PAMPA BOY DIES IN CAR ACCIDENT

Jackie Dean Bonner Killed; Three Others Are Injured

Holiday traffic claimed at least one victim from Pampa Saturday when Jackie Dean Bonner, 19, died of injuries received in an auto accident between White Deer and Panhandle.

Bonner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bonner, 909 Barnard, died at 2:30 p.m. Saturday from head injuries received when the 1948-model car in which he was riding overturned and threw him 30 feet.

Young Bonner died only three hours after the nation's millionth auto fatality was reported from Cleveland. The millionth, a Cleveland woman, was reported at 11:27 a.m. Young Bonner died three hours and three minutes afterward.

It was not known how many died between the Cleveland report and Pampa's fatality. The Associated Press said all tabulation ceased following the call from Cleveland.

The accident, in which three other Pampans were injured, occurred about 3 a.m.

Other than Bonner, most seriously injured was Zula Margaret Brown, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Brown. Miss Brown suffered a fractured skull, scalp lacerations and concussion. Mary Helen Nichols, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Nichols, had a fractured left leg while Frank Bonner, Jr., brother of Jackie, suffered a fractured collarbone and rib.

Other passengers in the car were Mrs. Frank Bonner, Jr. and Donald Scott. They received no serious injuries. All were suffering from shock and exposure, according to attending physicians.

Three of the passengers, Frank, Jr., Jackie and Donald Scott, have been attending Texas A&M college at College Station. Miss Brown is attending Loretto Heights college in suburban Denver, Colo.

The group was on its way home from an Aggie Party in Amarillo.

The car, headed toward Pampa from Amarillo, overturned and went into a bar pit about half way around the first long curve in the road between White Deer and Panhandle.

Mrs. Frank Bonner said her husband was driving the car and apparently went to sleep at the wheel. He awoke, found he was going off the road and then attempted to jerk the car back on the road. It overturned and threw out two of the passengers, Jackie and Miss Brown.

Duenkel — Carmichael ambulance drivers said they picked up Jackie 30 feet east of the car and Miss Brown about 10 to 12 feet south. They said that had there not been ice on the water-filled ditch, Jackie would have drowned.

Ambulance drivers called back in to Pampa to have another ambulance sent out to bring in the other injured and ordered rubber boots be sent out since the car was resting in about 4 feet of water.

Funeral services for young Bonner will be held at 2:30 p.m. Monday in the First Methodist church with Dr. Orion W. Carter officiating.

Burial will be in Fairview cemetery under the direction of Duenkel - Carmichael Funeral home.

The youth, who would have been 20 Jan. 30, was born in Dalhart and was graduated from Pampa High school in May, 1950. He was a freshman at Texas A&M.

Other than his father and mother, young Bonner is survived by the brother, Frank, Jr., grandfathers, Mr. and Mrs. A. Q. Bonner of Dalhart and a grandmother, Mrs. R. B. James, 308 N. Magnolia.

Pallbearers are Melvin Crowder, Thomas Grantham, James Belsler, Bobby Rogers, James A. Claunch and Billy Carl Anderson.

AT CHRISTMAS TIME — Perhaps, in one way, children are the happiest group of people at Christmas time. Even through their youth they seem to sense a deeper meaning to the season than that offered from the commercialized aspect. Their interest in the story of the Messiah and what it stands for adds to a desire of older people for a similar youthful belief. Huddled together for part of their yuletide greetings are six children caroling two of their friends. Back row, left to right, are Larry Cruise, Joe Dale Ruff and Wesley Crites, all 11. Front row, left to right, are Judy Johnson, Jimmy Weatherly and Nancy Crites, all eight. Enjoying the singing are Diana Edmister, left, and her sister, Michael, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Edmister, 2010 N. Coffee. (News Photo)

DEATH CAR — Above is shown the 1948-model car in which a Pampa youth, Jackie Dean Bonner, 19, was killed early Saturday between Panhandle and White Deer. Bonner was thrown 30 feet from the car when it rolled three times and landed in a water-filled bar ditch adjacent to a lake near the road. Two other passengers, Zula Margaret Brown and Mary Helen Nichols are under treatment in Highland General hospital for serious injuries. (News Photo)

Mine Disaster Death Toll May Reach 100

WEST FRANKFORT, Ill., reported in a critical condition, but they were not identified. Early official estimates of the latest, had been counted here in number of men trapped in the pre-Christmas coal mine explosion where possibly 60 more men are trapped or dead.

Superintendent John R. Foster said perhaps 60 more miners are entombed and may be dead in the pit where rescue teams using gas masks wormed their way through deadly fumes.

Another source predicted the death toll would run to 100 or more.

Sixteen bodies have been brought to the surface. Fourteen of them were taken to a temporary morgue at the junior high school and have been identified.

Four injured, taken to a hospital here, were Paul Donahue, Johnstone City, Clarence Short, Ziegler, Ralph Summers of Benton and Ray Summers of Benton.

Denise Taylor, a pit boss, predicted the death toll would be higher than that of the 1947 Claucha and Billy Carl Anderson (believed to be no relation to the dead Summers); Three were which claimed 111 lives.

The mine, with more than 12 miles of sprawling tunnels, is one of the world's largest shaft soft coal producers, putting out 3,000,000 tons a year. The miners were trapped nearly two miles back from the shaft which is 550 feet deep.

Another veteran fresh from Korea is Pic, Jack H. Sawyer, son of Mrs. R. H. Hassel, 334 Ryder, Sawyer was among 2900 Marine combat troops to return Thursday aboard the transport Gen. John Pope which docked in San Francisco.

Two other men arrived at San Francisco yesterday aboard the transport Gen. A. W. Brewster. They are Master Sgt. Wesley W. Tomson, 320 N. Ward, and Sgt. Curtis McNeal, 835 S. Gray. Both were among a group of rotation combat troops from Korea.

Service Men Arriving For Christmas

At least four local men have returned to the United States from combat duty in Korea within the last week. Some of whom may be home with their families for Christmas.

Derl D. Sponebore, fireman apprentice, USN, 617 N. Gray, was F. Sponebore, 617 N. Gray, was first of the group to return. He arrived at San Diego, Calif., Dec. 16, aboard the USS Washburn, an amphibious force attack cargo ship which has been on duty in the Far East from the time it left the U.S. last June.

Postal delivery trucks will be distributing Christmas parcels today.

According to W. B. Weathered, postmaster, the deliveries will begin at noon and will continue throughout the day until 11 packages are distributed. The Sunday schedule was set up.

Weathered said, in an attempt to get all packages delivered in time for Christmas.

He said the post office will be open all day Monday.

Weathered said postmen are making as many as three deliveries each day — from 7:30 a.m. until dark.

Much of the strain on the local post office is being caused by late train schedules. Weathered said some trains were running as much as five hours late.

Negotiations Completed To Lease Building For Armory

Negotiations were completed late Friday between Cabot Carbon Co. officials here and the National Guard for lease on the abandoned Cabot office building on West Brown to be used by the local unit as an armory.

Capt. Charles Robison, local battery commander, announced culmination of the negotiations following approval of the building by Col. Harry Nelson. The selection was confirmed by the Army board by telephone late Friday.

"In view of the better facilities and location, I am expecting an increase in enlistments and an even more active unit," Col. James T. Clark, 474th Field Artillery Battalion commander from Borger, told Capt. Robison.

The Guard unit is leasing only the brick building and a 50 by 30-foot wing. The building and wing will give the unit more than three times the area of that in the old building which was destroyed by fire.

"What interests me most about the new building," Robison said, "is the classroom space. There are there will be four classrooms and four offices. These are already partitioned."

Robison said the building will have a fire proof supply room and an assembly room in addition to the offices and classrooms.

He said that no remodeling will have to be done and that cleaning will be done between now and the first meeting date, Jan. 7.

Robison said he is going to have built about 100 lockers so that all equipment and uniforms may be kept in the armory.

The new facilities are expected to handle the full complement of the unit, 121 enlisted men and 14 officers. Present guard strength is about 64 enlisted men and 10 officers.

Upon completion he will report to Air Fleet Marine Force Atlantic, Cherry Point, N. C.

The school is designed for advanced training of Navy, Marine and Coast Guard pilots and includes ground work to prepare him for actual in-flight practice.

Requisition for some new equipment have already been sent and the remainder will be sent within the next week. Robison said he expects the equipment requisitioned to be here in about three weeks.

Some of the critical items, he said, could not be replaced, however.

Two trucks damaged in the fire are to be sent to Amarillo for repair.

The two-year lease on the building does not eliminate chances for a permanent armory for the local unit. The National Guard owns 10 acres of land just west of Recreation park on which an armory building will be built if approved by the state Guard authorities.

Present complement calls for a $250,000 building. Robison said, if the local unit could add one more battery.

Ben Gull, Cabot executive assistant, represented the lessors in negotiations.

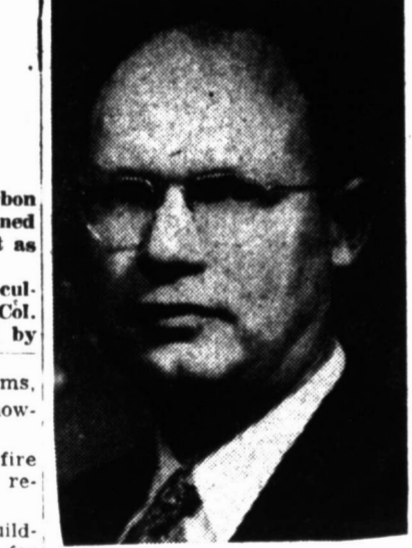

He said that no remodeling will have to be done and that cleaning will be done between now and the first meeting date, Jan. 7.

Winners Named In Pampa '51 Christmas Decoration Contest

Ted and Jack Schroeder, teen age sons of Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Schroeder, 121 S. Sumner, were named grand prize winners in Pampa's 1951 Christmas home decoration contest.

Business and Professional Women's club, sponsor of the annual contest, announced the judges' decision Saturday. In all, there were 16 decoration winners named by judges who are anonymous.

The Schroeder project was in Class 1, decorations using cutouts to depict a scene of religious nature. The two youths, 13 and 15 years old, built a manger scene using packing crates and cutouts.

Judges selected the prize-winner because materials had been used which were available to anyone and because they felt it portrayed the true spirit of Christmas.

The judges found after naming the winners that the youths had just moved to Pampa with their parents from Denver, Colo. The boys built the scene from packing crates used in moving the family here four months ago.

Jack, 13, painted the scene and figures in his junior high school art class taught by Miss Roy Riley, art teacher. The boys said it took them about three weeks — working after school — to construct the prize-winning scene.

Miss Riley's art classes were responsible for a large percentage of the decorations in Pampa or cut-outs while Class 4 was set aside for doorways.

According to judges, there were no churches entered in the contest and there were no schools.

Business district winners are to be announced by judges Monday. Survey had not been completed by the time home contest winners were announced.

Name Chairman For Lefors Dimes Drive

J.R. Sparkman has been appointed chairman of the 1952 March of Dimes drive in Lefors, Clinton Evans, Gray county chairman, announced yesterday.

Chairmen named previously for Gray county are Ken Meadows, Pampa, and Howard Horne, McLean.

Evans said it is necessary to have an organization in Gray county that will give every year a chance to contribute to the 1952 March of Dimes.

"We want to emphasize that giving to the drive is voluntary. There will be no quotas, no hot-ten-holing and no high pressure. There will be a need greater than we will be able to fill."

He said dollars are needed in place of dimes because the rising tide of polio recently has created staggering demands upon national and local funds.

Kiwanians' Wives Stage Surprise Program At Meet

Procedure was almost the same as usual but leaders were different at a surprise program during the weekly Kiwanis club meeting Friday.

In the next-to-last program of the year, wives of members took over duties of officers. Mrs. Leslie Hart, who became president for a day, said this was one day of the year to which she had looked forward. "Women always let their husbands think they are boss," she said, "but we know better."

Even Santa Claus, played by Mrs. Johnny Campbell, took advantage of husbands by reading letters "from their wives" concerning what the men should be given for Christmas. Gifts were presented Foster Whaley, Walter Dean, Jimmy Jones, Clinton Evans, George Snell, Jeff Bearden, T. J. Worrell, Foster Elder, Frank Pata, Howard Buckingham, Carlton Nance, Leslie Hart, Glen Radcliff and John Wilkinson.

Special songs were presented by Bill Hutchinson, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Johnson, who also led group singing.

Mrs. Hart reminded members of the Kiwanis motto for the new year: There's much to do in '52.

Police said the vehicle which Jones was driving was going south on Naida and the Roberson car west on Browning when the collision took place.

Damage to the two cars was estimated by police at $600.

Hughes To Build Defense Houses

R. G. (Dick) Hughes, local contractor, has been named low bidder for a housing project at Wichita Falls and started construction on 200 defense units there Thursday.

Of the 200 houses — part of 500 residences to be built — 150 will be for rent and the remainder for sale, all for military and civilian personnel at Sheppard Air Force base.

The houses, all of frame construction, will be completed by next June. Some will be finished the middle of February, Hughes said.

Commission Hires Engineering Firm

In a short called meeting late Friday morning, the city commission hired the engineering firm of Roberts and Merriman, of Lubbock and Pampa, as consulting engineers in the water and sewer extension program amended the Butane Ordinance, and formally approved bonding the city by ordinance.

The consulting engineering contract was signed with Westwood Merriman, Pampa partner of the engineering firm, at 2 3/4 per cent of the construction cost. The firm will draw up the plans and specifications for the water and sewer expansion project.

A few minutes later, the commission approved amending the butane truck routing ordinance to clear the way for butane trucks to load Fort Worth and Denver tank cars at the local station on S. Russell.

The formality of bonding the city by $875,000 over a 20-year period was passed as an emergency ordinance on three readings. This action was a formality that had to be taken before the bonds can be approved by the attorney general's office, printed and actually sold.

This was the last meeting of the commission this year. Only if something of spot importance comes up will the commission be called into session between now and Jan. 8.

Yesterday at noon, city hall offices closed for the Christmas weekend and will not open until 9 a.m. Wednesday.

PANHANDLE ICE SKATING — Tony Welker, 4½ Carr, hasn't been able to do much ice skating since he left his home in Williston, N. D. four years ago. But the recent freeze here was just what he was looking for. He is shown above pushing his son, Dicky, 6, and Marion Groves, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Groves, 429 Carr. Tony says that if the weather holds, the ice on the lake near recreation park will be in perfect shape for ice skating for several days. He warned about one spot of open water on the north end of the lake and suggested that parents accompany any youngsters who might want to try their hand at ice skating. (News Photo)

Unnamed Source Says Dean Evaded Korean Reds 33 Days

SEOUL, Korea — (AP) — A friendly source that cannot be named said Maj. Gen. William F. Dean evaded North Korean Reds for 33 days after the fall of Taejon. Dean's name is on the Red's list of prisoners of war. He had been carried on U. S. Defense Dept. records as missing in action.

Dean was last reported searching for stragglers from his 24th division shortly after the Red's overrun Taejon July 19, 1950. The source said that before the general was captured he hid by day and traveled by night, always walking along ridgelines toward the south. He circled all settlements and kept well off the roads.

Eventually he reached Chinan, 37 air miles south of Taejon. He was weary, undernourished and ill. He asked for food at a house on the edge of Chinan. A Communist group in the vicinity picked him up and took him north as a prisoner.

Dean had discarded all identification. It is possible, the source said, that the Reds did not realize they held a two-star general. The source said most of these details came from a Red captured late last year. The Red said he had served as Dean's interpreter. The general was once held at Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, but later was transferred to a camp about 15 miles north. The Reds listed Dean at camp

Christmas This Year Will Not Have Usual Joy For Many Families Throughout The World

(By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS) Carolers will sing and tinsel will glisten on Christmas next Tuesday as in years past, but in thousands of American homes the season's traditional joy will be lacking. Cheery chimes in the windows of many a dwelling will obscure the fact that the family inside is thinking of a son or husband missing in distant Korea. The uncertainty turned to thankful joy in some homes this week with word that a missing loved one was reported alive in an enemy prison camp, but alive. But in an even greater number, the name of a loved one overseas remained on the list of missing. Thus the season emphasized, perhaps to a greater degree than usual, family ties and the homes. President Truman intends to follow his custom of flying to his family home in Independence, Mo., on Monday to have Christmas dinner there with his wife and daughter, Margaret. From Independence, the President will press a button Christmas Eve to light a tree on the lawn of the White House in Washington. He will broadcast a Christmas message at the same time. Across the nation, travelers headed for home wherever it was. A substantial segment of the travelers were in uniform, on leave from training camps in the United States. They didn't know when they would spend another Christmas with their families. The scene was the same, in varying degrees, from coast to coast — trains, buses, airplanes filled to capacity. In New York, the Pennsylvania Railroad said it was running 150

Shamrock Children Are Polio Patients

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Two Shamrock children are patients at the West Texas polio clinic at Plainview — Sue Ann Denson, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Benson, and Marvin Patton, 4, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Patton. Sue Ann arrived at Plainview last weekend and was reported to have overcome the fever accompanying the disease, but in need of further treatment. Marvin is considerably improved after having been taken to the Plainview clinic Dec. 14. Shamrock physicians are watching closely to see if the disease increases. They can give no reason for the sudden rise, not only here, but in various Panhandle areas.

Baxter's Views

WORLD PEACE: In view of the frenzied efforts of internationalists and world government people to turn the United Nations into a super state, I'd like to present a few comments.

The first Hague Peace Conference was held in 1899. In three months the Boer War was on and within five years the bloody Russian-Japanese struggle.

The Locarno peace pact was signed in 1925. At that time Czechoslovakia (now crushed by Russia) Dr. Benes said, "The international problem of Europe has been solved."

Then came the Chinese communists and Korea, with the UN itself taking sides while some of its member nations played both ends against the middle, giving lip support to the United States while carrying on business as usual with the communists.

"Render Unto Caesar..." I am indebted to Maybel Ortega for sending me an article in the "Awake" magazine, which I presume is one of the official magazines of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Modern governments are a part of this present evil world, whose god, according to the apostle Paul, is Satan the Devil. (Galatians 1:4; 2 Corinthians 4:4) While in them are found some honest and sincere men who try to do what is right, yet even these men and again serve Satan's purposes by failing to consider God's requirements when making laws.

Arlington Tops La Vega, 7-0 To End Schoolboy Grid Year

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

WACO — (AP) — Arlington's three-year smash after his runs had set it up, then kicked the extra point. He also was out-standing on defense.

Keller blasted 85 yards on 20 carries and was the game's leading ground-gainer.

Pushing 69 yards to a touch-down in the second period with big Cecil (Rusty) Gunn plowing like a truck, the Colts got their touchdown the way they played the entire game — methodically, efficiently and entirely conservative.

On the other hand, La Vega, which threatened several times to score, took all kinds of chances and also apparently figured out every way in the book to lose the ball.

TWO-PLAYER DUEL

The game was as advertised — a duel between Gunn and Billy Keller, the great ball-carrier of La Vega. Gunn rolled up 83 yards with his bull-like rushes and scored all the Arlington Points.

He made the touchdown on a three-yard smash after his runs had set it up, then kicked the extra point. He also was outstanding on defense.

Keller blasted 85 yards on 20 carries and was the game's leading ground-gainer.

Arlington was winning its thirty-third game in three years during which time it had lost only two and tied three. Last year the Colts reached the semifinals of the state race.

Arlington used only 14 men in the great defensive battle while La Vega employed just 16. A crowd of 7,168 was in Baylor University stadium for the game — the last of the season in Texas schoolboy football.

Twice La Vega bit deeply into Arlington territory, once rolling to the eight yard line, but the staunch Arlington defense was too much. Not only were the Colts tough against rushing when the chips were on the line but they had an impenetrable pass defense.

Not a single pass was completed by either side.

Arlington netted 181 yards rushing to 161 for La Vega. La Vega took the opening kickoff and swarmed down to the Arlington eight before losing the ball. That was the closest the Pirates came to scoring all afternoon although they smashed to the Arlington 21 in the fourth period where, after doing all the gaining on line plays, the Pirates started trying trick stuff. A lateral was bobbed to halt the drive.

QUESTIONABLE PLAY

It was after La Vega pulled a somewhat questionable play early in the second period that Arlington got its touchdown. La Vega had the ball on the Arlington 49 when Keller tried to run the three yards needed for a first down — on fourth down. He took two yards and Arlington took over on the La Vega 49.

The Colts slammed to the La Vega 24 before being stopped but La Vega had to kick also and from its own 31, Arlington rolled to the touchdown that gave it the state championship.

Larry Davault and Gunn crashed to a first on the 42. Bob Kirby and Lee Glasgow then advanced in running to another first on the La Vega 46. Gunn and Kirby teamed to push to a first on the 33. Gunn sped over right guard to the La Vega 17. Davault made five, then Gunn squirmed his way to the three-yard line. Gunn dove over left guard for the touchdown.

La Vega came out fighting to open the second half and marched with the kickoff to the Arlington 33. Here the Pirates abandoned their running and Glen Schultz tried a jump pass over the line. Tackle Pierce Cook intercepted it.

La Vega started another dangerous drive shortly afterward but when the Pirates were rolling smoothly Carroll Daily tumbled on the Arlington 35 where Larry Hufford recovered for the Colts.

As the game ended La Vega was driving deeply into Arlington territory. Glasgow had run out of bounds on the Colt 10 as the last gup fired.

Arlington had the better, more solid team and deserved the victory.

Arlington 7 0 0 0-7
Arlington scoring: touchdown-Gunn; conversion-Gunn.

North-South Teams Named

MIAMI, Fla. — (AP) — Both North and South coaches today named their starting offensive lineups for the Shrine North-South college all-star football game in the Orange Bowl Christmas night.

South Coach Andy Gustafson picked his team first. Then North Coach Herman Hickman announced his selection.

Hickman said Bob Blaik of Colorado College or John Coatta of Wisconsin would start at quarterback, Bob Finnel, Xavier, and John Turce of Holy Cross as half-backs and Howard Hansen of Columbia or Jim Monahan of Rutgers at fullback.

Ends will be Hal Faverty of Wisconsin and Dewey McConnell of Wyoming while Bob Felch of Holy Cross and Jack Gearding of Xavier will handle the tackle positions. The guard posts will be manned by Gerald Audette of Columbia and Joe Skibinski of Purdue, with Michigan State's Jim Creamer at center.

Gustafson and his guest coach aides — Bill Edwards of Vanderbilt and Eddie Erdlatz of Navy — picked Bill Wade of Vanderbilt as starting offensive quarterback.

Harvesters Work For Meet

"No rest for the unpollished" is the theme of Harvester basketball workouts this weekend, as Coach Clifton McNeely continues to work his Green and Gold eagles through the holidays in preparation for the Howard Payne invitational tournament and the opening of the district hardwood season.

Definitely unsatisfied with the performance of his squad despite their five win, no loss record, McNeely plans called for full-scale, lengthy workouts until Wednesday when the team will leave for Brownwood. They will work out enroute at Cisco, remaining there overnight and proceeding into Brownwood Thursday morning in time to open the tournament at 12:30 p.m. that day.

The Green and Gold will open the three-day meet against Cleburne. Other teams entered are Stephenville, Big Spring, Fort Worth, Plainview, Arlington Heights, Brownwood, Temple, Coleman and Snyder.

The tournament has rapidly grown into one of the top holiday week events. The Harvesters first participated in the meet in 1948, and rapidly became the favorite team of the crowd through their fine team play and outstanding hustle. That season they also championed the affair, running through Gatesville, 47-21, Brownwood, 47-37, and then clipping the Lubbock Westerners, 30-29. It was one of three times that season the McNeelymen downed the Westerners, only to have the south plains boys win the district crown in a play-off.

In 1949 the Harvesters didn't fare as well. They won their opening game from Burkett, 50-30, but then fell before Fort Worth Polytechnic, 46-36. It was the first tournament that the Green and Gold ever lost under the coaching of McNeely. Poly went on to take the event, slipping past Port Arthur, 47-43 in the finals.

Last year the Harvesters moved as far as the finals. They marched right on through Midland, Sweetwater and Abilene, but were downed 53-33 by Port Arthur for the title.

OPEN TOURNAMENT

McNeely has never failed to have some all-tournament player. In 1948 it was Darrell Davis and Jimmy Howard, who both put on such scintillating performances they were unanimous all-tournament choices. Davis is now playing for Baylor while Howard is performing for the military academy at West Point.

In 1949 James Gallemore won the all-tournament nomination. He is now at Texas A&M. And last year the honor went to James Clamm, now playing at Hardin-Simmons.

The tournament this season looks as rough, or rougher, than

Important Meet Wednesday For Golden Glove Battlers

Calling all Golden Glove fighters in Pampa.

You are requested to attend an important meeting at the Boys Club headquarters, 222 W. Foster, the old Pampa News building, at 5 p.m. next Wednesday.

Oren James, president of the Pampa Boys Club, Inc., announced the important meeting and said that it was necessary that all boys who expect to participate in Golden Gloves activity this year be present.

Golden gloves time is less than three weeks away, the district meet to be held here in Pampa on Jan. 11, 15 and 16 at the junior high school gymnasium. Winners in the local tournament will proceed on to the regional event in Amarillo as representatives of the Boys Club. The Amarillo tournament is scheduled for Jan. 22-26.

The Boys club boxes defeated the Lockney American Legion team last Thursday night, 9 bouts to none. They will meet again at Plainview on the night of Dec. 28.

Rams, Browns Tangle Today

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — The two titans of 1951 professional football, Cleveland and Los Angeles, collide today for the National League championship, renewing a bitter title clash staged one year ago.

Seventy thousand or more fans are expected to witness the contest, the annual big one that climaxes the regular season.

Cleveland's Browns will be shooting for their sixth straight title triumph in pro history. Coach Paul Brown's Browns won four straight championships in the now extinct all-America conference.

And last December the Browns outplayed Los Angeles in the final 28 seconds of the game for a 30-28 decision, and the NFL pennant. That game was staged in freezing weather in Cleveland.

Cleveland, winner of the American Conference title in almost a walkaway with a record of one defeat and 11 straight victories, is favored by some six points.

UNPREDICTABLE

The Rams, usually unpredictable and often spectacular in the wildcat fashion, have won the National Conference title three straight years.

Dueling will be the quarterback stars of the rivals, Capt. Bob Waterfield of the Rams, boasting the best passing record this fall; and a tautatic Otto Graham, Cleveland's T-magician, who rated third in the statistics column and the best in field generalship in leading his team to the top.

Both teams are wizards in the overhead game. Fans can expect Waterfield and his alternate, Norman Van Brocklin, to use passes freely.

Cleveland is dangerous in the air, too, but most of the damage the Browns and Graham have heaped on the Rams in past encounters has been accomplished on the running of Graham and backs Marion Motley, Dub Jones and Ken Carpenter.

Grand Old Man Of Baseball Celebrates 89th Birthday

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Connie Mack, who is almost as venerable as baseball itself, marked his 89th birthday in the Elephant Room at Shibe Park Saturday.

No one, including Mack, was quite sure it was actually Connie's birthday. He always celebrates on Dec. 22 because there is some doubt whether he was born before or after midnight.

Connie, whose tall, gaunt figure hasn't changed much in the last quarter century, is no longer active manager of the team he guided for so long. He resigned as manager in 1950 after 50 years in that spot and now holds the title of president of the Philadelphia Athletics.

He no longer handles any of the business end of the club's affairs either, depending entirely on general manager Art Ebersole and his successor, Jimmy Dykes.

But Connie still goes to Shibe Park every day he is able, arriving at nine a.m. and staying until 1 p.m.

Mr. Baseball strictly is baseball fan No. 1 now and he loves it. "I'm as happy as I ever was," he said. "I thought at first I would miss being down in the dugout. I really enjoy watching the game as a spectator and I'm looking forward to watching games for many more seasons."

He admitted a little wistfully that he's sorry now he didn't quit his active role in the game a year sooner.

"I can't talk to the players the way I'd like. They need a young aggressive man."

And that brought up the subject of Dykes.

"He's a great manager," said Connie. Coming from that source the remark is high praise indeed. "The men love to play for him. I'm sure the Athletics will have great teams under his leadership."

After yesterday's birthday party for the press and friends in the recently opened Elephant Room, Connie plans to leave this week for Fort Myers, Fla. His son, Connie, Jr., is in the shrimp business there. Connie is looking forward to his first trip in a shrimp boat.

And when the shrimp season is finished, the "grand old man" of baseball will turn his attention to the business closest to his heart — baseball and the 1952 season.

Yale football teams have scored more than 100 points in four games, three of them against Wesleyan — 142-0 in 1950, 106-0 in 1947 and 105-0 in scalping Dartmouth in 1944.

Froggie Backs Worrying Bryant

LITTLE ROCK — (AP) — Kentucky Coach Paul (Bear) Bryant says he isn't nearly as worried about Texas Christian's spread formation as he is about the backs who make that system work for Frog Coach Dutch Meyer.

Those two teams meet in the Cotton Bowl Jan. 1 and Bryant, a native of Forlyce, Ark., is visiting friends here and in his hometown during the Christmas season.

"Dutch really has the men to make his attack go," Ray McKown, Gil Bartosh, Malvin Fowler, Bobby Jack Lloyd, a whole flock of them," said Bryant today. "We know they'll be hard to stop."

Bryant professes to be ignorant of the intricacies of Meyer's offensive staff, but moaned:

"They run, pass, and kick, and believe me, from what I've seen and heard of TCU, they hurt you worse running than they do passing."

Kentucky uses its own spread and double wing for passing only. "We just don't let Babe Parilli run," says Bear. "He's too valuable to risk getting hurt."

Quarterback Parilli does most of his passing and handling from the T formation, of course.

Bryant will meet his team at Houston for the final warmups after the holidays.

Brooke Eleven Heads For Bowl

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — The Brooke Army Medical Center Comets left yesterday for Tampa and their engagement with the Cigar Bowl.

The 53 Comets will arrive in Tampa Monday.

Lt. Col. John Kramer sent his charges through condition workout for the last time on their home field Saturday. The team is in top shape.

BAMC will return Jan. 3 after a stop in New Orleans where the Comets will see the Sugar Bowl game.

WARREN'S ARMUP

By Warren Messer—News Sports Editor

QUESTION: Who won the 1950 Cotton Bowl game? EVERY YEAR ABOUT THIS time some letters to Santa Claus from the sports personalities in the Panhandle come drifting our way and we always have to pass them on to the bearded gent himself. It is with pleasure that we read them. We find them so interesting that we want to pass some of them on to our readers.

Here they are, and we hope that all of the writers will find just what they want on the Christmas tree Tuesday morning.

Dear Santa: Things really look rough for us next year. We had a fine season this year, for which I am thankful, but looking forward to next season makes me want to reach for a towel. I've lost so many players I can't even count them all. But what I would like to have you leave on my tree for Christmas is some material with which to do a good rebuilding job for the great Pampa fans next season. That should do it. I'll have some tomato juice and poached eggs ready for you when you come.
Tom Tipps

Dear Santa: Things have sorta been in a turmoil down here. We aren't used to losing and we thought we had lost our good standing in District 1-A. Right now we have a big problem though. We need a new football coach. The sooner you can send us one, the better, so he can get things started for next season right away. See if you can leave us a good man. Might leave you an oil well in exchange.
Lefors school board.

Dear Santa: Next year we be about the last chance for you to do us some good. We need lots of people who want to see baseball stay in Pampa. Things haven't been so good from the monetary standpoint the last couple of years. All I'm asking you for is to spread a little baseball enthusiasm among the fans of the Pampa area so that it will be a break-even proposition at least next year. Bring us good crowds.
The Pampa Oilers

Dear Santa: We had another good season last year, but lots of expense to move our lighted diamonds from one end of town to the other so we wouldn't be bothering some of the people who lived right next to our former playing site. We need lots of teams for next year in our softball program, so spread a lot of softball equipment among the kiddies and get them all interested.
Pampa Kiwanis Club

Dear Santa: Just the same old request again this year. But it's probably still a dream. All I would like is a trip to Austin with my basketball team to play in the state tournament. If you can see that we get that far, we'll take care of things from there on in. Our record of past years indicates we ought to have a chance. Thanks much.
Coach Clifton McNeely
P. S. How about those tax deductions before Jan. 17

Dear Santa: We are a comparatively new organization here in Pampa. I don't believe we have ever asked you for anything before. But we're having plenty of troubles. We are trying to do a job with boys. We're trying to provide some activity for them during their spare time and also take care of their excess energy. But we aren't getting much cooperation from many people. Right now our program consists mostly of boxing, but with the right kind of help from some people, we would like to expand it to take care of the kids the year around and provide supervised programs. Couldn't you just drop a little thought to some of these folks, and see if they won't come down and see us, and help us?
Pampa Boys Club

Dear Santa: Been trying to get in touch with you. Don't really think I'll need your help, but will tell you what's up anyway. I'm trying to get wrestling on its way back here in Pampa. The folks used to have it and really enjoyed it. I know it's interesting entertainment, and can be handled properly. I've made most of the necessary arrangements, but just need the okay on use of a building. I think that I'll get it all right, but see if you can't speed up the answer. Right now is the best time of year for it. I think it will help all concerned. Thanks for your time and interest.
Howard Vineyard

Dear Santa: This is the Texas Panhandle, and my request is a toughie. But could you bring me some good golfing weather. I've got everything pretty well under control at the country club except for the weather. It's usually good during the week, but when Saturday and Sunday come around, the time when most fellows can get out to play, it rains, gets real cold, or the dust starts flying. Could you help me out with some blue skies?
Johnny Austin

Dear Santa: I'm getting the opportunity that I've been shooting at for several years, that of managing a professional baseball team. I'm mighty tickled to have the chance, and want to give it all I've got. I've hunted up several young ballplayers, but could stand a few more. I plan on making a lot of changes on the club before next spring, so anything that you could leave would be appreciated. A 20-game winner, several 350 hitters, and some speed would help. Thanks, Santa.
Jake Phillips

Giddings Captures State Class A Title

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF GRAHAM (AP) — Giddings' little band of gridiron warriors carried the Texas schoolboy Class A championship home Friday night, riding a chartered bus just like the fellows in the big time.

It was a special occasion and they didn't have to make the trip out here and back for their state title fight with Newcastle in the old rattie-trap bus they had been using.

Friday, they delighted some 1,500 fans who trekked here from Giddings (population 2500) with a smashing 25-14 victory over Newcastle. It was Giddings' fifteenth straight triumph of the season and left it one of three unbeaten teams in the state.

It was a great triumph, too, for Bill Brademan, the former Southwest Texas State star who coaches the Buffaloes. He has been the mentor three years and his teams have won 28 games against nine defeats, finishing with a 5-5 record the first year, 6-4 the next and then this grand slam. Bill's a cattle raiser on the side.

There were only 25 players in uniform when Giddings played Newcastle as a crowd of 5,000 looked on. Only 13 of those were used. When there were substitutions the boys exchanged headgear — Giddings had only 12 of the newfangled plastic helmets.

Newcastle, a school with 85 students, had only 21 men in uniform and employed 15 of them. And this is the day of two-platoon football.

The game found Giddings, with Herb Carleton, Jackie Placke and Neal Namken gouging great hunka of yardage through the Newcastle line, rolling up two touchdowns in six minutes. A partially blocked punt set up the first with both being made on 52-yard drives. Placke hammered over from the one for the initial score and Carleton circled left end from the two for the other. Carleton had bruised his way 49 yards to set up this one.

DeWanye Wells was high point with 19. Gene Hodges had 14 points. Patton led the Mobette team with 8.

The starting line-up for the game was as follows: Ramon Cowan and Carl Williamson at forwards, Wells was at center, and Harold Greenhouse and Hodges were at guards. Others seeing action were Alonzo Mitchell, Don Bryant, Joe Dan Talley, David Bean, and Bill Russell.

In the opening game of the Midland Squaws played their best during the week but were defeated by a tough Mobette team 49-45.

Mobette led 23-22 at half-time. But the Squaws turned on the steam in the third quarter to pull into the lead 33-25 at the end of the third quarter. The Mobette girls rallied in the final stanza to win.

Patricia Trimble of Mobette was high point with 21. Eda Gill of Miami had 17 points.

The Warriors and the Squaws played their best before returning to practice. They journey to Fort Jan. 4. Canadian comes to Miami Jan. 8. Then the Warriors go to the Wheeler Tournament to defend their championship they won last year.

Owen Released By Chicago Cubs
CHICAGO — (AP) — Veteran catcher Mickey Owen, whose jump to the Mexican League caused a stir in 1946, has been given his unconditional release by the Chicago Cubs.

The Cubs bought Owen from Brooklyn in July, 1949, shortly after he had been restored to baseball's eligible list by Commissioner A. B. Chandler. Originally, he had been banned five years for going south of the border.

Owen, now 37, holds the National League record for consecutive errors — about an error. He went Sept. 22, 1940, as a St. Louis Cardinal, to Aug. 25, 1941, as a Dodger, without a blunder — a total of 511 chances.

Owen, who batted a weak .184 for the Cubs last season, was the "goat" of the 1941 world series between the Dodgers and the New York Yankees. He let a third strike pitched by Hugh Casey roll to the grandstand with the Yanks capitalizing on it to win the game.

Davis, Hager All-Southern Honorable Mention

ORLANDO, Fla. — (AP) — A record number of linemen were included in the 60 players named today to positions on the 32nd annual all-Southern football squad, Dixie's top interscholastic prep gridiron honor.

Thirty-one backs and 29 linemen comprised the 60-man all-Southern squad plus 72 honorable mention players announced Saturday by Charlie Wadsworth, general chairman of the all-Southern selection board and sports editor of the sponsoring Orlando, Fla., Sunday Sentinel-Star.

The players were drawn from a 12-state area on the basis of five players from each state and six honorable mentions. A panel of over 150 coaches and sports writers participated in the 1951 poll.

Comment on some of the prep stars ran like this: "Texas' No. 1 player is Johnny Tatum, a 200-pound center who sparked Lubbock to the state Class AAA championship with a brilliant performance against Baytown. He was about 75 percent of the defense and cleared the way all season with great blocking."

First named players on each team were chosen as the state's outstanding players. The all-Southern squad included: Texas — Johnny Tatum, 200, center Lubbock; James Sides, 185, back, Lubbock; Charles Brewer, 185, back Lubbock; Don Jones, 190, end Lubbock; Herbert Gray, 200, tackle, Baytown. Honorable mention: Billy Davis, back, Pampa; Delano Womack, back, Austin; Paul Jette, end, Wink; Weldon Holley, end, Odessa; Blue Tucker, back, Waco; Dwayne Hager, tackle, Shamrock.

Fain Officially AL Batting Champ
CHICAGO — (AP) — Ferris Roy Fain, left-handed swinger of the sixth-finning Philadelphia Athletics, yesterday formally was crowned 1951 American League batting champion with the finest mark of his career, .344.

The surprising fourth-place Chicago White Sox took the team swat crown with .270.

The 29-year-old Fain, a fancy-fielding first sacker, won 18 points over Orestes Minoso, sensational rookie of the White Sox, who had .326, according to official statistics released by league headquarters.

Rivals who went to the plate far oftener might have regarded it Fain's "lucky break," when he fractured a foot stomping on first base in mid-July.

That kept Fain inactive almost a month, but he resumed in time finish with 425 at-bats, thereby topping the 400-AB minimum. He banged 146 hits for 200 bases. Minoso was up 530 times, while this-place George Kell, Detroit Tiger third sacker, and 1949 champion, had 598 AB's in batting .319.

Bucceroni Wins With Hurt Hand
NEW YORK — (AP) — Dan Bucceroni, upset winner over Roland La Starza, is on the shelf for at least five weeks with an injured right hand.

Dangerous Dan, an overgrown light heavyweight from Philadelphia, made the 3 to 1 odds against him look silly Friday night as he handed the highly-ranked La Starza his second pro loss in 49 fights. But he hurt his hand in the battle, watched by only 3,556 fans who paid 11.387.

Sluggish and over cautious affair a long layoff and a bout with the flu, La Starza gave a poor performance in his first Madison Square Garden start in 21 months.

After a good first round, La Starza was wobbled by a right hand punch early in the second. He wavered on the verge of a knockdown for several seconds as Bucceroni banged away with both hands.

While short-armed La Starza tried to pick his spots, Bucceroni peppered him at will from long range as he landed the roughly seventh. When Rolle decided to go inside and slug it out in the eighth it was too late. He won the last three rounds but lost the decision without any argument. Both judges had it 6-5, one of the Associated Press. Referee Al Berle scored it 6-3-1 for a unanimous decision.

LeStarza In Garden
NEW YORK — (AP) — Roland La Starza, absent from the big time since he lost his first fight on a disputed split decision to Rocky Marciano in 1950, returns to Madison Square Garden tonight to fight Dan Bucceroni of Philadelphia in a 10-round heavyweight bout.

Any basketball club wishing games on a home and home basis, may contact Burchfield in Lefors.

Latin American Athletes Rapidly Coming To Top

CARACAS, Venezuela — (AP) — A group of athletic officials from the United States has a word for sports circles: "Keep your eye on Latin American sports. They are going to be producing top flight athletes in the next five or ten years who can compete with any in the world."

Many expert referees, umpires, and judges of various sports events came here for the Bolivarian games, in which Bolivia, Columbia, Ecuador, Panama, Peru and Venezuela took part.

Roger Williams, an American who has been living in Latin America 17 years, says "in five or ten years, these fellows are going to go right up at the top with athletes anywhere in the world."

Williams, a baseball umpire in the Florida International League, came here with Edward Bisaner of Hollywood, Fla., also an FIL ump. Roger Williams, and Pete Corrigan of the Canal Zone to handle baseball games.

Charlie Burke of Kansas City and Vincent Farrell of Newark, N. J., were among basketball officials here.

"Yes, things are different here," said Burke, "but if you learn to relax with these people, you get along all right. If they're late getting things started, they might ask you: 'And what difference will it make a thousand years from now, Senator?' And you have to agree."

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Coach Scott McCall's high flying Irish racked their fifth straight victory in trimming Texola, 42-32, there Friday night.

McCall's boys started slowly, holding a 5-2 margin at the end of the first quarter as they felt out the reportedly strong Oklahoma quintet. They exploded for 35 points in the second round to hold a 20-10 half-time lead, adding 14 more in the third to lead 34-16 and the reserves coasted in to win easily.

Four Irishmen — Van Pennington, George Hendrick, Mack Terry and Norrell Perkins — tied for high-scoring honors with seven points each. They were outdistanced by Texola's Marvin Bass, who hit for 11 points.

McCall's Irish Lassies led all the way until the Texola girls tied them at 28-all three minutes before the end.

Texola outlasted the Lassies to win 30-28. Shamrock held a 13-9 lead as the first round ended, and led 18-14 at the half.

Texola girls came back strong in the third period, moving almost even as the Irish girls led by a single point 21-20.

It was the nearest the Lassies have come to winning in dropping four of their starts this season. McCall's boys lost their opener to Wheeler by 24-15 but have won five straight.

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Supt. Elmer J. Moore, sponsor of the Shamrock High school golf team, said Thursday the boys would begin training in earnest Jan. 3 in preparation for a season that would last until May 3.

Moore said they would have interschool matches when the weather cleared after the holidays.

Shamrock Cagers Topple Texola

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Supt. Elmer J. Moore, sponsor of the Shamrock High school golf team, said Thursday the boys would begin training in earnest Jan. 3 in preparation for a season that would last until May 3.

Moore said they would have interschool matches when the weather cleared after the holidays.

Among his golf team members are: Robert Adams, Billy Ryan, Bennie Parks, team champion Bruce Barkley, Donald Barber.

Shamrock's projected match with the Pampa crew was not scheduled prior to the holidays because of cold weather, Moore said.

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Shamrock's Dunbar Tigers, colored high school cagers, will collide with the Pampa court crew at Shamrock high gym Jan. 5.

Little is known here about the Pampa cagers, but the local Tigers are thought to be strong.

Dunbar will take on Hollis, Okla., here Jan. 12, following with combat with Paducah at Shamrock Jan. 23. Borger's colored cagers come to Shamrock Feb. 2, while Deeplake will come to the Irish gym Feb. 16.

Dunbar closes out its court season with Memphis here March 4.

Principal Irvin S. Davis said other games might be scheduled. Colored games are set up in conference with officials at the white high school, so the gym will be available for colored games at non-conflicting times.

SHAMROCK — (Special) — The Shamrock athletic coaches are going to seek relaxation in varied ways during the Christmas vacation.

Coach Scott McCall, head coach, will remain in Shamrock until after Christmas, drilling his Irish basketballers Monday, Wednesday and Thursday, but will leave Friday for Ft. Worth, his home town, to watch his alma mater, T. C. U., tangle with the Kentucky Wildcats in the Cotton Bowl.

McCall said he planned to visit with friends in the Horned Frog city, but meantime he will keep his Irish court crew in top shape to resume the attack Jan. 4. He is a former all-state halfback and T. C. U. star.

Coach Clarence Morris will spend part of the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Morris, at Perryton, where he was a star end in high school days and where he has farming interests.

Coach B. L. Hill is undertaking the most novel vacation — he will take up skiing at a resort near Albuquerque, where he will visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Hill. Other coaches wish him good flying.

Charles KO's Kahut In Eighth Round

PORTLAND, Ore. — (AP) — Ezzard Charles, headed back for the east and a re-match with Joe Walcott in quest of his lost heavyweight title, punched durable Joe Kahut of Woodburn, Ore., into submission Friday night, scoring a knockout in the eighth round.

It was a scheduled 12-round fight.

The former champ, weighing 180 pounds, hardly worked up a good sweat as he battered the plodding Kahut with sharp, telling punches.

Kahut, 186, attempted to connect with lethal overhand right-hand punches as he forced the fighting in the opening two rounds. But he got a taste of what was to come in the first when Charles retaliated with fierce counter-punches.

He battled gamely, but the few punches he did land lacked steam. Charles repeatedly bobbed his head back with stinging left jabs.

The tiring Kahut, who had won only one of the first seven rounds on the AP scorecard, decided it was all or nothing in the eighth. He rushed Ezzard, swinging wildly with both hands. Charles coolly countered with a left and a right that left Joe defenseless against the finisher, a short left hook.

A crowd of 6,724 paid $31,310.

Carver, Dunbar Play Jan. 5

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Shamrock's Dunbar Tigers, colored high school cagers, will collide with the Pampa court crew at Shamrock high gym Jan. 5.

Dunbar will take on Hollis, Okla., here Jan. 12, following with combat with Paducah at Shamrock Jan. 23. Borger's colored cagers come to Shamrock Feb. 2, while Deeplake will come to the Irish gym Feb. 16.

Principal Irvin S. Davis said other games might be scheduled. Colored games are set up in conference with officials at the white high school, so the gym will be available for colored games at non-conflicting times.

Kerr Named New Frisco Grid Head

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — The University of San Francisco picked William (Bud) Kerr, former all-America end at Notre Dame, as head football coach Friday after unexpectedly losing Joe Kuharich.

Charles L. Harney, athletic board chairman, announced Kerr's selection, which must be approved by university president, the Rev. W. J. Dwyer, and also explained that the failure to offer a new contract to Kuharich was simply because the board "hadn't gotten around to it."

Kuharich, who guided USF to its greatest football season this year, resigned abruptly Friday and announced he was looking for a job, either with the professional Chicago Cards or some college team. He had not been offered a new USF contract and decided not to wait around for it.

SHAMROCK — (Special) — Shamrock athletic coaches are going to seek relaxation in varied ways during the Christmas vacation.

Stanford Rapidly Gaining PCC Cage Favorite Role

NEW YORK — (AP) — Stanford which already has won the Pacific Coast Conference football championship, may come up with the PCC basketball crown, too.

The Stanford cagers, like their 1951 football brethren, still have to suffer their first defeat of the season. Friday night they made it 7 straight by taking San Francisco, 52-49.

The victory put the Indians in the national college cage picture since San Francisco previously had beaten Kansas State, ranked 5th in the Associated Press poll.

Washington, the pre-season favorite to again win the PCC title, was scheduled to play Minnesota at Minneapolis Friday night, but the game was put off to last night.

Only one of the first 20 teams in the AP poll saw action Friday night. Wyoming, No. 16, was beaten by Oregon, 66-59.

Most of the night's major games took place in the Rocky Mountain and Far West areas. UCLA edged Denver, 69-58, and Oregon State did likewise to California, 61-59. Washington State went overtime to take Montana, 68-63, and Brigham Young whipped Santa Clara, 64-59.

In a twin bill at Syracuse, N. Y., the undefeated Syracuse team made it 5 straight with an easy 84-65 triumph over the touring Loyola of the South quintet.

Warriors Home Court Streak Finally Gone

MIAMI — (Special) — The home court winning streak of the Miami Warriors finally came to an end Monday night when they were defeated by a fast crew from Briscoe. The final score was 33-32.

The Warriors held a 15-12 lead at half-time and 25-20, but they lost their lead in the final minutes of play.

The Warriors looked very ragged. They threw the ball away and missed easy layups.

Tooter Helton from Briscoe, was high point for the game with 15. Gene Hodges was high for Miami with 8.

This was the second straight loss for the Warriors. They lost Friday night to Darronett. Their record is now six wins and four losses.

The girls game was as close as the boys with the Briscoe girls winning 28-26. A Briscoe forward looped a goal in the last three seconds of play. Gayle Russell led the Miami Sox with 12 points. Riley hit 10 for Briscoe.

Lampy in the closing seconds. It was Murray's 9th straight triumph. At Houston, Detroit trounced Houston Univ., 73-56, in a Missouri Valley Conference game. Dick Groat tossed in 22 points to lead Duke to a 38-28 South-ern Conference victory over George Washington. Connecticut playing at home, again beat Virginia Military, 74-66.

Home for Christmas

Home for Christmas—what a wealth of meaning in those words!

The college students are arriving home, servicemen crowding the railroads and buses, and busy parents preparing for their children and grandchildren to arrive.

Home is the best place to be at Christmas. It's better because college girls like Betty Joyce Scott are here to brighten the holidays with their youth and spirit; because young servicemen like Dick Cook made it home from the service; and it's better because there are still Moms and Dads like Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cox waiting at home to welcome their family.

At the George Scott home, the tree doesn't go up or the holiday actually begin until their daughter, Betty Joyce, arrives home from Southern Methodist. Upon her arrival, the house is filled with all the happy noises of youth—the rustle of party dresses, the fresh, warm laughter and the snatches of college songs mingled with Christmas carols.

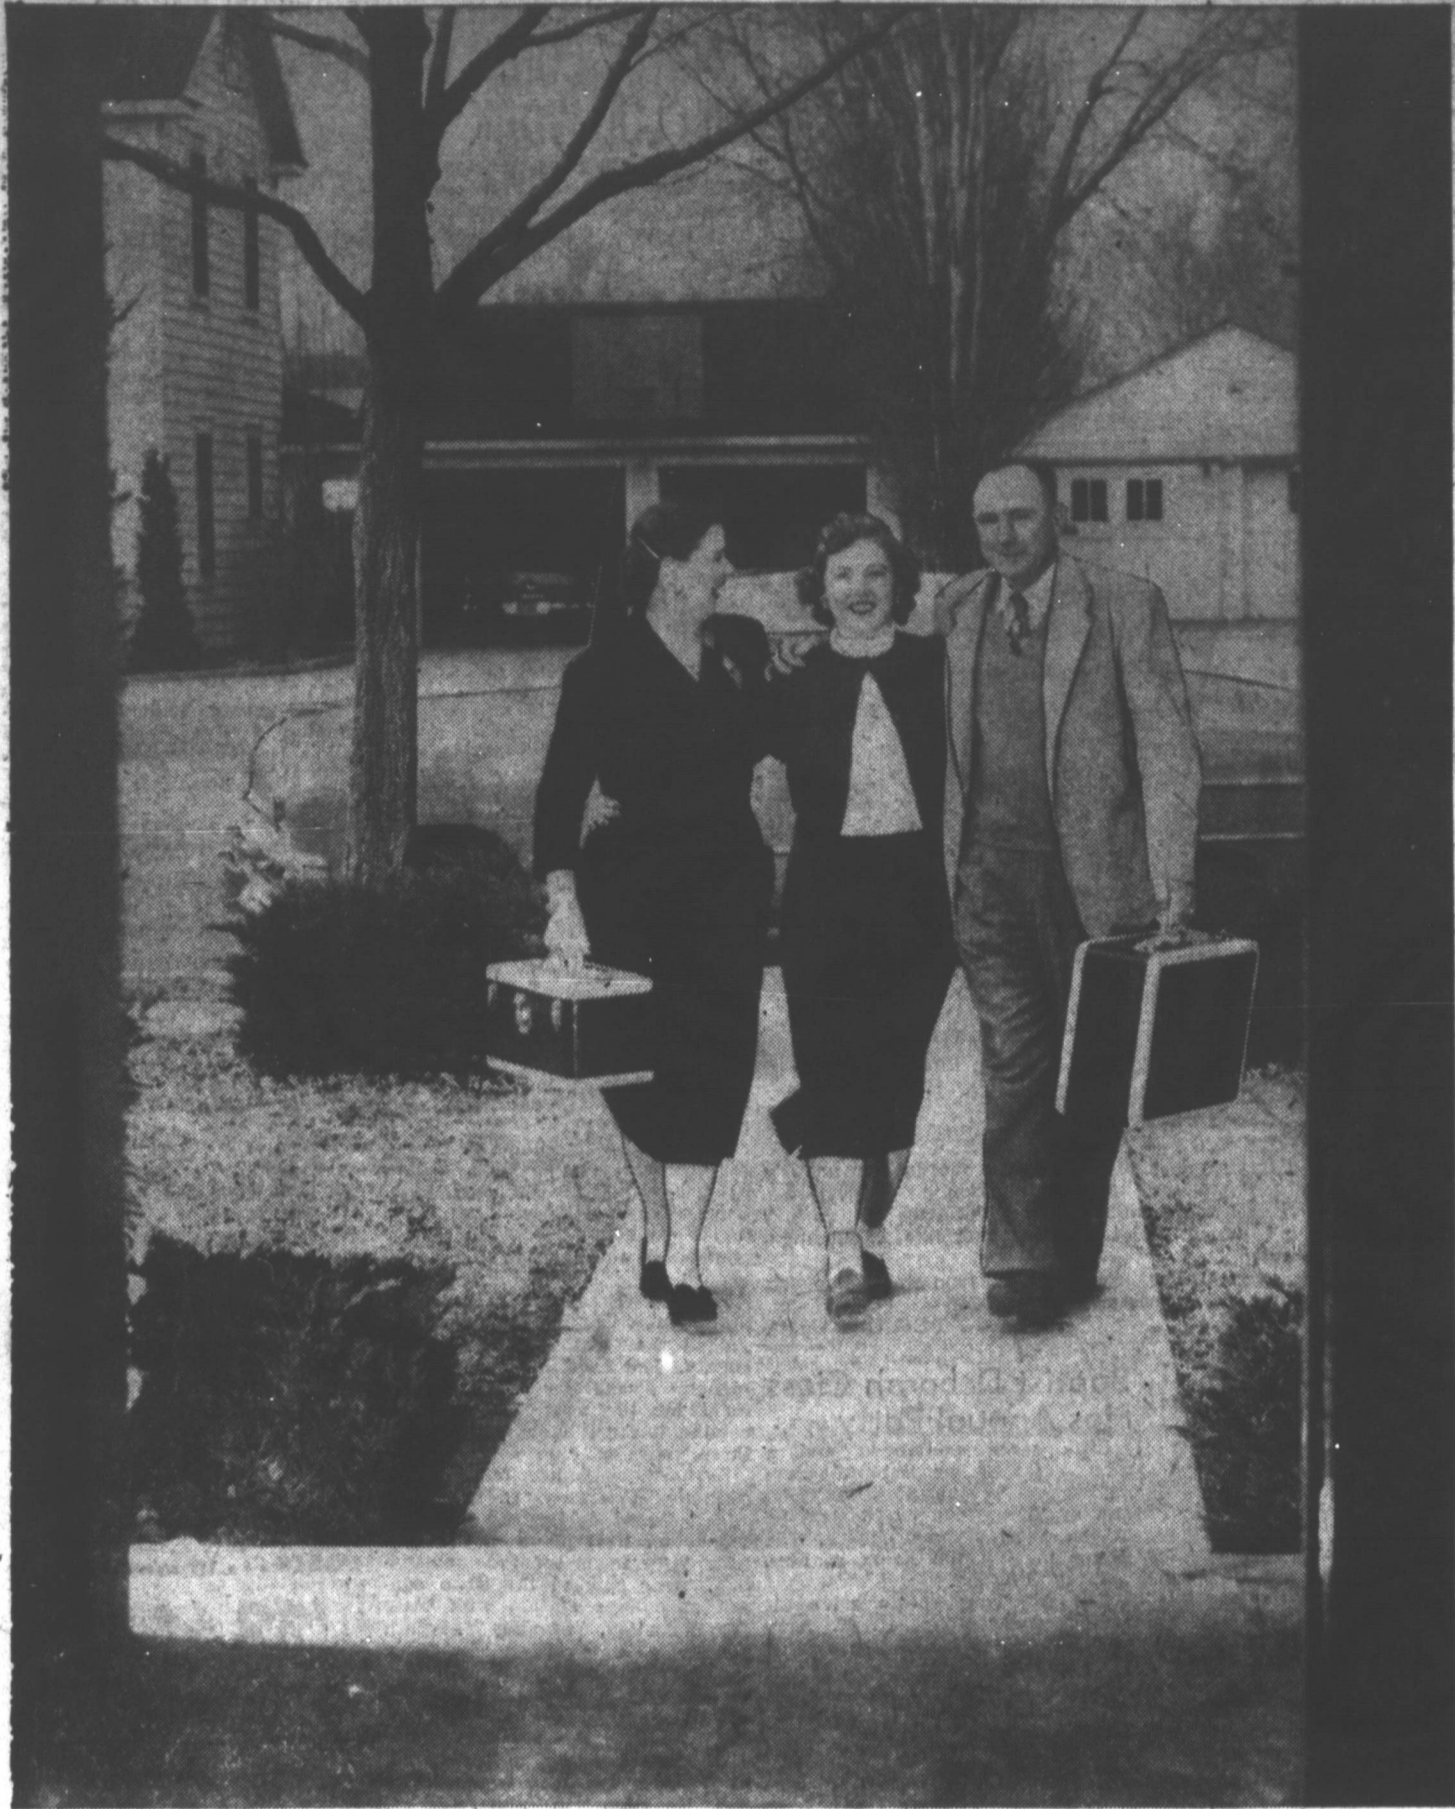

Christmas is complete at the Bill Cook home this year because their son in uniform, Dick, made it here for the holidays. And there's not a mother anywhere who doesn't share Mrs. Cook's special joy of having Dick home. He's here to sprawl in a chair in levis and old shirt, here to rob the ice-box after a party, and to re-play all last season's Harvester games with his Dad.

And though the family circle won't be complete at the A. C. Cox home, they're anxiously awaiting the arrival of their two sons and their families from Tulsa and Albuquerque. Two daughters and a son are at home now, and the other son, Joe, is in San Diego, Calif., only recently returned from Korea. And as the big house on Francis becomes alive with the happy clutter of a family reunion and the squeals of delight from the grandchildren, the Coxes and all Pampa people like them will feel their Christmas stocking is brimming over with happiness and good will.

Miami Class Has Party In Locket Home

Miami Class members of the Gleaners club were present at the recent turkey dinner and Christmas party held in the home of the teacher, Mrs. W. E. Locke.

SO MANY FINE CHRISTMAS PROGRAMS it's hard to know where to begin to describe them all. Heard fine comments about the play which the young adults of the Presbyterian Church put on at the church's annual Christmas party. Kathryn (Mrs. Dudley) Seede was the director, and the play starred Miss Evelyn Clayton as Mary, who sang a lovely solo, "The Magnificat," at the end of the play. Lutherans had a nice program put on by their church school. The Joe Schroedels are active participants in this group. Baptists have a sacrificial offering during December for a missionary martyr Lottie Moon. Sometimes we feel a little tired of finding one more can of food, article of clothing or other contribution for the many benevolences at this time of year. Then at a program or perhaps in the midst of the package wrapping it comes to us with vivid freshness that this holy day we are approaching is not meant to glorify and honor the safe, protected, well-cared for, and privileged friends and loved ones, but that the meek and lowly may know God's mercy. So may our giving be joyful and wholehearted, both to those closest to our hearts and to the stranger that is within our gates. "Arise and shine; for the light is come and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee." (Isaiah 60:1)

THIS YEAR let us dare to cut through the thick wall of convention and quit feeling hide bound to do certain things in the exact quantity and quality for the same persons who do nice things for us. Let's get back to giving joyfully with accent on label and wrapping. Let's stop hurrying through our staggering commitments long enough to look behind the times at the real glory of the Star. No one could love all the little worldly festivities that have entwined themselves about this, The Lord's birthday, any better than Peg, but there is something I'd change if I could. I'd do something some how to stop the madness that has crept into seasonal commitments and all but strangled the very life of the event which gave rise to the occasion. You hear a lot about commercializing Christmas, a subject which has many pros and cons, but let's not place the blame in the lap of the business world, which couldn't survive without demand. Let's quit wearing ourselves out in the ever growing list of obligations which duty motivates and custom demands, and ask a few things for ourselves and our families. Does that sound selfish and shocking? Perhaps, but let's demand for ourselves and our families the peace and quiet it takes to read the Christmas story. Let's demand the time to be with our loved ones in at least a few unburied hours of an atmosphere sufficiently serene to admit the Lord's coming. Have heard a lot of ministers take off on the kind of man or woman whom the Lord can't reach. Would like to add my hypothetical character (and oh, how the shoe pinches) to the man who is always in a hurry.

HAVE YOU PICKED a favorite scene in the Nativity group in the park? They're all so lovely, and such a credit to our town, such a good place to get calmed down and unburied. Believe Peg's favorite is the depiction of Mary in the annunciation scene.

WENT CHRISTMAS a wonderful time to see the goodness in people. Even people who may at other times seem distant and cold can be surprisingly warm and friendly with the hum of carols in the cold outside and the inviting appeal of lighted interiors on every street. Someone who's especially cheerful and friendly all the year around is Mrs. Walter Bowen, who looked so nice, at the AAUW tea Sunday or so ago.

PANORAMICALLY... Don't you know the Earle Scheigs are just about the proudest grandparents in town, since daughter Phyllis, (Mrs. Jack Curtis) presented them a 7 lb. 12 oz. grand daughter last Monday. Name chosen was Terry Lynn. Spied about town: versatile and petite Eulaine Ellis, home from Stephens for the holidays... hear she is majoring in religion... Whatever she packs we believe she can do it credit... Also saw some McMurry college folk: Cornelia Cornelius, Susie Huff, Billie Jo Huff and Deon Martin... One of the busiest persons we know is attractive Virginia (Mrs. H. F. Jr.) McDonald, who recently took time out to enjoy the golden wedding anniversary of her parents, the J. M. Pettions who entertained with a lovely reception Sunday... More beautiful home decorations... Would love to have the knack with stained glass window effects which Mrs. Loyal Davies and Mrs. John Heesek exhibit... Know Betty Kiff, the Russell Pugh's daughter and bride-elect of Sgt. Eddie Isaacs, will make a radiant bride in her home wedding on Dec. 23rd... Another pretty teenager is the Luke McClelland's daughter, Carol, who recently showed evidence of real dramatic ability in the junior play... Wish I were an authority on gifts like Mrs. Marguerite Nash is... Wish I were her downtown since she quit working... So glad to hear that Doris Wedgeworth is out of the hospital and able to be up...

ONE OF THE LOVELIEST CHRISTMAS EVENTS IS ALWAYS THE HIGH SCHOOL CHORAL CONCERT... which seemed especially fine this year. That a cappella choir is outstanding, and some fine solo voices are in the choir club and chorus, too. The pastel dresses of the girls in the chorus created a lovely effect especially during the Nutcracker Suite. Maynette Loftus is a winsome and talented ballerina, we think she really looked like a page out of story book to life as she did the sugar plum fairy dance... which several were privileged to see again at the Sam Houston program Friday... Carolyn Carver who did a solo in Tuesday's concert shows talent, too. Her voice has a very sweet quality. Mr. Baumgardner and Miss Grace Crump deserve lots of credit for this polished performance. Didn't the latter look stunning in that orchid net formal with ribbon trim 'neath net of deep purple velvet? HEAR THAT "HAM" RADIO CLUB WILL GET A NEW MEET-

ENGAGED — Mrs. Lucille Turner, 1325 Terrace, announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Jean, to Richard L. Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James D. Kennedy, Medford, Mass. Miss Turner is employed by the Hughes Co. here, and Mr. Kennedy is an employe of Cabot Carbon Co. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mystery Beast Plagues Residents

POTTSVILLE, Pa. — (P) — Is it a mountain lion, a bear, a huge wild dog, or something else?

Game Warden John Spencer is trying harder than ever today to find out, after getting a fresh crop of reports from uneasy Schuylkill county residents that they have seen a mysterious wild animal on the loose.

By the accounts of many persons, the animal prowls mostly at night in this eastern Pennsylvania region, roaming woods and farmlands, popping out on highways, and letting fly with odd sounds outside cabins and barns.

Frank Bosack, owner of an Independent Coal mine nearby, said a watchman at his mine had been frightened by the animal and now stands guard with a rifle. The watchman reported that the strange beast first appeared in the mine area about two weeks ago, and since then, has come back nearly every night. He and others have examined tracks in mud and snow but "can't figure them out."

Man O'War was the first American horse to win more than $200,000.

Both Parties Lend Sympathy With Foreign Aid Criticism

WASHINGTON (AP)—The demand of Senator Ellender (D-La.) for an investigation of what he called "the demagogic scandals" in the U. S. foreign aid program drew some Republican and Democratic support.

Senator McCarthy (R-Wis.), a bitter critic of the administration's foreign policy, called for inquiry into Ellender's accusations by the Senate Appropriations committee.

Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.), an administration supporter, said he thought an inquiry would be in order, but counseled against "any tendency to over-generalize in our criticism."

Senator Monroney (D-Okla.), generally in accord with the administration, said the accusations which Ellender contends were documented on a personal observation trip to Europe.

Ellender told a news conference he set down in 13 pocket-sized notebooks, during a recent trip to Europe, evidence to back up his declaration that "you're going to hear the dammedest scandals in the spending of all that (foreign aid) money."

W. Averell Harriman, director of the mutual security program who returned from Europe Thursday, commented that "we are not throwing money away."

Ellender also declared that John J. McCloy, U. S. high commissioner in Western Germany, and his staff have been "living like princes" in luxurious offices and dwelling quarters.

He said he wants this government to require western European nations to earmark greater portions of their production to the mutual assistance program and the building of a joint military force to resist Communist aggression.

House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin, Jr. (Mass.) and Rep. Leonard W. Hall (N.Y.) back from a round-the-world tour, issued a statement of their own, denouncing "muddling" in foreign aid.

"We were surprised to learn that one reason why France has not been able to supply all its defense in the European army on schedule is because the United States has failed to provide the necessary equipment for which Congress appropriated the money some months ago," they said.

Meanwhile, Harriman told a news conference the newly revised North Atlantic defense plan provides for a "striking increase in available forces during the coming year."

Harriman, who headed a 12-nation group at Paris which made the revision said the stronger forces contemplated would be a "major deterrent to aggression in Europe."

The revised plan puts emphasis on training and equipment of forces already in being. It has been submitted to the 12 governments of the North Atlantic Treaty organization (NATO) for approval.

DOUBLE FUNERAL

HOUSTON (AP)—Double funeral services were held here today for Mrs. Laura Kelly Ewing, 89, and her son, James A. Ewing, Jr., 49.

The son died Wednesday afternoon. The mother died Thursday morning.

Mrs. Ewing was formerly Miss Laura Kelly, daughter of Charles Kelly, founder of the town, near Lufkin, bearing its name and of the Kellys Lumber Co.

Make Pretty Yule Display Of Presdwood

Many of the outdoor Christmas displays that excite comment and admiration are created from a versatile building panel known as tempered presdwood, according to material supply dealers.

Church groups and home owners have, in increasing numbers, followed the lead of retail stores in utilizing these thin, smooth panels for displays which may be used year after year.

Dealers give several reasons for tempered presdwood's popularity for yule displays: Amateur, as well as professional, craftsmen like its easy handling. It comes in panels that are four feet wide and in lengths to 12 feet.

It can be sawed readily into lifelike or smaller figures for traditional Christmas scenes such as the shepherds with their flock of sheep and the principals in the Nativity.

NO SPLINTERING, CRACKING Tempered presdwood takes lots of abuse, and it won't splinter or crack. Since it is moisture-resistant, scenes and figures made from this material can be used again and again.

By using colorful paints, the craftsman can convert the panels into festive, gay creations which express the Christmas story of happiness and good will. Tempered presdwood holds paint well, as it has no grain to rise and cause checks.

Here are some suggestions for tempered presdwood during the Christmas season: For Christmas scenes on the lawn, porch or indoors. Outline the figures on the smooth side of the panel and cut them out with a coping or band saw. Nail them to L or Z-shaped pieces of lumber so they will stand. Prime and apply a top coat of exterior quality paint. As a variation, make smaller figures for a diorama in the window. Indirect lighting will silhouette them for passersby.

SANTAS FOR SHADE PULLS For festive shade pulls, fashion some tiny Santas, about three inches tall, paint traditionally and use them throughout the house, fastening the cords through small holes drilled in the tops of the figures.

Life-size Santa. Brightly painted, the figure may be used beside the Christmas tree or outside. Patterns to trace on the tempered presdwood may be purchased from companies specializing in craftwork.

Dasher, Dancer, Prancer—and the rest with St. Nick and his sleigh can be sawed out, painted and nailed to wooden framework. Fit the ensemble on the rooftop against the chimney, the ridge, or one of the eaves. This favorite group is frequently seen also on the lawn.

Decorative, tall candles, painted bright red and decorated with ribbons, will give a festive appearance to the home if placed at either side of the entrance. Attach the tempered presdwood to a framework of light lumber.

PLAQUES FOR THREE Christmas plaques are something different for the Christmas tree. Glue attractive greeting cards to both sides of thin presdwood which has been cut to the proper size. Hang the plaques on the tree. The youngsters will enjoy decorating tree ornaments, cut into star shapes, with poster paints.

Profit And Loss Statement Shows Position Of Business

NEW YORK — (AP) — Business totted up a profit and loss statement to show both the strength and weakness of its position.

On the plus side was the report business outlays for new plant and equipment in the next three months will top the like period at the start of 1951 by 18 percent. The securities and exchange commission and the Dept. of Commerce joined to estimate that in the first quarter of 1952 business will spend nearly five and three fourths billion dollars on expansion.

The biggest expenditures will be by defense-connected industries. But the non-durable goods makers are planning to spend about 20 percent more than they did a year ago, apparently believing that inflation is here to stay.

On the minus side, however, is the fear of a steel strike hanging over industry. This would knock many brave plans into a cocked hat. And if John L. Lewis' mine workers also threaten a strike later in the first quarter of 1952.

In retail trade, the plus and minus signs also are crowded. Dun & Bradstreet declares today "the dollar volume of retail trade reached a new all-time high in the week ended this Wednesday."

Against that is the federal reserve board's report that department store sales last week fell four percent below sales in the similar week a year ago. Economists trying to reconcile the two reports conclude chain store and apparel store sales are rising, and suburban stores are doing better comparatively than the big city department stores.

But against these plus signs, are official reports that industrial production has slipped below its peak and shows signs of weakening further before defense production pushes it up again.

Many factories report new orders are still dropping and backlogs are lower. Some think this will continue in civilian goods industries through the first quarter of 1952.

GOOD ENOUGH TO EAT — One sweet-toothed youngster could eat up the product of 15 hours labor of Mrs. Dorothy Thompson, 518 N. Somerville. In fact the little merry-go-round would taste good to anyone — it's made of candy and cookies. The roof is red and white sugar; balloons floating on top are gum drops; columns in the center are made of cookies covered with green and yellow hard candies and icing; prancing animals are gingerbread decorated with candy and icing; base is marshmallows and peppermint candy while the poles are peppermint candy canes. Last year Mrs. Thompson made a gingerbread and candy cottage. She uses sugar candy throughout for glue. (News Photo)

Czech 'Porcupine' Takes A Jab At The Communists

By A. I. GOLDBERG
AP Newsfeatures

NEW YORK — Czechoslovakia's "Porcupine" has done it again.

For the second time in less than a year, the Prague weekly satirical magazine Dikobraz — it means porcupine — appeared on the Czechoslovak news stands filled with a fistful of underground barbs at the Red regime.

Somewhat, underground editors managed to publish an edition in April with a cover that looked complimentary to Czechoslovakia's Communist bosses. But just inside and for six more pages, the magazine was filled with cartoons and stories that mocked and derided Russian, Czech, Slovak and every other kind of Communist they could pack into the pages.

There were cartoons that pointed up the Prague gossip about President Klement Gottwald's drinking habits. There were jokes about the heads of the government. There were digs at Stalinism and shockworkers, jibes about the whole Red structure of the new Czechoslovak bureaucracy.

Dr. Jan Papanek, former Czechoslovak delegate to the U.N. who was bounced by the Reds, received one of the two copies known to have been smuggled out of Czechoslovakia. He is still trying to find out what the regime did about it. But underground reports from Prague are slow after a feat like this is pulled off.

Papanek is a member of the National Committee of Free Czechoslovakia, formed by Democratic Czechoslovaks in New York from among those who managed to escape the Communists.

Papanek said Dikobraz' circulation is about 200,000 copies a week but he did not know how far the fake issue had gotten. He did hear, though, that the people in Prague were offering

She is a member of Panhandle Shamrock Garden club and Methodist society. A member of the library board, she assumed her duties Dec. 17.

Hospital Will Loan Iron Lung

SHAMROCK (Special) — Officials of the Shamrock General hospital said the iron lung here is available for other towns in the Shamrock area on need. It is a portable device.

Don Curl, hospital manager, said the machine is available wherever needed. It was purchased by the Jaycees several years ago, but now is kept at the hospital, after being used as a training device by firemen.

Lutherans Plan Holiday Services

SHAMROCK (Special) — Rev. Robert J. Daniel, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, announced the Lutherans would hold services both at Pakan and Shamrock on Christmas and New Years.

Pakan will be the site of a candlelight service at 7:30 p.m. Monday, followed by services at 11 a.m. Christmas Day in Shamrock, in the First Christian church building.

Pakan is the site of New Year's Eve services at 7:30, followed again by New Year's day services in the Shamrock church at 11 a.m.
