> This issue has been raised by Protestant church groups, among them the Baptist denomination to which Mr. Truman belongs. With the obvious inference he plans to resubmit the Clark nomination when Congress returns in January, Mr. Truman said there would be time in the interim for the people to get the criticism of his action off their chests.

The President dashed the hopes of some Democratic Senators who have been urging that he sidestep out of the controversy by naming Clark as his personal representative. Myron G. Taylor previously served in that Asked why he nominated Clark as an ambassador, Mr. Truman said because that was the way he wanted it. That's my choice, he said, indicating he is willing to face the church-state issue squarely.

He took the step, the President added, because he believed the cause of peace would be served by having an official repdid not mention, as he had last Saturday in announcing the appointment, the Catholic church's pposition to Communism. Congress passed laws to exempt Bradley and Marshall from provisions of a law against a military officer's holding a civilian post.

Seven Bowls Get NCAA Approval CHICAGO (P) - Seven of the nation's post-season football games have been given official approval by the extra events committee of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

A commitee spokesman said requests for other post-season games are being studied and complete list of certified contests probably will be announced within 10 days.

Bowl games already certified by the committee for one year are: Obtton, Dallas, Tex; Rose, Pasadena, Calif.; Gator, Jacksonville Fla.; Sugar New Orleans; Sun El Paso, Tex.; Refrigerator, Evansville, Ind., and Orange, Miami.

THE STRONG, TOO, HAVE RIGHTS

(The Wall Street Journal) Pernaps in the bad old days of nperialism, the strong sometimes oceeded without due regard to the rights and sensibilities of the weaker.

Our emotional "intellectuals" have painted a picture which is entirely black. One need not accept that version. But to reject is not to say that the picture did not have some snades of gray. It is important, we think, that the American people begin to recognize, and that they ask that their government recognize, the true shadings of the history of western expansion in the Nineteenth Century. For if this country proceeds on the distorted version that all which has taken place was bad, it will do what it has been doing, which is to decide that the whole policy must be reversed. The results of that thinking are very much in the news at this moment.

It is not justice when the strong are allowed to use their strength o gain advantages over the weak. But it does not follow-most distinctly it does not-that simpering weakling must have the privilege of imposing his

PAMPA MISSIONARY BAPTIST

THE "Circuit Riders" of yesterday were Prophets of The Long Trail. Those noblemen read their Bibles by candlelight and preached wherever men would assemble. Their little churches were very ordinary but a serious minded people attended them. After a week of hard labor from which they earned their living these men of God would drive many miles to break The Word of Life to a hungry people.

THESE men were God's men, first and last. They were committed to do His will...to bring His message to the careless,

MRS. EUGENE MARAK begins serving her special "no-name" pudding, a recipe which she remembers from her childhood. It's a raisin delight which particularly appeals to her husband and all eight of their children who range in age from 15 to one year. She serves the pudding with a typical southern dinner of fried chicken, cream potatoes and gravy. (News Photo)
