Tito Insists on Occupying Istria Other Problems Plaguing Europe

Pole Arrests Discounted By Stalin

By ED L. CAMPBELL
Associated Press Staff Writer
Yugoslavia's uncompromising demand for the right to occupy disputed Italian and Austrian territory along the northern Adriatic coast put a heavy strain last night on relations between the Allied military command and Marshal Tito's partisan army.
While this territorial problem gathered steam in the south, Marshal Stalin made his first public statement at Moscow on the Polish political issue, flatly rejecting contentions that the recent arrest of 16 Polish leaders had any bearing on the reconstruction of the Polish provisional government. His declaration gave unwavering support to the offensive Soviet position that the present Warsaw regime must be the "basic core" for Polish government reorganization.
Allied occupation forces inside Germany, pressing their march on Nazi leaders, bugged Dr. Alfred Rosenberg, Hitler's ideological leader, in a Flensburg hospital. His capture came as diplomatic quarters suggested that the pressing problem of who is going to try such big shot war criminals might speed a meeting of Stalin, Prime Minister Churchill and President Truman far refused to join the 16-nation war crime commission which is scheduled to meet May 31 to discuss procedure methods.
But the Allied-Yugoslavia row over the port city of Trieste and a part of the province of Venezia Giulia seemed a potential tinderbox. Field Marshal Sir Harold Alexander, Allied commander in the Mediterranean theater, in a broadcast to his hand, said an Allied force, asserted Tito apparently intended to resort to force in a manner "all too reminiscent of Hitler, Mussolini and Japan." Tito, in a reply broadcast from Belgrade, said the Yugoslav army had equal right with other Allied armies to remain in territory it had liberated and that the presence of his troops in the disputed zone would not "prejudice decision of the peace conference as to whom these territories belong."
Alexander told his forces he had failed to reach an agreement with Tito, that the matter had been referred back to the governments of the United States and Britain, and that the Soviet government "is silent."

America Must Go On Smaller Diet To Feed Europe

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(AP)—The war finally drove home to Americans today that they are no longer the world's best eaters and to save others from starving they must go on a simple, unsavory diet.
Meat stores all over the nation are empty. The steak-lover is available fish. Where butter is available the housewife can't afford the ration points.
It isn't going to get any better for many months. There'll be enough to eat but the diet will be simple and unsavory.
That is the unvarnished picture for 1945, at least while this nation and its Allies are still fighting Japan and helping to avert starvation in war-ravaged Europe.
Some other countries, in fact, will eat better than America, a new and paradoxical situation.
The Associated Press surveyed the situation through local officials in this country, the federal agriculture department and sources abroad, and found:

Clyde Fatheree, local man who has been in business here since 1920 was appointed to serve on the Pampa school board at a special meeting called yesterday morning.
Fatheree was appointed by the board to fill the vacancy left when W. D. Kelly announced his resignation recently. He took the oath of office at the meeting this morning.
It was explained that Fatheree will serve the remainder of Kelly's term, which is two years. An election is not in order, officials said until the end of the term.

Alleged Car Theft Results in Tragedy

MONTGOMERY, N. Y., May 19.—(AP)—Four persons were killed today when a convertible coupe owned by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt crashed into the rear of a parked truck near here.
Three of the victims were women. The fourth was a soldier from nearby Stewart field. All were Negroes.
Dutchess county sheriff Fred Closs said he had issued a warrant charging a Roosevelt estate chauffeur with grand larceny in the alleged theft of the car.

Reds Draft Principle on Self-Defense

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—(AP)—Russia submitted to the Big Five foreign ministers today the draft of a proposal accepting the principle of self-defense action in coordinating regional groups of nations under a world peace-keeping organization.
Differing from an American-sponsored amendment, in language, the Soviet proposal was reported to recognize the principle that individual countries or a group of nations have the inherent right to act immediately in self-defense if the security council of a world league fails to preserve peace.
There seemed, at first appraisal, little if any difference in the substance of the Russian proposition and the American-sponsored proposal which has been accepted by Latin American nations during proceedings of the United Nations conference.
The Russian draft was said to follow rather closely in phrasing an amendment submitted previously by the French. There was speculation that the Soviets had approximated the French language in an effort to help solidify relations between those two countries.
The Soviet proposal which was said to raise no objection to the use of the phrase "collective defense," was given brief study by the Big Five today. It goes before the American delegation for additional consideration tomorrow noon.
The Americans hope then to complete differences in language and have a compromise proposition ready for submission when the Big Five meets later in the day.
There had been delay in Russian delegation chief Andrei Gromyko hearing from Moscow.

Companies Are Given 90 Days To Make Plans

WASHINGTON, May 19.—(AP)—Ruling in the long-pending (ICC) Ruling in the long-pending "southern freight rate case," the interstate commerce commission (ICC) today prescribed a uniform scale of class rates for the entire country east of the Rockies.
Asserting that present railroad freight rate classifications are "unreasonable and unduly prejudicial," the commission gave the nation's railroads 90 days in which to submit for its approval a method of reaching a uniform freight classification.
It was a 9 to 2 decision by ICC. For an interim period, effective August 30, the commission ruled that present class rates in and between these territories be reduced 10 percent until a uniform classification is set.
In and between southern, western trunk line, and southwestern territories, and between those territories and official (eastern) rate territories.
All present class rates within eastern territories, the commission ruled, and required to be increased 10 percent.
"This will reduce," the commission said, "the differences in the levels of the class rates in the various territories."

Pampans Highly Pleased at News On Freight Rates

Word that the interstate commerce commission (ICC) has prescribed a uniform scale of class rates for the entire country east of the Rockies was met in Pampa with jubilation Saturday.
Officials and the man-on-the-street expressed belief the decision points a rose picture for the industrial future of this section of the country.
Reno Stinson, local assistant executive of the Cabot companies, was delighted when told of the uniform scale news.
"It will be a definite help to all West Texas industry," Stinson said. When he was president of the Pampa chamber of commerce, Stinson had personally worked with the West Texas chamber for equalization of freight rates.
The announcement was particularly welcome by the local chamber of commerce, a member of the West Texas chamber. The latter organization made freight parity its slogan for a number of years.
The importance of equalization of freight rates was brought home to Pampans in a dramatic manner only recently, when D. A. Bandeen, manager of the West Texas chamber of commerce who has conducted a lively campaign for a revision of freight rate classification, spoke here last month.
Bandeen, who led a panel discussion with the Pampa Postwar Planning Commission, said:
"The Gray county sheriff department's new campaign to rid LeFors of 'wild life' and general disturbances that citizens there complain of every Friday night, resulted in mass arrests made by the department, and fines in the justice of the peace court Saturday."
LeFors citizens had complained to Sheriff G. H. Kyle that persons from surrounding towns are using taverns and dance halls there as a center for all types of disturbances every Friday night, and the sheriff reported investigation bore out the complaints "and then some."
"You've never seen anything like it," he said, as he warned that "a lot of the 'kids' here in Pampa who are making the Friday night 'anything goes' trips to LeFors regularly are going to be in for some surprises."
All of the persons arrested by the department last Friday night were fined $10 and cost (totaling $23.50) in Judge D. R. Henry's justice of the peace court Saturday morning. All but one of the arrested persons were Pampa citizens.
The two Pampa women were fined in the justice of the peace court for "intoxication." Two Pampa men were fined for "intoxication." A Denton man and two Pampa men were fined for "affray."
Sheriff Kyle said all of the arrests were made at a LeFors dance tavern.

Russian Writer Says Soviet Regime Tops

MOSCOW, May 19.—(AP)—The army newspaper Red Star in an editorial today told Russians in foreign countries to be constantly on the alert "even against wine and women set to corrupt them and win away secrets with song and grape."
"The guns are silent, but the combat is going on," the editorial stated. "The enemy will use the most cunning and villainous methods."
The editorial said "the advantage of the Soviet regime over the capitalist system should be ingrained in the army as never before."

Doubts Expressed Over Vinson Plan

SAN ANTONIO, May 19.—(AP)—Helman Cartwright of Dineer, president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Assn., said here Saturday it is doubtful the new Vinson plan for relieving the meat shortage will be effective in accomplishing its purpose.

Cartwright said "unless Item Two of the plan which says effective May 19, the commodity credit corporation will pay a subsidy of 50 cents per hundred pounds to the seller of AA and A grade cattle marketed for slaughter" sold for $14.50 or more per hundred pounds Chicago basis, weighing 800 pounds or more which have been owned by the seller 30 days or more is rigidly supervised and enforced it can result in upgrading beef and selling it for slaughter only when the animal should be fed to a heavier weight in order that we might get maximum poundage."

Over 200 Attend Grandview Picnic

Over 200 persons attended the annual Grandview picnic held Thursday at the Grandview schoolhouse. The picnic is given by the Grandview P-T-A in appreciation of the response to the yearly school carnival which is held each fall.
Highlight of the all-day session, was the raffle and resulting auction of a calf that brought, all told, $396 to the treasury of the P-T-A.
Ticket sales on the raffle amounted to $50. However, the winner of the raffle, Rancher Charles Warkinski, gave the calf back and it was auctioned off to A. A. Schuneman and in turn to F. Floyd Imel, Pursey Motor company, and Judge E. D. Stennis, all of Pampa for the $396 total.

Papish Retires Side with Bases Loaded in 9th

(By The Associated Press)
 Manager Joe Cronin of the Boston Red Sox used four pinch hitters and two pinch runners in a six-batter ninth inning yesterday but Frank Papish, Chicago White Sox rookie southpaw, upset Boston's chess board by retiring pinch hitters Lloyd Christopher and Nick Polly to preserve a 3 to 2 win for the leaders.

Papish, who had seen only one inning's action this year, was rushed to the mound after the Red Sox, who were behind a run, loaded the bases on Johnny Humphries with one out. He set down Christopher on three strikes and then got Nick Polly on a foul to the catcher on the second pitch.

The last place Cleveland Indians blasted twin wins from the Philadelphia Athletics today by taking the second game 2 to 1 on a homer by Paul O'Dea and the effective pitching of Steve Cromek. The Indians, behind Jim Reynolds' six-hit hurling, shut out the Athletics 4 to 0 in the opener.

Detroit and Washington split a twin bill as the Tigers shut out the Senators in the second game 3 to 0. Washington took the opener 6 to 2. Hal Newhouser was the winner in the second game, while Detroit's other ace, Dizzy Trout, was the loser in the opener.

New York and St. Louis were playing at night and the entire National League schedule was washed out in a straggling reversal of form. The games yesterday were the first to be played in the American league since last Sunday.

Byron Nelson, Sam Snead Prepare for Benefit Golf Meet

By HAROLD CLAASEN
 NEW YORK, May 19—(AP)—Sammy Snead and Byron Nelson will spend the coming week preparing for the pro golfers' rehabilitation fund match in all the secrecy usually reserved for participants in bowl football games.

Snead will seclude himself for the major portion of the week at the winged foot course where Craig Wood, National open duration champion, will see if he can find a flaw in the socking sailor's swing.

Nelson, the Toledo umbrella man, will work out at the Atlantic City, N. J., country club under the scrutiny of Ed Dudley, PGA president. The two gladiators will tour 36 holes over the fresh meadow course in stroke play Saturday and 36 or less then ext day in match play on the Essex county country club layout at West Orange, N. J. Receipts will go to the PGA fund for the construction of golf facilities near veterans' hospitals.

Snead, who was discharged last year from the navy because of a back ailment, was moved to leave the winter gold-coast tour for a time in January when his ailment became too severe but he has promised to be in the best of shape for the coming duel.

Nelson, however, closed the tour with a sensational 263 for 72-holes of play in the April Iron Lung meet at Atlanta. The score is a record as are the eight titles he won during the junket.

Harford Wins $5,000 Rowe Memorial Race

BALTIMORE, May 19—(AP)—Miss Ruth McClanahan's Harford, coming up from last place at the half-mile post, won the $5,000 Rowe memorial today at Pimlico by defeating the favored Queen Es by a nose in a thrilling stretch drive and rewarded his 82 straight backers with a $90.20 payoff.

Harford, given a fine ride by Jockey Carson Kirk, covered the six furlongs in 1:13 over a fast track. Queen Es, Morris Weisler's gelding that captured the Baltimore spring handicap here Wednesday, had taken the lead at the half, and held a length advantage over H. L. Straus' New Moon at the stretch, when Harford drove up on the outside. New Moon was third in a field of seven, a length and a half back of Queen Es.

It was Harford's first start of the season, and he paid $20.70 second money, and $7.60 for show.

Sports Star Takes Loss of Legs on Two 'Cheerfully'

DENVER, Colo., May 19—(AP)—The heroic attitude with which Lt. Jack Loomis, former New York Giants football player from Texas, accepted loss of both legs on two Jima was described today by a buddy.

"We had been under artillery fire for 36 hours," related Capt. Donald H. O'Rourke, home in Denver on leave, "and were just about to move out when Loomis stepped on a land mine. Both his legs were blown off. They got him on a stretcher and as they started back with him he smiled at me and said: 'The Giants sure are losing a mighty good football player.'"

CADETS HONORED
 WEST POINT, N. Y., May 19—(AP)—The Williams trophy, presented annually by the University of Minnesota to the nation's outstanding football team on the basis of the Associated Press poll, was presented today to army's unbeaten 1944 eleven.

Lubbock AAF, Flyers Play on PAAF Field This Afternoon

The PAAF Flyers, post baseball nine, beat the Lubbock army air field team yesterday 7 to 6 in 10 innings.

Ray Johnson's triple and Gullfoyle's bunt provided the winning run for the Pampa nine. Although Lubbock got to Johnson for 4 runs in the fourth inning, he spaced 12 hits well enough to hold the Hub City team to a minimum.

The two teams will play again at 2:30 this afternoon on the post diamond. The public may secure passes at the gate to see the ball game.

Railway Company Elects President

DALLAS, May 19—(AP)—The board of directors of the Texas and Pacific railway company Wednesday elected William G. Vollmer president of the company, succeeding J. L. Lancaster who was re-elected chairman of the board.

Lancaster has been with the Texas and Pacific for more than 30 years. He had been president since 1917 and has been board chairman since 1939. Vollmer has been senior vice president of the Missouri Pacific railroad.

Vollmer began his railroad career in 1902 as a stenographer for the Pennsylvania railroad. He worked in passenger, traffic, maintenance, engineering, and operating departments of the Baltimore and Ohio, Rock Island, and Missouri Pacific railroads before becoming assistant to the president of the Missouri Pacific in 1917.

When B. F. Bush, then president of the Missouri Pacific, was named regional director of railroads during the period of federal control in the first world war Vollmer was his assistant, but when that period ended he returned to his former position with the railroad.

Vollmer was made executive vice-president of the Missouri Pacific lines in 1933 and senior vice president of the Missouri Pacific in 1943.

Texas Woman Has Place for Her Own Sex

By LORENE O. LOCKE
Little has been said in song and story of the contribution made by pioneer women to the civilization of the Panhandle. We have heard of the men—the Rangers, the Indian fighters, the buffalo hunters, the early ranchmen, but for the women who walked beside them, even the Crown.

"Something for the Boys" starring Michael O'Shea, Vivian Blaine, the "Cherry Blonde", Carmen Miranda and Perry Como, opens at the Crown today.

It's a big musical in which even "Jack London" O'Shea a few numbers and does them very nicely, too. Phil Silvers, manages to run up the works all the way through and, in general, the whole thing is slightly "hilarious."

Moss Hart's "Winger Victory" comes to the screen at the Vogue theatre in Skellytown Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The mighty story by Darryl F. Zanuck is the story of the army air force cadet training camp.

Featured in the huge cast of the stupendous picture are Pvt. Lon McCallister, Sgt. Jimmy Conlin, Sgt. Edmund O'Brien, Jane Ball, Sgt. Mark Daniels, Jo-Carroll Dennison, Cpl. Don Taylor, Judy Holliday, Cpl. Lee J. Cobb, Sgt. Peter Lind Hayes, and Cpl. Alan Baxter.

Jo-Carroll Dennison is the Tyler, Texas, girl who was chosen as Miss America in 1943. She is now married to Comedian Phil Silvers.

during the same hardships and rearing their children as well, there have been few orchards.

We pay tribute to one who represents the best type of pioneer—Mrs. Ivey Pursley, of Miami. Left a widow while a very young woman with three small boys to support, she knows what it means to meet life with no armor except her two hands and a heart of courage.

Mrs. Pursley came to Mobeetie when she was but a small girl. Living in the Panhandle for almost 65 years, except for occasional short periods in her early married life, she has grown up with this part of Texas experiencing its changes and sharing with others its progress and depressions.

Mrs. Pursley was born Ivey Black in Augusta, Kansas. When she and four small brothers were orphaned, their grandmother Lard took them into her home. Mrs. Lard who was the mother of Dave, Mage, and Bert, all well-known daily-day settlers of this section, later let the small boys go to their paternal grandfather, but kept Ivey with her.

In 1881, the Lard family moved to Mobeetie. Ivey attended school in the jail building, where the famous old town's first school assembled. Mrs. Mary Bolles, grandmother of Newton and Frank Willis, was her first schoolteacher. The rock schoolbuilding which is still standing was built later.

Everyone worked. Those days, even the children had their responsibilities. Small Ivey stayed with a number of the pioneer women, helping them with their children and attending school while it was in session. "Of course, school was quite different then," she remembered. "Sometimes we only had a three-months term."

"I've always loved children, and I enjoyed helping their mothers with them. I stayed with Mrs. Arrington, Captain Arrington's wife, and Mrs. N. P. Locke. I remember

"HERE'S YOUR INFANTRY"

A DEMONSTRATION OF WEAPONS NOW USED IN FIGHTING THE JAPS

One of the most talked about weapons of this war is the rocket launcher or bazooka. Used by American Infantrymen, it can conquer tanks and pillboxes that are impregnable otherwise. This weapon is demonstrated at the "Here's Your Infantry" War-Bonds-in-action presentation, shown in the picture above (in foreground) Corporal George F. Myers, of Bellingham, Washington who holds the Silver Star for gallantry in action and the Combat Infantryman Badge for exemplary conduct in action; center and leader is Staff Sergeant John D. Coffey, of Lenora, Colorado, holder of the Silver Star, the Russian Order of the Patriotic War (first degree) and the Combat Infantryman Badge. The observer in the rear is Staff Sergeant William A. Orick of Cincinnati, Ohio, holder of the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal, Purple Heart for combat wounds and Combat Infantryman Badge.

Putting the Infantry heavy machinegun into action in this scene from the Army Ground Forces presentation "Here's Your Infantry" are (left to right) Technical Sergeant James A. Hight, of Lynchburg, Virginia, holder of the Bronze Star Medal and the Combat Infantryman Badge for exemplary conduct in action; Staff Sergeant James W. Rice, of Kansas City, Missouri, holder of the Silver Star for gallantry in action, the Combat Infantryman Badge and a unit citation; and Technical Sergeant Carol W. Farrington, of Augusta, Maine, holder of the Silver Star and Combat Infantryman Badge. See "Here's Your Infantry" and see your WAR BONDS IN ACTION.

Climax of the "Here's Your Infantry" Demonstration assault on a Japanese pillbox is the wiping out of the enemy position by flamethrowers at close range. Pictured above is a flamethrower in action, the operator protected by automatic rifles. "Here's Your Infantry" tells the story of our footslogging Doughboys in down-to-earth language, and shows how WAR BONDS fight the enemy. At the same time weapons bought by WAR BONDS are explained and demonstrated, culminating in a simulated battle.

ning committee while here for the first quarterly meeting of the Pampa chamber of commerce, had said:

"If we (West Texas) get parity in freight rates, it will change our entire economy and we will have a chance for industrial development, but I don't see that we will have much chance without parity."

The West Texas chamber of commerce manager, who turned out to be something of a prophet, had said that the prospects of equal freight rates were bright and reminded that "parity has now become a national movement."

Bardeen has been so closely connected with the movement that one local citizen remarked:

"Well, it looks like Bandeen and his bunch have finally won out."

Carl Benefiel, chairman of Pampa's Postwar Planning committee, indicated he believed the new parity ruling will pave the way for the future development of Pampa, the Panhandle and all of West Texas.

"The ruling should save Pampa people several thousand dollars a year," he said, "not only because we ship out raw products from the oil fields, but also because of the processed material coming in."

Benefiel added that it will give industry in this part of the country a chance to compete with manufacturers in the East.

Raiding Tokyo Is Fun for Texan

By JACK RUTLEDGE Associated Press Staff Writer

A Texan and his Superfort have won the name "one-plane airforce" because they enjoyed raiding Tokyo so much they hung around after other planes had left.

Lt. Gene Fiesellen, son of Mrs. V. H. Fiesellen of Big Spring, is a B-29 pilot with the 21st bomber command in the Pacific.

On April 16 his group bombed Tokyo. He took his plane, the experiment perilous, through heavy ackack fire, strong winds and fighter opposition over the Japanese capital, hovered over the burning city long after other Superforts had gone, and then brought it safely back to base.

leas class-rate territories, and will bring to a minimum, the undue prejudice.

The south has long complained that the freight rate structure discriminated against it, as compared with rates applicable in other parts of the country. Led by the state of Georgia, this section of the country has instituted action in the supreme court to bring about adjustments.

Calling for the uniform national freight classification, the commission said:

"As a result of the present investigation, the railroad freight classifications are found to be unreasonable and unduly prejudicial to a whole and to the extent that they are not uniform.

In addition to all of the present railroad class rates under investigation (east of the Rocky mountains) are found to be unreasonable and unduly prejudicial."

Commissioners Claude R. Porter and George M. Barnard (CQ) dissented from the 9 to 2 opinion, which the commission said was arrived at May 15.

In the agitation for a change in rates and rate classifications both southern and western interests asked ICC to eliminate territorial divisions, each having a separate rate setup, and establish uniform rates.

In this way, spokesmen for the south and west contended, their sections of the country would be in a better position to compete with the east in the establishment and development of industry.

In maximum rationing, says the agriculture department, the outlook for the next six months is:

There will be enough essential foods to maintain good diet but that diet will have to be plain.

Reduced supplies of meats, fats and sugar will lower the energy value of that diet from five to 10 percent. Americans ate excessively in 1944, 150 pounds of meat per capita. The supply this year has been at a 115-pound rate but that is down to 120 in fall. They are eating so many eggs as substitute that a serious shortage of that protein may develop. The calories available daily will be 3,200 compared to 3,500 last year. Only very active men and boys will get or more. In many areas of Europe it is being held to 1,200 to 1,800.

Sugar, which has been plentiful, may be approaching a crisis. A house committee was reported drafting a report that the government might limit the rationing and demanding that shipments abroad be cut.

War Mobilization Director Fred M. Vinson announced a program for increased subsidies to boost the meat supply but he couldn't promise any immediate effect. Meanwhile, the government's food experts urged a shift to more of a grain diet.

Dallas headquarters for a six-state WPA area reported meat very scarce.

Three checks, totaling $30, were turned over to County Attorney Bruce Parker by Pampa firms. Siminton had been arrested by county officers at a local hotel.

Parker said the man will be turned over to Hutchinson county authorities after he is released here, since he is also wanted for worthless check charges at Borger. Sheriff Dale Lane of Hutchinson county reported Siminton's name was on five checks that had already been turned over to him Saturday morning. Lane said one of the checks was for $22.50, and none was for less than $10.

assignment that will be given them in whatever branch of service they enter? Yes.

Should it be the PEOPLE—all of them—who have the mistaken idea that the infantry doesn't do the toughest fighting in this war? Yes.

In a preview of what Pampans will see at the main event Monday night, the exhibit, complete with weapons, will be open to the public at the Non-Commissioned Officers club, across the street from the fire station, from 1 to 5 p. m. Monday.

Soldiers will be on hand to explain the complicated working parts of the weapons.

All this promises one thing for Pampa—top in the field of acquainting themselves with the type of soldier the American doughboy is.

How many Pampans will be at Harvester Park Monday night? Ver-nor had a crowd of 8,000 at the show when it was presented there. Pampa's goal is 10,000. The war department has asked that each town try to set an attendance record.

How will Pampa rate?

See it Monday—and you'll buy a bond Tuesday.

Expecting a Baby?

Mother's Friend helps bring ease and comfort to expectant mothers.

MOTHER'S FRIEND, an exclusively prepared emollient, is useful in all conditions where a bland, mild anodyne massage in skin lubrication is desired. One condition in which women for more than 70 years have used it is an application for massaging the body during pregnancy. It helps keep the skin soft and pliable, thus avoiding unnecessary discomfort due to dryness and tightness. It refreshes and tones the skin. An ideal massage application for the numb, tingling or burning sensations of the skin, for the tired, aching muscles or cramp-like pains in the legs. Quickly absorbed. Delightful to use.

The single ring ceremony was read in a room decorated with rose carnations.

For her wedding, the bride chose a blue suit with black accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Mary Joyce McDaniel, was attired in a soldier blue suit with white accessories, and her corsage was of pink roses. Murry Warner, a life long friend of the groom, served as best man. Before her marriage, Mrs. Kennedy attended LeFors high school and was an active member of the Junior class.

The bridegroom also attends LeFors high school and is a member of the '45 graduating class.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents. The lace-covered table was centered with the three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Anna Belle Carcoran, sister of the bride, presided, at the punch bowl. The bride was assisted by the bridegroom in cutting the cake.

Those attending the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sracener, LeFors; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Perrin, LeFors; Mr. and Mrs. Arza Carcoran, Mobeetie; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Patton, Pampa; Verma servicemen, or distributing books in the wards, are very greatly appreciated by patients as first class cheer-uppers said Mrs. Kraschel in her talk on recreation.

Bell Ritter, Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. Elwyn Corbin, McLean; Mrs. Tommie Gordon, Odessa; Murry Warner, McLean; Wade Sracener, Bart Rath, Lovel Hughes, Mary Joyce McDaniel, Neal Clemmons, Betty Kennedy, Roy and Troy Sracener, Bert Henry Sracener, all of LeFors; Rev. Red Cross

 "These women of the Hospital and Recreation Corps got their nickname at Walter Reed hospital during World War I when doctors and nurses, too busy saving lives to care for patient's personal problems, welcomed the gray-garbed volunteers who could give the individual attention so important to a patient's state of mind. Since those years, the Gray Ladies faithful service has made them a symbol of real devotion to duty," stated Miss Ullman in her talk for the afternoon.
 This group will meet again Monday day afternoon at the Red Cross building at PAAF.

 Mrs. L. K. Stout, a volunteer Home Service worker, says she had one of the most enjoyable tasks last Friday afternoon of her entire Red Cross work. (She has been serving as a volunteer for more than two years.)
 It was her privilege to take a message to the mother of a soldier saying that he had been freed from German imprisonment. This serviceman had been missing since December, 1944.
 At the chapter board meeting last Tuesday it was decided to send the holder of a Red Cross life saving certificate to the National Aquatic school at Rio Vista, Ingram, Texas. Bernie Brown meets the qualifications and will represent the Pampa chapter in the two-weeks course in life saving and water safety at the school. This course, on its completion, leads to an instructorship and when Bernie has finished he will return to Pampa to instruct other boys and girls at the city swimming pool.

 The young sailor wore several campaign ribbons on his blouse, but he seemed shy and self-conscious when he went up to the reception desk of the Red Cross office in San Francisco. The volunteer worker on duty looked up at him kindly and said: "Can I help you?"
 The sailor stuttered for a moment, blushed a deep red, and finally burst out with the words: "Lady, I'm not much on speeches. But if you dig my five, I want ya to know the Red Cross is really groovy. It's solid, sister. It's solid."
 Junior Red Cross, H. A. Yoder, was no one to milk the cow. When chairman, is completing its work for the 1944-45 term. Reports from all work done in schools of Pampa and LeFors are being compiled in an annual report which will be sent to the area office in St. Louis. Valuable war and community work has been accomplished by the youth of the community in a variety of Junior Red Cross activities.

VOLUNTEER OF THE WEEK
 Last week the Home Service office received a call from Mr. B. Wolding, Red Cross field director at PAAF, stating that a soldier in the station hospital was worried about conditions at home where his wife was also ill. Mrs. Betty Hastings, Home Service secretary, went out to the home and learned the cause of the soldier's worry: the family had a cow, and now with both the husband and wife ill, there was no one to milk the cow. When

New Knit Knack

Solving the what-to-do-with-knitting-in-crowded-buses problem, Millicent Landau of Pueblo, Colo., lets her knitting tend to her—as a hat—when she's not tending to it. A partly finished sweater, ball of yarn, and needles combine to make the chic chapeau.

Mrs. Hastings made this report at the chapter office. Mrs. Robert C. Smith, a home service volunteer worker and the wife of Sgt. Smith at PAAF, declared that she could milk a cow and that she would take care of the emergency. Forthwhile she sallied out and did the job, thus restoring the peace of mind of the hospitalized soldier.

Assisting servicemen, ex-servicemen, and their dependents in solving personal or family problems is the primary function of Red Cross home service. A call at the chapter office, telephone 707, is all that is needed to enlist the aid of Mrs. Betty Hastings, home service secretary, and other members of the corps.
 Home service is one of the eleven departments of service being offered by the local chapter.

Visitors at the Red Cross office may see an interesting poster showing the Red Cross organization, beginning with the International Red Cross at Geneva, Switzerland and extending through all other branches down to the local chapter organization. This poster, intricately designed and printed, was made by Sgt. Albert Magdecki, stationed at PAAF.

Entertainment for patients in the station hospital during the month of May has presented a variety of forms. On Sunday, May 6, the festivity was in the form of a birthday party. Mrs. O. B. Souther was chairman of the group presenting tap dancing, community singing, and serving home-made cake. Miniature paper gliders were given to the patients who assembled them, then mounted to the stage and let them fly to see how far they could go. A musical program, featuring a girls' trio from White Deer, with Mrs. Harold Payne in charge, was given on May 9. Refreshments consisted of home-made ice cream and cake. The Tri-Hi girls from the high school, sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, appeared on May 16. John Robert Lane played the piano and sang; the Mathieu twins, Edna and Frances, gave tap dances; three couples gave demonstrations of jitterbug dancing; and Lucille Smith gave a reading. Peggy Cobby sang two solos. Refreshments of home-made pie, ice cream and coffee concluded the evening's fun.
 If you could walk up to your man in the service and hand him a personal gift, wouldn't you do it? Of course if he is overseas, you can't, but the Red Cross can. Last year the production department, Mrs. R. J. Epps, chairman, sent 1685 comfort kits from the local chapter; these kits were given to men leaving for foreign service. The quota for this year is 432 kits; material for 98 kits has been received, cut out, and 48 have been made to date. The remaining 50 kits are waiting in the production room where sewing machines are ready to go. Only one thing is lacking: someone to run the machines. Anyone who can sew at home is invited to work in the production room. Mrs. Epps is eager to get this task completed, for 150 pounds of yarn and a large quantity of fabric are expected momentarily to arrive, when there will be much work for everyone to do.
 One Red Cross chapter received this letter from Pvt. Joseph A. Germaine. Somewhere in Alaska: "I received your morale bundle and want to thank you a lot. Those kit bags certainly come in handy, especially the sewing kit and stationery. We boys out here can't buy anything we want even if we do have the money. If feels good to have something from home."
 Anyone having a baby bed that they would lend to a serviceman and his wife who will be here only a short time please contact the Red Cross office—phone 707.

Women in the Church Assist Many Causes

By MARY FOWLER
 Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Pennebaker H. Shober, the Goodwill Industries of Buffalo, N. Y., begun 25 years ago, now operates a Home-based division, for which adults prevented by physical disability from going to work regularly are eligible. During sixteen months, handicapped workers in 56 homes earned a total of $19,866.52. The work is distributed to the homes by a station wagon, driven by a woman and assisted by a handicapped helper. Each load contains cartons of toy parts to be assembled; bags of "sweep riddles" to be sorted; dolls to be repaired and dressed; notions, such as rubber bands or safety pins, to be banded, or tape to be wound; bundles of sewing, or other articles which will be sold in Goodwill stores.

From the town of Watsonville, California, comes a story that may, in miniature, picture a postwar need: Mrs. H. L. Sakata, a Japanese Christian, whose family funds built that denomination's church in the town, was recently released from an internment camp and visited Watsonville. But she was taken suddenly ill and transfusion was necessary. Because race feeling was running high, there was only one person in the community who would offer blood to Mrs. Sakata. It was the white Presbyterian minister; but his blood was the wrong type. Then appeal was made to the Rev. Wilbur J. Lee, pastor of the Chinese church in Watsonville. Would a member of the Chinese race be willing to donate his blood to save the life of this Japanese woman? He did; the transfusion was successful; and Mrs. Sakata recovered. In some quarters Mr. Lee has been roundly condemned for his act; in others he has been commended for his courage and Christian attitude; and one gift has been made by a Caucasian for his church.

Mrs. M. A. Pallette, Independence, Mo., and Mrs. C. T. More, St. Louis, Mo., secretaries, respectively, of Christian social relations and local church activities in the southwest Missouri and St. Louis conference of the Methodist church, initiated a campaign among church women for the study of proposed minimum wage legislation in Missouri, where 67,000 wage-earners now earn less than 40 cents per hour. In addition to organizing the Methodist women of these groups interested women of other denominations, and stressed the importance of individual as well as group letters.

Chinese Resolve To Prohibit Prostitution

CHUNGKING, May 19—(AP)—The Sixth National Kuomintang congress adopted resolutions Friday calling for strict bans against prostitution, abortion and concubinage and proposing "encouragement of between different racial groups in order to strengthen national solidarity."
 The Kuomintang is the government party.
 The congress also adopted a proposal to utilize $300,000,000 (American dollars) of Chinese deposits frozen in the United States for war and reconstruction purposes.
 Another measure called for "fostering of the ideal of the happy home" and for guidance in "proper birth control."
 The congress called for a war against disease and proposed premarital physical examinations. Emphasis was placed on sex education and the inauguration of matrimonial inquiry services.
 The congress adopted a resolution yesterday appealing to China's communists to honor their September, 1937, pledge to support the national government and obey its orders.

Couple May Wed Says American Military Officer

By DANIEL DE LUCE
 MAYEN, Germany, May 19—(Delayed)—A crippled German youth and a sweet faced Ukrainian girl whose love defied the Nazi theory of the super race have been granted permission by an officer of the American military government to marry.
 Antonius Kaes, 22, was clearing rubble from a Mayen freight yards and Maria Blesko, 23, was planting potatoes in a country garden when Capt. Melben W. Nitz of Ripon, Wis., set a precedent for the AMG.
 "I made use of law No. 6 in our M. G. regulations by which I can authorize the German municipal administration 'to do or omit any act,'" the Burgomeister had referred the marriage application to me. It wasn't a hard decision. I'm married too and my baby son was born in Wisconsin about the time I was going into combat at Anzio with a regiment of the 82nd airborne division."
 In a tiny apartment looking over the bomb-shattered roof tops of Mayen neat, white haired Frau Christina Kaes, tended a seven-old granddaughter as she told of the difficulties encountered by An-tonius and Maria since they first met in a Rhineland meat factory two years ago.

 "Maria's home was in Poltava and she was taken away from there to work in the German armaments industry," she said. "My son, who has been crippled since an injury to his leg in childhood, worked beside her. Within a few months he applied for a marriage license. It was refused on the grounds that Maria Blesko was not of German blood. The secret police then arrested Antonius and held him for four months, while they investigated his relations with enemy aliens."
 "When Maria learned she would have a baby I obtained permission to have her live in our home. The baby, Christel, was born last November. Isn't my granddaughter bright-eyed and dear?"
 "My sister married an American soldier in the army of occupation in 1922."

Good Chances at S. F. for World Court of Justice

By JAMES MARLOW
SAN FRANCISCO, May 19.—(AP)—We may be—after fumbling with the idea for generations—on the brink of setting up a real world court.

But it is not certain how good and strong that court will be when it finally comes out of the oven at the United Nations conference here.

This is the whole purpose of such a court:

It would be one more means of settling international disputes—like arguments over treaties or boundaries or fishing rights—peacefully.

Here's a simplified explanation of what has been done to create a true world court and of what remains to be done.

Americans were talking about the need for a world court more than 100 years ago. The first definite step in that direction came in 1899 when the czar of Russia called the first Hague conference in Holland.

Out of this came the so-called permanent court of arbitration. It was not really a court. It was a panel of people who could be called upon to settle an argument.

A second Hague conference was called in 1907 at the suggestion of President Theodore Roosevelt.

The United States tried to get the other nations to agree to "obligatory arbitration" by the court. This high-sounding phrase—very important and coming up again at San Francisco—means only this:

Nations agreeing to a world court would bind themselves to submit their international disputes to the court for arbitration and promise to abide by the ruling. But no good progress was made.

But a world court finally was created in 1921 when the old league of nations was established. It had headquarters in the Hague in Holland. The first session was held in 1922.

The judges—15 of them—were elected by the league of nations to serve 9-year terms each. They were chosen, not as representatives of their country, but for personal ability.

Although several Americans have sat as judges of the court, the senate would never ratify participation by the United States.

Because of the invasion of Holland, the court has not been able to hold any sessions in the Hague since 1940.

Now in San Francisco the delegates are working out plans for a new world court. It will follow very closely the lines of the old.

Front Line Was House Just Across Street

TEMPLE, May 19.—(AP)—Most of the homes around Saarlautern and Pralautern boasted Bavarian China, Sterling Silver, and fine mahogany furniture, says Lt. Howard D. Ford of Midland, Tex.

Ford, now at McCloskey general hospital, was with the 65th division when it was slowly cracking a part of the Siegfried line. "We advanced about three miles in twenty-one days," Ford says.

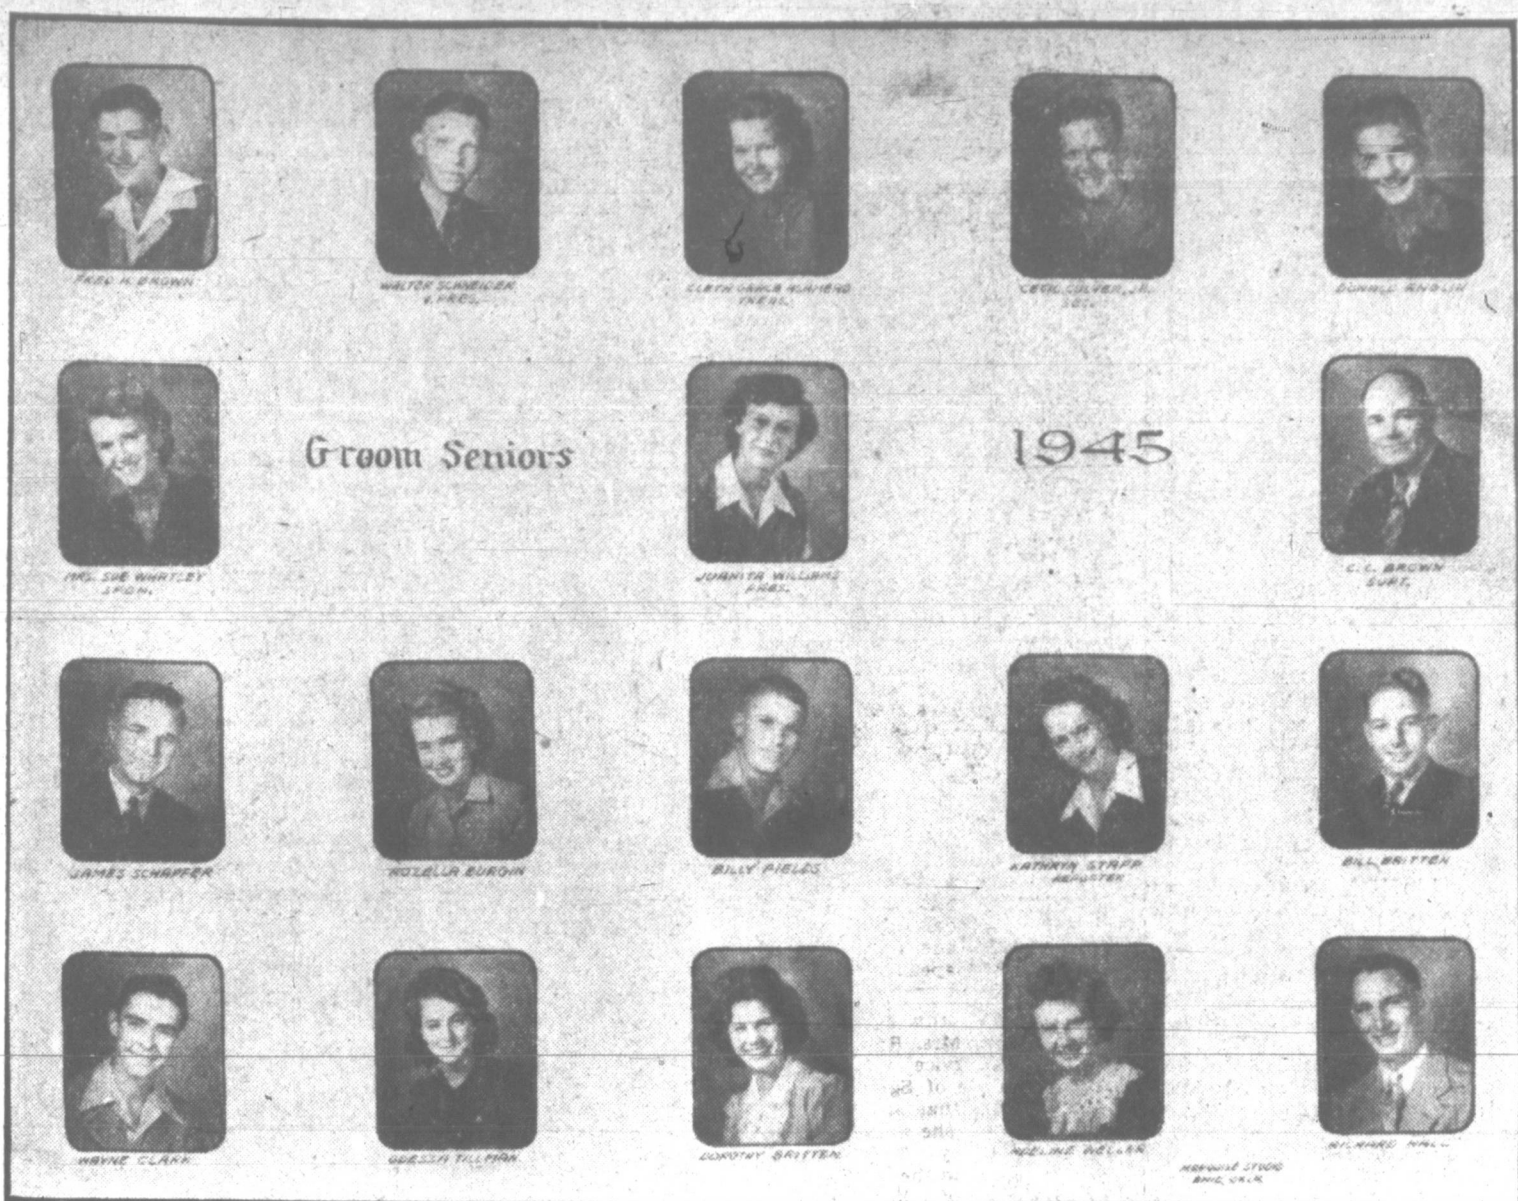

The front line was the house next door or the building across the street which hid a German machine gun.

Ford lost his right leg when he stepped on a mine. He was leading a patrol into an apparently deserted village. His wife, Mary, resides in Midland.

Disease Moves in On Citrus Crops

By JACK RUTLEGE
Associated Press Staff

Few Texans except those living in the citrus belt know (or care) that California bans Texas oranges, lemons and grapefruit. No Texas fruit can be sold in California.

Now Texans want to ban California fruit in Texas, not for revenge or to monopolize the Texas market, but for the same reason California used in passing its state law against Texas citrus.

California said the Morelos fruit fly, found in Texas, threatened her citrus industry. A "quick decline" disease now attacks California trees. Conrad Rotisch of McAllen said the story of "quick decline" leaked out after two years of secrecy. Rotisch operates a large-scale orchard supervision service.

"Quick decline" is more dangerous to Texas than it is to California. It attacks only the roots of trees grafted on sour orange rootstocks, which are the only kind satisfactory in the valley. In California, sweet orange rootstocks can be used to replace sour rootstocks when new plantings are made, thus reducing danger of future loss.

Texas are discussing a quarantine of California citrus. Discussions mainly are confined to the citrus counties of Hidalgo, Cameron, Willacy, Webb, a handful of others.

But they are not optimistic.

Austin E. Anson, manager of the Texas Citrus and Vegetable Growers and Shippers association, a former Californian, admits that Texas babies, for example, need orange Pictured above are the 25 members of the graduating class of Groom high school. Dr. J. A. Hill, president of West Texas State college, delivered the address to the graduates Friday night. juice the year around. The valley has not developed its industry to the extent it can supply citrus fruit on a year-around basis. Storage facilities are inadequate.

Of course, Florida fruit could supply the demand, but the valley admits a handful of counties wouldn't have enough influence to obtain a state-wide ban of California citrus.

Meanwhile, the disease, extent of which is unknown, is closely watched.

Japanese, Says Noted Writer, Are Prepared For Much Longer War

By BOOTH TARKINGTON

Here is another War Loan—the seventh—to which we, the people, must subscribe to the magnificent tune of seven billion dollars. It is a vast sum and we are a vast people. We can do it.

Are there any new things to be said about why we must lend our dollars to America? Aren't all the reasons for buying War Bonds given on our hearts as well as ringing in our ears? And don't we know that these reasons are as true as the very fact that we've heard them all before? Some people fear that when Germany is beaten we Americans will think the war is half won and that we can win the other, or Japanese, half with only half our strength. Is there a sixth-grade schoolchild in the United States who is so weak in fractions as to think this? If so, here is some more arithmetic—figures that don't encourage an illusion that Japan can be disposed of by us with one hand (that is, with half our supply of hands)—at present Japan is still able to add to her armies at least two hundred thousand new young fighters a year and Japanese yearly casualties have not as yet even approached that number—the number of Japan's mere normal replacements. In other words, we have not yet been strong enough to prevent the Jap army from growing larger all the time.

Can anyone think of anything we can do about this? Well, anyone can think of one thing we can't NOT do. We can't NOT pour seven billion dollars into Uncle Sam's treasury now!

Veil Is Lifted From Huge Ship

LONDON, May 19.—(AP)—Britain's biggest airplane—the 58-ton Shetland with a 110-foot hull—has emerged from wartime secrecy.

The huge flying boat, designed for world-wide patrol and reconnaissance, was described by Sir John Buchanan of Short Brothers as faster than the American air giant, Mars, although "not quite so big."

It was disclosed that one Shetland had been completed and successfully flown. A second, still under construction, is being re-designed into a 70-passenger trans-Atlantic airliner—a two-decked cruiser with a promenade and a cocktail bar among its features.

The plane's four engines give it a cruising speed of 185 miles per hour. It is approximately twice the size of Pan American's clippers. Overnight trips between Britain and New York are planned for the plane.

The Pan American Union started out in 1890 as the International Bureau of American Republics.

Nazi Propaganda Hasn't Quit Yet

LONDON, May 19.—(AP)—A Moscow radio commentator declared Wednesday that Nazi big-wigs being held in Allied custody "are spreading propaganda whose purpose is to break the unity among the three great powers that defeated Hitler's army."

Reichsmarshal Goering and Field Marshal Von Rundstedt, and Kesselring were referred to specifically as "disciples of Goebbels."

The commentator charged that American and British correspondents have been "only too eager to take down and disseminate whatever stuff the nazis wanted to be disseminated."

Kesselring speaks about how absurd it was for two Germanic races to fight each other, while Von Rundstedt proceeds to develop the utterly false and poisonous theory that Germany's defeat was not the fault of the army, but of the country's political leadership alone.

A dispatch from Augsburg said a ban has been placed on press conferences for German prisoners unless specific permission is granted by supreme Allied headquarters.

Man Fined for Misuse Of Vehicle License

A Canadian man was fined in Justice of the Peace D. R. Henry's court Friday for misuse of a vehicle license.

The man was charged with using a farm license on a commercial truck. It was explained that the cost of a commercial truck license is approximately double the price of a farm license.

First Fire Call of Week Is Reported

The Pampa fire department had its first call of the week Thursday, Chief Ben White reported, when firemen answered a trash fire call in the 100 block on N. Gray.

It was the department's first alarm since last Saturday when an oil mop left on a radiator at J. C. Penney resulted in a large amount of smoke, and gave the appearance of fire.

Editor Believes Few Liberated Are Injured

HOUSTON, May 19.—(AP)—M. E. Walter, managing editor of the Houston Chronicle who visited prison camps in Germany with other American newspapermen, says he believes not more than five percent of American prisoners liberated will suffer permanent disability.

"During the two weeks the party of editors was in Europe," he stated here, "we talked with hundreds of American soldiers who had been liberated from prison camps. From these interviews, I am convinced that 95 out of 100 of the boys will come through without any permanent disability."

"All are suffering from malnutrition but with proper care bounce back to normal quickly. A few were treated brutally, but they were the exception. Making forced marches and doing heavy work on poor and scanty food was the grievance that most had to register; and those complaints had to do mostly with the time since the first part of January when the Allied drives approached the various prison camps and caused the Germans to attempt to move the prisoners back out of reach.

"Very few of the prisoners complain of brutal treatment. I talked with about 100 Texas boys, and about all they complained of was the way they had been forced to do heavy work and make long marches on very inadequate rations."

"The spirit of the boys was marvelous."

Drop in Demand For Petroleum Is Prophesied

Total demand for petroleum products will drop 21 percent in the first peacetime year, predicts Albert J. McIntosh, economist, for Socomey-Vacuum Oil Company in an article from The Petroleum Engineer on "An Outlook for the Refiner After the War."

His analysis of the changes in U. S. demand shows a drop in aviation gasoline of 68 percent and other declines of 28 percent for diesel fuel oil and 26 percent for residual fuel oil. These are partly offset by a rise of 37 percent in demand for asphalt and road oils, of 17 percent for motor lubricants and of 14 percent for automotive and other gasoline. McIntosh expects aviation gasoline demand to drop to one-fifth the wartime demand before a gradual increase begins.

Long-time forecasts of the economist indicate a rather sharp growth in demand for diesel and other light oil to power increasing numbers of diesel engines and probably jet-type units. Increase in total consumption of automotive gasoline and lubricants will be retarded by greater efficiency in both. There will be no radical change in quality in the early peace period but a steady march toward higher quality for petroleum products.

"After the war there should be more than enough crude oil production," McIntosh states. "More sour crudes will have to be used, however, and refiners must be prepared to use them."

Refining capacity will be in excess of 5,000,000 barrels of crude oil

Gasoline Adjustments May Be Forthcoming

WASHINGTON, May 18—(AP)—The petroleum administration for war said Thursday it has reached no decision on how much additional gasoline civilians will get as a result of the end of the European war.

"Conferences have been going on between PAW, the military and the petroleum industry since V-E day, but we do not have a definite figure as yet," a PAW spokesman said.

PAW estimated earlier that narrowing of the war to one front would provide from 100,000 to 200,000 more barrels of gasoline daily for civilians.

OFA said that if the higher estimate materialized it would be possible to increase "A" card rations 50 percent, with "limited" increases for "B" drivers.

There is a possibility that any adjustments made may be put into effect June 22, the date the "A-16" series of gasoline coupons become valid.

Gas Rationing Relaxation Is Believed Coming

DALLAS, May 19—Announcement from Washington that gasoline rationing may be eased soon is particularly welcome news to Texas motorists who have shared the nationwide restrictions in the face of the fact that this state produces about eight times more gasoline than the amount allotted them the Texas Mid-Continent Oil and Gas Association pointed out Saturday.

"Texas is the world's largest source of supply for gasoline with refineries capable of turning out more than ten billion gallons a year, yet the motorists in this state have complied with rationing regulations just as if Texas did not produce a drop of gasoline," the association said.

"During the war period from January 1, 1942, to April 1, 1944, the latest date for which figures are available from the state comptroller, Texas civilians bought 4,285,764,000 gallons of tax paid gasoline. This represents only 44.4 percent of the gasoline sold in Texas during this period."

"Government agencies in Texas bought 5,335,213,000 gallons, or 55.6 percent of the total sales which amounted to 9,597,977,000 gallons. The tremendous increase in the use of gasoline in Texas by these agencies is shown by the fact that in December, 1941, the sales to the government were only 1.5 percent of the total sales, compared with 72.5 percent in the first three months of 1945. Civilian motorists consumed 321,403,000 gallons in these three months. The government bought 848,808,000 gallons, chiefly for army and navy use in Texas.

"Estimated production in these three months, based on Texas' rated ability to produce ten billion gallons a year, was about 2,500,000,000 (billion) gallons. The consumption by civilians in Texas, 321,403,000 gallons, amounted to one gallon out of eight. The bulk of it went to war, to government agencies and to other states."

Seniors to Graduate 8:30 Thursday; Vesper Service This Evening

The 1945 graduating class of Pampa High school will don their gray gowns and mortar boards to march down the aisles of the Pampa High school auditorium for their vesper service this afternoon at 5 o'clock. This is the fourth wartime graduating class.

Valedictorian of the class is Anna Barnett, while Jean Paxson is salutatorian and John Robert Lane is high ranking boy.

Speaker for the vesper service is Rev. Russell Greene West, pastor of the Church of the Epiphany. Rev. West came to Pampa six years ago from West Virginia. Rev. West is the instructor for the Bible course, which is part of the curriculum of the high school here. His topic will be "Take Time to Live."

The invocation will be given by Rev. Douglas E. Carver of the First Baptist Church. Rev. Guy V. Caskey will pronounce the benediction. The scripture reading will be read by Rev. R. L. Gilpin.

The procession will be played by the Harvester band. Choral music will be sung by the Pampa High school A Cappella choir. Their program will include "Vesper Hymn," a Russian air, and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," by Steffe and arranged by Fred Waring. The service is under the direction of Miss LaNelle Scheihagen, public school music supervisor.

After the vesper service, members of the class will be feted at a luncheon given by the mothers of the graduates. In charge are Mrs. A. J. Beagle and Mrs. Russell Chisholm. Decoration for the 12 tables will depict the seniors' life from birth, and special surprise favors have been planned.

Pictured above is Dr. Doyle F. Osborne, principal of Pampa High school, who will assist in the presentation of diplomas Thursday evening. After many years of service in the Pampa Independent School system, Dr. Osborne will enter another profession next fall. In his place will be Winslow Savage, now principal of Junior High school.

Barnett, Paxson and Lane Receive Top Honors

Receiving the honor of valedictorian for the past year was Anna Barnett, Jean Paxson was salutatorian and John Robert Lane was highest ranking boy.

Scholastic averages for each of these three students varied little with the highest being 95.36, Jean's average 95.32, and John Robert's, 94.3.

Attending school in Pampa for all other twelve years is Anna Barnett, who first attended Woodrow Wilson. Anna may be found working in Mrs. Roberts office during the fifth and sixth periods as well as after school. Her activities are many for she is a member of the National Honor Society, sang in the A Cappella choir, and was elected as the Pampa High representative for the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Jean Paxson's ward school was San Houston where she spent six busy years. The biggest achievement of Jean's senior year was the development and planning of "The Lariat." Jean works in Mr. Steele's office the first period of each day and is vice-president of the National Honor Society. Teaching music is one of Jean's after school activities and she is quite an accomplished musician.

Harvester Band Concludes Year

The Pampa Harvester band concluded an active year with a picnic May 8 at Saunders ranch and by participating in the V-E Day program that night. The band furnished colorful background for all school activities this year, taking the spotlight between halves at football and basketball games. They have assisted in all War Bond rallies, parades, pep rallies and bonfires. A small group composing the assembly band played in all assemblies; the entire band provided several assemblies during the year.

The highlight of the year for the band was a banquet in February given by the senior band, "Contra Jay" was named Band Sweetheart at the banquet and presented with a bouquet of red roses. Guests at the banquet were Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Sone, Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Boyles and Mr. D. O. Diley, who was the guest director at the band clinic the preceding day. Mr. Wiley is the director of the Texas Tech band. Several directors from surrounding towns attended the clinic.

The band played at eight home football games giving impressive stunts at most of them, and attended the Amarillo game. The outstanding stunts were a star illuminated by flash lights and at the Amarillo game, an airplane, an anchor and the letters, "U. S. A.," while on the march.

May 4 the band attended the Annual Texas Music Educators' Convention at Canyon and came up with a second place rating. Several soloists and student directors also participated, most of them receiving first ratings. The band winners—Bunny Shelton, Mary Lou Mazy, Barbara Carruth and Betty Dowell—also received a rating individually and as an ensemble.

Drum majors of the band are Art J. Berry and Shirley Sone. Officers are Ernest Hoyle, president; Randall Clay, vice-president; and Marilyn Kack, secretary-treasurer.

NHS Begins Plans For Youth Center

Next year about this time, we will be taking a wonderful time at our youth center.

Plans for a youth center have been started many times in Pampa, but it was not until this year, under the auspices of the National Honor Society, that plans have progressed far enough even to the stage of buying a building.

A few weeks after the beginning of school, the National Honor Society called a meeting of the president and vice-presidents of all school clubs and organizations and the plan was placed before them, asking their full support. This group was organized into the Youth Council, which for the time being, would have the same officers as the National Honor Society. Later Jean Paxson, vice-president of the National Honor Society, was elected president of the Youth Council, with Charles Spencer as vice-president, Bonnie Nell McBee as secretary.

The first building taken into consideration for the site of the Youth Center was the Broadway Ice Company, but after being looked over, it was decided that it was unsafe. Next the Council thought of building their own center, but because of the shortage of money and materials, this plan was discarded also. Then members of the school board offered the bus barn to the Council their center as soon as the government would let them build a new one. This was accepted and plans are now going ahead full speed.

Refreshments were served to the guests as they entered, after which musical selections were given by Miss Elizabeth Settel at the piano, and selections by the violin trio consisting of Miss Evelyn Thoma, Eula Meers and Sharilyn Pocock.

Miss Loraine Bruce, president, introduced the speaker, Miss Edna Graham, who has been an instructor at WFSSTC at Canyon for many years. Miss Graham spoke on "Fun for Girls in the Post-War World."

Decorations included a miniature doll dressed in cap and gown with gold flowers as a centerpiece. The piano was also ornamented with flowers. Favors on the plates were tiny diplomas tied in gold. The cake, frosted in green and gold, was served with frozen punch.

Bidwell Wins Title Of Fashion Queen

This year, for the first time in the history of PHS, a girl was chosen to represent the neatest, fashionable or best dressed girl in school. Winning above fifty nominees, Ina Lee Bidwell was named Fashion Queen. The girls chose her for her dress, neatness and posture.

Ina Lee is a senior and plans to attend Columbia university in New York upon graduation to study to be a dietitian.

The school's best dressed girl lists blue as her favorite color and she prefers plain tailored clothes to things that are frilly.

Ina Lee wears very little make-up but prefers Helena Rubenstein cosmetics.

From our doors this year will pass a man known and loved widely as an educator. His leadership has guided Pampa High school for many years to its present height.

We wish to express to Dr. Doyle F. Osborne, our principal, sincere thanks in appreciation of the many fine things he has done to make our high school careers something worth remembering. We also wish him the greatest success in his new profession. It is with deep regret that we say farewell, Dr. Osborne.

Seniors Survey Year of Activity

Leading the senior class of '45 for the past nine months is Joe Cree, president, John Robert Lane, vice-president, and Colleen Chisholm, secretary-treasurer. They closed the books for the year last week.

Joe's cheery smile and amiable disposition have endeared the senior class meetings, which he has conducted. Being president of the senior class, as well as vice-president of the student council, is just one of the many activities of his senior year.

Colleen Chisholm, secretary year, Joe's football playing is something of which the senior class has been proud.

Musical John Robert Lane spends most of his spare time in the Little Harvester office. Mr. Steele's office, or at station KPND, where he has a radio program every day. John Robert's abilities are unlimited as he has shown all through his senior year. His acting in "Janie," the senior play, brought out his dramatic ability. The efficient way of editing the school paper is just another of his many accomplishments.

Wherever you see a black receipt book you will find Colleen close by, always ready to write a receipt for your senior dues. The places most likely to be honored by her presence is Mrs. Roberts' office. Personality plus is Colleen Chisholm with her merry eyes and dark natural curls.

Other than commencement activities, highlighting the senior class program was the all-day picnic held at Lake McClellan, May 11. Also important in the life of every graduate was the Kid Day program which included all of the 103 seniors. After the "kids" presented the program in assembly, they journeyed to the city park for a picnic. After this they were given a theater party. One other party was held during the year. This was an old fashioned barn dance and box supper. Decorations were suitable and dancing included the heel and toe and the square dance.

Assistants to Roberts, Steele Do Office Work

Earning one-half credit for one hour's work in the office each day were 16 seniors. Those working in Mrs. Lou Roberts' office performed such duties as answering the telephone, delivering messages, collecting absence slips and making announcements.

Those students working in this capacity were Marjorie Gaylor, Colleen Chisholm, Joanne Holden, Joyce Hale, Wanda Jay, Shirley Sone and Anna Lou McCoy.

Mr. Steele's assistants in the attendance office performed work of recording attendees. These student record keepers do filing and check on absences. Filing these places were Marjorie Roth, Jean Paxson, Mary Jo Galloway, Jean Beagle, Colleen Chisholm, Dorothy Johnson, John Robert Lane, Winnie Cox and Bob Carmichael.

Kiser Leads Program Over Station KPND

Under the capable editorship of Helen Kiser, the Little Harvester radio program finished a very successful year. The program was presented every Thursday afternoon at 5:45 and lasted fifteen minutes. Each week a musical number was given by some student or choral unit. At other times various guests from PAAF entertained.

There were three regular participants on the weekly radio program: Helen Kiser, who is only a sophomore, served as news announcer, Jimmy Terrell, a junior, appropriately acted as sports commentator and Wanda Jay, the only senior, gave weekly fashion hints.

Billy Dixon gave sports the latter part of the year as Jimmy was out for spring training. Ida Ruth Taylor was also added to the radio cast. Ida Ruth gave girls' sports. Ida Ruth and Nicki Frasher collaborated in writing the script. Both these girls are freshmen. Guineette Killingsworth and Beverly Baker were also featured as "Miss Sage." This feature was discontinued after the first semester.

The script for the program was written and prepared by the participants.

LATIN AMERICANS ALSO HAVE RED TAPE

BOGOTA, Columbia—(AP)—A former tax collector here finally got his pension ($45 a month) from the Columbian government for the leprosy he picked up while on the job—but it took 13 documents to do it. He attached to his claim:

A certificate he is not now receiving a pension; certificate he doesn't owe any income tax; certificate he didn't have leprosy when he took the job; certificate he has leprosy now; appointment as tax collector and transfer to leprosy district; certificate he had to deal with lepers when he was there; and various certificates proving his service and salary from the government.

A milestone in life will be passed when the 103 graduates of Pampa High school cross the stage receiving their diplomas at 8:30 o'clock Thursday evening in the high school auditorium. The graduates will wear the customary gray caps and gowns.

Led by Anna Barnett, valedictorian, and Jean Paxson, salutatorian, the graduates will enter to a processional played by the Harvester band. The invocation will be pronounced by Rev. E. B. Bowen of the First Methodist church. "Andante" from Haydn's 6th Symphony (Papini) will be presented by a string quartet composed of Miss Sharilyn Pocock, Miss Evelyn Thoma and Miss Eula Meers.

Superintendent L. L. Sone, top, will officiate Thursday evening in the presentation of diplomas to the 103 seniors who will graduate then. Mr. Sone will enter the ranching business this summer when he will be relieved of his duty.

Principal address of the evening will be given by Rev. Douglas E. Nelson of the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Nelson accepted the ministry of the local church February 8 when he arrived from Pittsburgh, Pa. Rev. Nelson has chosen as his topic "Too Busy."

Presentation of the diplomas will be made by Supt. L. L. Sone, Dr. D. F. Osborne, principal and Aubrey L. Steele, assistant principal. After this, the class will sing "Dear Old Pampa High School," the alma mater.

The benediction will be pronounced by Rev. William J. Snack, pastor of the Holy Souls Catholic church. The benediction will be followed with the recessional by the band.

McCune to Lead Hi-Y Through Ensuing Year

Dick McCune is the new president of the Pampa High school chapter of the Hi-Y Fellowship. This came at the final meeting of the year when the new topic for study was chosen, "World Wide Thinking."

Supporting Dick as president are these officers: Horace Saunders, vice-president; James Harrah, secretary; Warren Jones, treasurer; Billy Nellis, parliamentarian.

Billy Nellis served as president for the past year with John Austin Hughes as vice-president. James Harrah and Kenneth Hobbs served as secretary and treasurer.

The club maintained an active part in school activities and provided a full educational program in its setup. Several social functions were held, including a party with the Tri-Hi-Y and a dance held also with the girls' group.

A contribution of $50 was donated by the Pampa chapter to further the work of the regional staff. Not all high school students know that the standard of the Hi-Y is to "create, maintain and extend, throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character."

Membership in the fellowship is elective by the group.

Honor Society Chooses 17 New Members in '45

Seventeen members were chosen for the National Honor Society this year. Eight seniors and nine juniors were presented in assembly April 25, by Dr. A. M. Meyer, a member of the education department in West Texas State College at Canyon.

These members were selected on the basis of scholarship, leadership, character and service to the school. The top eight seniors were Johnny Campbell, now in the Navy, Colleen Chisholm, Duane Hogsett, Wanda Jay, Dorothy Johnson, Anna Lou McCoy, Marjorie Roth and Shirley Sone.

Those attaining this honor in their junior year were Bernice Ewan, Beverly Jones, James Graham, Quebell Nelson, Kathryn Rose, Sharilyn Pocock, Doris Shackelford, John Lee Walls and Elva Jean Anderson.

Members of the National Honor Society have started several projects this year that were very beneficial to the town. They are now in the middle of their biggest and most profitable one, the Youth Center, which is to be called "The Lariat." Other activities which they have been responsible for was a quiz program, which took to the Umatilla field in connection with the Red Cross, and also three of the PHS assemblies.

Officers of the National Honor Society are John Robert Lane, president; Jean Paxson, vice-president; and Jean Beagle, secretary-treasurer. Other members are Dorothy Bradford, Mary Jo Galloway, Bonnie Nell McBee and Juanita Reeves. The sponsor of the National Honor Society is Miss Clarine Brannon, junior English teacher.

Tri-Hi-Y Completes Full Year of Service

The Tri-Hi-Y of 1945 concluded an active year with a shower for their sponsor, Mrs. Joe Fischer at the home of Shirley Sone, president, on Friday, May 18. Other officers for the past year were: Marjorie Roth, vice-president; Irene Hoggatt, secretary-treasurer.

Ramona Matheny was recently elected Counselor-at-Large for the next school year.

Last Wednesday night the club their guests entertained the boys in the hospital at the air base. The program consisted of talent out of the club.

Dr. Douglas Nelson, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, conducted one of the later meetings of the Tri-Hi-Y. The subject for his speech and round table discussion was "Religion and Its Origin."

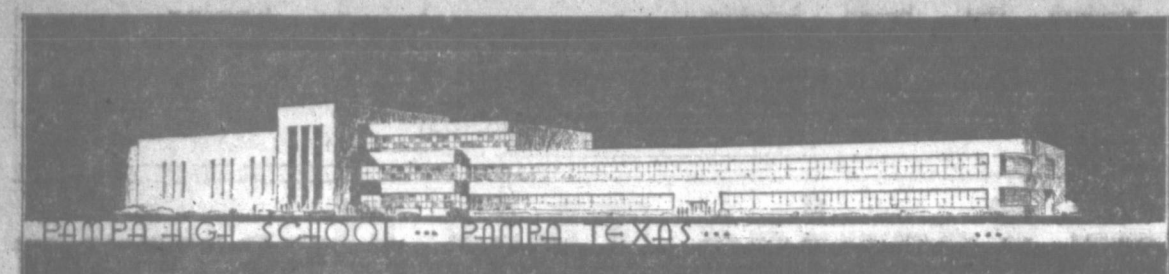

In March a shower was held for a club member, Billie Sackett, who married. It was a kitchen shower held in the home of Mrs. Fischer.

The district secretary of the National Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y Association, spoke to the two clubs recently on "Post War Activities" of the Association.

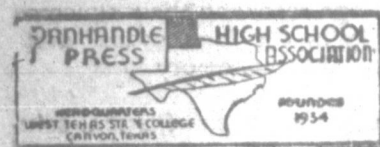

At Christmas time a private party was held for the club. A Christmas caroling party was held by the club with their brother club as guests. They visited both hospitals and people who were at home, ill.

The first social of the year was a combined party for the two clubs in November. Dancing and games furnished the entertainment.

Girls of the Tri-Hi-Y ushered at the All-School Spring Music Festival.

Student Poet Writes Of War Conditions

The Casualty We tramp in mud and slush and slime, And go wild thinking of time, time. Too tired to think, too tired to walk, But not too tired to fear death's stalk. The mud is deep, yet we must keep the never-ending line. Through gates of hell and dare not fall to the doors of Palestine. We live but life is but a dream; we do not think of home. We do not think at all, Nights are constant where we roam, And sleep is but a nightmare from which we awake screaming, begging, crying. Ah, sleep is but a fiend to trap the mind into remembrance. A dying hand reaching for your empty canteen, A wounded brother flinching from things unseen— The last cough of life caught in his throat becomes the music theme. Is death the constant scene? —Observer

They say it's shell shock, That's why he's here, (They mean he's going mad.) He can't forget, He tries, He can't, He's strange; he's wild and he's sad. Every nerve is sharp and then— it's all tension, strain. This lovely rose path here— he thinks it's a bloody lane. They say someone laughed at things he seemed to feel, feel, feel, I wonder why he choked the man. It was a thing unreal. They found him with blood on his hands and tears in his eyes crying, "Kill, kill, kill!" —Billye Ruth Rider

Weekly Publication Ends Year Of Profit for School, War Effort

Weekly publishing the news and views of Pampa High school, the Little Harvester ended its fourteenth year of publication with this edition. Under the sponsorship of Miss Katherine Simmons, publications sponsor, the Little Harvester appeared each week for 33 issues, printing 198,000 words in the Sunday edition of The Pampa News.

Planned and executed by the journalism department was the Pampa High School Press Clinic on February 24. This clinic, bringing delegates from Amarillo and White Deer, was held as a war-time substitute for the annual conference in Canyon. Speakers for the day included Tex DeWeese, then editor of The Pampa News, and Sgt. Ken Weaver with the Pampa Flyer.

Aid to War Effort A year of endeavoring to aid in the war effort was 1944-45 for the Little Harvester. Approximately eight per cent of the 4,000 inches published was solely dedicated to the war effort. In over half this space was included news of Pampa exes in service, both at home and abroad. Also playing a major role in the page were the numerous editorials urging people to buy bonds and give time to the winning of the war. A vital force in stirring the students and townspeople into action were the accounts for the need for tin, clothing and waste paper.

Development The Little Harvester saw and met the need for bringing before the student ways of school improvement and personally development. Seven per cent of the column inches were devoted to this cause. Ways of achieving this aim were through serious editorials, humorous features and sentence programs.

at mid-term co-editors, John Robert Lane and Anna Merle Cox, were selected for the second semester. Thus the Little Harvester was guided through the second half of the year with many activities.

Seven per cent of the column inches were devoted to this cause. Ways of achieving this aim were through serious editorials, humorous features and sentence programs.

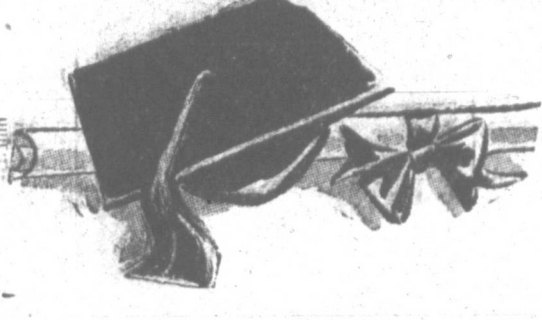

Personalities All professional papers have gossip columns. What used to be called the "gossip column" in the high school paper is fast becoming known as a "personally" column. Such is the function of "Sagebrush," whose editors for the past have been Wanda Jay and Martha Sue Sheely. This is, it has been said, the part of the paper everyone reads first; therefore 12 per cent of the Little Harvester was given over to this type of news.

The remaining 73 per cent of the space has been devoted to straight news. In this way the Little Harvester tries to give the school full news coverage.

Student Project For the first time in several years, the Little Harvester is wholly a student project. All editors, reporters, typists, copyreaders and proofreaders are students; this year the linotypist and make-up are also students. Duane Hogsett was linotypist and make-up man with Frank Stallings as his assistant.

For the first time in its history delegates from the Little Harvester attended the Interscholastic League Press Conference in Austin. Besides being a member of this league, the Little Harvester belongs to the WTSPA, PHSPA, WTSPC and the Critical Service of Quill and Scroll.

You are to be commended for a job well done. As wartime graduates, you are serious young people who are giving careful consideration to your future. Start right now to protect your security by investing regularly in War Bonds. It's the soundest way to prove your faith in the future of America, and at the same time insure your own success.

Harvesters Complete Successful Year in Field of Sports

All Football, Basketball, Track Teams Rank Very Highest for Several Seasons

Basketball

Scoring 1131 points and having 795 points scored against them, the Pampa Harvesters quintet won 28 games and lost 8 last season.

A scrapping group of boys who took the district title repeated again at regional and was the second Pampa team to be represented at the annual state meet. They were ousted out by a tall quintet from Greenville.

The Green and Gold basketballers averaged 28.7 points per game and had won and lost per cent of .778. They won the Vega invitation tournament and placed second in the Canadian tournament.

Two of the games lost this year were lost when part of the team was ineligible because of attendance.

At the Vega tournament, Earl Davis, Johnny Campbell and Randall Clay placed on the all-tournament team. J. W. Winborne was high point man of the tournament with 21 points.

Only two boys made the Canadian all-tournament team and one at Ft. Worth tournament. Randall Clay and Johnny Campbell at Canadian and Campbell at Ft. Worth. Campbell was picked best sport on all these teams.

The team has lost only two home games in two years and they were both to the powerful Amarillo Golden Sandies. The games and scores went as follows:

The Green and Gold gridiron men scored 241 points while only having 60 scored against them. They won seven out of ten games and four out of five conference games to place second in the district.

A scrapping team that never gave up went forth to carry the battle on for dear old PHS and came out in the big end most of the time. The big nose of the drives was furnished by Johnny Campbell with a powerful line in front of him.

Only two of the boys made all-district, and they were Campbell and Herky Lane, a battling guard. Both boys are playing for Uncle Sam now.

The season was a successful one with plenty of action. The scores and games went like this:

Track

Cinder lads from Pampa carried the old colors to highest glory this year. Two to the boys were never beaten and the team finished either first or second in all meets.

Randall Clay won the state district championship and also the Southwestern Exposition meet. He set a new district mark of 130 ft. 6 in. and heaved the platter 142 ft. 3 in., to better the old regional record.

The leader and athlete of the year, little Johnny Campbell, won every meet he participated in, but Uncle Sam got him before the regional and state meets came around. He won the mile run at the Exposition meet, Shamrock dual, Borger dual, Canyon invitation and district before entering the Navy. Clay also won all those meets.

Bill Dixon, star hurdler, won the Shamrock dual, Borger dual, district and second at regional and participated at state.

The team was very young, made up mostly of juniors and freshmen. Therefore, the outlook for a winning team next year is very good.

Rowe-Selects Johnny Campbell As Most Outstanding in All Kinds of Athletic Events

In my estimation, though it does not amount to much, I think little Johnny Campbell is the best all-around athlete of the past year. Maybe for the past ten years there is no other student on record that participated in any more things than Johnny did.

The first event of the year is football and if you had come within hearing distance of Harvesters field you could head the sparkling voice of Campbell barking out signals to his teammates. He was the coolest, smartest and most cunning ball player in the field. Johnny just weighed 135 pounds this year, but he still made all-district.

Football season is over and basketball is about to begin and opposing teams think they are through with that small, wiry, blond kid.

Coach John Whinnery takes over Gorilla football team and lost only one game. A close one to Amarillo. "Big" Jim Terrell was elected captain of the 1945 Harvesters. Randall Clay and Charlie Beard will be co-captains.

Spring practice ended and George Johnson, first string quarterback, was elected most valuable man.

Oddity of the year: During one of the basketball games, a freak shot was made by Johnny Campbell.

The whistle was blown for the half time period and Campbell had his back to the Harvesters goal. He tossed the ball over his head and trotted off the floor. And to the surprise of hundreds of people that ball fell through the basket for a perfect shot.

Earl Davis led the basketball team with 365 points last season. Tip Mooney was signed as assistant coach upon the resignation of C. O. Criswell.

Seven boys of the 1944 Harvesters football squad are now in the Navy and two in the Army.

Randall Clay, Johnny Campbell and Eugene Turner received favorable mention on AP all-state football eleven last fall.

Harvesters Beat Hard Exes 19-7

Randall Clay's powerful drives led the Harvesters to a hard earned 19 to 7 victory over the Exes last Friday night. Clay pushed over two of the three touchdowns scored by the Green and Gold eleven.

The game opened with the Exes kicking off and, immediately after a couple long runs by Clay and Washington, an end run was made by quarterback, George Johnson for a touchdown. The rest of the quarter was evenly fought out in the middle of the field.

Clay's five yard touchdown was the highlight of the second quarter. Both lines played a brilliant game in defense throughout the game.

Jack Dunham kicked off starting the third quarter. Kenneth Grantham returned the ball 40 yards before he was downed by Dunham. Long gains were made by both teams and the third score was furnished by Clay again.

Jake Halter, who played wonderful ball game slipped a long pass to Joe Cree for the only Exes score late in the fourth quarter.

The starting line-ups were: Exes: Cree, Casey, Blanton, Erickson, Halter, Rinehart, Chesser, Daugherty, Grantham, Frifton, Beaseley; Harvesters: Beard, Terrell, Humphreys, Lockhart, Fish, Simpson, Dunham, Johnson, Clay, Wilson, Washington.

A great fellow I repeat.

Alice Jean Robinson Chosen Best Athlete

"Her sportsmanship has set an example for every girl in class," stated Miss Dorothy Hoyte, head of the physical education department, speaking of Alice Jean Robinson, best all-around athlete. Alice Jean was chosen from 271 girls by popular vote.

Alice Jean's favorite sports are basketball, volley ball, swimming and baseball. "She is the first student I have ever had, in five years of teaching, that has made a semester grade of 99," said Miss Hoyte. She is the only girl in PHS to have a 99 semester average in PE.

Friendly, pleasant, Alice Jean is a leader as well as a follower. She has a shy way of grinning that makes her attractive.

State Champ

Randall Clay's heave at the state meet qualified him for the A. A. U. meet which will be held in San Antonio. This meet is considered the preliminaries for the National meet that will be held in Chicago.

Cheer Leader

Patsy Pierson was recently made head cheer leader for next fall. Patsy will take over and "get the ball rolling" before elections can be held.

GERMAN CURRENCY ALSATIAN HEADACHE

SAVERNE, France—(AP)—The process of chasing German currency and coins out of Alsace continues. French money soon will displace German exchange throughout southern Alsace.

Alsations who were taken over the Saverne gap to refuge in the south of France have provided a minor problem. They went with German money, they speak German or a dialect of it, they have been conditioned to German methods and ways. Admittedly they have proved a thorn in the French body politic. It is intended that no more Alsations and those now there will be brought back as soon as possible.

HE PROBABLY THOUGHT HE WAS A DEAD DUCK

London—(AP)—A rescue squad leader searching the debris of a V-bombed house in southern England asked, "Is anybody there?" and a faint "Hello" came from beneath the tangled timbers. Each time the leader called he got the same reply. Finally his workers pulled out a parrot.

Thursday, November 30, just before the kickoff of the Pampa-Plainview football game, blond Dorothy June Johnson was crowned the Harvesters football queen for 1944 by Eugene Turner, captain, now a member of Uncle Sam's Navy.

Attending her were Colleen Chisholm, and Wanda Jay who were escorted by Merle McCracken and Joe Cree.

Dorothy wore a green and gold robe with a bouquet of golden mums.

Becoming a member of the National Honor Society is her latest achievement, however she is also a member of the Tri-Hi-Y, works in the attendance office, secretary of the student council and portrayed Paula in the senior play.

Colleen and Wanda, two senior brunettes, are members of National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll and the Little Harvester staff. Both are again office assistants for the principal's office and were seen in "Janie" with Wanda playing the leading role. Colleen played the part of Bernadine.

658 Pampa High Exes Including Eight Graduating Seniors Now Serving For Uncle Sam in Armed Forces Home, Abroad

Increasing the number of Pampa High exes to 658 now in the service were the eight boys, members of the 1945 graduating class, who went into the armed forces of the United States this year. Although these eight boys will not be present to take place in the graduation exercises, their diplomas will be given to their parents.

Handsome, curly-haired Gene Barber is one of these eight boys whose smiling face is now among the ranks of Uncle Sam's Army Air Corps. Gene is stationed in Roswell, N. M., while waiting to be sent to pre-flight. During his high school days, Gene was a member of the Harvester band, and was also an active member of the state guard.

Outstanding in high school was Brent Blonkvist, now serving duty from San Diego's portholes. Brent had a major role in this year's senior play, "Janie," and prior to high school days, he was voted best citizen in Junior High.

Black-haired Dale Connor, one of PHS's most active boys, was interested in math and science. He had taken these two subjects as majors during high school. Dale is now in Georgia.

Making all-district guard while playing for the 1944 Harvester football team was Herky Lane, who is now an "old salt." Herky was outstanding in athletics during his high school days. He played football for three years.

Quiet Wayne Reeve is another Pampa High student who is now seeing duty in the Navy of the United States. Wayne was an excellent student while in high school. His majors were math and science.

Dale Thut, who participated in all high school activities, is now in San Diego waiting to be sent to radar school. Dale was in the top third of his class while attending high school.

Another of PHS's outstanding students is now taking "boot" training in San Diego is Johnny Campbell. Johnny excelled in football, basketball, track, boxing, tennis and was also president of student council.

Eugene Turner, last but not least of the eight boys, is also in San Diego. Gene, as he was known to all, was an all-around athlete, participating in football, basketball and track.

Three boys who deserve special mention are Jack Moorehead, John Hyatt and Grover Townsend. These three boys were called into the service of their country before they had completed enough work to receive a diploma, but these boys were not to be stopped. They carried on their school work by correspondence and have now completed it. Their diplomas will be given to them or their parents at the graduation exercises May 24.

There are several other boys who would have graduated with the class of '45, but were called into the service before the second semester of their senior year; therefore these boys are not listed with the above eight who will receive diplomas.

Li. Behrens Is In African ATC

Special to The Little Harvester

ATC AIR BASE, ALGIERS—First Lt. Charles L. Behrens, son of Mrs. and Mr. Charles J. Behrens, 711 N. Somerville, is the assistant Navigation and Briefing officer, Algiers, North African Division, Air Transport Command. His job calls for checking navigational papers, and seeing to it that out-going crews understand the details. In an area that includes the Mediterranean and the Atlas Mountains, Lieutenant Behrens has a particularly exacting and important job.

Behrens attended Denton public school, Temple High school, and the Hillsboro Junior college. He entered the Army in June 1941; as a student he was in the Army Air Forces Navigational school, Texas, the 21st Transition Training Detachment, Washington, and the 3rd Operations Washington, and the 3rd Operational Training Unit, Reno, Nev. Prior to coming overseas seven months ago he was a navigator based at Long Beach, California.

Before being assigned to NAFD base at Algiers, Lt. Behrens was at Tripoli. During his foreign stay he has visited Casablanca, Marrakech, Tunis, Oran, Tel-A-Viv and Jerusalem. Algiers he rates as the best city because "it is the cleanest."

Li. Behrens' wife is the former Miss Margaret Carol Wentworth, who resides with her parents at 230 W. Nopal, Uvalde, Tex.

PHS Has Busy Year in Aiding Effort For Victory, Speedy Reconstruction

With the success of the tin drive projects ended for the year in high school. Many contributions to the war effort have been made in 1945.

Helen Kiser, sophomore, was in charge of the tin can drive at school. She placed boxes in the halls and through the weekly "Hi-

School Notes" radio program, of which she is editor, urged student and teachers to bring contributions to this effort to collect tin. Many of the cans were given by the cafeteria. After a sufficient amount of tin was brought, an army truck from the local air base collected the vital metal. In this way students helped to furnish metal needed to make syrettes needed by the medical corps.

Pampa High school also sponsored a clothing drive to relieve war-stricken people in Europe. Many students, teachers, and mothers brought clothes to swell the amount contributed to the quota of 2000 pounds. Pictured above is a replica of a poster that was used to remind forgetful contributors. This drawing was done by Rev. Russell G. West, local pastor and teacher. After collecting the clothes, homemaking students packed the clothes in boxes ready for shipment.

The band played at several of the bond rallies, doing their bit to help out. They also played for the VE Day program, which will long be remembered.

The A Cappella choir has made several appearances at the local air base to sing for the men stationed there. Individual groups of students have also entertained there, chiefly appearing at the hospital in connection with the Red Cross.

The Last Straw

15th AAF IN ITALY—Even in Germany, where things are hardly normal, haystacks seldom are found parked across railroad tracks. So 2nd Lt. Harry J. Tyndale, Staten Island, N. Y., swooped low in his P-38 Lightning to investigate. Close inspection showed it was an elaborately camouflaged locomotive. Tyndale brought his 50-caliber machine guns and 20-millimeter cannon into play to destroy his third locomotive for the day—and his first mobile haystack.

BETTER FOODS FOR LESS

Sagebrush--

by the Sage

Well, it's over for the seniors but just starting for the lower classmen and from what we hear, it will be plenty "tuff!" But let's forget about such things for a few minutes of the high school personalities and news on the lighter side.

That sparkle mentioned several weeks ago in Sage that was to be added to Joye Hale's ring third finger left hand has finally been added. Joe Cree was the fellow who did it (that is the way we had it figured all time). Joe left for duty in the Merchant Marine Cadets Tuesday.

Graduation is on the minds of nearly all the students. And gifts are flying thick and fast to those who will be leaving high school soon. Many are receiving watches, luggage, identification bracelets and bonds, yet one of the most interesting gifts I have seen is the ring sent Winnie Cox from her grandmother in San Angelo. It is a ruby solitaire set in a gold mounting. But this is what is interesting. The set is from a ring that belonged to her great uncle. Something, isn't it?

The love bug has "bit" again. This time it's Jean Beagle. The sparkle in her eye is now also on her finger. Charlie Hatcher popped the question and got the affirmative answer.

In summing up the year, we find that Jim Pyles is the only student who ever fell out of his chair in typing, bookkeeping and shorthand. We wager that he has the greatest number of falls of all the eligible males in PHS.

The Tri-Hi-Y reported good results from their trip to PAAF hospital in connection with the Red Cross recreation program last Wednesday. Shirley Sone, president, said that it helped their morale whether it did anything for the soldiers or not.

HA 2-c Brent Blomkvist, formerly just plain Brent to PHS students, was seen in the halls during the past week. He arrived Saturday morning last week and left last Thursday. He will continue at Balboa Hospital.

A newswome twosome is Delmer Belflower and Mildred Groves. We think that maybe Del will finally settle down to a select few.

Randall Clay seems to have had a wonderful time in Austin with an old acquaintance Colleen Bergen of Pampa. She had a friend for Bill Dixon also. By the way Randy's theme song is "Candy" except that it is spelled with an "R." last week.

One telephone call at noon is rapidly becoming a part of the office routine. The conversation goes something like this: "Hello, Mother. Did the mailman bring me any more presents?" The conversationalist is Anna Barnett.

Choir members said that "a merry time was had by all" at the choir picnic held at the Price ranch last Wednesday.

"Till next year, this is Sage signing '30."

THE SPIRIT MOVES

ESKIMOS 10 MILES
PROBISHER BAY, Baffin Island, Canada—(AP)—Every Sunday a small group of parka-covered Eskimos travel ten miles to hear a sermon read by an officer of the AAF Air Transport Command here.

There is no chaplain permanently quartered at this isolated base of the far northeast coast of Canada. To keep Sunday holy and aid morale of the men stationed here, officers read a weekly sermon written and forwarded by Chaplain (Maj.) William V. Morgan, stationed at Manchester, N. H.

Eskimos rarely miss these Sunday services. Most of them don't understand a word but have learned the Lord's Prayer and fundamental religion from missionaries.

To provide facilities for the busy 578 miles of New York's waterfront, 722 piers are required.

Class Will for 1945 Is Found In Annals of Ancient History

"We, the senior class of 1945, residing in Pampa High school, being of sound (?) mind and disposing memory (?) do make, ordain, publish and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament."

No class can leave without making its last will of the good and bad times they have experienced in their High school days. Therefore, this space has been given to me to act as executor for the members of the senior class to will their last High school possessions to the lower-classmen.

Joann Lazar has made known her intent to will her shorthand ability to Helen Kiser, for if Helen takes shorthand, she will need all the help she can get!

Marjorie Gaylor hands to Nicki Frasher her major roles in the junior and senior plays.

To Doris Shackelford go Marjorie Roth's good times in Mr. Steele's office.

Martha Sue Sheely wills her "soda jerkin" ability to the next jerk in line.

Shirley Sone wills her long dark brown hair to Joan Hawkins.

The responsibility of Bob Carmichael's lunch route now goes to Don Lane and Burke Mordy.

Colleen Chisholm's position of an all-around swell girl is willed to Beverly Candler.

Ruby Mae Kelley gives her red hair to the Mathieu twins, Frances and Edna.

Doris Jones wills his companionship with Curg Clauder to anyone who will risk a ride with him.

Bob Cochran wills his place as Cinderella to any junior with so nice a figure.

Eugene Turner wills his quiet efficiency to Jimmy Terrell.

And now for a few joint wills—Joe Cree and Joye Hale glacially will their many lovers' quarrels to Jimmy Terrell and Joanne Conrod.

The perfect couple goes to Joye Cloud and Gene Lively from Johnny Campbell and Wanda Jay.

Jean Beagle and Harold Rhinehart will their places in chemistry class to some innocent sophomores.

Anna Lou McCoy, the redhead with the best disposition, bequeaths her hours after school for journalism to Beverly Baker, who has had some experience in that line even as a sophomore.

Dorothy June Johnson, the girl on the student council officer staff, leaves all receipts and records to Lucille Smith, a junior who has started in the direction of leadership for her class.

Herky Lane's reputation as "Wolf" (before he left Pampa High for the Navy) he leaves with Ronald Lewter.

Wayne Barnes wills his jalopy to Glen Roenfeldt, who must promise to take the consequences.

Lee Parks wills reluctantly his sixth hour English chair to whatever boy has ambitions in that direction.

Bill Dixon wills his ability to make startling announcements to anyone willing to take the rap—maybe Dick McCune.

Wayne Fable wills his clowning to Porky Parkinson. He recommends, "Just know when to put on the soft pedal."

Juanita Reeves leaves the general good will and her achievements in the commercial department to some good, steady and bright junior with leanings to Mary Frances Jones.

Vard Smith as he leaves Mr. Robbins and the Harvester band bequeaths his seventh chair in the cornet section to Tommy Riggs.

Jane Babb, math shark, leaves her chair in shorthand to some meek student who will follow instructions.

Joella Shelton, senior cheer leader, leaves all the troubles to Erma Lee Kennedy. Patsy Pierson has already been elected to step into Wanda Jay's work as head cheer leader.

Just in case students will miss the bright remarks from Ramona Cheely next year, she passes them on to Louise Clark and Quebell Nelson.

Eddie Zane Graves is known for her fun in physical education. She leaves all her share to Alice Jean Robinson, who may wish to share some of it with Beverly Candler and Patsy Miller.

Patsy Walker was the first High school girl to begin flying seriously. She leaves the runways clear for Betty Jean Reynolds and Margaret Jones to continue their solo flying without her company.

David Caldwell suggests his height be added to Frank Stallings in hopes that the two might make a man like Daris Jones or Ernest Hoyer, three and four inches over six feet.

Joanne Holden's affection for out-of-town boys she leaves to whatever girl has the same inclinations.

Bety Holt's ability to acquire nicknames she leaves to Randall Clay, who may want to apply some of them to the next girl in line.

Although Dale Thut is in the Navy and has little to say about this will, we pass his part as "Dead Pan" to Don Loshier, whose face has never been broken by a smile.

Anna Lois Alford's figure would be a goal for almost any little junior—Joyce Could might apply.

Winnie Cox enjoyed choir immensely this year. Her good times she leaves with Miss Scheihagen to issue to any soprano who can get serious when the time requires it. It could be Phyllis Ann Parker.

My Jo Gallemore's can-can is left to Betty Reynolds.

Gene Stepp's piccolo technique and Pied Piper part he leaves to some unknown cornet player who will of necessity change over to piccolo playing in the vacant places left by the two seniors who are leaving.

Edwin Blanton says he leaves his place on the bench to Jack Hood.

Bonnie McBee ledvies all rights she may have attained as piano artist for Shariyn Poock, Wanda Gordon, Tracy Cary and others who aspire.

Jean Paxson's quiet ability at getting things done goes to Kathryn Rose, who will not be that quiet but perhaps as efficient.

Duane Hogsett has already arranged for Frank Stallings to take his linotype job on the school paper. Frank must take care not to let anything happen to him for no other High school student is ready to step in next September.

Marilyn Keck wills her locker mirror to all the junior girls that use it.

If pies persist in boiling over, bake them at 450° 25 minutes and then reduce the heat to 350° for the remainder of the baking time.

FAREWELL SENIORS

Twelve years may sound like a long time; yet when our twelfth year is finished we feel as though we had just begun. This is the time when we say goodbye to all the things that make up high school.

Taking the place of the school dances, the football games viewed from the rooting section, and the work on high school papers and annuals will be a place in the business world for some as others will continue on a much larger scale in a college or university many times larger than this school.

Many of the boys will enter a world quite different—the armed forces. Here their high school characters will contact those men from all parts of the world and all walks of life. They will become, over night, men in the world instead of the high school boys they were considered to be yesterday.

But it is such as this that has made men for ages—men who built a nation so great as this. We seniors say farewell to familiar high school experiences and look with eagerness to new worlds to conquer.

has been a member of the student council, paper and annual staffs and an office assistant. During her junior and senior years she was attendant to the football team. She was junior cheer leader last year and advanced to the position of head cheer leader this year.

Wanda is five feet, one and one-half inches tall and weighs 107 pounds. She is one of those lucky persons who can wear either "fussy" or strictly tailored clothes. Wanda has become well known through her fashion column which appears in the Little Harvester. She also presents a weekly radio commentary on fashions over the High School notes program.

Tall, dark and handsome Calvin McAdams was elected the "Most Handsome Boy." Calvin, who is classified as a sophomore, is six feet one inch tall and weighs 164 pounds. His favorite subject is biology. His friends guess that Mrs. J. B. Austin, his home room teacher, is his favorite teacher.

Other girl contestants included Mildred Overstreet, second place winner, Anna Lois Alford, Norma Jo Brown, Colleen Chisholm, Leatrice Willis, Gloria Jay and Dorothy Johnson.

Boy contestants included Wimpy Vaughn, second place winner, Randall Clay, third place winner, Jack Hood, Bob Troop, Johnny Campbell, Bob Cochran and Joe Cree.

Don Rowe '45 All-Favorite Johnny Campbell Runner-Up

Meet the All-School Favorite of 1945, likeable Don Rowe, who received this honor after hot competition from Johnny Campbell. The school appears to prefer juniors for last year Johnny Campbell, a junior then, was given this honor.

Sports highlight Don's life which is keenly shown by the ability he has displayed in writing them. This won him the position of sports editor for the Little Harvester. Not only is Don a member of the Quill and Scroll, but he is also the vice-president of this organization; and was elected vice-president of his class.

Rightly elected senior favorites were Irish Colleen Chisholm and John Robert Lane who are both members of the National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll, office assistants, senior class officers, appeared in "Janie" and took an active part in the publication of the Little Harvester, of which John Robert is co-editor.

St. Mary college at Xavier, Kans. is where Colleen plans to attend while John Robert chooses to finish his education, carrying out his ability to write, wants to attend the University of Missouri.

Leading cheer for the past year was Erma Lee Kennedy who was elected junior girl favorite. She was seen in room 100 quite often during the past year for she contributed her artistic talents to the '45 Harvester. She is a member of Quill and Scroll and sings in the A Cappella choir.

Newly elected captain of the 1945 Harvesters is Jimmy Terrell who was elected junior favorite. Sports occupy most of Jimmy's time for he was also sports reporter for "Hi-School Notes" during the past year. Singing bass in the A Cappella choir as well as being a member of Quill and Scroll are just a few of Jim's achievements.

Receiving the honor of band queen as well as sophomore girl favorite for the past year was Gloria Jay. She was also nominee for the most beautiful girl.

Industrious Bill Bain was elected favorite boy from the sophomore class. Bill's scholastic standing is above 90 and he is a member of the student council. His interest is great in the field of athletics.

Showing her remarkable ability in twirling with the Green and Gold band is Mary Lou Mazey, freshman

W. E. Adams Teaches Boys Work Vital to War Effort in Machine Shop

After a year's work in the Pampa High machine shop with Mr. W. E. Adams, a student is ready to earn money as a machinist or to take up one of Uncle Sam's courses with a background of which he is proud.

Machines worth $250 each are being made each year by boys on the high school campus under the direction of a mature teacher who has had 27 years of actual experience in such work.

With cast iron castings worth $40 this machine, a milling machine makes gears and cuts keyways, explained the shop instructor, Mr. Adams. "Now this one cost us nothing. Castings free; it was left down state from the days of the NYA regime. Our supervisor saw this came our way."

The afternoon class numbering 15 boys has built all the blacksmith equipment and the forges which melt aluminum, copper and various types of non-ferrous metals. It can register a temperature of 2000 degrees Fahrenheit, pointed out the teacher.

Aside from actual construction projects involving molding, welding and dye cutting, the shop repairs any kind of metal break which occurs about the school.

More than 100 chairs alone have been brought out for repair work this year. The boys do all the welding and bracing necessary to repair the furniture. Each of these jobs might have cost the custodian $2 each to have them repaired in a downtown shop, estimated the instructor.

Mr. Adams picked up a gear. "Now not many people appreciate the math necessary to plan and make this part. A whole book could be written girl favorite. She placed first in individual twirling at Canyon.

Dependable Richard Hughes was chosen freshman boy favorite; however his popularity is unlimited for he was also chosen class president.

He is a member of the student council and has a great love of sports.

ten on the subject."

Boys learn that bearings must be a different metal from the post of the machine. When a bearing turns in a case of the same material it is said to seize, freeze or pick up the passing piece. This was learned when some new pieces of work was examined.

Dye machines have been made and recently a variety of dyes were cast. The boys have been making bridle rosettes and buttons from sheet aluminum.

The plan for cleaning the machines when the day is done, the accuracy with which tools are handled, the blanks for reporting projects completed—all these are typical of the precision of the course.

When asked how the accidents stacked up, the instructor looked pleased and answered, "We have a two-year clear record. Not one accident has occurred which occasioned loss of time. Once in a while a boy breaks the skin as he might do working around the back at home with a hammer."

Mr. Adams continued, "We stress safety. Every year brings a beginning class. Safe working habits are part of the course."

What about girls? Would you let girls into the class?

Mr. Adams was ready with this:

"Certainly, girls would be accepted if they should show an interest in this field. With women in factories today, it is really a wonder some of the mechanical-minded girls have not been asking for the course."

In a room containing classroom furniture were cabinets built for supplies and notebooks. "The notebooks are never taken from the building. Boys built these cabinets," observed the shop teacher.

One of the students, Kenneth Stephens, stepped up and suggested,

Have you explained how we take notes on Monday, study the plan and make blueprints on Tuesday and finally get to make the part or tool or machine we have studied later in the week?"

Two boys worked inside the tool room putting everything in its place. Before the school bell for dismissal sounded the tool room man, Roy Noland, reported to the teacher, "All satisfactory, Mr. Adams."

Some persons recommend that boys who can or will not learn be sent out to machine shop to "work with their hands." That is the wrong plan, according to Mr. Adams. "We need boys who can pass courses, who can learn whatever they try to learn. The only work here for hands only is with the broom, and we don't use that."

Looking about over the west end of the shop, Mr. Adams remarked, "We have made all the tool benches you see. The job of building the needed tools and benches is part of the work out here. The boys learned how to use the torch and welding machine by actual experience and by putting into practice what they learned in theory in classwork."

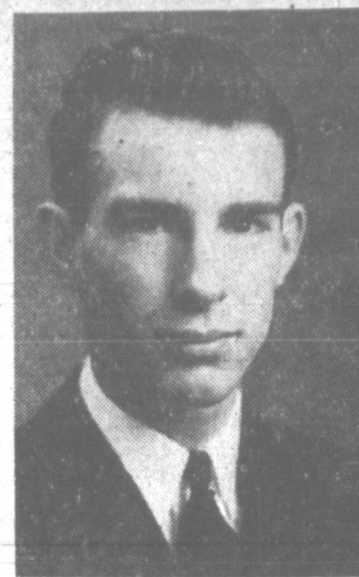

Summing up the tour of the shop, the teacher observed, "We have the best equipped machine shop in the state of Texas, and we are proud of it."

Special tribute was given to Burl Williams and Gene Robbins who rate the highest grades.

Campbell, Cree, Johnson, Dixon Lead Council Through Profitable Year

Campbell, president

Cree, vice-president

Johnson, secretary

Dixon, treasurer

The student body of Pampa High school for the term of 1945 could not have had a more prominent president than Johnny Campbell. By representing Pampa High school in all sports, people all over the state have become familiar with his name and ability. The Harvester basketball and football team boasted Johnny for three years. He was a trackman and won second at the state meet last year in the mile run. Last month he was crowned champ at the Amarillo Golden Gloves Tournament. Not to be outdone by anyone, Johnny took up tennis this year. As a result he is probably the only five letterman to be turned out by this school.

Sports were not the only field in which Johnny excelled. His dramatic ability placed him in the junior and senior plays. He was also a favorite with his class mates. They elected him president of his sophomore and junior classes. While a junior Johnny was elected all-school favorite. Just before he left for the Navy in April, the faculty selected him for the National Honor Society.

People from this section of the state will remember Johnny Campbell as the little 125 pound athlete from Pampa. We of PHS will remember Johnny for his friendliness and happy-go-lucky attitudes. He will remain to us a laughing and dependable guy who led us through a very happy and active school year.

Serving the student council as vice-president was Joe Cree. Joe has held many offices during his high school career. He is president of the senior class this year and was vice-president of the junior class. Joe has been outstanding as a member of the basketball and football teams. The junior class chose him as their favorite last year. Joe entered the Merchant Marine on May 15, only a week before graduation.

Blonde Dorothy June Johnson acted as secretary to the student council. Dorothy was chosen Football Queen last fall and was also in the junior and senior plays. Her scholastic ability is proved by her membership in the National Honor Society. Dorothy is an office assistant working the sixth hour.

Acting as treasurer was Bill Dixon. He represented home room 102 in the council and was an active member of Quill and Scroll. Bill's voice became familiar through the radio program broadcasted each Thursday. Bill, an ace trackman, represented Pampa High school in the hurdles at the state meet in Austin this year.

Capable and dependable are perfect adjectives for Juanita Reeves, the historian for the student council. Her artistic talents made this year's section of the scrapbook outstanding; however Juanita did not confine her abilities to the scrapbook. You will find many of her original ideas in The Harvester, yearbook for this year, of which she was the editor. Juanita is a member of the National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll.

AIR SERVICE COMMAND IN ITALY—Sgt. Dan Carmichael of Detroit spoke no Italian. The Italian store proprietor spoke no English. So Carmichael had a tough time explaining that he wanted "Italy 1945" engraved on his heavy gold school ring to send as a souvenir to his wife in Pasadena.

Then Carmichael wanted to know how long the job will take. The proprietor didn't understand until the sergeant wrote out his question on a slip of paper. He told Carmichael it would be no trouble at all, to return the next day.

The following day the sergeant came back. The ring was ready. The old merchant handed it proudly across the counter. Carmichael took one brief look. In beautiful block letters right across the face of the ring were the words "HOW LONG."

HIGH POWERED TALK FOR FIGHTING YANKS

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A high-powered Army radio station, installed in France for communication with the United States, sends out approximately 400,000 words a day.

It was packed into 1,000 boxes and shipped across the channel. Forty-five soldier technicians did the reassembling job. Direct hook-ups with Washington, London and the Army radio communications system in Italy and Africa make possible the sending of messages along supply lines over 4,000 miles long.
