Life Won't Be The Same For Drivers

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of stories on laws passed by the 52nd Legislature that become effective Sept. 7 or thereafter.)

By MAC ROY RASOR

AUSTIN, Tex. — (AP) — If you own or drive a car, life isn't going to be quite the same for you — financially or otherwise — under some new Texas laws becoming effective Sept. 7 and Jan. 1.

The 52nd Legislature decided you will have to get annual car inspections, pay more for your driver's license, and prove you can pay off injury and damage claims up to $15,000 after your first accident.

Of course, you have an "out" for each of them — just quit driving.

But if you want to stay behind the wheel, here's the new way of life:

Your first annual car inspection must be made before you can get your next year's license plates. A certificate showing the inspection has been made will be required.

Damage Reported In Morning Accident

Slight damage was reported in an accident at 8 a. m. today involving James Brown Crocker, 2020 Alcock, and Chester Leroy Johnson, 1308 E. Frederic.

Johnson was driving a truck south on Barrett when he gave a signal for a left turn.

Police said Crocker was traveling in the same direction, and was allegedly going too fast to avoid hitting the Johnson car.

Damages on Crocker's car were estimated at $50. He was given a ticket for speeding, police said, and was to appear in corporation court today.

COMMISSION

factual data compiled by the BCD and taken from reports to industries, commercial houses and government advertising the benefits of Pampa to them as a location, were also cited by Culberson.

Gene Green, vice president of Cabot Co. here, reiterated Culberson's declaration, saying it is impossible for him to see how any city could progress without a plugging and active chamber of commerce or a board of city development.

The commission earlier tabled all consideration for the time being on the Alexandria, La. anti-peddlers law after a study of it showed it would affect local salesmen as well as itinerant merchants against whom it is aimed.

Purchase of a ditching machine for $1000 from G. E. McConnell, local contractor, was okayed by the commission.

Pepin called the ditcher "good insurance" against days when the city needs only 500 or 1000 feet of sewer ditching done at one time. Other construction companies out of town may charge up to $350 plus the contract to move a machine here for that small amount of ditching, Pepin contended.

The machine being used by the Park-Owen Construction Co., Pepin added, "will not be available to us much longer and with new additions coming in all the time we will be needing one almost any time."

As the commission appeared to be going into an extended afternoon session to work on the budget, Mayor C. A. Huff suggested the session adjourn and meet again this week to work on income and expenditures. Following several suggested dates the commission decided to meet at 9 a. m. today.

WAGE BOARD

New York Attorney Nathan Witt, Union Vice President Orville Larson of Globe, Ariz., and Charles Wilson.

In El Paso yesterday, Larson told a reporter the union is willing to accept a 20-1-2 cent an hour overall increase. Commenting on the previous 10 percent limit on pay raises, he said:

"The Wage stabilization board has no policy. It has made different rulings in every situation. That's one of the troubles... if industry accepts this (formula) the men will be back at work within an hour."

ACCUSED

Steiner first set bail at $75,000 each. Acting U. S. District Attorney Howard K. Hoddick asked the high amount because, he said, eight Communist suspects elsewhere had jumped bail.

Federal Judge Delbert E. Metzger cut the bail, saying:

"Bail was never intended as a punishment" before trial.

Government attorneys said the $5000 bail was the lowest in current Communist roundup cases. They said a Baltimore attorney was freed on $5000 but bail in all other cases was at least $20,000.

izing a dramatic group, asked her to be their leading lady, and to suggest a leading man. She named Walker.

Bob saved his $25-a-week salary for 14 weeks and then he and Jennifer married. They came to Hollywood, had no luck here, returned to New York where they occupied a 16-a-month room at the rear of a tenement. Walker took whatever jobs he could find while awaiting stage employment.

Two sons, Bobby and Michael, were born. The Walkers' fortunes turned upward when Bob got his first radio job in "Yesterday's Children."

Two Men Pay Traffic Fines

Two men, one believed to be of Pampa, paid fines in justice court Wednesday on traffic violation charges.

D. L. Taylor paid a $16 fine for driving with a bad muffler. Another man, W. W. MacCampbell, paid $16 for driving without an operator's license.

These cities: Abilene, Amarillo, Austin, Denison, Laredo, Lubbock, San Angelo, Sherman, Tex. and Willacy counties and in arkana, Waco and Wichita Falls.

Man Arrested On DWI Charges

City police arrested Raymond T. Davis Tuesday night on Alcock on charges of driving while intoxicated.

Davis, whose address is not known, entered a plea of guilty in county court this morning. County Attorney Bill Waters said. Fine was assessed at $10 and costs and automatic 6-month suspension of driver's license.

Everywhere else in the state, the rate is $25.

Man Will Cost You Anywhere From $25 To $35 A Year (Passenger Car Standard Rates), Depending On Where You Live. The Rates Are Set By The State Board Of Insurance Commissioners In Accordance With Past Accident Experience.

If you live in Harris county, the $25 rate applies. In Jefferson and Nueces counties and the city of Galveston, the bill is $33. Dallas and Tarrant country drivers get by for $30. The rate is $27 in Bexar, Gregg, Rusk, Smith, Usher, Cameron, Hidalgo, Starr and Willacy counties and in arkana, Waco and Wichita Falls.

So far, the department has received about 1500 letters from garages, filling stations and the like interested in acquiring the designation.

When the stations are designated, you can go to any one of them for the standard check-up. It will include inspection of brakes, lights, horn, windshield wipers and steering gear. When the old jalopy measures up to standard, you get a certificate and a little "good standing" sticker for your windshield.

Oh, yes. That will cost you $1 — plus, of course, whatever it takes to bring brakes, lights, horn, windshield wiper and steering gear up to snuff.

Then you better keep another $1 handy instead of the usual 50 cents for expiration of your driver's license.

Beginning Sept. 7, a two-year renewal doubles in cost.

If your license expires soon after that date, however, you can beat the rising cost of driving by mailing in your license renewal stub with 50 cents before midnight Sept. 6. Department of Public Safety Director Homer Garrison said any renewal request postmarked by that time would be filled at the old rate, regardless of expiration date of the present license.

Probably the biggest woe for the driver to wrestle, however, is the driver responsibility law that becomes effective Jan. 1.

That law requires anyone involved in an accident on or after Jan. 1 to show proof that he can pay claims and damages up to $15,000 — that is, $5000 bodily injury for one person, $10,000 for two persons, and $5000 property damage.

If you don't ever have that first accident, you have nothing to worry about. But if you do have it, it doesn't matter who is to blame, you've still got to cough up proof of ability to pay off if you want to keep on driving. The proof can be cash stashed away in an old sock, securities or anything else that you can turn into ready cash. If you can't lay hands on the cash the Department of Public Safety decides might be necessary to settle claims involved, then you would probably have to purchase liability insurance to meet the law's requirements.

'Second Plate' Roland Didn't Know When He Was Well Off

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK — (AP) — Once there was a poor but honest young Bowery derelict known as "Second Plate" Roland.
 He got this nickname because whenever he went into a restaurant he was never the first to eat off a plate. He waited until the fellow who had bought the meal was through. Roland ate what was left.
 The other derelicts would have nothing to do with Roland. He was too seedy.
 One night Roland was hurried out of a restaurant and landed at the feet of a group of slumming young Park Avenue intellectuals.
 "Isn't it cute?" said one. "Let's take it along with us — just for laughs."

 The next thing Roland knew he was at a literary cocktail party. He moved up to a man. The man looked at Roland, put down his drink and moved away. Roland lapped up the unfinished drink. He moved up to another man. Same thing. Before long Roland was really rolling.
 Roland pushed up to the great man and said:
 "You're repulsive. Thassa lotta hokum you're talking, too. Boy, are you repulsive!"
 The great man hurried over to the alarmed hostess. But instead of complaining, he said:
 "Who is that brilliant young genius? He cuts through the shabby pretense of our time like a scythe."
 The word ran around the room from lip to lip: "The odd young man is genius. He must be. The big man says so."
 So Roland became the rage of the literary cocktail circuit. No party was a success without him. And all Roland did was trail other guests, lap up any drink they put down, and tell everybody he bumped into: "You're repulsive."
 There was no doubt he was a real genius, the best one of the season. Everybody agreed.
 Roland was down on the Bowery one day bragging about his triumphs. An old tramp told him:
 "Why don't you wise up, Roland? If you started buttering up those high-brow buddies instead of insulting them, they might make you a millionaire."
 Roland thought that over.
 "Why not?" he said. "Why should genius always be second at the plate?"
 So Roland launched a quick self-improvement program. He went to the library and taught himself how to read. Then he borrowed some money and bought a new suit, a toothbrush, a turkish bath, a haircut and a shave.
 When Roland strode into his next cocktail party a murmur ran through the crowd. Instead of waiting for a guest to put down his unfinished buffet plate, Roland picked up a clean plate himself and waited politely in line.
 "What is wrong with Roland?" everyone asked. He finished, wiped his chin daintily with his napkin. He strolled over and ordered a fresh double scotch and soda. Instead of gulping it, he toyed with it masterfully — and put in down half-empty.
 Smiling, he walked over to a group in the middle of the room. The same big man was holding the floor again. Roland listened, nodded thoughtfully and then said:
 "Excuse me, friend, I couldn't help overhearing your remarks. And I couldn't agree with you more."
 Everybody just stood there open-mouthed. What had happened to Roland?
 "You don't think I'm repulsive?" asked the big man uneasily.
 "What a shocking thing to suggest — even in jest," murmured Roland.
 The big man looked thoughtfully at Roland. Then he walked over and whispered to the hostess. A moment later two butlers appeared, grabbed Roland and threw him out the front door.
 "How did the idea ever get around that that bum was a genius?" the big man said. "Now, as I was saying —"
 Well, that ended Roland. He had to go back to the Bowery, and soon he was as frowny as ever. He never could understand the cause of his downfall.
 The moral: When you've got a good specialty, don't change. Any genius ought to know that!

New High School Students Open Registration Thursday

First phases for getting school under way begin here Thursday with high school students new to Pampa registering in the principal's office.
 Birth certificates for these students will be necessary and Knox Kinard, superintendent of schools, emphasized that children who will not be six years old by Sept. 1 will not be enrolled.
 Sept. 4 will be the first day for registration as all senior high school students report for enrollment at 9 a.m.; all junior high school students report to the junior high school auditorium at the same hour. Students new to Pampa in grades seven, eight and nine will report to the junior high school principal's office at 1 p.m. Elementary students, grades one through six, living in Pampa, will report to their respective elementary units at 9 a.m. Students in the same grades, who ride buses and have attended an elementary unit in Pampa may report to their former unit. No bus students will be in the Bake Elementary school.
 School buses will run on regular schedule Tuesday morning and will leave the school at 8 a.m. to return the pupils to their homes.
 Bus students who are new to Pampa this year to attend grades one through six will report to the junior high school auditorium at 9 a.m. Sept. 5 for assignment to some elementary unit.

Teachers Meet 10 A. M. Friday

Teachers in the Pampa schools will meet at 10 a. m. Friday in the high school band room for discussion of the new school year with Knox Kinard, superintendent, in charge.
 Kinard met Tuesday with principals of the various schools in a business session.

INDIA REJECTS REPARATIONS
 NEW DELHI, India — (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru said today India will not press for a share of a 28,000,000,000 rupee ($850,000,000) war claim made against Japan by Britain prior to India's independence. His statement reflected previous indications that India was willing to forego any reparations from Japan.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE

Free Bid May Tax Partner's Hand

By OSWALD JACOBY
 Written for NEA Service
 North might avoid a free bid of two diamonds if he had not passed originally. Ordinarily, this bid would compel South to bid again. In other words, North's response of two diamonds may push South to three clubs even when South has a near-minimum opening bid.
 There is no such problem after North has passed originally. South is at liberty to pass two diamonds if he has a near-minimum opening bid. He will know that there is no game in the cards and that two diamonds is as good a contract as any.
 As it happened, of course, South had a very good hand. He was ready to make a jump re-bid in no-trump, and he made it. His re-bid showed that his

Former Pampan Killed In Accident In California

A former Pampan resident, Chief Petty Officer Malcolm E. Robison, 32, has been killed in a traffic accident in Oakland, Calif., according to word received here. The accident occurred Saturday.
 The victim was the nephew of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Robison, 715 N. Somerville, and Mr. and Mrs. Guss Greene who live north of town. Funeral arrangements are pending.
 CPO Robison, Pampa resident in 1938, had been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Free Robison in McKinney and was on his way back to Alameda, Calif., when he was killed in a traffic accident.
 B. D. Robison, uncle of the serviceman, said his nephew had run his car under a large truck and was killed instantly. A passenger was critically injured and California officers have been unable to question him concerning the accident which occurred about 8 p. m.
 CPO Robison returned from Korea June 15. He has been in the Navy about 14 years.
 In addition to his relatives here and in McKinney, CPO Robison leaves a wife and son who are living in Alameda.
 The accident occurred on Robison's birthday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Greene left Monday for McKinney.

No Witch Hunts

The American Communists and their fellow travelers have been the target of a witch hunt by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. This is perfectly natural. It was FBI evidence, painstakingly gathered and sifted over the years that led to the conviction of the eleven top Communist leaders. FBI evidence was also a dominant factor in the Hiss, Coplan and other such cases.

Catalogues Provided Thrills For Young Mac And His Family

By HENRY McLEMORE

length of my Adam's apple which was then about the size of a raisin.

Today's treatment by physical methods (as differentiated from treatment by drugs or surgery) has become more scientific and a whole field of specialists devote their efforts to Physical Medicine.

There are many many kinds of physical treatment which are available now, and they are not the special privilege of the rich either. Various forms of electricity can be used, of which the most valuable appears to be diathermy.

This is a method of carrying heat deep into the tissues and is often of great value in aiding the muscles and deeper tissues to heal. Certain forms of light have also been found helpful. It has been reported that ultraviolet light aids in recovery from a form of tuberculosis involving the peritoneum (lining of the abdomen) or the intestines.

The use of physical methods in treatment covers a wide range. There are paraffin baths, whirlpool baths, specially equipped gymnasiums for stretching muscles and getting joints back into shape. All these are used in many diseases and after many kinds of injuries.

Older methods Not to be forgotten are the older methods. Heat and cold, whether applied by water, mud, or other method, act on the circulation by expanding or contracting the flow of blood, through the arteries and veins.

Obviously the proper application of these methods can affect the body physiology in many ways. Just for example, hot packs are usually used early in paralytic polio, swimming or underwater exercises, both falling in the field of physical treatment, are frequently used later.

Massage also has its place in physical treatment. When it is indicated, and skillfully done, it frequently results not only in a great sense of comfort, but also in real improvement in the condition. By all these methods, and with increasingly scientific precision, the contribution of physical medicine to the healing of the sick is marching steadily forward.

The Doctor Says

By EDWARD P. JORDAN, M. D.

PHYSICAL MEDICINE GAINING PROMINENCE AMONG DOCTORS

Way back in ancient times, the kings, nobles and rich men of the day often had themselves treated with hot baths, mud packs, or massages when they were ill.

When I was nine I got a suit for an eleven-year-old boy so I could grow into it, which meant that for at least a year and a half I looked like a junior scrawny shirt in the same way.

When I was ten and eleven I was wearing shirts that Strangel Lewis could have worn with no trouble whatsoever. I remember how I used to fold them over in the back and fasted the fold with a pin so that the knot of my tie would come within arms' length.

Farmers. Farmers were to get artificially high prices, but labor was to be compensated by having his wages artificially jacked up. Farmers, of course, were to be protected from the rising cost of labor's products by further artificial boosts in their prices.

Now there are signs that the political forces founded on the rock of reality.

Last week the American Federation of Labor formally broke a political alliance with the Farm Bureau Federation and the National Grange. It finally discovered that the "beneficial legislation" it has been supporting for farmers—the farm price support program, special tax breaks for farmers, co-operatives and the like—could not give special privilege to the farm group without injuring those who buy the farm products, i.e., urban labor.

The break made front page news, but the only thing that surprised me is that it was so long coming and that it has not been so violent.

As soon as a government starts tampering with a free economy so as to give special advantages to one segment or another, a clash of political interest is inevitable. Not even an all-powerful government can give special advantages in equal measure to everybody.

High grade optical glass is 99 percent transparent.

National Whirligig

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — President Truman has summarily brushed aside minor political figures in the Democrats' national and state organizations to assume personal and aggressive command of the campaign for his reelection next year.

Characteristically, Mr. Truman has allied himself with the leaders of the big city and state machines, especially in New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois and California.

He figures, perhaps correctly, that if he can carry those electorally important commonwealths, together with the states he should corral in New England, the South and the agricultural and mountain areas, he can defeat even an Eisenhower.

The significant and central fact is that the man from Missouri, and nobody doubts his slugging ability after 1948, has come out swinging even before the bell for the 1952 battle has rung.

PATRONAGE — Although his backstage help was not publicized by the White House, it was Mr. Truman's patronage grants and promises to Carmine G. De Sapio, leader of Tammany Hall, which enabled the latter to repel Mayor Vincent Impellitteri's recent attempt to depose the Manhattan boss.

Mayor Impellitteri, who defeated the White House candidate in last year's mayoralty election, Ferdinand P. O'Connell, campaigned against Mr. De Sapio on the ground of his connections with gangster Costello.

The mayor represented his attack as a reform movement, even though he has kept in office two high officials who were admittedly friendly with Costello. For a while it looked as if city hall might root Tammany Hall.

Mr. Truman, however, made it quietly evident that Mr. De Sapio was his man. All applicants for jobs with new defense agencies, Bernard M. Baruch have exchanged bitter letters. Even though he wins the state mentioned above in 1952, he must also carry at least seven of the Dixie commonwealths for an electoral college majority.

Although Mr. Truman and Bernard M. Baruch have exchanged bitter letters, the President recently paid a voluntary call on the Democrats' elder statesman. It so happens that Mr. Baruch is extremely close to such southern rebels as Senators Byrd of Virginia, George and Russell of Georgia, and Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina. They are the ring-leaders of the anti-Truman revolt. Mr. Truman has also taken several steps to maintain top prices for cotton and tobacco.

Mr. Truman, as set forth in a recent column, has named National Chairman Boyle to appease such prominent Democrats as Speaker Rayburn of Texas, Senate Majority Leader McFarland of Arizona and House Majority Leader McCormack of Massachusetts. For similar reasons, he will find a plausible method of getting rid of Dean Acheson between now and next year's noose-cutting.

In view of these White house intrigues, anybody who thinks Mr. Truman will not run again ought to have his head examined!

Whitewashes in Majors Are Making 1951 Pitchers Year

(By The Associated Press)
In this a pitcher's year or does Ted Williams know something when he insists the ball is dead?

Look what happened yesterday. Early Wynn protected Cleveland's one-game lead over the New York Yankees in the American League by beating Philadelphia's Sam Zoldak in a 1-0 hurling duel. A home run by Bob Kennedy settled the issue.

Brooklyn increased its National League lead to six games as rookie Clem Labine outpitched Cincinnati's Howie Fox, 2-1, while Pittsburgh's Howie Pollet blanked Sheldon Jones and the runner-up New York Giants, 2-0, to end their 16-game winning streak.

Max Lanier of the St. Louis cards shut out Bubba Church and the Philadelphia Phillies, 2-0, and Omar Luvon of the Chicago Cubs whitewashed Clet Nichols and the Boston Braves, 1-0. The highest run total was made by the Yankees as they won over St. Louis Browns, 7-5 in 10 innings and they needed 13 walks by Tommy Byrne. The Detroit Tigers nipped the third place Boston Red Sox, 5-4. Chicago's White Sox took a 4-3 decision from Washington in 10 innings.

Not one of the 16 teams got as many as 10 hits. It was the same story on Monday when four shutouts including two three-hitters and a pair of two-hitters were pitched although six teams were idle.

Altogether 79 shutouts have been hurled thus far in the National to only 81 all last year. The American is only one short of last year's entire shutout output of 82.

A seventh inning home run by Kennedy gave Cleveland its 12th straight triumph over the Athletics. It was the second time the Indians have beaten Zoldak, a former teammate, in three runs. A crowd of 23,573 watched Wynn register his 15th victory. That brought Cleveland's home attendance to 1,501,187, tops in the majors. Wynn gave up five hits to four for Zoldak.

Byrne's 13th walk, a pair of fielder's choices, a long fly by Joe DiMaggio and a single by Charlie Silvers furnished the winning Yankee runs in the 10th. Bob Kuzava, fourth Yankee hurler, was credited with the victory. The Browns rallied, but the score at 5-5. A two-run single by Matt Batts climaxed the rally. A brilliant pitching exhibition by Pollet ended the Giants' 16-game winning streak, longest in the National League since 1933. It took two unearned Pittsburgh runs, however, to cool off the New Yorkers.

The Pirates made only three hits off Jones. Only one of them figured in the scoring. That was an eighth inning leadoff single by rookie Frank Thomas. Jones then walked Ralph Kiner and ran the count to 3-1 on Gus Bell when Dave Koslo replaced him.

Jack Phillips came in to bat for Bell and grounded into a double play on the first pitch. The Giants appeared out of the woods when pinch hitter Clyde McCoullough sent a routine groundout to second but Eddie Stanky bobbled the ball and Thomas scored. Then outfielder Don Mussler dropped a fly ball after an Alphonse-Gaston act with teammate Willie Mays and McCoullough scored all the way from first.

Pollet, however, deserved the victory. He struck out four, walked none and retired 17 men in succession. He gave up six hits, three of them to Bobby Thomson.

Not since the Cubs won 21 in a row in '35 has a National League team racked up as many straight as the Giants. Baseball's modern record is 22 in a row, set by the Giants in 1916.

Duke Snider batted in all Brooklyn's runs with a fourth inning single and an eighth-inning homer. His four-bagger came with one man on base and snapped a 1-1 deadlock. Labine, in his first major league start, gave up seven hits, struck out nine and did not issue a base on balls. Howard Fox, who has not beaten Brooklyn since 1948, dropped his ninth straight to the Athletics leaders. Under the Reds tallied in the sixth, they had gone 22 consecutive innings without a run.

George Kell bounced a two-run single off the shoulder of rookie third baseman Mel Hoderlein in the eighth to give the Tigers their win over the Red Sox. The defeat dropped the Sox to six games behind the Indians.

Ray Coleman's double scored Nelson Fox with the run that gave the White Sox their 10th winning victory over Washington. Harry Doriah went the route for Chicago, winning his third straight over the Senators this season and his eighth in nine lifetime decisions against them.

Loyd Hunter struck 11 times against the Braves and scored the only run of the game. The Cub righthander doubled in the fifth and crossed the plate on another two-bagger by Hal Jeffcoat off loser Nichols.

Lanier scattered nine safeties in blanking the Phillies, shutout victors in their last three games. It was the veteran lefthander's fourth straight win. Hal Rice and Solly Henus batted in the Redbirds' runs.

Oklahoma Favored In Big 7 But Nebraska Is Dark Horse

KANSAS CITY — (AP) — Nebraska will come up with one of the sharpest offenses in Big 7 Seven Conference football history, but the overall power and the title will remain at Oklahoma.

That's the consensus of coaches, newsmen and fans as the squads open fall practice tomorrow.

Ask just about any Big Seven observer and he'll list this finish: Oklahoma, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, Missouri, Iowa State and Kansas State.

Such a finish would find the Oklahoma Sooners in the same lofty spot they have held for five years running. They tied with Kansas for the crown in 1946 and 1947.

Oklahoma, the 1950 national champion, lost fullback Leonard Heath and about ten other men who could have starred on any team, but Coach Bud Wilkinson again will be equipped with one of the nation's better balanced teams.

It isn't likely a Big Seven team will beat the powerfully manned and well coached Oklahoma this season. The Sooners haven't lost a conference game since 1946 and had a string of 21 successive victories before being stopped by Kentucky in the last Sugar Bowl.

Tackle Jim Weatherall is an all America holdover and key of the Oklahoma line. Halfback Billy Vessels, junior and smashing junior, could wind up in the all America class.

If Oklahoma falters, then Nebraska is given best chance to take the title. The Nebraska attack is propelled by Bobby Reynolds, junior halfback from Grand Island, Neb., who made all America last fall.

Reynolds led the nation in scoring with 157 points, rushed for 1242 yards, caught 11 passes for three touchdowns, averaged 27 yards on 37 punts and assisted with the passing. He scored against every opponent; got three touchdowns against Oklahoma.

What appears the big game of the Big Seven will match Oklahoma and Nebraska at Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 24. The game is already a sellout as are all Nebraska home games.

Either Kansas, under Jules Sikes, or Coach Dallas Ward's Colorado Buffaloes could prove major surprises. A fine attack spearheaded by junior halfback Charlie Hoag, 190, from Oak Park, Ill.

Colorado people believe this will be a Colorado season. Senior fullback Merwin Hodel is a wheelhorse in the single wing attack.

Unless he shows up with an amazing drive of freshmen — they're eligible for the varsity this time — Don Faurot is in for his worst season since taking over Missouri in 1935.

Iowa State, under Abe Stuber, could improve over its fifth place, 1950 finish — at the expense of Missouri.

High Scores Take Toll Top Amateurs

NEW YORK — (AP) — Many familiar faces will be missing when the pick of the nation's amateur golfers gathers at beautiful Saucon Valley in Bethlehem, Pa., just 12 days hence to battle for the national championship.

Ray Billows of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., won't be there. The 27-year-old veteran who three times played in the finals of this blue ribbon event failed to qualify yesterday in the metropolitan trials at Westbury, N. Y.

Johnny Dawson of Hollywood, Calif., suffered a similar fate at Long Beach, Calif., where he lost in a playoff for one of the five places allotted that area. He can compete only if one of the successful men fails to show up.

The major casualty of the scattered sectional trials, which reduced an entry list of 1,425 to a round 200—including 11 exempt players — was Billows, who lost to Johnny Goodman in the finals at Portland, Ore., in 1937.

To Bud Ward at Glenview, Ill., in 1939 and to Willie Turnesa in Memphis in 1948.

The swaggering Poughkeepsie campaigner chopped out an erratic 72-82 — 154 to miss out by two strokes. Frank Strafaci of Garden City, led the metropolitan trials with 143 while a score of 152 was good enough to rate a playoff for five of the 21 places.

Dawson shot himself a 74-77 — 151 at Long Beach where Jim Ferriter of that city was low with 142.

An Air Force officer, Capt. Fred Moseley of San Antonio, and the captain of Notre Dame's golf team, Tommy Veach of Milwaukee, led national qualifying with red-hot scores of 134.

Moseley bracketed a pair of 67's over the Bra-Burn Country Club in Houston for a ten-under-par performance. Veach put together a 70-64 over the par 70 Blue Mound Country Club at Milwaukee, his last round setting a new course record.

Veach announced, however, he wouldn't play in the national because he had to return to school. His place will be taken by the alternate, Billy Stacy, Jr., also of Milwaukee.

Defending champion Sam Urzetta of Rochester, N. Y., was exempt from qualifying along with Walker Cup captain Willie Turnesa of Elmsford, N. Y., and four other past champions.

Army Gridders Start Today

WEST POINT, N.Y. — (AP) — Army football practice opens today, and Coach Earl (Red) Halket's biggest immediate problem is to get acquainted with the young men who will block and carry the ball for him this fall.

Gone — wiped out by the recent exam-cribbing scandal — is the powerful squad that won No. 2 national ranking last year and that was figured to finish equally high this season.

In its place is a young, inexperienced varsity squad of 35, composed almost entirely of members of the 1950 Plebe team. It's a sophomore team playing a man-sized major schedule.

Final day for qualifying is Saturday, which is the only day that contestants desiring to compete in the championship fight have quality. That night the Dutch lunch and Calcutta pool will be held and then at 6:30 Sunday morning the first round gets underway.

Finals will be fired Monday afternoon, starting at 1 p. m.

Run in Ninth Is Winner For Hose

AMARILLO — (AP) — Dub Akin's two-run double in the last of the ninth Tuesday night gave the Amarillo Blue Sox a 2-1 victory over the Clovis Pioneers. Akin's double preceded the victory by a run.

Doc Fletcher went the distance to get the win over Dwight Stoddard. Stoddard was relieved by Joe Borrego with none away in the final frame and Akin's was off the Pioneer lefthander.

Blue Sox Sweep Set From Hubs

ABILENE — (AP) — Two singles and a double steal produced a run in the eighth to give the Abilene Blue Sox a 2-1 victory and a sweep of the series with the Lubbock Hubbers here last night in a game befitting the occasion.

A thrifty crowd of 2,400 included the 100,000th paid admission to the Blue Sox stadium this season, plus 200 extra.

It was one of the better games of the season, full of fielding thrills and pitching ability. Fred Schmidt marked up his 21st win of the campaign in a close battle with Lubbock's Ray Faust. Each pitcher gave up eight hits in a slow, deliberate, dead serious duel.

Hard Work, Injuries Baffling High-Spirited Harvesters

If long, hard hours of work will help make the Harvesters a winning ball club, this should be a good year for the Great and Gold. They have been putting in two workouts a day, a light morning drill for backs and centers, and then a long afternoon workout with pads that doesn't end until the moon appears.

Sandwiched in between comes an hour and a half of skull practice just to keep the boys mentally alert.

But once again, and already, injuries have started to take their toll. First to be sidelined was huge junior tackle Buddy Cockrell, who had a recurrence of a knee injury suffered last spring. Cockrell was kept out of pads yesterday, and may be out for sometime until the injured leg is strong enough to support his 225 pounds.

Bad knees have been commonplace this year. Tacklers Jerry Walker and suffering from one, as are center Tolle Hutchens, quarterback DeWey Cudney and several of the others.

With the start of the season little more than two weeks hence, the boys can't afford to miss practice. The Mustangs mustangs furnish the first opposition on Sept. 14 at Harvester Park to be followed by the Austin of El Paso grid squad the following weekend.

The spirit of the club is running high, as it will have to in this newly formed "Little Southwest Conference." "If the boys continue this high mental attitude we'll give everybody a tussle, win or lose," said Coach Tom Tipps.

Season tickets for the 1951 season are on sale at the school Business Office in the city hall.

Deadlock Developing Over Choice Of Commissioner

NEW YORK — (AP) — There were indications today that a deadlock is developing among the 16 major league baseball club owners over election of a new commissioner. This could pave the way for choice of a dark-horse candidate.

The owners meet in Chicago Sept. 20 legally empowered to elect a successor to A. B. Chandler in the game's top job, paying $65,000 or $75,000 yearly.

At the meeting in New York Aug. 21 the field was winnowed down to five men:

General Douglas MacArthur. Milton Eisenhower, president of Pennsylvania State College. Ford Frick, president of the National League. Warren Giles, president of the Cincinnati Reds. Frank F. Lausche, governor of Ohio.

It is beginning to look as if none of these, even if available, could command the 12 votes needed for election.

In the darkhorse field are two well known figures who for one reason or another were not included in the "famous five" that represented the considered choice of the baseball powers. These are James A. Farley, chairman of the board of Coca Cola Export, and George Trautman, the czar of the minor leagues.

Now a new name has crossed up. It is Benjamin H. Ross, who

Kid Gavilan 13-5 Choice

NEW YORK — (AP) — Well-known champion Kid Gavilan, confident and at the peak of his form, was rated a hefty 13 to 5 favorite to whip Billy Graham of New York in their 15-round title bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Although he lost one split decision to Graham and won the same way in the return, the sleek, flashy Cuban has been made the big choice on the strength of his recent form.

The 25-year old Gavilan is riding a ten-fight win streak which began with his revenge victory over Graham on Nov. 17, 1950. The slick boxing New Yorker had edged the colorful Cuban nine months before.

But while Gavilan has been busy fighting himself into top condition, Graham has been sitting on the sidelines waiting for his opponent. Once a very active fighter — Billy has had only one tuneup this year. He beat a guy named Billy Jenkins at North Adams, Mass., on Aug. 9.

This will be Gavilan's first title defense since he won the crown by trouncing Johnny Branton in the Garden on May 18. A crowd of around 9,000 is expected to pay around $40,000 at a $12 top.

The gross gate undoubtedly will be smaller than the $80,000 fee for the radio and television rights; CBS will network both the broadcast and the telecast. The fight will start at 9 p. m. (EST).

Under their 32 1/2 to 27 1/2 split, Gavilan will receive about $2,000. Graham figures to collect $20,000.

Sinton Hurler In NBC No-Hit Effort

WICHITA, Kas. — (AP) — Mike Blyzka, a former minor league hurler, pitched a no-hit no-run game in the National Semipro Baseball Tournament last night. Blyzka, pitching for the Sinton, Tex., Oilers, blanked the Camp-Pickett, Va., 49rd-Division team 5-0. He allowed only two no-hit in the 17-year-old history of the tournament.

Blyzka, pitching for the Sinton, Tex., Oilers, blanked the Camp-Pickett, Va., 49rd-Division team 5-0. He allowed only two no-hit in the 17-year-old history of the tournament.

The victory moved Sinton into the fourth round undefeated.

The only previous nine-inning no-hit in the meet was pitched by Pat Hubert, also of the Sinton Oilers, in 1950.

In other games last night, the Providence, R.I., Athletic Club trampled Thomasville, Ala., Invaders, 9-0, and Merrill, Wis., beat Ipswich, Mass., 9-3.

Providence runs into the Fort Wayne, Ind., Capelharis, in the feature game of tonight's three-game card.

Irishmen Prepare For New League

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Scott McCall's Irish gridmen will operate in a new conference this season — District 1-A, with the Phillips Blackhawk, Dalhart Wolves, Perryton Rangers and Dumas Demons.

Last year the Irish won the old District 2-A conference, defeating Memphis 18-14, Lefors 19-0, Clarendon 32-0, and McLean 25-7. They were stopped only once in the regular season, by Wellington, 21-14, a conference foe.

Statistics from the games with three of the new foes—Phillips, Dalhart and Perryton—show the Irish outtripped all three on the ground 714 yards rushing to 229 but the three foes combined outpassed the Irish 239 yards to 217. The Irish made 45 first down against 21 for the three foes. They outgained each of the three on the ground, but beat only Perryton in the skyline.

Phillips and Dalhart are considered the teams to beat in the new conference. Phillips has back their ace back, Bobby Wells, but not their quarterback star, Reddick. Dalhart is said to have back Ritter and Cessman, two ace backs who suffered last season from injuries.

Phillips comes here Oct. 19.

Lobos Club Oilers, Dial 14-9 In Final

The Lamesa Lobos scored in every inning but two here last night to outlast the Oilers, 14-9, and gain an even break in the two game series.

Ed Arthur was the winning hurler, notching his 23rd win of the year. The loser was Red Dial, failing in his second bid for win No. 21.

Tonight the Albuquerque Dukes come to town to open a three-game series. Scheduled tonight is the last bargain bill of the 1951 season at Oiler Park. The first game will start at 7 p. m. The clubs will conclude their season's series with a single contest tomorrow night.

Only three more home playing days remain after tonight's twin bill.

Last night the Lobos jumped on Dial as if they owned him, slapping him knicker all over the park. They scored in each of the first five innings and had the game well in hand all of the way.

Meanwhile Arthur apparently had things under control until the fourth, when the Oilers got to him for four hits, and an error by Selbo, which accounted for four runs.

In the fifth he was tagged for a two-run home run by Virg Richardson after two were away, but it didn't bother the blond righthander.

In the seventh, with the Lobos ahead by a score of 12-6, the Oilers started to get to Arthur again and for the first time Manager Jay Haney showed signs of worry as two pitchers went to work in the bullpen. But Arthur again had things in check and closed the gates after two had scored.

Leading the Lamesa attack were righthander Don Stokes with four hits and four rbi's and his other gardening teammate Glen Burns, who added three hits to his league leading batting average and another pair of rbi's to his top total in that department.

Bill Coffey relieved Dial in the fifth and pitched effective ball the rest of the way, allowing but one earned run.

Entries Swell For Top O' Texas Meet

With the entry list swelled to nearly 150 contestants, the 16th annual Top O' Texas golf tournament prepared to get started Friday afternoon with a huge pro-amateur that will include about 100 professionals, amateurs and lady golfers.

"We've got everything ready to go and just sitting and waiting," said host pro Johnny Austin this morning. "It's supposed to rain tonight, which will make our greens soft. And you can bet that the wind will be up this weekend, but we still should have our best tournament of all time."

Among the contestants who have entered recently are Jack Parr, past president of the Greenbelt, who's home is in Electra, but being an itinerant salesman, his route just happened to bring him to Pampa this week; little Jimmie Johnson of Quanah; Clyde Walker of Ballinger; a group of about 12 from Shamrock and a similar number from Childress, plus all of Perryton.

Final day for qualifying is Saturday, which is the only day that contestants desiring to compete in the championship fight have quality. That night the Dutch lunch and Calcutta pool will be held and then at 6:30 Sunday morning the first round gets underway.

Finals will be fired Monday afternoon, starting at 1 p. m.

Texas U. Rookie Wins For Borger

BORGER — (AP) — Milton Deason made his first professional baseball appearance a good one last night, taking the Albuquerque Dukes into camp 12-7. The blonde Texas University varsity baseballer signed with the Gassers this morning and will travel with the team the rest of the season.

He weathered a shaky four-run first inning and then settled down to scatter out the rest of the Duke hits so effectively that they were never able to bunch more than two an inning.

New Rayon Fabrics Achieve The Look Of Wool

Fashions for career girls, from St. Louis designers, are rayon with the look of wool. Dress (left) with skirt and blouse in two fabrics for two-piece look is rayon worsted. A pumpkin-colored rayon gabardine dress (center) doubles as a coat when it's worn without belt. Suit (right) appears to be wool cover but is actually a rayon weave. All three are priced for youthful budgets.

By GAILE DUGAS
NEA Woman's Editor

NEW YORK (NEA) — The career girl, most especially the one with her very first job, has lots of places for her money this fall. She wants, certainly, to look good on the job, to be in fashion. She also wants to spend wisely, to get full returns on her money.

This, then, is the time to turn to rayon. For, now, rayon has the look of wool. It's the answer to money problems for the girl on a budget. Rayon is tailored as neatly as wool, can go wherever wool goes.

Rayon worsted, cut by Hal-Mar into a dress with a two-piece effect, is checked black-and-white. Sleeves and bodice are white, cuffs and collar are bound in the check. There's a neat side-buttoned vest that adds to the coordinated look.

A simple, classic rayon gabardine dress in pumpkin color is given deeply cut sleeves in a three-quarter length by designer Carole King. A flowing tie goes under a wide collar. There's a belt for this coat dress; without it, the dress becomes a light-weight coat in fact.

A rayon that appears to be gray wool cover is used by designer Mary Muffett for a three-piece suit. Waist is nipped in, hips are rounded. A small, detachable cape is reversible because it's lined in red jersey.

Picnic, Meeting In City Park For Insurance Women

The Insurance Women of Pampa-Borger held their August meeting in the Pampa City Park with a picnic supper and a short business meeting. The group discussed a study course and decided to start a course on some phase of the insurance field in September.

Soup Makes Quick Vegetable Sauce

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

To make good sauces without hours of preparation, try using condensed soup as a base.

The special flavor in a soup like cream of mushroom or celery makes it perfect as a "pour-on" for a bland vegetable like potatoes or carrots. And the condensed soups are just about the right thickness for sauce purposes. In general, when using the soups as "pour-on" sauces, add a little liquid to give best results. Use 1-3 cup of milk with a can of cream of chicken or cream of mushroom. With cream of celery soup, use 1-2 cup of milk. Tomato soup needs no added liquid.

STUFFED TOMATOES
(Makes 6 servings)

One teaspoon finely chopped onion, 2 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 2 1-2 cups soft bread cubes, 1-2 teaspoon salt, dash of pepper, 6 firm, ripe tomatoes, 1 can (1 1-4 cups) condensed cream of chicken soup, 1-3 cup milk.

Cook onion until soft in butter or margarine; combine with bread cubes, salt and pepper. Wash tomatoes; remove stems and scoop out pulp. Cut tomato shells with stuffing; place in a greased baking pan (muffin pan is good for this). Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees F.) for about 30 minutes. Combine cream of chicken soup and milk; heat, simmer about 2 minutes. Pour over tomatoes when serving.

FLUFFY TOMATO RABBIT
(Makes 4 servings)

One can (1 1-4 cups) condensed tomato soup; 2 cups shredded American cheese, 2 eggs, beaten separately, 1-2 teaspoon dry mustard, 1-2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, toast or crackers.

Heat soup slowly; add cheese and heat until melted, stirring constantly. Add mustard and Worcestershire sauce to beaten egg yolks; stir into the hot mixture. Gently fold in the beaten egg whites and heat thoroughly. Serve on hot toast.

LOST 70 POUNDS WITH THIS HOME RECIPE

Barcetrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe for taking off extra fat. It's simple. Just go to your grocery and ask for 4 ounces of liquid Barcetrate. Pour the contents into a pint bottle. Add 12 ounces of canned grapefruit juice. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it. If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves—if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles; just return the empty bottle for your money back. No starvation diet with Barcetrate.

Lost 70 Pounds
"I have lost a total of 70 pounds taking Barcetrate and am feeling fine," writes Mrs. J. A. McDev, Box 58, Devine, Texas.

Lost 10 Pounds
"I am very much satisfied with Barcetrate. I lost 10 pounds in 2 weeks," says Mrs. Albert Stevens, 148 E. Van Buren, Brownsville, Texas.

MI, TWINS! IT'S THE GANGS! JILL, TELL THEM WE JUST GOT HOME! LET 'EM IN! I'LL PUT 'EM ALL TO WORK! DID YOU GET MY LETTER ABOUT THE HIGH TIMES? WHICH ONE'S AN' HONEY? JILL, IS THIS YOU? I'LL LET 'EM GET ALL TALKED OUT FIRST! COME OVER TO SYLVIA'S PICNIC TWINS! BEFORE YOU GO, LET'S ALL FITCH IN AND HAVE AN... OOPS! ON TOP OF OLD SMO-O-O KEY... UNLOADING PARTY!

Blondie

THE PUPS ARE SUPPOSED TO EAT THIS VITAMIN-PACKED CEREAL ONCE A WEEK BUT THEY REFUSED! I'LL PROVE TO YOU MAN IS SMARTER THAN BEAST! I PUT THEIR MEAT UNDER THE CEREAL! GOOD-NOW THEY'LL HAVE TO EAT THE CEREAL TO GET AT THE MEAT!

Alley Oop

TH' BATHS, SIR? FOOD? NO, NOTHING YET, I MUST WAIT ANOTHER OFFICER WHO I FEAR IS LATE. I WISH, OH, GOSH, I WISH I WAS HOME, STEADDA PLAYIN' GENTLEMAN HERE IN ROMY! WITH OOP OUT SCROUNGIN' FOR CLOTHES OF RANK SO'S HE CAN JOIN ME IN THIS HOVEL OF SWANK!

Bo

THAT'S THE END OF MR. FOX... AND HIS RAIDS ON MY CHICKENS, THANKS TO BO, HE CORNERED HIM IN THE YARD FOR ME. IT'S A LUCKY THING YOU AND BO CAME UP FOR A VISIT. AND TO THINK I WAS BEGINNING TO SUSPECT MY NEIGHBORS AS THE GUILTY ONES... HEY, WE FORGOT ABOUT TRIX... WHERE IS HE? YOU TWO BIG-GAME HUNTERS HAD BETTER GET TO BED, YOU CAN FINISH TALKING IT OVER IN THE MORNING.

CARNIVAL by DICK TURNER

"But, Albert, you know so little of the world! You still think that two can live as cheaply as two!"

Mutt & Jeff

MUTT, I GAVE GUS THIS MONEY TO HOLD FOR ME AND I COUNTED SIXTY DOLLARS INTO HIS HAND! AND THEN, TO MAKE SURE, HE COUNTED IT AGAIN AND HE ONLY COUNTED FIFTY-FIVE DOLLARS! SO THEN WE HAD THE OFFICER COUNT IT! HE ONLY COUNTED FIFTY DOLLARS AND WHEN THE JUDGE COUNTED IT, IT WAS ONLY FORTY-FIVE!

Bugs Bunny

I'M WORRIED ABOUT CIGERO'S VIOLIN PLAYING! YA SHOULD BE? SKREE SQUAWK! HE DOESN'T SEEM T-TO IMPROVE M-MUCH! YA TELLIN' ME HE USED T- PLAY WORSE THAN THAT? HAVE YOU G-GOT ANY SUGGESTIONS? YEAH, I'VE GOT ONE THAT'LL HELP LULENTY! LOCK TH' POOR, AN' LEAVE HIM IN THERE FIVE MINUTES WITH THIS!

Priscilla's Pon

WHAT'S THIS OUT-OF-STATE CALL ON THE PHONE BILL? WELL, ER... I CALLED AUNT PEGGY TO TELL HER SHE LEST HER GLASSES WHEN SHE VISITED THE OTHER DAY! NOW THAT'S WHERE YOU COULD HAVE SAVED MONEY, HAZEL! WHY DIDN'T YOU SEND A CARD? SHE COULDN'T READ IT WITHOUT HER GLASSES!

OUT OUR WAY by J. E. WILLIAMS

THE JOVIALITY AND SINGING GOING ON IN THIS LITTLE GROUP SEEMS AWAY OUT OF PROPORTION TO GENERAL CONDITIONS--HAPPY ME YOURS, TOO!

Remaining Aloof:

Nehru Living In Land Of Enchantment

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON (AP) — India's Prime Minister Nehru is a man living in enchantment. He seems to think India can survive without choosing sides in the conflict between communism and the rest of the world.

In the end, maybe it can. But remaining a spectator will be a great stunt if it works. Nehru may think it's shrewd to try India, with its 360,000,000 people, has watched many struggles and seen many empires stumble down into dust.

It is still here, although it was tied to the British wagon for centuries and has been free and independent for only a year and a half.

This ancient background, and the fact that India still survives, may help Nehru decide what he considers the long view, the belief that by remaining aloof India can ride out this latest storm.

But there never has been a struggle like this one, none so basic, none so truly world-wide and desperate.

For, although this struggle is economic, as others have been, this one also is ideological: A struggle between political freedom and totalitarianism.

It is true that India has enormous problems. No country has more. Newly united from Britain, it is a country almost trying to start from scratch. At this very start of its new life it must find a way to defeat famine and build an industry.

And its military force is only strong enough to last perhaps two weeks in a modern war. And Nehru must be careful about irritating communism, since his two biggest neighbors are Russia and China.

But the simple and practical question Nehru must face, however much he tried to duck his head, the question any head of a government has to answer for himself, is this:

"Do I have any doubt that communism would take over India if it could? Do I have any doubt that if it wins in the struggle with the West it will take over India, which would then be a pushover?"

Nehru can't have any illusions that the answer is no. He has seen what's happened in eastern Europe. He's seen the open aggression in Korea.

Even without the example of eastern Europe and Korea, he knows, because he's an intelligent man, that the world-wide hookup of Communist parties, even in India, is aimed at seizure of power when they can.

True, Nehru hasn't shown any liking for communism in India. He has taken repressive measures against India's own Communists.

Since then his answer to the question about communism's desire to take over India must be yes, it would seem the part of forthright wisdom to join with the forces which are trying to make it impossible for communism to take over anywhere else.

It will be much easier for him, of course, as he can sit by and let the West make the struggle. If it wins India will reap the benefit obtained by others at no cost to itself.

Duelling Is Being Revived Secretly By German Youths

BONN, Germany (AP) — Duelling has been secretly revived at many German universities. Members of student fraternities meet clandestinely in the back rooms of country inns to tack at one another's bare chests and faces with heavy cavalry sabres.

The revival of duelling, with its attendant feudal trappings of outraged honor, seconds and elaborate ceremonial, has taken place despite the disapproval of educational leaders and threats of persecution.

The sabre-scarred cheek is again highly prized in some student circles as evidence of manly honor and national pride.

Personal duels can be provoked by the most trivial incidents. Most are over women. Others are deliberately staged between the champions of rival fraternities.

Most duels stop when first blood is drawn. Others go on until doctors rule that continuation would endanger life.

What makes duelling so attractive?

The duelling association's newspaper says: "Duelling is the expression of the pleasure you get out of a weapon. It results from the conception of fighting like a knight with your blood for your colors. (Student clubs have distinctive colors and uniforms). Duels are the most complete, happiest and most concentrated moments of student poetry."

There have been charges that the duel-loving students also have Nazi and anti-Semitic ideas.

Cabot Officers Visiting Here

Horace S. Ford, director and member of the executive committee of Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc., Boston, is in Pampa surveying Cabot plants in this area and learning about personnel relations in each plant.

In 1950, Ford retired from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Cambridge, where he was business officer and treasurer. He had been there 36 years. At present, he has an interest in 20 organizations as adviser and backer, and is president of a company operating 30 firms in Puerto Rico.

Ford lives in Amherst, Mass. He is accompanied by Ralph Bradstreet, first vice president and treasurer of Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc.

Directing Movies Is Kid Stuff For Roly-Poly Taurog

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Directing movies is kid stuff to Norman Taurog.

This roly-poly, shiny-domed man has directed many an adult film, but is most noted for his handling of child actors. This week he was at it again, directing the children of Gary Grant and Betsy Drake in "Room For One More."

"I've directed just about every kid star except Shirley Temple," he said during a pause in his labors.

"They include Jackie Coogan, Jackie Cooper, Robert Coogan, Mickey Rooney, Deanna Durbin, Judy Garland, Virginia Weidler, Margaret O'Brien, to name a few."

Many have suffered numerous marriages and divorces and other unhappiness in later years.

"It's bound to happen," he replied. "How can they look forward to happiness in later years when they get their first Cadillac at 14? They have everything in the world they want when they're young, and I mean everything."

The man passed a check at a Shamrock service station, officials said.

The cowpea enjoys greater popularity as a vegetable in the southern United States than Minnesota.

JACOBY ON CANASTA Watch For Partner's Signals

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service
We're going to put you into an expert game for a minute or so. Don't get nervous. You're going to be asked to make only one play. If you make the wrong play, you can always say that it takes you ten or fifteen minutes to hit your proper stride.

Both sides need 120 points for the first meld. Your partner goes down very early with two jokers and two queens. At his next turn he melds three jacks. This leaves him with four cards in his hand. The opponents have not yet melded.

It is now your turn, and you draw from the stock pile. After the draw you hold A-A K-K 10-9 8-8 5-3-2.

What do you do? Before we can answer this question, and while you are thinking about it, let's see if we can figure out what your partner is doing. He's an expert, so he must have a good reason for the way he has played.

His initial meld tells you very little. However, you can deduce that he did not then have several pairs of 5-point cards. Had he held that type of hand, he would not have melded; he'd have played for the pile. But aside from the fact that you know he did not start with a good play for the pack, you did not know much else about his hand.

His second meld tells you a great deal more. He cannot gain by making that second meld unless he is in position for a fast out. But why didn't he put down two more queens, or why didn't he put down four jacks instead of only three? He knows that four natural cards are needed for canasta.

The logical answer is that he didn't put down a base of four natural cards because he couldn't. He is begging you to add queens and jacks if you can, or to put down a base of your own.

Unfortunately, you cannot oblige him. You have no queens, no jacks, no base of your own. What should you do? Put down the three eights and make a safe discard. This will tell the story — that you cannot make a base but that you understand his message and that you are doing the best you can. Perhaps he has an odd eight lying around; if not, perhaps one of you will draw an eight fairly soon. Then, presumably, he will be in position to go out.

Tryout Scheduled For Lefors Band

LEFORS (Special) — Tryouts for Lefors Pirate Senior Band, under direction of Desmond Brewer, will be held at the school at 9 a. m., Thursday. One boy and one girl from first and second grades also will be chosen as mascots.

Any boy or girl interested in being drum major should be present at 8:15 a. m. All high school girls wishing to be majorettes should report at 1:30 p. m.

Brewer said he believed the band's first engagement will be for the initial Lefors Pirate football game Sept. 7.

Roberts Veteran Gains Temporary Release From Army

MIAMI (Special) — Cpl. John Irvin Cunningham has returned home on a temporary release from nine months service in the Army Medical corps in Korea.

Before he was recalled into service September 1950, he was employed by Cabot Carbon Co. as sandblaster and painter, during the last three years. He was the second Roberts county man to enter the armed forces after the outbreak of World War II, and was one of the last to be returned home, getting his discharge in January 1946, after more than four years of service.

His wife and daughter made their home in Miami during his absence.

May Hold Ceilings Until December

WASHINGTON (AP) — Price control officials say manufacturers might be given as long as December to put new ceiling prices in effect under a revised pricing formula now being worked out.

The revised regulation, designed to meet requirements of the new controls law, was discussed by Office of Price Stabilization officials with 17 representative industrialists. OPS invited the manufacturers to give their views on the tentative draft and offer counter proposals.

OPS officials have predicted the proposed new formula will lower the ceiling prices of some manufactured goods and raise prices of others.

An Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) official said the new way of figuring ceilings may reduce costs of items made from raw materials that have dropped in price recently — such as cotton, wool, rubber and tin.
