Ben Hogan Leads Chase for First Money in Tourney

COLUMBUS, O.—(AP)—Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., whose pockets already are bulging with almost $25,000 in 1946 golf winnings, came out in front in the chase for the $2,500 first money in the Columbus invitation tournament yesterday.

Little Ben rarely had a bad moment as he fired a four under par 68 for a 36 hole total of 133.

That was only one stroke better, however, than Ray Hill of Akron, O., and Ed 'Porky' Oliver of Wilmington, Del., who were tied for second with 139 each in a tightly packed field of 11 players within four strokes of each other.

Hill, had the hottest round of the tournament when he blazed around the Columbus country club course in six under par.

Oliver, who had a par for 32 and his outgoing trip but took par 38 coming back for a 68 to go with his first round count of 71.

The 146 bracket was jammed with hot money players in that group were Ray Mangrum of Los Angeles, amateur Frank Stranahan of Toledo; Jim Milward of Madison, Wis.; Byron Nelson of Toledo and Jimmy Demaret of Houston, Texas.

Nelson, who had a par 72 Friday, lived up to his announced intentions by shooting 68. Demaret, playing with Nelson, also had a 68 to go with his first day round of 72.

Grouped at 141 were Johnny Palmer of Badin, N. C.; Jim Perrier of Chicago; and Tony Penna of Cincinnati.

Hogan had a little trouble with his tee shot on the first hole but he quickly settled down and began pouring them in from 20 to 30 feet to turn in 34-34 for his 68.

The 60 low scores and ties will finish out the final 36-holes of the tournament today and it took 154 to get into the final day's play. There were 62 players with that score or better.

Greenberg, Clay Courts champion in 1942 and 1943, was on the defensive most of the way as Parker toyed with his southpaw opponent to outscore him on placements, 42 to 20, and on points, 106 to 61.

By his triumph, Parker barged into today's finals against Defending Champion Billy Talbot of Wilmington, Del., who Friday polished off Gardner Mulloy of Miami, Fla., in their semi-final tussle.

The feminine singles showdown today will be between fourth-seeded Barbara Kraus of San Francisco, who yesterday withstood 19-year-old Shirley Fry of Akron, Ohio, 6-3, 9-7, and Virginia Kovacs of Oakland, Calif., who Friday whipped Martha Barnett of Miami, Fla., in their semi-final clash.

BIG PLANS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR SOUTHERN CLUB

Shown above is the Southern club as it looks today. The new owners of the club, which is a well-known entertainment place, have big plans for improvement on this property. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Weitz, who purchased the Southern club a few weeks ago, declare they are going to make it into the most attractive entertainment club in the Panhandle. Plans call for an out-door swimming pool, barbecue pits with picnic grounds, 18 tourist cabins, in units of six, and improvements on the present building, which is located on the McLean highway just south of Pampa.

Club to Get Improvements

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Weitz, who recently purchased the Southern club, which is located on the highway about a quarter mile south of Pampa, announced last week elaborate plans of improvement and expansion on the property side. The club will still be known as the Southern club, it was stated. The Weitz' are well known here, having operated other establishments in and around the city. Mr. Weitz said he and his wife hope to realize their long-awaited aspiration, namely, the ownership and operation of a large club. They plan for the Southern club, in addition to remodeling the interior of the building as it now stands, a reopening of the cafe, where they will serve sandwiches and cold drinks to their patrons. When materials become available they plan a 50' by 120' open air swimming pool. They are also planning to erect 18 modern tourist cabins, in units of six; barbecue pits and picnic grounds. One of the main "selling" points of the club is its spacious parking grounds, which are covered with gravel. They will feature two dances a week, one on Wednesday and one on Saturday nights. The Weitz' are known to persons in territory surrounding Pampa, as well as many persons in the city. In 1937, they purchased from Sam Dunn, local real estate man, the Belvedere club, located on the Borer highway, and operated it until Dec. 1, 1934, selling out at that time to the present owners. At that time they went to California, but, as they said, "we could not forget the Panhandle, especially Pampa." They returned Jan. 15, 1945, and bought the Broadway Ice company property, which was completely converted into a modern club. Last April 23, it was sold, under the name of Billie's cafe, to the present owners. It is now called the Terrace Grill. "We intend to live permanently at Pampa," they said. "There is NOTHING too big for us to move," stated J. D. Wright, Sr., of the firm of J. D. Wright and Son, 119 South Starkweather. "It is certainly this seems to be the case because some of the recent jobs handled are so immense they almost defy belief—but the fact remains that anyone who has a real big, mean job of moving can get fixed up quickly by calling 788. Medieval salt cellars were often elaborate pieces of craftsmanship. At the time of the War of 1812 salt cost $5 a bushel.

CITY CAB COMPANY PLANS EVEN FASTER SERVICE FOR FUTURE

The City Cab company, which is located at the corner of East Francis street and North Cuyler, is endeavoring to bring faster and faster—yet safe—transportation service for those persons who wish to go somewhere now. Shown above is the City Cab station, with some of the fleet of cabs out in front. The City Cab, truly "out in front" in Pampa, is owned and operated by Peg Whitte, who has been in the business here for some time. Future plans call for two-way radio in the cabs, spot stations throughout the city for even more proficient service. The owner maintains his own automobiles, having a repair shop on South Cuyler.

Puritan Makes Better Bread for Pampans

With twelve years of experience behind him, J. H. Tucker is striving to bring better bakery products to the citizens of this area. Mr. Tucker is the owner and operator of the Puritan Bakery, which is located at 529 South Cuyler street here in Pampa. The shortage of food in other countries has pointed up the importance of bread in the daily diet. That is one of the reasons why citizens of Pampa make it a habit of going to the Puritan Bakery for fresh bread. Fresh bread, as everyone knows, is best; and it is always accessible at the bakery, where it is produced. The Puritan Bakery, aware of the fact that bread is so important, is seeking to turn out an even better loaf, even though the so-called "black bread" program has been put into effect in order that this country might help the starving in other lands. In addition to white bread, the Puritan sells, over the counter, pastries of all kinds, pies, cakes, cookies, rye bread, French bread and 100 per cent whole wheat bread. In order to bake better bread, the Puritan Bakery recently installed a new oven at the South Cuyler bakery. The building has been remodeled, and other innovations from time to time are being planned. The telephone at the Puritan is 116.

Pampa's 24-hour cafe, THE K C WAFFLE HOUSE, 108 West Foster, renders the community a useful purpose in being "always ready to serve you," day or night. It is also rumored that the steaks served there are really good.

Rats Considered A Serious Menace To Public Health

AUSTIN—Because of the economic losses the cause to industry and commerce and the annoyance they create in homes, rats have been considered a serious menace to mankind since long before their role as vectors of disease was understood. Today at least six diseases which are transmitted to man from the rat are known to medical science, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. These diseases include the red plague, typhus, trichinosis, a form of jaundice, tapeworm, and food poisoning. The whole history of the role rats play in the transmission of disease remains as yet unknown.

"It is necessary to public health," Dr. Cox said, "that a continuous rat control program be maintained in every urban and rural area throughout Texas. This is of especial importance on farms where rats may flourish by feeding on grain and other farm products."

The doctor pointed out that rats, like other living things, require food and shelter if they are to propagate and increase in number. Destroying their shelter and breeding places, includes the employing of ratproof design in buildings, the use of ratproof materials in construction, employing ratproof methods of construction and installation, and providing for periodic inspection of buildings to insure permanent sale.

This program will force the rat out into the open where its destruction may be accomplished.

Of equal importance as a control measure is the elimination of rat food supplies. This consists of storing all foods in ratproof buildings or in ratproof containers, the proper storage and disposal of garbage, and careful feeding of stock to prevent waste feed from being picked up by the rats.

By observing these control measures, the community will benefit not only in the eradication of a nuisance and economic menace, but in improved health conditions and the prevention of rat-borne diseases.

NO SALE EMPORIA, Kas.—(P)—John DeLoe, former navy officer, has been awaiting his chance to bid on surplus government property to add to his farm equipment.

Finally the war assets administration advised him he might bid—on two 1942 model 80-ton coal burning steam locomotives.

He turned down the offer.

Gasoline Revenue Will Offset Cost

AUSTIN—(P)—Increased gasoline tax revenue will offset rising highway construction costs, state highway commission chairman John B. Redditt predicted Friday.

Redditt expressed belief that all projects in the department's three year program will be completed as planned.

It had been feared the increased cost of material and labor would cut down substantially on the mileage of highways that could be built during the first postwar years, Redditt explained.

"Our highway program is now moving along satisfactorily," Redditt said. "It appears we will be able to continue awarding new contracts monthly permitting us to finish our programs on schedule."

"With about $23,000,000 outstanding on current construction contracts to date and about $1,000,000 monthly maintenance expenditure, we increased our cash balance last week to $24,800,000 by a payment of $5,700,000 on our government bonds. This balance, together with current revenue should enable us to meet outstanding obligations promptly for the next several months."

"Construction progress on contracts awarded to date has been slowed down by construction difficulties and until now the monthly payments on contracts under way has fallen below those formerly anticipated."

"The road program in Texas got a

Farmers Fear Rain May Beat Box Cars

HAYS, Kas.—(P)—Thousands of bushels of wheat lay piled on the ground throughout the grain belt today as farmers cast worried looks skyward, fearful the rains would come before the railroad box cars.

With the harvest 80 percent completed, the box car shortage grows more critical each day. Country elevators have been full for days and at many points operators are closing them up. As a result, the winter wheat crop is being dumped on the ground.

Farmers in Western Kansas are facing a two to three percent loss from outside storage if it stays dry. But if rain comes before the cars for shipment to eastern terminals, grainmen say the loss may be as much as 15 percent.

While country elevators spilled, there was plenty of storage space at large terminals. Not more than 6,000,000 bushels have been stored at Kansas City, which has a capacity of 61,000,000.

The harvest itself was nearly two weeks ahead of schedule, and with fair weather should be wound up within the next few days. Farmers rushed to complete the job, working through the Fourth of July holidays from dawn to dark. Some are using five to 20 combines at a time in the fields where heavy yields continue to be reported.

A lucky break when the revenue from gas taxes jumped up to help meet the rising cost of construction."

New Chemical Is Responsible for Spruced-up Lawns

Visitors to various city parks, suburbs and rural sections throughout the country have wondered at the spruced-up appearance of lawns this year. Responsible is a new war-born chemical hormone known as 2,4-D recently converted to postwar use for killing obnoxious weeds in lawns, parks and golf fairways.

So the old back-breaking, hand-pulling method of spot-weeding is on the way out, now that entire areas are being weeded merely by spraying. The age-old herbicides of lawn tenders are undoubtedly being replaced with "What a difference a spray makes," since approximately 1,600 square feet of lawn can be treated for $1.00 in a matter of minutes.

Experiments conducted by Sherwin-Williams scientists during their development of Weed-No-More have proved that although the new lethal liquid kills most weeds, it won't harm common lawn grasses. Permanent destruction of perennials has also been accomplished through the method. Sections of large dandelion fields treated with the chemical in 1945 were not only freed of all dandelions for the season, but were devoid of any signs of them this spring, although the usual dense growth of the perennial reappeared on all sides. Explanation for this is that the chemical travels to the very roots, thus preventing regrowth.

The new discovery will also kill ragweed, responsible for about 90 percent of the nation's hayfever. During a recent weed-control conference, Dr. Gaylord Anderson, director of the University of Minnesota school of public health and former chief of the army's medical intelligence division, stated: "The preparation of 2,4-D offers more promising means of attack upon rag-weed than does WPA relief projects. For the first time there is an effective liquid weapon in reducing human suffering and disability from the disease." And this is nothing to sneeze at.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all, and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugstore and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Petroleum Industry To Hold Price Level

NEW YORK (AP)—Describing the oil industry as "aggressive and competitive both as to product price and quality," William R. Boyd, president of the American petroleum institute, said yesterday prices of petroleum products would not be changed because of the ending of the OPEA.

"The petroleum industry, like other sound American industries, will do its best to hold the line on product prices," Boyd said in a statement. "Under normal conditions costs vary and prices vary with costs. If we all work together, in due course not only can product prices be held but in many cases they can be reduced as full production and efficient operation are achieved by the effective cooperation of companies, employees and the public."

VARIETIES OF DEMOCRATS CONFUSE THIS TEXAS GAL

By MARTHA COLE AP Staff Writer

The time has come when a Texas gal has to decide what variety of democrat she is. Otherwise she'll be lost in the roundup of votes on July 27.

For there are more different breeds of democrats in Texas than cattle brands on the plains. A just-plain-democrat is a lonely maverick on the wide open prairie.

The "Texas Regular" and the anti-regulars are definite enough but too many ignore that demarcation. The Southern democratic club is composed of Regulars, but says it's "Jeffersonian democratic."

There's more confusion. Take the young democrats—some of them will never see 50 again. Now how old is a young democrat? How young is an old democrat?

No special organization mothers young women democrats. There are no teen age democrats, no bachelor maid democrats. But everything else is organized, divided, sub-divided and labeled.

With the primary coming on July 27, here is a partial list, a dictionary of democrats (abridged Texas varieties):

Anti-regulars—Began in 1944 with affirmed loyalty to the late President Roosevelt and still are going strong, mostly negatively, to fight the Regulars.

CIO-democrats—Vastly unpopular with many Texas candidates, but anyway making themselves known through their political action committee and getting themselves talked about plenty.

Closed Shop Democrats—Dr. Homer P. Rainey, candidate for governor, said in a speech at Dingerfield in June that's what we should have, that the party needed to be purged of the republicans.

Grass Roots—A democratic group calling themselves that met in Dallas in May in what they said was an anti-CIO move to oppose the re-election of "66 members of the Texas house who bear the CIO-PAC stamp of approval."

Lifelong—Grover Sellers, candidate for governor, answered the state democratic executive committee's questionnaire with just that, that he'd been a lifelong democrat.

Liberal—he word itself is too encompassing and has to be broken down. Beauford Jester, candidate for governor, in a speech at Corsicana, said he was "liberal but not loose."

John Lee Smith, candidate for governor, in answering a questionnaire of the southern democratic club, said he was a liberal after the order of Woodrow Wilson. To the same query Judge Sarah T. Hughes of Dallas, said she was a "Roosevelt liberal."

O'Daniel—Miss Louise Wright, secretary of the Dallas labor council, AFL, said the democrats must decide whether they'd be liberal or O'Daniel type.

Old Line—Mrs. F. Rodell Carlton, executive vice president of the old line democrats club said "we're old line democrats but not conservative."

Regular—The group that formed in 1944 to oppose a fourth term for Roosevelt. It's now being snubbed by the state democratic executive committee.

Simon Pure—Jester said that many called themselves such a kind of democrat but he doubted their veracity.

Southern—Closely aligned with the Regulars, a group which started out in Dallas and now is branching out in Young Democrats—At their state convention in Fort Worth last December they came out with a Roosevelt tag.

Curpetbag—Something referred to as damnyanke democrats. They came to Texas and then became democrats. Some political observers say if all the republicans in Texas voted their party ticket, Texas would have a two-party system overnight.

Wm. Jenning Bryan—This species now said to be extinct.

This list could be doubled with a category of all the kinds of democrats persons say they are "not."

Marine Uses Judo To Save Girl From Thugs

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—Cpl. James Shanahan, 23-year-old marine, saved his girl companion from four thugs Friday night by using judo methods learned while fighting Japs but was seriously slashed by one of the assailants.

Shanahan got the best of the four early in the fight, breaking the leg of one of them, but gave up when he was cut. The assailants fled, carrying the injured man who was screaming in pain.

At St. Joseph's hospital, 16 stitches were required to close the cut on the left side of Shanahan's face.

Barefoot Kick Is Robbers Downfall

DETROIT—(AP)—Pretty Wanda Zebrowski, 18, a Michigan state college coed, planted a barefooted kick in an armed robber's stomach early yesterday, then overpowered him and tied him up in apron strings.

Police took the man, 19, into custody and later picked up three other men suspected of acting as accomplices in the attempted robbery of a tavern operated by Wanda's father.

Wanda, a slim physical education sophomore in college, entered the main room of the tavern while her father, Stanley Zebrowski, pursued three men who fled into the night.

Barefooted and pajama-clad, Wanda raced across the tavern floor to intercept a shadowy figure headed for the window.

She kicked the man in the stomach and a shotgun flew out of his hands. As the girl seized the gun, it accidentally discharged, blasting a hole in the ceiling.

"The bandit ducked just in time," Wanda said, "or he would have gotten the entire charge. Then he begged me not to shoot any more. I told him to lie face down on the floor and he did."

With the aid of her mother, Wanda then tied the bandit with apron strings before police, summoned by her father, arrived.

"I don't know where she learned her tactics," Deputy Sheriff Cornelius Gudenav, Jr., said of Miss Zebrowski, "but she could compete with the average police officer."

It is estimated that more than four-fifths of the U. S. families play one or more of 77 card games.

There are approximately 142 carats of diamonds in one ounce.

The men, with other persons in the vicinity, found Mr. Tarr dead upon their arrival at the demolished truck. The train was delayed for about 20 minutes.

Joe Massingale, operator of a store at Hoover, said it was likely Mr. Tarr was going there for his mail. There were three empty 10-gallon milk cans strewn in the wreckage.

Surviving are the wife, Mrs. Millie Alice Tarr; three daughters, Mrs. Pauline Edwards, of Enid, Okla., Mrs. Madeline McMahon, of Tucumcari, Okla., and Miss Rose Marie Tarr, also of Enid; one son, Harold D. Tarr, at home at Hoover; three brothers, Jess of Wichita, Kas., Otis of Wellington, Kas., and Harv. of Jet, Okla.; and two sisters, Mrs. Gladys Thompson, Lambert, Okla., and Mrs. Mildred Kleiwer, Cherokee, Okla.

Funeral services will be held at the Duenkel-Carmichael funeral home at 10:30 a. m. Monday, and the body will be taken overland to Goltry where services will be held Tuesday afternoon. Burial will be there.

This is the fourth highway fatality in this county this year. There were two last year, and the two years previous there had been none. Two of this year's accidents occurred in Pampa. One was a man who was struck by a taxi on Alcock St. at night, the other a woman who was struck by a car at night. The third county victim who died in a train-truck accident at Kingsmill.

OPA Renewal

Barkley told reporters he thought there was "a chance" the new OPA bill might go to the White House by the end of next week. But he remarked that there were "prospects of considerable discussion" in the senate.

He said he supposed the "most fireworks will take place with respect to specific decontrols." Barkley added that he hoped the bill would be passed "in its present form as near as possible."

Wherry split his decontrol proposals in a series of OPA amendments, to be offered separately. He put meat and poultry in one, combinations of the other products in others and held in reserve an over-all proposition should he find success in any or all of the separate attempts.

OPA administrator Paul Porter already has said he will not recommend a veto if Barkley's substitute profits amendment goes to the President in the form it was approved by the committee Thursday.

No Decision Made In NLRB Hearing

A decision in the hearing on charges against Hagy, Harrington and Marsh, operators of Cargray gas plant, has not been reached according to an announcement Saturday from a representative of the Oil Workers International Union (CIO).

Henry Kent, examiner for the National Labor Relations Board Washington, is in charge of the case. Charges were brought against the gasoline plant for unfair labor practices. Spokesmen say that the discharge of seven workers was preliminary to the filing of charges. A decision is expected the latter part of August.

Wheat Crop

(Continued From Page 1) statement from surrounding grain elevators is expected this week. Wheat harvest has hit its peak in the Daltart area, according to grain elevator operators there. Most elevators were reported filled to capacity. One or two elevators reported a lack of box cars, but no wheat was being dumped on the ground. Locally, it has been related that box cars for shipping the 1946 crop are plentiful.

Rain and hail damaged wheat in that section considerably, the two buyers report. Many crops there have suffered from 10 to 15 per cent loss, with the tests dropping from an average of 62 per cent to about 58 per cent.

Edward Schaffer of the general accounting office told the Mead committee yesterday that one of the checks, for $3,156.47 from the Erie Basin Metal Products company, bore the individual endorsement of A. J. May in addition to the signature on behalf of the Cumberland Lumber company. It was cashed he said, at the First National bank of Prestonsburg, Ky.

The money under discussion, Schaffer said, was part of $48,634 advanced by Erie Basin and the Batavia Metal Products company to the lumber concern which had "Andrew J. May of Prestonsburg, Ky." as agent.

The funds, Schaffer said, were advanced for lumber, as of last April when he examined the books, had not been delivered. After his examination of the records, the accountant testified, the Cumberland company returned $25,000 to Erie Basin.

Mitchell told the committee that the "integrity of congress" demands that Rep. May, chairman of the house military committee, be called to testify.

Neither the Andrew J. May named as agent for the lumber concern, nor the A. J. May who cashed a check for $3,156.47 made out to the company was identified except by his home town — Prestonsburg, Ky., which is the home of Rep. May.

Divorced British Bride Re-Marries

RENO, Nev. — (AP) — Mrs. Jean Pauline Carbone, 19-year-old British war bride, who won a bitterly contested divorce Friday from former Army Pfc. Harold Carbone of Rochester, N. Y., was married last night to Capt. Darrell A. Beschen, at whose Dubuque, Iowa, home her baby was born last February.

The quiet ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace Harry Dunseath, little more than five hours after she received her divorce decree on grounds of mental cruelty.

Carbone had protested his wife's divorce action, accusing her of adultery. He named the 24-year-old Beschen as correspondent.

Beschen flew here on a four-day leave from Shreveport, La., Thursday, but his presence was not publicly disclosed until Friday night. The couple left immediately for an undisclosed destination.

Mrs. Carbone's son was born last Feb. 9, more than 13 months after she and Carbone had parted in London. The Carbonees were married there in 1944 while he was on duty in England.

Clean-Up

(Continued From Page 1) clean-up and then more inspecting will be done. Outdoor toilets, animal pens, and garbage containers will be inspected throughout Pampa, and the owners will be asked to clean up. Later, city and county trucks will make a tour to pick up garbage and other refuse. Definite dates will be set for this drive, here, at McLean and Lefors, it was said; and the date will be announced in the Pampa Daily News. Handbills will also be used at McLean to notify citizens.

Another state health department official is being sent to Pampa, to work in the county. Dr. Webb said it was not known how long he would remain here. He stated the engineer would be paid by the county.

"We hope he will be a permanent man here," Dr. Webb said, but that that was a matter for the county commissioners to decide.

"We have had unequivocal cooperation from the county commission, Dr. Webb said. He said City Manager Garland Franks had also pledged full cooperation. City Health Engineer Raymond Salmon's services had been donated by the city.

Both Howard and Webb acknowledged there would be some citizens who would not comply with the instructions to be given. But that, they stated, is to be expected.

If there are such cases, they added, the sponsoring organizations are going to use sound trucks to tour the streets, pointing out those places or residences which refuse to comply, in the drive to eradicate sources of infectious disease.

Aleman's strongest opponent is Padilla, who served in Avila Camacho's cabinet with Aleman. Padilla has the backing of the newly-organized Mexican democratic party (PDM). He derives much of his support from Mexicans who, dissatisfied with the political domination of the PRI, charges that Aleman was "imposed" on the people by strong-armed political tactics.

Padilla also draws voting strength from the devout Catholic element opposing government policies toward the church.

The two other candidates, General Calderon and General Castro, have not made vigorous campaigns. Aleman and Padilla have visited many of the 28 states and three territories in campaign junkets.

Home-Violation Can't Warrant Murder

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

The judge who freed Capt. Archie B. Miller, who had confessed that he killed his wife's sweetheart when he found him in her home, is reported to have said after handing down his verdict: "I think any red-blooded American would have acted as you did under similar circumstances. I don't think it is necessary to make an example of you for society."

It would have been better if any red-blooded American had been left out of this discussion.

Because so many homes are being violated today, we dare not assume that murder is that natural reaction of a red-blooded American to the tragic, though common, situation.

Under the circumstances, we had better start talking about "civilized behavior" instead of "red-blooded reaction." We had better hold up as a normal reaction something less violent than murder.

Just how should a husband (or wife) with red blood in his veins be expected to react to the violation of his home—in a time when such an occurrence is not an uncommon thing? Isn't it high time we figured that out?

LET'S STRESS INTELLIGENCE

Shouldn't we give human beings an intelligent reaction to strive toward, instead of talking about red-blooded reactions?

If we don't, and if most husbands and wives are red-blooded Americans, we are going to be in for a lot of murders.

For American homes are violated every day. Our divorce trials testify to that.

Beethoven, Bach, Duetter and Wagner. Politically, I don't make much difference between the British and the Americans in their attitude toward Germany.

I don't understand their policy and I don't agree with their future plans for Germany. Why do they keep us at war after one year of Allied victory? What is the use of talking so much about "democracy" and reconstruction if there is not the principal basis for it: Peace. I feel they should not restrict us too much. Let Germany start running again—have its industries working again first—and then take the reparations you and other countries desire.

I am just in the marriage age. I wonder whether I will ever find the right husband. From the newspapers I learn that there are seven girls to every man in Berlin. I certainly don't want to share my boy friend or future husband with six other girls.

Generally speaking, I am very much in favor of American-German marriages. I consider this a very lucky solution for the poor girls who otherwise would have to stay single all their lives.

I would marry an American, I feel I am marrying the man and not his nationality. If I love him I don't care what nation he belongs to, and I will follow him wherever he has to go.

I like to have dates, meet nice people, do a bit of flirting, throw a big party. I like an opera performance, a piano concert, a horseback ride in the morning, a golf game or a boat sail.

But very few of us can realize this, unless we have a friend in the occupation army. Many people watch German girls accompanied by an American with bitter ideas in their heads, but I cannot blame anybody or even myself for catching a little bit of this sunny side of the street.

I hate to run around improperly dressed in shabby shoes and wornout clothes. If there is no other way I even go to the black market.

When you go shopping, you meet all the daily problems combined. You have to take egg powder instead of meat and when you ask for your sugar ration you have to take crackers because they don't have sugar.

You pass up the vegetable store because the queue there is so long you decide you would lose more calories standing in line than you get from the vegetables.

The family sits together in the evening discussing the project of selling a carpet or trading a china set for food.

I hate to see my mother as skinny as she is. She loves it if I bring her home some candy or a pack of powdered milk. But she would never want me to accept anything which is something else than a gift.

She needs't worry though. I have American friends, I have German friends. I know British and French people.

They treat me as a lady—not as a krait. I am very grateful toward my American friends because they make me forget my daily troubles for a little while. They have made me curious about the states.

One thing I know—I will go there and see the country and the people as soon as I have a chance. I wish also many Americans would have

Summer Time Is Dangerous For Young Men

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Young men and particularly war veterans, are warned by the statisticians of the Metropolitan Life insurance company that summer is the most dangerous season of the year for them. The special hazards arise mainly out of accidental injuries from sports and other recreational activities. The warning is addressed especially to war veterans because "a large proportion of them have not had a chance for a long while to indulge their love for summer sports or to drive motor vehicles, and they will undoubtedly take advantage of their new opportunities."

Accidents have long been the leading cause of death in the United States among boys and young men between the ages of 15 to 24 years. In peacetime this accident toll was around 10,500 annually, with more than 40 percent of the fatal injuries occurring in the four-month period, June through September. Indications are that the figures will be higher this year.

Motor vehicle injuries alone in peacetime years accounted for more than one half the deaths from all accidents among Metropolitan's white male industrial policyholders aged 15 to 24 years. Such accidents have increased sharply since driving restrictions were relaxed a year ago.

One sixth of the accident fatalities among the insured in this age range resulted from drownings. Accidents while swimming or handling small boats during the vacation season account for a large percentage of these deaths, one reason being that too few young people can swim.

The ability to handle firearms, acquired in the services, will be utilized by a large number of veterans. The statisticians warn that this will probably mean an increased toll of firearm accidents, particularly when the hunting season gets under way.

WICHITA, Kas.—(AP)—Police, called to investigate an accident, discovered the uninjured driver of the car involved was slightly underage. He was two-year-old Ronnie Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hall. Patrolman Ben Calvert said Ronnie started the car, apparently left in gear, after finding the keys on a table inside the house. The car traveled about 50 feet, grazed one tree and smashed into another. Ronnie completed the drive without a scratch. Calvert estimated the damage to the car at $300.

30,000 Calls Daily Go Through Telephone Exchange, Some Expansion Being Planned

When you lift your receiver to call a number, there may have been a good deal of time elapsed in some cases, before the operator signaled you. That has happened more frequently at Pampa in past months, and complaints have been made. The management explained to the public on occasions that the facilities were "overloaded."

But even at that some of us did not understand—at least we were not in sympathy with what the company was seeking to do. The policy of the company, as it has been stated, has been to sacrifice—for a time—the quality of the service in order to furnish more people with telephones.

That, they say, has been the policy in all cities, large and small. In order that we might understand more fully what are the problems facing the telephone people, the writer of this article along with the publisher of this newspaper, visited the telephone exchange here one busy morning this past week. We saw seated at a huge switchboard (see larger cut) 21 people working at as many sections of that board. There are 10 local and 11 toll operators. Before them was a maze of connecting wires (or plugs). Lights were flashing off and on incessantly, and there was a low murmur of voices.

One does not have to remain there long to realize that it takes training and attentive application to talk to the "customers," and at the same time not talk too loudly for adjacent operators. But the whole operation is carried off much more smoothly than one who has not seen the boards would imagine.

When you raised that receiver and there was a long lapse of time (at least what we thought was a long lapse of time), we could imagine the operators were "sitting around talking to each other." Actually there is little talking to each other among the operators. The fact is they are busy attending those lines, which, we must bear in mind, are overloaded.

Overloaded lines means that there is a large number of lines with more than one party on them. Hence, the number of calls handled by the operators is increased immensely.

To quote a few figures, as given us by J. C. Wright, district traffic superintendent, whose office is in Amarillo; and by Jack Johnson, local manager:

There are more than 4,400 telephones in service here—an increase of almost 50 percent in the past five years. Moreover, as of June 25, there were 382 persons waiting for telephone service here.

The number of operators has been nearly doubled since 1941, and an average of 5,200 more calls PER DAY are now being handled in Pampa than were being handled two years ago. Sixty-seven operators here now handle an average of more than 29,700 daily calls (24 hours).

About 800 long distance calls will go through the local board in 24 hours. At the time of the reporter's interview, the long distance operators were behind. They were informing local persons that their calls would be delayed from 30 minutes to one hour. This is done in order to save the time of the persons placing the long distance calls.

There are 29 LD lines out of Pampa. The main ones are: 11 to Amarillo, three to Oklahoma City, one to Canadian, and four to Berger.

Then, it may be asked, what does the company plan to speed up the service? And when will this plan be put into effect? To this, the management says that there is a current plan to install three more sections of switchboard and 600 new lines. However, there is no more space in the present office to install this added equipment.

Therefore, "it is necessary," they state, "to enlarge the office building before we can install this new equipment."

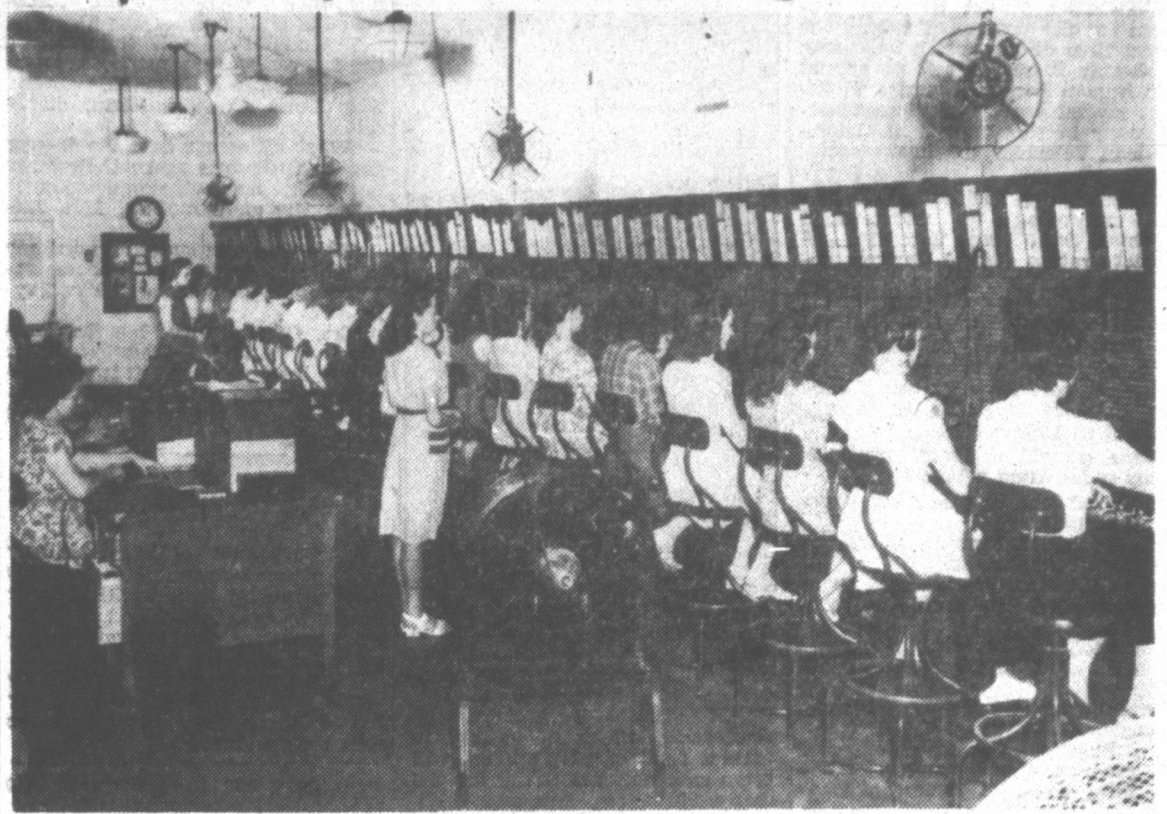

The floor space of the building will be increased by about one-fourth, going all the way back to the alley on the property, when materials can be obtained. Proportionately more new customers are being added in Pampa than in the larger cities, where there are dial systems, because there is a greater shortage of dial than call-type phones, it was stated.

Priority goes to the cities which already have dial phones, when new equipment becomes available.

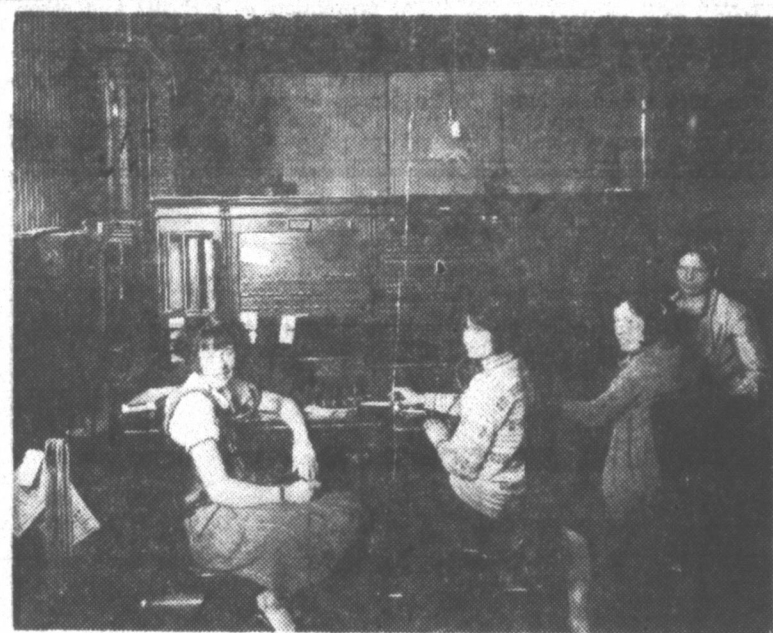

Although dial telephones, as most people realize, will be installed in most of the cities in the nation at some unforeseeable date; no plans have been forwarded for a dial system at Pampa. They will come to Pampa sometime, they venture to say, but they do not wish to commit themselves, not even on an approximate date.

The management stated that the public is invited to visit the office here and see the operators at work. If large groups wish to go through the exchange, they are urged to give advance notice. Manager Johnson said.

Wheat with low protein content is the result of excessive rainfall in the latter period of growth.

LARGER PICTURE, which was taken a few days ago, shows what the Pampa telephone exchange looks like today. There are 21 positions at the board, 10 for local calls and 11 for toll calls. Some 30,000 calls go through this board in 24 hours, declared at this time to be overlooked. Standing in background is Mrs. Lillie Fowler, chief operator, whose job it is to supervise the board; and nearer camera is Mrs. Minelle Turner, evening chief operator. Training of new operators goes on all time.

SMALLER PICTURE—This photo was taken in 1925, when Pampa's exchange, comparatively small, was located over the National bank building. There are about 70 operators, all told, employed here now. There was surely no more than 10 back in '25.

★ About that old prescription Dr. Jones wrote for you two years ago. The bottle is on the shelf in your medicine cabinet, about one-fourth full. It would be safer for you and your family to discard it. Someone might take it by mistake, or a child may be attracted to it by the bright color and do himself harm. Shamrock Cleans-Up To Avoid More Polio

SHAMROCK, (Special)—A case of polio, reported to the City hospital last week, caused Dr. Howard Y. Sigler, city health officer to issue a warning to Shamrock residents to clean up their town and prevent a spread of the dreaded disease.

Gerald White, 19-month-old boy whose parents reside in the Dozier community, was brought to the hospital, and the case was diagnosed as polio in a light stage. The boy is expected to be released from the hospital soon, and it is hoped that he will not be crippled as a result of the disease.

Dr. Sigler urged that all garbage cans be covered, chicken pens and cattle kept outside of the city limits, and cans should be sprayed by garbage collectors. "All persons who are engaged in the handling of food should have a Wasserman test and proper sterilization of all dishes and silverware in all eating houses should be enforced," says the city health officer.

National Program For Controlling Rabies Suggested

CHICAGO, Ill.—A national program for the control of rabies, the dread virus disease which has taken a sharply increased toll of animal and human lives in America in the past several years, was recommended today in the Journal of the American Veterinary Medical Association.

Declaring the incidence of rabies was mounting to "nonsensical heights," the Journal urged an immediate rabies control program coordinated by a national agency. As worked out by a special animal health sub-committee of the National Research Council, the plan proposes: Co-ordination and supervision of rabies control by the Bureau of Animal Industry of the U. S. department of agriculture.

State control programs supervised by a full-time veterinarian.

Required reporting of rabies cases to authorities.

An educational program on the hazards of the disease.

Required vaccination and quarantine of all dogs in areas where rabies occurs.

Taxation and licensing of dogs as a means of enforcing control regulations.

Prompt picking up of all stray animals.

To illustrate the importance of the problem, the Journal cites 10,547 fatal cases of rabies in 1944, the last year for which complete statistics were available, as compared with totals of 9,890 in 1943, 7,165 in 1942, 7,877 in 1941 and 7,238 in 1940.

The 1944 figure included 83 human deaths, the report said, and about 30,000 other persons received

84-Year-Old Will Marry Girl of 23

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—An 84-year-old retired building contractor Monday will marry a 23-year-old girl he first met when she was a laughing three-year-old child and he was 64.

The marriage will terminate a brief seven-week romance between John S. Smith of Miami Beach and Mrs. Doris Akins, a Miami divorcee.

"What difference does the 61-year gap in their ages make if they are happy in each other's company?" asked the girl's mother, Mrs. Andrew Taylor.

"He wants companionship and my daughter is ready to settle down after an unhappy marriage," Mrs. Taylor said.

Mrs. Akins divorced her first husband June 27 for desertion. He is now in the army. She has two daughters, 5 and 4, by the marriage.

Smith's first wife died about three years ago.

Filipinos Attempt To Quell Uprising

MANILA—(AP)—Filipino military police yesterday sought to quell this new republic's first uprising after four men had been killed in Pampanga province when 200 raiders ambushed a military police patrol.

The raiders assertedly were giving battle to the Filipino police after having taken the weapons of the men they ambushed.

were dogs, 690 farm livestock, 419 cats and 311 other animals. Because canine cases are by far the most numerous, it was emphasized that quarantine and vaccination of dogs must be the basis of any rabies control program.

Old Fort Clark, Hero of West, To Get Its 'Honorable Discharge'

By GARTH JONES

BRACKETVILLE—(AP)—An old army veteran who helped bring civilization to a wild western frontier and then stayed through four wars and almost a century of military duty to keep it there, is about to be discharged from service.

The "discharge" will read: "Fort Clark, Bracketville, Texas, established June 15, 1852; declared surplus, 1945; disposed of, 1946.

Under the heading "honorable military service" will be:

- "Numerous Indian raids
- "Civil War—1861-1865
- "War with Spain—1898-1899
- "Mexican bandit raids and cattle rustler fights.
- "World War I—1917-1918
- "World War II—1940-1945

Even for an old soldier that is quite a record.

But the war department says it is time for retirement. Last year the little regimental post, just a few miles from the Mexican border, was declared surplus by the army. It was turned over to the war assets administration for disposal.

First the WAA asked for bids for outright sale of the post and its facilities. The highest was a $411,250 bid from the Texas Railway Equipment Co., Houston.

Recently two bills were introduced in the house to authorize the transfer of the abandoned post to the "Fort Clark military institute." The institute is incorporated under Texas laws as a non-profit educational enterprise. Among the directors are ex-vic president John Nance Garner and Amon G. Carter, Fort Worth Star-Telegram publisher.

Directors of the enterprise say the army center will be converted into a military school if the bills are approved.

So, the "old veteran" may stay closely associated with the military service after all. From active training of the nation's soldiers for the world's battlefronts to the training of the nation's youth in military education is not a far step for a retired soldier.

The current crisis is not the first for the post.

The first break in operation came with the civil war. Fort Clark was one of the 18 federal posts surrendered to the Texas commission in February, 1861. On March 19 the federal troops evacuated. Shortly afterwards Texas volunteers occupied the post.

Federal troops returned in 1866. "Sactus Jack" Garner had a part in the second "crisis" just as he is now.

"Back in President Teddy Roosevelt's administration, he and old man Taft, then secretary of war, were planning to pull the soldiers out of Fort Clark and guard the border from Stanton," Garner said in an interview several years ago.

"I flung my coat tails up there in my best routine congressional manner and told them it would be a sin to waste the best horses, the best linker, and the prettiest women of any place on the border.

"They both laughed like hell—and revoked the order," Garner said. In 1911 there was a movement to have Fort Clark ceded to the State of Texas by act of congress.

However, about this time the United States began having trouble with Mexican bandits. The movement was quickly abandoned.

There are some authorities who say that Robert E. Lee once served a brief tenure at Fort Clark when he was fresh out of West Point.

The post and the Artesian springs, Las Moras springs, were a gathering place and stopping point for all travelers along the border in the early days.

Wagon trains and cattle drives stopped there for the cool spring water and protection from Indian bandits and rustlers.

A town grew up outside the gates of the fort. Today Bracketville, Texas, has a population of more than 2,600 and is the county seat of Kinney county.

There is still another "town" at Fort Clark—the old post cemetery unused for many years. The violence and bloodshed of the Mexican border in the early days filled this cemetery.

Throughout the past 94 years Fort Clark has served honorably, for both military and civilian purposes.

Now, it is time for the "old soldier" to be discharged.

Employees of Transit Lines Return to Work

SAN FRANCISCO—(AP)—The return to work of about 140 A.F.T. employees of the California Street Cable Railroad company yesterday restored service on the last of San Francisco's transit lines which had been inoperative because of a CIO-A.F.T. carmen's strike.

Federal Conciliator Omar Hoskins announced the cable car employees accepted a settlement of their wage dispute which provides an increase from 87 cents to $1.10 an hour for platform employees. He said the company and union officials also agreed on further negotiations on wages, hours and working conditions, with two months' retroactive pay or arbitration of retroactivity on any increases obtained by negotiation or arbitration subsequent to Nov. 6.

R. F. ROSSMAN—Head of the Cabot rubber research group since 1944. R. F. Rossman (above) has been transferred from Boston to Pampa, where he will be in charge of research in Cabot blacks for the rubber industry. He and his family will reside at 1204 Charles street.

GEORGE J. DUFFY—Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. has sent George J. Duffy, (above) technical manager in the Cabot research and development department, to Pampa, to take charge of research and production of Cabot color blacks for the paint, lacquer, ink and paper industries. He and his family will reside at 1312 N. Russell.

Cabot Research Technicians Come Here

Two new key men of the Cabot companies are scheduled to arrive here at Pampa this week-end, to make their home, according to information received from local officials of the company and from the office of Godfrey L. Cabot, Boston, Mass.

The men, coming from the Cabot laboratories in Boston, will use their talent in the expansion of the company's technical and sales service. They are R. F. Rossman, who has been head of the Cabot rubber research group since 1944, and George J. Duffy, technical manager of special carbon blacks in the Cabot research and development department. Duffy is reported to be an authority on the special blacks made by Cabot for paints, lacquers, paper, and printing and lithographic inks.

Reno Stinson, executive assistant here, said yesterday that both men have purchased homes here. Duggy to live at 1312 N. Russell, and Rossman at 1204 Charles. Both men are married and have children.

"We are mighty glad to have Both Duffy and Rossman will work with W. L. Loving, head of Cabot research and development in the field.

The Boston office said: "Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc. has made these changes because the company, Mr. Duffy and Mr. Rossman feel that they will create an opportunity to be of greater service to the industries which use carbon black."

Rossman was given his B. S. degree in chemical engineering at the South Dakota state school of mines and technology in 1934, and went on to receive his masters in physical chemistry at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1936. He joined the Cabot staff of chemists in 1937.

Duffy was awarded his B. S. in Mass. in 1937. He has been with chemistry at Tufts college, Medford, Cabot since 1940, and for six years has directed much of the Cabot research and development of new products, both in the Boston laboratory and in the plants here in the Southwest. He was in charge of research in special blacks at the time of his transfer to Pampa.

Local Theaters Are Improved

Wayne Wallace, manager of the Griffith Theaters in Pampa, stated today that there has been some improvements made in the La Nora, Rex, and Crown theatres, and that more changes will be made in the near future.

A new air conditioning system has been installed in the La Nora, making the balcony as cool as the rest of the theatre. New fans which blow out 10,000 cubic feet of air per minute have been installed in the balcony, and together with those already in operation the entire theatre is kept quite cool.

Another improvement is the installation of refrigerated water coolers, one in the lobby on the lower floor and one on the balcony lobby. Other improvements such as the installation of neon lighting, a new screen, and new projection equipment is planned, but has not been completed as yet, according to Wallace.

As for the other theatres, a new white plastic moulded screen has been set up in the Crown and another has been ordered for the Rex. Each of the theatres will have new projection equipment, and it has been planned to redecorate them all. Renovation of the Rex has been completed only a short time.

Discovery of Uranium In Factory Revealed

ESEN, Germany—(AP)—British military government authorities have disclosed that three quarters of a ton of uranium ore—an ingredient of the atomic bomb—had been discovered in the devastated Krupp Munitions works here.

These officials expressed the opinion that Krupp used uranium ore experimentally to produce a special hard steel for warheads on projectiles. The ore, found in a shed which was blasted by heavy bombs, has been shipped to England. Its retention in Germany is forbidden under the Potsdam agreement.

Every-day Indians believed the gold in California soil resulted from falling petals of the golden California poppy.

Weekend Roar of Atom Bomb, OPA Makes FEPC Fade

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON—(AP)—In the week and roar of Bikini's atomic bomb and the feverish finish of OPA you may have overlooked the end of an experiment in human relations.

This was the FEPC, the fair employment practice committee. It died Sunday at midnight.

But the death of this temporary agency does not mean that the idea is dead.

It is a fight likely to go on for years.

President Roosevelt created FEPC five years ago in an effort to prevent wartime discrimination against workers in government jobs or war plants—because of color, race or religious belief.

It had some good success, it had some failures. But since war's end the thing it set out to do has become largely undone and discrimination is back again.

Negroes made 80 percent of the claims of discrimination to FEPC. Congress a year ago had planned FEPC's death—since it was only a temporary, wartime agency—by giving it only enough money to wind up its business.

FEPC Chairman Malcom Ross, in his final letter to President Truman, explaining FEPC was folding on the scheduled date, reviewed his agency's work, drew some conclusions and gave some advice. He said:

"In its five years FEPC satisfactorily settled 5,000 cases of discrimination, including 40 strikes, by peaceful negotiations and persuasion.

But peaceful persuasion alone wasn't the whole answer, for a lot of employers ended their discrimination because they needed war workers, or were patriotic, or disliked exposure.

Employers and workers (workers discriminated against fellow workers) abandoned discrimination in most cases where the government stepped in.

Once the barriers were down, workers of varying races and religions worked together efficiently and learned to accept each other.

But the gains which such people as Negroes, Jews and Mexican-Americans made during the war began to disappear when wartime controls ended. Summing up, Ross told the President:

"Only congressional action—by setting up some kind of permanent FEPC—can end employment discrimination.

The republicans, but not the democrats, in their 1946 party platform said they favored a permanent FEPC. A bill to set up one was offered in congress in 1945.

It finally was called up in January, 1946, but Southern democrats put on a long filibuster to block it. It won't, except by miracle, come up again in this congress.

But a new bill is a cinch to be offered in the next congress which starts in 1947. Southern democrats will certainly fight it again.

Meanwhile, several states—among them New York—have set up laws against job discrimination because of race, creed or color.

Cost of Milk Higher Than Selling Price

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—(AP)—Directors of the New Mexico branch of the American Dairy association issued a statement yesterday saying "the average cost of producing a quart of milk is four cents above the June 30 price being paid by the consumer."

"This is due," said a statement, "to loss of the subsidy of 1.6 cents per quart and the balance represents the higher costs of feed and labor."

The adoption of the statement was the only action of a directors' meeting which was called two weeks ago when the dairy men were considering a strike to force the OPA to grant a price increase.

Santa Fe Has 30,243 Carloadings in Week

Santa Fe System carloadings for week ending June 29, 1946, were 30,243 compared with 30,739 for same week in 1945. Cars received from connections totaled 10,504 compared with 15,369 for same week in 1945. Total cars moved were 40,746 compared with 46,108 for same week in 1945. Santa Fe handled a total of 38,619 cars in preceding week of this year.

Gen. Donovan Speaks To Bar Association

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—The nation's policy can be no better than the information on which it is based. Maj. Gen. William J. Donovan, chief of the office of strategic services during the war, told the State Bar association last night.

He said that only by keeping informed of the aims, purposes and resources of other countries can a nation determine its policies toward its neighbors and maintain national security.

Paulette Goddard Makes Report on Paris Fashions

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—How could you find a better leg-woman than Paulette Goddard? I am speaking in newspaper terms, of course.

Paulette just returned from a flying trip to Europe where she negotiated a film deal in England, entertained troops in Germany and bought 12 gowns in Paris. She reported at luncheon what the Parisian girls are wearing, inasmuch as the women in the audience are doubtless interested in such things.

The Great Neck, N. Y., actress was sporting a weird French revolution hat with a dangling projection which nearly plopped in her calves, liver and bacon. She also wore a Parisian suit cut "way down to here."

Yes, everything is very decollete over there," she said. She made an X to diagram how the dresses are styled. As she described it, the dresses begin about a foot below the neck, come to a small waist and then spread out enormously.

"Everything is done to emphasize femininity," she said. Paulette reported the Parisian men girls are wearing, inasmuch as the women in the audience are doubtless interested in such things.

She said the French are greatly interested in American styles but still retain a flavor all their own. "Their dresses are so French," she said.

It might surprise you to know that the western is the hardest kind of picture for which to compose music. Richard Hageman says the reason is there's so little story.

Hageman, who conducted the Metropolitan opera orchestra for 17 years, is now writing music to background "The Angel and the Outlaw" and he claims it's no cinch job. He went out to the Arizona locations and recorded songs of real cowboys, not the vine street variety.

SAD STATE
CHICAGO—(AP)—Assistant State Attorney Leo Poeh, who is in charge of prosecuting criminals, stared intently at the group of suspects charged with robberies or holdups who appeared in criminal court.

Poeh explained he was held up and robbed of $200 and he will gladly be a complaining witness instead of prosecutor when the holdup men are apprehended.

Surplus Supply Ships To Dock in U. S. Soon

Nine additional ships loaded with thousands of tons of surplus equipment and supplies from the Pacific war theater, originally scheduled to dock at San Francisco, have been or will be diverted to other ports, it was announced today by the war assets administration. Two more will dock at San Francisco, as scheduled.

WAA's committee on the return of surplus property from overseas had previously diverted 20 ships from the congested San Francisco harbor, so that the surplus cargoes could be handled more expeditiously through other ports and disposed of to greater advantage.

The average consumer is paying a much higher price for softline items than he will be able to pay when appliances, automobiles and new homes are freely available.
