Bloodiest Pacific Conquest Closed

Way Is Clear For Drive In Japs' Vitals

By J. B. KRUGER
Associated Press War Editor

United States forces have conquered Saipan-clearing the way for direct strikes from the Western Pacific into the vitals of Japan's empire.

The capital island of the Marianas fell Saturday after 25 days of the bloodiest, costliest fighting in all of Adm. Chester W. Nimitz' drive across the Pacific from Pearl Harbor. Saipan is 1,450 miles south of Tokyo and 1,640 miles east of Manila. The leap from the Marshall Islands to Saipan advanced the Americans 1,150 miles westward.

Now for the first time land-based bombers are in position to rail Manila and the Japanese homeland from the Pacific.

Japan breathed hard from other body blows suffered in its many Pacific wars. Noemfoor Island, off northwest New Guinea and within 800 miles of the southern Philippines, was in Gen. Douglas MacArthur's hands. All resistance there ended a day ahead of Saipan's collapse, adding another nest of airfields for Allied use.

Chinese troops tightened a clamp on Japanese troops trying to re-mount their siege of strategic Hengyang in South-Central China. In Burma organized enemy resistance collapsed at Ukhrul, Japanese base inside the northeast India border. The shattered army, foiled in its attempt to paralyze Allied routes, was fighting furiously to escape annihilation at the hands of the British.

AP Correspondent Remond James wrote from Saipan that the final battle on the island's northern tip "was an ugly spectacle of senseless deaths whose doom was sealed days ago."

Probably 95 per cent—or 10,000—of the Japanese garrison perished in defending the island. Civilians surrendered by the hundreds. A small side also held a crowd of unwounded Japanese soldiers, a rare spectacle in the Pacific war.

Toward the end of the fight, with the Japanese hidden in caves and other defenses, U. S. airmen noted signs of bewilderment and terror among the soldiers and civilians caught in the act.

"At one place," James wrote, "scores of Japanese swam out into the sea as the battle drew nearer and nearer to them. There were many to swim and they had to swim back on down, x x x Shortly before dark the last organized positions fell to the Americans."

U. S. casualties through June 28 were 4,474 dead and 8,278 wounded. Allied reports said Japanese casualties in Burma and India since the start of the year numbered 90,000 and probably 100,000 in the Southwest and Central Pacific in the last seven months.

Divorce Statute Tightened, More Births Wanted

MOSCOW, July 10—(AP)—The Supreme Soviet has issued a sweeping decree to strengthen family life by making divorces more difficult to obtain and by granting increased financial aid for large families.

Causing a sensation throughout Russia, the decree made divorces as hard or harder to obtain in the Soviet Union than in some parts of the United States, and provided for payments ranging up to a lump sum of 5,000 rubles, or about $950, at birth of an 11th child, plus a monthly payment of 300 rubles, or $37.

DeGaulle-FDR Understanding; General Moving into France

General Charles de Gaulle, reporting his conversations with President Roosevelt, announced today he would move his capital from Algiers to liberated French territory as soon as possible.

"I had very broad and frank conversations with President Roosevelt," De Gaulle told a press conference, adding that he was taking away "the best possible impression from my stay in the capital of the United States."

The French leader said he explained to the President "as well as I could, how France, gradually emerging from her temporary misfortune, intends to participate with her Allies, at her rightful place, first in the war and then in the life of the world at peace."

De Gaulle said President Roosevelt spoke to him of American responsibilities for the war and for the peace with a breadth of view, a knowledge of the problems and an idealism which particularly impressed him.

The general discussed his meeting with Mr. Roosevelt and taking a plane for New York.

Texas Question Headed Toward Chicago Strife

By DAVE CHEAVENS

AUSTIN, July 10—(AP)—Texas Democrats today were headed for a showdown before the national convention in Chicago in inter-party strife over the fourth term issue.

Roy Sanderford of Belton, former state senator and permanent chairman of the regular convention, announced yesterday that the convention "re-dedicated its members to fundamental Democratic principles and adopted a program to make these principles effective. Those responsible for carrying out this program will not trade or compromise on these principles or any other part of the program."

Sanderford's statement was issued through Charles E. Simons, secretary of the executive committee. It stated publicly what other regular convention leaders have often said privately since the split May 23. Many felt that any compromise would necessarily entail concessions to the pro-Roosevelt faction which

Running Mate Of Roosevelt May Be Left to Dems

By The Associated Press

The Democratic circles today that President Roosevelt apparently has decided to let Henry A. Wallace stand or fall on his own record and to leave entirely to the Democratic national convention the choice of a 1944 vice-presidential nominee.

That report, on which most party leaders are proceeding, came as Wallace headed toward Washington to report to Mr. Roosevelt Tuesday and to reappear in the political scene after several weeks in China and Russia. Doubts as to a fourth term nomination for the president are no longer expressed.

Word seeping from inner party councils indicated that if the convention chooses the chief executive as it wishes, he will express a preference for Wallace. He may let the preference be known anyway.

But he is represented as not prepared to dictate a choice to the convention, which starts July 19 in Chicago. And if the convention discards Wallace, it would be the party taking the action rather than the president, who is noted for loyalty to the men he places around him.

Wallace has his supporters, but there is a strong element of opposition to him in party ranks, much of it from the South. Virginia emphasized that Saturday by voting to instruct its 24 delegates to the convention to ballot against Wallace for renomination.

The Virginia party convention was held Saturday.

Money Talks At Half-Way Point

BRETTON WOODS, N. H., July 10—(AP)—An air of almost smug satisfaction hung over the United Nations monetary conference today although the discussions reached the half-way point without a single publicly announced decision on a major point.

Most of the 43 foreign delegations indicated belief that no plan for postwar international cooperation could succeed without United States participation, that campaigns based on narrow issues of national self-interest would give way short of a threatened stalemate.

An announcement was expected this week of agreement on plans for an $8,000,000,000 monetary fund designed to stabilize world currencies and promote trade among nations.

This compromise, which would find the American attitude predominating on all important issues, will enable the conference to devote its final week to perfecting plans for a $6,000,000,000 reconstruction bank. Work on that mammoth lending agency already is well under way.

One member of the American delegation remarked that "this conference has done more work already than even the most optimistic among us ever hoped we could accomplish at this time."

Chamber Secretary Returns from Meeting

Garnet Reeves, secretary of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, returned this week-end from Austin where he attended a junior college conference held at the University of Texas.

A dozen Texas cities are considering forming junior colleges. Locally the movement has never progressed beyond the discussion stage, but since the postwar planning committee of the Chamber of Commerce was interested, Reeves made the trip at their request, he said today.

Idea of the junior college after the war is directed mainly toward vocational training, to benefit three classes:

Those forced out of work by the conversion of war plants to peacetime factories.

Returning war veterans, who may seek new fields, in the event they are unable to find jobs.

High school graduates who need specialized training.

Secretary Reeves pointed out that many boys and girls finish high school, do not want or are unable to attend four years of college, but would welcome a chance to stay in their home towns and have two years college training.

Besides these three classes, a junior college would also benefit adults who desire "refresher" courses.

Among Texas cities contemplating junior colleges are Big Spring, Sweetwater, Cisco, Denison, Midland and Gladewater.

Acute Transportation Problem Faces Nazis

By WADE WERNER

MADRID, July 10—(AP)—Far behind the tumult and destruction on the great battlefront of Normandy, Russia and Italy, the Germans are struggling desperately to stave off defeat on the transportation front—on which the defense of all the others depends.

The situation on this far-flung front which links production areas with the armies is disclosed in German newspapers reaching Spain.

They appeal to the German people to understand the complete stoppage of railway of railway traffic in certain areas, and not to lose patience.

There are numerous articles glorifying railwaymen and urging them to still greater effort, "under conditions of personal danger similar to that fighting front."

In addition there are reports of campaigns to divert every possible self-propelled or horse-drawn vehicle to supplement the dwindling capacity of the bomb-battered and sabotage-ridden railway network.

During the period from March through May, some 800 persons were reported killed in train wrecks in Germany. Railway yards and junctions were hit by air for many months.

The Berlin newspaper Voelkischer Beobachter describes the terrifying intensity of the Allied bombardments preparatory to the Normandy offensive.

"Hundreds of British and American heavy bombers dumped on little railway junctions in France gigantic weights of bombs sufficient to transform whole cities into rubble and ashes," the newspaper reported, "and in addition countless trains have been shot up by cannon and machine guns on marauding planes."

"Since the Normandy landings, it has become even worse with the onslaughts of saboteurs," the newspaper added. Nevertheless, through efforts described as superhuman, railwaymen have managed to keep trains moving to the front, it declared.

Recent underground information from Germany says that numerous railwaymen have been arrested for refusal to man munitions trains passing through heavily bombed areas. The reports assert there is widespread discontent as well as a lack of anti-aircraft protection for the railway centers and trains.

Wallace Has Nothing To Say To Press

WASHINGTON, July 10—(AP)—Vice-President Wallace returned to the capital this morning by plane, and the White House announced he would report later today to President Roosevelt on his mission to China and Russia.

Wallace arrived here from Seattle shortly before 9 a. m. (CWT).

Presidential Secretary Stephen Early said Wallace originally expected to call at the White House tomorrow but that his return, somewhat earlier than had been expected, caused the alteration of plans.

A post-war "Era of the Pacific" marked by vast international air lines and communications systems through areas now thinly populated was forecast by Vice President Henry A. Wallace in a nationwide broadcast yesterday on his return from China and Siberian Russia.

The vice president was in Seattle only briefly to make his address, then continued eastward to Washington, D. C., where he said he would report to President Roosevelt Tuesday.

Asserting that "trade with Russia and China will help keep the factories of America busy in the days that lie ahead," Wallace said he was "convinced that a main area of development after this war x x x will be in the new world of

Internal Crackup Not Anticipated

By The Associated Press

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Supreme Allied Commander in the West, today warned against the growing optimism prevalent throughout the world and predicted "long and bitter fighting before final victory," a pooled broadcast from his headquarters said this afternoon.

Merrill Mueller, NBC reporter at headquarters, made the report to America.

Enumerating the long list of Allies successes in Russia, Africa, Italy and France since the fall of Tobruk two years ago, General Eisenhower said the trend toward optimism was understandable. But he emphasized it was the duty of people in responsible position to state the facts.

Over-optimism doesn't take into consideration one main point—that we are now in a position to hit the Germans where it hurts and the Germans will fight back harder than ever.

Germans Realize Position

Thus General Eisenhower made it clear that while the possibility of a crack in German morale was not excluded, he believed Gestapo control was so complete over Germany that internal collapse was a false hope. We must be prepared now in all our operations—home front and fighting front—for bitter fighting right around the German perimeter. There will be fighting of the most strenuous character with heavy losses.

The general picture of overoptimism must be sobered by the very definite conclusion that we have really got to fight for every foot we get, both locally and in the general strategic position. The general said the taking of Caen was most gratifying and we are on the offensive all along the front.

New Head Named For Texas Tech

FORT WORTH, July 10—(AP)—Selection of William Marvin Whyburn, 43-year-old Texan and nationally known mathematician, as president of Texas Technological College at Lubbock, was announced today by Charles C. Thompson of Colorado City, chairman of the college's board of directors.

The action was taken at a special board meeting held June 27, at the Fort Worth Club at Fort Worth, but Thompson explained that the announcement was withheld until Whyburn obtained his release from a special government mission for which he was on leave as chairman of the mathematics department of the University of California at Los Angeles.

Whyburn succeeds Clifford B. Jones of Spur, who has been head of the college since Nov. 26, 1938, and who was named president emeritus of the college by unanimous vote of the board.

Jones first submitted his resignation on April 11, 1942, explaining that he was suffering from a heart ailment, and that his physician advised he retire from business responsibility speedily.

Action was delayed by the board in his reluctance to see Jones sever his connection with the institution he had served so long, and he submitted the resignation again on Feb. 12, 1944. After consultation with his physician, the board accepted the resignation on March 15, but asked that the remain on duty until his successor could be chosen. He was a member of the first directorate, appointed in March, 1928, and was board chairman 11 years before assuming the presidency.

"I'm now going to catch up on fishing," Jones said after the board meeting when Whyburn was elected. He attended that meeting and praised his successor as "a capable man who will carry on in the true spirit of Texas Tech."

A man of medium height, bald and black-eyed, Whyburn is a person who smiles quickly and speaks in a low, distinct tone, choosing his words carefully. He claims his principal hobby is "mathematics."

Christian World In Final Tribute To Eminent Pastor

DALLAS, Texas, July 10—(AP)—With simple rites, stately in their simplicity, Dallas and the Baptist world today paid funeral tribute to Dr. George W. Truett, famed preacher and international religious leader, who died Friday.

From noon, the doors of the First Baptist church where Dr. Truett preached for almost 47 years were open for the congregation and friends, for the services starting at 4 p. m.

Rev. Louis D. Newton, Atlanta, Ga., pastor, was to deliver the funeral oration and Robert H. Coleman, the pastor's assistant for many years, was in charge of the services.

Hundreds of letters and telegrams poured into Dallas yesterday as more than 3,000 persons crammed the Baptist church where Dr. E. D. Head of Fort Worth stated: "Our first thought is how we can do without him for we've leaned on him so much."

"But God is not dependent on any one of us," Dr. Head, president of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary continued.

"Dr. Truett would command that we go on. This place is not a place of despair but of glory, so let us go on to victory."

Bearing out the words of one religious leader that Dr. Truett be remembered.

Amarillo Man Will Face Murder Charge

AMARILLO, July 10—(AP)—A. W. Haight, 67, was charged today with murder today in connection with the fatal shooting of his stepdaughter, Mrs. Ruth Waroff, 23, in what Sheriff Bill Adams termed a family quarrel.

Haight, taken to the Potter county jail yesterday, was found with his throat slashed but the wound was not serious hospital attendants reported.

Adams said Mrs. Haight had come into Amarillo to live with her daughter, Mrs. Waroff. Accompanied by the latter and her 16-year-old son, Hugh, Mrs. Haight had gone to the family residence north-west of Amarillo to pack her things, the sheriff related. It was then that the shooting occurred.

WITH THE AMERICAN TROOPS IN NORMANDY, July 3—(Delayed)—(P)—Life in an old chateau in France sounds romantic, but the American troops who tried it the last few weeks say they prefer a cottage in Kalamazoo.

These old hundred-room moss collectors—the villagers usually say the castle is so large they have a room for every day in the year—look pretty on a postcard with their historic moats and crumbling ivy-covered towers. But nobody ever took a postcard picture of the interior in wartime.

The furniture in most cases has been removed or broken by the Germans and the larger rooms look like a hall the morning after a holiday dance riot. Floors are chill and at night you have an uneasy feeling that history—with a capital "H"—is crawling out of the woodwork at you.

Present-day owners often preserve something of the lord of the manor position which is a hangover from the Middle Ages. It takes a marquis or someone with a rich father-in-law even to buy cement to keep the castle from falling apart.

Harvest Brigade Increases Acreage

The goal of the Harvest Brigade, the Home Front armada of 500 self-propelled combines operating in the nation's vital food production fields, has been increased to 1 1/2 million acres.

These 500 machines, organized into the greatest mass-harvesting campaign in history, are now slashing their way through the vast wheat belt to supply a hungry nation with the millions of bushels of grain that otherwise might remain unharvested because of the critical shortages of manpower and farm machinery.

The two harvest seasons thus were telescoped, sending the Brigade in all directions as jobs piled up. The Brigade is working day and night to complete the Oklahoma harvest before the next crop ripens.

The Harvest Brigade was organized by the Massey-Harris Company of Racine, Wis., in cooperation with the War Food Administration. The 500 self-propelled combines were sold early this year to bona fide custom harvesters on their pledge to cut a minimum of 2,000 acres under direction of Brigade officials. The increase to 3,000 acres per machine was unanimously accepted by the machine operators and they are confident of attaining their goal.

Fulenwider's Homer Beat Dodgers, 5-4

In a story-book finish, the Pampa Oilers edged in the Amarillo Dodgers 5 to 4 in a 9-inning game here yesterday afternoon at Roadrunner park.

With two out, Fulenwider, Oiler centerfield, came up to bat, and clouted the first ball pitched over the fence for a homerun and the winning score.

The score was tied in the third inning, 4-4, after neither side had scored in the first and second. Then the Oilers got three runs in the second, and one in the third, and the Dodgers repeated the same number in the same innings.

Ross and Carigan comprised the Dodger battery. Bailey pitched for the Oilers with Stephens catching. Score by innings:

Pampa Oilers 0310000001-5
Amarillo Dodgers 031000000-4
Pampa scored nine hits and made four errors; the Dodgers 10 hits, with only one error.

At 6 P. M. Wednesday, the Oilers will play the Pampa Oilers at Roadrunner park. A game with the Amarillo Bombers is on tap for next Sunday at the same location.

ECONOMY DRIVING HINTS
for Owners of PLYMOUTH • DODGE DE SOTO • CHRYSLER and all makes of Cars and Trucks

- Fast acceleration cuts gas mileage as much as 20-30 per cent. Accelerate gradually in first and second speeds.
Quick starting and stopping wastes gas! Maintain even speed; anticipate traffic stops.
Drive at moderate speeds; 20-30 M.P.H. is the most economical. On the highway, don't exceed 35 M.P.H.
Under-inflated tires increase rolling resistance and tire wear! Check tire inflation weekly.
Dragging brakes waste gas! Keep brakes properly adjusted. For safety, have them relined if necessary.
Have your car lubricated regularly—make sure your oil filter is working efficiently. Replace if needed.
Evaporation occurs faster in hot weather. Don't neglect the battery. Add water frequently as needed.
A dirty or neglected cleaner impairs engine performance. Have the air-cleaner inspected and cleaned if necessary.

Not an A Card in Ye Group

Wherever they went, they walked . . . on guard at every step. Hardships taught our forefathers the virtue of self-reliance and the need for co-operation. Thus, in the humble cradle of privation, the spirit of our Democracy was born.

Our enemies foolishly ignored the enduring influence of our Nation's heritage when they jeered that we were too soft to fight. Little did they dream that, almost overnight, free men could perfect the finest and best-equipped fighting forces the world has ever seen.

So, today when good citizens see an A card on a windshield, they recognize it as a symbol of what people can accomplish who have learned from experience to work together to attain a common objective.

That same spirit will win this war—and in peacetime that same unity of effort will keep America strong and prosperous for our men and women now on the fighting front.

In addition to supplying the armed forces with glider and bomber fuselage frames, wing parts, gun turret parts and foodstuffs, Anheuser-Busch produces materials which go into the manufacture of: Rubber • Aluminum • Munitions • Medicines • B-Complex Vitamins • Hospital Diets • Baby Foods • Bread and other Bakery products • Vitamin-fortified cattle feeds • Batteries • Paper • Soap and textiles—to name a few.

Expectant Mothers Are Aided by USO

"Service wives and prospective mothers—don't travel to military areas if you can avoid it, but if you do be sure you know where you are going to stay."
This is the advice for service men's wives, particularly those who are expectant mothers, received by Mrs. Julia Pagan, in a pamphlet form national headquarters of USO, which is supported by the American people through the National War Fund.
Mrs. Pagan said that methods of giving helpful guidance to service wives regarding prenatal care, understanding of injured or disabled men returning from combat zones, as well as their continuing needs for proper housing and employment are outlined in the pamphlet, now being distributed to nearly 3,000 USO clubs and centers.
"USO advice is given to service men, as well as their wives, if traveling becomes necessary," Mrs. Pagan pointed out. "Before arrival, on arrival, or in residence near camps these young married women have problems of prenatal care and housing to meet, and the USO wants them to be informed about where they can get help."
Mrs. Pagan added that many service men make living arrangements through the USO before the wives actually move to military areas.
Developed by Mrs. Pearl Case Blough and the USO Committee on Services to Women and Girls, the new pamphlet advises all club directors to have on hand at all times complete information as to the proper community agencies to which young mothers and wives should be referred for medical problems as well as recreation, housing and employment.

Miss Dorothy Burton Becomes Bride Of Lt. James L. Chase in California

In a ceremony solemnized June 25, at Long Beach, Calif., Miss Dorothy Burton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Burton, 119 E. Broadway, became the bride of Lt. James L. Chase, Jr., U. S. N. R., son of Mrs. J. L. Chase of Lubbock.
The marriage ritual was read by the Navy chaplain of Los Alamitos Navy Air Station in the Normandy chapel. Floral baskets of white gladioli and fern decorated the altar. Wedding guests registered in a guest book presided over by Mrs. Dan Peppel.
The bride chose a white linen wedding dress with white accessories and carried an arm bouquet of white gardenias tied with satin ribbons.
Mrs. Lurline Venable of Los Angeles served as matron of honor. She wore a powder blue suit with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.
Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Mrs. Dan Peppel. Entertaining rooms were decked with floral arrangements.
Lt. Bud Hopp served Lt. Chase as best man.
Following a wedding trip to Los Angeles the couple is at home at the Wilmore hotel, Long Beach.
The bride is a graduate of Pampa High school and received her degree in vocational home economics from Texas Technological college where she was vice-president of the D.F.D. social club, parliamentary of student council and member of the Home Economics club. For the past two years she has been teaching home economics at Mobeetie High school.
Lt. Chase was graduated from Lubbock High school and attended Texas Technological college. He received his wings and commission from Pensacola Naval Air Station and at present is stationed at Long Beach, Calif.

Used Car Dealer Survey To Be Made

"Used car ceiling prices will serve the intended purpose of keeping our transportation system operating during the present crisis if both dealer and consumer can realize the importance of cooperation regarding the price regulation," according to J. B. Mooney, District Price Executive of the Office of Price Administration.
Pointing out that cooperation comes through understanding the working details of the regulation, Mooney announced that Price Panels of local War Price and Rationing Boards will make an extensive survey of all used car dealers sometime during the week of July 12-19.
The purpose of the survey, he stated, is to make sure that all dealers have received copies of the regulation, to answer any questions pertaining to the regulation, and to see if they understand the provision that all cars must bear the official price tag. Proper tagging, Mooney stated, is one of the most important parts of the regulation.
Local board members have received instructions from the District office of the details of the survey.

2nd Period For Can Sugar Open

Those who failed to apply for canning sugar during the first period are still entitled to the full amount allowable in the two periods, it was announced by the District OPA office at Lubbock.
"The purpose of this second period, which runs from July 1 to December 1," it was said, "is to take care of late fruits available for canning. If you have already received sugar for home canning during the first period and can establish eligibility for additional sugar, application may be made to your War Price and Rationing Board for it."
One may apply now and attach to the application spare stamp No. 37 for each member of the household for which application is being made, the announcement said.

ATTENTION ALL HOME CANNERS

If we all pitch in, 1944 will see the greatest food production in our history.

But that will require your help. It's up to you to: 1, grow every ounce of food you possibly can; 2, use all the food you grow; 3, can your food by the proper and safe methods.

Every ounce of home-canned food is urgently needed. Your Government begs you not only to match what you did last year but, if possible, to better your 1943 record.

Put up fruits and tomatoes by the boiling-water bath method—a safe and satisfactory method for these foods.

But before you begin your 1944 canning of all other vegetables, Good Housekeeping wants to tell you how to avoid a danger that may occur in home-canned food—a danger recognized by many authorities, including the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

That danger is botulinus food poisoning. Botulinus poisoning comes from bacteria that live in the soil and cling to vegetables. It is rare—but it isn't confined to just a few parts of the country, as some people think.

Botulinus germs may be on the food you can. They must be destroyed. Whenever these bacteria are present in the food and are not destroyed during the canning process, they gradually produce a toxin which is poisonous.

It takes hotter-than-boiling heat to kill botulinus germs. Neither hot-water bath nor open-kettle canning provides enough heat to destroy them. That is why we advise: the only safe way to can low-acid vegetables—which means all vegetables except tomatoes—is by the correct use of a pressure cooker!

If you don't already own a pressure cooker, you'll be glad to know that the Government is allowing the manufacture of 400,000 new cookers for sale this summer without priorities.

If you can't buy a pressure cooker, borrow your neighbor's . . . or perhaps you'll find one available through a community canning group. If not, form your own community group, and buy one. To be safe, don't can low-acid vegetables any other way.

We take this opportunity to issue two further warnings: 1. Oven canning is dangerous. It has caused many serious accidents to persons and to property. Shun it! 2. All home-canned foods should be examined carefully when opened. If there is evidence of spoilage, the food should not be used. NEVER TASTE to discover spoilage.

By all means, put up every ounce of surplus food you possibly can. Our armed forces and the hungry nations of the earth need the benefits of our abundance.

Pending definite announcement from Skipper Billy Southworth of the Nationals and McCarthy, baseball men figured today the two pilots would lend with the ace right-handers. Walters has a 14-3 win record for the Reds, Borowy has won 11 and dropped 4 and Hughson boasts a fancy 6-year win streak.

With Lefty Max Lanier of the Cards out of action for 10 days due to an arm injury, Southworth is expected to follow with Rip Sewell of the host Pittsburgh club and Nate Andrews of the Braves in an attempt to smash the junior circuit 6-year win streak.

Bob Munier of the Browns and Hal Newhouse of the Tigers are available for late duty with the McCarthy clan and Bobo Newsom of the A's may get a chance to strut his stuff before a sell-out crowd that will approach 40,000 and dump $100,000 into the bat and ball fund for servicemen.

Phil's Ken Raffensberger of the Americans will see all right-handed hurling. With that in mind, McCarthy's lineup may read like this:

RED HOT UMP Since that Baltimore ball park fire last week, they're calling Umpire Roy Van Pelt "The Man." It was the second time a ball park had burned down after Roy had officiated a game and each time he lost his blue uniform, which is a hard thing to replace these days.

Southworth can use Phil Cavarretta of the Cubs at first base when McCarthy is using a righthander or Frank McCormick of the Reds if a southpaw is on the hill.

Bob Elliott's recent surge may get the Pirate third sacker the call but Whaley Kusowit of the Cards is a better bet for the hot corner.

Chances are that Sandefer will have a private war on his hands in Texas if he goes through with the long-range recruiting, and maybe another if he tries to realize his dream, of getting those two Sweet-water ruckers, Baugh and Turner to coach at Abilene while the proud customers still want to see them.

The league leading St. Louis Browns and the Washington Senators exchanged slouts. The Browns' behind Newman Shirley's two-hit pitching, won the first, 10-6, and the Senators with Dutch Leonard pitching five-hit ball, took the second, 5-0.

The Red Sox and Cleveland split their double header, the Indians winning the opener, 8-2 and the Red Sox the second, 4-2. Bobby Doerr of the Red Sox became the first American single batter to make 100 hits.

Pat Seery of the Indians and Bob Johnson of the Sox each hit his eighth homer of the year.

Hartford Buries 6 Unidentified

HARTFORD, Conn., July 10.—(AP)—Hartford today buried its six unidentified dead as the death list of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey circus fire of last Thursday mounted to 158.

The unidentified, three children, two women and one man, were buried in individual graves in Northwood cemetery. Mayor William M. Mortenson has announced.

The funeral cortege left the hospital at 3 p.m. and stopped at the city hall where Mayor Mortenson, a final tribute from a stricken and sorrowing city which placed to honor with dignity and reverence six unknowns who suffered the same fate as 122 other individuals who were restored to their loved ones through modern identification processes.

Hartford was a city of prayers and funerals Sunday.

In every church, amidst poignant, silent grief, clergymen of all faiths read the names of those in their parishes who had died in the greatest circus catastrophe in the country's history and announced the hours of funeral services.

Meanwhile, investigating agencies pored over reams of testimony taken in hearings, making ready for the coroner's inquest on Tuesday.

Call for Victory Workers Is Made

Repeating their call for men employed in non-essential jobs to take war production employment, the War Manpower Commission, through the U. S. Employment Service, today called on Pampanos to join the war production front.

The local appeal is a part of a national project.

Despite all the calls that have been made in the past, the commission avers "there are many thousands of male workers who are still engaged in non-essential work."

Mayor Farris C. Oden of Pampa, in connection with the latest appeal, today asked "all citizens in this community, both employers and employees, to comply voluntarily in this final push for victory on the home front and to accept these jobs, wherever they may be located and regardless of the personal hardships involved, which will keep the vital flow of war materials at a maximum."

longed not only to his but to all denominations, churches of many faiths held special prayer services yesterday for the former president of the Baptist World Alliance.

Today, flags at the hall of sister here flew at half mast.

In London, Dr. James H. Rushbrooke, president of the Baptist World Alliance, said:

"A prince and great man has fallen in our Israel. Dr. George Truett has for more than a generation held a unique position and influence among Baptists of all lands.

"He was a mighty evangelistic preacher. I think the greatest since Spurgeon. He had a fine presence and voice and the Greek gift of oratory. And above all, his imminence of conviction and deep religious experience was everywhere evident."

"He had built from small beginnings the greatest Baptist church in the Southern states and he honored far beyond the bounds of his own communion. He belonged, in fact, to the whole of the Christian world.

"I would express to my American brethren and especially to his church and family, my profound sympathy at this immense loss."

organized its own convention, conventions which they said they could not make in view of the convention's stand.

The regular convention is sending an uninvited delegation to Chicago, generally regarded as unfriendly to a fourth term for President Roosevelt. It named 23 electors bound to vote for the party's nominee for president and vice-president if the national convention follows its thinking as expressed in several resolutions including one calling for a national platform plank critical of the Supreme Court's Negro vote decision.

The Rump convention's delegates are instructed by Roosevelt, and its electors are unconditionally pledged to vote for the party's nominees. The rival delegations will take their first fight for the privilege of being seated to the credentials subcommittee of the national Democratic committee at a Chicago session July 17.

Sanderford took issue with Jesse Jones, Secretary of Commerce, for saying in an editorial in the Houston Chronicle July 5, that the convention's action in regard to electors would deprive numerous Texans of the right to vote for the man of their choice for president.

His statement said:

"The editorial of Hon. Jesse H. Jones in his Houston Chronicle on July 5th was in error in charging the Democratic state convention has deprived a majority of Texas voters of a right to vote for their choice for president. No voter in Texas has ever voted directly for any president. Texas voters cast their votes for electors who in turn vote for a president.

Packs To Be Prepared For Coming Maneuvers

It's time for the haversacks, the complicated tangle of webbing, straps, and buckles, to be rolled by Company D, 14th battalion, Texas State Guard.

First Lt. Daniel E. Williams today called on all the personnel of the company to be on hand at 7 p.m. tomorrow at the high school building, when packs are to be prepared for the maneuvers scheduled Saturday night and Sunday morning at Danciger park south of Pampa.

Guardsmen are to bring along their blankets to drill Tuesday night. Most of the period will be spent in getting the haversacks out of the lockers, loosening the maze of straps, and rolling up raincoats, blankets, shelter halves, into the haversack, so that everything will be in readiness and no time lost when the company assembles Saturday afternoon at the high school.

Officers have found that it takes considerable time for the untrained men to make up these packs and Tuesday night's work will be with a view toward forestalling any last minute delays.

Physician Looks To Post-War Health

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(AP)—Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntire proposed today that the government provide health clinics to help build up a healthy post-war American youth.

McIntire, the Navy's Surgeon General and President Roosevelt's personal physician, also advocated overall medical and hospital insurance in a paper submitted to Chairman Pepper (D-Fla) and a senate subcommittee on health and education.

His prepared testimony asserted that "there are many ways in which the government could help" without bringing about what he termed "the dreaded so-called 'socialized medicine.'" said formally:

"It would appear from the public utterances of x x x Wallace that he has become a convert to doctrines and ideologies foreign to the faiths and traditions of Virginia."

Wallace said in a radio broadcast at Seattle last night that "I am today more than ever an American x x x the American way of life is the best way for us."

Virginia left her delegates un-instructed on the presidential issue but told them to vote as a unit. The action completed the list of 1,176 convention delegate votes, which are lined up this way on the basis of unofficial tabulations:

Needed to nominate, 589.

Pledged to Roosevelt, 552.

Claimed for Wallace, 408.

Pledged and claimed for former Governor Joseph B. Ely of Massachusetts, 3.

Uninstructed and unclaimed, 213.

In his Seattle speech, Wallace remarked that "unfair freight rates" had long held back the Northwest. In the same connection Senator Stewart (D-Tenn.) said at Washington that he intends to sponsor a platform plank advocating rail rate parity for the South and West with the East.

The North Pacific and Eastern Asia.

During his seven weeks travels, Wallace said he saw virtually no likelihood of postwar "intercine strife in China, nor any chance of conflict between the Chinese and Russia.

"Personally I am convinced that China and the USSR will take the necessary steps to ensure continuing peace and to promote the cultural and commercial exchanges among the nations of the Pacific to the benefit of all.

"However much he might admire the peoples he visited, Wallace said his travels served only to strengthen his faith in the United States.

"Today," he asserted, "I am more than ever an American. The more I examine other countries, the more convinced I am that the American way of life is the best way for us."

SEATTLE, July 10.—(AP)—Vice President Henry A. Wallace refused to discuss either the political implications of his Asiatic trip or the coming election with newsmen before his nation-wide address here yesterday.

To all questions pertaining to these subjects Wallace gave the same answer:

"I am making no comments until I have talked with the president."

Wallace said he would "report certain definite facts which I am not at liberty to discuss here."

The Allies in Italy, on the anniversary of the Sicily invasion, hammered within 10 miles of the west coast port of Livorno (Leghorn). Farther inland, advancing four miles from captured Volterra, other U. S. infantrymen carved a significant wedge in Nazi defenses guarding the Gothic line.

Montgomery's explosive jab southwest of Caen struck on a three-mile front from the Odon river, seizing Etreville and nearby the Oren. The bulk of Rommel's forces, hastily aligned after an organized retreat from the ruined bastion city itself, brooded to meet British and Canadian troops pushing through the city with bulldozers clearing their path through the rubble.

Huge tank battle appeared imminent. Rommel sustained a severe reverse in the loss of Caen, headquarters said, but had not yet met a "major defeat in the field."

American tankboys advanced an average of a mile on the Cherbourg front, and seized two more towns near St. Jean de Daye along the center of the battlefield. Over the weekend the Allies captured more than 30 towns and villages.

Allied planes gave close support to ground troops, lashed at German reinforcements and wrecked or destroyed 85 enemy tanks, trucks and armored cars Sunday. In double blows Sunday Italy-based bombers raided the Poesti oil fields, and bombers from the west hammered rocket-bomb emplacements. Women children, and non-essential workers were evacuated from London as "buzz-bombs" continued to fall sporadically on the British capital.

Cotton Acreage In Texas At Low Mark

AUSTIN, Texas, July 10.—(AP)—Texas' cotton acreage this year has hit the lowest mark of the century.

The crop reporting board of the United States Department of Agriculture estimated acres planted on July 1, at 7,235,000, seven per cent lower than last year and the smallest since 1890, when acreage was 6,950,000.

Peak planting of cotton acreage in Texas was in 1925, when farmers seeded 18,440,000 acres. Land once planted to cotton, said the USDA, is now being used for production of sorghums and other foods.

One factor in the situation is that the season was not favorable for cotton this year. Many farmers were not able to put in their usual amount of planting time over the central, eastern and southeastern portions of the state, and because of excessive dryness in the South Plains.

Many early fields were taken by grass, were abandoned and later planted to feed crops.

Such cotton as the state had, however, was in good condition.

Complaints Made For Servicemen

KANSAS CITY, July 10.—(AP)—R. B. Handy, Jr., Adjutant General of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, declares that some of the men returning from combat duty overseas have complained that:

(a) They have been refused furloughs.

(b) They are given little rest or liberty.

(c) Some of the wounded and ill are being discharged from hospitals "with only perfunctory physical examinations."

Handy said the VFW Bureau in Washington had written the army and navy about ten days ago for an investigation of these complaints.

PENICILLIN FAILS CASE

CARLSBAD, N. Mex., July 10.—(AP)—Treatment with penicillin proved unavailing, and six-month-old Jimmy Lee Blackstock died of meningitis yesterday.

An army bomber from Biggs field, answering an urgent appeal, flew a supply of penicillin here from El Paso July 3 in an effort to save the child's life.

"BUILDING MOUNTAIN GUN EMPLACEMENTS IS TOUGH ON TRUCKS..."

"Sure glad we've got FORDS!"

Reliable performance has made the Ford Truck a favorite everywhere. Operators tell how easy these trucks are on gas, oil and tires, how seldom they're laid up and how little repairs cost.

New Ford trucks are now available to meet urgent needs. If you are entitled to buy a new truck, see your Ford dealer promptly.
