Botched Handling Of Atrocity Charges Rapped By U.S. Solon

WASHINGTON (AP)—The "errors and contradictions" and the "botched handling" of the Korea atrocity charges demand a complete statement of facts from President Truman, Rep. Edith Nourse Rogers (R-Mass.) declared Saturday.

"The President owes the parents of our servicemen a clear and unmistakable statement of the facts at the earliest moment," she said.

Mrs. Rogers' statement was prompted by the disclosure Friday night that Gen. Ridgway had reported to the United Nations as early as Nov. 12 that his headquarters had received and was investigating reports that 8000 American prisoners of war had been done to death by their Communist captors.

On Nov. 14 Col. James M. Hanley of the Eighth Army's war crimes section announced that 6,500 American prisoners had been slaughtered after capture. Four days later Hanley's announcement was confirmed in part by Gen. Ridgway in a statement that gave no estimated number, however, and deplored the method Hanley used in making his figures public.

Still later, four days ago, Gen. Ridgway said there was considerable evidence that 6,000 American captives had been put to "death by atrocity" but "no conclusive evidence" as to the actual number.

"The appalling aspect of the sequence of events is the fact that the American people are under the impression that they are being hood-winked and deceived," Mrs. Rogers said.

CASUALTY REPORT
She noted that the latest casualty reports from the Defense Dept. show 16,972 Americans killed in action or dead of wounds and 10,871 missing. She specifically asked that the President "relate the death and missing figures to the figures made public by General Ridgway so that the mothers and fathers of this country may know whether General Ridgway's figures are included in the report of the defense department."

RIDGWAY REPORTS
General Ridgway's report that 8,000 alleged Communist prisoners were under investigation also mentioned that 126 suspects in the cases were in custody. The report was put on the documents table of the UN general assembly in Paris a week ago, but it went unnoted by the 1,800 correspondents there.

Only Friday night did it come to light, when a New York Herald Tribune reporter found it at UN headquarters in New York.

Widening Of Hwy. 60 In Final Stage

Widening and surfacing of U.S. Hwy. 60 east of Pampa and through the south portion of the town, will go into its final stages Monday when topping contractors go on the job.

The project, costing $207,032.35, was let to two contractors: Cooper and Woodruff, Amarillo, to lay the gravel and asphalt concrete base, and Southwestern General Construction Co., Dallas, to top the road with a hot mix of asphalt concrete.

The operation will increase the highway width from 18 feet to 24 feet.

About one mile of the stretch will go through the northern section of Pampa, cutting off a sharp curve to the south, and straighten the road.

The remainder of the 6.9-mile project will extend from the east end of Pampa for approximately 5.9 miles, including Cuyler Lake.

WIDENING STRIPS
Widening strips are being laid on both sides of the present highway.

Resident Engineer G. K. Reading said yesterday he did not know how many days it would take the topping contractor to finish the job because cold spells would force temporary halts in surfacing material mixing work.

Similar widening work on U.S. Hwy. 60, west of Pampa, has been approved by the State Highway commission but is still in the engineering paper-work stage.

This project will start at Ripley and W. Brown and extend west for about 6.3 miles, to approximately the west end of Kingsmill.

Reading estimated this project would also have an asphalt-concrete surface.

The project will increase the highway's present 18-foot width to 24 feet.

Both widening projects have been designed for two-lane traffic—the same as now except each lane will be three feet wider.

Last Rites Held For Moore Infant
Services for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Moore, 12 miles southeast of Miami, were held in the Miami cemetery at 3 p. m. yesterday.

The boy died in a local hospital at 10:30 p. m. Friday. He survived by his parents, two brothers, Leslie T. and James Douglas, and grandparents.

Temperatures Go Up, Down Like Elevator

Like a department store elevator on bargain day, Pampa's mercury hit its share of ups and downs last week as temperatures leaped back and forth from a low of 17 Sunday to a high of 80 Wednesday and then down to 31 by 7 p. m. Saturday.

But Pampa's nippy weather wasn't the only climatic conditions that sent the less rugged squirming into overcoats or "long handles."

The condition was general throughout the midwest as wintry blasts hit the hardest blows this season. Minnesota and North Dakota, as usual, held the "coldest spot" limelight with a low of -18 at Jamestown, N. D., and -11 at Alexandria, Minn.

Old Man Weather held little hope for Pampa's immediate weather future with predictions of cloudy to partly-cloudy Sunday and slightly warmer temperatures.

Only a trace of rain was measured yesterday at the KPDN transmitter, although Wheeler reported .5 inch of rainfall Saturday. The rainfall was part of a 200-mile wide rain belt that damped the country from New England through Ohio and the central portion of Texas.

By 5:30 p. m. yesterday a light fog moved into the city. As the fog dropped over the city, so did the mercury, tumbling from a high of 33 at 3:30 p. m. to 31 by 7 p. m. The low for Saturday until that time was a nippy 29.

During the 24-hour period Darr had the low for the state of 24 while Corpus Christi basked in 70-degree heat.

Veep Celebrates Birthday By Firing Gun In Korea

CENTRAL FRONT, Korea—(AP)—Vice President Alben Barkley celebrated his 74th birthday Saturday by firing an autographed artillery shell at the Chinese Reds.

He said he was coming through his long trip to Korea "in good shape," then added, "It's not too rough."

When he landed at the forward airstrip of the U. S. 25th Division, the division band broke into "Happy Birthday to You."

"I expect to live to 105, especially after this exhilarating trip to Korea," he said with a broad grin.

Barkley reviewed an honor guard and shook hands with the 25th division's commander, Maj. Gen. Ira P. Swift.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway, supreme allied commander, and Gen. James A. Van Fleet, Eighth Army chief, accompanied Barkley on a swing along the front in an aerial caravan of light planes.

PRESENTS CITATION
From the 26th division the group flew to the 14th division where the Veep presented a Presidential Unit Citation to Company "K" of the 19th Infantry Regiment.

Battery "C" of the 52nd Field Artillery battalion greeted Barkley with a 19-gun salute and gave him a polished shell case bearing the vice president's seal and this inscription:

"Fired for freedom by the 24th Infantry division in Korea—1951."

Snow lay in patches on the ground and the mercury had risen to only 25 degrees from a low of 14 Saturday morning. Barkley came bundled up for the cold.

Klinger pulled the lanyard on a 105 millimeter howitzer to celebrate his birthday.

Local Man Killed In Auto Crash

Harry Erickson, 521 W. Montagu, employed by the Western Grain and Loan Co., was killed at 7:30 p. m. Friday one mile north of Decatur, Texas, when his car skidded into the front end of a truck and semi-trailer.

State Highway Patrolman Claude Reeves, Decatur, who investigated the crash, told Pampa Daily News reporters last night, that Mr. Erickson was driving south toward Decatur and attempted to pass another car.

A misty rain was falling at the time, the patrolman said.

As Mr. Erickson was passing the truck, driven by T. W. Perry, Chickasha, Okla., he tried to avoid it but skidded on the wet road, slamming broadside into the oncoming truck. The truck hit the right front door and demolished the car.

Mr. Erickson was taken to Rogers hospital, Decatur, where he was pronounced dead on arrival. His legs were broken and both shoulders crushed, Reeves said.

The body was taken to the Christian Funeral home at Decatur and will be sent to the Harrington Funeral home at Plano, Texas, today where services will be held.

Attendants at the Harrington Funeral home said tentative funeral services are for 2:30 p. m. today.

Known survivors are his wife, Mrs. Viola Erickson, employed at a local pharmacy, and his mother, of Plano.

Could He Have A Guilty Conscience

PARIS—(AP)—Suddenly, in the UN chamber Saturday there were sounds like a succession of rifle bolts being thrown home.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky, the speaker, froze in his chair and stopped talking. His bodyguards moved forward in their chairs to cover him. UN guards whirled toward the photographers' gallery from which the sounds came.

It was only a stuck mechanism on a rapid sequence camera. As soon as it was fixed, the session went on.

The condition of Mrs. R. M. Klinger, 521 Doyle, was described as serious by hospital authorities at Boise City, Okla., after a highway accident Friday morning.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Klinger were on their way to Colorado when the mishap occurred. Police said the automobile in which the Klingers were riding apparently skidded out of control and overturned about 12 miles southeast of Boise City on Hwy. 287.

Hospital officials said Mrs. Klinger suffered severe head injuries. Her husband's condition was described as "satisfactory."

Santa's Mail Increases As Christmas Only 29 Days Off

Only 29 shopping days remain before Christmas and Santa has a lot of preparing to do before his trip Christmas Eve.

Pampa boys and girls are letting the old fellow know in plenty of time. Twelve more sent letters to St. Nick—however, the old gentleman must have set up a special code with one little Pampan.

"I would like a doll. No matter what kind it is. Nuts, candy and fruits. Shoes for my Toni doll. Cooking set. Collection cowboy doll. Dresser set. Sewing machine. My two front teeth."

"Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a play road grader. I am six years old, am in the 1st grade. I have a brother three years old and a little baby brother five months old. You may bring them whatever you think they would like. Something like a toy pistol and holster. My toy tractor. Yours truly, 'Gary Epperson Star Route 3'

Will you please bring me a cowboy suit, a police tricycle, a pair of skates, tool box, football, pool gun and a tent. Now Santa, if you think this is too much why don't bring it all. I will be happy to get anything you want me to have. 'Lots of love, 'Albert Jones."

Iran Calls Election As Test Of Strength

TEHRAN, Iran—(AP)—The government of Premier Mohammed Mossadegh—rich in oil potential but hard up for cash—said Saturday it would demand national elections immediately for a bold test of its popular strength.

The announcement came after the frail premier returned to a whopping welcome home from 47 days spent abroad in efforts to get money and in defending his national oil policies.

The crucial issue, however, is the low state of Iran's treasury, which misses the oil royalties paid for years by the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Co.

On his return for the big U.S. government loan to tide Iran over until national oil production can return a profit, Mossadegh got nothing better than a promise of serious consideration after conferences in Washington with President Truman and others.

The demand for elections soon was posed as a challenge to a decision in the Majlis (lower house of Parliament) on Oct. 15 to postpone the start of voting from Nov. 21 to Dec. 16.

It also apparently is designed to give the opposition less time to consolidate forces to unseat Mossadegh and to deprive the opposition of added time in the worsening financial crisis.

EARLY ELECTIONS
The campaign for early elections was announced by Deputy Premier Hossein Fatemi, who went with Mossadegh on his trip abroad. On his return, the Premier spent 5 1/2 hours with Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi, and apparently got a royal go-ahead.

Mossadegh is expected to go before the Majlis today with an outline of his future plans and perhaps to demand a vote of confidence. He expects to appear in the Senate Monday.

Political observers said they believed if Mossadegh were defeated the most likely candidate to succeed him would be Ahmad Qavam, a tough old conservative who was Premier when Western power pressure in the United Nations forced Russian troops to leave Northern Iran in 1946 after they had overstayed their wartime occupation treaty limits.

The official United States report on the incident was made not to the Soviet government at Moscow, which had filed on Nov. 7 a protest against the alleged order violation, but to the United Nations' Secretary General Trygve Lie, at the UN general assembly meeting in Paris.

The State Dept. explained that this was the proper procedure because the plane was operating as part of Gen. Ridgway's UN Korean command. The United States had already refused because of this fact to accept the Russian protest note on any basis other than as a matter of information.

One Injured When Car Turns Turtle

James W. Helbert, 26, 824 E. Brunow, was hospitalized at 7:20 a. m. Saturday after his 1941 sedan rolled over on U. S. Hwy. 60 near Humble Camp.

State Highway Patrolmen said Helbert, a construction worker, was driving to work west of the city, when his car went off the south side of the road about a mile west of the city limits, and rolled over one and one-half times.

At Highland General hospital, Helbert told patrolmen a pickup truck passed him, throwing muddy water on his windshield causing him to lose control of his car. He said he veered over to the left side of the road and crashed while attempting to get the car back on the highway.

His car appeared to be a total wreck, Patrolmen said.

Saturday afternoon, hospital attendants reported Helbert didn't appear to be seriously injured, but was being detained for observation.

McCarthy Tells Egypt Oil Deal

PARIS—(AP)—A multi-million dollar oil deal contingent on a change in Egyptian laws was announced completed today by Texas oilman Glenn McCarthy.

McCarthy says the deal would allow him to take control of a company which would export more than 7,000 square miles of Egypt oil.

He said he would have a 51 percent interest in the Egyptian National Petroleum Co. with the remaining stock owned by varied interests, mostly Egyptians.

Actual exploitation depends on whether the Egyptian parliament changes laws restricting the control of Egyptian companies by foreigners and the export of profits from the undertaking.

War Claims Board Seeks To Pay Off POWs This Year

The War Claims commission announced today all ex-prisoners of World War II who have not yet filed a claim for benefits under the War Claims act of 1948, as amended, should do so immediately. It was pointed out by the commission that while the Public Law 16, 82nd Congress, of last April extended the termination date for filing claims with the commission to March 31, 1952, the commission hopes to see those all American ex-POW claims settled by the end of this year.

This of course cannot be accomplished unless all claims in this category are filed in the immediate future. Chairman of the commission, Daniel F. Cleary, expressed his opinion that in addition to some living ex-POWs where there will be equipment number of survivors of the prisoners who are eligible for benefits have not yet filed claims. Widows, children, and parents of the deceased POWs in that order, are eligible for benefits under the War Claims act.

The benefits available to American POWs or their survivors under present law are $1 for each day the POW was interned by the enemy and was not provided with the amount and quality of food required under the Geneva convention, of 1929 relating to the treatment of prisoners of war. Claims forms may be obtained directly from the War Claims commission, Washington 25, D. C., or through the veterans organizations, state directors of Veterans Affairs, and

Keep Truth Before The Public, Carver Tells Kiwanis Club

LITTLE, BUT BRAINY — In the hand of engineer John T. Mullin is the "brain or lens" of a new electronic device that permits recording moving pictures on tape in the same way sound is now recorded. Half dollar gives comparison of its size. Developed by Mullin and Wayne R. Johnson at the laboratory of Bing Crosby Enterprises, Los Angeles, Calif., the new picture recorder, when perfected, could eliminate all film from movies and television.

"Do the best you can to keep truth and freedom before the people," Rev. E. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist church, told Kiwanians Friday.

Rev. Carver spoke at a weekly meeting of the Pampa Kiwanis club on "My Part in Civilization's Struggle to Survive."

"Each of us has a task to perform in today's confusion and world strife," he declared, "and we are waiting for someone to show us the way."

The minister named four things everyone should do to keep the country free and unafraid:

1. Keep a sense of equilibrium in a world of confusion.
 2. Be courageous.
 3. Be cooperative.
 4. Dedicate one's life to a cause.
- "As Peter, who was given a great responsibility by Jesus, we also must become part of the world commission to maintain truth and freedom throughout our land and the world," he concluded.

Cartographer Tests Set By Civil Service

United States Civil Service commission has announced an examination for filling cartographer and cartographic aid positions at salaries ranging from $2500 to $8300 a year, and for cartographic draftsman positions paying from $2500 to $2005 a year. The positions are located in Washington, D. C. and vicinity. A few field-service-at-large positions will also be filled.

Applicants will not be required to take a written test but they must have had from three months to eight years (depending on the kind and grade of position) of appropriate experience. Appropriate education may be substituted for all or the required experience for positions paying up to $2410 and for part of the experience required for the higher level positions. For cartographic draftsman positions, applicants must submit with their application a sample of their work.

Full information and application forms may be secured from the Commission's local secretary, C. W. Stovell, located at Post Office, Pampa, Texas, from Civil Service regional offices, or from the United States Civil Service commission, Washington 25, D. C.

First Quarter CMP Payment Deadline Set For Dec. 15

All applicants for allotments of allotted materials for construction scheduled during the second quarter of 1952 and succeeding quarters must file their form T-14C applications by December 15, 1951.

Personnel in the U.S. Department of Commerce, National Production Authority office in Lubbock, stated more than 86 percent of NPA building applications for Texas construction in the fourth quarter were filed. First quarter 1952 figures are yet to be released.

Personnel in the office further stated that because of shortages of steel, copper and aluminum, NPA has issued construction regulations requiring a contractor who wants to construct project using more than specified amounts of these materials secure NPA permission and get an allotment of the necessary materials. Under CMP, allotments of the three basic materials made to users on a strictly basis, it was explained.

G. Close has announced his purchase of the Corner Drug, 908 N. 13th St., Pampa. The business, which is open 8:30 a.m. to 11 p.m. daily, is under new management.

Close has been in similar business for five years, part of which time was spent in Pampa.

A. W. Erickson, described as the green bug's press agent, will speak to area wheat farmers in White Deer Tuesday.

Erickson, independent crop reporter of Minneapolis, will make his only appearance in the Panhandle in the auditorium of the First Baptist church in White Deer at 7:30 p. m. He was invited to the Panhandle by Barnett Elevator Co. of White Deer.

All farmers, grain men and others interested are invited to attend the meeting.

Erickson, who has just completed a survey of wheat prospects all the way from Canada to the Texas Panhandle, will show pictures and slides of every phase of the wheat failures the past two years.

His discussion is to center around these failures and the part played by the green bug. Erickson contends the green bug is the primary contributor to the failures. He feels the bug is the Great Drought, ever to visit the Plains.

"The green bug took $250,000,000 worth of wheat last year," Erickson told one farm writer. "This year it took $500,000,000 worth. If we have a green bug epidemic this coming year, Great Plains land will lose $50 an acre in value."

So far, the outlook for Panhandle wheat is good, according to Red Dines, wheat-marketing specialist.

As of Nov. 10, an estimated 4,259,000 acres had been planted with about another one million acres yet to be planted.

The 1952 crop still is the big guessing game, however. For two years, wheat farmers have experienced a vast disappointment in their crops with only 5 percent of Gray county's wheat being harvested this year.

This is to be the year of decision, according to county and area agriculture authorities. Cotton and grain sorghums may take the lead as farmers look for a money crop.

Most of the wheat-growing areas in the state now have areas by now. Sub-soil moisture still is only fair in most areas. Good winter and spring rains are going to be needed to produce a big wheat crop. Agriculture agents, keeping a sharp eye out for the green bug, have found little evidence of the scourge yet. In past years heavy bug enemies are in insufficient numbers to ward off a large scale infestation of the parasite. Prolonged, hot summer extending over into early fall allowed little volunteer wheat and other green bug host plants to develop, however. In addition, green grain sorghum stubble. Some 2,219,350 acres is estimated to be the total for the section. On the South Plains, about 70 percent has been seeded with five percent on sorghum stubble. An estimated 13.4 percent of this year's crop is to be planted in sorghum stubble.

Cook To Hear Verdict Tuesday

EL CENTRO, Calif. — (AP) — Killer William Cook will have to wait until Tuesday to learn whether his desert slaying of salesman Robert Dewey is held first degree murder and punishable by death in California's gas chamber.

Superior Judge Lurray Mouser Saturday set over his decision until Tuesday and indicated that he may pass sentence at the same time.

The court could give Cook life imprisonment if it finds extenuating circumstances, even though the crime is held to be first degree.

Cotton Presenting Serious Threat To Wheat Production

Production of cotton in this area is presenting a serious threat to the continued production of wheat, Foster Whaley, Gray county agent, said yesterday.

Referring to the failure of wheat crops in recent years, Whaley declared if the crop were to fail again this year a majority of farmers would turn to producing cotton for profit.

"Too much money has been lost through wheat failures during the last few years," he said, "and a recent boom in the Panhandle for growing cotton has shown satisfactory results."

Earlier, area farmers believed a fungus growth was causing wheat plants to wither. An investigation by plant experts from Amarillo, however, showed the deterioration due to a poor root system caused by lack of moisture in the ground.

To date, Gray county has ginned 1499 bales, L. P. Fort, manager of the local Texas-Employment commission, office said. Although there was a shortage of cotton pickers earlier in the season, he said the grain now are swapped and that farmers are beginning to use sleds and mechanical strippers. He said more than 2000 bales are expected to be ginned in the county.

The cotton is drying rapidly throughout the area and if warm weather prevails bales soon will burst ready for harvest. In McLean, cottonseed is bringing about $79 per ton and cotton, 36 cents per pound.

Adjustment On Prices Given Okay

Adjustments in ceiling prices of manufacturers in the four-state area of Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana and Oklahoma to reflect cost increases to last July floor cost increases to last July Office of Price Stabilization.

Alfred L. Seelye, regional director of OPS, said changes in regulations are authorized by two amendments to basic manufacturer's ceiling price regulations recently issued by the agency.

Manufacturers previously have been allowed to price either under the general ceiling price regulation of Jan. 1951, or under their appropriate manufacturer's regulation. The new amendments require that most manufacturers price under their appropriate regulation, and set Dec. 19, 1951 as the last date by which filings under these regulations can be completed.

A manufacturer who wants to adjust prices under the order must establish his prices under the basic regulation before an adjustment can be made.

If a manufacturer elects to price any of his products under the new supplementary regulations he must do so for his entire manufacturing line with minor exceptions, Seelye declared.

If ceiling prices are set under the original regulation, prices may be adjusted under the formula provided by the supplements. Methods of setting prices under both the basic and supplementary regulations provide for pre-Korean bases.

Rhode Island Has Spot For Old Automobiles

PROVIDENCE, R. I. — (AP) — If your old jalopy is cranky and has been acting up under the stresses of urban life, maybe you ought to retire it to Providence Island in Narragansett Bay where it can spend its declining years in peace and quiet.

Real oldies are just the thing on Providence Island. There are no roads, no need for an operator's license, or insurance, and no charge for registration, because Providence cars are not registered with the state of Rhode Island.

Your car will bump along on driftways, a fancy name for cowpaths. Fifteen miles of driftways wander around the small island. Bulldozers, a scraper and grader keep the driftways in good shape. The driftways serve 30 cars, all second-hand, and another 100 belong to summer visitors. Most of those are second-hand too. It costs $7.50 to ferry a car return.

Rent Controls To Hit Texas Area

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rent controls on all types of housing will go into effect Monday in the Mt. Pleasant - Daingerfield, Tex., area.

The office of rent stabilization, announcing this Saturday, said rents in the Mt. Pleasant - Daingerfield area will be rolled back to those charged legally on April 1.

It said controls were ordered in the Mt. Pleasant - Daingerfield area because "there has been a build up of construction workers at the Lone Star Steel Plant."

Educational Assn. Criticized For Tidelands Stand

HOUSTON — (AP) — The National Educational Assn. was roundly criticized by the Texas State Teachers Assn. Saturday for its "unjustified, unethical and ill-advised" action in opposing state ownership of the Tidelands.

The policy-forming house of delegates of the Texas organization criticized the NEA after quashing a move to withdraw from the national organization.

The revolt was led by Robert L. Proffer, a professor at North Texas State college at Denton. He deplored the action of NEA in fighting pending national legislation that would retain Tidelands ownership to the state for use by Texas schools.

Proffer asked that the group strike out a paragraph in a resolution for increased membership in the national organization.

Opposing Proffer's request were Fred Hunter of Beaumont and Bowles of Austin. By voice vote, delegates decided to retain the paragraph but approved another criticizing the NEA for its Tidelands stand.

Miss Ruth Hillyer, a San Angelo teacher, was elected president of the Texas State Teachers Assn. without opposition at Saturday's session.

Proffer was elected vice-president over three other candidates.

Maryland Smashes Virginia, 54-7

COLLEGE PARK, Md. — (AP) — Maryland gave the lumps to West Virginia 54 to 7 yesterday before leaving for the Sugar Bowl with its first undefeated football team in 67 years.

Coach Jim Tatum took it easy on the Mountaineers in the second half by playing substitutes after his regulars had run up a 35-7 halftime lead.

Fullback Ed (Mighty Mo) Modzelewski trampled the opposition by streamrolling 14 times for 131 yards and two touchdowns. He individually outgained the enemy team. West Virginia ran the ball only eight times for a net loss of 21 yards.

Modzelewski boosted his season's rushing to 834 yards, 154 more than all nine opponents.

TOUCHDOWN — Billy Davis, leading scorer in District I-AAAA, rambles across the goal line to score first touchdown in the Fighting Harvesters' final game of the season at San Angelo Thursday. Davis scored four touchdowns against the Bobcats to wrestle the individual scoring lead away from James Sides, husky Lubbock fullback. Arkansas Halts Hurricanes Attack To Gain 24-7 Victory

By CARL BELL
LITTLE ROCK, Ark. — (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks stopped the nation's number one offense in the mud here Saturday and overpowered Tulsa 24-7, with a brilliant attack of their own.

Arkansas, upsetter of Texas and Texas A&M earlier this season, ran up 10 points in the first quarter and boosted its lead to 24-0 before the heretofore high-scoring Hurricanes tallied in the fourth period.

All three of the Razorback touchdowns came on passes by sophomore quarterback Lamar McHan, but they like a field goal by Pat Summerall, were set up by a strong, deliberate rushing attack.

It probably was the big Arkansas line, more than anything else, that enabled the Razorbacks to close their season with five wins and six losses.

Tulsa, which had averaged more than 42 yards in each of eight previous games, was held to 164 on the ground and 99 by passing — 69 of the latter on one play.

CARPENTER CHARGING
Arkansas, meanwhile, pounded a Hurricane defense, which had yielded only 406 yards until this dump and heavy day, for 287 yards on the ground and added 107 through the air. Fullback Lewis Carpenter accounted for 129 Arkansas yards on 20 rushes.

And the Razorbacks secondary, which had fallen apart in a 47-7 licking by the Southern Methodist aerial circus a week ago, let Tulsa complete only seven of 19 passes, while intercepting recovered and moved to the six, from where Summerall booted his field goal.

Later in the first quarter, Arkansas drove 32 yards on the ground to Tulsa's 24 and then McHan shot a bullet pass to halfback Murry Elton for the touchdown.

McHan connected with Elton again on a 13-yard scoring toss just before half time and threw eight yards to Summerall for another tally in the third quarter.

In the final period Tommy Dickerson sneaked a yard for Tulsa's only touchdown after setting it up with a 69-yard pass to Bob Holladay.

Arkansas 20 0 0 7 27
Tulsa scoring: touchdown-Dickerson; conversion-Miner.
Arkansas scoring: touchdown-Elton 2; Summerall; conversion-Nix 3; field goal-Summerall.

Sooners Nab Title

LINCOLN, Neb. — (AP) — Oklahoma made it four straight Big Seven conference football championships by licking Nebraska 27 to 0.

Never in the five years that Coach Bud Wilkinson has been at Oklahoma have the Sooners been beaten by a conference foe, and they started towards yesterday's victory with a brilliant 77-yard punt return by Larry Grigg.

As fierce as the Nebraska line-men fought, the Oklahoma defensive giants were even more staunch. For instance, in the first half they held Nebraska to a minus 11 yards from scrimmage.

In the second half the Sooners, with all-American Jim Weatherall anchoring the line, were just as staunch, Nebraska winding up with a net loss of 17 yards.

The two teams played with their respective ball carrying aces — all-American Bob Reynolds of Nebraska and Billy Vesels of Oklahoma — sidelined by injury. A year ago both of these boys had scored three touchdowns in a wild battle, which ended 49-35 for Oklahoma.

OFFENSE

Border — Jim Donarski, Arizona guard who plays defense as well as offense, and did outstanding linetackling job in defeat of Idaho.

Southwest — Morgan Williams, Texas Christian sophomore tackle

Panhandle Aces Sparkplug TCU Offense And Defense

FORT WORTH — (AP) — Texas Christian's slashing Horned Frogs used two blocked kicks, a recovered fumble and an intercepted pass to beat Rice 22-6 Saturday and move into first place in the frantic Southwest conference football race.

It was a rough and tumble game that probably set an all-time record for penalties in this region. Twenty-three were called for 247 yards, 15 of those yards being stuck on Rice Coach Jess Neely who rushed onto the field at one time to protest a decision.

It was bitter cold and a misting rain fell throughout the game. But the cold was no more bitter than the play as Rice saw its dreams of a championship with the team that is going to finish last so rudely shattered.

Ray McKown, the jack-in-the-box Horned Frog quarterback passed for one touchdown and ran for another. A blocked kick brought a safety and a pass interception by the TCU demon linebacker, Keith Flowers, set up a third touchdown.

END IN DARKNESS
A crowd of 25,000 huddled in the stands and gave vigorous voice to the long string of penalties.

The game was finished in semi-darkness.

The bitterness of play subsided when the last gun fired and the players of both teams shook hands, slapped each other on the back and said, "It was quite a day."

It was a wild offensive game with the Frogs outplaying the Owls rather decisively, not only on the field but in the statistics. The Frogs' Meyer spread brought 245 yards rushing and passing to 312 for Rice.

Scoring in the TCU touchdowns were McKown, on a 15-yard run; Bob Lair, on a 43-yard gaining pass from McKown, and Bobby Jack Floyd on a one-yard plunge. The safety came when Hal Lambert blocked Kossie Johnson's kick. Doug Conway tried to pick up the ball but pushed it across the goal line and Dan

ALBUQUERQUE — (AP) — The Red Raiders of Texas Tech struck for nine touchdowns to crush the New Mexico Lobos, 60-14, in a Border Conference football game Saturday.

The Raiders clicked three times for touchdowns in the first period, two in the third and four in the fourth.

Although New Mexico has left the Border Conference for the Skyline circuit, a number of games with Border teams, including yesterday's count in the Border race.

Fullback Sandy Welton and halfback Elmer Wilson each accounted for two Tech touchdowns. Single tackles were scored by halfbacks Bobb Close, Frank Graves, Jim Turner, and Bobby Cazcos, and end Lou Crossley. Punk Whitaker made good on six of the seven conversion efforts.

A four-yard pass from halfback Chuck Hill to Dick Brett accounted for the first New Mexico score. The other came on a 78-yard ramble by Hill.

Buck Fauscett Duke Manager

ALBUQUERQUE — (AP) — Buck Fauscett Saturday signed a contract to manage the Albuquerque Dukes in the Class-C West Texas-New Mexico League next year.

He succeeds Hershel Martin who guided the Dukes through the past four seasons to two pennants. Martin resigned at the end of the past season to try for a post in a higher league.

Western Nips Buffs, 13-6

AMARILLO — (AP) — Texas Western got rolling in the late stages and nipped West Texas State 13-6 in a Border Conference football game.

Bobby Clark put West Texas ahead in the second period, plunging nine yards for the score. But Gerald Campbell returned a punt 70 yards for a touchdown and Ed Ammons converted to give Western a 7-6 halftime edge.

Jack Burrus crashed through center from six inches out to cap a long drive and ice the decision late in the final period.

UCLA Uses Sophs To Defeat USC

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Led by two sophomore halfbacks and a brilliant display of defense, UCLA subdued Southern California, 21-7, Saturday for its juiciest plum of the season.

Blasting out touchdowns in the first, third and fourth quarters, the Bruins earned runner-up title laurels in the Pacific Coast conference.

Sophomores Paul Cameron and Don Stalwick were the big guns, while the outweighted UCLA defensive line held the vaunted Trojans well in check until late in the final quarter.

USC went to the air in the 4th quarter to retrieve a some glory and managed to cover 65 yards for a touchdown in a dozen plays.

Yale, Harvard In 21-21 Deadlock

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — (AP) — Yale and Harvard, once rival football powers, turned in a thrilling battle Saturday which ended in a 21-21 tie.

Yale, which had led until the final five minutes, rallied to knot the game with only 61 seconds to go.

Harvard appeared to have clinched the game when Fritz Drill intercepted Ed Malloy's pass on the Yale 18 and scampered across the goal line.

But the Eli unleashed a 55-yard drive. Malloy, standing on the Harvard 14, hit Ray Bright on the one, who fell over to register.

WARREN'S WARMUP

QUESTION: What is the longest boxing match on record, using gloves and three minute rounds? (We'll call it right if you get within 30 minutes and 10 rounds.)

WELL, SHE'S over. We mean the 1951 football season for the Fighting Harvesters. It has been a wonderful season despite that bad night at Lubbock. We have thoroughly enjoyed making every game with the boys, their coaches, and their parents.

And right here and now, before proceeding any further, we want to give a great big thanks to the Harvesters the grade schools of Pampa. They do not work that the cost of athletic insurance, transportation, game officials, scouting, public address system, and other items must come wholly from gate receipts. In many cases bands are financed from athletic receipts. Football receipts must carry track, baseball, and other sports activities. The basketball program in Pampa will be in a healthier state as soon as the new fieldhouse is made available.

So, if you were out there in the crowd, your money was well spent by the school athletic department in keeping these boys outfitted in the best equipment, traveling in good facilities, and eating wholesome food on the road trips.

And speaking of travel the school could surely use a special teams bus to carry athletic equipment around, and the band, etc. Borger and Amarillo have such vehicles, as have most of the schools in I-AAAA. The immediate expense, of course, would be costly, but over a period of time would appear to be a saving now that such long trips are involved in the new district.

PLANS ARE BEING laid for the annual football banquet to honor the Harvesters. No date has been set as yet, that depends upon what dates the speaker is available. The man being sought should be available following yesterday's football games. Up to then, he wasn't too sure of his New Year's day responsibilities, but it looks now as if he won't have any. He has agreed to coach the West squad in the Shrine Game, but has begged off that duty.

Some announcement of the speaker should be made soon. It's at the banquet that the (See WARMUP, Page 9)

"Like to meet Lubbock again!"

SEASON'S END — Some of the thoughts that must have been going through the minds of Coach Aubra Noncaster and Coach Duane Lyon of the Harvesters are sketched into this candid shot grabbed at San Angelo after the season's end last Thursday. The coaches were caught sitting on the curb in front of the hotel relaxing after a long, tense, but fine season. For Coach Tom Tipps' sentiments, turn the page. (News Photo)

Baylor's Bears Stay In Cotton Bowl Running With Win Over SMU, 14-13

One Of Roughest Games In History Of Southwest Play

By BO BYERS
WACO, (AP)—Baylor's off-hungry Bears staved off southern Methodist's razzle-dazzle passing and running attack 14-13 Saturday in one of the roughest games ever seen in the Southwest Conference.

Tempers flared from early in the game until the final gun as Baylor grimly and viciously hung on to its Cotton Bowl hopes.

SMU scored first on an 80-yard drive that got its inspiration when flinging Freddie Benners when injured and removed from the game in the first quarter.

Left half Henry Stollenwerck got the touchdown on a 13-yard plunge after setting the Mustangs aflame with a 33-yard gallop through right guard. His little brother, Sam, kicked the extra point.

Baylor, sluggish in the opening period, scored the tying touchdown after setting the Mustangs aflame with a 33-yard gallop through right guard. His little brother, Sam, kicked the extra point.

LINEMAN SCORES
Baylor drove 51 yards and fullback Richard Parma tallied from the six to send Baylor ahead.

Bill Forester, last week's national lineman of the week, scored SMU's second touchdown, but Sam Stollenwerck's try for point was wide.

Baylor helped SMU to its second touchdown when Bear tackle Luke Welch was charged with a personal foul that gave SMU the ball on Baylor's one.

Forester had set the tally up with an interception, at Baylor's 35.

Huge tackle Forester shifted to the fullback position to plunge the 13-yard for the SMU score in the third period.

The victory, Baylor's first home-ground conquest of SMU since 1936, kept the Bears in contention for the conference title one-half game behind TCU.

Baylor must beat Rice next week and rely on SMU to beat TCU in order to become Cotton Bowl host.

The Isbell-Riley pass play looked like a small gainer when Riley was tackled as he caught the ball but he jerked loose from an ankle-hold and streaked 63 yards on Baylor's longest play from scrimmage this season.

NORTON PASSES
With Benners on the bench most of the game after his first period injury, the passing duel between Isbell and Benners offered no fair comparison.

However, halfback Jerry Norton did a good job of scaring Baylor fans with both his passing and running.

He completed six of 12 for 62 yards and had two interceptions. But often he used the threat of a pass to suck in Baylor defenders before taking off like a cannonball express through the line.

Isbell shafted the air 16 times for 7 completions and 144 yards to give him a season total of 1,239 yards on 93 of 189 passes. Benners, with 3 completions on 7 throws, picked up 55 yards to run his season total to 1,167 yards on 94 of 177 passes.

Norton punted four times for a phenomenal average of 52.8, including two 60-yard quick-kicks.

Isbell, who trails Norton for the punting leadership, had a 40.7 average on six booms.

SMU 7 0 6 0—13
Baylor 0 7 7 0—14
SMU scoring: touchdowns—H. Stollenwerck, B. Forester; conversions—S. Stollenwerck.

Michigan State Spartans Close Undefeated Season

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—The wallowing windup made Michigan State's backfield a Michigan State, currently rated first in the Associated Press poll, a strong contender for the mythical national football championship.

It was the first undefeated season for Michigan State since 1913.

Michigan State scored twice in the first period, led 19-0 at the half and was ahead at the third quarter.

Halfback Carroll Hardy provided the big moment for the outclassed Buffaloes when he took a pitchout and wheeled 67 yards around end for a score on the first play after the third quarter kickoff.

Quarterback Al Dorow passed to Bob Carey, the big Michigan State end, for two touchdowns.

Wake Forest Upset By SC

COLUMBIA, S. C. (AP)—South Carolina capitalized on a brilliant defensive play to upset Wake Forest, 21-6, in a Southern Conference football game here Saturday.

South Carolina left half Steve Wadlak dashed across the visitors' goal line for three yards in the third period, and for six yards in the fourth to give its team heavy margin of victory.

The Pampa Boys Club, Inc., boxing season will get started sometime this week with all eyes focused on the district Golden Gloves tournament to be held in Pampa and the annual regional mitt meet in Amarillo.

Pampa boxers fought their way to second place in the regional high school division last year. A call will be issued shortly for the boxers to start training at the Boys Club's new home in the old Pampa News building at 322 W. Foster. The building was leased to the club, without charge, by The News for that purpose.

All of the training equipment will be installed there in the next few days and workouts will start. A ring will be erected along with heavy bags and speed bags. No team boxing meet schedule has been set up as yet, but contacts have been made with several other clubs and a schedule will be worked out soon.

The local district tournament will be held in mid-January under the joint sponsorship of the Boys Club and The News as it was last year. The week following the winners will participate in the regional meet at Amarillo. The team will again be coached by capable T. J. Watt, and supervised by the Boys Club directors and officials. Local matches will be fought in the junior high school gymnasium.

Jackets have been ordered by the Boys Club for members of last year's boxing team and will be distributed to the winners as soon as they return from a lettering shop in Tyler. Boys who will receive them are Gary Watt, Gary Wilhelm, Frank Smith, James Weathered, Ronnie James, John Smith, Jimmy Malone, Bobby Wilhelm, Paul Ramirez, Arnold Diggs, Claude Porterfield, Roscoe Broadnax, Troy Hall, Jimmy Mosteller, Tony Gonzalez, Bill Snow, Sammy Gaffney, Bobby Wilhelm, N. Wright, Cordell Pugh, Jimmy Bennett and Dick Murray.

Tennessee Blasts Kentucky's Cotton Bowl Eleven, 28-0, Behind Lauricella

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Hank Lauricella, a halfback with a naughty wiggle to his hips, and awesome blocking made a Tennessee-waitz of the game with Kentucky Saturday, 28 to 0.

The Tennessee star ran, passed and kicked as the nation's No. 1 team, already designated to play in the Sugar Bowl game against Maryland, kept alive its domination over the Kentuckians, who are booked for the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1. The blue grass team now has tried in vain since 1935 for a victory over its arch rival.

Lauricella and his backfield mates starred but they could have played in rocking chairs, so violent was the blocking and tackling of the Tennessee forwards.

The combination made it possible for Gen. Bob Neyland, coach of Tennessee, to continue his record of never having lost to Kentucky in 26 contests. During this long period the Wildcats have counted but 24 points.

The defeat was the fourth this season for Kentucky and its great quarterback, Babe Parilli, ended his scheduled varsity career without ever having completed a touchdown pass against Tennessee although the young man has thrown more scoring flips than any player in history.

Tennessee, brilliantly methodical, pounded to touchdowns in each period while Kentucky mounted only two serious threats. One died on the 14-yard line and the other on the one-foot line.

Lauricella gained 133 yards for Tennessee in 17 tries along the ground, he threw one scoring pass, and averaged 34.5 yards on four kicks, one an 18-yarder which bounced out of bounds on the 21.

The tempo of the game was determined the very first time Kentucky got the ball. On the first play Parilli was smacked mightily by the Tennessee front wall and he fumbled. A mate recovered but two plays later Barlish grabbed a Parilli pass and Tennessee was on its way. While Parilli had a trying afternoon he kept the Volunteers alert by clicking for 15 of 25 passes that brought Kentucky 179 yards. Some of his throws were gotten off while he was surrounded by a forest of orange-jerseyed stalwarts.

Along the ground Kentucky was held to 43 yards.

Quarterbacks To Meet Tomorrow

The Pampa Quarterback club will hold its regular weekly meeting tomorrow night in the Woodrow Wilson auditorium—East Browning. Meeting time is 8 o'clock.

Movies of the Pampa-San Angelo football game will be shown and the Harvester coaches will be present to review the game and the season.

A film of the professional Cleveland Browns is also scheduled to be shown if it arrives in time. It has been scheduled with the Browns of tomorrow's showing.

Playoff Picture Completed For Panhandle Grid Elevens

The playoff picture for the Panhandle and Plains area has been completed with Dimmitt facing Abernathy at Plainview on the afternoon of Nov. 30. Last weekend Dimmitt moved past the bi-district spot with a victory over Canadian.

The Shamrock Irishmen, victors over Tulla last weekend, found the "luck of the Irish" holding and they will play on their home field again next Friday afternoon in engaging the Childrens Bobcats, bi-district winners over Quanah, for the regional crown. The game will be played on Denver field at 2:30.

The Lubbock Westerners, first-time winners of the newly established District I-AAAA, will face the Yaleta Indians of 2-AAAA at Kidd Field in El Paso next Saturday afternoon for the bi-district crown. The Westerners will be solid favorites to move through to the state finals unmolested. Yaleta was a three-touchdown loser to the Amarillo Sandstorm in "bloodthirsty" fashion.

Harvester Cagers Prepare For Opener Dec. 4

Start District Play On Road, Jan. 11

Less than two weeks remain before the Pampa Harvester basketballers will swing into their 1951-52 schedule. This year's play will be the toughest encountered by a Green-Gold team, because, as in football, it will be the first year in the newly established District 1-AAAA.

The schedule has been revised and the Harvesters will open up at home facing the Stratford Elks at the Junior high school gymnasium on the night of Dec. 4.

Hopes of having the new field house ready for occupation by the first of the year are still dim due to the slow progress being made there. The scoreboard has been erected, lights have been hung, the glass is all in, and work now is being centered on plumbing fixtures and the laying of the floor. The past week has been spent in laying and cementing stringers in places to which the playing surface will be attached.

WORKING HARD

While this building on their new home has been going on, the Harvesters have been working diligently. Several scrimmage sessions have been held, the latest against a team of Exes. The only thing being proven by these sessions is that nearly all of the berths on the team are still available.

About the only apparent sure starter is senior Marvin Bond, 6'2" winner of the "Hustling Harvester" award last year. Bond's steady play and great team spirit and drive make him a sure starter at one forward.

The other four boys who have been running with the first team most of the time are Jimmy Bond, 6'4" sophomore and brother of Marvin; letterman Duane Jeter, 6'5" senior; Tommy Smith, 5'11" speedy senior letterman; and Jimmy Dulaney, 5'11" senior guard.

But all these boys are getting a strong challenge from boys up from the B team. Putting up strong bids, and definitely in the middle of Coach Clifton McNeely's plans for this year's team, are lanky Freddie Woods, 6'1" forward; Billy Webb, defensive stalwart; Jon Oden, sharpshooting guard; Charles McCray, good ballhandler; and a pair of boys who just finished a long, hard football season, senior Roy Pool and junior Buddy Cockrell. Pool is a forward with an uncanny eye for the basket with one-handed shots while Cockrell is a workhorse at the pivot post and fighting for rebounds. Both are expected to make strong bids for starting jobs.

'ALL JOBS OPEN

In fact, Coach McNeely said Friday night that "all jobs are still open. I haven't decided on a regular starting lineup, and probably won't until after the season is well underway. The boys who show me the most hustle and team spirit are the ones who will be doing the most playing."

The Guerilla squad has been working out daily with the Harvesters under the guidance of McNeely, but tomorrow will be taken over by Auba Nooncaster, backfield coach of the Harvesters. Among the candidates for the Guerillas, and possibly moving up to the Harvesters, are Dwayne Kuntz, Roy Cooper, Alie Miller, Dale Hensell, Gayle Trollinger, Danny Schroedel, Joe

State Hunters Pay Big October Fines

AUSTIN — Law enforcement, a vital routine for the main fall hunting seasons, was spotlighted with the disclosure that $8462.98 was collected in fines and court costs during October.

The chief clerk of the Game and Fish commission pointed out that several of the major cases involved illegal shooting of deer and wild turkey, which become legal prey Nov. 16.

Fourteen persons were prosecuted for headlighting deer; one more than was brought into court for hunting deer at night. Sixteen cases involved taking deer in closed season.

Four persons were prosecuted for hunting wild turkey during the closed season.

Twelve persons were arrested from automobiles.

The $8462.98 fines and costs total, involving 320 cases, contrasted with $6796.92 involving 310 cases in October last year.

The fine report for September this year also was high. The total comprised $708.95 for 303 cases.

The mourning dove season in the north zone, opening September 1, added to the October cases. Forty-five persons were fined for lacking hunting licenses; 13 were fined before or after legal hours; ten exceeded the bag limit of ten doves, and nine used an unplugged gun.

One hunter was fined for shooting doves with a rifle.

McNamara, Doug Randolph, George Depee, and some boys who will probably come out now that the football season for both the Guerillas and Harvesters is completed.

The Harvesters will swing into their conference schedule on Jan. 11 opening up on the road at San Angelo. Because of the new district setup, district games will be played every Friday and Saturday night, making two-day stunts either at home or on the road.

All of the Harvester basketball games, just as in football, will be broadcast direct from the scene of the action by KPND. The 1951-52 schedule is as follows:

COLLEGE STATION — Ghosts of former games and plenty of former players will be on hand Thanksgiving day, the "Texas Aggie" University of Texas Thanksgiving day, that is, when these two teams close out their grid season on Kyle Field.

Traditions still run rampant in this classic which has been a sellout since last July 1, but the preponderance of Longhorn wins will overshadow Aggie spirits. Not since 1939, on Kyle Field or elsewhere, has A&M defeated the Orange-Jerseyed Texans.

With Texas A&M completely out of the Southwest Conference race and Texas in nearly the same shape, the game Nov. 29 will only have a bearing on the long family feud between these two state schools. The all-time series has an orange tinge. The Austin team has won 87 of 87 games while the Aggies have gleaned 15 victories. Just once since 1939, that was in 1948, did A&M come close. In that game, the two touchdown underdogs from College Station completed two passes for touchdowns in Memorial Stadium to end the game in a 14-14 tie.

Although the game could go in favor of the Cadets, the tricky split T of the Longhorns may be too much for A&M. The Aggies played their best game of the year against Oklahoma, a split T team, but had one of their worst days against a similar offense used by Arkansas. With the new found threat of passer Dan Page, Texas looms as a clear favorite.

Irish Seeking First Win In Regional Grid Action

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Shamrock Irishmen have never won a regional playoff, although they have triumphed in every bi-district contest in which they have entered.

Irish fans hope this record will be smashed when the Irish meet Childress in the regional this week-end.

In 1934, Coach John Prejean's Green and white warriors whipped the Hereford Whitefaces 47-7, in the bi-district, but lost to Lamesa, 14-0, in the regional clash.

Five years later, in 1939, Coach Forrest Kline's Irish whipped Lockney in the bi-district, 12-7, but were unsuccessful as the Perryton Rangers took the regional, 12-7. Scott McCall, present Irish head coach, was 27-7. Turkey day, and will be assistant coach serving his first year with the Irish then.

HARD SCRIMMAGES have been the menu for the Pampa Harvester basketballers the past few weeks as they prepare for their 1951-52 campaign. Pictured above is a scramble during Friday night's workout against Harvester exes. The Green and Gold opens its season at home on Dec. 4.

Pairings All Settled For Schoolboy Championship Tilts

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

The top divisions — Classes AAAA and AAA — squared off today for the state championship fight while Classes AA and A moved into the second round in the tumultuous Texas schoolboy football race.

Corpus Christi and Lamar of Houston takes on Baytown. Only three teams survived the district campaign with undefeated, untied records — Lubbock, Ray and Lamar and those will be three of the favorites to win first round games. Woodrow Wilson probably will be picked to beat Arlington Heights.

Arlington Heights became champion of the Fort-Worth district Friday night to complete the play-off bracket in Class AAAA. Arlington Heights smashed Poly 41-0 to move into the state title battle and will play Woodrow Wilson of Dallas in the first round next week.

Brownville strappes McAllen 7-6 to win the District championship and finish up the play-off field in Class AAA. In next week's first round "diamond" plays—Breckenridge and Prairie clashes with Mar-Ed, Temple engages Comoro and Edison (San Antonio) will be Brownville's foe. Breckenridge, Grand Prairie, Temple and Brownville will be favored to win their games. Grand Prairie is the last undefeated, untied team in Class AAA.

winner of the "Fighting Heart" award is revealed. And on one again, it is going to be tough to pick a winner.

The first round was completed in both Classes AA and A Friday night.
Kermit beat Littlefield 31 - 6. Pleasant Grove trimmed Terrell 20-21. LaVega crushed Lampasas 43-6. Cameron slammed Gonzales 40-12. Lamar (Rosenberg) beat Brenham 21-12. French (Beaumont) licked La Porte 12-0 and Cuero downed Uvalde 14-7 in Class AA.
In the second round next week, Shamrock plays Childress, Anson takes on Kermit, Winters plays Arlington, Pleasant Grove meets Pittsburg, Jacksonville engages Huntsville, LaVega meets Cameron, Lamar tackles French and Cuero plays Donna.
Three undefeated, untied teams are left in Class AA — Anson, LaVega and Cuero. Shamrock and Pittsburg are unbeaten but have been tied.
In Class A Albany beat Wylie

OUR SYMPATHIES to the wife and child of Jim Welch, West Texas-New Mexico League umpire killed in the flaming wreckage of a two-truck collision near Cadillac, Mich., earlier this past week. Jim was one of the smallest in size, but one of the most capable arbiters in the league. He was scheduled for promotion to a higher league this next season after four years in this circuit.

Funeral services were held in Cadillac yesterday.
Strangely enough, the driver of the other truck was also named Welch, no relation.

A great big THANK YOU to the Mothers Club of Miami for the fine gift sent this department. We certainly didn't expect it, but do sincerely appreciate it. Anytime you need a speaker, we'll get you one. (Especially for that fine meal.)

WEEKEND CLEANUP: Jones Stadium in Lubbock is getting 72 more lights through the courtesy of 72 Lubbock businessmen. We play Lubbock in Pampa next year. . . Shamrock has been shifted District B-AAA for the 1952 season. The Irish still haven't finished this year's play yet, and are good bets to extend it on for quite some time. . . The SMU freshman are unbeaten this season. Seems Eddie Schleg doesn't like to play with a loser. . . In two years on the Harvesters he only was beaten by Wichita Falls and Lubbock. . . DeWey Cudney, Harvester quarterback, will soon start working at radio station KPND.

The pictures on the first and second sports pages of the Harvester football coaches, were taken without their posting. The boys were sitting on the curb outside the San Angelus Hotel in San Angelo, where the team played, following the game. The expressions on their faces were so good to lose, so we sneaked the camera into position and fired. The boys were very tired after a long season, but they would surely have liked to have continued it a few weeks longer.

ANSWER: It took seven hours and 19 minutes for Andy Bowen and Jack Burke to go 110 rounds in New Orleans in 1933. The referee called it "no contest" when the fighters refused to continue.

The Duke basketball team will play 13 Southern Conference games and will be at home for 13 of the 24 games scheduled for regular season play.

Seixas Rallies To Whip Aussie

By GAYLE TALBOT
SYDNEY, Australia — (AP) — Vic Seixas of Philadelphia, pulled out his finest tennis under extreme pressure Saturday to defeat Mervyn Rose, 20-year-old Australian southpaw, 4-6, 9-7, 4-6, 7-5, 6-3, in the final of the New South Wales championship before 14,000 on the White City Courts.

In the two previous rounds Rose had eliminated Dick Savitt and Ted Schroeder and after three sets he appeared to have Seixas very much on the run. But that was when Seixas rose to the occasion with a brand of volley and smash tennis which brought rounds of applause from the big shirt-sleeved audience and eventually took much of the fight out of his youthful opponent.

The blond Philadelphian, who is fighting for a singles berth on the American Cup team, raced to a 5 to 1 lead in the final set before Rose could catch his breath.

Field Goal Beats Alabama

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — (AP) — Rick Casares' fourth period field goal was the chief blow as Florida rallied for a 30-21 victory over favored Alabama here Saturday.

Bama took a 21-13 halftime lead and was leading 21-20 when Casares booted the ball through for the three points which put Florida in the lead.

Yearlings Tip Fish

AUSTIN — (AP) — Texas Yearlings uncovered a brilliant last-half passing attack here to beat the Texas A&M freshmen, 27-13, in the annual Ben Hur benefit game.

George Tucker, of Sherman, hurled the Shorthorns to three final-half touchdowns to tumble a Fish 7-6 lead early in the third quarter.

Texas had seven completions by Tucker and four by Glenn Dyer to total 180 yards in the air.

LSU Bashes Villanova, 45-7

SHREVEPORT, La. — (AP) — Louisiana State University turned Villanova every way but loose here Saturday, bashing the Wildcats 45-7 in a muddy football game.

LSU's Bengals cleared the bench of all but the lame and halt, Co-capt. Chet Freeman, who saw last week's game with Mississippi State from a wheel chair, even got in a few licks.

Villanova, a slight underdog, showed no running power against LSU. Except for the passing of Bill Brannau, Villanova, was never a threat.

Brannau threw three dozen or more tosses, connecting with one for a touchdown.

Smith Favored As PGA Prexy

CHICAGO — (AP) — Horton Smith of Detroit, former golf tournament star and noted as one of the game's greatest putters, is pegged as the leading candidate for president of the Professional Golfers' Association of America.

Election of a new president to succeed Joe Novak of Los Angeles is high on the agenda of the 36th annual PGA convention running Monday through Thursday.

Clemson Batters Auburn, 34-0

CLEMSON, S. C. — (AP) — Clemson, with all-American candidate Billy Hair showing the way, battered Auburn for a 34-0 football victory Saturday.

The victory meant a possible Gator Bowl bid for Clemson against Miami.

Duke Slams Tar Heels

DURHAM, N. C. — (AP) — Favored Duke slammed back from a 7-6 third period deficit and routed arch rival North Carolina, 15-7, Saturday.

It was North Carolina's eighth loss of the season — the worst record since football began at the university in 1888.

33-Yard Field Goal Puts Illini In Rose Bowl

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—Illinois, shaking up completely deep in the back-territory, won the Big Ten football title and the Rose Bowl Saturday by defeating Northwestern 20-14 on Sam Rebeck's 33-yard field goal.

In the 5-degree temperature, Illinois froze up after rampaging beyond the Northwestern 8-yard line four times.

Like the final period, Bob Burton began a desperate Northwestern passing assault that carried the Wildcats 50 yards and across midfield for the first time in the game.

He hit Dickie Alban for 24 yards then Norm Kragseth for 22. Finally, from the Illinois 34, Burton hurled to Kragseth, who was running a step from the goal line.

Kragseth stretched for it. Then, in bolting the Brooks to snap it up for a touchdown-saving interception one foot from the payoff zone.

California Bears Power To 20-7 Upset Over Rose Bowl-Bound Stanford Indians

PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP)—Spearheaded by Johnny Pappa, a sub halfback, California's Bears smashed and powered their way to a 20-7 upset football victory over Stanford's Indians Saturday to hand the prospective Rose Bowl team its first defeat of the season.

But there was no doubt that Stanford, the Pacific Coast conference champions, would be chosen to meet Illinois in Pasadena on New Year's Day. The fighting Illini won the Big Ten title and clinched a Rose Bowl berth by beating Northwestern 20-14 Saturday.

The official selection of both teams by the PCC and Big Ten committees was expected within a few hours.

A crowd of 90,000 saw Pappa race 21 yards in the second period for one California touchdown and crack the Stanford line for the last three yards in the final quarter for another.

Left halfback Don Robinson put the Bears into the lead in the opening quarter with a 34-yard touchdown run through the center of the Stanford team.

Stanford, after being stopped twice on scoring bids, put together a touchdown march late in the final quarter.

Stanford was 13 points favorite. But California came up with one of its finest games. The Bears traveled 86 yards to score after taking the opening kickoff. They went 31 yards on a march starting late in the initial period and ending early in the second for their second touchdown. Both scoring drives were completed on ground plays, sheer power.

It took California 13 plays to complete a 78-yard touchdown drive in the final period. Only one pass was made.

Stanford's 66-yard touchdown rally late in the game saw Gary Kerkeron finally able to put together an aerial combination. Seven of the eleven plays were passes. With the ball on the three-yard line, he faked back on a fake run and lofted the ball to left end Sam Morley in the end zone.

Dan McKown Rises From 4th String To Spark TCU Drive

FORT WORTH, Tex. (NEA)—With TCU 14 points down in the final quarter, the 19-year-old exploded off tackle for a 51-yard scoring dash. Minutes later, he guided the suddenly-blazing offense to another score. Then he teamed with Fullback Bob Kowal for a 20-yard smash in five plays for the winning touchdown in the 20-14 surprise party.

Against one of the nation's top defenses, he set an individual record for passing against the Trojans with 17 of 25 completion for 270 yards. He totaled the ball 29 times for another 70 yards. His 340 total-offense yards was the most ever recorded against a Trojan team.

Against favored Arkansas, McKown completed 10 of 17 passes for 144 yards, scampered 15 yards for one tally and set up another with upstairs shots.

McKown leads Southwest punters with a 39.3 mark. In the Kansas game, a fieldful of talent and two more years in which to display it to Southwest Conference opponents.

McKown was buried beneath such quarterback names as Gilbert Bartosh, sophomore All-Conference phenomenon of 1950; Mal Fowler, a husky junior, and Danny Powell, a sure-armed sophomore.

McKown was a steady but unspectacular performer as a frosh. No one expected too much of the cold-eyed youngster from Dumas, Tex. It was with some surprise that McKown was installed as safety on the defensive platoon.

Powell was lost for the entire season with a twisted knee. Bartosh suffered a head injury in the Kansas opener. Fowler lasted through the Nebraska victory, was sent crutchward with a knee injury by the Arkansas giants. Bartosh returned to action briefly against Arkansas, then was benched in the Texas Tech game with a strained ankle.

DESPERATE MOVE PAYS In desperation, Coach Meyer jerked McKown from his defensive post and installed him at tailback.

Calmly grabbing the tiller of a faltering Frog offense in the Tech game, he completed 10 of 17 passes and led the Purple to 19 points in the final quarter.

But it was the next week, in the stunning upset of the Texas A&M, that McKown really blossomed.

DESPERATE MOVE PAYS In desperation, Coach Meyer jerked McKown from his defensive post and installed him at tailback.

Calmly grabbing the tiller of a faltering Frog offense in the Tech game, he completed 10 of 17 passes and led the Purple to 19 points in the final quarter.

But it was the next week, in the stunning upset of the Texas A&M, that McKown really blossomed.

McKown was buried beneath such quarterback names as Gilbert Bartosh, sophomore All-Conference phenomenon of 1950; Mal Fowler, a husky junior, and Danny Powell, a sure-armed sophomore.

McKown was a steady but unspectacular performer as a frosh. No one expected too much of the cold-eyed youngster from Dumas, Tex. It was with some surprise that McKown was installed as safety on the defensive platoon.

Powell was lost for the entire season with a twisted knee. Bartosh suffered a head injury in the Kansas opener. Arkansas Senator Calls College Football "Phony" And Urges National De-Emphasis

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) said Saturday college football is "phony" on a big scale because "it tends to be amateur but really is not."

Fulbright deplored what he termed "very widespread professionalization" and "subsidies" to players in the college game, and he urged school authorities to de-emphasize football.

Such a program is necessary, he added, because the present situation is "seriously hurting" American education and is twisting the ethics of many boys who play the game.

Fulbright played football at the University of Arkansas in the early 1920's. Later he served as president of the university.

Today, Fulbright said, a great many college squads are "really professional teams," built under a system of high pressure recruiting of high school players.

"The system is a phony," Fulbright declared.

"It pretends to be amateur but really is not."

The senator said that as a result, the players get a distorted sense of values which, he added, they often carry over into later life.

Fulbright said college administrators have a clear duty "to look into this problem with some idea of what is right and what is wrong."

In calling for de-emphasis of football, Fulbright suggested that officials of organizations such as the Association of American Universities study the situation.

(A committee of 10 college presidents, named by the American Council on Education, is now looking into the situation.)

Kazmaier Injured As Tigers Win 22nd Straight, 13 To 0

PRINCETON, N. J. (AP)—Dazzling Dick Kazmaier played his last football game for Princeton Saturday and his Tigers defeated Dartmouth 13 to 0 for their 22nd straight victory—but Kazmaier suffered a mild concussion that benched him.

The triumph gave Princeton its second straight championship of the Ivy League.

The Princeton all-American back was injured in the second period after throwing a 14-yard pass that put the ball 2-1-2 yards from the Dartmouth goal and set up the first touchdown.

Roughing penalties were numerous but none was called on the play as Kazmaier was of 14 games there.

In the brief time he was on the field, the 171-pound triple threat star gained 47 yards on 15 rushes, and made 73 passes, by completing six out of 12 passes. This brought his grand total for three years of college play to 4,337 yards. His season's total was 1,227. He led the nation in total offense before the game.

Baylor beat Texas, 28-10, in the first football game played in the Longhorns' Memorial Stadium back in 1924. But since that day over woebegone Oklahoma A&M, Oklahoma A&M tried backfired into Houston touchdowns as Jim Van Haverbeke grabbed one of Don Babers' passes and Marvin Lacey another. In between, Randy Owens booted a 34-yard field goal.

The Aggies rallied to drive 44 yards for their only score in the second period, but Houston promptly matched this, scored another touchdown that was called back, then nalled down the one side contest with a third quarter tally.

Owens kicked four extra points and Skip Warren made good his conversion after John Grubbs went over from inside the one for Oklahoma A&M.

A scant 12,500 watched the Cougars smother Oklahoma A&M with a brutal defense and an air tight pass defense; send back Gene Shannon, Warren Ramsey and Owens ripping through the Aggie line for a total of 227 yards.

It was a pathetic showing on the part of Oklahoma A&M, held to 88 yards rushing and 34 yards passing.

A ruling that an Iowa defender interfered with end Chet Ostrowski on Johnny Mazur's pass into the end zone gave Notre Dame the ball on Iowa's 1. On the next play, Lattner smashed through for a touchdown.

Then Notre Dame's most important yesterday, sophomore Bob Joseph, booted the tying point.

The Cavaliers, held scoreless in the first quarter, started to roll the moment the 18-year-old sensation trotted out onto the field.

Master Mel crashed over for one touchdown, heaved a 28-yard pass to end Ray Quillen for another, and booted four extra points. Junior Bobby Pate collected three touchdowns, scoring on five and one-yard drives and grabbing Rufus Barkley's 24-yard pitch for the other.

Houston Clicks To Rip Sooner Aggies

HOUSTON (AP)—The University of Houston exploded for 17 points in the first 2 minutes and 37 seconds of play Saturday then coasted to a 21-7 victory over woebegone Oklahoma A&M.

Two of the first three plays Oklahoma A&M tried backfired into Houston touchdowns as Jim Van Haverbeke grabbed one of Don Babers' passes and Marvin Lacey another. In between, Randy Owens booted a 34-yard field goal.

The Aggies rallied to drive 44 yards for their only score in the second period, but Houston promptly matched this, scored another touchdown that was called back, then nalled down the one side contest with a third quarter tally.

Panhandle Sportsmen Provide Information For Quail Study

Panhandle and Lower Plains sportsmen contributed a great deal of information to the Texas bobwhite quail study carried out by the Texas Game and Fish commission during the 1950 hunting season.

Hempfling county, with a total of 485 quail wings turned in, led the state. It is believed that almost this many wings are needed from each county each year to offset the effects of local weather and other factors controlling quail populations. It is believed that the population is being properly measured. The wing analysis last season reflected a good hatch and a healthy outlook for the coming season opening Dec. 1.

Game technicians need to know the rate of quail turnover or what the life span is for a given generation of quail. When and only when these things are known about a quail crop can the relative importance of hunting as a limiting influence be measured.

What hunters need is a sustained yield with fair to good hunting every season. To provide this kind of hunting is the purpose of game management.

AGE ON WINGS

Bobwhites hatched the preceding spring and summer carry their age within ten day limits on certain feather patterns found on their wings. The sex is of course easily determined by the different color markings on the head and neck of males and females. By use of these indicators, the biologist can determine the make-up of quail populations as surely as the rancher knows the make-up of his range herds.

Last hunting season, for the first time, hunters throughout Texas were asked to help in a State-wide inventory of the quail population. Panhandle and Lower Plains counties were the source of almost half the wings turned in. Even so, many counties in good quail range were not represented at all, and others could not be treated separately because of insufficient information. Among 1,594 quail from the Lower Plains counties last year, 85.8 percent were young birds hatched the preceding spring and summer. Among 1,663 quail from the Panhandle counties, 85.2 percent were young birds. In both cases, the percent of adult cocks bagged was almost twice the percent of adult or parent hens. It is plain, therefore, that the incubating or brooding hen is subject to heavy losses during the nesting season. The result is shown in the ratio of young quail to old hens in the winter population. By December first last year, there were approximately 14 young quail to each adult hen.

QUAIL KILL

Panhandle and Lower Plains hunters reported finding four-tenths of a quail per man-hour of hunting. They killed one quail per man-hour, and took an average of 2.7 quail for each covey flushed. These are averages and include of course many beginners at quail hunting.

In every region of the state, the bulk of the 1950 bobwhite hatch came off prior to August 15.

The study confirms that the bobwhite quail ordinarily has a short life span — off-set by a high rate of replacement when things go well with the breeding season. When the breeding season is poor, the population of bobwhites falls off rapidly. And this happens whether or not the hunting has been allowed. Thus, the hunter is always dependent on young birds each year for his sport.

The assistance of hunters is again solicited in carrying on this study. Postage paid envelopes for use in collecting quail wings can be had from the local State Game Warden or by writing direct to the Texas Game and Fish commission in Austin.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK — (AP) — Most notable example of poor timing that has come to our attention recently was Florida State University's announcement that it would increase the value of its athletic scholarships and compete for the best athletes. You have to admire the frankness of the FSU authorities and perhaps agree that to get the best it is necessary to offer more financial inducement. But with college athletics coming in for a terrific blasting these days and with the best brains in the business trying to figure out ways to improve the situation, there seems to be only two sensible courses for FSU to follow at present: (A) don't do it, (B) shuddup. Report from "Mr. Inside" on the U. of Kentucky campus says that a lot of the older football players would have preferred a bowl of eggnog at home during the Christmas holidays to a trip to the Cotton Bowl, but they voted for the trip as a favor to Coach Bear Bryant and to the young players. Mr. I. quotes one lineman on the poll as saying: "We had two choices: go to the Cotton Bowl or go to the Cotton Bowl."

A FRUITLESS TRIPPI

Dan Mainer, freshman end at U. of North Carolina, got his first taste of big time football when his father, a telegraph manager, used to let him hang around the press box. During an Alabama-Georgia game, when Harry Gilmer and Charley Trippi were staging a duel, Dan was given a telegram to deliver to the governor of Georgia on the far side of the field. Dan admits that he was so interested in watching the game that it took him 45 minutes to reach the other side. And just then Trippi broke loose and Mainer forgot all about his errand and made the long jaunt back to the press box with the message still undelivered.

SHORTS AND SHELLS

Besides being a stellar passer, Bill Howton of Rice has intercepted two enemy passes which is right good for an end. Henry Tresher, the young sprint star who was stricken with polio last summer, has staged a rapid recovery and is ready to work out with the Yale track team. After Maryland's footballers went to town against North Carolina State, Coach Jim Tatum was asked how he showed so much to the Tennessee scouts. Said Jim: "Bob Neyland knows more about our offense than my assistant coaches. He comes to my spring practice every year and I go to his, so we'll know what we're going to see on New Year's day."

WEAK END NOTES

Herb Semper of Kansas, shooting for his second NCAA cross country title Monday, won last year only because Michigan State's Warren Druetzler, trailing by 75 yards, yelled loud enough to keep him from making a wrong turn on the course. Feminine influence: Chicago baseball writers will admit the "H" woman's (12) butchy copy when they hold their annual dinner Jan. 13. And when Marquette U. invited the writers' wives to sit in the press box for "ladies day" only one scribe objected. His better half told him that covering a football game didn't look nearly as difficult as she had been led to understand.

Scheig Plays In Boys Club Game

DALLAS — The traditional Freshmen football game between the yearling Colts of Southern Methodist University and the Wogs of Texas Christian has this year been taken under the auspices of the Variety Club Boys Club and will be staged with spectacular showmanship. Scheduled to be played at Ounby Stadium in Dallas on Friday, Nov. 30 at 2:00 p.m., the occasion will be enlivened by the first annual crowing of the SMU Freshmen Queen, with all ballots to be cast by members of the grid squad.

All of the sororities and student organizations have selected nominees to compete for the coronation honors. Eddie Scheig of Pampa is one of the players on the SMU squad who will play the game.

Arkansas State Gets Two Bowl Bids

Buff Fieldhouse Set For Season

CANYON — (WTNS) — Panhandle basketball fans need not dream any longer of a sports palace for the Panhandle area. One is in readiness at West Texas State college and only awaits the firing of the gun to start the cage season Nov. 30.

Coach Gus Miller's very promising 1951-52 cage aggregation is discarding faithful old Burton gym this week and are moving into their new $400,000 home located one block west of the Burton structure. At the rate advance ticket reservations are rolling in the Buffs will play before capacity crowds of 4,000 fans at the season opener against Amarillo Air Base and at the ALLI dedication game with Phillips 66 on Dec. 3.

ALL USES

With the outside design done in cream brick and white stone, the new Buff Field House encompasses just about everything one could want in an athletic plant. Classrooms, wrestling and boxing rooms, showers and lockers are separately for frosh, varsity, PE classes and intramurals, training rooms, offices, lounges, huge lobby with ticket and concession stands, indented trophy cases and plenty of storeroom all are formed in needed order in the area surrounding the playing area.

The inner area, designed in green and light tan glazed tile, holds the playing surface for three basketball courts, volleyball courts and tennis courts, plus 4,000 seats. Of the 4,000, approximately 1,000 are on roll-away bleachers on floor level. Eight tunneled passage ways lead to the upper section where approximately 2,400 more fans may be seated.

Reserved seats are in the upper section sides while general admission tickets gain entrance to the upper section end zone and the floor-level roll-aways. Season tickets covering the 10 home games may be purchased by writing or calling Bob Clark, ticket manager, at the college in Canyon.

Childress Hopes For Revenge On Irish In Friday Encounter

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Childrens will be thirsting for revenge when the Irish and the Bobcats tangle in the regional playoff for the Shamrocks slapped a 6-0 defeat on the Cats at Childress in the season opener, Sept. 7.

Catching the Cats on a damp field, the Irish rolled to 162 yards on the ground while the Bobcats were held to 64, but the big Irish line hurled the Cats for a 45 yards loss giving them 19 yards net on the ground and holding them to one 8-yard pass.

Operating behind the big Irish line, the inexperienced Irish backs, all new, crashed through for a third quarter counter, Jimmy Pennington racing 20 yards to the Cat 8 and then crashing over from the left side for the final eight on the next play. Charles Francis, quarterback, Ronald Settle and J. Pennington, halfbacks, and Paul Hartwick, fullback, were all new. Van Pennington, regular Irish end, played in the backfield some that first night, as ac running back. Don Carlton, was laid up five weeks with an injured wrist.

THE IRISH LINE

This time the Childress crew will learn what it is like to face one of the region's great lines, plus a fully- tried and capable backfield. Carlton has racked up 65 points in the last six games, while J. Pennington, with 74, provides another good back. Paul Hartwick's recent vicious off-tackle slashes will not add to the Cats' comfort.

But the Cats are a dangerous team. They held Amarillo to a 18-7 victory and led for a while. They gave Phillips a scare in a narrow 32-27 triumph for the Hawks. Yet Phillips, leading 32-7 in the third canto, watched the tricky Cats rack up 20 points in the last 16 minutes and end up on the Hawk 8.

Childress beat Wellington, 21-0, on the great running and passing of Jeffries, 180-pound, fleet Cat back. The Cat ace ran for one TD and passed for two more in the second half, to baffle the Wellingtons, who tied Shamrock, 19-19.

But Jeffries suffered a broken collarbone against Quanah and will be out.

Other Cat ace includes R. D. Bradshaw and Ted Lane, star ends, both weighing 190; Lanoal

ALPINE — The Sul Ross State college Lobo football squad is piloted by 21-year-old quarterback Charles Laffoon. He came to Sul Ross in 1948 and is now playing in his fourth year. Laffoon is the big name in Lone Star conference football because he is leader in the total offense for the conference. Sul Ross' quarterback has passed 179 times for 1280 yards. Because of this type of leadership, Sul Ross State college is now occupying top place in team offense for the conference with an average of 351 yards per game. Quarterback Laffoon places sixth in the nation in total offense.

Even though Laffoon weighs only 166, he has been rated by many football authorities as one of the outstanding quarterbacks in the state with the "T" formation. He is elusive, fast, cool-headed and a strategist when it comes to calling plays from the "T."

Laffoon made a record for himself in 1948 during his freshman year when he passed his first six passes for three touchdowns. This same year he received honorable mention for all-conference quarterback while the Lobos were playing in the New Mexico conference. The '49 season the Lone Star conference in 1950 and Laffoon received all-conference selection again.

Laffoon is a graduate of Pampa High school, where he played football in 1945, 1946; and in 1947 he made the all-district high school team.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Laffoon of Pampa. He is married, and his wife is the former Miss Jane Coles, daughter of Supt. and Mrs. J. E. Coles of

NEW YORK — (AP) — Clarence Henry, 24-year-old Los Angeles Negro, is the newest threat in offered a Garden date with the heavyweight division after Archie Moore, the perennial "uncrowned light heavy champ."

It was a fine victory for Henry who weighed only 185 to Baker's 209 1-2. Apparently beaten by the hulking Pittsburgh lad who was undefeated in 26 previous fights, Henry dropped Baker with a devastating left sliding through the ropes, Baker landed on his backside with his legs up in the air while referee Ruby Goldstein counted ten.

The sudden ending came as a shock to the small crowd of 3,515 that paid $11,236.

IT'S A FIREBALL ENGINE

It gives you a lot to be thankful for

Let's suppose that this is you. The car you're riding in, as you can see, is a Buick. But what you can't see is the satisfaction which being behind that wheel brings to every day in the year. Take the feel of it — the way it goes into action when you nudge the gas treadle. Quick. Eager. Willing. No effort at all. You just swoop up to the miles per hour you want. That's because there's a high-powered, high-compression, valve-in-head Fireball Engine under the hood that makes every drop of gas do extra duty. And it's because there's a Dynaflow Drive,* feeding that power back to the rear wheels as smoothly as cream flows from a pitcher. Take the way it sits the road. Balanced. Poised. Sure-footed. Snug. That's because of a long list of things that Buick engineers have done to its ride—including a torque-tube keel that keeps rear wheels tracking true—and soft coil springs that individually cushion each wheel. Take the way it steers. Easy. Light. Firm. On a straightaway—or coming out of a curve—it seems to know what you want it to do. That's because of something the engineers call "front-end geometry"—and because 60 steel balls roll in their own little race track to ease each turn of the wheel. Take its room, its comfort, its smart good looks—and its price. Any way you size it up, here's a car to make you thankful for your good judgment in picking it, against the field. All that is needed to complete this picture is you at the wheel of a flesh-and-blood Buick—out on the road for a sample of what we've been talking about.

That's easy to arrange. Just give us a call, and we'll do the rest.

PRESSURE FOOTBALL, No. 6

At Massillon High, Football Pays For Everything

By HARE YGRAYSON NEA Sports Editor MASSILLON, O. — (NEA) — When Washington High School plays football, Massillon makes believe it's the Fourth of July. Lincoln Way, the main drag of this northeast Ohio steel town, is gaily decorated with flags and bunting. Pictures of the young heroes adorn store windows.

MASSILLON STAR: Jerry Krisher went on to Ohio State—and the equivalent of $14,000.

er boys in the country," explains Coach Mather. "You'd hardly believe the offers they get. They were flown to nine colleges." FUTURE SET "We figured Reichenbach and Krisher got the equivalent of $14,000 each for playing four years of football at Ohio State," a Washington High official added. "They are sponsored by John W. Galbreath, who promises them jobs when they are graduates and it's like marrying a rich girl."

ery practice and game is filmed, and then Mather takes each play out of the pictures and wraps them into separate films. If a college coach is interested in a senior, and wants to see him repeatedly on one play, he is forwarded the film covering the maneuver. Washington High played to 152,000 paid admissions in 10 games last fall at prices from 50 cents to $2, and showed a $40,000 profit. Tiger Stadium bonds and maintenance are financed with football receipts, which also support swimming, the junior high athletics, and a Spring program of track, baseball, tennis and golf. Football receipts also help the 72-piece swing band and its baton-twirling drum major and majorettes—the most widely publicized high school football unit of its kind in the nation—and make possible the choir, chapel programs, an audio-visual department, the student council and paper, the physical fitness program, drama, speech and debating teams. Professional football got its initial impetus in Massillon in the early 1900's, so it was here that the dollar became involved in the game for the first time. Later the interest shifted to the scholastic scene, and the Washington High Tigers wrapped a 50-yard line around the town.

Bufs Prepare For Good Cage Season

CANYON (WTNS) — It isn't just every year that Gus Miller, cage coach at West Texas State, has a cheerful outlook toward a coming basketball season. In fact, his lack of optimism has gained him the handle of 'Gloomy Gus.' However, in most instances, the genial mentor and ex-president of the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball, comes pretty close to hitting the nail on the head in his predictions. For 1951-52 Miller has shocked his closest friends with his views to the future. "I don't count on this year," he said recently, "we'll be worth watching. However," he added, "we will win every team in the Border Conference."

Pennington Near Five Practicing

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Van Pennington, Irish end, needs only one touchdown and one extra point to equal his 1950 scoring total of 38 and he's trying hard to get it. Pennington scored on a 58-yard pass play against Tulla in the 27-7 bi-district victory to run his season total to 31, with TDs against Wellington, two against McLean, one against Dumas and the Tulla TD. But Pennington won't be second in scoring this season as he was in 1950, because Don Carlton has racked up 65 points and Jimmy Pennington 74, operating as half-backs. Pennington has a chance to equal or beat his record in the regional playoff with Childress here Friday afternoon.

Sports Shot

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Editor DALLAS (AP) — It is appropriate and necessary that something be done about the bowl situation. A definite policy either outlawing the bowls or setting up rules under which the bowls can operate is needed. The Cotton Bowl is what we're thinking about. This bowl has attempted to go on meeting all the provisions of the national collegiate athletic association and at the same time pursuing a strictly ethical course. When the roll is called and the bowl situation is investigated, the Cotton Bowl will be found to have no marks against its record that the decriers of football overemphasis can sink a tooth into. The Cotton Bowl won't take a team that does not have a conference's permission. That's why it lost undefeated Maryland for the Jan. 1 game. Why is there such a rule anyway? Why can't any college, unless committed by its conference to a certain bowl game, take a bowl bid on its own? The bowls are regulated by the NCAA, which has taken out most of the commercialism, and under the present set-up, a bowl game must have the colleges in control. The way things stand, a college that wants a bowl bid and doesn't care who knows it, will go ahead and sign up with a bowl and say hang the conference. It will just operate independently. Obviously that's what Maryland did, because its conference schools are on record as opposing bowl games. A simple rule that any bowl must not take a team that does not have its conference's permission would solve the problem, but better still would be that any college could play in a bowl game without asking anybody if it was not committed by its conference to a certain game. Either that or do away with the bowl games. That certainly would make it fair for everybody.

Tennis Figure Dies At Meet

SYDNEY, Australia — (AP) — Roy Cowling, one of Australia's leading tennis figures, collapsed and died Friday during the intermission of the Vic Seixas-Mervyn Rose match for the New South Wales championship. Cowling was captain and manager of the Australian Davis Cup team which played in the United States in 1948. When asked to name his pick in the winner's circle in the EC chase for this season, Coach Miller didn't hesitate to tab Texas Tech. "Polk Robinson should have it this year. He didn't lose a man and Paul Nolan is a great boy for him at center." Last year the Raiders tied for second with New Mexico A&M while Arizona University won with the flag. "New Mexico A&M and Arizona should be in the second and third spots Miller added. New Mexico A&M, also, failed to lose a man from their squads while Arizona still retains three of their starting five. "Arizona's beautiful little coach Miller said. "Season opener comes November 50 against Amarillo Air Base with the official dedication game December 3 against Phillips 66. Orders for $1.50 reserved seat when he placed the conference ducts for each game are now being taken.

Canadian Town Last Year Total

CANADIAN — The Flying Horsemen, local amateur town basketball team, started workouts a short while ago. They will start their year's play soon, although no games have been scheduled yet. Eleven men are working out for the team. They are Don Myers, Willis Watson, Doug Payne, Bob Duniven, Eldon Kaul, Jerry Morris, John Pennington, Don Hayes, Paul Stanford, Gail Jackson and Don Travis. New suits have been ordered for the town boys team as well as the girls team, which will be managed by Don Myers.

No Rest For Irish Coaches

SHAMROCK — (Special) — There may be no rest for the wicked, but good coaches don't get any rest, either. Clarence Morris, end coach, and Bobby Hill, junior high coach, did not get to see the Irish trim Tulla, 27-7, for the bi-district crown, but they went to Childress to witness the 19-7 victory of the Bobcats over Quannah and scout the Childress crew for this week's game. Friday they were gone again, joined by Scott McCall, head coach, riding 380 miles to Kermit to watch the Kermit-Littlefield titanic clash in preparation for a third game should they whip Childress. Maybe they can rest next summer when school is out.

College Prospects

"Several more easily could be where these boys are," says Chuck Mather, rather proudly "but they either fell in love or went into the service or to work. It's a confusing age. And it isn't costing any of my kids a nickel to attend college. All have scholarships." Among them are Ohio State guard Mike Takacs, Purdue guard Jack Houston, Northwest's right halfback Clarence Johnson, Colgate guard Bill Morow, Vanderbilt end Ben Roderick, Cincinnati quarterback Jack Hill and Miami of Florida quarterback Don James and guard Walt Houston.

Grid Profits

Mather is a sharply-featured, soft-spoken and patient man of 38. He was a leading candidate for the Ohio State post. He would like it, but hastily adds that it would have to be an exceptionally fine set-up to take him away from Massillon and its 1300 students, half of them boys. "Besides, the Booster Club buys me a new Buick every other year," he smiles. Mather's office looks like a Hollywood projection room. Ev-

Til Setup Okay

The Texas Interscholastic league has found its present set-up in football to be generally satisfactory. There have been reports that the league would change the districting for next fall in the Class AAAA division. Waco has objected to the travel involved in having Texarkana in its district. There is some justification on the side of Waco. Such widely-separated cities hurt school spirit—that is, the fans just don't follow the team when it plays away from home. However, in order to have the super 1,000-enrollment class, there has to be some long hops because there are not enough schools that large to make compact districts. Reports have been that Waco wanted to split the Dallas district and play with three of the Dallas schools, with the other three going into another district. This doesn't sound like a bad idea at all. But it's doubtful that Dallas would want to do such a thing. Anyway, Waco won't have to travel to Texarkana next season. Texarkana hasn't enough enrollment to play in AAAA unless voted in unanimously. Waco can keep Texarkana out—something it didn't do last fall, and then complained about the district set-up.

AAA Challenge

Temple fans are talking about challenging the Class AAAA champion for a play-off. Temple is in Class AAA and is generally conceded to be the team that will win the championship of that division. Last year, when the new set-up went into effect—having Class AAAA and Class AAA—the Interscholastic League conducted a referendum. It was on the question of whether the two class champions would meet for a grand state championship. AAAA voted it down. But Temple followers wonder if such a game could be played if Temple won its championship, challenged the Class AAAA champion and the latter accepted. It is extremely doubtful. The league wouldn't have had a vote on the question if it wanted the two champions to meet whether they desired it or not. Also, there is a league rule on post-season games not played under the jurisdiction of the league.

Ware Jr. played several numbers on the piano and accompanied the song presented by the duet, Mrs. Holt and Mrs. Robertson.

The harvest theme was used in decorating the tables. Miniature shocks of feed and small pumpkins were used as accents on the U-shape table. A band of autumn leaves, nuts, and bright candy corn ran the length of the tables. Menus and programs were shaped like shocks of feed and the places were marked with tiny turkeys.

Following the banquet in the dining room at Nora's cafe the group went to the Roy Ford home for games.

She has accompanied many nationally-known celebrities in the singing of the great oratorio, including the late Arthur B. Middleton, Herbert Gould, Edna Swanson Var Harr and Riccardo Martin.

What's Cookin' In Gray County HD Club Work

By HELEN DUNLAP
Home Demonstration Agent

An old fashioned community get-together was held at the Bell school building Saturday night. The Bell Home Demonstration club was hostess to the group of 65 people of all ages. Non-club members as well as club members with their families came to enjoy the social. The menu consisted of baked chicken with dressing, vegetables, salads, hot rolls, coffee and dessert. The rolls were baked in kerosene ovens after the arrival of the guests and the coffee was made in the new electric urn purchased recently by the club. There was a choice of desserts such as pumpkin pie, various kinds of cakes and fruit pies.

It was quite unusual to be in a room heated with a wood stove as this school building is open house in their home at Mobeetie, Sunday, November 4. About 100 friends and relatives registered in the guest book, between the hours of 2:30 and 5:00 p. m.

Mr. Bailey, who said he was born in Old Virginia, the year the United States was 100 years old, came to Texas with his father, two brothers, one of them his twin, and two sisters, when he was nine years old. His family settled in Palo Pinto county near Weatherford.

"My wife was born the year I came to Texas," said Mr. Bailey. "She was a cute little Chick." (Mrs. Bailey's name was Minnie Mae Chick, and she had to take a bit of teasing about her name.)

Both of them attended country schools in Palo Pinto county. "The year I was 13, I went to the school in Mineral Wells," said Mr. Bailey. "There was no danger of athletic scandals in our schools, we were married at the bride's home in a quiet ceremony." Judge Pitts, of Amarillo was one of the guests," said Mr. Bailey. "He said it was the first wedding he ever attended."

Five of the Bailey's six children were born while they lived in Palo Pinto. "We lived on the banks of the Brazos River," recalled Mrs. Bailey. "I remember when I had three children, I crossed the river on horseback to visit my mother. I would put the baby in the saddle in front of me and the two older children behind me. I would tell them to hold their heads low as I was afraid that they would fall off if they saw the water."

Mr. Bailey served his home county of Palo Pinto as Justice of the Peace for eight years. In 1921, they moved their family to the Panhandle, and settled ten miles southeast of Miami, where Mr. Bailey ranched and farmed. Six years ago he retired, and he and his wife bought the comfortable home in Mobeetie where they now live. The Baileys are good neighbors. They are both active in community and church work. They have been members of the Methodist church since soon after their marriage. Mr. Bailey raises a garden and flowers, and enjoys his leisure time reading and listening to the radio. Mrs. Bailey, who is an accomplished seamstress, makes fine needlework her hobby. When interviewed, she was working on a costume for a wedding in Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Bailey reared six children. One daughter, Laura Eelle, died when she was a senior in Miami High school. The others are Robert, who is shop Foreman for Plains Chevrolet, Amarillo; Grady, owner of Conoco service station, Miami; Luke, with Baer Motor Company, Dallas; Mrs. Dee Cordell of Johnson, Kansas, and Miss Virginia Bailey, bookkeeper for Buck's Sporting Goods Co., Amarillo. They also have 12 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. All of them were present for the anniversary except one grandson, Cpl. Harvey Lee Bailey, who is serving with the U. S. Air Force in Japan.

 Here are a few tips on "going steady."
 It gives you a wonderful feeling to be able to sing "Somebody Loves Me" and really mean it. You don't have to cry about weeping and crying out with the gang. You and your steady are as inseparable as bread and butter, and everybody knows it. No one tries to violate your wish to exclude everyone from your list or dates. You can count on a date to the next football game and you now you won't miss any of the school parties. You're sort of engaged to be engaged and love it. Until the glow wears off, you float around on cloud number one, with the feeling that this is the big moment of your life. That's all well and good, but there comes a time when all at once you don't enjoy the feeling of being a one-man-gal. You would really like to go to the next school party with that handsome dream beam that moved in across the street. You can't except an invitation for a coke after school to discuss the latest question in debate class because Joe just wouldn't understand. Then you start thinking — you really don't like being stuck to one person all the time.
 "Yes, Joe is a wonderful guy, but what about that fellow in your history class?"
 And so it goes. Then comes the evening when you both confess that going steady just isn't what it's cracked up to be. So Joe gets his class ring back, and you call it quits on going steady. You're still friends but not steady.
 The sad part about going steady is that it is very difficult to get back into circulation. The telephone is strangely silent for a while. You try to pretend you really don't care if the gang is all set for a big night — without you.
 With a boy it is different. He can ask another girl and maybe she will go with him. But too many times the answer is no, because she is afraid he might ask her to go steady and she doesn't want to be tied down. She's a smart girl. It is much better to play the field — free as a bird.
 Honestly now, don't you agree?

Ruth Millett

Came across a good sound marriage rule the other day: "Never sleep on an argument or fight — compromise first."
 The trouble is many married couples never think to end an argument with a compromise.
 He fights for his way. And she fights for hers. Every disagreement is, therefore, an all-or-nothing matter.
 And even then, the loser doesn't give up. He or she just figures on evening up the score at a later date.
 Yet how much bitterness could be avoided, and how many problems peacefully solved, if husbands and wives would look for a fair compromise when their ideas clash.
 Some couples fight for years over a problem they could have worked out satisfactorily the first time it loomed between them as a threat to their oneness.
 How about working toward a compromise next time you and your husband disagree instead of fighting for your own way or begrudgingly giving in to his?
 Just come right out and say: "Instead of our fighting over this, why don't we try to work out a compromise? What do you think would be a fair deal to both of us?"
 All of life is made up of compromises. And while most men and women bow to them as inevitable in most relationships, it is the rare couple who think marriage problems should be worked out through compromise.
 It is probably not because husbands and wives aren't willing to compromise. It's usually because the idea of seeking a compromise instead of fighting a matter out to a finish just doesn't occur to them.
 But remember this: Before you suggest a compromise, you've got to be willing to settle for less than victory yourself. In a compromise you get a little and give a little.

Pratt-Harbison Vows Exchanged In Clarendon

LEFORS — (Special) — The marriage of Miss Geraldine Pratt of Clarendon, Texas, daughter of N. W. Pratt of Modesto, Calif. and James George Harbison, son of Mrs. J. B. Harbison, Sacramento, Calif., was solemnized Sunday, November 18, in the St. John Baptist Episcopal Church in Clarendon with the Right Reverend George H. Quarterman of Amarillo officiating.

Vows were repeated before an altar decorated with cathedral candles flanked by vases filled with yellow and bronze mums.

Mrs. Millard Word, organist, played a prelude of nuptial music, including one of her own compositions, and the traditional wedding march. For the nuptial hymn she played "O Perfect Love".

Given in marriage by her uncle, George A. Ryan of Clarendon, the bride wore a grey gabardine suit with black accessories and carried a prayer book topped with a gardenia and pink roses.

Mrs. Willie Maude Ozler was matron of honor for her sister. Matching the bride's costume, she chose a grey gabardine suit with grey accessories and a corsage of yellow mums.

Lawrence C. Neece was best man. Assisting at the reception held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Ryan, were Mrs. Pauline Watters, and Mrs. John W. Nanney, cousins of the bride, and Mrs. Oiler and Mrs. Word.

The bride is a graduate of Texas University and T. S. C. W. and is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma and A. A. U. W. She has been librarian at Edinburg Regional College, Edinburg, Texas, for three years. She was a former librarian in the Lefors High School and was a member of the Delta Kappa Gamma Chapter in Pampa.

Mr. Harbison is a graduate of the University of California and is a Certified Public Accountant in Sacramento.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Flaherty and children of Pampa; Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Bright and Bobby and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gettel of Lefors; Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Beene, Friona; Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Gilliland, Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. John W. Nanney, Lubbock; Dr. and Mrs. Worth Hembree, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Brune and Karlson Joe, the Right Reverend and Mrs. George H. Quarterman and Anne, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Word, and Charles Murphy, of Amarillo.

Mrs. Arthur L. Chase, Borger, and Miss Janice M. Pratt, Galveston.

After December 1, the couple will be at home at 6131 McLaren Avenue, Sacramento, California.

Miss Lenora Baker And Jack McPeak Wed In Edmonson Baptist Church

In a candlelight ceremony read November 16 in the Edmonson First Baptist church, Miss Lenora Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Baker, Plainview, became the bride of John McPeak, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. McPeak of Pampa.

Rev. Lenard Hartley, pastor of the Edmonson church, read the double-ring service before an arch of greenery flanked with basket arrangements of white gladioli and candleabra holding cathedral tapers.

As guests assembled, Harold Carson played wedding selections. He also accompanied Winifred Walker who sang "Always," "Indian Love Call," and "I Love You Truly." Traditional wedding marches were used for the professional and recessional.

Candlelighters were Ruth Ann Belk and Mary Ann McPeak. Mrs. J. D. Morris, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and another sister, Mrs. Raymond Garms, was an attendant. Mrs. Morris wore a rose beige street dress with brown accessories, and Mrs. Garms wore a brown faille street-length dress with matching accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Eugene Watson was best man and Winifred Walker was an attendant. John Winters and Braxton Ratcliff were ushers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a blue tulle dress with an overdress of blue brocaded lace. She wore an orchid sent from Hawaii for the wedding, and carried a white Bible which was "something old and borrowed" from Mrs. Garms. She wore something blue, and had a good luck penny in her shoe which was given to her by her mother.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Baker wore a navy crepe dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. Mrs. McPeak, mother of the bridegroom, wore dark green gabardine with black accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, Mary Ann McPeak, sister of the bridegroom, registered guests.

The serving table was covered with a lace cloth over yellow. Extending from the center of the table to each end was an orchid ribbon with "Jack and Lenora" lettered in gold. A three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom was used as centerpiece. Mrs. R. F. Procter and Mrs. Orval Cogdill served the cake, and Mrs. Earl Conner and Mrs. G. B. Harvey served punch.

Guests at the reception other than those in the house party were Bernice Singer, Edgar Hartley, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Baker, Rev. and Mrs. Lenard Hartley, Rev. and Mrs. Winifred Walker, Eugene Watson, Carlos B. Cross, Ruth Ann Belk, Frances Belk, Ann Workman, Mrs. L. E. Wakefield, Mrs. E. Abbot, Pat Lewellyn, Dwain Steindweller, Braxton Ratcliff, David Moore.

City Will Return Jap Temple Bell

PASADENA, Calif. — (AP) — A Japanese temple bell being displayed in the city hall foyer as a trophy of war is going to be sent back to Japan.

City directors have decided to return the bell after receiving a letter from Army Lt. David C. Monson. It said, in part: "It seems ludicrous that we should be sternly rebuking the Germans for looting Europe — while displaying loot of our own conquest in such a manner in the Pasadena city Hall."

The bell was brought to this country as a war trophy aboard the cruiser Pasadena after the war with Japan ended.

Steel Union Wants Another Wage Hike

The United Steelworkers (CIO) have started another tub-thumping jamboree for higher wages. If they can reach any agreement on a basis of the recent past, history of union bossism it's only a matter of time.

All this is bound to lead to the issuance of more money by the government. Which is exactly what this administration wants, a more inflationary policy.

Asked if the demands would make it necessary for the steel industry to raise prices, Murray declined to give an opinion. The question was silly and the result was to be expected.

More and more inflation, with higher and higher commodity prices, are no help to the working people of the United States.

BAXTER'S VIEWS

DAVID BAXTER

COMMON SENSE? Good nationalist patriots sometimes send me copies of an eastern paper called "Common Sense," the "Anti-Communist Newspaper."

Since the paper apparently has a wide circulation, attacks internationalists and the New Deal philosophy, and makes its appeal to "loyal Americans," I would, under the circumstances, endorse it.

However, there is one thing about this paper, like Father Coughlin's "Social Justice" and Father Terminiello's paper, which sticks out like a sore thumb. It follows the well-worn tack of attempting to make Judaism and Communism one and the same and, boiled down, it concludes that "the Jews are the cause of it all."

This might attract many near-sighted Christians who are prone to forget that "God has made of one blood all nations of men" and that Christ died for the Jew and the Negro as well as for the so-called "white Christian gentile."

It would be interesting to know exactly what the priest means by "heretics" since, according to his theology, Protestants are heretics. By the same token, I think he would have to admit that, according to his theology, members of the Greek Orthodox and the other eastern orthodox churches are "schismatics."

In short, if I were to boil Father Dwyer's and Common Sense's definition of "anti-Christians" down to its essence, it would be that anyone who isn't a "Christian" is a Communist and ought to be squelched — and "Christian" doesn't include "heretics," "schismatics" and "atheists."

That was the same policy the Franco outfit pursued in Spain under the guise of "nationalism." The goal was to bring about a "united front" to fight the Communists and when it was over the Franco gang were in the saddle and religious groups he didn't regard as "Christians" were promptly suppressed and persecuted, including Protestants who had helped him fight the Communists.

Justice might well shrivel when the judge is deaf. A judge who was deaf was hearing a case in which both plaintiff and defendant were deaf.

Better Jobs

Dr. Haney On Socialism in Schools

Most everyone will admit there is something seriously wrong with tax supported schools. Few people however, realize that they are wrong in principle and for this reason they cannot promote moral principles. The only thing they can do from a political standpoint is to promote some form of socialism or statism.

Here is what Dr. Lewis Haney professor of Economics of the New York University had to say in a debate with W. E. Goslin former superintendent of schools at Pasadena, Cal., as reported by him in his column in the Los Angeles Herald Express.

"Last night (Tuesday) I debated the crisis in American education with W. E. Goslin, the man who lost his job as school superintendent at Pasadena, Cal. Today I'll tell you about what I said; tomorrow about Goslin's side."

"The progress toward a Socialist or welfare state is actively furthered by the leaders of organized progressive education. Sometimes they now call it 'modern education,' although it is just the same as it was 20 years ago."

"This is just another word for Socialism. The only question is, do they want the Communist type of society or the Fascist type?"

"The N.E.A. claims a monopoly: It says it is the only organization that unites teachers, principals and superintendents, elementary schools, high schools, colleges and universities."

Their thought is in important agreement with Communism. For example, a recent article in a woman's magazine viciously attacked those of us who criticize the teachings of Socialist doctrines to our children. The National Education Association furnished material for the article and sponsored it.

The Doctor Says

By EDWARD F. JODRAN, M. D.

In recent months the newspapers have been filled with hair-raising accounts of youngsters who have become addicted to drugs, and of huge dope rings.

This is, indeed, one of our most serious problems and it is worth remembering also that during and before the last war, it was the avowed policy of the Japanese government to spread the dope habit among the Chinese as one method of degrading and debasing them.

Addiction to drugs is believed to be caused by human weakness and not by the drugs themselves: It is a symptom of a personality maladjustment rather than a disease in its own right.

Justice might well shrivel when the judge is deaf. A judge who was deaf was hearing a case in which both plaintiff and defendant were deaf.

Has Anyone Told You?

THE QUESTION: Do you think women are prettier now than they were 20 years ago?

THE ANSWERS: Herbert L. Rice, store fixture salesman, Dallas: "I definitely do think women are prettier nowadays. For one thing, they are using more makeup than they previously did and it hides flaws that are unbecoming to them. They also take more care to see that they are properly dressed. I think another thing that makes women prettier today is that they take greater interest in styles which are more modern."

Vernon Hall, insurance salesman 410 Roberts: "By all means women are prettier than they were 20 years ago. Today they dress more sensibly. They are much healthier and when a person is healthy they look better. I think they are just better all the way around."

Austin Hollingsworth, laundry owner 914 Commerce: "That is a pretty deep question. However, I believe women are prettier now because they dress their hair more attractively and makeup improves them. Cosmetics help bring out the good features and cover up the bad ones. I have two mighty pretty daughters and my wife is attractive. I think it's due to proper care and dress."

Mrs. Paul LeFebvre, housewife 729 N. Wells: "Yes, women are prettier today because they have modern methods and better care of themselves. There are more scientific things to better their health. Also, there are many labor saving devices to make work lighter. They can avoid many of the hard labors that used to age women quickly. Cosmetics help to great extent, but I think healthy, happier women are prettier. They have more time to apply to themselves."

drug, however, was to be constantly increased. Once the habit is well formed, the victim feels mentally depressed and is likely to suffer from vague symptoms in the stomach or bowels whenever the effect of a dose has worn off.

The confirmed addict becomes thin, feverish, and develops a sallow, pasty complexion. When not under the influence of the drug, irritability and restlessness are common. Sleep may be disturbed; appetite and digestion are upset; death comes early.

International Whirligig.. Human Dignity Non-Existent In Red Atheist Power Bloc

By JOHN FISHER

Although UN diplomats continue to dispute the wisdom of releasing at this time the reports of Red atrocities on prisoners of war, their finely-spun arguments should not divert us from indignation.

General Ridgway's verification is irrefutable evidence. But the massacres are but one aspect of Communist inhumanity. The whole system is so terrible as to be almost incomprehensible to normal humans.

We are confronting the power bloc of atheism all over the world. Its leaders reject religious faith and morals, rate man as an animal and disbelieve in judgement after death. Their characteristic in every phase of life is cruelty — convict standards of labor for the aged and death of suspected enemies.

Communist cruelty also is displayed in less violent patterns. The Balts have been informed that they can attend church, provided a worshiper pays $12 admission fee for each service. Where are the pious poor to get their ticket money? They are to be taken to the comfort of roadside shrines. But in these, the insulting red star has replaced the cross.

Russian guards, herding leopards into old American lend-lease trucks, jeer at the untutored, as they trip the gift of the Americans.

Communist courts are saturated with cruelty. Red reports sent to the West tabulated 3000 trials followed by executions in Eastern Europe. Soviet bloc papers jump that figure to 28,000.

Fair Enough..... British Unions' Government Plans A Steal From Hitler

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

LONDON — Philip Murray, the president of the CIO, recently presented a cash award of $10,000 to Senator James E. Murray, of Montana, in recognition of his sterling statesman's good works in the interests of labor, meaning unions in general, the CIO in particular and the cause of socialism under unions at home and abroad.

Murray is one of the members of Congress who permitted Theodore Lipschutz, the refugee operator of a little personal gasp in New York, to use his senatorial frank to distribute, at the expense of American taxpayers, propaganda favoring the Morgenthau plan for the future of Germany. Roughly, Morgenthau proposed to withdraw the forces and restraints of Western civilization and give Germany over to Soviet Russia.

Being a vice man, Senator Murray decided to turn over the $10,000 to charity. Thus he cannot be accused of accepting a bribe from a client of his senatorial solicitude for services past or yet to be performed unless any moral profit flowing from the prayers of the ultimate beneficiaries be so evaluated by the internal revenue. To a rich man, having in mind the campaign problem with the needle's eye, this might be considerable.

In any case, here is a flagrant socialist social act against the justice of the British House of Commons for permitting union party as an undignified absorption of their votes in favor of union projects and against the positions which the unions oppose. This comes down to the fact that the British unions are, to the best of their ability thus far, trying to purchase with money out of the union treasury the services of a socialist state. They were just exploring the possibilities, which obviously are great, and innocuous, when they were licked by the polls.

The kind of government which the British unions were trying to set up permanently is a straight steal from Adolf Hitler's National Socialism, barring the hatred and persecution of Jews. It is not devoid of hatred, however, for Abraham Bevan, a Welshman and therefore a Celt, cabinet minister under the socialist regime, proclaimed his undying hatred of all Britons of conservative political faith, described the Anglo-Saxons as "bovine" by contrast with the alert and admirable Celts, and warned the nation that if the Conservatives ever should overthrow the socialists in a regular, legal election of the same kind that fought the socialists to power, he would likely to ensue. There is no doubt that he has used old English phrases which had been used down over many years.

The Attlee government refused to repudiate these sentiments although it did not endorse them. The kind of government that the socialists were trying to impose permanently when they were so lately, if only temporarily, in power. They watch until a mother, overcome by grief, embraces the body of a dead son. Then they arrest and punish her as the relative of a class enemy.

The whole tribe of Communists is alike, regardless of race, nationality or culture. The Red Polish scientist inventing a new needle torture, the Red Chinese officer butchering American prisoners, all are cruelty personified.

Justice might well shrivel when the judge is deaf. A judge who was deaf was hearing a case in which both plaintiff and defendant were deaf.

rupted, is the food subsidy. Under the subsidy, everybody rich, poor and middle-class, gets his food, unappetizing as it is, at a cut rate through price controls enforced by law. The government pays the producers of food a subsidy and raises the money through taxes taken from the people in other ways. This makes jobs for deserving parasites of the regime, and exposes farmers, vendors and everyone else having anything to do with food, including those who just eat it, to perils and vexations. Our grocers and housewives will remember some of them out of their recent experience with points and coupons. An English journalist of my acquaintance tells me that his grocer, a small, neighborhood operator, had to hire two clerks just to keep track of the rations and keep him out of jail.

The $10,000 award which Philip Murray handed to Senator Murray is taken from the fees and dues of several million American workers who are members of the CIO, against their will. They would cheerfully buy Senator Murray a winding-sheet but never would be a willing party to any project to honor him. The share of each worker in the $10,000 is minute, but the impairment of his citizenship by the ultimate intention to Hitlerize him are clear.

The donation of $10,000 to a member of Congress by an organization having a legislative program and lobbyists in Washington, is so flagrantly wrong that both the donor and the recipient should be subject to long imprisonment. It would be just as honorable for a justice of the Supreme Court to accept a similar gift from a litigant at the bar. I am not prepared to say that any justice would I can think of two off-hand who would be ready with very plausible feints of casuistry to purify the deal.

There is no law that I am aware of by which we could punish either of the Murrays, who are unrelated except in a close moral and ethical bond one of my motives in bringing the case to the fore is to taunt the American Faceless Man into such a revulsion against the self-assured corruption of the union movement that he will realize at last what these people are doing to his country and the beautiful form of government that we inherited. Another of my motives is to earn money to pay taxes to send secret agents to Europe to promote socialism, disguised as experts on the vast staff of the State Department.

This prize is called the Philip Murray award and the nauseating effrontery of this hand-washing old hypocrite in presenting an award named after himself as an "honor" to another Murray no better than himself, is typical of the State Department produced them. The late Franklin D. Roosevelt built and dedicated with ceremonial splendor, a library in honor of his own sacred memory and so contrived like Nicolai Lenin in the Kremlin, the grand exalted kipper of a grisly honkatonk. His unblushing widow and his son, Elliott, have presided over this bustling enterprise of many phases as various as those of Congo Island and in the same general taste, and with this precedent, President Murray of the CIO need entertain no qualms on any issue of immodesty.

Lady—Can't you find work? Trump—Yesum; but everyone wants a renege from my regiment. Lady—And can you get one? Trump—No, mam. Yer see, he's been dead twenty-eight years. Wife—John, I bought some sheets, pillow cases and blankets today. Shall I put them down in my budget as cover charges or overhead?

Howard, The Crane, Nurses Broken Leg

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — How- and the whooping crane faces life as a permanent cripple even if he pulls through his gunshot wounds.

The giant bird — almost as tall as an average man — is one of a vanishing flock of about 30 whooping cranes left in America. He is nursing a broken leg in the zoo hospital here.

"His condition is better," zoo director Fred Stark said last night, "but it will be a miracle if he ever recovers. He is eating a lot of fish, shrimp and corn and doing a lot of talking.

Irish Music Teacher Once Offered Use Of Stradivarius

By GEORGE BURRIS
Shamrock Correspondent
SHAMROCK — (Special) — Bert C. Reeves, Shamrock school band director, has many interesting experiences in the music world.

Former student at Iowa State, Ames, he served in World War II as a gunner and pilot, and bombed France and Germany, including Berlin. He was a B-17 bomber, the famed Flying Fortress.

Reeves studied in Chicago, where he met various of the greats, particularly in the violin and related fields. Once he was offered the use of a Stradivarius violin by a professor at the teachers' college at Cape Girardeau, Mo., but declined because the Strads, two hundred plus years old, are extremely valuable.

His talents are varied, though it is as a violinist that he probably excels most in the musical area. He could have been a concert violinist, but said he believed his mission to teach music would prove more satisfying and give him more time to lead a normal, family life.

Reeves also served as a swimming teacher in Des Moines, his birthplace. He is reputed to be an aquatic ace, too.

Last summer he attended the University of Colorado at Boulder, and he and Mrs. Reeves joined the Irish staff in August. She teaches third grade at South Ward grade school and is talented as a singer.

He replaced Ray L. Showalter, who moved to another teaching post in Southwest Texas.

Stars and Stripes

(Readers are invited to mail or telephone news of a star on the Armed Forces. Write or call Stars and Stripes Editor, Pampa News.)

Monte Conwell, engineer, first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Monte Conwell, Wheeler, is serving aboard the refrigeration cargo ship US Corduba operating under commander service force, U. S. Atlantic fleet.

By distributing fresh foods, meats and vegetables to other ships of the fleet, the Corduba is playing a vital role in making the U. S. Navy the best fed Navy in the world.

The promotion of Ora A. Haynes, son of Mrs. Irma Haynes, 417 Doyle, to staff sergeant in the United States Air force has been announced by McClellan Air Force base, Sacramento, Calif. Haynes is assigned to the Second Communications Construction Squadron.

First Lt. Jack T. Baker, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Baker, of 806 N. Gray, has reported for jet pilot instruction at the U. S. Naval Auxiliary Air station, Kingsville, the home of Naval air jet training.

Baker entered service when he was appointed to the U. S. Naval academy, Annapolis, Md., in 1943. When he graduated in 1947, he was commissioned in the Marine Corps.

HOME — Julian Irvin Parnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parnell, Rt. 2, recently arrived home on a 20-day leave from the Navy. He has been stationed at Japan aboard the tanker, Caccapon, A052. Parnell entered service Aug. 1950.

First Lt. Grover L. Heiskell, 827 W. Wilks has been promoted to captain in the United States Marine Corps reserve. It has been announced by Eighth Marine Corps reserve district headquarters, New Orleans.

Heiskell is a member of the Marine Corps reserve, having served in World War II. Presently on inactive duty, he is associated with his father in civilian life.

He attended Pampa High school. In March 24, 1944, he was commissioned second lieutenant and to first lieutenant two years later.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Heiskell, 725 E. Kingsmill, and is married to the former Elva Tubbs, Pampa. They have one child.

George Young, son of Mrs. Kate Young, White Deer, has returned home after receiving his discharge at Treasure Island from the Navy. He recently was in Japan where he was stationed aboard the USS Lizon as storekeeper.

TOGETHER — Two brothers, Neal and Stanley Webb, were united recently in Korea and according to a letter received by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Webb, 1048 W. Brown, they will return to the United States soon. Neal, who had been hospitalized at Oakland Naval hospital, joined his brother in Japan, Nov. 13. They entered boot camp last May, and were together until Neal was hospitalized.

OPS Exempts Distilled Water

All sales of natural and distilled water which is neither flavored nor carbonated has been exempted from price control. The Lubbock district Office of Price Stabilization announced yesterday.

The exemption becomes effective tomorrow. Office of Price Stabilization had exempted the water when sold in bottles, but the agency said some sales are made in bulk and containers other than glass. These also are exempt from price control.

The exemption will have little effect on the cost of living, OPS officials said.

Teen Ager Tells Where Dope Is Bought; How To Find It

By MARTHA COLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

Where can teenagers get narcotics in Texas?

In the words of three teen-age girls who mentioned Dallas, Austin, Amarillo, Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston and El Paso:

1. From peddlers right on Main Street — you just know them when you see them, the way they're dressed, the way they hold their hands, the look in their eyes, and you just stroll up to them and start talking.
2. From some cab drivers — as long as you're friends of his.
3. In Dallas from a certain store, where all you have to do is go in and say so-and-so sent me.
4. From pickups in a tavern.
5. Marijuana from the employees of certain restaurants.
6. Morphine and heroin from certain doctors.

It must be pointed out that these girls were talking principally about marijuana and the barbiturate pills — goof balls, yellow jackets, red birds or whatever you call them.

All three had been with groups who used them. Two of them said they refused ever to touch marijuana or the barbiturates.

The third — she wasn't from Dallas but she went there a few months ago. She's a pretty girl, slender with a dagger-toothed daintiness.

Her father was a drunkard. Her parents were separated, and she had nothing but contempt for her mother, her case history read. So she'd run away from home ever so often. For a while she was in an orphanage, but there she'd isolate herself from the other children, read, or take long walks over the countryside. Her mother kept hammering at her disgrace.

"This girl had tried marijuana before she went to Dallas — 'just curious, just for the kick of it. There was a bunch of us out riding in a car, and they had it."

But maybe a year went by before she tried it again.

"I got it from a pickup in a tavern in Dallas."

How?

"You go to a tavern and see a man. And he says don't you want a beer. And you say yes or no. And you sit down in a booth, and get to talking, and he has pills on him."

"You can chase it with a beer — it acts faster."

Then what?

"Then sometimes you go out riding with him, and you get some more people."

This girl was 17. A boy along was 18. The other couple were in their 20's.

"I couldn't get a job. It gives a needle in my arm. I get sick pink —" and her voice trailed off.

"I don't know — it's just a She was a nervous little girl."

"There are all kinds of pills — yellow jackets, red birds, goof phine or heroin?"

"No ma'am. I just can't stand 'em. Some are capsules. Some are little white pills; some are even when they take a blood off."

"I don't know — it's just a She was a nervous little girl."

Fort Worth Minister For 44 Years Resigns

FORT WORTH — (AP) — Rev. J. Frank Norris, pastor of the First Baptist church 44 years, stepped out Sunday. He resigned because of his health.

Rev. Luther Peak, Dallas, accepted the post. He also will continue as pastor of the Central Baptist church, Dallas, which is in the midst of a building program.

Rev. Mr. Norris saw the First Baptist church congregation grow from 1,000 to 10,000. The church recently paid off its $1 million indebtedness.

"It certainly is a pleasure to find somebody sensible to talk to after listening to a lot of banquet drivel!"
