U.S. Proposes Investigation Along Greek Frontier

Judgement Would Be Withheld in Greek Complaint

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(AP)—The United States proposed today that the United Nations Security Council send a commission to the Balkans to investigate conditions on both sides of the Greek frontier, and urged the council to withhold judgment on Greece's complaints against her neighbor states until a report was at hand.

Herschel V. Johnson, chairman and American delegate to the council, said the United States believed such an investigation "is an essential first step" in the council's deliberations on the Greek charges.

"I shall, myself, avoid making any comments on the merits of the various allegations and counter-allegations unless forced to do so by the statements of other members," Johnson said.

A high American source said U. S. delegate Herschel V. Johnson, chairman of the council, would suggest that the five permanent members—the United States, Russia, Britain, China and France—along with Poland and Brazil, be represented on such a committee.

The proposal arose as the council resumed the long debate on Greece's charge that Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia fomented the current bloody guerrilla warfare in northern Greece to further their own territorial aims. Greece has asked an on-the-spot investigation and three neighbor countries have countered with demands for an investigation of conditions within Greece itself, blaming the Royalist-dominated government of Constantine Tsaldaris for the strife.

Sava N. Kasanovich, Yugoslav ambassador to the United States, making his third appearance before the council in defense of his country against the complaint, branded the Greek charges as careless and unscrupulous. He accused Tsaldaris of warring the investigation and "unpleasant and irresponsible" case, and repeated his demand for an investigation. See U. N. MEETING, Page 6.

Agencies Prepare Merry Christmas For Needy People

A merry Christmas seems to be in store for the children of needy families this year according to reports from the different agencies that take part in the distribution of Christmas gifts.

While the Gray district of the Adolphe-Walker council, Boy Scouts of America, has no council wide program of toy collecting and repairing some of the individual troops take the load on their own shoulders independently.

So far the News has learned that Cub Scouts of the First Christian Church have collected and repaired a large number of toys that they will take out to boys and girls less fortunate than themselves.

The Salvation Army has had no toy repair program set up because of their small staff. However, one hardware store in town has offered them some toys for distribution, but did not disclose the amount. The Army also reported that they could use several more toys for distribution.

The fire department this year has not collected any toys for repair and distribution. Fire Chief Ben White stated today the chief added that during the war, when toys were not being made there were too few, and in some cases none at all, left over from previous Christmases.

Salvation Army workers here said they could put to good use any toys that might be given them by parents or children.

Local Post Office Has Heaviest Day

The local post office had its heaviest day in the history of the office yesterday, when cancellations on first class letters and Christmas cards reached 38,888, W. B. Weathered, postmaster, announced this morning.

"This total only includes standard size letters that will go through the cancellation machine, all parcel post and large envelopes must be posted by hand, and therefore aren't counted."

The post office now has twenty extra employees, all of whom are veterans, helping out during the Christmas rush season.

Holidays in County Schools Begin Friday

All county schools will dismiss at the regular hour Friday, Dec. 20, for the Christmas holidays. Superintendent of County Schools Huey Laycock, announced this morning.

"Schools will take up on Jan. 8," Laycock said.

Six Criminally Insane Prisoners Escape Hospital

PHOENIXVILLE, Pa.—(AP)—Six criminally insane Army lie term prisoners who forced a window to escape from Valley Forge General Hospital, eluded capture in Eastern Pennsylvania today.

Police units hunting the fugitives called on civilians in radio broadcasts to help by reporting immediately any trace of the men. They warned the six were dangerous and should be approached with caution.

Heavily armed and equipped with torchlights, civilians and military police searched dens. The escape from the hospital vicinity after the escape was reported shortly before last midnight.

But there was no trace of the fugitives or any clue as to the direction in which they fled. Police said the six, committed for crimes ranging from rape to murder, escaped through a window of their ward and possibly were aided in the quick getaway by an auto mechanic.

The hospital said the men were not armed when they fled from their ward but that it was possible they obtained weapons later. A previous statewide police alarm had stated the men were armed.

The public relations office identified those at large as:

Joseph Bruno, 28, Staten Island, N. Y.

Howard Pogges, 28, Huntington, W. Va.

Curtis L. Fogarty, 24, address unavailable.

Ferry F. Keller, 28, address unavailable.

Frank L. Lofton, 26, Negro, Saginaw, Mich.

Gerald Brant, who was admitted yesterday and could not be described.

10 Are Dead in Bus-Train Crash

NEWBERRY, S. C.—(AP)—Nine pupils and the driver of a school bus were killed today when the bus and a southbound Southern Railway passenger train collided at a grade crossing on the outskirts of Silverstreet, a village seven miles southwest of Newberry.

Twelve other school children were injured in the accident. They were brought to Newberry County Hospital for treatment. Attendees said it was in critical condition.

Mrs. H. N. Wallace of the McSwain Funeral Home, where five of the dead were brought, said ambulance drivers told her the train struck the bus on the side and dragged it for half a mile down the tracks.

Some bodies were carried along on the cowcatcher of the engine while others were scattered beside the track, according to her information.

Mrs. Wallace said the crash occurred on a straight stretch of road. It was theorized, she added, that the bus driver was not expecting the train because it was reported running late.

Richard Sanders, the driver, was killed.

Stassen Declares His Presidential Candidacy

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Harold E. Stassen ripped the lid off the 1948 Republican presidential nomination today by declaring his candidacy on an immediate platform of changing the Wagner Labor Relations Act.

The 39 year old three-time governor of Minnesota and former Navy captain added that he is out to steer the GOP along a "truly liberal path."

One of his first efforts, Stassen told a news conference yesterday, will be directed toward amending the Wagner Act to prescribe a "set of unfair practices" for labor such as "mass picketing." Practices now spelled out as unfair in this law apply only to management.

Stassen said he wants to "balance up this collective bargaining" legislation. His announcement, unexpected because of its timing so long before the 1948 nominating convention, came after Senators Vandenberg of Michigan and Taft of Ohio had told reporters they are not candidates. Each, however, left the way open for any campaigns in their behalf.

Stassen, as the first to throw his hat into the ring, served notice on the party's Old Guard that it can look for a battle somewhat similar to that waged in 1940 by the late Wendell W. Willkie. Many Willkie supporters now are in the Stassen camp.

Besides Taft and Vandenberg, others who have been mentioned as contenders for the nomination include Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the 1944 standard bearer; Senator-elect John W. Bricker of Ohio; Govs. Earl Warren of California and Edward Martin of Pennsylvania; Senator-elect Raymond E. Baldwin of Connecticut; and Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower.

Stassen said he is opening a Washington office January 1 with Earl E. Hart as his personal secretary. Hart, said secretary to Supreme Court Justice Harold H. Burton of Ohio when Burton was mayor of Cleveland and later senator.

Stassen said he will confer frequently with Republicans in Congress on withdrawal of the votes to remove the Republican party along a path of true liberalism. He described true liberalism as a "philosophy of life which seeks the maximum social, political and religious freedom for the individual man and woman consistent with the enjoyment of the same degree of freedom for his or her fellow men."

"As I see it," he added, "it means opposing the extreme of left and the extreme of right, the extreme of Fascism and the extreme of Communism."

Stassen said he will devote his first efforts in Washington to a national labor policy. He also will give attention to housing, health and small business.

That 'Mild Winter' Is 'All Over Now'

Pampans who Sunday were marveled at the mild winter they were experiencing were startled today for good reasons to get out of the Texas Panhandle as a cold wave hit the famed "wide open spaces."

Not till late this morning had the temperatures, which dropped Monday night, soared up to freezing, 11:30 reading at the local weather bureau at 11 o'clock this morning showing 33.

Yesterday's low was 20 degrees, second lowest in the state, while this morning's bottom was 22 at three o'clock.

The Big Bend section of the state got the worst of the deal last night and today with a low of 18 at Guadalupe Pass in the black breaster and Culberson county areas.

Houston residents shivered as the thermometer dropped today to 45, from yesterday's high of 71.

Other temperatures reported by the Associated Press today included: Lubbock 19 degrees; Amarillo 22; Wichita Falls 23; Dallas 28; Fort Worth 28 and Abilene 28.

Story of Spiritual and Physical Need Told Here by Young Christian of India

It was about 15 years ago that a young Indian of the middle class and subsequently starting for daring to walk in the vicinity of a Brahmin priest's home. But a cow was permitted to loiter there.

"I decided then and there to help these people who were considered lower than cattle and I went into evangelistic work," he said.

That is the reason Peter Solomon, youngish (32) Christian of India, is in this country, studying for a ministry at Phillips University, Enid, Okla. He came in August.

He told of his country here last night before an appreciative audience made up of the Layman's League, First Christian Church, their wives and friends. The event was also the occasion of a banquet, held at the Senior High School. Delegations were present from Canadian and Skellytown.

Peter Solomon would have passed for 24. He was dressed in the customary white "street wear" of his land—a vest and a five-yard "cloth" around about his body. He wore a pair of green sandals, trimmed in gold. No jewelry, or other embellishment. (He said he was of the middle class, and is working his way through the Enid school. Married, he hopes to bring his wife and daughter to this country later.)

Warning Issued By Contractor, Bilbo's Manager

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Edward P. Terry, former secretary to Senator Bilbo (D-Miss.), testified today that A. B. Friend told him last April that if he told what he knew about his former boss he would be killed.

He said that Friend, a war contractor and Bilbo's campaign manager in last summer's election, delivered the warning to him while entertaining Terry and his wife at dinner in a Mississippi hotel.

He quoted Friend as saying: "Ed, if you take any part in this campaign or tell what you know on Senator Bilbo you'll be killed."

Terry, testifying at a Senate War Contracts investigation, said that later in the evening Mrs. Terry asked Friend if Bilbo was going to kill her husband.

"He said no," Terry recounted, "there were two men going to do the job."

Terry said he was "very much upset" but was "interested in deposing Senator Bilbo" on account of the threat. He said he talked the matter over with friends, and they advised him to make a statement of the facts and go on to Florida, where he had started a business.

"And if I slipped on a banana peel the people of Mississippi would know who to accuse," Terry added.

Terry said he gave out a sworn statement that his life had been threatened, but C. Phillips, a representative for the Meridian (Miss.) Star, told him he wouldn't print it without talking to Friend. Phillips afterward reported, he related, that:

The mixture was placed directly into wound. The case at first were only those wounds which had failed to heal with all other available treatments. Penicillin, given internally, had failed. This was because of the blood in the wound does not get higher than a certain concentration, and this concentration was not strong enough to kill the kinds of germs, which are highly resistant to penicillin.

Economic Report By Council Will Be Heard Today

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The White House planned to make public today (3 p. m. Central Standard Time) the first annual report of the President's economic advisory council, recommending ways to keep national employment, production and purchasing power at high levels.

The document is required under the Employment Act of 1946, which created the three-member advisory body to study and report economic conditions which result in the closing of the school Saturday.

At Austin, Dr. Melvin C. Eidsen, member of the Board of Regents meeting was awaited today as West Texas State College students called for a strike over housing conditions which resulted in the closing of the school Saturday.

Eidsen said he thought a board meeting should be held soon and added that he favored a policy of firmness toward student leaders of the strike. He stated that he did not believe, however, whether any disciplinary action would be taken.

Eidsen, a Baptist minister, blamed the trouble partly on the admission of too many students this fall in an attempt to accommodate a red student senatus at Belchheim.

Decision to end the strike came yesterday afternoon after meetings of the veterans' executive committee and the student senate.

"We sincerely believe we have won our point by bringing to light the conditions existing here," a statement issued by the veterans committee stated.

The economic report, Mr. Truman has stated, will be delivered after his state-of-the-union and budget messages in January. It will be turned over to a new House-Senate Joint Committee on the economic report. This group will develop such specific measures as it sees fit, for presentation to both Houses by Feb. 1.

Lefors Will Have Yuletide Pageant

LEFORS—The Queen of the East, an all-school Christmas pageant, will be presented by the pupils of the Lefors school under the direction of Miss Loyce Elliott and George Moore, principal.

Members of the faculty, in the High School Auditorium on Dec. 19, 7:30 p. m.

The pageant will include six traditional scenes of the Nativity—"The Prophecy," "The Annunciation," "The Shepherd Scene," "The Three Wise Men," "King Herod's Court," and "The Manager at Bethlehem."

All scenes will be given in pantomime accompanied by Christmas hymns sung by the two high school choruses, directed by Miss Elliott and Miss Moore.

High A Cappella choir, directed by Miss Ferne Holland.

E. R. Reeves, superintendent, will read the script for the entire pageant. Mrs. J. D. Fontaine will play the piano accompaniment for all the choruses. In charge of stage scenery and directions are Misses Clara Anderson and Ferne Holland and Mrs. J. N. Nalbo.

SKI PARTY PLUNGES IN STREAM—Standing on the truck which carried eighteen holiday skiers, rescuers probe the icy waters of Clear Creek, near Idaho Springs, Colo., after the truck plunged from a mountain road and fell fifty feet into the stream. One man was killed, twelve teen-agers were injured.

State University For Negroes Seen

AUSTIN—(AP)—Establishment of a statutory university of the first class for Negroes governed by a board made up of Negroes and whites was recommended today by Gov. Coke Stevenson's bi-racial commission.

Stevenson announced immediately he would submit the commission's report to the legislature as an emergency matter with his full endorsement.

All seven members of the commission, including the two Negroes, authorized their signature to the report, but the two Negroes set forth some reservations in letters attached to the report, said Chairman Mark McGee of Fort Worth.

The report was released the day after a Houston Negro, Heman Marion Sweatt, had been denied a mandamus seeking to force his admission as a student at the University of Texas. Judge Roy C. Archer denied the mandamus after making an oral statement from the bench saying he assumed Texas A. and M. would set up a law course for Negroes by February.

Stevenson said that while the A. and M. board has not yet made application for a preferred deficiency appropriation to finance the school, he believed the request would be forthcoming after the A. and M. board studies the bi-racial commission's report.

The governor said he believed the establishment of the law course in connection with Prairie View University—which is governed by the state board—would serve to fill the need for legal training for Negroes pending legislative disposition of the bi-racial commission's recommendations.

It suggested the commission favored the establishment of a statutory school when two things became apparent from its study:

- The constitutional provision for establishment of higher education for Negroes specifies that no tax shall be levied and no money appropriated from the general fund either for the purpose of establishing it or maintaining it;
- That there is not sufficient income from the university permanent fund, now shared by the University of Texas and Texas A. and M., to support and maintain them and at the same time establish and maintain a first class university for Negroes.

A commission estimated it would cost $3,925,000 to establish the Negro University and $3,000,000 to maintain it for the next five years.

It recommended that the main Negro University be established in an urban center, mentioning in order of preference Houston, the Dallas-Fort Worth area and Waco as possible sites.

It suggested that Prairie View be continued as an agricultural and mechanical branch of the main university for Negroes. This was one point of dissent voiced by W. R. Cobb.

Cobb was born at Independence, Kansas, May 24, 1922. He is reported to have died enroute to a Borger hospital, a few minutes after the accident.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur T. Cobb, and two sisters, Barbara Jean and Margaret Ann.

Funeral arrangements, which are under the direction of the Dunkel-Carmichael Funeral Home, are pending.

Bangle Sale Held Here Totals $330

The tuberculosis fun Bangle Sale held here last Saturday totaled $330. Huey Laycock, president of the Gray County Tuberculosis Association, announced this morning. This total does not include the money from the sales in the schools last week.

The City Parent-Teacher Council, which sponsored the sale, today expressed appreciation "for the support that was given this worthy cause."

Bangle sales were also held in McLean and Lefors but reports of total sales are not complete at this time.

"Replies are still being received daily from the Christmas Seal letters," Laycock said. He urged that all stamp recipients reply as soon as possible.

Rodeo Directors Meet Tomorrow

Officers and directors of the Top O' Texas Rodeo and Horse Show Association will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Chamber of Commerce office.

It was erroneously reported in yesterday's Daily News that the group would meet today.

Dates for the 1947 rodeo will probably be set at tomorrow's meeting.

Next Congress Seems Certain To Enact Law

By HAROLD W. WARD
WASHINGTON—Some kind of legislation to regulate labor unions seems certain now to come out of the 80th Congress. It's anybody's guess what kind of law will be enacted, but union leaders, like AFL President William Green, are not disputing their fears that the result will be disastrous to them. What these leaders are most apprehensive about is that there may be a tendency to try to come up with a "cure-all" which, among three of labor's stoutest supporting laws. These are: (1) The Wagner Labor Relations Act, (2) The Norris-La Guardia Anti-Injunction Act, and (3) The Fair Labor Standards Act. Here's something about those laws: The first was sponsored by Senator F. Wagner (D-NY) and was enacted in 1935. It created the National Labor Relations Board, set up rules for unions to become official bargaining agents for groups of employees and described what constitutes an unfair labor practice by employers. The Anti-Injunction Act of 1932 was sponsored by the late Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska and former Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York, then a member of the House. It outlawed the injunction as a

SIDE GLANCES

By Calbraith

"I tell you I was second in my class graduating from high school—but they've made an awful lot of changes in this math book!"

weapon—often employed in early labor laws—to quell strikes. The Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 set up minimum hourly pay rates for workers producing goods for interstate commerce. Among other things it said workers must be paid time and one-half for hours worked beyond 40. An informal study indicates that each of these laws will be under assault from the very start of the new session. Recommendations have ranged from amendments to outright repeal.

The reasons: (A) Employers are clamoring for "equality" with their employees under the Wagner Act. They want the right to ask the NLRB to step in and settle a dispute when the employer is caught in the middle of a fight between unions for bargaining rights. Some think there also should be unfair labor practices listed for unions. (B) There is a strong move to amend the Wagner Act to exclude foremen from its protective provisions. Many employers think that foremen, as part of management, should not join a union. (C) The Norris-LaGuardia Act is under scrutiny because of the recent coal strike and Lewis' use of it as a defense in court. Whether its provisions apply when the government is party to a controversy, as it was in the coal strike, is up for Supreme Court interpretation. (D) The Fair Labor Standards Act has become almost the biggest bugaboo of all, because of a little-noticed decision of the Supreme Court last June.

At that time the court ruled that employees of the Mt. Clemens (Mich.) Pottery Company could collect "portal" or "partial" pay for periods as far back as 1938 when the law was enacted. That means pay from the time they reach company property until the time they leave it. Other big questions among many which the coming Congress is likely to go into include: 1. Should the closed shop be outlawed? In a closed shop only members of a given union may work or be hired. 2. Should a time limit be put on strikes, after which compulsory arbitration would be imposed?

Price Hikes Will Be Felt First by American Farmer
HOUSTON—The American farmer will be the first to feel the blow of subsequent adjustment of rapidly rising prices. Earl Schram, president of the New York Stock Exchange, told the Houston Chamber of Commerce last night. "Rapidly rising prices with subsequent adjustment downward constitute an incipient danger to prosperity," he said. "The danger is that prices will go too high on many things, taking them out of the range of the mass of buying power." "Unquestionably the farmer will be the first to feel the blow of falling prices," he continued. "But he is best equipped to withstand the shock. He is willing to work hard, and the fact that he has paid his debts down to the lowest figure in years testifies to his good sense. He is making great strides in the better utilization of his land. To make a farmer the future never looked brighter."

Schram urged self-regulation of commodity exchanges, free markets and conservation of natural resources as ways towards economic balance.

Fruit Production Record Foreseen

WASHINGTON—A record breaking fruit production for the nation is indicated by the final summary of the 1946 crop by the agriculture department. The department has placed orange production at 125,430,000 boxes as compared with 104,520,000 last year and 81,450,000 for the 1935-44 ten-year average. Grapefruit production was estimated at 14,500,000 boxes, compared with 6,550,000 last year and 40,085,000 for the ten-year average. The estimated lemon production this year is 13,900,000 boxes, slightly under the 14,500,000 revised figure for last year, but exceeding the ten-year average of 11,520,000. Texas estimates and last year's totals were: Oranges—all 5,500,000 and 4,800,000; early and midseason 3,280,000 and 2,890,000; valencia, 2,150,000 and 1,920,000. Grapefruit—All 25,500,000 and 24,000,000.

Miss Beth Mullinax Is Complimented At Shower

Highlighting the gay round of Christmas parties, honoring holiday brides, was a lovely miscellaneous shower for Miss Beth Mullinax, whose wedding to Robert W. Carr is scheduled for Dec. 28.

The home of Mrs. Frank Foster, 1233 N. Russell, decorated in the Yuletide spirit, was the setting.

Mrs. Melvin Watkins, Mrs. Tom L. Lindsey, Miss Adalin Brazil and Mrs. Freda Barrett, hostesses, formed the receiving line.

They presented the honoree with a corsage of pink rosebuds. Bingo entertained the guests, and six prizes were awarded, which were later presented to Miss Mullinax.

The dining room featured the bride's chosen colors, a large pink and white bride's cake, wreath in holly and topped with a miniature bride and groom, centered a lace covered table set with crystal and silver appointments. White candles in crystal holders and the crystal punch bowl added to the scene.

The hostesses served cake, spiced tea and nuts.

Those registering in the bride's book were Mmes. Henry Thut, Tommie Stone, W. Mullinax, Floyd Wilson, Fred Glass, M. V. Watkins, Robert Jergenson, Horace McBe, Wm. J. Finley, Jr., Clinton Evans, John Keogh, Parks Brumley, Mildred Laferly, Jack Benton, Lucille Floyd, Roxie Spangler, and Miss Ursula Jones.

Gifts were sent by Mmes. Robert Patterson, Vester Lee Smith, Bert Arney, Homer Rockey, Luke McEllian, L. Sparkman, Lester Mason, Lewis Jones, Denver Allen, Lena Hood, J. T. Roberts, Erwin Thompson, R. H. Bell, Bill Bridges, Wayne Phelps, Keith Glascock, Jean Haw, Walter Purviance, E. L. Anderson, and Miss Lillian Mullinax.

El Progresso Club Entertains Husbands At Yuletide Party

The El Progresso Club Monday evening held its annual Christmas meeting in the Palm Room, City Hall.

A turkey dinner was served to the members, their husbands and invited guests.

The Rev. E. A. Norris gave the invocation, and Mrs. James Todd, president, welcomed the group and introduced each member with a personal story, the member in turn introducing her own guests.

Mesdames C. T. Hightower, D. V. Burton, Edgar Henshaw and B. A. Norris were recognized as the committee on arrangements, responsible for the menu and table decorations. And Mesdames Knox Kinard, George Briggs, W. R. Ewing, H. L. Ledrick, and Dave Pope were recognized as the program committee.

John L. McCarty, Amarillo newspaperman, was guest speaker. He was introduced by Mrs. Kinard. He spoke on "Our Southwest Heritage," in a manner both entertaining and informative. After a survey of the development of the Southwest and the Panhandle of Texas, he urged a greater interest in the culture of our local areas, with a greater appreciation of local writers, poets, painters and musicians. He also urged better educational facilities, with a better paid teacher personnel. Further, he urged the collecting and preservation of historical data, to be used as source material for posterity.

Other present besides those named were Mesdames and Messrs. H. R. Thompson, Clinton Henry, Fred

Some months ago Iran was reduced to a quivering jelly while her dispute with Russia was before the U. N. Security Council. She practically repudiated her own representative here and made a hurried deal with the Soviet rather than pursue the matter to the point of complete victory.

Now, suddenly, the Tehran government is emboldened to retake the northern province of Azerbaijan which had been almost a counting unit because of wartime Russian occupation and later because of a Moscow-sponsored local government.

Perhaps there's a time and place for fireworks, but it doesn't seem that it is a concert hall at the Junior High School when an artist has taken time out to come to a small city like Pampa to give us an enjoyable fragment of the finer arts.

Nor are the time and place Christmas downtown where people are shopping. Fireworks, like the whiskey consumed by the driver who later broke his neck, are taken too far; and the city commission, we think, is following the will of a popular majority by passing an ordinance against their sale and use here.

There is something to think about in reports that Republican leaders, up from the depths of the political pond and now riding the crest of the wave, are preparing to "purge" GOP members of federal commissions whose party regularity is suspect.

The merit of filling executive agencies with men who serve their party first, of course, open to question. Aside from that, however, the danger in starting a feud within the ranks should be so clear as to cool the ardor of even the most unreconstructed Old Guardsmen. For history has produced many cases, one as recent as last Nov. 5, which suggest that "divide and be conquered" is a reliable rule-of-thumb for American political contests.

The GOP seems ready, even before taking over the White House, to fall victim to that age-old disease of victorious political parties, contentiousness. Though no one seems to know why, nothing divides like success. And division succeeds like nothing.

NOTHING DIVIDES LIKE SUCCESS

In Greece, too, the government has consistently intimated that Russia will not be a permanent ally. But now one Greek partisan group, which was reported fighting for autonomy in Macedonia, denies this. They suddenly feel emboldened to thumb their noses at the Kremlin.

NATIONAL THEATRICAL

LIBERAL

In the inner Republican councils are amused and also concerned by Sen. Robert A. Taft's apparent attempt to win a reputation as "liberal" in preparation for battle over the party's presidential nomination. And that is how they look upon the Senator's hint that he prefers to head the Labor instead of the Finance Committee of the upper chamber.

Common Ground

I asked an economic consultant whether or no he believed tax-supported schools were in harmony with free enterprise and the American system. His answer was that he was opposed to them, but interference with, or even aid to, federal aid would only be putting the camel's head into the tent and would lead to federal control of public education.

So They Say

We face a Russia to which people a party line in the world outside is fed in huge and continuing doses, a version which most unfortunately—and most dangerously—is apparently believed also by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America.

Nationally seems to be receding in America and nationalism is growing in influence, power and danger.—Dr. Tully Knoles, chancellor of St. Joseph's College.

Mr. Bricker's administration as Governor won him many friends among the workmen. In view of his tremendous votes when he ran for the state house at Columbus and for the Senate last month, it is clear that he polled most of the labor ballots. Indeed, his great majority enabled the Republicans to defeat such a popular vote-getter as Governor Frank J. Lausche for re-election.

The Taft-Bricker episode, together with other instances of internal rivalry on Capitol Hill, dramatizes the jockeying for place among KEY Republicans. It also measures the degree of their confidence in a presidential triumph two years hence.

After other struggles, including World War I, the top commanders on land and sea remained on for many years, including those who were far up in their fifties.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Notebook

NEW YORK—(AP)—Most young couples planning ahead for a family want a boy instead of a girl.

As an unprejudiced observer of the parenthood scene, this always has amazed me. But the only thing harder to raise than a good boy is a baby gorilla with the imp.

How long does a boy really belong to you? Five, maybe six years. Then for ten years he is a savage, and for the next five years after that as callow introvert with mental growing pains.

After other struggles, including World War I, the top commanders on land and sea remained on for many years, including those who were far up in their fifties.

They had a few new theories to learn and a few new weapons to master; they had to reorganize their training systems. But there was no essential difference between the old and the new.

Scout-O-Rama For February to Be in 11 Parts

Arrangements for Gray District's first Scout-O-Rama to be held February 14 and 15 were drawn last night at a special meeting of Gray County scoutmasters and cubmasters held in the City Commissioners' room, City Hall.

Eleven events were lined up for the demonstration in which each troop will participate in one or more events.

The events are:

1. Signaling demonstration, using semaphore, Morse code, blinker and mechanical types.
2. Indian dances, including war dances, peace dances, prayer dances and healing dances as practiced by the American Indians.
3. Knot tying and the uses each knot is put to.
4. Charlot racing.
5. Cub Scout circus. Each den will select one animal and one clown to participate in the show.
6. Pioneering and camping merit badges. This will show the construction of lean-tos, bridges, and other improvised living facilities.
7. Demonstration of all types of first aid problems.
8. The physically strong part of the Scout oath, including tumbling and other gymnastics.
9. Cycling, demonstrating proper use of the vehicles and probably some fancy riding.
10. Fire by friction, a handy trick when anyone runs out of matches far away from nowhere.
11. Grand finale.

A grand entry will also be held at the beginning of the program. Scout Commissioner Huebly Laycock was in charge of the meeting.

Application Refused In Wheeler Co. Case

The state Supreme Court has refused an application by I. E. Horowitz, et al., of Wheeler County, to register damages totaling $1,000 paid to Dave Finklestein, et al. of Pampa, according to the Associated Press.

Finklestein, local pipe dealer, brought the suit to recover a quantity of pipe he had purchased from Horowitz who took possession of the pipe was situated on land which Horowitz took possession of.

The application was refused on the basis of "no reversible error." Causes are set for submission Jan. 15.

Pioneer Shamrock Resident Buried

SHAMROCK.—(Special)—Funeral services were to be conducted in Shamrock this afternoon for Mrs. Minnie Westmoreland, 65, who died Monday night at Shamrock General Hospital after a brief illness.

A Wheeler County resident since 1912, Mrs. Westmoreland was the owner about 100 acres of the Westmoreland Produce Company of Shamrock.

Survivors include two daughters, Mrs. Alma Poole and Mrs. Erma Fox, both of Shamrock, and a brother, M. B. Slusher, Billings, Montana.

Services were to be held in the Shamrock Church of Christ with Murray Wilson, minister, officiating. Burial was to be in the Shamrock cemetery with the Womack Funeral Home in charge.

Indian Speaker

"making our land new," paraphrasing a passage of the Bible. The three methods by which missionary work is being carried to ward: education, medicine, and evangelism. There are no non-Christian Indians in non-Christian India.

In September, 1932, the "call," he said, came to become an evangelist. And, with the depression in America, he received only $4 per month for his work. But, he added with resoluteness, "the conviction of the call was so great that I had to stay on as an evangelist."

This young man, in his strange and foreign setting last night, was a forceful speaker. He employs a clear, convincing type of the English language; and at no time did he appear to be nervous or uncertain. While he asked for nothing for himself he spoke of a plan, Evangelistic Fellowship, under which he hopes to help educate some of his fellow-men. Contributions of any amount of money are to be sent to him in care of the university.

"If you can save 2 cents a week for one year, that will be $1.04," he said. "Take the four cents and send me the dollar—if I can get 1,000 members, the money will educate 25 of my countrymen."

Fred Swenay was toastmaster, and the Rev. Buford Norris, pastor of the local church, delivered the invocation. Singing was led by L. L. Keys, and Eula Mae Meers accompanied at the piano. E. C. Cary offered the benediction. Ralph Fuleet conducted a short business meeting.

Bilbo Probe

Friend said he was not going to kill Terry but that two men were. Phillips told him Terry went on that after talking with Friend, Friend called back, "reversed himself, and said that I was lying."

He said Phillips told him about the talk with Friend while Terry was in a Quitman, Miss. hospital last Sunday.

Terry said that after he received the threat from Friend, he made a trip to St. Louis and upon his return to Mississippi was interviewed by internal revenue agents about Bilbo's income tax returns. Terry said he spent almost an entire day with the agents and "they unfolded to me information that I didn't know about."

Before Terry gave his account of the threat against his life, Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) handed him a sheet listing alleged donations to a fund Bilbo raised for construction of a parsonage at the Juniper Grove Baptist church near his Poplarville home. Ferguson asked Terry to identify the list of donors.

The list included $500 from Michael T. Morrissey, $3,500 from M. T. Reed, and $750 from F. T. Newton, all war contractors, and a dozen other contributions from various people ranging from $50 to $1,000.

The total was over $12,000.

Earlier Terry testified that there was an "understanding" with some Mississippi war contractors in connection with a 1940 election campaign debt.

Terry told Senate War Contract investigators that Bilbo told him the debt would be paid by the contractors.

"Was there any understanding that these war contractors were to pay any money or that any money was to be paid?" asked Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.).

"Yes," Terry replied.

A few moments before Terry had testified he could recall no conversations about "payment of money," Under Ferguson's questioning, Terry said it had been his duty to provide campaign funds for the 1940 election of Senator Bilbo. To do this, Terry said he advanced "about $3,800 plus $750, or about $4,500."

Shortly afterward Terry said he received a long distance telephone call from Bilbo in which "Senator Bilbo told me the money would be repaid me by these contractors."

Terry testified that Bilbo went "all out" to obtain construction jobs for Mississippi contractor friends. Bilbo's relations with war contractors are under scrutiny preliminary to an almost certain Republican challenge of his right to be seated next month.

Terry, much thinner than when he left Bilbo's employment early this year, told the senators of Bilbo's activity in behalf of the Mississippians who got contracts for Key Field at Meridian, Miss., and Keeler Field at Biloxi.

The committee does not contend it is irregular for a senator to try to aid constituents in getting government contracts, but it wants to know whether Bilbo profited personally from his efforts.

Senate war investigators today overruled a lawyer's contention that Edward P. Terry, former secretary to Senator Bilbo (D-Miss.) should not be required to testify.

The ruling came after Terry's counsel, Paul Dillon, St. Louis attorney, requested limited testimony after his client took the stand.

CARNIVAL

"It certainly IS an expensive necklace! It cost him two years in jail!"

Terry has been a much-sought off-mysterious witness in the Senate War Contracts investigation of the Mississippi senator.

Terry previously had written the Investigating Committee a letter asking to be excused from testifying altogether on the ground that his life had been threatened.

He said he had been told by an anonymous phone-caller that the lives of his wife and daughter also were in jeopardy if he testified against his former boss.

Terry testified that Bilbo went "all out" to obtain construction jobs for Mississippi contractor friends. Bilbo's relations with war contractors are under scrutiny preliminary to an almost certain Republican challenge of his right to be seated next month.

Penicillin

the military surgeons placed a much stronger concentration of the wonder drug. In most cases, only one application of this penicillin in human jelly had to be used.

Col. Janney said no bad effects of any sort has been reported. Hemoglobin, itself, a human-tissue ingredient, has naturally stimulating effect on tissue growth.

In the hemoglobin the penicillin is released slowly. Pure penicillin did not have the same good effect in wounds, both because it was absorbed too rapidly and because it was irritating to the wound.

Dr. Herbert Conway, of New York, reported that tattooing changes the color of the dark, bluish smooth birthmarks shown as port wine stains to nearly normal skin color. Wine has nothing to do with these disfigurements. For tattooing a color is selected that will nearly change the port wine shade to that of ordinary skin. Dr. Conway said that tattooing does a spectacular job of changing the color of a skin graft to match that of the area where the graft is placed.

'Sudden Death' Overtime Periods Not Yet Adopted

Air Battle Seen In Optimist Bowl

HOUSTON—(AP)—The Optimist Bowl football will be Saturday between the College of the Pacific and North Texas State College, could easily turn into an aerial battle.

Amos Alonzo Stagg's passing show is sparked by his latest star, small, 17-year-old Eddie LeBaron Stagg, incidentally is going on five times the age of his youngest find. He will be 85 his next birthday.

LeBaron, with three years to play in college ball; also is a good runner and kicker.

Eddie accounted for five Tiger touchdowns in the last two starts for the stagmen. But he is not the only Tiger passer. Strating tailback Bruce Orvis, a top running threat with an average near five yards for each try also throws well, often off on a fake.

Although the North Texas Eagles are best known for their lightning ground game from the T formation, their passing attack is an equally potent weapon.

Quarterback Fred McCain leads the passers. Injured in the shoulder and hampered early in the season, his throwing arm is back in condition. His spirals and bullet passes took their toll in late-season games. Left halfback Joe Gleb has been catching McCain's passes since Junior High School days at Gainesville, Texas, and the two seem to know each other's thoughts on the field.

Billy Dinkle, 18-year-old freshman star, has averaged 20 yards per try on passes this season, although this isn't his big talking point. He is a leading runner and kicker of the team as well.

Proceeds from the game, first of an annual affair with the Lone Star conference champions as host team, will go to the Optimist Home for 500 Texas boys being developed at La-Porte.

League Membership May Be Completed At Sunday Meeting

SWEETWATER—(AP)—Membership of the new West Texas baseball league is expected to be completed here Sunday at a meeting of baseball officials from West Texas cities.

Howard Green, president of the circuit, has announced that four teams will be selected from among Vernon, Plainview, Odessa, San Angelo, Brownwood and Coleman. Cities already having teams in the league are Sweetwater, Ballinger, Big Spring and Midland.

Harold Webb of Midland has announced that his club has affiliated with the Oklahoma City team of the Texas league, while Joe Langston of Big Spring has revealed a working agreement with the Washington Senators of the American league.

Pampa Reserves Keep Intact Three-Season Victory String

By SCOTT RAFFERTY
Unable to score consistently on their set-up shots under the basket, the Childress Bobcats bowed to Pampa's Harvesters, 33-27, here last night to give the Pampa cagers their second straight win of the season against an opponent.

Superior Harvester strength took the story as the District 2-AA cagers made it a close battle for the first quarter but dropped behind during the second and third periods.

Pampa's "Bee" cagers kept intact a string of "B" team victories that has extended over the last three years by trouncing the Childress reserves, 39-23.

In the main event, the two teams were ducked by 10-all at the end of the first period but the Harvesters pulled away to a 23-16 lead at the halftime intermission and led 29-18 when the third round ended.

G. W. Gambin, first-year forward, looped in nine points to edge two of his teammates, Charley Lafoon and Raymond Harades by one point for high point honors. Gambin is the team's leading scorer with 26 points in three games. Bill Speer is runner-up with 21 points.

Referee Ray McSpadden called a close game but his decisions were usually popular with both the players and the crowd. Pampa committed 18 fouls and Childress 19. The Harvesters made 10 of the 20 free throws while Childress made seven of 22. Hernandez looped in four out of five for Pampa.

The Pampa "B" cagers, led by Mal Fagan with 12 points, had little trouble with the Childress reserves. The Pampans led, 10-5, at the end of the first period, 23-13 at the half and 30-16 at the three-quarter mark. McClelland of Childress was high for the game with 13 points.

Pampa will meet the strong Kress High School cagers here Friday night and efforts are being made to arrange a game with Ada, Okla., here Saturday night. Ada plays Amarillo Thursday and Friday nights at Amarillo.

There was no attempt to bar the league commissioner Bert Bell brought up the proposal for the extra-point elimination and "sudden death" for all games in the belief it would have a tendency to discourage betting on games.

"We are trying to beat the gambler," Bell told the assembly which was confronted with the first scandal in the league's 27-year history—the alleged attempt to fix the championship playoff.

The ensuing discussion, however, brought out that elimination of the extra point would not provide the answer. Luk Johnson, assistant coach of the Chicago Bears, pointed out that if the point is finally eliminated, the gamblers will just make different odds and change their systems of betting prices.

Independent Teams Play Here Tonight

Two independent basketball games are scheduled tonight at the junior high gymnasium.

The first game, starting at 7:30, matches the Pampa Boosters with the Kelton Independents while Lane Sales plays Miami in the nightclub.

No admission price will be charged.

California is the champion garlic-producing state in the Union, having won over the title from Texas and Louisiana.

Rampaging Texas Wins 6th Straight

NEW YORK—(AP)—Texas University today loomed as Baylor's chief obstacle in its second straight Southwest basketball conference title quest following the Longhorns' sixth consecutive victory at the expense of previously unbeaten Long Island University.

As in the Canisius contest in Buffalo last Saturday night, the undefeated Longhorns were forced to come from behind last night to eke out a 47-46 win after leading almost all the way.

For the entire first half and five minutes of the second half, it looked like the Texans were on their way to a handy win—in a majority of their previous encounters—but suddenly the Black Birds came alive, netting nine straight points to tie the game, 18-18.

With three minutes left, the Black Birds still led 35-31. Then Roy Cox, John Hargis, the game's high scorer with 15 points and best all-around performer on the court, dropped in a pair of identical driving layups to tie the score, with two minutes to go. Al Madsen leaped out of a huddle to tap in a Hargis rebound to provide the winning points. It was the Black Birds' first defeat in six starts.

The Longhorns had the satisfaction of limiting Jackie Goldsmith, the Black Birds' great set shot artist to a mere seven points. It may be remembered that Goldsmith tallied 23 points in the Black Birds' 47-46 victory over the NCAA champion Oklahoma Aggies.

The Arkansas Razorbacks, Southwestern conference mine stragglers, the Longhorns, did not fare as well. They suffered a 67-46 defeat at the hands of New York University. Despite the large margin between the quintets, the game was close most of the way.

The Razorbacks, despite the absence of Mel McGaha, their high scoring star, who left the team on the eve of the game to rejoin the football team on which he plays, actually led by six points, 27-21 at the end of the first half. Trailing 48-40 late in the third period, the Razorbacks, kept in the game by Center George Kok, who dropped in 19 points, tired badly in the last five minutes and the Violets rushed over 19 swift points while Arkansas was able to garner only six.

PICKED MEN WANTED for interesting work in Japan ALL EXPENSES PAID AND $90 PER MONTH

U. S. Army Ground Forces units now on peacetime duty in the Far East include some of the most famous combat divisions of the war. The First Cavalry Division, for example, now mechanized in Japan, made an unforgettable record. It was the first U. S. unit that reached Manila and Tokyo, and received Distinguished Unit citations for action on Los Negros, Kwajalein and Leyte.

Picked young men who can meet high standards of the Regular Army, and who enlist for three years, can now join this great division, after initial training in the U. S., and help enforce peace in the Orient.

Service in the Far East today provides excellent living conditions and recreation facilities. Sightseeing is encouraged. Swimming pools, athletic fields, well-equipped clubs are available to soldiers. Overseas pay, 20%, higher than at home, starts at $90 a month for a Private, plus food, clothing, quarters, medical and dental care and other benefits. Enlistments open to men 18 to 34 inclusive (17 with parents' consent). Full details at U. S. Army Recruiting Station—

Tigers Will Fly To Cotton Bowl

DALLAS—(AP)—The Louisiana State Tigers are going to fly to the Cotton Bowl and that's a bad omen for Arkansas Razorbacks, whom they play in the Dallas gridiron classic Jan. 1.

L. S. U. one of the pioneers of the nation in air transportation for football teams, has a record of never losing a game to which it went via air.

The first aerial jaunt was in 1939 when the Tigers played Holy Cross at Worcester, Mass. The Crusaders were 18-point favorites but L. S. U. made a 2,000-mile hop and beat Holy Cross 26-7.

Since then L. S. U. has made all of its long, inter-sectional trips by plane except during the war years when commercial aviation transportation was curtailed.

When the restrictions were lifted in 1945, the Tigers flew again. An 18-point underdog against Georgia, L. S. U. soared to Athens and flew back with a 32-0 victory over the Bulldogs. Three weeks later L. S. U.'s squad, in two chartered planes, hopped to Atlanta to meet Georgia Tech, a team the Tigers never had defeated in 32 years of competition. The Bengals went back to Boston Rouge via the air route with a 9-7 decision.

This season, the Tigers have made only one flying trip, a 1,500-mile hop to Miami where L. S. U. beat Miami University 20-7.

Louisiana State purchased a plane in 1934 to be used by its coaches in scouting opponents. With restrictions lifted on buying private planes, authorities at L. S. U. now are going to purchase another.

MOON'S TEMPERATURES

If we do succeed in flying to the moon, we'll need clothing for both hot and cold weather. On the moon's sunny side we'll find temperatures around 200 degrees Fahrenheit, while on the shady side it will be 250 degrees below zero.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK—(AP)—There was a meeting of sports writers in Washington the other day, called by Attorney General Tom Clark to discuss sports as a means of combating juvenile delinquency. . . . From time to time, this writer has dipped into that serious subject—always being careful to avoid using "delinquent" as a nasty term that shouldn't be hung on any kid. When a boy or girl gets into trouble it usually is someone else who is delinquent. The facts are so obvious it shouldn't be necessary to point them out, but we'll go over a few briefly.

ITEM ONE
It's cheaper and more satisfactory to maintain a few playgrounds and gymnasiums than an equal number of courts and jails. It's cheaper than paying premiums on insurance against theft and destruction. . . . For that reason any business man or householder should be willing to kick in a few bucks to provide these facilities. . . . But that isn't the best reason for contributing. The best reason is that every youngster deserves the right to have some fun and to grow up with the right ideas.

ITEM TWO
A program of sports and recreation properly conducted, is a great inducement to a boy or girl to stay on the right side. . . . New York's Police Athletic League program has proved this. Plans in other cities have shown similar results.

ITEM THREE
Facilities: A sandlot or an old barn is better than no place to play, but a boy does appreciate a real baseball or football field or gym. Leadership: It isn't enough to provide a rubbery playground and say: "Go ahead and play." . . . Some capable person or persons must get the kids to come around and show them what to do when they get there.

ITEM FOUR
This normally-light column hasn't said everything about the subject and may not have said it in the best way, but we hope this will help to induce every reader to support existing sports programs or to create them where they don't exist. . . . It will take a lot of large and small scale planning, a lot of work and a lot of money. . . . As for that, see item one.

James Stewart Is Seeking Five-Day Week in Filmtown

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—James Stewart has declared himself strongly in favor of the five-day work week for movie stars, and he has urged his colleagues to do the extreme, he'll be the highest paid picket in history.

There is little evidence that the lanky Indiana, Penn., boy is ready to "hit the bricks" in behalf of his contention. But he was earnest about the matter when he and I discussed it with Jane Wyman.

"I think it's a mistake to work a picture company six days a week," he expounded. "Everyone gets tired, having just one day a week off, and you can't do your best work."

Not only do the actors suffer by not looking or feeling their best, he said, but crew members as well. He cited many who travel long distances to hideaway resorts after work is over Saturday night, spend a strenuous Sunday of hunting, fishing and little sleep, and return to work weary-eyed.

Jimmy declared that producers could get just as much film in five days as in six, if methods were altered.

Alan Young will make it a Merry Christmas for any youngster who shows up at the city pound tomorrow. He'll pay the price of the dog, which average about $4, for any boy or girl who wants a dog. If enough kids take him up, the financial bite could be about $300.

Priscilla Lane is hunting for a house here, so it looks as though she is going to pursue her career in earnest again. . . . Cole Porter has finished his score for "The Pirate" and among the future hits are "Voodoo," "Mack the Black" and "Don't be a Clown". . . . Names: Rosemary Lane was back with Buddy Westmore at Tom Harmon's party for Elyse Knox. . . . John Payne, who was grounded in Ohio, got back here via a milk plane "which stopped at every airport between here and Columbus". . . . Dolores Moran, who comprises Benedict Boggs' contract, had, forget to bring her makeup kit to work one day. It was delivered by a man who said he was the "highest paid delivery boy in the world"—her husband, Benedict Boggs.

Seniors Stage Masquerade Ball Ads, Rags Win Dollar Prizes

"I think it's June." "No it's Betty." "It couldn't be a boy." "Just look at that skirt!"

These were some of the exclamations heard just after walking under the ladder and streamers of black crepe paper used as entrance for the senior All Saints Ball Friday night in the high school cafeteria.

The room was decorated with black and multi-colored crepe paper and balloons floated in the air. This costume masquerade brought many unique ideas from each one present.

The winning couples were Peggy McDonald and June Southwick as Haggedy Ann and Haggedy Andy, and Leona McClendon and James Niver as Goliath Dental Cream and Burma Shave.

The rag dolls gave the impression of hard work on their costumes as their clothes were patched and old shoes were used for their arms and legs.

Delegates Attend THSPA Meet

Jean Pratt, annual assistant editor, Beverly Baker, paper co-editor, and Miss Olive Carter, sponsor, recently attended the Texas High School Press Association meeting held in Denton at the Texas State College for Women.

The convention began with an "Open House" in the recreation room of the Union Building.

All the general assemblies were held in the science auditorium. At one of these meetings a motion picture of the history of "The Dallas Morning News" was shown and speakers furnished the program for the others.

Sectional meetings, which dealt with problems of the publications, were held in the science auditorium and the journalism building.

Some of the original females of PHS are also supporting the Yuletide spirit with their bells which they tie to various places on their apparel.

Johnnie Sue Hart always looks "chic" in her varied skirts and blouses which are usually accompanied by one of those fashionable wide belts.

Harbort Cox received many admirers in the "Hubba, Hubba" games while sporting his bright T-shirt. His yellow and gray one, however, just about tops all in brightness.

Patsy Miller's melon and white striped blouse caused many an "oh" and "ah." It was long sleeved, with a high neck accented by a bow.

Gloria Jay always deserves an appraising glance, for she is really up to the minute in her apparel.

Anne Mosley's black reindeer sweater is really a "dude" (new word for cute, hubba, etc.). It has red reindeer hither and yon and creates a darling novelty sweater.

"Scottie" (Betty Joyce, that is) really looked cute in an aqua sleeved sweater over a tailored white blouse. A beige skirt, aqua socks and black moccasins completed her attire.

Malcolm Douglas made a colorful appearance in a bright kelly green shirt while Jim Bill Windsor had on a bright red T-shirt.

The color combinations of the year were displayed in the auditorium last Wednesday, and it would take quite a lot to beat this beautiful attire.

Patsy Miller's melon and white striped blouse caused many an "oh" and "ah." It was long sleeved, with a high neck accented by a bow.

Gloria Jay always deserves an appraising glance, for she is really up to the minute in her apparel.

Anne Mosley's black reindeer sweater is really a "dude" (new word for cute, hubba, etc.). It has red reindeer hither and yon and creates a darling novelty sweater.

"Scottie" (Betty Joyce, that is) really looked cute in an aqua sleeved sweater over a tailored white blouse. A beige skirt, aqua socks and black moccasins completed her attire.

Malcolm Douglas made a colorful appearance in a bright kelly green shirt while Jim Bill Windsor had on a bright red T-shirt.

The color combinations of the year were displayed in the auditorium last Wednesday, and it would take quite a lot to beat this beautiful attire.

This concludes fashions for another week; but remember: what you wear today may be fashions tomorrow.

Gather Ye Rosebuds
By JEANNETTE COVERT-NOLAN

THE STORY: Major Cameron, veteran of the Last Campaign, is a man who believes the spirit of the Old South can never die. He scorns the Yankee town he lives in, hates dressing Spunky Mule tobacco, leads a dream existence where the vulgar question of money never obtrudes itself. Miss Amy, kindly wife and mother, never questions the value of her husband's life. Her only child, a beautiful, trusting Rose who has had a secret "adventure" with a stranger, young man; desirable Sidney, 16, who wonders why Ace Lintshaw stopped writing to her; Jeff, 22, whose ambitions to be a cartoonist are encouraged by Sidney; Beauregard, 10; and Hannah, 12. The year is 1910.

AN hour later, the Major saw in the glass a most resplendent image, shaven and shorn, perfectly groomed, slick as a whistle. He paid his bill (rather a disconcerting amount), tipped Joe, took his cane and went out, ascending to the street level. Here, under the grilled fretwork of the hotel's marquee, he stopped, simply to bask a moment in his feeling of cleanliness and well-being. He planted his feet wide apart, folded his hands on the knob of his cane, which made the third and balancing leg of a tripod, and stared dreamily off into space. Standing thus, he heard, after not many minutes, a prefatory cough and a voice behind him.

"Excuse me, sir, but aren't you Major Cameron?"
He turned and saw a man of middle age, dressed in good, dark clothes and wearing a black derby. The Major bowed. "I am William Cameron. But you have, I confess, the advantage of me. It is 'My name,' the man said, 'is Milgrim. Hubert Milgrim. And you could not be expected to know it, for we haven't met before. I asked Joe in the shop down there who you were, and he told me. Joe was, I may add, very laudatory in his remarks. I thought at once that you might be the gentleman who could, and would, give me some information I'm seeking. I am not a resident of Blakesville; my home is in Chicago. My card, sir."

The Major accepted the card and read its elegant engravings. "Ah," said the Major, and shook Mr. Hubert Milgrim's gloved hand. "Well, I am always ready to oblige a stranger to our little city." "Thank you," said Mr. Milgrim. "Perhaps you will step into the hotel with me, where we can talk at leisure?" Gesturing, he led the way into the St. George's somewhat garish foyer. "I am registered here. But wait, perhaps you will do me the honor of having a drink with me, in the bar?" "Ah," said the Major, and found himself swatted along beside Mr. Milgrim into the bar, down to the very end of the mahogany and into the shadow of some potted palms.

THE bartender came to attention with all the promptness of a jack-in-the-box. "What'll it be, Mr. Milgrim?" "My friend orders first," replied Mr. Milgrim, bowing toward the Major. "After you, sir." "Buttermilk," rumbled the Major. "Buttermilk," echoed Mr. Milgrim. The bartender's jaw slackened a little, but he produced from a spigot under the counter two brimming mugs of foamy, cold buttermilk. Mr. Milgrim spoke, with a really delightful informality, of the business which had brought him to Blakesville—and this pleasant moment. It was the oil business. No doubt the Major was familiar with the famous history of the Golden Eldorado oil well, located in Warrick County, just over the line from Blakesville? Well, Mr. Milgrim and his partner, Mr. Richard Breen, also of Chicago, had procured, by dint of prodigious trying, an option on a tract of land adjoining the Eldorado property. Moreover they had had the tract surveyed by geologists, who assured them that oil was plentiful beneath it as beneath the Eldorado's surface. But before they could even when you're positive it's there, is a suspenseful project and one in which you like to feel that you are not alone. With this phase of the matter in mind, the partners had decided to organize a company, and to divide the responsibilities, like the enormous profits, by shares.

"AND so," said Mr. Milgrim, rather suddenly, "when I saw you in the barber shop, Major Cameron, I resolved to beg your advice. If this all seems abrupt to you, let me tell you that I am an unsteady judge of character, and the minute I looked at you, I was convinced that you were capable, anyway, of advising Mr. Breen and me. I do hope that you will. Where, where in Blakesville is the citizen we're hunting?" As silence fell, the Major stroked his mustache tentatively. "This man would—um—be a capitalist, I suppose?" "Oh, not necessarily," said Mr. Milgrim. "No, he would have to invest nothing more than his name and his interest and his unimpeachable honor." "Well," said the Major slowly, clearing his throat, "it is just possible that I—I can suggest some—"

WALL STREET STOCKS
NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Stocks just about held their own or drifted to moderately lower levels in today's market which was one of the slowest of the month. Neither buyers nor sellers pressed their arguments and trends were relatively narrow throughout. Citations favored after a fairly active opening. A slight comeback was negotiated around noon but there was no follow through. Offerings again appeared in the final hour without creating any particular weakness. Small fractional shares continued to be sold in definite trends at the close. Transfers:

TEXAS TODAY
By JACK RUTLEDGE
AP Staff Writer
Here's one that baseball fans can kick around: James E. LaMore of Port Isabel was once quite a baseball player back in his native town of Newaygo, Mich., says Sports Editor Bill Bailey of the Evansville Herald.

One day when Newaygo was playing their hated rivals from Montague, in the semi-pro series championship, something happened that's hard to believe. But LaMore says it's true.

It was the final and deciding game. The score was tied in the ninth inning. Two were out, a runner on third, and a hard-hitting catcher for the Montague team was at bat. LaMore was playing right field. He backed up to get what he knew would be a healthy shot. Sure enough, the catcher connected and LaMore ran into position to nab the fly.

Down it came, down, down, down until it got almost to LaMore's glove. But just before it got there, a big Eagle snared the ball and took off for his nest. Bedlam broke out and supporters of both teams rushed the umpires, who couldn't find anything in the rule book to cover the situation. "To this day," says LaMore, "the game is undecided although all bets were called off."
