reaching a state of urgency, Reichsmarschal Hermann Goering was expected to meet tomorrow with Laval and 86-year-old Chief of State Philippe Feltin to reach "final decisions."

In Washington, informed sources said the Axis powers might be exerting pressure on the Vichy government to undertake some desperate action in retaliation for the British occupation of Madagascar and what the Axis called an American "threat" to French possessions in the western hemisphere.
