Oil To Win Two Wars

to win two world wars and will meet the future needs of the nation if not shackled by bureaucratic bungling and federal con-trols, Attorney General Price Daniel said today. He opened the Hockley County Oil Progress week.

Daniel said that Texas leads the nation in oil production because under conservation laws the production is properly regulated but never separated from the freedoms which are essential to its success.

Daniel said federal planners who seek more centralized control of the oil industry are the greatest threat against continued progress and development. He

The House has passed a bill which would give Texas and other states title to the oil-rich submerged areas for a limited distance - generally three miles off shore. This bill, along with others dealing with the subject, still is tied up in the Senate Interior committee.

Among the others is one by Senator O'Mahoney (D - Wyo) which would validate existing leases by states to oil companies, would place administration of future leases in hands of the Interior department. ### Japan Groaning Under Population Now At Its Peak

ple.

It is the highest level of Japanese population since vital statistics were first started in Japan 51 years ago.

There was a big population spurt after the end of the war in 1945. It dropped off this year for the first time. So did the death rate.

At the end of World War II Japan's population was 72,000,000 During the five year period that followed, the population rose by 11,200,000. Another 900,000 were added this year.

Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's headquarters estimates Japan will reach a population of 100,000,000 by 1970 at the latest and by 1961 at the earliest.

The postwar population was due to two things: the return of a heavy portion of the male population from the war and the repatriation of 6,250,000 nationals from abroad. Japan is faced with two major problems caused by the growth of the population!

1. How is Japan going to curb a population which is bound to increase in the future? 2. How is Japan to keep unemployment down? Read The Pampa News Wantads.

Could it be that time of the contract, which was to be 60 years. Therefore, the present issue is whether a government's sclemn word is good.

As Charles L. Harding, of the Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., said in a comprehensive discussion of the Iranian situation and its historical background, "We must all agree that if sovereign governments are going to abrogate contracts unilaterally whenever suits their purpose, there will be no basis for international commercial relationships. . . These - along with thousands of other equally commonplace articles - may have started in an oil well. They were converted into their present form by the science called petro-chemistry, which takes petroleum hydrocarbons and utterly transforms them.

This particular branch of chemistry is very new, and it is is jumping on them. Why not let enormously complex. It deals in the abstruse world of atoms and molecules. And so far, great as the progress has been, only the surface has been touched. As an article in a magazine published by one leading oil company put it, the "phenomenal progress of petrochemistry has been achieved in a few recent years by what might be called the traditional methods of chemistry, involving the rearrangement of atoms to make strange new molecules. Ahead lies the wide-open, fabulous field of wuclear chemistry, which plays with the atoms themselves. Already the stargazers among chemists are look-

CRUSADE FOR FREEDOM

When it began the Crusade for Freedom was a haven for notorious Reds and internationalists but many are now omitted from the roster of open leaders. The letter written by Frank Brophy which this column printed yesterday is self-explanatory. Columnist John J. Vogel, to whom Mr. Brophy addressed his letter, comments, "We have a copy of a letter sent out from national headquarters of the Crusade . . . dated June 12, 1951 and signed by Gen. Lucius D. Clay. We quote two excerpts from this

"Our experience with the Crusade for Freedom last fall was like putting down a tentative probe and bringing in a gusher. In seven weeks time over 16 million Americans enrolled an contributed 1's million dollars. This unprecedented response clearly reflects the public's keen desire to get into the fight against Communism—!" "This 'unprecedented response' also shows the willingness of some group, The Committee for a Free Europe,' to exploit that desire of the American people to its own ends. It was reported that the $1 1/2 million was raised at a cost of $11,000,000. General Clay's office will neither affirm nor deny this Get that. Someone in the background reportedly spent $11,000,000 to ballyhoo the Crusade and it has taken in only one and one-This attitude evades the most, third million. This certainly gives

"Conscience

On The Battlefield" VI

I would like to continue to quote from "Conscience on the Battlefield" written by Leonard E. Read, president of the Foundation for Economic Education. In this booklet Mr. Read presents an imaginary conversation between a soldier, who is dying on a Korean battlefield, and his Conscience. In the last installment his Conscience was explaining the dangers of collective action. The article continues with the Conscience still speaking. I quote:

"In one of the little-publicized chapter of War II, for example, one million Russian officers and men voluntarily joined the invading Germans, considering them as their liberators. The German dictator, hearing of this, ordered that these officers and men be imprisoned or killed. This action, dictated by Hitler, caused a likemindedness among the Russian people. Their subsequent action at Stalingrad against the Germans became very much of a voluntary action. History records how likemindedness created a strength where only weakness had existed.

"This Korean affair is in no way dissimilar. Hardly an American favored this war if tested by his willingness voluntarily to sacrifice family, forturne, or life. This war could not have happened short of involuntary service. And as was to be expected under those circumstances, the result has been less security for America. Our excursion into Korea is creating a likemindedness, the will to voluntary service against us on the part of the Asiatic people. These steps which are weakening an America that was strong are strengthening an Asia that was weak.

"But, then, is it not also true that involuntary servitude and a show of military force by the Russian people tends to cause a like-mindedness, a will to volun-tary service, on the part of Ameri-

"This would be the tendency, if left alone. But the involuntary service that has been initiated in America destroys this tendency to ward voluntary unity in this field, just as, in the field of welfare, involuntary police grants-in-aid destroy the will to voluntary charity. Directed action is automated self-inspired action. Weakness takes the place of strength.

"Involuntary service on the part of the Russians, if extended to the point of interfering with American life and property, would inspire an American voluntary service.

"But. Conscience, wouldn't this voluntary action on the part of the American people come too late to save us from invasion? "This prevalent idea overlooks

he weakness from within that comes to the aggressor by reason of his continued involuntary service. It glosses over the fact that as the enemy extends himself and ais supply lines he is faced with ver-dwindling resources at home. His extended position requires the opposite: progressively greater resources at home, Overlooked, also, is the strength that would remain with Americans by reason of the conservation of their resources and by reason of an undeniable determination bred by the like-mindedness of a people defending their homeland. ment of this rupture. Pain in the sciatic nerve also may come from conditions elsewhere in the body. Such diseases as diabetes certain kinds of vitamin deficiences and rheumatic conditions produce sciatic pain. Infection in an abscessed tooth or diseased tonsils also cause sciatica, In such cases removal or drainage often brings relief alhough many disappointments can be expected, When the sciatic nerve is subjected to pressure from something in or near the spine itself, sciation pain may result. Any disorder of the lower back, for example, can cause sciatica. VARIOUS REMEDIES

Too often no cause can be found. Sometimes the injection of a local anesthetic or salt solution relieves pain. Manipulation, together with other measures of physical therapy, such as heat or diathermy may be helpful. X-ray treatments and special exercises have been used successfully in some of the more difficult cases.

Whatever the cause sciatica is likely to be extremely painful. Un-til more is learned about what brings on the more obscure types, it will be difficult to treat success fully all cases of this distressing and painful condition. The only thing Mrs. G. can be told is to keep

But now, maybe, I can find a pin to stick into the proceedings. I am indebted to Harper's Magazine, to the Harvard Crimson and to the Yale Daily News, in weird combination, for something suggested 23 long, fruitless years ago.

Back in 1928, Harper's carried a story by John R. Tunis. It was called "The Great God Football," and I would guess that Mr. Tunis took a dim, icy view of the gridquoted from the Crimson and the Daily News to rivet up his point: "Last year the Harvard Crimson, the student newspaper at Cam-

NOBLITT-COFFEY'S FOOTBALL FORECASTS

By Pitts Smith

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA at CALIFORNIA - This Conference scrap between two undercated teams will just abide the West Coast championship. Both squads should be up after narrow escapes last week against relatively weaker clubs. Cal's one-two punch of Mais and Olszewski should be the deciding factor.

AUBURN at GEORGIA TECH. - There'll be one less Cinder ella team after these longtime rivals finish butting heads. The Techmen shave shown no signs of easing up after an amazing string of victories. Auburn is for a let-down against the blazing speed and deception of the Yellow jackets.

Gulf Plans New Plant In Ohio

CINCINNATI - (AP) - President Sidney A. Swensrud of Gulf Oil Corp. has disclosed plans for a new plant in Cincinnati and declared his industry has "successfully kept pace with a 22 percent increase in demand in the United States during the past two years."

Swensrud said the nation now is using about 1,300,000 more barrels a day of petroleum products than it used two years ago." Of the planned Cincinnati expansion, Swensrud declared:

"Plans have been made for a new blending, drumming and canning plant, to be erected in Cincinnati by Gulf for the packaging of lubricating and other oils distributed in five mid-wes-ern states. "Up to now our ern states. supplies of lubricating oil and similar products coming into this area, which includes Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Kentucky, have been packaged either at our Port Arthur, Tex., or our Philadelphia "refinery."

He said the plant will include tankage and warehousing facilities for handling the blending, canning, packaging and stor ing of a great variety of stocks.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE Hard Luck Isn't Only Way To Lose

Written for NEA Service I ran into Hard Luck Joe the other day, but fortunately I saw him before he saw me. It was at the Cavendish Club in New York, and Joe was busy mangling the hand shown today.

West opened the three of spades, and East won with the king. East continued with the ace of spades, and dummy ruffed.

Joe then drew trumps, discovering that there was no trump entry to dummy since the trumps were 3-1.

Joe next laid down the ace and king of clubs to unblock the suit and tried to get into dummy with the queen of hearts. This attempt failed, so Joe lost three heart tricks and was therefore set two tricks

NORTH 18 ¥ Q 72 4 QJ1062 WEST EAST (D) AK 1087 ♦ J 10 9 A8743 SOUTH ♥A643 ♠ AKQ85 AAK N.-S. vul. South West North 1 A Pass Double Pass 4 . Pass Pass Pass Opening lead-4 3

Would you play it the same way and then complain about your hard luck? It's an unlucky, hand, all right, since you make the contract with a 2-2 trump break or if the king of hearts is held by West. But there's a way to make the hand despite the hard luck. Can you see it? The correct play is to refuse to ruff the second spade. Just discard a low heart from dummy and let the enemy do their If East shifts to spades, diamonds, or clubs, you can win and draw trumps. That leaves the six of trumps in the dummy as an entry to the long clubs You just take the ace and king of clubs and lead the five of diamonds to dummy's six. Then dummy has three good clubs to take care of your three small

If East leads a third spade at the third trick, you must ruff with the eight of diamonds. And, of course, you discard another heart from dummy. Now you can draw trumps, clear the clubs, and lead the five of diamonds to dummy's six

Texan Safely Brings Ship Back From Korea

SACRAMENTO, Calif. - (A) Capt. John D. McClung, 28, Amarillo, Tex., brought his B-29 crew back safely to the United States after seven months bombing Red targets in Korea. It was the longest stretch so far among B-29 crews in the Korean fighting.

Officials said the ship, the "Sarasota Queen" had made more than 80 Korean missions and had dropped more than 1,600,000 pounds of bombs
