Waiting for a telephone?

Here's Why Many Folks in Pampa Can't Get Service...

At sea or ashore, at the front or behind the lines, fighting men must have telephones. Ship telephones are shown in action here, during an air attack.

If you are waiting for a telephone these days, it is because the telephone system here is being used at full capacity.

And right now we can't get the equipment required to increase that capacity. Western Electric Company, supplier for the Bell System, still is rushing out field telephones... wire... switchboards... walkie-talkies... airplane and tank radios... throat microphones... and volumes of other communications equipment or electrical weapons to the army and navy.

We're stretching the telephone lines and equipment here to serve every customer we possibly can. But despite all we do, the waiting list keeps growing.

We are sorry that many of you have to wait. We appreciate your patience and your understanding that materials and communications for our fighting men must come first.

We, the Women

By RUTH MILLETT

Neighbors in a southern city were horrified when they saw a man whipping a nine-year-old child left in her care by working parents, and reported her to the police.

The maid was cleared of a charge of assault and battery when the child's parents testified that they had put the maid in charge of their four small children and given her permission to punish them when they needed it. And they thought the child needed the whipping.

But the judge of the juvenile court called the parents in and warned them that the court would take their daughter into custody unless the parents agreed not to permit anyone but themselves to whip the child.

The case has created quite a stir in the city, with some folks siding with the juvenile judge's verdict, and others siding with the parents.

It seems to me that in saying "I am not going to sanction putting a child under the supervision and authority of a maid with the privilege of whipping a child" the judge of the juvenile court is showing concern over the least important aspect of the situation.

Isn't it far more important that a maid is responsible for a child's care, feeding, and upbringing—that that the maid is permitted to whip the child?

Isn't the real harm in the fact that a child must run to a maid for all his wants, his reassurances, his comfort when hurt, instead of to its own mother?

In a situation that is basically unfair to a child the matter of an occasional whipping seems minor.

BOOKS of Today

By JOHN SELBY

"Boot," by Cpl. Gilbert P. Bailey, U.S.M.C.R. (Macmillan, $3.50).

In a supposedly paper-short country I fall to see how the publishers of "Boot" got away with the waste of glazed stock they got away with—but I'm rather glad they did. This handsome book is the most amusing, and at the same time most informative, book on military training I have read, not excepting Pvt. Hargrove's remarkable contribution.

The author is Cpl. Gilbert P. Bailey, U.S.M.C.R. Cpl. Bailey was editing a weekly newspaper in Delphi, Ind., when he saw a film about Wake Island. He joined the Marines in Indianapolis, nine of the ten men in his detail were sent for training to San Diego, and Bailey (not his to wonder why) went to Parris Island. The girl he met on the train said he didn't look like the Marines she had seen on the posters, the conductor on the jerkwater local to Yemassee told him to holler all he pleased now but keep his mouth shut on the Island. The fledglings were met by trucks, and toted into the camp to a chant—"You'll be sorry!"

Cpl. Bailey was never sorry, nor were the boys who shouted him. It's just the way the Marines work. They had told him that the Marine Corps would rub out the last trace of individuality, and Bailey believed it when he looked in his glass after his first haircut. They told him every Marine, whatever his detail, must be a fighting man; when lecturing on the use of a rifle, "Let the other bastard die for his country. You live for yours."

Bailey's life was "Right—FAYH! Laf—FAYH! Laf—FAYH! Laf—FAYH! Well, I'll be a sad sack!" for weeks on end. He learned everything from foot care to rifles.

But although there is a world of important information in "Boot," its use for civilians is something else. Cpl. Bailey has caught the true the boys who shouted him the spirit of the Marine Corps. Every line "feels" right, and the photographs by Cpl. Edward J. Freeman and Pfc. John H. Birch, Jr., are among the best of their kind.

A MESSAGE TO MOTHERS ABOUT THE FLETCHER'S CASTORIA NOW ON SALE

ON EACH BOTTLE of the Fletcher's Castoria you buy today, you will see a Serial Control Number

This number is plainly visible through a "window" in the package.

Here's what the Serial Control Number means to you:

The Fletcher's Castoria now being made is given three different kinds of rigid tests... chemical, bacteriological, and biological. The Serial Control Number on each bottle is your positive, visible proof that all these tests have been made.

In this way, you have full assurance of the quality and dependability of Fletcher's Castoria—long recognized as the ideal laxative for children.

Millions of mothers welcome the news that Fletcher's Castoria is now on sale at their druggists. This is the original and genuine Fletcher's Castoria... the laxative made especially for children.

The next time your child needs a laxative, ask for Fletcher's Castoria. It's mild and gentle, yet effective. And it's pleasant-tasting, so you don't have to "force" your child to take it.

Look for these features on the new Fletcher's Castoria package:

- The Green Band... around each package... quickly identifies the laboratory-tested Fletcher's Castoria now on sale.
- The Serial Control Number... on the bottle label... is clearly visible through a "window" in the outside package.

NOTE: Until sufficient stocks can be made available, it may be that your druggist won't have enough Fletcher's Castoria to meet all demands. If he happens to be out of stock when you ask for Fletcher's Castoria, please be patient. He will have it for you shortly.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. NEW YORK, July 17.—(AP)—Having recently cast what might be recognized as a few aspersions on the climate of Texas, this dept. has to make amends by reporting that the Lone Star State is back in the big time in the boxing business.

pick up a piece of change... "money floats like water in this state," says Martin, "and people will lay it on the line, to see any kind of sporting contest."

FAN FARE "The Golden Gloves has helped put boxing back on a level where mothers will let their youngsters attend," Martin adds. "In fact, mamma usually is sitting right down ringside, sipping, gum and a 'kill the bum' attitude. It's the war!"

FURNABOAT Just to prevent any head swelling, we note it was a Texas paper that recently had this about George Walmaley who is expected to play a lot of football for Rice this year: "For three years he was named the most valuable player in district 14-AA."

Putt and Brownie Wind Up All Even Putt Powell of The Amarillo News and Brownie Emerson of The Pampa News broke even in their golf-tennis match for the Copy Boy championship of the Panhandle at the Amarillo country club yesterday.

Putt matched Brownie 8 and 7 in the golf match but the Pampa sports editor pinned Powell's ears back 6-1, 6-0 in tennis. The overall loser was to serve the other as copy boy for a day, but since they split on the deal they decided they have to play a return match in Pampa to settle the argument. That will be some time in August.

Pictured above is Ed Green, pressman at The News, holding a worthwhile catch he made in the Brazos River a few days ago. That is a 28 1/2-pound catfish he is holding, and he caught it on a cane pole with live bait. He says just where he got it is a military secret.

Oilers Lose To Amarillo Nine

The Pampa Oilers baseball team dropped a game, 9 to 0, to the Amarillo Bombers yesterday afternoon at the Roadrunner park here.

Behind the bat for the locals was Fullenweider, who will play center field next Wednesday in a game against the Pampa Air Base Flyers. Bailey was on the mound. (Story on this page.)

Cook was the winning pitcher, with Grant behind the plate. Amarillo scores one in the fourth, one in the fifth, three in the sixth, three in the eighth, and one in the ninth.

The Oilers made no runs, five hits, eight errors; the Bombers nine runs, nine hits, three errors.

Volo Song Out-It's Broken Leg

ELKHORN, Wis., July 17.—(AP)—Volo Song, world champion trotting stallion, is through as a competitor; his career cut short by a broken leg suffered yesterday in a $400 race, but veterinarians and trainer Harry Fitzpatrick hoped to save him for breeding purposes.

Winner of the $50,000 Hambletonian classic for 3-year-old trotters at Gossamen, N. Y., last August, the handsome brown Volomite had, less than a week before, set a world record for trotting stallions of 1:57 3-4 at Cleveland.

Paul Derringer Is 'Mr. Big' in Sports

CHICAGO, Ill., July 17.—Paul Derringer, veteran pitcher of the Chicago Cubs, is "Mr. Big," generally speaking when it comes to wearing handsome equipment, but Mike Nyamick of Cleveland and Johnny Gee of the Pirates put in "large orders" when preparing to dress for baseball activity.

Derringer, for example, wears a size 50 shirt and orders a 7-5-8 cap about the biggest all-around man on the diamond. Bobo Newsom, who has settled down with Connie Mack's club, is only 46, "Big," generally speaking when it comes to wearing handsome equipment, but Mike Nyamick of Cleveland and Johnny Gee of the Pirates put in "large orders" when preparing to dress for baseball activity.

These facts, and others of a similar nature, are revealed by Jimmy Carrig, the "Goldsmith" man, who has been measuring major leaguers for the last twenty years and who can just about tell you how many times a given player can sneeze before the button pops off his collar.

Browns Turn Home With 2 More Games

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Writer

The St. Louis Browns, en route home today from their second eastern road trip, still are perched at the top of the standings, giving every indication they are the team to beat for the American league flag.

They wound up their stay abroad by capturing both games of a double header from the Cleveland Indians, 8-7 and 2-1, before 32,553, with both games going 12 innings. The double win gave the Browns a record of 10 wins and 10 losses on their trip, after having dropped four of their first six games. The showing is a great improvement over their first road trip, when they won only five victories against 12 defeats.

The sweep increased the Browns' first place lead over the New York Yankees to two full games. Jack Kramer went the distance in the final to register his ninth victory, his first since June 13.

Four Yankees gave the New York Yankees a 7-1 victory over the Boston Red Sox in the opener of a scheduled two-game series at Fenway Park in the second game. The victory gave the Yankees the series, four games to one. Dizzy Trout won his 12th of the season as Detroit and the Chicago White Sox divided their doubleheader, the White Sox winning the second 7-2 and the Tigers taking the second 7-3.

The Chicago Cubs and the Pittsburgh Pirates exchanged 1-0 shutouts, with Hank Wyse of the Cubs leading the nod over Truett (Rip) Sewell in the opener, and Max Butcher of the Pirates shading Claude Passeau in the second before 40,920 at Wrigley Field.

A trio of singles in the second inning of the opener gave the Cubs their 14th victory in 20 games. Butcher, besides holding the Cubs to two hits in the finale, scored the Pirates' lone run on his eighth inning double and Pete Cascarara's single at Wrigley Field.

The league-leading St. Louis Cardinals and the Cincinnati Reds split their doubleheader. The Reds won the opener 4-2. The Reds took the nightcap 3-2 on Harry Breehen's balk in the eighth inning, allowing Eddie Miller to score the deciding run. Sylvester (Bink) Donnelly won his first major league game in the opener.

Washington won two games from the Philadelphia Athletics, 9-4 and 4-3, with Milo Candini and Mickey Haefner gaining the decisions. Geo. Case stole a base in each game to

Oklahoma Team Defeats Fliers

The Frederick, Okla., Army Air Field enlisted men's nine defeated the Pampa Army Air Field Flyers 8 to 5 in a game at the local field.

The Flyers will meet the Pampa Oilers on Wednesday at 6 p. m. at the Road Runner Park for another in their "grudge" games. A game was planned for last Wednesday, but it was rained out. Three weeks ago the two teams had a 0-0 score in the second inning when the game was called because of rain.

Six weeks ago the Oilers edged out the opposition 2-0. In the first game of the season the Flyers won over the Oilers 12 to 7.

Following are the batting orders of the teams for the forthcoming game:

FLIERS: Mangel, Ridgway, Cook, Stevenson, Arrington, Fullenweider, Stephens, Bailey

BACK THE FIFTH Teams Play Tonight For State Place

DALLAS, July 17.—(AP)—Forest Avenue and Highland park "clash" here tonight for a spot in the state American Legion Junior baseball play-off.

This will eliminate the field to four teams—Lubbock, Waco and Austin in losing the opener. BIA Curt Davis gained the distinction of ending the Dodgers' slump with route-going seven-hit performance. The New York Giants dropped the first game to the Philadelphia Phillies, 6-2. They were leading 6-3 after eight innings of the nightcap, when the game was halted by the Pennsylvania 6:55 p.m. curfew law. This game will be completed at a later date.

Bi-Lingual Club 1 Language Now

WASHINGTON, July 17.—(AP)—The Washington Ball Club, a bi-lingual outfit all season, was back on an English-speaking basis today. Of some 15 Latin-Americans who turned up at the training camp last spring, only two remained—and they both converse in "Americano."

Two of the team's mainstays, infielder Gilberto Torres and outfielder Roberto Ortiz, and a substitute catcher, Fermín Guerra, quit the club yesterday after being told by National Selective Service officials to register for the military draft or leave the country.

Torres, Ortiz and Guerra—whose departure made Washington's already feeble pennant hopes blacker than the darkest night—elected to return to their Cuban homes and subject themselves to army calls there.

A fourth Cuban, rookie infielder Pedro Gomez, decided to stick with the club and register in this country. Gomez and Alejandro Carrasquel, veteran relief pitcher from Venezuela, are the only Latins left on the squad. Carrasquel wasn't involved in the draft directives.

University President Denies Moving Rumor

GALVESTON, July 17.—(AP)—Statements of Dr. Homer P. Rainey, president of the University of Texas, regarding the Galveston Medical branch which Dr. Rainey recommended be moved to Austin, are contrary to facts, Dr. Chauncey D. Leake, vice president and dean of the medical school asserted today.

Dr. Leake declared that the school of medicine is fully and completely approved for Grade A standing by both the Association of American Medical Colleges and the Council of Medical Education and Hospitals of the American Medical Association.

Referring to statements Dr. Rainey made about the medical school, the Dental School at Houston and the John Sealy College of Nursing, Dr. Leake said:

"The statements made by the president that the schools are and will remain sub-standard is contrary to fact and not conducive to the promotion of morale in these institutions."

Dr. Leake declared Dr. Rainey is apparently misinformed regarding the status of the institutions, citing approval given by national accrediting agencies.

ular delegation gave his party a send-off with a statement defending the action of the state convention in only conditionally binding its electors to vote for the national session's nominees. The former governor said there was nothing arbitrary about the demands made upon the national convention by the Texas delegation, which holds unusual power because of the strategic position occupied by its 23 electors.

The pro-Roosevelt delegation instructed to vote for President Roosevelt, and the regular delegates are uncommitted. The pro-Roosevelt electors are bound outright to vote for the party's nominees.

Moody said that if the national convention fails to abide by the Texas demands, then the regularly-constituted convention's electors should declare how they intend to vote. Should this be against the party's nominees, he continued, then then names of electors pledged to vote for the party's nominees should also be printed on the November election ballot.

The regularly-constituted convention's electors are not bound to vote for the party nominees if the national convention fails to adopt platform planks critical of the supreme court's Negro vote decision, if it fails to adopt the two-thirds rule, and if it seats the pro-Roosevelt delegation.

Moody said that requirements of the Negro vote resolution "can be met by declaring only for well-recognized principles of constitutional law"; the demands of the two-thirds rule resolution by "re-adopting the ancient rule of the Democratic party"; and that if the national convention fails to recognize the state convention, then there is no reason why the electors should be bound to support the national convention's nominees.

lations ashore were fired. Japanese troops applied heavy pressure to break Hengyang's resistance and were attacking Yingtak 225 miles to the south. The Chinese, claiming 14,000 Japanese died in the Hengyang siege, said they were counterattacking continuously to prevent the seizure of the 175-mile gap in the Hankow-Canton railway, on which Hengyang is an important junction.

House-to-house fighting raged outside the walls of Tengchung, prime target Japanese base above the Burma road in Yunnan province. Chinese troops also fought hard near Lungling, another Burma road base. The Allies need to reopen a land route to China. In north Burma Stilwell's rain-sodden men continued whittling down the Japanese defenders of Myitkin.

On New Guinea's north coast Allied troops firmly held their Drinimur river positions after turning back two attacks by a Japanese force trying to break out of entrapment. Gen. tary of agriculture and four as vice president, stating that if he would vote for Wallace's renomination.

However—and it was on this point that other candidates pinned high hopes—the president was reported to have said that because of wartime conditions, he did not feel that he should impose his will upon the convention, but should leave the matter for the delegates to decide.

On the other hand, there were some who said the effect on the delegates of Mr. Roosevelt's personal appeal for Wallace could not be discounted.

Accordingly, they were not counting on Wallace, who will arrive here Wednesday to help direct his own campaign.

Senator Joseph Guffey of Pennsylvania, one of Wallace's floor managers, said the vice president would have 250 votes on the first ballot and would be a second ballot winner. A total of 589 votes will be required to nominate.

Amid all of this meanwhile, Barkley was scheduled to arrive today to put personal impetus into his own campaign. He will nominate Mr. Roosevelt for the presidency, and his friends were combining this fact with other circumstances to cite him as the logical second place candidate.

They said that Barkley's record of having supported the anti-poll tax and anti-lynching bills made him more acceptable to Northern city organizations which hope to keep the Negro vote in camp. His Kentucky border state residence also was considered attractive.

There was much talk that if the convention does not take Wallace it ought to nominate a comparatively young man for vice president to offset the accent put on youth by the Republicans with the choice of 42-year-old Thomas E. Dewey as their standard bearer. Mr. Roosevelt is 62.

This may leave the way open for a younger man of the caliber of Senator Robert Lucas of Indiana, Federal Circuit Judge Sherman Minton of Indiana, Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming, Senator Jackson, Senator Claude Pepper of Florida, Gov. Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma, Tom Keynoter, and others listed among the hopefuls, sharing interest with the vice presidential race was a controversy between contesting delegations from Texas and South Carolina for convention seats. The national committee arranged for subgroups to hear both sides of this argument late today for a decision that could have a great deal of bearing on talk of a possible bolt of southern electors.

A "regular" Texas delegation, composed by a pro-Roosevelt group, came bearing state-convention approved resolutions instructing Lone Star electors not to vote for the party's nominees if they were not seated.

The South Carolina contest involved an all-white delegation prepared to instruct its electors later on their course—depending on what the convention does about restoring the two-thirds nominating rule, "white supremacy" and other issues—and opposed by a Negro group that wants President Roosevelt for four or as many as ten terms.

There also was trouble from party leaders in Mississippi but one delegate from that state predicted that if Wallace is not renominated, the electors there will go along with the party choices. This was conditioned somewhat, however, on the platform so leaders want to keep the platform so brief it may not touch at all on racial and other controversial domestic questions.

Home Canners Warned Of Deadly Poisoning

"Now's the time to can every surplus ounce of food; but to do your patriotic bit to stretch food supplies, it is essential to can properly so that you won't waste precious food or endanger family health."

"This appeal to home canners was made today by Katharine Fisher, director of Good Housekeeping Institute.

"There is vital need to can as many vegetables as possible as well as fruits," Miss Fisher said. "But the only safe way to can any vegetables, except tomatoes, is by correct use of the pressure cooker. This method is the only one which provides the hotter-than-boiling heat that's necessary to kill botulinus germs which may be on any non-acid food you can—and that means all vegetables except tomatoes. When botulinus germs are not killed in the canning process, they thrive in sealed jars and create a powerful poison."

"This botulinus poisoning comes from bacteria that live in the soil and cling to vegetables. Although rare, botulinus poison is particularly dangerous because it usually does not change the food's appearance, odor or taste. Analyses of soil indicate that there is a chance that botulinus spores may be found almost anywhere. Fortunately, they are harmless until they get into air-tight jars of canned food."

"In addition to safeguarding against the danger of deadly botulinus poisoning, the correct use of the pressure cooker protects against other types of spoilage," Miss Fisher said. "A recent national survey showed that home canners who put up non-acid vegetables by the hot water bath method reported a hundred per cent greater rate of spoilage than those who used the pressure cooker method."

"Don't let any food go to waste because you don't have a pressure cooker. The government has allowed the manufacture of 400,000 pressure cookers without priority for distribution this summer. If you can't buy one or borrow a neighbor's, you may be able to find one available through a community canning group. Or you might form your own community group and buy one.

"In addition to recommending the pressure cooker method as the only safe way to can low acid vegetables, Good Housekeeping magazine also warns that oven canning is a potential source of serious accident to person and property and dangerous to such a degree that it should be shunned."

"Never taste to discover spoilage" is another vital warning to home canners," Miss Fisher pointed out. "All home canned products should be examined carefully when opened and, if there is any evidence of spoilage, the food should not be used."

Delinquents To Be Hired by Santa Fe

Announcement was made today by E. E. McCord, general manager of Santa Fe Railway's Coast Lines, of a program being launched by the Company which will provide employment for wards of the Juvenile Court.

In collaboration with Judge Samuel R. Blake, in charge of the juvenile department of the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, Col. Vicente Feralta C., Mexican Consul General at Los Angeles and Daniel C. Marcus, consulting attorney for the Mexican Consulate, this experiment will get under way with Santa Fe's employment of fifty Mexican boys as track laborers in extra gang headquarters at Dagret, California, where they will receive standard pay.

Do away with Red Tape, Boards, Bureaus and Regulations—Vote for LAMARR BAILEY FOR CONGRESS (Political Advertisement) and as benefits of labor agreement. Each boy will receive one-half of his wages, the other half will be held by juvenile probation officer of Los Angeles County to be retained until such time as the juvenile Court proceeding is terminated, when accumulated sum will be paid the boy or his parents, subject to the order of the Court. They will work eight hours per day, six days a week. On proof of their adaptability and performance they will have the opportunity of advancing in Santa Fe service.

Responsible for the inauguration of this program, Judge Blake stated, "This is the first instance where a major corporation has shown a willingness to cooperate in the correction of juvenile delinquency, which is a problem of increasing civic and economic significance. It is hoped that Santa Fe's lead in this most needed rehabilitation program will be followed by other industries."

The proudest title in the Army

IT CONSISTS of two simple words. Yet every soldier who's worth his salt covets it. This title is simply: "Good Soldier." It isn't just happenstance that so many women in the WAC have earned this title—the proudest in the Army. For wherever Wacs are working, both here and overseas, there you find a job well done. And done with a spirit so gallant and fine that high Army officers everywhere say of the WAC... "They're soldiers. Good soldiers!"
