Eccles Urges 44-Hour Week As ESA Readies Freeze Order

West Plans Big 4 Parley With Russians

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States, Britain and France will soon open talks to determine what specific issues should be taken up in any meeting with Russia, aimed at easing world tensions.

Diplomatic officials said the three western powers have decided such talks should be held, starting even before it is known whether the Russians will agree to acceptable terms for a Big Four conference.

The first of the preliminary discussions is expected to be held when French Premier Rene Pleven comes to Washington Monday. Detailed conversations, however, probably will be carried on by British and French ambassadors here with the State Department.

Meanwhile, American officials were on the whole uncertain today whether the Russians would respond favorably to the latest western request for an explanation of what they are willing to discuss in any Big Four get-together.

The request was presented to Moscow Tuesday in identical notes from the three western powers. The text of these notes was made public in Washington, London and Paris last night.

Legislature In Disagreement

AUSTIN — (AP) — The first outward sign of disagreement between House and Senate developed as the 52nd Legislature met today.

House Speaker Reuben Senterfitt and his appropriations committee chief, Rep. Henry Rampey of Winters, differed with the Senate Finance Committee policy of rapid-fire public hearings on the major spending bills.

At the ruling of Senate Finance Committee Chairman Howard Carney of Atlanta, a subcommittee is limiting state departments to 15 minutes in which to protest tightly drawn recommendations of the legislative budget board. By contrast, a House subcommittee let Agriculture Commissioner John White plead his cause two and one-half hours.

"I like the policy adopted by the House Appropriations Committee," Senterfitt told a reporter. "The business of running the state government is a big one. It involves spending millions of dollars. The people are entitled to a reasonable time to present their case to the committee."

P-TA Association Hears Book Review

Pampa Parent-Teachers Assn. units will hear Mrs. John M. Merchant at a meeting at 8 p. m. today at the junior high school auditorium.

Mrs. Merchant will review two books by James Lee Ellenwood on child psychology. Mrs. W. L. Epps, vice-president of the P-TA City Council, will introduce the speaker.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Marriner S. Eccles today urged a 44-hour work week, "without overtime pay," a general wage freeze and limited price controls as anti-inflation measures.

Eccles, a member of the Federal Reserve Board and chairman until deposed by President Truman three years ago, gave his ideas to Senate-House Economic Committee.

His testimony came while the Economic Stabilization Agency was reported working on general price and wage freeze orders, expected in the next 24 hours. They may come late today but more probably some time tomorrow.

Adding pressure for swift government action was a rise in its cost of living index to a new peak.

Well-placed officials predicted prices would be pegged at Jan. 2 levels and paychecks at current wage rates — but with leeway for some workers to do considerably more bargaining.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics reported that its cost of living index hit a peak on Dec. 15, when it stood at 178.4 percent of the 1935-39 average. The Dec. 15 index was 1.6 percent higher than that of Nov. 15.

A climb of 6.5 percent in consumers prices occurred during 1950 up to mid-December, all but 1.6 percent of it after the beginning of the Korean conflict. Higher prices were reported for all the major groups of items which make up the budget of the moderate income family.

The index rose 1.5 percent in Dec. 15 was led by a 2.8 percent advance in food prices. That was the greatest move in the index in any one month since September 1947.

Even before imposition of the projected price-wage controls, Senator Flanders, who introduced the wage plans, as outlined yesterday by Chairman Cyrus S. Ching of ESA's Wage Stabilization Board, are not strict enough "by any means."

Flanders called for "just as rigid" in controlling wages as is being planned with respect to control of prices.

The senator said he will seek the views of Marriner Eccles, federal reserve board member and former chairman, at today's session of the Senate-House Economic Committee (10 a. m. EST).

Ching told the committee yesterday the policy now being drafted would permit "quite a bit of flexibility for collective bargaining." Some pay boosts, he stated, probably will be allowed on the basis of rises in living costs.

Tax Payments Exceed 3000

With the sale of 193 poll taxes Wednesday by the county tax assessor-collectors office and the granting of 25 exemptions, the number of eligible voters rose over the 3,000 mark.

Approximately 3,082 persons are now qualified to vote in Gray County elections. However, this does not include those who come under the military reservist-active or inactive-clause of the state Constitution. These persons are allowed to vote without either poll tax or exemption, providing they sign an affidavit on their status.

The nearest breakdown of eligible, so far as a definite list is concerned, shows county has 2,257 poll tax holders and 825 exemptions. This figure does not include poll taxes sold in the McLean sub tax office.

Deadline for paying poll taxes or securing exemptions is midnight Jan. 31.

Capt. William Ragdale, commander of the 474th FA Bn., National Guard, and a member of the staff of the Texas Employment Commission, here in Pampa, said: "Some of the finest soldiers I have ever seen were 18-year-olds."

"It is, and always has been, the policy of the Guard to enlist the younger men when they are still used to studying. They learn easier that way."

"I wouldn't be interested," he said, "in having an army of 18-year-olds. Not," he assured, "that such an army wouldn't be a good one. I think you just need some older heads around for more conservative thinking. You need," he explained, "the younger men for the drive that might be necessary, and the older ones for steady thinking and leadership."

"Personally I'm in favor of drafting the 18-year-olds."

The "military school boys" have their say, too. One said: "Veterans have had enough — those who saw any action — and they had to do it when they were 18. It's a hateful thing, but the present situation demands it and we may as well face it."

Another, Rev. H. H. Tyler, pastor of the First Christian Church, said: "In the situation we are now facing, it will be necessary to train these men. This fact must be recognized."

"Only a short time ago," he continued, "universal military training was a thing that we were very much against, but now it seems to be the only feasible answer. There is a definite need for training men now, and in order to have enough, the 18-year-old will have to be included."

"Concerning college careers," Tyler pointed out, "military training could, in answer to the problem, be made a part of the curriculum. They may have to provide facilities, equipment and faculty for this military training," he said. "This," he concluded, "is only a possibility."

Toney Jones, son of J. Herman Jones, gave the sentiments of high school boys who would be affected by the draft.

"The fellows are going ahead with their college career plans in spite of the danger of the bill's passing. If we do have to be drafted, we'll go ahead and join the service of our choice."

"But," he continued, "until the thing is a reality, we'll go on with our college plans." Jones said he

House Group Considers Plan To Stall 18-Year-Old Draft

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The House Armed Services Committee is conducting hearings on a plan to put off drafting 18-year-olds until the 19-to-26 manpower pool is exhausted.

An influential committee member who asked that he not be named said such a provision might be written into the manpower bill on which the group is conducting hearings.

In the meantime, Assistant Secretary of Defense Anna Rosenberg turned to Capitol Hill to continue her testimony in support of the measure. It calls for lowering the draft age to 18 and extending the period of service from 21 to 27 months.

The measure also includes a long-range plan for Universal Military Service and Training (UMST) urged by Secretary of Defense Marshall as a way to establish a reserve of trained men.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the committee told reporters Mrs. Rosenberg, who is in charge of the defense department's manpower planning, would be questioned for several more days.

Gen. Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, the military heads of the three services and Maj. Gen. Lewis Hershey, selective service director, also have been called to testify.

Vinson predicted the committee would accept a bill incorporating universal military training and amendments to the present draft law. Amendments are needed, if the nation is to reach the administration goal of nearly 3,500,000 in the armed forces by June, Vinson said. He did not indicate what form such amendments might take.

Ralph W. McDonald, a spokesman for the National Education Association, opposed the drafting of 18-year-olds. He proposed instead that the mental and physical standards for acceptance into the armed services be lowered.

McDonald told a Senate preparedness subcommittee yesterday the defense department plan if carried into effect would force many colleges and universities to close their doors and would "strike at the very heart of our system of education."

The Senate group also is holding hearings on the manpower bill. McDonald called the UMST plan "perhaps the most profound and revolutionary proposal respecting higher education in the United States that has been presented since the birth of the nation."

Dick Hughes, Pampa builder who is currently completing one of his top dreams, the Hughes office building on the corner of Somerville and Kingsmill, yesterday was elected secretary of the National Association of Homebuilders. The election was made at a Chicago convention of the group.

Hughes has been in the building business for several years, having large housing projects in Pampa, Borger, Wichita Falls and Amarillo. He has headed the Panhandle Home Builders Association.

President of the national organization is W. P. Atkinson of Oklahoma City.

'Dimes' Cavalcade On Stage Friday

"Cavalcade of Stars" goes on stage at 8:15 p. m. tomorrow and again at the same time Saturday night. The variety show will benefit the March of Dimes.

"Our debt from last year's cases is $200 and only $2700 has been received by the Gray County Chapter. We are beginning to feel a little desperate," Paul Brown, chairman of the city and county drive, said today.

"This show should bring in a large amount, but so far the tickets have gone pretty slowly," Brown went on.

Opening the big show will be the Pampa High School A Cappella Choir, under the direction of Kenneth Baumgardner. Their part of the program will include the semi-classical, "Up With Me into the Clouds," and the two Negro spirituals, "Joshua Fit de Battle Ob Jericho" and "Cindy, a boys quartette from high school will present two selections: "I Got Shoes" and "Keep In De Middle Ob De Road."

Soloists scheduled to appear on the variety show are Miss June Quill, Miss Jamie Branson and Miss Dorothy Mears.

Few North Koreans Flushed By Patrols

TOKYO — (AP) — Red-hunting allied armored patrols probed the central Korean warfront today amid mounting speculation that the quarry had quietly pulled out.

There was no enemy contact Wednesday night except for a minor patrol clash near Yoji, 40 miles southeast of the abandoned South Korean capital of Seoul.

A few Korean Reds were encountered in the same general area, north of Kumyangjang and Ichon.

U. S. intelligence officers said the apparent absence of Red troops in force south of the Han River, which twists around Seoul, may mean the Chinese have made a large-scale withdrawal to the north.

There was speculation that the Chinese are awaiting political developments in the United Nations, meanwhile using Red Koreans to patrol the no-man's land into which UN patrols have been poking all week.

But allied air power gave the Reds no rest far behind the lines. Warplanes plastered military targets throughout North Korea. The town of Chunchon was wrecked.

More Russian-type planes were thrown into the air war with Yak night fighters attacking American B-26s on night intruder missions Wednesday night. It was one of their few appearances in the Korean war. No damage was caused by the enemy planes.

A strong allied patrol powered its way through slight enemy opposition to retake the town of Hoengsong, 10 miles north of rubbled Wonju and 33 miles south of the "itch target" but without a little farther.

American planes made a heavy air attack on the town Thursday, indicating the Reds had reoccupied former positions. Strongest Communist forces in the Hoengsong area at last reports were North Korean Reds.

AP Correspondent William J. Waugh at Eighth Army Headquarters reported 3,000 North Koreans and Chinese 11 miles northwest of Yoji. He said these troops were digging in, evidently for a fight.

An observer reported seeing civilians digging entrenchments in a hill three miles south of Kumyangjang. Air strikes disrupted their work.

One allied patrol took high ground northwest of Yongwol, tungsten mining town 13 miles east of Chechon on the central eastern front. Yongwol was retaken Wednesday by United Nations troops who have been previously identified in that area.

Scattered enemy guerrilla forces were reported by agents and patrols throughout the area south of Chechon, Tanyang and Yongwol. The infiltrators apparently are trying to disrupt allied supply lines there.

In Chunchon, both B-26s and F-80 Shooting Stars hammered at Chunchon, U. S. Fifth Air Force Maj. Gen. Earle E. Partridge said the central Korean town was fire bombed and riddled with 50 calibre machinegun bullets.

Maj. Edgar Beam of Ball, North Carolina, said many fires were started in the town.

Jet Pilot Says MIGs Destructible

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — American F-84's "can knock any Russian jet out of the sky," says an Air Force pilot who is one down in a recent aerial battle over Korea.

"Our planes are more maneuverable and more rugged. The MIG seems to explode very easily," First Lt. Russell J. Brown of nearby Pasadena told a news conference yesterday.

"Should they go in again," said a local man, "it would mean just as many of them were getting on their feet again after serving from two to four years in the service and spending three to five years going to college, they would again be taken into the army and thrown for another loss from which they might not recover."

"It's unfair to us," said a veteran who was drafted at the age of 18. "If we weren't too young to fight in the last war with less than a year's training, then these fellows aren't too young to go for 21 or 27 months of military training. They might not have fought. We did."

San Antonio Reports Polio

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — The first 1951 polio cases for San Antonio and Bexar County were reported today. Also at a hospital were the first two non-resident cases.

The San Antonio victim is a five-year-old boy and the county patient a two-year-old boy.

Pampans Register Mixed Feelings On Proposal To Draft 18-Year-Olds

With the issue of whether or not to draft the 18-year-old getting hotter and hotter, both in Washington and in local circles, a number of Pampans were asked by The News to have their say on the subject.

Under the present emergency, if there is one, I do not think the 18-year-old should be drafted," said John Studer, local attorney and chairman of the local selective service board, No. 52.

"If we have an all-out war," he continued, "they should and will be utilized, and," he went on, "if the powers in Washington believe that we will be in an all-out war within the next few months or the next year, then I think they should draft the 18-year-olds. Otherwise, I think they should not."

"Until I took this position on the draft board," Studer said, "I could not see just how hard the 18-year-old draft is on the parents. Now I can see why the individual parent looks with disfavor on such a plan and why he cannot see the necessity of the 18-year draft."

Studer said that every day he gets calls from parents wanting to know if the bill is going to be passed and just how it will affect their 18-year-old sons.

and the other youths feel that they should not have to go before veterans.

One of the many mothers who would be affected by the draft through the loss of her son, who is barely 18, has written several congressmen with her arguments and has received replies from them. She says that the majority of them see it her way.

Her argument is that 18-year-olds are not mature enough to evade the "rotten influences" of army life. They are still adolescents, she says. Her argument is that drafting these boys would deplete the country in the future of well-educated men because there would be no time to train their minds as they should be trained.

Frank W. Wilson, principal of Pampa High School, said: "An overall manpower pattern should be worked out concerning the requirement of fighting men so as to get away from a half-way job."

"What is to be decided," he pointed out, "should be decided now because of the psychological effect on the boys themselves. Their attitude," Wilson continued, "is now is to just finish high school without too much interest in college because they figure they won't have time to go."

Jones Seitz, commander of the local post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, put his opinion in a few words. "As things stand right now, I'm not sure if they should draft them or not, but if things get really tough, then I'd be in favor of drafting the 18-year-olds."

Bill Waters, veteran of World War II, and county attorney of Gray County, said: "I went in when I was 18 and I don't consider it too young. I see very little difference in a person who is 18, 18 and 12 or 19 years old."

"I didn't go overseas until I was 19 and I think that is a good thing. I think that before they draft the 18-year-old, he should have a minimum of six to eight months of training before being sent overseas, regardless of age."

Foster Whaley, assistant county agent and veteran of the past war, said: "I think that before they draft the 18-year-old, he should be given the right to vote. If he is old enough to be drafted into the army, then he is mature enough to vote."

"Personally, I'm in favor of it, provided it doesn't interfere with the youth's high school and provided that they go through with

'Voice' Showing Differences Between Nicolai Lenin, Stalin

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The "Voice of America" has seized on Communist observation of the 75th anniversary of Nicolai Lenin's death to tell the Soviet bloc's peoples that Joseph Stalin is an unfaithful heir and disciple of the Bolshevik leader.

To counter Moscow propaganda linking Stalin with the Soviet pioneer, the State Department in broadcasts to Russia and eastern Europe is waging a campaign based largely on quotations from Lenin's writings.

Contrasting these with what has taken place since Stalin took over Lenin's place in Russia, the "Voice" said also that events have proved Lenin wrong in his judgment that imperialism was the last stage of capitalism. While the U. S., Britain and other powers have voluntarily given up colonies the Soviet Union has now become "the leading imperialist power in the world," said one State Department commentary broadcast in several languages.

MILITARY COST NEARS WARTIME FIGURE—Estimated cost of the armed services in fiscal 1952 is compared above with past years, showing steady rise in military costs during "cold war" period. The Korean war and current peril of World War III boost 1952's estimate to nearly twice what will be spent this fiscal year, which ends June 30. The new military budget is within $4 billion of the 1946 expenditures, which covered the last part of World War II and the beginning of demobilization.

Little Artillery Liaison Ships Carry Out Dangerous Missions

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
SOMEWHERE IN KOREA — (AP) — There are patched bullet holes in every one of the 15 little artillery liaison planes parked on the short and very rough Korean airstrip.

A lieutenant, one of the men who flies these planes to call the shots for the artillery, said: "You have an extremely naked feeling when you're low over enemy territory in one of these jobs."

He is Lt. Moses Lewis of Emporia, Kas. Lewis is typical of the artillery liaison pilots at this airstrip. All are veterans of the second world war. All have a tremendous number of missions over enemy lines — from 200 to 300.

The liaison pilots help seek out targets for artillery and then hover over the targets and direct the fire. "Our little planes are unarmed but they can call in more fire power than a battleship," said Capt. Troy B. Hammons of Tacoma, Wash. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hammons of Canyon, Tex.

"You can hear it when the enemy is cracking away at you with rifles," Hammons added. Maj. Robert L. Hoffman of Portsmouth, Ohio, said, "our men fly on days when air force planes are grounded — even when it is snowing and the visibility is terrible."

DES MOINES — (AP) — Hugo Wilcken, of Davenport, an auctioneer who has conducted sales in Iowa for almost 50 years, is cancelling some 20 sales for farmers who were planning to retire. The farmers have turned their backs on a life of ease and decided to stay on the job producing food in the current crisis.

Wilcken says prices for farm machinery have shown a marked increase lately. There has been an increase in bidders, particularly for good, late-model equipment. Used tractors, for example, are going for as high as $2,000, he states.

Falling Bag Is Pilot's Only Mishap In 33 Years Of Flying

CAPT. FRED V. CLARK; At 60, he has no talent for loafing.

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Somewhere between Frankfurt and Berlin, airline pilot Capt. Fred V. Clark reached for his briefcase. It was on the bottom of a pile of luggage, and a valve fell off the top of the stack and cracked his collar-bone.

That accident happened last October, just about two months before Clark retired, at the age of 60, as a pilot for Pan American World Airways. It was the only accident Shorty Clark ever had in 33 years of flying.

In the 33 years, including 13 in the Navy, Clark flew more than 21,450 hours. Statisticians estimate he covered more than 2,000,000 miles. And, in all that time, he's never had an accident, nor has any passenger ever so much as suffered a scratch.

Shorty — he's only five feet four — insists that his safety record isn't unusual. He says there are a lot of pilots who fly just as carefully and safely as he does.

"Most accidents," he says, "are caused by carelessness. The best safety precaution is for a pilot to follow every instruction of the CAA and the airline. Es-

Commies Rescue Jap Captives

FUKUOKA, JAPAN — (AP) — Kyodo News Agency reported today that a Chinese Communist vessel slipped into this southern Japanese port and released 54 Japanese fishermen captured in December.

Kyodo said the fishermen, crewmen of five boats seized in the East China sea, were wearing Chinese Red Army uniforms.

One of the men, Tokuo Yamamoto, was quoted:

"After we were captured we were interned in Shanghai's nationalized fishery corporation for over a month and never allowed to step out of the compound. The treatment, especially food, was not bad."

London Gazette Sale Stopped

LONDON — (AP) — For the first time in 280 years, Britain's government today stopped the sale of the military supplement to the official London Gazette.

The war office explained it requested a temporary ban on the supplement, which announces routine promotions and retirements of Army officers.

A red-faced official said the

JACOBY ON CANASTA

You Can Use Entire Hand To Meld When Not Going Out

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Here's an interesting question from one of my readers that deals with using up all your cards for an initial meld.

Q—The discard pile contained 10 cards, and it was my turn to play. I held four kings, four queens, and three jacks. The card at the top of the discard pile was a jack. To make the initial meld of 120 points I had to put down my entire hand; and I also had to count the top card of the discard pile. The opponents said my meld was not possible; that I could not put down my entire hand for a meld unless I could meld out. Were they right?

A—No. You are allowed to put down your entire hand for a meld when you are not going out, provided that after taking the discard pile you will still have at least one card left in your hand. In this case, you would get a discard pile of ten cards. You would meld one of those ten cards (the jack), discard one, and still have eight cards left.

Q—Can a player meld four black threes with three wild cards and count the meld as a canasta?

A—No. There is no such thing as a canasta of black threes.

Q—My side had no canasta, and I was down to one card—a queen. I drew a deuce and melded it; but then could not discard since we still had no canasta. Was it proper for me to say "pass" and thus avoid discarding?

A—No. Until a hand comes to an end, each player must make a discard at his turn. You are never allowed to skip that discard, and it doesn't help you to say "pass" or to knock on the table. You just have to make the discard. In the situation described, the player cannot meld the deuce because that would leave him without a discard. The player must discard either the deuce or the queen (as he chooses), and he keeps the other card in his hand.

Q—I held the following cards: Joker - 2, Q-Q-Q, 8-8-5-4-A. If the top card of the discard pile is a queen, can I put down my three queens and my three wild cards to take the queen and make the required count of 120 points?

A—Yes; that would be a perfectly legal meld. It would also be a desirable play if the discard pile contained a few cards in addition to the queen. Otherwise you would be left with only four odd cards, and the opponents would almost surely win control of the discard pile.

Q—Are you ever allowed to take a discard pile that consists of only one card?

A—Yes. You may (if you wish) take a discard pile of one card provided that your own hand consists of more than one card. However, you cannot take a one-card pile when your hand is down to only one card.

Q—Are you ever allowed to take the discard pile when you have only one card in your hand?

A—Yes. Provided that the discard pile contains more than one card.

Demos To Hold Annual Dinner

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Democratic Party's Jefferson-Jackson dinners to raise funds will be held as usual this year.

National Chairman William M. Boyle, Jr., announced last night the committee will place "special emphasis upon the state dinners this year" because the national emergency makes it difficult for persons who normally come to Washington to get away from their duties.

Henry Finds That It's Much Better To Be Man Than Doll

By HENRY McEMORE

I may be wrong, but to me it seems that the guys have it one better than the dolls.

If it weren't for wear and tear on my few suits I'd drop to my knees every day and thank my lucky stars that I wasn't born a chick.

All one has to do to realize that we guys have it easier than the dolls is to read the newspapers and magazines, all of which have at least one column or article devoted to what a woman must do to retain or improve her beauty.

Women, it appears, aren't supposed ever to be homely or dowdy. Age must not put wrinkles in their faces or fat around their middles.

Their hands must be as youthful in appearance as when they are men who do this sort of thing, I suppose, but they are as scarce as a hoarse voice at a hoy calling contest.

Women believe—from reading the women's pages, I suppose—that to hold their husbands they should spend twelve hours a day trying to look just as they did when they walked down the aisle and mama cried.

Men accept marriage as a much more comfortable thing than women do. No suitor ever kicked off his shoes when courting, but let a man be married a few years and he can't wait to kick off his shoes, loosen his tie, let his belt out a few notches, and make his home a haven of rest and comfort.

When a man courts he gets his hair cut every week or so, sees to it that his shoes are shined, can't wait to run clean around a car to open the door for his intended, and send flowers and candy even on occasions as Arbor Day and Lincoln's birthday.

But once the "I do" is finished with he ceases up. He says to himself, I have waged a long and wearisome campaign to gain my objective, and like every combat

U.S. GI's Attitude Toward Koreans Undergoing Change

By HAL BOYLE

WITH U. S. TROOPS IN KOREA — (P) — The word "Gook" has just about disappeared from the American soldier's vocabulary here.

And that is a good thing. It is an outward sign of an inward change toward the people for whose right to democracy he was sent here to fight.

When the Americans first arrived in force last July, they hardly regarded the Koreans as ordinary people.

They saw Korea only as an old and tired backward land, smelling of the honey-wagon and filthy with ancient disease. And they thought of the Koreans chiefly as a race of dog-eating tribesmen given to child marriage and thievery and totally incapable of ever knowing the meaning of democracy.

And in their arrogant they began calling all Koreans — North and South — "Gooks." It was a term of lumped contempt and it was uttered in contempt. It might have jolted the superiority of some of them to learn that the Koreans also had a word for "American" in their language. It was "Megook." But there was no contempt in it. It meant only "foreigner."

If it has done nothing else, the extended police action in Korea has helped bridge the gap between the Gooks and the Me-gooks — between 150,000 Amer-

Although Vastly Improved, B-36 Still Is Controversial

LATEST VERSION OF THE B-36: The critics grudgingly admit there's been a big improvement.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The giant B-36 bomber is the one major weapon which Uncle Sam has which the Russians do not possess.

Even if U. S. ground forces should suffer maximum disasters in Asia and Europe, with a resultant world divided into two hostile hemispheres, the B-36 would give the U. S. a striking force capable of bringing Russia to its knees with A-bombs.

The Russians are well aware of this. And as a result the giant plane is considered to be a major deterrent to any Russian declaration of war.

Six of the $4,700,000 bombers have just made the first B-36 mission to Europe, flying from Texas to England on what the Air Force called "routine training."

Despite the tremendous advantage that this plane now appears to give to U. S. defenses, it continues to be one of the most controversial airplanes ever built.

When it was first put on the drawing board in 1941 by Consolidated Aircraft designers it even caused controversy in the Army Air Corps. The opposition held that a plane that big just wasn't practical.

In the summer of 1949 the B-36 was the main cause of the open and bitter feud between the Air Force and Navy which inspired a full-dress Congressional investigation.

Today, although its critics grudgingly admit that the plane has been improved tremendously in the last couple of years, they claim that it gives the country a false sense of security.

Since the bitter fight between the Navy and Air Force broke out into the open the Air Force has been quietly doing everything possible to improve the plane's performance. When it was first flown it lumbered through the air at something less than 200

Indians Practiced Home Deep Freeze

STONEY PLAIN, ALTA.—(AP)—There's some extra food on the shelf at the farm instructor's home in this northern Alberta Indian Reserve, but nobody feels like eating it.

The mixture, now a hardened mass of buffalo meat, fat and Saskatoon berries, is known to the Indians as Pemmican. It was unearthed recently near a farmer's home. Historians say the last major Indian encampment here was in 1885, and that the Pemmican must be at least 65 years old. Indians claim it may still be edible, but none have volunteered to find out.

Firemen Answer Two Calls During Week; One False

Firemen have answered two calls this week, one a house fire and the second a false alarm.

Heavy damage resulted, Tuesday night, when an upstairs apartment at 431 N. Warren street fire. Cause of the blaze has not been revealed.

A supposed house fire on the 600 block on Roberta, earlier Tuesday, turned out to be a blaze set by a junk dealer to burn upholstery and paint from junk car bodies.

Wholesale Food Continues Climb

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Dun & Bradstreet wholesale food price index continues to climb this week, advancing 1 cent from last week to 108 — highest since Aug. 10, 1948.

This index has not tipped downward since early last October. The $7.68 figure compares with $6.96 just before the Korean war started, and is 22.5 percent larger than the year-ago index of $5.78. The record high $7.36 on July 13, 1948.

Study Guides Are Explained

Study guides developed by the Texas Education Agency to secure information on Texas high schools with fewer than 100 pupils will be explained at a meeting of school superintendents to be held in Amarillo on January 29.

The superintendents will meet with members of the agency staff at the 4th District Court Room at 10 a.m.

The study materials have been developed to aid local school leaders in gathering detailed information about their school community, and the relationship between the two, according to J. W. Edgar, state commissioner of education.

Rapid changes in all phases of community life during the past few years have outmoded available information, Edgar said. The survey materials have been developed to aid the local authorities to "fit today's school to today's community," he said.

The guides furnished by the state agency call for collection of information on various phases of community life and the educational program of the school. Local citizens will be asked to examine the information collected in the light of their own experience, and to express their opinions on school and community matters.

More facts and figures do not tell a complete story, Edgar pointed out. Opinions expressed in this democratic manner will give meaning to the cold statistics, he said.

Approximately 800 schools are expected to take part in the school-community survey program. If this method proved to be satisfactory it may be extended to all Texas high schools, Edgar said.

The survey materials were developed by the Division of Pro-essional Standards, Texas Education Agency. Frank Hubert, director of the division, and W. R. Goodson, research specialist in charge of the survey, will represent the agency at the meeting to explain use of the materials.

Other regional meetings will be held at Alice, San Antonio, Georgetown, Livingston, Tyler, Denton, Hillsboro, Lubbock, Abilene, and Alpine.

Franklin Roosevelt's first "Fire-side Chat" was on March 12, 1933.

The Hayes Fair Across Stable, DuQuoin, Ill., collected $260,173.45 during the 1950 season, a record for a harness stable.

The Rockefeller Foundation was founded in 1913 with an original endowment of $12,814,480.

HIGHLAND FOOD MARKET—Harold Morrow is the owner and operator of the new, modern grocery store and meat market at 1312 N. Hobart. The formal opening will be held early Friday morning. Moving here with his wife from Wellington, where he was in the grocery business for five years, Morrow saw the need of a suburban grocery store. The store was constructed by the S&H Construction Co. of Modern Crete and it is completely modern and new throughout. George Muller, who is a long time resident of Pampa, has been employed as butcher. The $25,000 building includes the home of Mr. and Mrs. Morrow. (News Photo and Engraving)

Army Signal Corps Sponsors Development Of New Camera

AUSTIN — Development of a new-type camera using invisible electrical images which can produce on-the-spot pictures even in active radiation areas without being fogged, has been sponsored by the Signal Corps Engineering Laboratories.

The camera employs the newly discovered electrostatic, electro-photographic process in which light is recorded on a selenium-coated metal plate that has been sensitized by an electrical charge. Where the light hits the charged plate, the electricity leaks off the sensitized material in proportion to the amount of light received and is grounded on the plate. What is left is an invisible electrical image.

The picture has tones similar to that of an ordinary black and white photograph and can be printed on paper, wood, cloth, glass, plastics, or ceramic materials. It can be made into a transparency from which enlargements can be produced.

The camera uses an ordinary lens and shutter. Its light source is the same as for an ordinary camera — sun or reflected light, photofloods, flash bulbs, or ordinary light bulbs.

Development of the camera was under sponsorship of the Signal Corps which aided the Haloid Company, Rochester, New York, and the Battelle Memorial Institute, Columbus, Ohio, in the research and design leading to production of a model.

thraicite coal powder is then blown across the face of the plate. Wherever there is electricity on the plate the dust sticks — the more the electricity, the more powder remains.

The powered image is then transferred to ordinary paper or other material coated with an adhesive layer such as rubber cement. To protect the surface and fix the print a clear transparent plastic film is pressed against the picture.

For military use, the new camera, when it reaches the field, will offer several advantages over the conventional silver process of photography.

Though Steel Output At Peak Customers Still Cry For More

NEW YORK — (AP) — Customers still cry for more steel. And this in face of the current week's record: for the first time in history the American steel industry is turning out more than two million tons in a week.

The steel is disappearing down an apparently insatiable maw. It reappears as autos, refrigerators, skyscrapers, railroad cars and tanks — but some of these production lines are slowing down for lack of materials.

A handful of skeptics may wonder if all this steel is going into current use — wonder if some well-heeled companies aren't building up steel inventories against lean days ahead.

Most steel users insist their production lines are being held back by steel shortages. And many expect their plight to get worse in spite of a steel industry program that grows almost every week.

supply is taken up in a survey by "Modern Industry," a magazine.

The 210 top management men polled all use steel although none makes it. Six out of seven say their production rate has been held back by a shortage of steel.

The industry's own expansion goals are adequate for peace needs, in the opinion of four out of five of the company executives. But almost half of them think the steel mill building program is too small to meet the demands of a warm war; and three out of four say the plans are too skimpy for the nation's needs in a full-scale war.

Only half think the industry's allocation system is fair, although nine out of ten say present steel prices are fair. To get more equitable distribution some urge: "stop the practice of favoring large buyers"; "discourage the making of luxury and non-essential items"; and "have the mills keep steel out of the gray and black markets." The industry itself insists it polices the market and refuses to sell any more to a firm found passing steel on to the gray market.

The latest is Bethlehem Steel's announcement Monday that it will add 1.6 million tons a year to present capacity. Others this month were U.S. Steel's 1.8-million-ton a year plant to be built on the same river, and the proposal of the New England Steel Development Corp. to build a one-million-ton plant near New London, Conn.

What the actual users of steel think about the present tight

Japanese Famed Ship To Be Used

KURE, Japan — (AP) — The 42,000-ton battleship Haruna, once the pride of the Japanese Imperial Navy, is expected to be raised from the waters off Hiroshima late this month for scrap metal. Kyodo news agency reported salvaging operations are being conducted by a Japanese company which expects to recover 25,000 tons of scrap iron valued at about $770,000. The Haruna was sunk by American planes late in World War II. Early in the Pacific war, Capt. Colin Kelly crashed after returning from bombing the big warship. Kelly, one of America's first heroes in World War II, ordered his crew to parachute to safety when his B-17 flying fortress was crippled by Japanese planes.

Costs Bring Rise In Soap

NEW YORK — (AP) — Rising costs of fats, oils and packaging are reported to be forcing a price increase on household soaps. Two of the largest manufacturers, Procter & Gamble Co. and Colgate-Palmolive-Peet Co., have posted increases of about six percent in their wholesale prices. This would be equal to a retail boost of half a cent on a cake of hand soap and two cents on a package of soap powder. Lever Brothers, third large producer, has not yet announced higher prices. But it notified the Economic Stabilization Agency

Canadian Project Nears Fruition

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Canadian River Agreement of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico is a step closer to fruition today. Bradley Johnson, U. S. representative on the compact commission, recommended that Congress approve the accord for dividing the river waters. The three states signed an accord last month. Their legislatures must also approve. Ratification of it is now before the Texas legislature. Last week of its intention to do so. All the companies cited rising manufacturing costs of their products. Procter & Gamble estimated the cost of its raw materials had advanced 15 percent in the past six weeks.

On-Stage Mishaps At Met Plague The Muusical Great

RISE STEVENS: Before the glass it was a garble.

NEW YORK — (NEA) — When Rise Stevens got a splinter of glass in her eye, the result of an over-enthusiastic performance at the Metropolitan Opera, she was just following a noble tradition. Some of the greatest names in Met history have gilded their careers with on-stage mishaps.

The contralto star was singing "Der Rosenkavalier." The script called for Miss Stevens to smash a wine glass to the floor. She did, with gusto. A glass splinter bounced up, struck her in the right eye. She finished the act, and between acts a doctor took the splinter out. Then she went back singing.

Dorothy Kirsten, the blonde soprano, is another Met female star who has been wounded in the line of duty. As "Madame Butterfly," Miss Kirsten decided the part of the Japanese heroine called for walking around in her stocking feet, to better emphasize the mincing steps of the Japanese ladies. She minced so enthusiastically, that she walked into a knot hole in the floor and broke her toe. She finished out the act. Two months later, she repeated in the part, and broke the same toe, which was still weak. Now she wears ballet slippers.

Enrico Caruso, who weighed in at around 180, was singing with a 220-pound leading lady in "La Boheme." His part called for him to pick up "little" Mimì, dying of tuberculosis, and place her gently on a bed.

Caruso managed to push the plump diva on the bed, which was on wheels. While Caruso stood against, the bed rolled into the wings. During "La Tosca," Geraldine Farrar and Antonio Scotti were singing on a couch, when one leg collapsed. Scotti and Miss Farrar sang on, with the couch listing slightly to starboard.

Lily Pons, the Met's great coloratura soprano, was smacked in the middle of a brilliant coloratura passage when the string of her necklace broke. From then on, each note was accomplished by a tinkle, as one by one her beads bit the dust.

One Met accident was so successful it has since been incorporated as standard fare in "Caruso." Carmen is arrested during the opera and, on this night, Miss Stevens put up such a vicious fight that she snapped a garble.

Immediately after the fight, she goes into a long song and dance number. As she sang and danced, she felt her stocking slipping. Finally, she stopped, deliberately put her foot on a chair, pulled up her skirt and fixed the stocking. The audience liked it and now she does it every time.

Perhaps the classic is the time Lea Slezak missed his entrance

Burmese Plan Forest Projects

RANGOON — (AP) — The famous Burmese teak may soon find itself in competition with other Burmese hardwoods if plans by Austrian-born Dr. F. A. V. Monroy materialize. Monroy, a forestry expert with the United Nations Food and Agriculture Organization, has come here to help the Burmese establish an integrated forest industry. He says the Burmese have neglected several species because of the bias in favour of teak. Some of these are well suited for conversion into fibrewood, plywood and pulpwood. Other species can be used for carpentry and house-building.

He proposes picking favourable locations in the country and going to work on what is available. The projects will be financed by the Burmese government and will include the making of plastics, an industry entirely new to this country, Monroy said.

California Quiets Texas Rebel Yells

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — (AP) — California servicemen in Korea won't have to listen quietly to rebel yells any more. The state senate unanimously voted funds yesterday to send California State Bear Republic flags to three outfits in Korea. California men in the outfits had complained that overbearing comrades flew the Lone Star flag of Texas and the Confederate Stars and Bars.

Official figures show India's exports amounted to $51,917,542 and imports to $18,323,522. Golf is said to have originated in Holland and to have been fostered in Scotland.

The Kit Kat Klub held the annual presentation dance in VFW Hall with the Sandie Swingers providing the dance music.

During the entire presentation ceremony the orchestra played "Stardust" the club song, in the background. Each new member carried a scepter star as she came in with her escort. After they had ascended the platform together the girl was seated in a large crescent moon with her escort standing beside her while pictures were taken.

Presented were Judy Nance by her escort, Bill McPherson; Sally Alford by James Lunsford; Janice Baker by Eugene Finchum; Carolyn Dial by James Seawright; Virginia Marlow by Sam Morosco; Christine Pierce by Jack Tracywick; and Wynell Weathered by Neil Jolly.

Mary June Montgomery by Brent Carruth; Norma Qualls by Jimmy Orr; Adelaide Skelly by Charles McCray; Greta Miller by John Young; Claudette Matheny by Byron Byars; Alice Seawright by Harold Gourson; Phebe Carter by Bill Duncan; and the best pledge, Marva Sue Stone, by Alton Finchum.

The Queen was presented with a bouquet of roses and a silver crown.

The hall was decorated throughout in the club colors, blue and silver. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cartwright and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Rose.

WE, THE WOMEN

By RUTH MILLET

NEA Staff Writer

We must "fight against the tyranny of birthdays," says Dr. Frederick D. Zeman, chief of medical service at a home for the aged.

Now there's a challenge, not just for those who are already old, but for everyone who has told youth goodbye.

But how can we fight the "tyranny of birthdays"? How can we keep from letting birthdays get us down?

There are several sound and sure ways. The first is to live for today and tomorrow and not look longingly back at the past.

The second is to replace outgrown interests with new ones. This should be a conscious and calculated effort. If you've had to give up tennis, then take up golf. If you've had to give up golf, what about gardening? Don't ever let an interest go without replacing it with another.

The same is true of friends. Nothing is more pitiful than the old person who has few friends left, because through the years he never bothered to replace the friends who moved away, grew indifferent, or died.

There's no reason why an older person can't have as many friends as a young person. But friends have to be replaced as you go along. You can't wait until you are old and suddenly make a new circle of friends.

LOOK FOR NEW INTERESTS

And you should keep busy always. If some jobs grow too hard, it is necessary to either look for easier ways of doing them, or to look for new jobs.

If you can't work for profit you can at least work for the joy of accomplishment.

But the best way of all perhaps to avoid the "tyranny of birthdays" is to refuse to grow self-centered, interested in nobody but yourself.

Try New Twist To Apple Salad

WINTER SALAD made with unpeeled red apples, celery and nuts is a health builder the family will go for.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

With apples in bountiful supply and always popular, this is the time to use them frequently in budget meals for flavor, health and variety.

This variation of the Waldorf salad comes from the experts of the New Jersey Apple Institute. WALDORF SALAD. Combine diced unpeeled McIntosh apples with diced celery and special Harvest salad dressing. Add chopped walnuts and garnish with additional walnuts. Serve with ripe olives and additional apples and nuts.

HARVEST SALAD DRESSING. Blend 1/2 cup tart apple jelly into 1 cup mayonnaise and mix thoroughly. Season to taste with celery seeds and paprika.

Apple Salad Country Style. Eight slices bacon, 5 sweet red apples, unpeeled, 1-2 to 1 cup diced celery, 1-4 to 1-2 cup seedless raisins, 1-4 cup mayonnaise, lettuce, salad greens for garnish.

Cut bacon into 1-inch pieces and fry until crisp. Drain on absorbent paper and cool. Wash, core and dice apples. Combine bacon, apples and celery, raisins and mayonnaise. Combine 2 or 3 crisp lettuce leaves to form a cup and arrange on each salad plate. Fill lettuce cups with apple mixture. Garnish with crisp salad greens.

Note: When soft raisins are desired, pour 1 cup boiling water over raisins and let stand about 1 minute. Drain and cool before using.

The happy older person is the one who accepts the limitations of old age without dwelling tragically on what has happened to him. He turns his mind to other people and other things.

DEVILED SCRAMBLED EGGS

(Serves 6)

Combine eggs, sour cream and seasonings. Heat fat in frying pan, pour in egg mixture and cook slowly until set, stirring frequently. If desired, served in cheese noodle ring.

BAKED RICE AND CHEESE

(Serves 6)

Three cups cooked rice, 2 cups grated cheese, 1-2 teaspoon salt, pepper, 1 cup evaporated milk, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce.

What's RIGHT?

WRONG: Say when you give the gift that it is in return for what the person did for you.

RIGHT: Realize that the person will understand you are giving the gift to show your appreciation. If you make a point of the fact it will seem more like payment of a debt than a gesture of friendship and appreciation.

Organizer Of Salvation Army In Pampa Dies In Louisiana

Word was received here late Wednesday of the death and funeral of the organizer of Pampa's Salvation Army post, Sr. Capt. Herman G. Lambrecht.

Capt. Lambrecht died on Jan. 15 at New Orleans, La., following an 18-month illness.

The former Pampa Salvation Army head was described by former acquaintances here yesterday as an extremely active man in community affairs, a member of the Lions Club in Pampa, and vitally interested in young people.

Capt. Lambrecht's last official duty in this area came when he returned here to run the food centers at tornado-stricken Higgins in 1947.

He first came to Pampa in 1938 and organized the Salvation Army post here. After four years in Pampa he was transferred to Lubbock and later to Beaumont. Prior to coming to Pampa he served as commanding officer at Harlingen and Laredo.

Funeral services were held in New Orleans on Jan. 17 with Lt.

commander, as one of the pallbearers. Burial services were held at Atlanta, Ga.

He is survived by his wife, three sons, Capt. Herman G. Lambrecht, Jr., of the Salvation Army at Columbus, Ga.; John, Dallas; and Frederick G., New Orleans; one grandson, Herman III, Columbus, Ga. His parents, Major and Mrs. Gustav Lambrecht (S. A. retired) of Gulfport, Miss., also survive.

Warner Dewey, 19-year-old sophomore on Yale's varsity fencing team, comes from Gaziantep, Turkey.

Go See It.. For an Inspiration!

You ought to go see the new Cadillac. You ought to walk all around it and look at it from every angle—and you ought to open the door and get in and sit down.

You ought to slide over behind the wheel and look out over that jewel-like dash into the exciting beyond.

And you ought to do this, whatever the car you own today—and whatever the car you expect to own.

For it will lift up your spirits and add to your faith in America's industrial enterprise and productive ingenuity.

You look at those beautiful, flowing lines—and you can't escape the conviction that America's industrial artistry in metals is unsurpassed in all the world.

You look at the fabrics that tailor the seats and cushions—and you realize that America's manufacturing genius is unapproached for bringing luxury into everyday life.

You look at the flawless execution of every structural detail—and you have the comforting feeling that America's industrial craftsmanship is in a class by itself.

But your greatest inspiration is yet to come.

You ask the price of the lowest-priced Cadillac model—and you find that it's easily within the means of hundreds of thousands of American families.

Where else, in all the world—you ask yourself—could there be such a blending of luxury and practicality?

And the answer, of course, is—"nowhere." It's strictly an American "monopoly."

Yes, here is the new standard for the automotive world. It is new in beauty, in comfort, in luxury and in performance.

So come see it soon—and come with your hopes high.

Mac Goes All Out To Observe Each And Every Special Week

By HENRY McLEMORE

This is National Thrift Week and, naturally, I am observing it. I always observe "weeks" right up to the hilt.

When it's Cotton Week I wear nothing but cotton, including cotton shoes and hats. When it's Doughnut Week I eat nothing but doughnuts, for breakfast, lunch, high tea and dinner.

When it's Plant A Tree Week I dig up the pavements of New York and plant forests of red woods, oak, and mighty oaks.

When it's Love Your Congressman Week I send the representative of my congressional district Rolls-Royces, chinchilla lap robes, Strasbourg pate de foie gras, and a Royal Copenhagen stuffed ballot box.

The letter from the National Thrift Committee, Inc., of the National Thrift Week had no more than been read than I started practicing thrift with what high-toned writers call a vengeance.

The first thing I did was take a drawerful of bills and throw them in the waste basket. Heaven knows how much that saved me right there. Big 'ol' companies like Consolidated Edison, New York Telephone and Saks-Fifth Avenue are not going to suffer if I don't pay 'em the piddling amounts I owe them.

I am willing to bet that you'll never read a headline saying "New York Telephone Falls Because Henry McLemore Was Thrifty Enough Not To Pay What He Owes It."

My next step in being thrifty was to wash a couple of my suits instead of sending them to the dry cleaner. They're just as clean as whistles. Not a spot on either of them. There is no boy of eleven who wouldn't be proud to wear them.

Another thrift measure, which is working out most satisfactorily, is that of cutting out of the morning papers, I told the newspaper vendor not to deliver any more expensive newspapers.

I now set the alarm at six a.m., bound from my bed like a 44-year-old gaselle, and go into the hall in front of every neighbor's door is a stack of newspapers. Hopping from door to door, I read them. By six-thirty a.m. I am back in bed, my head filled with the news of the day. At no cost whatsoever, unless you call pneumonia caught from the cold floors a cost.

Since Thrift Week came in I have cut every possible corner. When I go to "21" for lunch I am careful to order the $4 hot dog instead of the $8 hamburger.

When I travel by subway I make sure to leap the turnstiles, thus saving ten cents, and if I live to be 200 years old and save a dime every time I leap I'll have a comfortable nest egg for my old age, when I'm 250.

When I go to the Stork Club I carry a hip flask, and order nothing but plain water for a setup. This makes my bill come to exactly nothing and, as a plus dividend, I get some of the nicest stares from celebrities you ever saw.

No more professional haircuts for me. I went to the ten cent store and tried on bowl after bowl until I got one that fitted my head. And now I give myself a haircut in five minutes. And I don't tip myself, either. Of course the best way to save money is to make your own. I'd be doing that only if it weren't for the fact that our money printing press works

Rent Controls For Duration Says AFL

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. — (AP) — The American Federation of Labor executive council wants rent control continued "for the duration."

AFL President William Green has told the council that curbed construction of new houses means the nation must rely for an indefinite period on the existing housing supply.

"If we had been able to keep up housing construction at a high rate, we could have expected to gradually remove rent controls," he said.

"However, that is not possible now and the rent control program, therefore, becomes more important than it has been during the past few years."

Marshall Aid For Europe Is Lauded

LONDON — (AP) — Marshall aid has given Europe the economic muscles to build a "real defense effort," America's ECA boss in Britain says.

Even though "immediate and spectacular leaps" in European living standards cannot now be realized, William L. Bait, says, the Marshall Aid Program "helped build up European economies to the level which, under the new circumstances, makes a real defense effort feasible."

Reds In Air From Beating On Ground

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Air Force believes the Chinese Communists are sending greater numbers of planes into the air over Korea because they "have been hurt on the ground."

"That was an Air Force spokesman's explanation for the big turnout of 18 to 28 Russian with American fighters in the biggest jet battle of the Korean war.

"We have every reason to believe that the Reds have been hurt on the ground," the spokesman told reporters, "and that they may have decided they should use everything they have to sustain themselves."

Irish Clouters Set Pace At GG

Wilhelm, Pugh Notch Fight Wins To Enter Semifinals

The 1951 Regional Golden Gloves tournament moves into the semifinals of the High School Division tonight, and it looks like it should be a "great day for the Irish" because the superb sluggers of Coach H. Callan of Shamrock have sent 10 men into the ring, and came out with 10 winners.

Pampa's Boys Club, Inc., coached by T. J. Watt, isn't doing so badly. Again last night the Pampa picked up two winners out of three fights. The lone loser was Bobby Mayberry of Lefors, who lost a very close decision to Ronald Reecer of Lockney. The two winners were Bobby Wilhelm and Cordell Pugh. Both of them both ended their fights early.

Another near-capacity crowd witnessed the second night of the regional Golden Gloves, which failed to go the distance. Open division fighters were uncovered for the first time, producing three of the knockout-shortened bouts.

Tonight's high school semifinals will get underway at 8 o'clock with about 18 bouts on the card. Friday night the Open Division will fight through its semifinals and on Saturday all of the champions will be crowned.

Bobby Mayberry of Lefors, representing the Pampa Boys Club, Inc., opened the fighting for the area in the second fight of the night. He met Ronald Reecer of

An oddity in last night's action in the regional Golden Gloves occurred in the 147-pound high school division. The odds are against it happening we wouldn't venture, but Bill Sparks of Amarillo faced Bill

Lockney, who had won his first bout in the 147-pound class. Both boys did a lot of hitting, but Mayberry was missing quite regularly with his left, while Reecer kept his left jab on Mayberry to ward the Lefors mittman off and gain the narrow decision.

In the fourth bout of the evening, Tommy Harris of Wellington, fighting out of the Shamrock district, ran the Irish winning streak to 6 straight, with a fast third round that unbalanced the bout which to that point had been even. Harris struck with the couple of hard rights on the head of his opponent, Jessie Salazar of Borden's of Amarillo, to win the 118-pound bout for Shamrock. In the first 128-pound bout of the night Billy Campbell scored a second round TKO over Gerald McClure of Amarillo in 1:25. Campbell's hard right dropped McClure twice and had him in trouble another time before he was stopped by J. C. Oakley, ring official.

The first 135-pound winner of the night was fancy Billy Helms, former Boys Ranch resident but now of Shamrock. The well-built, smiling Helms put Johnnie Perkins of the Fyfe Boxing Club of Amarillo away in 1:25 of the first round. Two hard rights by Helms dropped Perkins over the ropes and Oliver Ball, the referee, stopped the scrap.

In the tenth fight of the night, also at 135-pounds, Bobby Wilhelm, the Pampa 14-year-old slugger, ended his fight in a hurry. He stopped Sonny Turner of Lockney in 55 seconds of the second round when referee Oakley stopped the match and awarded it to Wilhelm. The cold, calculating Pampa fighter had Turner nearly finished twice in the first frame.

In the final 135-pound bout of the night Gene Baird of Wellington, fighting from the Shamrock district, gained a decision over Tom Henry of Happy. Baird finally solved Henry in the third and had him in a lot of trouble at the bell to earn the decision.

Bobby Campbell became the tenth straight Shamrock High School slugger to win as he dropped Layton Samples of Lockney in 45 seconds of the first round. Until then it appeared that Campbell was the one in trouble. But he fought his way out of a corner, threw a right that straightened Samples up, then landed a hard 1-2 to end it with a clean knockout.

Cordell Pugh of White Deer, fighting for the Pampa Boys Club, Inc., became a candidate for a first round crown by sending Alex Toronto of Bor-den's of Amarillo to the canvas in 25 seconds of the second round. It seemed in the first round when Toronto was staggered by Pugh's right. And that had him in the second round and he was out another clean knockout.

Four bouts were staged in the Open Division, the first of the tournament. In the 147-pound class, C. J. Smith of Pampa lost a close decision to Don Boote of Amarillo, fighting for Canon Smiles, who works for Stanoid, ran out of steam after appearing to have the upper hand, and the decision went to the lanky Boote.

Jack London of Lefors, fighting for the Canyon district, put Billy Dickerson of Borger away in 1:15 of the second round to win his first bout in the 147-pound open division. London advanced the bout which to that point had been even. Harris struck with the couple of hard

WHAT HIT ME?—Focusing his eyes on the glove that was so close to him a split-second ago, Omelio Agronomic seems to be trying to figure out how it happened. Clarence Henry took the decision at Madison Square Garden, but Agronomic backed into a date with Joe Louis at Miami Beach, Feb. 7.

MIAMI — The 18 survivors of a starting field of 148 — including all the favorites — began the second round of match play in the Helen Lee Doherty Women's Golf Tournament today.

From that point on, the right hand carries on the work, the left hand and arm becoming a counter-balance, as it were, for the action transpiring on the right-hand side of the body. Keep your body squared to the pins. Walk straight forward with out away from side to side. Do not grip the ball tightly. Take an easy, relaxed hold on it. Keep your attention directed on those pins at all times.

Top Golfers To Enter Houston Open Tournament

HOUSTON — (AP) — Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, currently the leading money-winner in golf, will return here to defend his championship in the Houston open Feb. 22-25.

Middlecoff is among a lot of top stars of the game who have indicated they will play in the $10,000 Houston event at Memorial Park course.

Others who have committed themselves to this tournament include Jimmy Demaret and Jack Burke, Jr. of Houston, Henry Ransom of Dallas, Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago, Dave Douglas of Newark, Del.; Lawson Little of Monterey, Calif.; Jim Ferrie of San Francisco, Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, W. Va., and Johnny Palmer of Badin, N.C.

George Lewis, President of the Houston Golf Association, said there also were prospects of Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson and Sam Snead playing here.

Snead is recovering from an injured wrist but may be ready to play by the time of the Houston Open. The White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., star, was

Fesler Is Hired To Coach At Minnesota

MINNEAPOLIS — (AP) — Wes Fesler, who only six weeks ago said he was finished with big time football, today is head coach at the University of Minnesota.

The former Ohio State coach summed it all up with one sentence: "You can't take 19 years of experience and what not and throw them out the window."

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK — (AP) — It's only guessing, of course, but the United States Golf Association is expected to announce the 1951 Walker Cup team selections Saturday and Bob Harlow already has inaugurated the 19th hole pastime of picking 'em in advance. Willie Turnesa already has been named as captain and you can't overlook the 1949 and 1950 amateur champions, Charlie Coe and Sammy Urzetta. Sammy, heading south soon for his first fling at Winter Golf, really wants to play on the cup team. Frankie Stranahan and Jimmie McHale are consistently good enough to be natural selections, and Harlow points out that he expected Harold Paddock, Jr., was the only player to reach the round of 16 in both the last two amateur championships.

That's six, and it takes a plenty of guessing to name the rest, especially since so many good young golfers have been turning pro. To start a check list, we'll offer Harvie Ward, Mac Hunter, Bill Campbell, Bobby Knowles, Bo Winger, Al Mengert and Dow Finsterwald.

A group of Kentucky basketball fans left the Cincinnati Garden after the recent Notre Dame-Xavier basketball game and got a ride downtown in a cab with a couple of strangers who had arrived too late for the game. The Kentuckians were loudly critical of the Notre Dame team and one protested: "We drove 150 miles to see that dashed bunch of so-and-soes play."

One of the strangers cut in smilingly: "Listen, we flew a thousand miles for that game and didn't even get to see it."

Naturally that led to the explanation that the speaker was Moose Krause, Notre Dame basketball coach and athletic director, who had rushed to Cincinnati from the NCAA meetings in Dallas.

Pete Glazer, Portsmouth (Va.) Star sports editor has launched a drive to raise $1000 for the Kellogg, the Portsmouth school who returned a $1000 bribe to "dump" a Manhattan college basketball game. Edwin Manley, the first full-time swimming coach ever employed by the U. of Illinois, is starting his 40th season on the job. L. L. Leat football coaching report from Southern California, where the alumni fired a coach even before he was hired, is: "The way things are going we may have to re-hire Jeff Cravath."

Bill Werber, Jr., slated to play first base for Duke this spring, may be a better baseball player than his dad. As a freshman he proved a fine hitter and fancy fielder. Also at Duke, Tom Rip's boy, is due for promotion to the varsity football squad after serving time on the reserves to gain experience.

Eddie Neil, Jr., whose dad was the famous Associated Press writer, played center for Mechanicville, N.Y., High School last fall and is reported planning to enter Syracuse U.

The nation's leading money-winner last year, Hogan is making his 1951 debut in the Phoenix Open. Nelson, in semi-retirement, won the Bing Crosby tournament week before last.

Minor League To Hold 9 Meetings

COLUMBUS, Ohio — (AP) — A series of nine regional meetings starting this weekend may have a lot to do with how successful a season minor league baseball has in 1951 — its golden anniversary year.

The National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (minors) has invited representatives from all its 420 clubs to attend. The first meeting will be Friday and Saturday in Des Moines, Iowa, for officials of Midwest leagues and clubs.

Baseball men will talk over the organization's two biggest problems: 1. How to increase attendance at minor league games, and 2. How to get enough players while the country is calling more and more young men to the armed forces.

All-America Jack Parkinson Plays For Wizard Basketball

Tonight is the big night for Pampa basketball fans — the Whiskered Wizards are in town. The boys who play-for-pay and never shave tangle with the undefeated Noblitt-Coffey Chiefs at 8 o'clock tonight in the junior high gym.

Cage fans can purchase tickets at Richards Drug, Frank Leder's Jewelry and Noblitt-Coffey Inc. Ducats also will be on sale at the ticket window in the Pampa gym at 7 o'clock.

Wizards Clown Past Shamrock To Win, 59-46

SHAMROCK — (Special) — The Whiskered Wizards put on a basketball show here Wednesday night that Shamrock cage fans will long remember. The Wizards clowned past Shamrock's Independents, 59-46.

The Wizards led 14-7 at the quarter mark and built their lead to 36-21 at the half. The second half was a sideshow attraction.

Whenever they took a shot from the floor, the Wizards hit. Ed Greicus, formerly of DePaul University, pushed in ten field goals and one free shot to tie the boards, and Shamrock got a few rebounds.

The Wizards meet the Pampa Noblitt-Coffey Chiefs in the Pampa Junior High School gym at 8 o'clock tonight.

President George M. Trautman of the Association Points Out That There Were 440 Minor League Clubs Last Year and Are Only 420 Now. He Said 'We're Holding Our Own' Considering the Draft.

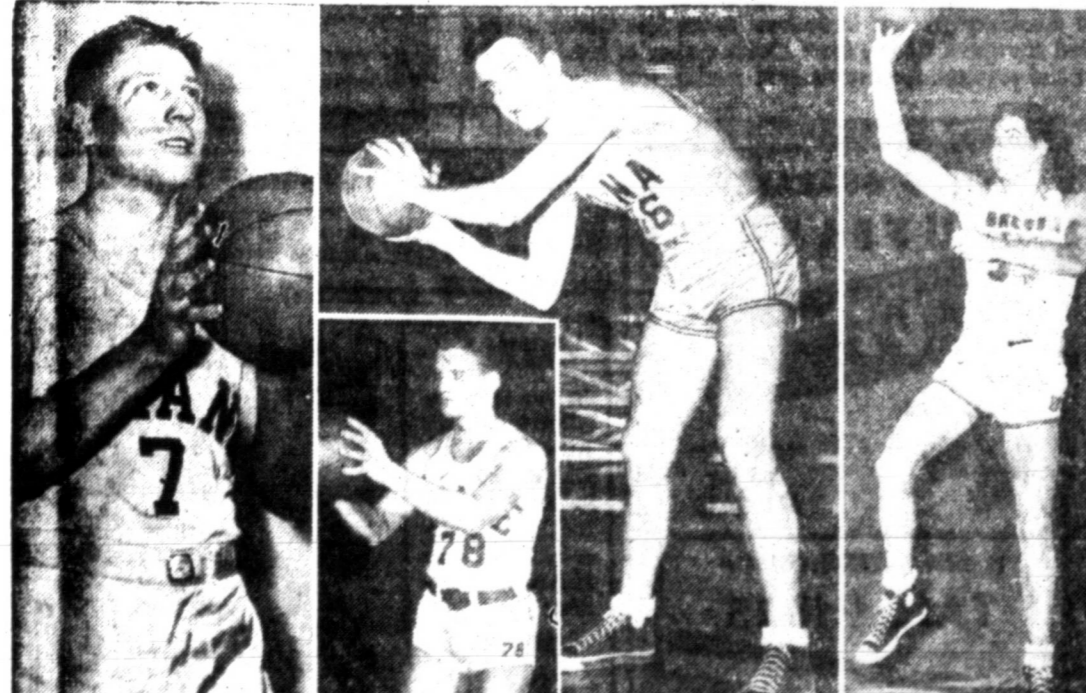

As a rule minor league players are young men and good prospects for military service. Trautman said that "whatever the government want us to do, we'll adapt ourselves to the government needs."

Secretary of Defense Marshall yesterday said that professional athletes who fail physical examinations might be used in a non-combat military duty.

The schedule of meetings and local leaders includes:
Feb. 7-8—Fort Worth, Fort Worth Hotel, John Reeves.

MACK REELECTED
PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Connie Mack, who stepped down last fall as manager of the Philadelphia Athletics after 50 years at the helm, has been re-elected president of the American League Club.

Feb. 9-10 — Houston, Texas State Hotel, Allen Russell.

SECTIONAL STARS—Indiana is the pick in the Big Ten and guard Gene Ring, left, is no small part of the reason. North Carolina State's Vic Bubas, inset, does a fine defensive job, relieves Sam Ranzino of some of the shooting. Iona's Jim Lyons, center, may not make All-America, but he's one of the better pivot men yet seen around New Rochelle, N. Y. Jim Sgurra is at least one bright spot in Coach Slat's murky outlook at Oregon State.

Wayland Quintet Begins To Show Cage Improvement

PLAINVIEW (Special) — The Wayland Pioneers, who went into the '50-'51 season with a very inexperienced basketball club, are beginning to show marked improvement. Thus far this season the Pioneers have managed to keep just below the five hundred mark by winning 10 games in 22 starts.

The Waylanders started the season with 11 varsity members, are now only ten. The players, as a whole, were inexperienced at the beginning of the year with only four lettermen on the squad, and two of these were only one year boys. Other members of the squad were three who moved up from the freshman team of last year. One transferred, and three freshmen finished the roster of the 11 cagers. One freshman was moved back to play this season with the Junior Varsity of Wayland.

The schedule this season has been the largest and toughest that the Pioneers have ever attempted.

Some of the highlights of the season thus far has come in different packages in different parts of the country. While the Pioneers were in the vicinity of Chicago, they met some of the fastest teams in that state.

Perhaps the greatest thriller of this season came at Amarillo, when the Pioneers went into a double overtime with Dowell's Cafe. The Pioneers won this game by four points.

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Johnny Berardino, 34, infielder, signed a contract with the St. Louis Browns, a move described by club officials as insurance against the loss of younger players.

WHAM!—George Gee, 8, of the Red Wings is about to make a second unpleasant contact, this one with the ice, after being checked hard by the Boston Bruins' Ed Krzyzowski at the Detroit Olympia.

Pampa Guerillas Drop Close Cage Tilt To Miami

The Iam! High School cagers kept their home-court winning streak intact Monday night by squeaking past the stubborn Pampa Guerillas, 50-49. Miami's roundballers haven't lost a home game in the past three years.

Miami jumped into a 16-4 first quarter lead, but the Guerillas pushed in 17 points in the second quarter to lead 22-21 at the half.

The game was knotted 33-33 at the close of the third quarter, and Miami came one more point than the Pampans in the final period to win 50-49.

Wells of Miami was high point man with 24 points. Jimmy Bond and Richard Qualls lobbed in 14 points for Pampa.

The Guerillas meet the Wheeler Mustangs there Friday night.

Chandler Believes Game Will Survive

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Commissioner A. B. "Happy" Chandler's quiet pledge that baseball "would do anything the government asks it to do" broke sharply last night into the furor over the suggested drafting of athletes.

Chandler's remark at his annual dinner for newsmen was a repeat of what he has doggedly emphasized before—that the national game is at the government's command and is willing to do anything the government calls upon it to do.

The commissioner, who termed baseball "the cleanest sport in the world," noted that the game withstood the problems of World War II and said that he believed it would also come through the present national emergency. He admitted that baseball "might be facing quite a problem," however.

Chandler's declaration came even as major league club owners were thumbing worriedly through their rosters to see which of their players may have stumps from the statement this week by Secretary of Defense George Marshall that 4-F athletes may be taken into the armed forces for non-combat duty.

It turned out that too many people have started yelping before they had looked over the situation.

Most major leaguers are home free as far as service is concerned, unless the government boosts the draft age and also starts to gather in married men and veterans.

Only about 40 percent of the big time players are in the 18-to-25 draft age class. Most of them have already seen military service and a huge majority are

Lone Star State Golfers Favored In Phoenix Open

PHOENIX — (AP) — The golfer of the year for 1950 makes his first 1951 competitive appearance here today in an event he or his fellow Texans have won five of the past six years.

It's the $10,000 Phoenix Open, and U.S. Open Champion Ben Hogan ranks with the favorites. He won in 1946 and 1947.

To do it again he'll have to turn back a determined bid of Texas product Jimmy Demaret who seeks his third straight Phoenix Open title. In 1949 Jimmy beat Ben in a playoff for the top award of $2,000.

On his way to Fort Worth after that tourney, Hogan had his near fatal accident. His return to the links and his 1950 U.S. Open victory easily won him distinction as the best golfer of the year and also the comeback champion.

Last year was the repeat for Demaret who edged Sam Snead on the final day.

Another Texan, Byron Nelson, started this Lone Star State supremacy in the Phoenix Open. The only man to break it in the past six years was South African Bobby Locke, who sailed through to a record 268 for the 72 holes in 1948. That mark still stands.

Nelson, who came out of retirement to win the Bing Crosby Invitational affair, won't be here, but Hogan and Demaret are fully capable of upholding the honor of Texas. In fact for jovial Jimmy, this four days of play may be just formality. He boasted at Phoenix Press Box Association banquet:

"Sure there are 125 golfers but I don't know why. I'm going to win this meet."

Most of the top hands in golf are on hand to dispute the statement.

As a chemical, 75 times more sugar is produced in the United States than any other pure, organic compound.

HELP—Leo Durocher believes the New York Giants have their badly-needed relief pitcher in Allen Gettel and another starter in George Bamberger, inset. Although out a month with a spiked foot, Gettel, veteran ex-American Leaguer, won 23 games while losing only seven for the Oakland Coasters. Bamberger, 25, bagged 13 while dropping 13 for the same championship club.

Bradley To Test Hank Iba's Ball Control Crew Tonight

By MILO FARNETI
NEW YORK — (AP) — Oklahoma A&M and Bradley will decide tonight who deserves a higher national basketball rating—the turtle or the hare.

Tonight's major contest also will determine which team belongs at the top of the standings in the Missouri Valley Conference.

The Sooner Aggies lead the Midwest loop with a 4-0 mark; Bradley is tied for second with St. Louis at 4-1.

Hank Iba's Oklahomans (16-1) also rated ahead of Forrest Anderson's Braves (18-2) in this week's Associated Press ranking, A&M third and Bradley fourth in the country.

The rules nix all three of the Wolfpack stars.

N.C. State (18-2) currently leads the Southern Conference.

Major conference champion wins automatic entry to the NCAA playoffs. The NCAA rules don't prevent the three players from continuing regular-season play.

Two other developments off the court overshadowed last night's skimpy basketball schedule: A report that Iowa players may be "mildly involved" with a reported parlay card ring, and a poll by the New York Herald Tribune reporting most college presidents favor continuing to play in public arenas.

Greenville Must Raise $22,000 To Stay In Loop

GREENVILLE — (AP) — Greenville will decide today whether it is to continue in the Class B Big State League.

The franchise has been turned back to a Greenville group by George Schepps, owner of the club for two years, and Greenville has been given until midnight tonight to raise the amount necessary to be in the league for 1951.

A goal of $30,000 in tickets sales has been set with more than $8,000 already subscribed.

Fans have been asked to send in application for box seats and books of 50 tickets.

A check-up will be made this afternoon on whether the response is sufficient for Greenville to go ahead and play baseball this season. If not, the franchise will be turned back to the league.

Seven clubs are ready to go with the Greenville spot the only one to be filled. Wichita Falls, Texarkana, Gainesville, Waco, Austin, Temple and Sherman Denison are in the league for 1951.

Tyler and Longview, both now in the East Texas League, are seeking the Greenville franchise if it is given up.

In the event Greenville keeps its franchise, there will be three officials and a 15-man board of directors of 280 shares of stock in the club.

There are no players on the roster at this time. Those all went to Schepps when he paid off the outstanding debts of the club before turning it back to Greenville.

Irishmen Schedule Ten Football Foes For 1951 Season

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Coach Scott McCall's 1951 gridgers will assault ten opponents, five of them here and five away.

The Irish, with the line intact except for all-regional snuggler Vaughn Terry, must rebuild the backfield, but are expected to be a serious threat in the conference—District 1 AA. They were in District 3-A in 1950 when they annexed the conference title defeated Hereford Pampans wtd, for the bi-district (1A-2-A) title and lost the regional playoff to Levelland, 34-14.

Shamrock plays all five of its 1950 District 2-A foes, most of them now in District 3-AA, in addition to each of the four opponents in the new 3-AA loop.

Phillips Blackhaws, Permian Rangers, Dumas Demons and Dalhart Wolves.

Phillips is expected to be the toughest. Shamrock and the Blackhaws played a 12-13 tie here Sept. 29. The Irish defeated Dalhart here, 31-7, and Perryton there, 27-0, but did not meet the Dumas crew. However, both Phillips and Dalhart are expected to be tough.

The 1951 schedule: Sept. 14 Lefors there; Sept. 21 McCall there; Sept. 28 Wellington here; Oct. 5 Memphis here; Oct. 12 Opan; Oct. 19 Phillips here; Oct. 26 Perryton here; Nov. 2 Dalhart here; Nov. 9 Dumas there; Nov. 16 Clarendon here.

In 1950 Shamrock overcame Memphis, Lefors, Clarendon, and McLean, in winning the 2-A title. Wellington beat them 21-14, for a conference record of 4-1. The new conference is considered tougher.

Polio Fund Drive Is Worthy Cause

The public is being asked to contribute to the March of Dimes campaign. There is no doubt as to the worthiness of the cause. Much remains to be learned about polio. A great deal of study is needed. Experiments must be conducted. Such things cost money. Those who devote a large part of their time—sometimes all of it—to seeking means for conquering the dread disease of poliomyelitis do so voluntarily. But it is neither advisable nor sensible for them to be martyrs to a cause which concerns all of us. Therefore they must be paid.

The materials they need in their work must be paid for. Many polio victims require treatment which they are financially unable to pay for themselves.

As the work in connection with polio is voluntary it is entirely fitting that voluntary contributions toward expenses involved should be given. The more generous the contributions the better.

It is regrettable that polio fund campaigns took on political color as a result of the late Franklin Roosevelt. The polio problem is not a matter of party politics. Polio is not partisan. It is well that politics have not vanished from polio fund campaigns.

We Must Open Our Eyes

One of Russia's great advantages in dealing with the free world is the persistent reluctance of people outside the Iron Curtain to recognize a world conspiracy in Soviet plans. Yet the evidence mounts in frightening mass. It may come from any quarter of the globe at any time.

From Paris come reports that Russia may be getting strategic metals from the Belgian Congo, source of copper and the uranium used in atom bombs. What these metals are is not made clear. But South American traders are said to be buying beyond the needs and transferring the surplus to the Soviet Union.

Then, down in troubled Yugoslavia, Marshal Tito learned of his sorrow that two German technicians had been hired were Soviet agents (they posed as purveyor of the war), he betrayed them. The technicians inoculated hundreds of sorely needed cows, horses and pigs with poison, and escaped before being discovered.

These are but two incidents in the conspiracy that proceeds relentlessly everywhere, every day of the year. It is no small thing we're dealing with.

Fair Enough-Pegler

By WESTBROOK PEGLER
NEW YORK — I am tired of being called a Fascist by corrupt lionsers who, knowingly or not, are disloyal to the Constitution of the United States.

I say they are disloyal because they constantly holler up democracy. The form of government which the Constitution provides for my country is the republic. Democracy was pointedly rejected because of its evils. I am not going to expatriate on the distinction between the republic and democracy today. I have done so, thoroughly and irrefutably, before.

I declare that any public official who swears the oath to uphold the Constitution and then turns right around and talks about preserving our democracy is a traitor to the fundamental writ of our nation and therefore a traitor to the United States of America. That goes for every public official from a president down to the most venial rapscallion on the remotest county board. In every case, if possible, in every schoolteacher who defies the innocent minds of our children with the same lie.

I am a Republican. The people who most often call me Fascist are Fascists themselves. Most of them thought Roosevelt was "democratic" because he contemptuously called them by their first names.

I say he was just patronizing and vulgar. No man can patronize me. Many of them defy the man who ruined my wonderful country and betrayed us to the enemy in many ways. I knowingly, with guilt he permitted the permeation of his national administration with traitorous Soviet spies.

Roosevelt was a Fascist, which is just a Communist in a distinctive shade of shirt. The National Recovery Administration under the sign of the blue eagle was absolute fascism. I want to rub that in. He cherished that foul design of his so ardently that when the Supreme Court properly held that it violated the Constitution of our great republic he indicted emotional dupes to disrupt the court with Fascists who would uphold him in anything else he might attempt to do to destroy the republic. That was pure fascism. Hitler picked his courts, too. Yet, I have incurred hatred and obloquy from poor, misguided emotional dupes because I will not bow my head when pagans intone the name of a mortal man as though it were the name of God Almighty.

I know God Almighty's name. It wasn't Roosevelt, and no Fascist ever will compare to me to defy the man who squandered our treasure to build up a mighty, atheistic enemy and, in our name, betrayed the trusting people of Poland to a fate which is worse than death because it is the agony of death prolonged for years already, with death not yet in sight.

By R. C. HOLLES
Treaty Law-making
I never realized the danger of our form of government being changed into a socialistic form of government by the method of making laws by treaty until I read an address made by Frank E. Holman, immediate past president of the American Bar Association.

The address was published by The National Economic Council. Only a few nations can bind their people by a treaty as can the United States. One of the ways it can be done is to have a treaty made by two-thirds of the Senate present at the time. Note it does not take two-thirds of the whole Senate, but only two-thirds of those present when the treaty is made.

Mr. Holman points out that the Supreme Court had for years made decisions limiting the power of the Senate to make treaties. Then he says since 1920 when the case known as Missouri versus Holland was decided, the United States Supreme Court has consistently followed the new doctrine both in the matter of the superiority of the provisions of a treaty over all state law and as to the scope of the treaty-making power being broad enough to make matters otherwise unconstitutional—constitutional.

Holman says: "In Valentine vs. United States, 299 U.S. 5, (1936), the Court held that a treaty, in addition to its being an international contract, constitutes municipal law throughout the United States and that judges in every state are bound to enforce its provisions, any thing in the Constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding."

What an evil miasma this is! Strike at it and it is insubstantial. It is a poison vapor. It is persecuting patriotic men, Jew and Christian, with remorseless stealth for trying to preserve our great, wonderful republic.

"Did I say 'republic'?" By God, yes. I said 'republic' by long live the glorious republic of the United States of America, Damn democracy to hell!

What an evil miasma this is! Strike at it and it is insubstantial. It is a poison vapor. It is persecuting patriotic men, Jew and Christian, with remorseless stealth for trying to preserve our great, wonderful republic.

When I asserted the contrary in my speech at the State Bar of California in September, 1945, many supporters of the International Bill of Rights program proclaimed that I was quite wrong. But I could not see how a lawyer could read and interpret Missouri vs. Holland and later cases as holding that a treaty required implementation in order to nullify the provisions of a state constitution, a state statute, existing federal legislation on the same subject, and state and federal decisions. For example, the implementation was required in the Asakura case and other cases, and none in the recent Fujii case in California to which further reference will soon be made.

Father Has Other Things To Do Just Now

National Whirligig

By RAY TUCKER
WASHINGTON — The rapidly rising cost of all kinds of clothing has directed a senatorial spotlight on the government's heavy sales of cotton to China and other foreign nations.

Naturally, this scarcity forces up the price of all finished textiles, whether made of cotton or substitutes. Wool, of course, had been extremely scarce for many months.

Behind this policy of foreign selling, however, lies the same misjudgment and misunderstanding which has characterized our diplomatic and military thinking almost since the end of World War II.

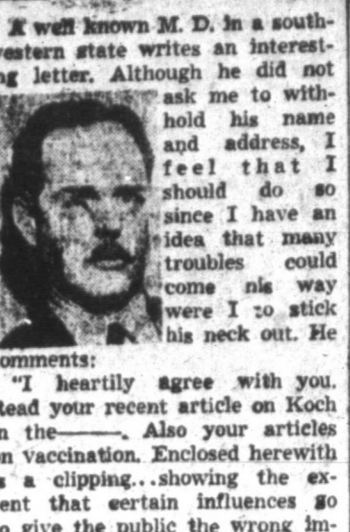

While Secretary Acheson has been blaming Britain, France and Holland for supplying the Chinese Reds with essential goods within the last six months, the Commodity Credit Corporation has pursued the same policy.

It has sold cotton, which can be used for everything from uniforms to ammunition, to Mao Tse-tung's Nationalists, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Manchuria, Hungary and Yugoslavia.

Approval — Obviously, these exports could not have been made without the full knowledge and approval of high administration officials. Besides the role which CCC has played, export licenses were issued by the Department of Commerce.

SALE — Despite the skyrocketing of general food costs, he has offered for overseas sale millions of tons of commodities purchased under the price support program.

Doctor's Letter

BY DAVID BARKER
I well known M. D. in a southwestern state writes an interesting letter. Although he did not ask me to withhold his name and address, I feel that I should do so since I have an idea that many troubles could come my way were I to stick my neck out. He comments:

"I heartily agree with you. Read your recent article on Koch in the... Also your articles on vaccination. Enclosed herewith is a clipping showing the extent that certain influences go to give the public the wrong impression. While the reporter may not have actually lied, he did not tell all the truth, which leaves the public with the wrong impression just as firmly as though the article were an actual lie. I've been on this fighting front for years, have paid the price and may have to pay more. Financially it does not pay to cure people but I have to live with my conscience. Through my duty to my fellow men and to Almighty God I'll continue to serve the public as best I can.

"Concerning vaccination, I suppose you have plenty more evidence from the same sources you received what you are publishing and which I have known for many years, too. It is quite unpopular to argue or talk against it and now the law in this State demands that we licensed physicians cooperate with the Board of Health. There is no law to force compulsory vaccination. The Board of Health just rules that way and the know-it-all school faculty (that is, the principal and teachers under him), as well as the school nurse, go along. The school nurse is another member of the Board of Health on the taxpayers' payroll whose duties are mostly to build up business for dentists and Allopathic physicians and who turns out to be the Allopathic watchdog for school children and their families in case they doctor with anyone other than the Allopathic M. D. We also have Su-working longer hours, or buying bonds until it hurts if these things are required in order to build up our defenses. But it burns me up—I'm sure it does you, too—to be asked to do these things while a million or more absolutely useless bureaucrats hang on to their soft jobs, drawing fat salaries—the 1950 census shows that the highest per capita income in the country is in Washington, D. C.

If non-defense federal spending is cut back to the 1943 level, this in itself will provide the additional ten billion which is to be spent on national defense in fiscal '51. After this has been done, if additional revenue is still necessary, then and only then should Congress consider increasing present taxes or levying new taxes.

If you want to save yourself some money and at the same time do your bit in keeping this country solvent, tell your senators and congressmen immediately that non-defense spending must be cut back ten billion dollars right now.

Quite a few folks did some talking along these lines on November 7 when they voted for candidates who stood for the American way, for constitutional government, for freedom of enterprise and against the centralized control of big government. That's true, but isn't enough. These folks must not go to sleep until the next election rolls around. They've got to keep on expressing themselves, telling those they elected to office what they think should be done. That's what makes public opinion and in a Republic—thank God we still have a Republic—public opinion is always the final controlling factor. My two cents worth is already in. Will you put yours in today?

... who have never had any children in their families, are the end results of vaccinations.

"Am sending you copies of 'The Truth Teller' in which you will find a society willing to furnish debaters to groups wishing to fight vaccination and educate the public. They might be helped sometime should the (organized medical union) hop onto you for letting the public know the truth.

"David, you are doing great work and I hope and pray that you in your efforts to let the public know the truth. We need thousands like you and them, perhaps, we could make a showing."

The doctor sent me a clipping from the Chicago Tribune (3/26/50) of an article by Roy Gibbons attacking the Koch treatment as "worthless" and quoting a Michigan veterinarian as its "authority." Even the chemistry of the Glyoxylic Injection was belittled as containing the same elements found in distilled water. Like the attacks on Sister Kennedy's polio system, the idea operated in the public mind, was that the whole thing was quackery, the patient would have gotten well anyway, and that "proper authorities do not approve of such goings-on."

Well, as for tests on cattle, I'll stick the report of the British Columbia Department of Agriculture's report on the Koch treatment against one veterinary's any time. And when it comes to chemistry, I'll take the opinion of the president of the Dow Chemical Company ahead of the opinion of some paid hireling of the drug trust. When the internationally famous Dr. Wilhelm Hale of Dow Chemical said, "Dr. William Frederick Koch is the modern Pasteur," he must have thought Koch had something on the ball. Likewise, when Dr. A. R. Mitchell, Board of Trustees, American Medical Association, wrote to Dr. Koch Nov. 12, 1924 (when you know Koch, a professor of medicine at the U. of Michigan was beginning his new research), "I hope that a little more time will prove that your work is an epoch-making work and that you will ultimately secure the full credit and profit to which your service entitles you." Dr. Mitchell must have had some confidence in his young colleague. Dr. Mitchell probably foresaw that it would be only after many years and much tribulation that Koch would be "recognized" just as Pasteur was persecuted for 30 years and was a medical outcast before someone discovered that he'd been right all the time.

As for the distilled water department charge, I'm not a chemist. I don't know what goes into the Koch preparation. But the late Dr. Albert Wahl was a chemist and a good one (just as Dow Chemical people are chemists). Dr. Wahl was the eye, ear, nose and throat specialist in charge of the medical section of a large segment of our armed forces during the war, and in his book, "A Least Common Denominator in Anti-Biotics" he describes the Koch preparation in chemical detail. Just recently, by the way, I saw in the papers that army doctors in Korea have "discovered" antibiotics that are working wonders with many sick and diseased soldiers. Of course, no one would dream of "swiping" any of Dr. Koch's ideas without giving him credit? Penicillin, by the way, was discovered years ago but its use was discouraged and suppressed until the last war, when emergency forced its recognition and use.

Anyone who thinks managing a ball club is a cinch ought to have his head examined. You don't know what worries are until you try running a team. Casey Stengel, manager of the world champion New York Yankees.

An open letter to the newly elected members of the Congress

You will have the honor and responsibility of serving your constituents during one of the most critical periods in the country's history.

You enter the Congress at a time when the national debt has reached alarming proportions. Today it stands at something like 257 thousand million dollars ($27 billion). Estimates for arms expenditure during the next fiscal year are put at 65 thousand million dollars (65 billion). The whole budget for 1951-1952 is estimated to reach 100 thousand million dollars (100 billion).

Taxes on incomes have been increased and an excess profit tax is to be levied. All this may be necessary but cannot some billions be lopped off national expenditures by getting rid of needless domestic projects, overlapping bureaus, extravagant price supports, subsidies and pork barrel items?

The Congress will be presented with many demands for expenditures at home and abroad—some undoubtedly necessary; some as a matter of habit.

In examining these, there lies a great opportunity for members of the Congress to weigh each item in relation to the national emergency. One eminent Senator has estimated that non-military expenditures can be slashed by $7,000,000,000 (seven thousand six hundred million). Though you have been elected by individual districts, the national interest—in times like these—should outweigh purely local and sectional interests.

All demands on the treasury that can safely be postponed; all local convenience measures and all those measures, however desirable from a social point of view, that can wait for a less critical period in our history, should be appraised in the light of our present tax burden and the necessity of rearmament.

Defense is the FIRST consideration but perhaps even there we could attain a greater degree of national security if traditional and expensively cumbersome procedures were eliminated by the defense services. Billions appropriated for foreign military assistance often overlap foreign economic aid programs.

As new members of the Congress, you have the benefit of a new perspective. Moreover, the people in their collective expression through the ballot have indicated that they think the time has come for a thorough examination of every expense item. It is the one way to defeat the enemy that hopes our extravagances will destroy us.

We cannot win by arms alone. Our economy must bulwark our arms and it must be kept stable. To quote Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia: "Unless our budget is reduced to essentials, this country is faced with financial chaos and ultimate disaster."

Rally to the defense of our national economy and you will give our armed services their greatest financial and moral support.

Reservists Ordered To Duty
Get Protection In Law Suits

AUSTIN — Army reservists ordered to active military service, either voluntarily or involuntarily, are entitled to protection from civilian suits, evolution well as their employment rights, under the provisions of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Act, Colonel C. M. Culp, Chief of the Texas Military District, stated today.
Personal affairs officers will be available at training centers to assist individual reservists with their problems. In cases where units are called into service, arrangements have been made to place members of the Judge Advocate General Department reserve officers on temporary duty to assist reservists with legal problems prior to departure from their home stations, Col. Culp said.
While this relief law has been in effect since 1940, and was extended and broadened by the Selective Service Extension Act of 1950, the law has been applied from military service because of personal obligations which the act covers.
In general the law provides that neither personal nor real property can be repossessed from an individual ordered to active military service without a court order. If court action is resorted to by the lender, the serviceman may be represented by a dependent if he is unable to attend the hearings of the court which appoint a qualified attorney to represent his interest. The court may stay proceedings if the serviceman's ability to make payments according to the original contract has been affected by his entry into military service. Also, foreclosures of mortgages and deeds of trust may be stayed by the court. This provision includes property purchased under the GI Bill of Rights as well as other mortgages. If court action is started by the lender involving the payment on loans, mortgages on real or personal property or other installment obligations, the court, if it sees fit, may lower the payments or declare them suspended.

had died in a fire many years before. He was at sea so much more than he was in port that his friends were casual. Casual and scattered. Paul couldn't recall one person that Jaboe ever had mentioned as being close to him.

Paul continued to walk and to think. He tried to recall Jaboe's account of how he spent his time between sailings when the ship was docked in New York. Frequently they had been together and it was always just the two of them, making the rounds of bars, good ones and bad ones, and occasionally a show. They always managed to find some girls, but not girls Jaboe had known before. No help there.

He kept probing, digging back. There had been countless long bull sessions at sea, but Paul hadn't remembered anything. He knew about a man when you sail with him after part, when you've drifted out as many close ones together as had. Like a glimmer of light at the end of a long tunnel it began to come back to him.

THEY had been talking about a marriage one night. Jaboe had said that you couldn't be a skipper of a tanker and a husband too without neglecting one job or the other. He loved the sea. He liked his job. That was why he stayed shy of the one girl who had ever made him "feel funny" every time he saw her.

Jaboe had gone with her until he had become aware of how deep the relationship had become for both of them and then he had stopped cold and avoided her. He was afraid he'd get in so deep that he'd do something that would mess up her life or his.

THE girl. He had said who the girl was? Paul never remembered that he had seen her and could understand his friend's feelings. Who was she? Names and faces flowed through his mind, but none of them clicked. He tried going through the alphabet. That trick had worked for him before. When he got to the right letter the name had been groping for words pop into his mind. It didn't work.

Maybe he didn't know the girl's name. Maybe he had just seen her of course!

Paul raked his mind for everything he could recall of Jaboe's life. Martin Jaboe was single he had no family. Both his parents

DAVE TWING heard a girl answer at the other end of the line. "Can you tell me if Captain Jaboe is in port?" he asked.

"Who?" "The Deloria." "Are you sure you have the right number?"

"Something heavy grew in Paul's chest. The phone book lay on the shelf, open next to him. He read the number to her, but he was all foolishness. She had answered the phone by reciting the name of the girl company that Jaboe worked for.

"You have the wrong number, sir."

"Like heck I have," he snapped. "Let me talk with somebody there who knows something."

KID SERGEANT—Sgt. James E. Ward of Greensboro, N. C., did a man's job as a combat infantry leader for six months of the Korean war. But, now the Army will discharge him because they found out he's just 16 years old—too young even to be in service.

Newsman Issued Stock Bulletin
DENVER—(AP)—Officials of the National Western Stock show recently minimized chances of journalistic comedy by issuing this directive to newsmen: "For those of you who are covering animal husbandry news for the first time, here are a few things you really should know:
"Genders of cattle are: MALE—bull; FEMALE—heifer, cow, steer—sexed male, beef, and with the horses: MALE—stallion, stud; FEMALE—mare, broodmare, gelding—sexed male, meat trick."

Elk Is Pet Of Manitoba Family
FRANKLIN, Man.—(AP)—The Weiler MacDonald family here has adopted a young elk into the family. The animal gets along with everybody even a big Labrador dog on the property. A local game warden decided that to return the elk to a national park would mean certain death at the hands of hunters, and has asked the MacDonalds to hold the animal until the hunting season closes.

Pastor Speaks On Attitudes

Taking the right attitude about a job was discussed Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Eugene Slater, pastor of the Polk St. Methodist Church, Amarillo, before the Pampa Rotary Club.
Rev. Slater said a job should be looked at and considered as "a part of the whole" and the whole makes the pattern. He also advised looking at a job, not as such, but as a calling.
The Amarillo minister emphasized the importance, too, of thinking in terms of service to others before looking at that service from a financial standpoint only.
The speaker was introduced by Dr. Orion Carter, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Pampa. The program was in charge of Rev. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Pampa Rotary will hold its annual ladies night program Tuesday, Feb. 6, with Rex Rose serving as chairman of arrangements. Club members were also reminded, by a letter from the district governor, of the international convention to be held from May 27 through May 31 at Atlantic City in the Garden State, New Jersey.

'Old Gal As Good As Ever,' Say Associates Of Greenwood

CHARLOTTE GREENWOOD BACKSTAGE: "Little by little some bits of my old routine injected themselves into the role."

By JACK PRICE GABRIEL
NEA Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK (NEA)—When a Broadway star hasn't shed her light above the marquee of a New York theater in 24 years, the public doesn't expect her to return in the leading role of Cole Porter's latest musical comedy, but that's what Charlotte Greenwood did in "Out of This World."
The tall, slender comedienne, remembered by an older generation in "Linger Longer Letty" and a subsequent series of "Letty" shows, is back after almost a quarter of a century, looking about as she did when he left. Blonde and agile as ever, she's approaching 60 with the vitality of a woman half her age.
Getting her new part was a surprise to her.
"My phone rang one day in California," she explained, "and had been written originally as straight comedy.
"I didn't expect to wind up doing the same things I was known for after the first World War," Miss Greenwood said. "But little by little some bits of my old routines injected themselves into the role until now Juno's really a lot like Letty, only more divine, or course, being a goddess."
The rehearsals were fine, and so was the out-of-town tryout. But when "Out of This World" opened in New York, Miss Greenwood experienced the most nerve-racking moments of opening-night terror she'd ever had.
"I'd been away so many years," she said, with a wry face at the memory of her ordeal. "I very suddenly realized that New York audiences would not remember me as did people on the road where I'd played more recently. To them, my comedy might be merely old-fashioned and unamusing. My feeling was something like a soldier in combat; I was scared stiff, but I had to go on just the same."
The ovation that greeted her first entrance was utterly unexpected.
"It was so touching, I wanted to stand there and cry," she said. "I guess I did, a little, because then I knew they were still glad to see an old friend. It was the most exciting, heart-warming feeling in the world—that and the knowledge that I'm making new friends, too, of the young people."
But it was at the end of her last song, when she went into her big routine of high kicks and wide splits, that she stopped the show cold. When she started to raise one long leg for some typical Greenwood clowning, the audience let go with a mixture of deafening applause, whistles and shouts of "bravo!"
"And the best part of it is, they've been doing it ever since," said Miss Greenwood, grinning happily. "I was really assured when two women walked by my dressing room after the first night and I heard one say to the other: 'That old gal is just as good as ever.'"
The Suez Canal connects the Mediterranean with the Red Sea and is 104.50 miles long.
Wherever she toured, which includes most of the English-speaking world, she'd put on an unadvertised performance of songs and dances at the end of the play.
