Truman Forecasts Demos Will Win With 'Liberal'

President Labels States' Tideland Effort 'Robbery'

WASHINGTON — (P) — President Truman hung a label of "robbery in broad daylight" Saturday on legislation giving the states clear title to oil-bearing submerged coastal lands.

He thus plainly indicated that he will veto the bill on which Congress completed action Friday with Senate approval by voice vote. The House had passed it Thursday 247 to 89. The President vetoed a similar bill in 1946.

Candidate To Senate Slates Pampa Visit

Pampa is in for its first taste of 1952 U. S. senatorial race when Rep. Lindley Beckworth speaks here at 7:30 p.m. Friday in front of the City Hall.

Beckworth, who has served 14 years in Congress and two years in the Texas Legislature, is making a bid for the Senate seat to be vacated by Sen. Tom Connally.

Second To File
He's the second to announce and file for the office. Attorney General Price Daniel announced something ago that he would seek the seat now held by Connally. At that time Connally was still considered in the running. Connally announced later, however, that he would not seek reelection to the Senate. Beckworth is only one running against Daniel.

The Gladewater congressman's visit here is part of a Panhandle tour he will be making this week. Prior to his scheduled arrival here, he will have made scheduled stops and speeches at Tulia, Canyon and Fanhandle on that same day.

Guest Here
Beckworth is a member of the House Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee. He is also chairman of the Newsprint and Airplane Accidents Subcommittees; chairman of the Texas delegation in Washington which includes a 11 members of the House and the two senators.

The congressman is expected to spend Friday night as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Hill. Hill and Beckworth attended school together near Gladewater and lived in the Pampa groceryman lived there.

An outstanding foe of federal ownership of tidelands, Beckworth voted in favor of state ownership every time the issue came before the House.

City Manager Post
Vacant; Pepin Gone
Pampa early Friday afternoon was a city manager form of government without a city manager. Former City Manager and Mrs. Dick Pepin left for Pepin's new post at Odessa, leaving Pampa without an administrative head.

The city commission by noon Saturday, had yet to appoint an acting city manager to serve until a permanent selection is made. Pepin's resignation became effective May 15. He will assume his new duties at 9 a.m. tomorrow as city manager of Odessa.

CAB Witnesses Back Home
With No Hint Of Results
Pampa's five-man delegation to Civil Aeronautics Board hearings on Pioneer Airlines' application to operate through here, returned home late Friday after testifying for approximately one hour.

Standing 23th on the docket, the Pampa delegation began taking the witness box at 3 p.m. spokesmen for the group said Saturday. While there were few questions asked, the answers consumed most of the time.

E. L. "Gene" Green, Jr., vice-president of Cabot Co., detailed for CAB his company's need for air mail and air freight service over the proposed Pioneer route and the need, too, for outgoing passenger service. Gene Sidwell of Beacon Supply Co., discussed the need of air transportation as it affects field supply houses while Leon Fain, of Celanese Corp., explained the need of air freight for his company to points South of Dallas and reminded CAB that Celanese has a 17-million dollar plus investment in Pampa. Jim McClintock, supervisor for the Railroad Commission here, gave the hearing statistics concerning production of the Panhandle oil and gas field and Frank Culbertson, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Aviation Committee, described the growth of Pampa and the surrounding area. He cited the needs of independent businesses now, and in the future, for air transportation, both passenger and freight, and air mail service.

Officials for the government agency conducting the hearings gave no hint as to how long it would be before it would answer Pioneer Airlines' request to operate in and out of Pampa.

Mrs. Laura Keller To Be Buried Monday
Burial for Mrs. Laura Keller of Crowell, formerly of Skellytown, will be in the Pampa Fairview Cemetery tomorrow at 2:30.

Mrs. Keller was preceded in death by her husband, A. W., who was with The Texas Company here until his death August 28, 1950.

Vandenberg Has Cancer; Return To Duty Doubtful

WASHINGTON — (P) — Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force Chief of Staff, has abdominal cancer, NEA Service learned Saturday from what it regards as an unimpeachable source. This was the real cause for his recent operation, which was officially announced as exploratory surgery after X-rays had failed to reveal the cause of a sudden illness.

The issue public relations battle was fought in the Pentagon in an effort to keep this simple announcement from being made. The Air Force chief of staff was not allowed to enter Walter Reed Medical Center for fear that word of his real disability would leak out.

The issue involved was largely the old-fashioned belief that cancer, like tuberculosis, should not be mentioned by name. T. B. was always politely referred to as "complications." Under the game code, cancer was not mentioned at all.

In an effort to hide the truth, General Vandenberg was operated on in the private Doctors' Hospital by Dr. Lloyd Lewis, a war-time Army surgeon now an adviser to the Air medical staff. He is now a specialist in private practice in Washington.

While General Vandenberg has shown satisfactory progress following his operation, the initial announcement that he would be away from his desk for only two weeks is now doubted.

CASUALTIES

WASHINGTON — (P) — The Defense department has identified 97 more battle casualties in Korea, a new list reported it killed, 81 wounded and two injured.

Wheatmen Cheer Opportune Rain

Rain imprisoned the sun's rays and brought a ray of hope for Gray county wheat farmers yesterday as .11 inch of moisture soaked into the ground.

The rain first began early Saturday morning and continued intermittently throughout the day and night.

As a cold front hounded in from the snow-covered Rockies, temperatures began to slip Friday morning and continued their downward skid to a low of 48 by midnight Friday.

By 6 a.m. Saturday the mercury tumbled another three degrees to 45 and hung there until 11 a.m. when it dropped another degree. It jumped back to 47 by 2 p.m. and fell down to 46 by 4 p.m. to remain there for the major portion of the evening.

Elevator men and farmers were quoted by each other as agreeing that the rainfall couldn't have come at a more opportune time for wheatland in the county.

This was backed by a statement last week by County Agent Foster Whaley who predicted an average wheat crop for the county this year, provided life-saving rains would come. They came.

Straw hats were temporarily relegated to the closet by a majority of Pampans yesterday as tired winter hats, light coats and winter-weight suits reappeared, if only for a couple of days.

Elsewhere over the state, hard washing rains, accompanied by some hail, damaged wheat, and cotton crops in the Vernon area Friday night and Saturday.

A total of 5.42 inches was measured in Vernon from 9 p.m. Friday to midnight Saturday—with showers still falling.

Scattered showers spotted the Panhandle and West Texas, extending as far south as Victoria and east to Dallas. Late Saturday rain fell in Amarillo, Wichita Falls, Abilene, Mineral Wells, Dallas, Junction, Salt Flat, Dalhart and Victoria.

Armed Forces Day ... Two Continents Get Look At U. S. Growing Military Might

WASHINGTON — (P) — Two continents had a good look at America's growing military might Saturday in demonstrations celebrating the third annual armed forces day.

In the greatest exhibition of U. S. military strength in Europe since World War II, nearly 400,000 American fighting men were on review from the North Sea to the Mediterranean—even 100 miles behind Soviet lines in West Berlin.

Elsewhere in the United States, citizens visited 450 military posts, stations, camps or bases holding open houses; 3000 National Guard exhibits; and listened to several hundred speeches by top officials.

Truman sat through the capital's 75-minute procession of troops, equipment and arms in cloudy tocast weather, smiling and waving, taking off his hat to salute the flag each time a division passed his stand, and shaking hands with wounded veterans from Korea, seated nearby.

Iron Curtain military representatives seated to the right of the presidential reviewing stand included officials from Russia, Poland, Hungary and Czechoslovakia. They were invited to the display as Russia invites western world representatives to her annual May Day military show in Moscow's Red Square.

Among the day's major celebrations was New York's parade of 25,000 soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines.

GEN. HOYT S. VANDENBERG ... progress satisfactory

Troops Moved To Koje Isle

TOKYO — (P) — The battered U. S. 187th Airborne Regiment is on Koje Island to bolster the tightened guard over tough Communist war prisoners.

Gen. Mark W. Clark, announcing the assignment Friday night, said the reinforcements were sent to prevent any mass outbreak. He observed that in past violence the Red prisoners were "obviously acting under instructions from outside agents of the international Communist power conspiracy."

The new UN top commander said the Reds would be required to behave at all times.

Red flags still fluttered in some of the prison compounds on the rocky island. Correspondents reported Saturday the prisoners watched sullenly while troops built new sandbag pillboxes and armored guard towers.

Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dood, then commander of Koje, was seized last week by prisoners in compound 76 May 7 and held hostage 78 hours. He was freed after negotiations were made by Brig. Gen. Charles Colson.

Flow On Haggard Increases To 960

Informed sources estimated oil flow on Gulf's No. 2 John Haggard, 16 miles north of Pampa, had increased to 40 barrels an hour, or 960 barrels a day by the time it was shut in late Friday.

Operators have installed a 500 barrel tank and an additional oil and gas separator on the well Drilling operations may be resumed today.

In the meantime, the company's No. 1 Haggard, only a few hundred feet from the pool-opening No. 2, recovered salt water on a drillstem test from 6,480-6,502 feet. Tool was open two hours and recovered 360 feet saltwater.

Flowing pressure was 550 pounds while bottom-hole pressure was 1800 pounds. Operators are preparing to drill ahead.

Flowing pressure on the No. 2 Haggard is 200 pounds while bottom-hole pressure at slightly below 4,000 feet is 900 pounds.

Charges GOP Program Will 'Scare Voters'

WASHINGTON — (P) — President Truman predicted Saturday night the Democrats will nominate a "Liberal" for President and win in November because the Republicans will "scare the daylight" out of the voters with their program.

Asserting the Democrats must "never, never throw away a winning program," Truman said in an address prepared for a dinner session of the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA), that there must be no party retreat on foreign policy, civil rights, power development and other issues.

The President, in the text distributed to newsmen in advance, gave no intimation whether he is backing a particular candidate for the party nomination.

But he praised a group of aspirants invited to the dinner. They include Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, W. Averell Harriman of New York, Sen. Brian McMahon of Connecticut and Sen. Hubert Humphrey of Minnesota, who keynoted the ADA convention earlier in the day.

In a slashing attack on the Republicans, Truman obviously was referring to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower when he declared: "Isolationism is not dead. Far from it. Even if the Republicans get a presidential candidate with a good record in foreign affairs, he will not be able to drown out the raucous outcries of the rest of the party."

"And that prospect is beginning to scare the voters — as it certainly should."

For himself, Truman made it plain that he intends to veto the bill passed by Congress yesterday to give the states title to the oil-rich submerged lands off the coasts.

Asserting that the "oil lobby" wants to exploit these areas to suit itself, he added: "Talk about corruption. Talk about stealing from the people. This would be robbery in broad daylight — and on a colossal scale."

The President leveled another blast at the steel companies currently engaged in a Supreme Court suit to invalidate government seizure of their plants in their dispute with the unions over wages.

Joy Assails Reds On Truce Methods

MUNSAN, Korea, Sun. May 18 (AP) — Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy told the Communist Saturday they were creating tragic situation" by their tactics in the critically deadlocked Pannunjom truce talks.

He added that the Reds' daily and prolonged propaganda blasts ment the conferences "lead all the world to suspect that you have never genuinely desired an armistice."

But the senior Allied armistice delegate agreed to a Red request for another session today at 11 a.m. (8 p.m., CST, Saturday).

The Reds have asked for all the meetings since they rejected May 2 the Allies' final proposal of April 28 for an overall settlement of the major issues blocking a truce. In that period the full-dress sessions were secret.

Shriners To Meet Thursday In Austin

AUSTIN — (P) — Approximately 7,000 Shriners from all parts of Texas are expected here this week for the annual meeting of the Texas Shrine Association.

The red-fuzzed nobles, their ladies and novices (caps) begin registering for the three-day gathering Thursday. They will represent the state's 44,000 Shriners.

Truman To Take Part In West Point Rite

WEST POINT, N. Y. — (P) — President Truman will fly here Tuesday to help the United States Military Academy celebrate its 150th anniversary.

He will review a full dress parade, make a speech and lunch in the cadet dining hall at a table with cadets from Missouri, his home state.

Truman will be the main speaker at a formal convocation in the afternoon and will return

Ike Cuts Taft Lead By Oregon Victory

Supporters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower asserted again Saturday that ballots have proved the general is "the overwhelming choice of Republican voters."

They based their claim on his victory in Oregon. His opposition there did not include Sen. Robert A. Taft.

By his Oregon win, Eisenhower narrowed slightly the nominating convention margin which Taft of Ohio holds, and trimmed it a little more at a Republican state convention in Vermont. The general easily won the full slate of 12 delegates there in a limited contest with Taft.

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee forged back into the delegate lead among the Democrat by capturing Oregon's 12 delegates while also piling up a big victory in the popularity primary there.

Another busy week of delegate selection was ahead, starting in Hawaii Sunday with a Republican convention to name eight delegates to the Chicago convention.

Montana state conventions of Tuesday will select eight Democrats and 12 Democratic delegates. North Carolina Democrats will pick 32 on Thursday. Louisiana Democrats will name 20 on Friday. And on Saturday Washington State Republicans will name 21 delegates. Delaware Democrats will pick three and Minnesota Republicans three.

By the week's end, Republicans will have named 903 of their 1206 national convention delegates and Democrats will have picked 711 of their 1200.

Delegate selection went ahead in these three states: Vermont — The state convention named a full slate of Eisenhower delegates and then adopted a resolution that the group go to Chicago pledged to him. That 12 delegate spots, but lost by heavy margins.

Washington-Kefauver supporters said they would sweep the state Democratic convention session. (See IKE CUTS, Page 5)

Suspect In Brink's Robbery Blasted To Death By Shotgun

WEST WARWICK, R. I. — (P) — O'Brien's home as the place where the loot was counted. A prosperous night club owner, fingered three days ago, was blasted to death by a shotgun shell were found last night on Alden Drive. Warwick, around the corner and about 200 yards from the spot where O'Brien was shot.

Kenner, taken to state police headquarters at Lincoln Saturday night after intensive questioning, has a police record dating to 1915.

Both O'Brien and Kenner were named last week by Alfred A. Gagnon, a prisoner at Rhode Island State Prison, as participants in the $1,219,000 Brink's armored car company robbery in Boston exactly 28 months ago.

Gagnon talked May 13 with Attorney General Francis E. Kelley of Massachusetts and William E. Powers of Rhode Island but the names he mentioned were not disclosed until after the slaying.

Police gullied O'Brien's widow and afterward Police Chief Arthur Groleau said that he told detectives she was not acquainted with her husband's activities. She was accompanied to police headquarters by her lawyer, Lee McGowan.

Japanese Strip To Tune Of 'Home On The Range'

HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — A U. S. movie company, just back from filming in Japan, reports that entertainment is flourishing there from American movies to native strip teases.

Tom Ewell, who is a serious student of the theatrical arts despite his wacky film roles, has returned with a survey of entertainment in Japan. Along with a U-I film troupe, he traveled to the re-established island nation for location scenes of "Willie and Joe Back at the Front."

"I found the Japanese enthusiastic about all forms of entertainment, from the classic theater down to burlesque," reported Ewell. "Many of the entertainments are amusing, and even startling adaptations of American styles."

"For instance, their burlesque shows are very much the same as ours. Even though you can't comprehend the language, you can understand the same kind of outrageous comedy from the comics. But they don't seem to have caught the technique of the strip tease. The girls come out with only one garment on. They walk around for a few minutes and end up by taking the garment off. This is accompanied by any kind of music. I saw one girl stripping to the tune of 'Home on the Range.'"

Advancing up the theatrical ladder, Ewell remarked that the Japanese musicals appeared to be patterned after Hollywood films. The dances, costumes and plots are the same, but the shows use old music instead of writing new tunes. Japanese lyrics are set to anything from "Parlez Moi D'—"

Veterans Classes To Continue Under Wheeler Teacher

An agreement for Wheeler County to assume the veteran vocational classes of Gray County June 1 was made at a meeting reported.

Director George Sherman visited movie studios in Japan and reported to me on film conditions. "They are doing wonderful things," he said. "Their equipment is poor — it's the equivalent of what we had in Hollywood 15 years ago — but they make up for that with imagination."

George Gandy, Wheeler, will take over the five classes of Jesse Coleman, present co-ordinator of Gray County.

Illinois Newspaper Strike Over Teletypes Settled

ROCKFORD, Ill. — (AP) — A six-week strike of AFL printers which halted publication of Rockford's two daily newspapers for two weeks has been settled. Plans were made immediately to resume publication.

International Typographical union, the Rockford Consolidated Newspapers, Inc., publishers of the Morning Star and the afternoon Register-Republic. The ITU had ratified its contract earlier in the night session, but withheld a return to work until the publishing company also reached agreement with the American Newspaper Guild, which was not involved in the ITU dispute.

Local units of the ITU and the CIO approved the contract by a vote of 63 to 2, and the CIO union by unanimous vote. The ITU had ratified its contract earlier in the night session, but withheld a return to work until the publishing company also reached agreement with the American Newspaper Guild, which was not involved in the ITU dispute.

sons—third largest in Illinois — had been without newspaper service since April 25. The ITU walked out of the publishing plant March 24. The newspapers continued to publish. On April 25, mass picketing prevented other workers from entering the plant. A court order later limited the pickets, but members of six unions at the plant did not report for work. A federal conciliator attempted to resolve the dispute last week and had planned further sessions later in the week. Meantime the settlement was announced. Joseph Rhoden, ITU International representative, said the new agreement means the union "will permit the use of purely daily live newsmatter, but would prohibit the teletyping of any matter of an editorial nature, such as columnists, women's pages, expressions of opinion or feature matter of any type." He said he thought the new contract "will go a long way toward setting a pattern within the newspaper industry," and called it a "very satisfactory agreement."

Rhoden said the principals "agreed further that no tape from outside the composing room will be used to bring about a reduction of the work force. This means that all mailed tape is out, and that even the wire service tape cannot be used to the extent of bringing about a reduction in the force." He added: "The competent standard for teletype perforators within the plant was lowered from 375 to 250 per hour."

He said the contract also included a wage increase "including the maximum permissible under the Wage Stabilization Board regulations," and a "picket line clause that gives our men the right to refuse to cross picket lines of any of the other six unions in the plant who may be involved in an authorized strike or lockout." The Morning Star has a circulation of 41,831, and the Register-Republic, 35,172. The Sunday Star has a circulation of 57,527. Rhoden said the contract provided for wage hikes. The basic scale, under the old contract, was $89.25 for day workers and $94.25 for night workers for a work week of 37 hours and 55 minutes. This was increased to $92.40 for days and $97.40 for nights under

Former Pampan Receives Degree

William Martin Pearce, the son of Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Pearce, 111 N. Starkweather, and former pastor of First Methodist Church here, has received official notice from the University of Texas at Austin that he has been awarded his doctor's degree. Dr. Pearce is assistant professor of history at Texas Tech College, Lubbock.

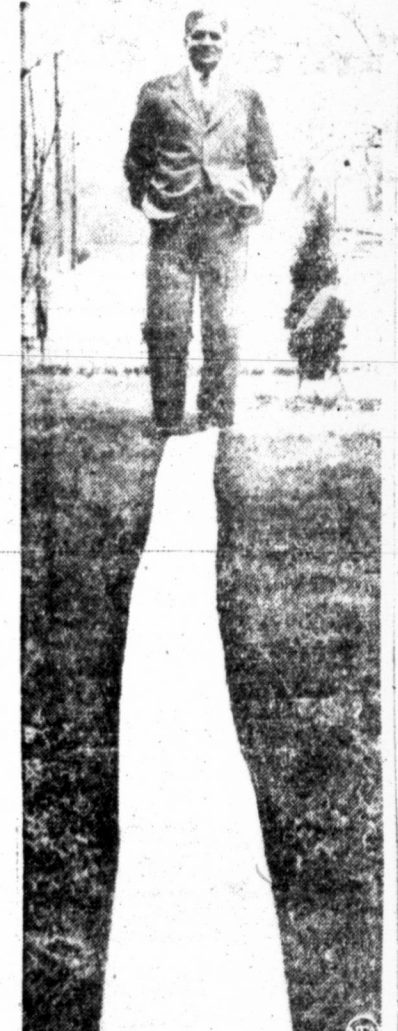

The 39-year-old professor had presented his doctorate dissertation at Austin last April, entitled "History of Matador Land and Cattle, Ltd.," a report on the famed Scottish cattle syndicate.

Dr. William Pearce rejoined the Tech faculty in 1949, after a two year period of part-time instruction at Texas University. Previously he had served in an armored division of the U. S. Army for three years—serving in European Theater of Operations and twice was wounded.

Hwy. 60 Boosters Homeward Bound As Convention Ends

Approximately 50 delegates from six different states have returned home from the 22nd annual U.S. 60 Nat'l Assn. convention in Pampa this weekend with plans to meet again next year at Showlow, Ariz.

Harry Harville, Tonkawa, Okla., was named president for 1952 to succeed G. T. McWhirter of Mountainair, N. M. Carl Beck, Springerville, Ariz., will replace Wade H. Brymer, Amarillo, as vice president; and H. W. McGinnis, Tonkawa, Okla., is the new secretary-treasurer replacing Bascom H. Weaver, Mountainair, N. M.

New members of the executive committee include Ray Williams, in the past prior to 1952, Cairo, Ill.; Frank Hopgood, Amarillo; Wayman Cornelison, Fairview, Okla.; Bill Huso, Showlow, Ariz.; J. E. Thomas, Missouri; and McWhirter, New Mexico.

Ten resolutions passed by the association at the Friday business session commended all of the 10 states along the route for improvements made during the past year and recommended further construction and boosting to draw more traffic to the highway.

On leaving Pampa at noon yesterday, McWhirter acclaimed the convention a complete success and praised the City of Pampa for its part. "Pampa did everything, and everything it did was just right," he said.

McWhirter said this was the first year the association was beginning the year with more money in the treasurer's hands than had been taken in during any year.

He feels that the association is in the hands of good officers and that marked improvements will be made next year.

IKE CUTS

Virginia — Sixth district Republicans met to select two delegates. In Oregon, Eisenhower and Kefauver swept the popularity contests.

Kefauver piled up a 3 to 1 lead over two reluctant candidates, Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas and Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois, both of whose names were metered without their consent.

Eisenhower was polling about two-thirds of the total Republican vote against five other names on the ballot, not including Taft's. Gov. Earl Warren of California ran second, but even he was far behind. The only other campaigner was Harold E. Stassen. He ran behind Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Sen. Wayne Morse, neither of whom wanted to be on the ballot.

As the returns trickled in slowly in the wake of Friday's balloting it appeared that Eisenhower had a good chance to sew up all 18 of Oregon's delegates. He had 10 for certain, and a slate for the general was leading another unopposed one, regarded as favorable to Taft, for eight at-large delegate spots.

If the general did get all 18 along, with those he picked up in Vermont, that would give him 337 delegates to 374 for Taft in the Associated Press tabulation.

Cooks Seek Substitutes For Scarce Potatoes

By RO ELLISON As "Yes, we have no potatoes," continues to be the groceryman's answer, housewives are wearing out recipe books looking for substitutes.

Once considered a mere staple, a "must" for at least one meal a day, the potato has graduated to a rare delicacy because of its scarcity. One Pampa housewife asked some friends over for dinner recently with this word, "We're having POTATOES."

The shortage is pretty rough on these strictly meat-and-potato-eating husbands, one wife pointed out. "But at least I'm getting my family to eat more of a variety."

Another housewife feels that her family is faring better with less starch in the menu. "Just as in the case of every other shortage, the versatile American cook is coming up with some nifty ideas."

Rice, macaroni, spaghetti, noodles, beans, and corn, especially hominy, are finding their way to the dining table more frequently these days.

Highest on the list of substitutes used by Pampa cooks interviewed recently are macaroni and spaghetti. Served with cheese, meat balls, tomatoes, or in casseroles with tuna fish, left-over ham, roast, or any kind of meat, these products make tasty dishes that "stick to the ribs," too. Macaroni, dressed up with pickles, green peppers and onions proved as popular as the old stand-by potato salad at a recent picnic.

Next on the sub list is rice. Not too popular with the "kids" and husbands, it seems, rice, nevertheless, contains much food value as a cereal. Good chicken or beef gravy seem to camouflage rice for many families and make it "nearly as good as mashed potatoes."

Curried Chicken Popular recipe books have pages of "real pretty" rice dishes served in many different ways. Some of these are curried chicken with rice, timbales, croquettes, Creole or Spanish rice, rings of rice with cheese, fish, beef stews, chop stew — all sorts of good things.

Dried beans, as yet plentiful and still on the cheap list, are a favorite second stringer with some. And corn — creamed, scalloped, in fritters, boiled, or in the form of hominy were listed by several women.

All in all, the potato shortage is upsetting, but not defeating the Pampa housewife.

FINED FOR ASSAULT James D. Boland was fined $25 and costs for aggravated assault in county court May 15.

Oil Well Drilling Holds High Level

AUSTIN — (AP) — Oil well drilling held at a high level in Texas last week, the Railroad Commission has reported. A total of 216 new wells were brought in, compared with 216 the week before. The year's total to date is 4486, well ahead of the 4019 in the same period of 1951.

Wildcatting increased. The commission's weekly report showed a jump from nine to 14. The year's total of wildcats is now 235 compared with 214 last year. The total calendar day allowable was 10,122 barrels over that for the week ended May 10.

TRUMAN

(Continued From Page One) before the court, Truman said the employes came before the Wage Stabilization Board and "proved that they were entitled to some wage increases."

"And then it was the turn of the steel companies," he said. "They were asked to agree to fair and reasonable wage increases and come in and submit their case for price increases, if they needed any. But would they do that? Not at all."

"Their profits, whatever yardstick you use, have been running close to record levels. I think that is the reason why they don't want to submit their case for consideration on its merits. They refuse to abide by the rules of our stabilization program."

"They just come out and say the government has to give them a big price increase, or else." Truman pointed up foreign policy as one of the issues he is likely to discuss if he carries out his announced intention of making a whistle stop tour for the next Democratic nominee.

ROBBERY

(Continued From Page One) "we will act to rob them of this great national asset. This is just what the oil lobby wants. They want us to turn that vast treasure over to a handful of states, where the powerful private oil interests hope to exploit it to suit themselves."

Corruption "Talk about corruption. Talk about stealing from the people. This would be robbery on a colossal scale."

The President said he could see how members of Congress from Texas, California and Louisiana might like to have all the offshore oil for their states.

"But I certainly can't understand," he went on, "how the members of Congress from the other 45 states can vote to give away the interest the people of their states have in this precious asset. "As far as I am concerned, I intend to stand up and fight to

Oil Workers Register Mixed Reactions To Settlement Offers

DENVER — (AP) — Oil union officials reported "a mixed reaction" from their members Saturday toward efforts to settle the 18-day strike on the basis of a 15-cent hourly wage increase and other benefits.

Workers at some United States refineries have agreed to the offer and returned to work since the strike was called April 30 by a coalition of CIO, AFL and independent unions.

At other plants, difficulties in negotiations have cropped up regarding retroactive pay and union demands that wage negotiations may be reopened every six months. Most companies want to make this one year.

The strike has hit hardest at the country's supplies of high-octane aviation gasoline, forcing the U. S. Air Force to curtail training maneuvers and commercial air lines to drop some flights.

Effects have been world-wide, too. At London Saturday, the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company wanted that continuation of the oil strike in the United States would be a crisis in kerosene and diesel oil by winter.

Landlord Held In Death Of Tenant

SAN ANTONIO — (AP) — A 45-year-old occupant of a rooming house died Saturday after suffering a broken neck and his 33-year-old landlord was being held in the city jail.

Sgt. E. I. Campa of the police homicide division said that Louis Bishop was dead on arrival at a hospital. Justice of the Peace T. P. Anthony was conducting the inquest.

Undergoing X-ray and treatment for a possible broken back was the landlord, taken into custody by Campa.

Non-Farm Jobs Climb For April, Says TEC

AUSTIN — (AP) — Non-farm job placements jumped 5138 in April, the Texas Employment Commission has reported.

Construction, wholesale and retail trade industries, private households and government agencies all stepped up demand for workers.

There was a net drop of 350 in manufacturing placements. A total of 49,536 workers were put on non-farm jobs during the month.

Union officials insist the strike has not interfered with the flow of gasoline and oil to the Korean war front and that plenty of products are available for an emergency civilian needs, even in areas where motorists have felt a pinch.

Last week the Wage Stabilization Board at Washington recommended a 15-cent hourly wage increase, effective May 1, plus extra pay of 6 cents for the evening shift and 12 cents for the night shift. More than 9 cents of the hourly increase was retroactive to Jan. 1.

Governors Planning Shamrock Session

SHAMROCK — (AP) — Late in June, governors of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico are scheduled to participate in ceremonies at their respective borders dedicating U. S. Highway 66 as Will Rogers Highway.

Texas Governor Allan Shivers will participate at the Texas-Oklahoma line 14 miles east of Shamrock where a bronze plaque honoring the humorist will be dedicated June 26. Ceremonies in other states will be June 25 and 27.

Ingrid Must Wait For Birth Of Twins

ROME — (AP) — Ingrid Bergman must wait a while for the expected birth of twins.

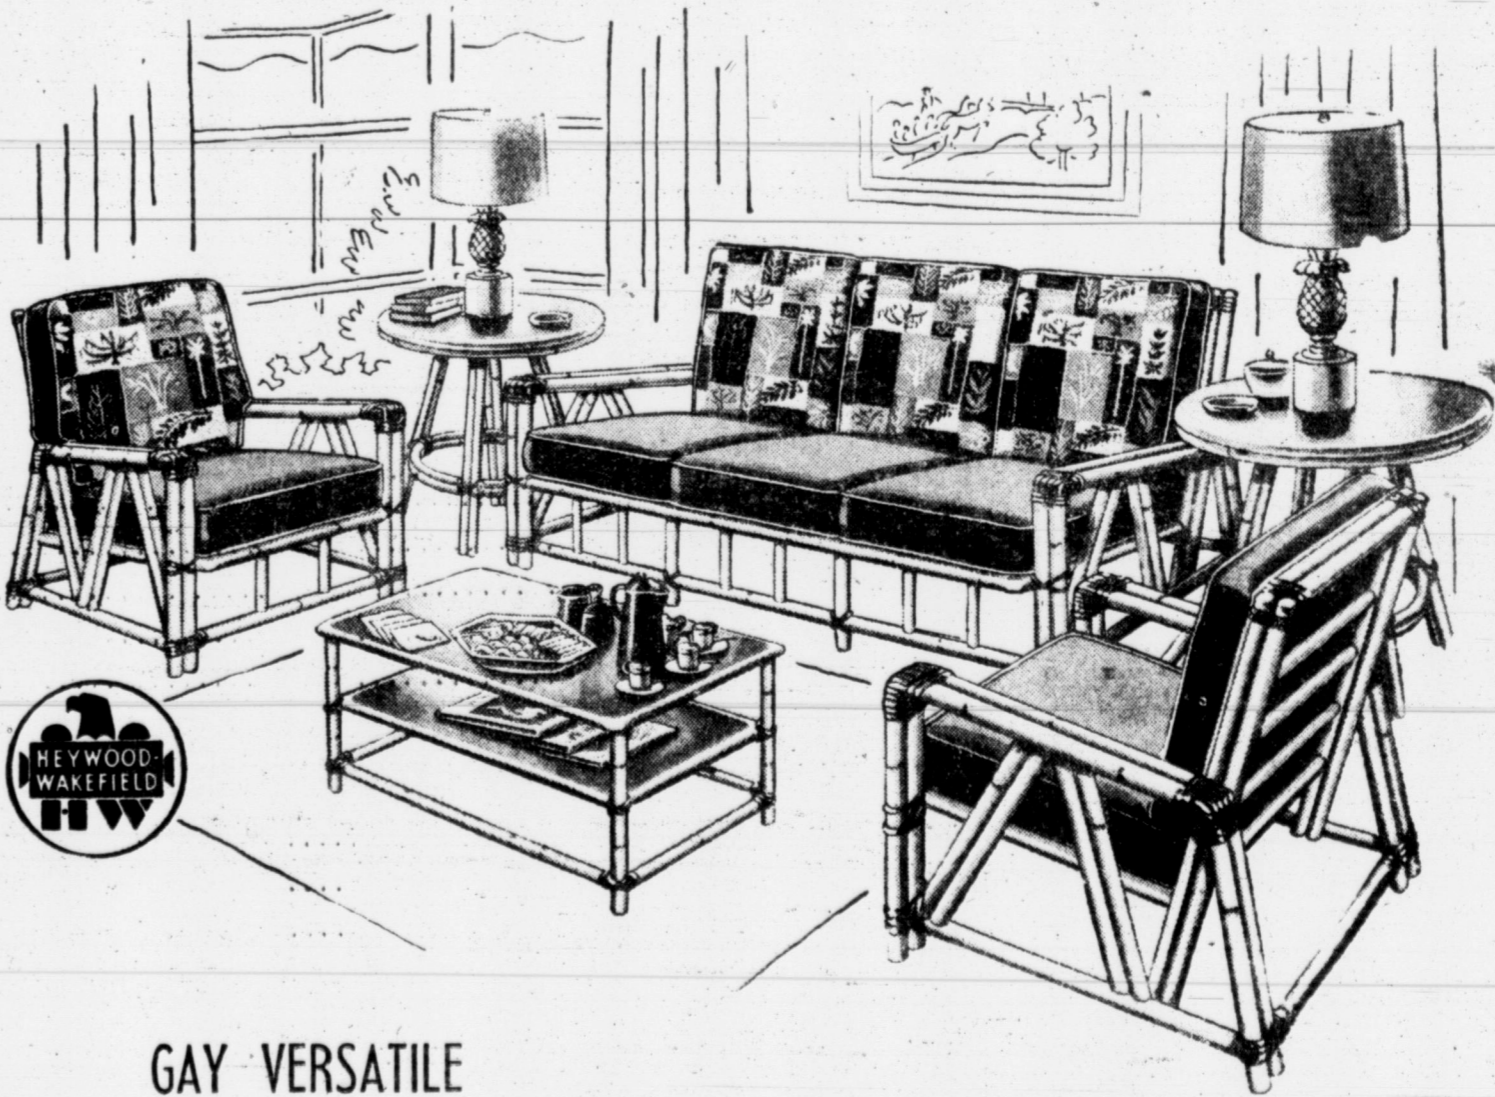

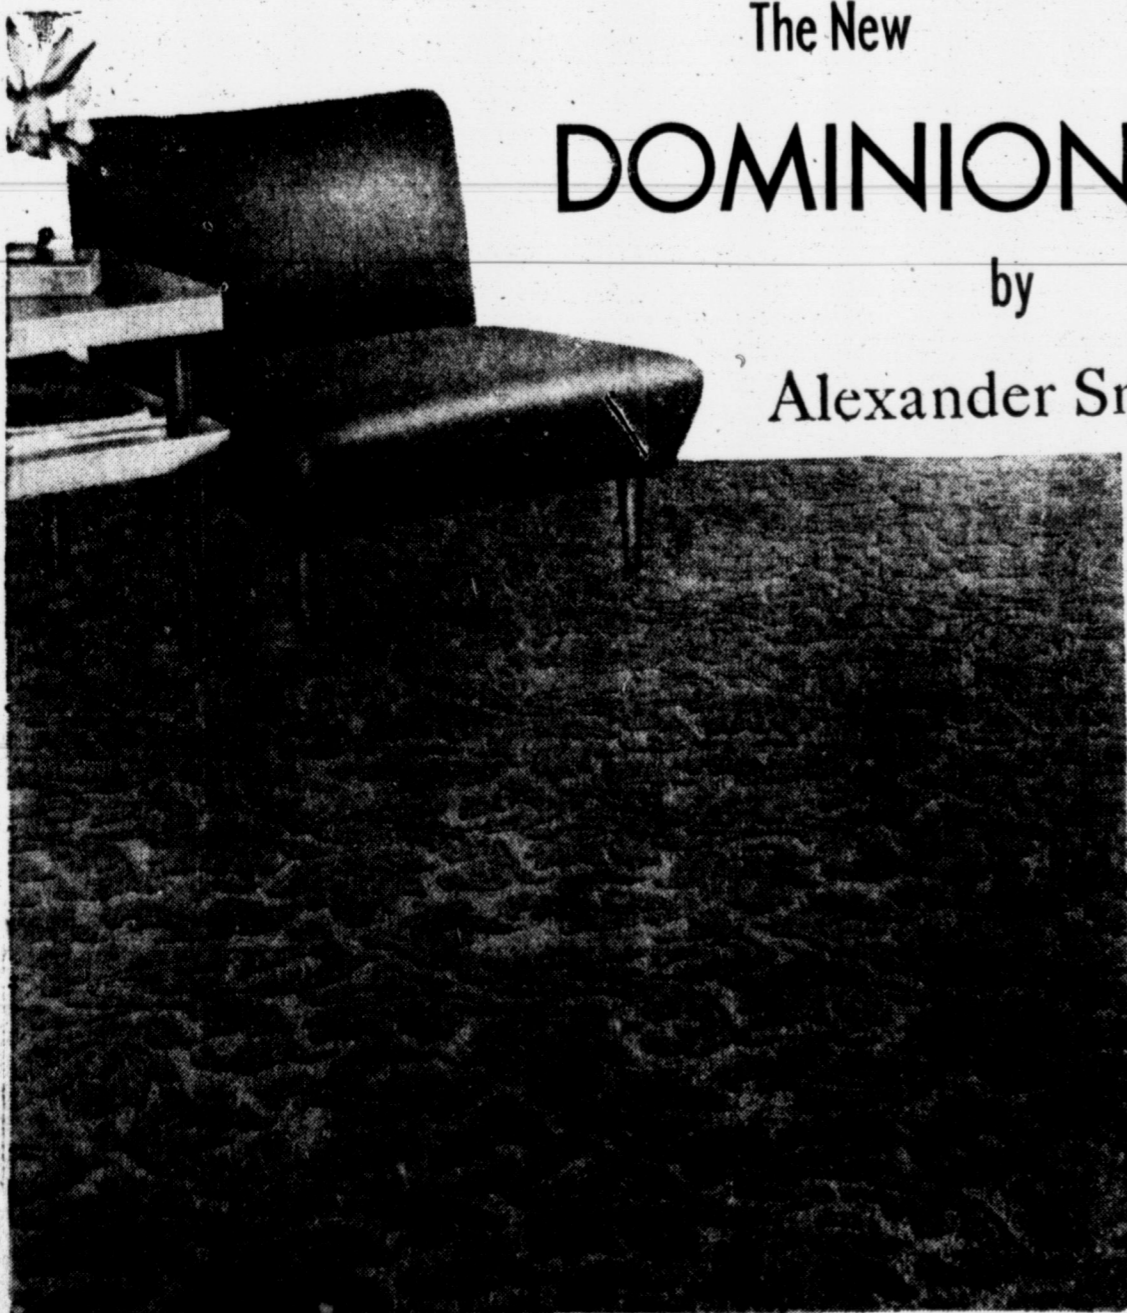

The Swedish film star entered Rome's new million-dollar Salvatore Mundi Hospital Thursday. She left it Saturday after doctors told her she had come too early.

Her Italian film director husband, Roberto Rossellini, said last month X-rays show she will have twins.

For three consecutive years, the Sperry was awarded the "Battle Efficiency Award" for outstanding performance of service, an honor highly coveted among Navy ships.

Chopper (SS342), one of the latest converted snorkel type submarines, recently became a qualified submariner on this submarine. This entitles him to wear the silver dolphins of the Submarine Service, which is required of all submarine sailors.

While in the Navy he received his boat training at San Diego, California and later received submarine training at the U. S. Submarine School at New London, Connecticut. He has served on the Chopper since last July.

WHO CAN VOTE?
All Poll Tax Holders Who Own and Have Rendered in Pampa School District Property For Taxes

Pampa Progresses Only As You Want It To Progress!

Will Your Children Have To Go To School In Shifts Next Year? NOT if You Vote "FOR" All the School Issues NEXT SATURDAY!

Why This Special School Election ?

1. There has been sharp increases in cost of all phases of our school program. All necessary supplies and equipment have advanced in price. The utility bills are higher. It has been necessary to increase salaries of Teachers to hold an efficient, capable and qualified staff. This is a condition prevailing throughout the business and professional circles in our community.

2. We have had a continuous increase in number of students, and at present time our elementary schools are crowded beyond their capacity. (See Schedule of Enrollment). This makes necessary the building of another Elementary School, to be located in the southwest part of town.

3. Our Tax Rate is fixed at $1.00, which is far less than that of any comparable school district in this whole area.

The school board and the Board of Equalization recommends an increase of rate as more equitable than further increases in valuation.

4. There are three propositions being submitted:

- a. To increase the tax rate maximum from $1.00 per $100 valuation to $1.25 per $100 valuation.
- b. To issue $350,000 for erection of new elementary school in Southwest Pampa.
- c. To issue $50,000.00 for replacement of old west side sections of stadium.

Why Stadium Improvements?

The first wooden stands built, twenty-five years ago, are seriously deteriorated and in the interest of safety, should by all means be replaced with steel stands of same type as on the east side.

In order to complete the building program in 1950, it was necessary to issue Revenue Bonds in the amount of $150,000.00.

The Gate receipts at football and basketball games, over expenses, are already pledged for the retirement of these bonds, and cannot be used for any other purpose.

Safety and Good Business require this improvement.

Holdup Play Is Good One To Know

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service
"What is a holdup play?" asks a San Francisco Correspondent. "I see this phrase used from time to time in your column, but am no sure what it means. Can you give a simple example and a simple explanation for a simple bridge player?"
Gladly. Today's hand shows a holdup play in its basic form. The play makes it possible for South to win nine tricks at no-trump. West leads a spade. East puts up the king, and South plays a low spade instead of winning with his ace. In other words, he "holds up" his ace of spades.
East continues with the jack of

Boyle's Leaves From His Midwest Travel Diary

By HAL BOYLE
KANSAS CITY (AP) — Leaves from a Midwest travel diary: Politics has replaced corn and wheat as the major crop for 1952 in the great American Middle West.
Out here where the grass roots grow a little deeper the controversy is particularly keen, because a number of the top presidential candidates spring from these heart states of the nation.
Here is a sampling of comments:
A businessman — "I am for Taft and so are most businessmen I know. Sure, we made a lot of money under the Democrats. But under Taft maybe we will get to keep some of it."
A newspaper publisher — "People are tired of the same old faces, the young people in particular. That's why Eisenhower is so popular."
A housewife — "I hope I get to vote for Gov. Warren. Anybody who can raise as nice a family as he has must be a good man."
A farmer — "We know where Taft stands. He's got more common sense than the rest of them put together."
A bar owner — "That Kefauver has more appeal than the politicians realize. But last year I made $400 betting on the horses and this year I can't even place a bet because of him. Do you think I'm going to vote for Kefauver?"
A veteran political reporter — "Don't let anyone kid you that Truman really wants to quit. He's acting more like a candidate than he ever did."
There is an air of general prosperity in the Midwest. Most everyone seems to be eating pretty high on the hog these days. People who used to complain about the weather now spend more time criticizing the income tax.
"Ever the winos are buying shots of whisky now," said a bartender.
The towns devastated by the Missouri and Kaw river floods in 1951 have made an astonishing recovery. They have been "neatly set up" again by the application of courage, fresh paint, and elbow grease.
Typical is Manhattan, Kan., whose business district was inundated last summer. In one restaurant where I stopped the lady proprietor said:
"You'd have drowned if you'd been sitting there a year ago."

The water was over seven feet deep in here. But we cleaned out the place, and opened up again as soon as we could. Now we're doing better than ever."

HOLES IN HIS HEAD—Jerry Bynum, 5, of Fort Worth, Texas, has two holes in his head, but he isn't complaining. The holes were drilled in his skull to give support for a specially designed bow which is helping to correct Jerry's curvature of the spine. The unusual treatment, being given at Fort Worth Hospital, causes Jerry no pain.

spades, and South continues the holdup play by retarding this trick also. Spades are continued, and South has to win the third trick.
Now declarer takes the diamond finesse. When East takes the king of diamonds, he has no way of getting to the West hand for the established spades.
East does his best, by leading a club, but South hops right up with the ace of clubs to run all of his tricks. South hops right up with the ace of clubs to run all of his tricks. South makes his game with one spade, three hearts, four diamonds, and one club.
There would be a different story to tell if South was the first or second spade. This would leave East with one or two spades in his hand. Whenever East got the lead with the king of diamonds he could resume the spades, and West would set the contract with the rest of the spades.
In short, when you make a holdup play you delay the winning of a trick. The reason for the delay is to exhaust the cards held by one of your opponents in that suit.

New School Students Need To Fill Out Round-Up Blanks

Parents of children who will begin school in September in the Pampa Independent School district are asked to obtain a summer round-up blank from the elementary school in their area.
These blanks must be properly filled out before your child can enter school, said Supt. Knox Kinard.

HOT MUSIC—Dr. D. H. Fullett, of London's Science Museum, really plays "hot" music. The organ-like instrument is a "pyrophone." Notes are produced by gas flames burning in glass tubes of various lengths. The tone of the instrument is said to be "celestial beautiful." It was invented by Frederick Kautner, a physicist, nearly 80 years ago.

First Atomic Submarine To Be Started

WASHINGTON (AP) — The keel of this nation's first atomic-powered submarine will be laid next month.
The Navy said the work on the history-making vessel will be done at the electric boat division of the General Dynamics Corp. Plant at Groton, Conn.
The actual starting date will be made known soon, the announcement said.
The atomic sub is to be named "Nautilus" after the fictional craft described by Jules Verne in 1870 in the novel, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under The Sea."
The first experimental submarine, of the inventor Robert Fulton, carried the same name in 1801.
The Nautilus will be powered by a thermal reactor plant designed by the Argonne National Atomic Laboratory and the Westinghouse Electric Corp.
A second atomic power plant for submarines is being developed by the Atomic Energy Commission and the General Electric Co. Company at Schenectady, N. Y.
The General Electric-built power plant, known as an intermediate energy reactor, will be used in another submarine and the Navy and AEC plan tests to determine which of the two power plants are useful.
It is expected that the first atomic-powered sub will be ready for testing some time in 1954.

Graduate — Miss Bessie Huff, McMurry College senior from Pampa, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Huff, Pampa, will be among the 57 graduates May 20. Miss Huff will receive a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in physical education.

Selling silver is 92.5 per cent silver and 7.5 per cent copper, the proportion used in British coinage. Coins of the U. S. use the proportions of 90 per cent and 10 per cent, and this is called "coin silver."
In 1952, Italy had almost twice as many automobiles as in 1940 the figures being 705,844 and 350,208.

The Pampa Daily News is sincerely proud and happy today to announce the first winners of the annual "Pampa Daily News Outstanding Athlete Awards." Eight students, one each from Canadian, Lefors, McLean, Mobeetie, Shamrock, Wheeler and White Deer High Schools, have been selected by their coaches and school officials to receive the award.

The name of each winner will be engraved on the trophy and the trophy will remain in the school trophy case as a standing annual award. Again next year eight more outstanding athletes will be selected, and some of them may be repeat winners. The 1951-52 outstanding athletes are: Ben Mathers, Canadian; Melvin Bigham, Lefors; Bonita Bailey, McLean; Charles Clark, Miami; Bill Leonard, Mobeetie; Van Pennington, Shamrock; David Johnson, Wheeler; and Carl McCabe, White Deer.

This year's selections were outstanding inasmuch as a girl was named as one of the winners. Bonita Bailey, truly an outstanding athlete, was named the recipient of the award for the McLean Tigers. Bonita's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bailey, who have named all-state in girls basketball the last two years and she is only a junior. Sixteen years old, Bonita is an honor student and a drum majorette in the Tiger band.

Ben Mathers, the Canadian winner, was graduated Friday night. Ben participated in football, baseball and track, being all-district in football and finished fourth in the district track meet in the low hurdles. He is 17 years old and the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Mathers. He was class secretary and treasurer in his junior year, and now plans to attend Southern Methodist University.

Melvin "Bury" Bigham is another four-sport athlete. He played football, basketball, track and boxed, making all-district in football. He is an 18-year-old senior who plans to attend Texas Tech. He was the junior class president. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Bigham.

The Miami winner, Charles Clark, is an 18-year-old senior who also participated in four sports, football, basketball, baseball and track. He was co-captain of the football team. Vice president of the senior class, Charles plans to attend Texas Tech in the fall. His parents are Canadian ranchers, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Clark.

Bill Leonard, the Mobeetie winner, is the oldest, 19. He played football, basketball, and baseball for the Hornets, co-captaining the football and basketball teams. Bill is a senior and is president of the student council. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Leonard, live in Sequoia. His sports season is still going on, as the Hornets play for the bi-district baseball championship next weekend. Bill pitches for the team.

At Shamrock, the winner, Van Pennington, is a 17-year-old senior. He comes from an athletic family, and played football, basketball and track for the Irish this year. He was all-district in football and basketball and plans to attend Texas Tech. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pennington, live in the country. Van was all-state in football and has been very active in FFA work, an organization in which he has been an officer.

WARREN'S ARMUP

QUESTION: What teams in the American and National leagues have never won a world series?

OUR CONGRATULATIONS go out today to the eight outstanding athletes, students and young leaders pictured above who were selected by their coaches and teachers to be the initial recipients of the annual "Pampa News Outstanding Athlete Awards." Your selection over the other students in your school should prove to you the worth of putting out just a little bit more energy in whatever you do, be it studying or playing some game. Because only by such actions could you have earned the honor.

As an example of the caliber of citizens the winners are, we want to quote a line or two from a note sent us by Logan Cummings, superintendent of McLean schools and also the chairman of District I.A. "Our choice, as Bonita Bailey, two times all-state basketball player, honor student, a leader among the students, and an outstanding sport at all times. And that was almost the identical description of all the winners. They had all won athletic honors, were leading students, and outstanding sports. Our congratulations.

This is the News' first year of presenting these awards, and the response we have received from the area schools, the coaches and the officials has been heartening. As one of the officials said, "This is one of the finest things ever done in the area to promote good sportsmanship. The News is to be complimented. These are the things we are striving for."

The News is only sorry that we hadn't thought of the plan earlier.

And the students have appreciated the honor, too. As one of them said in a note yesterday, "I want to express my great thrill over the trophy I received. There are many more boys and girls who justly deserve such an honor. Thank you sincerely for the trophy as athlete of the year."

Television Star
Pampa's Sgt. Eugene Cooper, 156-pound Air Force boxing champion, has been having plenty of trouble trying to stay healthy long enough to appear on the American Broadcasting Company's "Meet The Champ" television program. Cut eyes have forced him to cancel the first two appearances. But, according to Cpl. Ray Frank's sports writer for the Amarillo Jet Journal, air base publication, Cooper should make it this time.

Frank reports that television cameramen followed the Pampa youthpaw of Lackland Air Force Base, the site of the world-wide Air Force finals, where they shot several feet of film. Most of the shooting was of Gene working out in the gym and the sequences will be used to introduce him for the "live" box shows he will star in when ABC summons again.

The bi-weekly television program, featuring boxing champions from all branches of the service and the show is presented from all parts of the country. Cooper's next stop is the Olympic trials in Kansas City in early June. The winners there will represent this country in the summer Olympic Games at Helsinki, Finland.

Buddy Cockrell was released from West Texas Hospital in Lubbock Friday and is up and around on crutches. His knee should be strong as ever for next football and basketball seasons. The Harvester footballers enjoyed a picnic last Wednesday. The Borger Futures stomped

Weatherman Stops Oilers; To Face Gassers In Borger

High winds, cold and rain have kept the Pampa Oilers inactive the past two nights, forcing postponement of both the finale with the Abilene Blue Sox and the curtain-raiser with the Borger Gassers scheduled for last night at Gasser Park.

In fact, rain washed out the entire schedule for the league last night. Other games postponed included Abilene at Albuquerque, where there will be a doubleheader today, Lamesa at Clovis, and Lubbock at Amarillo, where there will also be a doubleheader today.

This afternoon the Oilers are slated to close the scheduled two-day stand against the Gassers, who have proved to be no push-over to any club so far this season. Manager Jack Phillips is expected to throw his right hander, Max Molberg (4-1) against the Bergans at Huber Park. Tomorrow the Oilers move into Amarillo for a two-game series, the final two-game set until the last go-round of the league.

From now on it will be the next two trips around the circuit. Righthander George Payte is due to face the Gold Sox, who have a new manager, and have been strengthened by the addition of several new faces including the veteran hard-hitting outfielder, Crawford Howard.

The Oilers return home Wednesday to start a nine-day stand against the Borger Gassers, Clovis Pioneers and Amarillo Gold Sox.

Saturday, Business Manager Ivy Griffin announced that rookie infielder Phil Rizzo, on option to Pampa from Temple, had been returned to the Class B Big

Blue Man Puts On Brilliant Finish To Capture 76th Running Of Preakness

Blue Man, Conn McCreey, up.

BALTIMORE — (AP) — The favored Blue Man zoomed from tenth and last place with a brilliant burst of speed, circled his field on the final bend, and bounced home with jockey Conn McCreey to capture the $12,270 Preakness State Saturday at old Pimlico race course.

Blue Man caught Janpo! — which had taken over the lead after about one mile — and had command of the situation approaching the pole marking the last eighth of a mile. That was it, and everybody in the packed premises knew it.

Arcaro Third
For Blue Man had been established $1.60 to $1.00 favorite and he was bringing back $5.20, $3.40 and $2.60 for those confident enough to go for him at the mutual windows.

Jampol, winner of the Preakness Prep here Monday, ran a surprisingly good race under the veteran 45-year-old Cuban jockey, Fernando Fernandez, and paid $12.60 and $7.60 to place. One Count, ridden by Eddie Arcaro in quest of his fifth Preakness, was $4.00 to show.

The time of 1:57 2-5 was a second and two fifths off the track record, set by Capot in winning the 1949 Preakness.

After Sub Fleet, came in order of finish Sam E. Wilson's Gushing Oil, Mrs. Gordon Guiberson's Arroz, Count Flame, Gustave Smith's Handsome Toldy, and Cain Hoy Stable's Arzegeodon, winner of last week's Withers mile at Belmont.

Newcomers to the University of Florida football schedule are Stetson, Clemson and Tennessee. All three schools should be in the

Middlecoff Closing In On Snead In Wykagyl Tourney

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. — (AP) — Dr. Cary Middlecoff's radar putting blade carved an eight-under par 64 for a Wykagyl Course record Saturday and moved the Memphis dentist within striking distance of faltering Sam Snead with one round to play in the $15,000 Round Robin Golf Tournament.

Snead could pick up only four points on an erratic fourth round score of 75-72, matching Billy Wykagyl's par.

This gave the slugging PGA State League club, Rizzo, who started the season at third base, had seen no action for the past ten days. His leaving trimmed the Oilers roster to 16 players.

Bill Bohne, veteran righthander who was placed on the suspended list ten days ago when struck on the pitching hand by a hard hit ball, will likely return to the active list tomorrow, and may get the call against the Gold Sox instead of Payte. Veteran Juan Montero was confined to his room yesterday with a bad cold, and may be put on the suspended list to keep the club at the allowable "eight-veteran limit."

Indians Pound Out 9-2 Win Over Nats

CLEVELAND — (AP) — The Cleveland Indians gave Pitcher Bob Lemon more runs Saturday than in all six of his previous starts this season by blasting three Washington National pitchers for 16 hits and a 9-2 victory.

The barrage of base hits included homer by Larry Doby, Jim Hegan and Luke Easter, accounting for six runs.

When Lemon shut out St. Louis 1-0 on a two-hitter Sunday, it was the fifth game in which the tribe scored no more than one run for him. Yesterday they got him off to a four-run lead in the first inning.

Lemon allowed only six hits in hurling his fourth triumph of the season against two setbacks.

The Indians' first inning rally included five consecutive hits off Julio Moreno, the Nats' starter and loser.

Harry Simpson singled, Bob Avila tripled, Al Rosen singled, and Doby hit a two-run homer.

The Indians scored only two runs in the next six rounds off Sandy Consuegra. One was the fourth on a homer by Hegan, and the other in the fifth on singles by Avila and Dale Mitchell, who rapped four singles in four times at bat.

Easter hammered a three-run homer in the eighth off Bobo Newson, the Nats' third fliker. It was his fourth of the season.

Ned Day of West Allis, Wis., is the 13th bowler to be elected to the ABC Hall of Fame. The first Hall of Fame election was

Giants Rally To Trim Cubs

NEW YORK — (AP) — Whitey Lockman clouted a two-run homer in the eighth inning yesterday to give the New York Giants a 9-8 triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

Lockman's pressure blast enabled the Giants to maintain their tie with Brooklyn for the National League lead. The Dodgers already had trounced Pittsburgh, 12-7.

Davey Williams launched the payoff rally by doubling with two out off Bob Kelly, third Chicago pitcher. Lockman followed with his fourth homer to wipe out an 8-7 deficit.

Lanky Paul Minner started for Chicago and for a while it appeared he would gain the first victory of his career over the Giants, who have beaten him seven straight times.

Minner weathered a four-inning rally and entered the seventh inning with an 8-4 advantage. But with one out, Williams and Lockman singled and Dutch Leonard was rushed in to stem the tide.

He walked Bob Thomson to load the bases and then struck out pinch-hitter Hank Thompson. Willie Mays followed with a two-run single and Don Mueller with another one-bagger to chase, Dutch and bring on Kelly, who finally retired the side.

Wade Holds Lead As Dodgers Win

BROOKLYN — (AP) — Ben Wade, 29-year-old rookie righthander, started off like a house afire Saturday but then cooled off as the Brooklyn Dodgers trounced the Pittsburgh Pirates, 12-7.

Wade allowed only one hit and plus 23 points, followed by Mangrum, with 19. Barber with 15. Ferrer and Oliver with 11 each the only men above the boards.

The triumph enabled the Dodgers to remain in a first place tie with the New York Giants, who beat Chicago, 9-3.

The Dodgers put the game away in the second inning when they capitalized on the wildness of young Don Kline and scored nine runs. Duke Snider's bases-loaded triple was the big blow. Outfielder Dick Williams banged out a single and three-bagger in the big rally.

Cardinals Nip Boston Braves

BOSTON — (AP) — Alpha Brazzle's relief chore Saturday enabled Cliff Chambers to gain a 5-4 victory over the Boston Braves as the St. Louis Cardinals squared the two-game series. Chambers was chased in the seventh inning when the Tribesmen tallied three on four singles and a wild pitch.

The Cardinals lead off on Jim Wilson for three runs in the second inning. Stan Musial started that rally by bouncing an infield hit over Ed Matthews' head. Then came singles by Enos Slaughter and Dick Sisler. With two out Chambers singled and Sisler countered on a wild pitch.

The Cardinals added another marker in the fifth and Jim Glavin came over with the winning run in the sixth when Matthews threw wild after making a nice pickup on Del Rice's sharp drive down the third base line.

Chambers had a 5-1 lead up to the seventh, when Bob Thorpe set the stage for his outing with a clean single to right. Paul Burris and Sibby Sisti connected safely and Brazzle was rushed into action after Thorpe crossed the plate.

Martin Tops TL Batting Parade

DALLAS — (AP) — Boris (Eabe) Martin, the muscular young man with the wrestler's build from San Antonio, has slammed his way to the top in Texas League batting.

The strong-arm catcher of the Missions is hitting .375 in latest averages, shooting 30 points ahead of Dick Aylward, Dallas catcher, who led until this week.

Martin has slugged 27 hits in 72 times at the plate, batting in 18 runs.

He appears to be the only

... fellow doing any consistent hitting for San Antonio, however—his club is last in batting in the league with a puny .212.

Dallas leads in club hitting with .255, just a point better than Tulsa.

Frank Kallert of Oklahoma City has pounded the most hits with 41, Joe Szekeley of Shreveport has the most doubles with 15, Fletcher Robbe of Tulsa has the most triples with five, while Russ Burns of Oklahoma City and Jerry Witte of Houston wage ly Witte of Houston wage a merry race for the lead in home runs and runs-batted-in. Burns leads in homers with eight to Witte's seven, but they are tied in driving runs across with 28 apiece.

The fellow doing the most scoring is Al Pilarcik of Beaumont, who has spiked the dish 26 times.

Fort Worth steals more bases than any other two clubs and the leading thief is Bill Hunter, who has pilfered eight. The Fort Worth club has stolen 37.

Houston's Mike Clark tops the pitchers with a 5-9 record but the hurler winning the most games is Joe Landrum of Fort Worth, who has taken six decisions, but lost three games. Shreveport's Arnold Atkins is the league's strike-out pitcher. He has whiffed 40.

SATISFIED — Joe Carrieri, 16-year-old Yankee bat boy who makes $2.50 a game and says he wouldn't change places with a millionaire's son, goes about his business at Yankee Stadium. Joe proudly explained, "you have to work your way up to bat boy, you know. I was promoted from ball boy last year."

A RUN FOR THE CUBS — Bruce Edwards, Chicago Cub catcher, slides home with a run in the second inning of the Chicago game with the Giants as the ball gets away from catcher West Westrum after a bad throw from pitcher Dave Koso. Edward started in from third when Cub Second Baseman Bob Ramazotti bounced a roller back to Koso on the mound. (AP Wirephoto)

Babe's Weakness Was Hard To Find

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK — (AP) — Earl Whitehill, the old Detroit and Washington southpaw, was visiting the bench at the Stadium and talking baseball, and as almost invariably happens in such circumstances the talk came around to Babe Ruth, the mighty man who is widely credited with having built the job.

Whitehill, who won 217 games in the years after he came out of Cedar Rapids, Ia., mostly for second division ball clubs, was asked if he and his fellow American League pitchers ever evolved what might be termed a master plan for trying to get the Bambino out.

Perhaps it is not generally known, but pitchers are something of a clan apart. If one of their members discovers a certain batter's weakness, or anything resembling a weakness, the news gets around the league faster than a brush fire. Pitchers do not like batters, and the feeling is reciprocated with interest.

"Most of the boys thought the best idea was to pitch him high and outside," Whitehill recalled. "That way he wasn't so likely to pull one into the right field seats on you. But there never was any general agreement on that fellow.

"The trouble with the Babe was that you'd give him a certain pitch and he would miss it by a foot. I mean by a foot, and you would think to yourself that you had something. A couple of pitches later you would come in with it again and he would knock it out of the lot. Myself, I liked to curve him low and had better luck than some of the others."

A squint at the Babe's home run records shows that he walked only a dozen of his mammoth total off Whitehill in the 11 years they faced each other. Any pitcher who held Ruth to an approximate average of one

Looking A Bass In The Mouth

By AL McCLANE Fishing Editor

Ever since we scratched the former world record small-mouth bass off the books, people have been steadily writing to tell us that the record should be a 14-pounder taken in Florida back in 1938.

Well, two scientists got to looking in the bass' plumbing a few years ago and they convinced the angling world in general and Florida in particular that there are no smallmouths in the palm tree state. The truth of the matter is that Florida's largemouth bass' even a true largemouth — but a distinct subspecies.

To list the many bass kicking around in Florida would be a waste of time; they are the products of intergrading subspecies which hold their own in certain areas because of physiographic barriers. Which is to say—a bass is a bass as long as he stays in his own pond.

For a number of years the state of California had more types of trout than Hollywood extras—until biologists accepted the fact that different strains were mixing in various watersheds with both hatchery and wild fish. This classic entanglement made ambitious zoologists very cautious when dealing with any type of fish.

To reinforce our own opinion in this matter, we recently examined the record bass caught in 1932, and, studied with the information available today, it is definitely a Florida largemouth. It is unfortunate that this system of classification was not available in 1932.

However, the fact remains that the structure of the bass family was the same then as it is now, but it wasn't recognized until 17 years after the fish was caught.

JOHNNY PRICE

Johnny Price, Baseball's Top Acrobat, Here Friday

Baseball's one-man acrobatic show, Johnny Price, who spent most of the past winter entertaining our soldiers in Korea and the South Seas, has collected some exciting new tricks to show the fans of this area when he appears at Oiler Park on Friday night.

It may not seem possible but the fantastic Price, whose reputation already includes some amazing stunts with a ball, bat and glove, has come up with several new acrobatic stunts in keeping with his policy of maintaining a perpetually fresh bag of tricks.

Baseball's outstanding entertainer, who has thrilled millions of fans from Alaska to South America, performed for the armed services on the Korean front and in this winter, he will bring his new stunts and acrobatic baseball stunts to the fans of this area.

"We could see the balls actually fly behind the Red lines," Price said. "In fact, we could see the balls pick up the bases. Most of the time they studied the ball for a long time. One of the things they were most interested in was to see if they could hit the ball with a crubby trap."

Price, with his keen sense of humor, had actually written on each ball: "Return this ball to Hank Greenberg at Cleveland Stadium and receive two seasons passes to the Indians' home games." The Cleveland Baseball Company handles Price's bookings.

Minor League Player
A minor league ball player for ten years, Price finally reached land to double as a utility infielder as well as an entertainer. But his sensational talent as a trick artist so over shadowed his hitting ability that he soon decided to devote his entire time to presenting his incomparable act.

In it he manages to do everything conceivable with a baseball and a number of things that would never have been dreamed of by a less fortunate man. He can hit a baseball and then follow it up by showing 13 more NOT throwing and NOT catching one. He chases fly balls in the deep and even catches them from the moving vehicle while standing on his head. He can hit and throw and catch from this position.

Texas Taking Advent Of Negroes With Understanding

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS — Texas has taken the advent of Negroes in its sports with calm and understanding.

They had participated in sports in the state before the past year but had been members of visiting teams. Now Texas has a Negro in professional baseball, will have several in pro football and chances are that some will play in the National Open Golf Tournament in Dallas come June.

Dave Hoskins' debut as the first Negro to play in the Texas League brought only a good crowd and an ovation for Hoskins when he left the mound after pitching Dallas to a 4-2 victory over Tulsa.

There were no boos and the crowd pulled for him all the way. At Fort Worth, when Hoskins went in as a pinch hitter, there were some boos but, as most baseball men will tell you, anybody is likely to be booed while playing on the road.

Hoskins is a fine athlete. He hustles all the time and works hard at his business. He is popular with his teammates and says that's all he cares about anything.

It isn't his first time to play in organized baseball. He was with Grand Rapids of the Central League in 1948. Hoskins had a rough time then especially from the opposing teams.

Little Protest
There was surprisingly little protest from the fans when Dick Burnett, owner of the Dallas Club, brought a Negro into the Texas League. Burnett was slightly amazed at the few letters he got. And Dallas newspapers had few. Most of the letters that he was receiving his box seat came expressed favor.

One man wrote Burnett that he would like to see a Negro in the Dallas park. Burnett knew the man, however; knew that he had hired many Negroes to work for him in East Texas. So the Dallas press wrote the man, pointing out that he had employed Negroes to help him in his business and suggested that that's only what Burnett was doing. The man telephoned immediately and said "Gimme that box."

Burnett can see no fall-off in attendance by white fans and he has seen a big pick-up in the attendance of Negro fans. Jack Zeller, one of the most astute baseball men in the country, has this slant on Negroes in baseball:

Negroes will not go out to see one of their race play baseball unless he is a good ball player. They won't turn out just because a Negro is playing. He has to be good.

Burnett didn't go into the thing with the idea of just having a Negro player to appeal to the Negro fans. He wanted a good ball player—one who could help his club. He tried one and found him wanting. But Hoskins met all qualifications.

Other Sports
There is no trouble involved in the housing situation. Hoskins boards with a Negro family in Dallas. He doesn't ask or expect to stay at a Dallas hotel along with his teammates.

Negroes in football will be even easier to handle. Football is farther away from the fan than baseball. And there will be fewer games. Dallas, for instance, will play only six at home.

And Negroes already have played golf without mishap, although not yet in Texas. The National Open, however, will break the color line if there are any Negroes in the country capable of qualifying for the National Open. Horton Smith, president of the PGA, thinks there are at least six.

Black Oilers To Play Here Today
The Pampa Black Oilers are scheduled to resume their baseball season this afternoon at Oiler Park against the Shamrock Oilers. The Shamrock Oilers are a member of the Red River Valley League.

Game time is set for 2:30. The Black Oilers have a 1-1 record for the season. They defeated the Borger Black Hubbers in their first game and lost to Borger two weeks ago.

Yankees' Big Swap Looking Bad Now
By RALPH KODEN
Associated Press Writer
The New York Yankees seldom make a poor trade but at the moment it appears they pulled a whopper in dispatching Frankie Jensen and Archie Wilson to Washington for Archie Noren.

Yank Manager Casey Stengel was reluctant to part with the trio but claimed he was forced to because Stengel's fears have been realized and if Noren and Wilson will be nightmarish in the day time.

Shea, Jensen and Wilson have given the Senators a brighter outlook on life while Noren has yet to catch fire.

Jensen and Shea teamed up Friday night to lead the Senators to a 2-0 triumph over the Indians. The victory moved Washington to within 1-1/2 games of the Tribe.

Noren's Best Game
Noren played his best game since joining Yankees, giving in two runs as the Bombers edged the Tigers, 2-1, in Detroit. Noren socked his first homer in the seventh and singled home the winning run with one out in the ninth.

Earl Harritt and Satchel Paige combined to pitch the St. Louis Browns to a 2-1 two-hit tenning victory over Boston in a night game at St. Louis. The Browns collected only four hits off Mickey McDermott and Ellis Kinder, but three of the blows were by Bob Nieman who drove in both runs. Nieman homered in the eighth and doubled with two on in the tenth to win the game. Harritt allowed only two hits before he bowled out for a pinch-hitter in the seventh. Paige walked two and fanned four in his three hitless rounds to pick up his second victory. McDermott was the loser although Kinder yielded the winning hit.

In night games, the Boston Braves trampled the St. Louis Cardinals, 8-3, and the Philadelphia Phils edged the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2, in ten innings.

When a pulled muscle prevented Florida's J. Pappas Hill, national collegiate champ, from high jumping in the dual meet with Georgia recently, he entered the shot put event—but failed to place.

Longhorn Relay Teams Miss At Coliseum As Favorites Lose

LOS ANGELES — One American record was bettered and crack field of international Olympic Games candidates fell before Finland's Denis Johansson in the 1,500-meter run.

Those were the highlights of the 12th annual Los Angeles Coliseum Relays Friday night unruffled before 45,211 track and field enthusiasts in weather that was on the coolish side.

Sharing attention with these exploits by Johansson and 400-meter hurdler Charley Moore in a year of Olympic Games interest were the two relay wins by Manhattan College's four-man sprint team, George Rhoden's win in the 400-meter run and the triumph of his teammate from Morgan State College, Art Bragg, in the 100-meter dash.

There were disappointments too. Big Names Lose
Andy Stanfield, the favorite from New York in the 100 meters, pulled a leg muscle and bowed out of the race.

England's E. McDonald Bailey, co-holder of the world 100-meter record, ran a poor fourth.

Don Gehrman, the Wisconsin mile king, finished a disappointing fifth in the 1,500-meter race, dominated almost from the start by Johansson, now a student at Purdue, and timed in 3:33.

Moore, former national champion from Cornell and America's best bet in the 400-meter hurdles at Helsinki, eased in by 20 yards in 50.9 seconds. He held the old American record, set in 1949, at 51.1. The world record, set in Sweden in 1934, is 50.6 by Louisiana State University's Glenn Marlin.

America's greatest pole vaulter, Bob Richards and Don Laz, of the Illinois Athletic Club, wound up tied at 14 feet 8 inches. They failed at 15 feet.

Discus stars Fortune Gordien, the world record holder, and Simmes of Southern California, far out just so-so. Simmes won at 174 feet 4 inches; Gordien hit 170 10 1-8; Darrow Hooper, Texas A&M, 169 10 1-2; and collegiate national champion Dick Doyle, Montana AC, 169 3 3-8.

Longhorns Second
The nation's best shot putters had it better. Jim Fuchs of New York Athletic Club got off one for 57 feet 3 1/2 inches.

Parry O'Brien, USC, had 56 6 3-4; Hooper 55 9 1-4; and Ous Chandler, U. S. Air Force, 51 1-4.

World record holder Rhoden won handily in the 400-meters at 46.6, and Bragg took the 100 meters in 10.8. Dean Smith of Texas was a close second in the 100.

The closest finish was the 110-meter high hurdles won in 14 seconds flat by Craig Dixon, former national champion from the LAAC. Jack Davis, current collegiate champ from USC, was second; veteran Harrison Dillard third; and back a bit was the world record holder, still rounding into form, Dick Atlessey of the Navy.

Manhattan's John O'Donnell, Joe Schatzle, Lindy Remigio and anchor man Bob Carly scored repeat wins in the 400-yard sprint relay in 40.7 and the 800-yard relay in 2:14.

Texas was second in the 40, trailed by USC, Morgan State, and Oklahoma's Aggies. In the 800, USC, UCLA, Texas and Morgan State followed in that order.

Hotrods Roll At Air Base Today
The Pampa Hotrod Club and the Pampa Police Department will hold their regular weekly hot rod and stock car race at the old Pampa Air Force Base this afternoon.

The first race is scheduled to start at 2:30. Admission for the races is twenty-five cents per adult and children are allowed in free.

Weatherman Slows Up WT-NM Play
By the Associated Press
The weatherman gave most West Texas - New Mexico League baseball teams a rest Friday night. Two of the games never got started, a third was called in the second inning and the other game was delayed 22 minutes by rain.

High winds, cold and dust combined to force postponement of the contests at Clovis and Pampa. At Lubbock, the Lamesa-Lubbock tilt got as far as the second before being called. The game will be replayed at a later date.

Borger was scheduled at Clovis with Abilene at Pampa. Amarillo, playing at Albuquerque, would have been just as happy with a rain-out, losing to the host Dukes 13-9. Pain caused a delay of almost half an hour in the sixth.

The victory moved Albuquerque into sole possession of third place, shared with Lamesa going into the night's action.

Steve Lagomarsino won the game after coming on in relief with one out in the first inning. The loss went to John Fins, first of three Amarillo pitchers.

Merv Connors of Amarillo homered in the sixth with one on. It was his second round tripper in as many innings.

Colonial Field Set For Thursday

FORT WORTH — A veritable "who's who" of golf tees off here Thursday in the seventh annual $15,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament.

Forty-two professionals and five amateurs — the biggest names in golf — are in the line-up for this most exclusive of regulation PGA events and the first such affair on the 1952 summer tour.

With entries limited to a hand-picked field of those invited to play, Colonial has assembled a dazzling array of golf talent which, from a professional standpoint, includes:

(1) The champions of 28 of the 39 events on the PGA schedule since last year's tournament here.

(2) Eleven former winners of golf's major titles — the U. S. Open, the PGA, the Masters and the Western Open — who between them hold 26 of these important crowns.

(3) The No. 1 money winners of golf for 10 of the past 12 years.

(4) Six of the eight men who have averaged more than $10,000 per year in official golf earnings since World War II.

(5) Eighteen of the top 25 money winners for last year.

(6) Sixteen of the top 25 in earnings to date this year.

(7) The Vardon Trophy winners for six of the last eight years.

(8) Three of the first five in Vardon Trophy standings to date this year.

Ryder Cuppers
(9) Six of the first eight in final 1951 Vardon Trophy standings.

(10) Nine of the ten members of last year's Ryder Cup team, and 13 former Ryder Cup players in all.

(11) Nine of the first 16 in current Ryder Cup standings to date.

(12) Seven current low-score record holders, including a holder of each of the all-time records for 18, 36, 54 and 72 holes — for PGA tournament medal play, the holders of all of this year's records and the holders of all but one of last year's low marks.

The five amateurs — largest "simon pure" field in Colonial history — are likewise a distinguished group. Included are two members of last year's Walker Cup team, one of them a former national and Western amateur champion and the current national country club, Trans-Mississippi and Texas amateur champions.

The "Who's Who" in the 1952 Colonial field:

The largest attendance at a Cincinnati Reds' opening game was 35,747 in 1924 when the Reds defeated the Pirates, 6-5.

League records that were broken or tied in box scores arriving at the statistician's office this week were:

Most putouts by first baseman in one game — 19. Stanley Machinsky, Abilene, May 14 against Lubbock. Breaks record of 18 set by Virgil Richardson Aug. 25, 1947.

Gold Sox Have Big Shakeup
AMARILLO — In the club's biggest shakeup of personnel this season, Amarillo's Gold Sox acquired two new pitchers and released three pitchers and a catcher.

Francis Rice Leading WT-NM Hitters With Torrid .456 Clip

Francis Rice, a young limited-service outfielder with the Clovis Pioneers who has already been a potentially great ballplayer but could never seem to get started, is finding out that 1952 may be his year. Rice, who performed for the Oilers last season and went to the Pioneers as a throw-in on a deal that sent Johnny Jeandron to the Pioneers, is currently setting the batting pace in the league with a smoking .456 average.

In addition, the Nebraska youth is second in total hits, first in runs scored (34), fifth in doubles, tied for first in home runs (6), and first in total bases (61).

Joe Fortin, another former Oiler outfielder, is second in hitting with a .423 average.

Grey-haired Otho Nicholas of Abilene, who spent the 1945 season with the Brooklyn Dodgers, is setting the pace for the pitchers with five wins and no losses to date. A teammate, Eulis Rosson, and veteran Ray Machado of Lubbock have 4-0 records.

Machado has been the workhorse so far with a total of 49 1-3 innings pitched. Juan Montero of Pampa is the strikeout leader with 29, followed by teammate George Payte with 29.

Clovis' veteran hard-hitting squad is setting the team batting pace with a .317 average. Lubbock is leading in doubles with 48, Lubbock in triples with 10, and Abilene in home runs with 23.

Weatherman Slows Up WT-NM Play

The weatherman gave most West Texas - New Mexico League baseball teams a rest Friday night. Two of the games never got started, a third was called in the second inning and the other game was delayed 22 minutes by rain.

High winds, cold and dust combined to force postponement of the contests at Clovis and Pampa. At Lubbock, the Lamesa-Lubbock tilt got as far as the second before being called. The game will be replayed at a later date.

Borger was scheduled at Clovis with Abilene at Pampa. Amarillo, playing at Albuquerque, would have been just as happy with a rain-out, losing to the host Dukes 13-9. Pain caused a delay of almost half an hour in the sixth.

The victory moved Albuquerque into sole possession of third place, shared with Lamesa going into the night's action.

Steve Lagomarsino won the game after coming on in relief with one out in the first inning. The loss went to John Fins, first of three Amarillo pitchers.

Merv Connors of Amarillo homered in the sixth with one on. It was his second round tripper in as many innings.

Longhorn Relay Teams Miss At Coliseum As Favorites Lose

LOS ANGELES — One American record was bettered and crack field of international Olympic Games candidates fell before Finland's Denis Johansson in the 1,500-meter run.

Those were the highlights of the 12th annual Los Angeles Coliseum Relays Friday night unruffled before 45,211 track and field enthusiasts in weather that was on the coolish side.

Sharing attention with these exploits by Johansson and 400-meter hurdler Charley Moore in a year of Olympic Games interest were the two relay wins by Manhattan College's four-man sprint team, George Rhoden's win in the 400-meter run and the triumph of his teammate from Morgan State College, Art Bragg, in the 100-meter dash.

There were disappointments too. Big Names Lose
Andy Stanfield, the favorite from New York in the 100 meters, pulled a leg muscle and bowed out of the race.

England's E. McDonald Bailey, co-holder of the world 100-meter record, ran a poor fourth.

Don Gehrman, the Wisconsin mile king, finished a disappointing fifth in the 1,500-meter race, dominated almost from the start by Johansson, now a student at Purdue, and timed in 3:33.

Moore, former national champion from Cornell and America's best bet in the 400-meter hurdles at Helsinki, eased in by 20 yards in 50.9 seconds. He held the old American record, set in 1949, at 51.1. The world record, set in Sweden in 1934, is 50.6 by Louisiana State University's Glenn Marlin.

America's greatest pole vaulter, Bob Richards and Don Laz, of the Illinois Athletic Club, wound up tied at 14 feet 8 inches. They failed at 15 feet.

Discus stars Fortune Gordien, the world record holder, and Simmes of Southern California, far out just so-so. Simmes won at 174 feet 4 inches; Gordien hit 170 10 1-8; Darrow Hooper, Texas A&M, 169 10 1-2; and collegiate national champion Dick Doyle, Montana AC, 169 3 3-8.

Longhorns Second
The nation's best shot putters had it better. Jim Fuchs of New York Athletic Club got off one for 57 feet 3 1/2 inches.

Parry O'Brien, USC, had 56 6 3-4; Hooper 55 9 1-4; and Ous Chandler, U. S. Air Force, 51 1-4.

World record holder Rhoden won handily in the 400-meters at 46.6, and Bragg took the 100 meters in 10.8. Dean Smith of Texas was a close second in the 100.

The closest finish was the 110-meter high hurdles won in 14 seconds flat by Craig Dixon, former national champion from the LAAC. Jack Davis, current collegiate champ from USC, was second; veteran Harrison Dillard third; and back a bit was the world record holder, still rounding into form, Dick Atlessey of the Navy.

Manhattan's John O'Donnell, Joe Schatzle, Lindy Remigio and anchor man Bob Carly scored repeat wins in the 400-yard sprint relay in 40.7 and the 800-yard relay in 2:14.

Texas was second in the 40, trailed by USC, Morgan State, and Oklahoma's Aggies. In the 800, USC, UCLA, Texas and Morgan State followed in that order.

Texas Taking Advent Of Negroes With Understanding

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS — Texas has taken the advent of Negroes in its sports with calm and understanding.

They had participated in sports in the state before the past year but had been members of visiting teams. Now Texas has a Negro in professional baseball, will have several in pro football and chances are that some will play in the National Open Golf Tournament in Dallas come June.

Dave Hoskins' debut as the first Negro to play in the Texas League brought only a good crowd and an ovation for Hoskins when he left the mound after pitching Dallas to a 4-2 victory over Tulsa.

There were no boos and the crowd pulled for him all the way. At Fort Worth, when Hoskins went in as a pinch hitter, there were some boos but, as most baseball men will tell you, anybody is likely to be booed while playing on the road.

Hoskins is a fine athlete. He hustles all the time and works hard at his business. He is popular with his teammates and says that's all he cares about anything.

It isn't his first time to play in organized baseball. He was with Grand Rapids of the Central League in 1948. Hoskins had a rough time then especially from the opposing teams.

Little Protest
There was surprisingly little protest from the fans when Dick Burnett, owner of the Dallas Club, brought a Negro into the Texas League. Burnett was slightly amazed at the few letters he got. And Dallas newspapers had few. Most of the letters that he was receiving his box seat came expressed favor.

One man wrote Burnett that he would like to see a Negro in the Dallas park. Burnett knew the man, however; knew that he had hired many Negroes to work for him in East Texas. So the Dallas press wrote the man, pointing out that he had employed Negroes to help him in his business and suggested that that's only what Burnett was doing. The man telephoned immediately and said "Gimme that box."

Burnett can see no fall-off in attendance by white fans and he has seen a big pick-up in the attendance of Negro fans. Jack Zeller, one of the most astute baseball men in the country, has this slant on Negroes in baseball:

Negroes will not go out to see one of their race play baseball unless he is a good ball player. They won't turn out just because a Negro is playing. He has to be good.

Burnett didn't go into the thing with the idea of just having a Negro player to appeal to the Negro fans. He wanted a good ball player—one who could help his club. He tried one and found him wanting. But Hoskins met all qualifications.

Other Sports
There is no trouble involved in the housing situation. Hoskins boards with a Negro family in Dallas. He doesn't ask or expect to stay at a Dallas hotel along with his teammates.

Negroes in football will be even easier to handle. Football is farther away from the fan than baseball. And there will be fewer games. Dallas, for instance, will play only six at home.

And Negroes already have played golf without mishap, although not yet in Texas. The National Open, however, will break the color line if there are any Negroes in the country capable of qualifying for the National Open. Horton Smith, president of the PGA, thinks there are at least six.

Sports Roundup

By WILL GRIMSLEY NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. (AP)

The gray cattle rancher from Roanoke, Tex., parked his iron — a four-iron not a shopping iron — on the clubhouse steps and started talking about the days he could look Ben Hogan squarely in the eyes on the first tee and usually beat him to the 18th.

This was the man Hogan couldn't lick, seen lord of the fairways in the early forties now almost forgotten in the post-war legend of invincibility that has grown up around his bantam fellow Texan.

"Ben and I were conscious of each other, it seems, ever since we were kids," Byron Nelson said. "But it always was the friendly rivalry. Never a bit of bitterness."

"We were the same age. We gaddied on the same course — Glen Garden in Fort Worth. It was natural we should become companions and competitors."

"I remember our first match. It was in a Fort Worth Caddies' Tournament. We were 15, I suppose. It was a nine-hole meet and we tied for the championship. I won the playoff, and there it began."

The first match shows that from that day to this Hogan, although winner of tournaments in which Nelson competed, never was able to conquer Byron when they clashed in man-to-man combat.

"I don't think I had a better game than Ben's. Byron added, between rounds of the Wykoff Round Robin. 'I just seemed to have a jinx on him.'"

In 1941 Nelson and Hogan clashed in the semi-finals of the PGA championship at Cherry Hills in Denver, Nelson winning on the 36th hole. The Fort Worth rivals tied for the title in the San Antonio Open that same year and Nelson prevailed in the playoff. Nelson also trounced Bantam Ben in a playoff for the Masters Championship in 1942.

Nelson is now 40-48 months and nine days older than Hogan. He went into semi-retirement in 1946 after hanging up one of the most amazing records in the sport.

Winner of one Open, two Masters and two PGA championships, the mechanical aster reached his peak in 1945 while Hogan was in the saddle. He won 13 tournaments, in a row, averaged 68.33 strokes for the 120 rounds and earned $52,511, all records.

Arguments "Before, during and after the war there were always arguments about who was better — Nelson or Hogan," Byron said. "Circumstances were such that this could never be proved to anybody's satisfaction. Hogan was a niter armed force, he a better golfer than when he went in the hole that tail-end hook somewhere along the line — and he seemed to improve still more after his automobile accident. He reached his heights after I'd retired."

"But I recall I won the Knoxville Open in 1945, Ben's first post-war tournament, and the year after at Los Angeles and San Francisco the next year when debate was hottest. Shortly afterwards I left the circuit. Hogan won the U. S. Open

Annual Greenbelt Tourney At Frederick This Week End

FREDERICK, Okla. (Special) — Annual tournament of the Greenbelt Golf Association for 1952 will be played over the extensive, grass-green Frederick Golf and Country Club course Thursday through Sunday, May 22-25 and shotmakers will be competing for $1,500.00 in merchandise prizes.

Hugh L. Akin, president, and Tommy Little, tournament chairman, of the host club, said yesterday plans have been completed for one of the most elaborate meetings of Greenbelt history.

Dody Cole, three times winner of the Greenbelt and ace of the Frederick club, is defending champion. Cole defeated Billy Holmes of Shamrock, Texas, in finals of the 1951 meet at Childress, Texas.

A field of at least 125 Greenbelt golfers is expected to fill the championship, A, B and C flights and everything is being arranged to take care of not only competitor attendants but hosts of gallery visitors during the four-day meet. Every entrant will be listed in one of the flights, championship on qualifying play and others on score.

One Of Longest Layouts Course of the Frederick Golf and Country Club is one of the longest in Greenbelt circles, and is in third year of play on its new grass greens. It is picturesque layout in the rolling plains with all fairways and greens within easy view of the newly completed clubhouse.

Qualifying rounds will be played Thursday, May 22, with medalist prize offered. In the afternoon awards will be given in the customary driving contest. The same evening a big barbecue dinner will be served at 7:30 o'clock, preceding the Greenbelt Calcutta.

This event is open to players and fans alike, and the dinner fee will be $2.00. Everyone interested is invited to attend. Tournament play will open Friday morning, May 23, and continue through finals on Sunday, May 25.

Frederick Chamber of Commerce, through C. C. Black, secretary-manager, and several committees, are cooperating extensively with the golf club in staging the city's first major tournament in many years.

The $1,500.00 in prizes compose the largest list of awards in history of the greenbelt and will attract one of the heaviest fields of entries ever engaged in the annual tournament.

title in 1948, missed 1949 because of his automobile injuries, then repeated in 1950 and 1951.

"We are very different temperamentally," Nelson explained. "Hogan has greater powers of concentration than I — that is, he can maintain them longer. I would always hit lapses when I grew tired. Ben lets himself go, gives vent to his feelings while I get all chewed up inside."

"Analyzing our games, there wasn't much difference off the tee when we were in our primes. I think my long irons were possibly better and Ben could beat my brains out on short chips to the green. But which of us was the better golfer? It's a strange game. Who can say?"

GOOD GOLF'S EASY... NO. 11 Practice With Club You Are Playing Poorest, Says Burke

(Eleventh of a series as told to Harry Grayson, NEA Sports Editor)

By JACK BURKE Golf's Newest Star

After a golfer has acquired the proper grip and developed a sound swing, the rest is pretty much up to him.

He must practice and play a lot. The rest will come naturally. Ability, strength and mentality being equal, the player who practices most will be best.

Common sense tells you to practice with the club you are playing poorest.

When a playing professional's swing is out of the groove, he heads for the nearest practice tee.

Then, if he isn't satisfied, he consults a fellow professional. Teachers will tell you that 75 percent of the time they're straighten out pupils by correcting a faulty grip.

When you get a chance to watch professional golfers in action, pay particular attention to their hands. Faulty hand action is the cause of many a soaring score.

To correct a faulty stroke, start with the hands. If the hands and forearms are properly co-ordinated, the hips, shoulders and pivot will follow. If they do their work properly, timing must be correct.

Try an easy, relaxed practice pivot. If you feel free and at ease, you probably have the proper stance and balance.

By TED KESTING "In no other form of fishing have I found spinning so greatly superior to other methods as in catching crappies. Certainly, at times, I've had grand sport taking them with a fly rod. But I've found the places and times quite rare when fly fishing for them could be called really successful." That was Jason Lucas talking.

Without going into details, this is why he believes that: For one thing, lures small enough to be cast well with a fly rod are generally just too small to appeal to many crappies. And lures that can be used with a casting rod are just too large. But a lure of from 1-8 ounce to 1-4 ounce seems to strike a crappie as just what he's been swimming around looking for all his life. Spinning tackle was developed for, and is best suited to, lures of this size.

Do I hear somebody ask if spinning will get more crappies than the usual live minnows? The answer is yes. As you know, crappies are found in a large school. Any day during the season you can find a flotilla of boats anchored close together over these crappie beds; each angler is watching a bobber beneath which swims a live minnow. When a group of crappies happen to come under a boat, the occupants have a lot of fun hauling in fish while those in other boats look gloomily on wondering when the blamed critters will head their way.

But what happens when the man with spinning tackle comes along and anchors? Does he sit patiently waiting for the slow-moving crappies to come to him? He does not. He sends his lure to the crappies.

Let's put it this way: A lure is effective only for the distance that a fish will come to take it. In clear water a bass or pike may come 15 feet, sometimes much farther, to take a lure. But ordinarily a crappie won't come over three feet or so. So a minnow bait may be called effective only in a circle around it with a radius of three feet, which gives us approximately 28 square feet of area. But supposing the man with spinning tackle is able to cast 50 feet, a moderate cast; he is fishing about 8,000 square feet. Some 280 times the area of the live bait man.

Now this doesn't mean that the spinner will catch 280 times as many crappies. But his lure is brought close to so many more crappies he's just bound to catch a lot more.

NESTING SEASON PROTECTION FOR A BIGGER FALL BAG!

Castallani and Graham In Draw

NEW YORK (AP) — Except for a few slashes around the eyes, nobody got hurt.

That's the story of Friday night's Madison Square Garden brawling 10-round draw between Rocky Castellani of Luzerne, Pa., and Irish Billy Graham of New York's East Side.

Graham came out with two cut eyes and Castellani had a mark over his left eye. But their reputations remained undamaged. The crowd boomed when Judge Frank Forbes voted for Graham 5-4 and cheered Judge Art Adala's 5-1 ballot for Castellani. When Referee Ruby Goldstein called it 4-4-2 and all even with six points each, there was no argument. The AP card agreed with Goldstein.

Mrs. Zaharias and her husband George, left Denver by plane to confer with their family physician at Beaumont. Jim Zaharias said his wife may be off the tournament indefinitely and said "Babe's been declining for some time. She's a pretty sick girl."

Babe herself admitted she is "feeling prettypunk."

DOG NOTES

ARMY WILL NOT KILL HEROIC DOGS Hundreds of you readers have written me in the last month asking me to enlist my services in saving the lives of the six "scout" dogs who saved at least three allied paratroopers from ambush in Korea. It was just a few weeks ago that the newspapers reported that instead of being sent back to the country the dogs were to be destroyed when they were no longer useful. It was then that you began to write me, and I don't blame you.

Cpl. James G. Heffron of Oklahoma City said the dogs have been guiding patrols for two months and probably will stand up under another strain for about 18 months. He and five other members of a six-man team of handlers who lead UN patrols across no-man's land are due for rotation next fall. It was when he decided the dogs would happen to their dogs when they left and if they could have them when the animals were returned to this country that they learned the Army never intended to bring the dogs back home.

Frank Pace, Jr., Secretary of the Army, belongs to the same Golf Club as I do on Cape Cod. Recently when I was in Washington I contacted his office and informed them of the hundreds of letters I had received and of the thousands received by the newspapers, that had carried the story of the dogs' impending doom. The interest you, the people, showed in these heroic animals has saved their lives. I have been informed that the Army has changed its mind and that the dogs will be returned to this country.

BROKEN HEART More dogs pine away "die of broken heart" the poetical way of putting it — than most of us may realize. Here is one more true instance to prove it!

Rags was a shaggy and rather shabby dog served in this welcome town Anthony Mayrma of the Atlantic City, N. J., police force. Many of you will remember Rags. If you happened to visit that New Jersey resort for Mayrma usually was on duty at one of the railroad stations, and Rags acted as a volunteer reception committee for people alighting from trains.

More than eight years the shaggy dog served in this welcoming capacity, winning for himself countless friends. Then, because he was getting on in years, his master decided Rags needed a short vacation from his daily duties at the stations. So he arranged to board him as a "luxury guest" at the local ASPCA shelter, to be raised the money for his board there.

The good old dog evidently thought he had been deserted by his owner and by his throng of friends and that he had been sent into exile among strangers. In a few days he sickened and then died from loneliness.

It is not well to send an old dog

THE QUESTION BOX Question: Someone said he owned a dog that had button ears. What did he mean? — D. M.

Answer: When the tip of the ear drops over in front covering the ear canal a dog is often called button-eared.

Question: Just took my dog to the doctor and was told he had rickets. He is just a puppy. What would cause this? — H. L.

Answer: A deficiency of bone salts which can be caused by improper feeding, absence of exposure to sunlight, damp living quarters, or lack of proper exercise.

Browns Rally To Defeat Red Sox

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Three rookies — Jim Rivera, Bob Nieman and Clint Courtney — supplied three ninth-inning hits to give the St. Louis Browns a 2-1 triumph Saturday, spoiling a seemingly winning performance by southpaw Mel Parnell of the Boston Red Sox.

Until Rivera lined a one-out single and was booted home by Nieman's double, the Browns had been shut out by the Boston lefty on four hits. Rivera's run tied the ball game and Courtney's single after an outfield fly moved Nieman to third, broke it up.

Boston's lone run yesterday afternoon came in the eighth when rookie Faye Thornberry parked one of Ned Garver's pitches atop the right field pavilion roof. That was only the second hit allowed by Garver, who gave way to a pinch hitter in the eighth and left the victory to be claimed by Dave Madison who pitched only the last inning.

Horace Gillom of the Cleveland Browns led the National Football League in punting last season with a 45.5 yard average in 73 attempts.

So a minnow bait may be called effective only in a circle around it with a radius of three feet, which gives us approximately 28 square feet of area. But supposing the man with spinning tackle is able to cast 50 feet, a moderate cast; he is fishing about 8,000 square feet. Some 280 times the area of the live bait man.

Now this doesn't mean that the spinner will catch 280 times as many crappies. But his lure is brought close to so many more crappies he's just bound to catch a lot more.

Castallani and Graham In Draw

NEW YORK (AP) — Except for a few slashes around the eyes, nobody got hurt.

That's the story of Friday night's Madison Square Garden brawling 10-round draw between Rocky Castellani of Luzerne, Pa., and Irish Billy Graham of New York's East Side.

Graham came out with two cut eyes and Castellani had a mark over his left eye. But their reputations remained undamaged. The crowd boomed when Judge Frank Forbes voted for Graham 5-4 and cheered Judge Art Adala's 5-1 ballot for Castellani. When Referee Ruby Goldstein called it 4-4-2 and all even with six points each, there was no argument. The AP card agreed with Goldstein.

Babe Zaharias Out Of Action

DENVER — (AP) — Mrs. Mildred (Babe) Dirlikov Zaharias is seriously ill and may miss competing in a transcontinental golf tournament, her husband said here last night.

Mrs. Zaharias and her husband George, left Denver by plane to confer with their family physician at Beaumont. Jim Zaharias said his wife may be off the tournament indefinitely and said "Babe's been declining for some time. She's a pretty sick girl."

Babe herself admitted she is "feeling prettypunk."

If you want to get all the kick golf offers, you must practice, study the game and seek competition.

DOG NOTES

ARMY WILL NOT KILL HEROIC DOGS Hundreds of you readers have written me in the last month asking me to enlist my services in saving the lives of the six "scout" dogs who saved at least three allied paratroopers from ambush in Korea. It was just a few weeks ago that the newspapers reported that instead of being sent back to the country the dogs were to be destroyed when they were no longer useful. It was then that you began to write me, and I don't blame you.

Cpl. James G. Heffron of Oklahoma City said the dogs have been guiding patrols for two months and probably will stand up under another strain for about 18 months. He and five other members of a six-man team of handlers who lead UN patrols across no-man's land are due for rotation next fall. It was when he decided the dogs would happen to their dogs when they left and if they could have them when the animals were returned to this country that they learned the Army never intended to bring the dogs back home.

Frank Pace, Jr., Secretary of the Army, belongs to the same Golf Club as I do on Cape Cod. Recently when I was in Washington I contacted his office and informed them of the hundreds of letters I had received and of the thousands received by the newspapers, that had carried the story of the dogs' impending doom. The interest you, the people, showed in these heroic animals has saved their lives. I have been informed that the Army has changed its mind and that the dogs will be returned to this country.

BROKEN HEART More dogs pine away "die of broken heart" the poetical way of putting it — than most of us may realize. Here is one more true instance to prove it!

Rags was a shaggy and rather shabby dog served in this welcome town Anthony Mayrma of the Atlantic City, N. J., police force. Many of you will remember Rags. If you happened to visit that New Jersey resort for Mayrma usually was on duty at one of the railroad stations, and Rags acted as a volunteer reception committee for people alighting from trains.

More than eight years the shaggy dog served in this welcoming capacity, winning for himself countless friends. Then, because he was getting on in years, his master decided Rags needed a short vacation from his daily duties at the stations. So he arranged to board him as a "luxury guest" at the local ASPCA shelter, to be raised the money for his board there.

The good old dog evidently thought he had been deserted by his owner and by his throng of friends and that he had been sent into exile among strangers. In a few days he sickened and then died from loneliness.

It is not well to send an old dog

THE QUESTION BOX Question: Someone said he owned a dog that had button ears. What did he mean? — D. M.

Answer: When the tip of the ear drops over in front covering the ear canal a dog is often called button-eared.

Question: Just took my dog to the doctor and was told he had rickets. He is just a puppy. What would cause this? — H. L.

Answer: A deficiency of bone salts which can be caused by improper feeding, absence of exposure to sunlight, damp living quarters, or lack of proper exercise.

Browns Rally To Defeat Red Sox

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Three rookies — Jim Rivera, Bob Nieman and Clint Courtney — supplied three ninth-inning hits to give the St. Louis Browns a 2-1 triumph Saturday, spoiling a seemingly winning performance by southpaw Mel Parnell of the Boston Red Sox.

Until Rivera lined a one-out single and was booted home by Nieman's double, the Browns had been shut out by the Boston lefty on four hits. Rivera's run tied the ball game and Courtney's single after an outfield fly moved Nieman to third, broke it up.

Boston's lone run yesterday afternoon came in the eighth when rookie Faye Thornberry parked one of Ned Garver's pitches atop the right field pavilion roof. That was only the second hit allowed by Garver, who gave way to a pinch hitter in the eighth and left the victory to be claimed by Dave Madison who pitched only the last inning.

Horace Gillom of the Cleveland Browns led the National Football League in punting last season with a 45.5 yard average in 73 attempts.

Other leaders are Mrs. Rex Rosa, vice-president; and Mrs. Georgia Hofses, reporter.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CULTURE

"What's Right With America" has been the study of the Twentieth Century Culture club this year. Mrs. E. E. Shelhamer served as president. New officers were installed at a meeting last week. Hobbs; Mrs. Joe Donaldson, secretary; Mrs. L. J. Zachry, council representative; Mrs. Philip Gates, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Cameron Marsh, reporter.

TWENTIETH CENTURY FORUM

Concluding a varied program for the year, Twentieth Century Forum installed the officers pictured above. Pictured left to right, front row, are Mrs. J. B. McCrery, council representative; Mrs. Bruce Pratt, president; and Mrs. Frank Kelley, vice-president. Mrs. Kelley served as 1951-52 president. Standing, back row, left to right, are Mrs. E. J. Dunigan, parliamentarian; Mrs. Raymond Laycock, reporter; and Mrs. Henry Rose, treasurer.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

Mrs. H. R. Thompson was installed as president of the club at a luncheon last week. She is pictured in the center in the upper picture. Left is Mrs. George Vineyard, reporter, and pictured right is Mrs. Lloyd Hicks, vice-president. In the lower picture, left to right, are Mrs. Raymond Harrah, council representative; Mrs. Fred Neslage, parliamentarian; Mrs. V. J. Jamieson, critic; and Mrs. Roy McKernan, federated club counselor. Not pictured is Mrs. James B. Massa, treasurer. Mrs. Neslage is outgoing president of the club. Mrs. Harrah was recently elected next year's Council of Clubs president.

EL PROGRESSO AND TWENTIETH CENTURY ALLEGRO

Mrs. Bob McCoy, left, new secretary of El Progreso, and Mrs. Bill Davis, 1952-53 president of Twentieth Century Allegro, discuss plans for the coming year for their respective clubs. Mrs. Knox Kinard will serve as president of El Progreso next year. The club has concluded a study of "Our American Heritage" under the presidency of Mrs. H. H. Tyler. The Twentieth Century Allegro studied foreign countries in the news. These clubs, like all other federated clubs in Pampa, held their final meetings of the year this month, and will not meet again until September.

PEG IS IN A DREAMY MOOD today. Ever feel that way? Sort of drift off by yourself. Have always had an over-active imagination and sensitive emotions — with that combination — can picture me in wonderful places, surrounded by fascinating people. Just about the time Peg is about to sip a leisurely drink at a sidewalk cafe in ever-young, lighthearted Paris — Jr. comes whooping through the house with an exuberant posse after him, or my little-one clomps in with her mommy's high heeled shoes on. Awakened from my reverie life is pretty wonderful right here — whooping, clomping and all.

AS AN EXAMPLE of how sweet and sensitive life can be "right here," would like to share an incident that took place on Charles Street one evening. Was thrilled by its sincerity. A very small girl alighted from an auto carrying a long florists box — she approached a house and rang the bell. Soon a woman appeared and the youngster handed her the box, saying in a clear but somewhat frightened voice, "Maybe these will take the place of your flowers I picked on my way to school this morning." With that she ran back to the auto that drove her away, leaving a bewildered and amused woman.

SEEMS IMPOSSIBLE that May, the month of merriment, is half over. The days simply aren't long enough. Do you find that time slips away from you when you are happy or when you have a great deal to get done? This is a case of both with me, really making time fly.

DICK PEPIN HAS GONE to Odessa to be their city manager. S'pose he was sporting the new western style chapeau that was presented to him in a brief and sincere ceremony Monday morning. We'll miss the Pepins.

ON THE SUBJECT of people leaving — the Max Harbisons, who moved to Tulsa a few months ago, have purchased a home there, so guess they are going to stay. All of their friends had hoped they just might come back. Heard that Max was in town for a few days recently, and got into a game with his old golfin' buddies.

AS FOR GOLF — can't seem to get into the swing of it. (Is that a pun? — swing — golf — get it? — oh well.) It gets mighty tiresome fanning at that silly little ball. You know that is a stupid feeling — getting all set to really sock that little "ball" and nothing happens, you just swing right on past. Much like taking that step that isn't there.

THE FIRST MEETING of The Panhandle Women's Golf Assn. had a good turnout. Saw where Beth Heiskell shot a sizzling 39. Why, she shoots better golf than Mr. (Hot Shot) Peg does? He is improving, though, or else he is talking a better game. By the way, notice that extension they are building onto the country club?

ANOTHER BACHELOR IN TOWN: Sam Coco from Louisiana, an engineer with Cabot. Seems to me that Cabot has its share of good-looking bachelors.

A FRIEND IS HELPING me learn to sew — poor patient friend (for how long, I wonder). Decided to build me a blouse for a starter. Got it all cut out without too many mishaps — sewed the shoulder seams just fine — then the side seams. Wanted to try it on for a fitting — whatta you know — no arm holes! Just how talented can one person be! Not gonna let it whip me, by gum. I'm encouraged by some of the creations Kitty Veale whips up.

CONGRATULATIONS to E. H. Fatheree and Hansel Kennedy, cadets at Texas A&M. Each received awards as battalion commanders at a special Mothers Day ceremony at the College Station campus. The parents of the boys attended.

CERTAINLY DO ENVY Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Murfee their vacation in Florida.

MORE CONGRATS: Mrs. Raymond Harrah, new president of the Council of Clubs, and Mrs. Roy Chisum in-coming Art Club president.

JUST THOUGHT I'D MENTION Clotilde Thompson — the lovely of the chamber of commerce office.

TERRY IS NEWS in sport and leisure wear. Personally love the little ball-fighter trousers in terry cloth — and the two-piece brief sunning suits are so practical. Just wash them as easily as a towel after a long sun-bathing session. Am still trying, in vain I fear, to get a beautiful golden tan. Have found it is rather difficult to acquire one when you can't find the time to get out in the sunshine. Want a whole new all-white wardrobe.

SAW AL HIRSCH AND FRANK LEDER having coffee . . . saw Frances Cree and son G. G. (I swear Frances looks more like his big sister each time I see them) . . . saw Jack Morgan heading for his afternoon coke.

EVER TRY DRIVING A CAR in a pair of new slick soled shoes? Tis dangerous, believe me . . . specially when your legs are as short as yours truly. Tell you it is frightening to step on the brake and have your foot slip right off. Take warning, gals.

THERE HAS BEEN NO PEACE in this household since the youngsters spotted the picture of the two "little sinkers" on the front page of the News the other day. Have heard that "de-skunked" polekitties do make nice pets (don't weaken Peg, be firm). So what if your kiddies don't speak to you . . . You don't suppose I'll lose my fight, do you?

D'JA SEE "BELLES ON THEIR TOES"? Guess a large family can be a lot of fun. Like the Ray Rossmans, R. D. Falkensteins . . . tho they don't have a dozen.

HEARD THAT COLORED FILM will not be available in Europe this year — so if you're planning a European trip be sure to stock up on plenty of film before you leave. Must dash right down and get mine! Ha!

SEEMS TO BE BACK INTO that dreamy mood for PEG O' PAMPA

Koje Island Mess Becomes Propaganda Made To Order

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON — The high Army brass in Korea has displayed an astonishing talent for making a mess, starting with the capture of Brig. Gen. Francis T. Dodd and in all that followed.

First, the general commander of the prisoner of war camps on Koje island, let himself get into a position where he could be used as a propaganda tool by the Communists.

Then his successor had to dick Dodd while he was still captive and replaced him with Colson.

Colson didn't last long. He was bounced too. To get Dodd back alive, Colson agreed to such extraordinary concessions that the flabbergasted Chiefs of Staff here want a fast explanation.

The Dodd capture and the son concessions were amazing enough. But the Eighth Army Headquarters then added to the confusion by trying to wrap a little secrecy around what had happened.

News men at first weren't allowed to see Dodd at all after his release. The explanation: An investigation was being made. Then Dodd was permitted to read a prepared statement on his capture but couldn't answer newsmen's questions.

Even so Dodd managed to get into contact with the new boss of the whole Korean fighting, Gen. Mark Clark who—successor to Gen. Matthew B. Ridgeway—arrived in Tokyo just in time to inherit the mess.

Dodd said the concessions agreed to by Colson were of minor importance. But Clark later said the Colson concessions were made under duress and were "underrated blackmail and a payment made by General Colson as a result of such demands should be interpreted accordingly."

And Clark said the agreement made by Colson "has no validity except any of the vicious and false charges upon which the Communist demands were based."

Colson, among other things, said: "I can assure you that in the future the prisoners of war can expect humane treatment."

This made fine propaganda for the Communists in their truce talks. They naturally interpreted it as meaning the prisoners had been getting inhumane treatment.

A Defense Department official here said this wording gave a wrong impression of POW treatment. And it was pointed out of Red Cross has had plenty of

NO NATIONAL FLOWER

The United States does not have an official national flower. A number of bills naming such a flower have been introduced in Congress, but there is so much difference of opinion as to the selection of the flower that no official action ever has been taken.

chance to examine the kind of treatment given POW's.

Colson's agreement said further: "There will be no more forcible screening or any rearming of prisoners of war in this camp, nor will any attempt be made at nominal screening."

Here the same Defense Department official said the Joint Chiefs of Staff had never heard of any rearming of prisoners and as for the screening of prisoners—the JCS had ordered that stopped a couple of weeks ago.

This screening has been a sore point with the Communists conducting the Korean truce talks. They had acted as if all their people captured by the UN would want to go home.

The U. N. checked, or screened, the prisoners and reported that only 75,000 out of 170,000 said they would go back if released. In fact, the U. N. reported, the rest said they would forcibly resist being sent back.

From start to now this has been a poor show. It has provided the Communists with propaganda literally made to order. Meanwhile, everyone waits to see what the full explanation is, if there is one.

New U. S. Ship To Challenge Wide Atlantic

ABOARD THE S. S. UNITED STATES — This sleek and shiny new passenger liner headed for the open Atlantic Wednesday to stretch her sea-legs in two days of builder's trials.

The 82,000-ton ship, America's challenge to Britain's two sea queens, the Mary and Elizabeth, will ease down the James river, through Hampton Roads, across Chesapeake Bay and point her bow eastward.

It's the first taste of the sea for the $72,000,000 maritime palace, whose builders eagerly await speed tests, confident she will prove herself a faster ship than the much heavier Queen Mary, which holds the record for the fastest Atlantic crossing.

The United States is the greatest commercial vessel built in an American shipyard.

As the big ship passes historic Fort Monroe at old Point Comfort, engineers of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company, her builders, will begin testing her distilling plant.

Off Cape Henry, the engineers start the first steam rate tests, which determine the efficiency of the turbines by measuring the pounds of steam per horsepower in an hour. The ship's high pressure steam turbines can turn up more than 165,000 horsepower.

Next on the list are tests of the compass and radio direction finder. Later the ship will make her economy trial, which will measure fuel consumption in pounds per shaft horsepower.

Early Thursday morning the United States was to begin her speed trials. They will continue most of the day. Spokesmen for the ship's builders say the results of the trials "probably will remain a secret." And reporters aboard the ship will not be permitted to file dispatches during Thursday's speed trial.

The liner will return to Newport News Friday after another series of tests, including stopping, turning and other maneuvers.

About for the trials are 1,200 crewmen and technicians and some 600 passengers. The passengers include officials of the shipyard, the United States Maritime Administration, the United States Lines, which will accept delivery of the ship next month, representatives of the many companies who supplied materials and equipment for the ship, and assorted guests.

The shipyard men who built the liner's machinery are operating her during the trials.

Incomplete Apology Is Rejected
RANGOON, Burma — (AP) — To make an apology is one thing, but to make it on bended knees — well, that's going too far. So an argument between the editor of a local pro-Communist newspaper and an anti-Communist social organization remains unresolved. It seems the paper called the association a nasty name and the latter demanded "an apology on bended knee." The offending editor promptly agreed to apologize, but only standing up. This wasn't good.

MEN IN AMERICA CALLED FAT, LAZY

The New York Custom Tailors Designers Club says American men are the fattest and laziest in U. S. history. The reasons: Too much sleep and food, not enough exercise. It probably is true that they are the fattest, but we doubt the laziness. Everyone is working and a great deal is being accomplished and it certainly is not being done by lazy men. For many of this country's 25,000,000 overweight adults, reducing diets have become a dominating influence. But the frightening fact is that many of the most popular diets are extremely dangerous. In an article titled, "Which Diets Are Dangerous," a recent issue of a national magazine lists some of the most prevalent "plans" and tells why "they can cause serious trouble." Recently there has appeared on the market a number of reducing "plans" which require a rigid diet. A deficient diet can be dangerous and should never be undertaken except upon a physician's advice and supervision.

Psychiatrists Say Dreams Come In 4 Separate Patterns

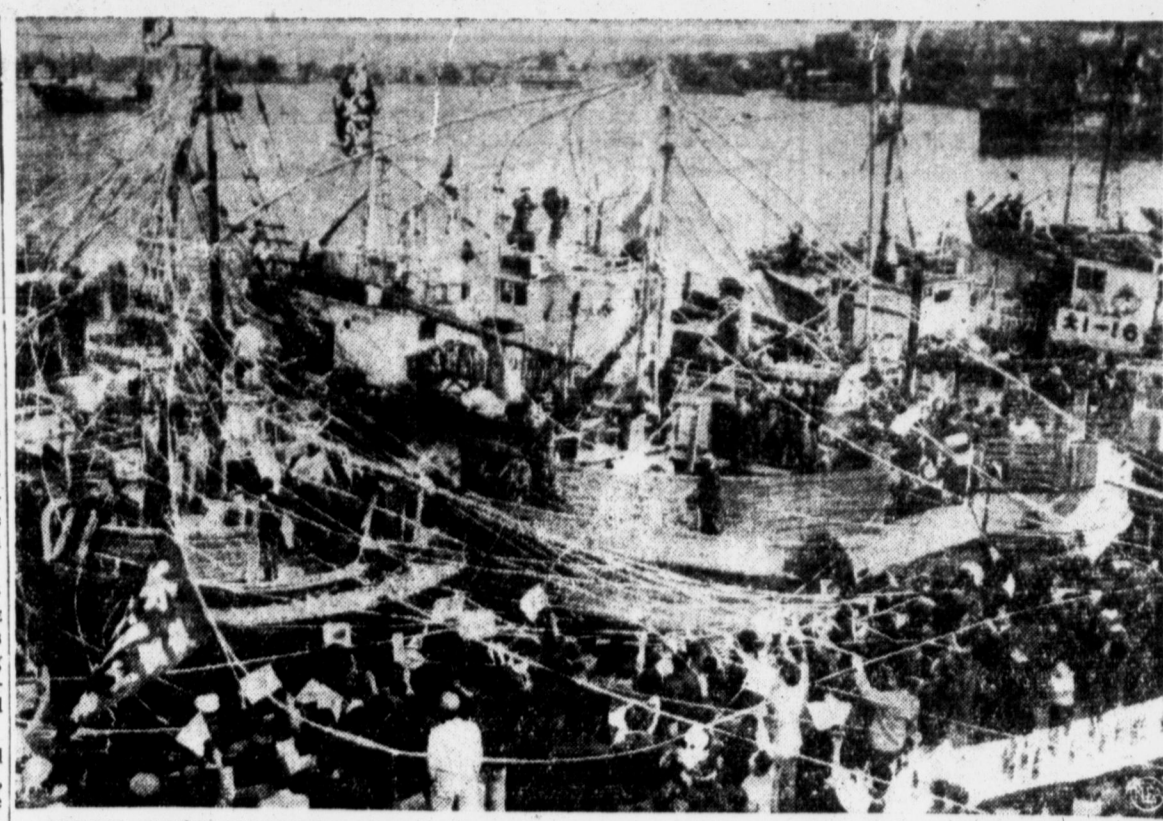

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. — (AP) — Dreams come in four different packages, the American Psychiatric Association was told.

And, said Dr. Isro Galdston of New York, psychiatrists should pay more attention to these differences in the "structure" of dreams—as an aid in treating the mentally ill.

For many years, he said in a prepared address, much emphasis has rightly been placed on the "contents" of dreams—but practically no attention has been paid to the form, or stage setting, of the dream.

Saying that in the case of the mentally ill the dream structure is closely correlated with the patient's personality and the type of his mental disturbance, Dr. Galdston listed these four patterns for dreams in general:

1. The dream that has a "consistent story."
2. The dream that is presented as a "montage"—a serial form of disjointed episodes, yet staged upon a consistent background.
3. The "meandering" dream, where there is a constant shift in terrain and lots of inconspicuity.
4. The "amorphous" or shapeless dream—where the characters are

OPS Extends Date On Bakery Ceiling

The Office of Price Stabilization has extended the mandatory effective date of the ceiling price regulation for frozen and perishable bakery products from May 10, 1952, to June 2, 1952.

District OPS officials said the extension came in the form of an amendment to Ceiling Price Regulation 135 which covers bakery products. The extension was granted to give bakers with large numbers of items more time in which to compute their ceilings.

The regulation which was issued April 10 establishes new ceilings for bakery products based on a fixed percentage of increase over prices charged during the 1949 base year.

Bakers who have not recomputed ceilings will continue to

Doctors Use Remote Control

SAN PEDRO, Calif. — (AP) — U. S. health officers here are getting used to doctoring by "remote control."

Skippers aboard the big tuna clippers, which run between here and South America, call the federal health men by radiotelephone when they have a serious medical problem aboard.

Recently, the doctors advised treatment for Fred Paseri, 50, who suffered an eye injury aboard a vessel off Lower California.

George Futuzaki, a fisherman, also received radio advice when he became ill recently when his ship was near Acapulco, Mexico.

POOL OPENER - The small mast representing Gulf Oil Corp.'s No. 2 Haggard wildcat, is in foreground of public attention this week after operators struck oil at a relatively shallow depth to open a new oil field for the Panhandle. In the background is the towering rotary derrick of Gulf's No. 1 Haggard which moved slightly out of focus in the public eye after its small sister hit production. However the No. 1 looks as a distinct possibility for oil or gas in production quantity below 6,000 feet. (News Photo)

Panhandle Field Activity Is Moderate During Week

Activity in the regular field picked up slightly last week as operators completed seven wells and staked 11. Of the new locations, two were wildcats in Hartley county. Kerr-McGee staked its No. 2 Berneta one mile south of Channing for a proposed depth of 8000 feet. Hunt Oil Co. staked the No. 1 O. H. Fincher, an 8000-foot test 1 mile east of Rehm.

Of the completions, five were oilers for 402 barrels while two were plugged wells. H. L. Hunt plugged his No. 9 M. H. W. Richie in Briscoe county at 9000 feet.

A TRIBUTE TO OUR NEWSBOYS
The eager-faced lad who stands on the corner in all kinds of weather selling newspapers is, in every sense of the word, an American businessman. He is a self starter. He is up bright and early and on the job late at night. Nobody backs him with capital or confidence. He supplies all this himself - and banks solely on his own alertness and salesmanship. Your newsboy may deliver your newspaper to your door. If so, he is even a more astute businessman, for he not only throws his papers at countless front porches, but doubles back regularly to make collections. Yes, the newsboy is an American institution. Keep up the good work, youngster. We're all behind you!

GOP Delegates May See Fight For Seating

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Delegate-seating contests may play a major role in the Taft-Eisenhower duel for the Republican Presidential nomination.

All or part of delegations with 75 national convention votes are involved. Decisions on their seating could prove important in a close convention fight.

Delegate slates favoring both Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower have been chosen by their respective factions in Georgia, Louisiana, and Mississippi. Texas' 38 convention seats are at stake in another scrap between them at a state convention May 27.

Texas' Democrats also are expected to send two delegations to Chicago to fight over seats with 52 convention votes. And today, in Chicago, a Democratic party executive committee may take up complaints that Michigan, Massachusetts, Oklahoma, Idaho, North Dakota have selected more delegates than they were allotted.

Under Democratic Party convention rules, a state may double its delegates - at - large and give each a half vote. But they cannot double their district delegate allotments. Several states have done this.

The procedure for handling seating contests in this: Notice of contest must be filed with the national committee 20 days before the convention. The Republicans meet July 7, Democrats July 21.

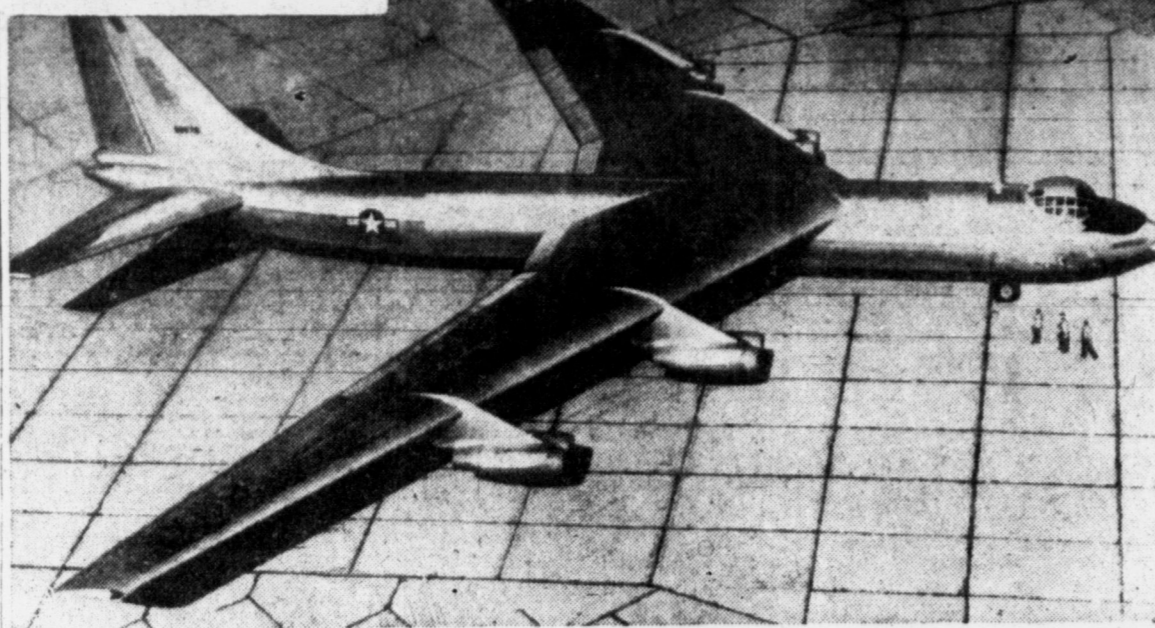

The national committee first hears the contesting groups and recommends the temporary roll to the convention. Its hearings start several days before the convention opens. Each state has two votes in the committee.

Roll calls in the convention itself also may be demanded on the credentials committee report. Here's where the temporary convention chairman may loom large. He might be asked to decide whether delegates being contested are or may not vote on the credentials report.

The last time delegate contests figured prominently in a national convention was in the Republican convocation of 1912 which nominated another Taft - William Howard Taft, father of the present senator.

Joe DiMaggio, who holds the major league record of hitting in 56 consecutive games, hit in 61 straight games in the Pacific Coast League in 1933.

NOSES OUT B-36—Eight jet engines, in pairs of two, power the Convair YB-60, shown in this first unretouched ground view of the new sky giant, now undergoing tests at Fort Worth, Tex. The swept-wing bomber is even larger than the B-36, largest plane now operational in the Air Force. Air Force authorities say that the ship has a wingspan of 206 feet, length of 171 feet, and height from ground to top of tail of 50 feet. It is nine feet longer than the B-36, and three feet three inches higher.

Southwestern In Second Round

EL PASO — (AP) — The defending champion and the medalist both were still very much in the running for the 35th annual Southwestern Amateur golf title today.

Bob Goldwater of Phoenix, Ariz., ousted Billy Nevell of Las Cruces, N. M., from the championship flight 5 and 4 to nurse his title successfully through first round play.

Medalist Verne (Spec) Stewart of Albuquerque overcame Abene Aguilar from his hometown, 5 and 4, to try for his seventh crown.

They were among 16 linksters remaining in the championship flight for the second round today. The other 16—the losers—start first flight play this morning.

Of the top dogs, half of them are from Albuquerque. Five more are from Phoenix, and the flight is completed by Ralph Petty of Carrizozo, N.M., a former champ; Ed McAvoy of Roswell, N.M., and Blane McNutt of El Paso.

Steel Strike Poses Serious Problems For Supreme Court

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The steel dispute has become a kind of fantastic flypaper entangling everyone and everything that touches it. Now even the Supreme Court's fingers are stuck in it.

The glue started to spread when bargaining broke down between the mill owners and the CIO steel worker. At once the government's mediators moved in to get both sides together. They got stuck.

Then came President Truman, who's really tangled in it, and after him the Wage Stabilization Board, Congress, the U. S. District Court and the Court of Appeals. Now the Supreme Court.

This may turn out to be one of the most vital decisions given in the Supreme Court's history—if it rules directly on a President's power to seize private property when he says there's an emergency. But the court has alternatives.

Truman says he took over the mills in the first place to prevent a shutdown in steel. If the workers quit, T-H is the only means left to keep them on the job. By using T-H Truman can get an injunction delaying a strike another 80 days.

But if there is still no settlement and Congress hasn't passed an anti-strike law by the end of those 80 days, the steelworkers are free to walk out again. All remedies will have been exhausted.

The President could, of course, seek a solution in scrapping wage and price controls since the steel companies insist they can't give the workers the raise they want unless the government lets them raise prices higher than the government says present controls will allow.

Further, if the court rules against presidential seizure in this case, it will have to take responsibility for the unforeseeable future when some other President, in an emergency, thinks seizure of some kind is necessary but feels helpless to act because of this court's ruling.

That's one side of it. The other side is just as serious. This court may open the door for some future presidential tryant to seize property and undermine the government if it rules now that the Chief Executive has special even though unwritten constitutional authority to take private property.

If the court lets the President hold the mills and raise wages, the mill owners, once they get their property back, never again will be able to persuade the workers to accept less pay than the government suggests.

But if the court lets the President keep the mills but says he can't raise the pay, it has created another situation: will the steelworkers then continue working, even though the government is their employer?

Normally, the roar of Niagara Falls does not carry more than two or three miles. Boatmen on the Niagara River have heard the roar of the falls when they were eight or ten miles away from them.
