I Predict For 1947

My operations reveal Joe Stalin is all you'd be too. If you had to imbibe that vodka, Stalin's name, however, means "steel" (not steel) and he may survive. Anyway, watch Russia—hak-kaff!

Egad! Will the men who delve for coal strike in 1947? Hm! Can a duck swim? Further, I predict when the miners do go out, coal piles will ebb! And everybody will lose but John L. Lewis.

The President? My word! It's Harry Truman, isn't it, not Rachmaninoff or Frankie Carle? Watch Truman, and mark my word, the Mission will be chief executive come 1948—if not 1949.

Speaking scientifically, how far can we go with the atom? Or how far will the atom go with us—meat grinders, pencil sharpeners? I strongly advise my readers refrain from splitting hairs or atoms!

Proclamation May Reduce '47 Tax Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Truman's proclamation terminating hostilities may automatically reduce the nation's 1947 tax bill by approximately $700,000,000.

In these instances, the President said, he will ask Congress for additional legislation.

Under questioning as to whether this was a step in his promise to cooperate with the Republican-controlled Congress, the President said that this was cooperating with Congress.

The President emphasized that the termination of the period of hostilities did not have the effect of terminating the state of war itself.

With respect to the termination of the national emergency and the state of war I shall make recommendations to the Congress in the near future," his formal statement, read to the reporters, concluded.

Among other things, the President said that his action would terminate the life of the Smith-Connally Anti-Strike act six months from today.

The time has come, Mr. Truman said at one point during an exchange with reporters, when the executive branch should give up some of the powers exercised during the war.

"This is entirely in keeping with the policies which I have consistently followed," he said (reading again from his statement) "in an effort to bring our economy and our government back to a peacetime basis as quickly as possible."

Only yesterday Senator Wiley (R-Wis.) reported to the Senate Republican conference that the effect would be "chaotic" if all the government's wartime controls were repealed at a single stroke. He proposed a review by the Judiciary committee which he will head in the 80th Congress.

Power to declare an end to most wartime emergency laws was vested in both the President and Congress, either could act separately.

The President concluded the conference by telling reporters he would see them again at 4 o'clock (EST) Thursday afternoon. The conference was limited to discussion of his proclamation.

He wished all the reporters a Happy New Year.

No Regular Issue Of News Tomorrow

There will be no regular issue of the Pampa Daily News tomorrow, New Year's Day, traditionally observed by the newspaper as a holiday. The next regular edition will be on Thursday, Jan. 2.

New Year Troubles Local Peace Officers

'Tis time to make those New Year's resolutions and city police are in a quandary as to what is expected of them as officers and do it better in 1947 than in any other previous year. The conversation was most informal but here is what they found:

If a cop is neat he is accused of being conceited or if a little sloppy then he's a bum. Now when a policeman is pleasant he's a flirt, but on the other hand if he is brief that tags him as a grouch. A policeman in a hurry will be "overlooking things" but let him take his time then someone will call him lazy.

Public criticism is often fierce, when you arrest a person you have it in for him and when a violator is passed up the cop is easy or showing partiality. Now let a policeman show some energy and some cynic is sure to declare he is trying to make a record or when he is diligent then he is "too slow to catch a crook."

The ever foremost question of physical combat cropped up. If a policeman is socked on the kisser, he's a coward, but let him turn around and return the poke, cries of "bully" arise.

The further they went the more perplexed became the law enforcers. Said J. O. Dumas: "If you outwit a crook you're a sneak or if he sees us first then we're boneheads."

Thought still another cop: "Yah—if we catch him we're lucky and if we miss him then we're slumps."

Games Round Out 1946 Grid Season

Borger Exes To Carbon Bowl Tilt

Aggie Star Tops SW Cage Scorers

By The Associated Press
 Bill Batey, Texas A. and M. forward, topped the Southwest Conference in scoring as the basketball campaign finishes out its first month.

Although playing on a team that has won only four games while losing seven and going against some of the toughest opposition in the country, Batey has rolled up 154 points on 63 field goals and 28 free throws.

He has a comfortable lead over John Hargis, Texas center, and his 131 points.

Hargis, however, has played one game less than Batey, in third place in Bill Johnson, Baylor forward, with 129 points.

Texas Christian played the only game for a conference team last night as the Christians remained winless by dropping a 63-36 decision to Missouri at St. Louis. It was the ninth straight loss for the Horned Frogs who meet Iowa at Iowa City tonight.

Will Battle Mountain Five Army Laurels

— Crozier Tech (Dallas) leading state class AA basketball, and East Mountain class A semifinalists last night, met tonight for the championship of the Dallas High School Basketball tournament.

— Crozier Tech (Dallas) for All-American honors and Waco meets for third place.

— The semi-final round yesterday, Crozier Tech defeated Waco 27-22. East Mountain eliminated Blossom 42-37. Palo Verde trimmed Buckner Home 42-21 and Sunset edged Forest, 44-37.

St. James Grid Team Seeks Point-Making Crown in Tilt Today

PORT WORTH (AP)—Two high-scoring teams, each with an illustrious record, clash today in the charity bowl with St. James high school of Port Arthur seeking the national point-making crown.

St. James, which has gone through 15 games undefeated and rolled up 563 points, plays Istrouma of Baton Rouge, La., which hasn't lost a game in regular season play for 190 and one-half years. This year Istrouma fell to Jesuit of New Orleans in a post-season play-off.

All proceeds from today's game will go to the Port Worth Cancer fund.

New Year's Day Encounters Led by Rose, Shrine Tills

NEW YORK (AP)—The New Year's Day football bowls, which at last count numbered 19, throw open their gates tomorrow in an estimated half million sports fans who will ring in the New Year by saying goodbye to the grid greats of the old.

With the exception of unbeaten Army and Notre Dame, content to stand on their laurels without benefit of post-season performance, the major grid titans of 1946 will be on display tomorrow for this finale of perhaps the greatest season in the game's history.

Sports Round-Up

By TIGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK (AP)—One reason for football relations that hasn't been mentioned very loudly is that Army won't be good enough to play the Irish on even terms.

With those great wartime teams gone, Army will be strictly "Ivy League" from here on. Look at the '47 squad and schedule.

If Army built up to the Notre Dame level, the Ivy League wouldn't play and besides, Maj. Gen. Maxwell Taylor, the academy superintendent, won't stand for any high pressure building.

You could see that a couple of weeks ago when he was decrying the "professional mental attitudes," etc., and protesting that college presidents should have full charge of college athletes.

"If Bill Jones thinks he runs athletics at West Point, he's badly mistaken," the general added.

But think of the plight of those poor subway alumni. They may never see daylight again.

Recruiting Note

When a prowler was detected in kitchen of a fraternity house at Manhattan, Kans., recently, Ray Ade, Kansas State's star two-miler, gave chase.

The thief, burdened with a chicken, a quart of milk and two pounds of fish, outdistanced the runner. Ade, reports the Lincoln Star's Norris Anderson, soon forgot about his food. He wanted the intruder for the K-State track squad.

One-Minute Sports Page

Although there isn't as much dough in Florida this winter as last, there still are plenty of tourists willing to pay "any price" for Orange Bowl tickets.

The big question in Miami now is whether plans to erect a memorial to Walter Johnson in Washington's Griffith Stadium.

Haakon Lidman and Rune Gustafson, the Swedish runners who are coming over for the indoor season, may arrive within a week.

AAU has had no official word from them.

Did you know the first U. S. flag was raised on Jan. 2, 1776? That Utah was admitted to the Union Jan. 4, 1897? That the first national election was held in this country on Jan. 7, 1789?

These are examples of interesting dates and events which will be paraded each week this coming year, before the readers of the Pampa Daily News. The series, presented as an Almanac, is sponsored by the Pampa Office Supply.

The first appears in the edition of today.

LSU, Arkansas Will Play 'Sight Unseen'

DALLAS (AP)—It will be sight unseen when Arkansas and Louisiana State trade what they hope will be a flood of touchdowns in the Cotton Bowl tomorrow.

The two coaches undoubtedly know something about each other's teams but there was no scouting during the regular season. The main reason was that they didn't know they'd be meeting in the Dallas grid classic.

Coach Bernie Moore of LSU is authority for the statement that there was no personal looking over of the other's eleven.

"We not only didn't scout each other but had little information from others who saw our teams in action," said Moore as he prepared to send his Tigers through a final work-out in the bowl this afternoon.

"One fellow wrote from Oklahoma that he could give me the lowdown on Arkansas but I didn't know him so I didn't take advantage of the offer."

But Moore does say he knows Arkansas has more speed, that it's a tough outfit and he fears very much the running of Clyde Scott and the pass-receiving of Scott and Alton Baldwin, the big wingman who made second All-America.

The Arkansas squad moves into Dallas today, will attend the annual Cotton Bowl luncheon along with the LSU squad, and will also hold a preview in the bowl this afternoon.

Crump Dumps in 23 Points As Moderns Edge Reapers, 38-36

Leon Crump led the Modern Five Independent Basketball team to a 38 to 36 overtime period win over the Pampa Junior High Reapers at the local gym last night. Crump scored 23 points to pace individual scoring by a wide margin.

Leon Taylor, Reaper guard, tossed in 12 points to take second scoring honors. Taylor was not only the Reapers' high scorer but also played an excellent defensive game.

The Reapers showed much improvement since their last game here. Some of the boys have evidently developed a fair eye for the basket but passing was still a bit wild.

The Moderns have plenty of ability but haven't worked together enough to get in shape.

Sports Writers Will Pick Southwestern Of Year at Meeting

DALLAS (AP)—The Southwestern of the Year—the person who has done most for sports in the Southwest for 1946—will be honored tomorrow at the annual winter meeting of the Texas Sports Writers Association.

Between 30 and 40 writers are expected to attend the session which will start off at 9 a. m. with a breakfast at which they will be guests of the Cotton Bowl Athletic association. Following will be a business session, then President Flen Hall, of the Port Worth Star-Telegram, will name a committee to select the All-State high school football team.

The Southwesterner of the Year will be picked at the general meeting.

The breakfast and meeting will be at the Baker hotel.

Rice, Tennessee Test Orange Bowl; Sellout Expected

MIAMI (AP)—Rice and Tennessee trotted over the turf in the Orange Bowl stadium today to get acquainted with the field where they meet tomorrow in the 13th annual Orange Bowl football classic before a sellout crowd of 38,000.

Each squad spent an hour in the stadium, limbering up and studying the layout, then retired to their respective hotels to await the kickoff at 2 p. m. (EST).

"Pretty nice weather" was forecast. The Weather Bureau said it would be partly cloudy, with the temperature likely to be 78 to 80 degrees at game time.

Rival Coaches Jess Neely of Rice and Bob Neyland of Tennessee pronounced their teams ready after several days of intensive drills in the Miami area.

THIS IS NOT A SALE OF CULLS. I AM SELLING ALL THE HORSES I HAVE.

Every one of the above horses were born, they and their mothers, on my place, and I am going to sell every one of these horses regardless of price. None of these horses will be bid in. I am having this sale on account of poor health.

100 good Whiteface cows, 3 to 6 years old bred to registered bulls. I have had nothing but registered bulls for the past 35 years. This is as good a bunch of grade cows as there are in the Panhandle of Texas. These cows will be sold 5 and 10 in a lot.

LUNCH WILL BE SERVED ON THE GROUNDS
