Chinese Communists and Nationalists Agree on Truce Procedures

Negotiators Making Plans To End Strife

CHUNGKING, Jan. 5 (AP) — The government and the communists announced today an agreement on methods of ending China's civil strife and instructed their top negotiators to meet not later than Monday to work out the details.

It was learned reliably that Gen. Chang Chen, the government negotiator, and Chou En-lai, the communist representative, would seek the help of Gen. George C. Marshall, special U. S. envoy to China.

CEASE FIRE ORDER
K. C. Wu, minister of information, said a cease fire order, stilling the sporadic shooting that has punctuated the civil turmoil since Japan's surrender, would be set when the negotiators meet.

It still was not known here whether the government had agreed to lift the blockade of communist areas, which the communists had demanded as one condition before going farther with peace talks.

TEMPORARY PEACE
The long-awaited agreement was widely acclaimed in Chungking as assuring at least a temporary peace, and there were expressions of relief on all sides in this long-anxious capital.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, who called the session, indicated in his message to the nation New Year's eve a willingness to broaden the base of his government to achieve unity.

Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer announced that U. S. ships would be moving government troops into Manchuria shortly.

The announcement that the government and the communists had agreed at last on procedure for a cessation of hostilities was made in the form of a joint statement.

The government had proposed in its latest truce offer that each side appoint a representative who would act with Marshall as a committee to arrange details for cessation of hostilities.

While this first big step toward peace was taken, such crucial questions as the government advance

BOY TO HAVE PLASTIC SKULL

Six-year-old Norman Turner was born with scaphocephalus, a rare skull condition which necessitated removal of most of the bone from the top of his head in order to relieve threatened pressure on his brain. To replace the missing skull, Irving A. Goldman of Arlington, Va., plans to provide the boy with one of plastic. Above, he displays a plaster cast of the artificial skull to Norman and his mother, Mrs. Laura Turner, a graduate nurse.

Results of Truman's 'Chat' Undetermined

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP) — Senators and representatives still in Washington reported today a meager reaction from constituents to President Truman's appeal to the people to turn pressure on congress for speed on his legislative program.

UNEXPECTED AFTERMATH
But one unexpected aftermath was a statement by Senator Morse (R-Or.) that Senator Taft (R-Ohio) had delivered a "radio tirade" in reply last night.

Morse himself criticized the Truman appeal. But he said some of the measures Taft attacked had bipartisan backing. He asserted that the Ohioan's remarks show "in a frightening manner" why the common men and women of the country "cannot look to the reactionary republicans, who are seeking to control the republican party, to protect and improve their standard of living."

FEW TELEGRAMS RECEIVED
Some congressmen said they had received a "radio tirade" in reply last night.

All Fathers Should Notify Draft Board

Men eligible for military service between the ages of 18 and 25 should notify the draft board immediately if they have one or more children, it was stated today by Miss Wislie Blakney, clerk of the local Selective Service board.

The request is to prevent the drafting of men who were formerly eligible for service in connection with recent congressional action.

188,750 DISCHARGES BY MARCH 2:
WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP) — Approximately 18,750 additional officers and 170,000 enlisted personnel will become eligible for separation from the navy as a result of new progressive reductions in point scores through March 2, the navy said today.

These figures, officials explained, cover only personnel who will have attained the new minimum scores by the effective dates. Additional releases will be made possible in the meantime by accumulation of sufficient points under previously announced scores. Unlike the army, navy critical scores are computed on accumulated basis.

Critical scores for most male enlisted personnel, the navy said, will be reduced to 33 on Feb. 15, and to 32 on March 1. The present score is 36, and plans were announced previously for reductions to 35 on Jan. 15 and to 24 on Feb. 2.

The critical score for most male commissioned and warrant officers will be reduced to 40 on Feb. 15 and to 39 on March 2. Present score for that group is 43, and previously announced plans call for reductions to 42 on Jan. 15 and to 41 on Feb. 2.

Stark Tells Group of Warning Given Japan

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 (AP) — Admiral Harold R. Stark said today he warned Japanese Ambassador Nomura before Pearl Harbor that if the United States were forced into a fight it would mean "the end of the Japanese empire."

The 1941 chief of naval operations said he told the ambassador Japan might have some initial successes but "we would completely break them before we got through."

The date of the conversation was not brought out.

Stark under questioning from Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), spiritedly denied that the United States had an agreement to go to war in event Japan attacked British or Dutch possessions.

HAD NO COMMITMENT
"We had no commitment whatsoever that we would shoot unless we were attacked," he said.

Ferguson asked if Stark had seen at the time reports of a speech by Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) in Boston in the fall of 1941. The senator quoted Pepper as saying the navy had "drawn a line" in the Pacific and the shooting would begin if the Japanese crossed it.

LAUGH AT STARK
The members laughed when Stark replied that "if he had seen it he would not have given it any weight."

Senator Lucas (D-Ill.) interjected the comment that the congressman had delivered a "radio tirade" in reply last night.

Mystery Stories Inspire Girl, 14, To Attempt Crime

DENTON, Jan. 5 (AP) — A 14-year-old girl, four feet 11 inches tall, who found out that ideas borrowed from mystery stories sometimes misfire, was charged with juvenile delinquency here today in juvenile court.

County Attorney W. K. Baldrige said the girl was Eva Lee Knoop. He said her parents would be notified as soon as a trial date was set by County Judge Gerald Stockard sometime today.

Deputy Sheriff Sam Gentry said this was her story:
Deciding to leave her farm home in Palo Pinto county last Wednesday, the girl took along a pistol and a knife. At Gordon, Texas, she purchased perfume, a diary and a couple of murder mystery books.

She traveled by train to Fort Worth and several other cities. By Thursday she reached Denton, where she hailed the cab of E. L. Howland.

Water Department Reports Collections

Water department collections for the month of December totaled $15,171.93, City Manager Garland Franks reported yesterday.

Of this total, $14,608.93 was for water service, which does not include deposits and water taps.

December water service collections totaled nearly $1,000 more than for the same period in 1944, Franks reported. The 1944 figure was $13,696.18.

Box Keys Being Made Unlawfully

Postal laws and regulations forbid any individual having a replacement key made for any lost or misplaced box key. Postmaster W. B. Weathered cautioned today.

Weathered said it has been learned that a local firm has the key stock and may have accepted orders for duplicates of post office keys. Violation of the regulation, by either the key-maker or a person having such a key in his or her possession, may bring about a fine not to exceed $500 or a prison sentence of not more than two years, or both.

The postmaster urged those who have lost keys to obtain them at the post office. A deposit of 20 cents is to be made on each key issued. The deposit will be refunded when the key is turned in.

100 Injured Critically Are In Hospitals

PALESTINE, Jan. 5 (AP) — Texas highway patrolmen converged on East Texas to aid scores of local officials still digging through the debris of three communities today seeking victims of Texas tornadoes that took a toll of 23 known dead last night.

Approximately 100 others were injured critically enough to be hospitalized. Hundreds of others were hurt less seriously.

RED CROSS ON JOB
The Red Cross and the United States public health service have assumed all day possible for victims of the storm. Blood plasma was rushed from Austin.

The tornado followed a week of balmy, unseasonal winter warmth. The sudden change in weather was felt over the entire state, high winds being reported at Port Arthur, on the gulf coast, Laredo on the Mexican border, and Texarkana on the northern edge of Texas.

4 TOWNS HIT
Most seriously hurt area was in the pineclad foothills of East Texas. Tornadoes struck Southview, near Palestine; Clawson, near Lufkin, and Nacogdoches community.

Approximately 99 persons were taken to hospitals and hastily improvised air centers. There were 25 badly injured in Palestine hospitals, 65 at Nacogdoches, 9 at Lufkin. Hundreds of others were given medical aid.

Damage to property was high, but no official estimates have been possible today. Thirty homes were demolished and 75 buildings damaged at Clawson. Damage there is expected to be around $300,000, according to a survey by the Lufkin News.

One man, a grocer whose home was destroyed at Clawson, is reported missing.

3 Higgins Boat Plants To Reopen

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 5 (AP) — Andrew J. Higgins, who closed his three boat building plants Nov. 1 during an AFL strike, said today he planned to reopen them and hire "permanent employees."

One of his plants, the industrial canal plant of Higgins Industries, Inc., is already in full operation, completing existing contracts.

The boat builder set no date for reopening the other two. He said, however, that recent action by the national labor relations board, in ordering an election to determine a collective bargaining agent, "gives us incentive and encouragement to create new work and to give more employment."

Higgins said he intended to hire "more permanent employees than the total number of workers" the firm employed during its wartime peak (about 12,000). He did not say how many.

The NLRB has ordered the holding of the collective bargaining election within 60 days to determine whether the workers desire to be represented by the AFL or CIO.

New System of Redeployment Is Stated for ETO

FRANKFURT, Germany, Jan. 5—(AP)—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney disclosed today a new system of U. S. army redeployment from Europe under which the release of men to go home will depend on whether they are essential to their jobs, and whether replacement arrive.

The old redeployment program is ended, he announced.

It was good news for men with low points. Men with 10 or 15 points who had thought they might be in Germany for years under the point system could be home by July 1, if replacements arrive.

McNarney, U. S. commander in the European theater, told a news conference that eight-point men kept in Europe remain because they are needed, and not because of lack of ships.

He said that through the new program "we will have the requisite American forces to fulfill our nation's responsibilities in Germany. The United States forces will be employed efficiently and will be assisted by a maximum of non-military personnel."

"To this end I have created a liquidation and manpower board to check into every activity. Its objective is to recommend personnel reductions by eliminating tasks or speeding their execution."

He said it had not been decided what divisions would compose the newly planned occupation force, but that all would be infantry.

There will be no armored divisions as such but the constabulary will be entirely armored.

McNarney estimated that a cut of 70,000 men, or 19 per cent, would be made in the original occupation force estimate of 370,000 by July 1.

This new bright world of peace on earth and good will among men must have influenced a hen in Taylor.

The Taylor Times says a hen of the Walter Eiben farm has adopted a brood of puppies. It even prints a picture to prove it.

The hen discovered the motherless puppies in her nest in a tub and promptly began taking care of them.

At last reports the strange family was getting along beautifully and well, the only flaw being the mother hen's distress when her children don't respond when she scratches up food and clucks.

Pleasant tradition continues in Waco. At one home a present is always put on the Christmas tree for the cat. Sometimes it's a rubber ball, sometimes a piece of meat. The cat has come to look forward to Christmas.

Another exchange of presents occurs between a child and a cat whose birthdays fall on the same date. It became a ritual for the cat's mistress to lead him a race the street with his present for the little girl tied around his neck or a ribbon.

But curiosity is something else. Curiosity killed a deer near McAllen.

Climan W. W. Zimmerman stopped at a water tank in Starr county to hunt ducks. As he got out of his car, someone in hand he saw a buck standing at attention of yards away, watching curiously.

Zimmerman got back in the car got another gun, turned around leisurely, and shot the buck, which just stood there waiting to see what was going to happen next.

Lowest Temperature in 1945 Was 3 Above; Highest, 104

The hottest day last year, according to the annual meteorological summary issued by the U. S. Weather Bureau station at the airport here, was September 4 when the mercury rose to 104.

The coldest day was December 15 when the temperature dropped to 3 above, which at that time was declared to be the coldest reading in the state for the year.

Only two other times did the temperature reach the 100-mark during the year, and that was on June 27 when it read 101; and August 18 when he read 100.

Rainfall, as registered here, was sub-normal for October, November, and December. In that order the rainfall records reads: 1.64, -1.09, and -0.47. Last January, 1945, the

that the precipitation for the year is 4.68 inches below normal. Further investigation will show that rainfall was sparse in one of the seasons when it is most needed—and that is in the fall and early part of the winter. The wheat crops at that time, according to reports from farmers in the area, are suffering for lack of sufficient rainfall.

Rainfall, as registered here, was sub-normal for October, November, and December. In that order the rainfall records reads: 1.64, -1.09, and -0.47. Last January, 1945, the

The greatest snowfall in any 24-hour period last year was 2.59 inches on June 11. Total rainfall for the year was 16.59 inches.

The prevailing wind last year was from the south. There were 60 days with precipitation registered, 154 clear days, 114 partly cloudy days, and 97 days registered as cloudy.

The greatest snowfall in any 24-hour period during the year 1945 was MANILA, Jan. 4—(AP)—The Manila Dodgers outlasted the touring USO big leaguers to win a 14-inning baseball game yesterday, 3 to 1. Zig Emery, property of the New York Giants, won the game with a run-scoring single.

New Mayor Named For Leon, Mexico

LEON, Mexico, Jan. 5—(AP)—A new mayor headed this industrial city of 75,000 today, replacing the government party candidate whose "election" caused a demonstration Wednesday resulting in the fatal shooting of 30 persons.

Jesus Perez Bravo was named by a non-partisan municipal council composed of businessmen as the new mayor, succeeding Ignacio Quiroz.

Approximately 25,000 persons attended a mass funeral yesterday for 28 of the victims. Federal troops, who reportedly opened fire on the demonstrators, were removed from the city.

Although the official ballot count indicated Quiroz received a majority, his opponents said he was "imposed" on the city by the PRM (government party).

1946 Cotton Crop To Come Under Price Control

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5—(AP)—The 1946 cotton crop will be brought under price control in an effort to stabilize textile and clothing prices, OPA Administrator Chester Bowles announced tonight.

Heretofore raw cotton has been exempt from price ceilings.

Bowles said OPA would issue soon an advance notice, under terms of the price control act, of ceilings to be imposed on this year's crop.

Bowles disclosed OPA's plans in a statement in which he commended the Commodity Credit Corporation for making available additional stocks of cotton as a "help measure in stabilizing textile and clothing prices."

"Oh, Mum, we'd have to send away for the lumber."

elements in the cost of living," Bowles said, "and the OPA intends to do everything in its power to avoid the necessity of raising the prices of these important commodities."

Bowles said OPA has been "increasingly disturbed" over recent advances in raw cotton prices "because of their possible effect on fabric and yarn ceilings."

"A large element in the rise in the market seems to have been speculative in nature, due to traders, who are betting on inflation," the OPA chief declared.

He added that with additional supplies to become available through CCC offerings, "I believe cotton prices will be steadied at a level which should permit textile ceilings to be held without change."

SEE ANYTHING DIFFERENT? CHICAGO, Jan. 5—(AP)—L. D. Taylor of Newaygo, Mich., didn't want his wife to know he had been promoted from army lieutenant to captain until she saw the twin bars on his shoulders.

She was to meet him at a hotel where he had reserved a room for Lt. and Mrs. L. D. Taylor. She arrived and was assigned Room 518. He came in soon afterward, registered as Capt. L. D. Taylor and was put in Room 803.

It was late the next day before anxious hotel clerks, who had believed Lieutenant Taylor and Captain Taylor were different fellows, finally reunited the frantic couple.

Attorney General Plans Nationwide Drive on Juvenile Delinquency

FORT WORTH, Jan. 5—(AP)—Juvenile delinquency among girls, which U. S. Attorney General Tom Clark declares has risen much faster than among boys, will be the chief objective of a nationwide drive he plans to start next month, he declared here today before leaving for a visit to Dallas.

The former Dallas lawyer, who rose to the attorney generalship last year, said the percentage increase among girls has been much higher during war years than that among boys—as high as 350 per cent in sex crimes.

"We have boys' clubs all over the country, and while we have the Camp Fire girls, we don't have the fine girls' clubs and camps that we have for boys."

Clark said he plans to make appointments within 10 days or two weeks of leading citizens over the nation. They will be called to Washington for a conference.

The attorney general said he expects to confer with Senators Connally and O'Daniel within two or three weeks and submit an appointment to the senate for confirmation to post of U. S. attorney for the northern district of Texas.

Declining to name his choice, he said five men are under consideration.

They are Ira Butte, Fort Worth attorney; Acting United States At-

Leaves From a Correspondent's War Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

MANILA, Jan. 4—(AP)—Leaves from a correspondent's notebook:

Harvey B. Dunn is "The man with the missing finger." They were separated 37 years ago and Harvey would like to forget the whole business but people won't let him. He is now 51 and has been in show business since he was 16. He is in the cast of the USO show, "Three Men On a Horse."

Sooner or later, people look at the blank space where his right forefinger used to be, and ask in a low voice, full of sympathy and curiosity:

"Really now Harvey, how did you lose your finger anyway?"

Desperately bored, Harvey used to explain that he had been run over by a steamer or that it had been ripped off by a woodpecker but so many of his questioners gave him dissatisfied looks, he decided to make a clean breast of it. Now when anybody asks him about his "missing digit," he just whips out a printed card which reads:

"The story of my finger cut off July 18, 1908.

"Caught in a cogwheel of a printing press at the Press and Dakotan office, Yankton, S. D., while working around the press.

"Attending physician Dr. Moorhouse.

"I did not sue for damages.

"I can write just as well now, if not better, than before the accident.

"I swear this is a true statement to the best of my knowledge. Sincerely yours, Harvey B. Dunn."

That ends all questioning.

Another actor in the same show is Lewis Charles. He collects knives as a hobby.

His most interesting specimen, a bolo blade 18 inches long, he obtained from a native at Tacloban in Leyte in exchange for 14 bars of soap.

On the mahogany sheath of this redoubtable weapon, Charles said the former owner affectionately had carved:

"God Bless You, Mother."

A Vital Message To Men Who Feel Old

Why not regain the vim and vitality you once enjoyed?

If life apparently has lost its zest, you again may be able to enjoy life as you did in your youth. If added years have slowed down your vim, vitality and youthful pleasures, here is a simple method that may change your whole outlook on life. Just ask your druggist for CASSELLA stimulating tablets. Take as directed on label. Don't feel old and worn out at 40, 60 or more. Take these tablets regularly until you feel that you have regained the pleasure of living you once enjoyed. Why be discouraged? Why not try CASSELLA tablets and regain the vim and zest of a much younger man? There is nothing harmful in these tablets. They contain Celery seed, Thiamin Chloride, Passion Flower, Iron. Ask your doctor or druggist about this formula.

Expecting a Baby?

Mother's Friend massaging preparation helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an exfoliating prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massage medium in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy... it helps keep the skin soft and pliable... thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin... for the tired back muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use. Highly praised by users, many doctors and nurses. Millions of bottles sold. Just ask any druggist for Mother's Friend—the skin emollient and lubricant. Do try it.

Stricken Vernon Vet in Iron Lung

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5.—(AP)—A paralyzed army veteran lay in an iron lung at Vernon, Texas, tonight while a military plane sped to carry him across half the continent to a veterans hospital.

The ex-soldier, William N. Adams, will be flown to the veterans administration newly designated "nerve" center at Bay Pines, Fla., and the army was hustling a portable respirator and a hospital plane to Texas for the trip.

The administration said in a statement that Adams, discharged last October after serving since January, 1941 suffered a postwar injury which partially severed the spinal cord at the fifth cervical vertebra, leaving him completely paralyzed. It did not know the cause.

Notified of the accident, VA officials arranged with the surgeon general's office for a hospital plane to fly from Topeka, Kas., tonight to Cincinnati, O., to pick up an army portable respirator. The plane, carrying a doctor, nurse and attendant, is expected at Sheppard Field, Texas, at about 6 a.m. (CST) Sunday, the VA statement said.

H., in 1944 to set up an international bank for reconstruction and development and a fund to stabilize world currencies. They agreed to subscribe a total of roughly $9,000,000,000 for each fund.

MORE ABOUT ATOMIC POWER
An article in the last issue of Oil Weekly proposed drilling with atomic power using 99286 ounces (maximum) of the uranium isotope. It sounds like a good idea, providing wells will be drilled when atomic power is controlled to such an extent.

Clay Makes All-State Second Team; Terrell Is Honored

Juett of Amarillo Lands on 1st '11'

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The 1945 all-state high school football team is big enough to step onto a Southwest conference gridiron and trade power with any eleven. It has a 197.4-pound line and a 174.7-pound backfield.

It is the biggest all-state team ever selected. It has everything else, too.

Highland Park of Dallas and Waco, who battled to a brilliant 7-7 tie to share the championship, each placed three men. Five schools took the other positions.

That it is representative is attested by the fact that two boys who made it were on teams that did not win their district championships.

The team this year was picked by the Texas Sports Writers association and the Texas High School Coaches association. It represents a very close survey of the great 1945 campaign that produced the best schoolboy football in the 26 years the Texas Interscholastic League has sponsored the sport.

Ranking highest in the recommendations were James (Froggie) Williams, Waco's great wingman who almost gave his team the championship over Highland Park and who was responsible for the Tigers sharing the title; A. J. Dugas, Port Arthur's 1944 all-state guard; Jimmy Flowers, the mighty center of Highland Park, and J. W. Thompson, the great ball-carrier of Odessa's Bronchos.

Bill Elliott, who played fullback on offense and end on defense, pairs with Williams at the end posts. Bob Hames, Wichita Falls giant, and brilliant Ralph Murphy of Waco are the tackles. Bill Juett, the mighty man of Amarillo's line, is the other guard.

Retiring President Weldon Hart of the Sports Writers association called it the most representative team ever selected. It culminated a survey that started with the end of the district campaigns and gave consideration to every boy.

Kane and Dugas were the boys making the team without playing outside the district. It is seldom that a boy lands on the selection unless he emerges into state play and gains the eye of the general public. To make the team without so doing is quite an accomplishment and means he really is a star footballer.

Mal Stevens, former Yale and New York university coach and now mentor of the all-American Brooklyn entry, said at a news conference at the new league's organizational meeting that the draft would pick college seniors on a limited basis.

Stevens, speaking on behalf of the other league coaches, said the all-America had written to the national collegiate coaches association, asking for a list of college players known to be interested in continuing football as professions.

The plan of the all-America will be to approach interested players only after their coaches have given a go-head.

The all-America which ostensibly will adopt the National league rule book, in substance, said it would follow the collegiate rule on substitutions.

A survey of coaches disclosed the all-America has more than 200 players under contract and would furnish a wide variety of offensive play when it starts operations next fall.

Phils Have Much 'New Material'

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Jan. 5.—(AP)—The trouble with the Phillies, says Manager Ben Chapman, is that "they've been losing so long it doesn't seem to matter whether they win or not."

And that's one of the first problems Bearcat Ben aims to tackle when the National league problem children report for spring practice next month in Miami Beach, Fla.

If new material can turn the trick, Chapman hopes to pull the Philadelphia team out of the cellar next season for the first time since 1943.

The roster so far contains only one player who was with the faltering Phils at the start of the 1945 season. That's Outfielder Vance Dimaggio.

Fifth man to pilot the club in four years, Chapman will be running strictly counter to past Philly performances if he pulls the team out of the cellar. Seven times in the past 10 years the Quaker City boys have wound up trailing the rest of the league, and the other three times they were only one place from the bottom.

In 67 years of National league competition, the club has been in last place 19 times and won the pennant only once.

Capitol Hill Romps Over Sunset, 50-28

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Oklahoma teams made a clean sweep of opening night basketball games last night at the annual clinic sponsored by the North Texas and Southern Oklahoma Basketball association at Hardin college.

Oklahoma City's Capitol Hill Redskins defeated the Sunset Redskins of Dallas 50 to 28 and the Blue Okla., Broncs turned back the Nacoma Indians 40 to 24.

C. Nip, Blair guard, led the attack against Nacoma with 29 points. Speegle was top man for the Redskins with 15 points.

Stevens, speaking on behalf of the other league coaches, said the all-America had written to the national collegiate coaches association, asking for a list of college players known to be interested in continuing football as professions.

The plan of the all-America will be to approach interested players only after their coaches have given a go-head.

Special Field Rules May Be Determined

AUSTIN, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The railroad commission announced yesterday a hearing would be held here Feb. 15 to determine whether certain producing zones in the Canales and Tjerna fields in Jim Wells county are common reservoirs.

If it is determined that they are, the commission will also study the question of whether or not a common set of special field rules should be set up for the zones.

The cost of constructing terraces is relatively small compared with the benefits received.

Henry Frnka Is Coach at Tulane

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Tulane university has signed a new head football coach with a penchant for producing bowl teams.

The new grid boss is Henry Frnka, who has steered his Tulsa university team into a post-season "classic" each of the five seasons he has coached at the Oklahoma school.

Meanwhile he has won three Missouri Valley conference championships.

Appointment of Frnka was made known last night after announcement that Claude "Little Monk" Simons, Jr., head coach at Tulane for four years, had relinquished the post to become director, of athletics.

Frnka took the Hurricane to the Sun Bowl in 1942, brought it to the Sugar Bowl the following two years, to the Orange Bowl in 1945 and to the Oil Bowl this month.

At his home in Tulsa, Frnka said he was excited at the prospect of working at Tulane.

Frnka played at Austin college in Texas, coached high schools for several years, then went to Vanderbilt as Ray Morrison's assistant. He went to Temple with Morrison and after one year took over the Tulsa job.

Pampa is one of the few high schools or colleges that holds the distinction of beating a Frnka-coached team. The 1936 Harvesters, Pampa's greatest team, beat Frnka's Lubbock Westerners 12-9. During his coaching career in Texas high schools, his teams won 103 and lost eight.

Jones Re-Signs As Coyote Head

WICHITA FALLS, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Thurmon L. "Tugboat" Jones, former Little America back from Abilene Christian college who in two years as head coach of the Wichita Falls Coyotes piloted them to two district championships and the 1945 semi-finals, has accepted a contract as head football coach for another two years.

H. D. Fillers, superintendent of city schools made the announcement last night at a banquet honoring Coyote players and coaching staff.

At the same time Fillers revealed that the city board of education had created the position of director of physical education for all city schools and the position had been offered to L. (Jg) Ted Jefferies.

Jefferies, who coached the Coyotes to the 1941 state title, is now on leave of absence from the navy. He is believed to be en route to the States from the Pacific. Whether he will accept the position, which carries an increase in salary, will not be known until he can be contacted, Fillers said.

Cooper Sale Is Not Surprise to Dyer

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 5.—(AP)—The sale of Walker Cooper, Cardinal catcher to the New York Giants for a reported $175,000 came as no surprise to Eddie Dyer, new Cardinal manager who makes his home here.

"But the statement that Cooper did not want to play for him was a surprise," Dyer said.

"I have always been able to get along with any ball player and I could have gotten along with Cooper, whom I consider the best catcher in baseball," Dyer said.

Escaped Convict Dies in Gun Fight

EL CAMPO, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The search for Willford Baroon, life term convict who escaped from the People's State prison at Angleton three weeks ago came to an end here last night.

Police officers found Baroon's car parked near a garage and Baroon inside the building. He was killed instantly by the fire of a deputy sheriff's machine gun.

Local Coach Gave Player First Boost

Coach Otis Coffey's 1945 team didn't land a player on the all-state first team, but there is a bit of irony in the naming of Newell Kane, Palestine's great back, to the mythical eleven.

Coffey, who formerly coached the Palestine eleven, was once approached by a gangling, over-grown junior high student and was asked "how to become a great football player."

"The Pampa mentor told the boy that he must stay in training, must always observe good sportsmanship rules and told him about all the other qualifications of a fine player that must be adhered to.

You guessed it, the gangling youth was Newell Kane.

Walker Cooper Is Sold to Giants; Brings $175,000

NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—(AP)—In one of the three biggest money deals in all baseball history, Catcher Walker Cooper was sold today by the St. Louis Cardinals to the New York Giants for $175,000 in cash.

Confirming the "most publicized secret" of the winter season, Giant President Horace Stoneham insisted no players were involved in the deal and that the purchase of Cooper is not contingent on when the best catcher in baseball is discharged from the navy. He has been in the service since last May 2.

"However, we hope that Cooper will be out of the navy by April," Stoneham added, as he was told that new-natal ratings have dropped the minimum discharge requirements to 35 points.

Available records show that only twice before had as much as $175,000 in cash been involved in a player deal. In 1938, the Cards sent Pitcher Dizzy Dean to the Chicago Cubs for $185,000 in cash and three additional players. After the 1934 campaign, Washington Senators' President Clark Griffith sent son-in-law Joe Cronin to the Boston Red Sox for Lyn Lary and a sum in cash variously reported anywhere from $150,000 to $250,000.

"It's certainly the biggest deal we've ever made," Stoneham pointed out.

EL CAMPO, Jan. 5.—(AP)—The search for Willford Baroon, life term convict who escaped from the People's State prison at Angleton three weeks ago came to an end here last night.

Police officers found Baroon's car parked near a garage and Baroon inside the building. He was killed instantly by the fire of a deputy sheriff's machine gun.

Harvesters Downed by Sandies in Tourney

After winning from Canyon and Tulla in the first two games of the Claude invitation basketball tournament, the Pampa Harvesters dropped a 23-14, semi-final round decision to the Amarillo Sandies and bowed out of the meet yesterday.

Randall Clay, continuing his high-scoring pace, poured in 41 points in the three games, getting 16 of the local five's 19 points against the Sandies.

The Harvesters opened in the meet with a 33 to 21 win over Canyon's Eagles, followed with a 31-21 triumph over the Tulla Hornets and then lost to Amarillo.

Next game on the Harvester schedule will be with the Phillips Blackhawks here January 11. The locals will go to Perryton January 18, and play Spearman here January 25, to complete the non-conference schedule as it has been arranged.

However, Coach Otis Coffey said he plans to schedule some more games if possible.

Byron Nelson Takes Over at Half-Way

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Byron Nelson, the "Mr. Big" of American golf, settled into championship stride today to take over the halfway lead of the 72-hole Los Angeles open tournament. His two under par 69, coupled to yesterday's 71, gave him a 36-hole total of 140.

It was the same old storm framed in the latest setting of the winter tournament trail—Lord Byron, the country's greatest money winner with the lowest scoring average, fronting the field.

FAIRMONT, Minn., Jan. 5.—(AP)—There's a housing shortage here, too, and it's possible some war veterans' families will wind up on the poor farm.

The Martin county commissioners are considering a proposal to convert the farm home into apartments for veterans, since the structure no longer is needed to house the indigent.

Truman 'Chat'

(Continued from page 1) received one or two telegrams as a result of Mr. Truman's appeal Thursday night. Some said none had come in. Only a few lawmakers remained in the capital over the holidays, however.

Thus the reaction on those who went home over Christmas and New Year's apparently will determine the results of the President's Thursday night radio address to the people. He said congress had been "distressingly slow" on domestic legislation he had recommended. He asked the people to back his program and tell their views to their congressmen.

The White House itself said it had counted some 500 telegrams in response to the Truman speech. Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said about 80 per cent were "favorable." The chief executive asked the public to support particularly his plan—opposed by organized labor, for a law to bar major strikes while fact-finding boards look into labor disputes.

He blamed committees especially for holding up his program. Senate and house labor committees are handling the fact-finding measure.

One of the telegrams to the President came from Chairman Mary T. Norton (D-NJ) of the house labor committee, who has been absent because of illness. It said: "I sincerely approve x x x. It was an honest and sincere appeal."

Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, house democratic leader, wired, "Your radio address was a fighting one and timely."

Asked whether any labor unions had complained in messages about the chief executive's address, Ross said he had not run across any. But he said some individual telegrams called the speech "over-friendly" and some said it was under-friendly to labor.

Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex) reported one urging him to "take congress out from under pressure of the White House."

It was a similar story over in the house, where only a handful of members was around.

Howard headed for Oklahoma. "I didn't like the pistol she pointed at me," he said.

Through Gainesville, Sherman and Denison they drove. At a small town south of Madill, Okla., the girl decided she wanted some candy, and sent Howard into a store to buy some.

Taking advantage of the situation, Howard explained his predicament to the storekeeper, who promised to tip off the police he didn't "re" to make a break for it.

"Didn't want to get shot in the back," Howard explained.

Police, tipped by the storekeeper, stopped the taxi at the edge of Madill Thursday night. Yesterday Denton County Attorney W. K. Baldrige and Sheriff Roy Moore brought her here.

Gentry said that the girl got the idea from one of the murder mystery books she bought.

The diary today, he said, contained only one line: "Places I have been since I ran away."

Strikes

(Continued from page 1) the National Federation of Telephone workers, and believed that "by Monday or Wednesday something will be ready to break."

The communications workers, seeking a 30 per cent wage increase, have set Wednesday as a strike deadline. If the strike is called, Fitzsimmons said, the ACEW would establish picket lines outside telephone exchanges in 42 states and these lines would not be crossed by other telephone union members.

In Cleveland, the two daily afternoon newspapers missed publication for the first time in their histories because of a strike of AFL pressmen.

One of three companies threatened with a strike of electrical workers Jan. 15 announced Saturday it had offered the CIO United Electrical, Radio and Machine workers of America a wage increase "better than the 10 per cent" it recently preferred the union.

Charles E. Wilson, president of the General Electric company, said he would announce the amount of the offer at a news conference.

Leaders ended an executive conference with the announcement that Jan. 15 had been set as the date for a nationwide strike of 200,000 workers against the General Motors corporation electrical plants, the Westinghouse Electric company, and General Electric.

Another big walkout set for Jan. 16 would affect between 295,000 and 355,000 workers. The AFL, amalgamated meat cutters and butcher workmen have sought the President's intervention in the dispute "to prevent a complete tieup of the entire meat packing industry."

The AFL union's officials asserted that unless the packers offer substantial wage increases before next Friday, they would recommend strike action by their union's 135,000 members. Another 200,000 members of the CIO United Packinghouse workers have set Jan. 16 for a walkout.

First were the secret reports Curtis Munson, a state department representative, made to the President after an investigation late in 1941 of Japanese-American relations on the west coast and in Hawaii. Stark said all he knew of the matter was that he had issued an order permitting Munson access to naval intelligence records.

The committee received yesterday a naval document quoting Capt. Ellis Zacharias, an intelligence officer, as saying he predicted to Munson some two months before Pearl Harbor that the Japanese might hit the base on a Sunday in a surprise attack.

The committee had gotten from Stark's files a letter of that date to Kimmel referring to an enclosed memorandum and asking that it be burned "as soon as you have read it."

Stark testified that to the best of his recollection the memorandum concerned instructions given Vice Admiral Robert L. Ghormley who was sent to London at that time as a naval observer.

He said he and Ghormley had been to the White House and the President had instructed Ghormley to be "particularly careful not to make any commitments which would lead the British to believe we were going into the war."

Stark also told the committee: He opposed economic sanctions against Japan in the summer of 1941 because he felt they might lead to hostilities for which this country was not prepared that congress, by approving the lend-lease act, had given "implied approval" for conveying in the Atlantic to see that supplies reached Britain.

By December, 1941, the navy was "practically mobilized" for war with reserve ships in commission.

Ferguson brought up the much-discussed "magic messages." "These are intercepted and decoded Japanese messages, including a group concerned with ship movements in and out of Pearl Harbor."

One, from Tokyo to a Honolulu agent, instructed that the harbor be divided into five sections for the purposes of reports. Stark and other witnesses have acknowledged that in hindsight it could be interpreted as indicating the Japanese were making a "bomb plot" of the harbor.

Ferguson pressed a line of questions as to why there was no such

McAllen Files Suit Against Well Owners

EDINBURG, Jan. 5. (AP)—The city of McAllen has filed suit in district court here asking damages of $25,000 from owners of three gas wells near McAllen, from one of which the city seeks its municipal supply.

The city had assisted in blocking up acreage for drilling in the field. In return, the lease-owner had signed a contract giving the city the right to take up to 3,000,000 cubic feet of gas daily.

The claim of damages is based on alleged failure of the owners to provide free gas to the city from three wells instead of one. Also asked is an injunction preventing the owners from denying the city access to the gas.

Laredo Mayor Plays Cupid for French

LAREDO, Jan. 5. (AP)—Mayor Hugh S. Cluck has another job of playing cupid on his hands.

It began when the mayor received letters from two Dutch girls from Amsterdam, asking him to get them in correspondence with some American men of "around 29" years of age.

Now he has received an urgent request from French girls in Rennes asking him to contact a Laredo young man and arrange to have them married by proxy as soon as possible.

In the interest of simplifying his correspondence, Cluck has identified the two Dutch girls as Dits Wals, Guideinde 117, Landsmeer, Holland, and Pop Huisman, V-D Pehstrad 39, Amsterdam, Nord, Holland.

'Bragging' Dinner To Be at Harlingen

Sponsor of the dinner is the Texas Citrus and Vegetable and Shippers' association.

President Truman received an invitation, Austin Anson, association president said, asking him to come so Texans and their guests would have the honor of "bragging about the fact that you (Truman) are also president of Texas."

An invitation went to Fred Allen, radio comedian, because he was "one of the few non-Texans ever to amount to very much."

Wedding Bells Ring for Many Pampa Couples During Holidays

The holidays proved an attractive season for weddings in the Pampa area. Wedding bells rang with the Christmas and New Year ceremonies of Oland Glyckherr, Mary Lou Autin and Roy E. Ray, Year chimes for Juanita Osborn and Frederick Gregg, Opal Helen Looman and Karl Peterson, and Frances E. Oslin and Arthur Gilbreath.

Osborn-Gregg

At a New Year's day ceremony in the First Methodist church, Miss Juanita Osborn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. N. Osborn, 315 North Starkweather, became the bride of Frederick Broune Gregg.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her snow-white gown was made from a nylon parachute which had been used by one of the bridegroom's crew over France. With it, she wore a full length veil trimmed in wide lace, and a single strand of pearls, the gift of her bridegroom. She carried a large bouquet of white roses and gardenias.

The Reverend E. B. Bowen read the double ring service before an altar banked with fern. The church was decorated with large wedding baskets of gladioli, tall palms and white candelabra.

Music for the service included Liszt's Liebestraum, played before the ceremony, Debussy's Clair de Lune, as background music during the reading of the vows, and Mendelssohn's Bridal March as recessional. Mrs. Dorothy Peacock of Los Angeles, Calif., sang "Because" by Guy d'Hardelot, "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life" by Victor Herbert, and "One Alone" by Harbach and Hammerstein.

The bride was attended by her twin sisters, Mrs. Thelma Gray, matron of honor, and Miss Velma Faye Osborn, maid of honor, each wearing a soft peach color dress with matching gloves, and bouquets of white carnations.

The bridesmaids, two in yellow and two in aqua, were Miss Joyce Warner and Miss Dorothy Kratzer of Pampa and Miss Betty Anne Meader and Miss Ruby Richardson from Oklahoma City. Their bouquets were tallisman roses.

Oslin-Gilbreath

A pretty pre-Christmas wedding was announced this week by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Oslin of Phillips Gray plant in Pampa. The marriage of their daughter, Frances E. Oslin to Arthur Gilbreath of Pottersville, Calif., was solemnized at the Assembly of God Church, December 9.

The Reverend H. H. Woods read the double ring ceremony before the altar banked in giant chrysanthemums and carnations.

Preceding the service, Mr. and Mrs. Finley Bauman sang "Always," accompanied by Miss Wanda Lee Morris at the piano. Elmo Hudgins played the traditional wedding marches.

The bride dressed in white satin gown with lace trimmed floor length veil and orange blossom wreath, was given in marriage by her father. For something old, she wore a lavalier belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. O. L. Morris. Her bouquet of gardenias was mounted on a white Bible, borrowed from Mrs. Rhonda Hendrix with long white satin ribbon streamers and a small blue bow.

The wedding party was preceded down the aisle by the candlelighters, Misses Betty and Peggy Jenks wearing pastel pink and blue dresses. Groomsmen were G. L. Johnson and Darold Ring, both of Waxahachie, Texas. The bridesmaids, Miss June Ritchie, Mrs. Helen Hoover, Mrs. Rhonda Hendrix, Miss Wanda Lou Mori, Miss Emaline Rhode and Miss Lurline Blair, wore pastel formal, with carnation corsages.

Mrs. Mary Jenks Griffiths, matron of honor, was dressed in pink marquette with matching finger-tip veil and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Ring bearers were LeRoy Woods and Frank Blair, dressed in brown (Continued on Page 10)

B. and P. W. Study International Relations Tuesday

Guest speakers at the Business and Professional Women's club meeting Tuesday night will speak on the theme "International Relations." Mrs. Jesse Stroup is in charge of the program which begins at 8 o'clock in the City club rooms.

Lt. Col. Thomas C. Braly, local attorney, who has just returned after more than two and one-half years in the Mediterranean theater will be the first speaker. Col. Braly was one of the first men from this area to go into service and since his discharge from active duty he has been associated with his brother, Clifford Braly, in law practice here.

The second guest speaker will be Sun. The Shvam, who was sent to the United States from Chungking by the Chinese government. He is one of twelve hundred Chinese student engineers who are studying public utilities in different parts of this country. After two months study at Georgetown university in Washington, D. C., Mr. Sun was assigned to a special study of natural gas transmission and distribution. He will be here five months.

Ken Bennett, program director for KPDM, will give a short musical program preceding the introduction of the speakers. Mr. Bennett has recently returned from 26 months duty with the army.

The meeting will be open and the public is invited.

All board members are requested to meet at City club rooms at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening for a board meeting to take place of the postponed meeting of Jan. 1. A full attendance is requested.

Rainbow Girls Will Install New Chapter

Officers and members of Rainbow Girls will go to McLean Monday night to institute a new chapter there and conduct the initiation service for the McLean girls. Mrs. M. M. Whitfield of Dallas, supreme deputy for Texas, will attend the service. Local girls will meet at the Masonic hall at 5 o'clock in formal to go in a body.

Looman-Peterson

Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Looman of Pampa have announced the marriage of their daughter, Helen, to Karl A. Peterson. The wedding was solemnized December 3 in the parlor of the Asbury Methodist church parsonage in Wichita, Kans.

Rev. H. A. Kuhris performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Helen Johnson attended the bride and Warren Belderback was best man.

The bride wore a winter white wool street-length dress with black and white accessories. She attended Texas university, at Austin and Texas Christian university in Fort Worth, and is a past president of the Semper Fidelis club at Borger.

Mr. Peterson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Peterson of Tonganoxie, Kans. He attended Kansas State college and received his discharge from the air corps this past October after serving eight months overseas with the 15th air force in the European Theater, was a first lieutenant and a B-25 pilot. He received the following citations: The Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal with Three Oak Leaf Clusters, Congressional Medal and Theaster Ribbon.

After a week's honeymoon the couple are at home at 315 N. Kansas St., Wichita, Kans. The bridegroom is employed by the Beech Aircraft corporation.

A suitable recreation program is vital to any community. It is an important piece of insurance against juvenile delinquency and it helps, too, in the body, soul and mind-building of normal people, young and old.—Alpena, Mich., News.

Pampa Red Cross Volunteers Will Receive Honors at Annual Meeting

Tuesday evening, Jan. 22, has been set as the date for the annual meeting of the Pampa chapter of the American Red Cross. The meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Junior high school with the high school band scheduled to open the activities, Aubrey L. Steele, chapter chairman, announced this past week. Leib Langston will be in charge of the program and Mrs. Johnson Smythe will manage publicity.

Active wartime volunteers in the Pampa Red Cross will be presented with special insignia for "meritorious personal service" by Mr. Steele.

Red ribbon bars will be given to volunteers with 200 hours or more of service. To the bars will be added silver stripes denoting one or more units of 500 hours service, and gold stripes denoting 5000 hours. Hours of service will be counted from January 1, 1940 to the official close of the war.

Volunteers who have served as directors, service chairmen, and instructors will receive insignia, in the form of pins for women and buttons for men, bearing the inscription "World War II" below the familiar Red Cross.

During the business meeting officers and executive directors for 1946 will be elected. Any one may take part in this election who has contributed to the Red Cross during the past year.

Derrick-Glyckherr

In an impressive double ring ceremony solemnized at high noon, Friday, December 21, at the home of the bride, Miss Opal Derrick, daughter of Mrs. O. L. Derrick, 1515 N. Russell street, became the bride of Oland Glyckherr, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Glyckherr, Caldwell, Kans.

The Reverend Carlos D. Speck, pastor of the Central Church of Christ, officiated as the vows were read before an altar decorated with white gladioli.

The seven white tapers in tall candelabra before the fireplace were lighted by Miss Ina Lea Bidwell, niece of the bride. Preceding the service, Mrs. R. E. Jones sang "Because and "I Love You Truly," with Mrs. Hugh McKimming, Mr. and Mrs. John Brandon, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lard, Mrs. G. R. Riggs and Mrs. Katie Vincent.

Walter Hautzig

Walter Hautzig, Concert Artist Here Friday, Was Nazi Victim

The hands of a pianist are his fortune, usually insured for thousands. Those of Walter Hautzig, who plays here Friday, Jan. 11, won him unstinted praise from the New York press after his American debut in Town Hall and continue to praise him to the pinnacle of musical prestige and popularity. Hautzig was lucky still to have those hands uninjured. Because in Vienna, before he escaped across the Austrian border, the nazis burned his hands with Lysol.

Hautzig was in Vienna at the time of the Anschluss. He had lived there all his life, studied at the Vienna State academy, was preparing to make his bow as a pianist before the public of his native city. Three days before the debut, the nazis marched in. The following day, Hautzig and other members of his family were arrested. They were dragged around the streets by young Storm Troopers — boys of high school age but well educated in brutality — and tormented before the mob.

Asked what his profession was, Hautzig said that he was a pianist. As a piece of exquisite humor, he was sent to scrub the pavement with raw lysol.

At the end of that day he was among the fortunate ones to be released and he was able to get a doctor for treatment to his hands.

The Hautzig family was separated during the tragic period and all their property was confiscated. Messages were smuggled from one to the other that they were trying separately to get out of the country. Walter Hautzig applied for a passport and it took him five months of standing in line every day to receive a visa. He paid for a passage from Italy to the Near East, and, equipped with the ticket and currency amounting to about two dollars, was permitted to cross the border.

Arriving in the Near East, Hautzig found it easy enough to get concert engagements — the larger centers had cultured audiences, anxious to hear music direct and not through receiving sets or phonographs.

While he was there he received the welcome news that his mother had arrived in America. It was the first word he had had from his family since they were separated in Austria.

Hautzig determined to go to the United States to join his mother. The formalities over, some months later he started for the new world.

Hautzig's unusual talent brought him notice in New York among musicians. He won a competitive scholarship at Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia and when he graduated, he won another honor—the prize by the Madrigal society, which (Continued on Page 10)

At the reception in the bride's home following the service, the young couple cut a wedding cake decorated in the colors worn by the bridesmaids. The table, covered with a lace cloth, held silver tea and coffee services. A wreath of white carnations circled the base of the cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg left immediately for a wedding trip to Mexico. Mrs. Gregg wore a black and white checked suit and black top coat with white accessories for going away. The white blouse to her suit was also made from the parachute. After January 15, they will make their home in Leesburg, Fla.

was an appearance in New York with several other artists. In October, 1943, he made his solo recital debut in Town Hall, New York, winning outstanding success with audience and critic. The New York Times carried: "Hautzig's playing was remarkable for its poetry and imagination, its inner life, spontaneity and insight."

As a crowning laurel to his mounting musical prestige, augmented by every recital the young pianist gives across the country, he was chosen the 1944 winner of the Town Hall Endowment Award. This award is presented for the best recital given during the previous season by an artist under thirty and brought Hautzig to Town Hall in his second New York appearance.

This young artist is to give the third concert in the present series of the Pampa Community Concert association in the Junior high school auditorium. Admission is by membership card but single admissions will be sold at the door to men or women in service. Ones who have been discharged may now secure membership cards by contacting the secretary, Mrs. Carl J. Wright, telephone 2135, unless all seats in the auditorium have been filled.

Revised Red Cross First Aid Course To Be Taught Here Beginning Jan. 14

A standard Red Cross first aid course will begin Monday, Jan. 14, at 9:30 a. m. in the city commission room in the city hall. Those interested in enrolling in this class should report at that time.

This class will be the first to use the newly revised first aid text book advised by Mrs. J. B. White, Red Cross executive secretary. A committee of physicians of the division of medical research of the National Research Council has incorporated major changes in the 1945 edition.

Although basic methods of bandaging, bleeding control and artificial respiration have been unchanged since the book's first publication over 35 years ago, the 1945 revision incorporates scientific advances made by the medical profession in research laboratories, in clinics and through experience in first aid work in civilian and military life.

Where formerly the emphasis in first aid treatment for shock was on external heat, position and stimulants for the victim, the revised techniques call for emphasis on the victim's body position, the giving of fluids where indicated, and the maintenance of body heat. Differences in burn treatment include recommending wet sterile baking soda compresses where formerly tannic acid applications were recommended. The third major change is found in wound treatment wherein first aiders are advised to apply only sterile dressings pending medical treatment. Red Cross first aid is in no sense intended to take the place of a physician's services.

Another interesting sidelight of the revised edition is the discontinuance of traction splints for arm fractures. Traction splints for leg fractures still will be taught, however.

Pampa chapter now will require only 18 hours of standard first aid training before certification where formerly the course called for 30 hours of advanced first aid courses hereafter will require 12 hours.

Other first aid classes will be organized as the request for them develops. With highway accidents mounting, interest in first aid training is expected to increase. The number of accidental injuries annually in this county reaches an appalling figure in far too many cases death or permanent injury might have been prevented through simple but proper emergency care. The purpose of Red Cross first aid instruction is to provide for immediate intelligent care of the injured in an emergency until the doctor gets there, advised Mrs. White.

The following are authorized first aid instructors in the Pampa chapters: Homer M. Cone, Mrs. J. M. Fitzgerald, J. D. McDowell, Frank L. Stallings, and Drs. J. L. Wilder and Walter Purviance.

75 Per Cent of City Taxes Are Collected

Seventy-five per cent of the total current city taxes due have been collected, City Manager Garland Franks reported yesterday, citing the fact that this was an outstanding record.

The city commission approved the tax roll late in October of 1944. November collections totaled approximately $45,000 while December collections were $49,674.

The corresponding figure for December of 1944 was $33,914, he said. Delinquent taxes total $813.07 at the present time, the report stated, while the total for the corresponding period in 1944 was $834.78.

'Wonder Man,' Starring Danny Kaye, Starts Four-Day Showing at LaNora

Danny Kaye is overwhelmed by the beauty of his lovely leading lady, Virginia Mayo, in this scene from the technicolor hit "Wonder Man."

By SCOTT RAFFERTY

Walter Winchell calls Danny Kaye the "Wonder Man of the Year" and we agree fully. We just wonder how he gets away with what he does.

His first film, "Up in Arms," was a hilarious success for some reason and we are forced to admit that this one is too.

Kaye is really a lucky boy though. He gets to play with those "delicious" Goldwyn girls in every picture. Then there's Virginia Mayo. Kaye took her away from Bob Hope in this one.

Anyway, to attempt to give something about the story would be like talking double talk but we think that if you're looking for zany comedy, this is it.

Besides Kaye and Miss Mayo, the highlight of the whole thing is Vera-Ellen's dancing. That girl has really got something on the ball.

On down the line, there's the S. Z. "Cuddles" Sakall, Edward Brophy, Otto Kruger, Donald Woods and Virginia Gilmore.

Republic is working Roy Rogers to death in these super-duper musical Westerns. They take the same old story, stick a new title on it, get some guest stars from the other side of the lot and put it on Sunday and Monday at the Rex.

However, for western fans, this one will be near tops. Besides Rogers, who sings some fine songs, there's Dale Evans, George "Gabby" Hayes, Wild Bill Elliott, Allan Lane, Donald Barry, Robert Livingston and Sunset Carson.

A picture we thoroughly enjoyed and one which we highly recommend to those who haven't seen it is "National Velvet," showing at the Crown Sunday and Monday.

It stars Mickey Rooney and he's as good as he was in "The Human Comedy."

The film also introduces Elizabeth Taylor, who does a fine job of acting to be only 13 years old. This one is good for lovers of fine horses. Besides the stars, there's such fine supporting players as Donald Crisp, Anne Revere, Angela Lansbury and little Jackie Jenkins, also of "Human Comedy" fame.

Evangelist and Mrs. E. B. Joseph, above, are heard in the Open Bible broadcast presented between 7 and 7:30 a. m. each week day over Radio Station KPDN.

Himmler Is Pictured As Fumbling Coward

NUERNBERG, Jan. 5—(AP)—Heinrich Himmler, the once-dreaded chief of the SS, was pictured today as a fumbling coward who "slowly came apart" and spent his last days as a shivering wreck with a vial of poison constantly at his fingertips.

Hitler Married Eva In Irregular Manner

BERLIN, Jan. 5—(AP)—Adolf Hitler, always a law unto himself, appears to have been married to Eva Braun in an irregular manner by a man who was not a professional marriage clerk.

FREEDOM OF SPEECH AND SEDITION

Society for the Prevention of World War III, Inc., composed of various leading figures in journalism, radio education, and so on, cites one of those things which Americans, at least, should know are going on. The society refers to a psychological movement in this country to seek sympathy for beaten Germany.

The society refers specifically to a group organized in Chicago and known as American Relief for Germany. Its sponsor is "Chicago Abendpost," quite German in outlook.

"A man, relates the society, who attended a recent rally of Relief for Germany, said: 'I felt like I was attending a Hitler rally and I do not doubt that the meeting was organized by former members of the Nazi band. The audience was composed of readers of the 'Abendpost' and members of organizations which were formerly influenced by the band.'"

Americans are led to confusion and ultimate sympathy by such buncombe as that put out by Herr A. F. W. Siebel, who told those present at the rally that Allied treatment was inhuman, that most Germans are kind and peace-loving and that all Germany's misbehavior was due to the Versailles Treaty.

And the words of one Leonard Enders, who opened the rally: "Our hearts bleed for poor and oppressed Germany. We don't want to be a local organization; Germanism must be organized. We must show the Americans that we are present, that they must count with us and with our force."

"Obedience," said Siebel, who next came to the platform, "is the best quality of any people. Their country ordered them to fight. They did it and that is as it should be. x x x. What right do we have to judge the so-called war criminals? Look at these poor unhappy people who are about to be judged by a pack of foreigners who are supposed to be impartial; they conduct the trial in a language which is not even known to the accused. What a shame, what dishonor!"

As we said, we report this so that the people will at least know some of the thoughts that come directly from the mouths of those people in America who still believe in the divine destiny of the Germanic peoples. It is that particular sort of dangerous thinking which says, in effect, that the Germans have been mistreated—since the time they were subjected to the treaty of Versailles after the other war which grew out of Prussianism and Bismarck.

To our way of thinking this is the place where the line should be drawn between freedom of speech and sedition.

Guess the Number

It is hard to realize the extent to which our country has gone socialistic or the extent to which the federal government attempts to contribute to the income of its citizens. Try to guess the number of people whose income, in whole or in part, comes from the federal government.

According to the Economic Almanac for 1945-46 of the National Industrial Conference Board, the number for the month of April, 1945 whose income was received in whole or in part from the federal government was 27,972,585.

Of this number there were 12,100,000 receiving their pay for military service. Subtracting this number, we find that the federal government was giving 15,872,585 people all or part of their income during April, 1945. This does not include servicemen's dependents.

This 15,872,585 was divided as follows: executive, 3,570,100; judicial, 2,600; legislative, 6,400; military pensions and compensation, 1,066,920; civil pensions, 88,600; employment on construction projects financed by RFC, 14,253; financed by regular federal appropriations, 1,129,400; farmers, 5,982,365; recipients of special types of public assistance, 2,762,347; cases for which subsistence payments were certified by the Farm Security Administration, 12,000; recipients of payments under the Social Security and Railroad Retirement Acts, 1,257,600.

Remember this does not include people receiving all or part of their income from tax-subsidized subdivisions, such as states, counties, cities and school districts. Figures are not available for this.

When it is remembered that the government provides no wealth and is all overhead to be borne by the citizens, it shows how far we have departed from the ideas set forth in the Declaration of Independence of a definite limited government that tried only to protect men's life and property.

Fifteen million people is undoubtedly 25 per cent of the productive workers of the nation. People cannot lift themselves by their own bootstraps and everyone who receives assistance from the government and does not render an equal service on a free market basis is by that amount lowering the standard of living of those people who are not assisted by the government.

MANILA, Jan. 5—(AP)—Lt. Col. Seichi Ohta, known as 'The Bloody Butcher of Fort Santiago,' has been condemned to hang for his war crimes.

News Behind the News

The National Whirligig

WASHINGTON By RAY TUCKER

REVOLUTION—Nobody ever thinks of giving a holiday present to the congress of the United States, collectively or individually. But if the American people want to do a good turn for the national legislature, they should give it a holiday.

A great deal of the responsibility for the legislators' inattentiveness, indifference and nonattendance at committee or congressional sessions lies at the door of the lobbyists. Because of trivial demands thoughtlessly made by the constituents, congressmen are forced to perform a variety of grotesque tasks not listed or contemplated in the constitution or in Jefferson's manual.

RELIEF from these time-consuming requests will be essential in the years ahead, in view of the many strange and difficult problems which will confront the American congress. Even if the historic institutions is streamlined on the basis of the La Follette-Monroney recommendations, the boys and girls cannot continue to render the same custodial service and also find the hours and energy for operating at atomic speed and efficiency.

INDIGNITY—The normal mediums through which a district or state voices its daily needs are visitations or letters or phone calls to Washington, where this sort of popular chain-store service is rapidly assuming the proportions of a fourth branch of the government that dominates the other three. All that is needed to complete the heliograph are snappy uniforms, red caps and tips.

NON-DEMIT—Although some readily admit it and pray for relief from this popular pressure, there are many who invite these indignities in speeches and letters urging their constituents, "Come one, come all." In the South it is the custom in seeking re-election to boast of the volume of mail received and unanswered, and the number of chores done at the capital.

REALISTICALLY—Senator Mildred E. Tydings of Maryland is one of the few legislators who has met this situation rather realistically. An afternoon visitor to his office finds the door locked, although he may hear the sound of the senators.

RECENTLY—asked a prominent member of the house what proportion of his time was allotted to this form of mental and extra-congressional labor, he replied: "Seventy per cent."

THE SAME—question once brought from one of the senate's most illustrious members an estimate that he was "nearly per cent bellhop and ten per cent senator," and he was not certain that he had not over-

Peter Edson's Column:

CARDS MAY BE STACKED FOR INFLATION

By PETER EDSON, NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—First prediction that it will be necessary to ask congress to continue OPA price controls and stabilization authority beyond June 30, 1946, is made by John W. Snyder, assistant president and director of the office of war mobilization and reconversion.

Snyder tucked this pleasant little New Year tidbit away from the toe of a Christmas sock he sent up to the senate small business committee just before congress went home. In the pre-holiday rush it was generally overlooked.

"A feeling has grown up in the country," said Snyder in his report, "that price stabilization will soon be repealed and that regardless of whether it is or not, prices will be forced upward. As we approach the date at present set for its expiration, June 30, 1946, compliance will be more and more difficult to obtain and the inventory scrambles, competitive bidding and withholding of goods will increase."

All these things would serve to increase the inflationary pressure at a time when production was still not able to cope with demand," Snyder continues. "We can avoid this if the controls are removed singly, as events dictate, instead of all at one time without due consideration for the supply-demand picture."

Author Declares Our Worst Enemy Still Confusion

By AYN RAND

The greatest threat to mankind and civilization is the spread of the totalitarian philosophy. Its best ally is not the devotion of its followers but the confusion of its enemies. To fight it, we must understand it. Totalitarianism is the subjugation of the individual to a group—whether to a race, class or state does not matter. Collectivism holds that man must be chained to collective action and collective thought for the sake of what is called "the common good."

Throughout history no tyrant ever rose to power except on the claim of representing "the common good." Horrors which no man would dare consider for his own selfish sake are perpetrated with a clear conscience by "totalitarians" who justify themselves by—the common good.

No tyrant has ever lasted long by force of arms alone. Men have been enslaved primarily by spiritual weapons. And the greatest of these is the doctrine of the supremacy of the common good over the individual. No dictator could rise if men held as a sacred faith the conviction that they have inalienable rights of which they cannot be deprived for any cause whatsoever, neither by a man nor by a state.

Individualism holds that man is an independent entity with an inalienable right to the pursuit of his own happiness in a society where men deal with one another as equals in voluntary, unregulated exchange.

The American system is founded in individualism. If it is to survive, we must understand the principles of individualism and hold them as our standard in any public question, in every issue we face. We must have a positive credo: a clear, consistent faith.

We must learn to reject as total, evil and the opposite of "the common good" superior to individual rights. General happiness cannot be created out of general suffering and self-immolation. The only happy society is one of happy individuals. One cannot have a healthy forest until the soil is fertile.

The power of society must always be limited by the basic, inalienable rights of the individual. Such was the conception of the founders of our country, who placed individual rights above any and all collective claims.

The right of liberty means man's right to individual action, individual choice, individual initiative and individual property. Without the right to private property no individual action is possible.

The right to the pursuit of happiness means man's right to live for himself, to choose what constitutes his own, private, personal happiness.

It should also be noted that Mr. Tydings represents a comparatively small state, and does not receive the volume of mail or personal visits that fall to representatives of commonwealths like New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Michigan and California.

So, if you want to observe a Bell-Kind-To-Your-Congressman period, think twice before you write him or visit him. Then he may be able to give better service of the kind that counts in these troublous times.

Business and to work for its achievement.

Each individual is the sole and final judge in this choice. A man's happiness cannot be prescribed to him by another man or by any number of other men.

From the beginning of history, two antagonists have stood face to face, two opposite types of men: the Active and the Passive. The Active Man is the producer, the creator, the originator, the individualist. His basic need is independence—in order to think and work. He neither needs nor seeks power over other men—nor can he be made to work under any form of compulsion.

Every type of good work—done by the Active Man—comes from laying bricks to writing a symphony—is done by the Active Man. Degrees of human ability vary, but the basic principle remains the same: the degree of a man's independence and initiative determines his talent as a worker and his worth as a man.

The Passive Man is found on every level of society, in mansions and in slums, and his identification mark is his dread of independence. He is a parasite who expects to be taken care of by others, who wishes to be given directives, to obey, to submit, to be regulated, to be told. He welcomes collectivism, which eliminates any chance that he might have to think or act on his own initiative.

When a society is based on the needs of the Passive Man it destroys the Active; but when the Active is destroyed, the Passive cannot survive. When a society is based on the needs of the Active Man, he carries the Passive ones along on his energy and raises them as he does, as the whole society rises. This has been the pattern of all human progress.

Some humanitarians demanded a collectivist state because of their pity for the incompetent or Passive Man. For his sake they wish to harness the Active but the Active Man cannot function in harness.

And once he is destroyed, the destruction of the Passive Man follows automatically. So if pity is the humanitarian's first consideration, then in the name of pity, if not of else, they should leave the Active Man free to function, in order to help the Passive. There is no other way to help him. The Active, however, are exterminated in a collectivist society.

The history of mankind is the history of the struggle between the Active Man and the Passive, between the individual and the collective. The countries which have produced the happiest men, the highest standards of living and the greatest cultural advances have been the countries where the power of the collective — of the government, of the state — was limited and the individual, was given freedom of independent action. As examples: The rise of Rome, with its conception of law based on a citizen's rights, over the collective, barbarian rule of the world. The rise of England, with its system of government based on Magna Carta, over collectivist barbarism of its time. The rise of the United States to a degree of achievement unequalled in history, by grace of the individual freedom and independence which our constitution gave each citizen against the collective.

While men are still pondering upon the causes of the rise and fall of civilizations, every page of his history cries to us that there is but one source of progress: Individual Man in independent action. Collectivism is the ancient principle of savagery. A savage's whole existence is ruled by the laws of his tribe. Civilization is the process of setting man free from men.

We are now facing a choice: to go forward or to go back. Collectivism is not the "New Order of Tomorrow."

PARIS, Jan. 5—California hotel stands at the cross-roads of American trade with Europe—a friendly, home-like little hotel through which America's most famous people seek to buy or sell and accordingly follow the routes to various parts of a continent which is so changed by war that exploration is an adventure.

The California nestles comfortably in the Rue de Berri, just over the Champs Elysees. Its unpretentiousness quite belies its present importance, for it affords shelter and food not only to business folk but to diplomats, writers, artists.

Frequently it houses a fairly comprehensive cross section of American life. By coincidence the State Department is the home of its Yankee manager—R. B. Lewis, of TAFE. His about the only hotel in all Paris where warmth and food can be had these days by persons of moderate means.

His guest list, this anomaly in a capital which is just about stripped of normal accommodations, is that the California service is sponsored by the United States department of state, which buys food from the army and this can enter at moderate prices to the transient Americans. The alternatives to the California are the scattered black market hotels which charge prices that stagger even the millionaires.

Black market hotels purchase their food, wines and coal from the black markets and fix their prices accordingly. In one of these places you may pay $20 for a fairly modest dinner, and if you like good wines the sky is the limit of your bill.

There are members of the diplomatic service, on their way to various European posts. American business houses are beginning to reopen, and their employees register at the California. Frances Perkins and her associates in the international labor conference stayed at the California.

The California renders perhaps an far greater service in providing a meeting place for an exchange of information among business men. The recent devaluation of the franc of course was calculated to give French trade a fillip.

The point is, as I see it, that every thing depends on when France's production can be increased, when she has few large stocks on hand now. That production must hinge on the availability of raw materials. Those aren't to be had in Europe and consequently must come from other parts of the world—and when you say "other parts of the world"—the thoughts of the business man naturally center on North and South America.

der of Tomorrow." It is the order of the day, however. But there is a New-Order of Tomorrow. It belongs to Individual Man—the only creator of any tomorrow's humanity has ever been granted.

He wished it was time to call Sam Pringle. He should have made it 1:30.

What was all this about Mary Butler? Pike was planning to talk with Mary Butler. She was John Clay's secretary. But something had happened. She was a lovely girl, blonde, slender. But she was easy enough to come at: a little deferential bow to the virginal loveliness of Miss Tudor. But the "was." What had happened to Mary Butler?

Pike looked at his suitcase. It was unstrapped. He had strapped it carefully before he went downstairs. He remembered clearly. He went over and lifted the cover. He rifled his hand through the clothing. Nothing had been taken out or put in. But someone had opened his luggage and gone through it.

AS Pike went out across the broad veranda and down on to the lawn, Miss Tudor was just crossing the blue-stone drive. She had a book under her arm.

I'm in luck, Pike thought. When she reached the road, she must have heard Pike behind her. She stopped and looked up the Valley Road toward the mountain, giving him time to pass.

"I beg your pardon," Pike raised his hat. "Is this the Valley Road?" She regarded him deliberately, then pointed to a sign. The letters VALLEY ROAD were at least six inches high. "Thank you," he said. "Which way do I go?"

HOLLYWOOD.—There may be other talk, but the only reason behind the Joan Crawford-Phil Spector split-up is the old story of trying to combine careers and marriage. It didn't work out for them, either.

Latest score on the Bogart-Bacall vs. Warner studio feud: Three scripts submitted by studio. Three scripts turned down by the Bogart. Lt.-Gen. Jimmy Doolittle dropped by the Beverly Hills club and the bartender created a special drink in his honor—a "Tokyo 706"—one part each of vodka, gin and tequila. But Jimmy declined to drink it, saying, "sounds more potent than an atomic bomb."

Talking about his wife's penchant for antiques, Peter Lorre remarked: "She picks up early American pieces or unreasonably facades." "Once a film career gets rolling it really moves fast. Andy Russell is up for his fourth film assignment, though few movie audiences have seen him. Jack Rourke, the radio producer, is dating Command Nagel's daughter, Ruth. . . . Cullinan is on a tasteless music: William Demarest spent the night in the arms of one of the best cellists on the staff. "But as long as good music car in all of my cell," he says, "audiences were bored. They didn't like me until, one day, a chicken and two pigeons flew out of my cell. From then on, I was a success."

Gracie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN

Consolidated News Features Well, George Bernard Shaw may be a very brilliant man, but he doesn't know much about politicians. He says our alphabet wastes too much time and energy. The British government to provide a new one. But whoever heard of a politician wanting to save time with a new alphabet?

A congressman who takes less than three hours Gracie to ask for a new post office in his home town is considered a disgrace. He never got re-elected. He said "all over America" instead of "from the rock-ribbed coasts of Maine to the sunny strands of California."

I know we won't adopt a new alphabet and I hope England doesn't either. He said, "I'm glad the loan has proved that Englishmen and Americans find it pretty hard to understand each other even with the same alphabet."

"I know," she said. "Mine is Tudor." "This is very kind of you." She did not reply. "Especially," he said, "as I was obviously trying to make your acquaintance."

"Obviously," she said. "What's the book?" He pointed to the volume under her arm. "The Robe." "Gold?" She gazed at him in wonder. "Haven't you read it?" "He shook his head."

"But you're going to the library now, aren't you? If you're returning 'The Robe' I'll take it out, if they'll let me." The library turned out to be a brick colonial building with wings that threw geometric patterns of shade on the lush green lawn. Cut large and deep in white stone over the entrance were the words: THE CLAY MEMORIAL LIBRARY. In memory of what Clay, Pike wondered as they approached. He said: "Quite a place."

"It was built in memory of my Aunt Emma," she said. "It's a fine memorial," he said. "Yes," she said. "She died four years ago. She was my mother's younger sister and John Clay's second wife."

He looked at her sharply, but her face was like a mask. "She was only 40," the girl said. "What did she die of?" Pike said: "The girl turned and looked at him. She said: "I'm not sure." Pike opened his mouth and closed it again. There was a light cloud on her lips, and Pike could see her brown hand clutching the book under her arm so tightly that the knuckles showed white.

"Aren't you coming in?" she said. "Not now," he said. "I have business in town." "I'll ask Miss Walton to hold the book for you." "Thanks," he said, "for everything." "You're quite welcome," she said.

STOP JOHN CLAY!

By Lionel Mosher, Copyright, 1945, NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Pike Calvin senses an ominous sign about THE NATION'S DEFENSE, executive assistant Roger Shred, fat and bald Roger Hinn and he knows that Pike is there only to see John Clay, powerful magnate who owns the law. He tells Pike that lately Pike has been in the office. He also claims to know what happened to Mary Butler.

PIKE had lunch—an underdone chop, curried rice, cold clover-leaf biscuits with apple butter, and bitter warmed-over coffee with milk which he suspected had been thickened with canned milk. For this, he reflected, I am paying John Clay $18 a day.

He went out to the main desk. Mr. Hitt was putting envelopes in the boxes of the guests. He laid them down as Pike approached and his white hands fluttered. Pike said: "Is there a library in town?"

That was a casual enough question, but it did something to Mr. Hitt. He had on a brown silk scarf with white spots on it. It was knotted carefully at his throat in lieu of a necktie, and Mr. Hitt put one hand up to the knot and pressed it gently. "A library," he said. "Yes." "How do I get there?" "If it is some book we could send over for."

"No," Pike said. "Mr. Hitt bowed lips straightened. He pointed through a big window. "Do you see that white tower next to the steeple?" Pike saw it. "How far?" "About a mile. The station wagon is going in for the mail. I'll walk, thank you," Pike said.

"Very well," Mr. Hitt picked up the envelopes. "You take the Valley Road." Pike went up to his room. He walked slowly across the pale blue carpet.
