Moslems Seized In Death Plot

TEHRAN, Iran — (AP) — Nine more members of a fanatical Moslem sect were under arrest today as police claimed to have foiled a plot to assassinate the military governor of this uneasy Middle East capital.

The arrests were announced last night a few hours after martial law was clamped on sections of the British - operated oil fields of southern Iran in the face of mounting strikes by oil workers.

Arrested were nine members of the strongly nationalist Fedayan Islam, the terrorist group that claimed responsibility for the slaying of Premier Ali Razmara March 7.

Police said they plotted the death of Gen. Abdul Hossein Hejazi, appointed military governor and police chief of Tehran when martial law was proclaimed in the capital last week.

A high official said the plot was uncovered last Thursday night when Hejazi's adjutant nabbed two men armed with revolvers loitering at the military governor's home. Hejazi was not at home at the time.

The official said the two confessed the plot and led authorities to the group's hideout, where seven others were arrested.

List of 40 Iranians, including ministers in Razmara's cabinet and high officials, was found in the hideout, this source said. (See MOSLEMS, Page 2)

Experts Aim At Meat Top

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Fixing of dollars and cents ceiling prices on steak and pork chops by mid-April is the target at which government price experts aimed today.

Frankly acknowledging the meat price and supply situation is their No. 1 problem, Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) experts are working feverishly on a solution.

Both Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston and Price Director Michael V. Disalle have said the ceilings will be ordered as soon as possible.

But they haven't given any indication as to the probable date.

One OPS meat expert said, however, he didn't think he was being too optimistic in making the mid-April forecast.

The official, who asked not to be quoted by name, told a reporter "mid-April would be a good guess. We're working as fast as we can and the various parts of the meat puzzle are beginning to fall into place."

Previously OPS authorities had indicated regulations covering live hogs and dressed pork would come first, to be followed by ceilings on dressed beef and live cattle.

The aim now is to get the entire meat situation settled at one time or at least with the regulations on beef following closely those on pork.

Unknown Gunman Seriously Wounds Former Pampan

Joe Wing Chong, 44, former Pampa, was critically injured about midnight Monday when an unidentified assailant shot him three times in an Amarillo cafe.

Chong's brother, Joe Key, a cook at the Empire Cafe here, told co-workers at the Empire today that his brother was in critical condition following the shooting.

Chong reportedly was shot by a man who sought revenge for having been reported to police several times, resulting in his being jailed.

AFL Bars Sorrell From Union Office

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Herbert Sorrell, head of the movie labor group which staged a series of strikes against studios in 1946 and 1947, is barred from office in the AFL Painters Union for five years.

Sorrell said yesterday he will fight the ruling, which he disclosed accused him of Communist tendencies. He denied the charges.

Sorrell has been business agent of the painters' motion picture local 44 for 14 years. He still is president of the Independent Conference of Studio Unions which conducted the long and frequently bloody movie strike.

The independent group eventually lost its jurisdictional battle and most movie workers now are represented by the AFL International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees. The CSU still has minor studio contracts.

Oldster Killed As Auto Rolls

CANADIAN — (Special) — J. C. Price, 72, Perryton, was killed about 1:45 p. m. Monday in an automobile accident 14 miles south of Canadian on Highway 83.

Traveling with Mr. Price were his two grandchildren, Jane Malone, 14, and Mike Malone, 3, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Malone of Perryton.

The boy suffered a broken arm and Miss Malone is in a state of severe shock. Both the children are in the Hemphill Memorial Hospital in Canadian. They were brought into town by C. D. Henricks of Canadian.

Mr. Price and the children were traveling north from Childress on their way to Perryton. Sheriff Clyde Risley and Deputy Tom Newton, stated that tracks indicated that the car had left the pavement on the right side, traveled 210 feet on the shoulder before striking a culvert.

Apparently, they said, the car rolled over four times before coming to rest on the right of way fence, 410 feet from where it first left the pavement. Officials surmised that the driver fell asleep, but have been unable to verify this.

A Stuckley Funeral Home ambulance transported the body to the funeral home in Canadian.

.08-Inch Rain Recorded Here

Yesterday brought .08 inch of rain to Pampa, while all of Texas enjoyed an end to the worst drought in 40 years. Year's total here is 1.66 inches.

Today's forecast called for showers in the Panhandle, South Plains and east of the Pecos Valley and for occasional rain in the south portion of East Texas.

The "million-dollar" showers began Saturday night and Sunday in South Texas and moved into Central Texas, East Texas and some points in West Texas yesterday.

Houston was drenched with 3.15 inches in the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a. m.

Abilene had .55 of an inch of rain; Amarillo, .10; Big Spring, .03; El Paso, .13; San Angelo, .17; Lubbock, .09; Childress, .72.

Elephant Boy Is Hero:

Hungry Lioness Escapes Cage To Cavort Among Ball Guests

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. — (AP) — A hungry lioness slipped out of her cage at a circus-costume ball here early today and cavorted among movie stars and socialites for 15 minutes before being captured by a singer, a restaurant man and a photographer.

Singer Allan Jones, Renaldo Ferreri of San Francisco, and magazine photographer Earl Tiesen crowded the animal into a corner where her handlers could get a rope around her and lead her back to the cage.

It happened at a birthday party given for his wife by Stewart Hopps, Rhode Island insurance man, at Rogers Ranch Club.

"Just as the animal trainer was leaving the cage after his act," Hopps said, "the lioness slipped out behind him and headed for the desert. She was distracted by all the cars parked outside the big circus tent, I guess, because she started hopping over the cars as if she were a gazelle.

"I've never seen a lioness hopping over a car you've missed something. She was very casual about it. She just walked up to a car and over she went.

"The lion wandered around outside for a while and then headed for the kitchen. She appeared rather hungry. This was not her day to be fed and she was pretty noisy about it all night. At the kitchen door Jones, Ferreri and Tiesen, with prods and chairs, kept her cornered until the trainer could take her over."

The trainer's name was not learned immediately.

Hero of the affair, said Hopps, was an elephant boy named Rudolf Hernandez.

Hernandez thought very fast. He moved one of his elephants over to the tent entrance, saying one of his beasts could whip any two lions in the world. This way he kept the people inside the tent and the lion outside where it could do little damage.

"Funny thing was, everybody kept trying to peek outside to watch the lion jumping over the cars.

"John Ringling North Jr., who happened to be in town, hired Hernandez on the spot. He said that's the kind of a boy who makes a circus great."

Among the celebrities who attended the party were Sonja Henie, William Powell, and Mervyn Le Roy and Harry Joe Brown, movie directors. Hopp said 200 persons were there in circus costume.

There were three rings in the huge tent, one for dining, one for dancing and one for entertainment. The circus acts, including five lions, an elephant and a chimpanzee, were in the third ring.

Police were summoned but the lion was back in its cage before they could reach the club at the edge of town.

Acheson Urges Quick Action By Republics Of South America To Combat Red Aggression

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson urged the American republics today to take immediate action to meet a menace posed by international Communism.

He said no free nation anywhere in the world is secure against the menace, and called for full economic and military cooperation with the United States.

Acheson delivered the keynote speech of the first regular session of the Inter-American Conference of Foreign Ministers. The instruments of Soviet Russia's "new imperialism," he said, are "a formidable machine of war and the international Communist movement."

Only by building up their strength and the free nations provide a deterrent force which "is the only real road to peace," the secretary said.

Acheson suggested that the American republics might prepare a coordinated defense plan for the hemisphere as soon as possible.

Acheson keynoted a session at which the foreign ministers of 21 American republics aim to work out mutual defense measures.

In a welcoming address before a preliminary meeting yesterday, President Truman asked that the Latin Republics of America join in the effort to throw up defenses against the "aggressive expansion of Soviet power" he said threatens the whole world.

Mr. Truman's address, reactions indicated, did not please everyone. (See ACHESON, Page 2)

Texas Begins Investigation Into Rackets

AUSTIN — (AP) — Efforts of Gambler Mickey Cohen and other out-of-state operators to take control of organized crime in Texas were related to a House committee today.

State Police Director Homer Garrison, Jr., said Cohen tried to muscle in on the "wire rackets and bookie services" at Houston in July, 1950.

Attorney General Price Daniel told the crime investigating committee that the big national syndicates want to take over bookmaking, the numbers racket and slot machines here.

"Cohen's attempts are directly connected with schemes to restore wire services to bookie shops in Texas," Daniel said.

He said since the state recently won an injunction suit against western union and A. G. Coggins, no bookie information has come in by Western Union, but it is being transmitted otherwise.

Coggins was identified as the "front" for Continental Press, Continental Press, Daniel said, controls horse racing information on a nationwide scale.

Cohen and a companion made one effort to break into Texas at Houston, Garrison said, where they contacted a son of Vincent Vallone. Vallone was killed in a so-called Mafia slaying, Garrison testified.

The legislative investigation of organized crime in Texas began before a standing room only crowd under the glare of television lights.

Cohen did not show up. There was considerable speculation that the committee would cite him for contempt.

Garrison told the committee that Texas had been particularly free of efforts by outside criminal interests to move in prior to 1946. He recalled that in May, 1950, Gov. Allan Shivers, warned "big time crooks to stay out of Texas."

The first efforts of the outside syndicates to move in came in 1946, he said, when approaches were made to former Sheriff Steve Guthrie by a member of the former Capone gang in Chicago and others, seeking to move into Dallas.

Next, Garrison said, Dallas (See TEXAS, Page 2)

Registration For Soap Box Derby Due To Open Wednesday

Kick-off of annual Soap Box Derby activities here will be Wednesday when registrations will be accepted at Culberson Chevrolet Inc. which is co-sponsoring the event with The Pampa Daily News.

The derby is open to all boys between the ages of 11 and 15 in the Pampa trade area.

Boys are urged to register as soon as possible for the event which will give the local winner a chance for an all-expense trip to Akron, Ohio, to compete in the national race on Aug. 12. National prize is a $5000 scholarship to any college in the country, and the runner-up will receive a Chevrolet sedan with powerglide transmission. Many other prizes will be given to top place winners in the Akron finals.

Some major changes were made in the rules this year, all designed to make it easier to build a Soap Box Derby racer.

In order to register, boys must go to Culberson Chevrolet 212 N. Ballard accompanied by one of their parents or guardian and fill out a simple application blank. Culbersons will supply a copy of the 1951 official rule book free of charge.

Deadline For Price Charts Is Extended

The deadline for local merchants to file price charts has been extended to April 30th, according to an announcement received here today from the District Office of Price Stabilization in Lubbock.

This extension of time will allow business owners to spend more time in putting together the price charts and base period information.

The local chamber of commerce will notify merchants of any other regulations received, and are at present working to secure authorization to use the D097 rating.

There is still an ample supply of Regulation 7 at the Chamber of Commerce for those merchants who have not studied the categories.

If it comes from a hardware store, get it at Lewis Edw.

Mother Missing In Lonely Road Killing

RIVERSIDE, Calif. — (AP) — Search was intensified today for a pretty young mother because of fears that she may have been kidnapped by her husband's slayer.

Mrs. Doris Trask Cook, 18, has not been seen since the body of her 18-year-old husband, Richard Cook, was found on a lonely road yesterday. Their eight-month-old baby was playing happily on a blanket near the body of the father, who had been shot to death, when the tragedy was discovered.

Police continued to question Sgt. Lawrence J. Walker, 20, a Negro of March Air Force Base here who was booked on suspicion of carrying a concealed weapon. He carried a stolen .45 caliber pistol, police said.

The Air Force sergeant was questioned for three hours last night and sheriff's officer W. W. Walrath, chief criminal deputy, said he insisted he knew nothing of the case. After the questioning, a sheriff's posse left at midnight to search the area where the car was found, 10 miles south of here.

Sheriff's Captain Don Schrader said bumper bolts found at the scene of the tragedy matched those on Walker's car. Cook's auto, parked near his body, had a dent in the rear fender, as though another machine had swished it and forced it off the road.

Schrader said Walker was arrested as police patrolled the vicinity, searching for a car with damaged right fender. They found Walker's car, which answered this description, in a garage being repaired. It had smears of green paint on the damaged fender, officers said. Cook's car was green.

Walker told investigators his automobile fender was smashed in an accident in Hollywood last week.

The slain man's father, Harold Cook, said his son, daughter-in-law, Doris, also 18, and their baby, born last July, left his home at the little town of Nuevo about 10:30 a. m. yesterday. They were headed for Los Angeles, where young Cook does maintenance work at an Aluminum Company of America plant.

The elder Cook said the young couple were devoted and lived a quiet life. Mrs. Cook's mother, Mrs. C. J. Trask of Sunnymead, near Nuevo, emphasized that if (See MOTHER, Page 2)

Yugoslavia Charges Soviets Operating Espionage Schools

ZAGREB, Yugoslavia — (AP) — Yugoslavia charged yesterday that at least six Soviet-directed spy schools were being operated in neighboring Russian satellite countries to train agents for espionage against Marshal Tito's regime.

The accusation was made at the trial of five persons, including two former officers in the Yugoslav army, on charges of spying for Hungary, Czechoslovakia and Rade Mirdjenovic, a former captain who was twice wounded and several times decorated in World War Two, pleaded guilty to betraying his country and entering the Hungarian intelligence.

The other defendants, before a military tribunal, are Stojan Njelic, on active duty as a captain when arrested; Ante Kopic, a civilian; Julia Hatvalic, a housewife, and Stojan Draca, a forester and a relative of Mirdjenovic. Mrs. Hatvalic and Draca are charged with being accomplices. The three principal defendants face death sentences if convicted.

The charge of Kremlin-directed spy schools in eastern European Cominform nations came during a reading of a 12,000-word indictment and a lengthy examination of Mirdjenovic.

The indictment said the schools were located in Budapest and Szeged in Hungary, in Vitos and Danitrov in Bulgaria, and in Valona and Tirana in Albania. Their main job was described as training agents for espionage, sabotage and propaganda in Yugoslavia.

The trial marked the first time since the war that a member (See SOVIETS, Page 2)

Treasury Says Fraud Section Being Formed

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Treasury advised Senate crime investigators today it is setting up a special fraud section to check on the income tax returns of gamblers and racketeers.

Secretary Snyder sent to the committee a pledge of a continuing drive to bring "chiselers to justice." His statement was presented by Edward Foley, under secretary of the treasury.

Snyder said there has not been and will not be any letup in the Internal Revenue Bureau's warfare "against major league criminals." He noted it was the income tax men who bagged the late Scarface Al Capone, Chicago gang overlord of the prohibition era.

George J. Schoeneman, commissioner of internal revenue, followed up Snyder's statement with testimony that his agents are now investigating nearly 2,900 tax cases "in the criminal area."

Foley, Schoeneman and other Treasury officials testified at the crime probe's last hearing before the scheduled winding up of their investigation at the end of this week.

Chairman Kefauver (D-Tenn.) said the group will decide on Friday what further action to take against three defiant witnesses who are already under $10,000 bond each for contempt.

The three are Morris Kleinman and Louis Rothkopf, both of Cleveland, described by the committee as top rank gamblers and racketeers; Greasy Thumb) Guzik, Chicago; and questions.

Today, three committee members disclosed they have received threats against their lives.

Senator Tobey (R-N.H.) said he had received two threats by letter and one by telephone. Kefauver said he had received a number of threats "in cracker letters" but did not take him seriously. Senator Hunt (D-Wyo.) said he got a warning letter against "sticking my nose in other people's business" during recent hearings in Miami, Fla.

The crime committee's file of Treasury officials before because of reports racketeers have been permitted to list their income simply as coming from "miscellaneous sources."

In a recent report to the Senate, the committee complained that gamblers and other figures were "getting away with murder" in the income tax returns they filed.

It said the Internal Revenue Bureau accepted generalized statements from them about their income and expenses that would not be accepted from ordinary citizens.

Schoeneman presented a statement saying that in the last five years special agents have conducted 1,671 investigations of income tax returns of individuals involved in gambling activities (See TREASURY, Page 2)

Auto Damaged In Two-Car Crash

An accident Monday afternoon on Miami highway resulted in property damage of about $400 to a 1942 sedan driven by Loren E. McGowan, 34, of Fredericks.

The sedan was involved with a late model pickup driven by Mrs. Eunice Postum of Perryton, who was headed west toward Pampa when the accident occurred. No injuries were reported.

Two minor accidents were reported to local police Monday when one car reportedly failed to yield right of way at the corner of Frederic and Barnes, and another occurred at the Hobart and Francis traffic light. Combined damage did not exceed $100.

New Army Tank In Production

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Walker bulldozer, the Army's first new tank model since World War II, starts coming off production lines today, three months ahead of contract schedule.

The T-41, named for the late Gen. Wilton H. Walker, is 28-ton light tank with the speed of 40 miles an hour. It mounts a new type 76 mm. gun. Secretary of the Army Foy Kohler said in a statement last night the Army expects it to out-fight anything of its class in the world.

The tank is being produced by the Cadillac division of the General Motors Corp. in an Army-owned plant at Cleveland. The contract originally called for first models to be produced by July 1.

Speaker Lampoons Women In Address To Knife-Fork

Refuting the statement that "accounting" for women, as advertised in college courses, could never be done, Miss Gray presided over a light and forceful speech to members of the Knife and Fork Club Monday night.

Miss Gray's talk followed the dinner meeting held in the high school cafeteria with Arthur Teed, president of the group, in charge.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Emily Hicks, who pointed out that Miss Gray had promised that for next year she is planning a lecture in which she will lampoon the men as she lampoons the women in her current lecture, "Eye in the Looking Glass."

Basing her lecture on how women have appeared through the ages since Eve, Miss Gray brightened her talk with limericks and clever quotations from poets and philosophers.

"Fashion," she said, "is the ruler of women's lives." She described clothing of the various eras and the attitudes and actions of women during the time these clothes were worn. She stated that the next and final meeting of this spring will be held April 30, with Jack Schultz, adventurer, as speaker.

Rodeo Producer To Appear Here

At a meeting Monday night of the Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show officials decision was made to invite Goat Mayo of Pampa, Texas, and Claude Hayes of Weatherford, Oklahoma, to confer with the rodeo committee Monday night, April 2.

Mayo and Hayes have been invited to aid in the hiring of stock for this year's rodeo which is scheduled for August 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11th.

The kid pony show will open the event on August 7. The rodeo will run four nights, beginning on August 8th, according to P. C. Crouch, president of the rodeo association.

TEXAS

(Continued From Page One) gambler Herbert Noble and Benjie Binion, "a former Dallas racketeer," were approached by outsiders racketeers who tried to make a deal with them. This, the state police director said, was in March, 1950.

Garrison said in his visit to Houston, Cohen registered at the Shamrock Hotel, as "James Valen." He and his companion tried to contact Al Smiley, a former partner of the late Bugsy Segel.

"They didn't do it," Garrison said. "Sheriff Buster Kern then tried to contact Cohen but the gambler evidently had smelled a rat and had left."

Chairman Fred Merdith of the House committee said it wanted to know first if organized crime does exist in Texas and next it wants to determine if out-of-state crime syndicates are trying to move in.

He said the purpose of the committee was solely to obtain information on which to base legislation if a need is shown and to inform the public if any failure to enforce laws by local officers is found.

MOTHER

Officers said Cook was slain sometime between 11 a. m. and 11:25, when Jack Tracht of La Sierra discovered the tragedy on a lonely stretch of road near Lake Mathews in Riverside County.

Highway patrolmen said they had ridden over the road at 11 o'clock and noticed nothing wrong. Theorizing from tire marks and footprints on what happened, Capt. Schrader surmised: "A car forced Cook's off the highway and pulled in behind him. Cook got out and a man got out of the rear machine. They apparently talked and, as Cook turned, he was shot. The rear auto then backed up about 300 feet, turned and headed for the town of Perris.

There were no women's footprints at the scene. The baby boy, Jeffery, was on a pink blanket on the ground near the Cook car. The infant was unharmed.

Homicide deputy Mel Vivion said he learned that Walker ate lunch at March Air Force Base and at about 1 p. m. drove his car to the garage in Riverside. The scene of the slaying and the air base are about seven miles apart.

Kefauver said Kleinman, Rothkopf and Guzik automatically will face contempt charges. He said the possibility of asking the Senate to order them sent to jail immediately is being studied.

Volatile Senator Tobey (R-NH) saw in the defiance of the trio another cogent reason for continuing the work of the committee beyond its deadline of Saturday.

"If we lie down before such birds as these and permit such men to flaunt the Senate, it will be a burning shame on the people of this country," Tobey told reporters.

He said he believes such tactics furnish a top reason why the committee should go on. Although Kefauver has said he can't continue to serve, there were growing indications that there may be a 60-day extension in the committee's life.

(Continued From Page One) one. He stirred up volatile South American political feelings by endorsing a plan under which Bolivia would trade Chile and Peru irrigation water for an outlet to the sea.

Acheson was to speak at a morning session (10:30 a. m. EST) at the flag-bedecked, 43-story-old Pan American Union Building.

Later in the day the representatives of the 21 American republics will get down to work on political, military and economic agreements to enable western hemisphere countries to work as a team against any aggression.

Three committees on the three points of the agenda will meet to organize themselves. At the head of the agenda stands aggression. Next is internal security, and point three is economic problems.

President Truman said Latin America, as "partners in a common enterprise," must increase production of strategic materials and take other economic measures to support the men in Europe and Asia, "who are battling for freedom."

Mr. Truman pledged by implication that Latin America can expect continued help from Washington in all ways — economic, military, technical assistance.

It was Mr. Truman's discussion of ways to develop South America's vast economic potential which led him to tread upon a political sore toe.

He departed from his prepared text to express hope that a plan to give land-locked Bolivia a seaport on the Pacific would be carried out. The plan could a result in turning arid North Chile and South Peru into a garden, Mr. Truman said.

This made the Bolivians jubilant but the Chileans and Peruvians retired behind obviously unhappy "no comments."

The first move in the plan would be diversion of the 14,000-foot-high waters of Lake Titicaca, in Bolivia, down the slopes of the Andes mountains to southern Peru and northern Chile. U. S. officials said it is not yet known if the plan is technically feasible.

"We've driven our 5 Dodge cars over a million miles"

Boys GEORGE GILL, Toxicol Fleet Operator, Red Bank, New Jersey

"When five standard Dodge sedans cover a million miles you begin to realize what Dodge dependability means. Four of our Dodges are still going strong. One, after 400,000 miles, was finally retired from service. All those miles were safe, dependable, comfortable miles for our passengers—amazingly economical and trouble-free miles for us."

Depend on it! This great new Dodge will see you thru the long pull ahead!

Styled to the minute, extra roomy with wonderful new "watchtower" visibility, more comfortable to ride in, easy to park and handle—this year's great new Dodge is the car to see you through the long pull ahead.

Spend 5 Minutes With Us

Come in today. Five minutes is all it takes to check and compare... to learn how much more Dodge dependability can mean to you. We'll be glad to show how you could pay up to $1,000 more for a car and still not get all the extra room, ease of handling and rugged dependability of today's big Dodge.

Controls Defeat Their Purpose

Controls by their very nature mean that the people will have accepted them as submitting to a certain amount of totalitarian government. In other words, they have taken at least some steps down the road toward socialism and communism.

It is a generally accepted fallacy that controls prevent inflation. Whereas, if anything, they increase inflation. We would seem to have learned nothing from our experience in previous wars.

I am not a historian, but I am a reporter and I have discovered by research and by chance a mixed collection of information which must be woven into the story of this era in the life, and fate, of our great nation.

Some people seem to think we are now on the horns of a dilemma in this country and that we must accept the lesser of the two evils presented.

As a matter of fact, one of the hours of this dilemma does not exist. We can prepare to defend ourselves without controls.

Washington... by Peter Edson

WASHINGTON (NEA)—On half a dozen fronts, the cry of small business is being heard and investigated in Washington.

These accelerated, five-year depreciation allowances and tax amortizations have gone predominantly to big business.

On this list, 60 were for under $100,000 and 108 were for between $100,000 and $1 million.

W. Elmer Harber, new chairman of RFC and an Oklahoma banker before he came to Washington, says the need of small business is for long term credit.

Harber believes RFC can make these loans. He also has an idea that some new system could be worked out, by which local banks could make the loans with RFC guarantees.

Fair Enough-Pegler

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

You may have noticed, as I have, that for all her gabble about her family, Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt has never told us the source of the fortune which she and her brother, Elliott, the more abundant life when most of us Americans of the interior orders were living in cold-water flats and houses or even mud huts.

On the Moosejaw side of this ominous family which, insidiously, sucked our country dry and left the shell to our children, the opium trade into Canton, China, unquestionably was an important source. The denials were mere cheap tricks.

The Delanos, of New Bedford, Mass., were a rough and hardy crew. For their day, they may have been creditable citizens, although some of their contemporaries described the Chinese opium traders as "refugees."

I am not a historian, but I am a reporter and I have discovered by research and by chance a mixed collection of information which must be woven into the story of this era in the life, and fate, of our great nation.

Answering A Readers Question...

I have a letter from Mrs. Margaret Utt, a highly respected resident of Orange county, Calif., who asks several questions, which I want to answer. Mrs. Utt asks: "Do you believe in having the earth's surface divided, somewhat as it now is, into countries, each having its own laws and governing its own people and affairs?"

The answer in general is yes. However, the answer "yes" does not give the countries a moral right to do things that are immoral for an individual to do.

I would desire that all persons who wanted everybody's life and property protected be given an opportunity to voluntarily support a police department, judges, records and do anything that was moral for an individual to do that could be done with less effort collectively.

Then Mrs. Utt adds this: "You rail constantly against laws 'passed by a bare majority, or a majority.' Would you have no laws save those passed by a 100 percent vote?"

I know of no laws that are passed by a 100 percent vote, and I know of very few laws that are passed by the majority. Up until relatively a few years ago women couldn't even help pass laws, and now those under 21 have no legal right to help pass laws—so in most cases we have laws passed by the minority.

3. Mrs. Utt: "I think I have read your advocacy of removal of all immigration restrictions and all tariffs."

I would not oppose restricting immigration who had a disease or a criminal record, but I would remove all quotas. I would remove all tariffs for protection. I have no objection to tariffs that are only for revenue without regard to protection.

4. "I have a very hazy impression that instead of a country governed by laws you would have a mess of Farm Bureaus, PTA's, Insurance Companies or what not, which you could join or not as suited you and which would offer protection to life, property or what have you."

I believe the insurance companies could run the fire department much more economically than they can be run by a subdivision of the government. They would use the energy of the men to produce wealth when they were not fighting fires or keeping their equipment in order. They would not charge for protection without any regard to the cost of the service rendered as is the case when a subdivision of the government taxes people for fire protection.

I would have local governments supported on a voluntary basis. I know of no individual who would want to pay for protection of life and for property. If there be such an individual, he should not be required to pay. If he were forced to pay he sooner or later would get control of government to legally rob the public, as is taking place now.

I would ask Mrs. Utt if she would not be willing to voluntarily so pay. If she would, does she think she is so much better or wiser than others that it would be safe to give her other citizens the power to force others to contribute to reason, so one cannot determine whether or not government is good until he has a standard or a norm to compare it by, and since governments are created by individuals, the government should be run under the same rules and principles that govern human beings.

Mrs. Utt has a "very hazy impression" that we would not have under a government with the consent of the governed a "country governed by laws." She infers that we now have a country governed by law. We have arbitrary man-made laws out of harmony with natural law. Most of these man-made laws are immoral and therefore void. As Emerson said "an immoral statute is void." Does Mrs. Utt think we now have laws for the "protection of life and property?" We have had more and more man-made laws in the last few decades, and any one who can recognize cause and effect is convinced that so long as this belief in an unlimited majority rule government continues it will have a deteriorating effect on the well being and character of most of the individuals in America.

I think my answers have been both mathematical and given without evasion or contradiction. That is

The Red Herring

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON President Truman has been placed in a peculiarly embarrassing predicament by the tremendous public demand that the Kefauver and Fulbright committees be permitted to carry on with their sensational exposures of political corruption throughout the nation and crooked influence at Washington.

Although the lives of both committees expire within a few weeks, there is a bipartisan demand on Capitol Hill that the investigations be continued with all the funds they need to increase the size of their accountant and detective staffs.

It is generally believed that so far they have only touched the high spots in the alliance between the underworld and politics, and that the details should now be filled in.

There may never again be such an excellent chance to give the people a clear and vivid understanding of how big-time criminals gain control of major political machines, force the nomination of their own candidates for local and national office and then obtain favors from their political pawns.

Now, if we had our way, we would have only government "with the consent of the governed," exactly as the founders of the nation provided for. No citizen would have any compulsory taxation, paying only for such services as he wanted or used. No one would even dream of such an un-American thing as paying income taxes, which are nothing but plain robbery, depriving a man of part of the fruits of his labor.

No citizen would be compelled to pay for other citizens' ideas of "education" but would pay for his own idea of it according to the service required. There would be no tax-supported schools, of course, but there would be SCHOOLS, and better, more efficient schools than public ones, operated at far less cost. Furthermore, the citizen would pay for schooling only as long as he used it for his children, just as you pay for gas or electric service only in proportion to what you use. The citizen, too, would have entirely FREE CHOICE of the kind of school he desired for his children and the management of those schools could hire or fire teachers on the basis of efficiency or inefficiency just as good or bad workers are hired or fired in any efficient, business-like establishment. FREEDOM OF EDUCATION would then be a FACT.

If we had our way there would be no conscription or compulsory mobilization of citizens, either for military or domestic service, in accordance with the American principle of freedom from involuntary servitude. We would have the kind of armed forces and domestic service (particularly in times of national danger) that were our pride in the Revolution.

HALO — It has snatched the halo from the head of a public official twice highly honored by the F. D. R. — Mayor William F. O'Dwyer, now ambassador to Mexico. It has proved that, directly and indirectly, he received the support of the nation regarded as the nation's No. 1 racketeer — Frank Costello. The findings suggest that O'Dwyer was twice drafted into federal duty — in 1942 and 1949 — to let the nation's major criminal syndicates escape detection and punishment, and possibly to save O'Dwyer from criticism for his cooperative role in this live-and-let-live arrangement.

BENEFITED — It has shown that Harry Truman's own political organization — the Pennington Machine in Missouri — is tied up with gamblers, mobsters and crooks of all kinds and that the underworld has a benefited from the association.

In view of these disclosures, which reflect a deeper and a more extensive criminal cancer on the body politic than did the Harding evils, which involved only a few men at Washington, it is not surprising that the demand for further investigation embarrasses Harry Truman.

National Whirligig

By DAVID BAXTER

Speaking in a political sense, I'd like to reply to certain questions as to what kind of country this would be if this column and some of the editors of papers running it had their way. More than one person has suggested "anarchy." Perhaps, to a limited extent, depending upon what one means by "anarchy."

I am hardly an anarchist according to the average definition of it as being "without government" because I believe in government — but VERY LITTLE GOVERNMENT, no more than is absolutely essential to simply keep one citizen from harming another. I agree with Thomas Jefferson or whoever it was that said "the LEAST GOVERNED people are the best governed." The less government the more rule and the less rule the more freedom a man has.

Now, if we had our way, we would have only government "with the consent of the governed," exactly as the founders of the nation provided for. No citizen would have any compulsory taxation, paying only for such services as he wanted or used. No one would even dream of such an un-American thing as paying income taxes, which are nothing but plain robbery, depriving a man of part of the fruits of his labor.

Choice of Mediterranean Commander Disturbs British

The Doctor Says

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

One of the most delicate problems faced by the Atlantic Pact organization has been whether the supreme commander for the Mediterranean area shall be American or British.

A Britannia who once ruled the waves has been greatly disturbed over the appointment of Uncle Sam's Vice Admiral William M. Fichteler as supreme commander of the combined Atlantic naval forces. For in a Prime Minister Winston Churchill has led a fierce attack on the British government for agreeing to this selection, which he regarded as a slight to British naval prestige.

However, that appointment is water over the dam. Now comes the selection of a supreme commander for the southern theatre and it is generally recognized that he should be a naval man. The reason is that protection of this right flank of Eisenhower's army will be mainly a sea operation. So again Britain is urging her rights to this important post. The London News Chronicle sums up the matter up thus:

"If British naval interests in the Mediterranean area are suitably protected, it may be hoped that some attempt to amend the unfortunate impression created when the supreme authority in the Atlantic went to America."

My colleague Charles H. Guppitt, AP chief bureau in Rome, says in the heart of the Mediterranean theatre, says the main arguments advanced by the British press in favor of this solution are these:

1. The special interest which Britain has in safeguarding the Mediterranean sea lanes to the Middle East, where she has important interests to protect and military forces to supply.

2. The permanent bases which it holds at Gibraltar, Malta, Cyprus and Alexandria.

3. The British Navy's long experience in the Mediterranean theatre, where some of its biggest battles were fought in the last war.

4. Its experience in anti-submarine warfare in the last conflict, which would qualify it to cope with the menace of Soviet submarines in the event of a primary offensive weapon in the Mediterranean in the initial stages of another war.

5. British public opinion demands it in recognition of the country's naval traditions.

There are of course weighty arguments in favor of an American commander, but they may not be pressed.

The American Sixth Fleet is by far the largest naval force now in the Mediterranean. It's almost certain that in the event of war this fleet would represent the major part of the Atlantic Pact forces in the southern theatre. But with tactical control of its carriers in experienced American hands, overall command is not vital.

As against Britain's admitted special interest in the Middle East, America has a special interest in the Mediterranean theatre because of the large investments that the United States has made through her various aid programs to enable France, Italy, Greece and Turkey to defend themselves against Communist aggression.

The Panhandle farmers can thank Manager Grover Setts and his Oliers for the rain yesterday. The 1950 West Texas-New Mexico League champions were all ready to loosen up the kinks Monday noon, but the weather man sent rain instead of sunshine.

Manager Setts is still looking for his two Cuban ball players. Del Toro and Surez are some place between Havana and Pampa. Pitcher Cletus Younger returned to Kansas Monday night. The Oiler mound prospect was ineligible and the Oliers were unable to get him declared eligible.

Kenny Faulkner hadn't arrived late Monday night. Veteran first sacker Virgil Richardson is ready for the season to start. The layoff between seasons didn't bother him; he's in tip-top shape.

Catcher Jerry Squires had to buy him a new mitt. The other Oliers have to buy one because Jim Martin wouldn't be back to furnish him one. Squires is in the reserves and he goes to Amarillo for the meetings.

Hurler George Payte is another Oiler who broke down and bought a new glove away. Monday the Oliers were replaying games played last year. Payte told 'em of the time he was leading Albuquerque 10-0 in the eighth inning but ended up losing it.

The Oliers, weather permitting, started working out at noon today.

Players are still in need of housing. If you have a vacant room, furnished apartment or house, call Warren Hasse at 1121.

Point gives have favored the Kansas State Wildcats over the Kentucky Wildcats in the NCAA finals tonight. Coach Jack Gardner's Kansans are picked to win by three to four points.

I tab Kansas State the winner, 47-69. I haven't hit one yet, but I haven't quit trying.

Johnny Austin and his crew is tearing up green number 10 at the Pampa Country Club.

They worked out in the rain yesterday. Johnny Foreman was the only smart one at the club yesterday. He stayed inside near the fire while all the work was going on outside.

The Phillips 66 Oliers are slipping. They finished third at the Denver AAU tourney.

I look for some pruning on this year's squad. I hear Coach Hank Iba has a seven-foot freshman at Oklahoma A&M. He's from Chicago.

Keith Lane hasn't said where he's going to play his college basketball. I bet he picks Oklahoma A&M.

Bates College and the University of Maine have met 61 times on the football field.

Pampa Boys Club Tests Wellington Clouters Tonight

Pampa's Boys Club boxing team gets the underdog points against the Wellington Mustangs clouters tonight. The Mustangs annexed the team trophy at the Shamrock Invitational Boxing Tournament recently, edging Shamrock, 47-46, and will be tough for Pampa to handle.

Coach T. J. Watt's swat-smiths won their last team bout, scoring a 9-3 victory over Panhandle here last Saturday night.

The Pampa punchers fight Lockney's boxing team there Friday night and then close out the season against Lockney here Saturday, April 7.

Boys Club boxers fighting tonight are:

Short Shots From Grapefruit Circuit

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Wheter pitcher Frank Shea will regain the form he displayed as a rookie for the New York Yankees in 1947 is debatable. He suffered a torn back muscle in his latest comeback try yesterday.

He was working against the University of Southern California nine when he had to leave the mound in the second inning.

VERO BEACH, Fla. — (AP) — Brooklyn Dodger Manager Charley Dressen hasn't given up yet on pitcher Rex Barney, his erratic righthander. He has ordered Barney to rejoin the main Brooklyn squad at Miami on Wednesday.

LAKELAND, Fla. — (AP) — Spider Jorgensen, the third sacker who recently joined the New York Giants, made his first appearance as a 1951 Giant yesterday. He struck out as a pinchhitter against the Detroit Tigers.

LAKELAND — (AP) — The Detroit Tigers, saddled with a 3-8 exhibition record, will miss star third baseman George Kell for at least five days because of a spiked right hand.

First baseman Monte Irvin of the New York Giants stepped on Kell's hand on a pickoff play yesterday.

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. — (AP) — Babe Herman, the former major league outfielder will be first base coach for the Pittsburgh Pirates this season.

TUCSON — (AP) — Luke Easter returns to first base today for the Cleveland Indians.

The big righthanded swinger hasn't seen action since he hurt an elbow three weeks ago.

Cleveland plays the St. Louis Browns today.

SAN BERNARDINO — (AP) — Manager Frankie Frisch of the Chicago Cubs has indicated he will take all 15 hurlers now on the roster to Chicago.

Johnny Klippstein and Warren Hacker were called on today to face the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Cubs scored a victory against the Pirates yesterday — a 4-3 decision.

BURBANK, Calif. — (AP) — Manager Zack Taylor of the St. Louis Browns resorted to statistics yesterday to show why his club has lost 11 of 14 exhibition games.

Brownie pitchers, he said, handed out 80 passes while striking out only 42. The passes, plus 120 hits and 29 errors, enabled the opposition to score 120 runs, 38 of them unearned.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals will announce their first squad out April 1. Manager Marty Marion had hoped to use his starting lineup yesterday. Instead, the Cardinals used 17 men in their 6-1 loss to Philadelphia.

ORLANDO, Fla. — (AP) — Al Sims, only yesterday a relief hurler, moved into a starting role today for the Washington Senators.

Manager Bucky Harris is impressed by the way southpaw Sims has been throwing the ball the past six weeks.

Ford Inks Contract

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — John (Model T) Ford, Hardin-Simmons football star, has signed a 1951 contract with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

Ford, a passing quarterback in college, is the first rookie to sign with the Eagles. He was the club's 30th choice in the recent pro draft.

Brazil is larger than the United States.

Kansas State Is Favored To Take Kentucky Tonight

MINNEAPOLIS — (AP) — Kentucky, the nation's No. 1 ranking basketball team, goes up against Kansas State, the No. 4 team, tonight in the Blue Grass state squad's drive to become the first to win three National Athletic Association championships.

Tonight's final, to follow a preliminary game between Oklahoma A&M and Illinois for third place, will be Kansas State's first shot at a title.

Both teams have reported possibilities that one of their stars might not be available for full duty tonight. Kentucky's ace forward, Cliff Hagan, showed up with a sore throat and a temperature of 99.8 yesterday. He was ordered to bed.

Kansas State's star guard and captain, Ernie Barrett, has a left shoulder injury suffered in the Western final and may not be up to playing a full game.

Kansas State, apparently on its substantial victory over Oklahoma A&M the No. 2 ranking team, and its walloping of Illinois recently, was made a three to four point favorite by local oddsmakers.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies go up against Cincinnati's ace Ewell Blackwell when the Redlegs visit here today.

The Phils took an easy 6-1 decision from the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday.

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. — (AP) — Rookie hurlers Franklin Robinson and Leroy Hoyle have a chance today to show Philadelphia Athletics Manager Jimmy Dykes what they can do.

They will share pitching duties against the Brooklyn Dodgers at Miami.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — (AP) — Pruning time has come to the grapefruit circuit, and the first man to get the axe on the Cincinnati roster was young Hobie Landrith.

Landrith, a hustling rookie catcher, was optioned off to Buffalo of the International League.

The Reds take on Philadelphia at the Phils' camp here today.

PHOENIX — (AP) — The Chicago White Sox have not officially determined whether they will return to their Pasadena training camp next spring although Manager Paul Richards says he is all for it.

The Sox broke camp yesterday and face the New York Yankees today with Lou Kretlow and Randy Gumpert slated to pitch.

SAN BERNARDINO — (AP) — Manager Frankie Frisch of the Chicago Cubs has indicated he will take all 15 hurlers now on the roster to Chicago.

Johnny Klippstein and Warren Hacker were called on today to face the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Cubs scored a victory against the Pirates yesterday — a 4-3 decision.

BURBANK, Calif. — (AP) — Manager Zack Taylor of the St. Louis Browns resorted to statistics yesterday to show why his club has lost 11 of 14 exhibition games.

Brownie pitchers, he said, handed out 80 passes while striking out only 42. The passes, plus 120 hits and 29 errors, enabled the opposition to score 120 runs, 38 of them unearned.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — (AP) — The St. Louis Cardinals will announce their first squad out April 1. Manager Marty Marion had hoped to use his starting lineup yesterday. Instead, the Cardinals used 17 men in their 6-1 loss to Philadelphia.

ORLANDO, Fla. — (AP) — Al Sims, only yesterday a relief hurler, moved into a starting role today for the Washington Senators.

Manager Bucky Harris is impressed by the way southpaw Sims has been throwing the ball the past six weeks.

Ford Inks Contract

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — John (Model T) Ford, Hardin-Simmons football star, has signed a 1951 contract with the Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League.

Ford, a passing quarterback in college, is the first rookie to sign with the Eagles. He was the club's 30th choice in the recent pro draft.

Brazil is larger than the United States.

Doering Captures Greensboro Tourney

GREENSBORO, N.C. — (AP) — The 1951 winter tour of professional golf will be remembered as one on which three professionals crashed into the important money for the first time.

Least to turn the trick was Arthur Doering who won the $10,000 Greensboro Open yesterday with 279.

Babe Joins Missions

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Boris (Babe) Martin will catch for the San Antonio Missions of the Texas League this year. The St. Louis Browns, the parent team, said Martin bought his contract with the Toledo club and signed with the Brown organization. He played with the Browns from 1944-46 and with the Boston Red Sox in 1948-49.

Some Publicity Is Overworked

By BOB THOMAS HOLLYWOOD - (AP) - Last week a Hollywood press agent wrote the 5,000th story along the lines, "even the gateman didn't recognize Florida Glump when she reported to work in her makeup today."

This is a minor milestone in Hollywood history, but provides our subject for today: overworked publicity gimmicks.

The gateman story is one of the oldest publicity stories in Hollywood. It is probably older than movies. No doubt previous gateman and stage guards failed to recognize Edwin Booth, David Garrick, William Shakespeare and even Aristophanes. Or so the town criers and scribes of those eras purported.

Despite the age of the gateman story, it still manages to see circulation in Hollywood every few weeks. And so do a variety of other hoary gimmicks that should have been prepared for a current picture. This item is obviously designed to publicize the current picture, while the producers seldom have any notion of making the sequel.

The selection of a 10-best or 10-worst list. Some of these are legitimate (the ones that appear in this column, natch.) But most of them are designed to promote some press agent's client. Look down the list for a name you've never heard of. That's the client.

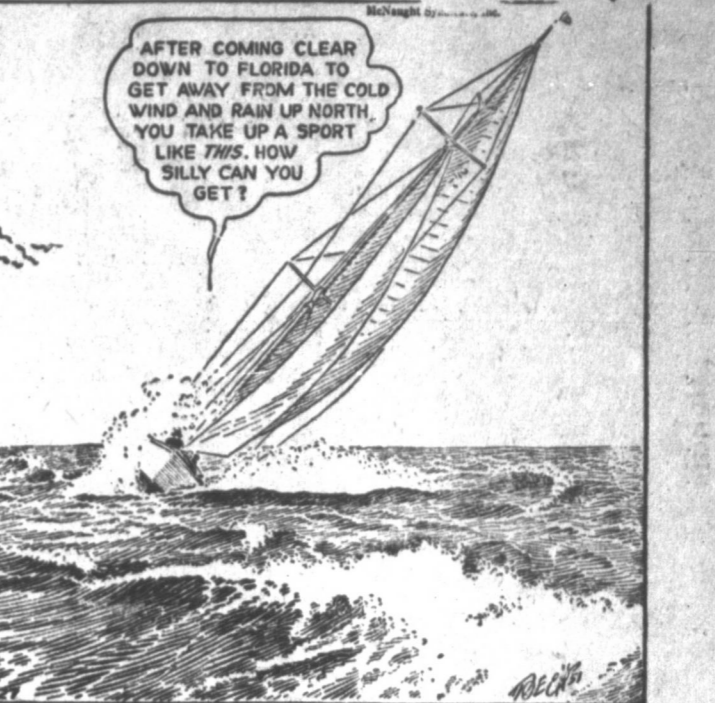

The near-accidents of film stars. If stars suffered as many near-death mishaps as they are reported to, they would be ruled out as bad risks by insurance companies. Most of such accidents are grossly exaggerated or pure dreams.

The twosomes. Some romantic linkings may have interest to some readers. But most of such items are designed to publicize the twosome or the restaurant at which they cavort.

Another overworked publicity is cheesecake or leg art. But who's complaining about that?

When you deep-fry foods use a wire basket to make the frying easier. The basket should have a diameter of about two inches less than that of the fry kettle.

Don't Feel Sorry For Child Stars, Declares Judy Garland

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Don't feel sorry for child film stars, advises Judy Garland, they're doing all right.

Lately there have been newspaper and magazine articles declaring that movie moppets generally make messes of their later lives.

"I have read them too," Judy admitted, "and they depress me terribly. I don't think the life of a child star is as bad as it's pictured. Let's not knock it. I started in vaudeville when I was two and got in pictures when I was 13. If I had it to do over again, I'd do the same thing. Of course, I'd like to have done some things differently. But that's the old, old story of 'if I knew then what I know now.'

"All in all, it was a wonderful life and I had many fine experiences which other kids wouldn't have."

Judy opined that former child stars have troubles because their lives are so highly publicized — "you have to live your life in a department store window."

"I think publicity caused Elizabeth Taylor's troubles," she observed. "Liz is a very nice girl. But everything she does is so highly publicized that she has no chance to live a normal life. Any marriage that has as much publicity as hers would have had a hard time lasting." I asked Judy if she would let her daughter Lisa be a child star.

"If she wants to be an actress, I will let her," she replied. "And I think she will want to. But I want her to wait until she is at least 16 and can decide for herself."

"I would prefer that she wait until she is through school, and I'd like her to go to college. That's the thing that a child actor misses out on — going to school with other kids, and having the fun of proms and things like that. It's no fun being stuck inside the four walls of a dressing room with a tutor and having to learn a few facts about geography between scenes."

By the time you read this, Judy will have left for New York on the first hop of her trip to Europe. She has been rehearsing the act she'll do at London's Palladium and will polish it up on the trip across aboard the Ile de France.

After the Palladium engagement, she'll tour Europe for an indefinite period. She won't consider any picture deals until she has had her fill of Europe. "It's great to have no plans for the first time in my life," she remarked.

SENATOR IN HOSPITAL
WASHINGTON — (AP) — Sen. Johnson of Texas is reported in a satisfactory condition today at the Naval Hospital at Bethesda, Md. He has a heavy cold. Walter Jenkins, Johnson's secretary, said the senator will likely have a checkup before leaving.

HOME FROM KOREA—Dr. A. M. Mansur looks happy as he sits on the divan in his home with his wife, Phila, and their two children, Sydney, left, and Algie, right. Dr. Mansur arrived in Pampa early Saturday, after a trip by air from the Korean battlefield. Mrs. Mansur is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Davis, 819 N. Frost. Doctor Returns To Family Here After Duty In Korea

Dr. A. M. Mansur, 1152 Starkweather, arrived in Pampa, early Saturday, following his return from the battle area in Korea. Dr. Mansur is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Joe H. Davis, 819 N. Frost.

The dental surgeon left the USA Aug. 18, 1950, enroute to Korea attached to the famous First Marine Division, first medical battalion. He served in the medical battalion until recently, when he was transferred to the well-known Fifth Marine Regiment, commanded by Col. Raymond Murray. Dr. Mansur was regimental dental surgeon with the 5th.

He has been in the Navy since 1943 and received his training in Baylor Dental School, Dallas. Before going to Korea, Dr. Mansur was stationed at Camp Lejeune, Wilmington, N. C. He was transferred to the First Marine Division when the Korean crisis developed. Prior to his return to active duty, Dr. Mansur was in private practice in Paris, Texas.

Dr. and Mrs. Mansur were married March 16, 1944, and have two children, a girl, Sydney, five, and a boy, Algie, three. They will remain in Pampa during a 30-day delay enroute, moving then to Alameda Naval Air Station, Alameda, Calif.

Dr. Mansur is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harl D. Mansur, Chickasha, Okla.

New Grease Keeps U. S. Rifles Shooting
WITH THE MARINES IN KOREA — (AP) — Sgt. Frank T. Versage is credited with inventing a grease that kept Marine rifles firing in the Korean winter. It was found that ordinary grease sealed rifles as effectively as a welding job when cold froze the grease.

Rifles cleaned with gasoline and fired dry worked for a while but soon jammed. Versage experimented for a week and came up with a mixture of graphite, diesel oil, 80 octane gasoline and No. 19 motor oil. Rifles greased with it worked despite cold.

Skeletons Found In Excavation

ADDIS ABABA — (AP) — Ten skeletons were dug up during routine building excavation work in downtown Addis Ababa. Police are investigating one supposition that the bones may be the remains of persons slain during the Italian occupation in the 30's.

THE DOCTOR

used hoarseness or a cough which does not clear up should also send one for examination.

All this means that we should not delay in the presence of suspicious signs even if they often prove to be a false alarm. And if a cancer almost anywhere is caught early it can be successfully treated. There are three methods of attacking it: to cut it out—surgery—to use X-rays, and to use radium.

DOCTOR DECIDES

Great strides have been made in all of these. For example, it is now possible even to remove and thereby cure many cancers of the lungs though 25 years ago this seemed impossible. Which of these methods to use and how to use them is, of course, something that can be decided only by the trained doctor.

In discussing this subject it is always necessary to warn against worrying about cancer so much that life is no longer worth living. Some people do this and it just doesn't make sense. We should strive to be reasonably careful not to overlook anything important but at the same time to avoid getting into a state of chronic fright.

The Record That Means the Most to You!

Nash Rambler

SETS ALL-TIME RECORD

31.05 MILES PER GALLON

IN 1951 MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN!

Here is proof positive that the Nash Rambler is the most economical full-size car on the road... official proof that you can expect to go farther on every gallon of gas in a Rambler Airflyte.

For in America's blue-ribbon stock car event—the 1951 Mobilgas Economy Run from Los Angeles to the Grand Canyon—the Rambler smashed all previous records for the Run... covered the 840.05 miles on just 27.05 gallons... averaging 31.05 miles a gallon! That's the thrifty performance you've been looking for.

In setting this all-time record, the Rambler carried 4 passengers with driver and averaged over 41 miles an hour. The course covered all types of terrain—deserts, mountains, city and highway driving... with snow, rain and head winds. Yet never before had any car in this economy run gone so far on so little gasoline!

Every Nash Airflyte entrant—Statesman, Ambassador and Rambler—was a trophy winner in its class... smashing evidence that Nash is your best bet for the years ahead!
