OPA Has Plan To Keep All Autos Rolling

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson today announced the government's plan to provide tires to keep every passenger car "rolling for essential mileage" throughout the war.

The announcement—setting forth strictest controls over mileage, speed, rubber, gasoline, tire care and car-sharing—was the first official indication that the office of price administration concurred in the recent Baruch committee report as calling for tires for every driver.

Ten Million In Armed Forces By End Of '44

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Ten million fighting men by the end of 1944 is the estimated limit of the American armed forces in the views, gathered today, of senators looking forward to the solution of a major pending problem, the most effective use of the nation's man-power.

Not every senator, by any means, would hazard a guess as to how big the army, navy and other arms of the service would grow, but several questioned because of their concern with military affairs placed ten million as the probable maximum.

Stricter Dim-Outs For Pacific Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 10 (AP)—Pacific coast states were placed under new and stricter dim-out regulations today.

Lieut. Gen. J. L. Dewitt, head of the Western Defense Command and Fourth Army, changed his dim-out regulations of August 20 to provide that in restricted zones essentially all light visible from above, including street lighting, must now be shielded.

Restrictions on lights visible from the sea remain essentially the same.

The new proclamation will become effective October 25, with the exception of the portions covering street lighting, which will be operative November 12, allowing time for civil authorities to comply.

Nation Swings Into Last Lap Of Scrap Drive

(By The Associated Press)

Americans Sunday swung into the final lap of the nation-wide metal scrap salvage campaign led by the newspapers with a thrilling demonstration of patriotic devotion and effort.

Real sacrifices in time, money and work were to be made in these last seven days in most states of the 21-day campaign in which mountainous piles of metal junk have been piled up from coast to coast.

Even some churches suspended services so every minute could be given to gathering up the iron and steel junk for the mills that will convert it into new steel to smash the Axis.

Some bottlenecks appeared—in the form of manpower shortages that were hindering collections—but these were not widespread.

Householders, farmers and factory owners were prodded and prodded again to take one more look before being satisfied they had turned over every last fragment of old metal to the scrap piles.

4 Children Die In Maryland Fire

BALTIMORE, Oct. 10 (AP)—Four children eight to 16 years old were burned to death and a 20-month-old baby critically injured early today in a fire sweeping through their West Lombard street home.

The baby was dropped from a second-floor window by 16-year-old Norma Brent just before the flames engulfed her.

The other three who died, all children of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brent, were:

Lorraine, 8.
Shirley, 12.
Paul Brent, Jr., 14.

Norma held the baby, Gary, out the window and screamed for someone to catch him. A passerby ran to catch the baby, and Norma sank back into the room.

The fire broke out about 4:30 a. m.

Mrs. Brent, 35, had gone to a luncheon two blocks away to buy milk for the baby, and returned just as the infant fell to the sidewalk. The baby suffered severe burns and injuries in the 15-foot fall.

Firemen had to restrain Mrs. Brent from dashing into the building. Her husband is a night worker in the mailing room at the Sun papers.

Origin of the fire, which spread through two buildings, was not immediately determined.

War And The Top O' Texas Vital Information

An order freeing the sale of used tires and tubes was issued Thursday by OPA in amendment No. 34 to the tire rationing regulations. At the same time, OPA announced that used tires soon will be rationed. The freeze order does not prevent sale to a consumer of an automobile equipped with used tires. Also, a dealer may shift tires already mounted among his cars. Used tires in a dealer's stock that were unmounted on Sept. 30, however, may not be mounted during the freeze period.

Implementing the previously announced policy of restricting use of passenger train equipment for carrying crowds to football games, races and other sporting events, in order to conserve such equipment, the Office of Defense Transportation has "frozen" all railway passenger schedules in the United States as of Sept. 26. The order, ODT No. 24, become effective October 4. Excepted from the provisions are extra sections necessary to handle cars occupied by persons traveling under federal orders.

Henderson Opposes Crude Price Boost

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson told a Senate Public Lands subcommittee he is opposed to any general price increases on crude oil, asserting such action would cost the government and private consumers between $500,000,000 and $1,000,000,000.

Representatives of the petroleum industry testifying at previous sessions of the committee urged an over-all increase on crude prices, contending it was necessary if exploratory operations for new deposits were to continue.

The OPA chief said he had reached his views after a study of the earnings and expenses of oil operators.

"I cannot, for the life of me," said Henderson, "see the addition of $500,000,000 or $1,000,000,000 to the cost of petroleum products to the government and consumers for the purpose of encouraging wildcatting."

War Prisoners Go In Chains

LONDON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Britain and Canada reluctantly started putting 1,376 German prisoners in irons today in the absence of a reply from the Nazis to the demand that the same number of empire prisoners be freed of their fetters in German prison camps.

The British officially ignored the German threat that the Nazis would chain British prisoners on a three-to-one basis for every German shackled.

The Germans passed the noon deadline set for unchaining the 1,376 empire soldiers selected for exemplary punishment from among those lost by the Allies at Dieppe, mostly Canadians, in reprisal for alleged inhumane treatment of Germans by Commandos.

Shortly after the deadline passed, however, the British officially acknowledged that the five Nazis taken prisoner in the Channel raid on Shark Island in the command last Saturday night were tied up, but refused to concede that this constituted "inhumane treatment" under the precarious circumstances. The government defended the binding as necessary for the safety of the raiding force—a mere 26 men seeking information, and it said such binding during fighting was not forbidden by the Geneva convention.

Poor Gable

We are sorry for Clark Gable. There is no sarcasm in that remark. It is sincerely offered. He has given up his enormous income to become a soldier. He seeks, we believe sincerely, to stand on his own feet as a man in the United States army.

Puzzling

On Sept. 14 President Roosevelt informed congress officially that "so far the U. S. has little more than passed the halfway mark toward maximum possible war production."

You're Right, J. E.

That was more than a wisecrack John Edgar Hoover handed the police chiefs when he pointed out that if an Austrian paperhanger named Hitler had not been paroled nearly 20 years ago, millions of lives would have been saved.

Fortunate Failure

Tests suggest that the suggestion made by one oil company, to cut out half the cylinders of an automobile in order to save gasoline, is not very practicable. The saving in no instance was large, and in some tests there was an actual increased use of fuel.

Tain't Funny

Daniel F. Dunn, running for one of the two Democratic nominations from his district to the Massachusetts legislature, died eight days before the primaries. Nevertheless, in his own town of Palmer (population 9,000) he received 91 votes and his still-living ticketmate only 122.

The Nation's Press

Mr. Willkie's second front fulminations in Moscow brought from Mr. Churchill some strictures on loose talk which, by their close timing, had the quality of a rebuke direct. If the Russians are fooled, there is precedent therefore. So were a large segment of the Republicans. What was said in Moscow is too serious, however, to be dismissed blithely as campaign oratory.

"I speak the plain-word primer. I give the sign of democracy. By God I will accept nothing which all cannot have their counterpart on the same terms." -WALT WHITMAN

COMMANDMENTS, THE BUNK IF NEW ZEALISM IS RIGHT

The New Deal has abandoned the Commandments. They, of course, will not admit this. But if we judge from their acts, instead of what they say, then the Commandments have no meaning for New Dealers. They are, in reality, the bunk, from the New Deal standpoint.

Let us analyze the Commandment, "Thou shalt not steal," and see by what course of reasoning the New Dealers could contend that they are obeying this Commandment, this impersonal rule, this principle set forth in the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States.

The Commandment, "Thou shalt not steal" really means when reduced to a positive rule instead of a negative commandment, that each man should live by the sweat of his brow or what someone voluntarily contributes to him. To live otherwise is to live by stealing. It makes no difference whether one man takes by force, or a small group takes by force, or a large majority takes by force.

When a government attempts to protect men in their just rights, they then act with the consent of all the governed, but when they attempt to do things that take away from some people their natural rights because a bare majority consent to these acts, then they are in reality saying that there are no Commandments; there is no natural Constitution; there are no eternal, impersonal principles that need to be lived up to.

It is simply because we have violated the last Commandment "Thou shalt not covet," that leads up to this belief that the state, or the majority, has a right to steal. And it is because we have violated this Commandment which, in reality, is nothing but an impersonal rule, proved by the experience of all times and all ages, to be of benefit to mankind, that we have seen more unemployment and more strife and more regression in our standard of living than we ever saw in any other decade of our history.

Yes, the Commandments are the bunk to Socialists, to New Dealers, to Collective Bargainists and to anyone who believes there are no impersonal, universal rules that man should live by; by anyone who believes that we can have a government of men rather than a government of Commandments, of impersonal rules, axioms and principles.

HITLER ON PAROLE

To the great "ifs" of history FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover added another this week. If, he said, Adolf Hitler had not been paroled for his part in the Munich putsch of November, 1923, "then the Nazi might never have come to power and certainly its reign of terror would have been postponed." This is an interesting thought, and well founded. It could, however, be put in another way. If the Nazi party had not been going to come into power Hitler would not have been released after putting in eight months of a five year sentence. Hitler was not let out because he had reformed. He was let out because he had demonstrated to the satisfaction of his judges and jurors that he was not going to reform.

News Behind The News The National Whirligig

HEADACHES Under the aegis of a pro-workingman Administration, organized Labor in the United States has become more disintegrated and demoralized than ever before in its tumultuous history. Instead of being a unified force susceptible to strong internal discipline and federal regulations, important critics charge that it has dissolved into numerous squabbling and suspicious bands.

George Meany, A. F. of L. Secretary-Treasurer, sires these independent outfits for his side, while James B. Carey, who holds the same office in the C. I. O., fathers them for his crowd. These affiliates are more beholden to Messrs. Meany and Carey than they are to William Green or Philip Murray.

Henry, according to his friends, does not want to engage in controversies connected with the conduct of the war. He prefers to be a friend of everybody and to become known as an official more interested in domestic than foreign affairs, despite his books and addresses which stretch our economic boundaries to embrace the globe.

During the summer insiders told a different off-the-record story. They felt that WPB was simply another OFM or SPAB, and would eventually go the same route to the ashcan and graveyard of goofy government agencies.

Today's War Analysis

LONDON, Oct. 10—Hitler's announcement that he has achieved his main objective at Stalingrad and therefore will depend on bombardment rather than infantry to complete the operation of reducing the city would seem to me to cover a much more important issue than appeared upon the surface. There is a sound reason in my view to believe he is preparing to weaken his position there by a heavy withdrawal of airpower for other and even more pressing purposes.

Soldier Will Be Tried For Murder At Court Martial

BASTROP, Oct. 10 (AP)—Major General Harry Twaddle today ordered a general court martial to convene at Camp Swift tomorrow morning to try Private Schubert Knapp, 38, charged with two violations of the ninety-second article of war in the slaying of eight-year-old Lucy Rivers Maynard.

The blue-eyed, flaxen haired daughter of Bastrop County Judge and Mrs. C. B. Maynard died Thursday of injuries suffered after disappearing while en route home from school Tuesday afternoon.

Less than three days after her death, Knapp, a former St. Paul gunsmith, will face trial before eight veteran officers of the division.

He will be formally arraigned before the court tomorrow at 9 a. m. in procedure similar to that in civil courts. He may plead guilty or innocent, said Col. Brann, or his attorneys may request a delay in the trial until a medical board examines him for insanity.

Brigadier General Robert L. Spragens, assistant division commander, who will be president of the court martial, announced that several civilian officials to whom General Twaddle had issued passes will be permitted to attend but because of the limited capacity of the building where the trial will be held, the general public will be excluded.

Knapp is also charged with violation of the ninety-third article of war in connection with the alleged theft of an automobile in which he was riding when arrested by Austin city police.

Quiz Winners Get Fire Truck Rides

One of childhood's greatest thrills came to Pampa children this weekend as winners in the quiz program conducted in the elementary schools of the city were given a ride on one of the city's fire trucks Friday afternoon.

The ride climaxed the city-wide observance of National Fire Prevention week, which ended yesterday.

A program held at Horace Mann school was typical of similar ones in other schools of the city during the week, which included organized fire drills, special instruction on fire prevention rules, and a special assembly on Friday morning.

Three original fire prevention rules were led by Miss Marian Reichling, music teacher, and Miss Frances McCue's fifth grade presented a skit on fire prevention.

Original jingles on fire prevention rules were read by Miss Elizabeth Sewell's fourth grade pupils.

U. S. Fortresses Give Nazis Fast Bombing Lesson

LONDON, Oct. 10 (AP)—American fortresses and Liberator bombers in yesterday's greatest daylight bombing attack of the war destroyed 48 Nazi planes, probably destroyed 38 more and damaged 24 for a total of 110 downed or apparently knocked out of action, United States army headquarters announced tonight.

These enemy victims were in addition to the five German planes downed in dogfights with the 509 fighter planes escorting the 4-engine bombers in the mass raid on Lille in occupied France.

The army disclosed that 115 big bombers participated, clarifying a figure given only as "more than 100" immediately after the raid in a hastily prepared communique reporting only four U. S. bombers out of some 600 British American raiders were lost.

While the fighter plane score was readily determined yesterday as five of the enemy shot down, the bomber command of the eighth air force of the U. S. A. A. F. had to question more than a thousand members of the crews which manned the big bombers to get the total count of their exploits.

It was pointed out in today's communique that all the reports of the personnel were cross-checked for accuracy.

There was not a single fatality aboard the 111 out of 115 bombers returning, and of the four bombers lost yesterday a previous communique had said the crew of one was known to be safe.

The Liberators and the flying fortresses are the heavyweights of the United States army air forces. Their capabilities are roughly the same.

Since the fortresses, for example, can carry 3.5 to four tons up to 4,000 miles and up to 10 tons on flights within 2,000 miles, the combined capacity of the 115 bombers in yesterday's raid was anywhere from about 400 to 1,150 tons of bombs.

The blow at the Nazis in Northern France, therefore, was the greatest ever struck by air in daylight in the European war theater not only because of the numbers of bombers involved but also their size and hitting power.

Despite the German radio's threat to retaliate for the Lille raid, there was little enemy action over England today, the Home Security ministry reported in a communique.

"A few enemy aircraft crossed the east and southeast coasts of England this morning. One enemy aircraft was shot down by anti-aircraft gunfire.

"Damage was caused by bombs at a town on the southeast coast. There were no casualties."

London had a brief daylight alert caused by a single Nazi plane crossing high over the home counties.

16-Year-Old Novice Flies Plane On Bet

BIRMINGHAM, England, Oct. 10 (AP)—To collect a 50-cent bet, a 16-year-old boy who said he had never flown before took a plane from an airbase near here, circled the field for 30 minutes and then made what an RAF officer described as a perfect landing.

"I wasn't nervous when the plane took the air, but I was when I tried to land," declared the youth, who said he had built many model aircraft and had read numerous books on aeronautics.

U. S. Soldier Held In Australian's Death

BRISBANE, Australia, Oct. 10 (AP)—An Australian enlisted man was stabbed to death and another was wounded last night in a brawl with American soldiers which had its origin in the non-regulation manner in which one of the Americans wore his necktie.

The soldier had been reprimanded, within the hearing of the two Australians, by U. S. military police who ordered him to adjust his tie.

When the MP's had gone, the kidding started, witnesses said, and two Americans joined their comrades. The chaffing developed fighting words and the brawl was on. It all happened in a Brisbane park.

One American, whose name was not disclosed, was turned over to U. S. military authorities in a charge of homicide.

Motorist Can't Own More Than 5 Tires

DETROIT, Oct. 10 (AP)—When gasoline rationing is made nation-wide within the next few weeks, one of the joys probably in store for the average motorist is that he will not be permitted to own more than five tires for each vehicle registered in his name.

According to word reaching automotive circles here, the applicant for a rationing card will have to swear that he does not own more than five tires for each of his cars or indicate a willingness to sell the extra casings to the government.

Representatives of the nation's rubber industry say this program, which will be extended to the eastern states already operating under the gasoline rationing plan, probably will result in the release of approximately 6,000,000 tires, many of them new. Under the scheme as it is anticipated here, these would be restored by the government to the tire rationing pool, as a further means of keeping some 20,000,000 or more passenger cars rolling.

The tire industry already is making plans to produce approximately 1,000,000 reclaimed rubber tires monthly. Present indications, the rubber industry experts say, are that all tire manufacturers will be in production of reclaimed rubber tires by the end of the present year.

'Wool Gathering' Students Bring Cloth To Class

Students who for years have been "wool-gathering" in class, can now do their wool collecting at home.
Miss Pearl Garen, high school chairman of the Junior Red Cross, is head of the campaign to gather old wool for afghans and lap robes for wounded soldiers in hospitals.
Students are asked to bring scraps of clean, usable wool such as a piece of an old woolen dress or a scrap of an old pair of pants to school.

Wool To Be Made Into Robes
After all the wool has been gathered it will be taken to Red Cross headquarters where volunteer workers will cut it into four inch squares and stitch them together into afghan and lap robes for wounded service men.

Formerly they were knitted entirely of yarn but a shortage of the material has made it necessary to change to wool.

The High School chapter of the Junior Red Cross also has a quota of slippers to fill. Beginning October 19 a room will be open at noon to boys and girls desiring to work on red cross projects.

October 21 home rooms will elect a Red Cross representative who will meet with the Red Cross Council. The representative's duties will be similar to the Home Council.

Recreation Projects To Be Made
Boys will make games for recreation rooms in hospitals. These will include checkers and checkerboards, crossword puzzles and solutions, chinese checkers and boards, bags, chessmen and chess boards, dominoes, darts and targets, jigsaw puzzles, and games such as fox and geese, five in a row, and five in five out.

Sophomores Wear Hats To Class—Note: Teachers Are Silent

Not only did teachers NOT ask Joe Cree and Henry Lane to remove their hats during class time, but they seemed relieved that the two sophomore boys kept them on.
Herky and Joe, being pledges to a social organization not connected with the High School are, as part of an initiation process which includes the eating of raw eggs and oysters, wearing their hats shaved to the middle of their heads. Recently they thought of the hat idea.
Others who also are sporting the new hair style are Billy Gise, Dick Manry, Warren Fatheree and Billy Coy Sheehan.
Many sophomore girls, being pledges to social organizations outside the school, have been wearing shoes on the wrong feet, clothes backwards, no make-up, hair uncombed, sailor hats and signs saying "We are future hoty-toty's".

Faculty Guidance Committee Makes Plans; Students To Learn Principles Of Studying

Home Room Projects For This Year Will Include A Series Of Programs On Etiquette Including Rules On Dates, Dances

Faculty Guidance Committee 36-4 Students will learn "how to study" next Wednesday afternoon during home room period as a phase of the home room guidance program, Miss Margaret Jones, committee chairman, announced Friday.
The home room guidance committee has planned home room programs till the Christmas holidays. Suggestions, outlined for the home room programs include a series of programs on social etiquette, which will give rules on manners on dates, at dances and how to accept and decline invitations properly.
All Phases Of Etiquette To Be Taken Up
School etiquette will also be studied, suggestions on how to act properly in the classroom and in the halls. Rules on conversational etiquette, how to talk with a person, will be studied. A program on patriotic etiquette will be given, including the correct display of the flag, and its salutation and other principles regarding the flag. During book week there will be a program on literary studies.
During home accident week each student will fill out a blank regarding the hazards for accidents in his home.
Parliamentary Procedure Will Be Followed
Under this guidance program the home rooms will be given suggestions and rules to carry out on parliamentary procedure, during the business session and the complete outline of the home room.

The committee outlined topics and activities and suggested material to be used. Home room teachers and program chairmen will gather material for the supervision of the programs. Under the guidance plan, each home room will have the same program each week.
Six Teachers Form Guidance Group
Each teacher will receive a mimeographed sheet on which programs have been outlined. The forms will be ready Monday, Miss Jones said.
Members of the program committee other than the chairman are Miss Pearl Garen, Miss Virginia Vaughan, A. L. Jones, Miss Ulane Zeek, and Mrs. Robert Sanford. Coordinator is Tom Herod assistant principal.
Once a week for half-hour periods on Wednesday, the 28 High school home rooms meet to decide group problems. Parliamentary procedure is followed since each home room is organized with a president, vice-president, secretary-treasurer, parliamentarian, social chairman, program chairman, and girls and boys intramural coaches.
High school home rooms average 30 members, and although students, at the beginning of the year are allowed to select their home room teachers, each student must enroll in a home room of his own classification. That is, a sophomore must enroll in a sophomore home room.

Musical Program To Be Presented Next Thursday

Admission Will Be A War Stamp, Bond

As the first "Victory Concert" in a series to be given monthly by Pampa public schools, Pampa High school will present its first musical program at 8 o'clock Thursday, October 15, in the high school auditorium, Miss Helen Martin, music supervisor, announced Friday.
The only admission will be a War Stamp or Bond which you will get to keep.

This series will be one in a program of war activities to be known as "The Schools at War" as outlined by the Treasury Department of the United States. In a message from Henry Merrett, Jr., secretary of the treasury, he said, "In this program music will have a large place, helping to strengthen the American spirit in wartime and to focus attention on the opportunity to buy War Bonds and Stamps."

Governor Proclaims Victory Programs
Coke R. Stevenson, governor of Texas, issued a proclamation stating that one day each month would officially be the day for "Victory Concerts" all over Texas. The concert had been held by some schools previously, and, seeing the results, it was decided that it would be a good thing to have them all over the country. At the Pharr-San Juan-Alamo Band and Choral Concert $320 worth of War Stamps and Bonds were sold. A total of $763.85 was raised at a concert given by the band and choral groups at Marlin, Texas.

180 To Be In Program
High school will set the pace for "Victory Concerts" to be held in Pampa by conducting the first. Approximately 180 students will participate in the program. Special numbers will be given by a trio composed of Lela Pearl Baldwin, Vontell Alexander, and Joyce Turner. Anna Lois Alford, Anna Barnett, Joann Hawkins, and Betty Holt, the newly organized sophomore quartet, will also sing.
Everyone in the audience will also appear on the program by entering into a "Community Sing" including such patriotic songs as "Anchors Aweigh," "Garrison Song," "Star-Spangled Banner" and "Marines' Hymn," and many others.

Patriotic Students To Receive Holiday Monday Afternoon

Pampa High school embarked upon a rousing new phase of the drive for scrap Friday!

All students who bring their weight in scrap metal by Monday will be excused for the afternoon, principal D. F. Osborne announced Thursday after a meeting of the scrap committee in Dr. Osborne's office.

As a called assembly Thursday afternoon, all students having trucks were urged to donate them to the gathering of scrap metal. Dr. Osborne said that if enough scrap in the country could be collected, the school truck could be used. Students will also be excused Monday afternoon to go after their scrap, if they have a large amount.

The scrap will be piled on the building. Checkers will be out on this space all day to weigh the scrap. Six hundred boys and girls join their efforts to those of their elders in an all-out hunt for every ounce of iron, every pound of rubber and every bundle of rags that can aid America's war effort.

Education, Earnings, Experience Acquired By D. O. Students

An average of five dollars a week is the total amount that $10 per student can be earned during the school year when a student takes diversified occupations. W. H. Galloway, high school instructor estimates.

Diversified Occupation is a course offered to high school students who wish to go to work one day a week and work one-half day. In this manner, a student may earn four credits a semester, one of which is allowed for his work experience gained during his afternoon work in a downtown business establishment.

One credit is allowed for the Diversified Occupations class, and one for each of two other courses which he takes during the morning. The one credit for his work training, one for D. O. and two for other courses total the four semester credits, Mr. Galloway pointed out.

Students are not limited to vocational courses, but may advance as their classmates, and at the same time take the necessary requirements for college entrance, the instructor said. A D.O. student may enter high school, work part-time, be graduated with his own class, and enter college if he so chooses, he explained.

J. V. Adams, senior, was chosen as president of the Diversified Occupations home room, while Betty Johnson, senior, was elected vice-president, and secretary. The D. O. home room is in 213.

In the past week five new members have enrolled. These are Mary Alice Board as an assistant to Dr. R. A. Webb, Clarice de Cordova at Gilbert's; Elizabeth Sefcik at the Red Cross office; Otis Davis at Pampa Storage and Transfer company; and Johnny Holcomb at Voss cleaners.

Harvesters Win From Bowie 19-7 In El Paso Friday

The Harvesters combined a fine passing and running attack to defeat Bowie of El Paso 19-7 in El Paso Friday night. The win was the third of the season for the Green and Gold. The Bowie offense consisted chiefly of passes and tricky reverses. Bill Arthur, Pampa halfback, scored twice in the game, the first on a pass on the second play of the game, and again on a punt return. Bob Dunham also returned an El Paso punt for the third Pampa score. Ornelas, Bowie fullback, scored the only El Paso touchdown from the Pampa two-yard line.

The Harvesters lineup was shaken up for the game, Jerry Kerbow moving from guard to center, Casey switching from a tackle slot to right guard, Jimmy Berry playing at end in place of injured Basil Arnold, and Dunham moving to quarter-back. Other starters for Pampa were Lard at end; Bryant and Berlin, tackles; Edson, guard; Enloe and Arthur, halves; and Boyles, full-back.

The Bowie starters were Valtier and Dominguez, ends, Gomez and Achesado, tackles; Notral, and Oched, guards; Elise, center; and Ornelas, Arnelandriz, Rayon, and Rosas in the backfield.

All School Sport Dance Planned By Council For Next Friday Night

Characters Chosen From Audience To Act As Play Jurors

The most striking feature of the senior play, "The Night of January Thirteenth" will be the fact that twelve characters will be chosen from the audience to act as jurors.

The events of the play take place in a court room where two lawyers are fighting verbally: Steve in the defense of Karen Andre, the efficient secretary to the late Bjorn Faulker, a New York millionaire, and Flint who is attempting to prosecute her for his murder. Mrs. Faulker, his wife, is the daughter of the bank president, Mr. Whitfield; Larry Regan who is in love with Karen, tries many ways to help her. He is a gangster and his attitude will probably hinder.

The play was written by Ann Rand. Other small but important characters are the judge—who will pronounce the verdict, the court clerk, who will draw the names for the audience jury, and the twelve jurors who actually leave the stage and vote, therefore no one will be able to say they know how it will end.

Home rooms will be notified and seniors should watch the drama bulletin board outside 201 for time and place of tryouts. Miss Summers said.

Students Will Burn Midnight Oil As Six Week's Examinations Begin

Students have begun burning the midnight oil as the sixth week of school approaches.

Besides such "minor" things as tests will come notebooks, book reports, and various other assignments. Hours of work will be necessary in most cases to have your assignments in by the deadlines.

For English will come notebooks, neat and complete, book reports, ooth oral and written, and other written work.

In Biology students will be required to have their note books ready for grading.

In mechanical drawing many plates of drawings will be due.

Every class has its individual assignments to hand in. Of course in most every case will come the routine six weeks exams.

So if you see someone going around with a sleepy or worried look, just draw one conclusion, exams this week.

Last year 51 students made the first six weeks honor roll by making all grades above 80 excepting one. The honor roll this year will be announced next week after the exams are over.

SUSIE STUDENT SAYS—
If you can find some one to let you in front of him in the cafeteria line it is "okay," was the general opinion of many students interviewed Wednesday noon.
"If everyone do as he pleases. If he wants to crowd it's all right with me," was the unprejudiced opinion of Betty King, blond-haired junior.
An opposite point of view was taken by a sophomore, Roy Hemphill, who thought that the rule of "first come-first serve" should prevail in the cafeteria. "It isn't fair," Roy said, "to have to stand in line for ten minutes while some late-comers crowd in front."
If you can crowd in and no one objects it's "okay." Sometimes you can't get to the cafeteria in time to get at the first of the line and a friend could, she can let you in and vice-versa.
"You'll never get to eat if everyone lets some one in front of him, and I am usually hungry, complained Marilyn Keck, sophomore.
Sammie Binnis, a junior, believes it is unfair to those who hurried to get near the front of the line to have others crowd in front.
"I don't know if it's exactly fair or not but everyone does so I don't guess many people mind very much," was the idea expressed by Georgia Reeve, senior.

Characters Chosen From Audience To Act As Play Jurors

The most striking feature of the senior play, "The Night of January Thirteenth" will be the fact that twelve characters will be chosen from the audience to act as jurors.

The events of the play take place in a court room where two lawyers are fighting verbally: Steve in the defense of Karen Andre, the efficient secretary to the late Bjorn Faulker, a New York millionaire, and Flint who is attempting to prosecute her for his murder. Mrs. Faulker, his wife, is the daughter of the bank president, Mr. Whitfield; Larry Regan who is in love with Karen, tries many ways to help her. He is a gangster and his attitude will probably hinder.

The play was written by Ann Rand. Other small but important characters are the judge—who will pronounce the verdict, the court clerk, who will draw the names for the audience jury, and the twelve jurors who actually leave the stage and vote, therefore no one will be able to say they know how it will end.

Home rooms will be notified and seniors should watch the drama bulletin board outside 201 for time and place of tryouts. Miss Summers said.

HARVESTERS FLASH POWER TO TOPPLE BOWIE 19 TO 7

4,000 Fans Attend Game At El Paso

Sparked by the lightning-fast runs of Bill Arthur, the Green and Gold of Pampa cut down a potential state championship contender at El Paso Friday night when the Harvesters toppled the hitherto undefeated Bowie Bears from the heights down to a 19 to 7 defeat.

Before 4,000 fans in the El Paso stadium, the Harvesters showed the Southwest Texans the brand of football played in the Panhandle in another high school game in which an undefeated team had its record marred.

Trailing at the half when the score was 7 for Bowie to 6 for Pampa, the Harvesters scored twice in the third quarter on runs of 48 and 54 yards.

Pampa scored on the second play after the Harvesters got the ball in the first period on a long pass from Charles Boyles to Arthur, advancing the ball to Bowie's 40, where Arthur took it to score. Edson missed the conversion.

Early in the second period, Bowie made its lone touchdown of the game, after Pampa fumbled on its own 22-yard line. Three line plays followed with Rayon scoring. Fernandez converted.

In the third period, Dunham punted on to the Bowie 18. Armerdantz punted back to the 48, where Arthur took the ball and, aided by excellent blocking, went on to score. Edson converted, making the score Pampa 18, Bowie 7.

Pampa kicked off. Bowie couldn't gain and punted to the 38. Two Pampa plays gained 9 yards. Dunham ripped through the Bear line for 54 yards and pay dirt. The try for extra point failed.

Bynum was outstanding in the Pampa line while Arthur and Dunham keyed the backfield. Fred Hoes's spinners gained the Bears several yards, and the Bowie line looked good at times in halting the Harvesters.

Bowie scored 11 first downs to eight for Pampa, gained 169 yards rushing to Pampa's 125, attempted 12 passes to four for Pampa, and completed two for 23 yards while Pampa completed one for 65.

Notre Dame Takes Stanford, 27 To 0

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Oct. 10 (AP)—Notre Dame plucked its first victory of the season out of the air today on the amazing accuracy of Angelo Bertelli's four touchdown passes which left Stanford bewildered and defeated 27 to 0.

Bertelli definitely "found himself" before 25,000 screaming spectators today after a comparatively poor showing in the Irish's tie with Wisconsin and defeat by Georgia Tech.

He also found his receivers with deadly consistency. Bertelli speared ends Bob Dove and Joe Limont, a second stringer, with his aerials for two touchdowns in the second quarter. He hit Captain George Murphy and Sophomore Bob Livingstone for two more in the third. He also punted three extra points. Only one of his aerials was intercepted.

This first meeting between the two schools since the Irish's four Horsemen rode over Stanford in the 1925 Rose Bowl was Marchie Schwaner's third straight licking of the season as Indian head coach.

The United States imported 1,339,977 pounds of citronella and Lemongrass oil during the first half of 1940.

Gophers Lose To Underrated Illini

By HERB BARKER
NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—Another stunning series of upsets left the nation's football fans limp but happy today and the experts merely limp.

Topping the list by all odds was the defeat of Minnesota's Gophers, supreme in the Big Ten for two years, by a vastly underrated Illinois outfit, operating under a new head coach, Ray Eliot. Given absolutely no chance against the big men from the north, the Illini, paced by the brilliant play of Guard Alex Agase, fought their way to a sensational 20-13 victory that turned the Big Ten conference race upside down.

Agase first stole the ball from Minnesota's Bill Daley and ran 35 yards to one touchdown and then, after Minnesota had tied the score at 13-13, the same player recovered the loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown.

Purdue and Princeton accounted for two more big surprises. Princeton, itself the victim of an upset at the hands of Williams a week ago, uncovered unexpected strength in a 10-0 rout of Navy at New York. Purdue, beaten by Fordham and trounced by Vanderbilt, pulled itself together and nipped Northwestern's Wildcats, conquerors of Texas, 7-6.

Much of the day's most spectacular action was concentrated in the Midwest where Notre Dame and Ohio State successfully repelled far Western invasions. Notre Dame, with Angelo Bertelli in rare passing form, crushed Stanford, 27-0. Ohio State, a powerful team on the basis of results thus far, handed Southern California a 28-12 beating.

Michigan's Wolverines grabbed a 14-0 lead in the first 20 minutes against Bernie Bierman's Iowa pre-flight outfit but could not fight off Edson's superior reserves and bowled 26-14. It was Michigan's first defeat and Iowa pre-flight's fourth successive triumph including a 7-6 decision over Minnesota.

Wisconsin, with Eloy Hirsch in the starring role, whipped Missouri's Big Six champions handily, 17-9. Pitt's Panthers put up a fine stand against Great Lakes naval station but went down 7-6. Iowa trounced Camp Grant, 33-16, and Marquette ran up a 34-12 count of Iowa State.

In the Southwest, Texas A. and M., obviously only a shadow of its former potent self, fell before Corpus Christi, 18-7, as Texas barely made the grade against Oklahoma, 7-0; Baylor stopped Arkansas, 20-7, and Texas Christian routed Kansas, 41-6.

In the East, Boston College chalked up a hard fought intercollegiate victory over Clemson, 14-7, as Fordham and North Carolina played a scoreless tie; Harvard battled William & Mary on even terms, 7-7, and West Virginia scored over South Carolina, 13-0.

Penn trounced Yale, 35-6, in an Ivy league fray; Brown, led by Hank Margarita, halted Columbia, 28-21; Army, with Hank Mazur in the leading role, easily handled Cornell 28-8, and Colgate, taking advantage of pass interceptions, whipped Dartmouth, 27-19.

Georgia, with Frankie Sinkwich operating in high gear, buried Mississippi under a 48-13 count while Vanderbilt eked out a 7-6 verdict over Kentucky, the second such one-point loss the Wildcats have suffered in Southeastern conference play. Tulane easily defeated Rice of the Southwest conference, 18-7, and Georgia's pre-flight squad, thus far unbeaten, decisively trounced Duke, 26-12. Alabama and Tennessee won easily over comparatively minor opposition.

Citadel and Virginia Tech won Southern conference victories as Virginia Military, led by Joe Mula,

Alsab Beats Whirlaway In 'Rubber' Race

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—Alsab beat Whirlaway the hard way today—coming around the lightning stretch runner in one stretch to take the "rubber" match of their turf world series.

Whirlly tried to confuse the folks by running right to the front in the long New York handicap instead of trailing by a city block, as usual, but he succeeded in confusing himself most of all. For, he not only lost to Alsab, but was also beaten to the wire by J. G. Douglas, Jr. Obash, an overlooked four-year-old, who ran in claiming company as recently as mid-September.

The sensation of Belmont's closing program, however, was neither Alsab in victory nor Whirlly in defeat. This role went to Count Fleet, from Mrs. John D. Hertz's Barn, who fairly flew to victory in the Champagne Stakes to set a world one-mile record for a two-year-old in 1:34.4-5.

In galloping home by six lengths to establish himself as a ranking contender for next year's Kentucky Derby, the son of Reich Count loped three-fifths of a second off the juvenile mile mark Alsab posted in the same race a year ago, and came within two-fifths of a second of the world record the great Equipoise set ten years back.

Austin Team Smacks Down Waco, 20-6

(By The Associated Press)
Six teams plunged from the ranks of the unbeaten in Texas schoolboy football last night, the hardest crash coming at Waco where the Tigers fell before Austin's comeback kids.

The Maroons, beaten 7-0 by Temple, another highly-rated central Texas outfit, rose up and smacked the heralded Bengals 20-6.

Meanwhile Temple was making Lufkin look more like a state championship contender by losing to the Panthers 26-7.

Lamar of Houston lost to John Reagan of Houston in the top conference game of the week as Reagan figured out a way to stop the great Ray Borneman. Borneman didn't score a point while Reagan was rolling up 27.

Breckenridge crushed Lubbock 26-0 in another upset while Robstown, Ranger and Bowie (El Paso) took the count along with Waco, Lamar and Lubbock to cut the state's undefeated list to 22, counting teams that had not been beaten but had been tied.

Robstown was smashed 40-0 by Kerrville. Ranger lost to Plainview 30-0 and Bowie fell before Pampa 19-7.

Blue Devils Lose To Skycrackers, 26-12

DURHAM, N. C., Oct. 10 (AP)—The Georgia pre-flight Skycrackers trounced Duke's Blue Devils 26 to 12 in a football game here today featured by a 92 yard touchdown run by Don Hightower and the spectacular passing of Frank Pilsch for the Navy. About 7,500 persons saw the contest.

TCU Wins Easily Over Kansas, 41-6

By RICHARD WEST
FORT WORTH, Oct. 10 (AP)—Powell Texas Christian, scoring almost at will, remained among the nation's undefeated, untied football teams with an easy 41-6 victory over Kansas today.

The Christians, sporting what appears to be their best team since the 1938 machine went through the season undefeated and whipped Carnegie Tech in the Sugar Bowl, relied on their two favorite weapons to down the Kansans—a smashing reverse play and the forward pass.

Some 6,000 spectators had hardly settled in their seats when the Frogs made their first score—a drive for 55 yards on six plays. Van Hall, the Kaufman speedster, went over from the four-yard line. Patton converted.

The Frogs picked up two more in the second period. Ralph Porter, T. C. U. fullback, recovered a Kansas fumble on the Jayhawkers, 7 to 6. Mobley scored for HSTU in the second quarter, and Ryan kicked the point that eventually decided the tilt. Hardy Miller caught a nine-yard pass for the Pony score in the final quarter.

Pensacola Airmen Sunk By Red Tide

MOBILE, Ala., Oct. 10 (AP)—Alabama power and speed rolled up an impressive 27-0 victory over the Pensacola naval air station eleven today before 8,000 fans and gave Southeastern conference scouts a whole book full of ominous things to report.

The unbeaten Crimson Tide, with Tennessee as next week's foe, left off the fancy stuff but unleashed a startling array of backs and linemen who dominated the contest throughout.

T. C. U.'s final counter came in the final period on a series of passes that drove deep into Kansas territory. A clipping penalty gave the Frogs the ball on Kansas' 7.

Montgomery bucked over, O'Neal's kick was blocked, but Montgomery picked it up and ran across for the extra point.

With many of the fans leaving for home, Kansas' superb passer, Ray Evans, who has the highest percentage of completions in the nation, started an aerial attack that brought the Jayhawkers their first score of the 1942 season.

The final period here faded beautifully and lasted to Ben Otto Schnellbacher, the play road for 60 yards and a touchdown. Evans' kick was blocked.

UCLA Upsets Favored Oregon State, 30-7

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 10 (AP)—A fast, alert and smartly drilled University of California at Los Angeles eleven stopped Oregon State's winning streak today, beating the defending Pacific Coast conference champions, 30 to 7.

The invaders, 2 to 1 favorites, were too slow and cumbersome for the Bruins, who bounded back from successive defeats at the hands of Texas Christian and the Navy Pre-flights of St. Mary's to show a surprising strong running and passing attack.

From the first play of the game, UCLA looked like the winner. Although outweighted in the line and backfield, Coach Babe Horrell's forwards outchained the Beavers and the backs, Al Solari, Ken Snelling, Ev Riddle and Ed Tyler, had entirely too much foot.

Seven minutes after the opening kickoff UCLA had a touchdown. A 30 yard sprint through the line by Snelling provided the setting for the second UCLA score, a placement by Snelling.

LeFors Whips McLean In Last Period 20-7

Coming back after the game seemed lost, the LeFors Pirates staged a brilliant comeback in their game with the McLean Tigers at McLean Friday night to win 20 to 7 after trailing 6 to 7 up into the final period.

Clemmons, left half back for LeFors, carried the ball over. The Pirates almost lost that vital extra point when the kick was blocked, but recovered and carried the ball over for the conversion.

Making their victory certain, the Pirates scored a second time in the Boat Club To Award Trophies At Dance Friday

Marking the conclusion of the boat racing season, awards to the first and second place winners in the series of motorboat point races held during the past summer at Lake McClellan will be presented eight persons at the McClellan club's annual dance to be held at 9 p. m. Friday, October 16, at the Southern club.

Trophies will be gold statuettes topped by a model of a motorboat. First place trophies are 14 inches high; second place, 12 inches. In the free-for-all award only one trophy is given, as motorboats of 8 horsepower naturally are no match for those of 33.

The free-for-all race is run more as an extra treat than as a competitive one.

There are five classes in point races, of which were held, beginning in June and ending on September 20. Those who are to receive awards, by classes, are:

33, Mrs. Bobby Byles, Borger, first; Earl McConnell, Pampa, second.

22, Alva Phillips, Pampa, first; Roy Branscum, Pampa, second.

16, Roy Kretzmeier, Pampa, first; Carl Baer, Pampa, second.

8, Ray Bernard, Pampa, first; Pete Sitton, Pampa, second.

Free for all, Mrs. Bobby Byles, Borger, first.

The annual dance at the end of the season is traditional with the club, but this year is the first time the dance will be held in Pampa.

Prior dances have been held at the recreation building at the lake, located 25 miles south of Pampa.

Officers of the club are W. A. Noland, Pampa, commodore; Roy Kretzmeier, Pampa, rear-commodore; Pete Sitton, Pampa, secretary-treasurer.

Ohio State's Speed Wins Over Trojans

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 10 (AP)—Ohio State's speedy football team mixed all-around passing and running power today to whip Southern California 28 to 12 before 56,336 fans in their intercollegiate football fray. The Trojans opened the scoring, but Ohio came right back to take the lead and never were pressed.

Hawks Swamp Irish, 33-0

SHAMROCK, Oct. 10.—Coach Chester Walker's Phillips Blackhawks challenge their 25th straight victory here Friday night, downing the Shamrock Irishmen with the top-sided 33-0 score.

It was Phillips ball game from the starting whistle as they outcharged, out-passed and out-punted the local gridmen, to score once each in the first, second and fourth quarters and twice in the third quarter.

The first tally came late in the first quarter when Hall, powerful fullback and definitely the outstanding backfield man on the gridiron, broke over his own right tackle for a 20-yard romp over the final stripe. Hall kicked the extra point.

The Blackhawks rang up their second score near the end of the half with a five-yard pass. Foster to Goldsmith. Hall failed to convert.

The third and fourth touchdowns came in the third quarter, the first when Foster made a 30-yard heave to D. Davis, and the second when D. Davis blocked an Irish punt. Davis scooped it up and ran the entire distance for the tally. Hall kicked the extra point following the first tally but failed on the last one.

The final tally came near the middle of the fourth stanza, when D. Davis intercepted an Irish pass on the Shamrock 22-yard line and raced 78 yards to paydirt.

Princeton Shuts Out Midshipmen 10 to 0

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 (AP)—The Princeton Tigers, tamed last week by Williams, broke their bonds quickly today and tore into a favored Navy eleven for a 10 to 0 triumph that proved once and for all that the tiddlers have their minds on fighting and not football.

Bob Perina, the triple threat star of the Tigers, thrilled a crowd of 20,000 at Yankee stadium and bewildered the future naval officers by the simple stratagem of holding the ball aloft, faking pass after pass and then running around his ends.

He set up two scoring opportunities for the Tigers and fullback George Franke capitalized on one of them by crashing through center one yard for a touchdown and Bob Sandbach made the other good with a 15-yard placement field goal in the last two minutes of the game.

Horned Frogs Out To Break Aggie Record

FORT WORTH, Oct. 10—It has been four years since T. C. U. came out on the long end of a football score with Texas A. & M.

The last Frog victory was scored by Coach Dutch Meyer's national champions of 1938, when David O'Brien and Co. wiped the slate clean with 11 straight victories.

Since 1938 the Aggies have flown the championship flag, with a clear title in 1939 and 1941 and a co-title with S. M. U. in 1940.

The Frogs lost to the Farmers last year, but made an even greater contribution to the A. & M. title by eliminating the Texas Longhorns from the race.

Next Saturday the two schools stage their 1942 meeting in College Station. The game will mark the beginning of the conference race for the Aggies; the Frogs have already pegged one victory over Arkansas in Fort Worth Oct. 3).

Before entering the Southwest conference, the Frogs had won from the Aggies only once in 19 games. In fact, most of the time in those days the Frogs could not even score. Since T. C. U. was admitted to the conference the two schools have met 18 times: Ten of these contests produced T. C. U. victories, five games went to the Aggies and three resulted in ties.

In the full series, starting in 1897, A. & M. has won 22, T. C. U. 11, and four games have been ties. The all-time score is: A. & M. 581, T. C. U. 245.

Hereford Whips Panthers, 39-0

PANHANDLE, Oct. 10—Hereford Whitefaces won a smashing 39 to 0 victory over the Panhandle Panthers here Friday night in a non-conference game. This was the fourth victory for the Whitefaces this season.

The Whitefaces made 18 first downs to two for Panhandle and scored in every quarter. The Hereford team made four first downs in each of the first two quarters and five each in the third and fourth quarters.

First quarter: J. W. Merrill, Hereford quarterback, made the first touchdown on a dash of 13 yards and Russell kicked goal. A Panhandle punt was blocked and recovered by Hereford on the Panther seven yard line. Williamson, right halfback, scored on the fourth down and goal was missed. The quarter ended with the Cats having the ball on their own 19 yard line. Score: Hereford 13; Panhandle 0.

Second quarter: Panhandle punted to mid-field and Merrill made a first down to the 23 yard line. A pass to the 3-yard line was called back for holding and in a series of plays Merrill went to the seven yard line for a first down. Panhandle recovered a fumble on their own 8-yard line and punted to the 38 yard line. In two first downs Hereford had the ball on the Panther 5-yard line. A pass, Merrill to Russell, was good for a touchdown and the kick by Russell was blocked. The half ended with the ball on the Panthers 38-yard line in Panhandle's possession. Score: Hereford, 19; Panhandle 0.

Third quarter: Hereford took the ball in mid-field and in two first downs carried it to the 22 yard line. After a gain of 8 yards, Merrill took a touchdown pass and Hill missed the goal. In three first downs the Whitefaces were on the 10 yard line. After three gains of three yards each, Williamson went over standing up for the yard and a touchdown. Russell's kick was good. Panhandle made its deepest penetration of the game, to Hereford's 18 yard line. The quarter ended with the Cats having the ball on Hereford's 26 yard line. Score: Hereford 32; Panhandle 0.

Fourth quarter: Hereford took the ball on its 41 yard line and in three first downs were on the Cats' 4 yard line. On second down Olsen scored and Russell kicked goal. Panhandle punted to the Hereford 20 yard line to end the game. Score: Hereford 39; Panhandle 0.

Pass Gives Steers Win Over Sooners

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS, Oct. 10 (AP)—Texas pounded futilely at a rugged Oklahoma line for two periods today then found the Sooners were too slow to halt a passing attack—so the Longhorns pitched their way to a 7-0 victory in the thirty-seventh renewal of this colorful inter-sectional football game.

It was Roy (Workhorse) McKay who spelled the difference and who got into the hair of the Sooners as did Jack Crain in the immediate past years.

McKay's pass from the Oklahoma 32-yard-line deep in the third period brought the lone touchdown. Kenneth Matthews, one of the Texas trackmen-halfbacks, took the pitch over his shoulder and stormed untouched across for the score. McKay tried for the point and missed but Oklahoma was off-side and on the second attempt, the Longhorn fullback planted the ball between the goal posts.

A crowd of 20,000—less than half the number that saw the contest last year—was treated to a game jammed with long runs and long passes—and mighty kicking. In fact it was McKay's kicking that really brought defeat to the Sooners.

Comets Win Over Southwest Champs

CORPUS CHRISTI, Oct. 10 (AP)—The Comets of the Corpus Christi naval air station hit the victory road for the first time here today, playing a superb defensive game that paid off with a 18 to 7 win over the Southwest conference football champions, the Texas A. & M. Aggies.

The navy team, coached by Ed. Marty Karow, former backfield coach at A. & M., put the Aggie running attack in reverse and held the vaunted cadet aerial offensive to 161 yards. The cadets lost a net of 15 yards by rushing, while the Comets could boast of 38.

Fumbles and intercepted passes prevented a major drive by either team, with neither counting on the ground. The initial score was the result of an accurate pass-kick from the toe of Enns. Joe Sienko, former star for the Washington Redskins, from the Aggie eleven-yard marker. The three-point score was set up when Enns. Jack Rhodes, ex-Texas University guard, broke through to block a cadet punt on the visitors' nine. Cadet Sam Chapman put the ball into position for the extra point with a play through the line.

FAIR WARNING

Our nation's war production has first call on all raw materials and factories. This has curtailed production for civilian use... a sacrifice we are all glad to make for victory. This Fall, on some of the items in our great Ward Week sale, we may have to limit quantities sold to any one person. Ward Week values will be as great as ever... but, please, buy only the things you need.

Ward Week is a nation-wide sale, planned months in advance by all of the 650 Montgomery Ward stores throughout the country. By working far ahead, by combining their orders, these Montgomery Ward stores are able to secure quality merchandise at tremendous savings. That's why millions of Americans wait for Ward Week every year to buy their Fall and Winter needs. This year, we are happy to offer once again the values which have made Ward Week America's Greatest Sale. Throughout our store, prices are cut far below the "ceilings" established by the government. Join the crowds... see these values yourself. Shop and save in Ward Week.

JUST BETWEEN US GIRLS

[By JOHNNIE DAVIS]

Three great essentials to happiness are—something to do, something to love, and something to hope for.—Colton.

Beginning the yearly observance of National Business Women's week, members of the Pampa Business and Professional Women's club are meeting this morning for another one of their breakfasts which always are enjoyable affairs. Also the group will attend the morning services of First Presbyterian church. The timely theme this year for National Business Women's week is "Women's Work in the War," and the aim is to interpret the contribution which business and professional women are making and have made to the war effort in all fields of democratic life. Lillian McNutt is president of Pampa's club, which is one of the 1,750 similar organizations in the National Federation of B.-P. W. No 1 project of the local club women now is to provide a place for recreation for soldiers already stationed here.

"Local Girl Makes Good" is a title which might be used in identifying personable Dorothy Brown. While her husband is taking a refresher course which may result in his becoming an army primary instructor, Dorothy is instructor for a Civilian Pilot Training class here. While Delbert is eager to learn to fly larger planes, Dorothy is perfectly satisfied to fly smaller ships. With such an attractive instructor, it is probable that her students don't concentrate entirely on their aerial maneuvers.

Quitters win just about as often as winners quit.

Most of Pampa's club women are devoting part of their time to Red Cross work. When Tuesday Bridge club met in the home of Mrs. Sherman while last week the members tackled a child's comfort for the Red Cross rather than spending the entire afternoon in playing bridge.

Today Betty and Ed Dreiss are observing their first wedding anniversary. She is the former Betty Flank. Lieut. Dreiss is stationed at Fort Sill.

A woman has been described as a person who goes through life fearing that all mirrors are telling her the truth and that all men are lying to her.

When we talked to Rev. Robert Boshen three days after his new daughter arrived, he remarked that he had been busy being a typical proud father. The Boshens have named their baby Virginia Ann.

The first entertainment ever to be arranged here for mothers, sisters, and wives of World War I and II soldiers will be given this afternoon when the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary has a tea in the home of Mrs. B. W. Rose. Daughters of local veterans will serve the refreshments. Mrs. Roy Chisum is the capable president of the V. F. W. auxiliary.

Few Pampans realize just what is being accomplished in Red Cross production here. Some of the startling figures totaled by Mrs. Charlie Thut for work done from January 1 through September really are eye-openers. For instance, Mrs. DeLea Vicars has 848 hours of knitting to her credit for the nine months; Mrs. A. B. McAfee has 718 hours including 364 hours spent in knitting and 354 in sewing; Mrs. J. S. Wynne, 693 hours in knitting; Mrs. J. F. Schwind, 647 hours in knitting; and Mrs. Joe Casperson, 400 hours in sewing. It seems that these and many others deserve an orchid for their accomplishments.

Another type of volunteer Red Cross service now available in Pampa is the Staff Assistance corps which will provide administrative and clerical help in connection with regular chapter activities. To train volunteers in this work, a course covering duties of the corps will be started Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Those who aren't already doing Red Cross work of some type are asked to become staff assistants.

Exactly eight weeks to the hour after she attended her sister, Mary as maid of honor, Martha Price became the bride of Vester Lee Smith of McLean. When Mary and Bob Patterson were married on August 15, Martha was maid of honor; another sister, Harriett, was bridesmaid; and still another sister, Margaret, was junior bridesmaid. Yesterday morning at Martha and Vester Lee's marriage, Harriett was maid of honor while Margaret presided at the registry and Mary served the wedding cake. Both Mary and Martha wore the same beautiful satin gown.

The most beautiful hat we have seen this season is being worn by Mrs. Kenneth Carman. Wearing this cranberry red velvet hat with veil trim, Cleora looks like a magazine-cover model. If you would look charming, suggests a famous stylist, take your husband with you when you buy your hats. Otherwise, choose a shape like the one he approved before. Cleora must have followed this advice.

Someone whom we should like to meet is Nurse Molly Moran. We have heard such complimentary remarks about her for so long that we are sure she is a lovely person. Speaking of nurses, a person we admire is Mrs. Blanch Drescher, who has a very pleasing personality. Her initial interest seems to be in her daughter, Dorothy, who is a brilliant student studying costume designing at Denton.

Pampa's most ardent baseball fans include E. E. Shelhamer and E. C. Sidwell who went to St. Louis for the World Series. Also while there they saw the new picture, "Fride of the Yankees," based on the life of the great baseball player, the late Lou Gehrig.

A pair of youngsters whose talents will be missed here are Joyce and Vivian Brake. Both are accomplished pianists, dancers, and expression students. They are moving to Corpus Christi with their father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Brake, since Mr. Brake is being transferred there.

"Mother, Son Join Service Together" was the headline over a brief news item in the papers the other day. And the story was of a Los Angeles mother and son who stood up together—the mother to serve in the W.A.C. and the 18-year-old son in the regular army.

A mother and son actually joining the army together is news to be sure. But, actually, every mother joins the service the day her son does. From that moment on until the war is over, she is in the service with him.

She reads eagerly of every camp experience he has. She pictures in her mind what his life must be. If his work is hard, she is aware of that tiredness. If he writes that it is swell, that the food is good, he is gaining weight and the fellows are all "good guys," she is happy for him.

She is aware of the danger every waking hour although she insists that she doesn't let herself worry. And it will be that way until the thing is over and he returns to civilian life.

While that son is in the service, his mother is in the service. His life and his experiences are more important to her than anything that is happening in her life or to any other member of her family.

That is why in reality no mother of a son in the service is a civilian. Mothers and sons join the service together—not just in actual cases which are rare enough to rate headlines but every time a lanky kid puts on the uniform of his country.

In Mrs. E. W. Tucker's backyard can be found bright-hued dahlias, asters, marigolds, nasturtiums, and numerous other fall flowers. Those who have admired the enormous dahlias which have decorated the First Baptist church for many Sundays might like to know that they were grown by Mrs. R. W. Tucker.

In reverse of Miss 1942's victory bob and bare legs for silk conservation, the girls of 1917-1918 who bobbed their hair were considered "not quite nice," and all the girls wore black stockings," according to Edith L. Clark, dean of women at a Texas college, who acquired her present position during the 1918 period of World War I.

The girls utilized the military idea in clothes fashions just as much as they do now," said Miss Clark, "but the girl of today doesn't seem as anxious to follow a brass band and brass buttons, in the marriage line, as did her mother in 1918."

The white-haired little lady, self-designated grandmother of students, believes that, "By utilizing and integrating the situation in our college curriculum, we've eliminated much of the emotional side of the problem and are developing a 'war attitude' of acceptance of sacrifice and sentimental whenever the time comes.

Having an extended vacation here and in Wheeler is Miss Florence Merriman of Washington, D. C. Miss Merriman is a secretary in the office of Congressman Eugene Worley. She has visited in Pampa with her sisters, Mrs. J. M. Turner and Mrs. Herman Van Skie. Too, she is visiting with her parents in Wheeler.

BPW To Observe Week Proclaimed By Gov. Stevenson

"Women's Work in the War" is the theme of National Business Women's week which is being observed October 11-17, by 1,750 clubs, including the Pampa Business and Professional Women's club which is beginning the week with a breakfast this morning at 9 o'clock in the Schaefer hotel. Following the breakfast the club will attend the First Presbyterian church.

"Mobilizing Health in a Defense Area" is the topic of the program to be presented by Ursula McCarty, health chairman, and her committee at the monthly business meeting of the club Tuesday night at 7:30 o'clock in the city club rooms.

In observance of the anniversary, the following proclamation was issued by Governor Coke R. Stevenson of the State of Texas:

WHEREAS, business women throughout the country will be observing the anniversary of National Business Women's Week this October; and

WHEREAS, it is appropriate to commend business women for the manner in which they are daily assuming the increased duties and responsibilities caused by the lack of manpower on our homefront; and

WHEREAS, the business women should be encouraged and urged to continue in their efforts to the end that through the united service of men and women the problems of Democracy may be solved; and

WHEREAS, as business women throughout the nation have adopted for study and action this year the theme "Women's Work in the War" and are striving to make valuable contribution to our country's effort for Victory;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Coke Stevenson, Governor of the State of Texas, hereby set aside and proclaim the week of October 11-17, 1942, as BUSINESS WOMEN'S WEEK in Texas.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of the State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this 17th day of September, A. D., 1942.
(Signed) COKE R. STEVENSON
GOVERNOR OF TEXAS

Officers Elected By Kingsmill Home Demonstration Club

At the meeting of Kingsmill Home Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. Carl Emmerson, the business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. D. L. Lunsford, with each member answering roll call by giving her favorite fall dessert.

When the report of the nominating committee was given by Mrs. C. F. Bastion, officers were elected as follows: Mrs. D. L. Lunsford, president; Mrs. J. C. Payne, vice president; Mrs. G. H. Anderson, secretary; Mrs. Clyde Ives, treasurer; Mrs. B. C. Fahy, reporter; Mrs. L. M. Batten, assistant reporter; Mrs. O. G. Smith, Council representative; and Mrs. H. H. Heiskell, alternate Council representative.

Mrs. Payne, recreation chairman, announced plans for a Halloween party for the club. The next Council meeting will be October 31, at 10:30 o'clock in the office of Mrs. Julia E. Kelley. A reporters school will be held November 21 and 22, and new reporters are requested to present at Mrs. Kelley's office at 2:30 o'clock.

Arrangements were made for achievement day when each member is to wear a corsage which she is to make. Report blanks are to be filled out and handed into the secretary before the next meeting.

Mrs. C. F. Bastion was elected assistant secretary to act until Mrs. W. H. McBride, secretary, returns.

Mrs. Clyde Ives reported that she had entered 20 cans of fruits and vegetables and five different kinds of vegetables in the food and flower show held recently and that she received seven first and several second and third place awards.

The program was on "Fall Desserts" and favorite dishes were demonstrated as follows: Dried fruit and nut paste, Mrs. B. C. Fahy; green tomato mince meat, Mrs. C. F. Bastion; pear and apple mince meat, Mrs. O. G. Smith; whole grain cereals and cookies, Mrs. H. H. Heiskell. The recipes of each were discussed and samples were served on the refreshment plate with lead tea and favors of Halloween candies.

Members present were Mmes. H. H. Heiskell, Clyde Ives, Chester Williams, O. G. Smith, L. M. Batten, B. C. Fahy, J. C. Payne, D. L. Lunsford, C. F. Bastion, Carl Emmerson, and one visitor, Mrs. Tom Carver.

Mrs. Leech Will Review 'Moon Is Down' On Monday

"Free men cannot start a war. But once it has started, they can fight on in defeat. Hard men cannot do that. And so it is always that hard men win battles, but free men win wars."

That is the theme of "The Moon Is Down," written by John Steinbeck. Mrs. F. E. Leech, arts chairman of the American Association of University Women, will review this best seller Monday evening in the city club rooms at 8 o'clock.

In giving her reasons for choosing this book, Mrs. Leech says, "I choose to review 'The Moon Is Down' to give you, as I received when I read it, a different view of John Steinbeck. Another reason I choose it is that an imaginary picture or series of pictures is brought up of a free people's feelings as they were unexpectedly conquered. This book is a proof of the difference between journalism and literature. We have had eye witnesses tell of the facts when a city was conquered. This book is purely fiction and the scenes could be located with any freedom loving people."

A small seaside coal-mining town in Norway is chosen for the setting of the story. Its people are simple, self-governing folk who have known no war for a hundred years. Betrayed by a local Quisling, the village falls to the invaders without a struggle. But after it has fallen, the real struggle begins. How a freedom-loving people prove to be the one factor that will not fit into the blueprints of the conqueror is the plot.

John Gunther says of "The Moon Is Down," "This short novel... is a miraculous example of the way a great story-teller can clarify in a work of art the overwhelmingly dominant issue of the time. His work becomes symbolic of much more than it describes. It distills a series of very local episodes into a kind of universal experience... The lesson this book carries should be known to every American. It is one of the best short novels I ever read."

The public is invited to this review. Newcomers in town are most especially welcomed. A small charge will be made. The proceeds will be used to buy Victory Stamps.

Sub Deb Members To Attend Church And Lunch Together

Making plans to attend the First Methodist church in a group this morning with lunch following at Six's dining room, members of Sub Deb club met in the home of Miss Anita Andrews Thursday afternoon.

Also the date for the Christmas formal dance was set as December 23 at the Schneider hotel. Club lockers were discussed by the group.

Miss Anna Lois Alford will be hostess at the next meeting of the club on Thursday.

Couple To Reside In Lubbock After Trip To Dallas

In a ceremony read at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Miss Martha Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Price, and Vester Lee Smith, son of Mrs. Vester Smith of McLean, were united in marriage at the home of her parents. The Rev. Robert Boshen of First Presbyterian church officiated at the service.

Forming the background for the ceremony were ivy covered trellises from which hung bouquets of white mums and clusters of white wedding bells. White wedding baskets on either side of the wedding party contained white mums, and tall white tapers illuminated the setting. Bows of white chrysanthemums decorated the mantel and piano.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Garnett Haugen of Lubbock played "The Flower Song," "O Promise Me," and "Because" as the candles were lighted by Jeff Coffey of McLean. The Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin" (Wagner), was played for the entrance of the bride party.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a picturesque gown of white ivory satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline in seed pearls and long fitted sleeves puffed at the shoulder and ending in points at the wrist. Her skirt, which was gathered at a belted bodice, extended into a fan-shaped train. The lovely veil of English illusion fell in tiers the full length of her train and was held to her coiffure by a halo of tiny seed pearls. For "something old" she wore her mother's cameo which came from England. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Harriett Price, whose frock was of turquoise designed with a bouffant marquisette skirt and a taffeta bodice with ruffled peplum. She wore a matching taffeta hat with ruffles forming a tiny brim from which fell a shoulder-length veil. Her bouquet was of yellow roses showered with white bells.

Serving as best man was Norman Trimble of McLean. Mrs. Price wore a rose jersey ensemble with brown accessories. Mrs.

V Notes RED CROSS VOLUNTEERS

By Mrs. Fred Roberts

Mrs. F. M. Culbertson, chairman of Volunteer Special Services, announces a Staff Assistance Course to be organized next Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock in the Red Cross office, top floor of the city hall.

This is our first of this kind and an especially interesting one for it deals with all phases of Red Cross work. Many women in other cities have taken this course merely to become informed on what the Red Cross is doing, so that they might find out just where they could help to the best of their ability. It is not necessary to become a member of the Staff Assistance corps upon completion of the period of study.

The training consists of a 10-hour period of lectures on Red Cross Organization and Services and 10 hours of lectures and practice in office routine. Upon completion of the course, women may volunteer for general office work with the Red Cross Chapter or with other organizations engaged in war work. These volunteers should be women with ability to meet the public, who can do general office work, typing and filing, and man reception desks and telephone switchboards.

The Wednesday morning hour is only for organization. Time of the following lectures will be agreed upon by the group.

Mrs. J. B. Massa, chairman of sewing, realizes that not many women want to tackle a man's shirt, but she thinks that women who can sew other garments can also sew a shirt. It really isn't as hard as you think. Won't you come in and look at the model? You'll see, I'm sure, that you can do it. These shirts must be finished soon, and we feel that the women who have sewed other garments for us, will not let us down now.

The Kingsmill Home Demonstration club, Susanna Wesley class of the First Methodist church, and the Horace Mann P. T. A. each turned in a comforter this last week complete in every detail—all ready to be used. We surely do appreciate this kind of cooperation.

We are grateful to Mrs. T. R. Tappan for the quilt top she pieced and to the Friendship class of the First Methodist church for 155 woolen squares.

18 women turned in 48 sewed and eight knitted garments this week which gave them a total of 276 1/2 hours of credit. In the production room 60 women worked a total of 119 hours.

The "blood, sweat and tears" of war also go into Volunteer Service for the American Red Cross. Any volunteer can tell you that. Here are a few examples:

Nationally an estimated 1,500,000 women volunteers, after a period of careful training, will be busy engaged in the production of surgical dressings. Each volunteer will give at least four hours work each week for the duration. Additional thousands will be making comfort articles and other wartime necessities for the armed forces.

Have you completed a first-aid course? You know then the intensive study and practice that a first-aid course must go through in his 30-hour course.

The work of the Canteen Corps volunteers is often hard and time consuming. But before they could qualify they had to complete a 20-hour course in nutrition and 20 more hours of other training.

If you would qualify as a home nursing volunteer a 30-hour course is required before you are entitled to wear the badge and carry the appointment card.

The nation's hospitals, are dependent upon Gray Ladies. Their's is

MRS. W. A. SPOONEMORE above, is president of Horace Mann Parent-Teacher Association, which will be hostess at Tri-County Council meeting which will be held this month. The main speaker will be Mrs. M. A. Taylor of Bonham, who is a past president of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers and a past vice-president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. D. L. C. Kinard of Memphis, eighth district president, also will be here. Carson county will be a guest county at the meeting.

'United We Stand' Topic Of Horace Mann Discussion

Horace Mann Parent-Teacher Association held its October meeting in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon when in the absence of the Rev. R. L. Gilpin, pastor of McCullough Methodist church, Mrs. Gilpin gave the devotional and spoke on the topic, "United We Stand."

Four viewpoints emphasized by Mrs. Gilpin were international, national, community, and individual. She stated that in each case there must be a combined spirit of unity and cooperation among all or all would fail.

"A nation is only as strong as the individuals comprising it are strong. Hence it is our duty to present a unified front to the world. The best way to do this is to have an obsession to challenge us at all times. Then with God's help and guidance right will prevail."

Alvin Bell gave a short talk on fire prevention stating that our three greatest enemies, Hitler, Hirohito, and Mussolini are at work continuously in this country through the loss of life and property due to fires. It is our duty as patriotic Americans to help lick this menace, and we will if each individual will study the causes and ways of preventing fires, and be ready at all times to help the less fortunate, she concluded.

A special feature of the afternoon's program was the musical numbers presented by the Junior high school quartet, The Four Patsy Miller, Phyllis Ann Parker, Joyce Pratt, and Sybil Pierson, accompanied at the piano by Wanda Gordon. They sang "Now the Day is Over" and "Fairest Lord Jesus."

Mrs. Cecil Myatt, program chairman, spoke on "The Youth of Today and Tomorrow."

"To children in wartime the home is vital as a center of security and hope and love. We have faith in the children of the new world—faith that if our generation does its part now, they will renew the living principles in our common life and make the most of them."

"Children have a right to play. More than ever in wartime, recreation must be assured for children and youth through full use and expansion of all public and private leisure time activities."

Following the discussion by Mrs. Myatt, Mrs. Y. E. Turnbo spoke on "Backyard Playgrounds during Wartime."

"Our children are the hope of the future. Whether in peace or war, the work of the Parent-Teacher Association is summed up in two words, protecting children. Consequently, the Parent-Teacher organization can aid in this by the formation of block mothers corps and day nurseries to care for children whose parents work in defense industries. In this way children would be assured of a place in which to play, and protection while at play; therefore, relieving the parents of this worry and assisting them to do better work. To meet these demands for safety, the establishment of backyard playgrounds should be stimulated in every neighborhood."

The program opened with group singing of patriotic songs led by Miss Elizabeth Swell, accompanied by Miss Marion Reichling at the piano.

During the business session, in which Mrs. W. A. Spoonemore presided, Mrs. Buri Graham announced that Horace Mann P. T. A. is to be hostess to the Tri-County Council

Rev. Henshaw Speaks At Woodrow Wilson P-TA Monthly Meeting

Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher Association met in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon with the Rev. E. W. Henshaw, pastor of St. Matthews Episcopal church, as guest speaker. His subject was "United We Stand."

Rev. Henshaw stated that for a people to be united they must believe two ways—intellectually and emotionally. We are not united so long as we have differences in capital and labor. It is time we study to think for divided we fall. Rev. Henshaw stressed that we must have love, trust, and understanding to be united.

Miss Helen Martin led the group in singing, accompanied by Mrs. R. E. Gatlin at the piano after which Mrs. Roy Holt gave an inspiring talk on "Founders Day." Steve Matthews, city manager, spoke on fire prevention, Mrs. Dan Wilcox, association chairman, was in charge of the program.

During the business session in which Mrs. Tom Duval, president, presided, Mrs. Lewis Tarpley introduced the room representatives and stated they were 100 per cent in attendance. The room representatives are as follows:

Mrs. Luke Pripa, Mrs. Carlton Nance, and Mrs. G. E. Cox, first grade; Mrs. W. B. Franklin, Mrs. Gerald Mote, and Mrs. F. M. Drake, second grade; Mrs. F. W. Broyles and Mrs. Alice Cockerell, third grade; Mrs. Hugh Beall and Mrs. J. M. Cole, fourth grade; Mrs. A. E. Marlow and Mrs. E. L. Gallamore, fifth grade.

Mrs. W. B. Weathered announced a home nursing course to be sponsored by the Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher Association under the direction of the Red Cross with Mrs. R. E. McKernan as teacher. The course will begin Tuesday at 9 a. m. in the school auditorium. Principal H. A. Yoder announced that on Oct. 30, Food, Fun, and Frolic Night features would be "Good cats and entertainment."

Mrs. J. C. McWilliams was named as delegate to Tri-County Council. Miss Hart's room won the attendance contest.

At 8:15 the executive committee met in Principal Yoder's office. Attending were Mrs. Tom Duval, Mrs. W. B. Westner, Mrs. Dan Williams, Mrs. W. A. Rankin, Mrs. Ernest Eads, Mrs. Emmett Forrester, Mrs. Homer Doggett, Mrs. Alice Cockerell, Mrs. F. W. Broyles, Mrs. Tom Darby, and Mrs. E. Edwards.

Smith chose a black frock with white trim for both were of Better Times roses.

After wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Receiving the guests were the bride and bridegroom, their mothers, and the bride's sisters.

The bride was attended with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums in a crystal bowl backed by tall white candles. Mrs. Bob Patterson, sister of the bride, presided at the three-tiered wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Miss Dorothy Burton of Moberly poured punch. Assisting were Miss Jeanette Cole, Miss Betty Shryock, and Mrs. J. T. Hicks of McLean, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Margaret Price, sister of the bride, had charge of the registry.

For the wedding trip to Dallas, the bride wore a green wool suit with gold braid and buttons; a brown hat with gold trim, and brown accessories. On their return they will be at home at 3213 Twentieth street in Lubbock.

At the breakfast supper which was served in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Patterson following the rehearsal Friday night, an arrangement of white mums and dahlias formed the centerpiece for the table which was lighted with white candles. Gifts were presented to the attendants by the betrothed couple.

Mrs. Patterson was graduated from Pampa High school where she was a member of the pep squad and was chosen the most popular girl in her class. She received a B. S. degree in vocational home economics at Texas Tech college in Lubbock. While attending Texas Tech, she was beauty queen for four years, a member of the D. F. D. social club, president of the Inter-Club Council, and she was recognized last spring in the Women's Recognition service at the college. Also she was elected LaRemuda queen during her sophomore year at the college, and she was queen of the Top O' Texas fiesta, having the role of Beatrix in Coronado.

Following his graduation from McLean High school, where he was chosen the best all-around boy, Mr. Smith attended Kemper Military academy at Booneville, Missouri. For the past two years he has been a student at Texas Tech college where he is a senior now. He is president of the Silver Key fraternity and the Men's Inter-Club council; also he is a member of the Student Council, publications committee, and Saddle Tramps.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Alma Turman, Mr. and Mrs. Ruel Smith and daughter, Glenda Joyce; Mrs. Y. B. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Coffey, Mrs. J. P. Hicks and son, Jimmy, all of McLean; Norman Trimble of Canyon, and Garnette Heggen of Lubbock.

this month. The night of October 30 was announced as the date for the annual Feast, Fun, and Frolic. Room mothers were introduced by Mrs. W. B. Runyon, room representative chairman. The birthday of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers was celebrated. Mrs. C. W. Hayes, in conducting the services, recalled that the late Ella Caruthers Porter founded the Texas Congress on October 19, 1907.

Mrs. George Clark's room won the award for having the most parents present.

MRS. LEWIS TARPLEY, above, membership chairman of Woodrow Wilson Parent-Teacher Association, introduced her room representatives at the regular meeting of the unit last week.

THE JUNIOR HIGH REAPER

VOL. VI

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11, 1942

NO. 4

Pampa school buses have changed routes since the beginning of the year cutting out unnecessary driving and conserving gasoline and rubber. Due to the shortage of man-power two Junior High teachers are now driving buses before they begin and after closing a day in the classroom. Until Mr. Dan Price left for Defense work lately, he also drove one of the school buses.

Mr. Joe Shelton, superintendent of buses, states that there will be no trips this year for bands, football, conferences, or other usual com-

Lefors Pirates Make One Touchdown As Scrimmage Draws School Crowd

Fans of both students and adults accompanied the Reaper eleven to Lefors Monday for the scrimmage with the second string Pirates which was close enough to be a good game, 6 to 0 favoring the Pirates.

The Reapers took to the air when the Pirates threatened in the second half, but let a touchdown slip. Hatcher who played the whole game sparkled on offense with the line blocking well for the weight which they attempted to match.

This was the first afternoon the new coach had seen his Pampa Junior High team in action. Mr. Haskell Folsom arrived over the weekend from his position in Stillmer, Okla., to begin coaching and physical education in Junior High.

The Reapers plan revenge when the Pirates meet for a second game Monday.

Students Prove Efficient Workers In Library

Under the direction of Miss Ila Pool, library director, students have complete charge of the library this year. It runs smoothly and efficiently with lessons given at third hour.

For the first time in several years, each home-room has elected someone to represent it in a library development. Thirty-five members constitute this organization. They meet at the regular development period to learn the intricacies of library science.

The club is divided into 15 different committees which change duties weekly: from collecting fines and arranging exhibit cases and bulletin boards to keeping the library scrapbook and issuing books.

Besides this service group, Miss Pool has students helping her at each of the six other periods: Joyce Cloud, Norma Jean Russell, Wilma Jean Potts, Don Morrison, Wadean Thomas, Paul Grossman, Hilda Ruth Burden, Elsie Ruth Graham, Tom Rowell, David Shelton, Ronald Lerdner, Lucille Smith, Bobby Marsden, Jack Hood, Marjorie Wilson, Kathryn Rose, James Harrah, Mildred Smith, Burke Morley, Joe Aubry, Bobby Farkinson, Jack Gardner, Ross Randall, and Oma Lee Wooten.

Plans show that the next exhibit will be for the science next Monday. The material in this case will consist of science books from the library. A poster and illustration will accompany each book. Topics to be revealed will include zoology, astronomy, chemistry, and biology. These books along with the student efforts for non-fiction reading. Members of this committee are Jimmie Simmons, Jimmie Cline, and Kathryn Rose.

Miss Pool has several books and magazines from which the students find ideas for these exhibits and bulletin boards about the building. Students receive their grades from the excellence they execute these projects.

Boys Club Meets For First Time In Gymnasium

For the first time in the new term the masculine members of the school met at the gym for an assembly of their own Wednesday.

The "Boys Club," as the meet has been called in past years, met to organize with over 60 boys and a half dozen teachers in attendance.

Mr. Winston Savage, school principal, spoke to the boys on affairs of personal value and asked for the correction of several practices.

A president was the next step. Choosing among the nominees was difficult. Choice by applause eliminated all but two candidates, Billy Clay and Donald Rowe. The judges, some of the teachers, could not decide who had the greatest applause. The boys were then asked to sit in the north side if they voted for Donald and the south if for Billy. Again no decision was met, so the boys were made co-presidents to preside over the future meetings of this organization. Jack Dunham was elected vice president of the organization.

Members of the Coaches club demonstrated calisthenics which will be in the daily ten-minute exercise period which began Friday of this week.

Girls Nominate Candidates In Own Club

A special assembly for the girls in Junior High was called Wednesday at third hour in the auditorium with Mrs. Dan Busch, counselor, acting as chairman for the program and the selection of candidates which followed.

Appearing on the program were four ninth grade girls: Elizabeth Ann Sturgeon who sang two popular numbers, "Be Careful, It's My Heart" and "This Is Worth Fighting For." Phyllis Ann Parker read "Clean" and "The Day," two prose selections appropriate for the occasion. Wanda Gordon contributed two accordion selections. Lucille Smith gave "If for Girls."

A stormy time of nominations followed when more than four dozen girls were suggested for more than half dozen offices. The secretary kept a record of the names, and the chairman introduced each girl to the audience when each office was closed for the next to be opened. The pianist played numbers to show their ability. Each of the song leaders led the group in a song.

Early next week, possibly Monday, according to Mrs. Busch, will be the time for voting on the officers. At homeroom hour on Thursday girls visited rooms and spoke for their candidates.

Student Council Completes Officers Plans Scrap Drive

Junior Council met early in the week for further election of officers with Dee Griffin in the president's chair for the first time. Charles Hatcher, a nominee for president, became the vice president. Elva Jean Anderson is the council secretary. Parliamentarian is Jackie Rains. Reporter is Pat King, already a member of the Reaper staff from the ninth grade.

Plans were made for the furtherance of the Scrap Metal drive launched by weight and by rooms in competition with each other. The principal, Mr. Winston Savage is backing and helping promote this collection. He promised a half holiday to the room which brings 100 per cent scrap metal in weight by individuals. If no more than three rooms rank 100 per cent, each will be furnished by the school for the half-holiday. If more than three rooms merit this holiday, no extra will be furnished, but the half-holiday will be granted.

On the following morning a bedstead and a five-inch pipe had been delivered to the Junior High grounds.

EDITORIAL ECHOES

MATCHING NO MORE

Do you match pennies? Did you say you match nickels instead?

Out of 50 students interviewed, 32 have matched and would still match. The rest have decided it is not the thing to do. The school and council are definitely against the practice. They have asked the student body to accept the rule cheerfully and wholeheartedly.

Why match, anyway? Where does it get you? Some win a dollar or more, but somebody lost it. You are probably the one who has lost.

Why not quit it? Think of the malts you could buy or shows you could attend—or the supplies you could buy. Let us be instrumental in reducing this two-thirds count to nothing. 32 out of 50 is too high.

Matching leads to bad practices. We do not expect students to be perfect angels, but it is going too far when students do things in school that are counted bad enough on the street to take to the police station. That very thing happened lately. Let's stop it.

USING YOUR BRAIN

Why act like a moron and make others dislike you when you disobey the rules?

Junior High Patrol is your safeguard in the halls or on the grounds. This safety club has formulated rules hoping to make life run smoother for all students. If you disobey these rules, you are "crying for" punishment.

Many act as if they do not know the rules. If you are a new student or a moron, perhaps you needed to review these rules that anybody should know:

1. Walk in a dignified way at all times.
2. Walk; walk slowly; keep on walking. This prevents blocking of traffic.
3. Keep your voice low at all times. It is a good habit to form whether at school, at home, on the street, in the cafeteria, on the bus, or in the auditorium of some building.
4. Whistling is for out of doors.
5. Cross streets as traffic light indicate. Do not go before the lights change, or walk a light after it has changed for the other stream of traffic to move.
6. Never jay walk.
7. Remain on the sidewalk outside the building until the bell rings to enter. Do not crowd up to the door.
8. Never ride a bicycle on the school ground.

Dorothy Jean McFarlin

GOOD EATING AND VISITING

Had you heard of the new steam table in the school cafeteria?

This means two rows pass by at once for food. Having to wait has been the main objection of students who do not eat there. Now there is no waiting.

It is the wish of the school that all students who must buy their lunches eat at the school cafeteria. The food is served at cost, and the luncheon cannot be any better anywhere in town. This will especially please students who do not care to get out in the weather when cold days arrive. If you have not tried the school cafeteria lately, come in and meet your friends there.

Love And Hisses

Slam books are popular at present. Nearly everyone in Junior High has one or has written his name and perhaps a sentimental bit of comment on someone else. Some are not so complimentary.

Pat King attended the Harvester game last Friday night when Childress trailed 20 to 0. Both Pat and his friend (as well as everybody else) went home dripping.

Betty Lou Schulkey attended the show Saturday afternoon of last week with Curg Clander, Pauline Saunders and Laven Greer naved called it quits. Doris Barrett and Howard Kelley noticed each other in first period English class lately.

Shorty Thomas and Patsy Boone are in and out of her hourly schedule is. . . . Doris Taylor and Billy McArthur. . . . Curg Clander, Elizabeth Sturgeon, Betty Schulkey, Billy Clay, and Joyce Pratt were ganged up at noon Thursday talking and walking about. . . . Erna Lee Kennedy and Eugene Lively took a look at the carnival Wednesday night.

Dorothy Rook Likes Amarillo

In a letter from Dorothy Rook to the Reaper sponsor, she stated that she is in school in Amarillo and likes it very well. She thinks that Pampa and the football rival city have misjudged each other.

Dorothy has worked several years with the school paper in Pampa Junior High and was slated to be one of the editors this year. She attended several journalism conferences last year representing the school sheet.

Although new to Amarillo, she has been voted into the Tri-Hi-Y club and elected a Pep Leader as well as being vice president of F. H. I.

Dorothy subscribes to the Pampa News and reads the Reaper page regularly, she says. She helps write the school paper which is written in the English classes.

She also expresses her desire to see all her old classmates and would like to visit the journalism class in Pampa.

New Rule Exacts Home Permits Before Absent

Excuses for expected absences must be brought in advance this year, states the office bulletin at Junior High.

The routine has been changed for the year. No emergency visits may be made which are not known far enough ahead of time to give the student opportunity to bring a note from home.

"For instance," said the principal, "if the student expects to attend a funeral in which he is mildly interested, he must bring a note from home that morning to insure his leave of absence from school for that hour."

It is hoped that this routine will discourage such absences.

Barefoot Students Answer Alarm

Room 206 has learned not to weigh during a day when fire drills are probably.

Students were on the scales or waiting without shoes in order to get the correct weight when the bell rang Wednesday. Ernest Eads grabbed a pair of cowboy boots; Kathryn Crowley lost a shoe in the fire escape; and several other minor accidents occurred when these seventh grade students tried to dress on the run or ignore the custom of using footwear.

Yes, Room 206 learned the hard way.

Novel Six Foot Letter From Mrs. Stroup Tells Of Experiences And High Points In California

Mrs. John L. Rankin received a novel letter from her next door neighbor, Mrs. E. O. Stroup, who is in California visiting her husband, now in the Navy. The letter was more than six feet long and about three inches wide rolled into a box with the word "uncensored" printed on it.

Excerpts from the letter follow:

"Promised myself I would write you a nice long letter. So here it is. I'll have to talk about California as everyone out here does. It must be the weather. The sun shines most all the time, but when it does rain, or there is a wind, or it is hot, or cold—it is always 'unusual.' Anything two drops better than 'high fog' they call a storm, and if it snowed—mind you, I say 'if'—the Chamber of Commerce would probably hide its embarrassment and label it a 'fluffy rain.' California is about the only place I know of where one can get sunstroke in the daytime and chills in the same night.

"There is a delightful air of informality in the way people dress (or shall we say 'undress') for the street. You can see anything and almost everything until one gets tired of lifting an eyebrow. Slacks with a light-fitting southern exposure are not uncommon, and there are some shorts that couldn't be much shorter without being a neckpiece.

"While I can't send you a sample bathing beauty, at least here is a sample of the sand she was standing on—and some pebbles were scattered here. Had to move her to get that! I'll use a drop or two of the ocean to moisten the stamp.

"With over 250 miles of fine roads, one can go great distances in a short time. You can leave the coast, go to Reno, lose a husband or wife, get a new one, go in for snow sports in the mountains or sun bathe in the desert and be back in time for dinner. Or he can have early ham and eggs in San Francisco and eat red-hot enchiladas in Mexico that same night.

"The studios are located 'all over town, in fact, several towns, and are particularly hard to get into. You really have to be a visiting potentate, G-man or burglar to even get by the front gate.

"Catalina Island, which no doubt you've heard about, is interesting. It lies just off the coast, about two hours' voyage by steamer. By plane you can get there so fast your shadow doesn't catch up with you until five minutes after the landing.

"If one wants to see movie stars one can be fairly certain of doing so at anyone of many popular night clubs. They usually drip furs and jewelry and wear the latest in evening gowns. Of course at the races, a great pastime out here, one sees the 'last word' in styles."

Signed
"Yvonne"
P. S. "See you Monday."

The letter was illustrated with appropriate drawings: horses, studios, palm trees on Catalina, studio entrances, and cameramen.

Punctual In School

Tom Keyser, former Junior High student, visited in the halls one day at noon this last week reminding the teachers how punctual he had been during his school years in Pampa. He had missed only seven days of school and was tardy only three times during his school career. During his seventh, eighth, and ninth grades he was eligible for attendance certificates.

Tom enjoys his shop work and has salvaged 75 pounds of nails from scrap lumber and boxes which he collects.

Coaches From All Homerooms Choose Team To Enter Intramurals Throughout Year

Student coaches choose and coach their homeroom teams in the intramurals which began in September and will close in May. The first game to be played by all rooms in competition with other rooms in the same grade has been completed in the ninth grade division. Seventh grades are playing off their tournament at present in both kickball and touch football for boys. Coaches for the 31 rooms follow: ninth (girls) Peggy Kelly and Orma Jean McCarty, 215; Elsie Graham, 211; Mickey Swearingen and Gretchen Berry, 113; Duane Vieux and Wanda Cobb, 218; Patsy Boone and Peggy Echard, 112; Leatrice Winton and Lenis Boren, 112; Wanda Williams and Janie Simmons, 214. A new member in Room 209 is Owen D. Chaffin.

Seventh grade kickball is in full swing. In the preliminary games were 203 with June Myatt and Edelyne Pryor the battery and 221 with Ida Ruth Taylor and Donna Jean Hollis leading the way. Losers were girls from Room 206 and Room 207.

An ideal Seventh grade girl might look like this:

Sue Sumrall's hair
Billy Jean Hollis's eyes
Charlene Olney's complexion
Betty Douglas's figure
Arlene Gilmore's personality
Ruthie Frank's grades
Anna Lois Beezley's popularity
June Myatt's smile

Students emptied the school Wednesday morning in 55 seconds.

Billy Jean Hollis was chosen student of the week in Room 207 last week. At homeroom hour these students participated in a play, "Troubles of the Army," Aurena White, Freeman Allen, Frank Green, Glen Cary, and Billy Jean Hollis.

Coach Haskell Folsom asked the boys to stay out of the equipment room.

He said they did not know where to look for anything. He further added, "It is like grabbing the bull by the horns, but you can't find the bull."

Will 211 Win? Read The Facts

Boys in Room 211 planned their intramurals to stick up well when they choose to show together and ganged into Mr. Flaudie Gallman's room on the opening day of school.

First place in touch football has already been won when this team defeated Room 215 in the ninth grade finals two weeks ago.

Many of these same boys were in Room 113 last year, with homeroom teacher, Coach C. P. McWhright, and won the baseball intramurals.

Room 211 has on its roll the boy who won ping pong singles last year in the eighth grade (then in Room 118) as well as the boys who were ping pong doubles winners (from 113 in 1941).

The room is composed of students with average and high grades which promises a good beginning for doing well in literary intramurals.

According to a member of Room 211, (with teacher Mr. Flaudie Gallman), this room is headed for the winning plaque. Other ninth grade rooms may well put out double efforts.

State Inspector Says 'Remarkable'

Mrs. Olga Junigar, representative of the state fire commission, visited in Junior High Wednesday, witnessed the clearance of the more than 1200 students in record time, and remarked to the principal, "Remarkable."

Besides the Quiz program which used the best informed student on fire facts from each of the 31 rooms, members of the eighth grade will also write themes this year to submit to the State Fire Insurance Commission.

Rooms with winning students will be 20 points ahead toward winning the intramural plaque in the spring. Second place rated 15 points and third place 10 points.

Because Pampa schools teach fire prevention and study educational material on this subject, insurance rates are reduced three percent.

Seventh grade coaches met in the office of Miss Nadine Wilson Tuesday to draw for the final playing days in the Seventh grade kickball tournament which has been in progress a week. The schedule follows: Wednesday—Room 206 and Room 203. Thursday—Room 207 and Room 221. Friday—Room 202 and Room 208. Monday—Room 204 and Room 209.

In the recent Lefors scrimmage in Lefors, Charles Beard fortrough his shoulder pads and Troy Hopkins in the excitement overlooked his shoes. Jack Roberts let Charles use his shoulder pads, and Wilburn Morris sat through the game barefooted while Troy used his shoes.

Seven teams have been formed from the 100 Pee Wees who came out when the principal invited boys in the lower grades to report more than a week ago. Later, two teams will be chosen from these. Coach Savage says, "All boys, including me, like football. If you follow the rules we'll go through with this." From this group of boys will come future Reaper material.

Fashion Flashes

Imitation flowers and velvet bow in the hair makes a drab day a brighter one.

Victory haircuts do not long remain that short. So something has to be done. Some cuts bangs and wear three bows—one on each side and one in the middle. Yes, bangs are going over with a "bang." Some are fluffy and others smooth and curled.

Sloppy Joes! Good old sloppies—maybe a bit more form fitting this year, but definitely here.

Jerkins with neat light blouse and gathered, pleated, or panel skirt. Some skirts with the patchwork effect; others cut circular. Skirts with the very wide tight-fitting belts give a nice figure a change.

Nothing is more usable than a suit, plaid or solid. They give a neat fall appearance.

Blackouts Set For Gulf Coast

DALLAS, Oct. 10 (AP)—A night blackout of all electric signs, oil smudge flares and flood lights within 150 miles of the Gulf of Mexico will be ordered soon, Maj. Gen. Richard Donovan, commander of the eighth service command, told Texas oilmen today.
"We must eliminate every light in the coastal area which would serve as a beacon for enemy planes," General Donovan told the 23rd annual convention of the Texas mid-continent oil & gas association.
He urged the full cooperation of the oil industry in enforcing the blackout.
"This restriction may work hardships, but it is necessary," he explained. "One bombing attack on the Houston area, for instance, would cause more damage to war industries, business and civilians than any restrictive regulation the government might impose."
General Donovan also asked oilmen to continue their vigilance against sabotage of oil fields and refineries which provide fuel for planes, ships and tanks.
He stressed the importance of a constant and certain oil supply for the nation's army forces, saying that 120,000 gallons of gasoline and 3,000 quarts of oil were needed daily to service forces during a maneuver such as that staged recently in Louisiana.
General Donovan also told the oilmen of his command's function, which is described as keeping house for the army posts in this area.

Production Chief Urges Exploratory Activity Continue

DALLAS, Oct. 10 (AP)—D. E. Buchanan of Houston, director of production for district three, O.P.C., told southwestern oil men that "it is most urgent exploratory operations continue at an ever increasing rate."
Buchanan told the 23rd convention of the Texas mid-continent Oil & Gas association that this was vital to sustain the industry's supply position.
Total well development rate this year, he said, was 43 per cent under that of 1941.
The Office of Petroleum Coordinator official also said that "the certainty of gasoline rationing has prompted much concern as to its probable effect on the economic structure of the industry."
"In O.P.C. district three, comprising the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico and Texas, only 41 per cent of the motor gasoline manufactured here, while the balance is shipped to outside areas," he said.
Thus this district is directly affected by conditions in areas using the other 59 per cent of the fuel, he added.
Another speaker was Maj. Gen. Richard Donovan, commander of the eighth service command, who described the command's function as that of keeping house for the army posts, corps and stations in the area.
The association presented its distinguished service awards to two men. They were John G. Pew, Dallas, official of the Sun Oil company; and H. R. Cullen, Houston independent who has played a prominent part in development of the Gulf coast and southwest Texas oil fields. The meeting continues through the day.

Victory Concert To Be Held Next Thursday Night At High School

Music and Victory stamps will be allied in the first of a series of Victory concerts to be presented by the music department of Pampa High school at 8 o'clock Thursday night with F. S. Brown, in charge. The program will be the presentation of the colors and the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner," by the Harvesters band. Next the band will play three marches, Romberg's "Desert Song," after which the audience will sing "Anchors Aweigh," "Caisson Song," "Marine Corp Hymn," and the official song of the army air corps, "Desert Song," "Johnny Doughboy," "I Sing Now to Thee," (Godard), and "Oh, Pray for Peace" (Brabe-Hovorth) will be sung by the girls glee club.
Remainder of the program: Girls quartet, Anna Lois Alford, Anna Burnett, Joan Hawkins, Betty Jo Holt, "Out of the Dusk to You."
A cappella choir, "Ride the Chariot," "Old Ark's A-Moverin'." "All in the April Evening," "Oh, Susanna." "When Johnny Comes Marching Home," "Dear Old Pampa High School," and the concluding number will be "America" by the audience.

U. S. Warned Against Trying To Collect For Lease-Lend Help

BOSTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Harry Hawkins, chief of the division of commercial policy and trade agreements of the state department, said today that if the United States insisted upon payment in cash or kind for lend-lease goods that the war might "turn our best customer and cripple ourselves."
"Even if such a debt could be paid," he added, "the economy of the United Kingdom probably would collapse under the strain and our own economy would be injured. If every available dollar over and above the amount required for imports would be needed to keep the British

Lottery Proposed To Help Pay Off Nation's War Costs

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Based on the contention that a nation that uses a lottery to draft its men for war shouldn't object to the same method for helping to finance the struggle, a drive for a national lottery law is under way on Capitol Hill.
Representatives Knutson (R-Minn.) and Sabath (D-Ill.), authors of legislation to raise money through government-sponsored lotteries, said the apparent need for more revenue people from starving and to obtain other essential products were devoted to making payments on such a vast scale, the standards of living of the British people would sink to very low levels and our producers would find one of their best markets drastically curtailed. All of our other markets which obtain purchasing power through large sales to Britain would be seriously impaired.

Check your Lighting for the Duration

War priorities has made it necessary to cut down the manufacturing of electric lamps. The metals thus saved are going into the war effort to beat the Axis. However, surveys have revealed that every home should have several more lamps for proper lighting than they now have. There are still lamps to be found at any number of electric dealers, but since we can't buy new lamps we should all try to make our present ones last as long as we can.

HOW TO MAKE YOUR ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES LAST LONGER

An inspection of your electric appliances NOW may enable you to get many more days service from them. Frayed appliance cords, loose bolts and hinges, bad plugs and other minor defective conditions ARE USUALLY THE FORERUNNERS of a major repair job or the complete failure of your appliances. If you think your appliances aren't operating properly, take it to your repair man. The cost of repairs will probably be small and yet you are assured of the use of that particular electrical appliance.

Lottery Proposed To Help Pay Off Nation's War Costs

WASHINGTON, Oct. 10 (AP)—Based on the contention that a nation that uses a lottery to draft its men for war shouldn't object to the same method for helping to finance the struggle, a drive for a national lottery law is under way on Capitol Hill.
Representatives Knutson (R-Minn.) and Sabath (D-Ill.), authors of legislation to raise money through government-sponsored lotteries, said the apparent need for more revenue people from starving and to obtain other essential products were devoted to making payments on such a vast scale, the standards of living of the British people would sink to very low levels and our producers would find one of their best markets drastically curtailed. All of our other markets which obtain purchasing power through large sales to Britain would be seriously impaired.

There would be more than 100,000 monthly winners under the Knutson system, the prizes being distributed as follows for each $100,000 of gross receipts: First prize, $100,000; four $50,000 prizes, eight $25,000 awards, fifty $10,000 prizes, one hundred $5,000 prizes, 1,000 awards of $1,000 each; 10,00

CHAPTER I

Obedient at last, Miss Blythe Miller nestled down in the big bus seat and took some of her top's overcoat to cover her own shapely limbs.

"Now see that you stay put," Pop ordered. "The lads have worked and they've got to rest, for at dawn again they'll be up flying."

"You go to sleep," she bossed him in turn. "Are you warm enough?"

"Mmm."

He was tired and depressed as his "lads" and Blythe knew it. Gently she pushed most of the overcoat back over him. Since age 2—that would be 16 years ago—the bright-eyed miss had understood this kindly man. So, too, did the cadets understand him, and love him; he shared their wags with hearty exuberance, and showed no false heartiness when they lost. He was a good coach; indeed, a great coach.

Blythe closed her eyes, feigning sleep while the bus tires sizzled on the wet asphalt and rain slashed the window at her side. Passing car lights turned droplets into momentary gems when Blythe peeked. She wasn't really sleepy herself. She seemed never to be. She watched the sleek mix with the rain and coming sticking against the glass in intermittent dashes of colder cold, so that unconsciously she snuggled Pop a bit. The bus heater wasn't any too strong for this night in late autumn.

Presently, Pop snored. Blythe turned her head and pecked experimentally between the seats.

Her pulse quickened just a little. Scrooched down in the front seat this way, she could see diagonally and back to the place where Duane Hogan was riding. Big Duane. Fatigue seemed never to touch him, either. He sat almost erect, rocking slightly with the rhythm of the bus, while most of the boys sprawled or slumped grotesquely, courting sleep.

She could see all of his fine head. It was like a Greek god's, she thought; like that statue of one in the main library back at school. He was not smiling. His mind seemed far away; perhaps he was on the rolling hills of his homeland, his horse knee deep in lush bluebonnets that froze the sky color in a sea of flowers stretching untold miles. It was this dreamy quality which added gentleness and a strange beauty to Big Duane.

When he sensed her gaze on him he turned toward her, and characteristically Blythe Miller winked. Big Duane did smile, then, very slowly.

"Slowly and benevolently, darn it!" Blythe told herself.

FOR two years now the big blind ox had treated her like a child. Courteous? Kind? Oh, Lord, yes, Blythe gritted out silently, thinking it all over again. It's awful, loving a man who adopts the role of great silent Uncle Duane. Uncle Blythe knew it wasn't an act, though; Duane Hogan was really quiet. But deep. He seemed to typify those men of the west one reads about in fact or fiction, and he did indeed come from a west Texas ranch. Maybe, Blythe sighed, he was far-and-away too good for her, too grand. It was a thing to moon about.

Her wink had not been flirtatious, and both of them knew it; Blythe Miller would have slapped any man who accused her of flirting! But it was an invitation to be sociable, even so. Duane Hogan wrinkled his nose impishly at her. Blythe edged away from her father so as to kneel on her seat.

Suddenly the bus struck something, and Blythe was thrown against Norman. She smelled gasoline burning, heard a woman scream.

Then—
"We make powwow," she signaled, using Indian signs Duane himself had taught her. She pointed to the rear.

Not Duane, but another young man stood up. He had been alert and two seats to her rear. In a moment he leaned across the sleeping Pop Miller and whispered.
"You're lonesome, Bly, and so am I. Let's go way back and have a cigaret."

She didn't want a cigaret—Pop forbade smoking now anyway—and she didn't want to talk to Norman Dana. But, too, she didn't want to seem rude.

They stepped over khaki legs and duffel to get back there. Piqued at Duane for slowness, she studiously ignored him as she passed, then she sat with Norman on the rear-most seat that curved clear across the bus. No one else was here.
"You shouldn't smoke in training," Blythe murmured, looking not at him but out at the stormy darkness.
"Have to let down after a licking," said he. "Anyway—the hell with it. We're not in school now." "But you're in flying school!" a cadet! That's even more important, Norman."

"I can already fly. I could do that when I came here. It's the licking—15 to 0 stings, Bly. We never took much of that at State U. We played top football. To let a bunch of rookies push us around like they did this afternoon—"

HE broke off in disgust. His mother said much. His high, clean forehead, his sensitive lips, the whole Barrymore profile and hauteur of him were tinged now with cockiness and conceit. He was not, in truth, a man to "take" a licking. Blythe knew that having to swallow one did things to his pride. But he didn't nurse the mood long; instead, he turned to her direct and smiled in Norman Dana's own devastating way.
"I wanted to talk about you; you, Bly," he murmured. "You

Bids Asked For Air Base Postal Branch

Bids for the operation of a contract branch of the Pampa post-office at the Pampa air base 12 miles east of Pampa have been asked by the federal government.

Duties of the clerk in charge will be handling finances, registered mails, window work. Mail will come to the branch distributed and orderlies will do most of the sorting.

A minimum of clerical assistance will be required and will be provided during army pay periods and at Christmas.

At all other times the clerk in charge will be required to furnish all clerical assistance necessary to operate the unit.

The clerk in charge will also be required to deliver C. O. D., restricted registered, and restricted insured mail.

Date of the bid for the operation is for the period ending June 30, 1943.

More Comfort Kits Must Be Filled To Complete Quota

Mrs. Raymond Harrah reports that 112 comfort kits are yet to be taken for filling. This will complete the 400 which the Pampa Red Cross Chapter has been requested to fill for men in the armed forces.

It is hoped that the organizations which meet during the coming week will send in cards of acceptance for this amount in order that the quota will be completed.

The Garden club still heads the club groups in the number of kits taken which was 80; The Kit Kat club leads the younger club groups with 24; Women's Council of the First Christian church leads the church groups with 48 to fill, and the Pythian Sisters lead the lodge groups with 16 to fill.

Installation Of Officers Follows Lunch At Church

At the weekly meeting of Women's Missionary society of First Baptist church, Mrs. F. E. Leech installed new officers with an impressive ceremony using a large white cross and giving smaller ones to the officers as they accepted the office.

New officers installed were Mrs. E. L. Anderson, president; Mrs. Garnet Reeves, vice-president; Mrs. A. L. Prigmore, treasurer; Mrs. M. P. Downs, mission; Mrs. F. E. Leech, Bible study; Mrs. J. A. Meek, stewardship; Mrs. E. Douglas Carver, education; Mrs. Rufe Jordan, benevolence; Mrs. C. L. McKinney, personal service; Mrs. L. M. Salmon, social; Mrs. Bob Allford, young people; and Mrs. Gladys Davis, R. A. Leader.

At 1 o'clock all of the circles met in the church dining room where a luncheon of chicken was served with Mrs. L. M. Salmon and circle seven in charge. The five tables were attractive with centerpieces of garden flowers.

Mrs. R. W. Tucker gave the invocation and Mrs. Don Egerton led the singing following the meal with Mrs. E. Douglas Carver at the piano. Mrs. Carver gave the devotional reading and used the theme for the year as her subject, "Bearing His Cross." She urged each member to work more diligently and take her cross more seriously.

Mrs. Garnet Reeves presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Anderson.

The executive board met at 12:30 o'clock for a monthly session in which reports were made by all of the committee chairman. It was decided that the circles will meet in the homes at 3 o'clock each Wednesday and that all of the circles will meet at the church on the first Wednesday of the month when a monthly luncheon will be served. The circle will not serve refreshments at any of the meetings.

Meeting places for next Wednesday afternoon are: Circle two, Mrs. H. M. Stokes, 637 South Hobart; three, Mrs. T. J. Watt, 415 North Davis; four, Mrs. P. O. Gaut, 514 North Faulkner; five, Mrs. Garnet Reeves, 818 North West; six, Mrs. Gladys K. Davis, 415 North Wynne; seven, Mrs. Bob Allford, 1102 East Francis; and eight, Mrs. T. J. Worrell, 1309 Christine.

Victory Drive Discussed At Girl Scout Council

Girl Scout council met Friday in the Girl Scout Office in the city hall, when Mrs. Mel Davis, commissioner, presided at the meeting which was attended by 10 members.

Mrs. D. A. Caldwell was named chairman of the Senior Scout committee after which Mrs. Bruce Pratt explained the Victory Fund drive which is being conducted among the Scout troops. This fund consists of donations of the 10-cent stamps from all registered Scouters which will be sent to National Headquarters and converted into bonds for use in relief of children the world over. This drive will end Thanksgiving Day.

A permanent date has been set for the campaign for funds annually. This date is to be the week which includes October 31, this being the birthday of Juliette Low, founder of the Girl Scouts. This year the drive will start on Oct. 26. Plans are underway for the conducting of this drive for funds.

The council realizes the need for Scouting is imperative this year as never before as the youth of our country needs help and guidance through these times of war and upheaval. The Scout program offers this help to the girls of this community as well as a normal recreational plan.

The chairman of the drive will soon be announced by the local commissioner.

Marriage Of Miss Wright And Robert Foster Revealed

Announcement is being made of the marriage of Miss Cathleen Wright and Robert William Foster which was solemnized on Saturday morning, September 26, at 10 o'clock in the Methodist church of Joliet, Illinois, with the Rev. Albert Bauman officiating at the single ring ceremony.

The bride wore a suit of air force blue with matching accessories. Clifton Schreist served as best man.

Mrs. Foster, who is the daughter of Mrs. Rena Wright Morgan, formerly of Pampa, is a graduate of the high school at Perry, Oklahoma, and was employed in the general office of Montgomery Ward company in Cushing before going to Joliet.

Mr. Foster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foster, Jr., of Perry, Oklahoma, was graduated from Oklahoma A. and M. college last July. He is now employed as a chemist by the Dupont Powder plant in Joliet.

The couple is at home at 109 Richards, apt. E-1, in Joliet.

Attending the wedding were both the bride and bridegroom's mothers and the bride's brother, Larry Edd Wright.

Mrs. Ellis Named PTA Delegate By Sam Houston Unit

When Sam Houston Parent-Teacher Association met Thursday afternoon in the school, Mrs. Henry Ellis, president, was named delegate to the state convention of the Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers to be held at Houston in November.

Highlighting the program, Mrs. Fred Roberts spoke on "Cooperating in the War Effort." She told of ways in which mothers can cooperate, such as buying bonds and stamps, Red Cross work, planning a day nursery, attending church and cooperating with different youth organizations of the church in training the young people, and working through either Boy or Girl Scout organizations. But she particularly stressed the fact that we should be concerned about our homes.

"Mothers must build up morale in the home. It is a challenge and an opportunity to train children to live in these times and be courageous, have faith and give them hope in the future. This is a time to instill patriotism and a love for freedom in our children. Teach them to love their country and to respect the people, and working stands for. We should instill qualities that will make good fighters in the war and good leaders in peace time," Mrs. Roberts added.

W. B. Weathered discussed "Fire Prevention," stressing the fact that fire prevention should mean more this year, inasmuch as materials lost through fire cannot be replaced. He stated that anyone allowing a fire to start carelessly is guilty of sabotage.

During the business session it was decided to equip a cot for the health room at the school. Announcements were made also concerning the Red Cross staff assistance course to start October 14 in the morning and the Red Cross first aid course to be organized at the school next Monday morning at 9 o'clock. Mrs. J. D. Merchant will teach this course. All women interested are urged to take advantage of these courses being offered.

Principal J. A. Meek announced that the school children and teachers already had turned in over 8,000 pounds of scrap metal.

After Mrs. Ellis introduced the room mothers, Mrs. V. L. Hobbs, program chairman, led the group in the Lord's Prayer following which Betty Ann Gullerson played a piano number. Also Mrs. Hobbs gave a brief history of Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers in observance of the state birthday.

Year books were distributed at this meeting.
