Rev. Wolter Becomes Minister Of Local Lutheran Church

The Rev. Henry G. Wolter, above, arrived recently to assume his duties as minister of the Lutheran church here. Rev. Wolter has lived in Chicago for the past 24 years. His prep school days, consisting of high school and two years of college, were spent at Concordia college, Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Here the groundwork was laid for the theological training which he received in three more years of college at Concordia Theological seminary, St. Louis, Missouri.

The official name of the Lutheran organization whose doctrines Rev. Wolter adheres to is, the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio, and other states. This Lutheran denomination has spread thru every state of the union and is also well-known in foreign countries such as South America and Canada.

Two years of practical experience came to Rev. Wolter between 1939 and 1941 during which time he was employed by a mail order house in Chicago. This gave him an opportunity to adjust his accumulated theoretical and textbook knowledge to the every-day needs of the working people.

Nine years of required study were finally completed in June 1942 when Rev. Wolter received the call to work as a missionary pastor in and around Pampa. For the past five years he has preached in and around St. Louis and Chicago.

A nucleus necessary to establish a congregation in Pampa has already been gathered. Two services have been reported to county officers by Charlie Barrett, whose car had been jacked up and the tires, wheels, and tubes removed sometime Wednesday night.

Wanted—Two taxi drivers. 40% commission. 51 Taxi. Phone 51. Guests of friends and relatives here are Mrs. Charles Dwight and daughter Carolyn Ann of Gainesville.

At 10 o'clock Rev. Carver will teach Everyman's Bible class in the city club rooms, and at 10:55 morning worship will be held at the church with Rev. Carver speaking on "Wooded And Won by Love." This service will be broadcast over Radio Station KPDM.

Green Predicts Five-Year War

A five-year struggle before peace comes was foreseen by Lt. Paul Greene of Clarendon, veteran of the American Volunteer Group, as what confronts America before the Axis can be beaten.

In a talk before members of the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, selectees, and guests at the American Legion but last night, the lieutenant blasted any complacency that the Japs were a set-up.

He added, however, that upon the effort put forth by Americans depends on how long the war lasts.

Directed by Radio

Although seven pursuit ships were shot down, the Japs carried off their raid with terrible effect, killing 5,000 persons.

During the action, the lieutenant was at the radio station, where he directed his fellow pilots who had been called from their base to answer the alarm.

Negro Held Here In Stabbing Case Probe

A 23-year-old negro man was being held in city jail today for investigation in alleged connection with the stabbing of another negro, Benny Robinson, in an affray early this morning in the flats.

Robinson, who suffered a stab wound below a rib on the left side, and a cut on the face, was given medical treatment and dismissed early today from a local hospital.

The affray allegedly was the result of an argument over a card game, according to statements made to police.

Jim Boswell and J. R. Manning were the policemen who arrested the negro now being held in city jail.

RUSSIANS

Volga gunboats cruising up and down the river continued to blast the Germans, and in yesterday's operations alone they were credited with destroying eight Nazi speed guns and a large number of troops.

Russian street fighters, attacking from sand-bagged barricades and fortified houses within the city, were reported to have killed more than 200 Germans and destroyed five tanks, seven anti-tank guns and four mortars in a single phase of the gigantic battle.

In the central Caucasus, Russian headquarters acknowledged that the Red armies "withdrew from a populated place" after wiping out a company of German cavalry, and from this it appeared that the Nazis were stepping up the fury of their drive against the Grozny oil fields, some 50 miles away.

Bitter fighting also raged on the Black sea coast, southeast of Novorossisk, where the Russian command said "our troops fought fierce engagements, and wiped out about two companies of enemy infantry."

Far to the north, Russian troops were reported to have killed 200 Germans and destroyed 26 enemy blockhouses and dugouts in two days of fighting around long-besieged Leningrad.

Manila's Millid prison, used as a war clearing house by the Japs. Prison camps other than that at Tarlac have not been identified.

Definite information on how the war prisoners were faring was still lacking nearly five months after the loss of Corregidor, but Americans returning on the exchange ship Gripsholm pictured occupied Manila as a drab island capital, with hardships expected to increase since the start of the rainy season.

Some 3,500 civilians are interned in the buildings and grounds of Santo Tom As on the outskirts of the city, and an additional 1,000, mostly aged, ill or very young, are permitted to live in the city.

In Manila, virtually all homes have been taken over by the Japanese. Stocks of stores have been either looted or consumed. Normal Americans and Filipinos without exception were said to be required to dismount from conveyances to make bows to Japanese officers they may encounter.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 25 (AP)—J. R. Griffith of Oxnard, Calif., can't explain, but the Arizona highway patrol says his small coupe struck and knocked aside a heavy detour blockade on the highway.

Then it climbed a sand pile, sailed over a 12-foot ditch, landing so solidly both rear tires blew out. Next it rolled into the rear end of a truck. Projecting lumber crashed through the windshield of Griffith's car.

SUNSET BISONS RATED ONE OF STRONGEST TEAMS IN STATE

Irish Over Wisconsin As Colleges Open Season

By RED GRANCE

The Original Man-in-Motion CHICAGO, Sept. 24—We're off on that mad whirl known as football predictions!

Never a cinch, the guessing game is doubly complex in this war year. Service inductions have crippled many squads. Some will play freshmen. Service teams offer real intangible with their fluctuating personnel.

My nomination for game of the week is Notre Dame and Wisconsin in an important sectional clash at Madison. Not since 1930, have the Irish rated the advance raw notices they have received this year.

With brainy Coach Frank Leahy adopting the T formation to increase the effectiveness of Angelo Bertelli, his passing phenomenon, the veteran Irish win my nod over an improved Wisconsin team. The Badgers have the magnificent Pat Harder at fullback but lack the depth of the Leahy-men.

Fordham's law-breaking, body-busting Rams will be a hard stop as they are to pronounce in their setto with Purdue at Lafayette. The Ram backfield—Cheruko, Filipowicz, Hearn and Andrejco—can ramble.

MICHIGAN PICKED OVER GREAT LAKES

Great Lakes, scourge of the service teams in World War I, invades Ann Arbor for a corking clash with Michigan. Sailor Bruce Smith, a Wolverine nemesis when he played for Minnesota, will lead the Navy attack, but my nod goes to Fritz Crisler's operatives by a shade.

In former days, Minnesota versus Pittsburgh at Minneapolis would evoke nation-wide interest. But the Panther has lost his claws and the Gopher is still golden. Minnesota by plenty.

Lieut.-Col. Bernie Bierman's Iowa Cadets, well-stocked with officer as well as cadet talent who are familiar with midwestern football, should take Northwestern at Evanston.

Nebraska and Iowa tangle at Iowa City in a toss-up affair. I'll stick to the Cornhuskers and their fine back, Allen Zikmund.

PEN AND HARVARD FACE NAVY PRE-FLIGHT TEAMS

One of the big games of the day brings together Lieut. Ray Wolf's Georgia Pre-Flight team and Pennsylvania in Philadelphia. The Gobs have a host of fine backs including three former pro stars: Frank Pilchok, Washington; Darrell Tully, Detroit; and Bill Patterson, Chicago Bears.

Harvard entertains Lieut.-Comdr. Jimmy Crowley's North Carolina Pre-Flight squad and cannot expect to be as fortunate as Pennsylvania in its naval encounter.

Dartmouth, crippled by service losses, should not be too tough for Holy Cross at Worcester. Columbia should breeze against Fort Monmouth in New York, and Cornell is an odds-on favorite over Lafayette at Ithaca.

Navy, hard hit by a double graduation, will be hard-pressed against William and Mary, a veteran aggregation which may be the class of the Southern Conference.

Georgia and Frank Sinkwich face a stern test when they tackle Jacksonville Naval Air Station at Athens. The flyers have such stalwarts as George McAfee of the

Harvesters Meet Supreme Test Here Tomorrow Night

WHAT—Second football game of the season. WHEN—Tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock. WHERE—At Harvester park, Pampa. BETWEEN—Pampa Harvesters and Sunset Bisons of Dallas. COACHES—Pampa, Buck Prejan and George Scott; Sunset, H. A. Cowley.

Football weather for football-minded Pampans is in order for tomorrow night when the Pampa Harvesters face the mighty Sunset Bisons of Dallas in the second game of the 1942 season. Game time will be 8:30 o'clock under the lights at Harvester park.

The Harvester-Sunset game will be the first Saturday night game in Pampa. School and team officials are optimistic that one of the best crowds of the season will witness the game. An exceptionally large crowd braved bad weather to see the Harvesters open the season last Friday.

The Harvesters' second game will be the first Saturday night game in Pampa. School and team officials are optimistic that one of the best crowds of the season will witness the game. An exceptionally large crowd braved bad weather to see the Harvesters open the season last Friday.

Coach H. A. Cowley will bring 24 of his Bisons to Pampa, arriving here tonight in a chartered bus. Because of restrictions, the bus will be unable to take the team to the playing field, it not being allowed to leave its regular course.

Sunset of Dallas is one of the top-ranking teams in the state and a win for the Harvesters would boost their stock so high that they would be placed along with Lubbock and Amarillo as district championship material and even downstate mention. Sunset went to the state quarter-finals last year, losing to Wichita Falls.

Every member of the Sunset team that will face the Harvesters tomorrow night were either starters or reserves on last year's great team.

The Harvesters will enter the game slightly outweighed and with experience on the side of their opponents. But they will not enter the game as the underdogs or on the short end of fight and determination.

The Sunset starting eleven will consist of Buster Stalley, 160, and Charlie Powers, 191, ends; Monte Moncrief, 190, and Goble Bryant, 185, tackle; Robert Rollwagen, 160, and Earl Cook, 190, guards; Fred Goodwin, 170, center; Arthur Burch, 198, quarter; Dave Selbenhausen, 143, and Kenneth Blackburn, 190, halves; Ned Welch, 157, full.

Mort Cooper May Shorten Odds Against Cardinals

By JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer

The St. Louis Cardinals, close to clinching the National league pennant, are likely to be the shortest priced entry the senior circuit has sent against the New York Yankees in many years simply because of one man—Mort Cooper.

The odds layers are tentatively calling 10 to 7 against the Cardinals in the world series and that is quite a tribute to the big righthand pitcher who they figure might handpick the world champions.

Cooper has shown he is capable of beating just about any club in baseball any time his teammates get him one run. Yesterday he whitewashed the Cincinnati Reds 6-0 to assure the pennant and put them in a position to clinch it today or tomorrow.

It was Cooper's 22nd victory against seven defeats and for the fourth time this season he allowed only two hits, both singles. He walked no one and the only Red to get a hit was Gene Walker, who was allowed to steal second unopposed.

It also was Cooper's tenth shut out, not only the best mark of any pitcher in the major this year, but the best of any hurler since Carl Hubbell pitched ten scoreless games for the New York Giants in 1935.

Today, the Dodgers were in danger of marking the anniversary of last year's pennant-clinching by being eliminated from the race. They came up against the Braves for the last time and a defeat would knock them out of even a chance to tie.

The Dodgers downed Boston 5-1 yesterday by coming from behind with four runs in the sixth inning after spotting the Braves three runs on four hits and three errors in the third frame. All of Boston's seven hits were made off Whit Wyatt, in six innings before he was relieved by Hugh Casey. But Wyatt received credit for the triumph, his 19th and fifth in a row for Brooklyn.

In the only other National league activity yesterday the Philadelphia and New York Giants pitched New York to victory in the first game 8-0 with a sturdy four-hit performance.

Then in the nightcap the Giants were held to four hits by John Podgajny and George Hennessy and beaten 3-2.

The American league competition was limited to one doubleheader which the White Sox took out of Cleveland 3-1 and 4-2 to push the Indians within half a game of dropping out of the first division.

GEORGETOWN, Sept. 25 (AP)—A scrapping Schreiner Institute football team defeated Southwestern university last night 14-6 in Southwestern's first home game of the season.

Big John Chesser last year Pampa's great 225-pound tackle, is a member of the Schreiner football team this season. Chesser, who was unable to graduate here and who was too old to continue football in high school, went to Schreiner two weeks ago.

Reapers Open Season By Downing Perryton 32-0

The Pampa junior high school Reaper football team opened the 1942 season with an impressive 32 to 0 win over the Perryton juniors here yesterday afternoon. The team was directed by Clifford Brady who is substiting as coach until Haskel Polson arrives next week to take over the coaching assignment. W. B. Weathered, other volunteer coach, was unable to attend the game.

The Reapers, with eight letters from last year's great team in the lineup, scored early and often on long runs and pass interceptions. The line play was spectacular, especially on defense, well downfield blocking was spectacular.

Charles Hatcher, fullback, opened the scoring for the Reapers when he took the ball and bucked off tackle into the open for a 25-yard jaunt to pay dirt.

Dee Griffin, midget back, scored two touchdowns, both as a result of pass interceptions. His first touchdown came on an interception and a 25-yard run while his second was on a pass interception which he ran to the two-yard line, followed by a line buck.

Billy Washington scampered 35 yards for a Reaper touchdown and Randall Clay ended the scoring when he took a pass from Kenneth Beasley while standing behind the goal line. Beasley's passing was outstanding.

Jacobs Unworried Over Investigation Of Conn-Louis Bout

By SID FEDER

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—Mike Jacobs doesn't know what War Secretary Stimson is investigating about the Joe Louis-Billy Conn bout, but since there's been so much huller over $94,000 of the two boxers owe him, Mike wonders if folks realize that fighters depend on promoters for money to keep going between fights.

Stimson announced his investigation in Washington yesterday, saying he was "shocked" over details of the arrangements for the October 12 fight in Yankee stadium.

One "detail" of the fight is that the war department originally announced it as 100 per cent for army emergency relief, although several days earlier a representative of the war department had seen Louis at Fort Riley, Kas., and discussed with him payment of certain of his debts from the bout.

Another "detail" is that a total of $135,451.53 is to be taken from the bout to pay debts listed against Louis and Conn. Of this sum, Mike says $94,305.50 is owed him—$50,805.50 by Louis and $43,500 by Billy. The other $41,146.03 is owed by Louis to John Roxborough, one of his co-managers.

While officials handling the bout said today they didn't believe the fight would be called off, Jacobs pointed out that there's nothing unusual about fighters owing promoters sizeable chunks, especially when the fighters are the heavyweight champion and his No. 1 challenger.

"Fighters have to go to someone for money between fights," he explained. "So they ask a promoter for an advance on their next fight. Why, right now there's about $150,000 outstanding on my books— all money advanced to various fighters. They'll pay it back as soon as they get a fight."

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—Representative O'Toole (D-N.Y.), who on Wednesday called for an investigation of the Louis-Conn bout as making a "mockery" of war, the army and charity, last night called for an investigation of the distribution of the funds from recent games played by the two all-army football teams against various clubs in the National Professional League.

O'Toole asked the inquiry "so that the public may definitely find out how much was paid to the owners of the professional teams." The games were played for the Army relief fund.

Border Conference Opens On Wide Front

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Sept. 25 (AP)—Border conference elevens swung into action this week end on gridirons scattered from the Mississippi to the west coast, with three of the games in the sagebrush proper.

Conference play opens in Albuquerque tonight with New Mexico university entertaining the underdog Lumberjacks of Arizona State of Flagstaff.

The other two conference games were Texas Tech. vs. against West Texas State at Lubbock, the first gridiron collision of the Panhandle in 11 years; and the New Mexico Aggies against Arizona university at Tucson, both games tomorrow night.

Nashville Favored Over Shreveport

NASHVILLE, Sept. 25 (AP)—The Nashville Vols tonight start on their fourth Dixie series in as many years, playing host to the Texas league champions from Shreveport.

Into what bids fair to be a battle of the pitching greats, Manager Larry Gilbert of the Vols will send Paul Erickson, fast ball artist, who tossed 26 consecutive scoreless innings in the Southern association play-offs, while Manager Salty Parker has given the opening nod to Doyle Lade, winner of 19 games during the regular season.

Like most of the clubs in the Texas league, the Sports have relied on pitching rather than hitting to win their games. This may be the margin of victory for the Nashville Vols, for with a hurling staff on a par with Shreveport's, the Vols hit 291 during the season as compared with 240 for the Sports.

Rio Grande College Still Losing Games

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 25 (AP)—The losing streak of little Rio Grande college, from down in Gallia county, is still intact and growing steadily.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25—It was just a year ago today that them Beautiful Bums won the "National League pennant, so what could be more appropriate than to them Bums (no longer beautiful) should lose their last chance today. . . . They've been going backward this season just about as fast as they moved up last year. . . . But this is one time the Dodger fans canoller "wait till next year" and mean it (even Durocher leaves along with MacPhail). . . . Those middle aged guys with families may be the best ball players left by next summer. . . . Seems that even the Dodger fans are blowing up: The guy who turned in a machinegrum as scrap metal at Ebbets field didn't do it until Tuesday. He should have thought of it when the Cards were in town.

The army is running up quite a printing bill on the Louis-Conn fight. First they made Joe a sergeant, which required some alterations in the printing, and now Billy has been advanced from private to corporal. . . . Iowa State has cancelled polo for the duration because of a "wartime shortage of time and materials." . . . What, no horses? . . . Don't go talking too much about the Cards' pitching staff. They Bonham of the Yanks has given only 23 passes in 226 innings.

Al Hirsberg, Boston Post: "Here's the greatest play combination of the season: The fans at Little Rock gave a purse of $1,000 to Manager Willis Hudlin in appreciation of the fine job he did there. . . . Hudlin promptly turned the money over to the players. . . . And the players, in turn, donated it to the Army and Navy Relief societies."

SERIAL STORY OF BRIGHTNESS GONE

BY HOLLY WATTERSON

TANGLED WEB
CHAPTER XIV

CANDACE hurried down the rubber-tiled hallway to the telephone at the far end. She said, "Oh, Martin," happy at the sound of his voice, "I'm so glad you called."

"You won't be when you hear what I'm calling for," Martin said. "I'm afraid that I can't see you tonight after all."

The faint uneasiness Gates' hints had engendered turned into a sudden fear. She said stiffly, "No?"

"You sound as though you think I'm a pollock, and I feel like one for disappointing you. But I've been having some trouble in neurology and the prof agreed to take me and a few other fellows in the same boat and give us a workout tonight."

She stood there, her elation gone and a sick uneasiness in its place, answering nothing.

"Hello? Hello?" Martin's voice called anxiously. "Listen, Candace, if you want me to I'll call it."

"Oh, no," she said quickly, "go of course. I want you to study, you know that."

"You're an awfully good kid," he said gratefully.

"Candace," his voice had a muffled sound; she knew that he had put his lips close to the transmitter so as not to be overheard by others there in his house.

"Darling," he repeated, "darling, darling, I wish we were already married. I wish we were married right now."

Things were suddenly all right again. She clung with her fingers to the shelf under the telephone, steadying herself against the weakness that seemed about to overcome her. Her eyes involuntarily closed. She whispered, "I do, too, Martin, I do, too."

He jumped when Peter greeted him. Peter said, amused, "I'm just your old roommate, remember?"

Martin grinned sheepishly. "I didn't know you were in."

He went into the bathroom and closed the door. Peter heard the drone of the electric shaver and the splash of the shower.

Peter had seen his father that day; things appeared to be looking up a bit for him and he was eager to tell Candace. When Martin finally emerged and was dressing, Peter inquired, "What about Candace? Is she coming here first, or are you meeting her somewhere?"

Martin looked up sharply from his careful choosing of a tie. "She's not coming in tonight, Why?"

"Oh, just some family stuff I wanted to tell her. I thought this was her evening off."

"It is. But I've gotten in bad with Haggood, somehow, and he's stuck me for a session tonight," Martin said shortly.

Martin had been gone only about five minutes when Mrs. Prosser shouted upstairs that there was a call for him. After she had relayed the message that he was out, she shouted up again. "The lady'll talk to you, then, Mr. Frazier."

Peter ran down, expecting it to be Candace. He called cheerfully into the phone, "Hello?" and a high, young, quite unfamiliar voice at the other end said, "Mr. Frazier? This is Faith Hartshorne."

"Yes?" he said politely, in a tone that invited her to go on.

Faith Hartshorne laughed a little. "We met at the tea, remember? Martin mentions you so often that I feel as though I know you awfully well, but I can't tell you I don't even remember what I look like."

Martin mentions you so often, Peter's mind repeated. He answered, hoping his voice wouldn't sound as stunned as he felt, "But I do indeed. You're the tall blond girl with blue eyes and a dress to match, tastefully decorated with tea stains."

"That's me. All but the dress: that's been put into my memory museum." Under that brittle tone she sounded absurdly young. "The person who answered just now—your landlady, wasn't it?—told me that Martin isn't in. Is he likely to stop by, do you think, before he starts to meet me?"

Peter said dryly, "I'm afraid I don't know that. I don't always know what Corby is up to."

She laughed. "Do you feel that way, too? But that's part of his charm, don't you think, that unaccountableness?" She didn't wait for an answer, fortunately. "If he should come in will you tell him that I've just missed a train and I'll have to wait a half hour for the next one and may be a bit late? I thought I'd catch him in plenty of time."

She resumed her grand levity times to bring you up with him, but he always claims to have forgotten to ask you, or he has some other excuse. You might speak to him about that."

Pampa Rotarians Eat Mush And Milk

Reason was an impromptu contribution to the Rotary Relief fund for the benefit of the families of European Rotarians made destitute because of the war.

It cost the Rotarians 75 cents a ticket for the meal, but they didn't know what was on the menu until they went into the dining room. Out of each ticket 50 cents went into the fund. A total of $20 was raised.

The years ago the local club gave $50 to the fund, which was started in 1939. From Rotary clubs all over the world, donations have been made, and there is still $85,000 left, despite the heavy calls for aid.

Attendance at the luncheon here yesterday was 41. C. H. Everett of Ardmore, Okla., and Clayton Heare, Shamrock lawyer, were visiting Rotarians. Guests were M. C. Johnson and Garnet Reeves, both of Pampa, and the principal speech was delivered by the Rev. Edgar W. Henshaw, rector of St. Matthew's Episcopal church. Subject of his talk was "An Hour Late."

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—The need for metal scrap today was described as "truly critical" by steel men who said this country had stopped living on its metal "fat" and must now dip back 40 years for steel and iron junk.

The statements came as this nation's newspapers—more than 1,600 have pledged their help—assumed leadership in the drive to collect the scrap lying around American homes, farms, factories and buildings.

At the conclusion of both dances Saturday night, stubs will be drawn at one of the two and the person whose ticket number corresponds with the stub will be awarded a $50 Victory bond.

As holder of the current number, you will have until 8 p. m. on the following Monday, September 28, to notify J. R. Martin, telephone 2413, before the number is voided. If the eligible person has not appeared by that hour, the bond will be added to the subsequent award at the following Victory Donations dance.

If you wish attempt to get in touch with such a relative by mail, the Pampa chapter of the American Red Cross is new ready to accept your message, but cannot guarantee its delivery.

How the message will be sent was explained today by Doyle P. Osborne, chairman of the Pampa chapter:

The message will be forwarded on the exchange ship Gripsholm, expected to sail from New York shortly. They will be sent to the International Red Cross committee's delegate in Japan, who will make every effort to see that they are delivered if the men are in Japanese prison camps.

"This effort to communicate with missing men of the Armed Forces," Osborne said, "has been necessitated by the Japanese failure to supply complete lists of American prisoners of war."

Limited To 25 Words

Friends and relatives wishing to contact men reported missing in action, but not yet officially reported by the enemy as Prisoners of War, should contact the local Red Cross office.

They should be able to give complete information on the missing man, including name, number, rank, military unit and last known address. The message must be filed on Red Cross form 1616 and must be limited to 25 words.

In order that the message may have the best possible chance of delivery, the Red Cross urges all relatives and friends of a missing man to combine their messages on one form.

For prisoners officially reported by the Japanese, regular letters may be sent through the prisoners of war mail, on which information may be obtained at any post office. It is not necessary to use the Red Cross message form in these cases.

Hoarding Of Gasoline 'A Criminal Tragedy'

AUSTIN, Sept. 25 (AP)—State Fire Insurance Commissioner Marvin Hall today warned against the hazards of hoarding excess supplies of gasoline and asserted the "indiscriminate use of gasoline in Texas is becoming a criminal tragedy."

"The threatened nationwide rationing of gasoline will cause many to cast safety aside," Hall pointed out in a statement. "This practice is not only dangerous but can result in a fire insurance policy being voided if a fire results from the stored gasoline."

Fire deaths in Texas have reached a total of 218 this year, he stated.

3,000 Yugoslav Patriots Killed

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (AP)—A Berlin broadcast containing the tacit admission of the extent of patriot resistance in old Yugoslavia declared today that in two weeks ending Sept. 8 Axis occupation forces killed 3,000 persons and captured 4,000 more in the mountainous Bosnia district.

The German broadcast referred to the patriots only as brigands, vagabonds, bandits and criminals. It gave no clue to the fate of those captured.

Cowboy Breakfast Entertains Times Study Club Group

Special To The News

SHAMROCK, Sept. 25—A unique social affair of the season was the cowboy breakfast for the Times Study club at the country place of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Linkey.

Breakfast was cooked out-of-doors over an open fire. The coffee was made in a coffee pot bought in 1900. The breakfast table was laid with a red-checked table cloth, under an outdoor arbor.

A copper gong, which was used by Mr. Linkey's father in pioneer days to call the cowboys to "come and get it," sounded when the meal was ready.

After breakfast, the program was given indoors with Mrs. T. H. Sonnenburg giving review of "Famous Cattle Trails." Mrs. Tom Clay brought back the early days of the Lone Star state as she discussed the "Famous Cattle Brands of Texas." Mrs. Jack Montgomery entertained the group with her clever impersonations of "Cowboy Stories Told Around the Campfire."

Son Charged In Death Of Parents

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 25 (AP)—After hours of questioning, Robert Nash, 27-year-old St. Louis electrician, today confessed, said Police Capt. Leonard Murphy, to the ax slaying of his father and mother during a quarrel over his financial difficulties.

Murphy of the St. Louis police detective division, said the husky blonde-haired youth related details of the brutal crime to police, federal bureau of investigation agents and Illinois authorities.

Charles A. Nash, 67-year-old internal revenue agent, and his 49-year-old wife, Eleanor, were found, hacked and mutilated, Tuesday night in the family automobile on a highway eight miles north of Springfield, Ill.

His confession unruffled by a constant barrage of questions, the younger Nash finally revealed he slew his father, then his mother, during a violent argument over $640 in personal debts and his habit of continued late hours, Murphy related.

Nash said at a press conference after police announced he had admitted the slayings that the altercation with his parents took place on a deserted country road near St. Louis. He stopped the car, he told newspapermen, during the argument, and then struck his father. "I know the penalty for my crime and I'm willing to pay it," Nash told reporters.

"Are you sorry?" he was asked.

"Of course, I'm sorry," Nash replied.

Nash's version of the murder, as told by authorities, related how, after he had grabbed a hand ax and killed his father, his mother, frantic with fear and grief, cried: "Now look what you've done."

Her hands wildly clutched at her son as he turned in anger, struck her with his fist, then again look up the bloody weapon and slashed her repeatedly.

"I hit her on the head, shoulders and back," Nash said. "I placed his body in the trunk and then I threw her body on the floor."

His confession detailed how he drove to the Nash home, changed his bloody clothes and began motoring to Illinois.

The stolid electrician told how he abandoned the car north of Springfield because of a second flat tire and went to that city in search of a new tire.

Falling to obtain a tire, Nash said, he ate breakfast in a Springfield restaurant and then hitch-hiked to St. Louis.
