LOOKS BAD—BUT IT ISN'T

No, this B-25 medium bomber, the type now being used at Pampa army air field, is not on fire. The flames and smoke streaming from it are from rocket take-off units, used to assist heavily-laden planes into the air from short runways. Photo was taken at Wright field, Dayton, O., where the AAF materiel command made successful tests of the device.

GI May Decide Vote In Eleven States

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—(AP)—The soldier vote may decide the election in at least 11 states—including the five with the largest number of electoral votes.

It may be the margin of victory in New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, California and Ohio, which cast a combined vote of 160 in the electoral college, as well as in Colorado, Kentucky, Maryland, Minnesota, Oregon and Rhode Island. The last six have a total of 46 electoral votes.

Thus G. I. Joe and his sister in arms, an Associated Press survey indicates, already are casting the ballots which may determine whether 206 of the 531 electoral votes will go to President Roosevelt or to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

Three times since 1904 the winner's plurality has been less than 20%. In 1916 it was 2%.

Election officials and party leaders in each of the 11 states except New York have expressed the opinion that the military vote may be decisive. In New York the figures speak for themselves.

Nearly 800,000 New York service men and women have applied for ballots, Republican estimates of the number who actually will vote range up to 400,000. Even democrats most critical of New York's soldier vote system, which does not provide for the federal ballot, agree that well over 200,000 G. I. votes will be cast. Nearly 167,000 had been returned a month before election day.

Roosevelt's New York state plurality in 1940 was 224,440. Herbert Hoover's in 1928 was 103,481. The margin in 1888 was 1,149. And as late as 1938 Dewey lost his first campaign for the New York governorship by less than 65,000 votes.

Pennsylvania, where democrats and republicans collaborated on drawing up a soldier vote plan, expects some 180,000 military ballots—more than enough, Gov. Edward Martin has said, to swing the election.

Illinois' Secretary of State Richard Yates looks for 350,000 soldier votes—"enough," he says, "to insure a loss any election, and particularly important this year in a

Wage Formula Is To Be Maintained Officially Asserts

By JOSEPH A. LOFTUS
Associated Press Labor Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—(AP)—An official in the first circle of administration advisers said today the little steel formula would be held where it is until military experts can safely name that day.

This is not considered as of today to be a pre-election possibility. Disclosure of what amounts to a wartime policy came as the result of a request for comment on yesterday's war labor board decision to omit recommendations from the forthcoming WLB report on wages and living costs.

The official, declining to be identified by name, expressed no surprise at the WLB action and said it was expected and was the sensible position to take.

He said, in effect, that the administration would not tinker with the delicate business of a wartime economy, that it would be time for a chance only when the end of wartime pressures is clearly in sight. Production cutbacks following V-E day will relax competition for man-

County To Receive Reply Soon on Quota

State headquarters of the United War Chest of Texas is expected to inform Gray counties within a few days whether it can lower the 1944 quota to a proportionate part of that of Amarillo and other localities, Jack Hanna, representing the local committee, announced today upon return from Austin where he conferred with state officials.

Pampa's quota in the drive which is now underway was set at $18,432, but the county committee declined to accept it on the grounds that it was out of proportion to certain other city quotas. The county met its quota last year.

Casualty Figures Not Given Today

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—(AP)—War Secretary Stimson omitted his weekly report on army casualties today, explaining that the system of compiling the figures is being revised.

He said the present method has not been sufficiently up to date to meet requirements and "we are now taking care of that."

Tokyo Says 1,000 Allied Planes Deliver Blow Against Formosa

By LEONARD MILLMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Tokyo radio reported 1,000 Allied planes today raided Formosa, guarding the China coast, while others carried out the heaviest mass attack ever made on Japan's vital oil center at Balikpapan, Borneo.

American amphibious forces captured their eleventh island in the month-old invasion of the Palau group, within 800 miles of the Philippines. The newest islet was Batakera, taken without opposition by 81st division infantrymen.

Japanese broadcasts told of an eight-hour air battle over Formosa as "some 1,000 fighter and bomber planes" swept the length of the island. An imperial communique claimed "approximately 100 enemy planes" were shot down in the first six hours of the massive air battle which began at 7 a. m. (Tokyo time).

Principal targets were listed as Tainan and Takao, port cities on the southwestern coast, and Taichu, a railway junction near the center of Formosa.

The attack—assuming the reports to be true—presumably came from vice-Adm. Marc A. Mitscher's powerful carrier force. Tokyo had expressed fear the American carriers were "still lurking" in the area after their smashing surprise raid earlier this week on the Ryukyu islands which link Japan and Formosa.

A carrier smash at Formosa would surpass in daring the raids on the Ryukyus, and would be the closest approach of American naval forces to their goal of the China coast. Heavily-fortified Formosa was the jumping off place for Japanese planes which bombed the Philippines at the start of the war and probably the embarkation point for the recent invasion of the Fochow area on the nearby central China coast.

Earlier Tokyo reported 100 Liberators, attacked by Lightnings, raided Balikpapan Tuesday. If true, it would be the sixth recent strike and the greatest mass raid on the Balikpapan refineries. They have a 3,000,000-barrel capacity and produce 15 per cent of Japan's aviation gasoline manufacturing oil.

And it would be the first use of fighter escorts in Balikpapan raids. The raiding Liberators attacked the Morotai, 825 miles to the northeast. Tokyo asserted 25 bombers and seven fighters were shot down.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur said the reference to Patman favorable refineries and nearby airdromes for four hours Sunday.

Six more barges trying to reinforce remnants of the Japanese garrison, according to Lightnings, were sunk in the sea. In two days MacArthur has announced the sinking or damaging of 24 such vessels since the start of the island drive.

The new islet occupied in the Palau group is 9 1/2 miles northwest of Peleliu, where a Japanese ammunition dump was exploded among Nipponese still holding out. A total of 12,470 Japanese have been killed at Palau.

$524,000 Outlay Recommended for Sewerage System

City commissioners, in a called session Wednesday, accepted and began study of a 39-page report covering recommendations calling for the expenditure of $524,000 on Pampa's sewerage system.

The report, made by Joe F. Ward, consulting engineer of Wichita Falls, at the request of Pampa city commissioners, covers recommendations on the reconditioning of worn-out concrete sewer lines, improving the present sewerage disposal plant and the laying of approximately 17 blocks of storm sewers in the Pampa business district, north and south of the Santa Fe tracks.

Ward based his survey on the present population and future growth from August 24 to September 7, and has submitted the findings together with recommendations to the commissioners, who in turn will study the proposal before definite action is taken.

Ex-College Professor En Route to Prison

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Arthur Goodwyn Billings, 33-year-old former instructor of economics at the University of Texas, was on his way to prison today at Terre Haute, Ind.

Billings will serve a two-year sentence imposed on a charge of refusing to submit for induction in the armed forces.

A one-time socialist candidate for senator from Kansas, he left here yesterday for Terre Haute in custody of a deputy U. S. marshal. He had been held in the Leavenworth county jail since he pleaded guilty and was sentenced Oct. 3 by Judge J. Foster Symes in U. S. district court at Kansas City, Kas.

MIDLAND, Mich., Oct. 12.—(AP)—The will of Mrs. James T. Pardee of Midland, filed today for probate, sets aside securities worth approximately $1,000,000 for research into control and cure of cancer.

The estate value was estimated at about $6,000,000. Mrs. Pardee's husband, Dr. Pardee, who died last January, was a founder and former board chairman of the Dow Chemical Co.

Camp Hood Breaks Blood Donor Record

TEMPLE, Oct. 12.—(AP)—A total of 529 men and women in uniform at Camp Hood gave 529 pints of blood in six hours and 40 minutes to break two national records for blood donations.

The donations, announced yesterday, took place Tuesday. Red Cross officials said the previous records were 395 pints in one day by army personnel and 440 by civilians, the latter in an eight-hour period.

GI Gift-Mailing Deadline Changed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—(AP)—The postoffice department today extended by one day—to Monday, Oct. 16—the deadline for the mailing of Christmas parcels to military personnel overseas.

The action was taken "as a public convenience," since the previously announced deadline of Oct. 15, falls on a Sunday.

Texarkana Denies Group Participated in Politics

DALLAS, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Arthur Temple, Texarkana lumber man, was the first witness to testify at a hearing today by the house committee on campaign expenditures.

He denied that the local committee for constitutional government in "Texarkana engaged in political activities.

He said he was familiar with a sheet circulated in Texarkana headed, "10,000 Is a Lot of Money," and which mentioned Chairman Anderson (D-N. Mex.)

Temple, in answer to questions, said he recalled that the leaflet referred to Patman as being in favor of governmental spending. He said the leaflet was circulated by the committee for constitutional government in New York and not by the local Texarkana group.

Temple said that money raised at Texarkana for the committee for constitutional government was sent to its headquarters and the local group received back 35 per cent for their contests on the constitution. He said approximately $4,150 was raised at Texarkana.

E. M. Biggers, Houston printer, was the second witness.

Yesterday at the opening hearing Ted R. Ewart of Dallas, field director for constitutional government, testified that a list of "somewhere between 7,000 and 10,000" names was obtained from Biggers and sent to national headquarters.

"It went to New York and probably was added to the mailing lists," said Ewart.

He and Mrs. Sara M. Earley, employe for the committee for constitutional government's Dallas office, were the only witnesses in the short session yesterday.

Ewart asserted repeatedly that the committee for constitutional government was not engaged in political activity. He testified that his salary was $1,000 monthly and that in addition he received a 3 per cent fee on all money raised for the committee in Texas and sent to national headquarters.

He said that headquarters rendered his commission accounts by towns which had been paid, and not by lists of contributors.

(The House group has been trying to obtain names of contributors to the committee. In Washington Dr. Edward A. Rumely, executive secretary of the organization, was indicted by a federal grand jury after his refusal to furnish the congressional group a list of contributors to his committee.

(Both he and Publisher Frank Gannett of Rochester, N. Y., who founded the organization in 1937, have insisted that they are seeking

6-Year-Old Child Victim Hit-Run

SHAMROCK, Oct. 12.—(AP)—M. L. Simpson, paratrooper who has been stationed in Missouri but on leave here, was charged today with hitting and running over the six-year-old child of Mrs. Charles Bohler, 6, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bohler, as she was returning to school at noon yesterday.

Simpson, who denied the charges today, was released last night on $1,000 bond and will appear for hearing tomorrow morning at 10.

Charges were filed against him by County Attorney Homer Moss after Moss and other officials, including Shamrock City Marshal C. F. Belvin, found blood stains on the Ford car the soldier was alleged to have driven down the main street here.

Condition of the child still unconscious, was called critical at noon today. She was reported to be suffering a fractured leg and jaw, with possible concussion of the brain.

5:30 p. m. had not been made at 11:30 today. Shamrock hospital attendants said she was somewhat stronger in respiration than she was last night.

Marshal Belvin said he and County Sheriff Jesse Swink and Deputy Sheriff Charlie Mison of Mobeetie picked up Simpson a short time after witnesses said they saw the child struck down and saw a car speed away.

Fiercest Battle Of West Is Raging

By The Associated Press

American infantry fought into the factory district on the outskirts of Aachen late today in what Berlin called "the greatest battle ever fought on the western front." At the same time, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme Allied commander in the west, told segments of his armies that "we have a hard job ahead but victory is certain."

Winter Campaign To Be Held

The supreme commander said he would permit no fraternizing with the Germans as his invasion armies move deeper into the Reich.

He is resolved on one thing: that the fight will continue unabated through the winter, if necessary, and as much longer as it may take to crush the enemy. There may be pauses in the Allied advances due to the ferocity of German resistance and our own supply problems, but there will be no letup in aggressive action on the part of the Allies.

The present destruction of Aachen by the American First Army following the refusal of the German commander to surrender to spare the town is a matter of field tactics, rather than general American policy toward German cities, he said. Field commanders, it was made clear, can use their own methods as long as they observe the rules of war.

Praise Goes to Army Units

Discussing recent operations, the general praised the fight of the British First airborne division at Arnhem in Holland.

"I feel myself that not enough credit has been given to the tremendous advantages that accrued to us through operations of the First Allied airborne army," he said, "the First British airborne division not only gave all the Allied forces one of the most gallant examples of bravery, fortitude and courage in all this war, but by drawing upon themselves the fury of the German counterattack, they enabled us to hold important bridges.

"It was a valiant maneuver and it does not detract in the slightest degree from the excellent work and courage of the 82nd and 101st airborne divisions which came behind them. They did beautiful work and I am proud of them all."

In the north an early Nazi withdrawal from Holland was indicated by demolition of installations in Rotterdam, the chief port. Roads in that area were clogged with German transport moving generally south and east, and between Rotterdam and Arnhem the Germans gave up a position on the south bank of the Neder Rhine.

Lt. Gen. Courtney H. Hodges' doughboys smashed a desperate attempt by two columns, totalling about a division, to relieve the defenders of 1,100-year-old Aachen. They closed in from the north and northeast as massed siege guns and divebombers kept up their bombardment.

Fighter bombers lashed furiously at a relief column pushing up in an attempt to hold open a narrow, machine-gun-raked gap. Heavy bombers waited clearing weather to join the all-out assault on the city whose garrison commander rejected a surrender ultimatum.

High Tribute Is Paid U. S. Help

MOSCOW, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Premier Joseph Stalin, praising the industrial might of the United States, told a gathering at the British embassy last night that without American aid the course of the European conflict might have been different.

Speaking at a precedent-setting dinner given in his honor by Prime Minister Churchill, the Soviet premier said both Russia and Britain had played big parts in the war, but the stupendous production and organizing ability of the United States had helped turn the tide.

"It was the most generous and noble utterance of any Russian in this war, and British and Russian guests called it a 'great tribute'.

Stalin spoke long and earnestly of the part played by the United States—the longest talk of a formal dinner which lasted until almost midnight.

Stalin broke all precedent by attending the dinner in the British embassy—the first time he ever had visited any embassy in Moscow.

When the meal progressed for some time without toasts, Stalin inquired if it was against the law to make a toast. Churchill responded with one to the leaders of both countries—King George VI of Britain and President Michael Kalinin of Russia.

Stalin's first toast was to President Roosevelt, and his second to the United States for her part in bringing victory to the United Nations. There were many subsequent toasts to the importance of co-operation and friendship between the three great powers.

Russia, Britain May Reach Understanding

LONDON, Oct. 12.—(AP)—A frank understanding between Russia and Britain in dealing with the Balkans and Poland—two potential threats to Allied unity—appeared today to be emerging from the conferences of Premier Stalin and Prime Minister Churchill in Moscow.

Indications of unity of purpose in dealing with the Balkan situation developed last night when Moscow announced that Bulgaria had accepted preliminary armistice conditions agreed upon by the Allies and had promised to evacuate within two weeks territory seized from Greece and Yugoslavia.

The two rival Polish political factions were called to sit at the same conference table with Stalin and Churchill serving as intermediaries. The last obstacles to a meeting apparently were removed with the disclosure that leaders of the Soviet-sponsored Polish committee of national liberation had arrived in Moscow and that Premier Stanislaw Mikolajczyk of the exile government in London was ready to fly there.

only to stimulate interest in constitutional government.)

Once Anderson, displaying a reprint of a pamphlet which he said had been distributed in Texas by the committee for constitutional government, and which he quoted as referring to President Roosevelt as "the champion spender of all time," and to Rep. Wright Patman (D-Tex) as one "who believes in going in debt," asked Ewart, "Would you regard that as political?"

"I wouldn't know. I wouldn't give an opinion on that," said Ewart. Anderson said the pamphlet had been distributed in Pampa's congressional district before the democratic primary in Texas last summer. He said also that a letter distributed before a meeting at Texarkana early in the year had said the primary object would be to "organize the first congressional district as a unit of the committee for constitutional government."

Mrs. Ewart's testimony was confined to verification of certain vouchers. Ewart testified that his organization was concerned in Texas with promoting contests and education on the constitution in schools and women's organizations; that it had no publicity directed for Texas, and sponsored radio programs only in connection with quizzes on the constitution.

Gatherings asked whether any of the money collected by the organization had been used in campaigns for representatives, and Ewart answered, "No."

Ewart identified photostat copies of records which showed his organization paying for several dinners in Dallas, one of which cost $3,114.15. Anderson asserted that a hearing of the committee in Washington Oct. 4 and Ewart denied that Ewart had been hired because the organization thought he was a good man "to eliminate" Texas democratic Congressman Rayburn. Patman, Lyndon Johnson, and Luther Johnson, in last summer's primaries.

(At the same time Anderson said that J. W. Orenshaw of San Antonio had been hired by the organization also "when the primaries were hot.") Anderson asked Ewart yesterday whether he went to a meeting at Texarkana in the early in the year. Ewart said that Orenshaw "wasn't on the payroll at the time, but he had been corresponding with the New York office, and they asked me to take him up there and show him how to conduct a meeting."

Ewart named Houston, Beaumont, Longview, Dallas, El Paso, Wichita Falls, and Fort Worth, as towns to which he had carried the work of his organization.

Brazilian expeditionary forces in Italy drove to within 29 miles inland of the great west coast naval base of La Spezia, and in Central Italy Fifth army forces attempted to break through the last of the Apennine hills to the Po valley met stiffening resistance. From Ohio's Secretary of State Edward J. Hummel, who declined to estimate how many service persons from his state might vote, comes a statement that 125,000 soldier votes "might easily decide the election." Nearly 120,000 already have been received.

Secretary of State Frank M. Jordan says absentee votes in his state, California, "could easily swing the election." Californians in the service have requested some 275,000 ballots.

The situation in California and Pennsylvania underscores the possibility, suggested in a previous A. P. survey, that in the event of a close election the result might not be known for some time after Nov. 7. Pennsylvania counts its soldier votes Nov. 22, California two days later.

strated that the new deal cannot be trusted to provide productive peacetime jobs.

The contrary view that the work would be far worse off under the new administration was expressed by Chairman Sidney Hillman of the CIO political action committee working for the re-election of President Roosevelt.

Republicans said Hillman in a speech to the CIO shop stewards convention in Philadelphia, stood for a "return to normalcy" to do nothing Hooverian at home and abroad.

President Roosevelt's observation was time from the White House. His immediate audience.

Sen. Harry S. Truman, democratic vice-presidential nominee, said his control was in the non-political category. He will set out soon on a first major campaign tour with its first major speech in Los Angeles October 16.

A group of democratic leaders from Florida, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama assembled at Atlanta, predicted in a joint statement that the South would "accept leadership" back into office.

A group of churchmen and labor union representatives from several Eastern, Midwestern and Southern states, in a religious conference at Pittsburgh, adopted a resolution "defending the right and urging the responsibility of church groups and labor unions to organize for political action."

Alliance Studies Religious Freedom

AUSTIN, Oct. 12.—The Austin Alliance yesterday announced appointment of a committee to study the matter of religious freedom of speech for University of Texas officials and faculty members.

A spokesman for the committee said that while it had no intention of entering into any general controversy between the University of Texas and Dr. Homer Rainey, president of the university, it did propose to make a full study of any question relating to freedom of speech in religious matters.

Chairman of the committee is Dr. Blake Smith, pastor of the University Baptist church. Other members are Rabbi Newton J. Friedman of the Congregation Beth Israel; Rev. David's Episcopal church, Rev. W. C. Rainey, the John G. Townes professor of Bible at the university. The committee was named at a meeting of the alliance Tuesday.

Meanwhile, Gov. Coke Stevenson who said he would be willing to arbitrate general differences between Rainey and Rainey, said today he had received a considerable volume of mail and more callers than he had time to see about the matter. The ministers took cognizance of a statement by vice-president J. Alton Burdine of the university, who said he had been instructed by J. Tell Rainey he was "making too many speeches, like those before religious groups."

Has your brand of coffee caused Breakfast Rows here lately?

Some Roasters Have Adulterated Their Blends....

The war is used as an excuse of course. But the war hasn't affected the quality of coffee. Or even the quantity that's imported. The real reason is to "save" on ceiling prices. Cheap, inferior-grade coffees produce a cheap, inferior blend. In most blends it produces a flat, acid-tasting flavor. So don't be alarmed if breakfast rows have recently followed in the wake of serving your regular brand. It's not your family; it's your brand of coffee. Simply switch to Admiration and remove all grounds for crankiness.

Admiration... Same Today as 25 Years Ago

Admiration Coffee is absolutely unaffected by the war. It is in all respects the same identical blend the Southwest has enjoyed for 25 years. Choice, expensive coffees produce its tempting, delicious flavor, room-filling aroma, and inviting richness. Every pound is like the one last week, next week, or a year from now. The flavor won't vary, even from package to package. If you've had just about enough breakfast griping, buy a package of Admiration today. Then serve it unannounced. The smiles of satisfaction round the table will warm your heart.

PIN-WORMS

At Last—A Real Treatment!
 You may not realize how many of your neighbors—grown-ups as well as children—have Pin-Worms at this very moment. People don't talk about this nasty infection. Sometimes they are too embarrassed to mention the tormenting rectal itching and up to now they have usually suffered in silence because they have not known of any effective way to deal with this dreadful pest that lives inside the human body.

Important Medical Discovery
 Today, thanks to a valuable scientific discovery, a remarkable new treatment has been made possible. It is based on a special drug, known as gentian violet. This drug is the vital element in P-W, the new Pin-Worm tablets developed by Dr. D. Jayne & Son, America's leading specialists in worm medicine. P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special, gentle way to destroy Pin-Worms. It is very easy to "catch" this nasty infection, and the ugly creatures can cause real distress. So watch for the signs that may mean Pin-Worms: itching seat, uneasy stomach, bed-wetting, nervous fretting. If you suspect Pin-Worms, get a box of P-W right away and follow the simple directions carefully. P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

PX Saves Thousands Of Dollars for GI's

Hundreds of dollars have been indirectly returned to enlisted men at Pampa army air field by the post exchange at the local air base to be used in buying furniture and games for day rooms or for other equally good purposes. Colonel Charles B. Harvin, commanding officer, said today.

A branch of the biggest business in the world and the only business that sells merchandise at the lowest possible price then turns its profits back to its customers, the PX is probably the biggest morale builder in the army. It is packed each day with officers, cadets and enlisted men, who purchase at lowest prices in the GI version of the rural general store and the village drug store.

Pampa army air field has three large exchanges. Open seven days a week from 10 a. m. until 7 p. m., the PX is run by military and civilian personnel. The exchange office hires and pays the civilian personnel, who are not under civil service regulations.

without going to town and at a much lower price. The PX, while costing the government practically nothing, is a definite factor in enabling the government to procure military personnel at low wages and represents a tangible saving to the taxpayers of the entire country.

Provision for the first trading establishment in the army was made in 1776, when it was incorporated into the Articles of War, under which General Washington led his troops in the Revolution. Civilians were given sales concessions and operated under the name of "sutlers" for 90 years until they were abolished by an act of Congress. Some of the officers in isolated posts so common to the army at the time found themselves so restricted in purchasing their daily needs that they formed social clubs and called them canteens. These clubs were financed from the officers' own funds and sold to their members and their

Berlin, Ore., Won't Change Its Name

BERLIN, Ore., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Residents of this tiny community voted unanimously at a mass meeting here against renaming Berlin for the Greek village of Distomo.

The meeting was called after residents protested that they had not been consulted on the rechristening, proposed by a national committee of families without profit those articles of ordinary use and consumption. These canteens began to grow, becoming so important to men of the armed forces that the government drafted them into the army and gave them the title of Post Exchange.

and the Albany, Ore. chamber of commerce secretary. The Linn county court previously said it would not authorize the change if Berlin residents disapproved.

geon general of the navy. Vice Admiral Ross T. McIntire, has informed Senator Connally and Rep. Poage of Texas.
 Several months ago the navy announced that another large hospital would be built at Houston.
 No cost estimates for the Marlin hospital were available because detailed plans had not been complete, but other hospitals of that size have cost from $5,000,000 to $10,000,000.
 Poage said that the exact site for the hospital had not been picked but that it would be in or near Marlin because of curative powers of the water in that health resort city.

He said construction might begin within 30 days, but emphasized that this was uncertain.
 Connally, a resident of Marlin, said that wounded and sick naval personnel would use the hospital throughout the war and thereafter as long as there is need; that it then would be turned over to the veterans administration.

AS OF V-E DAY
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 12—(AP)—The war production board's section of gentlemen's apparel is recommending that two-piece suits and vests with double breasted suits be restored to the market on V-E day.
 The width of standard gauge railroad track—as used in the United States and most European countries—is 56½ inches between the inside edges of the rails below the top of the railhead.

Tax Revamping Urged at Meet
 HOUSTON, Oct. 12—(AP)—Concentrating on the cause-and-affect connection between tax policies and jobs, Charles R. Hook, president of American Rolling Mills company, called for a drastic overhauling of the federal tax policies Wednesday in an address to Southwestern business leaders, gathered here for a one-day regional conference of the committee for economic development.

Quoting from a C. E. D. report on the tax question, Hook emphasized that "wise choosing among tax alternatives can make a difference of jobs or no jobs to many millions of people."
 The committee for economic development is an organization of private business aimed at providing postwar jobs for returning service men and women and reconverted war workers. Presided over by John R. Suman, Humble company vice president and C. E. D. regional chairman, two regional meetings were scheduled for this week, in Ft. Worth last Monday and in Houston today.

Chief Justice Is Past 72nd Year
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 12—(AP)—Chief Justice Harlan F. Stone, presiding over a tribunal now tackling the first work of a potentially complicated new term, became 72 years old yesterday.

 His schedule called for spending the day on the bench and in conferences with his supreme court colleagues. Indications are that he expected to serve indefinitely as head of the tribunal although he has been eligible to retire, at full pay of $20,500 annually, since Oct. 11, 1942.

3 Electors' Names Not on the Ballot

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 12—(AP)

CHICKENS — TURKEYS STAR SULPHUROUS COMPOUND

Given in water or feed destroys intestinal germs and worms that cause most all disease and loss of egg production as they enter fowls in feed. Keeps them free of blood-sucking insects. Appetite, health and egg production good. Costs very little. Money back if not satisfactory. CRETNEYS.

Louisiana ballots for soldiers for the Nov. 7 general election were being distributed today without the names of three electors who refused to pledge their votes to the Roosevelt-Truman ticket and who entered suit to have their names printed on the ballot.

The three, E. Wayles Browne of Shreveport, George Billeaud of Lafayette, and Frontier Thibaut of Napoleonville, lost their plea in district court Monday and appealed to circuit court here where the case is still pending.

Secretary of State Wade O. Martin Jr. said last night the distribution of the ballots was begun after the district court refused the trio's plea and after he warned their attorney that the ballots would be mailed beginning at 5 p. m. yesterday unless he was enjoined.

The state democratic committee last Saturday named new electors in the place of those who refused to sign the pledge or who resigned rather than pledge their support to the Chicago nominees.

Cropper on the First Hurdle

The Dumbarton Oaks conference has begun its second phase with conversations among the American, British and Chinese delegates. The first phase, in which Russia participated and China did not, was scheduled for three weeks, but continued for six. The closing caused about as much excitement as the opening of the baseball season in Philadelphia.

One reason for the lack of excitement was that the public knew very little about what was being accomplished toward finding a basis for a world security organization. Undersecretary of State Stettinius assured that the substance of the agreement made and much unanimity of purpose achieved. But satisfaction in this is offset by the puzzling and persistent reports of a major point of disagreement.

This has to do with the proposed world organization's procedure if one of the major powers is accused of aggression. Russia and Great Britain have insisted on the accused power's right to vote on the accusation. This country and Britain reportedly favored the denial of that voting right.

The puzzling thing is how a group of big-league diplomats could find themselves stymied by such a question. Certainly there is only one possible answer, which any reasonably well-informed person should be able to give in short order. And it would be something like this: The present proposal for a world security organization would require unanimous vote of the permanent (major power) members and majority vote of the smaller power members on the executive council before action could be taken to halt aggression.

But a great power, accused of aggression, would not vote itself guilty. Accordingly, if one of the great powers were clearly the aggressor, the world security organization could be powerless to act. The elaborate machinery of arbitration, sanctions and force couldn't even get started.

Besides obstructing the function of a world peace group, such a provision would certainly commit the members of the world security plan to a policy of one set of laws for the little powers, and a different set for the big ones. That's scarcely the way to build the foundations of a peaceful commonwealth of nations.

Certainly the waiting word does not bode the first Dumbarton Oaks delegates six weeks instead of three to begin their momentous task. But if part of that time were spent in arguing such an obviously unwelcome proposal as that attributed to Russia, and then winding up in disagreement, it may mean that the steps toward world peace are going to be slow and faltering.

Try This Again, Slowly

Let's see, now. Big business is all Mr. Dewey. It is also all for the Little Steel formula, which is the bulwark of Mr. Roosevelt's "hold the line" policy. And the C. I. O. is all for Mr. Roosevelt. It is also all for breaking the Little Steel formula, which is the bulwark of Mr. Roosevelt's "hold the line" policy.

above Politics

Governor Dewey promises that if he gets to the White House there will be the finest and most complete house-cleaning since the time anyone who has visited Washington recently and looked upon the peeling walls of the Executive Mansion will yell that the first step in such a program should be a new coat of paint—and that it ought to be a light and shining issue of both residential campaigns.

The Nation's Press

A SPLIT IN THE RANKS

(New York Sun)

Ten of 21 members of Rhode Island's Industrial Trades Union Political Action committee, subdivision of the CIO-Political Action committee, have resigned. A statement issued by nine of them says that "after careful consideration we have come to the conclusion that we would benefit by leaving politics alone," and adds: "As free men we wish to have our rights to vote or whom we please." There is a large of ingratitude—however great the truth—in the final remark: "We have many laws today available to working men and women and it was not Sidney Hillman or the CIO who got them or us."

The Rhode Island action follows that of union officials in Utah who similarly resigned because they did not want to be told how to vote. Neither Utah nor Rhode Island is among the states that are most powerful politically, although the latter is one of the most thoroughly unionized. They may be small, but they are in the line of the complaint that is likely to be echoed in larger states before election.

A NEW WAY TO MAKE BUTTER

(New York Sun)

The saving of three per cent of the butter fat which is now lost by the standard churning process seems to have been accomplished by the New Jersey Dairy Laboratories, where Dr. David Levowitz, inventor of the new process, declares that the old-fashioned churn should be eliminated.

Common Ground

By R. C. HOLLER
"I speak the post-war principle. I give the slogan of democracy. I do it with no other notion which I cannot have the counterpart of an American citizen."
—WALT WHITMAN.

J. S. Chambers' Socialism

Some people might think it strange that the United States Chamber of Commerce has endorsed extension of what is known as "social security."

It is not strange at all; it is a natural consequence of our educational system. Most business men have received their education in public schools which are a form of socialism. So it is only natural for them to advocate an extension of socialism.

Of course if we start with the premise that the "social security" laws we now have are just, then an extension of them is logical. It is fair to take from some groups to give to other groups in order to provide them a minimum subsistence. It is fair to give every human being a minimum standard of living of all the people.

WHAT THEY DO NOT SEE

What the advocates of the extension of "social security" do not see is that it will greatly curtail the formation of capital. It will do this by fooling people into believing that there is no need of saving above the subsistence level and that they will care of them when they spend what they have. Thus the great mass of people will not be saving and buying a house or going into business and creating jobs and turning over their money to banks, insurance companies or corporations to invest in better tools. Thus all the workers will have to work with poorer tools.

Then again, it penalizes the industrious, thrifty man who is so useful to society that he has steady work. It encourages irresponsibility. It makes the man who just above the subsistence level not care whether he works or not. He gets just about as much from a pension or an unemployment check.

This scheme will also delay the day of people realizing what government borrowing is doing to them. All this "social security" money is a debt that, in reality, does not show up as liability against the government. Besides this objection the current beneficiaries for the first few years of "social security" will not pay a cent more in taxes than they are now paying. Their pensions will come out of the general tax fund.

But as time goes on and these "social security" payments are made, the government will have to add to pay for the pensions an unemployment check that comes out of the general tax fund. With the United States Chamber of Commerce and the Republican party advocating an extension of "social security," it looks like the steps toward world peace are going to be slow and faltering.

Governor Dewey promises that if he gets to the White House there will be the finest and most complete house-cleaning since the time anyone who has visited Washington recently and looked upon the peeling walls of the Executive Mansion will yell that the first step in such a program should be a new coat of paint—and that it ought to be a light and shining issue of both residential campaigns.

IT'S A COCKEY WORLD

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

The National Whirligig

By RAY TUCKER
Now on Tour, Surveying Political and Economic Situations
SPRINGFIELD, Mass.—Private polls and the latest registration figures indicate that Thomas E. Dewey has a good chance to carry the Old Bay State, despite the fact that it has not gone republican since the day of its adopted son, Calvin Coolidge. While professional pollsters list it as a 50-50 or leaning toward President Roosevelt, Dewey on the spot suspect that as of mid-October it is about 51 per cent for the G. O. P. presidential candidate.

In addition to the defection of the Poles, Italians and labor factions elsewhere throughout the northeast, there is a definite factor that may operate adversely to the administration. The mothers of soldiers, especially the Irish people centered in Boston and certain western cities, are bitter at F. D. R.'s failure to keep his "again and again and again" promise not to send their boys to fight on foreign soil.

It is not only because he made that pledge in Boston in an attempt to hold anti-British groups in the 1940 campaign. Much as people may not like to discuss the subject, the sons and daughters of Erin in this section of the United States are not reconciled to the intimate friendship of the American Chief Executive and Prime Minister Churchill. Nor do they like the military alliance with Stalin, especially as it appears to be reflected in the White House acceptance of Sidney Hillman's financial and political support.

It does no good to say that in at least two of his assurances that he would not participate in overseas conflicts, E. D. R. qualified them with the phrase, "except in case of attack." Nor does it avail to recall Britain's magnificent resistance to Hitler and that, had this Atlantic stronghold fallen, the Western Hemisphere might have been endangered. It is difficult to argue with folk-moved almost wholly by their emotions.

Ironically, the recent death of the President's friendly enemy, "Al" Smith, may cost votes. The passing of the man who carried Dewey into the White House in 1928 has evoked unhappy memories of White House differences with the gallant wearer of the brown derby, by James Aloysius Farley and "Jimmy" Walker. From his grave the "Happy Warrior" may be a more effective campaigner against "the Old Pot" than he ever was as an open supporter of Alf Landon and Wendell Willkie.

QUESTIONS—A newspaper poll in Springfield, Mass., the President took by about 4,000 four years ago, points to a Dewey capture of the state's 19 electoral votes. Forty-nine per cent of those questioned said they would cast their ballots for the G. O. P., while only 47.2-10 preferred Mr. Roosevelt. Three and a half per cent were undecided.

Peter Edson's Column:

NO FEAR OF SURPLUSES ON THE FARM

By PETER EDSON
Washington Correspondent

It was Teddy Roosevelt or somebody of that era who gave the name of "The Lunatic Fringe" to the variegated hangers-on who constantly clutter the political scene in minority parties and movements. This year's disclosures by Senate and House campaign investigating committees and by the Dies Committee reveal that in the current political campaign the lunatic fringe is more flourishing than it has ever been before.

Not that any of the stirrer-caller in for questioning have been lunatics. Far from it. Individually they are smart operators, subtle in their approach, convinced of their own rightness, certain that they alone have the one particular brand of 100 proof Americanism that will save the country from whatever ailment is afflicting it. They are self-appointed leaders together, however, and they still constitute political trimmings that can best be classified by the generic term of the lunatic fringe on the tapestry of American life.

This lunatic fringe is changed from one quadrumeter to the next since the first World War there have been the Prohibitionists, the Liberty Leaguers, the Townspeople, the Coughlinites, the various flapping wings of the Socialist Party, the American Labor Party, the Farmer-Laborites, the Progressives, the American Firsters and the Communists. But this year's parade beats anything seen yet.

Around Hollywood

(While Erskine Johnson is on vacation this column is being written by "new conductors" from among his friends and fans in Hollywood.)

By LORETTA YOUNG

(Pinch-Hitting for Erskine Johnson) At the risk of joining such logical company as Bob Burns and his "Uncle Fud," I'm about to by-line an interview with my sister, Sally. Sally left Hollywood about 18 months ago and now lives in Mexico City after only 12 Spanish lessons!

She came home this time because the month's visit with the family—and to study some husband material—has run riotously. It's script study for her as she is preparing to make Loretta Young her first picture.

Her first picture is a Mexican production—"La Perla Negra" (The Black Pearl). This, mind you, is Sally Blane (nee Norman Foster) who excelled in all a few years ago with her decision to retire from the screen to become a charming wife and mother. I don't deny that she is both—her husband worships her and her daughter is a lovely young lady of 8, fluent in both the English and Spanish languages.

But this career business—after all things she said: "Well, you know how it is, Loretta," she tells me now, with unbelievable self-effacement. "They needed a real California girl for the role in this picture. I was the nearest one to the scene."

WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MacKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

The imminent denouement of the strange battle for ancient Aachen, which the Germans made a key position in their Siegfried line, is likely to make it easier for us to estimate our prospects of achieving a quick knockout of Hitlerdom.

Aachen has been no easy nut to crack. The Nazis picked it for defensive purposes because it's a railway and highway center, and because it lies in a hollow and is surrounded by heights—a strong point by nature. It's a shelter for neighboring Cologne and the gateway to the Ruhr.

The battle of Aachen emphasizes that Hitler intends to fight to a bloody finish, ruthlessly sacrificing not only military but civilian lives, and inviting the destruction of proud cities like this one-time center of culture for western Europe. Again it is demonstrated that the Nazi Attila has fanatical commanding officers who are ready to do his will. The German command in Aachen did their best—or one might better say their most-cruel worst—to prevent the surrender not only of their soldiers but of civilians before the American onslaught.

However, we also learn that not all German soldiers or citizens by any means are prepared to die for the dictator. Many of the Aachen citizens who hadn't been evacuated to the American zone, are working in an effort to surrender. A lot of German soldiers also wanted to give themselves up, and a considerable number did, but others were prevented from surrendering by their officers.

Of course one swallow doesn't make a summer and one Aachen can't speak for all Germany. Still we aren't her social and career position.

Sally believes there is a tremendous field for writers in Mexico today. "Anyone," she says, "who can understand dialogue and plot and absorb the psychology of the Mexican people, can make a fortune writing for film there."

Sally's role will call for her to rehearse for three weeks when she returns to Mexico the end of October. "I'll never do it again," she says.

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz
Copyright, 1944, by Sigrid Schultz. Distributed by NWA Service, Inc.

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

Party, who distrusted the democrats and got few new ideas from their old clerical Centrist Party, looked to Herr Hitler.

So did the frustrated, restless splinters—after Hitler organized the young men and women, he turned them up and down the streets, plainly spoiling for a fight or for a romance. With the shortage of some four million men of marriageable age, the women loved to hear the German man—a husband for every German woman—when they became masters of Germany.

Without the active co-operation of German women, the unfeeling total-war general staff of Germany could never have topped over the Republic nor re-armed the country for war.

Non-generalization is more dangerous than one concerning women. But the recent German women know only too well that they form a small minority in the second World War, and that their number has steadily shrunk under the machinations of the Hitler regime.

While most Republican women were trying to make their sisters appreciate the democratic privileges conferred on them by the Weimar Constitution, Adolf Hitler, in Munich, was talking so as to win support from the women-folk of the returned soldiery. Everything he said showed that he understood their worries about their families. Many of the women had reason for concern in the new restlessness of their sons and husbands, irritable in the unaccustomed quiet of home life after the excitements of the war. To all women, Hitler said that the family was the kernel around which the new, all-powerful Germany would be built by him and his friends. He was the man who would save Christianity from the onslaught of the wicked, godless Reds and Republicans. The bewildered middle-class women, who felt they were too fine to join the workers in the Socialist colored raincoat, some would even try to kiss his hem. Eva Braun, the young woman who was closer to him than any other, asserted that Hitler loathed these performances but that he and his friends decided they had "political value."

A DOLF HITLER, the lady's man, remained a shrewd politician. When Dietrich Eckart took him to Bayreuth to commune at the shrine of Richard Wagner, Hitler became the great friend of the younger members of the family. After Siegfried Wagner died there was a great deal of talk about a possible marriage between Hitler and Siegfried's English widow, Winifred. It reached the point where a venturesome diplomatic attack asked one of her daughters, "Is it true that your mother is having a romance with Hitler?"

But ever since 1899 Eva Braun has been at Hitler's side. After the war broke out she moved into the Chancellery. This caused the rumor that the Fuehrer had married her. It has been said that Hitler promised her good middle-class mother that he would marry her "after securing victory for Germany." Eva became involved with Hitler as a very young girl when she studied geography with Heinrich Hoffman, Hitler's court photographer. She is as lonely and unhappy a woman as ever lived in the shadow of an all-powerful tyrant.

Leni Riefenstahl, the movie star, swarved very hard to prove that she was the light in Hitler's life. Her pull got her appointed official photographic recorder of the Nuremberg Party rallies. She directed the filming of the Olympic Games, starting in Greece, her technical crew followed throughout eastern Europe, supplying German espionage centers with invaluable photographic material.

But it is not enough for the modern Nazi woman to be efficient or beautiful. She must also render services to the Fatherland. (To Be Continued)

OFFICE CAT

One of John's best friends had died, so he called on the widow to explain his sympathy.

"John and I were friends," Jim told her. "I could have been a member of his."

Widow (gritting her teeth before her teeth were wet with tears)—How would it be to have you as a member of his?

ACCORDING TO THE OBITUARY NOTICES, THE BAD AND UGLY LESS CITIZENS NEVER DIE.
Sentry—Who goes there?
Major (approaching the sentry)—Sentry—Advance and give the pass word.
Major—Dad it man, I've forgotten it. You know me well enough.
Sentry—I must have the pass word.
Major—Don't stand there arguing all night; shoot him.

REARISH
NEW YORK (AP)—Holding up a half-dollar, the last of seven defendants charged with feeding the mob in Prospect Park, Brooklyn, told the court: "I have a wife and three children to support and 50 cents is all I have."
"You can feed the bears but not your family. Either pay the dollar, or the others have done, or go to jail for a day," replied the magistrate.
The man sheepishly produced a dollar bill.

New Mexico Is Underdogs Again

ALBUQUERQUE N. M., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Coach Willy Barnes is in his favorite spot again. His New Mexico university griders are "underdogs by a bucketful of touchdowns" in their meeting at El Paso, Texas, Saturday with the second air force superboomers.

Barnes revels in the situation. Nobody expects the New Mexico seagull Lobos to do much (season record win one, lost three)—so the headlines are all on the Superboomers at Colorado Springs. It was in just such a set up at Sun Bowl time last winter that Barnes' underdogs boys held Southwestern of Georgetown, Texas, to 7-0 when the odds had been Southwestern by three touchdowns. The game Saturday will be played in the Sun Bowl field.

Co-Medalist Go To Second Round

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Medalists Clyde Cunningham and Ike Handy, both of Houston, go into the second round of the eighth annual senior golf tournament here today.

Handy defeated Rodney Delance of San Antonio five and four yesterday while Cunningham beat George O'Leary of San Antonio two and one.

Twilight Winner in Queen Isabella Race

LAUREL, Md., Oct. 12.—(AP)—Warren Wright's Twilight Tear, leading of nine fillies and mares in today's fourth running of the $10,000 Queen Isabella stake race at Laurel park.

Wright's Calumet farm stables' bid for the greater portion of the purse was strengthened by two other entries—Miss Keeneland, winner of the Cleopatra, and Mar-kell, evening handicap victor.

Mexico City To Have Big Races

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Columbus day, known as "the day of the race" throughout Latin America, is just that in Mexico, for it is the day the Hipodromo de Las Americas, $2,000,000 race track, opens its third season.

Featured is the $2,500 added Christopher Columbus handicap, in which 11 of the 700 thoroughbreds at the track are entered.

The biggest event during the season of 192 racing days will be the $25,774 added handicap De Las Americas on April 22.

An estimated 50,000,000 acres of land east of the plains in the United States have been abandoned as farm land.

Fire Prevention Essay Winners Are Announced

Observance of national fire prevention week took another step forward in Pampa yesterday when judges announced their decisions for prize winning high school essays on fire prevention.

W. L. Waggoner, member of the fire prevention committee, previously named by the Pampa city commissioners, made awards totaling $25 to the high school yesterday. Jean Paxson received the $5 grand award prize for the best essay in the entire school, together with an additional $5 for having the best essay in the senior class.

Naomi Harrell was awarded the second prize of $3 in the class, and Marjorie Roth received the third-place prize of $1.

Drusilla Boyd took first-place award of $8 in the tenth grade, with Guinevere Hollingsworth being awarded second place $3, and Petty McDonald third place $1.

Prizes of $5, $3 and $1 will be awarded to the winners in the fire prevention theme contest for the sixth, seventh and eighth grades of Junior high school this afternoon. A sum totaling $73 was contributed to these winners in the various city schools by insurance agencies of Pampa, as their part in the observance of National fire prevention week.

Grammar school students will get free rides on fire trucks as a prize for their essays, and all prize winning essays will be published in the columns of The News.

Mexico City To Have Big Races

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 12.—(AP)—Columbus day, known as "the day of the race" throughout Latin America, is just that in Mexico, for it is the day the Hipodromo de Las Americas, $2,000,000 race track, opens its third season.

High Percentage PAAF Personnel Holds Insurance

More than 97 per cent of the military personnel at Pampa army air field now have an average of $9,064 national life insurance as the result of an intensive program of personal interviews and lectures at the local air base to persuade all military personnel to carry maximum protection for their dependents, Col. Charles B. Harvin, commanding officer, said yesterday.

Goal of the war department is to sell an average of $9,500 of insurance to 95 per cent of the military personnel in the armed forces, because many members of the armed forces have lost their lives overseas without adequate insurance protection for their beneficiaries, and consequently have brought financial hardship on those back home at a time when every cent counts.

Only service men can secure national service life insurance, which is issued at lowest premium cost, and without restrictions of "war risk" such as are now included in new commercial insurance policies. All administrative expense is borne by the government, and the necessary premiums are deducted from monthly pay of military personnel. The veterans' administration, which administers the insurance, is non-profit making, and as a result more protection with less cost to the insured can be given than under any civilian policy.

National life insurance will guarantee a living income for dependents and premiums for $10,000 amount to about 25 cents each day, officials point out. If, for example, a member of the army is killed and his beneficiary were under 30, the beneficiary would receive an income of $59.10 each month for 20 years. If the beneficiary is over 30 the monthly payments are based on the life expectancy of the beneficiary, payable for life. The income is provided no matter how few payments were made on the insurance. Adding to this $50 or more each month provided by a pension paid by the government a comfortable income is provided for a dependent. A widow with one child will receive $65 pension, with $13 for each additional child, but no pension will exceed $100 per month.

After the war, the insurance can be kept or converted into other policies as long as the amount continued is in multiples of $500 and not less than $1,000. No medical examination is necessary and after the first year it is converted it will have a regular cash value.

Naazi Booty Placed At $26 Billions

LONDON, Oct. 11 — (AP) — Dingle Foot, parliamentary secretary for the ministry of economic warfare, told Commons yesterday Germany had restricted a total of $25,400,000,000 from eight occupied countries in the form of occupation costs, goods and services and that the present annual rate of exploitation was $2,760,000,000.

He listed the countries as France, Belgium, Holland, Denmark, Norway, Bohemia-Moravia, Slovakia and Serbia. After the complete liberation of France, Belgium and Holland, he said, the annual rate of exploitation would be reduced to approximately $1,840,000,000.

GI DOUGHNUTS SPED BY AIR

BURMA FRONT — (AP) — American troops serving in remote jungle outposts are now enjoying fresh, crisp doughnuts delivered daily by parachute as the result of enterprise by a former chef at the Rockefeller Center Rainbow room, now manager of a Red Cross canteen at an outpost on the Ledo road.

Klassen has trained a staff of Gara natives to increase the daily output of his bamboo bakery. The doughnuts reach even the most remote posts not later than two hours after banking through cooperation of fighter and bomber pilots.

ANSWEE

MOSCOW, Idaho — (AP) — There has been considerable wrangling over whether slot machines were legal. But the Elks club has quit worrying. Six machines belonging to the club have been stolen. Value of this jackpot: $3,000.

Wage Hearing To Be Held After Election

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11 — (AP) — Senate hearings on whether wages below 65 cents an hour should be legally defined as "substandard" have been postponed until after the election.

Chairman Pepper (D-Fla.) of a labor subcommittee, originally had scheduled the hearings to start tomorrow. Pepper is author of a resolution proposing the 65-cent floor. The Pepper resolution would have the effect of making 65 cents an hour a new minimum wage level by having congress so define it as a guide to the war labor board. The present minimum wage law fixes the wage floor at 40 cents an hour.

The Canadian women's army corps was established in 1941.
