NEW YORK—(P)—Fresh evidence that Russia may eventually agree to some form of international inspection to enforce disarmament, including elimination of atomic weapons, was seen today in an assertion by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov that Russian and American arms reduction proposals can be "harmonized."

At the same time he declared that an armaments race has already started, and he urged prompt action by the United Nations to stop it.

Movie Strikes Erupt, Talk on Coal Delayed

By The Associated Press. New violence broke out in the draw-out AFL jurisdictional dispute in the Hollywood movie studios today, forcing the first production shutdown in nearly two months and resumption of mass picketing and wholesale arrests.

The movie strike, an explosion which police said apparently was caused by a hand grenade shattered a window and severely damaged the home of Norman Pottle, a non-striking film technician, in Van Nuys, Hollywood suburb. He told police one was hurt in today's blast.

The misconduct allegedly was thrown from the street against the front of his house.

Yesterday 36 pickets were arrested and charged with parading without a permit when mass picketing was resumed at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios. There was no violence.

In San Francisco, efforts to end the 42-day oil maritime strike in all Pacific Coast ports were resumed at a conference of labor department, union and employer representatives.

After a strike of more than two months, the 525 members of the Los Angeles Herald-Express unit of the CIO American newspaper guild accepted management's offer of a 14 percent wage increase upon return to work.

However, final settlement hinged on the outcome of disputes between management and two other groups. The CIO news vendors and the AFL-led printing trades.

WASHINGTON—(P)—A scheduled conference between Secretary of Interior Krug and John L. Lewis today was postponed for 24 hours without any immediate explanation.

The two were to have met this afternoon at 2:30 to resume their soft coal mining contract negotiations.

Asked whether the postponement was initiated by Lewis or Krug, an interior department aide said there was no comment.

The conference was re-set for 2:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Social Security Funds Declared Depression Brake

WASHINGTON—(P)—Social Security Commissioner Arthur J. Altmeyer declared today this country's nearly $7,000,000,000 fund will serve as an effective brake against any widespread depression.

With that amount of emergency purchasing power available to workers, Altmeyer told a reporter he doubts that any postwar shakedown could mushroom into the proportions of the 1929-33 break.

While emphasizing that he is siding neither with those economists who look for at least a temporary recession next year nor with those who say the country is in for a long period of prosperity, the Social Security chief said he believes "the healthy accumulation of reserves in the fund will."

Tend to help prevent a depression from occurring, because "people know the money is there waiting for workers who lose their jobs"; and 2. Prevent any "really serious depression," because "payments from the fund will tend to bolster purchasing power just when it begins to decline dangerously."

Texas Production Of Oil Increases

TULSA, Okla.—(P)—Crude oil production in the United States averaged 4,865,880 barrels daily during the week ended Nov. 9, a daily increase of 38,130 barrels over the previous week, the Oil & Gas Journal reported today.

Texas output increased 55,700 barrels daily to 2,102,250 barrels, the greatest gain, while Louisiana production was up 4,750 barrels to 406,750.

Other states with increases were the eastern area, up 3,750 barrels to 70,500, and Oklahoma, with an increase of 800 barrels to 263,250.

'Take Middle of the Road, Mr. President' King George Asks Draft Continuation

By Jack Bell. WASHINGTON, Nov. 12—(P)—Republicans stipulated today that President Truman will have to go down the middle of the road in his legislative proposals if he wants their cooperation in the new GOP-controlled congress.

From Senators William F. Knowland (Calif.) and C. Wayland Brooks (Ill.) came assertions that their fellow republicans will not accept what Knowland called "PAC-drafted" law-making program and what Brooks labelled "completely socialistic proposals."

"We need some of the same unity of purpose that has marked the development of our nonpartisan foreign policy in solving the country's grave domestic problems," Knowland told a reporter.

"We don't want the Nation to swing either too far to the left or too far to the right. We want it to keep on an even keel. And we don't want any PAC-drafted legislative program shoved at us as it has been in the past."

Brooks said he wondered whether the President's conciliatory bid yesterday for a political truce on pressing national problems would be any more lasting and effective than Mr. Truman's appeal for the same sort of cooperation when he took office 19 months ago.

"When Mr. Truman first became president," the Illinois senator said, "He asked for cooperation from the congress. Then he proceeded to present and tried to force through completely socialistic proposals. The people have spoken and they have said they don't want that kind of program."

Without dissent, republican leaders pledged their efforts toward continuing present foreign policies unchanged. But Senator Elbert Thomas (D-Utah) said the test of full republican cooperation with the President on this score will come when treaties are placed before the senate.

Small Nations Back Plan on Trusteeship

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(P)—Early establishment of the United Nations trusteeship council apparently was assured today by small nations support of proposals advanced by the United States and Britain in an effort to speed action.

A survey of delegates revealed that the small powers were ready to go along with the United States and Great Britain in opposing a Russian attempt to define at this time what states are "directly concerned" in the draft trusteeship agreements.

This position became apparent immediately after yesterday's hectic battle in the trusteeship committee, at which Russia criticized Britain for not offering a Palestine trusteeship agreement to the United Nations and the United States flatly accused the Soviet of "constantly" preventing formation of a trusteeship council for the old League of Nations mandates.

John Foster Dulles, U. S. delegate in charge of trusteeship, said in a voluntary statement to newsmen after the meeting that Russia "is apparently unwilling to join with the United States and others in a practical procedure designed to make speed by waiving, without prejudice, possible claims to formal parties to the draft agreements to be submitted to the assembly."

Dulles last week asked the U. N. to define at this assembly any attempt to define what states are "directly concerned" in draft agreements, declaring that any attempt to iron out just what the phrase meant would serve to delay setting up the trusteeship council.

But Russia continued to fight that point, and proposed yesterday that a sub-committee be established to deal with the issue.

Representatives of the small nations, as well as some of the big powers, expressed fear that if the interested parties to an agreement were defined now the veto might be extended from the security council to the trusteeship council.

For, they explained, an "interested party" could block a trusteeship agreement by merely saying that he did not approve of it.

Physicians Achieve 'Impossible' Feat

CHICAGO—(P)—A new way of performing the operation to save the lives of "blue babies"—undergoing a surgical feat previously considered impossible—was announced today by three Northwestern University physicians.

Instead of connecting with a less important artery, the surgeons for the first time tapped the body's main artery, the great abdominal aorta, which springs from the heart's left chamber and gives rise to all the arteries of the circulatory system.

Physicians said the operation would benefit all "blue children," who are born with narrowed hearts, but would help the majority to overcome otherwise hopeless invalidism and in some cases prevent death.

Details of the new surgical technique, first performed on a human being, a 21-month-old girl, only two months ago, were announced in the Journal of the American Medical Association by Drs. Willis J. Potts, Sidney Smith and Stanley Gibson of Children's Memorial Hospital at the university's medical school.

They said the operation achieves the same result as one originated by Dr. Alfred Blalock and Dr. Helen B. Taussig, who in 1944 performed the first successful operation on a "blue baby" at Johns Hopkins hospital in Baltimore.

The malformed hearts of "blue babies" cannot pump enough blood to the lungs to pick up the vital oxygen by the body. This deficiency results in blue fingernails, purple lips, bluish complexion and, sometimes, death.

Mother for 25th Time on the Job

LAMESA—(P)—Mrs. Ben Lopez, 43, gave birth to her 25th child Sunday and was up cooking breakfast this morning, Dr. A. H. Smith, her attending physician, said today.

The baby girl was named Sunday Lopez, because, the doctor said, "they were giving out of names."

All 25 children were single births, Dr. Smith said. Twelve are living.

"I couldn't believe it when she told me she was the 25th child," Dr. Smith said. "I went back today to verify it and found the mother cooking breakfast. I told her to take it easy but I know she won't. She said she 'had a job to do' and was busting around."

He said he saw the marriage license made out Sara Ernandes and Bernardino Lopez, her husband.

Fred E. Knetsch To Be Speaker at Banquet Tonight

Fred E. Knetsch, member of the Texas state highway commission, will be the principal speaker at a banquet to be given by the chamber of commerce highway committee tonight at seven o'clock in the Palm Room of the city hall.

Knetsch was invited to speak here by the delegation which attended a meeting of the state highway commission in Austin last week in behalf of the proposed Pampa-Perryton highway.

Attending the banquet will be local business men and women and delegates from Perryton, Miami Spearman.

Crawford Atkinson, chairman of the chamber highway committee, will preside at the meeting and Knetsch will be the guest of honor.

Special music will be played by a sextet from the Pampa senior high sophomore class, directed by Miss LaNelle Scheelhaugen. Dinner music will be given by Miss Dorothy and Ella Marie Myers. Tickets for the banquet will be available this afternoon by calling the chamber of commerce office.

Gov. Coker Studies Death on Roads

AUSTIN—(P)—Texas officials compared its traffic safety program today with that of other states in an effort to slow the rising rate of death and injury on the highways.

Gov. Coker R. Stevenson and other officials charged with traffic safety measures met with safety association experts to see what can be done about the situation in Texas.

The program in traffic law enforcement, engineering, school safety and public education has been compared with that of other states by the Texas safety association in cooperation with the national safety council. This was done at the request of Stevenson and other officials concerned with improving traffic safety in Texas.

Jaycees Hold Ladies' Night Dinner Tonight

The annual ladies' night dinner and dance of the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held tonight at the Terrace Grill, 403 E. Brown, at 7:15.

All members are urged by President Joe Fischer to attend the affair.

The regular weekly Jaycee meeting will be held next Tuesday at 8 in the Palm Room of the city hall.

Body of Missing Man Is Recovered

DENISON—(P)—The body of R. C. Sewell was recovered yesterday from Lake Texoma.

Sewell, manager of the Goodman and Goodman fishing village, had been the object of an intensive search since his boat was found with the engine running Wednesday night. Sheriff's officers expressed the belief that Sewell was thrown from his boat by strong waves.

Former Pampnan Dies At Oklahoma City

Word was received here today of the death at Oklahoma City of William Carl Jones, retired oil man formerly of Pampa.

Mr. Jones, who was about 70, and his wife moved to that city about a year ago. They had lived at Pampa since 1930.

Services will be held at Franklin, Pa., his birthplace. Surviving besides the widow, is one daughter.

Mr. A. H. Smith, sugar, chicken spaniel pet of Mrs. Ethel Bakjian of Milwaukee, Wis., managed to restrain herself long enough to pose for this picture with hamburger and bacon "cake" celebrating her second birthday. But when that was over she made short work of the feast.

Concert Season Opened With Igor Gorin Program

By Scott Rafferty. Igor Gorin, young Russian baritone, opened the 1946-47 season of the Pampa Community Concert Association here last night in a concert given before a "packed house" at the Junior high auditorium.

Possessed with not only a great voice but also a pleasing stage manner, Mr. Gorin sang 18 numbers but was given the opportunity for only one encore at the end of the concert by an audience that seemed too anxious to get "back-stage" for autographs and introductions.

Accompanied by Valentin Pavlovsky, Mr. Gorin sang a variety of selections by Russian, Italian, Austrian, English and American composers.

His encore at the intermission was the ever-popular "Elegy" aria from "The Barber of Seville" while the final encore was a musical setting of the nursery poem "Sing a Song of Sixpence" by Mallothe, the American composer who set "The Lord's Prayer" to music.

The first part of the program was composed of selections by Cesti, Handel and Legrenzi, with Handel's "Silent Worship" the more well-received of the three.

Selections included in the second part of the concert were "In a Prison," a sad, beautiful selection by Hahn, "The Damnation of Faust" by Hector Berlioz, "Shepherd's Lament," an old Russian air, and a comical selection entitled, "Al-bosmy, To Jay-Jay," another Russian folk song.

Messner's beautiful "Vision Fugue" made up the third part of the program, before the intermission.

Pavlovsky played two numbers by Chopin, the familiar "Waltz Brillant" and "Nocturne" and encored with "Elegy" by Scriabin.

Allia Spook's "Scherza," "Think on Me" fittingly opened the second half of the vocal program, followed by Margaret Tyson's "One Little Cloud" and Mallothe's "Desire." This See CONCERT, Page 6

King George Asks Draft Continuation

LONDON—(P)—King George VI, in a parliament opening speech presenting the views of his labor government, called today for legislation continuing conscription for the British armed forces and for nationalization of inland transport and electric utilities.

The monarch presented his message to parliament after a traditional ride through London's streets during which he was guarded against any possible attack by Jewish extremists by every policeman Scotland Yard could spare—more than 5,000 all told.

Foreign, Domestic Policies Voiced

The king's speech marked the opening of the second parliament since labor took over the reins of government and took place amid pre-war pomp and ceremony of centuries-old tradition—and the reality of the more moderate and stringent precautions since the 1939 and 1940 bombing atrocities to the Irish republican army.

The royal message, prepared by the labor government, set forth government views on both foreign and domestic affairs.

"The king urged negotiations of conditions which will foster true democracy will guarantee the world against further attempts at world domination and will remove the financial burden which occupation has laid on my people."

Indicating the government's intent to work for eradication of international trade barriers, the king spoke of his "great hope" for the success of negotiations now under way in London for expansion of world commerce and employment.

He also announced the government's desire to improve living conditions in Britain, promising increased housing and increased food supplies to a nation weary of shortages and rationing.

Also recommended were measures to establish a national defense base—combining the three fighting services of air, sea and land—and to make effective the 1944 Chicago convention on international civil aviation.

The king's brief message was simply a matter-of-fact presentation of the labor government's legislative intentions for the second parliament since it climbed to power 18 months ago.

In one short paragraph, the king indicated that the government had set up to permit a more active cotton market closed during the war.

Foreboding continued conscription to maintain the strength of the armed forces—a policy to which labor heretofore has been whole heartedly opposed—the king declared.

My ministers recognize the urgent need for securing an adequate flow of volunteers for the regular forces, and their efforts to stimulate recruitment will be intensified.

The reconstitution of the territorial army reserve forces will be begun at an early date and my government will bring forward a measure providing for the continuation of national service from the date when the present transitional scheme comes to an end.

Announcing that "my ministers will continue to develop the existing intimate understanding and close cooperation with the United States," the king said:

Rail Association Head Dies at 68

WASHINGTON—(P)—John J. Pelley, 68, president of the Association of American Railroads, died in Doctors' hospital.

Details of Pelley's illness were not immediately available. Close associates of his passing, an official of the association said his information as late as this morning had been that he was "coming along fine."

Pelley, born at Anna, Ill., began his railroad career as a station clerk for the Illinois Central at Anna in 1899.

He worked his way up through the ranks with the Illinois Central to become superintendent of the Memphis division in 1905. He was general manager of the line in 1923-24 and vice president in charge of operations from then until 1926.

He became president of the Central of Georgia railroad and of the Ocean Steamship company at Savannah, Ga., in 1925-29, then was president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford until 1930.

He had been with the Association of American Railroads since 1934. He was interested also in Western Union Telegraph company and in insurance concerns.

During the war, he was decorated by the government for his work in gearing the nation's railroads to the war effort.

After hearing Webb's report and recommendation of the percentage cut, Mayor Parisi often informed him that the commission would discuss the subject more thoroughly at a later meeting and would pass on any full adoption or rejection of the plea at today's meeting.

Unusual Stories of Conversion Open Meeting

"It was in a swimming pool in July," he explained, "but the water was cold."

The First Baptist church was packed, much beyond capacity, as Fultz made his unusual address.

He was introduced as the only surviving member of the Clyde Barrow gang and as a "trophy of the grace of God and the persistence of three laymen for nine years."

He was introduced as the only surviving member of the Clyde Barrow gang and as a "trophy of the grace of God and the persistence of three laymen for nine years."

Fultz, lean and angular-featured, lounged against the pulpit, gazed squarely at his audience and began with: "All these Baptists scare me."

"I was an outlaw and bank robber for 20 years," he continued. "I spent 18 of these years in prison. I met Barrow in the Texas prison and that's where the gang got started."

The ex-convict said he always believed in God and that he believed God would "cause him to chance his ways whenever God meant for him to do so."

"One time," he said, "I tried four times to break out of jail and never quite made it. Once I was within 30 minutes of getting out of a jail in Mississippi. Another time Barrow was going to spring me and didn't make it. If he had I'd of wound up head with him in Louisiana. I kind of got to figuring God had a hand in it."

J. E. Clifton, McKinney pastor, succeeded in converting Fultz several months ago.

"I told Rev. Clifton," Fultz said, "that some people in his congregation might not want to set by me. He said if that was so, then he'd resign. What would I do? I felt See BAPTISTS, Page 6

Conclude Rush Month
With Initiations

The Las Cresas club has been very active this week. The pledges finished their pledging and took their "mock" initiation Friday night in the home of Miss Patsy Cox. This impressive ceremony was climaxed when the members removed the pledge ribbons of gold and white to signify that they were to take their membership oath. The oath was given at the American Legion-VFW hall Saturday night, by the club president, Margie Lawrence.

After this formal ceremony they received the traditional white rose corsage from Mary Lou Mazzy. Each pledge was presented to the president for the oath by a "big sister." These were chosen by each girl, the night she took her pledge oath.

Received into membership were Martha Hopkins, Nina Ruth Spearman, Joyce Harral, Eleanor Smith, Janet Elbridge, Jo Alice Franks, June Anderson, Mary Russell, Betty Hilburn, Bernice Holmer and an informal dance was given by the club after the Lubbock-Pampa football game. The lodge hall was decorated in the harvest colors of green and gold. The football boys' pictures were featured in the entrance. Mrs. Jess Clay was the sponsor for the evening.

Roth-Bruton Vows Are Read at

McLEAN—(Special)—In a candle-light ceremony Friday, Nov. 8, at 8 o'clock Miss Betty Lou Roth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Roth, of McLean, became the bride of Kenneth Lee Bruton, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bruton of Keller, Va.

The Rev. S. J. Jones, pastor of the church at Liberty, read the double-ring ceremony before the altar with a background of baskets of various colored pompon chrysanthemums and lighted candles. Miss Eulamae Lively, niece of the bride lighted the candles.

Before the ceremony, Mrs. Travis Stokes played several appropriate selections. Mrs. Mary Alice Elliott, of Amarillo, sang "Always." The traditional wedding march completed the musical program.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a light blue suit with brown accessories and carried a white Bible topped with white carnations. Miss Nannie Boyd, who wore a blue suit and a corsage of pink carnations, was bridesmaid. For something old, the bride wore a hand painted brooch belonging to the groom's mother.

The groom was attended by Tasso Pugh. Mrs. Tasso Pugh, had charge of the bride's book. Mr. Vernon King was usher.

Mrs. H. M. Roth, mother of the bride, wore a black crepe dress with black accessories, with a red and white carnation corsage. The groom's mother, Mrs. J. M. Bruton, was dressed in a black crepe dress with black accessories. Her corsage was of red and white carnations.

A reception was held at the bride's home, where a three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and groom, and punch was served.

The young couple will be at home in Amarillo, where Mr. Bruton is employed by the southwestern public service company.

Extended To Sheriff

Sheriff G. H. Kyle was invited to jail—or so it seems from a magazine laying on his desk.

"The man in question is entitled 'The Prison World.' On the cover of the bi-monthly magazine is a reproduction of the South Michigan State Penitentiary. On the other corner was a picture of the Michigan state reformatory at Iona and at the bottom was a picture of the Detroit house of correction at Plymouth. Through the bright yellow center of the cover, and printed in large black italic type was—"WELCOME TO MICHIGAN."

MISS FRASER: Her "no" charms

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Believe it or not the gentle art of saying "No" is taught to girls who are out to conquer glamor. If that much emphasis is given to the negative by the Barizon School of Modeling, noted New York training center for the glamorous arts, let's look into the tricks of saying "No."

"So much more is gained by the right kind of 'no'—accomplishing what you wish and keeping friends," says Helen Fraser, director of the school.

WHY A SOAP SHORTAGE?

You've Heard Rumors. Here Are the Facts!

1. There is a world-wide shortage of animal fats and of vegetable oils. This shortage affects all of us. For instance, this year soapmakers have been able to obtain only one fifth of the imported oils they used in 1941—far less domestic fats, too.

2. Because of the world-wide shortage, manufacturers are unable to get the amount of fats and oils they need to make not only soaps, but also paints, textiles, tires, leather goods, floor coverings, electrical appliances, etc.

3. In the face of these conditions, American soap manufacturers have done their utmost. They have turned all the fats and oils they have been able to obtain into soap just as quickly as possible.

4. But for the help of American housewives, the shortage of soap would have been far more serious. Last year, more than one out of every nine packages of soap sold was made from used fats saved in America's kitchens.

5. Don't blame your grocer. He is doing his best, like the soapmakers, to get more soap for you. Won't you do your best by saving and turning in every drop of used fats.

Army Blends Civilian Fun With Military Training for Nisei GIs

MONTEREY, Calif.—(NEA)—The Army is training 1500 Americans of Japanese ancestry for the continuing postwar work of interpreting Japan to the U. S. Army and American life and culture to the Japanese.

Miri Miyake, special staff USO worker. Her 125 helpers danced their way into 1500 Japanese-American GI hearts.

The job shouldn't be too difficult for the Army's Intelligence School at Monterey's historic Presidio. Sons, grandsons, and some even great-grandsons of Japanese, the Nisei GIs, all have been raised in American surroundings, either in continental U. S. or in Hawaii. They know the language of American school boys and hep cats, the give and take teamwork of such typical American organizations as the Boy Scouts. They have studied in American schools.

And to further simplify the job for the Army, they already know the difficult Japanese language and in many ways are still steeped in the Japanese customs of their forefathers.

The difficulty of the Army's training program comes from something else. Monterey is no more and no less hostile to Nisei than the rest of California. When the boys are on liberty, they circulate freely in the streets of the town. But they are not accepted as social equals in Monterey any more than they might be in another California community, where for generations there has been a varying degree of suspicion and misunderstanding of all persons of Japanese ancestry.

CIVILIAN CONTACTS Believing that it is especially essential for these troops to maintain their contacts with civilian life if they are to successfully interpret American life to Japan, the Army called in the USO.

Miri Miyake, a bright-eyed, smiling young Nisei girl and a special staff USO worker, solved the Army's problem. It was no easy task, for the number of Nisei families in and around Monterey was limited. Pampa-likely, Miss Miyake searched for young Nisei women, first in the Central California coastal area, then as far north as Palo Alto, nearly 100 miles away, and finally as far south as King City.

Youth Denies He Was 'Kidnapped' SAN ANTONIO—(P)—Reports that he had been kidnaped from his farm home near Charlotte Saturday by a "mentally unbalanced" war veteran, were denied here today by William Brack Hill, son of Frank Hill, a tenant farmer of Atascosa.

The youth, in custody of Bexar county juvenile authorities since 10:30 a. m. Sunday when he was picked up here in company with the veteran, said he came to San Antonio of his own free will. He was returned to his home.

"I wanted to see the city," he said. "And I needed a pair of shoes. I was not kidnaped."

The veteran, a resident of Louisiana, was released shortly after being taken into custody, the police having no report that he was wanted and his papers being in order.

Youth (22) of Many Degrees Is Member of Colgate Faculty

HAMILTON, N. Y.—A Peter Ruderman is a round-faced, confident youth of 22, but with four university degrees including a doctor of philosophy already behind him, he has become Colgate University's youngest faculty member.

And there are no complaints from his 110 students in economics. Half of them, most of them veterans, are older than the "prof" and a few of them half again as old, but they rate him as "tops."

Dr. Ruderman, who will get his first chance to vote in a national election this fall, has had well over a year of work in Washington in addition to varying experiences in and outside of classrooms in four campuses. Harvard has granted him three degrees, including the doctorate in philosophy; the University of Chicago has awarded him one.

A Brooklyn boy, Ruderman isn't sure he wants to be a teacher all his life, but he accepted the bid to Colgate largely because he cherishes a desire to teach the economics of agriculture and the University expects to inaugurate such a course next semester.

Ruderman, at 13, received a bachelor of science degree from Harvard in 1942 after completing four years of college work in three years following his graduation from Abraham Lincoln High School, Brooklyn. That fall he was research assistant at the Agricultural Experiment Station, Iowa State College.

Then, falling to get into the armed forces, he became a junior agricultural economist with the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

In the fall of 1943, Ruderman became National Dairy Council Research Fellow at the University of Chicago while earning a master of business administration degree. After a stint as senior analyst for the Economic Institute early in 1945, he returned to Harvard as a research associate for the University's Committee on Research in the Social Sciences. During the next year he held this post and also completed the courses which qualified him for master of arts and doctor of philosophy degrees before coming to Colgate this fall.

Possessing a consuming curiosity about many things, Ruderman has spent his summers since his middle teens roaming the country and getting a taste of various jobs. He has worked on farms, shined in hash in lunch rooms and qualified for union cards as a radio repairman, journeyman electrician and carpenter.

While at Harvard, he had his own orchestra and became an expert square-dancer caller. In Washington, he sang in the choir at St. James Episcopal Church.

"And today, in addition to teaching," he says, "I am still trying to build a really good-looking ship model and write a marketable detective story. Sooner or later," he adds with the quite confidence which marks his endeavors, "I am going to do both."

King George

"My government will forward by every means at their disposal the policies with regard to the governance of India laid down in the statements made by them and by the mission of my ministers which recently visited India.

"Steps are being taken to hold elections in Burma early next year, as the necessary preliminary to further constitutional progress.

"In the territories for which my government are responsible they will seek actively to promote the welfare of my peoples, to develop the economic life of the territories and to give my peoples all practical guidance in their march to self government."

Britain, "by its example and leadership, will work for the promotion of all nations toward greater freedom and prosperity," the king said, adding:

"I trust that at an early date a treaty will be concluded with Australia which will enable all forces of occupation to be withdrawn from that country."

Concert

Mr. Gorin also inserted a great American favorite—Vincent Youngman's "Without a Song" at this point.

Four selections made up the final part of the program. They were "To the Little Star," by Moussorgsky; "Eulack, the Drunkard" a Ukrainian folk song, the beautiful "None But the Lonely Heart" and "The Volga Legend."

The concert was perhaps better than the real thing, with enough finger-wagging and falsetto lapses to keep the audience rolling in the aisles. Back-stage after the concert, Gorin was busy signing programs for much of the "younger set" that attended the concert.

The baritone told this writer that he had been to Texas many, many times but this is his first visit to Pampa.

Western Actress Turns to Opera

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD—(P)—Anne Jeffreys of the Western Films is leaving these here parts, pardner, and headin' for the big city.

Anne, who is ample proof that Goldboro, N. C., can foster other talent besides tobacco auctioneers, has been doing yeoman work here for several seasons. She has appeared in westerns, such as the recent "Trail Street." She has sleuthed around with Dick Tracy and battled in "Dillinger." In fact, she has done everything but what she does best—sing.

"I couldn't make the studio believe I could sing," she told me. "I explained I have been taking operatic lessons for years but they must have thought I was kidding."

Anne isn't kidding about her singing, and will knock out a high C to prove her point to you. Last month she finally did something about it. She sang Tosca at the Brooklyn Academy of Music to considerable critical and popular acclaim. This brought the attention of the playwright company who is producing an operatic version of "Street Scene."

They caught "La Tosca" and decided Anne was the only one to star in "Street Scene." After considerable haggling (Anne drives a bargain like a Carolina farmer with a bumper crop of burley), they came to terms and Anne got a sabbatical from RKO.

She hopes six months of singing on Broadway (if the show clicks) will convince the studio she can do musical roles. It's worth trying, anyway.

Hollywood is ahead of the times in one matter, anyway. Already decorations are going up to convert Hollywood boulevard into Santa Claus lane. . . You couldn't find two happier guys than John Hodjak and Edward Arnold, who have been working at Paramount on loan-out from the MGM stock company. . . Yarn for the busybodies: Van Johnson will sing again in "Rosy Ridge." It's a hillbilly ballad, "Far from My Darling."

Official Colors of Texas Return To State Capitol

AUSTIN—(P)—The official colors of the Texas National Guard were back in their home state today, having been relinquished here yesterday by the federal government in colorful ceremonies which included decoration by the French government.

On the 28th anniversary of the Armistice of World War I, fought in the lost cause of ending all wars, attention centered upon the "illustrious record" of Texas' citizen-soldiers of World War II, with little more than mention going to those heroes from whom the holiday was originally proclaimed.

From a large, bunting-draped reviewing stand, high state and military officials along with six French officers watched an honor guard from the 2nd armored division, Camp Hood, present the colors, including 90 guidons of the 36th division.

Lt. Gen. Maurice Mathemet, military attache of France, Washington, D. C., decorated the colors for France before their return to the state and bestowed a kiss upon each side of them after French tradition.

Maj. Gen. John B. Coulter made the presentation address and Gov. Coke Stevenson the acceptance. Gov.-Elect Beauford Jester, scheduled to speak, could not be present and the address prepared by his deputy was read by Lt. Gen. Fred L. Walker, commanding general of the Texas National Guard.

The colors will be deposited in the state archives "to the eternal glory of Texas fighting men," Stevenson said.

Baptists

"The first jail I was ever in was in West Texas and I was 16. The jailer offered to let me out. I felt so grateful that I wouldn't go. I waited till I was locked up and then I escaped."

SIDE GLANCES

"I don't see why you make such a fuss about me backing into your car a little bit—they're both old cars and I'm not complaining about the damage to mine!"

GROWN UP—Robert Cook, Macksville, Kans., democrat, reads of his election-day victory which makes him one of the youngest members of the Kansas legislature. A Kansas university student, he couldn't vote in the August primary because he was not twenty-one until September.

WON IN A WALK DECATUR, Ill.—Democrat Paul Ferguson, still nursing weary feet, won election to the Illinois legislature with 28,669 votes and attributes his success to 22,093 personal calls—all made on foot.

A political novice and comparative newcomer to Decatur, Ferguson says his box score showed 44,186 minutes consumed in ringing doorbells, or about 30 full 24 hour days, and that 4,821 people weren't home or wouldn't open the door.

In winning one of three district house offices, he unseated the democratic incumbent by a margin of 416 votes.

Lutheran Conference Will Open Today

SAN ANTONIO—(P)—The Texas Synod, United Lutheran Church of America, will open a three-day conference here today.

Speakers for the triple-day occasion will include Dr. Erwin S. Spiess, Philadelphia; Rev. J. C. A. Fenniger, George West, and Rev. John M. Schedler of Victoria.

Near-Record Price Paid in Australia

SYDNEY—(P)—A state record wool price of sixty and half pence pound was obtained at a sale at Goulburn, country town of New South Wales today. Price was obtained for crossbred wool.

Highest price ever paid for wool in Australia was seventy-nine and half pence at Geelong sales last week.

At Sydney sales today prices were equal to best point of season.

Spindletop Field Pioneer Is Dead

WICHITA FALLS—(P)—Preston, J. Lea, 70, prominent North Texas oil operator and pioneer in the Spindletop oil field at Beaumont, died at his home here last night after an illness of seven years.

He came to Wichita Falls in 1917 and drilled his first well in this area for the late "Uncle Jeff" Waggoner. He later became associated with the Cline Oil company here.

Lea is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. W. E. Crump of Wichita Falls; three sons, Preston J. Lea, Jr., of Midland, and Dr. Austin W. Lea and Walter M. Lea, both of Wichita Falls.

Army Still No. 1 in Grid Poll, Irish Get 34 Less Points

Porker Mentor Says Team Is Due For Letdown in Game With Ponies

By MAX B. SKELTON
Associated Press Staff Writer

John Barnhill, whose first year as head coach of the University of Arkansas has produced more than pleasing results for the Razorbacks, is afraid his Razorbacks are ready for a letdown after their defeat of Rice last week.

"The war-time Tennessee mentor has reversed his tactics while reading his tough Hogs for Southern Methodist's Mustangs in a conflict that will determine whether Arkansas will share the conference championship.

Last week, Barnhill threw rough sessions at his team from Monday until time to move to Little Rock for the battle. Yesterday, he had only a light workout.

Neither the Mustangs nor the Razorbacks are expected to be at full strength Saturday. Of the other games that figure in the championship only Texas & M. will not be at full strength.

At College Station, Homer Norton has revealed that his star halfback, Marion Flanagan, re-injured a trick knee against the Mustangs and probably will be out for the balance of the season.

The Rice Owls, the Aggies' opponent in a battle for survival, will try for a comeback after the Arkansas reverse. Seven Rice players received lime burns at Little Rock and center Jack Price collected a bruised hip but all are being counted on for the Aggie land invasion.

Texas Christian's Horned Frogs, who would like nothing better than to again spoil the championship hopes of the Texas Longhorns, will be in their best condition of the season when they take the field against Dana X. Bible's defending champs.

Only guard Clifton Coffey, who is out with an attack of boils, is on the sidelines at the moment.

Frank Guess, the ace punter and placekicker for the Longhorns, and blocking back Joe Magliolo probably will see at least limited duty against the Frogs, as will fullback H. K. Allen who took a bruised knee while playing against Baylor last week.

Baylor's Bears came through the Texas struggle in fairly good shape, with only fullbacks Sammy Pierce and guard James Griffin continuing on the cripple list as Frank Kimbrough prepared his crew for a trip to Tulsa to meet the Tulsa Hurricanes.

Bowl Contract Being Studied

CHICAGO—(AP)—While the Rose Bowl's seven-man selection committee on the coast is being asked to explore the possibility of Army accepting a bid, the Western conference is expected to take formal action within the next two weeks to settle a five-year contract with the Pacific Coast conference for successive representation at Pasadena starting on New Year's day.

The Big Nine, after polling its membership, appeared assured today of a 7-2 unanimity in favoring a hook-up with the coast league whereby the Western conference champion, or an alternate, would play in the Rose Bowl three consecutive years and then name an eastern or central team for representation the last two years.

Northwestern is the last school to signify approval of the plan, joining Ohio State, Iowa, Michigan, Purdue, Indiana and Wisconsin on the affirmative against Illinois and Minnesota which voted negatively.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Walter Johnson, former pitcher of the Washington Senators, pulled today after a sinking spell and his condition was described as "fair" at Georgetown hospital.

He has been under treatment since April 15 for a brain tumor.

About 15 billion dollars worth of U. S. property has gone up in smoke since 1900.

Odessa Runs Over Sweetwater Team

By The Associated Press
Odessa's mighty Broncos rolled over Sweetwater 33-13 yesterday to virtually set up the championship of District 3 and to establish themselves firmly as No. 1 in the Texas schoolboy football race.

At the same time Breckenridge was moving farther in front in the District 9 campaign by downing Brownwood 20-7.

Odessa is the only undefeated team left in District 3 and the Broncos have only Lamesa and Midland, two of the cellar clubs, to play to officially take the championship.

Breckenridge has a somewhat tougher row. The Buckaroos also are undefeated but must play Mineral Wells and Cisco, the second and third place elevens, before it can bottle up the District 9 title.

Two other games were played in the state Armistice Day but neither was highly important. Abilene crushed Lamesa 39-0 in District 3 and Cisco blasted Ranger 35-12 in District 9.

Eight of the sixteen districts now have undisputed leaders. They are Amarillo in District 1, Odessa in District 3, North Side in the Fort Worth district, Breckenridge in District 9, Conroe in District 12, Lamar in the Houston district, Orange in District 14 and Jefferson (San Antonio) in District 15.

Tied for the lead in the other districts are: No. 2—Graham, Vernon and Wichita Falls; No. 4—Denison and Sherman; No. 6—Denton, Highland Park (Dallas) and McKinney; No. 8—Adamson, Temple and Sunset (Dallas); No. 10—Waco and Tyler; No. 11—Brownville, Edinburg and Harlingen.

Georgia Close Behind Teams; Texas in 6th

By AUSTIN DEALMEIR
NEW YORK—(AP)—Army and Notre Dame fought to a scoreless tie in their historic grid battle here last Saturday, but when the votes were counted today in the weekly poll of the Associated Press to pick the nation's ten top teams the Cadets wound up in first place by a very narrow margin.

Among the 144 writers who participated in the poll, including the sports editor of the Stars and stripes in Germany, 57 of them voted Army as No. 1 in the Texas schoolboy football race.

At the same time Breckenridge was moving farther in front in the District 9 campaign by downing Brownwood 20-7.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Notebook

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK—(AP)—It was 2 a.m. at the crossroads of night life in Greenwich Village...

Neither went for the face. They tried for the groin with knuckles, knees and feet, swirling over and over in a tangled fury...

short one turned the head sideways and deliberately rubbed it back and forth on the concrete until one side was a red pulp.

"Chin! I'll buy a drink," he murmured to the short man. They headed for a bar, walking slowly on legs snaky with fatigue.

Q—What is the estimated 1946 national income?
A—$165,000,000,000, with $175,000,000,000 estimated for 1947.

Arrival of Police Is Awaited by Forger

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Odessa police officers were expected here today to claim custody of Preston H. Knight, 25, who escaped from the Odessa jail while awaiting transfer to the state penitentiary to serve a two-year sentence for forgery.

CALL ME LIZ

by Rene Riperson Marz

THE STORY! Red McFar, spray pilot, comes home with a chest full of ribbons and a cocky swagger. He visits the various plant where he worked before the war as a laboratory helper...

HE waited until the blonde girl looked up and he caught her eye. She tilted her pretty nose for a minute and studied him...

THE sign in the lobby said REGISTRATION. It pointed to the right. Red followed the arrow into a big room cut in half by a counter...

He finished filling in the information blanks, handed them in to the girl at the counter and received some papers to fill out concerning his eligibility under the GI Bill of Rights.

At least he shouldn't have any difficulty about that, Red thought grimly. He put down the facts. When he finished, he was hungry and tired and the cute blonde had disappeared.

It was overcrowded, too, and the waitress informed him that there was no beer and he had to settle for a soggy hamburger and a muggy cup of coffee.

None, Red said. "I'm sorry, you'll have to get in that line over there then. That's freshman registration."

Again Red went through the crawling process. When he reached the counter this time another girl gave him a half dozen typewritten sheets of questions to be filled out and directed him to a desk where pen and ink were available.

Red sweated through the papers, his fresh collar wetting, his uniform becoming hot and heavy, his patience wearing thin.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE WITH MAJOR HOOPLE

These advertisements in the paper about pens that write under water and watches that no matter how deep immersed keep on ticking have intrigued many practical souls.

Who writes letters in the bathtub? Who keeps his watch in the glass with his uppers beside the bed at night? That's what practical souls ask.

Here's one answer. A modern submarine-type timepiece paid off for a gentleman in Matamoros, across from Brownville. He was boasting about his watch's excellent qualities, saying that he had accidentally taken a shower with it strapped to his wrist.

To settle the argument, the owner said he'd dunk his watch in a glass of beer. "You buy the drinks until it stops running," he said. The other took him up.

Two hours later the owner of the watch retrieved his still-ticking timepiece from the beer mug, and groped his way back across the border.

But this modern, complicated world wasn't as generous to an inebriated gentleman in Denison. He got involved with a revolving door, first was puzzled and then angry when he thought someone was following him, took a belligerent swing at his own reflection and smashed the door.

Students at the Gregg county White Oak school are perfectly satisfied with not having a modern, storm-proof school. A high wind unroofed the building and they received a week's vacation while it was being fixed.

A study boat, on the other hand, probably saved the life of Wilfred Hankins, 51, of Dalhart. He was doing custom combining when his left foot was caught in a feeder chain. The boat heel caught in just such a way to halt operation of the machine. He was seriously hurt, but the boat, he thinks, saved his life.

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Spencer Tracy, who has been making pictures at a leisurely pace in recent years, will see plenty of action in 1947. After "Cats and Paws," he will star in "American Cavalcade," the story MGM commissioned Carl Sandburg to write.

HE looked at his wrist watch. A quarter of two. He was supposed to see an adviser at two about his schedule. He turned back in the direction from which he had come.

HIS adviser, when Red got to him after another wait, proved to be a thin over-worked under-instructor. He began to ask Red hurried questions. It was evident that he was not impressed by Red's uniform and ribbons.

He kept on asking Red questions and writing things down on a piece of paper and consulting a small blue-backed book and at last he said: "You'll have to take a rather scrambled schedule this quarter. These last minute registrations are bad. Let's see, Freshman English, first..."

"Look here," Red broke in. "I don't want any English. I want as much chemistry as I can get, and math. I've got a job waiting when I get through school, and I want to make it quick."

"Everybody has to take Freshman English," the adviser said primly. "It's required."

He finally handed Red a schedule that called for English, Zoology and American History. Red stared at it. There was not one subject in which he was interested.

Back in his room he undressed and threw his uniform across a chair. A fat lot of good it and his combat rations were going to do him now, he thought sourly. He flung himself down on the bed and thought back over the unsatisfactory day.

MECHANIZED HUNTING WELDON, ILL.

Farmer Mike Seal didn't have time to get a horse or a bound or a gun so he used his car to go fox hunting.

When a fox fled to a state highway from Seal's farm, Seal jumped into his automobile and pursued the animal down the road until the headlight-blinded fox ran smack into another car.

THE band industry is due for an upheaval which will bring some changes. Reason: The big-name bands just aren't drawing the customers.

Don't look for an early sequel to "Anchors Aweigh." Gene Kelly has to do "The Pirates" with Judy Garland, then "Cabages and Kings," in which he'll play a Coney Island Barker. Producer Joe Pasternak doubts if he can get Kelly, Kathryn Grayson and Frank Sinatra together for "All Ashore" within two years.

Bob Burns took his radio show to San Francisco to help celebrate the leatherneck birthday and opened the new Marine Memorial club.
