Once Arrogant Nazi Leaders Are Sentenced

NUERNBERG—AP

Rudolph Hess, to the end of the posturing crackpot of the war crimes trial, brushed aside earphones that would have told him he was to live or die, and stared blankly ahead of him as a stern judge sentenced him to life imprisonment.

One by one, 21 once haughty Nazi leaders were marched before the bar of the International Military Tribunal to hear their fate. Goering retained his fierce reserve. Gone were his flamboyant, trappings as he strode into the courtroom between two military policemen. His shabby gray suit hung limply about him.

Presiding Lord Justice Geoffrey Lawrence, cold and impersonal, gazed sternly at the No. 2 Nazi chief and sentenced him to die on the gallows. Under the pitiless glare of the klieg lights, not a muscle of Goering's face moved. Joachim von Ribbentrop, the dandy of the Nazi cabinet who as foreign minister once strutted proudly across Europe's diplomatic stage, was stunned when he heard his death sentence. Gray and sickly, he had to be helped from the room by military police.

Aging Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel, Hitler's military yes-man, heard his doom silently. When the court pronounced the death sentence, he turned silently and went back through the small door in the dock.

Tall, hulking Ernst Kaltenbrunner, once chief of the dread Gestapo, still looked easily the fiercest of the defendants. He bowed ironically when the court sentenced him to hang.

The man who scoured occupied Russia, Nazi philosopher Alfred Rosenberg, straightened his coat, folded his hands and waited impassively until his sentence of death was read.

Stocky Hans Frank, killer of thousands of Jews, nodded curtly when the judge sentenced him to the gallows.

The most hated man in the dock—hated by the defendants themselves—was Jew Baiter Julius Streicher, the screaming fanatic of the Nazi press. He was immobile when he was condemned. Because he had been found guilty on only one count, it was thought for a time he might escape death.

Wilhelm Frick, one-time street fighter who became the "protector of Bohemia and Moravia" under Hitler, looked at the sentence of death with a dispassionate look at the court.

Grand Adm. Erich Raeder, who planned the Nazi domination of the sea and the attacks on Norway and Denmark, remained as impassive as he had been throughout the trial as the court doled him out.

His successor, Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz, who became leader of Germany in the last days of the war, without emotion heard himself sentenced to 10 years imprisonment. The lightness of the sentence imposed on the Nazi submarine chief surprised many spectators.

Shabby Walther Funk, one-time economic minister, looked more like a comic strip character than a once powerful cog in a grim war machine. He shot a disgusted look at the court as he heard himself sentenced to life in prison.

Baldur von Schirach, chief of the Hitler Youth, was hushed off quickly by his two military police guards when the tribunal sentenced him to 20 years. He looked angry.

Next into the hot courtroom came the tough Nazi labor boss and enslaver of millions, Fritz Sauckel. He greeted his death sentence with an ostentatious sneer.

NEW MARITIME STRIKE IS ON

Seizure of All Market-Bound Livestock Seen

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The worsening meat shortage brought an official threat today of government seizure of all market-bound livestock.

That unprecedented step was described by Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson as "a very real danger that day by day becomes more of a possibility."

Anderson's assertion to a group of New Mexico cattlemen coincided with his formal announcement through the agriculture department here that meat must remain on the government's list of scarce farm products.

At the same time Anderson erased from the list—and from price control—all canned fruits, juices, nuts and corn, along with fresh and frozen salmon, oat cereals and rums.

What, however, hopes the meat industry might still have had that the way might be cleared for lifting OPA ceilings were dashed by the announcement here.

Anderson made the point more emphatic in his Albuquerque address yesterday by declaring that any new decontrol period would simply lead to "feast and then famine."

It was not immediately clear here whether the requisitioning step Anderson mentioned as "a very real danger" would be designed to channel more meat into regular channels or merely to assure the armed services and hospitals of a greater supply.

Anderson held out still another warning to the "stockmen"—that the long standing fight against public hoarding of Argentine beef into the country might be reopened by public demand.

The army disclosed yesterday that it is trying to buy some of its meat intended for overseas use from Argentine. Present sanitary regulations prevent the importation of Argentine meat into this country.

Anderson's short supply list was the second monthly forecast he is required to give under terms of the new price control act. No new items were added from the September table, which besides meat, included these other major commodities still classified as scarce:

Wheat, corn, rye, rice, buckwheat, flour, barley, grain sorghums, dry beans and peas, milk and butterfat, mohair, soybeans, cottonseed, flaxseed, peanut oil and meal, olive oil, most sugars and syrups, malt beverages, candy and confectionery, jams, jellies, preserves, fruit spreads, most canned fish and fish flakes, and soft drinks.

As items go off the list they automatically are removed from price control.

Bank Robber Is Captured After Chase

DENTON—(AP)—A man who was chased across a cornfield by members of the Lewisville high school football team and captured, exhausted, by an unarmed service station attendant, today was charged with robbery with firearms of a Lewisville bank.

Charges were filed against S. A. Erueggemeyer, 22, of Dallas, by County Attorney W. K. Baldridge. Baldridge, who questioned Erueggemeyer, said he told him he needed the money to pay back debts.

All of the money taken from the Lewisville State bank at Lewisville, Denton county, was recovered. It amounted to $1,045 according to Arthur Hayes, bank cashier.

Hayes said a man entered the bank through a side door after the bank was closed for the day. He said the man forced G. C. Hedrick, president; B. L. Duncan, Jr., bookkeeper; and B. P. Savage, assistant cashier, into a vault.

Then he made Hayes lock a door through which he had entered. He asked Hayes where the money was, and after pointing to a cash drawer, Hayes stepped inside the vault and slammed the door.

Inside the vault, Hayes picked up a telephone and told the operator the bank was being robbed. The operator sounded the town fire siren.

Mrs. Sam Sparks shouted from a window in a nearby building: "The bank's been robbed. There he goes!"

Members of the Lewisville football team were practicing not far away. As the man dashed into a corn field, they gave chase. They pursued him for half a mile, during which time he discarded both the loot, which he had scooped into a paper bag, and a .32 caliber revolver.

He was captured by Roy Rogan, 23, a service station attendant, who heard the football players and had jumped in a car and followed them down a highway.

Almost immediately, Rogan said, several cars arrived with armed citizens and a man was returned to the Lewisville city hall.

Baldridge, who questioned the man, said he told him he had needed the money to pay back debts and plotted the holdup while in Lewisville last Friday.

He was taken to Denton later, where charges were filed today.

Goering To Die, Hess Draws Life

NUERNBERG—(AP)—The international war crimes tribunal today decreed death on the gallows for 12 leaders of the Adolf Hitler gang, sentenced seven to prison, and— with Russia dissenting—acquitted three defendants.

The court, after sentencing to death Hermann Goering, Joachim von Ribbentrop and 10 other Nazi henchmen, announced that Russia had protested against the tribunal's acquittal of Franz von Papen, Hjalmar Schacht and Hans Fritzsche. The Soviet judge, Maj. Gen. I. T. Nikitchenko, also protested that Rudolf Hess should have been hanged instead of receiving the life imprisonment sentence the court handed him, and objected to yesterday's acquittal of the general staff and high command.

Judges of Britain, The United States and France joined in the majority opinion, which now will be carried out by the allied control council, representing all four allies.

Legal officials of the American Military Government said that if any of the three Nazi leaders acquitted were returned to the U. S. zone of occupation they probably would be tried by Germans under the zone's denazification law.

The officials said because Schacht and Von Papen owned property in more than one zone it was conjectural to which they might be returned. Legal experts in Berlin expressed belief the Russians might get custody of Fritzsche, whom they arrested in Berlin and delivered to Nuernberg for trial.

Justice Robert H. Jackson, chief U. S. prosecutor, expressed regret that "the tribunal has felt constrained to acquit Schacht and Von Papen and to decline to declare the criminality of the general staff." He said in a formal statement that "the effect of these acquittals on the further prosecution of industrialists and militarists which have been planned will have to be studied from the text of the opinion."

Each defendant was sentenced individually. Goering was first. He strode into the courtroom flanked by two military policemen. His gray suit hung limply about his once ample figure. Chief Justice Lawrence looked sternly down from the bench and sentenced the Number 2 Nazi to death by hanging. Under the glare of the lights, Goering's face was immobile.

Gray and sickly, Von Ribbentrop stood stunned as the death sentence was pronounced. He had to be helped out by military policemen. Others sentenced to death were Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel, Ernst Kaltenbrunner, Alfred Rosenberg, Hans Frank, Wilhelm Frick, Julius Streicher, Fritz Sauckel, Col. Gen. Alfred Jodl, Arthur Seyss-Inquart and Martin Bormann (in absentia).

Rudolf Hess, third ranking German until his strange wartime flight to Scotland, was sentenced to life imprisonment. Also sentenced to life were Walther Funk and Grand Adm. Erich Raeder.

Those acquitted were Franz von Papen, the old gray diplomat who led intrigues in both World Wars; Hjalmar Schacht, the German finance wizard, and Hans Fritzsche, deputy propaganda minister for Paul Joseph Goebbels, a suicide.

Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz, who surrendered Germany and was Fuehrer in the last few days of the war, received a ten year sentence.

THE MOMENT the Nazis seized power they set about in defiance of the Versailles Treaty, in arm.

chance of that. All defense attorneys had announced they would appeal in the event of death sentences against their clients.

Goering and Ribbentrop were convicted on all four counts in the conspiracy and crimes against peace, and sentenced to death.

Two Seriously Injured in Wreck

Two Wheeler people were injured, one seriously, in an automobile accident near here Saturday night.

Seriously injured was Patricia Ann Willey, age 17, who was taken to the Worley hospital for emergency treatment and later transferred to a hospital in Wheeler.

Also injured was S. D. Miller, age 21, who received treatment Saturday night and was released from the Worley hospital Sunday morning.

The accident occurred at 11:20 p.m. approximately three miles east of Pampa on U. S. Highway 60.

Texas state highway patrolmen working in conjunction with the county sheriff's department reported that a 1941 Ford coach being driven east by Miller collided with the rear of a 1946 International truck driven by Win. S. Runyon, Pampa. The truck had just completed towing a 1936 Ford coach out of the ditch on the north side of the highway. The Ford coach was still sitting in the middle of the highway and thus momentarily obstructing Miller's view of the truck.

The accident occurred at 11:20 p.m. approximately three miles east of Pampa on U. S. Highway 60. Total estimated damage to the cars was $500.

Charter Election Will Be Set Soon

Backers of a move to increase the size of the city commission said today it was planned to call an election on the city charter change in the near future and that they hoped to have the election held on the same day as the November general elections.

Frank Carter, spokesman for the group, said the commission had promised to set a date for the election as soon as the list of qualified voters in the city could be checked. The charter amendment, if approved, would increase the size of the commission from three to five members, with four commissioners elected from precincts of wards and a mayor elected by the voters at large.

Narcotics Stolen From Store Here

Over $50 worth of narcotics were stolen last night from the Prescription Laboratories, 119 West Kingsmill St. It was disclosed by city police and sheriff's office attaches today.

The thieves broke a glass window in the rear door of the establishment, reached through the hole and unlocked the door. Entering they broke open the lock of the drug cabinet and cleaned it out completely, police sated.

Both police and sheriff's officials claimed they believed the break in was made by dope addicts.

Some of the drugs taken included: cocaine, morphine sulphate, Dilaudid, Denerol hcl, stypiclin, copavin capsules and others, according to a list now in the possession of both police and sheriff's departments.

The spokesman added that his group hoped to call a mass meeting of taxpayers in the near future at which time the issue would be thoroughly explained.

The wards from which the commissioners would be elected have already been set up by the group and published in the Daily News.

Navy Bomber Sets Non-Stop Record

COLUMBUS, O.—(AP)—The Truett Turtie, navy patrol bomber, landed at Port Columbus at 11:28 a. m. (CST) today, completing a record-breaking non-stop flight of 11,127 miles from Perth, Australia. The unofficial lap time was 58 hours and 18 minutes.

The twin-engine Lockheed Neptune P2V, carrying a crew of four men and a baby kangaroo, thereby exceeded by 3,321 miles the non-stop mark of 7,806 miles set last November by the army's B29 "Dream Boat."

On hand to greet the long-distance fliers were members of the Columbus naval air station plus delegations of navy officials who flew here from Washington and Chicago, headed by Admiral Richard W. Ewen, commanding officer of the naval air reserve training station at Glenview, Ill.

The fliers, headed by Cmdr. Thomas D. Davies of Cleveland, were to be given a flight physical examination for fatigue immediately.

Other members of the record-breaking expedition who left Perth at 4:10 a. m. CST, Sunday, were Cmdrs. Eugene P. Rankin of Sapulpa, Okla., and Walter S. Reid of Washington, D. C., and Lt. Cmdr. Roy H. Taberling of Jacksonville, Fla.

Then they were to relate their experiences to newsmen.

Journalism Class Studies Leads

Leads, leads and more leads. These are the thoughts of the journalism class as they begin to study the fundamentals of journalism.

Clippings of all kinds of leads are beginning to stack up in their notebooks, some from newspapers and others original.

So if you find a hole in your paper some alert journalism student will point you to it.

ROAD PAVING . . .

"If your heart goes bumpy-bump! It's Oh-Oh-Oh!" For the thrill of your life you must go over the "back road", and I think you will find more jogs than on the Lefors highway.

And then the rain! It all seems to collect on the "back road" and most of the cars go that way in order to get closer to the building.

After five years of the same thing something should be done! If we all get behind a leader and push the project perhaps the "back road" would become to PHS a main thorough-fare WITH PAVEMENT. B. B.

SPORTSMANSHIP EXCELS . . .

It would be hard to find any better sportsmanship than that which was displayed in the election of school president. Everyone, no matter whom he was for, respected the other fellow's posters and programs.

On the night before the campaign when everyone was feverishly working to get his posters up, the one and only ladder was shared by everyone without any fights. If you had some cardboard and the other guy had some paint, a trade was made.

Too bad that some professional politicians couldn't copy from these people. D. L.

Local Park Site Of French Picnic

The French II class gave a picnic for the "new" Frenchmen, the French I class, in the city park Thursday night.

Hot dogs and pop were the refreshments, and softball was played following the refreshments.

Everyone went to the Gorilla game following the picnic.

Immigration Laws Discussed by Class

The fifth hour sociology class has been studying the effects of immigration on the United States.

A heated argument arose over whether the United States should lower the number of English immigrants and raise the number of Greeks. The idea came when it was discovered that there are only about 10% of the English number who really want to come to America and nearly 100% more Greeks who would like to come.

Following this argument a committee of students talked to Representative Eugene Worley as to the views of the Congress on the subject. Mr. Worley said that the matter was now in the hands of a committee and would be brought before the house probably in a few days.

FLEXIBLE PUBLICATION

Due to the newspaper shortage, the Little Harvester publication will have a flexible publishing date. The page will appear in the Sunday edition of the Pampa News when possible. If it does not appear in Sunday's paper, it will be in either Mondays or Tuesday's edition.

Harvesters Will Meet Vernon Lions Friday

The Vernon Lions are next on the list of foes for the Harvesters eleven. The game will be played at Harvester Park at 8 p.m. Friday Oct. 4.

With a 14-0 defeat suffered at the hands of the Harvesters last year, the Lions will be out for a little revenge.

So far this season they have lost two games, one to Altus, Okla. 7-0; and to Sherman, Texas, 18-0.

Vernon has the same backfield who faced the 1945 Pampa team. This gives Vernon a big advantage on the experience side, but they will have to go some to outfight the Harvester quartet.

Enrollment Announced At 991 for School

A total of 991 students are enrolled in Pampa high at the present time.

This is quite high for an early fall count although it is not so large as the final tabulation of last year.

As usual, the Freshmen led the list with 337. The Sophomore and Junior classes were about equal, 246 to 237 respectively. Claiming the least number of classmates, the Seniors total 171.

It is expected that the enrollment will top the century mark before the year is over.

Ex-Harvesters Playing On Nations Gridirons

Ex-Harvesters are scattered far and wide on the various campuses of the nation.

Georgia Tech claims one Harvester, Ronald Phillips, who played in 1939-40. Texas gets Randall Clay, who starred on the '44-'45 teams.

Pampa's all-Southern star, Charlie Torvie, will do his bit to give Texas A.&M. a successful season.

Oklahoma A.&M. claims the most Harvesters, the majority which are of last year's team: Jimmy Terrell, Virgil Fish, Stan Simpson and J. P. Matthews are the ones carrying on their football careers.

Jack Dunham and Bob Troop are going to West Texas State.

Kenneth Grantham and Merle McCracken are wearing the red and blue of SMU. To Texas Christian goes Johnny Campbell. Harvester standouts of '45.

Texas Tech has Kenneth Lard while the Tulsa Hurricanes have found prospects in Jake Halter and Bill Arthur. The University of Oklahoma was chosen by Leon Gooch.

glimpses of glamour

It seems to be just the fad to have a cropped head, and an example of this is red headed Eleanor Campbell. For a day or two she almost didn't have any hair, so it seems she has influenced others to do the same.

Loud boots have been putting eyes of many out. Those winning the prize are the yellow, yellow ones of Bill Gettings. Running a close second are Carol Sloan's now a bright red, and Douglas Mills' of orange and blue.

Frankie Studer was looking very chic in a grey shirt with a watch chain as an accessory. These grey flannel shirts seem to be holding their own, among the ever popular plaids.

Moccasins, sweat socks, tea shirts, and Levis are still the favorites of the male sex of the school. Seen thus arrayed was Richard Scheig, Buddy Sawyer, Bob Boyles, and Jimmy Cox.

The coming of cold weather brings out all of ye ole sweaters and some new ones too. Seen in a green flannel sweater was Billie Don Crowson. Nelda Davis has one that is fushia and white striped, and we mustn't forget that pretty pink one of Betty Barrett's. The boys have acquired some pretty bold sweaters themselves. Max Hukill owns a red turtle neck job that really draws the praises, while Bill Gettings sports a blue ski sweater.

Pette Martell Hawkins was seen in a brown and white shepard check suit, which lent just the right effect to her blondness, and at her side Betty Jean Prigmore was all decked out in a pale yellow which harmonized beautifully.

We must close now, but first take a look some time at the shirt and coat of matress licking owned by none other than Carol Culberson.

What Is Wrong When Prayer Fails?

Thirty years ago, in Forbidden Tibet, behind the highest mountains in the world, a young Englishman named Edwin J. Dingle found the answer to this question. A great mystic opened his eyes. A great change came over him. He realized the strange Power that Knowledge gives.

That Power, he says, can transform the life of anyone. Questions, whatever they are, can be answered. The problems of health, death, poverty and wrong, can be solved. In his own case, he was brought back to splendid health. He acquired wealth, too, as well as worldwide professional recognition. Thirty years ago, he was sick as a man could be and live. Once his coffin was bought. Years of almost constant blindness, privation and danger had made a human wreck of him, physically and mentally. He was about to be sent back to England to die, when a strange message came—"They are waiting for you in Tibet." He wants to tell the whole world what he learned there, under the guidance of the

Schacht, Von Papen, Fritzsche Acquitted by Tribunal

All Three, However, May Be Subject To Denazification Trial by Germans

NUERNBERG—AP—The three of 22 Nazi defendants on trial on war crimes charges acquitted by the International Military Tribunal today were Hjalmar Schacht, Franz von Papen and Hans Fritzsche.

However, all three might be tried by German authorities before denazification courts.

The Tribunal said of Schacht:

"He helped set up the early stage of the armament in Germany, but he was opposed to aggressive war and resigned in 1937 when it became evident Hitler was headed toward war."

"Schacht was not involved in the planning of any of the specific wars of aggression. He was clearly not one of the inner circle around Hitler. He was clearly not one of the inner circle around Hitler. He was regarded by this group with undisguised hostility. The testimony of (Albert) Speer (nazi munitions minister) showed that Schacht's arrest on July 23, 1944, was based as much on Hitler's enmity towards Schacht, growing out of his attitude before the war, as it was suspicion of his complicity in the bomb plot."

In acquitting Von Papen, accused of engineering Hitler's rise to power, the Austrian Anschluss and other diplomatic coups, the tribunal declared:

"The evidence leaves no doubt that Von Papen's primary purpose as minister to Austria was to un-

Crime of War Is Brought Down to Personal Level

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The Nuernberg international military tribunal has formulated what peace-makers for generations have been trying to persuade the world to accept—that conspiracy to commit aggressive war "is the supreme crime."

It's a notable circumstance that the court which makes this momentous ruling comprises representatives of the Big Four—America, Russia, Britain and France. They are more than any others, are responsible for world peace.

It is this verdict which should strengthen the hand of the United Nations in dealing with the threat of aggression. Perhaps we shall find that the benefit to the U.N. may be mainly psychological for the time being, until the great powers get through scrapping among themselves.

As things stand, any one of the Big Four—plus China—could block action against an aggressor by exercising the veto right which Russia has been employing so freely in all sorts of circumstances in the security council. However, the tribunal's verdict that the wages of aggression is death should provide our new peace organization with a potentially powerful weapon.

Punishment of the individual conspirators is calculated to be a mighty deterrent to future aggression. Of course Germany's fearful beating has been a terrible lesson to the nation as a whole—and to the rest of the world, for that matter—but such blanket punishment is too impersonal. We needed to deal with individuals to bring the thing home.

As the verdict said: "Crimes against international law are committed by men—not by abstract entities—and only by punishing individuals who commit such crimes can provisions of international law be enforced."

The Nuernberg verdict on individuals will be remembered long after Berlin has been rebuilt and folk have forgotten that it was laid in rubble.

The outstanding figure among the condemned is former Reichsmarschal Hermann Goering—just as he was the most striking personality and the greatest driving force in the reich next to Hitler when madness was in flower. Goering has recognized, perhaps better than any other of the accused, the stern realities of the trial. He has from the start taken a practical view of the situation, and never has had any other idea than that ultimately he would hang. So he concentrated on trying to whitewash the reich.

Nuernberg courthouse, where an assemblage of judges and prosecutors has just handed down the first conviction of criminals against international peace. These trials, which have extended for months and hundreds of thousands of words, to be the most historical ever held, were heard on the third, floor, center section.

war crimes and crimes against humanity. The three who were freed by the court were Hjalmar Schacht, former German economics minister and reichsbank president; Franz von Papen, long-time German diplomat; and Hans Fritzsche, onetime deputy propaganda minister.

There was a possibility, however, that all three might be arrested by German authorities upon their release to be tried before denazification courts.

Legal authorities here expressed the opinion that all three could be held and tried by these courts as top-ranking nazis if the German courts operating under current denazification laws so desired.

The tribunal struck hard at Goering in its conclusions, declaring the former reichsmarschal's guilt "is unique in its enormity."

"The record discloses no excuse for this man," the tribunal said. Of Hess, the tribunal had this to say:

"That Hess acts in an abnormal manner, suffers from loss of memory and has mentally deteriorated during this trial may be true. But there is nothing to show that he does not realize the nature of the charges against him or is incapable of defending himself. There is no suggestion that Hess was not completely sure when the acts charged against him were committed."

Kilbentrop was styled by the tribunal as the willing tool of Hitler, but the opinion convicting him of all four counts added: "It was because Hitler's policies and plans coincided with his own ideas that Ribbentrop served him so willingly to the end."

The court brushed aside as "untrue" Ribbentrop's defense that Hitler made all the important decisions.

"The tribunal consumed almost a thousand words in dooming Keitel who gulped, lowered his sharp Prussian chin a moment as he listened and then stared blankly ahead."

The court said Keitel never denied his connection with various acts of Hitler's regime, and then added: "His defense relies on the fact that he is a soldier and on the doctrine of 'superior orders,' prohibited by article eight of the tribunal's charter as a defense."

"There is nothing in mitigation, here crimes as shocking and extensive have been committed consciously, ruthlessly and without military excuse of justification."

Hangman Heydrich's gestapo successor, Kaltenbrunner, kept nodding his head as Justice Lawrence read his conviction. He still looked the toughest man in the dock.

The tribunal, while acquitting Kaltenbrunner of conspiring to wage aggressive war, castigated him for crimes against humanity and war crimes.

"He had undoubtedly visited Mauthausen (concentration camp)," it said, "and witnesses testified that he had seen prisoners killed by various methods of execution—hanging, shooting in the back of the neck and gassing—as part of the demonstration."

Dealing with the gestapo chief's denial that he signed many orders sentencing thousands to death, the tribunal said, "It is inconceivable that in matters of such importance his signature could have appeared so many times without his authority."

Rosenberg adjusted his spectacles and wriggled nervously as the tribunal turned to him.

"Rosenberg is responsible for a system of organized plunder of both public and private property throughout the invaded countries of Europe," the tribunal said. "Rosenberg had knowledge of the brutal treatment and terror to which the eastern peoples were subjected."

Justice Bidde then turned to Hans Frank, the tough hatchet man who ruled Poland with blood and iron.

While finding Frank innocent of plotting aggressive war, Bidde in measured tones declared: "It is also true that Frank was a willing and knowing participant in the use of terrorism in Poland, in the economic exploitation of Poland and in a way which led to death by starvation of a large number of people; deportation to Germany as slave laborers of over a million Poles, and in a program involving the murder of at least 3,000,000 Jews."

Wilhelm Frick, bullet-headed follower of Hitler since 1923, was described bluntly as "an avid Nazi, always rabidly anti-Semitic" and drafter of the infamous Nuernberg decrees against the Jews. The court said he was responsible for policies in occupied Czechoslovakia and the "Germanization" idea elsewhere.

"He had knowledge that insane, sick and aged people, 'useless eaters,' were being systematically put to death," the verdict asserted.

MURDERED BY THE GERMANS—German civilians, as those above, were forced by American occupation forces to walk past the bodies of hundreds of victims of German cruelty. Above, they walk by the bodies of 26 Jewish women starved to death by German SS troops in a six-mile march across Czechoslovakia. It was for such crimes the leaders of the Nazis are paying—in most cases with their lives.

Bill Speer Returns To Harvester Lineup

Dixie Series Opens In Atlanta Tonight

ATLANTA—(AP)—The first Dixie series since 1942 gets underway here tonight between the Atlanta Crackers of the South Association and the Texas league's Dallas Rebels. Game time is 7:15 p. m. (CST).

Atlanta won a ninth-inning 2-1 victory over the Memphis Chickies here last night in the seventh and deciding game of the Southern's Shaughnessy playoff. Dallas has been hanging around for several days waiting for the weather-delayed series to be completed.

Probable pitchers are Shelby Kinney for the Crackers and Hank Oana for the Rebels.

The teams will play two games here and return to Dallas for resumption of the seven-game series.

Co-Captain Bill Speer donned a Harvester suit for the first time this season yesterday as the Pampa Harvesters went through a stiff practice session in preparation for the game with Vernon here Friday night.

Speer, absent from the squad since the first of the season because of illness, has received a physician's OK to play ball and his return will further raise the hopes of Coaches Otis Coffey and Jiggs Whittington, who are trying desperately to build a steady line and a workable backfield out of inexperienced material.

A reserve right end last year, Speer is one of the brightest prospects here in several years. Weighing 175 pounds even after his illness, Speer worked out with the backs and ends in tackle practice yesterday and is also doing some work on punting.

With Speer at end, the Harvester line will be in better shape than it has been since the season started. Coaches and fans alike have praised the work of Bill Bain, regular left end, indicating that Bain may keep the post. Other ends who will provide plenty of reserve strength are Kelly Anderson, Bill Bond and Charlie Duenkel, with Tackie Zeke Griffin also showing up good in that spot.

In tackle practice yesterday, Maurice Lockhart, captain and center, was hitting them hard and low along with Buddy Sawyer, Speer, Bain and others but Coach Coffey was having to remind the tacklers to keep their heads up and their eyes on the man they were tackling.

The Harvesters will continue their heavy workouts today and tomorrow, tapering off Thursday with a light drill.

Still limping yesterday was first string Guard Richard Scheig, who received a slight injury last Friday in a scrimmage game. Scheig took part in practice, however, and is expected to be ready to go Friday.

Single by Range Scores Final Marker; Hacker Is Winner

HENDERSON—(Special)—Pampa's Oilers are only one game away from the Texas Class C baseball championship after their 5-4, 10-inning victory over Henderson's Oilers in the third game of their series here last night.

The two teams, representing the East Texas and West Texas-New Mexico leagues, were enroute to Pampa today and will resume their series tomorrow night in the Top o' Texas city.

After the Pampana had bunched up only three hits in the second inning last night, Henderson came back with a single run in the last half of the frame on a homer by Loyd Pearson, scored another in the sixth on a walk, a single and a fielder's choice and kno'led the count in the ninth on an error by Tony Range and a circuit smash by Johnny Chiglieri.

Pampa's winning score in the tenth resulted from a single by Jack Riley, a sacrifice by Virgil Richardson and a single by Range.

Warren Hacker, tall righthander went the route for Pampa, giving up only three hits in the first five innings. Jake Christie started for Henderson but was relieved in the second by Al Lawson, who was tagged with the defeat.

Two southpaws, both aces of the respective mound corps, may start at Pampa tomorrow night as the West Texans attempt to conclude the series.

Manager Grover Seitz of the Pampa line will probably send Lefty Bill Garland to the mound while Boss Ray Hunicutt of Henderson is expected to nominate Elton "Slick" Davis, who lost to Garland 4-1 last Saturday night in the series opener.

Garland won 23 and lost eight during the regular season while Davis was compiling a record of 26 wins and six losses.

Scott's ScrapBook

By SCOTT RAFFERTY

Jack Davis, Pampa Junior high grid coach, scouted Vernon's Lions in their two games this year and, among other things, reported that the Lions made a total of only three first downs in the two games, also failing to score in losing to Altus 7-0 and Sherman 18-0. But we figure the Harvesters can just forget that part of the deal. The Harvesters won't be playing Vernon's team—they'll be playing Vernon's team.

Then too, Vernon has had some good boys out of the lineup due to injuries. Most of them will be back and the Lions are bound to be tougher. In fact, they could be too tough if the local gridlers let them.

Pampa is up against some pretty big odds this year. Nearly every team on the Harvester schedule from here on out is loaded with high-powered talent and its going to take a lot of effort on the Harvesters' part to win.

Maybe the Pampa-Vernon game doesn't command much attention from the experts, but it should command the full attention and respect of every boy in a Harvester suit; either that, or that boy who overlooks this game shouldn't be wearing that suit, now or later. There's no excuse for laying down on the job in football and its usually not very hard to see which boys are. We haven't seen it yet this year and we really hope we won't see it for the sake of the team, the boy and the school.

As the old saying—our favorite—goes: "A Scorer comes to write beside your name. He shall record, not that you won or lost, but how you played the game."

Coaches Having Trouble in SWC Football Circles
By MAX B. SKELTON
AP Staff Writer

Injuries, ineligibility and resignations are plaguing five Southwestern conference football teams and indications are that only Texas and Rice, tabbed to battle it out for the conference crown, will be at full-strength for Saturday games.

T. C. U., Texas A. and M., S. M. U. and Arkansas have a total of 12 players on the hospital list and the Fort Worth Frogs have lost two additional men because of scholastic ineligibility.

Frank Kimbrough, coach of Baylor's Bears at Waco, revealed last night that M. L. (Kit) Kittrell, quarterback for the 1941 and 1942 Bear elevens, has turned in his uniform.

Baylor officials said that Kittrell is resigning, indicated that he fell he was not getting in enough playing time. The Bears have broken even in their first two games, defeating Southwestern and losing to T. C. U. They will be idle this week.

T. C. U. followers received one good bit of news last night, however, with the announcement that Billy Hale, all-conference center and former Texas Tech player, will become eligible for 1946 competition on Nov. 1.

Injured Frogs are Dave Bloxom, fullback and Tom Bishop, regular blocking back. Bloxom received a knee injury in Saturday's conference lid-blaster against Baylor and Bishop turned up with a hip bruise.

Pete Stout, 302-pounder from Throckmorton, has been shifted from tailback to Bloxom's spot.

Lost to the Frogs because of scholastic difficulties were John Poinz, a guard who started the Kansas game, and Wayne Roberts, back.

Arkansas, T. C. U.'s opponent this Saturday, has two men out of action and it is doubtful whether either will play against the Frogs. They are Herman Styles, an end, and Howard Hughes, a back who has been out since the Northwestern Louisiana game two weeks ago.

Matty Bell, upon returning from Philadelphia yesterday with his Mustangs at S. M. U., said ends Harold Clark and Grady Martin, Guard Eric Lipke and Center Lloyd Baxter, who were rouged up in the Temple game, will miss the Texas clash at the Dallas Cotton Bowl Saturday night.

Bell also indicated that blocking back Toadie McClintock, who missed the Temple game, may not play against the Red Raiders.

At College Station, the fullback position is giving Coach Homer Norton trouble. Willie Zapala left Saturday's Alamo stadium battle at San Antonio with a knee injury and his understudy, Ed Sturgher, was badly bruised.

On the Aggie limping list were Leonard Dickey, tackle, and centers Bob Gary and John Knight. Ed Dyrek also turned up yesterday with a bum knee.

Texas, who gets its roughest test this week against Oklahoma A. and M., is in excellent condition for a game that is being rated tops in the nation.

Jess Neely at Rice, admittedly disappointed over the L. S. U. setback but justly criticizing the weather more than his players, hopes that Saturday night's Southwestern game will give his feathered flock an opportunity to see action on firm ground.

St. Louis Favored To Capture Series

By JACK HAND

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Throw out 154 games and a 14-3 season edge for St. Louis over Brooklyn and start the real 1946 National League race today as managers Eddie Dyer and Leo Durocher match wits and strategy in the opener of a three-game tie playoff—the first ever held in major league baseball.

Howie Pollet, the Cardinals' ailing No. 1 hurler, probably holds the key to the situation the aching muscles of his left side. The slender Southpaw has been poison to the Brooks.

Lyer won't know if Pollet, who has been knocked out of the box by Chicago in his last two starts, can take his turn until he lets him warm up in the sportsman park before the game, which starts at 1:15 (CST).

If he's "right," Pollet will pitch and Card supporters who have made their favorites a surprising 13 to 20 choice will breathe more easily. If not, Dyer will fall back on Murry Dickson, a wiry lighthander who has beaten the Dodgers three times and lost once on relief.

There is no secret in the fact that Dyer has pouted his Cardinal club for Durocher's club all season long. He confided before the season that "Brooklyn is the team to beat."

There is no key figure holding the fate of the Dodgers' master plan. It is based on Durocher's hunches and uncanny ability to call on the right men at the right time. Bringing with confidence, as usual, the Dodger manager has picked Ralph Branca, a 20-year-old collegian from Mt. Vernon, N. Y., to hurl the vital game. Branca has been extremely effective against the Birds.

Durocher's prize gamble of the year involved Branca in his last start against St. Louis, on Sept. 14.

Unlike the world series, the players do not share in the receipts of the play-off games, but President Sam Breadon of the Cards announced his players would be paid off for the week on a pro-rata basis of their season's salary.

KPDN Broadcasting Playoff Contests

Radio Station KPDN is carrying broadcast of the Brooklyn-St. Louis baseball playoff through facilities of the Mutual Broadcasting system. Thursday's broadcast, from E-beds field in Brooklyn will start at 12:15, Pampa time. If a third game is necessary, it will also be broadcast from Ebbets field Friday.

Out of their WISDOM

WAS LIT THE FLAME OF Freedom!

THE DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE and Constitution were written by men of wisdom and experience. Thomas Jefferson left a library of 10,000 volumes, and read the books of great thinkers in six or seven languages. James Madison was a student of theology, and was one of the wisest men of the Colonies. Benjamin Franklin possessed a great store of common sense, experience and culled wisdom of the ages, through reading. He is credited with starting America's first circulating library.

Wisdom of the ages lights the way for modern scientific and medical research. Many years of study, experience and organized effort made possible America's fine Medical Schools, high standards of Medicine, Dentistry and Pharmacy. Keep them free of bureaucratic hands so they may continue to work toward SOUND enhancement of health services.

Shade of Sycamore

By PERCY MARKS Author of "The Plastic Age" "A Tree Grown Straight" Etc.

THE STORY: Gayle, daughter of a college professor, has just become engaged to handsome Bruce Bartlett, famous athlete and scion of wealth. Visiting his home and parents for the first time, she is frightened by the splendor in which they live. Although Mrs. Bartlett greets her kindly, Gayle feels uncomfortable. But she and Bartlett's inviolable father take to each other immediately.

VIII
BART kept Gayle so busily occupied that day that she had little time to be frightened. He showed her over the house, and she found that it did not have 90 rooms. It did have a great many, however, and most of them were so large that she was sure 90 ordinary rooms would not have been beyond its capacity. The ballroom was fully as large as the gymnasium at the college where her father taught.

The gardens were worthy of the house. There were long vistas with lily pools gleaming in the distance, sunken gardens, and acres of emerald green lawns. The tiled swimming pool came almost as an anti-climax, and the tennis courts hardly seemed worthy of notice. House, gardens, countryside—all were beautiful, but she wanted none of them. More and more as the day wore on, she was filled with a sense of rebellion. "I don't want it," she told herself over and over again. "It's gorgeous, but I don't want it. I don't even want to be part of it."

And then Bart would speak to her tenderly, or he would touch her, and Sycamore seemed of no importance whatever. It didn't matter. Bart was all that mattered, and, besides, they didn't plan to live at Sycamore, anyway. They were going to live somewhere in Westchester county outside of New York City. They would have an ordinary house, and after visits to Sycamore it

WAL STREET STOCKS

NEW YORK, Sept. 31.—The direction generally remained downward in today's stock market although selling never achieved any real urgency. Steels led the backward shift at the start. A few "thin" issues dropped 6 to 8 points on meager transactions, but declines, on the whole, ranged from fractions to 3. Encouragement was derived from the fact that the ticker tape frequently loafed. Extreme setbacks were reduced in most cases at the close with a smattering of plus signs appearing. Transfers of around 1,100,000 shares were among the smallest for the past month.

Minor advances were shown for Youngtown Steel, Public Service of N. J., Standard Oil (N. J.) and National Distillers.

Arrogant
ple diary of his association with Hitler helped convict himself and conspirators, stared languidly as I-rvd Justice Lawrence sent him to the gallows in the same dispassionate monotone. The presiding judge, as he did with all the others, looked the prisoner squarely in the eye.

Arthur Seyss-Inquart clung tensely with both hands to the railing of the dock as he heard his death sentence. With a palpable effort the former gauleiter of the Netherlands and Austria controlled his emotions.

Old and worn, former Foreign Minister Constantin von Neurath looked limp in his dark clothing, as he heard himself sentenced to 15 years—virtually life imprisonment.

When she was wide awake, however, and as she dried her body, she laughed at herself in the mirror before her. There were three huge mirrors in the bathroom, and she could not turn without catching sight of her image.

"It's indecent," she thought, smiling, "all these naked women."

Gayle felt reborn when she returned to the bedroom and the waiting Lucie.

She slipped into her negligee and went to the dressing table. Say what one would, this was the kind of dressing table a girl dreamed about—nice and long with room for everything, a froth of organy ruffles around one's legs to make one feel fragile and feminine, plenty of light, and three mirrors so that every square inch could be clearly and minutely examined. She picked up her hairbrush and then paused as Lucie asked, "Please let me."

"I always do my own," Gayle said dubiously.

"I know, but Miss Kent, I'd like to. I'm trained. My mother was Mrs. Bartlett's maid for many years. She taught me, and I studied in a beauty shop too. I've been thinking about you. Won't you let me do what I want? Then if you don't like it, you can do it all over—your face and hair, I mean."

"My face? Lipstick and powder; that's all I use."

"Yes, indeed," agreed Lucie, moving quickly to her. "But," she added, smiling at Gayle in the mirror, "I think you'll like it."
