Rainy Day Job-Seekers

By ALICIA HART, NEA Staff Writer. A job seeker with two presentable outfits planned for the campaign ahead—one for rain, one for shine—has an advantage over the girl who must switch to something glum because of a change in the weather. "That's a timely tip to young hopefuls. It comes from Kathleen Bowen, a top New York employment counselor, who gives this grooming advice to feminine clients before their job campaigns start. "Girls who stake all on a fair-weather outfit," says the job counselor, "have often lost out because they appeared for interviews in dreary clothes which had weather forced them to wear."

Oilers Make Second Game of Championship Series, 2-1

Dodgers Gain Half Game on Dyer's Cards

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer

There was every indication today that whichever team wins the national league flag—whether it be the St. Louis Cardinals or Brooklyn Dodgers—will have to overcome strong opposition from the rest of the league the remainder of the way.

All teams are geared up and lying in wait for the two contenders. The Cardinals, expecting fairly soft opposition from the Boston Braves whom they had defeated 14 times in 20 engagements this season, found a thoroughly aroused team and went down to a 2-1 defeat under the lights at Braves' field.

The setback reduced the league leaders' margin over the Dodgers to a game and a half. The Brooks were held to split by the Pittsburgh Pirates in an afternoon double header at Ebbets field.

As matters stand now, the Cards still boast a decided advantage over the Dodgers, who have 10 games left to play as compared to nine for the Redbirds. The season ends a week from Sunday.

The Cards meet the Braves again today, with the Tribe in the midst of a six-game winning streak which has pulled it to first in a game of the third place Cubs.

Lefty Fritz Ostermiller, a Dodger castoff, held his former mates to nine scattered hits in pitching the seventh place Pirates to a first game 3-2 victory.

Ralph Branca, who turned in that masterful shutout job against the Cardinals last week, duplicated his runless performance with a five-hit 3-0 victory for the Dodgers in the second game.

Hal Newhouse became the first major league pitcher to register 25 victories for three consecutive years since lefty Grove did it in 1930-32. Newhouse reached that level yesterday when he pitched the Detroit Tigers to a 2-1 10-inning victory over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Boston Red Sox, with manager Joe Cronin and a half-dozen of his top-flight performers back home resting for the world series, beat the Browns 6-2 under the lights in St. Louis.

The Phils solidified their hold on fifth place in the National league by winning twice from the sixth place Reds 2-1 and 6-5.

The Cubs preserved their slim lead over the Braves by whipping the New York Giants 4-1 yesterday.

Earl Caldwell won his 13th game against four setbacks as the Chicago White Sox split with the New York Yankees. After Spud Chandler gained his 13th victory for the Yanks with a 4-0 shutout, the Sox won the nightcap 9-7, aided by the 41-year-old Caldwell's fine relief hurling.

"I don't know why we waste time on offensive plays when the other side never lets us have the ball."

Two Top Men Absent As Harvesters Leave

With two first stringers staying at home because of sickness, the Pampa Harvesters left this morning for Sweetwater where they will battle the Sweetwater high Mustangs there tomorrow night in the Harvesters' second game of the season.

Absent from the squad this morning were Guard Dan Elsom, who has been in bed with a severe cold, and End Bill Speer, who has yet to see action this year.

Conditions permitting, the Harvesters may open up with a passing attack tomorrow night, with Charlie Laffoon on the throwing end of most of them, although the other backs have been working right beside Laffoon and all will probably do some passing.

Coach Otis Coffey is expected to make one major change in his line-up tomorrow night, moving Zeké Griffin, 6 foot 5 inch tackle to left end in place of Kelly Anderson, Griffin, a member of the Gorillas last year, shows possibilities as a line-backer and is a great offensive player.

Center and Captain Maurics Lockhart will almost certainly start as the pivot position, although Lockhart received a badly cut lip last week in the Electra game.

At right guard, Coffey will probably start Keith Payne, a newcomer to Harvesters football who showed up good in fall practice and in last week's game.

Gary Cooper, rugged 170-pounder, is expected to get the nod for the starting right tackle berth while Bill Bain, aggressive squaddman from last year, will again start at right end.

Pirates To Play Wildcats Friday

LEFORS, (Special)—Playing without the services of Hal Backe Eugene Cooper, the Pirates face Canadian's powerful Wildcats in a non-conference game tomorrow night at eight o'clock at Shaw park in LeFors.

Cooper injured a knee in LeFors' 12-6 victory over White Deer last week.

Canadian, coached by Foster Watkins, defeated the strong Tulsa Hornets, 6-0, in a non-conference game last week.

Coach Joe Champion of the Pirates said he would start Fred Newsum in center's place.

Other games are with Clarendon, October 4, Panhandle, October 11, Shemrock, October 18, LeFors, October 25, McLean, November 1, Lakeview, November 8, and Wellington, November 22.

Hacker Holds Hubbers To Five Hits; Johnston Drives in Runs

By SCOTT RAFFERTY
News Specialist

A five-hit effort by Righthander Warren Hacker and timely hitting by Al Johnston, who entered the game as a pinch-hitter, gave the Pampa Oilers a 2-1 victory over the Lubbock Hubbers here last night and a two-game advantage in the championship playoff between the two teams.

Pampa and Lubbock moved to the Hub City tonight for two or three games and, if more are necessary, will play here again next week.

Johnston's two hits, a single in the third and a double in the fifth, drove in both Pampa runs, while the Hubbers were pushing across a lone tally in the second.

The Oilers led 1-0 in the second when Frank McAlexander struck out, Gene Hodge tripled to right, Watkins walked and Pitcher Paul Hinrichs singled to score Hodge.

Pampa tied the game in the third when Tony Range, flied out, Jack Riley singled to left and Virgil Richardson rapped a one-bagger to right. After Joe Isaacs, batting for Johnston, struck out, Manager Grover Seitz sent in Al Johnston to hit for the Oiler pilot and he came through with a single that scored Riley.

Richardson was caught trying to steal second.

Pampa added its last tally in the fifth when Riley walked, Richardson flied out, Isaacs forced Riley, who doubled to center to score Isaacs.

The Oilers loaded the bases in the first off Hinrichs but couldn't score. R. C. Oley led off with a single. E. C. Herman collected a single Range grounded out, Riley flied out and Richardson was intentionally yapped to load the bases. Hinrichs then turned on the heat and struck out.

The Oilers left 13 men stranded on the sacks and committed three baulches in the field. Lubbock left six stranded and an error was charged to Manager Behm Miller when he dropped a pop fly in the fifth.

Following the two games at Lubbock tonight and tomorrow night, the Oilers if they win both, will be ready to meet the East Texas league champion, either Henderson or Texarkana, for a Class C series.

Following the series go to more than four games, the fifth game will be played in Lubbock Sunday afternoon and any more will be at Pampa.

Lefty Jim Carthers (7-1) is expected to face another left hander, Ernie Nelson (14-13), at Lubbock tonight.

Atlanta To Face Chicks in Final

By the Associated Press

The Atlanta Crackers and the Memphis Chicks, the one-two teams in the regular Southern Association season, are going to have another chance to prove which is the better ball club.

They are the finalists in the playoff series, the Crackers by virtue of a tough semi-final triumph over New Orleans and the Chicks through a slightly easier elimination of Chattanooga.

The Crackers applied the clincher with a difficult 9-8 decision over the Pelicans at Atlanta last night in the seventh game of the four-out-of-seven series.

The Chicks subdued the Lookouts 5-3 at Memphis to wind up the semi-finals four games to two.

The victorious teams will lock up in the final round Friday night in Atlanta. They will take Saturday off, go to it again Sunday in Atlanta, and then move to Memphis for three encounters.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK.—(AP)—Three guys who fought in the preliminaries to the Louis-Mauriello tiff last night were named "Acher," "Benski" and "Schott."

Two minutes and nine seconds after the main event started, Mauriello probably thought all three names applied to him. . . . At that time provided more action in the next shortest fight was Louis-Mauriello tiff last night were named "Acher," "Benski" and "Schott."

Mauriello Gets in Two Good Blows but Is Kayoed by Louis

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK.—(AP)—They dug up another heavyweight last night. Tami Mauriello, who was not scared of Joe Louis, and Tami wound up like so many of his predecessors have, a-blubbering in his dressing room after having been knocked out by the great Negro fighter in the first round.

The Bronx backstop was not overawed by the champion. With the very first punch of his title bout in Yankee stadium, Mauriello clipped Joe on the temple and sent him reeling into the ropes as the throne rose and belovéd its excitement.

And then Louis, more surprised than hurt, took after Tami, tore him apart and left him draped helplessly on the malle rope as he reeling into the ropes as the throne rose and belovéd its excitement.

Joe's 23rd successful defense of his title.

"I thought I had him," Tami cried as he sat later with a towel draped around his neck. "I was just getting started."

Joe's 23rd successful defense of his title.

The echo of the starting bell still was bouncing around through the stadium's triple deck when Mauriello tried the first punch of the fight, a looping right, that caught Louis flush and sent him floundering against the ropes.

Joe said later he never saw the punch coming—didn't even know whether it had been a right or a left. "I want to see the movies of that one," he admitted.

Though it was a stiff wallop, it didn't appear to daze the champ. He was right back, tearing into Mauriello with a flurry of terrific left and rights, and within seconds nearly ripped Tami's head off with a clean left hook to the button.

From that point, until the end came about a minute later, it was a fine brawl. Almost second by second as Louis poured the lead into him, Tami's features became more puffed and bloated, but he never ceased to fight back.

Once, over in a neutral corner, he slammed home another right to the button that caused Louis to bend like a reed and momentarily stemmed the fury of the champion's attack. But only momentarily.

Heavy at 211 1/4 pounds and obviously packing cruel power in his blows, Louis stayed on top of Mauriello and snapped them home.

Finally another left hook slammed the game Tami to the floor in the exact spot he had landed the first time. With a mighty effort he pulled himself to the middle strand and with his face cradled in his glove and his legs powerless to lift him higher, he listened to referee Arthur Donovan count the final ten.

The result, which surprised no one in particular, only served to emphasize Louis' dominance of the heavyweight ranks.

Joe said he likely would fight again in February though he was appropriately vague as to who his opponent might be. He mentioned Bruce Woodcock, the British empire champion who knocked out Gus Lesnevich of Cliffside Park, N. J., here Tuesday evening in the high school cafeteria.

Coach Tony Cox explained the interscholastic League set-up, and asked by W. C. Whiteside, illustrated the signals used by the officials in calling a football game.

Wallace

The compromise decision was announced by Wallace late yesterday as he left his last meeting with Mr. Truman.

He read to several score newsmen in the White House lobby these words he had scribbled on a sheet of paper:

"The President and the secretary of commerce had a most detailed and friendly discussion, after which the secretary reached the conclusion he would make no public statement or speeches until the foreign ministers conference in Paris is concluded."

Under a barrage of questions, Wallace also said that: "By the foreign ministers conference he meant the peace conference."

President Truman "is very confident about peace with Russia."

The President did not raise the question of his resignation. He still stands "absolutely" on his foreign policy speech in New York last Thursday night, which marked the public opening of his campaign for a chance in American policy toward Russia.

As to whether he intends definitely to break his silence once the Paris meeting ends, he stated: "My statement is sufficient for the moment."

Asked specifically what led to his decision to give up his public campaign temporarily, Wallace replied: "The fact that I am an honest man."

Some assumed he meant by this that he preferred silence to having his speeches censored by the White House or the state department.

As a result of the decision Wallace cancelled his scheduled speech next Tuesday in Providence, R. I., and also an earlier radio speech which he had planned to make specifically on foreign policy. He also had planned to make a dozen or more speeches for the democratic national committee.

Men Plead Guilty to Disturbing the Peace

Two men, James M. Short and Ray Brown appeared this morning before Corporation Judge Clifford Braly and entered pleas of guilty to disturbing the peace.

The men were arrested last night by City Patrolmen Ray Graves and Joe Wilkerson for causing a disturbance in the 300 block, South Cuyler St. and taken to the city jail.

Brown was released this morning after he posted an appearance bond of $750. Police said that he had also been carrying a blackjack.

The men will be held for county court.

Million-Dollar Industry Leader Was B-29 Pilot

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—The transition from a B-29 pilot to a million-dollar industry leader doesn't seem to perturb Skitch Henderson.

In fact, the blond, English-born pianist and bandleader appears to be very calm about the whole thing. No combat fatigue, no postwar jitters. Maybe that's because he is sitting on top of a fortune.

Before the war, Skitch was content to earn a comfortable living by pounding piano in radio orchestras and filling in for bands such as Tommy Dorsey's. After Pearl Harbor, the army air corps took up his opinion and ended up flying Superforts over "Purple Heart" Japan. He returned to Hollywood last January. Then things began to pop.

For a long time he had been thinking about his own band, he thought so. "So I decided to do something about it." He whipped up a sweet-playing outfit including four French hornists and the jobs began pouring in.

Up to the time of printing, Skitch had these deals completed: Playing a solo spot on the new Bing Crosby show; making Capitol records and transcriptions; coaching the young Stewart as a pianist and composing a score for a picture; making a lucrative tour with the band.

Other movie and radio deals are on the fire.

As a result of all this activity, Henderson's agent, MCA, joyously announces that he will gross a million dollars in a year.

The big ones are beginning to make their entry into the Academy race, now that fall and the Oscar deadline approaches. Latest is "Sister Kenny" (RKO—116 minutes) which offers a potent bid for the honors.

Producer-Director Dudley Nichols offers the story of the famed nurse with admirable restraint on the tear-picking. Instead, he emphasizes the exciting aspects in the battle against polio.

Rosalind Russell is a cinch for an Academy nomination with her portrayal, which offers a haunting resemblance to the Australian nurse, Alexander Knox, who also assisted on the screen play, delivers a performance that rivals "Wilson."

Churchill

"France and Germany must take the lead together," he said. "Great Britain, the British Commonwealth of Nations, mighty America and, I trust, Soviet Russia—for then, indeed, all would be well—must be the friends and supporters of the new Europe and must champion its right to live and shine."

Speaking of the urgency of finding a solution of the world's problems, he said "the atom bomb" is still only in the hands of a state or nation which we know will never use it except in the cause of right and freedom, but it may well be that in a few years this very agency of destruction will be widespread and the catastrophe following its use by several warring nations will not only bring to an end all that we call civilization, but possibly disintegrate the world itself."

"There is no reason why a regional organization of Europe would in any way conflict with the United Nations," Britain's wartime premier declared.

"There must be a spiritually great France and a spiritually great Germany," he continued, "because a United States of Europe would make the material strength of individual nations less important."

Churchill said the atom bomb was now in the hands of a nation which would use it only for peaceful purposes, but that in a few years it might become the agent of widespread destruction.

The league of nations did not fail because its principles and conceptions were wrong, he contended, but because the states which created the league deserted it.

To create a United States of Europe, Churchill added, "all that is needed is the resolve of hundreds of millions to do right instead of wrong and to take as a reward the blessings instead of the cursings."

"If Europe were once united in sharing its common heritage, there would be no limit to the prosperity, happiness and glory which 300 or 400 millions-persons would enjoy."

STORK FINALLY WINS

GODFREY, Ill.—(AP)—Enloe Waters and his automobile beat the stork three times but the big bird won the fourth race.

Waters was ahead by five or 10 minutes in getting his wife to the hospital when their first three children, all boys, were born.

The fourth child, a girl, arrived at the Waters home before her father even got the car started.

DEVIL'S LAUGHTER

XXVIII

HOWEVER, it was from Father Gene that I had most of my news of Colin during this time. Though he told it to me indirectly in speaking of Mark.

He loved Mark Fitzgerald like a brother, he told me, and was fond of Colin, also, though to a lesser degree.

"Mark and I were boyhood friends back there in Mayo," he said. "Colin was younger. And Honora spoiled him outrageously all his life—and Ellen did, too. He was a handsome lad and everyone took a hand at the spoiling. I guess, Ah, but he's been a thorn in Mark's side for years. That's the reason I'm so glad at the good reports of him now."

"He's doing well, then?" I hoped I sounded casual and was glad that he could not hear the thumping of my heart. I held my breath, though he would tell me more. For, though I had heard from Ellen from time to time that Colin was getting along well, wherever he was, she continued to be vague indeed about just what he was up to.

Father Gene, however, seemed to be taking it for granted that I knew the rather amazing facts. That Colin was working for a friend of Mark's, a man he'd known since his long ago college days, and who owned a huge estate in Louisiana. It seemed Colin had charge of the stud farm on this estate and was most enthusiastic about the work.

"Well, to be sure he was always crazy about horses," Father Gene said. "But you know, Cecilia, I can't somehow vision him working for someone else. He's such an independent kind of lad, Colin."

AND that, I thought to myself, is a vast understatement if what they heard from him.

And then there was the day when, in speaking of him, Father Gene said, "Now, if the lad would only get married, I'd be entirely convinced that he was in earnest about settling down and making a good life for himself."

He did not say this to me. It was to Mark, one day at Innisfall, and I overheard it from my favorite haunt, the library, where I was making an attempt to put the books into some sort of order. I remember I sat rigid, and it never occurred to me not to listen.

"He's got some notion," the priest went on, "that he's fit to marry anyone."

"What makes you say that?" Mark's voice was sharp.

"Something he told me once, Mark. Oh, a long time ago. Just before he went south, it was. He said, 'I'm had luck for women, Father, I know that.' I said, 'Now that's a lot of nonsense and you know it,' but I could not convince him."

"That's my fault." There was bitterness in Mark's voice now. "What I said to him that time—the time I struck him—"

"Now, Mark, that's all over and done with. And, as I told you at the time, we have no right to judge anyone. No one could hold Colin responsible for what happened. Oh, he was thoughtless, I'll grant you, but no more so than lots of others have been, and I think he paid dearly for it in terrible remorse."

"I was too harsh with him, Father. Always, I was trying to make up for the way everyone else spoiled him."

"I know that, lad. I've always known it. And if you were to judge him now how you're to think it might help to show him that he has a right to some happiness as well as the next one."

"I did tell him that, Father. But he said—while Charlotte is like this—what chance is there for happiness for him?"

"Well, well," mused the priest, "so that's how it is, is it?" (To Be Continued)

This morning he requested another hearing and entered a plea of guilty. The court sentenced him to 30 days in jail and suspended his drivers license for six months. Parker added.

Petition Filed Asking Release of Soldier

TOPEKA, Kas.—(AP)—A petition asking for a 36-year-old army private be freed from an army court martial conviction of rape has been filed in federal district court here.

He asks that the sentence be set aside and the former soldier freed.

Anthony's original sentence of hanging has been reduced to 35 years imprisonment by the war department. He was accused of attacking two German women on March 19, 1945. His wife and four-year-old son live in San Augustine, Texas.

Big Construction Program Lined Up For Texas Cities

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Texas has a $107,000,000 four-year public works construction program lined up. This was disclosed by the federal works agency in a report listing applications filed by all states for funds to finance the planning of public works projects. Actual construction costs of the projects is to be met by the individual states.

The program drawn up by cities, counties and state agencies in Texas includes plans for $23,500,000 worth of public buildings other than schools, $21,000,000 for schools and other educational facilities, $17,700,000 for sewer, water and sanitation systems, and $11,960,000 for highways, roads and streets.

Counting federal waterway projects already authorized for Texas, but for which congress must yet appropriate funds, public works in the state within the next four years likely will soar well past the $200,000,000 mark. This government-financed work is for flood control and for navigation improvements to rivers and harbors.

Congress appropriated $65,000,000 for the planning phase of the public works program which the states and their subdivisions are to finance locally. None of the money is granted for planning unless a government unit shows "the capacity to build with its own funds within four years." The number of such projects in Texas for which $2,468,000 in planning funds have been asked total 380, of which 261 were approved by the FWA through June 30. Advances totaling $1,252,654 were made to those approved.

Other types of public works planned and the total amount which would be expended on them include: 14 airports, $1,004,058; three hospitals and health facilities, $1,294,000; 16 parks and other recreational facilities, $2,079,000.

Med School Has Teacher Shortage

GALVESTON—(AP)—Dr. Chauncey D. Leake, vice president and dean of the University of Texas school of medicine, has expressed grave concern over the resignation of a number of faculty members because of curtailment of budgetary appropriations.

Leake said he would report six recent resignations to a Friday Austin meeting of the board of regents of the university. He said loss of teaching personnel reduces the teacher-student ratio to a dangerously low figure and that under the curtailed budget program replacements are difficult to obtain.

Resignations listed by Leake were Dr. Henry H. Swets, assistant professor of physiology, to University of Oklahoma; Dr. Thurio B. Thomas, associate professor of anatomy, Carlton College, Minn.; Dr. E. H. Frieden, resident associate in dermatology, Harvard university; Dr. Stephen Weisz, associated professor of neuropsychiatry, Southwestern Medical College, Dallas; Dr. W. D. Wreckage of Army Plane Being Probed

KERMIT—(AP)—Army officials today were continuing to probe the wreckage of an A-26 army plane which crashed seven miles west of here during a rainstorm early yesterday.

The mangled bodies of at least four fliers were found in the wreckage and surrounding area. Army officials, who said four billboards had been recovered, are withholding identification.

At Biggs Field, El Paso, officials said last night the plane was based at Lake Charles, La., and that the occupants were assigned to the 47th bombardment group.

The search for the plane began early Monday after Kermit residents reported hearing an explosion. Army planes from Albuquerque and Fyote air bases participated in the search.

FUNNY BUSINESS

With no apologies, Texas A. and M. department of fish and game says it has more "ologies" than any other department in college.

Eight required ologies are: ichthyology, study of fishes; herpetology, study of creeping kinds of animals, such as snakes; ecology, study of inter-relationship of plants and animals and a study of the home; zoology, study of animals; orthology, study of birds; mammalogy, study of mammals; sociology, study of human relations; and entomology, study of insects.

Nine elective ologies are geology, study of the earth; parasitology, study of both internal and external parasites; embryology, study of the development of the young; cytology, study of cells; histology, study of tissues; psychology, study of the mind; osteology, study of bones; and morphology, study of form, shape and structures.

That's what the man said.

But a mere university can't get ahead of the U. S. government. The war assets administration says it has for sale some sulphur trioxide-chlorosulfonic acid. It has 12,763,865 pounds of it, but admits it hasn't found anyone who can use it. Sulphur trioxide-chlorosulfonic acid, a military specialty of no normal use to industry.

It suggests, however, that it can be hydrolyzed to yield sulfuric and hydrochloric acids. Or it could be further chlorinated to yield complete chlorosulfonic acid.

They're probably right.

With a sight of relief and words of one syllable we turn to another simpler subject. Namely, names of bucking horses at the recent Arlington rovers.

They covered the field: Black Widow, Stormy Weather, Pussyfoot, Ghost Dog, P-40, Tequila Joe, Tom Collins, Geronimo, Fox, Dub, Our Way, Squaw Man, Timberline, Sandown, Commando, Short Snorter, Bad Land, Panther, Hidden Smoke, Hi Diver, Don Juan, Partner in Crime, Dynamite, Navajo Trail, Showoff, Trigger, Atomic Bomb, But no Silver.

The government's program for amputees was paid a high honor by a young boy in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

He has a club foot. He watched with envy as the former service men returned, fitted with artificial arms and legs. Their artificial limbs, he said, enabled them to get around a lot better than he did.

He made a momentous decision. He ordered his own foot amputated, so he could get a new artificial limb.

Now, he hopes, he too will be able to wear shoes, get around easily.

A medical miracle enabled Alice Henley, 19, of San Augustine, to regain her voice after 17 years of silence. That, and the generosity of a Beaumont oil man.

The attractive girl was stricken with diphtheria when she was two years old. An incision in her throat, made by her family doctor to prevent her from choking to death, brought a growth that covered her vocal chords.

Although unable to talk, she led an active life. While working in a Beaumont laundry, her case was brought to the attention of John B. Goodhue.

He sent her to Dr. Claude C. Cody of Houston, who performed two major operations. Her voice was restored. Her problem then was to learn to talk.

John Campbell Parker, a Dallas specialist in curing speech defects, finished the job. In a few months she was talking normally although a little slowly. She will gain speed later, he said.

The story has a little touch of romance, too. Her greatest thrill was a telephone call from Roman Bruce, China, Texas, with whom she had been writing for 13 months during his service in the Pacific.

He heard her voice for the first time the other day.

THE secret is simple: Don't neglect the slightest ache or pain. Many serious diseases never develop when treated early, but you cannot know when an ailment is trivial or dangerous. Only a doctor can know. Select carefully a physician and see him before your ailment develops into something serious. Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Notebook

By TOM REEDY

FRANKFURT, Germany—(AP)—German children are learning to sing "The Star Spangled Banner." It's tough going, but they are trying.

Air force officers have added a German version of the U. S. National Anthem to recreation courses for German youth, sandwiching the song between baseball and football.

As a substitute for some of the songs the German boys and girls used to sing, the anthem presents some problems. Where it fits the music in English with ten short words for the first line "Oh, say can you see" it comes out in German.

"Oh, sag, kannst du beim des fruehen morgenroets sehen" and what started out to be "what so proudly we hailed by the twilight's last gleaming" comes out:

"Was so stolz wir gruessen schwehend des zwielichts letztem schimmer."

The American flag flies over the fields as the children sing the anthem.

Lieut. Bob Metzger, Natchez, Miss., was the first to try the stunt in his calluses for several hundred children at Fourth air force base. The idea has caught on in other air force installations.

General Joseph T. McNarney, American commander-in-chief in Germany, recently instructed all units to conduct similar youth programs.

Metzger said the job of re-educating German youth was difficult but certainly not impossible despite all the propaganda about Hitler's influence on the younger generation.

"They aren't convinced yet we won the war," the Mississippian said frankly. "but they are willing to see what we are like. And the boys we have on the playing fields see the very best Americans there are in Europe, the healthy, strong Americans who are not chasing around the streets getting into trouble."

"What's more, they get so tired playing the games we arrange in the early evenings that by nightfall they don't want to be on the streets themselves. So that keeps them out of trouble."

"The thing we have to watch is to make sure none of them are ordered to play a game. They understand an order, that's what the Hitler Jugend amounted to. This must be entirely voluntary, or we lose our entire effectiveness."

The lieutenant started his program as a special service assignment months ago and decided that the first thing to do would be to ask Balduf von Schirach, Hitler Jugend creator, by letter sent through his attorney to the Nuernberg jail, how to go about it.

Von Schirach, on trial with other Nazi bigwigs, sent back word: "I had them for ten years. Let's see what you can do with them."

Said Metzger: "I think you can fool that guy. These are good kids."

SUITABLE REWARD SPRINGFIELD, Ill. City Commissioner Harry Eielson borrowed a ladder from the fire department next door when he couldn't get into his city hall office because he had left the key at home. Firemen helped their boss climb through a third floor window, but a nail on the window sill tore a big hole in Eielson's pants. Manufacturer John W. Hobbs, admiring Eielson's devotion to duty, sent him three complete suits of clothes.

Nylons.....Nylons Nylons Attention!

We are sorry but we can no longer reserve Nylons for our customers. Our system of "informal rationing" must be discontinued.

Production of hosiery, particularly Nylon, has not increased—as we had anticipated that it would be. Our receipts of the various types and sizes needed are much too few in comparison with the number of our highly regarded customers entitled to purchase them. It is quite impossible for us to get around to any important percentage of these customers at reasonable intervals.

Our policy regarding Nylons therefore, will hereafter be to place them in the shelves as they arrive, to be sold directly over the counter to our customers—of course with quantities reasonably limited in order to serve as many as possible.

Under the circumstances, we believe it will be agreed that this method of distributing a scarce article comes as near being fair to everyone as any that can be devised.

Date for Trial Verdicts Is Set

NUERNBERG—(AP)—The international military tribunal announced today that its verdict against 22 first-rank leaders of Nazi Germany on war crimes charges will be handed down Sept. 30, instead of Sept. 23 as previously planned.

One source said it was "physically impossible" for the court, which recessed Aug. 31 to consider its verdict, to get through the mountainous heaps of evidence, exhibits and speeches heard during the trial, which lasted more than nine months by Sept. 23.

Before the court reconvenes to announce the verdict, stenographers and typists will be taken outside the city to prepare transcripts and will be held there until the day the verdict is handed down to insure against leakage of information.

There was no hint of disagreement among the tribunal's judges, representing Britain, France, Russia and the United States, and it was believed here the delay was due solely to the lengthy opinions which must be written.

2 Breaks Appear In Strike Series

CHICAGO—(AP)—Two breaks appeared today in the series of strikes which have kept seven plants of the Allis-Chambers Co. idle for more than five months.

In Pittsburgh yesterday members of the UO United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers union voted to accept a new contract, ending a 178-day strike.

In Springfield, Ill., members of the CIO Farm Equipment and Metal Workers union voted to withdraw a demand for an 18 1/2 cent hourly wage increase and accept a company job evaluation program. The union voted to hold another meeting within ten days to vote on company proposals for ending the strike.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging back-ache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

A NEW HIGH IN ABSURDITY

A southern congressman recently stated that the power consumers of the Pacific Northwest are being overcharged millions of dollars a year for electric service. He based this remarkable statement on an alleged comparison of electric rates in that area with the rates charged by the TVA. He then urged that the government spend a few hundred million to establish a Columbia Valley Authority, patterned on the TVA model.

The day following, an official of a private utility in Oregon issued a statement showing that the congressman, to put it mildly, had his figures curiously confused. Rates in the Pacific Northwest actually average a trifle lower than in the TVA region. And, on top of that, the private utilities in Oregon and Washington pay enormous sums in taxes, while the TVA pays practically nothing.

Regardless of these statistical debates, it's amazing that anyone should get in a sweat about the cost of electricity at this time. Since prewar days, the general cost of living has advanced in the neighborhood of 50 percent—and some surveys show a considerably higher increase. By comparison the cost of electricity has actually gone down. That is true of no other commonly used commodity—and of extremely few services.

The plain truth is that, in these days of inflated prices, you could hardly find the electric bill in the average family budget. It's one of those minuscule items of expense, like garbage service and water, which amount to next to nothing. If power were absolutely free, the consumer wouldn't save enough to pay the average family's tobacco bill.

All this talk about power isn't honestly based on rates. That's just the obvious camouflage. It's based instead on the political desire to socialize the industry. It's part of the long-pull campaign against free enterprise and the American way of doing things. The recent blast by the congressman is just one more example of the ridiculous lengths to which some politicians will go.

UPWARD, EVER UPWARD
There are reports that labor leaders are planning on a drive for widespread additional wage increase. The reports say further that many senators and representatives, who must run for reelection in November, will back them. Here is the one sure road to ruinous inflation, and the destruction of the dollar. When will labor learn that wage increases without comparable increase in worker productivity will simply result in more price increases—and a decline in "take home" pay? When will our lawmakers realize that the playing of politics at the expense of the very financial structure of the country will bring distress and ruin to us all?

A farmer, after imbibing a prodigious quantity of moonshine whiskey, attempted to blow out a candle, whereupon his alcohol-saturated breath burst into flame. Shaken by the experience, the man begged his wife to bring him the family Bible, muttering, "I gotta swear off." Placing his hand upon it, the farmer intoned: "Before heaven, I swear that never again will I blow on a lighted candle."

MACKENZIE'S Column

By GLENN BARR (Sibbing for Mackenzie)
The anniversary of one of history's turning points slipped by almost unnoticed yesterday. The world is sufficed with anniversaries recalling tragic and bloody events, and died of more to come turns men's eyes to the anxious future rather than the past.

But it was on Sept. 18, 1931, that the Japanese launched their conquest of Manchuria, thereby ushering in the most terrible 15 years in the human story. Historians a century hence may debate whether the second World War should be dated from Japan's 1931 blow at world peace or Hitler's looting his armies on Poland Sept. 1, 1939.

The Japanese adventure constituted the first major blow struck by a great power at the world order established after the conflict of 1914-18. It showed the way to Mussolini in Ethiopia and Albania and to Hitler in Austria, Czechoslovakia and Poland. It set the Japanese nation, with the militarists in the saddle, on a course that led almost inevitably to Pearl Harbor and the destruction of Japan as a major power.

The Japanese called that 1931 "the Mukden incident," since it was

Peter Edson's Column

IS 1920 INFLATION ALMOST HERE?

WASHINGTON, (NEA)—Continued increase in the cost of living during the next few months are almost inevitable, and there isn't anything anybody can do about them except take them and not like them.

The bureau of labor statistics cost-of-living index shows a 2 percent increase for the month ending Aug. 15, over the month before. That's 8 percent higher than when the price controls went off in June, 11 percent higher than on V-J Day a year ago, and 46 percent higher than August, 1929, when the war in Europe began.

Four more points, or 150, and the index will be higher than it was during the postwar inflation of the early 1920's. In Washington, D. C., the index already has gone over the 1920 top. The same thing is bound to happen in other communities all over the country.

Cost-of-living experts refuse to be quoted on this point, but there is a bare chance that food, the principal item in the cost of living, may level off for the balance of the year, or show only a slight rise over the August level. The big item of uncertainty is the price level for canned fruits and vegetables of the late season. Any jump in canned goods prices for this winter will more than offset any reductions in the food bill obtained through the new price controls put back on

Newly authorized price increases on meats and dairy products are not reflected in the Aug. 15 prices, so some further rise in the food index is certain. But even if the cost of food should be stabilized at present levels for the fall and winter months, there are other pressures on the cost-of-living index to force it up still further.

The clothing prices index is bound to go up. Watch for the first prices on fall and winter clothing going on sale in the stores this month. Advances in cotton and wool textiles, approved by OPA during recent months, have been normally slow to show in retail clothing prices paid by the consumer. These increases have been passed on through manufacturers and wholesalers, however, and will be reflected in all prices paid for new clothing from now on.

All manufacturers of apparel report their greatest difficulty is shortage of fabrics. As long as this situation exists, there will be a tendency to concentrate on the production of higher-priced lines of merchandise. Clothing and garment industry representatives meeting in Washington this week recommended that the government's program to allocate fabrics and give priorities assistance to manufacturers of low-cost apparel be dropped entirely. This action may not be taken for the fourth quarter of 1946, beginning October 1, but when the controls are taken off, low-cost cloth-

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

Common Ground

By R. C. HOLLES

Donald Nelson, former chairman of the War Production Board, has written a book on the "Arsenal of Democracy."

In this book he seems to be very much worried about the armaments taking over our government. Of course in the long run it will only be armed forces that will eventually take over the government.

Our real danger, however, in regard to individuals losing control of their government is not so much directly by the army as it is by the citizens who are elected to office by bribing the American people with their own money.

These citizens, if they get strong enough, invariably align themselves with the army to keep control completely in their own hands and take away from the citizens their right to control their own government.

If Mr. Nelson had devoted a little more space to the dangers of the people losing control of their own government by way of the politicians corrupting the voters with their own money, he would have performed a greater service than he has in writing his book.

Fair Wages
The AFL has switched over to the CIO idea that the employers should submit their books to the unions so that the unions could know better what their wages should be. This is a new wage policy for the AFL.

This policy would create untold dilemmas. It would mean that the efficient man would be obliged to pay more to a worker for equal production than the inefficient employer who had small if any profits. This would be a penalty on efficiency. This would reduce the capital that could be used to furnish better tools to produce more at less cost, thus enabling employers as a whole to pay more wages and the consumers to buy for less.

Every employee and every employer or stock holder should get all he produces.

No one yet has ever devised a method of determining what each person produces at a certain time and a certain place other than having a free market, a competitive system, to determine the true value of his production.

There can be no true value of anything when part of the people are prevented from helping establish values—from having the right to bid up for the dollars they are to get for their labor or to bid up for the labor they are to give for the dollars.

So the profits of a concern have absolutely nothing to do with the wages employees should get. The profits of an individual or a firm are only wages for efficiency. If we cut the real wages for efficiency, we reduce the incentive for efficiency and thus in the long run injure all the workers and all the consumers by retarding the accumulation of tools.

One Illicit Still Seized in Month

AUSTIN—State liquor control board inspectors were able to find only one illicit corn liquor distillery in August, but they obtained 245 convictions from a total of 280 law violations complaints of all types filed during the month.

The lone illicit still seized was found in Titus county. It had a cubic capacity of 53 gallons and its seizure prevented potential tax evasion of $1,212.16. Inspectors dumped 100 gallons of mash and made two arrests.

Net revenues of the liquor control board for this fiscal year which closes Aug. 31 exceeded the target for 1945's fiscal period by $3,419,309.47, the August report of the liquor control board showed.

Liberty comes by obedience to law, not by ignoring law.—Dr. Louis C. Wright, president Baldwin-Wallace college.

northern provinces adjacent to a friendly communist power, Soviet Russia.

The Soviet armies have been withdrawn from Manchuria and as far as the evidence goes Russia is maintaining a "neutral" neutrality toward the Chinese strife. Nevertheless the struggle in China is one phase of the worldwide contest between the communists and democratic nations, and it is difficult to see how long it can continue long without producing repercussions far beyond China's borders.

Not so much because of his admitted lack of judicial experience but because as a member of the house and of the important ways and means committee, he has voted against every social, economic and labor measure submitted to capitol Hill by the White House. He has been as conservative as Virginia's political czar, Senator Byrd, supporting the President only on foreign policy.

In the field of domestic legislation he has been one of Speaker Rayburn's worst problem children. The presidential tenderness—and hence to his becoming understandable only in the light of the desire to pack the rules committee.

Add incongruous sights: Those big stars riding around in shiny new 1946 automobiles—with wooden bumpers—Timber-T-1. (The metal shortage.)

George Montgomery is definitely through with westerns. He'll get only straight roles, as a result of the "The Brasher Doubloon." As a big, somebody in the 20th Century-Fox fan-mail department put Producer George Jessel's name on the fan list. He came in last. . . . Dennis Day will play a lawyer in Jimmy Cagney's "The Stray Lamb." That's really casting to type—Dennis once studied law at Columbia U.

SHE NEVER MISSES
For superstitious ones a pretty Irish stenographer in Hollywood, named Dolores Devine, is being overwhelmed with requests to type movie scripts. Every time she types one it sells, and the word is getting around.

FEAR OF THE PAST
Talking about a certain Hollywood gamon-girl, Milton Berle said: "She refused to attend a fashionable party because she was ashamed of being seen with last year's husband." Mary Pickford and Buddy Rogers

PLUGGED—The elimination of Mr. Slaughter, however, gave speaker Rayburn only half of his objective. It was necessary for a White House majority that he get going the "White House" on the continent, Rep. Howard Worth Smith from the Virginia district that lies across the Potomac river from Washington.

While the Texan has no influence in Old Dominion politics, he plugged for the nomination of Mr. Smith as Virginia's candidate for the senate seat made vacant by the death of Carter Glass.

Mr. Smith appeared to be the logical man, and for a time it seemed that he would attain the honor by going the "White House" on the continent, Rep. Howard Worth Smith from the Virginia district that lies across the Potomac river from Washington.

ENEMY—When the Virginians assembled at Richmond, Mr. Smith found himself opposed by two formidable candidates—Rep. A. Willis Robertson and former Governor C. W. Darden Jr.

Mr. Darden could have had the nomination, but he refused to run. However, he remained in the convention race long enough to weaken the latter's friends, according to Mr. Darden pulled out, the delegates nominated, not the Rayburn-Truman choice, but Congressman Robertson.

Thus, Mr. Smith, madder than ever at the collapse of his senatorial visions, will return to rules as an even more bitter enemy of the administration.

PATRIOTIC—Mr. Robertson, who apparently was not given a full glimpse of Mr. Rayburn's legislative designs, now reveals unwittingly that the President promised him a lifetime job if he would seek reelection to the house and remain out of the senatorial contest. Had Mr. Robertson acquiesced, Mr. Smith would undoubtedly have been removed from a house by promotion to the upper chamber.

In accepting the nomination, Rep. Robertson explained that he had received "flattering offers of private employment during World War II, but he declined them because he felt that it was his patriotic duty to serve the country on Capitol Hill. After intimating that he had thought of quitting the house, Mr. Robertson spilled the bribery beans.

INDUCEMENT—"My good friend, Sam Rayburn, speaker of the house of representatives," continued Mr. Robertson, "has offered me a $10,000 per year to help him, among other things, to carry out the reorganization plan under which my committee (Ways and Means) must meet the democratic members of the other sixteen committees of the house.

"As an inducement to me to do so, and in recognition of my whole-hearted support of his foreign policy, the President of the United States offered to provide for my future by giving me an appointment to a federal court that carried a lifetime salary of $41,000 per year.

"I therefore, faced the decision between my personal interests and a possible duty that I owe to a party I love and which for twenty years has been the backbone of the house of representatives had trained me for legislative work."

CONSERVATIVE—President Truman's offer of a judgeship to the representative from Charlottesville will undoubtedly surprise and anger "liberals" inside and outside the administration.

Not so much because of his admitted lack of judicial experience but because as a member of the house and of the important ways and means committee, he has voted against every social, economic and labor measure submitted to capitol Hill by the White House. He has been as conservative as Virginia's political czar, Senator Byrd, supporting the President only on foreign policy.

In the field of domestic legislation he has been one of Speaker Rayburn's worst problem children. The presidential tenderness—and hence to his becoming understandable only in the light of the desire to pack the rules committee.

Legality of City Ordinance Studied
DALLAS—Arguments in a suit questioning the legality of a Dallas city ordinance prohibiting union membership by city employees will open here Friday in the fifth court of civil appeals.

The suit was filed by the CIO, who will be represented by Lindsay P. Walden of Fort Worth. The City of Dallas will be represented by City Attorney Henry Powers.

A temporary restraining order against the city enforcing the order was issued last March by District Judge Sarah T. Hughes, but the order was later dissolved by Judge Paine L. Bush who upheld the legality of the ordinance.

Names of Airmen Killed Released

LAKE CHARLES, La.—(AP)—Lake Charles army airfield officials have released the names of the five men killed in the explosion and crash of an A-26 army plane near Wink, Texas, Sunday night.

They were: Lieut. D. W. Paese, (box 202), Davis, W. Va.; Lieut. J. P. Spartaro, (2653 South Main St.) Slippertown, Pa.; M/Sgt. E. Byrd, route 1, Harlingen, Texas; M/Sgt. P. W. French, (15 West 17th St.) Tulsa, Okla., and S/Sgt. P. J. Chrikos, (193 West 7th St.), Brooklyn, N. Y.

The plane was enroute from Lake Charles to Biggs Field, Texas.

ers will re-film the 1931 United Artists hit, "The Bat." They will produce it—and we guess that's Hollywood's first husband-and-wife producing team. . . . Betty Hutton and Ted Briskin are celebrating their first wedding anniversary. . . . Janet Gaynor and Adrian just purchased a ranch near Santa Fe, N. M.

Memo from Warner Bros. studio: "Construction has begun on ventilators for each of the 22 sound stages on the lot." Now if Hollywood would only start ventilating some of its pictures.

So They Say

Our first conclusion in Britain is that a first essential in our military organization today is an absolutely first-class scientific research and planning staff, coupled with a first-class intelligence organization—British Air Vice Marshal Sir Hugh P. Lloyd.

We don't want their way of life here. We don't even want communists here. They all should go over to Russia if they want communism. We can never understand them, but we can be friendly with them.—Mrs. LaFolll Dickinson, president General Federation of Women's Clubs, back from Russia.

A feeling is in the air—brought about by disgust with the use of the veto power—that federal world government is the common-sense solution.—Lin Yuiang, Chinese writer.

With the single exception of the disabled, we should not ask the question of how we shall benefit the veteran. Rather we should ask ourselves how we shall benefit the nation. The veteran will find that his ultimate interests are precisely the same as those of the nation.—Gen. Omar N. Bradley, Veterans' Administrator.

Application for Field Not Filed

DALLAS—(AP)—Formal application for the use of Moore field at Mission, Texas, as a housing facility has not been made to the regional office of the war assets administration here, an official said today.

The officer, Morgan R. Lewis, deputy regional director in charge of real property disposal, said his office could not take action in the case until such application is made.

He explained that, while Moore field was declared surplus last December, it was not certified to WAA until May 6, 1946. So far it has not been assigned to the Dallas regional office for disposition, he added.

There is a necessary amount of procedure involved in the disposal of government property, Lewis said, including the time required to segregate surplus which may best be utilized as airport, warehousing, industrial, agricultural, and housing property.

GOAT GETS HIS GOAT

SALEM, Ill. (AP)—Rotarian George Lytle got the Salem Lions club goat but the Lions got the last laugh.

As a prank, Lytle kidnaped the Lions' mascot, a pet goat, and took it for a ride in his airplane. He didn't stay up long. The goat started chewing on the plane's fabric, and Lytle landed, quick.

Cowboys Get Their Nylons, So Do Steers

AP Newsfeatures

ALLIANCE, Neb. — The ladies aren't going to like this, but cowboys, too, are waiting in line for nylons, and they're getting them.

Only the cowboys' nylons are ropes.

Over the objections of some diehards, the use of nylon ropes has caught on among the men who work the horse and cattle corrals for a living.

In the words of some cowboys, the nylon rope is tougher than a two-bit steak. The army started it by using them as tow ropes for troop gliders. After the war enterprising manufacturers offered them as ropes to the cowboys.

Cecil Wilson of the Nebraska Brand Committee in Alliance was one of the first to give the elongated coal-tar product a try. He used to use about five to six hemp ropes a year. But this year-old nylon rope is still going strong. Now all the cattle brand inspectors are being supplied with nylons. A 600-foot nylon coil weighs only 20 to 28 pounds against 40 to 48 for manila hemp.

PUTTING THE BITE ON THE COPS

DECATUR, Ill.—(AP)—When the logical lawmen announced they had found a pair of false teeth, they knew some man would come to police headquarters, bare his barren gums, and go home with the choppers. That is precisely what happened. But the next day two other toothless citizens called to claim the dentures.

CARS BEAT ANTELOPE

CHEYENNE, Wyo.—(AP)—Appealing to motorists to drive more slowly in game country, State Game Warden Archie Pendergraft said 25 antelopes were killed by automobiles in August on a single 35-mile stretch of highway between Highland and Shoshoni.
