Buffer Zone Still Snags Truman

MUNSAN, Korea—(AP)—UN Truce negotiators again Saturday proposed that a cease-fire buffer zone be created wherever the battle line happens to be when a Korean armistice agreement is ready for signing. "Minor and local adjustments" could be made.

An Allied spokesman said this would permit the United Nations to maintain military pressure on the Reds while agreement was sought on the three remaining points to be decided.

Churchill And Truman Talk In January

WASHINGTON—(AP)—British Prime Minister Churchill is now expected to visit Washington for talks with President Truman in January about the time Congress reconvenes.

Diplomats believe that if he comes at that time Britain's well-remembered war leader, newly returned to power, will be invited to address a joint session of Congress and will accept.

The groundwork for the top level U.S.—British talks is already being laid. This is being done in conversations among American and British officials in London and Paris.

Authorities here expect Churchill to try to pound home three ideas when he comes for his "meeting of minds" with Mr. Truman. Those basic policy lines are:

1. There must be a closer partnership between the United States and Britain. This should be expressed not so much in the creation of new international machinery such as revival of the old wartime combined chiefs of staff as in the constant communication of ideas between policy makers and frequent personal contact.

All-Out Drive Launched For Voters In City Bond Election

A concentrated "get-out-the-vote" drive in the $575,000 city improvement bond election Thursday was inaugurated over the weekend by the citizens committee, the group which recommended to the city commission that the election be called. For the next five days telephone lines will be buzzing, newspaper advertising used, radio time employed and the Pampa Provisional League of Women Voters will also throw their weight to the "get-out-the-vote" campaign.

Mrs. Frank Culberson, president of the league, said members will use their cars on election day to offer transportation to the polls for those who need it, and also provide baby sitters for women who want to vote but would have to leave their children unattended while they went to the polls. The women also plan neighborhood telephone calls to qualified voters to go to the polls and cast their ballots.

As election day drew near, interest in the bond issue that would improve the city water, sewer, street and park systems has shown a marked increase. Last week City Manager Dick Pepin spoke to one of the largest groups assembled so far in the campaign when he detailed the proposed improvements to the R. M. Baker PTA.

Presently, full signalization of Alcock and Faulkner, and Frederic and Barnes is permitted by the state only during school days and then only during the times school is starting or dismissing. These times are from 8:45 to 9:30 a.m., 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., and 2:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Application for full signalization of these intersections will be filed with the State Highway Dept. district office at Amarillo following the traffic counts at Alcock and Faulkner and W. Foster and N. Hobart.

Intersection Qualifies For Traffic Light

The Frederic and Barnes intersection finally met state qualifications Friday to be fully signalized instead of being rated a blinker crossing.

City Engineer Ray Evans yesterday said a 13-hour traffic count at the intersection disclosed a total 9076 cars entering the crossing.

Because Frederic is actually a part of U. S. Hwy. 60 and State Hwy. 152 and maintained by the State Highway Dept., the city may not operate a full traffic signal system there until it meets state qualification of at least 750 cars or more per hour during the busiest eight-hour period of any one day.

785 CARS HOURLY
Friday's traffic count showed an average of 785 cars per hour entering the intersection during the busiest eight-hour period, or a total of 6276 cars entering the intersection during that time. The grand total for the 13-hour period was 9076.

This week, traffic counts also will be made at Alcock and Faulkner and W. Foster and N. Hobart. Both state maintained streets, other intersections will be given similar surveys, but for a different reason than just meeting state specifications.

The count will be made on Sumnerville at W. Foster; W. Kingsmill and W. Francis and at S. Cuyler and Craven.

The counts will be made on Somerville at W. Foster; W. Kingsmill and W. Francis and at S. Cuyler and Craven.

Clyde Bowman Rites Monday

Funeral services for Atty. Clyde K. Bowman, 46, of 1153 Starkweather, who died at 10:30 p.m. Friday in Highland General hospital, will be held in the First Methodist church at 2 p.m. Monday with Dr. Orion W. Carter, officiating.

He was admitted to the hospital Oct. 15 suffering from recurring heart attacks. Considered on the critical list from the time of his admittance to the hospital, he required constant bedside attention from nurses, friends and members of the family. By Thursday members of the local bar association began standing two-hour bedside watches to assist the hospital nursing staff.

Formerly associated with the Hughes interests, Mr. Bowman retired to his own practice about three months ago. He moved to Borger in 1947 from Elwood City, Pa., and came to Pampa the following year.

Born in Greene county, Tenn., Sept. 5, 1905, he attended the University of Tennessee and Cumberland Law school, Lebanon, Tenn. A veteran of World War II, he was a member of the American Legion and served as Excelsior ruler of the Pampa Elks lodge. He also belongs to the Kivah Temple Shrine club and the Blue Lodge of Masons at Murfreesboro, Tenn.

He was active in church affairs and served as president of the Couple's Class of the First Methodist Sunday School. Surviving are: his wife, Mrs. Grace Browning Bowman, two sons, Samuel J. Bowman and James Thomas Bowman, all of Pampa; three sisters, Mrs. Estes B. Reeve, Mrs. Carrie B. Painter, both of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Seima B. Wilhoit, Greenville, Tenn., and one brother, Orville R. Bowman, Chucky, Tenn.

Brings Total Wildcats To Four In Area

Phillips Petroleum Co. has announced two new deep tests in Gray county, just six miles northeast of Pampa.

The announcement by Phillips came on the heels of a new location by Gulf Oil Corp. on its John Haggard lease, 14 miles northeast of Pampa, Friday.

The two new ventures bring Phillips total of wells in Gray county to three. They are currently drilling on their No. 1 Hobart ranch, six miles northeast of town and about a mile southeast of the two new tests.

The company is digging cellar on both of the wells to be drilled on acreage leased from Joe and Bob Gordon, Pampa attorneys.

One well is located in the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of the section while the other is located in the northeast quarter of the southeast quarter section 48, block 2, I&GN survey.

Phillips officials have refused to release information on the proposed depth for the two wildcats. The company has about 540 acres leased in the block from the Gordon brothers.

The tests are about a mile and a half northwest of Hoover and a mile southwest of the ill-fated Phillips Jenkie wildcat and three miles south and one mile east of the Carruth.

Denials Of Truman's Offer To Support Ike Still Fly

PARIS—(AP)—A friend of Sen. Robert A. Taft quoted Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower Saturday as saying there is "absolutely no truth" to the story that President Truman had offered to support the general for the Democratic nomination for President in 1952.

Rep. George Bender of Cleveland, a congressman at large from Ohio, met with Eisenhower Saturday in company with three other representatives, two Democrats and a Republican.

Bender was asked by the Associated Press if he obtained any definite information from Eisenhower whether he was planning to run for the Presidency.

The representative replied that he asked Eisenhower directly whether there was any truth in the story published Thursday by the New York Times that the President had offered to stand aside for the general and support him for the Democratic nomination.

"There is absolutely no truth in the story," Bender quoted Eisenhower.

But Bender said he got no direct answer when he asked Eisenhower: "Is you or is you ain't a candidate for the presidency and is you or is you ain't a Republican?"

Eighth Strange Fireball Slashes Southwest Sky

ALBUQUERQUE—(AP)—The eighth fireball in 13 days streaked across southwestern skies early Saturday, bringing another expert forward with a puzzled "most unusual" Saturday's fireball was witnessed by Tucson, N.M., by city policemen and an airline pilot. Policeman Stanley Flint said the object appeared to him about two-thirds the size of a full moon, viewed from a considerable distance.

At Las Cruces, the astronomer who discovered the planet Pluto in 1930, said the fall was "far from common."

"If it were a meteor shower, such as has occurred in the past, I would not think it so rare," commented Astronomer Clyde Tombaugh. "But with such a sporadic appearance, I term it most unusual."

Tombaugh, engaged in scientific work at White Sands proving ground where most of this nation's experimental rockets are launched, was an astronomer at Lowell observatory near Flagstaff, Ariz., when he discovered the planet.

Jordan In Tennessee

Sheriff R. H. Jordan arrived in Jackson, Tenn., late last night to pick up J. D. Hardin charged here with forgery.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Shirley Nickols said Saturday Hardin was picked up by Jackson officials on request of the local sheriff's office late last week. Hardin, Nickols said, has waived extradition and should be brought back to Pampa early this week.

Reservations for the luncheon may be made by calling Mrs. L. W. Jolly, phone 371, or Mrs. Ralph Sidwell, phone 2390.

Besides the PTA meeting bond boosters and city officials appeared before local civic clubs, giving a verbal picture of the present condition of the city water, sewer, and street and park systems, along with what the bond issue would do to improve them.

By noon Saturday absentee voting in the bond election climbed to 11 ballots cast in City Clerk Ed Vicars' office.

Rep. Rogers To Describe Middle Eastern Oil Situation For Area Oilmen Here Tuesday

The Middle Eastern oil situation will be analyzed by Rep. Walter Rogers for area oilmen meeting here Tuesday.

Rogers, home during congressional recess, is slated to be principal speaker for the second fall meeting of the Panhandle chapter of the American Petroleum Institute.

The institute, with more than 700 members, has completed plans for the meeting to get underway at 8 p.m. in the Palm room of the city hall.

Rogers is expected to describe conditions existing in the Middle East and their effect on oil field operations in the United States and Texas.

In addition, Rogers will explain his vote against the controversial tax increase voted in by Congress last October. Rogers cast the sole "nay" vote in the Texas delegation in the House.

CHURCHILL

sessions between them. That would mean frequent Churchill-Truman talks and even more frequent Acheson-Eden sessions. Also under the heading of partnership Churchill is understood to include the problem of Britain's economic shortages and the apparent certainty that his government will have to seek substantial financial help from the United States.

2. Britain should have a much greater voice in the development of foreign policy involving both governments than Churchill felt it had under the labor government.

Some officials look for the dynamic Prime Minister to try to dominate certain areas of foreign policy. They add they do not believe he will have very much success in matters involving questions of great American interest or concern, particularly in such areas as the Far East.

3. Some way must be found to improve relations between the West and Russia. Churchill has repeatedly advocated a top level meeting or "supreme effort" to ease world tensions. President Truman has always cold shouldered suggestions of recent years that he should meet with Stalin and his advisers do not expect he will change his views at Churchill's urging.

PLAQUE PRESENTATION — E. L. Green, Jr., (second from left) is shown presenting a safety award to F. M. Neely of Kermit during a banquet held Wednesday night in Odessa to honor 30 men for making an outstanding safety record in the company's Walton gasoline plant. The men amassed a total of 609,083 hours without a lost-time injury. At left in photo is Reuben Hall, superintendent of the gasoline plant near Kermit who received the plaque from Neely. Third from left is Hugh Burdette, Pampa, who was a speaker at the affair.

Cabot Carbon Company Feles Workers For Safety Record

The Cabot Carbon Co. paid tribute to 30 men at Odessa Wednesday night who had a part in operating the company's Walton gasoline plant for 10 years without a lost-time accident and, during this period, amassed a total of 609,083 hours without a lost-time injury.

F. M. Neely, Kermit, district superintendent of Cabot's gasoline division, accepted a plaque from E. L. Green, Jr., Pampa, vice-president in charge of oil, gas, and gasoline, for the outstanding record and in turn presented the award to R. H. Hall, superintendent of the gasoline plant near Kermit.

Hugh Burdette, Pampa, vice-president and general manager of Cabot's industries in the Southwest, praised the men for their achievement, but told them their record was a by-product of something the company appreciated more than the 3748 days they had worked without serious injury.

"I believe," said Burdette, "that your mental attitude has been the main reason for your good safety record. To me, that record indicates you have been happy on the job, that you have been mentally alert, and have felt and your fellow employees."

The presentation was made at a banquet in Odessa's new Lincoln hotel ballroom and was arranged by Don M. Conley, Pampa Cabot safety and insurance director. Toastmaster was Tommy Thompson, Kermit school superintendent.

William L. Kerr, Midland attorney, was the main speaker. He suggested that the periodical inspections for physical hazards to safety and constant examination of work habits "might also be applied to your government."

Attending from Pampa were Burdette, Green, Reno Stinson, Horace Prince, Bert Arney, James A. McCune, Eugene Anderson and Ralph Brock.

GET BACK PAY

DALLAS — (AP) — The Labor Dept. has reported that about 374 workers in Texas received $40,000.54 in back wages during October.

The pay came from 74 employers who complied with the Federal Fair Labor Standards act.

Doctors Can Only Postpone Death, Says Medical Group

Medical doctors have been unable to prevent death, but they have postponed it during the past 50 years to where the average life expectancy has risen from 48 years in 1900 to near 70 today.

The Texas Medical Assn. declares the true picture of medical progress is not how many people die but how long they live before they die.

BEST CARE AVAILABLE

In a third of a series of four advertisements running currently in The Pampa Daily News, the medical doctors of Pampa again emphasize that regardless of a patient's ability to pay, the best medical care in the world is available to them — in other words, if a person needs medical care he should ask for it. When it comes to a fee, the doctors say, have a full and frank talk with the physician on your ability to pay and not wait until the bill has been sent.

Because doctors have been long making it a general practice to provide the best medical care irrespective of the ability to pay, more people have been given a new lease on life and the raising of their life expectancy.

But in raising this life expectancy, the public is reminded by the Texas Medical Assn., not to expect too much.

CANNOT WIN

The doctor cannot win against death. He has only found ways of postponing it.

In an essay on this TMA said: "When a woman is saved in childbirth, he just adds her name to the list of possible cancer victims in later years. If the doctor saves a man from pneumonia he only adds his name to the list of potential heart disease cases later on. The doctor cannot win. He can only change the age and cause of death."

The dramatic fight against premature death has been and is being waged constantly with weapons and developments unknown to the medical profession 50 years ago. The quest to prolong life is one that will never end, doctors say, and is one of the many services the medical profession is constantly giving the people of the United States.

Civil Suits Face Two Charged With Cattle-Rustling

With cattle rustling charges hanging over their heads, E. J. Ramming, Ernest Banks, and Ralph Rubrecht now face a civil action brought against them by S. H. Stone and Wade Thomason for recovery of the money they allegedly obtained by selling 47 head of the stolen cattle to the firm.

Named as co-defendants in the civil action are the Citizens Bank and Trust Co., holders of a check deposited there by Ramming and his associates, and Sheriff Hugh Anderson, Borden, for cash he is holding in Hutchinson county.

The petition filed by the Pampa commission firm asks for recovery of $2280 from the three men charged with theft of cattle from the Johnny Hankins ranch in Hutchinson county; recovery of the $5385 deposit the three men allegedly made with the Citizens Bank and $880 in cash being held by Anderson.

DEFENDANTS DIVIDED

The petition divided the defendants in the civil action into two classifications — the three charged men as "Class A" defendants and the bank and Anderson as "Class B" defendants.

The men were arrested Monday by Sheriff R. H. Jordan and deputies after Thomason became suspicious of the transaction and made a rapid fire investigation. Hankins confirmed Thomason's suspicions and the load of cattle was intercepted near Dalhart and returned to the Hankins ranch.

Because Ramming is well known in and around Gray county neither Thomason nor Joe Looper, Skellytown, who weighed the cattle were suspicious at the time of the daring daylight roundup and loading of the cattle.

Shortly after the three were picked up Ramming was jailed in Carson county where he was still being held today. The other two were taken to Finnett where they were still being held in the Hutchinson county jail there.

Low-Down on a high-powered Performer

Let us tell you this: The Buick pictured here packs more power than you find in any other car of its size and room and price. That's the power of Buick's newest high-compression valve-in-head eight—the F-263 Fireball Engine, that really gets miles from a gallon of gas. Add to this the fact that it tips the scales at 3817 pounds curb-side—and you begin to see why this big-powered beauty is such a nimble-footed number out on the road. But that's only Chapter I of the performance story. There's a big-car feel to the way this trim traveler covers the ground—hugs the curves—holds its course on the straightaway—smothers the bumps with its big soft coil springs on all four wheels. There's a big-car room inside—six-passenger room—headroom, hiproom, shoulderroom, kneeroom, front and back.

Come in, look it over, and we think you'll agree—it's big in everything but price. And that's where it really shines. If you've shopped around you'll know what we mean when you read the price tags, and what they include in the way of standard equipment that shows up as "extras" on so many others. Such things as an oil filter, air cleaner, vacuum booster, built-in summer ventilation are all yours at no extra charge. It's hard to believe but it's true. If you can afford a new car, you can afford this Buick at the prices we're quoting today. Better come in and look this smart buy over. Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

The Evils Of 'Smear Campaigns'

The obvious lack of ethics and morals with which many politicians and business men conduct their affairs should sound a solemn warning to Americans who are concerned about the future.

No nation, state or city can be better than the people who live there. No respect, greatness or honor can be bestowed on a people themselves, are without conscience and principle.

Perhaps the most shameful of all trickery used in the world of politics and business here in America is the "smear campaign" where honest individuals, groups or organizations are blatantly accused of evil and ridiculous things by those who seek to protect selfish interests or to conceal their own misdeeds.

The ethics which govern relationships, whether they involve two or more people, groups or organizations, should be as wholesome and without mitigation if the participants are to maintain dignity, respect, and be faithful to the higher laws that rule human conduct.

A complete incongruity to these ethics are the smear campaigns; those smearing, disloyal, resorts to written and oral untruths that are devoid of honor and morality.

Where do smear campaigns begin? They are born of incompetence, smallness of nature and a general self-analysis on the part of the smear purveyor that adds up, bluntly: "I have not the quality to compete honestly, nor the bigness of nature to retire gracefully or accept defeat, so I will vie through the use of mal-propaganda."

Honest, virile competition in politics or business is praiseworthy and necessary to the general welfare. It commands respect and is invited. Smears invariably conceive a filthy, distasteful, malignant and malignant, which in turn creates more of the same. Those who turn to a smear campaign for a weapon are lacking principle. And to be found lacking in principle is to be found lacking in truth.

Smear campaigns turn away from logic for logic leads itself to logic and never to the desertion of it. Those who indulge in mud slinging for what to them is gain, are only fooling themselves. For there is no gain. The criteria of human relationships should be truth, and truth never compromises. Ethics cannot be abandoned to a degree.

And a smear campaigning is attacking truth and ethics to the four winds.

The deliberate smearing of an individual, group or organization simply for the sake of personal gain or to inflict specious reasoning on the public has no justification. Strict adherence to honest principles will not permit participation in this type of infamy.

A challenge to indulge in mud slinging is not worthy of rebuttal. In fact, it is not even worthy of recognition.

Baxter's Views

DAVID BAXTER

DIAGNOSIS: A diagnosis beats a post-mortem all to pieces. It's always better to diagnose now than to hold an autopsy later.

After some preliminary sparring and admiration of the AMA, Dr. Cline gets down to business. "The medical welfare of the people of our country is entrusted largely to the medical profession."

"Today as never before the world looks to us for leadership." Maybe it does.

"We are the most favored among nations because the light of liberty burns brightly here. Individual freedom, opportunity and incentive are the cherished birthright of our people."

Attacking socialized medicine, Dr. Cline carries on his correct premise on professional and individual freedom, yet he neglects to assure us that the AMA itself does not and will not in the future practice socialism to the extent that it follows the typical trade union "protection" policy.

He speaks of socialistic doctors as "those who hold the welfare of the American people to be less important than their own share alike, but the socialists destroy initiative, impoverishes the people and works injustice where the socialists advocate using the state to take from one to give to another, and giving the bureaucrats who do the taking part of the loot."

State socialism is based on the theory that might makes right and that the state can use compulsion and distribute what is produced more justly than it can be done on a voluntary basis.

Various forms of socialism have become more and more popular because the youth of the land has been coming in contact with school teachers in public schools who are practicing, and necessarily advocating, a form of socialism.

Socialism is the exact antithesis of Christianity. Socialism is based on initiating force, and Christianity is based on love and charity and voluntary actions.

It is time that people analyzed their own beliefs and acts to determine whether or not they are advocating a phase of socialism before they themselves condemn socialists.

As a man is afraid to answer any question about his belief in how the government should be placed, so he is afraid to answer a list to a degree and does not even know it.

THE DEVIL ATTEMPTS A COMEBACK (Christian Economics)

This is a day of conferences—local, state, national and international, and on every conceivable subject. Not much of lasting value comes out of most of these conferences.

Long ago a very high level conference was held on Mt. Sinai. God was present and on that day a new man was born.

Up to that time and long after, men enslaved their fellows and ruled over them. The strong and the able exploited other men for their own pleasure.

Then came this great concept of the supremacy of God over all men. Gradually it began to seep into the minds and hearts of men that they owed supreme loyalty to God. God and not other men.

As this thought grew in the minds of men, the tyrants sat uneasily on their thrones. If God was the keeper of one's conscience, a man could not harm his fellows even at the behest of his ruler.

When the first Commandment was placed, men came to rebel against injuring their neighbors, and refused to treat them cruelly, to punish and enslave them. God replaced the tyrant as the arbiter of men. As this insight gained away in the hearts of men, it weakened the hold of the tyrant, and there emerged the vision of a man as a free being, united in function under his conscience as God's creature whom no other man had a right to command, oppress, persecute, exploit or enslave.

Statism is the negation of the Commandment. It places the state over the man and makes it not God, the keeper of his conscience. Collectivism of any sort and under any name subordinates the individual man to the will of the group. The individual loses his individuality; he can no longer follow his conscience. He must do as the group directs. To rebel against the decision of the group is to make himself an outlaw. To do that, even under a benevolent form of statism, is to cut himself

Better Jobs

By R. C. HOILES

Very few people in this country think they believe in socialism. Whether or not they believe in socialism would depend entirely upon what is meant by the term socialism.

A socialist of course is a man who believes in socialism. Webster's first definition of socialism is: "A political and economic theory of social organization based on collective or governmental ownership and democratic management of the essential means for the production and distribution of goods."

That might be summed up by saying that anyone who believes in the state having the right to initiate force against an individual to take part of his property to give it to another, believes in a form of socialism.

One man who believes in a certain amount of socialism will say that another man is going "too far" in socialism. But neither one can tell how far "too far" is.

Any law that interferes with a free and unhampered market is a form of socialism. Such laws would include tariffs; compulsory savings, where the money is taken over by the state; minimum wage laws; graduated income tax laws; tax supported schools and colleges; tax supported churches; regulations over bank credit—these are a few of the various forms of socialism.

THE QUESTION: Are you looking forward to the advent of television in Pampa?

THE ANSWERS: Mrs. F. W. Peabody, housewife, 1920 E. Christine, "I'd love to see television come to Pampa. My husband is a real baseball enthusiast and sees or hears a game whenever he can. Sports like baseball can be presented over television so that the spectator can follow the play closely. We certainly will enjoy sitting at home and seeing them."

Jimmy Enloe, cleaning plant operator, 708 N. Wells, "When I first saw television two years ago in Tulsa I wasn't too interested in it. However, the last time I saw it I found it was most interesting. I intend to have a set when it does come here, especially in bad weather. I enjoy television even now although the stations are so far away."

Mrs. Max Hickey, housewife, 918 E. Francis, "I'm definitely looking forward to having television here in Pampa. I think it will be fine to have entertainment in our own home. No doubt television when it comes here will provide entertainment for all of the family and will be a great help in staying home with our new son and watching the movie and comedy shows."

Mrs. G. M. Walls, housewife, 1001 E. Browning, "Oh, yes, I certainly would like to see television here and I'm anxious for it to come. I'd like it for the amusement the children would get out of it and I think it will be a fine medium of entertainment for the family. Statistics show that the memory retains sight better than sound, therefore, I feel television will be educational for my three sons."

Economic Ruin Threatens Red China Without Stalin's Aid

Red China's seeming eagerness for Korean truce accord is in line with an offer by crafty Premier Chou En-lai to establish trade relations with free world states.

Of course, the truculent but low, blow-cold astute negotiators won't admit weakness. Chou continues to threaten seizure of Formosa and to promise his duped people the ultimate defeat of the "American aggressor."

But many signs indicate that Mao-Tse-tung's torun and bleeding country is under severe strain and would crumble into economic ruin but for aid from the Stalin bloc. Even this flow of goods is not enough, hence Chou's hint that he is willing to renew trade ties with Britain and the West.

Even before the Iron Curtain. From the Public Safety bureau for equalizing the police about her non-Communist father.

ACCUSED OF MURDER: The Red movement to win the minds of youth also is directed at foreign missionaries, the traditional teachers of youth. Only a few are now left in China and these are trying to escape. At first atheistic officials harassed them on religious grounds. Dr. W. L. Wallace, a famous American clergyman, died in prison.

Lately they have been accused of "United States espionage." Two French priests in Tientsin were arrested as "American spies." A Spanish archbishop in Ankara was expelled on the trumped-up charge of subversion.

A heroic Chinese, Father John Tung, who had refused publicly to renounce his faith, has disappeared into the silence of the dungeon. Earlier he had forecast, "Persecution is coming. Priests must expect to be killed. I hope to die a martyr."

The Peiping radio announced recently, "Chinese people are indignant over the Catholic orphanage that has been persecuting Chinese children. An exhumation revealed 116 dead infants buried in the courtyard." Moscow papers repeated the lie, increasing the number of baby victims to thousands and declaring that it was an American missionary plot to "kill off as many Chinese children as possible."

An unrevealed fact about the monstrous falsehood is that it is very old. A hundred years ago anti-foreign Chinese fanatics invented the story that American missionaries murdered Chinese orphans in order to use infant eyes to make medicine.

And Chinese and Russian Reds have copied the ancient and hard-copied lie and flung it at kind-hearted Christians who came to China chiefly to preach of Him who said, "Suffer the little children to come unto me."

RESISTANCE PERSISTS: Mass trials and executions of anti-Communists continue. Officials drill school kids and tradesmen in advance on suspect's guilt. On trial day all are assembled. An official cries, "Doesn't the prisoner deserve punishment?" The puppets shout agreement.

"What kind of punishment?" asks the sinister interlocutor. "Death," yells the crowd. As a reward for mass "jury service," the people are allowed to thrash

Union Bosses Promoting Own European Diplomatic Service

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

S. S. CROOK — One of the topics which I hope I will be able to investigate in Europe is a political and diplomatic service under the management of David Dubinsky and other bosses of American unions, which has the effrontery to promote as well as it can a foreign policy independent of the foreign policy of the United States.

The State Department read others who make our official foreign policy and carry it out, have many terrible errors or crimes to answer for.

But, as a nation, the American people are responsible for the commitments which our official agents assume in the name of the Washington government. The citizens of the United States have never authorized David Dubinsky to speak for our field of international politics and we are almost unanimously ignorant of the fact that this impudent Socialist plotter has had the nerve to presume to do so. This is a secret from almost all of us.

Under the "date-line" of Bad Nauheim, Germany, however, and under the by-line of David J. Dallin, the American Mercury tells us that "the American Federation of Labor since the war has not seen fit to restrict itself to merely functioning as a domestic economic movement."

Beyond that, Dallin writes, "the A. F. of L. has developed its own unique foreign policy, which has differed in significant ways from that of the State Department and both political parties."

We then are told that the A. F. of L. refused to be drawn into the international Communist movement after the war and "quietly went about planning and setting up its own foreign service structure and concentrated on evolving its own foreign policies."

The A. F. of L. because the "natural leader" of a rival organization dedicated to the establishment of Communism all over the world. This is called the Confederation of Free Trade Unions, with headquarters in Brussels. All Socialism is Marxian and Russian Communism also is a version of Marx. But the bound victim before he is shot.

The Luchow radio boasts that in two months 1976 Communists were attended by 188,000, who decided the "punishment of counter-revolutionaries." Chiang Kai-shek's veterans on Formosa recently filled out forms in reporting known persecutions of relatives on the mainland. They listed 85,984 dependents harmed by Communists, including 21,775 killed.

In retaliation Nationalist guerrillas rip down telegraph wires, sink military supply junks and blow up troop and ammunition trains bound for the Korean front. Other partisans destroy crops and raid industries.

Mao has liquidated many thousands of potential opponents. But resistance — though weakened — persists, especially in Manchuria and Szechwan. His economy sags under the heavy extra load of war. His best troops have been chewed up by General Ridgway's forces.

A breathing spell in Korea would give him a chance to root out guerrilla remnants in mountains and forests. Fresh trade with non-Communist states, as suggested by Premier Chou, also would bolster the drooping economic system.

Even the United Nations may not be as dumb as to let the wounded and badly beaten Red dragon recuperate for an attack on Formosa or for some fresh aggression against French troops in Indo-China.

Well, Meany and Harrison are meaningless here, well-fed, flabby bureaucrats who are merely names on a roster. Dubinsky is the force. Dubinsky has done as much as any other individual and more than most to deceive the Americans with elements of socialism represented as "democratic" and "representative" names on the United States, our government would imitate in all important respects the Socialist program of the miscalled British Labor party which has now brought the old empire to disaster.

Yet, Dallin, typical of this development, refers in the most casual and incidental manner to the news that Dubinsky's unknown "ambassador in Europe" has the job of "representing" the United States.

Who elected these mysterious unknowns to "represent the United States"? What are their qualifications? Who are they, anyway?

Dubinsky, like the English Laborite Socialists, want the revolution their way, not the Russian way.

The success of the new International Confederation of labor was due to no small degree to the personalities of its leaders in the international field, Matthew Woll, David Dubinsky, George Meany, Jay Lovestone, and George Harrison, say Dallin.

"Minister of foreign affairs, so to put it, is actually Jay Lovestone, an expert in the international field, a man undoubtedly too little publicized on the American scene."

Indeed, he is too little publicized, this "minister of foreign affairs" of this upstart, irresponsible "state department." And the fact that he is acceptable to Dubinsky, the perpetual international president of the Garment Workers' Union, parasitic-socialist state within the United States which operates its own political party as a union auxiliary in New York, makes it the more important that we learn all about him and Dubinsky and what they are up to.

MIAMI —(Special)— Miami High School Warriors, their girlfriends and the faculty, were entertained at a football banquet Friday evening in the Methodist church dining room. The turkey dinner was sponsored and served by the High School Mothers' club.

Warren Hasse, sports editor of The Pampa Daily News, was guest speaker. Others on the program included A. H. Gordon, superintendent, who gave the invocation and the benediction; Mrs. S. J. Billy Bob Bryant, captain, was toastmaster.

The decorative theme carried out the school colors of purple and gold in the bouquets, the lighted tapers and the satin streamers, with gold lettering, "Warriors" centering each of the three tables. The same colors were used in the place cards and the gold football favors.

Climax of the evening was the coronation ceremony of the football queen, Miss Marilyn Reeves, high school junior, was chosen by the team for the honor. She was crowned by Captain Bryant and Co-captain Clark.

Miss Reeves, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Reeves, was the Miami contestant in the Wheatheart of the Nation, contest at Perryton in August.

Church Of Christ Expects Opening In About 3 Weeks

Members of Pampa's Church of Christ expect to move into their new building located on Mary Ellen at Harvester in about three weeks, J. P. Crenshaw, minister, said Saturday.

Contractor Ted Nicholas estimates his work will be completed in about two weeks. Some furniture for the church has not arrived yet.

Ground was broken for the $200,000 project April 1.

Included in expansion plans made by the church is the minister's home which will be built directly behind the church building and finished in the same type of material. Mr. Crenshaw said work had not begun on the home yet.

Last week, a picture for the baptistry was painted by Mrs. Andrew Perry, artist from Denver, Colo. Mrs. Perry, who has a hobby of painting this type of picture, completed the work in about three days with the assistance of Mrs. C. P. Pursley, local artist.

Mrs. Perry has painted more than 200 of these original scenes at no charge to the churches.

"It is her contribution to the Lord," Mr. Crenshaw said. No definite plans have been laid for an opening ceremony, Mr. Crenshaw said Saturday.

All the Pueblo Indians in New Mexico live within the Rio Grande drainage area except a tribe known as the Zuni.

AMARILLO HARVESTERS DO IT AGAIN, 20-4

Fight From Behind To Defeat Sandies

By WARREN HASSE
Pampa News Sports Editor

The third time wasn't the charm for the Amarillo Sandies yesterday afternoon as they dropped their third game in a row to the Fighting Pampa Harvesters.

A capacity crowd of 8,500 screaming fans filled Harvester Park and saw the Green and Gold charge back from a 12-14 halftime deficit to roll on to a resounding 26-14 victory. The win kept Pampa hopes alive in the District 1-AAAA football chase and knocked the Sandstorm out of contention. It was only the second loss of the year for the visitors and the seventh win against one loss for the Harvesters.

With Lubbock romping over Abilene, 32-20, yesterday, the Harvesters must hope for Odessa to upend the Westerners next weekend in Odessa while the Harvesters must win their last two games. Such a situation would leave the district race in a triple tie and force a coin-flipping to determine the district representative. The Harvesters will face Berger's Bulldogs, 33-14 victors over San Angelo Friday, next Friday afternoon at Berger and then close out Thanksgiving day at San Angelo against the hapless Bobcats.

Yesterday's thrilling victory, only the sixth in the 22-year rivalry, was again a great team victory as boys who had seen little action all year came off the bench to play outstanding roles.

Senior quarterback Sid Mills engineered the last half of the game during which the Harvesters rolled over their two winning touchdowns. He replaced veteran signal caller DeWey Cudney who had been ill all week with a case of the flu and was also suffering with a chearley horse. Oscar Sargent, another game-hearted senior, played a stellar game on defense from a linebackers position, new to him.

Billy Davis, hard running senior halfback, electrified the crowd midway through the first period when he scampered 57 yards around left end behind superb blocking for the initial counter. Davis was performing with special effort for his father, who had traveled 1500 miles to see his son play for the first time. And play Davis did!

John Young, senior fullback, blasted the Sandstorm line - up to this game the strongest in the district - to shreds as he set up the two second half touchdowns. Young was the final one in the last minute to salt away the game.

Darrell Wilson, another senior halfback, continued his fine offensive and defensive play, consistently making good yardage and diagnosing Amarillo offensive maneuvers to spill the play for losses.

But the Harvester forward wall, Ah, that line! A final check of the statistics shows that it held the Amarillo offense, also one of the finest in the district, to a net of 14 yards rushing for the day's work.

From end to end, from Jimmy Cook to Alvin Ward, through Buddy Cockrell, Bill McPherson, Jerry Walker, Charles Ely, Billy Conklin, Roy Pool, and all the rest, it was stop Sammy Sandie day. And stop him they did!

The only attack the Sandstorm could use to any effect was their passing, and it clicked on but 22 percent for 78 net yards. But the passes set up one touchdown and a pass interception accounted for the other.

A beautiful football day, with bright sun shining and a slight breeze coming out of the south, saw the Harvesters kicking off to the Sandies. Davis' boot was taken on the five and returned to the 11. On the first play Jackie Fyfe was stopped cold and an outside penalty moved the ball back to the six. Two more plays lost three yards and the Sandies kicked from their end zone, the Harvesters taking over on the Amarillo 43. Three plays made eight yards, but a 15-yard penalty set the ball back to midfield and Ed Dudley came in to punt, kicking out on the Amarillo 25.

wide again and the Harvesters led 12-0 at the end of the first period.
McPherson recovered a fumble on the Amarillo 40 as the period ended, and the Harvesters started another drive that came to an abrupt halt when Hugh Cox intercepted on the Sandie 20 and scampered to the east sideline for a touchdown behind well-picked-up blocking. Billy Shires converted and the Harvester lead was cut to 12-7.

The Sandies took over again late in the period on their own 35 after a Pampa punt. Two plays made four yards and then quarterback Jimmy Davis faked back and shot a perfect pass to end Stanley Bull for 51 yards. Bull being dragged down on the Pampa 15. Four plays gave the Sandies a first down on the Pampa five with a half-inch to spare. On the first play, quarterback Jimmy Albright, who legged it around the right end, was upended on the three and floated into the end zone to score the lead touchdown with five seconds left to play in the half. Shires again converted and the Sandies led 14-12 at halftime.

The Harvesters kicked to the Sandies to start the second half and immediately got them in a deep hole, throwing them 25 yards backward two plays. Kenneth McMullen dropped back to punt from his end zone but the kick was blocked by the Pampa ends, Jimmy Cook and Alvin Ward, the Harvesters taking over on the Amarillo 11. Wilson made six on the first play, and Davis carried to the two on the next where he fumbled and Fred Way recovered for Amarillo. The Sandies kicked out to their own 20 where the Harvesters started a drive for the lead touchdown.

Davis made four, Young added five up the middle, Davis made two more and Wilson made it a first down on the Amarillo nine. Young picked his way to the seven and Davis carried to the four. Davis added one more and then with fourth down coming, Davis cracked the middle for three yards and into the end zone for the touchdown. This time Cudney split the uprights and the Harvesters led 19-14, never to trail again.

A Pampa fumble at the end of the third period gave the Sandstorm the ball on the Pampa 34. Four plays netted exactly nothing and the Green and Gold took over right there.

An exchange of punts gave the ball to the Sandies on the Pampa 41, but a fumble on the first play was recovered by Wilson and the final touchdown was set up.
Davis cracked for two and Wilson added three. Young then plowed up the middle for ten and a first down. Two plays later Young added 10 more to the Sandie 28. Mills, doing a fine job calling, tried a 'keeper' good for five and then Young, blasting again, drove for six and another first down on the Amarillo 16.
Jim Bob Cox drove for three. Sargent went for four and Young added two. Cox made it a first down on the Amarillo four. On the next play Sargent tried the center but was stopped. And then the call went up for Young again with but 15 seconds to play and he powered over the middle for four yards and into paydirt for the clincher. Mills sent a perfect placement between the goal posts to end the day's scoring.
The Sandies received the next kickoff, but time ran out as they tried vainly to run the ball back.
The game was its usual hard-fought affair, with both clubs fighting to stay in the district race. The tackling and blocking were hard and clean. The win kept Harvesters hopes alive.
Get a Bulldog!

THE CLINCHER—John Young, Harvester fullback (No. 36) is shown diving into the end zone in the final 15 seconds of play yesterday afternoon to ice down the Harvesters victory over the Amarillo Sandies, 26-14. No. 36, Jimmy Cook, Harvester end, lends vocal encouragement to his teammate who slipped through a good gap in the Sandie front line. Young played an outstanding offensive game, leading the Harvester rally in the second half. (All action photos by Don Duncan, Pampa News photographer.)

Baylor Ends Texas Jinx; Whips Longhorns, 18-6

Win Ends Twelve Years Of Defeat

AUSTIN — (AP) — Sophomore Jerry Coody, who was supposed to be crippled, scored Baylor's initial touchdown and paved the way for the second as the Bears whipped Texas Saturday for the first time in 12 years, 18 to 6.

Texas, which usually thrives on its opponent's mistakes, saw the tables reversed as Baylor's Guard Bill Athey recovered Texas fumbles to help set up two Bear touchdowns in the final period.
Coody, a shifty 182-pounder, pulled Baylor even with Texas on a 15-yard naked reverse in the third period. He ran nine yards to the one after Athey's first recover, and Fullback Richard Parma banged across for the decisive tally.
Quarterback Larry Isbell master-minded the hard-hitting Baylor attack to a victory which Coach George Sauer said was the "big one."

It was big because it kept Baylor in the Southwest conference championship race. However, Baylor has lost one and a half league play and must rely on TCU's losing twice in order for Baylor to become Cotton Bowl host.
Baylor grabbed its third touchdown after Athey seized a fumble by Texas' Don Barton on the Texas 32. Halfback Don Carpenter carried four times to score, his initial try getting 23 yards, and the final thrust coming at the one.

While Baylor, the team with the reputation for passing, stuck to the ground for all three touchdowns, the ground-gaining Texas Longhorns had to go into the air to score. End Tom Stolhandske caught a 15-yard bullet pass from Don Barton just before the half.
Isbell gained particularly sweet revenge as Baylor knocked down the nation's No. 10 team. A year ago, he ran and passed his team to a 20-20 tie only to see Bobby Dillon return one of his punts 84 yards for a Texas victory in the final period.
An Isbell punt this year put Texas in the hole on its 11 and preceded the Texas fumble which led to Baylor's winning touchdown.

Coody juggled the ball 16 times for 54 yards, not an impressive statistic, but the yardage came at vital moments. His fine return of a Texas punt also helped move Baylor into striking distance just before he scampered for his touchdown.
The 58,000 fans who attended today's game was the biggest crowd ever to see a Longhorn-Bear battle and was the largest crowd here this season.

Isbell did not have a great afternoon by comparison with some of his previous performances, but it took an exceptional play-caller and ball-handler of his caliber to make the tricky Baylor offense click the way it did.
With Baylor receivers well blanketed most of the time, the rangy passer from Houston still was able to connect on 5 of 13 throws for 89 yards.
Baylor 18-6
Texas 6-0-0-6
Baylor scoring: touchdowns—Coody, Parma, Carpenter.
Texas scoring: Touchdown—Stolhandske.

Lubbock's Westerners Ramble Across Abilene Eagles 34-20; Odessa Next

PAMPA NEWS, SUNDAY, NOV. 11, 1951 PAGE 7

WOOPS—Billy Davis looks in agony above at escaping football on the Amarillo two yard line in yesterday's game. The fumble was recovered by the Sandies but the Harvesters came right back to score. No. 55, Sandie center Fred Way recovered the miscue. Pictured below is the huge bonfire, part of the pep rally at Harvester High Friday night in anticipation of the big game. Sammy Sandie was burned at the bonfire, and returned yesterday afternoon.

LUBBOCK — Lubbock's Westerners moved near the District 1-AAAA grid title Saturday with a routine 34-20 triumph over Abilene's stubborn Eagles.
A crowd of 12,000 fans saw the Westerners breeze to their ninth straight victory, and their fifth in conference play. Coach Pat Pattison's crew now has only one obstacle in its path to the district crown — but that hurdle is powerful Odessa.

By winning at Odessa next Friday, Lubbock can gain outright possession of the title. But an Odessa win would probably throw the district race into a three-way deadlock involving Odessa, Lubbock and Pampa.
The Westerners did a workmanlike job against Abilene after battling on fairly even terms for nearly 20 minutes, they exploded for three rapid-fire touchdowns late in the first half. Then they built their lead to 34-7 in the third quarter before Abilene found the range against Lubbock reserves.

As usual, James Sides was the big gun in the Westerner attack. The hurly fullback — wearing a plastic mask to protect his battered nose and mouth — picked up 159 net yards on 13 carries.
Quarterback Charles Brewer supplied the rest of the Westerner offensive punch with some bulleseye short-range passing. During the second quarter scoring spurge, he passed for two touchdowns and ran off another — all within the span of three minutes.

Although their top star, Joe Youngblood, played only briefly, the Eagles put up a determined battle in the early part of the game. Sides rambled 51 yards on a trap play up in the middle on Lubbock's second play from scrimmage to put the Westerners out front by 6-0. But Abilene held the Pattison men at bay the rest of the quarter.

Then, early in the second quarter, the Eagles tied the count when Youngblood capped a 72-yard march with a three-yard touchdown plunge.
However, the aroused Westerners took the ensuing kickoff and went 66 yards in 11 plays to score. The payoff was a pass from Brewer to Chuck Hodges. Three plays later, after guard Bruce Willis intercepted an Abilene pass, they had another touchdown on Brewer's one-yard sneak over left tackle and five plays later, following a fumble recovery on the Eagle 17, Brewer flipped a five-yard pass to Mike Brady.
Early in the third period Sides rambled four yards over left tackle for a touchdown capping a 52-yard Westerner drive. This tally ran his season scoring total to 98 points — all-time regular season record in Lubbock high.

Abilene began to move almost at will when Lubbock reserves came into the game. A 45-yard pass-and-run play from John Howle to Bob Beckham produced one touchdown. Then the Eagles powered 37 yards on the ground for another tally early in the fourth quarter. Gene Boyd went the final nine yards through a big gap at right tackle.
Boyd hit two conversions for Abilene after missing the first.

Quail Limit Raised To 12

AUSTIN — (AP) — The game commission has boosted the daily quail bag limit in the Panhandle from ten to twelve birds.
It also increased the possession limit to 24 in the 28 county area where it has power to set season and bag limits. Over most of the state, the legislature has that power.
The supply of birds is so plentiful in the Panhandle that sportsmen asked for the increase, commissioner Gene Howe of Amarillo reported.
Statewide season on quail opens Dec. 1.
The commission had to turn down a request to close the wild turkey season in Willacy County because it has no power to take that action there. Commissioner Richard Kleberg, Jr., of Kingsville said the turkey crop in Willacy had been hard hit by drought.

Southern Methodist Rallies To Tie Texas Aggies, 14 - 14

Deadlock Chills Chances Of Both

COLLEGE STATION — (AP) — Battered, bedraggled Southern Methodist, with a lineup studied by sophomores, battled back in the third period for a touchdown that tied Texas A&M 14-14 and ended the hopes of both teams in the Southwest conference football race.

The Methodists came close to winning it and were launching a dangerous drive at the finish after halting a couple of frenzied Aggie surges in the final seconds.

Jerry Norton, a gangling sophomore, smashed and crashed the crippled, limping Mustangs into what was regarded as an upset. The Aggies were heavy favorites to win the game.

But Southern Methodist excelled even in the statistics. The Methodists ground out 158 yards on the ground with the great Norton making 112 of them on 24 ball-like runs. SMU also got 80 yards passing for a total offense of 238. A&M had 151 rushing and 74 passing for 205.

It was the fourth time in a row that the luckless Aggies had been overtaken or beaten in the last half. Texas Christian licked them with the final period. Baylor tied them with two Arkansas came from behind to beat them — and then there was Saturday.

A crowd of 21,500 — the smallest SMU has played before in years — cheered the great fight of the Methodists, playing with the power of their defense on the sidelines with injuries and with passing Fred Benner handicapped by a sore hand.

SMU took to the ground for its two touchdowns — also something new for the Mustangs with the razing, twisting Norton the keyman in the attack.

A. and M. scored in the first period on a 55-yard drive with Bob Smith circling left end from the three for the score. Darrow Hooper converted. SMU tied it up in the second period as Norton speared a 74-yard surge, marking the touchdown himself and kicked the point. Sam Stollenwerk kicked the point.

A. and M. roared 70 yards to go ahead with only 18 seconds remaining in the half. It was on a pass which Smith took on the SMU 25 and laterated to Glenn Lippman. Hooper again converted.

SAMMY SANDIE STOPPED—DeWey Cudney, Harvester safety man, throws a mean shoulder into an unidentified Amarillo ball carrier during yesterday's battle at Harvester Park. Sandies are Leon Egleston (No. 63), Kenneth Johnson (No. 71) and Bill Armstrong (No. 66).

Rice Owls Snatch 6-0 Victory From Arkansas In Last Minute

By WILBUR MARTIN
HOUSTON — (AP) — Rice snatched a 6-0 victory from Arkansas' Razorbacks last night and Billy Burkhalter's goal line plunge made up for nearly 50 minutes of fumbling frustration for the Owls.

Six times the Owls had been in scoring position, but each time fumbles or a granite Arkansas defense had chilled their hopes. And until the last two minutes of the game, it looked like their hopes to take over second place in the Southwest

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. — (AP) — Sophomore quarterback Tommy O'Connell whipped three first-half scoring passes to end Joe Vernasco as unbeaten Illinois, the nation's number two team, chopped Iowa, 40 to 13, to strengthen its Big Ten title and Rose Bowl chances Saturday.

The seventh straight Illini victory — and their fourth consecutive — also included two short touchdown dashes by half-back Johnny Karras, who now has 12 six-pointers, one under the Illinois record shared by Red Grange and Buddy Young.

The second half, following Karras' second score for a 33 to 0 Illinois lead, was turned over to Illini reserves. Iowa came to life in the final quarter with touchdowns on a 24-yard pass from Burt Britzmann to George Rice and a 10-yard scamper by Don Comnack.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK — (AP) — If anybody is looking for a defender of two-platoon football, which has been under fire lately, they could do worse than turn to Harry Lawrence of Bucknell.

Lawrence's team carries an 11-game winning streak and is third in total defense. Its scoring stars, Burt Talmadge and Brad Myers, are 1-2 in the East in gains by rushing.

STRETCHING OUT—Billy Davis, No. 44 (top picture) stretches his legs for paydirt as he romps 87 yards for the first touchdown of the game yesterday while teammate Roy Pool (No. 87) looks for somebody to block. He found him in Sandie de fender, Bob Frazier (No. 37). In the bottom picture the Pampa bench was brought in its feet as San die captain Stanley Bull returned a Pampa punt 35 yards before being run out of bounds by Davis on the Pampa 35. The run at the time would have put the Sandies ahead had Bull eluded Davis, the 99-ly Pampa defender left.

Got to cut this short, as I want to say a few words about the tourney this weekend and next. So getting along with Wednesday night bowling, Texas Gas and Power took 4 points from Gulf No. 4. Tom Rose took 3 points from City Service, Transmix dropped 3 points to Harvester Drug and Gulf No. 1 made the second sweep of the week, by taking 4 points from Cabot 3.

Pampa Bowlers going over this weekend are George Grav, Buck Riddle, I. B. Cline, and Tony Smith. Good luck men.

PACE IN PARIS

PARIS — (AP) — U.S. Army Secretary Frank C. Pace flew to Paris Friday night to tell America's European allies just how much help they can expect in

Quartet Of Ex-Harvesters In Starting Lineup For Aggies

STATE COLLEGE, N.M.—Four members of the 1950 Pampa Harvesters are doing right well in their first season of college competition here at New Mexico A&M. Dale Gant, Gerald Matthews, Jimmy Hayes and Dawr once Rice, all regulars on last season's District I-AA championship club, are drawing starting assignments under former Odessa head coach, Joe Coleman.

Gant won a starting berth at the beginning of the year and has been one of the best line-backers in the state. He is being a fine ballplayer in the next few years after he learns more about the complexities of college football," said Coach Coleman.

Matthews also won a starting spot at center, beating out two seniors for the job. He suffered a back injury in the opener against Arizona University and was out of action until last weekend against Arizona State at Tempe. "We expect him to be one of the best centers in the Border Conference before he is through," was Coach Coleman's comment on Matthews.

Hayes, who led the Harvester's ground attack the past two years, started the season as a defensive back, but has also been given double duty as an offensive line halfback in the past two games. "He is a hard-working boy, who is learning all the time, and is being counted upon heavily for next season as a regular offensive back," said Coleman. "His defensive talents may make it necessary to use him on defense as well."

Rice has seen limited action largely because Coach Coleman has had bigger boys for line positions. "What he lacks in size is more than balanced by his fighting spirit and next year he is being counted upon to add speed to the forward wall," said Coleman.

The boys had a fine time at the expense of Coleman two weeks ago after the Harvesters clipped Coleman's former Texas high school team, the Odessa Bronchos, 14-7.

The Aggies played host to the West Texas State Buffaloes Saturday afternoon, building their defense against aggression.

Joe Covington, university pro- ington wasn't protesting the arrest of the students.

The four were accused of cursing an officer and obstructing justice. They were held in jail here overnight. They were arrested several hours after the Arkansas-Texas A & M football game here.

Two of the students, W. G. Holloway, 20, Abilene, Tex., and James E. Hulse, 20, Houston, Tex., Monday were fined $10 and costs each on charges of using obscene and abusive language. The other two, Teddy Hirsh, 22, Port Arthur, Tex., and Robert F. Brown, 19, Dallas, were cleared. The charges of obstructing justice were dismissed against all four.

The students were accused of yelling profane insults at an officer directing traffic at a night club near here.

Covington said Harrington expressed the belief that the four students did not receive the courteous treatment at the hands of Arkansas officers which they had a right to expect.

"But his letter was not in any sense a protest," said Covington.

Shamrock rolled over Virginia Military Institute, 34-7, Saturday on the accurate passing of Darrell Crawford and immediately landed in the Orange Bowl.

Stuart M. Patton, president of the Orange Bowl committee, said he did not expect an opponent to be picked for "another week or two."

Canadian Wildcats Topple Lefors Club 19-7 To Take District 1-A Leadership

CANADIAN — The Canadian Wildcats racked up their fifth 1-A conference win here Friday night by scuttling the Lefors Pirates, 19-7.

About 1700 fans saw the Wildcats strike twice in the second period and once in the fourth to put over the three touchdowns, with Tom Schaeff, Wildcat tailback, carrying the mail each time.

The win kept Canadian's conference record clean, while Lefors has won four and lost one. Season standings are: Canadian, 9-0, Lefors, 7-2.

The Wildcat touchdowns were all made on short line-plunges, the first being from the three-yard line in the second period after a sustained 80-yard drive. Schaeff again hit pay dirt in the second when he went over center from the one. The TD was set up initially when a kick by Ray Dickerson, Lefors, co-captain and backfield star, was partially blocked and went out of bounds on the Lefors 38.

Runs of 12 yards by Schaeff and 19 by Dean Hoover put the Wildcats in position to score. The Lefors tally came late in the third period then Dickerson connected with Melvin Bigham on a 27-yard pass into the end zone. Jimmy Doom passed to Billy Watson for the conversion point.

Twice in the first quarter the Pirates had threatened but were held for downs.

The third Canadian touchdown came late in the fourth quarter after long runs by Jimmy Waterfield and Ray Ramirez put the ball on the 16-yard line. A 15-yard penalty against the Pirates moved the ball to the one, and a penalty against Canadian moved it back to the six.

Schaeff went on to score in three plays going through right tackle for six points and through center for the conversion.

Parilli Passes To 37-0 Win

NEW ORLEANS — (AP) — Babe Parilli's magic right passing arm sent Kentucky zooming to a 37-0 victory over bedridden Tulane Saturday.

The Kentucky Babe combined his T-quarterbacking talents and passing wizardry with a slashing line to crumple Tulane.

Parilli passed for two touchdowns, scored on a sneak and set up one other touchdown with his mighty right arm.

The Babe tossed 16 passes and completed 11 for 141 yards in the first half. He was retired to the bench by Kentucky Coach Paul Bryant most of the second half but got in to toss a few more passes to make his game total 13 out of 38 for 172 yards.

Tulane's big line, reputedly rough, wilted under the steady smashes by Kentucky's vicious forwards.

The Green Wave tried an eight man line in an attempt to bottle up Parilli but Parilli with daring fakes warded off all tacklers as he faded back for his passes.

Badgers Score 16-7 Victory

MADISON, Wis. — (AP) — Wisconsin's defensive platoon went on a scoring binge Saturday, rolling up all the points in a 16-7 victory over Pennsylvania in a rock-'em, sock-'em inter-sectional football game.

The boisterous Badger defense, best on the nation's collegiate gridirons this fall, accounted for two touchdowns and a safety as an impotent offensive unit sputtered all afternoon.

The victory was the fifth of the year for Wisconsin, ranked ninth nationally in the Associated Press poll.

Pro Gridders In Must Tilts

NEW YORK — (P) — The Cleveland Browns, winners of five straight games and 11th straight pro titles, clash with the Philadelphia Eagles today in a "must" National Football League game for both teams.

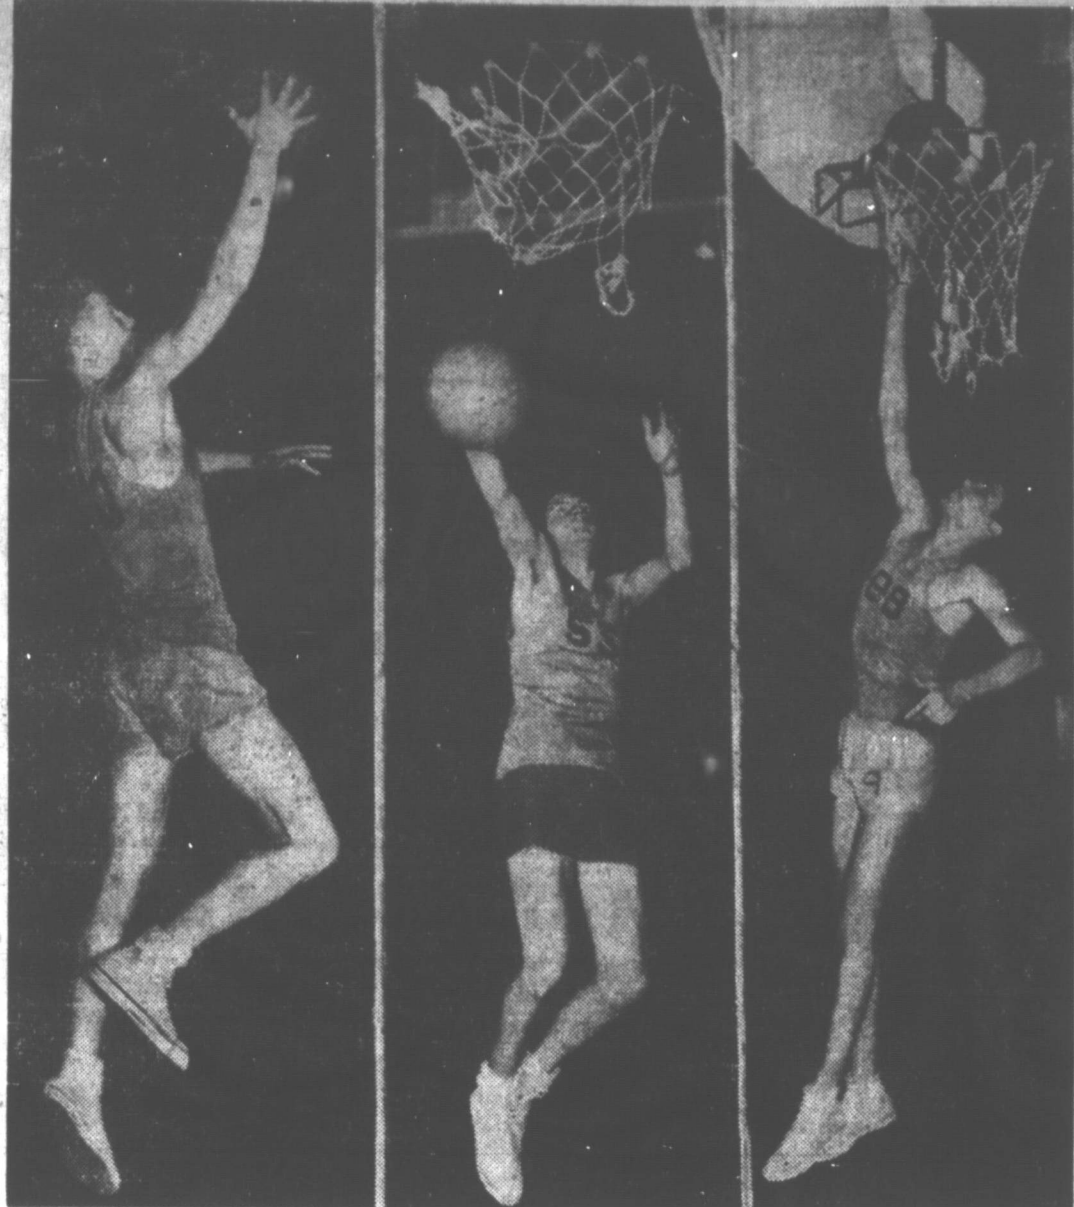

It's a "must" game for Philadelphia, as a loss would give the once-proud Eagles four defeats and all but end their hopes for a 1951 championship.

And it's a must game for the Browns (5-1-0) as they're only a half step ahead of the New York Giants (4-1-1) in the American conference, and a loss would give the Giants a good chance of taking over the top spot.

The Giants play host to the Washington Redskins (2-4-0), a team they trampled, 33 to 14, earlier in the season. The New Yorkers are favorites to win this time, too.

In the National Conference, the pace setting Chicago Bears (5-1-0) will collide with the Detroit Lions in Chicago's Wrigley Field. Here, too, a loss would just about eliminate the Lions (2-2-1) from pennant contention. In a previous encounter, this season, the Bears edged Detroit, 23 to 22, on a blocked kick.

Other games find Los Angeles (4-2-0), breathing down the Chicago Cardinals (1-5-0) in Los Angeles Green Bay (3-3-0) at Pittsburgh (14-1) and the New York Yanks (0-5-1) at San Francisco (3-3-0).

LETTERMEN Only three lettermen are returning to bolster the 1951 Pampa Harvester basketball squad which is working out daily in preparation for the district race. Left to right they are Marvin Bond, named for the "Hustling Harvester" award last year, guard Tommy Smith, and lanky Duane Jeter.

Minnesota Wins Over Hoosiers

MINNEAPOLIS — (P) — Minnesota added a new chapter to its football repertoire by defeating Indiana, 16 to 14, for its first Big Ten victory of the season yesterday.

Minnesota's offensive clicked for touchdowns in each of the first two periods. The Gophers added the game-winning safety early in the third.

But Indiana came right back to score two touchdowns in five minutes, and give indications of pulling the game out of the fire before the Gophers finally checked the Hoosiers.

Guerillas Fight White Yans To 13-13 Deadlock Friday

The Pampa High School Guerillas, Harvester B team, fought the Amarillo Yannigan White team, unbeaten thus far this season, all over Sande stadium Friday afternoon, only to emerge with a 13-13 tie.

The Guerillas held an advantageous edge, as they moved up and down the field, to the Yannigan goal line several times, but never could find the punch to move the winning touchdown across.

A pair of lengthy runs immediately after the start of the second half took a 13-0 half-time advantage away from the Guerillas and the game was a deadlock the rest of the way, although the Guerillas had ample scoring chance in the fading game.

Earlier, the Yans defeated the Guerillas, 13-8.

PASSING GAME
The passing of J. N. Wright was one of the brightest features of the Guerilla attack. He set up the first touchdown with a heave which allowed Jean Martindale to ram over from the ten for the first score and then another 35-yard aerial to end James Phippen accounted for the other tally. Both came in the first half.

But then the Whites came to life. On the first play of the second half, after the Guerillas had kicked off, Lynn Stevenson flipped a pass to Herschel Smith for a touchdown, the play covering 65 yards.

Later in the period, little Spooky Canova, who personally beat the Guerillas in the earlier meeting, hauled down a Pampa punt on his own 20 and raced 80 yards to tie the score.

From then on neither team could score.

The Guerillas have two games left on their schedule, playing the Borger Bullpups at Harvester Park next Thursday and then concluding their season with the Plainview

Bullpups the following Wednesday at Harvester Park.

Alabama Coasts To 40-27 Win

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — (P) — Alabama got away to a slow start against stubborn Mississippi and up for it and coasted to a 40-27 victory.

It took the Crimson Tide until late in the first period to hit stride. But after that there was little doubt of the outcome. Alabama played most of the second half to give the first stringers a chance to rest for next week's encounter with Georgia Tech.

Shamrock Irishmen Clinch At Least Share Of District 1-AA Grid Crown

By GEORGE BURRIS
Pampa News Writer

DUMAS — Shamrock Irishmen won at least a tie for the District 1-AA crown at Dumas Friday night when they took a 20-14 victory to doom the Demon's pennant hopes.

Irish gridmen didn't like the feeling of being behind, as Dumas stopped the first Irish drive on the Dumas 17 and on the first play, Joel Lummas, quarterback, passed to Byron Ingram, right end, for 83 yards and a TD. Ingram was behind the Irish secondary and sprinted 50 yards after the catch.

Jack Martin's placekick put Dumas ahead, 7-0, and the Demons stayed ahead for eight minutes.

FUMBLE HELPS
Just before the canto ended, Shamrock punted to Nixon on the Dumas 11. On the next play, Jack Berry, Dumas fullback, was hit so hard by the Irish line that he fumbled the ball rolling back into the end zone where guard Billy Pavlovsky fell on it for the first Irish TD. Don Carlton promptly tied the count with a placekick.

The Irish stopped a Dumas drive on their own 23 just after the second quarter began and drove 77 yards in five plays. Charles Francis, Shamrock quarterback, hit Van Pennington for 33 yards to the Dumas 43. Two line plays netted five yards, then Francis again hit Pennington in the right corner for 33 yards as he raced the final 15 yards for the TD, chased by Demons all the way to the goal. Carlton's kick failed, leaving the count 15-7, Shamrock.

Dumas attempted to get back in to the game in the second quarter with long passes, but Don Carlton intercepted a long Demon heave and almost got away for a score, being dragged down on the Irish 33. Francis promptly hit Van Pennington for 17 yards and on fourth down hit Bobby Campbell, right end, for seven and first on the Dumas nine. Jimmy Pennington, Irish left half, plowed through the line three times, crumpling over from the Dumas two for the final Irish score. Carlton converted, running the score to 20-7, Irish.

KICKOFF SCAMPERS
Dumas electrified the big crowd on the third quarter kickoff when Joe Mowrey, midget, 122-pound Demon halfback, scampered 96 yards for the final Dumas counter. Mowrey cut for the left sideline and turned on the speed as the Irish labored vainly to overhaul the little scabback. Keith Nixon converted to end the scoring, but not the suspense.

Dumas kept driving, one drive fading when Carlton intercepted a long heave on the Shamrock 20. A powerful Irish drive failed just before the third quarter ended when Paul Hartwick, Irish fullback, slashed off tackle for nine, almost breaking into the clear at the Irish 48, only to fumble and lose the pigskin. Shamrock had registered two first downs in a row on this interrupted drive, driving 23 yards in four power plays.

ANXIOUS WAITING
Shamrock spent an anxious fourth quarter, sweating out a six-point lead. They knew it was power versus deception, the latter being the cause of both Dumas TDs. But the Irish weathered eight frantic Demon aerials, as the Dumas crew, halted by the terrific Irish forward wall, sought a TD the only way they could get it — in the air. Jimmy Pennington batted down two of these long, dangerous aerials and intercepted one, but

Billy York Is Irish Iron Man

SHAMROCK — (Special)
Billy York, 175-pound Irish center, is the "Iron man" of Shamrock football.

York played all but eight minutes of the 12 Irish contests in 1950 when the Irish won the District 2-A conference title and then entered two playoffs, after the 10 regular season battles.

His outstanding work as pivot man gave him all-district honors and later, he was named to all-regional honors and received honorable mention for all-state center.

In 1951, York has played all but two minutes of the first eight Irish games, going out of the Dalhart clash last Friday night for the final two minutes as the Irish led, 29-7.

He is known as a strong blocker, an expert, hard tackler and a cool-headed man who diagnoses enemy plays with uncanny accuracy! You see No. 50 get up from tackling an enemy back mighty often in Irish games.

York likes his number, which he wore in 1950 as well as this season. He seems destined for all-district and all-regional honors again this year.

DISTRICT CHAMPIONS—The Junior High Reapers, champions of the Panhandle Junior High School Athletic League, are pictured above. The huge squad, coached by Marvin Bowman and Wayne Tripp, went through an eight game schedule undefeated by conquering the Elizabeth Nixon Whirlwinds Friday afternoon, 26-7. ## Reapers Close Unbeaten Season With 26-7 Victory Over Elizabeth Nixon

The Junior High School Reapers closed out a perfect season at Harvester Park Friday afternoon by running over the Elizabeth Nixon Whirlwinds of Amarillo, 26-7. The win gave the Blue and White, coached by Marvin Bowman and Wayne Tripp, a record of eight wins and no losses.

The Reapers had already clinched the Panhandle Junior High School Football League championship by virtue of their hard fought win over the Berger Poodles last Tuesday afternoon at Berger.

Harold Lewis, the 60-pound scabbard, scored all of the points Friday afternoon for the Reapers behind the fine blocking of his mates. The Friday points ran his season's total to 177. His touchdowns came on runs of 50, 47, and a 31 yard pass from Buddy Sharp. He added two extra points, one running and one by placement.

The Reapers wasted no time taking the lead. With the game a minute and a half old, Lewis took a handoff from Sharp and went 50 yards right up the middle of the field, then cutting to the sideline to a touchdown.

The extra point was no good. And then the two clubs just traded out and it appeared that that was the end of the scoring for the first half.

HALFTIME TOUCHDOWN

But with 30 seconds left in the second quarter, Lewis raced around left end for 47 yards and another touchdown to give the Reapers a 12-0 halftime margin.

On the last play of the third period, Lewis rammed over from

Shamrock Golfers Defeat Sandies

SHAMROCK (Special) — Shamrock Irish golfers plastered an 11-7 defeat on the Amarillo Sandies B golf crew at the local country club here Thursday afternoon.

Eddie Ryar won two points for the Irish, as his Sandie opponent, Jerry Hill, scored one. Ryan shot 79 for the 18 holes, while Hill came home in 91.

Robert Adams was the only Irishman to come in with all three points, turning in that performance against Ace Westfall of Amarillo. Adams had 77 and Westfall 18 strokes.

Field Trials At Canadian

CANADIAN — (Special) — The Panhandle Bird Dog Assn.'s Annual Field Trials got underway at 7:30 a. m. Saturday morning on the State Game Management area near here.

Registration and drawing of braces for the trials began at 8 o'clock Friday night in the Canadian city hall with an estimated 150 owners, handlers and fans present.

John Riggs of Amarillo, president of the Panhandle Bird Dog Assn. and Earl Mathis, Amarillo, secretary of the group, assisted by J. J. Knittel of Canadian conducted the meeting and outlined some of the rules, including the precaution against prairie fire by launching into the task of drawing the braces.

THREE DAY AFFAIR

When drawings were concluded at a late hour there were 12 braces entered in the puppy class; 17 braces in the derby class; and 29 braces in the all-age division — 116 dogs in all.

Association officials said with so many entries the trials would, in all probability, run from early Saturday morning until late Monday afternoon. The puppy and derby trials were slated for the first day.

Courses for the trials are on the State Game Management area on the old Studer ranch, six miles northeast of Canadian.

Owners and handlers are here from Colorado, Oklahoma, and some distant Texas points including Wichita Falls and San Antonio, with Amarillo furnishing the largest number of entries. Two local men, J. J. Knittel and Starkey Whitehorn, have entered their dogs.

Judges for the trials are E. A. Corbett of Fort Worth and Hayward McDaniell of San Antonio.

Coffee and lunches are being provided by the ladies of the Catholic Altar Society. They began by taking orders for lunches Friday night. A large array of trophies and prizes was on display during the meeting in the city hall.

Weather Hampers Hunters; Need Cold

By the Associated Press

Texas hunters could do with a change from fishing weather to duck hunting weather.

That was the word Saturday as reports of spotty hunting conditions came after Friday's season opener.

Thousands of sportsmen who went after birds in the Corpus Christi area might have had better luck fishing in the warm gulf.

Corpus Christi reported small bags both days. The five-duck or five-geese limits the exception.

At Anahuac, a widely-known haven for the migrating fowl, guide Sam Hargrove said that out of his party of 40 only three got the limit the first day. He was unable to explain the scarcity.

It was different in Harris county, Brazosport and Galveston, according to a report from Houston. Mallards, sprigs and red heads were reported plentiful.

In Northwest Texas, the balmy weather was on the side of the ducks.

Wichita Falls reported lakes are harboring more ducks than usual, but hunters aren't finding limit kills easy. The ducks simply are gathering in huge rafts far from the shores of larger lakes.

Hunters fortunate enough to have access to ranch tanks are scoring as seldom before on the season's first week-end, however.

Marshall reported all hunters on Caddo Lake got their limits the first day, but bags were smaller Saturday. Mostly small varieties were killed. No geese were reported shot.

Around San Angelo, no limit kills were reported. The chief reason given was the dearth of water in drouth-stricken West Texas.

But hundreds of birds floated safe from hunters, in water at the San Angelo fish hatcheries. Geese are fairly plentiful around Wichita Falls. Hunters said there that wheat fields are sufficiently along, despite scarcity of moisture, to assure their sticking around awhile.

Oscar Bates, long-time keeper at Lake Kemp, said the lake has the largest concentration of sandhill cranes he has ever seen there.

They are considered a table delicacy but are protected completely by federal law.

Hurricanes Tip K-State, 42-26

TULSA, Okla. — (AP) — Tulsa's pulverizing ground power, sprinkled with just enough passing to make it unstoppable, offset Kansas State's spectacular aerial game Saturday and gave the Golden Hurricane a 42-26 triumph.

The Tulsans lead by only 21-13 at halftime after Kansas State's George Carter scored on pass plays of 40 and 32 yards.

Tulsa before the game's end produced an astounding 708 yards — 53% of which was rolled up on the ground.

Mr. Quarterback Is Irish Mystery

SHAMROCK — (Special) — "Who is Mr. Quarterback?" The answer to this simple question is the mystery of the Irish city these days, as the Shamrock Quarterback Club launches a mystery to promote funds for its support of Irish athletic activities.

Each afternoon at 5 the local radio station, KEVA, broadcasts clues. Winner of the contest will receive prizes totalling at least $32.

Not even the Shamrock Texan, local weekly, or the announcers of KEVA know the identity of the mysterious "Mr. Quarterback," though Jim Abbott, head of KEVA, is also vice-president of the local club.

Additional clues will be added until the Shamrocker who wins identifies the mystery man.

Every store window has this tantalizing question, "Who is Mr. Quarterback?"

A discussion on the PTA program topic, "Freedom Through Discipline," was given by Mr. W. B. Weathered, Mr. Herman Whatley and Mrs. Kenneth Walters at the annual father's night and open house at the Horace Mann School Thursday night.

Following visits to each school room, a parent-teacher program was held in the auditorium with Mrs. Cleo Hoyer, president, presiding.

Mr. Bunny Shultz, accompanied by Mrs. John Branham, led the group in singing. He sang a solo following a devotional by Mr. L. P. Fort.

The program was in the form of a panel discussion led by Mr. Weathered. He discussed discipline in the home and Mrs. Walters discussed discipline in the school.

The group pointed out that without self-discipline, we can't have freedom. Mrs. Walters defined education as discipline which is "doing the things that you ought to do, when it ought to be done, whether you want to do it or not."

"Discipline begins in the home," she said, "and should not be too strict or too lax to produce a free America."

During the short business session, two delegates were appointed to attend the state PTA convention in Dallas this week.

First place room award was won by Mrs. Charles Meech's fourth grade. Second place awards went to Mrs. Helen Lane, first grade, and Mrs. Fay Dellis Adams, fourth grade.

Following the meeting, coffee and doughnuts were served in the dining room by fourth grade teachers and mothers.

My Favorite Room No. 1 In A Series

MRS. ROY DAWSON is pictured in her favorite room — the living room of her home at 1316 Starkweather. Green is the predominating color in the living room and rose is used generously in lamps and other accessories. "It's my favorite room," Mrs. Dawson explains, "because it's simple enough for everyday comfort and enjoyment and formal enough for any occasion." Mrs. Dawson and her son, Melvin, planned the complete redecoration of the house and did most of the work themselves. (News Photo)

First Aid Class Meets Monday In Court Room

Local home demonstration women will meet Monday in the County court room at 1:30 p.m. for a first aid class, according to an announcement by Mrs. T. Anderwald, civil defense chairman.

The work in first aid is being done in connection with the civil defense program in the county, and anyone interested in taking first aid is welcome to be in this class, Mrs. Anderwald said.

The Roy Dawson home, 1316 Starkweather, is small in floor space, but big in ideas and color. It is typical in arrangement, but there its similarity to other houses ceases. The Dawson home is a study in simple dignity and comfortable living with green taking the leading role in the play on color.

Besides showing what color can do for a home, Mrs. Dawson proves the "things you do yourself" are the things that give a room personality.

Mrs. Dawson and her son, Melvin, did all the redecoration of their house. Step by step, color by color, they completed each room in the house. "My favorite room," Mrs. Dawson explains "is the living room and it is actually our LIVING room. We don't have a den for informal evenings at home so we planned the living room for practical, everyday comfort and at the same time, made it formal enough for any entertainment."

The living room is where the family spends most of the time, but the dining room is a favorite too. The living and dining rooms, in an L-shape, are done in a wild flower pattern with slate green background. Woodwork matches the paper's background. Carpeling is a deeper shade of green and continues into the hall which is decorated in a rose stripe wall paper.

Blue and rose colors in the wildflower pattern are picked up in lamps and draperies. All pictures have light frames and solid backgrounds which set them off from the flowered wall paper. Traditional mahogany furniture is used.

Mrs. Dawson and Melvin painted woodwork throughout the house. They also covered the cornices (in the bedrooms they are covered with fabric and in the living and dining rooms the scalloped cornices are covered with wall paper. Mrs. Dawson made living room draw drapes of boucle. Another decorative plan employed by Mrs. Dawson was covering waste baskets to match walls.

Melvin Dawson's room is a combination bachelor's study and bedroom with gray and green wall paper in a block pattern. This room is completely masculine and, like all other rooms in the house, gives an immediate impression of the overall scheme intended. This effect came from careful study and planning BEFORE any new scheme was tried.

The Dawson kitchen is gray and red stripe with frilly prairie curtains and red accents. The bathroom is yellow with lavender and purple flower design in the wall paper. Curtains in the bathroom like in several other rooms, were tinted to achieve the desired color.

The Dawson took their time in doing the redecoration job. There were times, Mrs. Dawson admits, she hesitated in going ahead with some of her son's decorative schemes, but each time she conceded to his experience in decorating. (Melvin's hobby is interior decorating and his job at a local store entails window decoration). Consequently they have an effective, in-

Ruth Millett

One of the most important things a woman can give her family is the feeling that each one has his own individual privacy.

How can she accomplish this? Well, if she just realizes that her family is entitled to some privacy, she will instinctively find the means of providing it.

There will be many ways in which she can safeguard their privacy.

First of all, she can make up her mind not to pry into matters they seem reluctant to have discussed. The wife and mother who can refrain from asking endless questions and ferreting out information gives her family the feeling that each has a right to his own life.

"Who was that on the telephone?" "What did he want?" "Why aren't you and so-and-so as good friends as you were?" These are the kinds of questions a mother is wary about asking — if she understands her family's need for privacy.

She can also see to it that each member of the family has some place for personal belongings that he knows will not be invaded by other members of the family. If it is only one dresser drawer — each child and each adult should have some place he knows he can put a memento or possession where it is safe from others.

Then, too, the mother who wants to guard her family's privacy will be cautious about how she discusses various members of her family with outsiders. She won't brag about Susie's dates to her friends, or discuss Junior's shyness with anyone.

Likewise, she won't be forever discussing one member of the family with another member.

And what she is told in confidence she will keep to herself. It is a terrible blow to a child to tell his mother something he wants only her to know, and then to discover later that she has told his secret to someone else.

Give your family privacy if you want them to feel really secure in their home relationships.

stantly popular home of which they're all proud.

And that pride comes from the fact they did most of the work themselves. — WJC

If you NEED medical care . . . Ask for it!

The purpose of this advertisement is a common-sense talk with you about the fees charged by your medical doctor (M. D.) The one desire of the medical profession of Pampa, and the State of Texas and the rest of the nation, for that matter, is to make sure you understand that ethical doctors of medicine (M. D.) want medical fees to be fair, want you to be satisfied.

There is some talk that people occasionally don't seek medical care because they fear its cost. That need never happen. If you need medical care ask for it. You should always remember that:

The best medical care in the world is available to you REGARDLESS of your ability to pay

Your Doctor suggests . . .

1. Your doctor wants you to tell him when a fee, which is reasonable for others, is more than you can pay without depriving yourself or your family of the other necessities of life.
2. Frankly and honestly discuss your situation with your doctor in advance. Don't put off explaining your circumstances until after you receive the doctor's bill. It isn't fair to either of you.
3. Arrange now, while you are well, to have a family doctor . . . one who will know you and your financial circumstances and who will be immediately available in an emergency.
4. Arrange, while you are well, to cushion your budget against the economic shock of sudden illness. Ask your doctor about the many low-cost plans of voluntary health insurance. They cost but a few cents a day.

If you have a complaint . . .

1. Probably, if you follow the suggestions above, you won't have one. But if for any reason you are dissatisfied with the treatment from a doctor, the medical profession of Pampa and the entire state want to know about it.
2. The doctors of Texas have established a Grievance Committee designed to receive and investigate any complaint against medicine from any source. It is one more way the medical profession can demonstrate its earnest intention of providing the best medical care in the world at a price you can afford.
3. Simply put the full facts in writing and present them to the secretary of your local medical society.
4. You will be assured of a full, fair, and completely confidential investigation.

Remember . . .

Most complaints result from misunderstandings between patient and doctor. They should be avoided by a frank discussion in advance. Your doctor's primary concern is and always has been the protection of your health.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."—Philippians 4:8.

NO WONDER that's Peg's motto, 'cause this column is no 'dope bucket or scandal sheet but little effort at rainbow painting, just to let you know how many nice folks there are in Pampa, to sketch not only the light, bright and cheerful hues of their daily lives, but also comment from time to time on some of the more colorful side of life somewhere else, and if you think I'm "pollyanna-ish," just send a day looking exclusively for the good in people, and it'll surprise you....

ONE OF THE BIGGEST ASSETS to our community is the 4-H club organization, just closing a colorful week of activities. In passing, "hats off" to Miss Ruby Potts, their most effective advisor. She not only knows her job and does it efficiently, but her enthusiasm is quite contagious.

WHAT WITH THE MEDICAL PROFESSION going all out, locally at least to arrive at the best possible harmony between doctors and patients, Peg wants to take a minute for a little profile of Pampa's many fine doctors, off duty....Most any day would find Dr. R. M. Bellamy, a specialist in internal medicine, whose dignity we greatly admire, walking to work—practicing what he preaches as it were....Dr. Frank Kelley, chief of staff at Highland General, sipping a malt as he drives....Dr. Charles Ashby rendering aid to the fighting Pampa Harvesters....Dr. Malcolm Brown vacationing in the mountains or judging Palomino horses at rodeo time....Dr. Richard Falkenstein, eminent diagnostician, buying colorbooks for his fine family of seven youngsters....Dr. J. F. Elder, talking over old times with his wife who was a member of the A.R.C. overseas staff when they met in Europe....Dr. D. P. Bommer, a specialist in the field of urology, brewing a pot of coffee to be sipped while sorting trout files....Dr. M. C. Overton, Jr., (whose father, a Lubbock M. D., authorized a well known baby book) planning, between surgical appointments, a social evening for fellow doctors at his lovely suburban home....Dr. Williams trying to GET a day off between the arrivals of the many blessed events he brings into the world....Dr. F. J. Vendrell reading up on the latest developments in the treatment of heart diseases....Dr. M. H. Wyatt taking his family to church at St. Matthew's Episcopal....Dr. P. A. Gates, brilliant young orthopedic and avid hobbyist, trying to decide whether to spend his free evening mounting Kodak chrome slides to be used in the family projector, cleaning guns for Saturday's hunting trip or doing a bit of woodwork in his home workshop....Mrs. M. McDaniel and Julian Key (the latter is county health officer) attending school functions with their families....Dr. Raymond Laycock preparing to fill the big community-service shoes being vacated by his civic-minded brother, Hueylyn, who is moving to White Deer....Dr. Oscar Huff proofing daughter Helen's Master's thesis....Dr. G. E. High, the eye, ear, nose and throat man, attending a board meeting at Citizens National Bank or enjoying a football game....Dr. Calvin Jones, barbershop quartet with SFESBQA, or scouting with son John....Dr. Joe Donaldson, organizing some activity of the Quarterback club (we believe he's responsible for launching the local organization), golfing, or working on prize-winning home Christmas decorations....General Dr. W. Purviance visiting daughter and family in Oklahoma City....We haven't met Dr. Paul Christian (who's active in OU alumni organizations) or Carl Lang, but if they're in the fine Pampa tradition of rendering the best possible medical attention to the patient purely apart from consideration for the patient's ability to pay, of KNOWING before prescribing, and of all other phases of the Hippocratic Oath, then we're for them 100%....We're proud to live and rear our children in a community which attracts so many fine doctors!

PANORAMICALLY...Talented Beverly Brandt will make a lovely bride....May all good things come her way....Know John and Billie Phelps (he's a popular young florist here) and the visiting grandparents are proud of their new son....Likewise Smith and Johnnie Spert—he's the new dentist in the new building....Bet the Paul Browns are equally proud to have a little daughter to go with their two fine sons. Stork-piping: the J. L. Mitchells, Clifton McNeelys, Mike Wilsons....Week's best salesmanship awards go to Mrs. Don Lusher, who is so helpful with books and records....and to Mabel (Mrs. Charles) Ford who manages her home in the same immaculate, efficient way she conducts her business.

HOUSE BUILDING OR EXPANDING: the Mack Nicholls on Duncan (hear they'll soon be housewarming)...Hear the Bob Vails are planning something very special and that they will do most of the finish work themselves—which, considering Claudine's artistic ability is a super idea....Pat and Nadine Patterson (stay her in a lovely trim navy outfit with one of those velvet pyramid hats "other day") will have a new home soon from what we hear. And the George Fri-aus are busy redecorating.

WOULDN'T IT BE NICE if we could all be as devoted to our work as Mrs. Mildred Hill (Red Cross Executive), so beautifully groomed as Lucille (Mrs. Herman) Foster's lovely housewife, the Jack Fosters. (Love their fireplace) musically gifted as Ernestine Scott, affable as Joe Cree...as good looking as the new teacher at Horace Mann whose name is Cohee, I believe...as good a cook as Mrs. J. D. McDowell....Would also give a pretty penny to be able to knit as well as Beulah (Mrs. Jack) Merchant and Marie (Mrs. Chet) Lander....Or to have "as much bounce to the ounce" as Betty Jo (Mrs. Erwin) Thompson....

NOT LONG AGO, Peg was feeling a bit "under the weather," (a-ponderin' taxes, politics, war and such—like every one else, Peg has her days of feeling "a-moaning-low") when her whole outlook was changed by a conversation with beautiful Mrs. E. E. Ehrhidge, whose sweet smile is just like someone giving you a present! (To borrow a leaf from Betty "Brooklyn" Smith). Other people not too busy to smile are friendly banker, A. A. Schuneman, Jimmy "Emcee" McCune, who treats all people in the same friendly manner, and insurance man Jeff Bearden.

MANY THANKS to "Just a Reader" who pointed out there are toher win boys in town. For instance Lt. Clyde Bray and wife, Thelma, (who's a twin herself) have twin sons, Rodney and Ronald. And there's a young couple out on East Francis who have twins—a boy and a girl.

It's such a little thing—
A smile;
And yet it's buoyant like a wing
The while—
(Not just while the wearer wears it;—
Not just while the sharer shares it;—
For it's contagious, and it changes
The whole complexion of a day. It remaineth
In the heart; it can much heaviness ally.
It can take away the hurt of many a blow,
And far into the night, its memory glow.

ON FROM THE WORD "SMILE" to the word "smile" (we've been guilty them interchangingly—we're so careless!), we'd like to do a little figurative sketching in the local idiom, beginning today with AS TYPICAL AS: Sally (Mrs. Dick) Pepin doing a bit of interior decorating—just as long as it's blue; as "Red" (E. O.) and Doris Wedgeworth going to banquets and conventions; as another "Red" (W. B.) Weathered, embracing (watch it, Johnnie, this is harmless!) a community cause. Hear her's a shout for a Pampa Junior College, and the idea sure sounds good to Peg whose Intjus will soon be needing one....As Ruby Lee (Mrs. Dick) Hughes finding an unobtrusive way to help people and foster worthwhile projects in every group she works with....And just in general, 'as typical as' too many attractive doins—as the same night—and traffic on Sam Houston hill.

MENTIONING COMMUNITY projects, may extend lush verbal orchids to Mrs. R. M. Bellamy and Mrs. W. E. Hinton, who, when interviewed recently on "Quotographer" spontaneously voiced Pampa's need of a Community Center. Bet that was balm to the hearts of the Jaycees who've been working on that cause for years....And to the League of Women Voters (Mrs. Jake Garman works with this group) for their tireless efforts to arouse the citizenry to voting in the coming state and local elections Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. We're hopeful the results will be a record turnout at the polls. The league is planning a luncheon Monday in the First Methodist basement.

WORLD COMMUNITY DAY might have come and gone without our knowing about it if it weren't for the fine work of the Pampa Council of Church Women....Note that Mrs. K. W. Baumgardner, wife of high school choir director, is a new officer of this organization. Also responsible for much of its success are past officers, Mrs. A. D. Hills and Mrs. Earle Scheig. Another group which bespeaks a fine cooperative religious spirit is the Community Church at Skellytown. Their new building was dedicated last Sunday; it is most unusual and highly commendable to see a group like this work together for a positive good over a period of years without giving way to denominational differences. Still another fine project of a religious nature that we've heard so much about is the growing library at First Methodist.

WHICH REMINDS me to remind you to be sure to visit the Public Library during the coming week. Book Week. We hear that illustrated fairy tales will be among the interesting displays—"A thousand candles have burned themselves out...still I read on." (Montreux) With regards to Armistice Day, we submit Emerson's thought, "Nothing can bring you peace but yourself." Today is also the beginning of National Education week which reminds us of our favorite definition of education: "To help us know the better kind of man whenever we see him." (William Jones)
But no matter what sort—good or bad—you don't know me when you see

Higher Prices, Shorter Goods May Be In Store For U.S. In '52

NEW YORK — (AP) — Businessmen and consumers got a preview Friday of what 1952 may hold in store.

1. Vishinsky laughs at U.S. proposals to call a halt to the arms race. If any businessman still thinks that U.S. treasury spending on arms, and federal controls of materials will be less next year, he should listen to that laugh.

2. One hundred thousand manufacturers get a chance to raise price ceilings. In most cases this may mean that prices won't go up — now. Prices of manufactured goods are below present ceilings in many instances, and in others prices are being cut to move heavy inventories. But in 1952, the higher price ceilings will be there for use.

3. On some things prices are going up soon. Veal and lamb prices are set to rise next week. Cotton cloth makers are repricing their lines after the sharp rise in rise in cotton futures on the cotton futures on the cotton exchange. And woolen fabrics for next spring also were raised this week.

4. New models of autos and home appliances now being ready may be the last for some time. Machine tool makers are being ordered to reserve their product hereafter for the defense industries and those linked to defense.

5. Tin cans and hardware for furniture may become scarce.

6. Still further cuts in construction are predicted. The national production authority is denying 63 percent of the construction applications for the rest of this year, and expects to deny more next year.

7. Labor is getting ready to push for higher wages. At the CIO convention here plans are drafted to seek administration aid in breaking through present wage ceilings.

In spite of all of these things seeming to set the stage for another spurt of inflation, most businessmen think it is not in the cards, at least for some time to come.

They reason: arms production can be provided without serious cuts in civilian goods, because industrial capacity has been expanding fast enough to take care of both.

Consumer prices will be determined — not by price ceiling rules — but by consumer demand, businessmen reason.

Manufacturers' inventories climbed $350 million during September, the department of commerce reports. Manufacturers

Montana Senator Says Bombs Ready For Battlefield

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Ecton (R-Mont) said Friday this country now has offensive-smashing atomic weapons tailored and ready for battlefield use against the Communists in Korea — "if necessary."

Ecton, who witnessed an atomic test in Nevada last week, told reporters the weapons can be used like artillery in support of ground forces and to slug the enemy. He added, however, that in the strict sense "it's not artillery — they are bombs."

The Montana senator said the weapons are available "in sufficient numbers" for possible use in Korea.

He was an observer at the Oct. 30 Nevada atomic test, one of a series which reportedly dealt with new varieties of atomic weapons, including some suited for tactical or battlefield use.

"I came away from that demonstration much more satisfied with the whole atomic program than I was before," he said. "They are making very substantial progress."

"We've got an atomic force now. That's what thrilled me."

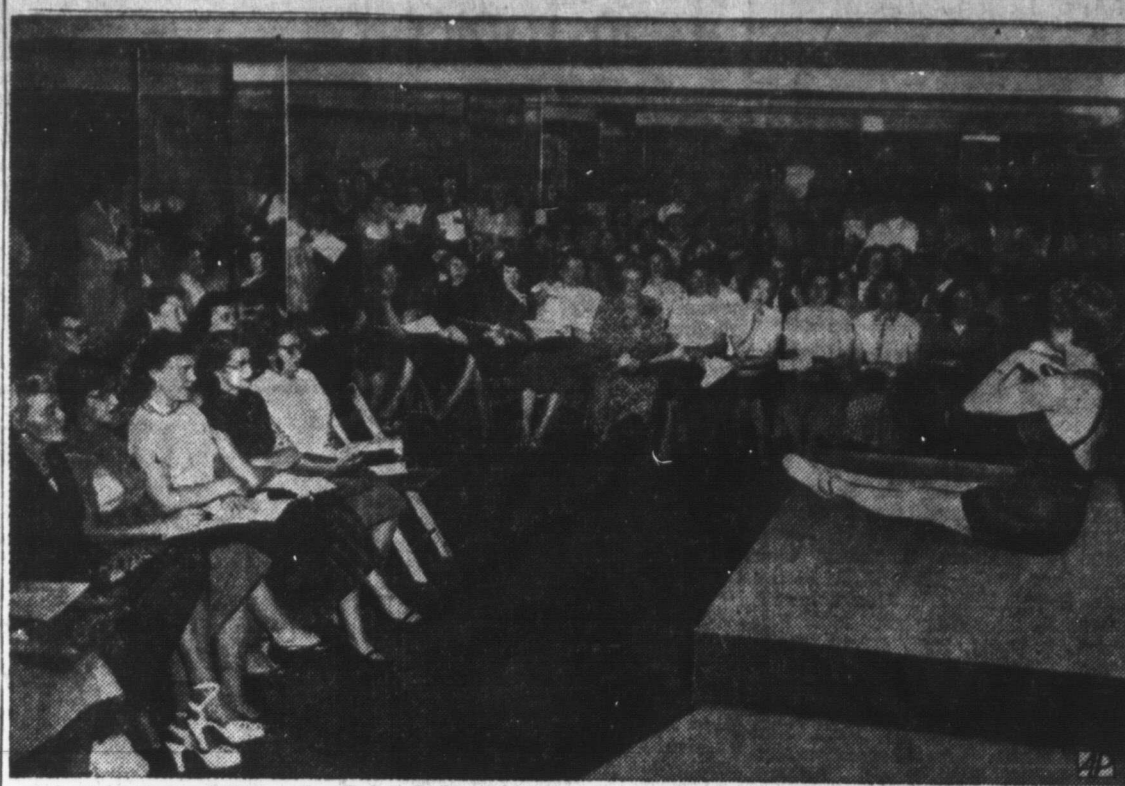

Asked whether he favors using atomic weapons in Korea, Ecton replied:

"As a defensive measure, yes. And I use the word 'defensive' in the sense of protecting our ground forces against an enemy offensive."

"In the past we have regarded the atomic bomb as an offense weapon, to be used strategically against cities or to destroy industries. In my opinion the A-bomb also has great defensive possibilities. There is no point in having our boys massacred if we can protect them, and we can."

Britons To Again Tighten Belts

LONDON — (AP) — Food Minister Gwilym Lloyd George has warned rationed Britons they may have even less to eat in coming months.

"Owing to our financial position our food supplies are in a very dangerous position similar to that of 1941," Lloyd George told the House of Commons.

That was the year when German submarines sharply cut supplies of food and materials reaching Britain from overseas.

Lloyd George said even if additional supplies of meat, butter and cheese were found abroad,

Bobby Had A Little Raven

CARSON CITY, Nev. — (AP) — Mary had a little lamb that followed her to school one day — but eight-year-old Bobby Anderson can do better than that.

Bobby has a raven that follows him to school every day.

The big black bird named "Smoky" flies right up to the door and, on occasion, flits right into Bobby's third-grade classroom.

the nation's present grave financial position would prevent Britain from buying them.

And as in the tale of Mary's lamb, that's very much against the rule.

"It's too much of a distracting influence," says Principal John Blaikie.

But to the children the bird is a gay companion. Dozens of youngsters surround it at every recess, happily tossing pebbles which the raven neatly catches with its beak.

Lefors Completing Plans For First Homecoming In 47-Year History

Celebration Underway Early Friday

With less than a week remaining before the first homecoming in its 47-year history, the Lefors school system is working feverishly to complete plans for the celebration.

Letters have been sent out to more than 400 ex-students over the country including 25 to exes in the service. Letters have also been sent to several former students who are now fighting with United Nations forces in Korea. "We don't expect these boys to come, of course," said Mrs. H. R. Ledbetter who is handling the publicity for the affair, "but we did want them to know we were having the homecoming."

The homecoming, slated to get underway Friday morning, will feature a parade, open house, football game and reunions. Registration will be held in the school at 8 a. m. Friday with a parade scheduled for 10 a. m. The parade will include floats, bands and mounted riders. Lefors and McLean bands are definitely committed and floats are being prepared by each high school class, junior high school classes, fire department, Arts Civics club, Lions club, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Parent-Teacher Assn. and Pampa post of the Veterans of Foreign.

Others are expected to enter floats later in the week. There will be no prizes awarded in the parade, Mrs. Ledbetter said. Following the parade in Lefors, free barbecue lunch will be served all ex-students, ex-teachers and homecoming guests. The lunch is to be served in high school gymnasium at noon and is being prepared and served by the Pirates Mothers club with Miss Norma Lantz in charge.

Superintendent of School R. C. Wilson is in charge of an assembly program to be held at 2 p. m. in high school auditorium. Recognition will be given and prizes awarded members of the oldest class present; the largest class, ex-student traveling the farthest distance, graduate with the largest family present and to the teacher with the earliest date of employment.

A band concert slated during an open house will begin following the assembly from 3:30 to 6:30 p. m. An informal tea also is planned in the Home Economics department during open house.

Homecoming is to be capped by the Lefors-McLean football game at 8 p. m. with presentation and crowning of the queen, Miss Elaine Pearch, at halftime. Miss Pearch was elected queen by the Lefors Pirates football team and will be crowned at halftime by Co-Captains Bob Clemmons and Ray Dickerson. Committee heads in charge of the Homecoming are Supt. Wilson and Coach F. J. Sonntag, general arrangements; Desmond Brewer, band director, halftime activities; food and barbecue, Miss Norma Lantz aided by the days 25 to 30 years before the and publicity, Mrs. H. R. Ledbetter; registration, Dan Weedon, was a Mr. Williams who later

Manslaughter Trial Ends In Hung Jury

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Calif. — Wealthy Mrs. Margaret Ryan's manslaughter trial ended in a hung jury here last week. The prosecutor said he would try her again.

The jury of nine men and three women was dismissed by Superior Judge Ray E. Lyon after nine hours of deliberation. The jurors — most of them ranchers — said they split 8 to 4. The judge forbade them to say how they were divided. The former New York society leader is charged with fatally shooting Leonard D. Ray, 22, on her nearby ranch last June. Judge Lyon continued her $10,000 cash bail and ordered her to return to court Nov. 19. District Attorney Herbert C. Grumdel said he would try the case again.

Mrs. Ryan, 42, widow of an heir to the estate of New York financier Thomas Fortune Ryan, appeared calm as jury foreman Fred Ward told the judge: "As the evidence stands, now we cannot reach a verdict."

"That's all the evidence you're going to get," said the judge, and dismissed them. Defense Attorney Jerry Giesler of Los Angeles, who surprised the court by resting his case without calling a single witness, refused comment.

Mrs. Ryan had told investigators and a coroner's jury she shot in self-defense. She said Ray had jabbed 22 rifle into her stomach after she ordered him off her ranch.

Texas Republicans Nursing Wounds Following Word Fight

FREDERICKSBURG — (AP) — A Texas Republican leader and one from Pennsylvania were nursing figurative black eyes after each uncorked his Sunday punch Thursday in a word-fight that has badly split Texas GOP ranks. The combatants, who battled from a distance of several hundred miles — Houston to Fredericksburg — were:

1. Henry Zweifel, Fort Worth, Texas' national GOP committeeman.

2. Sen. James H. Duff of Pennsylvania.

The Pennsylvania senator, in an interview here, said Zweifel had been "ugly and ungracious." He called him a type of "contemptible political boss."

The outburst came after Zweifel, in a speech at Houston earlier, said Duff was a "phony" on these counts:

"It's (Duff's trip to Texas) sole purpose is to promote the candidacy of Mr. (Jack) Porter for Republican national committeeman, using Gen. Eisenhower as a stalking horse."

"The meetings (that Duff is holding) are not 'harmony meetings' but dinners given and being held with the hope of creating disunity among Texas Republicans."

Porter was defeated by Zweifel for the national committeeman post. Duff's trip to Texas is being sponsored by Porter.

None of the state officials of the Republican party have been invited to meet or accompany the senator on his tour. However Porter is a member of the state executive committee.

Duff came here for a statewide rally last night of Republicans who are backing the general for President.

In the interview, Duff said, "when I came to Texas, I came for one purpose. I want to urge the nomination of one of the most distinguished sons of this state, Gen. Eisenhower, for a candidate for President. "I find, however, a man by

Samnorwood School To Reopen Nov. 12

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Samnorwood school, district just to the south of Shamrock, will reopen Nov. 12, reports Orville Cunningham, superintendent.

Classes were suspended in September for cotton-picking. Samnorwood opened Aug. 13 for a six-week period and then the school has been out for nearly two months.

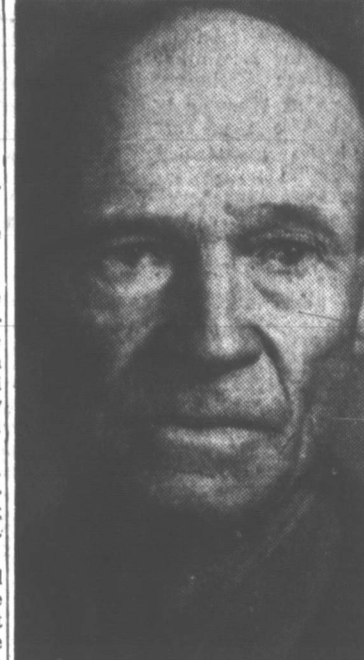

Cunningham issued a plea to students to attend as regularly as possible, even though the harvest season. He said schools in full swing. He said schools receive state revenue on the basis of average daily attendance, and Samnorwood might lose one or two teachers next year if attendance dropped severely below normal in the next few days.

The name of Zweifel does not care very much for Gen. Eisenhower and does not believe a senator from Pennsylvania should have the privilege of expressing an opinion of his own."

Duff said he had been fighting Zweifel's type of "contemptible political bosses" all his life.

"The Republican party of Texas is like it is because men of his type have been running it. I would like to put his type of leadership out of business. If he were up in my state, I'd give him the same type of beating that I have given some up there."

Five Lefors Exes In This Area Who Attended School In 1896

LARRY RIDER ...Lefors, 1896

There will be at least five ex-students at the homecoming in Lefors Friday, who attended school there long before the present system was established. These five are among 12 to 15 students who went to school in a one-room building located on the present Shaw field in 1896. The present system was organized in 1926.

Living in Lefors today is Larry Rider. Among his classmates were Dora Short Sanders who now lives in McLean, Clem Davis now of Pampa, Ashby Bell who lives west of Pampa and Charlie Thut, Gray County clerk.

All students rode horseback to school except the Thut family who lived close enough to walk. There was only a post office and the one-room school in these days 25 to 30 years before the oil boom. Teacher at that time was a Mr. Williams who later

W. T. NOLAND AND HOBBY — W. T. Noland is shown above with a battery of this year's turkeys. Noland, who began his hobby with 30 birds, has raised more than 6000 in the last six years. Noland worked with Frank Phillips, founder of Phillips Pet. Co., long before the present organization was formed, and is slated for retirement from the company in about two years. He said his secret of success is sanitation and good feed. (News Photo).

Pipeline Engineer Expands Turkey Hobby Into Business

When W. T. Noland talks turkey, people sit up and listen. No wonder! If anyone in the Panhandle knows the language this Pampa man, who started raising the birds should. He started with 30 as a hobby 15 years ago, and has graduated the scale of production to more than a thousand, each of the last six years.

Noland, chief engineer for Phillips Petroleum Pipeline Co., Pampa district, which includes the Kingsmill and Pampa plants, came here in 1931. "I've had the same job, same place, the last 20 years," he said.

"In fact, I worked for Frank Phillips before there was a Phillips Petroleum Co. I drilled the well that made the company. I started with Phillips when he was a banker in Bartlesville, Okla. He had a small office back of the bank and two employees, H. E. Koopman, bookkeeper, and myself. I was his production manager. He had been wildcat-traveling hoist on a car-door track around that territory, but sold out his small enterprises to a major company. Then, in 1917, we drilled this well out in Osage county and it came in a big gusher. Phillips organized the Phillips Petroleum Company, and expanded from there. At one time I had charge of all his drilling and production in Oklahoma and part of Kansas."

Noland said he started the turkey business as a hobby. "I had always liked to fool with poultry," he said. "What I know, I learned by trial and error."

"I read all the trade journals and scientific magazines. I could find on the subject," he said. "I had been keeping a few turkeys, and chickens, too. Then I read about the government experiments with battery-raised turkeys at Beltsville, Md. I learned all I could about it. About 15 years ago I started with 30 turkeys, just for fun. I suppose I was the first man west of the Mississippi to raise turkeys off the ground."

"I had my first battery plant on company ground out from Kingsmill. Then, on Oct. 8, 1948, lightning struck a 55,000 barrel oil tank near us. The oil ran out and burned me out. It destroyed a 30 by 100-foot outside turkey house, the small building where the battery was stored, all my grain and equipment. The boys put on asbestos suits and drove most of the turkeys out onto a wheat field."

"It was raining and muddy. The turkeys didn't know how to travel on ground. I lost a large number of them. When I rebuilt, I put my plant where it stands now, at Kingsmill."

Noland has no trade secrets, he said. Two things are necessary for top quality, strict sanitation and good feed. His turkeys never touch the ground. They eat only what is placed in their feeders. So they are free from disease. "I have my own diet plan for them. I give them plenty of ground grain, alfalfa and ground meat. All the commercially mixed feeds I have tried gives the meat a fishy taste."

The past six years he has been operating on a large scale. He buys his poulters, 1000 at a time, at about a dollar, each. They are brooded under gas-heated brooders. He buys dry river sand for the litters, and spreads about four inches of sand on each floor. He has his own water system, sewer system and hydraulic lifts for the feed.

He said it took only about 30 to 45 minutes a day to care for the birds after you put them on wire. It takes longer with the poulters.

Everything is automatic. Water is piped into the pens through fountains which are scrubbed and sterilized every day. He has a SHAMROCK — (Special) — Robert Adams and James Davis, official cameramen for the Irish high school annual, "The Shamrock," are completing some special shots for the yearbook.

Last week they took pictures of the senior class in the main hall, attended by E. M. Burkhalter, high school principal. Another special shot included a picture of George Burris, English instructor, burning up the old typewriter with the "two-finger" system.

Mrs. Kathleen Smith, sponsor, said all copy for the annual would be ready for the publisher within a month, except that for the basketball and boxing teams, not yet started.

Visitation Days Slated At School

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Shamrock schools will celebrate National Education week Nov. 12-17, with visitation days for the public, reports Supt. Elmer J. Moore.

"Wednesday and Friday have been designated as special visitation days," Principal Edward M. Burkhalter, high school, said. "but parents are welcome any day in the week and any week, too."

"I had a funny experience last year. A woman came in and said she didn't want any turkey. I looked so clean that she didn't think it was turkey. She said she didn't get any giblets. When I asked her if she didn't find the giblets when she rinsed out her turkey, she replied that it was not turkey. I had used parchment bags to bake her turkey with that enclosed the giblets, and she had for four or five years. I don't use those bags anymore."

"I have shipped turkeys as far as Denver and Boston. We quick-freeze them, pack in dry ice, and ship by air."

Noland has five sons and two daughters; C. R., who is auditor for The Texas Co. in Caracas, Venezuela; J. P., who works for Phillips-Petco plant at B. G. & W. A. who is building and contracting purchasing agent for the Celanese plant, Pampa; W. J., who is shop foreman for Baash-Ross Machine Co., Pampa; and Earl who is a driller with Cree Drilling Co., Farmington, N. M. W. J. lives at Kingsmill, right by the turkey plant. The daughters are Mrs. C. C. Campbell and Mrs. Lloyd Taylor, both of Pampa. Mrs. Noland died in June.

Noland has been successful in his hobby because he applied the same methodical science to it that he used in the oil business. He learned to do by doing. "I want parchment bag inside. No wonder it tasted funny! She had been buying turkeys from me and something to do when I retired," the plump, pleasant-faced oil driller said. He retires in years.

Rustle In Direction Of Bustle Is Heard, Fashion Expert Says

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK — (P) — Is the bustle coming back to America? Well, there's a rustle in that direction — only the girls themselves don't realize it, says a movie fashion expert.

Charles Le Maire says the present wild feminine rush toward fuller cocktail skirts and evening gowns might force a comeback for the bustle against the wishes of women themselves.

Le Maire, who has helped dress and undress a lot of stars as wardrobe director for Twentieth-Century-Fox, is historical rather than hysterical about the situation. He approves of the trend toward spreading gowns — but insists they are getting out of hand.

"That led to the bustle before — and it may again," he said. "Perhaps you are not aware of the dimensions of the problem, but women after dark now are wearing fluffed out things that make them look like the middle tent in a three-ring circus."

"It started in Europe last spring — it was a gay social season — and spread here," said Le Maire.

"Women used to brag about who designed their dress. Now they are content to boast, 'It has 25 to 40 yards of material in it.'"

"I like the style — it is soft and feminine. It is a return to the 1860's. But the women then gradually let their skirts get so wide they couldn't get into carriages or pass through doors. So they started pushing their skirts back and they ended with — the bustle."

Le Maire says he hates the idea of a bustle because it creates an unnatural body line — like a rear-uprising false.

"The only use I see for a bustle in the modern world is for someone to park a package on it in the subway," he said.

Too Much Money Can Be Curse In Movie World

HOLLYWOOD — (P) — The evils of too much money for film producers were exposed today by Gabriel Pascal, noted maker of George Bernard Shaw movies.

Pascal, who captivated the late playwright and made a career of filming Shaw plays, admitted that he was a victim of wealth. A lot of us would like to be so victimized, but he claimed that it shouldn't happen to film producers.

"The producer must be a creator," he declared. "He must work hard and suffer in order to produce a work of art. When he has too much money, he has too many assistants and workers to do things for him. He loses the close contact with his production and the result is bad."

"After all, a picture should reflect the labor of the producer. He is the man who should coordinate and assemble all the elements and they all should bear his personal touch. But if he detaches himself from the production, it is bound to suffer."

Fascal cited his own example. He rose from obscurity to produce "Pygmalion," the first of Shaw's works to be filmed. The picture was a great success and he went on to make "Major Barbara," also hailed by the critics. But then came "Caesar and Cleopatra."

"It was a bad mistake," he sighed. "I was the victim of too much money. As a result, I got too far from the picture and too far from the public. It became a picture that lacked a basic appeal to the general movie goer."

Secretary Of Agriculture Again Faces Cotton Problem

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Last year's cotton problem is back on Secretary of Agriculture Brannan's doorstep. The problem is whether to curb exports and risk a price decline.

A year ago the secretary slapped rigid restrictions on export of the fiber crop to protect domestic needs. This action was taken because the 1950 crop was very small and demands of the defense program ate into reserves.

To relieve the situation, Brannan and his department put on a big "grow more cotton" campaign this year. Summer planting reports and early fall production estimates of the federal crop reporting board indicated that the shortage had been licked.

It appeared that this year's crop would be the third largest on record and big enough to meet all prospective demands and add some to a reserve that had fallen to a dangerously low level.

The prospect of a big crop sent prices skidding — a development that brought bitter complaints from cotton farmers and their representatives in Congress.

Accordingly, Brannan took restrictions off exports because it appeared the supply would be large enough to meet all requirements. This action helped to reverse the price downturn and to soften grower demands for higher cotton prices supports.

The secretary looked forward to a 1952 farm production program placing a little less emphasis on cotton than this year's.

But the November crop estimate made yesterday by the crop board changed all this. It sliced 7 percent off the October estimate because of drought damage and warned that freezes early this month may require a

Scout Fun Drive Starts In Pampa

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Shamrock's Scout finance drive got underway here last Wednesday with a kickoff breakfast addressed by Rev. E. Douglas Carver, Pampa, Baptist pastor.

Eluey Coore, Shamrock drive chairman, said all reports were not yet in, but apparently the drive is making substantial progress. He did not release specific dollar figures, but said the drive has a "dollar-and-cents" quota. He hoped 10 percent of the population — 250 — would donate to the cause.

Postmaster Urges Early Yule Mailing

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Flake George, Irish postmaster, urges all citizens to mail Christmas packages and cards early, particularly those to overseas installations and camps.

George said the department could not guarantee delivery on overseas packages if mailed after Nov. 15.

further reduction in the December production estimate.

Consequently, the cotton supply situation appears to be just as critical as it was a year ago. If latest forecasts of exports and domestic demand are accurate, Brannan may have to restore restrictions on foreign shipments.

Furthermore, he may have to revamp his present thinking on 1952 crop program plans. The secretary had hoped to concentrate next year on production of livestock feeds. Cotton and grain compete for much land in the Southeast and Southwest. More grain must be produced if consumer demand for meat is to be met.

The secretary will certainly weigh very carefully the question of restoring cotton export quotas.

Brannan recognizes that unless prices are satisfactory from the growers' standpoint, it might be difficult to get an adequate acreage of cotton planted next year. To many farmers, livestock prices are much more inviting.

The secretary may be faced again with demands that he set price supports for cotton next year above the 90 percent of parity level in effect for many years.

about Newspaper Advertising

Q. Do you know of any measure for the value of newspaper circulation to an advertiser such as the standards that a business man uses in buying merchandise?
A. Yes. In the well-known standards that have been approved and adopted by advertisers—namely A.B.C. standards.

Q. What is A. B. C.?
A. A.B.C. stands for Audit Bureau of Circulations, a cooperative association of 3300 advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers in the United States and Canada.

Q. What is the Bureau's work?
A. To audit the circulation of newspapers and periodicals so that advertisers can buy space on the basis of definite standards and verified facts and figures.

Q. How does A. B. C. accomplish this?
A. The Bureau has a large staff of experienced auditors. They visit the publisher members periodically and make audits of their circulation records. This information is then published in A.B.C. reports for the use and protection of advertisers.

Q. What do these reports show?
A. A.B.C. reports tell how much circulation a newspaper has, where this circulation is, how it was obtained, how much people paid for it, and many other verified facts that advertisers should know when they buy advertising.

Q. Are all publications eligible for A. B. C. membership?
A. No. Only those with paid circulation. This is important to advertisers because it is the best proof of interest and purchasing power on the part of the readers.

Q. Is this newspaper a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations?
A. Yes. We are proud of our circulation and we want our advertisers to know just what they get for their money when they advertise in our columns. The audited information in our A.B.C. report gives them the complete facts.

Canadian Lions club officers are Dale Nix, president; Norm Magill, first vice pres.; Joe Morgan, second vice pres.; Tom Gray, third vice pres.; Gomer Lee Mitchell, immediate past president; Nick Morgan, Lion tamer; Frank Shaller, tail twister; and Hugh Wilson, secretary-treasurer.

Texas Prints Sixth Edition Of Directory

AUSTIN — (P) — The whole family of the state government of Texas is in the 288 pages of the Texas State directory which published its sixth edition this month.

Main officers of the more than 100 Texas state offices, departments, boards, commissions, agencies and authorities of the state of Texas are listed, along with photographs, addresses and tenures of office.

The list starts with A&M college, board of directors, and ends with the Youth Development council. In between are such items as the Supreme court, the board of plumbing examiners, the members of the legislature, the Lake Texoma commission and the department of public safety.

Also in the directory are Texas senators and representatives in Washington; the Chambers of Commerce in the state, along with the names of their president and manager; Texas cities and towns, along with their population, the name of the mayor and the name of the clerk or secretary; Texas counties, along with the names of the county judge, county clerk, sheriff and tax assessor-collector.

What looks like a telephone directory is a list of all the state employees who live in Austin. The register gives their original hometown, their job, their address and their telephone numbers.

The Directory is edited by Jan H. S. Anderson and published by the Texas Publishing Co. of Austin.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

2 Memorial 2

Where has he gone since yesterday—And left us lonely here?
Tonight he seems so far away
Who yesterday was near.
No map of ours, no sea or land,
No journey we may trace;
We only know he reached his home
And sees his Father's face.
And oh! he knows since yesterday,
The mist of earth is cleared away,
The sun of truth in radiance glows
All shadows and bright,
Unfaded by any cloud of earth,
Undarkened by its night.
And he has grown since yesterday,
And he'll be growing still:
The bonds of time and sense and space
That linked his eager will
Were dropped like shackles from the soul
In his first upward flight.
The weary body frets no more
The spirit, freed and light,
O sad and strange to-day!
Yet who would call the glad soul back
To round the resting clay?
Or who would wish that he might Share
Our tomorrow's toil and strife
Who, loosed from Death and all its Entered into Life?

TOMMY LEROY BYBEE

To the Church of Christ membership and the Harrah Methodist membership and to Rev. J. P. Crenshaw and Rev. E. C. Armstrong for their comforting words; to those who furnished music and to Dunkel-Carmichael Funeral Home for their beautiful last rites.

NOTHING SARONG WITH THIS—Sonarman Dick Snell, left, of Los Angeles, and Radarman Terry McGovern of San Diego beam with Naval approval over the "evening sarongs" modeled by Hollywood's French glamor queen Corinne Calvet. The Hawaiian costume was designed for a brief sequence in the movie, "Sailor Beware." Snell and McGovern acted as technical experts, attending to the fact that Corinne's costume would "please the Navy."
