DECISION ON MEAT CONTROL UP TO TRUMAN

ALASKA—THE FORTY-NINTH STATE? The Territory of Alaska, one-fifth the size of the whole United States, may become the 49th state. Map above gives pertinent facts about this huge area. In territorial referendum, its people voted in favor of statehood, now the question must come before congress, which can formally vote it into the Union.

Polk Wins Court Decision; Name Goes on Ballot

AUSTIN—(AP)—The state supreme court today granted a writ of mandamus ordering the name of J. Lee Polk on the ballot for the November general election.

Polk had sought to halt trial of an election contest brought by J. E. (Bob) Davidson. His contention was that Davidson was not a qualified elector and that trial could not be completed in time to permit election processes to take effect.

It is further ordered that the judgment shall be finally effective immediately, therefore this court will not entertain any motion for rehearing," said the opinion by Associate Justice F. W. Brewer.

9-Year Road Building Program Is Advocated

Greater Goals Set for '47 in Farm Production

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Greater production goals are in prospect for Texas farmers in 1947.

Two Cars Involved In Accident on 66

No one was injured and damage was light when a 1941 Ford, five passenger coupe, pulling a large trailer, became involved in a side-swipe collision with a 1937 Chevrolet coach on route 66 about 6.3 miles west of Groom at 6:45 a. m. Wednesday.

According to reports from State Highway patrolmen here the coupe driver, Alvin Ray Martin, 19, Austin, Ind., attempted to pull over to the right side of the road when the other machine driven by Albert Lee Robertson, 25, Oklahoma, came along. Patrolmen said they believe that the Martin trailer swerved into the Robertson car causing the sideswipe. Damage to Robertson's car was estimated at $75 and to the Martin trailer at $75.

IT'S UP TO YOU

Commenting on our disgraceful fire loss, The Topeka Capital observes: "Prevention must originate with individuals. Fire departments and other agencies cannot enforce safety regulations when the public is too indolent or careless to assume the chief responsibility."

The vast majority of fires originate in homes and small places of business. They are the result of the most common and most easily eliminated hazards—defective heating equipment, improper storage of inflammables such as paint and gasoline, accumulations of trash in closets and cellars, frayed light cords, etc. Almost all of them could be prevented if the individual property owner had effected simple repairs which require little time or money.

The importance of fire prevention to the homeowner, as a purely practical matter, was never greater than now. A recent survey shows that small houses now sell for an average of 65 percent more than in 1940 and medium-houses for 57 percent more. In other words, it will cost you more than half again as much to rebuild as it did before the war if fire destroys your home. And shortages of materials make rebuilding next to impossible, regardless of cost.

Fire loss is at record levels now. The active, aggressive cooperation of all is necessary to check it.

THEORY VERSUS PRACTICE

(From The Daily Oklahoman)

An Oklahoma City man the other day ran up against a new wrinkle in OPA procedure. Seeing ham on a hotel menu, he asked for one slice of ham as an appetizer with another dish, but was told that according to OPA regulations he would have to take three slices or none.

Another Oklahoma City man has recently brought a run-down house which needs remodeling. If he could get a little material to do the job, he would make one more house available to help meet the much discussed housing shortage, for he could sell the one he now owns and occupy.

OPA, in its profound wisdom, says, "No that—would be crippling the housing situation."

So he has no choice but to go on occupying his present home, and the community is deprived of one housing unit. Doubtless such instances as these could be multiplied indefinitely.

It is also a matter of common knowledge that many owners of rental property, including spare rooms, refuse to rent them because of the drastic regulations. One competent observer says there are hundreds of such vacancies in Oklahoma City alone, and if that situation were removed, there would be plenty of housing.

Whenever bureaucracy sets out to tell every citizen what he can or can't do, allegedly in the interest of some social or economical necessity, it goes by formula, regulation, theory and imaginary conditions, and not by practical common sense. Hence it often does precisely the opposite of what it actually should be doing, according to its own objectives.

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—It took four bleachers to give dark-haired Linda Darnell that amber look for "Forever Amber." When you see Lou McAllister playing the violin in "Bob, Son of Battle," the fiddling actually will be the actor's, thereby setting a Hollywood precedent. One not likely, we hope, to be followed.

Darryl Zanuck's latest original "idea—the plot of Hollywood Story"—sounds familiar. A director's wife sees a girl in a fashion magazine and talks her husband into bringing her to Hollywood for a film career.

That's in the way director Howard Hawks discovered Lauren Bacall. Parkyakarkus took advantage of his summer vacation to shed 30 pounds via diet and exercise. "And, I beams 'em, it looks good."

ABOUT THOSE NEW TIRES YOU WANT

WASHINGTON.—(NEA)—Soon begins the long-predicted battle between synthetic and natural rubber. It is to be a price war which will decide the fate of the war-born U. S. synthetic rubber industry as well as the future of the natural rubber plantations of the Malay peninsula and the Dutch East Indies.

As matters stand even now, with full international and U. S. government controls over both prices and allocations of available rubber supplies, synthetic rubber can be imported. The government-controlled price on synthetic rubber is 18 1/2 cents a pound. The price on natural rubber, delivered in the U. S., is 24 3/4 cents a pound.

The difference of seven and a quarter cents can only mean that the price of natural rubber will have to come down to meet the competition. Natural rubber has sold for as little as 10 cents a pound.

Recent cables from Singapore indicate that British rubber-growers, foreseeing this situation, have advocated removal of all controls and return of a free market as soon as international agreements now in force expire, which will be at the end of the year. With controls off, the price of natural rubber would drop to around 10 cents a pound, delivered in the U. S. Possibly the price would go lower.

INDUSTRY WANTS GOVERNMENT PLANTS
Leaders in the U. S. rubber industry have recently been renewing their recommendations that national rubber be sold on a free basis. At the same

MACKENZIE'S Column

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
(Subbing for Mackenzie)

Trouble for the Carmona-Salazar government in Portugal has been growing for several years. The regime has seemed to be almost suspended in mid-air, without the major support of any of the country's major factions except, possibly, the army. And the most powerful section of the army, the officer group which originally installed Carmona as president in 1926, has been reported disaffected for some time.

The dictatorship has been caught between republican forces, which refer to it as a fascist, and the monarchists which the government has sought for years to hold in reserve for a time when it might be forced to fall back upon them.

The so-called "republican" opposition comes from liberal democrats, Socialists, communists, the navy and the army minority, all demanding "liberalism." Monarchist propaganda has been directed less against Premier Salazar than for themselves.

The monarchist leader, Don Duarte Nuno, one of the Braganza princes and pretender to the throne, has been protected by Salazar. The monarchists have believed that, in the event of the aged Carmona's removal by death or other circumstances, Salazar would re-appoint the monarchy. Since the present Portuguese government was modeled after the corporate state founded by Mussolini in Italy, the stage would be set for such a move, by which Salazar could hope to rally the anti-communist forces of the country. The monarchists have been free to spread their propaganda in Portugal, whereas the socialists and other leftist groups have been forced to operate underground.

Salazar has been known as a "benevolent dictator" despite his repression of leftist activities, and American observers have credited him with doing Portugal more good than any leader of modern times. The army called him from a military profession to join the Carmona regime in 1926, and it was the army which supported his assumption of dictatorial powers in 1933.

But where Mussolini's corporate state was founded upon the military, Portugal's has always been civilian. Salazar's concept of the state as the central national force, rather than the people themselves, does not extend to the personification of the state in the leader which has characterized other dictatorships. His idea is maximum effectiveness with the minimum of political fireworks and no military trappings.

He got into trouble in 1936 and there almost was a revolt then, but his government appeared to be leaning toward the fascist forces in the Spanish civil war. He was under widespread attack last year when he ordered "free elections" which, however, came off so quickly that the opposition groups were unable to organize their forces and refused to participate.

Now he is caught between forces which have been whirling about his person since the war, when the country became a center for plotters representing practically every opposing ideology in Europe.

So They Say

Pending the establishment of the necessary guarantees, we should equip ourselves with the best possible retaliation against any nation that uses atomic weapons aggressively against us.—Dr. Irving Langmuir, research physicist.

Money aches is no respecter of persons, and there is no such thing as a ready-made budget. It is your foot.—Mrs. Elsie Stapleton, New York budget consultant.

You can stop a third world war if you settle the second World War on the basis of justice and democracy.—Herbert V. Evatt, Australian UN delegate.

The universities graduate over 150,000 people each year into various professions. Practically every lawyer is a university graduate. Some 75 percent of the people in "Who's Who" are university graduates. The universities are in a constant race to adapt themselves to the standards of law and politics but to set those standards.—Prof. Marvin J. Barlow, Western Reserve U. economist.

When this is considered, it makes establishing a just and equitable place and at every time an infinitely complicated matter. That is the reason that no bureaucrats, no matter how wise or how well intentioned, can change prices and thus production rapidly enough to promote justice.

Prices are not static; they are fluid and constantly changing. Weather, new ideas, new desires, increased knowledge, all have effect on prices. For this reason we need the freedom of the people to keep them constantly changing.

In fact, unemployment and depressions are due to government laws and private combinations that interfere with each and every individual having the right to help establish values. Individual combinations and government monopolies delay the correction of maladjustment. This puts too many people in one line of work and not enough in another line of work. The result is unemployment, less production, hard times; eventually it even leads to wars.

It is impractical to believe that any representatives of the government can wisely, fairly and justly establish a single, arbitrary price.

China Observing 35th Anniversary

NANKING.—(P)—Discordant China, in the throes of civil conflict, observed the 35th anniversary of the birth of the republic today, with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek restoring military conscription. The unexpected announcement that the draft was back was in keeping with the mood of the day. There was gloom, not gaiety, on this anniversary, the Republic Dr. Sun Yet-sen founded with such high hopes.

the Pacific American Shipowners' association and the waterfront employers association. In the Great Lakes region there is the Great Lakes Shippers and on the east and Gulf coasts the American merchant marine institute.

RIVALRY—The unions with which these organizations deal are in both the C. I. O. and A. F. L. or independent and, at times, there has been considerable rivalry between unions although currently working together.

By GRACIE ALLEN
The army has announced its experimenting with rocket-equipped tanks that can jump over streams, ditches and other obstructions. This should lead to rocket-equipped a. t. o. m. o. b. i. l. e. s. wherein I see the first ray of hope for us desperate pedestrians. When we're caught in the middle of the street, we have Gracie only to duck and the cars can fly over our heads. But there'd be disadvantages, too. I've always been able to escape even the most determined motorist by running home to the safety of my bedroom. It would be pretty discouraging to look from my second-story window and set some driver preparing to jet-propel his car at me again.

The army is also experimenting with rockets to attach to individuals enabling them to hurdle walls, etc. Personally, I can't wait to get equipped with my little rocket. Imagine being able to hop over nylon lines and butchers' counters!

Technically, white is not a color, but a combination of all colors.

The better the tire, the faster it sells... and we've never seen a tire sell as fast as the new postwar B. F. Goodrich Silvertown that outwears and outlasts tires of prewar construction. That's why, in the face of outstanding production, we've had to ask so many of our customers to wait just a little longer for the tire that's well worth waiting for.

It's Extra Safety that caused the Extra Demand for B. F. GOODRICH SILVERTOWNS

Extra safety is an engineered factor in the new B. F. If you want the tire that outwears prewar tires, order immediately for earliest delivery.

Harvesters Will Battle Norman Tigers Here Tonight

SPORTS

More Undeclared Teams Due To Falter in Schoolboy Race

Irish To Play McLean Tonight

SHAMROCK—The Irish of Shamrock high school, losers only to Class AA Childers, expect to have their hands more than full here tonight when they take on the re-signing McLean Tigers in an important District 3-A conference game.

With a record of three wins and no loss behind them, the Irish appear to have one of the top teams of the section, but Coach Scott McCall is worried, nevertheless, about the re-vitalized Tigers.

McLean, after dropping its first two games, to Panhandle 3-0, and White Deer 20-12, bounced back to win its next two contests, defeating Memphis, 19-13, and Lakeview, 12-0. Shamrock barely eked out a 14-13 win over Memphis.

Shamrock, since losing to the Childers Bobcats of District 2-AA, 6-0, has defeated Wheeler, 35-0, Canadian, 26-13, and Memphis, 14-13. McCall, the Irish coach, is expected to start Terry and Morgan at ends, D. Briggs and E. Briggs at tackles, Brower and Johnston at guards and Douglas at center. In the backfield will be Cox, Lile, Ramsey and Close.

Coach Larry Sanders of McLean has named the following lineup: Williamson and Vinyard at ends, Andrews and Myatt at tackles, Mounce and Newton, guards, Longino at center, and Langham, R. Haynes, Smith and S. Haynes, backs.

Sooners Hold Advantage Over Pampa in Weight, Experience

Underdogs because of a deficiency in experience, Pampa's Harvesters will attempt to get back on the touchdown trail tonight when they battle the Norman Tigers here at eight o'clock at Harvesters park.

Cadet-Michigan, Longhorn-Sooner Games Are Tops

NEW YORK—(AP)—College football moves into its fourth week-end in which the fans will get their only chance to draw a definite comparison between the two top teams—Texas and Army.

After a two-year reign as kingpins of the collegiate gridiron world, the Cadets have just been nudged out of the top spot in the national rankings of the Associated Press by the terrific Texans. Unfortunately, the paths of these two juggernauts do not cross this season.

But while Army goes after its 22nd consecutive victory tomorrow in a battle with Michigan which ranks as the top attraction of the day, Texas will be hurling its high-gear offense against Oklahoma, the only team to be met by both the Cadets and the Longhorns during the 1946 campaign.

Two weeks ago, Oklahoma handed the Cadets their worst fright in two years before going down, 21-7. The Sooners held Army to 83 yards on the ground, while making 129 themselves, and 82 yards in the air.

Notre Dame, the country's No. 3 team right now, will entertain underdog Purdue in another midwestern headliner while Illinois will be at Indian Minnesota at Northwestern and Ohio State at Wisconsin in a trio of big nine tilts.

The Midwest also will sport a couple of big six contests, sending Missouri to Kansas State and Kansas to Iowa State.

Three games that rate top billing in the east will find Columbia at Yale, Dartmouth at Pennsylvania and Duke at Navy. Other eastern highlights will be Colgate at Cornell, Harvard at Princeton, Penn State at Syracuse, Temple at Pittsburgh, Villanova at Holy Cross, Rutgers at NYU and Rhode Island State at Brown.

A game between UCLA, currently rated No. 5 in the nation, and up-and-coming Stanford at Los Angeles tops the Pacific coast conference program.

Baylor will be at Arkansas in the only Southwest Conference tussle. In the Southwestern Conference it will be Mississippi at Georgia Tech and Florida at Vanderbilt.

Kentucky and Georgia of the Southeastern Conference tangle at Atlanta tonight. Other major pairings on tonight's schedule find Oklahoma at Miami, Miami at Miami (Fla.), Colorado Aggies at Denver, Fordham at Georgetown and South Carolina at Furman.

Houston Man Rules Favorite in Meet

SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—E. E. Tyer of Houston, co-medalist, held the favorite's spot here today as the Texas Golf association's 10th annual senior championship entered its semi-final round.

In the quarter-finals yesterday, Tyer turned back J. A. Manley of Corpus Christi, 2 and 1, while C. T. Garth of Beaumont defeated Clarence Kraft of Fort Worth 3 and 2. H. J. Scallorn of Abilene won over T. J. Ahearn of Houston, 6 and 4, and Ross Frank of Dallas ousted Col. Ed Irons of Fort Worth 1-up.

Mustang 'B' Eleven Defeats Baylor 'B'

WACO—(AP)—Cashing in on a third quarter fumble, the Southern Methodist university B team Gobs defeated the Baylor university Cubs here last night, 7-0.

Following the Colt recovery, Guy Proctor tossed an 18-yard pass to Sammy Owens for the score. Burnett kicked the extra point.

Record Books Out After Cards Rout Boston, 12 to 3

By JACK HAND
BOSTON—(AP)—Eddie Dyer can face his 46th birthday today with the knowledge that his St. Louis Cardinals rate a solid chance of scoring the sports upset of the year—beating the powerhouse Boston Red Sox in the world series.

All even in games after their first four meetings with the American league champions the Cardinals now can fall back on their southpaw ace, Howie Pollet and Harry Brecheen.

Twenty-four hours ago the shoe was on the other foot and Manager Joe Cronin of the Bostonians had complete control of the situation with Tex Hughson primed to push the Redbirds to the brink of elimination.

That was before the 20-hit barrage the Cards loosened on big Tex and five successors to send the "experts" digging into the record books. They found that only one other team, the New York Giants in 1921, ever had collected 20 hits in a world series game. Never before had 10 teams pooled a total of 20 safe blows as happened yesterday in St. Louis' 12-3 rout of the Sox.

No matter who wins today's game, Brecheen and Dave (Boo) Ferriss will have the sixth game at St. Louis Sunday. If it goes seven, they will take Monday off for selling tickets and play the big one Tuesday.

Although the 35,845 Fenway customers won't agree, yesterday's game in many ways was one of the most interesting of a series that had been dominated by pitching.

Leading the parade of St. Louis hitters were Rookie Catcher Joe Garagiola and the veterans Enos Slaughter and Whitey Kurowski, each with four hits. Wally Moses of the losers also chipped in with four, joining 22 previous stars in the record books.

For the first time in the series, the outfielding was spectacular. Thrown to the plate by Slaughter, Ted Williams and Don DiMaggio each caught a base runner diving for home. Terry Moore, favoring his swollen left knee, made a tumbling catch of a Rudy York drive in the second that was a classic.

Kentucky has a Zag, North Dakota a Zap and West Virginia a Nat among their towns.

Richardson's 65-Yard Run Sets off Spark as Reapers Defeat Buffaloes

Scoring on the second play of the game and twice more in the second quarter the Pampa Junior high Reapers beat the Horace Mann Juniors high Buffaloes, 19 to 7, in the Buffalo home field, 19 to 7 yesterday afternoon in a conference game.

Finding the offensive attack they have been working for all season the Reapers opened holes in the Buffalo defense with their hard blocking while the Reaper backfield was handling the ball like veterans.

Scoring first on the second play of the game Dale Richardson found a hole inside right tackle, and sprinted 65 yards for a touchdown.

In the second quarter Matthews recovered a Buffalo fumble on the Reapers' 22 yard line. Two plays later, Hughes went around left end to paydirt.

With two minutes remaining in the second quarter Harvel, left guard, broke through the Buffs' line and blocked and covered a punt. A few plays later Richardson broke through the line for 26 yards and was finally brought down on the Buff 2. On the next play Richardson smashed over for the score.

At the half the score was 19 to 0. The Buffs scored late in the fourth quarter when Ham, right half, got loose around left end for a 70-yard touchdown sprint. A line play for extra point was good.

The Reaper defensive play was still outstanding. It featured vicious tackling by the whole team. Harvel, Runyon, and Taylor were particularly strong. On the offense the line was blocking good and the backfield was driving hard all the way. Rowe called an excellent game the first half and Wilson did likewise while he was in the game. Parker was showing lots of drive, and both Richardson and Hughes did some nice broken field running.

Of the Buffs' Ham, right half, was the outstanding back and Baker and Fitzgibbon were strong in the line.

Pirates Battle Panhandle Team

LEFORS—Although they're taking a week off from conference play, the Lefors Pirates run smack into one of the Top Class A outfits of the Panhandle tonight when they meet the Panhandle Panthers here tonight at eight o'clock.

Boasting an unassisted record, the Panthers are favored to give the powerful Phillips Blackhawk a merry fight for the District 2-A title.

Lefors, with three wins and one loss, is in the thick of a shaping battle for 3-A conference honors with Shamrock, Wellington and McLean.

Coach Joe Champion's Pirates are in excellent condition this week with the exception of a few minor line burns, suffered in last Friday's wet game with Clarendon, which Lefors won on penetrations after battling to a scoreless tie.

All the regular Lefors starters are ready to go. At ends will be Joe Ogden and C. H. Keeton, Hugh Daniel and W. T. Cole will be at tackles, Tommy Jinks and Jack Cullison at guards and Ike Doom at center.

The Lefors backfield will consist of Jimmy Gatlin at quarter, Harold Sims and Eugene Cooper at half-backs and Wade Stracener at full-back.

South Dakota has a town named "White Owl" and Michigan one named "White Pigeon."

Advocates of Alaskan Statehood Are Leading

JUNEAU, Alaska—(AP)—The first discordant note in the almost two-to-one vote rolled up in Tuesday's advisory referendum for Alaskan statehood came today from Nome where Eskimo and white voters in 17 second judicial division precincts opposed the proposal 352 to 253.

Total territorial vote received today gives advocates of statehood a lead of 2,133 to 1,528. The vote will be the only advisory to congress which must take the final action on statehood for the vast territory.

In the contest for territorial delegate to congress, E. L. (Bob) Bartlett and Gov. Ernest Gruening in an effort to exert all possible pressure toward the admission of the territory into the union as its largest.

Both officials, in talks before the national federation of federal employes luncheon, stressed that passage of the statehood referendum was but the first step in many months of hard work ahead.

Shade of Sycamore

By PERCY MARKS Author of "The Plastic Age" "A Tree Grows Straight" Etc.

THE STORY: Back in New Haven, after the announcement of the marriage of the bride herself a celebrity. Discussing plans for her new home, she speaks the architect by insisting that the cook have a large room and bath next to the kitchen.

XVII
AS the end of the term approached, neither Gayle nor Rose paid much attention to their work at the Art School; indeed, Gayle wondered at times why she had ever thought it necessary to finish the term at all. The wedding was set for the third week in June, and she was going to have a frighteningly short time in which to get ready for it. She had made a brief weekend visit to Sycamore to discuss the wedding plans with Mrs. Bartlett, who obviously was disappointed in Gayle's ideas. She seemed a little warmer than on Gayle's first visit, but she still royalty making a decision.

"Bruce has a great many friends," she objected. "Will the Calvary College chapel hold them all? And is your home adequate for the reception?"

"I'm afraid," said Gayle quietly, "that the answer is no to both questions. Evidently I don't explain very well. I don't happen to want a big wedding, and even if I did, my father couldn't afford it. I'm going to invite only a few friends. Some of my sorority sisters may be offended, but I can't help that. And Bart will be able to invite only a few. There's no place in Calvary to hold a mob, anyway. And we're not planning on a reception. Mrs. Bartlett, I wouldn't put my father to that expense for anything. I want a real wedding in a church, but it's got to be as simple as possible."

With the greatest delicacy Mrs. Bartlett hinted that every difficulty would be evaded if the wedding were held at Sycamore. Mr. Bartlett's health would be

Church Services Are Conducted in Honor of ex-GIs

PANHANDLE (Special)—An impressive service was conducted at the Christian church last Sunday morning when 21 blue stars were removed from the service flag which has hung behind the pulpit of the minister, Rev. James Todd, during the years of war, and the gold star for Capt. Harry McGregor was moved to the center.

A photograph of Capt. McGregor will later be placed beside the flag bearing his gold star. The star was placed by Edward H. Little, a boyhood friend now residing in Amarillo. Capt. McGregor was the only man from the families of this congregation who was lost in the war. He was shot down over Germany. A memorial service was conducted here for him.

Following the singing of the hymn "The Old Rugged Cross," the minister spoke briefly from the text, "And He had in His right hand seven stars." He mentioned that the placing of blue stars for each man entering the service was adopted during World War I and that it was immediately adopted when the United States entered World War II, and that as the stars in the hands of the Christ represented the ministers of the seven churches of Asia Minor it was befitting that the men of His church should be represented by blue stars on the service flag when doing a task they did not want to do but were forced to do because of those who opposed the teachings of the Christ.

Many of the stars were removed by the men who pinned them to the service flag themselves before leaving for training and were handed an inscribed copy of the New Testament and Psalms by the minister with the words "Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, a light unto my path."

Edward H. Little, Jr., of Amarillo will receive the third blue copy of the Testament from this congregation. He lost all of his personal effects twice when his ship was shot from under him. He received the Purple Heart twice.

Others among the men in the group receiving the Purple Heart were Clyde Wayne Herndon, W. G. Puckett, and Richard Renter. Renter was also a prisoner of war in Germany. Puckett is now a resident of Guymon, Okla., and Renter of Wichita, Kansas.

The 21 stars were for Clarence Ashby, former high school principal of Dalhart; Jack Bureau, of Amarillo; Homer Lee Cantrell, of Amarillo; James H. Harrison, now serving as captain with the engineers in Japan; Clyde Wayne Herndon, Edward Howe of Hayden, N. M.; J. Floyd Howe, J. M. Knowles; Edward H. Little, Jr., of Amarillo; J. Dawson Little and Joe Bill Little, of West Texas State College, Canyon; Lloyd Miller, W. A. (Jack) Miller, Jr., J. H. O'Neal, of Wichita Falls; Oran C. Owens, Burkburnett; Jack Powell, Richard Renter, Wichita; W. G. Puckett, Guymon; Billie Gene Tule, Hobbs, N. M.; Cleo Ray Tillery, Los Angeles; Martin L. Vance, Jr.

The ladies of the church served a buffet dinner in the church dining room following the service.

Texas Today

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff

A gentleman named Ebest became the father of a young son in San Antonio recently.

It happens every day, of course, but an unusual angle was that father Ebest was amply provided with a long list of male and female names to take care of any eventualities.

He knew the folly of being unprepared.

When he himself was born 25 years ago in Dallas, his father wasn't ready and when the doctor hurriedly filled out a birth certificate and demanded a name, he said "Dallas Texas Ebest."

But D. T. Ebest figured a boy named San Antonio Ebest would have a rough time in life, was ready with the name "Larry."

Three Pittsburgh, Pa., youngsters who had been seeing too many western films were apprehended in San Angelo.

They said they were heading west to become cowboys. One had a small pistol in a scabbard that dangled between his legs. They were 13, 15 and 16 years old.

They had taken about $2,500 from a trunk in the attic of the oldest boy's home. (They still had $2,093 when found.)

Anyway, San Angelo officials notified the parents, and the boys went home. Accompanied by their fathers.

Charley Webster doesn't like to fill from one job to another.

He enlisted in the army in 1919. He rose to become a master sergeant. He was a cook at Sam Houston, after returning from Germany.

When the current war broke out, he was still a cook, and in 1941 was placed in charge of mess hall No. 6.

Recently, after 27 years in service, he retired. He got a civilian job at Brooke army medical center. As cook in mess hall No. 6.

Report Made on Yanks Military Government Costs

BERLIN—(AP)—The American military government in occupied Germany has cost the United States more than $2,000,000 in wages so far, plus millions more for food and other supplies, the monthly report of Gen. Joseph T. McNarney showed yesterday.

The American commander said that $23,349,000 had been dispersed in salaries to maintain military personnel attached to the military government and $5,138,000 to civilians working for the government.

The dollar value of supplies shipped into Germany to support German civilians, displaced persons and civilian internees was not available.

The following tonnages, however, were issued to German civilians to date: 1,283,865 tons of grain and food, 59,219 tons of agricultural supplies and fertilizer, 118,855 tons of petroleum and petroleum products, 5,418 tons of textiles, 8,500 vehicles and trailers and twelve complete hospitals with related supplies.

Displaced persons have received 53,475 tons of food and civilian internees 602 tons of food.

In addition, approximately 1,600,000 blankets and large quantities of clothing, footwear, soap, brooms and mops have been issued to displaced persons.

Rotarians Addressed By Oklahoma Preacher

The Rev. Hugh Bumpas, pastor of the Capitol Hill Baptist church, Oklahoma City, yesterday addressed the weekly meeting of the Pampa Rotary club.

Rev. Bumpas centered his remarks around the concentration of work in order to succeed. During his address he cited several men who plugged at their jobs until they finally became a success. He told the men that Abraham Lincoln was defeated in 17 campaigns for political office before he finally became president.

Prior to address by Rev. Bumpas, Miss Norma June Johnson, Pampa high school student, gave a short talk on Fire Prevention.

The Rev. Douglas Carver had charge of the program and Virgil Mott led the club singing. Irvin Cole, Rotary president, presided at the meeting.

Executive Says Normal Shipment Cattle Being Made

DENVER—(AP)—Returning from a tour of Southwestern cattle-producing states, F. E. Mollin, executive secretary of the American National Livestock association, said yesterday stockmen are making normal shipments of cattle.

In a statement issued after a tour of California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas, Mollin said:

"If anyone doubts the accuracy of the statement as to total volume of current livestock movement, you have only to check with the railroads to find that all the principal roads operating in western territory are far behind on their car orders."

"This situation will continue for at least another month while the peak of the seasonal run is on. It boils down to the fact that every livestock car is now in use, but the producer or feeder does not control the destination of that car once he has sold his stock."

"While the authorities are seeking frantically for someone to blame for the current chaotic condition in the meat trade brought about by their own bungling and by their refusal to listen to the advice of responsible spokesmen... the fact is that there will be the usual big western run of cattle and calves," Mollin said. "Then he added, 'but many of them will never see a central market. Hence the relatively light receipts at these markets fail to disclose the volume of current livestock movement.'"

Commenting on suggestions that the meat shortage be eased by importations from South America, Mollin said the entire livestock industry "will oppose to the last ditch" any effort to break down or evade the sanitary embargo. He said this embargo has protected livestock growers of this country from foot-and-mouth disease, with no outbreaks reported for 17 years.

CHAMBER MAILING Resolutions Now
A copy of a resolution by the Pampa chamber of commerce that a resident of the Panhandle be appointed to the state highway commission was forwarded today to Governor-Elect Beauford Jester and to judges, chambers of commerce mayors and newspapers all over the Panhandle.

The resolution was drawn up here Monday by directors of the Pampa chamber.

Although the resolution does not specify any person to fill the vacancy to be created January 1, the name of Fritz Thompson, Berger, a Hutchinson county commissioner has been mentioned in connection with the post.

Reuben Williams, Dallas, will vacate his position on the commission at the end of this year. Each member of the group serves for six years.

In its resolution, the local board pointed out that the Panhandle has never had a representative on the commission and that there are "individuals residing in the Panhandle who possess all the necessary qualifications for the position."

The Panhandle is that area comprising the senatorial district now represented in the state legislature by Grady Hazelwood.

Mother Nature Puts On Brilliant Display
(By The Associated Press)
Mother nature put on a brilliant display of shooting stars last night (Wednesday), but the view was marred for most Texans as dense to high scattered clouds obscured the sky. El Paso had the only clear area.

The shooting stars were meteors entering through the upper atmosphere as the earth passed within 131,000 miles of the comet Giacobini-Zinner.

J. Raymond Browning, Wichita Falls amateur astronomer, estimated that the meteors appeared at the rate of 200 to 300 per hour.

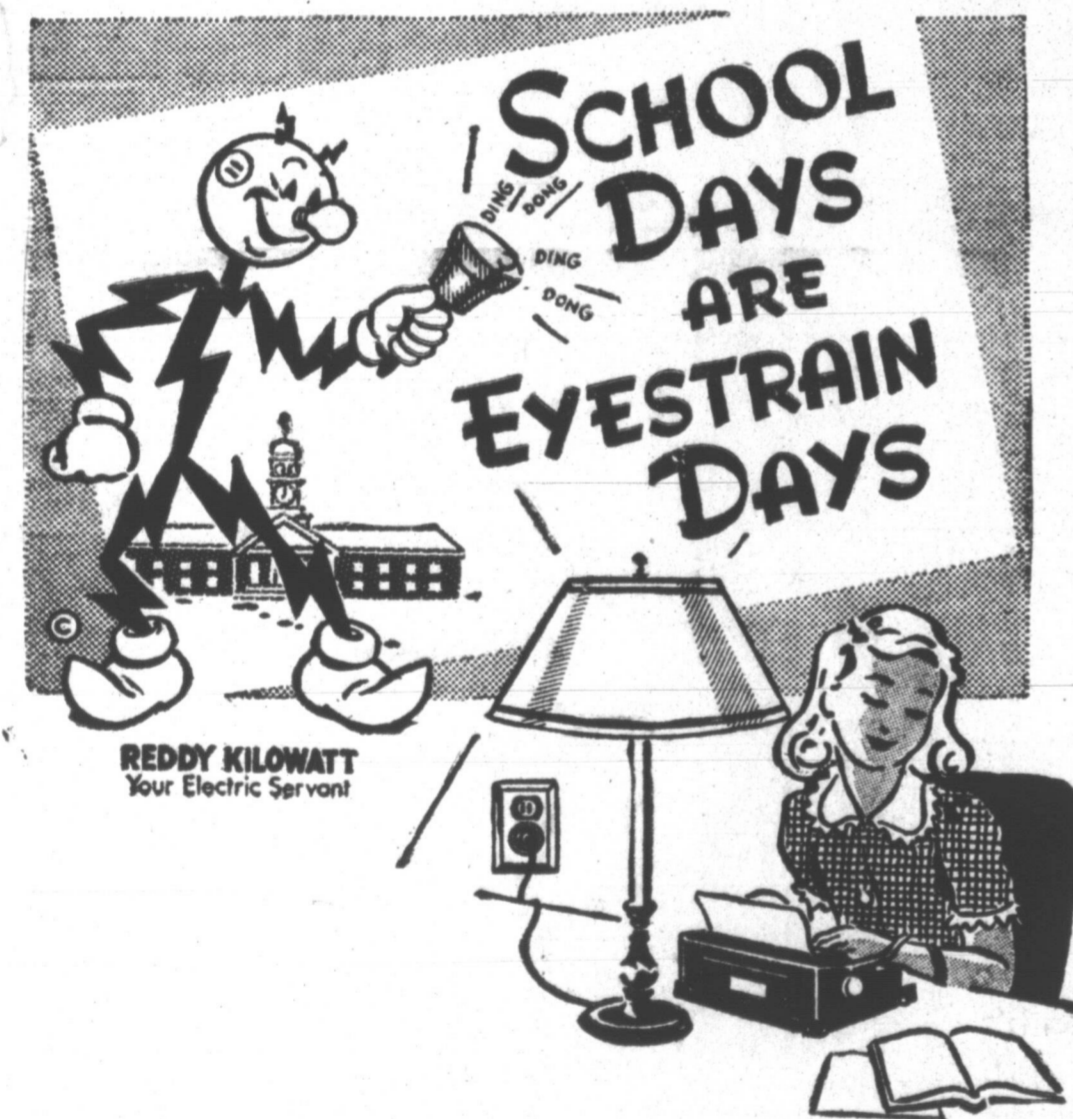

In Lubbock observers reported as many as six at one time and between 9:30 and 10 p. m. said they saw smaller meteors every few seconds.

SCHOOL DAYS ARE EYESTRAIN DAYS

REDDY KILOWATT
Your Electric Servant

The school bell should ring a bell in your mind. Does your scholar have a well-lighted place to study?

Whether the books are brought out in the kitchen, in the living room, or a bed room, you can easily make sure that there is proper lighting. And good lighting is vital, not only for all-important eyesight in later life, but as an aid to better school work.

Keeping shades, lamp bulbs and reflector bowls clean and bright makes a lot of difference when there's work or studying to be done.

And having enough light makes it easier for eyes to do their work of seeing... reliable electricity is so cheap.
