SAN FRANCISCO — (P) — Final tribute is being paid today to william Randolph Hearst, the millionaire miner's son who bounded one of the greatest publishing domains the world has ever known.

Public funeral rites for the 88-year-old publisher were set for 11 a. m. (2 p. m. EDT) in Grace Episcopal Cathedral, atop Nob Hill, a few blocks from his birthplace.

As he stipulated before death, he will be buried in Cypress Lawn Cemetery near the tombs of his parents, former U. S. Senator George Hearst and Phoebe Apperson Hearst.

Long ago the greatest of teachers surprised His disciples with the strange prophecy, "greater things than these shall you do." The Master expected them to do better, because His spirit would be working with them.

That's the wonder and the impossible miracle of life. Every father who will give his best to his son may expect his son to go beyond himself.

EVERY GIRL and every boy dreams of doing as well as mother and dad did. That is the height of their ideal. But God's spirit is at work too. # Count Your Blessings

A father's singing inspires his son

Johnson Oatman, Sr., had a rich, powerful voice. To people of Lumberton, N. J., their local mer-chant was the best singer in the state. That's why son Oatman, Jr., always sat next to his fa-in church. He loved church music and he ther in church. He loved church music and he loved to hear his father sing. Perhaps that's why Johnson Oatman, Jr., grew into manhood with a desire to contribute something to the faith of his father.

As junior member of the firm of Johnson Oatman & Son, young Oatman found limited outlet for his religious ambitions. So, he studied for the Methodist ministry and was ordained. But the limits of one church were too confining and he went from pulpit to pulpit as a "local preacher." Still he had not hit upon his true calling. When he was 36 years old Johnson Oatman, Jr., found his talent. If he could par sing like his father he could ent. If he could not sing like his father he could write songs for others to sing. He could preach to millions through his hymns.

IT WAS IN 1892 that Johnson Oatman, Jr.,

When upon life's billows you are tempest-tossed,
When you are discouraged, thinking all is lost,
Count your many blessings, name them one by one,
And it will surprise you what the Lord hath done.

'Are you over burdened with a load of care?

Does the cross seem heavy on are called to bear?

Count your many blessings, every doubt will fly,

And you will be singing as the days go by.

picked up his pen. Three years later the world was singing, among scores of others, "There's not a friend like the lowly Jesus, no not one, no not one." In 1896 presses rolled off a favorite that is found in hymnals around the globe... his inspiring "Higher Ground."

It was in 1897 that Oakman wrote what some regard as his masterpiece. Composer E. O. Excell of Stark Councy, Ohio, set "Count Your Blossings" to music and of this number Evangelist Gypay Smith once said "... men sing it, boys whistle it and women rock their bables to sleep to the tune. And so he wrote. Two hundred gospel hymns came from his pen every year for a quarter of a century. The total passed 5,000. When publishers asked that he set a price on his work it is said that Oatman declined to accept more than one dollar per song.

Johnson Oatman, Jr., died at Mount Pleasant, N. J., in 1926. He found his talent and he made his contribution ... and he still preaches to millions every year through such songs as ...

So, amid the conflict, whether great or small,
Do not be discouraged, God is over all;
Count your many blessings, angels will attend,
Help and comfort give you to your journey's end.

Count your blessings, name them one by one; Count your blessings, see what God bath done; Count your blessings, name them one by one; Count your many blessings, see what God bath done.

Its chair man, Dr. Stassen, is a vice pres Council ident of the National and the president of the University of Pennsylvania.

The date was picked, Dr. Adams explained, because it follows by day the bi-monthly meeting in New York of the General Board, 125-member, interim policy-mak ing body of the National Council. Members of the General Board who are not members of the committee have been invited to attend the committee's ses

Virtually from the moment the National Council was constituted widespread interest has been shown by churchmen in the location of permanent headquarters. The question caused extended debate in the sessions of the General Assembly at the constituting convention of the 29 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox denominations in Cleveland last November.

The upshot of the debate in the General Assembly which meets only once in two years, after it was ruled that the constitution delegated authority the General Board, was to adopt "request" to the smaller body that consideration be given to selecting a site near the United States' population center. (According to the 1940 census the population center is in Sullivan County, Indiana.)

The minutes of the General Assembly show that the resolu-tion read: "Voted that the Gen-Assembly request the Gen-Board, in its consideration determination of headquar ters location, to appoint a special committee which shall be widely representative both denomination ally and geographically to study the question of headquarters lo-cation and that the General Assembly request the General Board to weigh carefully in that study the advantage and possibility of establishing such headquarters in an area reasonably adjacent the population center of the United States."

United States."
Subsequently, the General
Board at a meeting in Cleveland,
Dec. 2, authorized the appointment of a special committee and instructed it to heed the sentiments expressed by the parent body. It was named by the Council's president, Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill.

As we get it from the Charlotte Observer, the school authorities of Forsyth County, N. C., courteoutsly granted Dr. Brimley a leave of absence from his post as county superintendent so that he might respond to the Army's request. Next, Dr. Brimley received a letter from Lieutenant Colonel Keough, personnel officer of the office for occupied areas, Department of the Army. It informed him that when "we" selected him for the Japan mission "we" were not aware of the "controversial labor issues in which you appear to be involved, which might nullify your value as a member of the mission."

Now we glean that the "labor issues" to which Lieutenant Colonel Keough so delicately referred grew out of a statement Dr. Brimley made to the teachers of his county last May. He then advised them to deal with any grievances they had through the North Carolina Education Association, which is a teachers' organization with a membership of more than 20,000 instead of applying to the American Federation of Labor for a local union charter. Whereupon President Fink of the North Carolina Federation of Labor branded Dr. Brimley's attitude as "undemocratic, un-American uncivilized and non-Christian."

The Charlotte Observer more than suspects that Mr. Fink apoke to resident Green of the A. F. L.

RACE PREJUDICE To like or dislike a person because, by the circumstances of birth, he happens to be of some other race, seems to me quite foolish and not based on any sound standard of reasoning. At the same time I'm not blind to the fact that the forward march of civilization as we know it has always been westward and has been led by the smallest of the races, the Caucasians. There has never been any moral standard superior to that given to the world through the Children of Israel nor any greater ethical summary than that laid down by Jesus in the Golden Rule. business but even His enemies have never dared criticize His ethical standard.

As for MIXTURES of peoples, though, it's the business of the in-dividuals concerned. The Bible does say that "God has made of one blood all nations of men," all men being of one blood, but it also adds, "and has fixed the bounds of their habitation." I think most ra-cial troubles begin—as in America when people get out of bounds and try to become a "melting pot." They bump into each other. ing between races is one thing. mixing them up something else again.

I believe people have a right to maintain racial purity if they want to. Hitler criticized the Jews because they intermarried with one another and did not become "assimilated." Some Jews think it's wrong to mix with non-Jews. At the same time, by some perverted mental twist, Hitler forbade German non-Jews to marry Jews. How he ever expected the Jews to become assimilated under such a law is something I can't fathom. And for that matter, no one has any right to force someone else to mix or fraternize, anyway. It's all up to each individual to do what he wants to about it.

Now we come to a recent press story about dancer Josephine Baker having a Texas man arrested in Los Angeles because he uttered insults directed not at me as a person but at my race; such an insult is undemocratic and un-American, cannot be tolerated and must fought." The negro dancer charged the Texan with disturbing the peace. Then, in court, she watched with satisfaction as he paid a $1000 fine. She reportedly said. "I think justice has been

Well I don't, I think justice would be better served if some agitators were sent back to Europe, where they came from. This dancer's charges were reported as being "what is colloquially known as a citizen arrest." Any citizen can arrest anyone who commits a fel-JOSEPHINE BAKER IS NOT A CITIZEN. She is a citizen of France. By what authority does she have an American citizen arrested for "disturbing the peace" because he made some remarks about negroes at the hotel where he was dining and where Miss Baker and her friends had an adtable?

The Texan obviously had race prejudices. He apparently didn't like dining with negroes. Maybe didn't like negroes, either. I don't agree with his views there, if such he had, But I do believe in his right to like or dislike or to be for or against anything in a supposedly free United States of America. He didn't insult Baker personally. It was his remarks about negroes that she didn't like and so, not even being a citizen herself, she up and had him arrested for "disturbing the peace." If Miss Baker or anyone else doesn't like Caucasians, she's free to say so and her right to free speech should not be questioned. The same right holds for the Texas man. This is one of the few instances I've heard of where a citizen has een fined in a court of law for racial prejudice, even though it was bundled up under the guise of "disturbing the peace." Frankly, I doubt if anyoffe CAN be LEGALLY convicted for remarks about a GROUP although INDIVIDUALS can sue for slander. That is what the Genocide treaty now before the Senate is about-to make it a crime to say anything uncomplimentary about a GROUP. If a man can be punished under such a pretext, then Protestants could be jailed for criticizing the Catholic You can't expect much of the church, Catholics could be punished spokesman who won't put his for criticizing Rotary clubs, Jews could be imprisoned for attacking anti-semites and Jew-baiters fo A judge says that any smart anti-semitism. We especially acknowledge the care and attention of the nurses and doctors at Highland General Hospital where she had been a patient so long. Also to Rev. H. H. Tyler, the pall-bearers, and Duenkel-Carmichael for the last rites.

She has passed to a higher life and naturally we follow her with all human longing. A home is left desolate. The world is a dark veil, but thru the darkness comes a voice, and it tells of a heavenly home and we know she is there. Tor when the work of life is over He giveth his beloved sleep."
