Federal Conciliators Unable to Break Deadlock in Telephone Tieup

Discussions To Be Resumed This Morning

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12—(AP)—Federal conciliators tonight were unable to break the deadlock in negotiations that might settle the nation's long distance telephone tieup.

Discussions will resume at 10 a. m., EST, tomorrow. Government seizure of the industry is considered possible if the conference fails.

Telephone communication through manually operated switchboards has been curtailed as a result of picket lines thrown around telephone exchanges by the equipment workers union. Telephone operators in many localities have chosen to stay away from work rather than cross the picket lines.

Telephone communication through manually operated switchboards has been curtailed as a result of picket lines thrown around telephone exchanges by the equipment workers union.

When the recess in the Western Electric-equipment workers negotiations was called, Ernest Weaver, union president, informed newsmen that "very little" progress had been made during the day-long meeting.

But he said his own union would not strike for a general strike of the telephone operators pending the outcome of tomorrow's meeting.

Weaver indicated that the equipment-telephone strike, Page 3

Price on Milk in Pampa to Increase

Retail and wholesale prices of sweet milk sold in Pampa will be increased one-half cent per quart beginning tomorrow, it was announced Saturday.

Officials of Pampa's two major creameries, the Northeast Dairy and Plains Creamery, said yesterday they would comply with the latest OPA order on milk prices.

In a telegram received yesterday, Francis A. Weber, head of the poultry, eggs and dairy price unit of the OPA said that a temporary 90-day order had been issued effective January 10, increasing milk producer prices in the Pampa and Berger area to $3.81 per hundred.

This means in effect, that retail prices on milk will be increased from fourteen and one-half to 15 cents per quart and wholesale from twelve and one-half to 13 cents.

Other container sizes and other dairy product prices will remain unchanged. The milk price situation will be reviewed by the OPA prior to expiration of the 90-day order.

Announcements of any adjustments will be made through the OPA and the department of agriculture, the telegram stated.

Local Lions Plan Minstrel Show For February 21

After a four-year lapse because of war conditions, the annual Lions club minstrel show will be held this year. It was announced yesterday.

The show will be staged here February 21 and 22 and proceeds over expenses will go toward the installation of Lion park, recreational area to be built in South Pampa.

Plans for the show were made at a meeting of the club directors here last week.

E. O. Welgworth will be director of the show and must and specialty acts will be under the supervision of Ken Bennett.

Rehearsals will be held starting next Friday night and every Monday, Wednesday and Friday until the night of the first performance.

One of the most highly successful entertainment events staged in Pampa, the minstrel show this year will include a mixed chorus of 35 voices in addition to the six "red men" and other acts.

Arrangements for the show are being made by various committees appointed at the directors meeting. They are:

House committee, Charlie Thut, chairman; publicity committee, Dr. R. A. Webb, chairman; costumes and make-up, Bill Whisman, chairman; concessions committee, Dr. N. L. Nichols, chairman; stage committee, D. L. Parker, chairman.

Carl Benefiel will act as master of ceremonies for the show.

Tickets will go on sale at downtown stores one week before the first performance. Reserved seats will also be available. Prices are 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for students. Reserved seats will be 25 cents extra. All prices include federal taxes.

Tuesday Is Deadline For Some Taxpayers

Tuesday, January 15, is the last day to file the 1945 declaration of estimated income tax — or the amendment to the 1945 declaration.

This is not to be confused with the annual income tax return, which must be filed not later than March 15. Principally, there are three groups that must file not later than Tuesday: 1—farmers; 2—persons who filed a 1945 declaration of estimated tax, but wish to change their estimates; 3—persons who should have filed a 1945 declaration but have failed to do so.

Those who should have filed the 1945 estimate are: single persons whose wages exceeded $5,000; married couples whose wages exceeded $10,000, plus $500 for every exemption except their own; and persons who had over $100 income outside of wages from which taxes were withheld.

Economic and Social Council Is Organized

LONDON, Jan. 12—(AP)—The Vital Security council of the United Nations organization, invested with the power to invoke armed force for preservation of the peace, was formed today by the general assembly, which overrode Soviet proposals to postpone election of six non-permanent members.

SECRET BALLOTS USED
In a series of secret ballots the assembly elected Australia, Brazil and Poland to two-year terms on the all-powerful 11-member council, and named the Netherlands, Egypt and Mexico to one-year terms.

The five major powers—the United States, Britain, the Soviet Union, France and China—are the permanent members.

There were indications the full security council would meet early next week to arrange them to draw up quotas of armed forces.

ECONOMIC COUNCIL
The assembly also elected 17 members to the economic and social council of the United Nations organization. They are Chile, China, Norway, the United Kingdom, Peru, the Soviet Union, the United States, Canada, Lebanon, Colombia, France, India, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, the Ukrainian republic, Cuba and Greece.

There were indications the full security council would meet early next week to arrange them to draw up quotas of armed forces.

SPORADIC GUNPLAY
The cease fire order, halting five months of sporadic gunplay since Japan's fall, was issued as the government shaped new compromise offers to lay before China's unity conference now in session.

Gen. Chang Chun, the government's truce negotiator, said Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek advised his armies Thursday they must cease fire before midnight Sunday, granting leeway so that the orders could reach the most remote points.

ORDERS ARE ISSUED
Chou En-lai, the communist negotiator, announced that similar orders had been issued by the communist headquarters at Yenan.

The unity conference unanimously adopted a resolution thanking Gen. George C. Marshall, special See CHINESE TRUCE, Page 6

Pioneer Rancher Of Gray County Dies at Miami

Clarence W. Bowers, 60, pioneer Gray county rancher and former county commissioner, died at his home 15 miles north of Pampa at 3:30 p. m., Friday, after suffering a heart attack.

Powers, who came to Pampa in 1907 from Washington, Ohio, was active in agricultural improvement work and had formerly served in that capacity with the AAA.

County Agent J. P. Smith said today "the loss of Mr. Bowers is a loss to Gray county agriculture in general."

Bowers was born in Washington, Ohio, Jan. 29, 1886, and came to the Panhandle at the age of 21. His family has long been active in the county in promoting better types of farming and ranching and in obtaining rights for farmers.

His sons, Sam, of Miami, and Paul, of the Grandview community, have done a great deal to promote agricultural improvement in their respective areas.

Besides his sons, he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Flossie Bowers, whom he married in 1912; his mother, Mrs. Ruth Bowers, Washington, Ohio; a daughter, Mrs. Francis Wall, Miami; a brother, Homer, of Pampa; three sisters, Mrs. Bertha Hidy, Washington, Mrs. Ida Tritt, Ostrander, Ohio, and Mrs. Florence

'AND THAT'S TH' TRUTH!': FRIENDLY CAFE OWNER ENDS BUSINESS CAREER

This is the last day Mrs. Mickey Conley, grand old Irish woman known to all as Mickey, will serve customers in her little cafe at 108 N. Frost. For as Mickey says, after 15 years she is quitting business because sickness has come to her.

Mickey has been a friend to all who enter her little cafe. She loved to cook good breakfasts and dinners, with hot home-made rolls, and nothing pleased her more greatly than to see her customers eat a hearty meal and enjoy it.

If Mickey was busy at the time a customer dropped in for coffee she'd call out from where she usually sat on her high stool in the adjoining kitchen, peeling potatoes or such, telling him in her thick Irish brogue to go on and help himself.

Sometimes Mickey would mumble about the likes and dislikes of people while preparing a chocolate pie for someone who particularly liked chocolate pies, or a meat loaf, or any requested dish. Often she was concerned whether some of her customers would be late so they wouldn't get a hot dinner.

Every morning for the last 14 years before going to her safe at 7 a. m., Mickey would go to the Holy Souls Catholic church at 5 o'clock. She has never missed a morning. See CAFE OWNER, Page 6

Good Old Pea Patch Island Placed for Sale by Government

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12—(AP)—Want to buy an island? Uncle Sam got to rummaging around recently and came up with one he doesn't need. Good old Pea Patch island.

It's in the Delaware river, and it has a fort surrounded by a moat. Just the thing, if your kids like to play cops and robbers.

It also has some nice, comfy improvements. Such as 75-foot brick storehouse in which you can keep your ammunition.

But if you want Pea Patch, you'd better hurry. Senator Clayton Douglas Buck (R-Del.) and his home state are liable to beat you to it.

The Surplus Property administration tossed Pea Patch on the market today. It's a 178-acre island, within easy paddling distance of Delaware City, Del.

In 1813 the State of Delaware gave Pea Patch to the government for a military reservation.

Fort Delaware served as an important base in the Civil War, but by last summer the army decided—what with atom-splitting and all that sort of thing—it had no further use for a fortress surrounded by a moat.

Announcements in Texas Politics Are Being Made

AUSTIN, Jan. 12—(AP)—Election year got off to a fast and early start this week with a flurry of formal announcements for major state offices, plus a weekend meeting here of the political action committee and the executive committee of the state Young Democratic organization.

Rep. Jo Ed Winfree of Houston became the first to announce formally for the post of lieutenant governor.

A second entry came into the race for the court of criminal appeals. He was Assistant Attorney General Jesse Owens, formerly of Vernon.

The Young Democratic steering committee will meet here tomorrow to implement the program adopted at the organization's recent state convention in Fort Worth.

No agenda has been announced for an executive session of the political action committee of the CIO, scheduled for tomorrow. This will be followed by a meeting of the state industrial union council, CIO, the labor organization's vehicle for legislative affairs.

Winfree, in making his formal announcement for the office of lieutenant governor, said: "I am pleased to see the state of Texas taking such a lead in the national movement for a youth commission."

'March of Dimes' Chief Is Honored

AUSTIN, Jan. 12—(AP)—State and local officials of the National March of Dimes campaign for the benefit of infantile paralysis victims gathered here to honor Basil O'Connor of New York, president of the National foundation for infantile paralysis, at a dinner tonight.

The affair is a prelude to the kickoff of the National campaign tomorrow afternoon at Tiny Dime Box, Lee county, in which O'Connor and Gov. Coke R. Stevenson take leading parts.

The Dime Box program will be broadcast nationally by the American broadcasting company. It starts at 2:45 p. m. (CST).

Dime Box comes into the National spotlight by virtue of its peculiarly appropriate name, and because the people of the Central Texas town of 350 population last year contributed 100 percent to the National March of Dimes program.

Dime Box has carried its extraordinary name for approximately 70 years. It was named for a mail carrier who would run errands for the good folk there, provided they would put a dime in the box, tradition says.

New Proposals Are Made at Meeting

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12—(AP)—Personal intervention by President Truman brought a one-week postponement today of the nationwide steel strike scheduled for 12:01 a. m. Monday.

It also produced new offers, of a nature not announced, from both United States Steel Corporation, bellwether of the industry and the CIO-United Steelworkers who had planned to shut down the mills in support of their demand for higher pay.

Mr. Truman expressed confidence that an agreement will be reached, and the White House announced that the parties will be brought together there again next Wednesday at 2 p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Announcement of the delay came at the end of a four-hour closed-door session in the executive mansion, called by the President last night when wage negotiations broke down in New York. It also followed separate meetings by the President in his offices with Philip Murray, president of the steelworkers, and Benjamin F. Fairless, president of U. S. steel. The general conference was held in the cabinet room, across a corridor from the President's office.

A Vital Message To Men Who Feel Old

Why not regain the vim and vitality you once enjoyed?

If life apparently has lost its zest, you again may be able to enjoy life as you did in your youth. If added years have slowed down your vim, vitality and youthful pleasures, here is a simple method that may change your whole outlook on life. Just ask your druggist for CASSELLA stimulating tablets. Take as directed on label. Don't feel old and worn out at 40, 50 or more. Take these tablets regularly until you feel that you have regained the pleasure of living you once enjoyed. Why be discouraged? Why not try CASSELLA tablets and regain the vim and zest of a much younger man? There is nothing harmful in these tablets. They contain Coley seed, Thiamin Chloride, Paeonin Flower, Iron. Ask your doctor or druggist about this formula.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(AP)—A presidential fact-finding panel today proposed a general 18 percent wage increase for CIO oil workers involved in a three-months-long pay dispute with a major portion of the industry.

Settlements already have been reached between the union and several individual companies on that basis.

The proposed increase would boost the average hourly pay of the 25,000 workers involved from $1.20 per hour to $1.40 per hour.

The navy, which took over 53 refineries and pipelines on Oct. 4, when government cancellation efforts failed and still is in control of 26 plants and pipelines of 23 companies.

Settlements were reached in cases affecting the other facilities. Secretary of Labor Schwelienbach, who led the three-man panel reported and who released the findings, described the report and recommendations as "sound and fair." BASIS FOR SETTLEMENT

The recommendations proposed by the panel provide a basis for the speedy conclusion of collective bargaining between the parties so that the plants and facilities may be returned promptly to their owners by the navy, Schwelienbach said.

Purchasers Seek Allowables Hike

AUSTIN, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Purchasers of oil in the nation's largest petroleum-producing state cappe before the railroad commission yesterday calling for increases in production allowables to meet current demands, as well as demands anticipated for February.

February production of 2,314,500 barrels of crude daily was sought, in nominations formally submitted the body at its regular monthly production hearing.

An increase in February demand was indicated in nominations from all but the following districts: District 1, Southeast Texas; District 7C, West Central Texas; District 8, West Texas; District 9, North Texas.

After a number of purchasers had testified, they had been unable to obtain as much crude oil as they had a market for, Commission Chairman Olin Culbertson inquired.

"Why is it that the producers and the purchasers are not cooperating as they did during the war?" Several purchasers quickly responded that there was no lack of cooperation from producers, but that they just did not have the production to meet the demands.

Nominations by the Humble Oil and Refining Co. for February were 624,000 barrels daily.

Eastern States Oil company asked that the January order be supplemented, and asked for 32,000 barrels daily for February.

Ireland Graves of Austin, representing Republic Oil and Refining company said its total need for February would be 710,000 barrels.

The commission reported that bottomhole pressure in the East Texas field on Jan. 1 was 1016.15 pounds per square inch, compared with 1022.85 as of Dec. 1.

The U. S. Bureau of Mines final forecast of demand for Texas crude oil for February is 1,890,000 barrels daily, the commission was notified by Mines Director R. R. Sayers late yesterday.

New Members Added To White Deer Club

WHITE DEER, Jan. 12 (Special)—Nine new members were initiated into the "W" club, high school athletic organization, here this week. They were Eoyce Beck, Leon Griffith, Hoyt Taylor, Gilbert Meaker, Johnnie Harvey, Roy Lee West, Robert Russum, Fredell Pennington, and Gilbert Dickens, all lettermen on this year's football team.

After a three-day initiation, on the last day of which they were required to appear in blackface and wear burial evening gowns, the boys presented an assembly program of individual stunts and group singing.

The coast guard, once known as the revenue cutter service, was founded in 1790, while the present navy was established in 1789.

Energy Resources To Change

AUSTIN, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson believes that long before this nation's oil and gas supply is exhausted, "our energy resources will have been supplanted by new sources of power."

He made this remark in testimony prepared for delivery to a natural gas conservation hearing by the federal power commission in Houston Jan. 28.

"Already some authorities predict the use of atomic power in industry within a decade. Within a generation its use may be widespread," Thompson said.

Thompson will urge on the FPC his hope that there will be no effort by the federal government to usurp state regulations of the gas industry. He will argue that jurisdiction over gas should be clearly limited to encourage exploration, gathering, compressing, sale and delivery of natural gas in the state where it is produced should remain with the state. Some other points he will make:

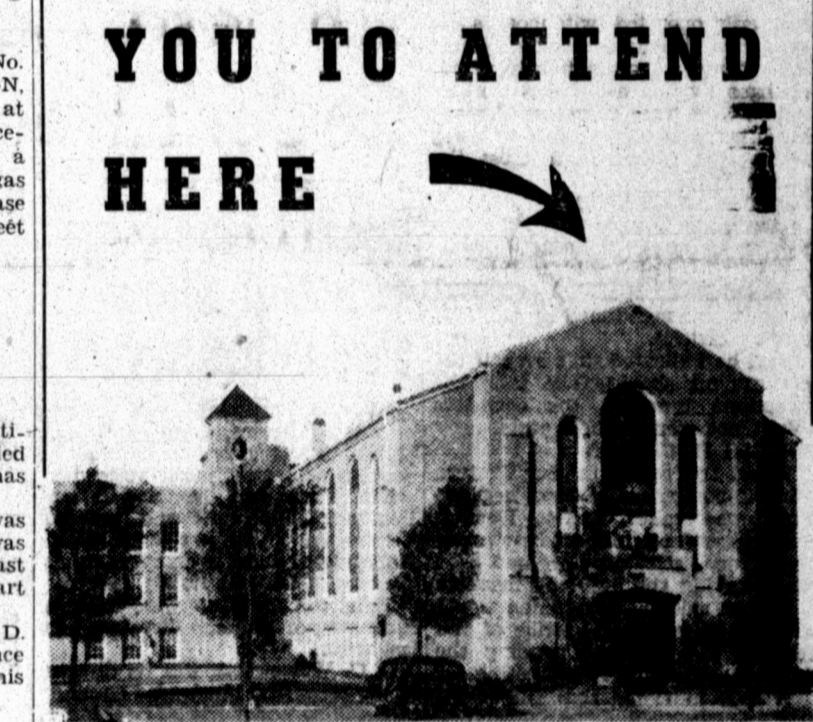

That jurisdiction of federal agencies over gas should be clearly limited to encourage exploration, development and conservation.

That development of pressure maintenance projects involving voluntary unitization should not be penalized by threat of double taxation.

Local Church Helping Gather Milk Cows To Be Sent to Europe's Needy

The Rev. Russell G. West and the church of the Brethren here, of which he is pastor, are waging a campaign to provide milk cows to be shipped to the destitute people of Europe. They are also interviewing people who are interested in making a trip to Europe as cattle attendants.

A group of yearlings and steers will be sold tomorrow at 2 at the Amarillo auction barn, and the proceeds will go to purchasing milk stock. This is a country-wide movement by the Church of the Brethren.

Since the type of dairy cow is less adaptable to this part of the country, the local church is raising beef stock and then placing it on the market to purchase qualified milk stock elsewhere.

Yearlings will go on sale Monday. They will range in weight from 500 to 800 pounds, Rev. West said. He urges bidders to attend the sale and participate in the cause. Ranchers, regardless of church affiliation, are invited to contribute stock for this and other sales. One Gray county farmer, West said, is giving to and raising for this project every tenth calf born on his farm. None of the funds derived from this project are used as overhead, he emphasized. The heifers purchased are bred so as to freshen soon after reaching their destination. They are given outright, under careful supervision, to needy families.

Rev. West said: "It takes a long time to replenish a war-torn country with good dairy stock. An immediate milk supply for children means to a hungry family to receive the gift of a good milk cow. Some men writing of this project in one of our national publications, said: 'I like this kind of religion because you can milk it.'"

Those wishing more information on the project are asked to contact the pastor. Those desiring to enter cattle in the sale tomorrow may check them in at the Amarillo yards in the name of the Church of the Brethren. They will be fed and cared for free of charge.

As for the men going with the cattle abroad, the local church volunteered to furnish men for accompanying 50,000 head of cattle and horses to Europe for United Nations relief. Ships are going out constantly now, and good cattle men who would like to have a three-month trip to Europe as cattle attendants should contact Rev. West. Besides the free trip, the men are given $150 each for incidental expenses. The qualifications are rather strict. Men must be under 50, of good moral character, be non-smokers, non-drinkers.

Telephone Strike

(Continued from page one) ment union had modified one of its wage demands, but that the company had not changed its position. "A satisfactory counterproposal could settle the wage question," he said.

J. P. Lafferty, labor relations manager for Western Electric, told newsmen "nothing has been accomplished to speak of" but added "there's always hope."

The wage issue involved is complicated, and none of the conferees have made public the union's demands.

A spokesman for the federation of telephone workers had said earlier that its executive board might decide upon a formal strike by the operators over wage demands. Such a walkout, he said, would mean a "total collapse" of the nation's communication system.

If the federation called out its 45 member locals, the spokesman added, newspaper wire services and radio broadcasting would be affected.

Previously the union had said it would strike only in sympathy with the 6,000 members of the equipment workers union.

The union spokesman said 23,000 members of the federation in Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Arkansas and Kansas already have "voted overwhelmingly" for a sympathy strike. The federation and the equipment workers union are affiliated.

An operators walkout, as well as a federal seizure of telephone exchanges, both apparently hinged on the outcome of conciliation efforts in the Western Electric-equipment workers strike.

WE SUBSCRIBE TO THE IDEA

One does not have to be a parent to appreciate the fact that tomorrow's society will be built on the youth of today—youth's character and integrity. But too often that inescapable fact is forgotten.

Mrs. Grace Hodge, local business woman who has worked for a number of years with delinquent young people, brought a thought-provoking message to the members of a local club Friday. (See Page 1.) It was not so much the things she said, but the earnestness and directness with which she said them that impressed those present. The same ideas have been propounded many times.

However, she set forth an idea looking to a remedy for delinquency. The idea, which put into practice obviously would not eliminate all the difficulty, is that of organizing a Junior Deputy commission. The workability of this theory is dependent upon the honor of the young boys enlisted in it and carrying its credentials. These junior deputies are to be a good influence among their associates. The theory is sound, and to work in this sort of organization, should inculcate in youth the idea that to be a good citizen he must assume certain responsibilities to his fellowmen.

As the speaker said, young people are not bad from the beginning. They have either been badly guided or not guided at all.

We subscribe to the commission idea and commend the woman for advancing it. A morally strong community, like a great skyscraper must be built from the ground up. The foundation is youth. "The child is father of the man."

Great societies, like the mechanical luxuries we see about us, are good or bad by the "stuff" that goes into them. That "stuff" is honesty, integrity and forthrightness. These attributes are founded on honor. Out of them all grow character. There is no greater ambition than to become a real man.

LOOKING AHEAD

MUD-DAUBERS

Down here in the Mississippi valley we are all acquainted with a species of wasp called mud-daubers. They are relatively harmless, build little adobe huts in high, protected spots and look out for their own interests. By instinct they are engineers and diplomats but, like so many insects, they know very little about modern industry. Some of their mistakes are costly.

An aristocratic family named Scellphorn Cementaries (common mud-daubers) got busy one summer and built a fort inside the vent pipe on top of a big steel tank of heating oil. The tank had been filled in the Spring for Fall marketing and stood quiet for months. Finally came an order for a large load of heating oil and the plant owner started pumping it out of storage. Suddenly the big tank collapsed.

TOO MUCH AUTHORITY

The oil man's motor-powered pump silently pulled out the liquid and built up vacuum inside the tank. Being in a position to plug up a vent line and call down the forces of nature to destroy property and waste merchandise is too much authority for a mud-dauber. To be perfectly frank, the more I observe the workings of the OPA, the surer I am that such authority is too much for anybody.

Right now our governmental price fixers have their eyes closed on some exceptionally tight structures and the pump has already started. "People who buy machines shall not pay more for them," says the government, but (with government consent) people who manufacture machines must pay more, much more, for every hour of effective labor, and for every pound of processed material.

STRONG FOR SERVICE

I am in favor of workers getting high wages. The more take-home pay America's factory workers earn and get, the more food and feed stuff farmers will sell. It means prosperity. Just the same, nature's laws are inexorable. If wages keep going up, somebody'd better work that price-line of business is sure to collapse. Some of the unemployed already and more are in jeopardy.

AMERICA'S BIG MANUFACTURING CONCERNS

have some strength; of course they do. They need financial strength to navigate economic storms, race with competition and meet payrolls on schedule. The more strength they have the more useful they are. That oil man's tank had a great deal of strength, but it buckled because a mud-dauber asked it to hold a vacuum.

SUBLINE VANDALISM

Big corporations have to be efficient. If they grow extravagant, a lot of small concerns with lower overhead stand ready to undersell them and take their trade. Accordingly, big firms must operate on thin margins of profit. Figuratively, they are tight. They can be "pumped down" by holding their prices and boosting their costs. Ford declares a $27 net loss on every new car sold at prices fixed by government.

NEARLY EVERYBODY KNOWS THAT AMERICA'S ADVANTAGE OVER FOREIGN LANDS IS BASED ON MASS PRODUCTION AND VOLUME SALES

Things we have and they don't. We have nothing to gain and much to lose by wrecking big industries. Theodore Roosevelt said, "It ought to be evident to everybody that business has to prosper before anybody can get any benefit from it."

OUR AMERICAN SOLIDARITY IS NOT THE RESULT OF ANY FORMAL WRITTEN ALLIANCE

but of a sentiment that is to be found in the hearts of us all—love of the land where we were born and where we wish to die.—Dr. Luis Thofilo Nunez, Caracas, Venezuela, publisher.

EVOKING A GOLDEN FOLLY

(New York Sun)

Before the war the purchase of gold by the United States at $35 an ounce resulted in an accumulation here of nearly $23,000,000 worth of bullion, or about 60 per cent of the world's supply. By the most recent banking estimate, stocks of gold held in this country are still high, exceeding $20,000,000. A bill introduced in the house last week by Rep. Clair Engle of California provides that the President be authorized to raise the price above $35 an ounce.

When the buying of gold was first promoted 12 years ago the price was set at $31.36, and the plan contemplated purchases only of gold mined in American territory. Ultimately gold removed from the earth in South Africa, and valued there at $18 an ounce, was sold to the United States at $35 and buried in the earth at Fort Knox, Tenn. In 1935, for example, net receipts of imported gold exceeded $1,116,500,000. Through 1937 and the last full pre-war year, 1938, gold continued to pour into the country from Great Britain, the Netherlands, and elsewhere—even from Russia and Japan. In the year ended in June, 1939, imports had risen 977 per cent above those in the corresponding period of 1935.

The size of the gold stock last month, it is true, the lowest in five years. Gold has been leaving the country. But even a return to the circulation of gold, and to its convertibility with currency—all provided for in the Engle bill—would not require heavier imports. If the lesson learned by the government during the period of gold purchasing failed to make an impression, the cost of the original folly will be multiplied.

GOING DOWN GENTLY

(The Memphis Commercial Appeal)

The Civil Service Commission in Washington reported just a few days ago that Federal employees numbered 2,569,914 as compared to 2,613,368 a month earlier. The decrease was 103,454. A year ago the employees of Uncle Sam amounted to 2,878,270. This is what we call going down gently, so gently as to amount to hardly perceptible difference. In the meantime, President Truman and various of his helpers, official and volunteer, claim the pay of Federal employees, not to say workers, ought to be raised 20 per cent. He stops, and some sound reasons for believing that the Government employees, those who are needed and capable, do deserve pay boosts. One of the best ways to get the money, however, would consist of getting rid of the manner of useless agencies, bureaus, divisions, authorities and so forth. Then those employees remaining could be raised at the same time. Informed and conservative estimates are that more work and better would be done if the Federal employ list were cut one-third at once.

OFFICE CAT

A Navy recruit on guard had strict orders to admit no car unless it bore a motor tag. He stopped a woman passenger who was a high-ranking officer.

The guard heard the brass-band order his driver to go thru, and recalled—"I'm sorry, sir, but I'm new at this. Whom do I shoot, you or the driver?"

"The mountaineer had agreed to go across the valley and do a job for a fellow on that side. He started away, telling his wife he would be gone a week and she protested.

"Why shouldn't I go away and not leave on a stick of wood for the cooking fire."

"Mountaineer—Sho, now, Lizzie. You'll talk as if I was taking the axe along with me."

Commercial feeding of food began in the United States in 1916.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

news behind the news

By RAY TUCKER

FINDINGS—The labor disputes now gripping and threatening the nation's major industries and services—automobile, steel, meat, communications etc.—could be settled before the end of January if it were not for a few stubborn and recalcitrant individuals on both sides of the picket lines.

That is the confidential report of government and private mediators who have canvassed the strike situation from the shop to the front office. It was his study of their findings which led President Truman to make his middle-of-the-road appeal a week ago.

The more conservative of the workmen's leaders have indicated a desire to accept approximately a fifteen percent increase in pay for a forty-hour week and time-and-a-half for overtime. Instead of the thirty percent demanded by the more radical C. I. O.-ers such as Philip Murray, Richard T. Frankenstein and Walter P. Reuther etc.

PRESTIGE—Industry believes that it can pay this extra amount and still abide by the Truman formula of not raising prices. At least it is willing to make the trial, and eventually submit the question of wages versus prices and profits to an impartial tribunal.

Balls of the rank-and-file members of the unions reveal that this sort of award would be satisfactory to them. The workers, and especially their wives, prefer it to wasting their wartime savings in a long period of unemployment resulting from walkouts and lockouts.

It appears that the leaders of labor, who must maintain their personal prestige and earn their fairly large salaries, are more demanding than their followers.

SHOWDOWN—Management's more farsighted members are ready to settle on this basis. But their constant efforts to reach an agreement that will open the way to large-scale production of automobiles, home-making materials, machinery and consumer goods—everything from a car to carpets—have been thwarted by a few powerful interests in the hierarchy of the U. S. chamber of commerce and the national association of manufacturers with the automotive chiefs among the most influential forces in opposing any compromise with the unions.

A few industrialists have said quite frankly in these off-the-record exchanges (they are the ones President Truman had in mind when he referred to "men of little faith") that they feel the hour has come for a showdown over the growing power and demands of the C. I. O., which has inspired most of the current and prospective strikes.

They believe that the time is right and ripe for a finish fight. With them it is a question of now-or-never, and they have dug in for

Peter Edson's Column: 'NEW DEAL' IS COMING FOR JAPANESE

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—Nearly 40 directives have been sent from Washington to Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Japan since V-J Day. The general in turn has issued orders to the Japanese government to put all save two or three of these directives into effect. What these directives and orders are intended to do is to force a complete revolution in the Japanese way of life.

The job for the new far eastern commission set up under the Moscow communique issued by Secretaries Brynes, Bevin and Molotov is to review all these directives and see whether they approve all what has been done so far. The critics and the experts and the prophets are about evenly divided as to whether this new arrangement plus a Big Four Allied Council in Tokyo will stop MacArthur's progress or whether it won't. Nobody really knows.

When the United States entered into the four-power arrangement for governing Germany, many people predicted that the Russians would cause a lot of trouble. The way it has worked out, the Russians have been the soul of co-operation, and the experts and the prophets are about evenly divided as to whether this new arrangement plus a Big Four Allied Council in Tokyo will stop MacArthur's progress or whether it won't. Nobody really knows.

At the present time there aren't a lot of new directives to give MacArthur. In the normal course of events, the policy for the next few months will be to let the Japs di-

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—Although thoughts and plans naturally center now upon what may lie ahead for 1946, here's a brief time-out for my fondest memories of the Hollywood of 1945:

Shirley Temple's wedding to Sgt. Johnny Agar. Even without spotlights, it topped the Hollywood spectacle known as a world premiere. . . . Sitting in Greer Garson's living room and having her show us her knees—to prove that she wasn't knock-kneed, as that hosiery expert said.

Watching Ingrid Bergman's performance in "Spellbound" which, we hope will win her an Academy award. . . . Interviewing bouncing Betty Hutton, who is the answer to an interviewer's dream. You have to quote everything she says—after you clean it up. . . . Meeting the late Ernie Pyle on a movie set and then hearing later from a friend that he clipped out and saved a piece we did about his Hollywood visit.

Helping Lana Turner cut her birthday cake on a set at M-G-M. Lana cried. All movie queens cry when they are a year older. . . . Watching Clark Gable make his first film scene after returning from the public to respond to the Chief Executive committee's approach. We Chief Executive specifically accused of "stalling" on his recommendations, which they report—correctly—that the mail has not been heavier than usual.

CHASSED BY A WOLF—Discovering that Kathleen Winthrop wrote "Forever Amber," was chased by a wolf when she played Little Red Riding Hood at the age of 6 in a school play. Perhaps that is the answer to the book. . . . At home interviews with Claudette Colbert, Sonja Henie, Marjorie Main, Kay Francis, Joan Bennett and a host of others. All movietown homes are just like the ones you see on the screen—so beautifully decorated that you wonder if everything goes back to the pro department the next day.

Talking to Rita Hayworth in her dressing room. Rita is enough but she was always a hard-boiled attitude. They anticipate a "white collar" rebellion and resentment against labor's wage demands.

The Detroit group, in particular, is cheered and reinforced by the fact that Mr. Frankenstein, vice president of the United Automobile Workers of America, was badly defeated by a conservative combine when he ran us the Murray-Hillman-Hannegan candidate for mayor of that city last fall.

Another factor making for the settlement is the number of returning soldiers. They feel, rightly or wrongly, (there is evidence supporting contrary contentions) that the ex-G. I. is resentful of labor's wartime wages and strikes, will line up on their side.

JOHNSON—The liberal-conservative struggle within the manufacturing group now revolves around the question of electing Eric A. Johnston for a fifth term as president of the chamber of commerce of the United States. Other factors confuse this issue, but the outcome will throw a bright light on industry's attitude toward the labor-management struggle with now perplexes the White House and many other houses throughout the nation.

Mr. Johnston, a manufacturer of electrical equipment in the state of Washington, has been the most radical of the C. of C. ever had. He has visited and praised Russia. He recently announced a profit-sharing plan for his employees. He fathered the labor-management conference recently held here, against the advice of the Detroit automobile interests. They feared that it would provide an entering wedge for the workers to share management's responsibilities.

HOLLYWOOD—The Johnsonian headlines led Hollywood to select the C. of C. president as a successor to Movie Czar Will Hays. He will get $100,000 a year salary and a $50,000 entertainment fund for which he does not have to make any accounting. He will have his office, in what he will have his office, to break down foreign nations' barriers against American films. Mr. Johnston will not accept any and do something about the 30-odd orders they have already been fed.

PEACEFUL REVOLUTION AT WORK IN JAPAN—They have been ordered to abolish their army, navy, war materials production and military pension systems. A complete reform of the land-owning system has been ordered so as to distribute farms to impoverished tenants. Freedom of speech, thought, press and civil liberties has been ordered. Shintoism, state religion and emperor worship have been abolished. Tax reform has been ordered. Japan's biggest banks and all her foreign holdings are being liquidated. And there are many others.

For any country to change its life and standards of living so completely in less than five months without civil war is absolutely historic. But issuing a series of 40 directives for a peaceful revolution is only about 10 per cent of the job. Seeing that it is carried out is the other 90 per cent, and that is MacArthur's big job from now on.

The important thing is that this and all the other Jap reform jobs are going to be done. Under the new Moscow communique set-up they may not be done as expeditiously as if the whole job were under sole U. S. control. A little patience— which is a hard thing to ask for and a harder thing to get—may be required from here on in judging results in Japan.

MACKENZIE'S Column

AP World Traveler

PARIS, Jan. 12.—We have been watching with understanding—but with much anxiety—the demonstrations here in Paris by the G.I.'s who want to be sent back home.

The G.I. viewpoint is indeed easily understandable. He isn't a professional soldier, but one of the millions of fellows who have left their homes to risk their lives on the battlefields for Uncle Sam. Now he is homesick and aching to get back to his folks and own pursuits.

If that were the whole story, the only concern would rest in how long it would take to demobilize the American force in Europe.

But it isn't the whole story by a long shot, for when the G.I. gives up his duties as a part of the occupation troops of Germany, he must be replaced by another well trained soldier—or at least there must be sufficient replacements so that America can maintain a powerful force in the Reich indefinitely.

Long before the war ended, the allied leaders had decided that there was only one possible way to insure the world against further German aggression. That was for allied troops to occupy Germany over a long period.

We invited the second World War—and get it by—our failure to occupy Germany in 1918 and finish off the job. A lot of Germans are thinking and hoping that in a year or two there won't be any Americans left in the country.

We could, of course, withdraw all troops from Germany and leave the occupation to the Russians, British, French and Belgians, but that would be neither fair nor expedient.

So we arrive at the conclusion that Yankee troops must participate in the occupation of Germany. One might venture the thought that service in the force of occupation might be made attractive enough so that sufficient trained men would want to volunteer.

Well, Senator Pepper of Florida made a statement that Premier Stalin is a doodler and I certainly hope the Russians understand that a doodler is a person who marks squiggly on paper and not something that is pleasant. The word has a sound that might make an uninformed Russian patriot start reaching for a bomb.

It seems that Senator Pepper was with Mr. Stalin for an hour and watched him doodle and he had no idea what he doodled, which is too bad. With international relations as they are, it would be nice to know whether he drew great big hammers and sickles or little doves with olive branches in their beaks. In fact, right now, descriptions of Stalin's doodles could well come under the heading of important news.

MARY BUTLER has left, Fay Tudor said. "Left?" he asked politely. "Last week. She resigned." "Why?" "I don't know. I merely know she's not with Uncle John any more, because I am doing some of her work now."

"Was she fired?" "I don't know. I've already told you that. I'm a distinctly beautiful woman and it was difficult to remember that she was John Clay's niece who might on that account look for an opportunity to disprove of him one way or another. He said: 'Who would know where Mary Butler is now?'"

"She left no forwarding address." "Isn't that a little strange?" "I suppose so," she said. "Why do you want to get in touch with her?" "I think," Pike said, "she had something to tell me."

Rural Telephone Service Will Be Greatly Improved

Rural telephone service may be greatly improved in the near future by use of the new carrier telephone system, still in the experimental stage, according to M. C. Jaynes, cooperative organization specialist of the Texas A. and M. college extension service.

Numerous requests for extending telephone as well as electrical service to rural districts in Gray county have been made to the office of County Agent J. P. Smith. The carrier telephone system depends on regular electrical current but is independent of the usual telephone lines. As Jaynes explains the system, it depends on special equipment, which works a lot like a radio transmitter. But instead of broadcasting through the air, the equipment sends your voice hitch-hiking along power lines. The system is being tried out under field conditions near Jonesboro, Ark. Although the telephone is not yet ready for general use, Rural Electrification Administrator Claude R. Wickard has expressed the hope that the tests which are the way for rural telephone service, wherever electricity is available.

Says Wickard, "The worth of REA-financed rural electric power systems will be increased immeasurably if the same lines which bring electric light and power to rural homes can also be used to link these homes together in the nation's great telephone network."

Mr. Jaynes estimated that already there are more than 40,000 miles of REA-rural power lines in Texas. There are more than 300,000 farm homes in Texas which are not reached by telephone service.

STOP JOHN CLAY

By Lionel Mosher (Copyright, 1945, NEA Service, Inc.)

THE STORY: A car tries to run Pike down after he leaves John Clay's house. As he approaches the Inn, Fay Tudor heads him off. Pike mentions Mary Butler.

"Mary Butler has left," Fay Tudor said. "Left?" he asked politely. "Last week. She resigned." "Why?" "I don't know. I merely know she's not with Uncle John any more, because I am doing some of her work now."

"Was she fired?" "I don't know. I've already told you that. I'm a distinctly beautiful woman and it was difficult to remember that she was John Clay's niece who might on that account look for an opportunity to disprove of him one way or another. He said: 'Who would know where Mary Butler is now?'"

"She left no forwarding address." "Isn't that a little strange?" "I suppose so," she said. "Why do you want to get in touch with her?" "I think," Pike said, "she had something to tell me."

"The conference." "Congress is investigating that," she said. "Is Marcia a daughter by John Clay's first marriage?" Pike asked. "She stifled."

"I just wondered. You said your aunt was 40 when she died." "Surely, Mr. Calvin, you haven't come all the way up here just to inquire into the marital relations of John Clay?" "I'm not quite sure why I'm here," Pike said.

"Then why stay?" "He stared at her. He flipped his cigarette into the fountain. It made a brief hissing sound. He turned and looked through the

"He didn't say," Mr. Hitt continued to look at Pike's lips. Pike rubbed his lips with his handkerchief. A faint red stain came off. Lipstick.

"That better?" he inquired. "He seemed very anxious to see you," Mr. Hitt said. Pike gazed thoughtfully at Mr. Hitt.

"He gave his number here," Mr. Hitt went on. "You might like to call him. It's Oneida 5 ring 3." Mr. Hitt raised a white hand and pointed to the phone booth. He said:

"You turn the crank to signal the operator." Pike turned the crank and got the operator. But he did not get Mr. Bateman. He sat there and listened to the faint buzzing sounds that indicated the futile ringing of a telephone somewhere in Mr. Bateman's residence.

DIKE came out of the booth and saw Mr. Bateman advancing on him with those lustrous black eyes glistening brightly.

"Did you get Bateman?" he asked. Pike took out a cigarette. The man knew everything. "He was here about 8:30. Bateman said. 'He sat in the lobby and read a book for half an hour.' 'Where does Bateman live?' Pike asked.

"On the Valley Road," Bateman pointed. "A stucco bungalow—hideous—with a big Grecian urn on the lawn full of red and blue flowers. Tell show you the way." "No," Pike said. "Not tonight." Pike went to his room. He laid his hat on his bag on the luggage stand and stood gazing out of the window and thinking about Bateman. What could he have wanted?

Far in the distance a train whistled a soft, double-throated chord. It was all very quiet and restful. Too quiet for where there Bateman's stucco bungalow must be. Pike put on his hat and went out. The thick-piled carpet in the corridor muffled his steps. He took the stairway and descended to the lobby.

Plans for Operation of Texas League Near Completion

Six of Eight Pilots Named; Prexy Calls Schedule Meet

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS, Jan. 12.—Six of eight managers have been named, admission prices set and each city is making extensive improvements to its park as the Texas League prepared to resume baseball play after a lapse of three years.

President J. Alvin Gardner has called the schedule meeting here for next Saturday and Sunday at which time all arrangements will be completed for opening the season in April.

Government May Take 86 Percent Of Conn's Profit

By BUS HAM
WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Billy Conn literally is trying to push his way out of a puzzling income tax situation in connection with his forthcoming fight with Joe Louis.

He has asked the internal revenue department to serve as a sort of second.

Conn will receive an estimated $600,000 for meeting Louis in a world heavyweight championship bout next June.

But Conn, it was learned, is worried over whether he will have a sizeable chunk of that fortune left after the government takes its percentage under the income tax law.

Under certain conditions, his take-home pay for facing Louis may be less than $100,000.

The unprecipitated Pittsburgh kid recently came straight to high internal revenue department officials here, explained his case and asked their advice. He is expected to return soon for their interpretations.

Tax experts informally told a reporter that:

Under the straight sliding income tax scale, the government would take approximately 86 percent of the fight purses, or $407,464 of Conn's estimated $600,000.

But Conn probably will be allowed to deduct all expenses of preparing for the fight, including payments to managers, trainers and others, enabling him to retain for himself a more substantial sum.

League Leaders Meeting Today

Representatives from each of the eight Texas and New Mexico cities which are in the Class C West Texas-New Mexico basketball league are meeting today in Amarillo.

Purpose of the meet is to lay out a playing schedule, adjust salary and player limits and take up other questions relative to opening of the season.

Attending from Pampa are Lynn Boyd, R. L. Edmondson and Scott Rafferty, Daily News sports editor.

An official of the local baseball movement said yesterday that complete details of the operation of the Pampa club will be announced in "the very near future."

Other cities in the league are Amarillo, Borger, Lubbock, Abilene and Lamesa, Texas, and Clovis and Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Milton Price, secretary of the Texas league, is president of the district. Vice-presidents are Bob Seeds of Amarillo and Sam Rosenthal of Lubbock.

Harvesters Bounce Phillips 40 to 25

By SCOTT RAFFERTY
News Sports Editor
Treating fans to one of the best exhibitions of "rough and tumble" basketball seen here in a long time, the Pampa Harvesters blasted the Phillips Blackhawks 40-25 Friday night.

The local cagers got ample revenge for a 30-21 drubbing taken from the Hawks at Phillips Thursday night in winning their seventh game against two defeats.

Leon Gooch, playing his first season of high school basketball, dumped 18 points through the hoop to lead the Harvester attack. He was followed closely by Randall Clay, leading Pampa scorer, who tallied 15 points.

Each team committed 16 fouls but Referee E. Malcolm Brown, and the Phillips district AAF personnel distribution command yesterday.

Hughson is the property of the Boston Red Sox and was leading the American league in games won near the end of the 1944 season when he enlisted in the armed service.

Hudson, who belongs to the Washington Senators, entered the air corps three years and two months ago after starting for the American league entry for three seasons.

Former Hurlers Hughson, Hudson Are Out of Army

SAN ANTONIO, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Cecil (Tex) Hughson, 25, and Sidney (Sid) Hudson, 28, who were major league pitchers before entering the service, have been discharged from the army air forces, and today went home to await new baseball contracts.

Hughson, who lives at San Marcos, Texas, and Hudson, a resident of Chattanooga, Tenn., passed through the separation line of the San Antonio district AAF personnel distribution command yesterday.

Hughson is the property of the Boston Red Sox and was leading the American league in games won near the end of the 1944 season when he enlisted in the armed service.

Grid Leagues Are Ready for Fight; Layden Resigns

By SID FEDER
NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Any lingering doubt that the national football league is ready, willing and able to take on the young all-America conference in a knockdown fight, with no holds barred, was completely erased today as aggressive Bert Bell moved in as czar to gridiron's oldest professional league.

Appointment of Bell to succeed the "resigned" Elmer Layden was the final touch to sign the Moguls of the national have been hanging out for weeks about how they feel toward the brand new circuit, which already has signed up some three dozen players and is aiming at blocking them in several cities, notably New York, Chicago and Cleveland.

Officially, the national league announced last night that tail, mid-Layden, late of Notre Dame's four-horseman backfield, had resigned as president and commissioner after five-year term, and that Bell, a short, stocky, "give-me-a-fight" kind of guy, had been named to succeed him under a three-year contract calling for $20,000 salary a year.

The national league Moguls said, too, that Layden would remain in an advisory capacity at $20,000 per annual advisory.

It was learned that there was opposition among the managers to Layden's resignation, which was to have expired March 31. And it was known that some club owners objected to Layden's attitude toward the all-America, notably his advice to the new loop to "go out and get a football first," when the all-America outfit wanted to meet with the national several months ago.

Cherry Approved As Steer Coach

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 12.—(AP)—The University of Texas board of regents today formally approved major changes in the athletic department growing out of Dana G. Bible's decision to retire as head football coach after next season.

The board appointed Elmer Layden athletic director for one year beginning Jan. 1, 1947, at a salary of $9,000. Bible's present contract as head football coach and athletic director expires at the end of the current calendar year.

Blair Cherry, assistant football coach, was appointed head coach for a year beginning Jan. 1, 1947, at a salary of $8,000. Howard Gilstrap, line coach, was appointed first assistant football coach at a salary of $6,000 for a year beginning Jan. 1, 1947.

Cherry and Gilstrap were reappointed to their present positions for the current year at salaries of $6,000 and $5,400 respectively.

Cleveland Pro Club Transfers

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The championship Cleveland Rams of the National professional football league today requested and were granted permission to move their franchise to Los Angeles, effective immediately.

The request was made at the annual national football league meeting by Dan Reeves, president of the Rams who whipped the Washington Redskins 35-14 in the championship playoff at Cleveland last month.

"The reason I'm moving to Los Angeles," Reeves explained, "is that I believe it will become the greatest professional football town in the country."

Coriscana Meet Is Scheduled May 15

CORISCANA, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The 65th Coriscana, an international tournament will be held over the Coriscana country club course May 15-19.

The tournament is being resumed after a three-year interruption due to wartime restrictions and conditions.

Cafe Owner

 even in the coldest of weather, and regardless of streets practically too icy to navigate. It is almost a mile walk.
 Mickey's religion was carried into her little cafe, not only with small figurines and photos of religious nature, but by tending to the religious training of young people who entered her cafe. She also helped many who were broke, giving funds as well as food if she thought the person worthy of it. Her liberal policies would have busted a bank in short notice.
 But it is the Irish and the blarney that is Mickey's. If she sits down in her big soft chair by the window for a minute to talk to someone and a customer comes in she becomes a bit frustrated. "It makes me so-o-o-mad! I can't sit down a minute without someone both'ring me!"
 The customer always comes back, however.
 One of Mickey's special phrases is, "Th' devil you say!" used at most any time, and "And that's th' truth!"
 Lots of people will miss Mickey out-of-town regulars and local patrons as well as the fellows at "the poor-r city jail." Thousands of meals have been served by Mickey has taken care of them during all the 15 years. At times Mickey would have quite a conversation with the prisoners. Sometimes they would appear at her cafe before they were apprehended, and then she'd serve them again over in the jail.

 Mickey has already lived a full life. Memorable recent events include the Shamrock festivals on St. Patrick's Day when she was taken up to the speakers' stand by Congressman Gene Worley and introduced and talked to everyone. It's still a bit of a joke with Mickey, how people thought that she had been born in Texas on St. Pat's Day, when actually she's an Illinoisan. Nevertheless she's a special guest at Shamrock celebrations.
 Mickey helped campaign for Gene Worley in the last election. She was assigned to the top of a box car and gave a talk in his support. There was a large picture of Worley hanging in Mickey's cafe, but it was taken down along with the rest of the pictures of Mickey's many friends, fineries and tributes of assorted nature.
 Another memorable event was an airplane ride, taken "that time, you know, over-r to White Deer in the air-r-plane-o-h, some big celebrity-br-r-ration over-r-r in the church over-r-r ther."
 Mickey came to Pampa about 21 years ago with her husband, from near Electra. Mr. Conley was a cable tool driller. They had traveled through the oil fields of Illinois, Kansas and Oklahoma as well as Texas. After Mr. Conley died Mickey went into business alone.
 When asked what she would do now Mickey gave assurance that she would be kept busy. "Down in that old city jail, I can't sit down a min-n-ute! And that's th' truth!" Mickey suggested that all her many friends "wish poor old Mickey health and happiness."
 And then Mickey laughed. "Th' devil you say! A fin' thing, wishing myself health and happiness and such stuff!"

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your drugist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barconate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.
 If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves, if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

Steel Strike

 igs, originally planned for Tuesday, would be postponed until Thursday as the result of Murray's action.
 The break in the strike threat came at 6:29 p. m.
 Murray, showing the strain of the past few days of negotiations, announced to waiting reporters that he had agreed personally to postpone the walkout of 300,000 steel workers and would come back to the White House for more conferences Wednesday. He said he did it "at the request of the President."
 The President disclosed that the corporation had made an offer, presumably better than the 15-cent hourly increase proposed prior to the breakdown of negotiations in New York. Murray, he said, then countered with a proposal on behalf of the union.
 The union's original demand was for a $2 a day increase. Murray dropped this to $1.65 yesterday, compared to the company's counterproposal of $1.20 increase. Both Murray and Fairless, as well as Ross

Youth Council

 has become nationally-known, and the organization at San Antonio, enthusiastically patronized by the youth of that city, has helped countless young people to a better, happier way of life.
 Emphasizing that no child—boy or girl—is inherently bad, she charged that there is too much delinquency coming from the "better" homes of the cities throughout the country.
"LACK OF LOVE"
 "The situation in the East is no different from that of Amarillo or anywhere else," she said. Too often, she asserted, people are led to believe that delinquency is found only in the homes "on the other side of the track"—meaning families of lower income.
 She attributes such waywardness to "lack of love" at home, "lack of confidence" of youth in themselves, "these children, in other words, have nothing to build on."
 Although Mrs. Hodge resigned her home here, having resumed her commission with the Amarillo force, she often goes back, and always goes to the police station. Recently, while there, she was asked to go into the jail to talk with a child—eight years of age—who had been brought in on the same charge—left—32 times. The facts behind this particular case, she said, were that she had taken the child home several times—coming to the conclusion at last that the home environment was not to blame. "The child's parents are 'respectable' citizens of Amarillo, the father holding what she called a good job with a railroad company.
 Bolstering her charge against indifferent parenthood, she said:
 "Little girls 13, 14, 15 and 16 are going to school every day that are not even fit for adults to go to. I want to say to you that, until we get plenty of places fit for children—and adults—to go to, we are going to continue to have delinquents." She asserted the case was no different at Pampa.
 Some of the adolescent girls of today will not be fit to be mothers. An infected woman, she declared, never comes back after treatment to be a normal woman physically.
 In the Amarillo jail Saturday night, Jan. 5, she interviewed a girl 18 years old. She had interviewed the girl before, she explained. This girl comes from a good family in a town not far from Pampa. The girl told Mrs. Hodge she had gotten 'into a rut.' "But," the girl had said, "why shouldn't I?" However, Mrs. Hodge learned that the girl had not told her parents of her misdeeds. Consequently, Mrs. Hodge has written to the girl's parents, explaining that their daughter did not want them to know, for fear of hurting them.
 "The girl has contracted two of the most feared social diseases.
 Venereal disease is on the increase, as health announcements have declared. The increase, she explained, is mostly among the youth of the country—the worst possible group to be infected.
 She placed before the Kiwanis club the challenge that faces all wide-awake clubs: secure enough clean places of recreation for youth—chaperone the children if necessary—get them to go to church. "Too many are staying away from Sunday school and church," she said.
 One youth at Amarillo recently was involved in a fight with another boy; he got the worst "end" of the engagement. It later developed that he had been trying to keep his associate from violating the law. The youth had in his possession a card showing he was a member of the Junior Deputy commission, San Antonio. The boy, Mrs. Hodge emphasized, believed earnestly in what he was trying to do—and even suffered for his beliefs. That was what counted in this case.
 She said she had tried to organize the commission in Amarillo, but had not secured the cooperation of the county court.
 She urged the members of the club to be instrumental in bringing a commission of youth to this community. "You have one of the finest schools here that I have ever been in. You have everything that is needed." There is no reason, she stated, for delinquency of youth to plague the community.
 At the meeting, Mrs. May Foreman, Carr, pianist, was on the program. She played Franz Liszt's "Second Hungarian Rhapsody," receiving an encore.
 Two members were installed: Dr. William R. Ballard, and William C. Williams.
 The official, who could not be quoted by name, said that as of that time there was "no sign of a break that would indicate a settlement."

Hautzig Concert Draws Audience Acclaim Friday

Presenting the third in a series of four community concerts, Walter Hautzig, brilliant young pianist, was heard by members of the Pampa community concert association Friday night.

Although the selection of concert compositions perhaps did not conform to the most popular varieties, Hautzig's style can be truly appreciated by music lovers.

Unfortunately, the instrument on which the artist was forced to play is not too well suited for real artistry. Nevertheless, Hautzig did his best under the circumstances.

The program opened with one of Bach's famed chorale preludes, "I Call on Thee, Lord." One of more than 100 such preludes, this one is perhaps the most famous.

Hautzig next turned to the Sonata in F Major by Mozart. The audience seemed best pleased with the well-known Adagio movement which is perhaps unexcelled for purity of style, perfection of form and tenderness of sentiment. The other two movements, Allegro and Assai Allegro, are not so well known, but his rendition of them was more

Hautzig Concert

Turning to the ever-popular works of Tschakowsky, Hautzig played two of the Russian master's works that have been all-too-neglected. The first was his "Troika," made famous by Paderevski, and the "Humoresque," one of the composer's earlier works.

A new innovation in recital music, the works of one of a group of six young French composers, was rendered admirably by Hautzig. He played Poulenc's "Toccata," which leans toward rather daring harmonies and is not so easy for the average concert-goer to understand.

Perhaps the most popular part of the program were four popular works by Chopin—"Nocturne in C Sharp Minor," "Waltz in G Flat," "Waltz in E Minor" and "Grand Polonaise." All selections were played with great feeling by the artist.

The program was concluded with Liszt's popular "Tarantella," music which was first supposed to be a cure for the bite of the dreaded spider, the tarantula.

The artist was called on for four encores.—S. R.

Pampa Chapter of American Red Cross Has Good Four-Year Record

(Editor's Note: The following summary of Red Cross work here was reported by Mrs. Johnson Smythe, worker here.)
 This is a story of achievement. This is a story of what you and your families, your relatives and friends and neighbors have accomplished for and through the Pampa Chapter of the American Red Cross during the four years since Pearl Harbor.

 Time limitations prevent giving more than a bare synopsis of your achievements, but this survey represents the combined efforts and the combined generosity of the men, women and children of this community.

Because no organization can work without money, let us consider first the financial support you have given to the American Red Cross since the war began. In 1942, one month after war was declared, you gave $6,143.26; in 1943, $24,078.28; in 1944 $32,320.25; and during the 1945 war fund campaign $37,123.13; a total of $99,673.92.
 One of the Red Cross services about which the general public hears comparatively little, because the nature of its work is strictly confidential, is home service. Home service in Pampa, as in every other American community is the local trouble shooter for the serviceman and his family. As long as the United States has an army and navy and air force; as long as our nation, has men disabled by past wars, the Red Cross must maintain its home service.

Your home service has had 35 workers during 1945. They have been on duty day and night. A soldier wants a furlough because his mother is critically ill. His commanding officer wants to check the facts. So the Red Cross field director wires your chapter and—the home service worker visits the family, consults the doctor, and wires back a report. If the situation warrants it, the furlough is approved by the soldier's commanding officer.

Or—an overseas man is worried because his wife lacks money for a needed operation. The Red Cross field director puts an emergency message through and your home service gets busy.

These are but random examples of the everyday problems about which home service concerns itself. During the last year one member of this service gave more than 1,763 hours, that is 73 24-hour days in this work. She took night calls over a period of a week during each month of 1945.

Basil O'Connor, national chairman of the American Red Cross, said recently: "One might think that with the close of the war the need for volunteers would at least be curtailed. But that is not so. Several thousand new volunteer workers must be recruited to aid returning veterans and their families, and the dependents of deceased veterans."

People of every race and creed, in every walk of life, are contributing to the giant Red Cross program of aid to those in need, at home and overseas. We you and I in this community of Pampa are part of this great "civilian" arms of mercy.
 Attend the annual meeting of the Red Cross, to be held Jan. 22, 7:30 p. m. in the Junior high school auditorium, and learn more in detail the work that is done through your local chapter.

'She Wouldn't Say Yes' Features Latest Hollywood Romantic Team

Rosalind Russell and Lee Bowman "going places" in Columbia's gayest romance "She Wouldn't Say Yes."

By SCOTT RAFFERTY

A new romantic team that makes a real hit with movie audiences is Rosalind Russell and Lee Bowman in Columbia's "She Wouldn't Say Yes," showing at the LaNora today, Monday and Tuesday.

Roz plays the part of a woman psychiatrist, who, upon leaving her army duties, gets involved with a young cartoonist, portrayed by Lee Bowman.

Bowman is the creator of an elfish character called "Nixie" who manages to figure in the plot some way.

It's a hilariously good comedy and features Charles Winninger, Harry Davenport and Adele Jergens in addition to the stars.

No picture of the South Sea islands has ever been brought more vividly to the screen than Sam Goldwyn's "The Hurricane," showing Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Rex.

A masterpiece of thundering drama, the picture was adapted from a story by Charles Nordoff and James Hall, authors of the famed "Mutiny on the Bounty."

A marvelous cast which includes Jon Hall, Dorothy Lamour (with sarong), G. Aubrey Smith, Mary Astor, Thomas Mitchell, Raymond Massey and thousands of others make "The Hurricane" a memorable even in motion picture history.

Released in the middle '30's, it's being re-released by popular demand.

Fops in the field of musical entertainment is Fox's "State Fair," showing at the Crown Sunday and Monday.

Charles Winninger and Fay Bainter are outstanding in the supporting cast. Also good in small roles are Frank McHugh and Henry Morgan.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Notebook

By WALTER MASON
 (For Hal Boyle)

SASEBO, Japan, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The war between China and Japan is over—as has been announced and ratified—but Chinese repatriates each a little hard of hearing at Hario assembly camp.

"The Chinese like to fight Japanese and they think they're doing us a favor," said Maj. J. P. Prowell, Richmond, Texas, marine commander of the camp through which more than 250,000 repatriates of three nations have passed.

"We have had as many as 20,000 Chinese, Koreans and Japanese on the post, at one time."

"That's why we have that fence," Prowell nodded toward a barbed wire fence that separates the Japanese barracks from those of the Chinese and Koreans.

Once, Prowell said, the marines had to set up a machine gun, between two groups of barracks to prevent several thousand Chinese from rushing the Japanese. A burst from the gun, which hit nobody, stopped that incident.

Pfc. George E. Taborn of Caffier, Ill., recalled the incident.

"Three thousand former Chinese prisoners of war took over nearby Hanasaki one night, forcing the Japanese to cook all the chickens and hogs so the Chinese could eat them," Taborn continued.

"All we could do was to keep them from molesting any Japanese women. Then the next day, 600 more came in and insisted we lay down our arms because they were allies. They refused to get off the train."

"The major argued for awhile and then said, 'Okay, we'll send them back where they came from.' That ended the argument."

Some of the Chinese forced laborers coming from Japan's copper mines are gray from lack of sunlight said the marines. Others lack a sigh, "and I'm told we won't get all the Japs out of China before next Christmas."

Harvester Quint Wins Three and Loses Two Tilts

The Harvesters have brought their total wins to seven and held their losses to two since the last Harvester was published Dec. 23. They won two games in the Claude tournament from Tulla and Canyon and lost one in the same tourney to Amarillo. Later the team traveled to Phillips to receive their second defeat at the hands of the Blackhaws. Then Friday night they avenged the 30-21 trouncing by beating them 40-25.

The green and gold cagers were handed their first defeat of the 1946 season last Saturday when the Amarillo Sandies outscored them 24-19 in the semi-final round of the Claude tournament.

After taking two openers from the Canyon and Tulla high school fives by 33-21 and 31-21 counts, the Harvesters were unable to overcome the Sandies.

The Pampa quintet, composed of Bernie Brown, Charlie Beard, Randall Clay, Leon Crump, Bill Speer, Frank Green and Leon Gooch, took their first two games with comparative ease. Speer led the scoring in the Canyon contest with 13 points to his credit. In the Tulla game Clay took high-point honors with 14 points. The Harvesters went on a fouling spree and made 21 in that game.

In the hard-fought game with Amarillo, the tournament champs, the Harvesters tried unsuccessfully to overcome the five point lead in the closing minutes but the Sandies deftly froze the ball. Randall Clay turned in his usual good game, scoring 16 of Pampa's 19 points.

Two of the Pampa cagers, Clay and Brown, gained individual honors by being placed on the all-tournament team.

The game at Phillips was slow to get started and before the Harvesters could find the range of the basket, the Blackhaws had scored seven points. But the Harvesters turned on the heat and Phillips only by three points by the end of the first quarter. The second quarter showed what the Hawks could do and by the end of the half the score stood 14-9.

The Harvesters threatened the Phillips lead and the score was 19-15 at the close of the third period. This Harvester spurge was cut short when the Blackhawk cagers found their mark and the game ended with the green and gold trailing 30-21.

The game Friday night was a rough and fast tilt all the way. The Pampa five immediately put their eye on the basket and before the Blackhaws could retaliate the Harvesters had scored 4 points. The first quarter showed the score 11-5. Both teams turned on the heat in the second period and by the end of the first half the score was 21-16.

The high scoring continued throughout the second half. In the third quarter the Harvesters put 14 points through the hoop bringing the score to 35-23. In the last quarter the Harvesters had a hard time scoring and by the end of the game the score stood 40-25.

For the Blackhaws the high scorer was Ben Ernest who made 14 points in the Thursday tilt and Dick Jackson was high man in the Friday night with 13.

Randall Clay made 6 points in the Thursday night game and Leon Gooch, newcomer to Harvester basketball, turned in a superb game with 18 points Friday night. Clay followed closely with 15.

The Pampa "B" team won both their games. Thursday night the score was 31-12 and Friday night the game was much closer with the score 25-22. Bob Boyles was high pointer Thursday with six and Leon Crump scored seven Friday to capture the honor.

Three teachers who participated in special activities during the Christmas holidays were Rev. Russell G. West, Mr. M. E. Berg, and Mr. W. E. Adams.

Mr. West attended a meeting of the Church of the Brethren in Oklahoma City, which was held in conjunction with the "Wheat for Holland" drive. Churches of three states—Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico—were represented.

Mr. Berg attended the Sugar Bowl game in New Orleans, in which his alma mater, Oklahoma A & M, defeated St. Mary's 33-13. "The best game I ever saw," he commented.

Mr. Adams attended a sheet metal course at Texas Tech during the holidays.

Don't miss "Three Corned Moon" to be presented Thursday and Friday nights in the Junior High auditorium at 8 p. m.

Sagebrush-- by the Sage

A long lasting romance is that of Joan Conrod and Jimmie Terrell. They have been going steady a year this month.

Bill Speer and Joyce Pratt have been going steady for six long, hard months. Their New Year's resolution was to continue going steady throughout the year.

Miss Durrett served cokes to those who kept her history classes during exams—and to those who helped grade papers.

A nut at the wheel. A peach, the apple of his eye as his side. A turp in the road. Fruit Salad!

Mickey McCray seemed to be having a wonderful time at the dance Friday night. With that date we don't blame him. Also seen there were Bonnie Shelton and Bill Taylor, Bill Washington and Barbara Conrod, Jerry Barber and Ned Davis and Addolene Patten and Richard Hughes.

C. L. Farmer and Anna Lois Beely have called it quits again. Can a thing like this go on forever.

Leona Mills and D. L. Hale are still going steady and speaking of Mills, several have been wondering what has happened to Doug.

Ide Ruth Taylor and Buddy Price have been seen together recently. They make a very nice couple and we would like to see them together more often.

Patty Rutherford has a new dream boy. She says this is to be a secret until she wants on it a little longer.

John Sloan Gives Liquid Air Show Before PHS Students January 4

Mr. John Sloan gave a liquid air demonstration in the second paid assembly of the year Friday, Jan. 4.

Mr. Sloan is a former science instructor and holds the degree of Master of Arts from Duke University. He has presented more than 2,500 demonstrations in more than 40 states. He is both scientist and showman and suggests that the inquiring student may be able to uncover many additional uses for liquid air.

Liquid air has a pale blue color, weighs almost as much as water and although it is a liquid, it is dry and has a temperature of 312 degrees Fahrenheit below zero. It is liquefied by subjecting air, such as we breathe, to a high pressure and then lowering its temperature. Mr. Sloan explained.

Some of the demonstrations Mr. Sloan showed were: liquid air boiling and frying an egg on ice because of the extreme heat of the ice, and the solid freezing of kerosene, which was thought impossible to freeze, in liquid air. He put a grape in liquid air, and it became as hard as steel. It made iron so brittle that it could be broken with the hands.

WALL STREET
 NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—(P)—Darkening of the nation's strike picture touched off a relatively heavy selling in today's stock market after six successive rising sessions to 18-year average peaks.

The two-hour volume of around 1,200,000 shares was one of the best for a short session of the past five years.

Prominent casualties were steels and motors including U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Republic Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Chrysler, General Motors, Graham-Paige and Continental Motors.

On the downside the greater part of the time were Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Southern Pacific, Great Northern, American Telephone, Ansonia, Kennecott, American Smelting, Goodrich, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, Douglas Aircraft, Eastman Kodak, Johnsonville, Radio Corp., Electric Power & Light, Westinghouse and American Can.

Bonds were lower.

EXPECTED HOME
 Sgt. Billie W. Waters phoned his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Waters, on his arrival in New York last Saturday after serving in the European theater for over a year with the combat engineers.

Billie was to arrive Friday at Fort Sam Houston for discharge, having left Camp Kilbourne, N. J. Monday. He is expected home soon.

The sergeant entered the army special training program in June, 1943, and was sent overseas in August, 1944.

PASTOR WIELDS HAMMER TO BUILD OWN CHURCHES
 CHARLESTON, Mo.—(P)—Many pastors have been called "church builders," but the Rev. Allen B. Cooper, 47, really builds them. He knows his carpenter's tools as well as his Bible.

Building country churches on week-days and preaching on Sundays, he has done most of the sawing and hammering in the construction of five churches in Missouri and one in Arkansas. His New Bethel church in the nearby Bridges community, considered a model rural church building, was started with material salvaged from a fire—and no money.

The college-trained, hammer-wielding preacher has been at it for five years.
