UNO Security Council To View Military-Political Situations Monday

Request by Russia Is Disregarded

LONDON, Jan. 25—(AP)—The United Nations Security Council formally agreed today to discuss the tense military-political situations in Iran, Greece and Indonesia at its next meeting.

The council thus disregarded a request from Soviet Russia that it decline to take up the dispute over Iran.

The next meeting will be held Monday.

11-MEMBER COUNCIL.
The 11-member council, proceeding to put the new world peace organization in working order, took steps to get its military staff committee functioning. The council ordered military representatives of the principal powers to hold their first meeting here by Feb. 1 when work will be started on the special agreements by which nations are to pludge land, sea and air forces to enforce security council orders when necessary.

FIVE-POINT REPLY.
The action to take up the situations in Iran, Greece and Indonesia came two hours after Russia had registered categorical opposition to Iranian complaint that the Red army has been interfering in Iran's internal affairs.

The chief Soviet delegate, vice-commissioner of foreign affairs Andrei Vishinsky, filed a letter with the council president, N. J. O. Makin of Australia, setting forth a five-point reply to the Iranian charge. He declared Iran's complaints were groundless and that the channels of direct negotiation between the two countries were open.

Vishinsky demanded and received assurances from the council president however that the decision to discuss the Iranian case would not adversely affect Russia's argument that the situation there is an internal one.

Makin said that at the next meeting the Soviet union could take whatever position it chose. The discussion presumably will be preliminary to a council decision whether to formally investigate the three

New High-Speed Plane Completed

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Jan. 25—(AP)—Described as the world's most powerful, high-speed long-range fighter—and the first plane to fly with a gas turbine engine designed for propeller drive and a jet engine in the rear—the XP-81 has been completed by Consolidated Vultee Aircraft Corp. and is now undergoing flight tests, the company announced today.

The plane has two complete power units, a gas turbine in the nose to drive the four-bladed propeller and a jet engine in the fuselage aft of the pilot. With both units it can attain speeds in excess of 500 miles an hour, and the combined power is virtually the same as that produced by all four engines on a B-29 Superfortress, the announcement said.

U.S. Army Claims First Contact With Moon by Means of Radar

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—(AP)—The army today claimed the world's first scientific contact with the moon in a Jules Verne feat which spanned 238,000 miles of outer space by radar.

Another possibility was that it might usher in radio control for super-range jet or rocket projectiles which could be kept hovering ominously above the earth in the stratosphere.

MAY ANSWER QUESTIONS.
Government astronomers said the achievement might lead to the answer of the age-old question whether any form of life exists on the moon.

The Juniper high school will be open all day tomorrow to receive clothing and Nuckols said it is hoped the city will go over its 26,000-garment quota.

The clothing is to be packed here and shipped to East Coast points from where it will be sent overseas to war-devastated countries of Europe and Asia.

Members of Pampa civic clubs have been working nearly every night this week preparing the clothes for shipment but Nuckols said the response of residents has not come up to the expected levels.

Nuckols reminded Pampans that the city has never failed to go over the top in any drive held here during the past and it is hoped the record will not be broken.

All kinds of clothing for men, women and children are needed in the drive in addition to bedding and similar articles.

Clothing should be clean but articles which require dry cleaning need not be especially cleaned for the drive.

Five Pampans Enlist In Regular Army Corps

Five boys of the Pampa area have enlisted in the regular army, as reported by the local recruiting officer. All selected the corps of engineers and the European theater of operations.

The boys are: Theron H. Willson, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Willson, 1126 S. Wilcox; Jesse A. Conner, husband of Ariuta Ruth Conner and son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Conner, box 881; Robert B. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jessie M. Campbell, 407 S. Gillespie; Johnnie K. Giddens, husband of Earline Maxine Giddens, and son of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Giddens, Allison; and Henry T. Davis, son of Mrs. Myrtle D. Davis, Leffers.

Cub Pack 22 Meets Tonight at School

Members of Cub Pack 22, their parents and prospective pack members will meet tonight at 7:30 at Horace Mann school at which time members of the Pack committee will receive charters.

Richard W. Wilson is Cubmaster of the newly-organized pack. Other committee members are E. N. Franklin, Ray Shepard, W. O. Prewit, Earl Isely, Henry Norman, H. L. Coombs and Minor Langford.

996 Polio Cases in State During 1945

AUSTIN, Jan. 25—(AP)—The state department of health reported today that Texas was "especially affected" by infantile paralysis during 1945. Of the 13,733 cases reported in the entire United States, 996 were from Texas, a ratio of about one to 13.

AUSTRALIANS MAKE CLAIM.
LOS ANGELES, Jan. 25—(AP)—Australians made radar contact with the moon shortly before the Pacific war broke out, a former Australian army major disclosed last night.

Civic Clubs Collect Funds Here Saturday

Members of five Pampa organizations will "take over" downtown street corners tomorrow to collect funds for the March of Dimes campaign.

The annual drive, which got underway here January 14, is to provide funds with which to fight infantile paralysis.

Half the funds collected in Gray county will remain here for use in holding down the dread disease and the other half will go to the national foundation, headed by Basil O'Conner.

The five organizations—Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis Junior chamber of commerce, and the American Legion—have been assigned street corners on which their club's "barrel" will be placed.

A concert by the Pampa community singers at eight o'clock tonight in the Palm room of the city hall is also being given to add funds to the drive.

M. M. Keeon, president of the community singers, said today that the admission price will be charged but a free-will offering will be taken and proceeds will be given to the drive.

Members of the Business and Professional Women's club and the Girl Scouts started yesterday making collections in the three Pampa theaters.

The drive will be climaxed next Thursday by three dances, two modern and one old-timers dance.

The modern dances will be held at the American Legion hall and the old-timers' dance is to be held at the Junior high gym.

Joe Fischer, president of the Junior chamber of commerce, is in charge of ticket sales for the dances.

Fischer has distributed groups of tickets to committee chairman in each of the civic clubs and they are on sale now. Deadline for reporting of ticket sales is Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Committee chairmen will meet at the Court House cafe Wednesday and turn in their reports.

Chairmen are Cliff Ausmus, Rotary; Charlie Thut, Lions, and Fischer, P. C. W. B. Weathered, Kiwanis. Jaycees will start selling the tickets Tuesday.

Fischer said he had not appointed

Government Gets AFL's Cooperation

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—(AP)—President Truman today checked to Secretary of Agriculture Anderson the proposal of CIO packinghouse workers for a conference on wage issues in the strike-beset meat industry.

TO SEIZE PLANTS TOMORROW.
Press Secretary Charles G. Ross disclosed Mr. Truman's action. Anderson, who was directed by the President to seize and operate the industry beginning tomorrow, told reporters he had no comment.

AFL PLEDGES COOPERATION.
The 193,000 CIO workers thus far have not indicated whether they will return to work under government supervision.

The 55,000 AFL workers have pledged cooperation.

Meanwhile, a source in a position to know said that government fact-finders would make wage recommendations quickly in the meat controversy.

FACT-FINDINGS.
A high government official who would not be named disclosed the fact-finding board's schedule calls for an announcement of findings "within a week"—paying the way for possible federal sponsored pay raises.

President Truman yesterday ordered the department of agriculture to take over 134 strike-bound plants of 19 companies at 12:01 a. m. CST tomorrow.

GOVERNING LAWS.
Under the Smith-Connally act, if the government or a majority of the employees of seized plants must ask the wage stabilization board to adjust wages. If the board approves, the adjustment becomes effective regardless of management's views.

Whether this procedure would be followed in the meat industry remained open.

Public hearings before the panel began last Tuesday in Chicago.

President Truman Loses $1,650,000 To Indian Givers

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—(AP)—President Truman found himself minus exactly $1,650,000 today.

That was the money he had for the White House, which would be complete with the theatre boasting a disappearing state, a cafeteria, more office space, plus a lot of other improvements.

Excavations already have started for the addition, which has kicked up a local fuss among architecturally-minded groups who contend it will mar the classic appearance of the executive mansion.

Mr. Truman's predicament is that the $1,650,000 voted by congress a year ago for the work was ordered turned back to the treasury yesterday by the house.

A republican-backed "economy" motion was responsible for snatching back the money (at least temporarily) and making the lawmakers look like Indian givers.

The White House program came a cropper when the house took up a $5,593,262,626 appropriation bill. Rep. Case (R-S.D.) lacked an amendment on it providing that all the construction fund be returned to the treasury, except for $883,660 which was to be used instead for normal White House operating expenses.

This amendment was adopted by a standing vote of 110 to 41.

It appeared probable that the senate would attempt to restore the White House funds and ask the house later to relent or at least compromise on a smaller cut.

Compromise on FEPC Legislation Proposed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—(AP)—The olive branch of compromise was offered today in Capitol Hill to end the FEPC filibuster, now orating into its second wordy week.

Senate peacemakers proposed two basic changes in the legislation to set up a permanent fair employment practice commission to prevent racial discrimination in industry, labor or government.

Instead of having the act apply to employers and unions with more than six employees or members, the base would be tilted to 50.

To meet protests from some southern senators that FEPC would function as a "Kangaroo Court," acting as prosecutor, judge and jury, the negotiators have suggested that any discrimination charges be tried in federal district courts.

Seizure of Texas Meat Plants Set

By The Associated Press
The government, in its seizure of the meat packing industry, has announced intentions of taking over three Texas plants that are not yet bound.

UNTRoubLED BY STRIKES.
President Truman said 134 meat plants will be taken over at 12:01 a. m. Saturday. In the list were Swift plants at Dallas, Fort Worth and San Antonio so far untroubled by strikes. Not on the list was a Swift plant at Houston where a strike of AFL workers has been in progress since Monday. Irvin Horbison, business agent of Local 103 of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher workmen's union (AFL) said about 50 employees were still off the job at the Houston plant last night.

LIVESTOCK HANDLERS.
Government seizure of two pack-houses at Fort Worth, Armour and company and its subsidiary, Ratliff Pure Foods Products company, were ordered. Both have been strikebound.

Mr. Truman's seizure order made no mention of the livestock handlers strike at Fort Worth but an aide of Secretary of Agriculture Anderson commented that he expected the CIO handlers both at Fort Worth and St. Louis, Mo., to return to work after the government takes over meat plants in those cities.

Meanwhile, the navy announced intended return of the Shell Oil re-

A-Bomb Test Will Cost Half Billion

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—(AP)—The test of the A-bomb versus the modern warship stacked up today as a proposition that will cost close to a half billion dollars, if not more.

The exact amount was impossible to calculate, but navy figures supplied an indication of what would be involved in the forthcoming atomic experiment on the Pacific.

This is what they show:
It cost $230,000,000 alone for the bulk and engines of the 47 U. S. combat units assigned to the Guinea pig fleet.

It cost more than $100,000,000 more for the navy transports which make up about half of the 47 non-combat types which also will be targets.

Moreover, navy men have estimated unofficially that the operating expenses involved in staging the experiment next spring will run approximately $100,000,000. The pay of personnel and cost of supplies would boost that total.

Arrangements for the program of the annual Adobe-Walls Council meeting to be held February 7 were to be made at a meeting of the program committee held at the Schnelker hotel this noon.

Members attending were Rev. E. Douglas Carver, chairman; Farris C. Oden, Judge Sherman White and Hugo O. Olsen.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Scripture Exodus, 24-40, especially 28:1; 35:4-9 20-29

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
The Scripture for this lesson is verses 20-29 of the 35th chapter of Exodus.

Exodus is very remarkable, considering the times out of which it comes, and is worthy of careful observation of its significant phrasing. It relates to crude times, of times in a tent, far ante-dating the splendor and magnificence of the Temple of Solomon, of the immense grandeur of the Temple of Jerusalem, yet in it is expressed the true spirit of what sincere worship ought to be at any time, and in any place.

Note the phrasing: it tells how "every one whose heart stirred him up and every one whom his spirit made willing" brought offerings for the work of the tabernacle of the congregation. It was a consecration on the part of both, both men and women, of the best that they had to offer, and of the best that they could do—for they brought not only the dyed stuffs of blue and purple and scarlet, and the things of linen and goats' hair, and fine wools and skins; and the women not only brought their jewelry, but they brought also the work of their hands, the things fashioned in wood and metal by the men, the things woven and spun by the women, the "wisehearted" women.

Willingness was of the essence of all that they gave, and willingness is at the heart of all true worship. The high level of worship, however, is not all reached in giving, not even in voluntary giving. People have made their sincere and devout sacrifice to idols, bringing their treasures to dump and images, gods of wood and stone, and the things that adorn cathedrals and churches may have little more real significance and spiritual value than the things offered to idols, if there be not intelligent minds and loving hearts associated with the offerings for adoration.

The truest adoration of cathedrals and churches must always be the souls of sincere worshippers, drawn by the cords of love to God and to one another. The worship of the tabernacle was only a beginning, a foundation for the true worship of the heart. It was thus that Paul declared that gifts, and even the giving of one's body to be burned profited nothing, if there were not love in the heart. Jesus defined true worship as consisting, not in outward gifts, but in its spiritual content. "God is a spirit, and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth."

But worship in spirit and in truth is not giftless worship. The measure of our inward devotion is often the extent and depth of our outward gifts. Is not this particularly true at the present time, when throughout the world there is such dire need and suffering? If religion at its highest consists of love for God and our fellowmen, its needful expression is in the things that will feed the hungry, clothe the cold and naked, and bring warmth and protection to the homeless and suffering millions.

It is in this large cathedral of God's world that we must with willing spirits and hearts "stirred up" make our offerings ample and effective today. That ancient expression of Jewish worship in the tabernacle in the wilderness was a great and noble outburst of community spirit; and today our community is the whole world, and all humanity.

Special Music at Methodist Church

The morning worship in the sanctuary at the First Methodist church, at 10:55 will begin with the organ prelude, "Intermezzo in C" by Pauline. Other organ numbers for this service, played by Mrs. John Skelly, will be "Elegiac Melody" by Greig and a postlude of Handel. The choir under the direction of Mr. Warren Hohl will sing "Fierce Raged The Tempest" by Cardyn and Miss Hart Anderson will sing "Beside Still Waters" by Hamblen. Congregational hymn-singing will consist of the following familiar hymns—"I Love To Tell The Story," "Faith of Our Fathers" and "Take The Name of Jesus With You."

Religious Education Problems Are Topic

CHICAGO—Problems facing the program of religious education during post-war readjustment will be discussed by leaders in the field representing 90 percent of American Protestantism at the 24th annual meeting of the international council of religious education to be held at Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 10-16, according to Dr. Roy G. Ross, general secretary of the council. "Unifying the Spiritual Forces in Community Life" will be emphasized in evening sessions and the 17 simultaneous advisory sessions meeting the first thereof says more than 1,200 lay and professional religious educators are expected to attend representing the 42 denominations and the 173 state, city and provincial councils of churches and religious education of the United States and Canada which are members of the international council.

"The death and devastation of armed conflict, at least on a world scale, are over; but the results of war are still with us, whether viewed in terms of the physical, mental, moral or spiritual well-being of our own peoples of this continent, or the peoples of the entire world," Dr. Ross stated in his announcement.

"The war cannot be over in any real sense until we have found the way to remove the factors and tensions which make possible recurring wars," he declared. "The precepts of Jesus constitute the only sound foundation on which to construct the political, social and economic structure for an enduring peace. The war is not over for the church until men have laid hold of the transforming power of God which gives the only real assurance of lasting peace."

Among outstanding speakers on the program is the council's president, Capt. Harold E. Stassen, former governor of Minnesota. Capt. Stassen will address a mass meeting of delegates and Columbus citizens on Sunday night on the subject, "The Christian Community and World Order." Highlight of the annual meeting will be the presentation of the first copy of the new Revised Standard Version of the New Testament to Capt. Stassen on Monday evening by Dr. Luther A. Weible of Yale Divinity school who will speak on "The Bible and Religious Education."

The coast guard cutter, Golden Gate, veteran of three wars, the San Francisco fire and earthquake, has been decommissioned. Bull, in the 119-foot Golden Gate helped fight the fire after the San Francisco earthquake in April, 1906, and has been used at various times to chase rum runners, inspect cargo, patrol, salvage and in rescue work.

Permanent Peace Is Sunday Topic

Rev. Rudolph G. Harvey, pastor of the Central Baptist church, will preach Sunday morning on "Permanent Peace: Is It Possible?" Preceding the message will be a special song service.
Sunday night services will begin at 8:30 p. m. with B. A. Stephenson in charge. All training union directors, leaders, sponsors, and pupils are urged to be in their places.
The pastor will preach Sunday night on "Christ Lifted Up Is the Hope of the World." W. L. Ayers, music director, will present a special message in song to precede the sermon.
The church has been having a Training Union revival and have had some good messages, books, singing, and fellowship. There were 290 enrolled in the various classes and an average attendance thus far of 307.
An invitation is given to all who do not have a church home and to all visitors to attend the worship services and worship with a "neighboring church for a neighboring people."

Calvary Baptist To Ordain Deacons

A special service is being held at the Calvary Baptist church on Sunday afternoon, January 27, for the ordination of deacons. The Presbytery is made up visiting pastors from other churches with Rev. J. D. Horton of Pierce St. Baptist church, Amarillo, preaching the ordination sermon. Anyone interested in a service of this kind is invited to be present at 2:30 p. m.
The morning services begin at 9:45 a. m. when the Sunday school opens. C. A. Bell, Sunday school superintendent, reports fine work being done in the school with departments and classes being provided for each age group. The morning worship service begins at 10:50 a. m. when A. L. Agermably leads the worship and the congregation in the worship hymns. Rev. E. M. Dunsworth, pastor, will fill the pulpit for both morning and evening services. Training Union is scheduled for 6:30 p. m.
Immediately following the evening service a youth fellowship hour is held when the young people meet in the basement where they have a sing-song, relate experiences, and have good time together.
The public is cordially invited to all of these services. The individuals who are living in Pampa and have not, as yet, found a church home are especially welcome in our Sunday's worship programs.

Christian Science Sunday Study Topic

"Truth" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 27.
The Golden Text is: "The Lord is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations." (Psalms 100:5.)
Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the truth" (Psalms 119:142).
The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Scriptures bring to light Truth and its supremacy, universal harmony, the entireness of God, good, and the nothingness of evil" (page 223).

Recommendations Will Be Discussed

A summary of the report on the "State of the Church in North Texas" will be presented at the morning service Sunday in St. Matthew's Episcopal church. The pastor, Rev. Edgar W. Henshaw, has been requested to prepare this report for presentation to the annual convention which meets in Abilene, Texas, February 10 and 11.
According to Rev. Henshaw, the recommendation to be made would change the "nirte set up for all missions aided by the national church in this area. He is urging all communicants and friends of the church to hear his summary.
The convention will be presided over by the Rt. Rev. Goodrich R. Fenner, bishop of Kansas and acting bishop of North Texas. Bishop Fenner will also be the convocation preacher and, in addition, will conduct a "quiet" hour for all delegates and the annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary which is meeting at the same time.

The "call" of the tree toad is generally considered as a prophesy of rain. There is some truth in this, because warm, moist air, which usually precedes rain, releases the male toad's mating urge, so he "sings."

Sugar mixtures for candy should be simmered slowly rather than boiled or they will crystallize in the pan.

Starvation Taking Toll of Children

Rickets is widespread among refugee children in Displaced Persons camps in Germany, and in Rotterdam some three-year old children look no older than three months as a result of a long-time starvation.
These are two of the startling facts just reported by Salvation Army workers abroad to the organization's national headquarters in New York.
Salvationist workers in Holland reported that babies as young as three weeks old are being treated for scabies caused through malnutrition and lack of soap.
In the south of Holland, where Salvationist teams are giving aid to child victims of the war, bags had to be made for the babies' hands to prevent them from rubbing the treatment lotion into their eyes.
In Displaced Persons camps in Germany, Polish boys and girls of eleven and twelve years old, who have spent six years in concentration camps, have never been to school and do not know their native language. Many six-year old children, born in captivity have not yet known life outside a camp.

Gracie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN Consolidated News Features My goodness, every time you look up these days you see one of those sky writers zooming along and leaving mile-high advertisements behind him. It must be awfully hard on poets who used to look at the clouds and the sunsets to get inspiration for their love lyrics. Now the sky just urges them to see the new Boris Karloff movie or buy a bottle of Koolha Kola.

I understand the sky writers are planning some improvements, too. Before long they expect to advertise at night and then to add technicalities. This should boost the sale of dark glasses and if they add some sound effects they'll be a big boom in ear muffs.

However, there's one way that sky writing could serve a fine purpose. Instead of squadrons of bombers, every country should have one plane that flies over other countries and writes "Best Wishes From a Friend" in the sky.

Trend Setting Peacetime Suits

Hippy Skirts, Big Sleeves Are News

NEW YORK — The peacetime switch-over of fashions from angles of curves is taking place, and the evidence in spring collections is big sleeves and hippy skirts. In case you haven't heard, about an inch has been added to the length of skirts.

But before you rush to your wardrobe to sort out your wartime duds, hear us out. There is a curb on curves. Until fabric shortages are eased up and government restrictions are lifted, the wartime silhouette will remain unchanged.

Whopping big sleeves which free suits, coats and dresses from the straight and narrow line are sometimes as big as they look. Again, the ballooning sleeve is more of a loop than a flap, for example, the new-curve, coat-like shoulder pleating, reminiscent of the Renaissance court sleeve, to create the effect of a larger size. Shown left on an Anthony Blois-designed wool suit of Florentine rose, these sleeves and shoulder pleats are made more eye-catching with vertical stripes of chalk white beading.

Coats that arrive for the new chubby look also depend upon big sleeves for that effect. Both the fitted and loose coat styles owe their rounded silhouette to sleeves which are actually voluminous or give that impression when they spring out from deepened armholes.

The fingertip coat of champagne fleece, second from right, owes its chubby look to long loose sleeves set into a round, drop-shoulder yoke. Eraceries of white capribilli and sequin embroidery focus interest upon this vogue of fashion.

The Eia-designed dress, second from left, has royal blue crepe dolman-sleeve sleeves and soft unpressed pleats to supply fullness at front of skirt. For dresses like this, as many pleats as the law allows are lined up on skirts, which also bell out once again from the hips like the circular cut of pre-war days. In the main, however, fullness of the trouser-pleat type is left into the hips of skirts which, kept narrow at the hem-line, create the new "barrel" or "lantern" silhouette.

We the Women

By RUTH MILLETT The Victory clothing collection this month aims at collecting funds for the American people for use by the suffering victims of war in Europe, China and the Philippines 100,000-000 garments — plus shoes and bedding.

Why don't we make it a family project this year—instead of leaving it all to Mamie or the mother-in-law? Dad go through his closet—or the third of the closet that is called his "half"—and decide what things he can get along without.

Let even the smallest children help look through their clothes for dresses, overalls, sweaters, coats and shoes that are outgrown.

Make sorting the clothing that is stored away in the basement or attic a family affair, not forgetting that if it has been stored away a year or more, it might as well be given away for use by the reserve army except for the question "Is it warm and still wearable?"

There might even be a contest in every family, to see which member can collect the largest pile of clothing. That might make it a little easier for us to get rid of things to heart's content. I might want it some day, or because "It's still perfectly good," to part with everything that isn't a necessary part of their working wardrobes.

Not only would American families collect more garments this way, current members of the family would share in the warm feeling of satisfaction that comes from doing something real and constructive to help suffering people.

This second clothing collection for the destitute people of other lands shouldn't be called "Mama's project." She can direct it—but every member of the family should have a part in the giving.

Sample Shoes Grow To Fit Women's Feet

The sole leather cutters report they are getting orders for slightly larger soles these days. One reason is that some shoe manufacturers have seen the footprints on the wall and have given up traditional 42 sample sizes. These producers are marching bravely to market with 7AA samples, no less!

The fact that size 7 is now considered closest to the average American woman's foot sums up lots of feminine history. Modern women get around these days—at home, at work, at play. The "Chinese Lily" type of foot, which was all right for grandmas just doesn't do for today's women.

Modern tanning and shoemaking have given women's shoes the flexible sole leather and firm fit that enable them to carry on these extensive and socially useful activities with comfort. Modern shoe design has created styles which flatter the normal, full-sized woman's foot. Even aside from considerations of comfort, today's women would never select tight or short shoes. For a really well fitting leather shoe that keeps its shape has become the first essential for foot fashion, as well as for comfort and health.

Greater activity and independence, and a greater appreciation of buoyant good health, have taught women that they need not be sensitive about large feet. Today fashion agrees with common sense: a normal, well-shod foot is worth a "second look" as the gals go by.

Civic Culture Club Elects New Officers

The Civic Culture club held elections of officers at their Tuesday afternoon meeting in the home of Mrs. F. W. Shotwell. Mrs. E. J. Kenney is the president-elect; Mrs. F. M. Sweeney, vice president; Mrs. H. W. Waters, secretary; Mrs. W. C. Wilson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Brandon, reporter; Mrs. F. W. Shotwell, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Emmet Gee, treasurer.

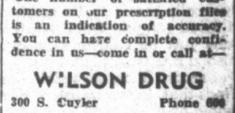

Mrs. Kenney spoke on the program, "Saints of Our Time," discussing the lives of Kagawa, the Christian of Japan, and Gandhi of India.

Eleven members and one guest, Mrs. Bill Bell, were present.

Television Programs Are Still in Crude Experimental Stage

Lavish Shows In Full Color To Come Later

By BURTON BENJAMIN
NEA Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, (NEA)—Ten years from now you may look at the television of 1946 with the same amused surprise you feel today when you see one of the cliff-hanging movies of the silent days.

It isn't that the television of today is so bad. It is simply that it's going to be so good later on.

When the stations are built and the millions of sets sold, television's tremendous costs will be shared by the advertiser. Network television will become a reality. While elaborate two-color dramas will come at first only from films or traveling repertoire companies, eventually they will originate in mammoth studios in New York, Chicago and Hollywood.

Programs of tomorrow will come to you in full, color, and stereo. They will combine the resources of the finest talent in the land. The output should be both lavish and impressive and your reception of it startlingly clear.

Like any industry in its swaddling clothes, television today is merely making a start. Its production techniques are experimental and some of its programs admittedly crude.

PREFER FILMS

"We don't know what constitutes a good television show and neither does anybody else," says Wortham Minor of CBS. "Nobody has done anything that you can point to and say: 'That is distinctively for television.'"

There are three types of television broadcasts today—live shows and remotes. The last includes both established pickups, such as sports from Madison Square Garden, and mobile pickups such as the Navy Day parade in New York.

A recent favorite of the Allen B. Dumont Laboratories, a television pioneer estimates that for the next few years, the output of individual stations will be 53.6 percent films, 28.5 percent live shows and 17.9 percent remotes.

After the news and sports shows, television fans today seem to prefer films. The major film companies have invested heavily in video. Paramount owns a 37 percent interest in Dumont, RKO in 14, and RCA and 20th Century and MGM have big money in the new medium. Yet the motion picture industry is keeping new films off the air.

Television films are old domestic or foreign documentaries, travelogues and newsreels. Some of the stations have their own cameramen for spot news coverage. Most of the films shown on the air are 16 mm although some 35 mm is also carried. Live shows offer the greatest programming challenge.

Says Philip Merryman of NBC: "We cannot ape the older forms of entertainment. The technique of the stage is not suitable, since television will use the world as its stage. The technique of the movies cannot be used. There are no retakes."

"The greatest thing we have to compete with," says Ben Feiner, Jr. of CBS, "is the imagination of radio. Television is utterly specific—space, time and image. Take the drama, for example. Two figures four inches high on the screen are up to 23 hours. The network calls this a drop in the $30,000,000 bucket of first class television programming.

One of the biggest jobs of television programming is to reduce costs, both for network and local shows. One operator estimates that a half-hour live show on a local station may cost as much as $725 for time and talent. This is beyond the means of many advertisers.

News and sports make up the remotes. Football, basketball, hockey and boxing are being covered today. Some predict the theater chains, not the radio advertisers, will buy the rights on big sports events of the future. They will be piped into the chain's theaters throughout the country over frequencies out of reach of home sets.

The power section, most of which added small fractions, dominated the ticker tape from the start in blocks of 1,000 to 15,000 shares. Speculative demand here apparently was based on "breakup" values and increasing prices for portfolios of holding companies.

Transfers totaled 2,210,000 shares compared with 2,949,000 Wednesday.

Bullish inspiration continued to be based on the inflationary implications of rising wages and costs in addition to hopes that widespread strikes may soon be adjusted.

Harvesters Play Spearman Tonight

Game Is Renewal Of 1945 Rivalry; Crowd Expected

A capacity crowd is expected to jam the Junior high gym tonight when the Pampa Harvesters will battle Spearman's Lynx in two games, the "B" game starting at 7:30.

Tonight's contest is the renewal of a rivalry that started last year when the Lynx handed Pampa its first defeat of the season in a 26-24 setback.

In the next scheduled game between the two teams, Pampa won a 25-24 decision in a game played on the local court to make the count one-all.

Both teams entered the Canadian tournament last year and met in a semi-final game, which Pampa won 27-21. The Harvesters bowed to Borger's Bulldogs in the finals.

Both teams have outstanding records this year. The Lynx have won over Phillips, Dumas, Stratford and other strong teams. Their exact won-lost record was not available today.

The Harvesters, victors in 10 out of 13 games, are rated as one of the top quintets in the state. The locals will open the defense of their District 1-AA title Tuesday night at Borger and intend to have a non-conference record of 11 wins and three losses before conference play starts.

Conference play is again divided into two sections this year. Pampa, Amarillo and Borger make up the northern loop and Plainview, Lubbock and Brownfield the southern. A champion in each loop is determined and the two titlists meet in a best-two-out-of-three series for the district title.

Pampa beat Plainview two straight games for the district crown last year, went on to beat Childress two straight for the bi-district title and lost to Greenville's Lions in the first round of the eight-team state tournament.

League Entirely In With Majors

DALLAS, Jan. 25.—P.—The Texas league had an all-big league hook-up today with the signing of a working agreement between Beaumont and the New York Yankees.

Three of the eight clubs are owned outright by major league organizations—Houston by the St. Louis Cardinals, San Antonio by the St. Louis Browns and Fort Worth by the Brooklyn Dodgers.

The other five have working agreements as follows: Beaumont, with New York Yankees; Shreveport, with Chicago White Sox; Dallas, with Detroit Tigers; Tulsa, with Chicago Cubs; and Oklahoma City with Cleveland Indians.

Beaumont was the last club to affiliate with a major league club. This was announced yesterday by New York in outlining its farm system which places its clubs in two divisions. Beaumont is in the western division with Kansas City of the American association, Quincy of the Three-I league, Twin Falls of the Pioneer league, Joplin of the Western association and Pond du Lac of the Wisconsin state league.

It also was announced that Ernest (Dutch) Lorber, former president of the Beaumont club, would be the southwestern scout for the Yankees.

It is estimated that there are 752,000 school teachers in the United States.

Baseball Salaries Are Due to Reach New Lofty Height

By JOE WISCHLER
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Major league baseball salaries in the postwar era, starting this year, promise generally to reach lofty heights, although Babe Ruth's record $80,000 stipend in 1930 and '31 seems safe—at least for a few more years.

In sharp contrast to the days when Iron Man Ed Walsh was refused a $500 raise after receiving $2,500 for winning 40 games for the Chicago White Sox in 1908, an Associated Press survey showed today that at least 15 big league performers probably will be paid 1946 salaries ranging from $55,000 down to $20,000.

Heading this group is Hank Greenberg, the former army air force captain now back with the Detroit Tigers, who was paid at the rate of $55,000 to do his half-season work last year, and has been offered the same contract this year.

Others reported in this higher bracket include Joe DiMaggio, Yankees $42,500; Bob Feller, Cleveland, $40,000; Mel Ott, Giants, $35,000; Joe Judge and Ted Williams, Red Sox; Lou Boudreau, Cleveland, and Dick Wakefield, Tigers, each $25,000; Dixie Walker, Brooklyn, $22,500 and Hal Newhouse, Tigers; Hank Borowy, Chicago Cubs; Red Ruffing, Spud Chandler, Bill Dickerson, and Joe Gordon, Yankees, each $20,000.

Sports Round-up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Fritz Zivic has been advertising in Pittsburgh papers for "ambitious young men who are willing to learn the art of prize fighting." "No doubt he prefers guys with strong thumbs," Fritz's real idea is to run a boxing school for youngsters six to 12 years old and he hopes his smart enough to make sure that nobody gets hurt—Veteran coaches like Leo Douck, who has been working for years to soften the attitude of parents toward exercise with padded gloves, will tell you that nothing will wreck a youngster or get beaten up or poor training that results in an injury.

EASY AS PIE
Fred White, who has scored as many as 41 points in one game for the University of New Hampshire's basketball team, says that he trains on his wife's lemon meringue pie—Does that put him in the upper crust?

SHORTS AND SHELLS
Howard Millard, the Decatur, Ill., sports editor, will double as boss of the Decatur club in the revived three-eye league next summer. That gives him both first and second guess.

RUSTY ALBI
Harry Rabenhorn, Louisiana state U. basketball coach, tells this one on one of his freshmen players—When the Tigers visited Tusculooza to play Alabama, the youngster turned up missing from his hotel room on a rainy evening—Just 25 minutes before the team was to leave for the gym, the tired, soaked youngster appeared to answer Rabenhorn's query "where you been?"—"Coach," the kid explained, "I was looking all over for that needle Harry Gilmer has been threading for the past two years and I got caught in the rain."—Rabenhorn forgave him on the grounds that it's just as hard to find a needle in the capstone as in a haystack.

Wakefield Talks Detroiters Into Earliest Pennant

By HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(NEA)—Dick Wakefield goes on the air with Harry Wisner, and talks Detroit into the earliest pennant in history.

Listing the Tigers' pitching—Newhouse, Trout, Trucks, White, Overmire and Benton—young Wakefield actually feels sorry for the opposition.

Wakefield points out that Steve O'Neill already has a splendid catcher in Paul Richards, Birdie Tebbets has performed regularly in the army, and Bob Swift is still around.

If Pinky Higgins returns from his armed forces as formidable as he was when he departed, no infield will outthrust the one calling "Griggs Stadium home, with Hank Greenberg at first, Eddie Mayo at second and squatty Eddie Lake at shortstop.

An outfield composed of Wakefield, Barney McCosky and Pat Mullin will average 340, and cover the gardens like a tarpaulin.

"That being settled, we call Manager O'Neill,"

"Don't listen to Wakefield," says the Cleveland Irishman. "He's just a kid, and doesn't think anybody can beat him at anything. We will have stickout clubs to beat in New York and Boston. Cleveland was remarkable pitching. Washington and St. Louis will be ough."

The fact remains, however, that the 1946 edition of the Tigers should have superlative pitching and a coarcing attack stimulated by the enthusiasm of Wakefield.

And running down the roster with him, we find Pilot O'Neill little else optimistic than his prize package.

"Ruffus Gentry will be back," he starts off. "Held out all last year, you know pitched only two or three games as a semi-pro in Winston-Salem. Freddie Hutchinson has a real chance. Tommy Bridges will be another shot at pitching. If Ted Gray gets out of the navy, we will have another swift left-hander."

"Don't overlook a catcher named Harvey Reibe, who has been in the army since the Detroit club brought him up during the latter part of 1942 from Beaumont, where he played for me."

O'Neill names two candidates for third base in addition to Mike Higgins—Abe Moore and Billy Hitchcock.

"Rogers Hornsby liked Moore as well as he did Wakefield when I led them in the Texas league. Moore, who has been in Germany with the army, played the outfield, but practiced in the infield. He's left-hand biter with a great arm. He's only 27, stands 5-11, weighs 75 pounds. Hitchcock, who also has been in the army, is still young."

Jimmy Outlaw is equally at home at third base or in the outfield, outfielder Roy Cullenbine is acceptable at first base.

When it is pointed out to Wakefield that McCosky, Mullin and infield pickie Joe Peck from the ft. side, the lanky lad who was paid $52,000 and given an automobile for signing replies—that it isn't make the slightest difference.

Foot Evers probably will alternate with Mullin, however, for in 1942 he was 24-year-old, six-foot-two-inch error discharge hit .322 for Beaumont, drove in 82 runs, manufactured 28 doubles and 10 home runs.

O'Neill has a definite line on 49 layers, ball athletes at Lakeland home he has never seen may swell the party to 70.

Dick Wakefield came out of the ova pre-flight school in 1944 to hit .355 and come within a game of hitting the Tigers to the championship.

Hank Greenberg came out of the army in 1945 to swat the club to the world championship.

Steve O'Neill will have both this rip, and plenty to go with them.

Canadian Host to Basketball Teams

Gruber and Shamrock case teams opened the boys' division and Follett and Darrouzett girls team opened the girls division in the Canadian invitation basketball tournament this morning.

Thirty-two teams, 17 of them boys' quints, have entered the huge meet, one of the largest in this section of the country.

Included in the boys entries are Borger's Bulldogs, who took a 34-27 game from Pampa last year to capture the 1945 tourney title.

Play started at 9 o'clock this morning in both divisions, with games being played at the high school gym and at the City hall gym.

"Finals in the girls division will be held at the high school tomorrow night at 7 o'clock and the boys final will follow."

There are a total of 29 different awards for contestants. Two all-star teams will be selected and several individual awards will be made.

First round pairings in the boys bracket are:

Perrin vs. Phillips; Gruber vs. Shamrock; Darrouzett vs. Wellington; Lakewyer, bye; Follett vs. Parham; Canadian vs. Dalhart; Higgins vs. Claude; McLean vs. Hartley, and Borger vs. Stratford.

Ags. Steers To Open North Tour

(By The Associated Press)
Texas, which still has hopes of a least sharing the southwest conference basketball championship with Texas A. and M., which can fight only on maybe finishing in the first division open a north Texas tour tonight.

The Longhorns meet Southern Methodist, cellar-dweller in the conference race at Dallas. The Aggie tackle—Texas Christian at Fort Worth.

Longhorns and Christians will be favored to win the games, thus ofering no clarifying developments a T. C. U. and Texas still are very much in the race. But tomorrow night may find at least two team taken out of the championship hunt because Texas meets Texas Christian at Fort Worth and Rice tackle the Baylor at Waco.

Rice has two defeats and another would kick the Owls from the title race. Baylor is tied with Arkansas for the lead and a loss would hurt the Bruin chances but not obliterate them.

Truce in Boxing Seen at Meeting

By SID FEDER
NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—(AP)—Out of the New York boxing writers' dinner, honoring the "James boys" James J. Walker and James J. Johnston—came the possibility today that the national boxing association and the New York state athletic commission are about to put on the big big-and-make-up scene.

Abe Greene, long-time NBA head, Eddie Egan, New York commission chairman, had their heads together during most of last night's dinner at which Walker, father of New York boxing, received the eighth annual Edward J. Bell Memorial plaque and Johnston, half-century veteran manager was tabbed for long service to boxing. The Neil awards bestowed in memory of the Associated Press sports writer who was killed in Spain in 1938.

"We've about settled some things", Greene revealed later.

Fisherman Will Be Nearer Conchas Lake

CANADIAN, Jan. 25 (Special)—Lewis E. Merry has sold his residence here to Eddie Erenan who has recently returned from the navy. The Merrys expect to move to Amabillo about February 1, where they have purchased residence property.

Merry, a Santa Fe engineer and inveterate fisherman, says he hates to leave the fishing holes he knows around Canadian, but consoles himself that his new home will be a hundred miles nearer to Conchas Lake.

Labor Situation in Pampa Improves

The labor situation in Pampa has improved slightly during the past week, L. P. Fort, local USES manager, said today.

In placements by the USES has been due to an accelerated program of contacting Pampa employers, it was reported, as well as more employers contacting the USES.

Fort states that "as much as 70 percent of the callers at this office are veterans," and that "employers, when they phone the office, may be giving a veteran a job."

Calls for employees during the past week have been for both skilled and semi-skilled men. Positions available for women are limited, with majority of vacancies listed for stenographers, typists and domestic service employees.

Unemployment compensation claims have increased to such an extent that it has required two days to complete the clearing of claims formerly cleared in one day. Representatives from the Amarillo office of the Texas Unemployment Compensation Commission have, in the past, taken care of all claims in this area every Thursday. Women comprise from 30-35 percent of the claimants, it was estimated.

finery to operation following settlement of a wage dispute between CIO oil workers and management. The refinery was seized last October and will be turned back tomorrow. Basis of the settlement, said the navy, was an 18 per cent wage increase upon return to a 40-hour week.

Nine steel plants at Houston remained and two others on limited operation closed by the strike of 15,000 CIO steelworkers at Houston, officers of steelworkers an immediate interim increase of 15 cents an hour, with promise of adjustment to whatever figure might be set as a national formula. The raise would be effective immediately upon return to work. Frank A. Hardesty, steelworkers director for the Houston district, said he felt sure the union would not accept the offer.

Strikers at the Alamo Iron works, San Antonio, remained away from their jobs, accusing the company of non-compliance of a war labor board ruling. A union official said 83 men were striking. Theo. Weiss, attorney for the company, said the WLB ceased to exist a short time ago and that the company therefore had not violated the war labor laws. Weiss said he understood about 70 men were out.

complaints concerning Iran, Greece and Indonesia or take any other action on them.

The council adopted an Egyptian proposal that Iran, the Ukraine and Greece, which are not members of the council, should be invited to the Monday session, thus giving them a chance to air their views on the controversies in which they are directly concerned. The Ukraine filed the charge concerning Indonesia.

The council members learned that they might have another knotty problem handed to them even before they finish their first major tests. The government of the tiny republic of Lebanon said last night that it had ordered its United Nations delegation to present to the council Lebanon's demand for immediate withdrawal of British and French troops from her soil.

At the same time, some delegates foresaw the possibility that Egypt might present still another case to the council.

Egypt, which has been demanding evacuation of British troops stationed there, was in the midst of a cabinet crisis with three ministers threatening to resign, asserting foreign minister Abdel Hamid Badawin Fasha had declared he would not ask the UNO to intervene.

Appointed to Naval Preparatory Academy

Brent G. Blonkivist, Jr., PhM/3, above recently was appointed to the naval preparatory academy at Williamsburg, Va., where young men are trained for careers as future naval officers and receive preparation for entrance into Annapolis Naval academy.

Brent is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brent G. Blonkivist, Sr. Mr. Blonkivist is a field clerk with the Sun Oil Co.

The appointment came to Brent as a complete surprise, it was reported, and he still doesn't know why he did receive it.

It is the first appointment of its kind to be made among men stationed at the naval hospital at Corpus Christi where Brent formerly managed the transportation desk in the record office.

During his high school days Brent was active in Junior Rotary and was a member of the student council. As an extra-curricular activity he served as a junior draftsman in the city engineering department.

Following his graduation last January Brent enlisted in the navy and spent his boot camp days at San Diego, Calif. He was then selected for the hospital corps and after further training was transferred to Corpus Christi.

Brent's orders arrived while he was on leave in Pampa during the holidays. The Corpus Christi naval hospital paper, the "Gremlin," says of Brent and his orders, "... what a pleasant surprise on his return, for these were most unexpected, yet we feel well deserved. His becoming modesty, his conscientiousness and his ambition will surely earn for him ultimate success. Our best wishes go with you, Brent, for clear weather and good sailing."

normally about 238,857 miles distant from the earth.

The war department frankly acknowledged that it was impossible at this stage to forecast what the success of the experiment would make possible.

Maj. Gen. Harry C. Ingles, signal corps chief, said the immediate significance was that scientists know for the first time with certainty that a very high frequency radio wave from the earth can penetrate the electrically charged ionosphere which envelopes both earth and stratosphere. The multi-layered ionosphere starts about 39-mi above the earth's surface and extends to an altitude of approximately 250 miles higher.

representing the January dues to the federation for 600,000 (CQ) members. Those close to Lewis explained prior to the merger that more than 100,000 miners still were in the armed services and were carried on the roll as members.

The AFL president suggested that possibly other unions which had left the AFL in the great division resulting from formation of the CIO in 1935 might follow the miners back into the federation.

Green reminded news men that David Dubinsky, head of the International Ladies Garment workers union, had reaffiliated with the federation and that Dubinsky had been elected to the 15-man executive council last October.

It was understood that Lewis was on his way to Miami from Springfield, Ill., to assume his new post as the influential, policy-making council after a nine year break with the federation.

Green said, "I am going to continue as president of the AFL."

"The story that I was going to retire with the return of Mr. Lewis is false," the scholarly head of the federation told reporters.

Green said the jurisdictional questions arising over readmission of Lewis' district 50, embracing a variety of trades, would be disposed of by the council, should they come up.

Release of Victory Airfield Is Sought

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—(AP)—Release of Victory airfield to the city of Vernon, Texas, was urged before surplus property administration officials today by Rep. Gossett (D-Texas).

He said the city would use the facilities to induce some industrial concern to locate in Vernon and lease the airfield buildings.

Built by funds furnished by both the city and the defense plant corporation, the airfield was operated by a civilian flying concern, training pilots under a contract with the war department.

Nimitz Speaks to Washington Club of Texas Society

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—(AP)—Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, a Texan, says relatively more Texas men in his women entered the armed services than those of any other state.

Addressing the Texas State society here last night, Nimitz said about 500,000 Texans entered the army, 175,000 went into the navy, 28,000 into the marine corps and 8,000 into the coast guard.

"Twenty-eight medals of honor were won by the sons of Texas," Nimitz added. "Many of those brave men will never return to us, and our nation, vast as it is, can ill afford their loss. We must keep ourselves so strong and alert that no enemy will ever again dare attack us."

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower, a Texan, was a guest at the gathering.

Nimitz commended Texans who "served at home" in factories and shipyards and on farms. The speaker, who holds the title of admiral of the non-existent Texas navy, said Texas once demonstrated the importance of seapower with a navy of its own that, although small, "made a valuable contribution to the winning of Texas' independence" from Mexico.

Officers of the Texas State society for 1946 were installed at the dinner.

They included Ralph Pittman, Washington attorney, formerly of Wichita Falls, president; Reps. Gossett and Lyle, Texas democrats, and Mrs. Tom Clark, wife of the attorney General of Dallas, vice-presidents; Mrs. Luther Johnson, wife of Rep. Johnson (D-Texas), official hostess, and Miss Helen Smelling, Abilene, secretary-treasurer.

Writer Says Radio Offers Girls Big, New Opportunities

AUSTIN, Jan. 25—Writing for radio offers tremendous opportunities for girls today, especially in the educational field," J. Mabel Clark, editor of the Federation News and free lance script writer, told girls attending the recent career conference at the University of Texas.

"Take advantage of the courses offered at the university," she advised her audience, "get a degree in radio and specialize in some field. Children's educational writing alone offers great possibilities.

"Nearly every large organization today has a publicity program," she went on to say, "and an excellent media is radio, as well as newspapers and magazines."

Miss Clark is director of public relations of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs.

The University of Texas offers a course in radio continuity writing in the spring semester, taught by Dr. E. P. Conkle, resident playwright.

Members of Chinese Truce Team Killed

FEIPING, Jan. 23 (Delayed)—(AP)—An automobile accident seven miles north of Kalgan at dusk last night killed two members of a Chinese truce team and injured nine other persons.

Among the injured was Frank Filan, Pulitzer prize-winning Associated Press photographer, who went through some of the Pacific war's major campaigns without being scratched.

Local Police Get Radio Licenses

Restricted radio-telephone operator's permits have been issued to nine members of the local police force, making the 14-member department 100 per cent in that category.

The nine men took the examination some time ago and notice of their passing was received from the Federal Communications commission last week.

City Manager Garland Franks complimented Chief of Police Louie Allen and members of the force on the fine record they have made, saying that he did not know of a single other Texas city whose police department had such a record.

Recent licenses were granted to Patrolmen H. H. Gates, H. F. Fenton, Dewey Martin, J. R. Manning, J. B. Pritchett, Raymond Greaves, R. A. Phillips and C. H. Newell.

Chief Allen, Assistant Chief J. O. Dumas, Desk Sergeants Carl Willbanks, Jim Conner and Mrs. Marion Parks, and Patrolmen H. W. Hubbard and Ernest Winborne already had licenses.

Willbanks, formerly a police department member, returned to the department yesterday as desk sergeant after serving in the army since 1943. He replaces Lowell Ferrick.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Notebook

SHANGHAI, Jan. 25 (AP)—China's "Sampan navy" is beginning to sprout "made in the U. S. A." LST's (landing ships, tank).

Up the China coast from Shanghai at Tsingtao, the United States is running a naval training school for the Chinese.

The Chinese hope for the emergence of a seagoing force with power to control her coasts and waters.

There are only three LST's at the Chinese naval training center, which was opened Dec. 21.

But as fast as more Chinese are trained, the U. S. navy will turn over more LST's.

The LST's are 327 feet long with a laden weight of 4,000 tons and are just the ticket for coast and river patrol and general hauling.

Later, other U. S. amphibious craft, such as LCI's (landing craft, infantry) and LST's (landing craft, support) will be used in the training program.

Six days a week, 36 Chinese officers and 200 (men aboard the LST's) for instruction in navigation and operation.

They see no confidential U. S. navy equipment, nor do they get instruction in such American techniques as radar and gun control.

An American officer is assigned to each Chinese officer and an enlisted man to each Chinese sailor. They stay together during all classes, while a dozen interpreters surmount the language barrier.

After a couple of months of training, the Chinese will be ready to take the ships to sea alone.

China never had a navy to amount to much. Her few dozen small warships were destroyed by the Japanese at the start of the war or were sunk by the Chinese in the Yangtze to block enemy movements.

Texan Assails Trade Proposal

LONDON, Jan. 25—(AP)—Senator Tom Connally (D-Texas) today criticized a proposal for linking the world federation of trade unions to the United Nations organization, saying it would create "a sort of international nobility."

Speaking before the UNO assembly's general committee, the American delegate accused supporters of the proposal of "violating the United Nations charter." He asked that discussion be postponed until the assembly meets in the United States.

The proposal was that the assembly create a special category of official and permanent guests, among them representatives of the WFTU and similar organizations, who would be allowed to speak at certain meetings and would be consulted by the economic and social council.

Advertisers Will Be Furnished New Data

NEW YORK, Jan. 25—(AP)—A campaign designed to furnish national advertisers in the daily newspapers of the United States and Canada with new research data that "business needs and does not now have," is being undertaken by the bureau of advertising, American newspaper publishers association, Alfred B. Stanford, sales director, said yesterday.

"The bureau will employ this material in a new strategy of analytical selling designed primarily to serve the advertiser," Stanford told a press conference.

"The responsibility of advertising in the future well-being of this nation was never greater," he declared.

"Research data of themselves are merely statistics," said Stanford. He added: "It is only when they are honestly and intelligently analyzed in relation to a specific business problem that they come alive with meaning."
